

SPEAKING

for the Record

By BILL SLIGER

Whatever opinion one may have of Northville's reassessment program, you'd have to admit it has stirred up a new and intense interest in city, township and school district affairs.

At least two taxpayer groups from the township have formed to gain more information on the subject.

Saturday we talked with five members of the Northville Hills Civic Association. They already have presented the board of review with a petition containing 100 names protesting assessments and calling for a general meeting with tax authorities to study the problem.

Another group, the Northville Township Tax Committee, is advertising this week in our classified columns for "residents interested in doing something about high taxes" to write in and join their ranks.

These people are not eccentric. They are genuinely concerned about the mounting tax burden. They do not subscribe to any theories that try to place the blame for our higher assessments on any one person or persons.

Actually, most of the taxpayers, even with strong complaints, understand what is happening. But they feel caught in a vise that can only tighten.

The pressure of the situation is even more severe on Township Supervisor Mollie Lawrence, her board of review, and the city council and review board.

In our opinion they stand at a point of no return. They can correct glaring errors in the reassessment program, but little more. It seems certain, however, that both city and township officials will ease all land assessments somewhat. How far they dare go in this direction is questionable.

The county has said that if the present assessments are generally accepted there will be no county equalization factor this year. Both boards feel that the land values are too high, however, and are apparently ready to plead their case.

Personally, we commend the city and township officials for sticking to the new assessments. It is difficult, unpopular and unrewarding. But most important, it is right.

If higher assessments had begun several years ago and been applied gradually, our community would not be facing this abrupt change today. Low local assessing practices of the past are partially to blame; but county authorities are guilty, too. Suddenly they demand that assessments be raised, and if they are not, the equalization factor is applied. This pressure should have been used sooner.

Now, there is no escape. Northville taxpayers can expect that their taxes are going up next year... with or without reassessment. Even under the new assessments the state is certain to equalize our valuations another 10 percent.

If a county tax authority's guess is right, township residents will pay about 31.5 mills applied against their new assessments plus 10 percent (for state equalization).

Assuming this authority is right, city residents will have about 30 mills on their state equalized assessment for school and county taxes, plus whatever millage the city needs to operate. The city millage is applied against the present assessment, not the state equalized.

However tight the tax vise may seem to be, certain things can be done to provide some hope for the future. While these suggestions may seem too simple to hold an answer to such a complicated problem, we believe they are basic and fundamental and provide the only long range hope for tax relief.

1. Concentrated and consistent effort by our city and school officials to plan budgets wisely.

2. Joint city-township planning to entice new industry within the limits of our school district.

Point one requires no action. Both school and city officials are well aware of the necessity of keen budget planning for next year.

We're not satisfied that anything is being done about point two, however. While past efforts at attracting new tax base to our area may have failed, now more than ever renewed, stronger attempts should be made.

Schools In High Finance; $1,850,000 Is Invested

Now School Superintendent Russell A. Merman knows how John D. Rockefeller and Andrew Carnegie must have felt.

Amerman is in the process of investing some $1,850,000 — which is high finance in anyone's language. The money is for Northville's new high school. But until it's needed,

Northville Student Takes Photo Honors

Three blue ribbons have been awarded to a Northville high school sophomore for his photographic entries in the annual Scholastic Awards contest.

Harold Hartley, 16, was officially notified last week that his photos took three of 25 first places in the southeast Michigan judgments. Hundreds of photos were entered.

The display-size photos, on exhibit at Crowley's in Detroit until last week, will now go on to a national judging this spring.

One of his winners, showing the Northville Merchants baseball team in action last summer, was reproduced in The Record last week.

In his spare time, Harold works for The Record as a photographer and photo processor.

it will be invested through Manufacturer's National Bank to yield a tidy profit.

Amerman was given the okay to invest it by the Northville school board Monday night. In other business, the board:

— selected a hard, off-white brick for the high school and arranged to see slides of possible color schemes for the new building.

— received new bids on kitchen equipment for the schools and turned them over to the board's architect for study. They ranged between $42,642 and $46,986.

— reviewed policy on teachers' contracts but took no action.

— went over more than a dozen letters referring to construction details of the high school.

Amerman was also keeping a wary eye on Northville's state aid picture this week, after the state announced that some $28,500,000 in payments to Michigan schools would be delayed.

There was a possibility that money would have to be borrowed to tide the schools over until state aid payments are made in May or June.

Amerman had been authorized two months ago to borrow money to avoid an impending state aid pinch, but managed to get through it without having to borrow that time.

Racing Money Safe; Committee Kills Bill

A state senate bill that would have eliminated all city profits from racing in Northville was killed Wednesday morning by the house of representatives.

The measure, which won 22 to 9 approval in the senate last week, was tabled by the house state affairs committee.

