The Northville Record has been awarded second place in its circulation class in the annual state-wide Michigan Press Association General Excellence competition among weekly newspapers.

Measles Hits Northville Schools

Measles replaced the "flu bug" this week as known cases of the childhood disease jumped to 27 in the Main Street elementary school by Wednesday.

The "red spots" are hiding their time at the Amerman school, with no cases known as yet.

Kindergarten absences at Main Street school totaled 65 percent on Monday, with first grade at 38 percent.

Many cases are beginning with symptoms of a cold or "flu", with children breaking out several days after they first become ill.

According to Miss Mary DeWann, Wayne county public health nurse, a high frequency of measles may be expected among small children this year as the disease occurs in cycles and hasn't been prevalent the past several years.

Police Nab Suspect In Break-In Attempt

Fast work by Northville police resulted in the arrest of a Dearborn man Sunday less than 24 hours after an attempted break-in of a downtown jewelry store.

Only 3 Gas Stations Now Open Sundays

Nine Northville gas stations have agreed to take turns staying open on Sundays.

Starting this week end, only three stations will be open each Sunday. Hours will be from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. The three-week schedule:

First week — Vern and Morris Sinclair Service, Main street; Sid and Walt's Gulf, Main street; Shay Shell, South Main.

Second week — Feole and Asher Pure Service, South Rogers; Atchinson Gulf, Main street; Litsberger's Shell, North Center.

Third week — Russ' Mobil Service, Northville road; H and H Standard Service, Main street; Main Super Service (Pure).

The nine stations, plus Biddle's Garage on Seven Mile and West Seven Standard Service, also have announced that no more credit will be allowed on their own books starting Saturday. Company credit cards will be honored, however.

The suspect, a 26-year-old Kentuckian who arrived in Dearborn only last week, has admitted being in Northville at the time but denies the break-in attempt.

The case began at 9 a.m. Sunday when Harold Corbin opened his jewelry store at 126 North Center to find watches awaiting repair.

Corbin found several large holes drilled through the back door. A set of tools were found 10 feet from the door, as if the burglar had been surprised and fled.

Corbin reported the break-in attempt to police. Patrolman Ray Nowicki checked with patrolman Leonard Mazuchowski, who had been on duty that night.

Mazuchowski recalled questioning a man who was sleeping in a car in the parking lot behind the store. The man told him he was "sleeping off a few drinks" and asked him to go after taking down the car's license number.

A check with state police showed that the car was registered with a Dearborn woman. At the request of police chief Joseph Denton, Dearborn police investigated and learned her estranged husband had had the car the previous night.

Dearborn police finally apprehended the suspect and the car early Sunday afternoon.

Heavy gloves, in which were imbedded wood chips, and an expansion bit were found in the car.

(Analysis of the wood chips by Michigan State university later revealed that they "could have come" from the jewelry store door.)

The suspect was returned to Northville and questioned. He admitted the encounter with Mazuchowski the night before, but denied the break-in. He told police he knew nothing of the gloves or tools in the car.

As of Wednesday, the suspect had stuck to his story. Denton planned to seek a warrant today (Thursday). Meanwhile, the suspect is being held in the Plymouth jail.

The suspect, who formerly lived in Dearborn, admitted to Denton that he served 60 days in the Detroit House of Correction in 1953. He has Detroit police, state police and FBI numbers.

When Northville police are finished with their investigation, he will be turned over to Lincoln Park and Redford township police for questioning in connection with several recent cases of bad-check passing.

Denton said the suspect claimed he had returned from Kentucky to seek reconciliation with his wife.

Protests Bring New Delay In All Night Parking Ban

NEAR MISS — Northville jeweler Harold Corbin points to two large holes drilled in the door of his shop early Sunday morning in an attempted break-in. Patrolman Leonard Mazuchowski (left) holds a set of burglary tools found near the door and a Dearborn man has been arrested but denies the break-in.

Northville is having trouble enforcing its new all night parking ban.

The council ran into new difficulties with the ordinance Monday night as 25 citizens protested that the 2 to 6 a.m. no parking caused an undue hardship.

After hearing the protests Mayor Claude Ely ordered a committee study of complaints. He suggested that police continue issuing "courtesy tickets" until the matter is finally solved.

The city-wide all night parking ban became law January 17. It was initiated by the council to allow proper snow removal and street cleaning by its public works department.

Monday's meeting came after a delegation of businessmen appeared before the council last week seeking a change in the no parking hours. Mayor Ely designated Monday evening as a night to hear all complaints on the ordinance.

After a reading of the ordinance and explanation of its purpose by the mayor and councilmen, Leland Smith, president of the Retail Merchants association spoke on behalf of the restaurant and bar owners.

"I'm in sympathy with the ordinance and reasoning behind it, but hardships created on merchants should be corrected," Smith stated.

Smith asked that the ban be changed to two hours, between 3:00 a.m. and 5:00 a.m. He said that this would allow customer parking at bars not closing until 2:30 a.m. and also accommodate restaurants opening at 5:00 a.m.

Mayor Ely pointed out that there were two restaurants opening before 6:00 a.m. and only one that stayed open after 2:00 a.m.

Several other residents spoke out against the ordinance stating that Northville didn't have enough snow to require a parking ban.

Complaints from residents generally came because of lack of space for tenant parking or no space to provide a driveway or garage. The meeting stayed at a friendly level and broke into laughter when one young man complained that his "old man won't let me park in the driveway and the city won't let me park in the street."

"You have got a problem," said the mayor.

Bural Clark, 235 High street, won support from the audience with a recommendation for the city's street cleaning problem. "Do like the Wayne County Road Commission," he suggested. An employee of the county, Clark said that signs can be posted before sweeping streets to warn residents to remove their cars. In the case of snow removal he suggested "plowing around the cars."

Councilman John Canterbury suggested that the business district problem could be solved with a 2:30 until 5:00 a.m. ban. "This would also help bar owners who must see that patrons leave promptly at 2:30," Canterbury concluded.

Councilman Earl Reed suggested 3:00 to 5:00 a.m. hours in the business district to accommodate N & G restaurant which closes at 3:00.

Mayor Ely concluded the meeting by appointing Councilman Allen and Welch and the city manager to a study committee. He asked that they come up with a compromise solution.

