

City and Schools Meet to Discuss Mutual Problems

School and city officials met in a three-hour session last week to discuss mutual problems, mostly arising from construction of the North Center street high school.

The meeting, held in the board of education offices, helped outline plans and timing of projects to provide water, sewer, sidewalks and other service facilities in the area of the high school.

Specifically, the school board asked the city to provide a water line along the western boundary of the high school site. The line will provide water for the school's athletic facilities and also lead to the new Northville Heights subdivision.

Storm drains and sanitary sewer facilities from the high school were also discussed (see story on sewer bids elsewhere). The school board agreed to pay $25,087 as its share of the project.

In other matters the officials touched upon improvement of North Center street and other site roads to provide proper access to the new high school.

They briefly discussed the Community building, currently being used on a lease basis by the schools. School officials indicated that preliminary steps had been taken by the board to determine whether state approval for purchase of the building could be obtained.

City and school committees are scheduled to study the matter jointly before calling another general meeting to determine the future status of the building.

Officials of both groups were enthusiastic over the progress made at the meeting. The session, chaired by board president Nelson Schrader, was attended by superintendent Russell Amerman, principal Elroy Ellison and members of the school board.

The city was represented by mayor Claude Ely, councilmen and the city manager, engineer and attorney.

Services Planned For Former Resident

A well-known Northville attorney who had made his home in Northville for 40 years passed away Tuesday in Detroit at the age of 85.

Frederick J. Cochran, who made his home on Eight Mile road until six years ago, died at the Arnold Convalescent hospital. He was born in Parma, Michigan.

Surviving is a daughter, Mrs. Carl Peterson of Ann Arbor. Mr. Cochran's wife preceded him in death in 1952.

He was a member of the First Presbyterian church of Northville and was also a Mason.

Funeral services will be held today (Thursday) at 2 p.m. from the Casterline Funeral home. Rev. John O. Taxis of the First Presbyterian church will officiate.

Clarify Report Of X-Way Plan

Last week The Record erroneously stated that Eight Mile road is on the books to be converted into an expressway "from Grand River to Eight Mile."

The statement should have read "from Grand River to Northwestern highway."

The project, planned to begin in 1960, will give Northville motorists an all-expressway route from Grand River and Eight Mile into downtown Detroit.

No expressway is scheduled between Northville and Grand River, but work on the Eight Mile cutoff north of Northville is slated to begin later this year.

Board Studies Youth Curfew

Youngsters in Novi township may soon face a curfew.

The township board is now considering an ordinance that would require children under 16 to be off the streets by 10 p.m. unless accompanied by their parents or guardians.

The curfew, similar to that in many Detroit area communities, is designed primarily to crack down on groups of out-of-town toughs who have invaded Novi at night during recent summers.

The board noted that the curfew would be applied tentatively in such cases as Novi youngsters returning home after basketball games and other school functions.

Schools May Have To Borrow Again

Familiar financial troubles are in the air for the Northville school district again as the board of education received word from superintendent Russell Amerman Monday night that, expected state aid payments for January and March may not be available until April.

A resolution was passed by the board Monday permitting Amerman to obtain necessary application forms allowing the school district to borrow money against future state aid payments.

The board found itself in the same difficultly last year when it was forced to issue $50,000 in tax anticipation notes.

Amerman hastened to point out that city and township tax collections may be sufficient to meet payrolls.

In other business, the board heard an annual report on the condition of the school bookstore and approved recommendations by LaGene Quay, teacher in charge, that the high school bookstore be divorced completely from the elementary book program.

Henceforth all elementary school book supplies will be handled directly by elementary school principals.

In other matters the board — heard a report from curriculum committee chairman William Crump that the junior high school study is nearly finished and will soon be ready for presentation to the board;

— heard a report from superintendent Amerman on matters that will soon have to be acted upon by the board, the 1958-59 budget, teachers' contracts, etc.;

— heard a report that Dr. Kenneth MacLeod, administrative assistant, has nearly completed a record of school board policies made since 1930, and is now working on a gifted child program in the elementary school and on guidance, testing and counseling in the high school;

— approved sending one elementary school principal to the National Education Association elementary principals' conference in Philadelphia March 23 through March 26.

Assisting Stubbenvoll on the local level will be Dr. T. G. Hegge, Dr. V. G. Chabot and Philip Ogilvie.

The month-long campaign seeks funds to aid crippled children and adults. It helps them find medical care, vocational services and recreational opportunities.

In addition, the Easter Seal Societies news center is available for meetings and operates a day camp. Group and individual counseling sessions for handicapped children are also being expanded.

