

Taxpayers Protest New Assessments

While some businesses may be complaining that customer traffic is slow, Northville's city and township board of review members had their busiest season ever this week.

The reason, of course, was reassessment. Both city and township officials reported the biggest turnout of taxpayers ever experienced at local board of review meetings.

Township Supervisor Mollie Lawrence stated that more than 100 persons had complaints on their new assessments Tuesday, the third day of the hearings. She said that more time would be needed by the board to study complaints after the final session yesterday (Wednesday).

City board of review hearings began Tuesday and the four members of the committee were kept busy all day long. The council room of the city hall, site of the hearings, was filled most of the day. City hearings were scheduled to continue (Thursday) and Saturday morning from 9:00 until noon.

City and township officials reported that most complaints were aimed at individual grievances where property owners felt their land or building had been improperly reassessed.

"The county has done a very good job on assessing the buildings, but we are having a great many complaints on land values," Mrs. Lawrence stated. She hinted that strong consideration would be given to an overall adjustment of the land appraisals, which she termed "out of line" with their true value. The board is expected to meet this week to study individual complaints and come to a conclusion on general land assessments.

In the city most taxpayers appearing before the board of review had little argument with the general idea of reassessment. According to Assessor John Robertson, those with complaints recognized the need for reappraisal, but had strong reasons for believing that some mistakes had been made in the reassessment program.

The city board of review will study each complaint and notify the taxpayer of the decision of the board.

Interest in the reappraisal program has mounted since the new assessments were made public last week. In most cases assessed valuations were doubled; many were tripled; some were raised even higher.

Officials of the city and township are faced with a difficult situation. They are the victims of values that have sky-rocketed coupled with low assessing practices of the past.

What's more they are unable to answer the question most asked by the taxpayers: what will our taxes be next year?

This much is certain, however. If reassessment values were not placed on the rolls, the county would equalize the area by applying a factor against valuations to raise the total to where the county says it should be.

This, then, answers the question, "why reassess?" If the city and township does not stick reasonably close to the valuations recorded by the county, then the valuations will be raised arbitrarily — and unequally — anyway.

Therefore, with reasonable assurance that the county will not apply an equalization factor to our area this year, local assessing officials can only hope that the state will also lower its factor.

What millage will be applied against these new assessments by city, county, township and school authorities is also unanswered. Presumably, if the assessments have been doubled, the taxpayer can hope that the millage will be cut in half.

City fathers have indicated that their new budget will be aimed in this direction. County and township taxes represent a minor share of the tax dollar.

The big tax bite comes from the schools. This budget, already under study by Superintendent Russell Amerman, must be presented in April. How much millage will have to be levied to raise this sum is still anyone's guess.

The school budget is complexed by the fact that it is prepared and approved before the state equalization factor is determined. Thus school officials must base their needs on an assumed valuation, or guess what raise will be invoked by the state.

Only after city and school officials have prepared and approved their budgets for next year will taxpayers know how reassessment has affected them.

And then they can gain some solace from the fact that under reappraisal, everyone should be paying fairly and equally.

Senate OKs Bill to End Race Revenue

Measure Would Stop All Local Profits in 1960

Legislation that could eliminate all city profits from horse racing came one step closer to reality Wednesday.

Despite strong opposition from senators representing the afflicted areas of Jackson, Livonia, Hazel Park and Northville, the measure won approval of the state senate.

By 1960 the bill would allow Michigan cities in which race tracks are located only such tax return monies as the community could prove it had spent in services for the track. The bill now moves to the house of representatives for consideration.

Strong evidence that the measure would be tabled by representatives gave worried officials of cities dependent upon race track tax funds their brightest hope.

Representative Sterling Eaton stated last week that all race track legislation coming to the house would be tabled pending a thorough study of the state's racing laws. He indicated a committee would be named to suggest reorganizational measures of Michigan's racing set-up this summer.

In spite of this assurance officials of race track cities had reason to be concerned over the bill which seemingly had grown into a measure to provide the needy state treasury with nearly all of the racing tax dollar.

Originally the bill began as a means to provide county fair grounds with state funds to maintain buildings and track facilities.

Later, a rash of amendments entirely altered the measure until it definitely eliminated all city profits from racing taxes and gave them to the state.

Under the present amended bill there would be no change in Northville until 1960. Currently, the city in which a track is located receives 20 percent of the state tax revenues, not to exceed $500,000.

In 1959 the measure provides that the maximum will drop to $400,000 and in 1960 to $300,000. Only Hazel Park and Livonia receive the maximum tax returns.

Beginning in 1960, however, the bill states that a city in which a track is located must prove to the state that it has spent, in providing services for the track, all the monies to be returned from the state. Also, communities within three miles of the track may obtain up to $100,000 a year from the state if services for track traffic can be proven.

Therefore, beginning in 1960 any "profits" that cities had realized from tracks being located within their limits would be eliminated. These dollars would remain in the state general fund.

Northville's City Manager John Robertson and Philip Ogilvie, city attorney, attended the Monday session of the senate. They reported that discussions of the bill became heated and that at least 10 motions to amend or send it back to committee were denied.

Northville's annual racing tax return from the state amounts to approximately $90,000.

Second Polio Shot Next Thursday

Northville residents who receive the first in a series of Salk polio shots in Novi last month were advised this week that the second shot will be given next Thursday.

They will be administered at the Novi community building from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. The shots cost $1.

Persons may also receive the first shot if they haven't already. But arrangements for a second shot next month should be made with family doctors, so as to be ready for a third shot this fall.

Novi Votes Monday On Incorporation And Charter Group

Years of discussion and months of planning will come to a climax Monday when several thousand voters go to the polls to decide if Novi township shall incorporate as a village.

