

Order All Trailers Off Gerald Avenue

Occupants of trailers on Gerald avenue were given 30 days to leave the premises last week in a joint action taken by the township and Wayne County Board of Health.

The violation orders were issued under the township zoning ordinance and the state trailer park law.

Jack Adelson, Wayne county health department representative, said the county has tried for years to correct the Gerald avenue condition. "They are in direct violation of the state trailer ordinance that says more than two trailers on a single piece of property constitutes a trailer park," Adelson stated.

85 Apologies, Belle!

Mrs. Belle McColl, who marked her 85th birthday recently, detected a glaring flaw in our account of her busy travel-packed life last week. She called it to our attention in true Belle McColl fashion:

Dear Sir:
Life certainly is "still a surprise" for little old me, none greater than seeing my name and age in big print right on your front page. My kind Northville friends are surely spoiling me.

However, there was one misprint. I've been in 47 States, not "4" — all but Arkansas. Confidentially, that's really what's the matter with Arkansas.

Yours gerontologically,
Belle McColl

Grass Fires Rage In City, Township

Twelve grass fires gave Northville firemen one of their busiest week ends ever. The surge of grass fires Saturday, Sunday and Monday brought to 16 the number extinguished.

The extreme dry weather has brought warnings from both city and township officials. Citizens have been reminded that permits to burn grass must be obtained from the city or township hall.

Fire calls in March cost taxpayers more than $1,000 and in most cases the grass fires were started by residents and then burned out of control.

All grass burning permits in Novi township have been stopped because of the dry conditions.

Northville township officials noted Tuesday night that persons violating the township ordinance concerning grass fires will be fined.

Dies in Jet Crash After Visit Here

A former Northville resident died in a jet plane crash Sunday after visiting here over the week end.

Ensign L. K. (Larry) Stovall, 23, was killed when his navy fighter plane crashed near Weirton, West Virginia. He had taken off from Selfridge Air Force base and was enroute to Oceana, Virginia.

Ensign Stovall attended Northville schools until his family, Mr. and Mrs. Al Stovall, moved to Howell. He attended Western Michigan college before entering the service.

The plane crashed into a gully on Sunday evening and left a smoldering wreckage over a half-mile area. The largest piece of the plane found was about two feet square.

Stovall was alone in the aircraft.

Annual Meeting

Saturday at 1 p.m.

Northville township will hold its annual meeting at 1 p.m. Saturday in the township offices.

A budget for the coming year and miscellaneous township business will be brought up. The meeting is the onetime of the year that business is conducted by an oral vote of taxpayers present.

Lock Those Doors!

Police Chief Joseph Denton warned Northville merchants this week to use more care in locking their doors at night.

"Officers discovered doors unlocked in business places 25 times during March," Denton stated.

He urged every merchant to make it a habit to check every outside door before leaving in the evening.

Beck, Haggerty Possible; Won't Decide for Years

The state highway department is now studying the possibility of converting either Beck road or Haggerty road into a north-south expressway that eventually would be part of a beltline route around Detroit.

But a department spokesman warned this week against premature excitement over the plans.

"There's nothing definite about the route at all," said Irving Rubin, the department's local government representative in Redford. "And there probably won't be any hard and fast plans for at least five years."

"In the meantime," he added, "residents of those areas should plan, build and act as if nothing is in the cards."

Announcement of the pending plans is no surprise. Last winter, The Record published a map of the department's proposed 10-year expressway program. It showed a north-south expressway passing through the Northville and Novi area.

But Rubin's statements did tend to put rumors about the expressway into proper perspective. For several months, many guesses have been made about the route and the extent of present plans.

Rubin granted that either Beck road or Haggerty road might be the eventual route, but added that it could also be "somewhere out in the country."

"The department won't know until it starts studying the project seriously," he said. "And since even the preliminary planning isn't due to start for at least five years, it's now far too early to speculate about its route."

Rubin said the highway department will contact Northville and Novi officials before it decides on a final route. Homeowners along the proposed expressway will be notified well in advance so that they can voice objections or make future plans.

Actual construction probably will not start until late in the second five-year phase (1962-67), he said.

The expressway will be part of the interstate system and will thus qualify for 90 percent federal aid. The complete route will eventually extend from the Detroit-Toledo expressway (somewhere south of Monroe) to at least the Farmington-Brighton expressway in or near Novi. It is designed to relieve dangerous, heavily-travelled Telegraph road by re-routing north-south traffic away from Detroit.

A third superhighway — the so-called 11 Mile road expressway — is now being planned and will intersect the Farmington-Brighton route somewhere in or near Novi.

If all these plans come to pass, Northville, Novi and Wixom will have three expressways at their disposal: the Farmington-Brighton into Detroit and out to western Michigan; the 11 Mile into northwest Detroit suburbs and eventually to Lake St. Clair; and the north-south beltline down toward Toledo and the Ohio turnpike.

Exchange to Hear Highway Official

Irving Rubin, local government representative for the Michigan state highway department in Redford, will address the Northville Exchange club next Wednesday.

Rubin will show a film, either on expressway sign programs or on snow removal.

For Rubin's comments on the expressway situation, see story on this page.

Spring Vacation Begins Tomorrow

Eagerly awaited spring vacation for Northville students begins this week.

The annual vacation begins on Friday at noon and runs until Monday, April 14 — a nine-day holiday.

The long-summer vacation will begin on June 13, it was announced. The date has not been set for the return in the fall but students can count on being back at their desks sometime during the first week of September.

Color Slides Show Need for Drive

Committee chairmen of the Beauty Northville campaign got their first glimpse of the work ahead of them in the month-long clean-up drive planned in May.

Color slides taken in the Northville area were shown last Thursday by Lynn Sullivan, chairman of the Eyesore committee. Numerous examples of shabby and unsightly areas in our residential and business districts were clear to see in the pictures.

Chairman John Canterbury echoed the sentiments of the clean-up committee by pointing out that many "eyesores" have become so common that they go unnoticed.

Canterbury and Co-Chairman Joe Crupi have called another meeting of committee chairmen for Thursday, April 10 at 8 p.m. at the city hall. All chairmen are expected to meet with committees in the meantime to outline details for the drive.