The Easter Seal Society of western Wayne county is one of over 1,600 affiliates of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Break-In Suspect Is Held For Trial

A prime suspect in the attempted break-in of Corbin's jewelry store in Northville last week is being held in Wayne county jail on $1,000 bond.

Arrested shortly after the break-in attempt on January 24, the suspect has denied any connection with the crime.

He was arraigned in Northville last Thursday and was examined Monday, pleading not guilty to the charges.

Trial date in Wayne county circuit court will be set later.

The suspect, a 36-year-old Kentuckian moved to Dearborn, admits being in Northville that night. He acknowledged that he had been sleeping in a car parked behind the jewelry store, and admits being questioned at the time by patrolman Leonard Mazuchowski.

But he insists that he was only "sleeping off a few drinks" and that he left Northville shortly after encountering Mazuchowski.

Wolves Lose, NHS Hopes Up

Northville bounced right back into a challenging position in the Wayne-Oakland race Tuesday night.

While the Mustangs were outlasting West Bloomfield, Brighton handed the powerful Clarkson Wolves their first loss of the year in a 69-61 thriller.

Northville now is breathing down Clarkson's neck with a 7-2 record against the Wolves 8-1 record.

The two teams will collide on February 28 in the final and now most important game of the year for both teams.

Meanwhile, Northville faces three games in the next eight days. The Mustangs meet Clarenceville here tomorrow night in their final home

Novi Parents Seek To Join Northville Recreation Program

A growing number of Novi parents were reported this week to be disturbed by the possibility that their children will be without a recreation program this summer.

A delegation now plans to approach the Novi township board at its next meeting to request some solution to the problem.

"We don't see why the board cannot contribute to the Northville recreation program so that Novi children can take part in it again this summer," said Mrs. Richard Ritter, 26201 Taft.

Nearly 100 Novi youngsters took part in the extensive program last year.

The program, considered a model of its type, includes a day camp for youngsters, organized baseball and softball, arts, crafts, daily swimming trips to Whitmore lake, basketball and skating in the winter, and such special events as Detroit Tiger games, police field day, and trips to the Detroit zoo.

The entire program has been offered free to Novi children for several years.

But the Northville recreation committee has notified the board that it can no longer offer the program to Novi free of charge.

Director Stan Johnston told the board last summer that nearly 15 percent of the children in the program come from Novi, and that the committee now wants Novi to contribute 10 percent of the $10,000 annual budget.

"It's not fair for Northville and Northville township to pay recreation costs for Novi," Johnston said. "We like having Novi children in the program," he added, "but it takes at least one extra supervisor and considerable equipment to handle that many children — and they cost money."

The board was sympathetic but turned Johnston down on the advice of attorney Anthony Renne. Renne said the board has no legal right to contribute to an outside organization, and added that the program draws youngsters primarily from Willowbrook, rather than from the entire township.

The issue remained dormant until Monday night when Mrs. Ritter's husband asked the board to reconsider its policy.

"There are no recreation facilities here," he said, "if the board doesn't pay $900 or so for recreation, it had better plan on spending $4,000 for an extra policeman to watch the kids."

Ritter himself has worked out an agreement to allow Novi youngsters to play in the Northville basketball league. He himself transports them to games, and has managed to get uniforms.

"But we can't even get the Novi community building except from 3 to 5 p.m. on Sunday afternoons," he said.

Renne again advised the board that it should not contribute to the program, citing statutes to back up his stand.

On Tuesday, The Novi News questioned Renne about a passage from a manual on Michigan township law published by experts at Michigan State university. It read:

"Townships can join with other units of local government to operate recreational systems and playgrounds, or cooperate in any manner mutually agreeable. If they wish, any or all of them may set up a recreation board and appropriate money to that board for recreation purposes. Recreation areas may be located anywhere within or outside the township."

The passage was fully footnoted with references to Michigan statutes and common law decisions.

Renne felt, however, that the passage still did not cover the Novi-Northville situation since Novi has no recreation commission to authorize a contribution.

appearance, then journey to Bloomfield Hills next Tuesday and to Holly on Friday.

The Mustangs put on one of their most dismal showings of the season Tuesday against West Bloomfield.

Until Dick Biery iced the game with three breakaway lay-ups in the final 45 seconds, West Bloomfield was in the ball game.

The Lakers led until just before the half, as Northville's shots skidded in and out of the bucket time and again.

The Mustangs found the range in the third period and built up a nine-point lead at one time. But West Bloomfield held on, thanks to some unstoppable drive-ins by John Lucadam, and managed to narrow the difference to five points with 2:00 to go in the game.

Then came Biery's clinching baskets.