Representative Sterling Eaton, who earlier had predicted the fate of the bill, told The Record Wednesday that he will head a summer-long committee study of Michigan's racing set-up. Eaton, a member of the state affairs committee, indicated the study group would probably recommend sweeping changes in state racing. He said that all racing legislation was being tabled pending the study.

Representative Eaton, who resides in Plymouth, said that he was determined to "avoid legislation that will take needed tax revenue away from communities in which the tracks are located."

Originally the bill began as a means to provide county fair grounds with state funds to maintain buildings and track facilities.

Later a rash of amendments entirely altered the measure until it definitely eliminated all city profits from racing taxes and gave them to the state.

By 1960 it would have provided that a community in which a track was located would have to prove to the state that it had spent, in services for the track, all the tax revenues it received back.

Livonia and Hazel Park, which both currently collect a maximum $500,000 take from the tracks each year, would have been pared to $400,000 in 1959. By 1960 they, too, would collect only monies spent for track services not to exceed $300,000.

A swarm of interested citizens from Livonia, Hazel Park, Jackson and Northville attended the committee hearing Wednesday in Lansing. Northville was represented by Mayor Claude Ely, Councilman Earl Reed, City Attorney Philip Ogilvie and Thomas Carrington.

Township Schedules Its Annual Meeting

Northville township residents will have their once-a-year chance to practice pure democracy April 5. The annual township meeting, required by state law, will be held at 1 p.m. that day at the township hall.

According to law, it is the time of the year that township business can be conducted by a "viva voce" or oral vote of residents present. Traditionally, however, the annual meeting usually boils down to a summary of the year's business and a report from the township treasurer.

Planning Begins For Michigan Week

Letters went out this week to business and service organizations seeking representatives to direct this year's Michigan Week activities.

Mayor Claude Ely reminded the council Monday evening that the annual observance is planned early this year, May 4 to May 10. He directed Clerk Mary Alexander to notify the Retail Merchants, Junior Chamber of Commerce, American Legion, VFW and Exchange, Optimist and Rotary clubs of the dates. Each group will be asked to appoint a member to work on the general committee.

Monday night the council named William C. Sliger, Record publisher, to chairman the Michigan Week committee. A general meeting of the group will be called for March 27. Committee members will be notified of the time and place.

The highlight of Michigan Week, Mayor's Exchange Day, will be Monday, May 5. Northville will exchange mayors with Roosevelt Park, a community of 2500 population near Muskegon.

NEW ALMA MATER COMING — Most of them won't be around when it's finished, but 12 Northville students shared in the groundbreaking ceremony for the new Northville high school last Friday. After student council Mayor Dick Stuber turned the first shovel (above), each of the other 11 student presidents dug a spadeful. Then a steam shovel took over, and work on the $1,850,000 structure was under way. Administration officials also joined in the ceremony.

Parking Ban off ... Temporarily

City councilmen reluctantly reported after Councilman Allen and Canterbury pointed out that the city could not afford to spend extra dollars.

The controversial ordinance prevented all night parking on city streets. It was originally designed to allow street cleaning vehicles to form their tasks without hindrance from parked cars. Councilmen agreed to cancel the idea after numbers of residents protested that the parking ban placed a hardship on them.

In repealing the ordinance Monday night Mayor Claude Ely called it a "good idea" and instructed the Councilmen Welch and Allen and the city manager to come up with a workable substitute.

Councilman Allen added that residents should expect a "no parking" ban at night by next winter and be prepared for it.

The council voted to purchase approximately three acres near Baseline and Novi road from the D&R Building company for the city's newest well site. Some discussion developed over whether the city should purchase more than the acreage needed for isolation for the well.

In final business the council approved plat number one of the Northville Heights subdivision for the building company. Final approval was also given to plumbing fees to be used by Al Williams, new plumbing inspector employed by Northville and the city and township of Plymouth. The fees correspond with those used in Livonia and Detroit.

P-TA to Discuss Report Cards

A subject of considerable interest and debate in Northville — report cards — will come up for discussion next Thursday before the March meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association.

Dr. Chester McCormick, of Wayne State university, will again moderate the program.

For the past two years, Northville's elementary schools have used a progress report instead of traditional A-B-C markings. The reports are augmented by regular conferences between parents and teachers.

The discussion of report cards is the latest aspect of the P-TA's continuing study of modern education as applied to Northville schools. Dr. McCormick will be joined by another speaker for the program. Further details will be announced next week.

The program will begin at 8 p.m. next Thursday (March 27) in the community building.

Open House Marks Library Celebration

National Library Week will be observed at an open house at the Northville public library this afternoon and evening.

Junior Chamber of Commerce members will be hosts at the open house, from 4-8 p.m. today (Thursday). The public is invited.