Committees and chairmen are: Eyesore, Lynn Sullivan; Health and Safety, Ruth Knapp; Retail and Commercial, Harvey Ritchie; Industrial, Don Lawrence; School and Student, Fred Stefanski; Rural Beautification, Alex Lawrence; Alley, Street and Highway, John Robertson; Vacant Lot, Ed Welch; Contest and Stunt, Mrs. Arthur Carlson; Publicity, Mrs. Louise Cansfield; Residential Advisory, Mayor Claude Ely; and Special Projects, Bill Sliger.

Seek Volunteers For P-TA Fair

Volunteers are now being sought to help plan and carry out the annual Northville P-TA carnival on May 3.

General Chairman Fran Gazlay has asked volunteers for various committee positions to call him at Northville 1459-W.

The carnival, one of Northville's largest annual events, features scores of booths and special attractions in the high school, community building, and Main Street elementary school.

Police Nab Thieves During Robbery

Alert policemen interrupted a robbery at the Northville Kroger store before it was completed Friday night.

Fined $100 and costs after they pleaded guilty to the charge were Charles Hebert of Warren and Robert Duffey of Inkster.

The attempted robbery was discovered by Officer Ray Nowicki just before 10:30 p.m. In checking the rear door of the supermarket Nowicki discovered it was open and saw a man inside the store.

Unable to find anyone in the store Nowicki summoned help. Meanwhile he apprehended Duffey near the store and found one case of eggs and two cases of coffee in the trunk of his car.

Hebert, who escaped from the store, was found at Baseline near the C & O railroad by Officers Gil Glasson and Eugene King. Hebert was a delivery employee for Kroger and had a key to enter the store. Officers reported that groceries valued at more than $100 were stacked near the rear door of the store.

In other court action Justice E.M. Bogart sentenced Theodore Ozello, 111 West Main street, to $50 or 90 days in the Detroit House of Correction for throwing a stone through the window of Dink's restaurant.

To Break Ground For Hospital

The Record's headline announcing groundbreaking ceremonies for St. Mary's hospital in Livonia was in error last week.

Ground will be broken not on April 5 but on April 7 — next Monday — at 2 p.m.

The five-story hospital, which will contain 174 beds when completed in about two years, will serve Northville and other communities in western Wayne county.

Shortly after the ground breaking, a new fund drive will get underway. The building will cost $3,600,000 but the fund is now short about $750,000.

Michigan Week Committee to Meet

A meeting of Northville's Michigan Week committee has been called for Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the city hall.

The brief session will outline duties of each of the members of the May 4 to 10 celebration.

Members of the committee are L. M. Eaton, Wilbur Johnston, Mrs. Harvey Ritchie, Clayton Myers, Michael Green, George Clark and Leland Smith.

New Tax Committee Holds First Meeting

Six resolutions adopted at the initial meeting of the Northville Township Tax committee last Saturday evening were aimed at focusing greater attention on details of township and school affairs.

The organization was formed recently in protest to increased assessments and taxes. Membership was largely gained through advertisements published in the classified columns of The Record.

Mrs. C. M. Wilson, one of the group organizers, reported that the following resolutions were adopted:

1. To become a permanent organization.

2. Investigate all operations and expenditures of property tax monies in the township at large.

3. To call to the attention of the township property owners, their rights and duties as taxpayers and what they shall expect from public servants being paid thereof.

4. To insist that proper notices be advertised at least one week in advance of any public meetings that involve township tax money, whether it be school or township business.

5. Unless the uncontrolled extravagance of the school board be corrected a thorough investigation will be instituted and the findings made public.

6. It was further agreed that unless the excessive property assessments and taxation be stopped, a movement will be started throughout the township for a tax strike in 1958.

You 'Auto' Buy Now!

Three Northville automobile dealers launched a combined effort this week to boost our economy and put "tight money" into circulation.

Joining in the metropolitan area's "Buy Now" campaign are G. E. Miller Sales and Service (Dodge-Plymouth), Rathburn Chevrolet Sales and Marr Taylor Ford Sales.

The drive is currently being staged in Detroit and has been highly successful in other areas. In Cleveland customers bought new cars to the tune of 10 million dollars and paid 5 million dollars for used cars during the campaign.

Stressing the idea that "buy days mean pay days", dealers are offering big savings on new and used cars in an effort to stimulate business.

Campaign originators point out that in the Detroit area customers are holding tight to savings totaling $1,325,000,000. More than 300 auto dealers in the Detroit area are joining in the huge push to unleash some of these savings and break-down the customer's reluctance to buy.

In Northville G. E. Miller reports that business has already been stimulated by the "Buy Now" campaign. "A definite upswing in car sales took place last week," Miller stated.

All three Northville dealers point out that every auto purchase provides six weeks' work for someone. And, they add, there's no better time to buy than now. They insist that customers planning to buy a new car this year can save more now than ever before. "Deals have never been better... Buy Now!"

30 DAYS TO MOVE — County and township officials have ordered trailers on Gerald avenue moved within 30 days. Violation papers were served on five property owners in the area. Township zoning requires that trailers can be occupied only on a 60-day permit basis.

Until last December, she was employed as a social worker for the Bureau of Social Aid in Pontiac.

Until moving to Northville, she lived with her family in Utica.

POINTERS FROM DAD — Young Ricky Talbot takes a few golf lessons from his father, Dick, while Mrs. Talbot looks on approvingly. The R. C. Talbots have resided for five weeks at 40160 Fair 3 drive.

Both New Englanders by birth, the R. C. Talbots came to Michigan approximately 12 years ago.

This was when Talbot was assistant professional golfer at Meadowbrook Country club. They stayed one year before moving to Detroit. But they are back again, with a golf course in their backyard. Talbot is currently with a large Detroit lumber firm. Mrs. Talbot reports that most of the spare time in her household is spent on the course. Ten-year-old Ricky is an avid fan of the sport and with a former pro in the house, he takes advantage of lessons.

In fact, even the family dog, "Brigadier", seems interested in the game. Even though the Talbots are busy getting settled in their new home, they plan on plenty of golf this spring. Both feel that Northville "is a nice place to raise children."