Contract Dates Set For Expressways

Northville drivers will have a nearly all-expressway route into downtown Detroit within the next five years.

State highway commissioner John C. Mackie announced this week that Eight Mile is definitely on the books to be converted into an expressway from Grand River to Eight Mile.

Contracts are to be let in 1960, Mackie said.

At the same time, contracts will be let for a Northwestern extension of the John Lodge superhighway to Eight Mile.

When the two routes are finished, Northville drivers will have a free-way from Grand River and Eight Mile into downtown Detroit.

The future US-16 route along Grand River from Eight Mile to the Ambassador Bridge is not scheduled for contract letting at this time.

Mackie also announced this week that an 11 Mile expressway into Novi is also on the books. Contracts for the route, which will connect the present Farmington-Brighton and future Northwestern - John Lodge superhighway, will be let in 1960.

Mustangs Eye Revenge Victory

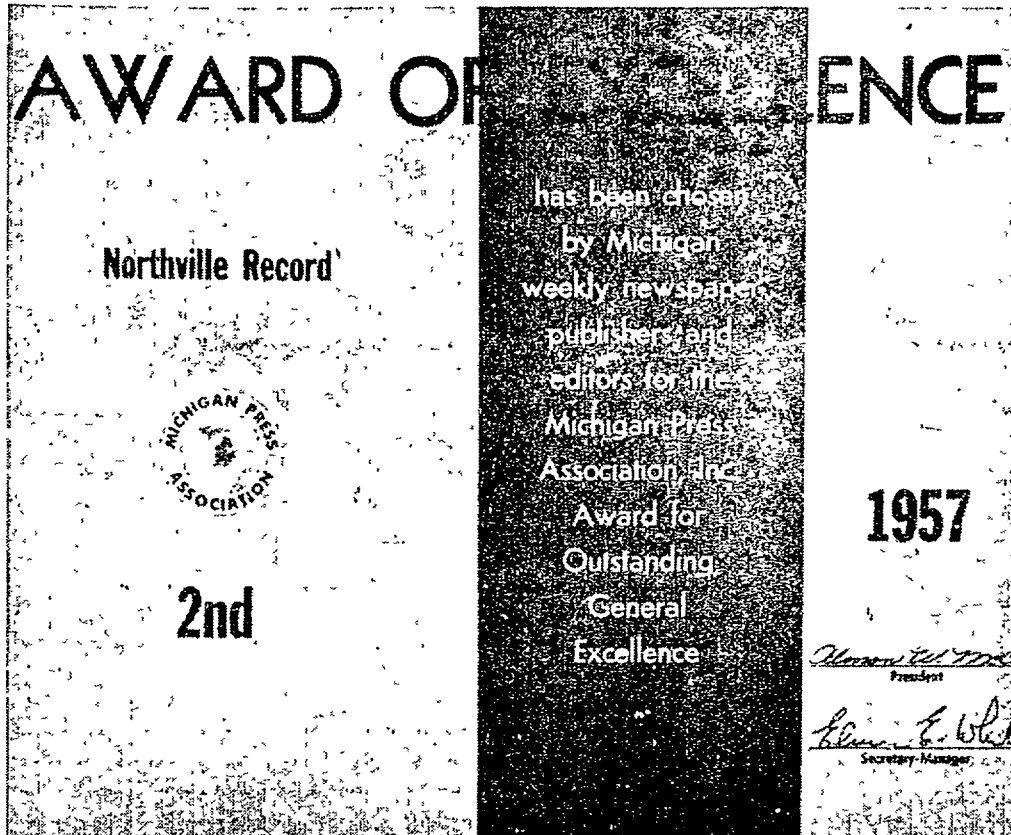

Northville will end its current five-game home stand tomorrow night against a rough Brighton squad that already boasts one win over the Mustangs this year.

After tomorrow night's game, the Mustangs will play only one more contest at the community building—a meeting with Clarenceville on February 14.

Next week and on the final four Fridays, Northville will be playing away.

Brighton upset Northville 46-43 earlier this season by slipping in a bucket in the final 26 seconds. The Bulldogs hit on 20 of 27 free throws to turn the trick.

Since then, they have built up a 4-3 record, and a win against 5-2 Northville would lift them into a tie for second place.

And Debaters Tie for Title

NHS Again Dominates All League Band

Northville high school has again dominated the 1958 all-Wayne-Oakland league band selections.

Northville musicians, competing with students from seven other schools, took 32 of 70 positions in the all-league band and captured 11 of 18 first chairs.

It was an improvement even over last year's record-setting performance in which Mustang musicians took 28 of 65 positions and 10 of 18 first chairs.

Tryouts for the all-league band were held January 18 and results were announced this week. Each student played behind a screen while judges scored them on a predetermined basis.

It is the third title that Northville high school has won this year. Others were in football and debate.

A total of 35 musicians — the biggest delegation present — tried out, and all but three made it. Those three were named either first or second alternate.

The band will present two concerts and two assemblies later in the year. Traditionally, one concert has been held in Northville but this year they will both be performed elsewhere.

The all-league band originated nearly 10 years ago under direction of Northville director Leslie Lee and Milford director Philip Hadriell. The two schools have dominated the selections since then.

The all-league bandmen, as announced by associate conductor Robert Williams were (number of competitors in parentheses):

Flute (13) — Sam Chizmar, 2nd; Sue Stroud, 4th; Julie Older, 6th. Oboe (3) — Carol Tabor, 1st; David Sprunk, 2nd.

B-flat clarinet (18) — Gary Wakemut, 2nd; Dick Drew, 5th; Lou Ann Comer, 8th; Diane Luchtman, 9th; Carla Johnson, 10th; Jim Hammond, 11th.

Alto clarinet (3) — Becky Kellogg, 1st; Karen Thibos, 2nd.

Bass clarinet (2) — Tucker Williams, 1st; Elsie Sedan, 2nd.

Alto sax (11) — Sharon Hensch, 2nd.

Tenor sax (4) — Tucker Williams, 1st.

Baritone sax (2) — Carol Lemmon, 1st.

Cornets (9) — Jeff Schoof, 1st (solo); Roberta Schroeder, 5th; Cecilia Newton, 6th.