A near-record turnout is expected for the election, Novi's most important to date.

Two questions will face them: — shall some 32 square miles of Novi township incorporate as a village?

— which five of these 10 candidates shall write a village charter if incorporation is approved?

Philip Anderson, 50250 Eight Mile Road, 43455 Fonda
Mrs. Marion Boatman, 46735 12 Mile

Russell Burton, 44109 Grand River
Robert H. Davey, 24017 Willowbrook Drive

David Fried, 41040 Hollydale
Dirk Groeneweg, 45265 12 Mile

Herbert Koester, 42780 8 Mile
Bram LeButt, 23901 W. LeBost

Archie Marsh, 303 Eubank
Dicron Taffallan, 46153 Grand River

Walter Tuck, 43111 Grand River
Harry Watson, 44370 Grand River

(An analysis of incorporation issues, as well as photos, background sketches and statements by all 13 candidates appeared last week in The Novi News.)

If incorporation is approved, the five-member charter commission will set to work immediately on writing a charter. It would have to be finished within 60 days.

After approval by the governor, the charter would be put before Novi voters for final approval. If approved, Novi would begin its life as a village.

If incorporation is not approved Monday, the charter commission will not serve and Novi will continue to operate as a township.

BUSY BOARD — This scene at the city hall Tuesday was duplicated at the township hall as the two boards of review were mobbed by taxpayers. Recent reassessments brought a flood of questions and the busiest sessions ever experienced by local hearing boards.

2 Establishments Hit by Burglars

Two Northville business establishments were burglarized last week of a total of $255, five loaves of nut bread and two pounds of cookies.

Some $250 was reported missing from Northville Lanes bowling alley Friday after it had been broken into Thursday night.

The pastries and $5 were stolen from Sally Bell Bakery two nights earlier.

Police Chief Joseph Denton said the bowling alley was apparently entered through a skylight on the roof. A ladder was found against the back wall, and several holes were punched through ceiling tile.

Proprietor Angie Gadioli said cash was taken from a cash register and wall cabinet. Efforts to break open a coke machine and cigarette machine were unsuccessful.

Twelve lockers in the alley's locker room were jimmied, but nothing was taken, Gadioli said.

State police were called in to investigate. Fingerprints were found, and several suspects have been questioned, but so far police have not located the culprit or culprits.

Proprietor Harold Seaford said his bakery was broken into between 7:30 and 11:30 p.m. on the night of March 5.

Though the burglar got away with $5 and the pastries, another $40 in a drawer was apparently overlooked. Denton also warned Northville businessmen to be on the alert against bad checks.

Students to Do Honors At NHS Groundbreaking

Ground will be broken tomorrow for Northville's new high school — and appropriately, the students will do the honors.

The unique ceremony will see presidents of 12 student organizations joining with the board of education for the long-awaited sod-turning.

The first shovel of earth will be broken by Dick Stuber, mayor of the NHS student council.

With that, construction of the modern, $1,850,000 structure will be officially underway. It will be completed in time for classes in the fall of 1959.

The ground-breaking ceremony will begin at 3 p.m. at the Northville community building, when school and student officials will address the entire student body. From there, the ground-breaking party will go to the high school site south of Amerman school to turn the first spadeful.

In addition to Stuber, the student presidents include: Jim Hammond, senior class; Bob Starnes, junior class; Chris Krauter, sophomore class; Karen Hill, freshman class; Laura Bell, Commercial club; Bill Sherkey, Engineers club; Lillian Zinnecker, Forensic club, and Ron Lahr, Future Teachers of America.

Others include: Mary Welch, Girls' Athletic Association; Elsa Couse, National Honor Society; Bill Yahn, "N" club, and Mary Hill, Pep club.

Famous to Close Northville Store Soon

Northville is losing one of its Main street businesses.

Bernie Morrison, owner of Famous Stores has announced that he will close his Northville store in the near future. A "going-out-of-business" sale is currently being held and will be continued until all stock is cleared out.

Morrison operates another men's and boy's wear shop in Plymouth and will continue his business there.

Girl Scout Fair Saturday Marks 46th Anniversary

More than 250 Brownies and Girl Scouts will take part in the annual Girl Scout Fair this Saturday.

Easter Seal Girl Hopes for Skates

A pretty little girl, looking forward to discarding her crutches in favor of roller skates, features one of two designs for the 1958 Easter Seal.

The Seals were mailed to more than 1,600,000 Michigan homes as the annual Easter Seal appeals got underway last Thursday. This was announced by John Stuebenvoll, chairman of the crippled children committee for the Northville Rotary club.

The 1958 Easter Seal appeal will continue through Easter Sunday, April 6. It features a sheet of horizontal Easter Seals incorporating the two designs.

One Easter Seal design emphasizes the stylized lily, official insignia of the national society, signifying new life and hope for the crippled.

The other seal features the artist's conception of the little crippled girl who wants to roller skate like other children. Contributors to the 1958 Easter Seal campaign are encouraged to help promote the appeal on behalf of the crippled by using the seals on the back of envelopes sent through the mail, and by pasting them on packages and gifts.

A total of 15 Brownie and Girl Scout troops will be represented. Scores of visitors are expected.

During the program, different troops will put on skits to demonstrate the 10 Girl Scout laws. In addition, Mrs. Rano Papini, Northville Girl Scout council president, will welcome the audience and Mrs. Alex Lawrence will discuss scouting through the eyes of the troop leader.

Following the program, visitors will be able to tour the midway. It will feature candy booths, a baked goods sale, and a display of handicraft work made by the girls. Mrs. Lawrence LeFevre and Mrs. John Gibson, both troop leaders, are in charge of the fair.