Youngsters Enter Art Award Contest

Five budding artists from Our Lady of Victory school have entered their creative products in an art contest sponsored by the Siena Heights college, Adrian.

The youngsters' crayon drawings depict the Virgin Mary. The pictures were sent to the college to be judged and will hang in the art gallery there from April 16 through 30.

Students who devoted their time to afternoon drawing lessons so they could enter the contest were James Richmond, second grade; Mark Gredell, third grade; Stephen Williams, second grade; Kathie Fliss, third grade, and Nancy Fliss, first grade.

For this extra-curricular activity the children were under the direction of Sisters Ann David and Margaret Ruth.

OES to Entertain Officers

The chapter opens at 4 o'clock with a dinner at 6:30 and initiation begins at 7:45 p.m.

Phone local news items — parties, dinners, trips — or just a friendly get-together with the neighbors — to the society editor, Northville 200.

Mothers Club Slates Talk on Church in Mexico

The Our Lady of Victory Mothers club has announced that the scheduled speaker for their April 8 meeting has had to leave for Europe.

It was announced this week that Fr. Rudolph Hodik will be unable to address the group this Tuesday so they have planned another program.

Gerald Miche, a lay missionary, director of the Association for International Development (A.I.D.), will lecture on lay missionary work in Bocalar, Mexico. He has just returned from Mexico and with the aid of Edward Starr, a lay apostle, colored movies will be shown.

The lecture has been slated for 8 o'clock in the church hall.

Photography Book Available Here

A compact volume of photography hints, written by a Northville man who died last year, is available here again.

The book — "Composition Simplified" — has gained the praise of thousands of photographers since it was first published in 1935.

It was written by the late Hermon Gabriel, well-known Northville artist and resident whose widow lives at 109 South Wing. One of his paintings — a glowing portrait of Christ — was voted as the most popular work in last year's Three Cities Art club exhibit.

"Composition Simplified", now in its fourth printing, is used by hundreds of photography teachers throughout the country. It's clearly-written text and crisp illustrations make good photography easy even for an amateur.

The book is available at Carrel's Gift Center in Northville.

Lincoln Girls Adopt State Hospital Ward

The Lincoln Girls club has "adopted" an entire ward of teenage children at Northville State hospital.

This month the girls, all employees of the Lincoln plant in Wixom, met their charges for the first time and entertained the group with a birthday party.

Games and dancing were followed by refreshments at the March 6 party, under the supervision of Irene Campbell, chairman of the service committee of the Lincoln girls club.

More members of the club will meet the children on April 10, when the next birthday party is sponsored by the girls.

Thirty-five area residents attended a cancer crusade luncheon at Colonial Acres last Monday.

The primary aid of the April crusade is to make people aware that cancer can be best cured when detected in its earliest stages through regular physical examinations. No fund drive is planned.

Report Cards Get B-Plus from P-TA

More than 100 parents heard Northville's elementary school grading system undergo an intensive analysis last week.

The grading system was scrutinized during the March meeting of the Northville P-TA, presided over by Dr. Chester McCormick of Wayne State university.

In general, the Northville system—which uses progress reports instead of traditional A-B-C markings—was considered superior to other systems, both by the audience and by Dr. McCormick.

The meeting was the fourth in a series on how children learn. The April meeting will feature a discussion of reading.

EASTER PARADE — They weren't exactly Lilly Dache creations, but the hats worn by Mrs. Florence Schermerhorn's class at Amerman school for their Easter parade Tuesday pleased them just as much. Most of the hats were made from paper plates, balloons, paper cups and other assorted materials. The children, accompanied by their mothers, paraded through all classrooms to show off their new bonnets.

I BELIEVE —

Yes, I say "I believe this — I believe that". But tell me, does believing make it so? Some people seem to think it so, at least that is, in the realm of religion. What I believe may be right or it may be wrong. If I am wise then I will do my best to make sure that what I believe is according to the true facts. In the realm of faith, born again Christians of all ages have checked their beliefs by a sincere and honest handling of the Word of God. Like the Bereans of old, they searched the Scriptures to see if those things were really so. Many times they have found that what they believed was wrong and had to change their belief. Personally, I like to back up everything with specific statements from the Bible. It is true that men in this day are bold to contradict the statements of Scripture. They do this because they are men lacking in faith, they choose to follow the wisdom of their own imaginations. I can but close this column today by reminding you of the words of an old song, "How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord, Is laid for your faith in His excellent Word."

Tax Time: You Just Can't Win

The Northville Record

THE OLDEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY — EST. 1868 Thursday, April 3, 1958—9

There is no mind more imaginative than that of the taxpayer. He may be a creative clod 360 days of the year, but when tax time rolls around, his genius knows no bounds.

The implications of the Algerian situation may escape him entirely, but he overlooks no angle whatsoever when he's dealing in terms of his own dollars and cents.

Northville Attorney Clifton D. Hill, who has taught income tax procedure and serves as a tax consultant to both individuals and corporations, has seen more than his fill of ingenious schemes to beat that Ol' Debit Tax.

Hill bluntly attributes most of them to four aspects of human nature: greed, ignorance, the "little bit of larceny" in everyone's heart, and a feeble hope that perhaps just this one item will "get by".

Here, with the income tax deadline less than two weeks off, are some of the monuments of mental dexterity which Hill has discovered through his own work or heard of from associates.

Some are humorous. Some are quite sad. But all are futile, and not one of them worked.

Attempting to claim the family dog as a dependent — and his veterinary fees as medical deductions. Listing money given to in-laws as "contributions".

Trying to claim funeral expenses tuition to private schools. contributions to political parties. traffic fines and contributions to in-laws.

Claiming diaper service as medical expenses.

Putting down $200 or $300 as church donations, and then not remembering the name of the church.

Trying to claim support of an in-law when they only contribute part of the support.

A single man, proprietor of a gambling house, filing a joint return on grounds that he "ran a joint".

Attempting to take hospital insurance as a miscellaneous deduction when medical expenses don't add up to more than three percent of their gross income.

Deciding to disregard any income of less than $100 because "it's not large enough to be noticeable."

Claiming more sales tax than they would be eligible to even if they spent their entire income and all their savings.

Trying to take federal taxes on telephone, furs, cars and the like. Claiming money loaned to relatives as "bad debts".