French horn (8) — Betsy Merriman, 1st (solo); Marianne King, 6th; Dorothy Sutherland, 7th.

Trombone (10) — Mike Willis, 1st.

Baritone (7) — John Wortman, 1st; Brenda Sealey, 3rd.

Basses (8) — Ed Proctor, 2nd; Dale Schultz, 3rd; Harold Hartley, 4th; Harry Sedan, 5th.

Tympani (4) — Sarah Schroeder, 1st; Mary Hill, 2nd.

Snare drum (9) — Barbara Rollings, 2nd; Sarah Schroeder, 3rd; Retsy Starkweather, 4th; Mary Hill, 5th.

Bass drum (6) — Barbara Rollings, 1st.

Milford placed 22 students in the band, including seven first chairs.

SHARE DEBATE TITLE — Foreign aid was the subject, and debate coach Miss Florence Panattoni (center) saw her vaunted debaters, Marianne King, Becky Coleman, Lil Zinnecker and Sandy Strasen tie with Brighton for the Wayne-Oakland league title recently. Each school recorded seven wins and one loss. Miss Panattoni is chairman for the regional tournaments, which are scheduled to be held in Northville February 20. Junior varsity debaters are Charles Hix, Carol Tabor, Julie Older and Bob Niemi.

General chairman for the dance is Herbert Bissa. Taking charge of decorations is Bruce Turnbull, ticket chairman is Marshall Huff, and Dutch LeFevre is refreshment chairman.

Tickets for the dance will be available from any Men's club member, or may be purchased at Northville Electric, Northville Drug or John Chedrick's barber shop on North Center street.

Miss Knapp Asks Help for Goodwill

Miss Ruth Knapp of Northville, member of the Woman's Association of Goodwill Industries of Detroit, has announced an immediate need of an increased flow of home discards, especially clothing, by the organization.

She said that Goodwill now has the largest number of employees ever recorded for this time of year.

In addition to paying over a million dollars in wages to handicapped people during 1957, substantial additions were made in fringe benefits, including a $1,000 life insurance policy available to each employee without cost.

Persons in this area who have articles to contribute to Goodwill may call Mrs. Laura Ault, Greenleaf 4-4294, and a Goodwill truck will call for pick-up.

"American Heritage" Is Speaker's Topic

Scott Cole, scheduled speaker for the next meeting of the Northville Woman's club on February 7, will speak on "American Heritage" instead of his previously announced subject, "Japanese Art".

Mr. Cole recently instituted a program at Hillsdale college, where he is a faculty member, on "American Heritage". He is presently in Mexico City setting up an education program at the university there.

Because the World Day of Prayer falls on February 21, the Woman's club meeting will be held on February 28.

Entertaining at a luncheon Friday will be Mrs. Albert Spaeth of Dun-sany drive. Her guests will be Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. Howard Meyer, Mrs. James Cowie, Mrs. Robert Niemi, all of Northville, and Mrs. DuRay Stromback of Farmington.

State Hospital Psychiatrist Married in Greenfield Village

A ceremony at the Martha Mary chapel in Greenfield Village last Saturday united in marriage Dr. Lore Hirsch, director of the outpatient clinic at Northville State hospital, and Eugene Hesz of Birmingham.

The Rev. Tracy Pullman of the Unitarian Universalist church of Detroit performed rites during the candlelight ceremony.

Dr. Hirsch was attended by her sister-in-law, Senora Ines de Eulenburg de Hirsch, who came from Buenos Aires, Argentina for the occasion.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Berges, daughter of the bridegroom, and Miss Hedwig Remhardt of New York. Walter Hesz, the bridegroom's son, was best man. Ushers were Ernst Scheyer, Thomas Moldevano and Charles Hesz.

Dr. Hirsch, a resident of Dearborn for the last three years, is a well known lecturer on mental health. She recently was a speaker for the Northville Woman's club.

Mr. Hesz is an economist and investment broker with A. M. Kidder and company in Detroit. He is a consultant in marketing research for several industrial companies in this area.

After a honeymoon to the Bahamas, daughter of the bridegroom, hamas, Mr. and Mrs. Hesz will reside in Dearborn.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

The Rev. Peter Nieuwkoop, Pastor
First Baptist Church, Northville

GOD IS LOVE!

This is an enlightening scriptural fact repeated twice in the Epistle of First John, the fourth chapter. It is a precious truth little understood because of its profound depth.

A few weeks ago a U. of M. student won his exemption from the Armed Forces as a conscientious objector even though he was not a member of any organized religious group. He stated, "His God is Love. Love is a Supreme Being." He was right in the first statement but very wrong in the second. God is love, but love is not God.

In the first place, the teachers of Greek grammar tell us that the Greek grammar of this verse does not permit the reversal of this statement.

In the second place, love is not a person. Love is an emotion, it is an attitude, it is a behaviour. Though God is an invisible being He nevertheless is a real person that manifests Himself as the Father, as the Son and as the Holy Spirit.

What does "God is love" mean then? It means that God is love personified. He is so perfect in love that when one asks what love is, the reply is "God is love." If you want to know real love we should not look in a dictionary, or to experience, but to God.

Perhaps I can make this clear by a television announcement. In announcing the "This Is Your Life" program, the announcer says at times, "And here is the 'This Is Your Life' himself, Ralph Edwards!" Now what did he mean? He meant that Ralph Edwards was the heart and core of the entire program. It's a Ralph Edwards production. He plans it. He's the Master of Ceremonies. He is "This Is Your Life" personified!

Just so, God is love personified. Now the manifestation of God's love abounds everywhere. It abounds in the common graces of life: the air we breathe, the sunshine we enjoy, the food we eat, etc. But the greatest manifestation of God's love is when He condescends to be the Saviour of men who do not deserve to be saved.

Romans 5:7-8 says "For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet peradventure for a good man would even dare to die. But, God commendeth His love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners Christ died for us." How do we know that God is love and that He loves us? The answer is simple and plain. He became the Saviour to bear our sins that whosoever surrenders himself to Christ may have eternal life. God so loved the World—for example, you!