Volunteers Train In Disaster Alert

Northville's disaster team got in some practice last week during a disaster alert held throughout Wayne county.

Mrs. A. C. Carlson, Red Cross chairman, received the alert at 3:30 p.m. last Thursday.

Within one hour, the part of the team assigned to the disaster area in Livonia had responded, called the balance of the disaster team back in Northville, followed prescribed instructions, and mailed completed reports to Detroit disaster headquarters.

"It was only a mock disaster," said Mrs. Carlson, "but those who took part feel a little better prepared should the real test come."

Others who participated included Charles Carrington, Mrs. Clifford Turnbull, Mrs. Frank Beeks, Mrs. Edith McKenna, Mrs. Clifford Winter and Mrs. J. R. Cunningham.

12 Chairmen are Named For Clean-Up Campaign

Rural beautification, Alex Lawrence; eyesore, Lynn Sullivan; alley, street and highway, John Robertson; retail and commercial, Harvey Ritchie; vacant lot, Ed Welch; contest and stunts, Mrs. Arthur Carlson.

The list also includes: school and students, Fred Stefanski; publicity, Mrs. William Cansfield; residential, Mayor Claude Ely; special projects, Bill Sliger.

Still to be filled are the health, safety and industrial chairmanships. The campaign, sponsored by the Northville Coordinating Council, is scheduled for April and May.

The committee hopes to renew Northville's claim as the "Little Switzerland" of Michigan, based on the city's natural setting, well-

The course is based on the Socratic method of asking questions, rather than giving answers, so that the leader can channel the discussion and still encourage independent thinking.

The class includes demonstration and practice discussion of works by the greatest thinkers of all time, including the Declaration of Independence, Plato's "Apology", Aristotle's "Politics", and Shakespeare's "MacBeth".

BUT WHO CAN WEAR IT? Most items at the Northville Mothers' club's "nearly new" sale on March 21 at the scout hall will be more practical than this whopping-big sport jacket. It belonged to Mrs. C. M. Goodrich's nephew, Don Colo, the rugged Cleveland Brown tackle who laid up the Detroit Lions' Bobby Layne with a broken leg last fall. Even Mrs. Goodrich's son, Jeff, a 6' 8", 225-pound star for NHS, swims in it. Mrs. Goodrich (left to right) holds up the jacket for Mrs. Carl Stephens, while Mrs. Stuart Campbell and Mrs. H. Handorf look on in amazement. Any nearly new item will be accepted. Goods may be taken to the home of Mrs. Eldon Biery, 217 West Dunlap, for storage or will be picked up by request. Proceeds will be used to purchase equipment for Northville schools.

CAN I CHECK THE FIT OF MY CHILDREN'S SHOES?

There are two simple ways of detecting outgrown shoes. They are not as reliable as having the feet remeasured but are infinitely surer than the old toe-hunt method which only ruins the toebox of the shoe.

One is to hold the shoe under a lamp so you can see the foot print on the insole. If the shoes are long enough there will be a light area ahead of the mark made by the great toe.

At the risk of being considered a wise guy, the writer suggests counting the toe marks. Five is par for the foot but the majority of shoes show only four. The missing digit is the little toe which is forced to ride in a pocket of the upper which hangs over the outside edge of the shoe. Five-toed feet that make four-toed footprints should be shod in "straight-last" shoes.

The second check is simply to put your hand in the shoe, palm upward, to see if the great toe is digging a hole in the top of the toe box. The above mentioned footprint may show a light area ahead of the great toe only because the toe of the shoe is too shallow to allow the foot to advance any further. The force required to dig such a hole is sufficient to bunionate the great toe.

It's an Easy Step from Dreaming to Driving!

Here he is at last—just a few miles out on his maiden journey—with his hands on the wheel and his head in the clouds. It's his!

And yet, truth to tell, he does have one regret. For he knows that he needn't have waited this long, had he but realized what an easy step it is from dreaming of a Cadillac to driving in a Cadillac.

Like a great many motorists, for instance, he was not aware that a Cadillac—in view of its obvious virtues—could be so modest in price.

Nor did he appreciate, until the facts were presented, how economical a Cadillac is to maintain or how wonderfully it holds its value over the years.

And little did he suspect how accommodating his dealer would be in welcoming him to membership in the great and distinguished family of Cadillac owners.

So, if you have your heart set on a Cadillac, you should hesitate no longer to investigate this happy set of circumstances.

In fact, why not visit your dealer today? He will be happy to help you select your favorite Cadillac model with your favorite Fleetwood interior—be it the luxurious Sixty-Two Coupe or the magnificent Eldorado Brougham.

By the Rev. Fr. John Wittstock
Our Lady of Victory Church

"Not By Bread Alone Does Man Live"

In the fourth chapter of St. Matthew's Gospel we read that Jesus was led into the desert by the spirit, to be tempted by the devil. And after fasting forty days and forty nights, He was hungry. And the tempter came and said to Him, "If Thou art the Son of God, command that these stones become loaves of bread." But He answered and said, "It is written, 'Not by bread alone does man live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.'"

The devil is a sly rascal, for he tempts Jesus through the appetite for food. We all agree that the desire for food is one of the strongest urges of human nature. Today we are experiencing a cold war that lines up the forces of the world into the camps of Communism and what they like to call capitalism. Really it amounts to the old struggle for food.

The Communists boast that their system will give everyone the necessities of life. To the unfortunate and poor people of the world their promise may look tempting. Hungry people are inclined to listen to anyone who promises food. We know, of course, that the Communistic method, while promising bread, robs people of basic human liberties that man also needs to live.