The Northville public library goes back to 1899 when it was organized on a subscription basis of one dollar a year per person. It became a free library in 1926, and went into the Wayne county system in 1934.

It became the first library in the nation to do away with the "institutional" look when in 1946 it was refurbished with comfortable chairs, tables and reading lamps to give it a home atmosphere.

Would Halt Northville Expansion

Northville was almost assured this week of an incorporated neighbor on the north, after Novi township approved village status Monday by a slim 67 votes.

At the same time, they gave a strong endorsement to the original incorporation committee by naming four of its members — headed by Walter Tuck — to the village charter commission.

The incorporation issue results:

Yes:	509
No:	442

The charter commission results:

Walter Tuck	592
Harry Watson	474
Russell Button	401
Dicron Taftalian	369
Dirk Groenberg	346*
J. Philip Anderson	346*
Hadley Bachert	335
David Fried	290
Robert Davey	231
Herbert Koester	192
Bram LeButt	189
Archie Marsh	152
Mrs. Guy Boatman	109

* Indicates tie

The tie between Groenberg and Anderson for the fifth seat will be resolved today by a draw from the hat. It is possible, however, that a county canvass of votes will reveal a discrepancy in the count and automatically give the seat to one of them.

For Northville, village status in Novi would probably mean the end of future expansion to the north. No part of Novi could be annexed to Northville without approval of the entire village — and chances of getting such approval would be slim.

Until now, only the area being annexed could vote in annexation elections.

It was this inability to halt annexation that prompted Novi to incorporate. In addition to its troubles with Northville, Novi also had seen Wixom swallow up the Lincoln plant through incorporation and had barely escaped an annexation of part of its territory to Walled Lake.

The village-to-be includes all of Novi township except parts now in Northville and Wixom, the subdivisions of Northville Estates and Brookland Farms No. 1, and a small area around the Warren Products plant adjacent to Northville.

The Warren Products area was annexed to Northville last year, but the company has challenged the election in court. A decision is expected soon.

If the court upholds the annexation, the Warren Products area would remain a part of Northville. If it invalidates the election, the area would be in Novi township but would not be part of the village.

The township will continue to exist in its entirety even if Novi takes the final step toward becoming a village.

Services Are Held For Arthur Gotts

Funeral services were held Saturday for Arthur J. Gotts, well-known Northville building contractor who died March 12 at the age of 62.

Mr. Gotts died at St. Joseph hospital in Ann Arbor, where he had been confined for 10 days.

He was born July 12, 1895 to Sarah and Charles Gotts at Willis, His wife, the former Laura Bechtel, whom he married February 20, 1918, survives.

He is also survived by his mother; two sons, Robert of Northville, and Arthur, Jr.; a daughter, Mrs. Mary Ebersole of Admagerdo, New Mexico; three brothers, Claude and Ralph of Ypsilanti, and Fred of Northville; two sisters, Mrs. Earl Gray of Plymouth and Mrs. William Curtis of Northville, and eight grandchildren.

Mr. Gotts came to Northville township in 1910 and has lived on Franklin road since his marriage.

Funeral services were held last Saturday from the Dempsey B. Ebert Funeral home with Rev. Paul Cargo officiating. Interment was at Oakland Hills Memorial Gardens. He lived at 16821 Franklin road.

Great Books Courses to Start Soon

A Great Books discussion group is to be formed in Northville, meeting at the Northville Public Library. The group will be made up of neighbors and friends who meet to discuss books written by such authors as Plato, Shakespeare and Jonathan Swift. It will cover books as old as the Bible, new as Freud.

The Great Books discussion group is tuition-free.

It will meet for two hours in the evening, every other week, and will discuss a new reading at each meeting. Membership is open to all adults in the surrounding communities. There are no formal educational requirements.

To register for the Group, call or write Northville Public Library, Northville 27, Mrs. Rhea Wilcox, librarian; or Donald Riddering, Box 108, Salem, Northville 3079-J.

The Great Books program gives participants an opportunity to do the reading they've always planned to do, then exchange ideas in a round-table discussion.

Sessions are not "taught"; the books are the teachers. The leaders — or moderators — of the discussions will have taken an authorized leadership training course given by the Great Books Foundation.

Honors Two Members Tuesday Book Club

The Tuesday Book club met at the home of Mrs. Glenn Cummings on West Six Mile road.

Mrs. V. George Chabut and Mrs. J. R. McColl were the honored members — Mrs. McColl for approaching a very special birthday, and Mrs. Chabut for writing her book.

Some exceptionally fine reviews of Mrs. Chabut's new book, "Preacher Mike" were read.

Mrs. F. Alden Shaw reviewed "Baruck, My Own Story". This is the volume which covers the early part of his career.

The leaders do not supply the answers; the participants do. This technique makes it absolutely necessary for everyone to "think for himself".