FINAL PAYMENT — Presbyterian Woman's Association treasurer Mrs. Andrew Burgess (right) presents a check for final payment of the First Presbyterian church mortgage to Mrs. Kalin Johnson, (l.) president of the board of trustees, while Rev. John O. Taxis looks on. The Woman's Association voted surplus funds to be used for the payment and the mortgage was burned at ceremonies last Sunday.

Church Path Cleared for Expansion

A stewardship campaign initiated last year to provide every member of the church an opportunity to be a part of its growth netted satisfying results to the First Presbyterian church of Northville recently.

Mortgage burning ceremonies held at the church last Sunday celebrated the final payment on a lien on the present church site. Final payment of $3,024.62 was made on January 14.

Another result of the stewardship campaign was a final payment of $500 on the West Main street parsonage of Rev. John O. Taxis and his family.

Rearranging the finances so that the mortgage was part of the regular church budget was one of the significant factors in paying the mortgage off so quickly according to Rev. Taxis.

"With the mortgage a part of the budget rather than separate," he said, "every member of the church and not a special few helped make us debt-free."

The "debt-free" position of the church is only a temporary one, however.

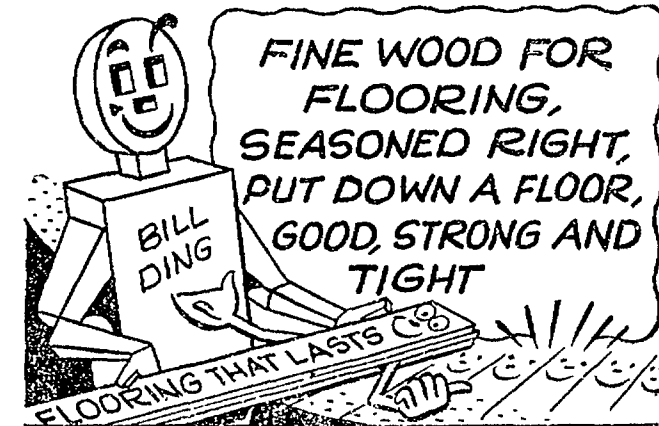

"This mortgage burning is not only symbolic of a job well done," Taxis said, "but more important, it is a key to future expansion of the church."

He explained that negotiations are now pending for acquisition of more property. Purchased recently was one lot, 118 Church street, adjoining the church.

The site will be used to further Christian education facilities of the church.

Almost triple growth in Sunday School membership and church attendance in the last three years has necessitated expansion plans.

Wolves 'Whistle' to Victory in Final Seconds

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD—Thursday, January 30, 1958—5

Northville's Mustangs had little trouble handcuffing the mighty Clarkston Wolves on the open court Friday night, but their fortunes were not quite as good in the battle of the foul lines.

The Mustangs nearly made a runaway of the game twice, but were stopped short both times by a sudden flurry of fouls and their own inability to score.

The second rash of fouls was Northville's undoing, and unbeaten Clarkston overcame a 45-38 lead in the last 3:12 minutes to edge the Mustangs, 49-45.

A furious crowd of Northville partisans nearly booed the two officials — Lou Bertson of Ann Arbor and Max Pierce of Plymouth — out of the community building during the frustrating last few minutes. But the Mustang coaching staff would not blame the defeat on the officials.

"It was our offense that did it," said coach Stan Johnston. "Defensively, we held them. But we couldn't cut across the clincher."

There was some salvation for the Mustangs, however. They led Clarkston until the final minute. They held the Wolves well under their 70-point average. They outscored Clarkston 36-28 from the floor. And they completely bottled up high-scoring Dick Lippert and Bill Niles.

But on the foul line, they netted only 9 of 18 free throws against 21 of 30 for the Wolves. Spunky Leroy Parks coolly put in 16 of 18 to ice the game.

The Wolves started fast, building up an 8-0 lead as Northville missed its first nine shots. Then Dick Biery drilled in three quick buckets from outside to narrow the first quarter margin to 12-9.

Early in the second quarter, Bill Yahne sank two free throws to put Northville ahead 14-13 — a lead the Mustangs held until the final minute except for three brief spurts by Wolves.

The Mustangs padded their lead to 24-20 by halftime. They outpointed Clarkston 12-2 from the floor, but the Wolves led in free throws, 6-3, to keep the score close.

Clarkston went ahead briefly in the third period, but the tough Northville defense soon forced the Wolves into offensive lapses and wild shots.

At the same time, with Bob Starnes and Fred Schwarze hawking the ball and Cap Pethers hooking impressively, the Mustangs built up a 35-28 advantage.

As the period ended, the officials brought a howl from Northville fans by calling a foul on Pethers after he tipped in a basket and bumped Parks on his way back down. Parks made the free throws.

The Mustangs again threatened to break open in the fourth quarter. Pethers was near unstoppable as he swished three hooks and passed to Starnes for a fourth. The margin quickly jumped to 45-38.

But the Northville scoring ended there. Great board work by Pethers and Yahne stopped the Wolves from the floor, but nothing could halt the free throw procession.

While Clarkston chipped away with one-pointers, the Mustangs tossed away what few chances they had to score. In less than four minutes, Clarkston had outscored Northville 11-0 to wrap up the game.

The officiating had fans from both schools protesting during much of the game. But in the last two quarters, most of the calls went against Northville.

Perhaps the most crucial decision came with the score tied 45-45 and one minute to go. Officials inexplicably gave Clarkston an extra time-out despite Northville's protests. The infraction should have given Northville a "one and one" free throw situation plus possession of the ball. But instead, the Wolves got both the time-out and the ball.

The rash of fouls saved Clarkston. They narrowed the 35-28 deficit to 37-36 on six free throws and only one bucket and made their final 11-point surge on five charity tosses and only three field goals.

Mustangs Aren't Out Yet; History Can Repeat Itself

Clarkston is now solidly in the driver's seat in the Wayne-Oakland race, but the Wolves would do well to remember that history sometimes repeats itself.

At this point, the league race is at the halfway mark and Clarkston sits on top with a 7-0 record and a perfect 9-0 season in the books. Northville is not too far behind with a 5-2 record.

A year ago, it was exactly the opposite story. Northville was on top with a 7-0 slate for the first half, and Clarkston trailed with a 5-2 record.