"Not by bread alone does man live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God." Those words of Christ are applicable to the materialistic philosophy in our day. Surely we give food and clothing to the needy here in our land as well as abroad and yet millions of people are starving from lack of hearing the word of God.

In America more than half our people have no formal religion. Here in our community of Northville there are many who practice no formal religion. Remember Jesus said, "I am the Truth". Truth excludes error. He founded His church and said, "If a man will not hear the church, let him be as the heathen." That does not sound much like a blessing. Again He said to His Apostles, "He who despises you despises Me; and he who despises Me, despises Him that sent Me."

Some people say "I have God in my heart; that is sufficient; I need no religion." But we know that is not sufficient. We must learn about God's word. We learn about this from those given that authority to teach; for not by bread alone does man live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.

Farmington Church Welcomes First Pastor

The Rev. Donald R. Good, formerly of Edon, Ohio, is the new pastor of St. John's American Lutheran church of Farmington.

St. John's, a new mission package of the American Lutheran church, began regular services in the Farmington junior high school last November. Pastor Good is the first pastor of the mission.

A number of Novi residents attend the church's services.
A native of southeastern Pennsylvania, Pastor Good received his education at Florida Southern college and Capital university and seminary, Columbus, Ohio, from which he graduated in 1954.

Under the "mission package" program of the American Lutheran church, each new congregation receives subsidy funds and substantial loan funds, enabling them to purchase property and to build a parsonage and church.

Interested persons are invited to attend Sunday services at Farmington junior high school. Sunday school is held at 9:15, followed by the church service at 10:30 a.m.
Additional information may be obtained from Pastor Good at GReenleaf 4-0584.

NOTICE

The Board of County Road Commissioners, and the counties of Wayne and Oakland are calling a public hearing on Wednesday, March 19, 1958 at 8:00 P.M., in the Northville Community Center, Northville, Michigan, in accordance with Section 1160 of the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1956, for the purpose of explaining to interested groups the proposed extension of Base Line Road near the Wayne-Oakland line, from a point near Taft Road to a point approximately 1300 feet east of Griswold Avenue and to hear testimony regarding the economic effect of this project on the community.

MICHIGAN BELL

WINTER always reminds us of the famous picture called "Spirit of Service," showing a telephone line-man walking on snow-shoes through a blizzard. It may come as a surprise to the folks who mostly see our men riding by in heated cab trucks, but in many Michigan areas our men still must use snow-shoes occasionally to reach lines in open country. And those fellows still get a kick out of it because they know they're making it possible for you to phone anyone, any place, any time.

IF HE COULD LIVE THAT LONG, a fellow could expect to work in Michigan Bell's plant department—building lines, installing and repairing phones, and so on—for about 900 years without an injury that would keep him off his job. That's just another way of saying our company's Safety Report for 1957 shows that only 1 fellow out of 900 didn't show up for work because of an accident. Of course, we'd rather have a record of none out of 900 . . . that's our goal. And that's why our Safety Supervisors keep reminding: "make sure the pole's safe before you climb it"; "lift with your legs, not your backs"; "get out of your car on the sidewalk side—not on the side where you'll step into traffic."

HAVE YOU NOTICED how much steeper those stairs get when you're tired? How many miles do you travel each year up and down stairs—or from one end of the house to the other—to answer the phone? Nowadays this is an unnecessary waste of energy and time. You can have an additional phone anywhere in your home for about one dollar a month. Last year Michigan Bell installed 66,000 telephones in homes which already had at least one phone. Join the families who have discovered how much pleasanter life is with extension phones. To order yours just call our Business Office.

Mustangs Miss Another Crown

A district championship and a crack at the regional title eluded the Northville Mustangs again Friday night.

After winning their way into the district finals last Wednesday, the Mustangs saw their tournament hopes shattered in a wild 60-53 defeat at the hands of Willow Run.

The loss was a bitter pill, not only because of the game's aftermath.

The Mustangs had been on the upbeat after a slow start this year, and a district title would have been considerable salvation.

Willow Run's tournament victory surprised observers. The Flyers had a 2-8 league record, and had averaged less than 40 points during much of the season.

Yet they won three tourney games in four nights, scoring at least 60 points in each.

Northville leaped to a 17-6 lead with its best start of the year. But by the time the Mustangs scored again, they trailed 22-17. By half-time, it was 29-21 against them.

Northville narrowed the count to 29-25 after the half, but Willow Run — banking on spectacular live-drive shots from 30 and 40 feet out — opened its again to 37-26.

The Mustangs showed signs of catching up again in the fourth quarter, as they moved to a 54-49 difference on a series of lay-ups by Cap Pethers. But Willow Run once more opened up a 10-point spread to seal Northville's fate.

The officiating, which later caused open warfare, had Northville fans muttering during the first half but did not cause a real eruption until the second half.

The Mustangs were tripped up time and again by calls of traveling, palming, and other minor infractions which gave the ball to Willow Run. At the same time, the Flyers freely climbed over the Mustangs under the net and rammed shoulders into dribblers as they came down court.

"If fouls were called against Willow Run as they were against us," said Coach Stan Johnston, "three of their starters would have fouled out by half-time."

The demoralized Mustangs did well not to fold completely. Despite the officiating and continued taunts from Willow Run players, Northville lost poise only briefly. They recovered quickly, and went on to a 20-point fourth quarter. But it wasn't enough.

Two nights before, Northville began its tournament campaign in good style by flattening Flat Rock, 70-53.

Pethers put in 23 points and Bill Yahne had 17 as Northville coasted easily to the win.