Defensively, Northville played its usual good game. The Lakers seldom got more than one shot at the basket.

Busy Building Year Ahead As City OK's Sewer Plans

TRIPLE TROUBLE — Both legs in casts and a case of measles were the plight of Pamela Kloeck this week. Seven-year-old Pam underwent surgery on both legs recently and was hardly home from the hospital a week when the measles paid a visit. Many friends and classmates from Miss Grace Pollock's class at Main street school have kept her spirits high with get-well greetings, however. Pam is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kloeck of West Nine Mile road.

Mothers March Nets More Than $1,000

More than a thousand dollars was collected by Northville mothers during their annual march on polo last Wednesday night.

The exact total was $1,144.72, collected from neighbors who turned on their porchlights from 7 to 8 p.m.

The local polo bowling tournament, held at Angie's Northville Lanes, netted a total of $200. Final totals from canister collections, student council peanut sales and dance, and other school contributions have not yet been tabulated.

"The mothers march total for 1957 was higher than this year's," said chairman Mrs. J. W. Reynolds, "but we are still gratified that we collected as much as we did with present economic conditions." Nearly $1500 was collected in 1957.

Wayne county totals are approximately $362,000 from Mothers March collections. Householders who were not at home, or who forgot to turn on their porchlights, are urged to send their donations to Mothers March headquarters, 153 East Elizabeth street, Detroit 1.

Yes, I Know!

The complaints of five residents of Northville's Oakwood subdivision fell upon sympathetic ears at city hall last week.

They called the city manager to say that their basements had been suddenly flooded.

Manager John Robertson knew all about it. His basement was flooded, too.

The accident occurred when workmen in the new Northville Heights project attempted to drain swamp water through a sanitary sewer. The water backed into the five basements causing minor damage.

Officials of the subdividing firm visited the residents and agreed to pay for damages and clean-up.

New Care Center At Training School

A special treatment center for mentally handicapped and emotionally disturbed boys was opened last week by the Wayne county training school.

The center will provide special care for boys who fail to respond to ordinary treatment.

Dr. Pasqual Buonoconto, superintendent, said the center will house 25 boys from the school's 750 children.

The building in which the children will live was recently remodeled to provide the boys with exclusive and intensive professional care. Dr. Buonoconto said that boys who are the greatest burden to families and society, the aggressive and withdrawn, will receive the special treatment.

City councilmen approved plans for two major sewer projects Monday night and set February 24 as the date to accept bids on the improvements.

The sewer facilities will serve the new high school and Northville Heights subdivision and also provide badly needed drainage for the city's Oakwood area.

The projects will add more construction activity to an area that already promises to hum with building, excavating and digging this spring.

In addition to the sewer projects, North Center street will see installation of a new telephone exchange center, a 120-home subdivision, water lines, the high school, possible grading of Center street and installation of sidewalks in several adjoining streets.

Specifically, the city will install storm and sanitary sewers for the high school down East street and a storm sewer down Hill street from Northville Heights.

Total cost of the projects is expected to reach $70,000. Most of the cost of the East street sewer will be paid by the school board, while K & G Construction company, subdividers of Northville Heights, will participate in the Hill street project.

In other business Monday evening city councilmen pledged support to a P-TA sponsored request that state mental hospital facilities be used to examine persons convicted of sex offenses.

The council also offered its support to the Coordinating Council's pending clean-up campaign for the community. Councilman John Canterbury, acting as chairman of the steering committee, gave the council a detailed report of the campaign, scheduled to begin in March.

In other details L. M. Eaton was re-appointed to a three-year term on the board of review; an ordinance was passed setting rules for motor vehicle races in the city; and the taxi license to Center Cab company was renewed.

Councilmen instructed the city manager, however, to investigate complaints from Maybury sanatorium concerning unauthorized cab calls at the institution.

City, Township Dogs Need New Licenses

It's license time again for owners of dogs in the city and township of Northville.

Residents of the township must obtain licenses for their dogs by February 28 to avoid penalty. City residents have until March 31.

In the township licenses may be obtained at the township hall on Franklin road between 1 and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

City residents must also have their dogs vaccinated each year. A special clinic for dog vaccinations will be held at the city fire hall Saturday, February 15 from 10 a.m. until noon. Licenses may be obtained at the city hall.

Cars Damaged In Accident

Two cars, each suffering damages amounting to $75, were involved in an accident at Hutton and Main on Saturday.

Paul Lemon, 22, of 249 East Main, drove onto Hutton from a service station as Henry Sims of Plymouth was driving toward Main street on Hutton. Both drivers told police they did not see the other approaching.

Lemon was ticketed for failing to report a change of address for his operator's license.