Putting down life or income guarantee insurance as a medical deduction.

Claiming drivers license fees and transfer fees for motor vehicles. Claiming wedding expenses for son or daughter as "advertising and entertainment" deductions. Including cosmetics on their drug bill.

Claiming a trip to Florida as a medical deduction on grounds that they "prescribed it for themselves."

Trying to deduct home repairs .. dues for fraternal organizations .. finance charges for cars. .. and even junior's allowance.

Claiming work clothes when not justified.

Attempting to take a child care allowance when husband and wife are both working and their combined income is more than $5,100.

A woman, who makes less than $600, filing a separate form in an effort to get her withholding tax back which only ruins her husband's deductions.

Now, is your 1957 tax return still okay?

EXPERT ADVICE — When you own a business and have eight or ten employees on the payroll, your income tax can get to be a rather complicated thing. Here, Northville Druggist Mike Gussell goes over his return with Mrs. Mildred Doran, who handles tax work for many Northville businessmen.

ALMOST DONE — John Parent, of Willowbrook Village, takes a breather from his tax form to have a cup of coffee with his wife late at night. A few minutes later, he went back to the grind.

TAX TACTICS — In the fall, Coach Ron Schipper's primary concern is touchdown plays for his Northville Mustangs. But in the spring, his mind is filled not with football strategy but with columns of figures, lists of tax regulations, and that all-important date: April 15.

Bernhard Muller Wins U-M Freshman Award

Bernhard Muller, a 1957 graduate of Northville high school is one of 281 students at the University of Michigan who have won the Oregon E. Scott Freshman Prize, presented to freshmen who ranked in the top 10 percent of their class during their first semester on campus.

The announcement was made recently by the committee on university scholarships, which has prepared a list of about 20 books from which award winners may choose any one to be inscribed with their name and stamped with the gold seal of the university.

A special convocation of award winners and their parents will be held at 2 p.m. on May 9. It will be part of the university's yearly Honors Convocation.

HERE'S YOUR CALLING CARD, a 5 by 11 inch metal card with holes punched in it. Its job is to automatically pick the speediest route for your Long Distance call. And it does this with the speed of light. For instance, if you call Atlanta, as soon as the Michigan operator dials the Atlanta number the "Atlanta card" automatically pops into place and a light shining through holes in the card automatically connects your line with wires through Cincinnati to Atlanta. If those lines are busy, it connects with wires running through Chicago to Atlanta—or through New York to Atlanta. When an emergency requires an entirely new routing, someone at the switching center just punches a new card with a different set of holes and—bingo—your call takes the new routing. This saves issuing instructions to many different operators when a route has to be changed. Pretty good example of how Bell scientists try to give you the best and fastest service at low cost, don't you think?

EASTER SUNDAY

is one of those days when all of us like to be near our loved ones. But this isn't always possible. The next best thing to being all together is a Long Distance phone call. Your voice over the telephone will be as welcome and cheering as Spring. And it will cost you very little. Places a whole day's drive away can be reached by phone for a dollar or less. The usual low "after 6 p.m. and all day Sunday" rates apply all day Easter. Make a list now of all those you want to phone a "Happy Easter."

EASTER PARADE — They weren't exactly Lilly Dache creations, but the hats worn by Mrs. Florence Schermerborn's class at Amerman school for their Easter parade Tuesday pleased them just as much. Most of the hats were made from paper plates, balloons, paper cups and other assorted materials. The children, accompanied by their mothers, paraded through all classrooms to show off their new bonnets.

I BELIEVE —

Yes, I say "I believe this — I believe that". But tell me, does believing make it so? Some people seem to think it so, at least that is, in the realm of religion. What I believe may be right or it may be wrong. If I am wise then I will do my best to make sure that what I believe is according to the true facts. In the realm of faith, born again Christians of all ages have checked their beliefs by a sincere and honest handling of the Word of God. Like the Bereans of old, they searched the Scriptures to see if those things were really so. Many times they have found that what they believed was wrong and had to change their belief. Personally, I like to back up everything with specific statements from the Bible. It is true that men in this day are bold to contradict the statements of Scripture. They do this because they are men lacking in faith, they choose to follow the wisdom of their own imaginations. I can but close this column today by reminding you of the words of an old song, "How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord, is laid for your faith in His excellent Word."

HERE'S YOUR CALLING CARD, a 5 by 11 inch metal card with holes punched in it. Its job is to automatically pick the speediest route for your Long Distance call. And it does this with the speed of light. For instance, if you call Atlanta, as soon as the Michigan operator dials the Atlanta number the "Atlanta card" automatically pops into place and a light shining through holes in the card automatically connects your line with wires through Cincinnati to Atlanta. If those lines are busy, it connects with wires running through Chicago to Atlanta—or through New York to Atlanta. When an emergency requires an entirely new routing, someone at the switching center just punches a new card with a different set of holes and—bingo—your call takes the new routing. This saves issuing instructions to many different operators when a route has to be changed. Pretty good example of how Bell scientists try to give you the best and fastest service at low cost, don't you think?

EASTER SUNDAY is one of those days when all of us like to be near our loved ones. But this isn't always possible. The next best thing to being all together is a Long Distance phone call. Your voice over the telephone will be as welcome and cheering as Spring. And it will cost you very little. Places a whole day's drive away can be reached by phone for a dollar or less. The usual low "after 6 p.m. and all day Sunday" rates apply all day Easter. Make a list now of all those you want to phone a "Happy Easter."

CHAMPS 21 YEARS AGO — Where are they now? Bruce Turnbull decided to find out what had happened to his teammates on this 1936 Northville high school basketball team. He collected the information below concerning the members today.

Remember Those Champs of 1936?

An old picture of his high school basketball squad started Bruce Turnbull on a search last week. Twenty-one years ago they were league and district champs. It probably didn't seem like 21 years to Turnbull. But when he started to recall where his former school chums had gone, he needed help.

Spring Sports Now Underway

Scores of Northville High school athletes began working out this week in preparation for the Mustangs' spring sports schedule, due to get underway in the next two weeks.

Unlike last year, when dreary weather kept them indoors until shortly before the season began, the Mustangs have had warm, dry weather for their pre-schedule conditioning.