What happened then is sadly remembered around Northville. Holly handed Northville its first loss in 10 games, while Clarkston was winning all its remaining contests, including one against the Mustangs.

The result: Northville and Clarkston tied for the title with a 10-2 record.

The odds are long that it will happen again. But it could. West Bloomfield, for example, has the makings of a spoiler. And Brighton has had sparks of brilliance.

If only one team can give Northville an assist, the Mustangs might be able to do the rest.

There's little chance that Holly could grab a share of the title. The Broncos were polished off by Clarenceville Friday night to drop into a third place tie with Brighton and West Bloomfield.

THE BIG CULPRIT — Clarkston's Leroy Parks hurdles between Bob Starnes (left) and Dick Biery and nearly gets tripped. Parks, well-known in the league for his ability to pick up fouls, garnered enough to put in 16 points — nearly one-third of the Wolves' points.

The Coach's Corner

by STAN JOHNSTON

Northville High School Basketball Coach

We have reached the half-way mark in the league race and much to the disappointment of many, including the team and coach, we sit in a well-seated second place.

It is not what we expected at the start of the season. I never believed that we could go undefeated but on the other hand I never thought we would have lost two league games.

The team is ready to go into the last half of the season bent on winning the rest of the league games and looking forward to the tournaments in March. This year we will be in the Willow Run district against Milan, Carleton, Flat Rock and Willow Run.

We are not giving up on the chances of getting a share of the league title. It is not very conceivable that Clarkston will lose two more games to other league teams but there is a big chance of their dropping at least one and we could hit them for the other loss when we play them on the home court.

We came close but not close enough. Our inability to score on offense hurt us very much. Our defense against them was superb and I could ask for no better. I'm proud of the way the team played. We are going to work harder!

Novi Cagers Win; To Play Tomorrow

Novi scored its first basketball win of the year last week, downing Milford by a decisive 26-9 margin. Coach Gail Perkins' squad, playing its first year together, now has a 1-3 record.

Novi was led by Bill Challes, who bucketed 12 points in the game.

Novi was to meet Our Lady of Victory yesterday and will play Northville junior high tomorrow (Friday) after school in the Novi Gym.

Perkins urged basketball fans to turn out for the game.

OLV Wins Again

Our Lady of Victory defeated St. Norbert of Redford township Sunday as Bob O'Leary put in 11 points and Ken Skover sank 9.

A week before, Our Lady of Victory lost its first game of the year to St. Mary's of Wayne, 31-22. The cagers were to play Novi yesterday, and will take on Boysville next Sunday.

Ice Fishermen: Letter Your Shanty

Ice fishermen in Northville, Novi, Walled Lake and Wixom were warned this week that all shanties must be identified on the outside with their names and addresses in permanent two-inch letters.

The shelters must be removed before ice becomes unsafe.

Other regulations are listed in the 1958 guide to Michigan fish laws, available from license dealers or conservation department offices.

In Wixom Village:*Scouts Plan Busy Month

Mrs. Charles Ware — Market 4-1601

The regular monthly meeting of the executive committee of Cub Pack 118 was held January 21 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Nelson. Final plans were made for the January 28 pack meeting.

The boys have been invited to put on a program at the Wixom Civic association meeting February 6.

February 6 through 12 is Boy Scout week and residents are invited to drop in at the village hall to see the display the boys have prepared.

Plans are being made for a Blue and Gold banquet to be held February 25.

Boys between the ages of eight and 11 are invited to attend meetings and join the pack.

On Thursday, January 23 the New Hudson Edison warehouse was awarded the annual safety banquet at the Highland Manor. This is the tenth consecutive year that they have won this, which means that they have been accident free. Two years in a row it is considered very good. Earl Chappell, of Northville is foreman of the warehouse.

Ruth Madigan spent her week's vacation in bed with a dose of the flu.

Friday night guests of the Charles

Wares were Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Murphy of Garden City. On Sunday the Wares had as dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Walsh of Detroit and Mrs. Abigail Sullivan, also of Detroit. The occasion was Mr. Ware's birthday.

The annual meeting of the members of the First Baptist church of Wixom took place Wednesday evening, January 29 at the church basement with a pot-luck supper.

Howard Coe with his pack of boy scouts spent a week end recently at the Highland recreation area skating and tobogganing.

Friday evening guests of Don Brooks were Mr. and Mrs. Del Parson of Roseville, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kuitala of Clawson and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Brewer and two children.

On Sunday the Brooks drove to Battle Creek to visit with relatives. Sunday guests of the Harry Seuhrs were Mr. and Mrs. William Newbound and daughter, Laurie.

Mrs. Jess Birchard is suffering from a fractured knee cap suffered while skating.

All residents of Wixom are encouraged to attend the PTA meeting Thursday, January 30. Judge Moore of Pontiac will speak on juvenile delinquency.

Willowbrook...

David Ames of Mooringside celebrated his tenth birthday on Saturday the 18th. He had a party and attended a show with Teddy Bunker, Randy Caligiuri and Rolf Ames.

On Sunday, January 19, Karl and Marian Weiss of Mooringside had as dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cornila and their two children from Dearborn.

Robert and Saralee Miller served a pot-luck dinner on January 18 at their Willowbrook Drive home. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Maxson of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. William Joyce of Oak Park and Mr. and Mrs. D. Stewart of Birmingham.

Patrick Killen of Malott celebrated his third birthday on January 11. Tom Needham of McMahon was home for a few days from his electrical construction job in Youngstown, Ohio. While he was home, they had as a house guest, Paul Miller of Escanaba.

Errol and Vi Myers of Border Hill entertained Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brown of Detroit Friday evening. Saturday, they served dinner to Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Terrie of Detroit. Seventeen years old today is David Keith of Malott.

Don and Dorothy Richmond of McMahon celebrated their 11th wedding anniversary on Saturday. They went to see "Waltz of the Toreadors" at the Shubert and dined out afterwards.

Vince and Eileen Miklas of LeBost and Bud and Virginia Barnes of Mooringside saw Michigan Tech's hockey team beat Michigan at Ann Arbor. They then visited the Elks club in Ann Arbor.