Junior Police To See Circus

Plans are now being made by Joseph Denton, Northville chief of police, for transporting Junior Police to the Shrine Circus on Saturday, February 15.

Junior police should report their names and written permission of their parents to any police officer before Saturday, February 8. Buses will leave the rear of the community building at 12:30 p.m. for the trip.

TOP BOWLER — Miriam Mitchell smiles as she checks her winning total with Angie Gadioli, proprietor of Northville Lanes. Miriam topped women entrants in the March of Dimes Polo Bowling Tournament. Second place went to Mary Hanger, who rolled 656, just one pin less than Miriam. Robert Earehart's 685 total edged Bud Nedry with 679 in the men's division. Winners and runners-up now compete in the Wayne county tourney. If successful at that level, a state tourney follows. All of the $200 proceeds collected in the Northville Lanes tourney were turned over to the local March of Dimes campaign.

TELEPHONE lines

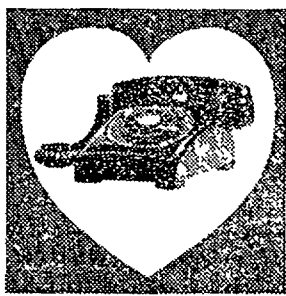

DRIVING CAN BE pretty tricky this time of the year. So Telephone Company drivers get special training for winter. Among other things they make a special effort to:

- Keep windshields clean.
- Watch for unexpected icy spots where roads are shaded by trees or buildings.
- Keep plenty of stopping space between their car and the car ahead.

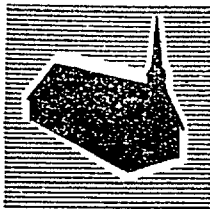

When a telephone man waves good-bye to his family in the morning and says "See you tonight," we want to do everything we can to make his words come true.

LOOKING FOR A VALENTINE gift idea? How about an extension phone—in any of nine beautiful colors? An attractive gift phone expresses the right sentiment—tells your Valentine you want to keep in touch every day throughout the year. To order your Valentine phone, just call our Business Office.

PEOPLE WHO WERE LUCKY enough to get a preview showing of the weather science movie, "The Unchained Goddess," say that if you want to know what it's like to go through a tornado or hurricane without actually being in one, by all means see this show. It will be shown on a nation-wide television network at 9 p.m. Wednesday, February 12, and on some additional stations a few days later. After its use on TV the film will be available for school, church and other civic groups on request from our Business Office, free.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

By The Reverend Paul M. Cargo,
First Methodist Church of Northville

1809

Many famous people were no doubt born in the month of February. We in this country honor in a special way the birthdates of Washington and Lincoln. Lincoln was born in the year 1809 — a year of unusual births.

Look at the list of famous people born in 1809: Charles Darwin, scientist; Edward Fitzgerald, Oliver Wendell Holmes, Frances Kemble, Edgar Allen Poe, Alfred Lord Tennyson, poets; William Gladstone and Abraham Lincoln, statesmen. When we are pessimistic about the state of the world or our country, take heart in the fact that this year's babies are potential of tomorrow.

While all of this is true, there is another birth in God's scheme of things — Spiritual birth, the birth into the awareness of God's love, of His Fatherhood, of his saving grace in His Son. The world needs to be reborn, to turn from sin to goodness, from saber-rattling to sounding the trumpets of peace, and this rebirth comes only from reborn men and women who gradually or suddenly, but consciously, with conviction, give their all to God and His Kingdom.

There is urgency. We cannot stumble and fumble along when we are playing with worse than dynamite. Some step or act with international repercussions might be the last. We may not be able to wait for the future, for an 1809 in 2009. The time is NOW. The hour is late. Let no one delay his spiritual maturity, but seek the fullness that commends itself to God and man.

AN EVENING OF DANCING on Saturday, February 15 is now being planned by Our Lady of Victory Men's club. Herbert Bissa, general chairman; Bruce Turnbull, decorations, and John Chedrick, music chairman, assure fun for both square and round dancing. The dance will be held in the social hall of the new church beginning at 9 p.m. Tickets are available from Men's club members, at Northville Electric, Northville Drug or John's Barber Shop on North Center street.

The Coach's Corner

by STAN JOHNSTON
Northville High School Basketball Coach

The month of February will see the Mustangs engaging in six basketball games. Four of them, beginning with West Bloomfield last Tuesday night, will take place within 13 days. It will be a rigorous test of physical stamina. The four teams we face will be playing under the same calendar of games. It will be interesting to see who can take the most, under stress.