WILPF Elects New Officers

Officers of the Northville branch of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom were elected at the group's March 17 meeting.

They are: president, Mrs. Cy Frid; first vice president, Mrs. Rodney Grover; second vice president, Mrs. Adolph Moerke; secretary, Mrs. Paul Kauffman; and treasurer, Miss Alta Powers.

The next meeting of the Northville branch will be on open meeting on peaceful uses of the atom, Tuesday, April 29 at the library. The speaker will be Dr. Roger Leithman of the University of Michigan's Phoenix project.

Hi-Fi Extension Group Plans 'Backward' Party

The Hi-Fi Extension Group will sponsor a "Backwards Party" for children and parents at V.F.W. Post 3952 on April 12.

The party will be a money making project for six of the women, Mrs. George Weeks, Mrs. Oscar Simmons, Mrs. Ray Lahti, Mrs. Paul Salo and Mrs. Robert Smith. They will use the money to finance their trip to the Homemakers Conference in Lansing in June.

At a meeting at Mrs. Oscar Simmons' home last Tuesday, members discussed forming a Brownie troop in the Hickory Hill area. The Hi-Fi Extension Group will sponsor this troop.

The Extension Group will pay one-half the cost of the trip to Walden Woods in June for those who will be attending the three day session. Guests who assisted in giving a lesson on decorating wooden trays with colored pencils were Mrs. Jesse Williams of Wixom Road and Mrs. Ken Rocker of Pontiac Trail.

Leslie Lee, Marilyn Glennie are Wed

At a candlelight service on Sunday, March 9, Marilyn Louise Glennie of Pontiac, became the bride of Leslie David Lee of Salisbury, Maryland.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Forrest Glennie of Pontiac. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie G. Lee of Northville.

The ceremony was performed by Elder James O. Cunningham in the Seventh Day Adventist church in Pontiac at 6:30. Decorating the sanctuary were candelabra and candles in the window and white baskets of flowers.

For her wedding, the bride's gown, which she made herself of Dupioni silk, was floor length with a full gathered skirt, dropped waistline with a Chapel train. The round scoop neckline was trimmed with Alencon lace and iridescent sequins.

Her finger-tip length veil was held in place by a lace bonnet headpiece. Her bouquet was of Amazon lilies, stephanotis and ivy.

Maid of honor was Sharon Glennie of Clarkston, cousin of the bride, who carried a nosegay of white carnations with yellow daisies. For her bridesmaids the bride chose Barbara Schwalm, Sharon Savedge of Pontiac, and Mary Louise Lee of Flint, sister of the groom. Nancy Litchfield of Washington, D.C., cousin of the bride's, was junior bridesmaid.

All the attendants wore sky blue silk shantung sheath dresses with full nylon tulle overskirts. They had the same "color headpiece in the shape of a bow with circular nose veils and matching shoes, and carried nosegays of yellow carnations.

For the best man the bridegroom chose Harry Arnold of Detroit. Ushers included Robert Goodrich, E. Lansing; Terry Gerrard, Chicago; Paul Lohman, Milwaukee; and William Glennie, the bride's brother, of Pontiac.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Glennie chose a turquoise silk sheath dress with white accessories. Mrs. Lee, the mother of the bridegroom, chose a cocoa brown silk sheath dress with pink accessories. Both mothers wore a corsage of pink roses.

A reception for 250 guests was held in the church parlor following the ceremony.

For a trip through the southern states, the new Mrs. Lee chose a navy blue two piece dress, with navy and white accessories and an orange sailor hat. Her corsage was two lilies from her bouquet.

The bride attended Washington Missionary college, Washington, D.C., and the bridegroom graduated from Michigan State university school of engineering.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee left last Monday morning for Salisbury, Maryland, where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie David Lee

Nearly New Sale Is Tomorrow

Scores of "nearly new" items will go on sale in Northville tomorrow.

They'll be sold by the Northville Mothers' club at the scout hall, with proceeds to go for equipment for Northville schools.

There's still time to donate nearly new items for the sale. They may be taken to the scout hall tomorrow, or will be picked up on request.

Chairman of the event is Mrs. C. M. Goodrich.

OES Plans Meeting

The Orient chapter of the Eastern Star will entertain East-West and Wayne county officers at the Masonic Temple April 4. The chapter will open at 5 p.m. and dinner at 6:30 and initiation will be at 7:45. Reservations are to be made by April 2 with Worthy Matron Virginia Dunford, KENwood 5-6136 or Ida B. Cooke, Northville 630.

BIRTHS

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Zbkowski of Stratford Court announce the birth of a daughter, Susan Janet, born February 23 at Harper hospital. She weighed five pounds and five ounces. The Dr. Zbkowski's also have a son, Mark, age two.