DOWN, BOY — Washtenaw county sheriff's deputies restrain Referee Richard Hall after he had pushed a Northville fan to the floor following Friday night's district final with Willow Run. Hall claimed he was "threatened," but Northville witnesses deny it.

Shades of '57 - - But Worse

For the second straight year, Northville's basketball season has ended with a loss in the district finals and a public howl over poor officiating.

Last year, it made little difference against powerful Walled Lake. A formal protest was filed, and the matter was dropped.

But the incident at Willow Run Friday night was much more serious.

For one thing, many Northville fans are convinced that the work of Referees Richard Hall and Ed Tobe kept the Mustangs from victory. This, of course, is speculative.

But there is no speculation about the fact that Hall became involved in a post-game brawl and sent one fan sprawling to the floor.

Nor is there any doubt that bitterness stirred up by the game-calling led directly to a near-riot which was put down only when police cars ushered Northville school buses out of the grounds.

Whether Hall and Tobe "gave" the game to Willow Run is arguable. But scores of Northville fans think so, and even Coach Stan Johnston — always quick to defend officials in the past — is convinced Northville lost because of poor officiating.

Said a visiting coach to Johnston at half-time: "If I were you, coach, I'd take my boys and go home. You can't win this one."

Whatever the verdict, Hall did seem all-too-friendly with the Willow Run squad. Neither on the court nor in the locker room afterward did he maintain the impartial aloofness expected of game officials.

On several occasions he mingled with spectators during time-outs or between periods. And at the half, he told someone near the Willow Run bench that "your defense—your press—is really hurting Northville."

In his locker room (a corner of the Willow Run locker room) he accepted congratulations from Flyer players and in turn congratulated one on his "good game."

It's possible that such familiarity on three consecutive tournament nights could have bred bad judgment.

The post-game incident was even more serious.

Instead of going off court immediately, Hall stayed around long enough to be surrounded by sizzling Northville fans. Then, after arguing with them, he pushed his way through the crowd. One shove sent former Mustang Darwin Teshka spinning to the floor, breaking his glasses.

Washtenaw deputy sheriffs seized Hall, his hand bleeding, and stopped further trouble until he disappeared into the locker room.

Asked afterward for his version, Hall told The Record: "You saw it. A bunch of young punks started threatening me. I'm not going to take that (stuff)."

(The 'young punks' were actually a handful of adult fans who, though probably wrong for approaching him, said nothing more than "How much did they pay you?" Teshka, respected around Northville as an athlete himself, had said nothing and had his hands in his pockets when Hall's push sent him to the floor.)

After another Willow Run player had given him a verbal pat in the dressing room, Hall commented, "See! Willow Run liked it. Northville didn't. It's 50-50."

Northville fans weren't as quick to dismiss the incident, however. Councilman Ed Welch, who had a clear view of the fracas and took down names of police, has urged Teshka to file a complaint.

The final stage in the sad evening came as Northville students loaded onto buses.

After one student had been slapped by a hand reaching in through a bus window, police spotted a gang of young toughs arming themselves with rocks. Ordering them to drop the stones, police turned on their flashers and escorted the buses to the highway.

Though much of the anger has died down now, Northville Principal E. V. Ellison does not intend to let the incident drop.

He plans to contact the Michigan High School Athletic Association and fellow principals, urging them to consider better means of certifying officials (other than a simple written test) and of taking "politics" out of the process of assigning officials.

We suggest that he also register a complaint against Hall.

His actions Friday night could have led to serious trouble. He should not be allowed to referee again until he can satisfy state officials that his part in the incident is not likely to be repeated.

OLV Cagers End Up With 5-3 Record

The Our Lady of Victory seventh and eighth grade basketball team concluded its basketball season last Wednesday with five wins, three losses, for a fourth place standing. It was a successful season and enjoyed by both the team and the coach. St. Mary's of Wayne were the league champs with eight straight wins.

New Style Softener Available in Northville

A new saltless water softener recently invented and marketed in the Detroit area will be distributed locally by Earl Wineman of Northville.

The small, three-foot-high automatic softener requires no backwashing, using instead a small quantity of 'food quality' phosphate placed in the tank about every two weeks.

The neutralizing action of the phosphate makes it possible to keep water at any degree of softness desired, Wineman states. The softener, known as "Sofitro", is now on display locally at the corner of Wing and Main streets and at the Detroit Builders show.

ACQUAINTED WITH GOD

Mark Twain was traveling through Europe with his little daughter. He had appeared in many cities and renewed acquaintances with many celebrities in different spheres of life. "Papa," the humorist's little girl asked him, "You know everyone but God, don't you?" How this might classify so many right here in the U.S. They know great TV and movie stars, the champion sports personalities, or politicians but they are not acquainted with God. Yet these same people live in God's world, they breathe God's air and eat God's food without ever taking enough time to learn of the God upon whom our own very life depends. If such is your case, dear reader, will you begin to read the New Testament and learn of Him. God is most clearly revealed in the person of Jesus Christ. If you want to know what God is like, see what the Bible says about Jesus Christ. If you want to know what God expects of you, read what is taught by Jesus Christ in the Gospels and the Epistles. You have no time? Then you had better take time, for if you don't, the time will surely come when you wished that you did. Life is too short and death is too sure to neglect so great a matter.

Pancakes, Pysanky Highlight Luncheon

European pancakes and Ukrainian "pysanky" highlighted the annual pancake luncheon of the International Institute in Detroit last Thursday, attended by four Northville women.

Among the 80 guests were Mrs. Dean Herman, Mrs. Martha Egge, Mrs. Shaw and Miss Ruth Knapp of Northville.

Pancakes were made before their eyes as they are made in Sweden, Germany, Romania and other European countries.