Northville will again compete in four sports: baseball, track, tennis and golf. And chances are that they will end the season with better records than last year, since all teams will have large crews of veterans returning.

Coach Al Jones' baseball squad will seek to improve on last year's 4-6 league record which netted the Mustangs a third place finish in their division and a fifth spot in the entire league. Until they dropped their final three contests, the Mustangs seemed headed for a possible runner-up spot.

The Mustang nine will include Cap Pethers, who posted the ball at a .354 clip last year, and Jeff Goodrich, who was the workhorse of the pitching staff last year even though his record was overshadowed by Aubrey King.

The NHS thincads, who finished second in the league meet last year, will probably be a strong contender for league honors again this year.

Coach Charles Yahne's hopes will fall heavily on Dick Biery and Bill Yahne, who paced Northville last year in field as well as track events and who both picked up league and regional championships. Missing is the third member of the Mustangs' track "big three", shot-putter Bob Wagenschutz.

On the fairways, Coach Merritt Meaker will have three of the regulars who led Northville to a surprising fourth place finish in the Wayne-Oakland meet: Bill Chizmar, Fred Schwarze and Pete Gross.

Though the Mustang golfers were expected to do no better than sixth or seventh last year, the young squad produced in the clutch and indicated it could be a contender this year.

On the tennis courts, Northville will have a strong nucleus of veterans, including Bob Bake, Jim Hammond and Ed Wittenberg. In 1957, the Mustangs were named league champions although the league's tennis schedule is an abbreviated one.

Playing primarily against Class A schools, the Mustang netters registered an overall 3-6 record under Coach Ron Schipper. This year, the schedule is increased to 11 matches, including four against league schools.

Circle April 26, Anglers; Fishing Season Opening

Michigan fishermen have a big circle around April 26 on their calendars because that date marks the beginning of general fishing activity in the state.

Trout fishermen will be out in force for opening day of the April 26-September 14 season, to pit their skills against wily brooks, browns and rainbows.

The opening of trout season also means all other fish, except bass, sturgeon and grayling, may be taken in designated trout waters.

Bass fishing enthusiasts must mark time until June 21, when largemouth and smallmouth bass become legal catches. The bass fishing season is June 21-September 14 in designated trout waters, and June 21-December 31 in all other waters.

The required license for resident fishermen costs $2. Trout fishermen must purchase a $2 trout stamp in addition to the regular angling license.

Additional information on seasons, and creel and size limits is included in the 1958 Guide to Michigan Fish Laws, available free from any license dealer or Conservation Department field office.

Pure-bred dogs of all sizes and varieties will compete in the 35th annual Toledo Kennel club all-breed dog show and obedience trial to be held April 27 in the Toledo Civic auditorium.

Larson Gets Racing Award

Mel Larson, who staged the Northville '100' last year, will soon receive a Daytona Beach chamber of commerce Century club certificate.

He will receive the award for having driven a '58 Plymouth over the famed measured mile beach course at 128.465 miles per hour during the ninth annual NASCAR International safety and performance trials.

THE GREAT DECISION

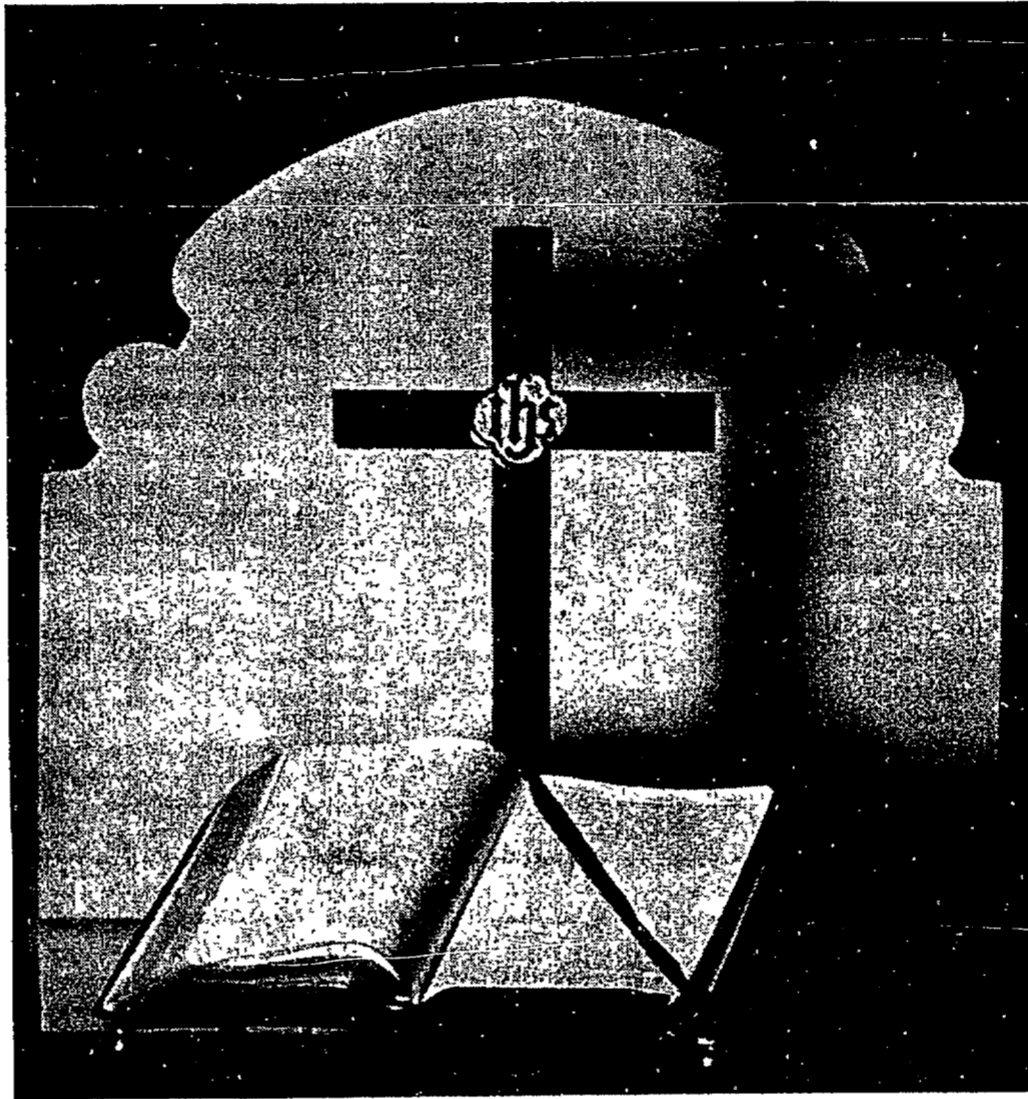

Nearly two thousand years ago —

The greatest person the world has ever known, Jesus Christ;
Made the greatest decision, to give His life a ransom for all;
By accomplishing the noblest act of historical time, the crucifixion;
To heal the deepest sickness of the human heart, sin;
To bring to the world, earth's highest blessing; salvation.