Last Friday the boys played a better than average ball game. They looked rather ragged in the first half but came back in the second to win after being down 12 points at one point in the game. We had plenty of shots in the first half but just could not hit for any decent percentage. The team shooting average in the first half was a little over 18 percent. With this percentage of shots the chances of winning are slim indeed.

We put on a press in the last half which in the long run turned the game in our favor. A press puts pressure on the guards bringing the ball up the floor. If it is successful it will result in the other team making mistakes. To a certain extent this is what happened and the Mustangs capitalized by scoring 21 points in the third quarter and 19 in the fourth. We committed many more fouls with this type of defense. When you order a press it is to be expected because of the tight way a boy guards his man.

When a team can come from behind and win, it is the mark of a good club. It shows that they have desire. Without desire for winning, a good team stands little change of victory, even against a much weaker opponent.

BAGS BUNNIES—Hunting was good for Milton Kalls and "Smoky" last Sunday afternoon. The Dearborn resident found farm land along Seven Mile road in Northville township bounding with bunnies and he bagged four out of five shots. "Smoky" got wind of still another and just after this picture was taken a fifth rabbit was added to the catch.

Final Surge Saves Mustangs

Northville's 'hot and cold' cagers were just that Friday night. Fortunately they closed the contest with Brighton in a blaze to down the visiting Bulldogs, 58-55.

Brighton, conquerors of Northville in an earlier meeting, led the Mustangs throughout the contest until the final five minutes.

It took a second half flourish and Cap Pethers' best performance of the season to down the scrappy Brighton five.

Pethers poured in 25 points and was a hawk around the backboards. He picked up 23 rebounds to give Northville ball control in the second half.

Dick Biery with 16 points gave Pethers plenty of offensive support, while Roger Atchinson and Bill Yahne turned in top floor games to steady the Mustangs' defense.

Brighton's Brian Watson gave an almost unbelievable demonstration of dead-eye shooting to rack up 23 points for the losers. Watson hit the bucket from every angle and seemed more effective when off-balance.

The Bulldogs grabbed an early lead on Watson's four rapid-fire counters. At the quarter they led, 10-9.

Brighton's tight zone defense made Northville look bad throughout the first half. The Mustangs were penetrating the defense, but couldn't score. Meanwhile Watson tallied 15 points to lead Brighton to a 26-18 halftime lead.

The Mustangs found the range in the third quarter and outscored Brighton 21-14. Biery led the attack to loosen up Brighton's zone by popping three baskets from the corners.

A full court press employed by the Mustangs in the second half kept the pressure on Brighton and slowed down their scoring game.

Trailing 40-39 starting the final quarter, Northville pulled ahead for the first time, 45-44, on Biery's long shot. A rash of fouls by both sides kept the crowd in a state of hysteria during the final five minutes. Brighton went ahead 50-47 with 4 1/2 minutes left and at 2:50 on the clock moved to 52-49 as Russ Hudson, Bulldog guard, calmly dropped four free throws.

Two free throws by Fred Schwarze brought Northville to within one point and at 1:30 remaining Biery popped another corner shot to put the Mustangs ahead.

In the final seconds Atchinson, Pethers and Biery scored charity shots to insure the Mustang victory. Brighton's Hudson scored 15 points and sparked his team's defense and general floor game.

Northville's inability to hit during the first half almost cost them the game. The Mustangs dropped only 18 percent of their shots during the first stanza. They came up with a 41 percent effort in the last half.

Pethers registered his highest point total of the year and showed an aggressive spark that gave Northville backboard control in the closing half.

Conference Race Now Narrowed To Clarkston, NHS

It's Northville or no one now. With the Wayne-Oakland league season barely past the half-way mark, only the Mustangs seem to have a chance of pulling even with the pace-setting Wolves from Clarkston.

Clarkston and Northville both won Friday night to keep the title chase interesting, but elsewhere in the league there were some strange happenings.

For example, Holly — which had won six straight and once was tied for the league lead — suffered its fifth defeat in a row and dropped into a humiliating fifth position in the conference race.

For another, only Clarkston and Northville now have a record better than .500.

Clarkston gained a hard-pressed 79-66 win over weak Bloomfield Hills after the Hills had gone off to a 10-3 lead in the early moments. But three Wolves hit in the 20-point circle to salvage the game.

And Northville gained a revenge victory over Brighton to stay even with the Wolves.

But hapless Holly tumbled to Milford, 65-50, after dropping a 49-32 decision to last-place Bloomfield Hills last Tuesday.

In final action Friday, Clarenceville turned back West Bloomfield, 65-51 to make up for a 63-54 loss to Milford last Tuesday.