This was followed by a demonstration of Ukrainian "pysanky" or Easter egg dying by a young Ukrainian woman. The eggs, which sell for up to $5 each, often are kept as long as 25 years and are used in Easter holy services.

The next luncheon is scheduled for April 3 and will be served by a group of Japanese ladies. The luncheons, which begin at 12 noon at the International Institute, John R. at Kirby, require reservations.

Mrs. Egge and Miss Knapp also were to attend a dinner and program given today by the president and board of directors of Goodwill Industries, commemorating 37 years of service to the handicapped.

Mrs. Egge and Miss Knapp help each month with a luncheon given for the handicapped employees.

Garden Club Hears Mrs. Bradshaw

Mrs. Bruce Bradshaw, who attended the state conservation school at Higgins lake last summer on a scholarship from the Northville Farm and Garden association, told the group Monday that a teacher can use the knowledge gained at this camp to the benefit of her pupils in many ways.

Mrs. Bradshaw is a fifth grade teacher at the Amerman school.

At a recent board meeting it was decided that the club would provide the Northville library with flowers from members' gardens during the summer months and a plant during the winter. It also was decided that a fall flower show would be held again this year.

New members include Mrs. Chester Lipa, Mrs. Paul Hoffman, Mrs. Chick Harbert, Mrs. Kenneth Jones and Mrs. Pasquale Buoniconto.

After the meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Ely, the ladies adjourned to the community building to examine the exhibit of bird houses made by students and scouts under the supervision of shop teacher Neil Anderson.

If there is need of transportation by any member to the Tri-Club luncheon to be held at Meadowbrook Country club on April 8 call Mrs. Robert Niemi, 1297.

In the Opinion of Our Readers

ONE POOR FISH TO ANOTHER

To the editor:

The following conversation between Father and Son Pike was overheard recently.

"Many years ago, when this swamp was formed as a lake, it was a nice place to live, and in the quiet waters was a lot of life. But then ominous signs began to appear. Some things that looked like moving stumps began putting obstructions in our way. Sometimes they built a roof over the water and went over it, back and forth. And every time they did anything, they muddied our water. I've talked to a friend of mine who knows what's going on. He said they're building a drain — the Garfield Drain."

"Holy smoke! That means that all of us are going to lose our homes. We Pikes in the first place. Then all the rest of the people we know. The Perches, Sunfishes, Bluegills, the Trout, Carps, Bullheads and others."

"And it means that our friends, the Muskrats and Coons, must go too. And where would the pheasant fly to for safety? Even the little Mosquito family that has provided us with music, from cradle songs to concerts, seems to be especially hated by these stump-looking monsters."

"But why do they want to destroy us?"

"I don't know exactly, but my friend says they are building a city in the country for the people that don't like to live in the city! They are going to fill the space with houses after they get rid of the water."

"But why do these people hate water when they are 98 percent water themselves?"

"I'd like to know too. But it looks like we'll have to submit to this aggression, and swim for our lives. C'mon, son, let's leave this unfriendly neighborhood."

I too was very disappointed about this project going through. I take it to be a big and useless expense and no benefit to anyone in the long run.

VILLAGE NOT BED OF ROSES

To the editor:

I would like to compliment you on the fine election issue of The Novi News which was delivered free last week to all residents on the mail routes in the township. It seems to me however, that we have not had enough discussions on the advantages and pitfalls of incorporation, and I believe a great many people are yet undecided on the issue.

So far as I know, there is no record of an entire township that has incorporated as a village. This procedure is usually taken by people that live in the more heavily populated areas of a township, because they want certain restrictions or services that the rest of the people in the township either don't need, or are not willing to pay for.

Farmington township has had several public discussions on these issues in the past, and I am enclosing a clipping from The Farmington Enterprise of December 19th, covering one of these meetings. I hope you will reprint this article as I think it will be most helpful to your readers at this time.

Victor Rust
42515 12 Mile

Editor's Note: Several public meetings on the incorporation issue have been held in Novi, too. They were sparsely attended, however, and little opposition to incorporation was shown. But for the record, here are portions from the Farmington meeting which discuss the disadvantages of incorporation.

"There is no reason to incorporate as a village or city unless you want to get more services and pay more taxes."

"That was the statement of Prof. Arthur W. Bromage of the U. of Michigan as he talked Monday before the quarterly meeting of the Farmington Township League of Subdivisions Association."

In answer to a direct question, Prof. Bromage said he didn't know of any instance where an entire township (excluding the city) had incorporated as a village.

"Incorporating the township (except Farmington City) as a city is a possibility. This idea was sparked by Livonia, but Prof. Bromage urged people to look twice at this as a possible solution. He said he'd want to know the valuations, cost of capital improvements, and what tax limit might be written into the charter."

"He has known instances where people have gone to this form of government, then whined when they couldn't carry the load."

"To incorporate as a village needs fewer people, and many of the same steps as for a city are followed. The differences is that a village is still part of the township, and not removed from its jurisdiction."

"A village, while it has its own governing body and sets its own taxes and expenditures, yet finds its people still vote through the township and pay taxes through the township."

"The village has to furnish its own fire and police protection care for most of its roads, and furnish other services which may be needed. This costs over and above other basic taxes, and is not cheap."

ASKS RELIGION IN SCHOOLS

To the editor:

In reply to Mr. Sprenger. You talk of the waning influence of the home leaving a vacuum in the teaching of morality and religion which the public school cannot fill.

The public schools are not allowed to teach religion. Why? Because whenever it comes up, it is denounced by the parochial denominations. The church objects strongly to it being taught in public schools.

I for one would like very much to see religion taught in the public school. I believe it would get to youngsters who need it most as well as to those who get it at home and in the church. I am sure it would do more than anything else in combating juvenile delinquency.