It is important for us to know that anything worthwhile is accomplished only by decision. Someone must decide. A choice must be made. Jesus chose to die for us. His love is revealed to us in that "While we were yet sinners Christ died for us." God has done all He can do to help man. He has chosen us. Now, the completion of our salvation depends upon OUR choosing. It is not enough to admire Jesus, nor is it sufficient to praise his teachings, nor yet is it enough to be inspired and thrilled by religious emotions in divine service. The only possible way to receive the gift of God's forgiveness is for each person to choose Christ as Saviour. Until we deliberately and definitely choose Christ as Saviour it is impossible for him to save us.

"When I survey the wondrous cross
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.
... Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

SYMBOLS OF EASTER — The cross on which Jesus was crucified nearly 2,000 years ago and the Bible which has carried His words since that time herald Holy Week and Easter Sunday services which will be observed in Northville, Novi and Wkom churches during the next five days. For a listing of services, see page 1.

Tastes in Homes Seen Changing From Subdivisions

Today's demand is for medium and low cost homes, according to Dean Phillip N. Youtz of the University of Michigan college of architecture and design.

"More and more the public is becoming dissatisfied with conventional 'developments,' Youtz believes. 'The square miles of small box-like houses, all with picture windows and breezeways and two-car garages, no longer appeal to buyers as they did a decade ago. There is an urgent need for a new housing formula.'

"Is there merit in the British idea of adding more than 50 or 100 homes to an existing village, taking care to avoid changing its traditional charm?" he asked.

"Should we build multiple dwellings to greater height and gain space by living in towers set among shady parks or farm lands?"

"Or shall we count on an exodus from the city of both offices and homes in new business communities?"

"Should factories be set in parks ringed with pleasant cottages for the workers and served by shopping and recreational facilities?"

"No one knows the answers to these questions but the architect is the thinker who must ultimately propose their solutions," he said. "Some of these the public may reject; some, home hunters will welcome. To analyze social needs for shelter and security and happiness means a profound study of human behavior and development."

"We are quite aware that the small town solution that served us in our earlier days fail to solve our metropolitan requirements," he said. "Housing that is not kept up to date produces slums. Slum clearance is costly whether the people are moved or given better shelter."

New Trend Leaves Car Out in Cold

A recent Connecticut survey shows that 75 percent of the new homes are built without garages.

This trend was approved by women who attended the Women's Congress on Housing in Washington, D.C. All but those from the most severe climates said they would give up their garage in preference to more living space in the home, especially since a garage can be added later at relatively low price.

The garage, during recent years, has become an important storage space for bicycles, screens, storm sash, garden tools, firewood. Home-owners who are planning to build a garage should anticipate these plus future storage needs. An extra two feet added either to the length or width, or both, of the basic 12'x20' one-car unit will provide ample space.

A nine-foot door is recommended for single garages; a 16 foot door for two-car garages. At least one pedestrian door should be included along with one or more windows for ventilation and light. Both the front door and the service door should be easily accessible from the garage, and the driveway should be as straight and as short as possible.

Plant Information

Nursery catalogues contain a wealth of planting information for the home owner and they are free for the asking, says the American Association of Nurserymen.

In looking through the catalogues they are an education for the novice gardener of long experience, they offer much data on the new introductions.

Not only do the majority of catalogues tell how to plant, but many have tips on how to landscape and the special uses many plants have. The nursery catalogue has become a part of American life, with millions of them mailed out each year, according to the American Association of Nurserymen. Various trees and shrubs are illustrated in color so that the gardener can see how a plant will look when in flower and can visualize how it will look on his property.

DESIGN C-500-F. This plan features an outer hall with extra storage closets. It leads to all the bedrooms, with their abundance of wardrobe type closets. A lavatory is located at the side entry. The kitchen-dinette, with built-in oven and counter top range, provides pleasant dining beside a window facing the street. The pleasing exterior is achieved by extending the eave and thereby providing a cover for the front door with the stone planter beneath, forms a frame for the picture window. Board and batten in the front gable, horizontal wide siding and asphalt shingles complete the exterior materials. Floor area is 1252 square feet, cubage 22,578 cubic feet. For further information about DESIGN C-500-F, write the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minn.

Clever Planting Can Turn Old House into New One

Don't feel discouraged because your home isn't split-level or ranch-style. You can still do something about its appearance.

Harlow O. Whittemore, professor of landscape architecture at the University of Michigan, suggests plantings can effectively soften the exterior of a home.

He says: "If you don't wish to spend money for remodeling you can find ways to make it more attractive or capable of commanding better rental."

"Trees and shrubs will bring out the best effect of the color and texture of a house and will enhance the more pleasing features of its front, while drawing attention away from unattractive features."

"A house front can be softened by filtering the view of the house through branches or light foliage. This casts a sort of open screen or veil in front of the building without hiding it or shutting out too much light."

"Good trees for this purpose are the honey locust or honey acacia (not black locust), the canoe birch, which looks good against red brick, and the scarlet oak, which brightens up the dull building and looks especially effective when the house is white, yellow or grey."

"Shrubs planted near the corners of two-story buildings also help. The common lilac — purple against a white or yellow house, white against red brick — is very suitable. The Amur honeysuckle can be used on the shady side or corner of the building, as can the Japanese Kerria, the slender Deutzia, and the double-file Viburnum."