Review Club to Meet

The Northville Review club will meet Thursday, March 27 at the home of Mrs. J. W. Cheatham. Mrs. E. M. Starkweather will review the last part of "Profiles in Courage" by Senator John Kennedy.

Friday Is Finale For Woman's Club

Spring fashions and spring fever will highlight the annual meeting of the Northville Woman's club tomorrow.

New fashions from Freydl's Women's Wear will be modeled, and the entertaining and informative "Spring — Fashion and Follies" will be presented.

The program, last of the season, is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Rano Papini.

A tureen luncheon will be served at 12:30 at the First Presbyterian church.

Attend Program Honoring Goodwill

Miss Ruth Knapp and Mrs. Martha Egge of Northville attended a dinner and program last Thursday given by the president and board of directors of Goodwill Industries in Detroit.

The program commemorated 37 years of service to the handicapped. Mrs. Egge and Miss Knapp help each month with a luncheon given for the handicapped employees.

Miss Knapp noted that Northville clubs and organizations can make arrangements to visit Goodwill workshops and see what is done with old clothing and furniture which they donate to Goodwill Industries. They may also visit the Goodwill antique shop.

Goodwill, among its many services, provides goods for renovation by patients at Maybury Sanatorium near Northville. In all, 450 disabled persons are employed by Goodwill Industries.

Newcomer's Corner

"I look upon every day to be lost, in which I do not make a new acquaintance."

—Samuel Johnson

Football occupies much of the spare time of the Jack Jubeck household.

Jack, a former semi-pro player in the suburbs of Pittsburg, has hung up his cleats. But little Jackie, at 21 months, is already learning the fine points of the game from his father.

Denise, 3, is just as anxious as Jackie, and gets occasional lessons from her dad even though he tries to explain that her place will eventually be in the kitchen rather than on the gridiron.

Mrs. Jubeck is content to serve as the family's No. 1 fan.

The Jubecks moved to their home at 46236 Sunset in Northville last November. They formerly lived in Pittsburg.

One of the biggest changes they've had to make concerns bowling. In Pittsburg, the game was called "duck pins" and was played with smaller pins and hole-less balls.

They're gradually catching on to the midwestern variety of bowling, however, and expect to follow it just as avidly as they followed duck pins in Pittsburg.

Jack is a sales representative for Northern Building Supply in Alpena and spends most of his day calling on clients in the Bay City, Midland and Saginaw areas.

Come May, the Jubeck family may make another move — to Florida. There, Jack says, he may go into business with an old friend.

No sooner said than done ...by telephone

A fine party! What's the occasion... fund raising, PTA, a school reunion? In any event, the hard-working committee that made the party a success deserves a round of applause. And don't forget, the telephone helped, too.

It was the telephone that helped settle hundreds of details—"Alice, will you take charge of the decorations?... Mary, will you arrange for the food?... Jane, will you get the extra tables and chairs?"

Let your telephone run your day-to-day errands, plan good times, keep you in touch with friends and loved ones. There's just no end to its usefulness. Your telephone is always at hand to work for you—quickly, tirelessly, every day of the year.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

The Rev. Peter Nieuwkoop, Pastor
First Baptist Church, Northville

"WHY DID HE DIE?"

"Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures" 1 Cor. 15:3.

"My sins laid open to the rod
The back which from the law was free
And the Eternal Son of God
Received the stripes once due to me!
"No beam was in His eye, nor mote,
Nor laid to Him was any blame;
And yet His cheeks for me were smote,
The cheeks that never blushed for shame!
"I pierced those sacred hands and feet
That never touched or walked in sin.
I broke the heart that only beat
The souls of sinful men to win.

"The sponge of vinegar and gall
By me was placed upon His tongue,
And when derision mocked His call
I stood the mocking crowd among!
"My sins, My sins, His chief
Tormentors were,
My crimes, My crimes, they were
His nails,
And my unbelief the spear.
"And yet His blood was shed for me,
To be of sin the double cure;
And balm there flows from
Calvary's tree,
That heals my guilt and makes me pure!

A "little blue man" has launched the activity for the 1958 Madonna College Festival Student Activities and Building Fund on Sunday, June 29, from 12-9 p.m.

The little stick man in tuxedo and top hat appeared on the bulletin informing the students of committee responsibilities.

Volunteer co-chairmen, Justine Goculowski and Evelyn Pikulski, who piloted the 1957 festival will be assisted by underclassmen, Beverly Nowodvorski and Elizabeth Czarnecki.

Couples Club Plans Potluck Dinner Sunday

DON'T GIVE UP!