I think it could be worked out ideally to have religion taught in the public schools, each denomination working it out in its own way with equal rights in whatever was necessary.

What better way to contact those youngsters who would not get it otherwise? Sure, there will be a lot who would not sign up for it to begin with, but when they find it is the accepted way, one might be pleasantly surprised and rewarded. So, Mr. Sprenger, why not religion for all and not just a chosen few who can afford a private school? Instead of denouncing the public schools for not teaching religion, sympathize with them because of other's selfishness.

R. E. S.

WANTS LOGIC AND EVIDENCE

To the editor:

I will never cease to be amazed at people's unwillingness to make statements publicly, let alone privately, that are founded on fact and evidence.

If they are asked to use facts and have evidence for what they say, they yell, "prejudice".

They refuse to recognize that there are proper ways to influence — by nominating people for office that believe as they do, by electing these same people, by writing legislators to enact laws or change laws. I would again like to point out to Mr. Pilatz, Mr. Sprenger, and yes to Mr. Bennett (for I like to be reminded of it) that due to the world wide use of the word democracy and many people obviously not meaning the same thing, that this country has officially adopted the meaning that democratic process is the gathering of all facts known, being willing to change if new facts are presented and then act in a value direction that will raise the dignity of all men.

Mr. Pilatz, you are finally sending for some facts. Well, I know one thing for sure and that is that you will see that if it is an official document, it will not be full of fallacies of discourse.

Mr. Sprenger, it is against the law to teach dialectic materialism in our public schools, because it concerns the overthrowing of our form of government. But under the directives of this republic, we may overhaul our institutions when we feel the need, not to give up in despair.

This ends it for me. I will not be drawn into further discourse. My only attempt here was to ask that facts, logic, and evidence be in essence when things that are "public" be exposed to people's criticism.

George N. Bennett

NAME SCHOOL AFTER CLARK

To the editor:

There is no section of your paper that I enjoy more than the letters to the editor. While I don't always agree with the contents of them, they show sincere interest in the problems of our community. It is that same interest that prompts me to write this.

Not so long ago the good Lord saw reasons to call home one of His servants, whom He had permitted to live in Novi practically all his life . . . a man who all of his life, which fortunately for all of us was a long one, tried to serve his communities, made legions of friends, and a few enemies who still respected his sincerity of purpose.

I feel that we in Novi have not done enough to perpetuate the memory of this fine, and sincere man. Oh, sure, the township board passed a routine resolution for the records, but that was all.

We now have an opportunity to do something to honor the memory of Frank D. Clark: putting his name in marble over the doors of Novi's new elementary school.

THE OLDEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY — EST. 1868 Thursday, March 13, 1958—11

AWARD WINNER — This striking photo of the Northville Merchants in action at Cass Benton park last summer was one of three which won prizes for Harold Hartley in the current Scholastic Art Awards judgments in Detroit. Harold, 16, is a student at Northville high school and runs the Record-News darkroom. His three photos are among the 25 winners now on display at Crowley's in Detroit. Nearly 5,000 works—including photos, sculpture and paintings—were entered in the judging. Harold's two other photos show scenes in New York — one of a subway tunnel late at night and the other of a lonesome Greenwich Village street at midnight. NHS art teacher Jack Van Haren helped him enter the judging.

SUCCESSFUL OPENING — More than 400 people visited Northville Heights for its grand opening last Sunday. The new subdivision, first ever opened within the city limits of Northville, will offer 120 homes with city water, sewers, paved streets. Ranch style and tri-level models are on display. Garrett Barry is exclusive realtor for the project.

PLENTY OF POINSETTIA — Two years ago this Christmas, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lee planted a poinsettia in their room. Now the colorful plant is more than 12 feet long, and has 19 blossoms. It grows in natural dirt, through a planter hole in the floor. The poinsettia requires only water — no fertilizer. Thermopane glass and the draft-free corner give it an almost tropical environment. The Lees live at 329 Elm Court, Novi, facing on Shawood Lake.

Two-Way Closets Save Many Steps

There are times when being two-faced is a virtue, especially in the case of a two-faced linen closet.

This step-saving device is built into the wall separating the bathroom from the hallway. Sliding doors enclose it on either side so that the towel section may be reached from the bathroom, or other linens from the hall.

Although a new-fangled design, all the advantages of an old-fashioned linen closet may be had, including a lining of western red cedar. This wood is not only decorative, but it comes with a built-in sachet which will impart a delightfully fresh, outdoors and sunshine aroma to the linens.

The sliding or hinged doors of the closet should match the woodwork in the hall and the built-ins in the bathroom.

Assails "Soft" Education

Babson Park, Mass. — Since the launching of the Russian Sputniks, there has been much hue and cry about our educational deficiencies. Many people, especially frightened Administration officials and Congressmen, now want us to concentrate on scientific subjects in our elementary and high schools, as well as in our colleges. In their eagerness to restore our lost prestige, they forget that economics and merchandising are as important as physics and chemistry.

What About Teachers' Salaries?

Many voices are being raised in Washington in favor of federal aid to schools. It is pointed out that this aid is needed because local communities cannot pay today's high costs of maintaining proper schools. Those who want Uncle Sam to dole out funds for higher purposes cite the need for higher salaries for teachers. I think Washington should proceed cautiously in the matter of federal aid to schools. Such a program, though started on a nominal level, would grow to such proportions as to hurt rather than help the over-all economy.

We should remember that our ability to pay is limited. If every request for government aid is granted, we shall hurl ourselves into an economic disaster that could easily mean the end of our way of life. As for teachers' salaries: I am in favor of hiking salary levels to get better teachers. But I do not think it fair to the tax-paying public to give teachers large increases in pay simply for acting as baby sitters for our children and grandchildren during school hours.