14—Thursday, April 3, 1958—THE NORTHVILLE RECORD

HONOR STUDENTS — New members of the National Honor Society were installed at Northville high school last week. From front to rear, they are: Carole Taber, Sally Lemke, Frances Walter, Shannon Jensen, Chuck Hix, Robert Trombley, Nancy Beard, Raymond Dahl and Ed Proctor. Miss Lemke and Miss Walter, as the only seniors, received special honor society pins.

WJBK Disc Jockey To Emcee Dance

Clark Reid, WJBK disc jockey, will be guest of honor and emcee at the sophomore dance April 18.

This will be the third time he has appeared in Northville as guest of the students. The dance will be held from 8 until 11:30 p.m. in the community building.

Hit records of the day will be spun and in addition to this, the Northville high school dance band will also play.

Committee members said that they hoped the dance would be as big a success as it has in past years as they are planning on a large crowd.

Judy Leavenworth Plays in Wayne Band

Judy Leavenworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Leavenworth, 44891 Twelve Mile, has earned a place in the cornet section of the Wayne State university concert band.

Her band activity has also won her a tuition award for the university amounting to about half of the semester fee for a normal course study.

Miss Leavenworth is a freshman, majoring in music education at Wayne State. She graduated from Northville high school in 1957.

The concert band may be heard every Thursday at 3 p.m. over station WDET.

Forensic Club Hosts Interpretive Reader

An orator and an interpretive reader will highlight a combined business and social meeting planned by the Forensic club.

They will meet on Thursday, April 3. The reader will be from Wayne State university. Also of interest is the film prepared by the students who attended the Michigan State university high school speech clinic recently.

This summer the Forensic club plans to send two students to a speech clinic. Instructor Florence Panattoni said that their names will be announced at a later date.

Northville Safety Boy to Go To Capital Again This Year

Nearly 100 of the state's safety patrol boys will be sent on a four-day all-expense trip to Washington, D.C. as a reward for their outstanding service to schoolmates.

Northville will be represented by a youngster to be selected from the city's safety patrol ranks within the next two weeks, according to Ernest P. Davis, safety director for the Automobile Club of Michigan, which sponsors the trip.

"Members of our safety consulting staff will select the Northville school with the most effective overall safety program and it will then be invited to name its top patrolman," Davis said. "He will be the city's official delegate to the 22nd AAA National Safety Patrol Rally."

The youngsters, from throughout the state, will meet in Detroit on May 8 and enroute for Washington. They will spend two full days in the Capital city meeting top government officials and seeing famous and historic sites. Climax of the annual rally is the march down Constitution avenue of over 30,000 patrol members from across the country. The giant parade, which includes television and movie celebrities, is the largest held annually in Washington.

The Washington trip is sponsored annually by Auto club to honor Michigan's 50,000 safety patrolmen. More than 2,000 youngsters have made the trip since 1936. Last year, John Manica represented Northville.

Student Council Members Visit at Clarkston High

Northville students had a chance to see how other schools worked last Wednesday.

As a part of Senior Student Council Exchange day Dick Stuber, Elsa Couse, Susan Clark, Jurgen Hamacher, Ray Dahl, Dave LaFond and Sharon Hensch sat in on several classes at Clarkston high school.

The students also attended the council meeting of the Clarkston students in addition to eating in their cafeteria. The two school representatives also exchanged ideas on how to conduct student assemblies.

Brighton high school will visit here this spring.

THE ALL-LEAGUE CHOIR was in Northville as part of its fourth annual concert series. Conducted here by Arlene Peterson of Clarkston high school, the choir sings, "Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor." Northville students in the choir are: Sharon Budd, Sandra Mooney, Sharon Johnson, Margaret Kupsky, Jo Houser, Joann Schollett, Mary Long, Carolyn Janetzke, Richard Drew, Jurgen Hamacher, David Andrews, Don Earehart, Stanley Hicks, David Hay, David LaFond and Gary Kohn.

Chuck Hix to Appear In Zoré Oratory Finals

Chuck Hix will represent Northville on April 16 in the zone eliminations of the annual Optimist oratory contest.

Chuck won the local eliminations recently against several other students.

The zone eliminations will be held at Clarenceville high school. The winner of that will go on to the next stage, with a possibility of reaching the national finals.

SPEAKING

for the Record

By BILL SLIGER

I hope that every taxpayer and individual interested in education will read the Roger Babson column on this page.

What Babson has to say is not new, but important enough to bear repeating over and over. Personally, I do not think that any of his suggestions are impractical.

While everyone wants the best education possible for our children, we must also be practical enough to get the very most for what we must spend.

As Babson points out, many people will not agree with his appraisal. Others would go even further in economies.

Most important, however, is the fact that it has become absolutely necessary to seek out economies, whether we like being practical or not.

I see nothing wrong in mass-produced, basic design school-houses. We do it in our subdivisions to cut down the cost of our homes. It might stagger the architects and dent the pride of community planners who envision ivory towers that symbolize the spirit of their hometown, but it makes good business sense.

Few school districts face greater expansion in the immediate future than Northville. Few have less opportunity to expand their tax base with industry.

Rev. John Taxis gave a fine example of Christianity in action Sunday.

By hurrying from his Presbyterian church to the Methodist church between 9 and 11 o'clock he was able to assist with the Methodist services.

Rev. Taxis sandwiched in the Methodist service to help Rev. Paul Cargo, who is just recovering from a long bout with the flu. Doctors have asked Rev. Cargo to confine himself to one service on Sunday.

A waiting car sped Rev. Taxis from the Methodist church to his Presbyterian pulpit just in time for his third service of the day.

The near-constant shrieking of the fire sirens in Northville and Novi Saturday and Sunday was caused by a rash of grass fires. In Northville nearly a dozen calls were answered on the two days. Novi was just as bad.

Chiefs Bill McGee and Lee BeGole say it is the driest spring they can remember and warn residents to use extreme caution in burning leaves, weeds, etc.

Alex Lawrence, township trustee, stopped in Monday to re-echo this warning. He remembers a grass fire in 1941 in Northville township that took all the manpower available to squelch. He adds that 80 percent of the grass fires started last year were caused by residents leaving small fires unattended.