The Thursday night bridge club met at Jean McClelland's home on East LeBost. Nancy Milliken had the high score for the evening and Jean Cromer came in second. A guest player, Nora Blackwell, won the consolation prize.

BIRTHS

The car was found parked in Detroit.

Bishop to Conduct Confirmation Service

The Right Reverend Richard S. Emrich, Ph. D., S.T.D., Seventh Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan, will conduct the service of holy confirmation at St. John's Episcopal church, South Harvey at Maple avenue, Plymouth, at a special service on Sunday at 4 p.m.

The Rector, the Rev. David T. Davies will present a class of 28 persons to receive the Laying on of Hands in Apostolic fashion.

The Bishop will preach the sermon.

Following the service, a reception will be held in the church hall to enable the Bishop to greet each member of the class personally as well as to afford the parishioners an opportunity to greet the Bishop. Arrangements for the reception will be handled by Mrs. Robert C. Utter and Mrs. Gustav Phillips.

Minister, Student Tour New York

A Northville minister and youth leader were in New York and Washington this week as part of a state-wide seminar on the United Nations and international relations.

Rev. Paul Cargo, pastor of the First Methodist church, and Harry Sedan, a member of the church's Methodist Youth Fellowship, were among more than 50 students and adults attending the week-long journey to the two cities.

Rev. Cargo is director of the tour, sponsored by the MYF's committee on peace and international relations. Sedan was selected to represent the local district because of his service as president of the Northville MYF last year and a member of the district board this year.

The group left Detroit Sunday and toured the United Nations building Monday. After conferences with UN officials that afternoon, they toured Manhattan sights and visited several television programs.

On Wednesday, they visited the new national headquarters of the Fellowship on Reconciliation in New York and enroute to Washington.

There they will meet with officials of the AFL-CIO and Women's International League for Peace and Freedom. Today they are to tour the Capitol building, sit in on sessions of the house and senate, and meet with congressmen.

TAXES BRING PROTESTS

To the Editor:

In my position as the Northville Township Treasurer I am in direct contact with the taxpayer and get their reaction to the 60 percent (and in some instances a great deal more) increase in taxes this year.

The tax roll increased from $123,619.08 in 1956 to $221,761.86 this year. In 1956 the Northville Public School share was $77,672.46. In 1957 their share is $136,902.15. The southeast part of the township is in the Plymouth Community School District. Their share in 1956 was $12,214.98 and in 1957 it was $23,525.66.

These figures are based on total collection of roll. The school percent of the tax dollar is about 73 percent. The complaints are many and in a number of cases taxes are paid under protest. The taxpayers are not against the schools, but as they put it in words, the frills that are going into all the schools of today.

They wonder where it will end as regarding the tax situation. They ask if taxes will be higher next year. I am sure I don't know but there will undoubtedly be considerable bond interest to be met.

I am sure from talking with the taxpayers that any higher taxes will surely slow up business and development in both city and township. I surely wish I knew the answer to the problem.

Roy M. Terrill,
Township Treasurer

MORE COMMENTS ON NOVI SCHOOL

To the Editor:

Months have passed since a record breaking five and half day notice to the Novi citizens calling for an election on a school bond issue which was approved by a select group of citizens.

The school board, after crossing many hurdles, is now about ready to go ahead with the construction of the new elementary school in Willowbrook Village. Thanks to the board for their courageous accomplishment — but an accomplishment that can not go on record as an honorable one. I am still waiting for the school board's reply on my request for a recount. I still feel that an injustice was done toward our citizens. There will always be a doubt in my mind and the minds of others. Why was the school board fearful towards a recount?

If it can be remembered from a previous article, I said then that the school should be built in the vicinity of the Lincoln plant and not in Willowbrook Village. Well, it looks like 2,000 homes will be constructed in Lincoln Village in the next seven (7) years, but no building is in sight for Willowbrook Village.

Herbert Koester —
Novi.

SPEAKING

for the Record

By BILL SLIGER

The Record came out "second best" last weekend at the annual awards for General Excellence among Michigan's weekly newspapers.

According to the judges' remarks, we missed by a "pica" (one-sixth of an inch on a printer's rule) being named tops in our circulation class.

Top honors went to the Tecumseh Herald, a publication only recently taken over by co-publishers from Ohio.

Naturally, it's somewhat disappointing to score a near miss, but second place is still very much appreciated.

The awards are made by the Michigan Press Association which has 305 weekly newspaper members and all of the state's 56 dailies.

Details of the awards appear in a story on page one. But here we'd like to point out that a newspaper in its completed form and at its destination (in the hands of the reader) is an accumulation of many components.

Obviously our entire office and shop crews deserve high praise for their outstanding work. Each one has shown an earnest desire to make our paper the best that we can produce within our capabilities and facilities.

Beyond this, however, we'd like to thank the merchants, news correspondents, and organizations and persons submitting news items. Their advertisements, news stories and letters help make "The Record" a better newspaper.

We'll continue to do our part and hope that you will, too. And next year . . . well, who knows? A pica isn't very much to overcome.

We missed most of the Press Association convention over the week end but managed to attend Saturday's sessions. The All-Michigan dinner Saturday featured its usual array of state-produced products.

An added attraction, and featured speaker, was Mrs. Jules Lederer. Not produced in Michigan, she's still some dish and better known to her readers as Ann Landers.

Her "advice" column is carried by some 160 newspapers and keeps four secretaries busy reading 5,000 letters a month. The petite Miss Landers charmed her audience and also her table companion, Governor Williams.

Some interesting quotes from Miss Landers speech: nearly 50 percent of the letters she receives come from men; money is the most over-rated product . . . trouble knows no class; most divorces could be avoided . . . longer courtships would help because after knowing one another better, many couples would never marry.

And finally Miss Landers gave an example of the typical "crank" letter. It goes something like this:

Dear Miss Landers:

My mother and father were unwed, my sister is an alcoholic, my grandmother is in prison for armed robbery. My older brother is the editor of a Michigan newspaper.

I am about to become married. Now, Miss Landers, my problem is this: how am I going to tell my future husband about my older brother?

Roger Babson

Can We Protect Economy

Babson Park, Mass. — It is not my place to discuss politics in this column. Most of us are Republicans or Democrats according to where we live or how we were trained as children. This means that the birth rate will largely be the deciding factor under a democracy.