The standings:
Clarkston	8 0
NORTHVILLE	6 2
Brighton	4 4
West Bloomfield	4 4
Holly	4 5
Clarenceville	3 6
Milford	3 6
Bloomfield Hills	2 7

Slow First Period Snaps Colts' Streak

The Northville Colts, riding a five-game winning streak, bumped into an old nemesis Friday night.

The Brighton junior varsity made it two in a row over Northville by squeezing out a last-minute 41-39 victory.

Brighton had already handed Northville one of its two setbacks this season, winning over the Colts, 40-30.

The loss put Northville's record at 6-3 for the year.

Gary Morgan paced the Colts with 9. Jim Patterson netted 8, and Wade Deal had 7.

Pep Club Boosts Good Sportsmanship

At a recent Pep club meeting, members discussed the lack of good sportsmanship on the part of alumni and friends of the school at basketball games.

They are making plans which they hope will improve this situation, and urge all students and friends to cooperate in displaying good sportsmanship.

The club also changed their initiation date to February 7 at their last meeting.

Region Debate Tournament Scheduled for Northville

One of the regional debates will be held in Northville.

The schools that are competing in the regionals have won at least three-fourths of their debates in the elimination series.

These regional debates are considered on a "sudden death" basis. Any school that loses a debate is automatically out of competition.

The debate tournament to be held in Northville is on February 20 at the Presbyterian church. Those schools competing are Auburn Heights of Avondale, Berkley, Flint Northern, Mt. Morris, Oak Park, Pontiac Waterford and Northville.

In the first round Northville's affirmative meets Berkley's negative.

The rest of the Class A division regional tournament debates will be held in various cities throughout the state. They will be held at Central Michigan college, Grand Rapids Union, Jackson, Battle Creek Central, Coldwater, Hazel Park and Eastern Michigan college.

Honor Society Elects Officers

At a special meeting of the National Honor Society last week, new officers were elected for the second semester.

President is Elsa Couse, Mike Willis, vice president; Judy Robinson, secretary, and Bob Niemi, treasurer.

The Society is looking forward to that five percent of the sophomore class who will be elected as probationary members during the present semester.

Elected to the society are students who rate especially high in scholarship, service, leadership and character.

Juniors Nominate Eight for Boys' State

Last Thursday the junior class met to pick eight boys from their class to compete for a trip to "Boys' State".

The trip will be sponsored by the American Legion. The eight boys that were picked were Bob Niemi, Bob Starnes, Bill Boyd, Roger Cheeseman, Douglas Whiteford, Nelson Schrader, and Robert Bradshaw.

These boys met the requirements of being mentally alert, physically clean, popular and able to lead others.

Rail Stocks Future Dim

Babson Park, Mass. — The recent suicide of Mr. Robert Young, chairman of the New York Central Railroad, brings to my attention the problems of the whole railroad industry. As a matter of fact, President Albert, of the New Haven Railroad recently asked the Public Service Commission of Massachusetts to close over 50 railroad stations and discontinue a large number of trains, including crack trains, between Boston and New York.

REASONS FOR RAILROAD CURTAILMENT

One of the main reasons given for the railroads' troubles is that commuter passenger business does not pay, and is provided only at a large loss to the railroads. This is the business of bringing great numbers of people into a big city every morning, and out again at night, all within short periods of time. In order to provide such service, many stations and much new equipment must be kept in prime condition all day for this very short use.

Your local stockbroker will tell you whether this situation applies to the railroad whose stocks you now hold. With the Union Pacific and Santa Fe, the proportion of commuter business is very small in relation to the total passenger business. On the other hand, with the Pennsylvania or New York Central, the proportion of commuter business is very large. Every railroad must be judged independently. We should not generalize about them.

REAL ESTATE TAXES

Another reason for President Albert's appeal for aid is the taxation levied on railroad real estate. Such taxes enable the cities to raise funds to build turnpikes, airplane terminals, etc., which help the competitors of the railroads. The railroads beg relief from these taxes; otherwise, they threaten to liquidate. Liquidation would, in most cases, give bondholders full payment for their securities but would leave very little for the stockholders. Here again, it will be found that entirely different situations exist with different railroads.

For instance, the New York Central owns much valuable real estate in the vicinity of the Grand Central Station, New York City. Certain short-line railroads are almost real estate companies rather than railroad companies. The Southern Pacific and Great Northern have valuable oil and ore leases which secure their bonds. Here again, your broker will tell you what railroads have valuable real estate and what railroads have not. You cannot generalize.