Financing Education

EDUCATION is at another cross-roads in Michigan.

Increased costs are being weighed against the American principle of an education for all who can benefit from it and turn their talents to the betterment of the nation.

Superimposed over the basic problem is the need for keeping America abreast of the rest of the world. The 1958 problem in Michigan can be spelled out in dollar signs.

Students find it more difficult to make ends meet, with increased fees and mounting costs of living. The taxation field to support education is nearing saturation.

The legislature has become the focal point of the issue. It is required by the constitution to raise by taxation the money necessary to support state government.

The problem for legislators: How to maintain basic governmental services, including higher education, at a time when the tax burden is overweighing and the yield from existing levies is dropping?

Start with elementary and high schools.

For years, it was certain that the schools' share of the state sales tax would be more than adequate to cover state aid payments. That certainty ended two years ago.

At that time, local schools said they wanted state aid at the rate of $190 per pupil. To make the formula work, the state advanced $20,000,000 from money due the next year.

To cover the same shortage in 1957-58, the legislature passed increases in the liquor and cigarette taxes. These are still in effect.

The legislature has again promised $190 per pupil for 1958-59 but, with 70,000 more students entering the system, another $16,000,000 will be needed.

Some schoolmen estimate they will need even more in state aid — up to $210 per pupil.

Just to stay even with the level of the past two years, the state is in deep financial trouble. The major issue is where to find the dollars to stay afloat.

Higher education is generally in the same position.

The first proposed state budget for colleges and universities for 1958-59 totaled $87,000,000, a cutback of 2.8 percent from current expenditures.

Educators were shocked at the reductions which failed to even consider their requests for a total of $110,000,000 in the face of scientific progress in the Soviet Union.

They said that if the proposed stood, there would be no money for entire programs which were authorized and financed by the legislature over the past three years.

College administrators found it hard to believe the legislature would cut back when it is so important to prepare for the "tidal wave" of students at college level which has been passing through lower grades. They are trying to deal with the greatly increased number of high school graduates in the knowledge that a greater percentage than ever will be seeking advanced training.

Some legislators feel that expansion of college programs has not always been in the most important areas. They have criticized some extension programs and night courses. But educators remind that adult education courses are designed to pay for themselves; that federal monies pay up to 40 percent of the cost of extension programs.

They point out that these activities are pursued to help meet the complex needs of a complex society.

No matter who looks at it, the problem boils down to the old question faced by lawmakers: Shall the expenditure be made to properly fill the need; or shall we do the best we can with the funds available, without increasing the tax load?

Education is just one of many identical problems with the dollar shortage.

The state needs money to complete construction of prisons, to meet the needs of Boys Vocational School, to expand mental health facilities and fit the functions of all agencies to the age.

Finance experts in the legislature are poking through every function of government to find extra money. The Conlin Plan, authored by Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton) to extend the 30-day payment of the state's liquor bills to a 90-day credit period has been signed into law. This maneuver is expected to bring in $9,000,000 by May and a total of $16,000,000 to $18,000,000.

Another $60,000 has been requested from the World War II and Korean veterans bonus fund.

The struggle to handle the state's financial problem will continue, probably until the final day of the legislative session. Plans to adjourn in mid April may have to be changed. Whatever the decision regarding this year's program, it will be made only after numerous near-irreversible forces have reckoned with numerous near immovable objects.

Suggests Pre-Fab Schools, More Teaching Hours

Babson Park, Mass. — Do you realize that school enrollments have increased this year for the 13th year in a row; and that right now one out of every four persons is attending school or college? This is why two national problems are reaching crisis proportions: (1) classroom space; and (2) the teacher shortage. How is your community solving these problems?

Classrooms and Money

Already operating expenses of our public schools are consuming about 50 percent of the budget in the average New England town; and I imagine this is typical of other areas across the country. School building committees simply cannot continue to spend the taxpayers' money as freely in the next ten years as they have in the past ten, for already in this slight recession home owners are finding their tax load more than they can bear.

In 1952, we were short some 312,000 classrooms. The figure probably approaches 500,000 today, despite all the building already completed. How are we going to pay for these needed new schoolrooms? May I be bold enough to suggest that we cannot — at least not in the fashion we have been accustomed to in the past! There must be some changes made. Let me ask you, could you afford a custom-built automobile at, perhaps $20,000? Your town can no more afford a custom-built school! If our federal government officials really want to help in this crisis, they will stop talking subsidies for education and, instead, lead in designing prefabricated schoolhouses that could be mass produced — basic schoolhouses that rooms could be added to or subtracted from, and which could be moved elsewhere as occasion demands. Communities are going to have to "put the horse back in front of the cart," first asking how much they can afford for a schoolhouse; then sending their building committee out to buy the best they can afford.

A New Look In Education Needed
To have the average elementary school lying idle for three months and to have the average high school catering to but a few summer pupils compared with the total it might serve is poor economics. In many privately endowed institutions of higher learning today, the seats are never allowed to cool off. Space is at a premium, and they know how to use it!

I can hear the hue and cry from parents in your town already, when we talk about running school continuously, perhaps staggering vacations, and even operating Saturdays. All sorts of reasons are going to be given why a five-day, one-session, nine-month program is a very sacred thing . . . but the only sacred thing about it is that we have always done it that way!

Teachers and Money

Teachers will probably oppose any change in routine. After all, one of the compensations of teaching is a long vacation. They will probably say that a longer day or week is psychologically unsound for both teachers and pupils. My own college administrators say that this is not necessarily so. Furthermore, if teachers would accept an 11-month job responsibility, a longer work day, and a longer work week like all other professional people, they could readily become more productive and their incomes would be raised.

School Committees could also help make much better teachers by cutting out a lot of the extracurricular nonsense.

I do not forget that children cannot be put on an educational production line and have their education added like parts to a car. Education is a process of reaction between student and teacher, and student and student. This, like a great work of art, takes time to put together; it takes reworking; it takes patience; it takes a master to produce good results. So I say to school committees and those concerned with education, weigh your educational values, cut your heavy spending on bricks and mortar, make more economical use of your buildings and time, and immediately cut out the extracurricular nonsense.

Then, put your tax money where it will do the most good — into capable, inspiring, and devoted teachers.