Cooking has always been difficult to master. But today's new Gas Range makes it simple and easy to become a good cook. A Gas Range with the automatic Top Burner makes every pot and pan you own an "automatic controlled heat utensil." Food won't burn, boil-over, dry out or stick to the pan. Top Burner is controlled... automatically. Oven turns "on and off," safely... automatically, even when you're elsewhere. You are freed forever from watching and waiting to see that nothing goes wrong. You'll enjoy cleaner and cooler automatic gas cooking. It means less work and more time for relaxation. And Gas Ranges cost less to buy, to use, and to install.

NEWS
NORTHVILLE

On March 4, Mrs. Cy Frid, Miss Alta Powers and Mrs. C. E. Woodruff of Northville and Mrs. Anthony Frank and Mrs. Keith Salmonson of Plymouth, representing the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom of Northville, drove to Lansing to join 450 members of the Michigan Co-ordinating Council for Civil Rights in support of two pending civil right bills: HB. 247 and HB. 558, changing the fair employment practices commission into a civil rights commission. Bipartisan support of the bill was high and the bill failed by only a few votes to reach the floor of the House.

Last Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Merner Elber of Rayson street joined some friends in Detroit for dinner and then went to see the Ice Capades at the Olympic.

Fred Foster VanAtta from Orelan, Pa., stopped over on his way to Chicago to spend last week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred VanAtta of Cady street.

Mrs. W. L. Howard entertained twenty four guests at a St. Patrick's luncheon and bridge at her home on West Seven Mile road last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Herriman of Plymouth announce the birth of a son, Dale Michael, born March 7 at Sessions hospital. The new baby weighed six pounds, 12 ounces.

TV Appearance Nets
New Set for NHS

Education does pay off — in more ways than one.

The Northville high school speech department now has a new television set, thanks to the ability of several of its students.

The set was awarded as a prize after five students — Becky Coolman, Lillian Zinnecker, Jim Hammond, Frank Muller, and Charles Hix — appeared on WWJ-TV's current events program, "Quiz 'Em" in early February.

Chuck Hix Wins
In Optimist Oratory

First place honors in the annual Northville Optimist Oratory contest have gone to Chuck Hix.

He topped five other students in discussing "A Salute to my Generation" during judgments last week and will now go on further Optimist contests.

Others who participated in the contest were Wade Deal (second), Mike Janichick (third), Gary Pacific, Dave Nash and Bob Stuber.

Judges were Al Skow and Jack Van Haren. Miss Florence Panatoni helped the boys prepare for the contest.

To Hold Pancake Supper

Mrs. Charles Ware — Market 4-1601

Next Tuesday evening (March 25) the Wixom boy scouts will hold a pancake supper at the school from 6:30 to 8 p.m. to enable them to purchase camping material and equipment. Mrs. Howard Coe and mothers of the scouts are in charge of the supper.

Last Monday the Wixom Planning commission met with Howard Keating and associates to discuss zoning on the Elmer Clark farm. They will meet Monday, March 24 with the Wixom Council.

On Saturday, March 15, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Sauber, Bill Sauber and Janice Kimball went to see the builders' show. On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Sauber went to Grosse Isle to help Mrs. Sauber's mother, Mrs. Frank Kachin, celebrate her birthday.

Mildred Sanderson of Middle Straits Lake spent Sunday with the Jack Chambers.

Betty Atkinson spent Sunday with Mrs. W. Swasey.

The newly formed Wixom Youth club are having their first dance Saturday, March 22 at the Wixom elementary school, from 7 to 11 p.m. Admission: drag 70c, stag 35c.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Birchard were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Murphy of Walled Lake, Mrs. O. Hansen, Joanne Hansen, Mrs. Charles Mann, Ruth Lovejoy and Hilda Furman were at Hill auditorium in Ann Arbor Tuesday evening, March 11 to hear Montovane and his new music.

On Wednesday, March 19, Miss Hilda Furman and 12 friends will be the guests of Mrs. Ann and Ethel Davison for luncheon and cards in Detroit.

On Wednesday, March 19 the pot luck fellowship supper of the Wixom Baptist church was held in the church basement. They have decided to make this a monthly affair.

Democratic Women to Meet in Lansing

Democratic women of Wayne county will get a first-hand view of government in action at the semi-annual Democratic Women's Day in Lansing this Saturday. A mock legislature session will highlight the event.

All of the state Democratic legislators have been invited to participate in the session, which will demonstrate the progress of a bill through debate and vote in both houses and finally to the signing by the governor.

Chairman of the program is Mrs. Sanford A. Brown, wife of the state treasurer.

Democratic women of the area who wish to attend the session may obtain additional information from Mrs. John Swainson, Plymouth 3026.

D.A.R. to Discuss State Conference

Reports on the recent state DAR conference in Detroit will be reviewed next Monday by members of the Northville-Plymouth Sarah Anne Cochrane chapter.

The meeting will begin at 1 p.m. Mrs. John Burkman will serve as hostess.