COMPETITION FROM TRUCKS, BUSES, AIRPLANES AUTOMOBILES AND PIPELINES

Such competition is the basic cause of the railroads' difficulties today. The various restrictions put upon rates and practices by the Interstate Commerce Commission were instituted when the railroads had a real monopoly. Today, the railroads have no such monopoly. These rate and other restrictions should be eliminated. In fact, I believe that the business of the country, and of the railroads, together with their employees and passengers, would be better off if the Interstate Commerce Commission were entirely eliminated.

The competition is not only in rates but also in conveniences. For instance, trucks take the goods from the factory door and deliver them to the consumer. Otherwise, trucks would operate from the factory to the railroad and then again from the railroad to the consumer. There are 50 million automobiles competing with the railroads! The higher the railroads raise their rates, the fewer passengers and the less freight they carry. Pipelines for oil and gas are here to stay; but the carrying of coal and oil by railroads will decrease.

LABOR UNION STRANGULATION

One of the greatest handicaps of the railroads is the arbitrary and useless rules of the labor unions. These rules were made years ago before the use of diesel engines, automatic signaling, and the various electrical appliances which now provide safety. The worst of all is the so-called "featherbedding" whereby the railroads must pay for time which is not used in any productive manner while they are largely forbidden to introduce labor-saving equipment.

During the past few months, I have interviewed several railroad presidents. When I asked them the main reason for the difficulties of the railroads, they replied — "because of the foolish, useless, and expensive rules of the labor unions." Unfortunately, it takes much courage for Congressmen or Senators to try to curb union labor.

WHAT ABOUT FUTURE OUTLOOK?

A large amount of railroad track should never have been laid. Certain railroads were built, not to carry passengers and freight, but rather to sell stocks and bonds. Such railroad trackage should now be discarded and thousands of railroad stations should be closed. I feel that conditions may go from bad to worse until our whole railroad system collapses and has to be reorganized. Such reorganization could eliminate the useless duplication.

On the other hand, so many railroad bond issues are secured by so many different kinds of assets that each railroad would have to be reorganized independently. This would be sure to take a long time; but most first-mortgage and certain other railroad bonds should come out in the end worth par and interest. Therefore, my conclusion to holders of railroad securities is this: It may be better for you to sell your railroad securities now and reinvest the money in some new and growing industry. Otherwise, reinvest in these railroad BONDS later, when they will sell for half their present price. I now see little hope for most railroad stocks.

Mackie Hits Fast on Highway Program

SUPER HIGHWAYS tying together all major Michigan cities and bringing the millions of the cities closer to the playgrounds of the Water Wonderland will be finished in six years.

That is the pledge of Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie, 36.

Mackie has set up priorities on both Detroit expressway system and the out-state network of limited access multi-lane highways.

The total cost will be approximately $2 billion, about one-third of Michigan's highway needs shown by a survey conducted three years ago.

Most of the early planning in the first stages of construction were achieved before Mackie took office last July 1 by his predecessor, Charles M. Ziegler.

But it remains for Mackie to finish the job, connecting the completed pieces of the project.

Democrats and Republicans agree that Mackie, ambitious and fast on his feet, cannot help but become the greatest road builder in state history.

Federal aid not available to earlier commissioners will pay for 90 percent of the interstate system, and other financing arrangements have been developed.

Most important is the growing public awareness of the need for highways — the pressures which grew through the last years of Ziegler's 13 year regime to a final powerful impact in 1956.

There were skeptics when Mackie announced his $1,250,000,000 outstate highway program last fall. Contracts came slowly at first but the dam broke in December.

Mackie has placed first priority on a super highway linking Detroit and Chicago along US-12, a Detroit to Muskegon route along US-16 and a route from the Ohio like to the Straits of Mackinac using US-23, US-10 and US-27.

He has promised the entire program will be under contract by 1962 and completed by 1964.

RIGHT TO WORK legislation may be most controversial in this session. Labor leaders argue that laws which permit employees to work at a unionized plant without belonging to the union are "union busting". Advocates of "right to work" legislation argue that no man should be forced to belong to a union in order to hold his job.

The record seems to indicate that right to work laws, while they might slow down union activity, do not "bust" unions. At present 19 states have such laws, some of them for 10 years or more. Two experts in the labor field were unable to point to a single union which ceased to exist because of the laws.

Much union progress, on the other hand, has been reported in the southeast part of the country where right to work laws have been in existence for the longest period of time. It will be interesting to see what use both sides of the right to work argument make of the labor picture in states where the law has been in operation.

SECURITY IN GOVERNMENT on all levels is under attack in the 1958 legislature.

Sen. Frank D. Beadle (R-St. Clair) is sponsoring a bill to open meetings of all public bodies and make their records open to public scrutiny.

Gov. Williams is interested in a similar administration bill.