Democracy and Economics

This further means that democracy, with everyone having a vote irrespective of character or education in government, is crazy and cannot long continue. There must be a shakedown sometime and a return to the republic which Washington, Franklin and Hamilton established in 1788. We have drifted far away from our original ideals.

I am, however, allowed to discuss economics in this column. Let me start by saying that no one knows what will be the effect on business and investments of the "unemployment cushions" which have been devised to prevent another real depression.

Some Unanswered Questions

Will the insurance of bank deposits prevent a money panic when banks begin to fail? Will unemployment insurance give confidence to business and the stock market when millions are idle and walking the streets? Can employers be forced to employ people at a loss? In short, will these laws which businessmen and investors are counting on really work?

I am not disputing the ability of these new laws to do some good. They will relieve much suffering and encourage some consumer buying; but will they create confidence, or will they, instead, make business more fearful? No one knows. These "pacifiers" have not yet been tried. No true business depression has occurred since these "humanitarian" laws were enacted. My point: this week is to emphasize that no one knows whether existing legislation will create confidence or increase fear.

Reducing Stock Market Margins

Let us consider the recent reduction of stock market margins from 70 percent to 50 percent. This was done by Washington to make it easier to buy stocks; but stocks are very different from food. We buy food to eat; but we buy stocks to sell at a profit.

Instead of increasing confidence in stocks, this action by well-meaning Washington bureaucrats has frightened investors who fear that the real inside conditions may be worse than the public expected. Therefore, this act, at this time, has done more harm than good. Now what will be the effect when the various other palliatives are put into force? They will relieve hunger; but will they cause investors to buy stocks or automobiles? I don't know—and no one else knows.

What About Economic Laws?

Economic laws can be temporarily ignored; but they cannot be long ignored. Economic forces cannot be seen; but neither can electric forces be seen. Even now, no one knows what electricity is, where it comes from, why it travels, or where it goes. Yet, we all use electricity continually. Economic forces are just as powerful even though they cannot be seen. For Congress to try to ignore them is like legislating that "2 plus 2 must hereafter make 5."

Almost every Congressman believes in his heart that the present regulation of farm prices is a mistake. They believe that Secretary Benson is basically right, but they dare not say so for fear of losing the farmers' vote. What the ultimate result will be, no one knows. Some say these artificial prices will finally end our present form of government. We dare not say so because neither I nor anyone else

Predict Hot Session On Labor Legislation

FRINGE ISSUES before the 1958 legislature have developed an importance all their own while the state of the state's finances form the core of knotty problems.

While the budget will need extra millions to keep the state from bankruptcy, other issues are multiplying.

There is a chance that labor legislation — the right to work issue — will become one of the hottest of the session.

Senator Robert E. Faulkner (R-Coloma), chairman of the Senate labor committee already is planning a bill to require unions to incorporate.

The bill is simple, as are most of the vocal issues of the day.

But it would place unions under the same restrictions that manufacturing and business corporations have. Regular audits, government controls and taxes all are part of the controls.

The touchiest would be the ban against any corporation making a contribution to a political party or candidate.

Republicans, Democrats and union leaders all predict this would mean the end of the CIO-PAC and other labor groups.

Significantly, labor has generally favored Democrats. Republicans claim further that Democrats and unions used each other to gain power in Michigan and share control of state government.

The right-to-work law, now in effect in Ohio and other states, would end the union shop.

No man could be required to join a union to keep his job.

Labor leaders call this the ultimate in "union busting". Its advocates call it a "right". It is certain to develop a sizzling battle in Michigan, if introduced.

Democrats will work to get a $50-a-week minimum benefit for unemployed workers and those injured and incapable of working.

SPEED LIMITS on county roads will be another issue this session.

The 65 mile-an-hour speed limit during the day and the 55-mile-an-hour ceiling at night in effect for two years is too high, some say.

When the original law was passed, officers said it would not be adequately enforced on county roads.

Now, with the accident and death rates climbing each month on county roads, the demand for a speed limit is growing.

LICENSE PLATES will be another issue, this one touching only indirectly on the financial issue.

Secretary of State James M. Hare is proposing that, starting in 1959, the state issue a plate good for three years, with metal tags for the next two years.

Hare said the program would cost an extra $70,000 the first year, but over the three-year span, would save something like $300,000.

The money would be both spent this year and saved over the three-year span from highway construction money — a separate matter from the problems with the deficit-bound general fund.

REPUBLICANS and Democrats are racing the clock and each other on the civil rights issue.

Michigan now has the Fair Employment Practices Commission to work against discrimination based on race, creed, color, religion and national origin in job-finding.

The state also has a series of laws prohibiting discrimination in public places, restaurants, hotels, motels, taverns and other businesses and services.

Republicans proposed last summer that the commission be expanded to scope to handle the civil rights program.

Gov. Williams, in his message to the legislature, proposed the same thing.

EDUCATION has its champions on both sides of the aisle this year.

Rep. Willard I. Bowerman (R-Lansing) has proposed a $100,000 bond issue for college and university buildings. Rep. George W. Salade (R-Ann Arbor) proposed a purpose.

Senator John B. Swainson (D-Detroit) proposed a $250,000 fund for college and university scholarships, to help needy and deserving students meet the soaring costs of education.

Cub Pack 721 to See Big Game Slides

Colored films of big game hunting expeditions into British Columbia and the Yukon will be shown members of Cub Pack 721 at their monthly meeting Monday night.

The slides will be presented by Ray Koeppinger of Koeppinger Bakeries. The hunting trips were taken in recent years by Koeppinger and he will narrate the action.

The meeting will be held at 7:15 p.m. at the VFW hall. Bob Hunter is Cubmaster of Pack 721.

Shrine's 'Big Top' Coming Monday

The famous annual Shrine Circus opens next Monday at the State Fair Coliseum in Detroit and will run through February 16.

The Shrine Circus still ranks as one of the world's greatest indoor shows. Internationally famous circus stars and a large assortment of animals are packed into three and one-half hours of continuous entertainment.

The show again stars Clyde Beatty, the wild animal trainer, and features spotlight aerial, riding, acrobatic, teeter-board, balancing, high swaying pole and ladder acts.