The conference was attended by Mrs. Claude Crusoe, Mrs. Carl Bryan and Mrs. Clifford Gracey of Northville, and by Mrs. Walter Gemperline, Mrs. Harry Deyo, Mrs. Ralph Garber and Mrs. Sidney Strong of Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Nelson and daughter, Linda, will leave next Monday for a three or four week vacation. They will visit friends and relatives in Phoenix, Arizona, and their daughter, Arlene, at San Diego, California, who is teaching school at the Memorial high school there.

Bad Checks Bring Police Warning

Northville Police Chief Joseph Denton warned this week that bad-check passers are again having a field day.

"Several have been passed in Northville," he said, "and state police headquarters in Lansing reports that literally thousands of cases have turned up lately."

Denton said economic hard times, unusual numbers of workers laid off, often makes for bad check passing and other minor crimes.

He warned Northville businessmen to be certain of a person's identity and the check's reliability before cashing it. Even payroll checks, he said, are not always good.

News of Northville High School

Northville Debaters Bow In Regional Finals Again

"The decision goes to Marshall." With those fatal words, the Northville high school debate squad was put out of the running for the state debate championship last week.

The Northville-Marshall quarter-final debate was argued by the NHS affirmative team of Lillian Zinnecker and Becky Coolman — the same team which carried Northville to its district championship two weeks ago.

It was the second year in a row that Marshall blocked Northville's path to the state title by taking the quarter-final crown.

The loss didn't dampen the debaters' appetites. After the debate, they ate a hearty meal at the famous Shuler's restaurant in Marshall.

The debaters, coached by Miss Florence Panattoni, took the Wayne-Oakland league championship this year with a 10-1 record and went on to take the district title by winning over three Class A schools two weeks ago.

Other varsity debaters included: Sandy Strassen, Mary Ann King, Charles Hix and Carole Tabor.

With their success again this year, Northville debaters stand a good chance of being awarded scholarships to colleges and universities.

Honor Society Plans Induction Tea Monday

The National Honor Society have an induction tea for new members on March 26 at 8 p.m. in the Community Building.

The club has set up a committee to help the teachers get the honor assembly ready for this year.

They're Really Saving

Savings stamp sales in Northville's two elementary schools have amounted to more than $1,200 so far this year.

As of March 1, the sales at Amerman and Main street schools totaled $1,219.

Amerman school sales totaled $628 while Main street students invested $591.

Speech Contests In NHS Spotlight

Speech contests held the spotlight at Northville high school last week.

Sharon Williams — with her reading of "The Church Supper" — took the top award in humorous reading. Arlene Rackov and Jim Tuck came in second and third respectively.

"Forever a Stranger" won for Nancy Beard the top honors in declamation. Carol Tabor took second, and Karen Hill third.

The two top winners in each contest go on to vie for the district championships.

Mr. Alvin Skow directed the seven hopefuls for numerous reading honors and the eight declamation contestants.

Miss Florence Panattoni was advisor to other participants in Optimist oratory, oratory, interpretation, and extemporaneous speaking contests.

Chuck Hix, Wade Deal, and Mike Jancick finished in that order in the Optimist contest. Chuck goes on to vie for the district championship. Frank Muller and Ronald Lahr took oratory honors.

Marianne King and Chuck Hix carry Northville colors to the district championship in extemporaneous speaking.

In interpretation, Julie Older, with an excerpt from the play "Our Town", took first place. Susan Clarke finished second and Dick Drew third.

More on the districts in this division will be announced next week.

Students Sit In On Council Meeting

The student council had an assembly meeting March 11 — the first time that all NHS attended a council meeting as a body.

The council announced that it is disbanding its police force.

For two weeks, they have decided to have representatives from the lower grade group to the higher grade to give a report from the meeting.

Cap Pethers is Junior Rotarian for the month.

The council has set up a committee to help with this spring's "Make Northville Beautiful" week.

The council wants to encourage the student body to show more interest and give support to the council. Students were asked to demand better reports from the representatives. The council in turn will try to do everything the student body asks for.

Named to Dean's List

Bill Hiltz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hiltz, 46501 W. Main, and Rick Atchison, son of Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Atchison, 332 S. Rogers, have been named to the dean's scholastic honor roll for the first grade month of the second semester at Kemper Military School in Boonville, Mo.

Off-To Conference

Amerman school Principal Richard Kay will attend a national convention of elementary school principals in Philadelphia next week.

Kay will fly to the convention, Sunday through next Wednesday, with other principals from Michigan.

Says Expressways Four Times Safer

Four-lane divided highways with complete control of access—such as the Farmington-Brighton expressway—are almost four times as safe as other trunkline highways. But four-lane divided roads without control of access are the most accident prone and dangerous roads in the state.