Scholarships Alone Are Not The Answer

Uncle Sam is being asked to grant scholarships to pupils as an incentive for them to do better work generally and to undertake studies in scientific fields. It is a sound idea to give scholarships to exceptional students; but why expect Uncle Sam to finance them? Local business interests and local governments should partly carry the ball here. However, scholarships alone are not the answer to what ails us educationally.

What we need — and what I have been advocating for a long time — is a complete overhaul of our educational system. For the past couple of generations, we have been growing "soft" in our attitude toward teachers and pupils.

"Progressive education" has been anything but progressive. With its emphasis on self-expression, it has destroyed discipline in many of our schools. Today, respect for teachers is the exception rather than the rule, as is respect for the rights of others.

Teachers and educational theorists should not be blamed for ALL the troubles that beset our schools today. We parents and grandparents are also to blame. In our eagerness to avoid controversy regarding religion in public schools, we have forced school administrators to avoid teaching ethics and morals — or at least we have sat idly by.

Our children and grandchildren are our true wealth. We need their brainpower and moral fiber to meet the serious problems which we will face in another decade or two. Yet most of us do not spend as much time with our young in a month as we spend working out the details of a single business agreement. And when we are with these young people, do we know how to talk to them, how to capture — and hold — their interest?

Restore Discipline and Study
The first thing we must do for the next generation is to restore their respect for discipline and study. To do this, we must take an interest in our young people. We must teach them ourselves BY EXAMPLE, as well as by precept.

As for study: The blame for lack of proper study habits among children today should be laid squarely upon the shoulders of parents. Lax fathers and mothers push their children into adult pursuits too early in life. The result is that boys and girls have such a demanding SOCIAL life that they may not be able to give sufficient time to study. As they grow older, these social "obligations" increase and study gets still less attention. Failure to correct this trend can one day make us easier prey for some sturdier civilization.

The Easter Seal campaign opens on Thursday, March 6 and continues through Easter Sunday, April 6, marking 38 years of continued service to the nation's crippled. You can join in the important work of helping crippled children become happy, productive, self-sustaining citizens of society through your continued support of the Easter Seal campaign.

Reuther: Target of GOP

Political campaigns already have started for Michigan Republicans and Democrats.

They will grow with the issues already enunciated into a crescendo that will reach its peak eight months in the future — on a November day when the citizens go to the polls.

Republicans, choosing their issues with care, have selected UAW President Walter P. Reuther and his ambitions in government, and Gov. Williams' tax proposals for their Michigan campaign.

They make it plain that they understand the laboring man's problems and hope for support from union members. But they picture Reuther as a political boss in search of more and more power.

Two of Williams' appointees to top state jobs were ousted by the Republican-dominated Senate because they were UAW leaders and Reuther supporters before they were appointed.

Democrats are charging "guilt by association". Reuther's aides claim he has little interest in state politics — preferring to spend his time on what is good for the UAW on a national scale.

Williams' tax ideas make good arguing ground.

For nine years he advocated a tax on corporation profits, but the recommendations were conspicuous by its absence in 1958.

His opponents will argue that Williams' attitudes in taxes and other issues affecting business and industry have created an "atmosphere" where the employer feels he will not get a fair shake in new issues which might develop.

But Democrats can be expected to point out that tax programs which were passed, were passed by Republicans; that the business receipts tax, which became law without the governor's signature, is really a less desirable tax than one on corporation profits.

Republicans, will charge, buttressed by testimony of corporations, that Williams' tax ideas have encouraged them to either move to other states or expand elsewhere.

Williams denies the charges, citing surveys which purported to show that a state's tax picture is only a remote consideration in the location of factories.

In answer to reports of industries moving out, Williams issued statements and reports showing that other industries were moving in.

A Republican-sponsored tax study reported that only four of the 20 companies Williams said moved to Michigan actually arrived.

There will be more charges and countercharges on the "industrial climate" of Michigan before the election, but the theme will be the same.

Democrats are fighting Michigan's political battle with national issues. They have little choice in the absence of opposition candidates.

They will charge that the Eisenhower administration has fallen into an economic recession; that it is nationwide, and that only Democrats hold hope for the working man in Michigan.

Democrats will also use their traditional whipping boy — the Republican legislature.

In attempts to show the voter who his friends and enemies are, the Democrats will hit hard on bill before the legislature to ban the secondary boycott, prevent the use of union dues for political purposes and require unions to make audited reports on their finances.

Another point GOP will attempt to make: the governor's aims in the national political scene will detract from his effectiveness as the chief administrative officer of the state.

House Speaker George M. Van Pelt (R-Zeeland) is warning voters that, if Williams is re-elected for his sixth term, he will be absent from his office most of the time.

They predict that the governor will be working for the 1960 presidential nomination and, if he does, will be campaigning on a national scale for at least the last year of his state job.

Legislators have abolished a little-known agency of state government in the interests of efficiency and economy.

It was one of the few nonpartisan, unpolitical actions of the 1958 session.

The Michigan Compilation Commission, which compiled the state's law is dead. Its functions have been merged with those of the legislative research bureau.

Children on school busses will be safer if a bill passed by the Senate becomes law. This would require drivers of automobiles moving in either direction to stop when a school bus stops to receive or discharge passengers. It also requires the bus driver to supervise each child across the street.

Motorists can move again when the bus moves or when the bus driver signals them to proceed.

This bill was introduced by Senator Arthur Dehmel (R-Unionville) and was supported strongly by the Michigan Farm Bureau.