CLAIMS DRAIN WASTES WATER

To the Editor:

I own a few acres in the swamp between Nine and 10 Mile road which is now getting drained by the Garfield Drain. There's roughly 1 1/2 square miles of swamp. I bought the land because of the swamp, and had a spot about 50'x300' deepened for a pond. I think the land looks more interesting with water around.

Now I'm getting taxed $80 or so a year for alterations to my property against my wishes. I should have better opportunity to defend myself. (I'm speaking of the right and wrong of it, and I don't know what the law says.)

When Detroit Edison wants to tap land for their high wires, they pay a couple of calls and pay a price too. The bureaucrats didn't think it was necessary to get approval from taxpayers — a good example of private vs. socialistic enterprise.

Remember Michigan's forests? They were cut and burned away, and even some of the soil was destroyed. Now water is getting to be another critical resource, for when population increases, water decreases.

People in Michigan have so much water they have lost sight of its value. With the western states planning to go to Canada or the Great Lakes for water in the near future, Michigan is in a favorable situation for dealing with them. Why don't we conserve our water in the meantime?

The word "drain sounds beneficial and good, but I think draining can be bad. Water is a valuable commodity and should not be wasted at the whim of anyone. Any temporary value from altering the watershed should not be considered. Industry is going to be regulated as to the use of water; why not the individual whose collective use of it amounts to much more? Perhaps there are points in law that should be re-written concerning drainage.

Water in high places like this swamp is especially valuable. If left alone, it soaks the ground and maintains the water table — which is necessary to feed springs and wells for miles around. If people in Northville realized that this swamp helps fill "Northville Silver Spring" they would be interested.

Are we going to be a future China — a grand past but no present or future, because of our disregard for conservation?

Then, too, our subdivision lots are too big, and everyone wants to have a big lawn. Wouldn't it be nice to have a "God's country" in your own backyard, with all the wild life it gathers, instead of the racket of machinery and the useless work that a lawn takes? You'd be a conservationist instead of a waster.

I won't be surprised to get another whopper of a tax bill in some not too distant time, for drawing water from Lake Huron after we speed this water into Lake Erie.

The Chicago water "steal", whereby Chicago wants to tap the Great Lakes, is not so bad. The place to stop the "steal" is right here at home.

The Garfield Drain project should be left standing where it is. It would be much more sensible and profitable.

EVERYONE JOINED THE MARCH — When Joseph (above) and John Manica put up collection cards spelling out "Join the March of Dimes" recently, they didn't realize that patrons of their bar would respond as quickly as they did. But in less than a week, the cards were filled with 687 dimes and another individual card was loaded with about 120 more — for a total of more than $80 for the polio fund.

Northville Chaplain At Madonna College

The Catholic chaplain at three Northville institutions will join the sociology faculty at Madonna college in Livonia for the coming semester.

He is Rev. Francis J. Wojcik, chaplain at Maybury sanatorium, Detroit House of Correction, and the Wayne county training school.

Father Wojcik has a masters degree in social science from the Catholic University of America, and taught at Sacred Heart seminary for 14 years.

Rev. John Wittstock, pastor of Our Lady of Victory church in Northville, has already begun bi-weekly services as special confessor and spiritual director of the students.

Three new courses have been added to the Madonna curriculum for the coming semester: an English seminar, a course in home management, and a journalism course in advertising.

Scout Conference Is Next Thursday

A Northville boy scout will be examined by a scout board of review to determine whether he has qualified for the God and Country award at the Protestant faiths scouting conference next Thursday.

He is Jon Batzer, member of Troop N-5 sponsored by the First Presbyterian church of Northville. The award is given to scouts who qualify by service to their church and by completing a course of religious instruction.

The conference will be held at the Rosedale Presbyterian church in Livonia with Rev. Woodrow Wooley as host. It begins at 7:30 p.m.

Ministers and representatives of all the Protestant churches in Northville, Plymouth, Livonia and Garden City have been invited to attend the conference. The purpose of the conference is to create more and sounder relationships between the Protestant churches and the scouting movement.

Richard Hansz of Livonia, chairman of the church relations committee, is general chairman of the conference. Assisting him will be Roy Stone of the First Methodist church of Northville, Sid Strong of St. John's Episcopal church of Plymouth, and Thomas Haw of Garden City's First Baptist church.

Students Save With U.S. Stamps

Since December 5, 1957, when the local school sale of United States Savings Stamps started for the 1957-58 school year, the pupils of Amerman and Main Street schools have purchased $450.40 worth of stamps.

The sale of stamps is sponsored by the Northville Parent-Teachers association.

The special committee appointed to supervise and conduct the sale of stamps is headed by Mrs. Donald Severance. Other members are Mrs. Richard Juday and Mrs. Stuart Thompson. Assisting the committee in the sales each Thursday morning at the schools are Mrs.

George Mellen, Mrs. Robert Dixon, Mrs. Clifford Winter, Mrs. James Cowie and Mrs. Stuart Campbell.

Harry Smith and Richard Kay, principals of the Main street and Amerman schools, are assisting by distributing literature; and keeping the necessary financial records for the committee.

The complete records of sales by schools to date are $252.55 for the Main street school and $197.85 for the Amerman school.

Total sales of stamps last week were $96.55 for the Amerman school, and $82.95 for the Main Street school.

Students Warned Against Cussing

There is a new policy for male students at the University of Connecticut — "No Cussing!"

The assistant director of student personnel, in charge of men's affairs, has announced, according to the daily press, that any student under 21 reported to the office of men's affairs for the use of profane or vulgar language will be suspended.

Think of the very low standard of morals prevailing in the average home, grammar school, and high school. When it is possible for a person to spend years in them — and even enter University without abandoning the evil habit of using profane and vulgar language!

Among the first commandments to be taught a child is: "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain." (Exodus 20:7).

It is not necessary to rob a bank or commit a murder in order to be reckoned a guilty sinner before God. Just use the Lord's name in vain, and He will hold you guilty.

Think of the tremendous amount of guilt on the soul of an inveterate swearer — at the very time that he imagines himself to be a very respectable person!

Forgiveness for cursing, like other sins, must come THROUGH the Saviour.