The idea is pushed hard by the Michigan Press Association which has been fighting for years for the "peoples right to know" about the agencies which spend their tax money, and by Sigma Delta Chi, a professional journalism fraternity.

Williams is taking a two way approach — stating that the right to know about government has another side — the editor's responsibility in presenting the information.

Simultaneously Williams brought out the point that some records must remain secret. They include adoption records and certain business records of the state insurance department.

Lawmakers, while not contesting this, say the major problem is on the local level.

Politics is gaining momentum far in advance of the 1958 election next fall. Rep. George W. Sallade (R-Ann Arbor) is ready to announce his go-it-alone candidacy for governor on the Republican ticket.

Sallade, one of the original "Young Turks" in the House lacks party support at the moment, but he is the first of the Republicans to even hint at making the race next fall.

CALLS GARFIELD DRAIN PLAN OK

To the Editor:

In response to the letter written in last week's Record, I, as an interested party in the Garfield Drain, would like to take this opportunity to express my feelings.

We, too, own a few acres in this swamp area, which we bought with the idea of making a permanent home for our family six years ago. We had dreams of a small garden on our cleared land, and long hours of enjoying the wildlife in our own woods, but these castles in the air crumbled about our feet our first spring in "God's Country". We found that most of our clear land lay under water and if we wanted to plant we would have to join "China" in the raising of rice, as we knew of nothing else that would grow under water. Our beautiful woods was impassable unless equipped with hip boots or a canoe. Our wonderful country air, as the summer progressed and the water became polluted, was more foul-smelling and far healthier than any city factory and machinery air could possibly get in that short period of time. Of course there were some nice days, those when the wind blew quite strongly. Our lovely modern plumbing inside, just would not function. "Too much water already under the ground, no place for any more," our septic tank cleaner kept telling us year after year.

We still had hopes that maybe the following springs would not be such wet ones. We also discovered a constant musical tone that accompanied our rising water, MOSQUITOES, thousands, of them humming day and night, our days were generally spent inside.

Then we discovered that a drainage system had been attempted some 20 years before and had been tried off and on a number of times but never was completed because of objections raised. We then entered a plea for help and for four years attempted to get some results.

Two petitions were circulated in a 6-month period, all signed and sealed according to law. A Public notice then appeared in this paper stating that anyone contesting the drain had a period of time to protest in letter or person to the Drain Commission, this notice appeared for a number of weeks. Finally a letter to all parties affected, was sent out by the Drain Commission to allow any protests to be brought before probate court within a 10-day period. Nothing was protested legally. The drain was then a reality.

We too, won't be surprised to get another tax bill (much larger than some of our neighbors) in some not too distant time, but we will pay, and pay gladly if we feel we are gaining improvement.

I would like to add that money had to be given before any work or attempt to drain was even started, as a retainer fee. This, I might say, was handled by two parties alone—never asking or expecting any help from others.

I feel a great sense of elation everytime I look at this big ditch with its ugly black swamp-water becoming more and more of a reality every day and hope, that some day soon "God's Country" will be just a little bit sweeter out here because of the Garfield Drain.

WANTS BUS RIDES FOR OLV KIDS

To the Editor:

Would you speak in behalf of the minority that is swelling this community and helping it to grow and prosper.

Why does the school board refuse to transport the children attending OLV school?

1) While the board levies school and transportation taxes on these very same people, whose children they refuse to transport?

2) Is it justice, to extract a levy from the citizens and at the same time refuse to grant services for which this levy is collected?

3) Citizens that send their children to a parochial school, release the public school system of the financial and personal burden which they would have to provide, (more room, more teachers, more equipment).

4) Are we asking too much when we demand transportation for which we are paying just the same.

TRANSLATIONS

The Bible has been translated many times into hundreds of languages. Originally the Bible was written in the Hebrew and the Greek languages. None of the original copies remain but the many copies of the Bible giving substantially the same thing shows us that the Bible has a common origin in the original copies. At the time of the first printing of the Bible there were some 1300 handwritten copies of the Old Testament and 700 copies of the New Testament. If we would compare our Bibles with these copies we would find that they are in substance alike. Some of these old hand-written copies of the Bible date back to the fourth century. Much of the misunderstanding of our Bibles is due to the fact that we are using a 1638 English translation only slightly modified. Everyone should have at least one Modern translation of the New Testament. I would like to recommend the Williams Translation which can be obtained at most any Bible book store. No matter what translation we have they agree that man is lost, that he needs a Saviour and the Jesus Christ has consented to be the Saviour of all who trust in Him. The Williams Translation says, "For the wages paid by sin is death, but the gracious gift is eternal life through union with Christ Jesus our Lord."