THE LUTHERAN HOUR
Every Sunday
CKLW — 1:30 P.M.
Dr. Oswald Hoffmann, Speaker
SINCE 1930

State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said these results were revealed in a recent study. The fatality rate is 2.5 per 100,000,000 vehicle miles for controlled access expressways compared with 5 for four-lane divided routes without control of access. The statewide state trunkline fatality average is 8.2.

In view of the study, Mackie said the department will no longer continue to "plan and design new four-lane divided highways on the state trunkline system without control of access."

LIKES IDEA OF CLARK SCHOOL

To the editor:

As a subscriber to the Northville Record, I would like to echo a part of the letter written recently by Frank L. Davis.

Novi township citizens have the opportunity to honor the memory of Frank D. Clark, who was an outstanding leader of the community for many years. He was well-known throughout the county and state as a fine and sincere man, dedicated to community welfare.

It certainly would be a very proper tribute to name the new elementary school after Frank D. Clark.

For many years, I have been a Novi township taxpayer and members of my family have been Novi township taxpayers for generations. While I'm a Pontiac resident, I'm always interested in Novi township news.

INCORPORATION WELL COVERED

To the editor:

On behalf of the Committee for Incorporation, we want to extend our thanks to The Novi News, its editors, and its staff, for the excellent coverage given to the issue of incorporation, for its honest appraisal of the facts, and for the forthrightness of its editorials.

The residents of the community have, through The Novi News, been given in unbiased form all the available information, both pro and con, upon which to base their judgment and decisions.

The action of your paper in distributing the special election edition without charge to nonsubscribers is an especially commendable gesture which could contribute measurably to the election turnout and result in a more conclusive expression of public opinion.

Regardless of the outcome of the election, we want to express our appreciation of your service to the community. It goes without saying, of course, that we were more than gratified to find you editorially sharing our belief in the values of incorporation.

Sincerely,
Walter Tuck, Chairman

Three Drivers Fined by Bogart

Three motorists, including one with a long record of traffic violations, were fined recently by Judge E. M. Bogart for speeding and reckless and negligent driving, in Northville.

John Ogger, of Pontiac, was found guilty of reckless driving which resulted in a minor accident. He paid a $25 fine and costs.

Harold J. Osborn, 250 Rayson, Northville, paid $40 and costs after pleading guilty to charges of speeding 60 mph in a 35 mph zone.

Lawrence Thanos, whose record includes a number of previous violations, was found guilty of negligent driving which resulted in a minor property damage and injury accident. He was fined $25 and costs, with the recommendation that his license be taken away.

Twenty four members of the DeMolay from Northville and Plymouth attended the Methodist church in a group last Sunday.

Ann McCarron from the White Kitchen is in New Grace hospital, room 302. She will undergo major surgery Wednesday morning.

BROTHERS, SING ON — Members of Delta Tau Delta fraternity at the University of Michigan showed a Northville audience Monday night why they have won the U-M inter-fraternity sing for the past three years. The Deltas, singing original medleys and old favorites appeared before the Methodist Men's club.

City Tops Township In Paying Taxes

City residents outperformed their township neighbors in paying school and county taxes for 1957.

Percentage-wise, city residents have paid 93 percent of the total levied, while in the township slightly more than 89 percent of the taxes have been collected.

Clerk Mary Alexander reported that in the city $233,065.25 of the $249,660.31 levy had been collected through February 28. Township Treasurer Roy Terrill stated that $197,777.16 of the $221,781.86 had been paid.

Of the township's $23,984.70 delinquency, $23,659.20 is on real estate and only $325.50 on personal property, Terrill added.

All school, county and township taxes must now be paid to the county treasurer's office.

Easter Seal Societies perform in addition to its numerous direct services many allied services in social work, employment, psychological testing and guidance, providing of equipment, prostheses and transportation.

A BLESSED BLANK?

Sixty thousand persons commit suicide in the U.S. every year.

The west leads the nation in self destruction. Perhaps many of those who take their lives believe as a Miami suicide victim expressed it, "I've lived with this thought for years . . . What is the use? Why don't you commit suicide and end it all — no more worries, no working, no playing, no nothing. Just a blessed blank." I'm sure that the person who wrote those lines and took his life discovered his big mistake the moment after he pulled the trigger. If he had but believed what God had revealed in his Holy Word, he would have known that death does not end it all. There is conscious existence for every person that dies. Eternal life in heaven is promised for all who have been redeemed by personal faith in the Saviour. Eternal life in hell will be the awful result of those who refused to repent, believe, and accept the Saviour. Death does not end all. Those who attempt to end their lives will discover that they have merely changed their location. If you are one who has found life unbearable, no purpose for living, mounting problems with no way out — then let me say—You need a Saviour and a friend like Jesus Christ.
