

So You Can Read! Well, *($♦&*-&)

Picture a novel composed of sentence after sentence of triangles, circles, minus signs and other assorted squiggles.

It wouldn't be the type of book you could read in one sitting.

Chances are you'd find it mighty slow-going. And it would probably take years before you could spell correctly with the new "alphabet".

Yet such an experience is not unusual. All of us went through it when we first learned to read — for our own alphabet is nothing but an arbitrary set of symbols standing for certain sounds.

To bring this lesson home, and to show why reading is a slow, often painful process for children, a Wayne State university professor will conduct the unique "McKee" demonstration at a meeting of the Northville P.T.A. tonight (Thursday).

The meeting, to begin at 8 p.m. in the community building, is the fourth in a series on how children learn.

Dr. Chester McCormick, moderator for the series will trace current theories on reading and then ask parents to participate in the McKee demonstration, which involves reading passages "written" in a symbolic alphabet.

The meeting also will look into the reading program in Northville's elementary, junior and senior high schools. Reading consultants from the three levels — Mrs. Rosella Lee, Mrs. Pauline Smith, and Mrs. Louva Waterman — will explain the program.

Exhibits of reading materials will be displayed at the meeting.

Following the program, officers for the coming year will be elected and refreshments will be served.

Tote dat Bag... Win dose Dollars

Think you're a 'muscleman'?

If you can prove it, there's some easy money waiting for you.

All you have to do is tote a bag of silver dollars a mile without dropping it.

Bob Shay, of Shay's Shell service, is behind the "Tote the Bag" marathon. It's his way of perking up business.

To win the jackpot, entrants must carry the bag of silver dollars along South Main, from Seven Mile to a spot near the Northville spring, and back again. They get a one-minute rest at the half-way point. Entrants can carry as little as 29 pounds of silver dollars (worth $50 if they win) or as much as they want — up to $500.

But don't get too optimistic about your chances. Nearly 25 men and one elderly woman tried it this week, and only two made it — both carrying the $50 bag.

The bag-tote will go on for the next four week ends.

Thieves Get $31.80

A break-in at Asher Pure Service station, 357 South Rogers, last Thursday night netted thieves $31.80.

Station owner William Asher reported the theft Friday morning. A window was broken and entry was gained by unhooking the door from the inside. Leonard Mazuchowski, inspecting officer, reported that a cigarette machine was opened and its money taken. Nothing else was disturbed.

FINISHING TOUCHES — Phyllis Smith, R.N., and Curwood Chalk, R.N., put the final touch to a poster advertising the seventh annual open house at the Northville State hospital this Sunday. The event will feature tours, colored slides and mental health movies. The public may tour from 9:30 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. Last year, the open house drew more than 1,400 visitors.

Northville Band to Compete In State Festival Saturday

The Northville high school band — league and district champions — will play at the annual all-state band festival in East Lansing Saturday.

After coming out of the district contest earlier this year with an "A" average in all 24 categories, the Northville band was selected to compete with 94 other bands and orchestras at Michigan State university for a state division place.

Each of the musical groups participating was a first division winner in district meets.

Competition will begin at 8 a.m. at six different sites and will continue until approximately 4 p.m. Each band or orchestra will be required to play five selections: one warm-up, one required composition, two sight reading selections and one of their own choice.

Heading the Northville band Saturday will be Directors Leslie Lee and Robert Williams.

Included in the group are bands and orchestras from Class AA, A, B and D high schools, plus several classes of junior high schools.

The Walled Lake senior high school, also a district winner, and the junior high school will also be in the annual festival.

The musical groups will be rated, according to ability in each class, in five divisions. Plaques will be awarded to division one winners.

Three of the six sites are located on the Michigan State campus — the auditorium, music building and Jensen field house. Other sections will use East Lansing high school, junior high school and Lansing Eastern high school auditorium.

New Racket Making Rounds

Northville and Novi residents were warned this week against a new racket involving septic tank cleaning.

Jack Adelson, of the Wayne county health department, said one instance of the racket was reported in Plymouth last week and that it may spread to adjoining communities.

It works like this: a man posing as a county health officer calls at a home, says the homeowners' septic tank needs cleaning, and then, citing an exorbitant price, offers to do the job.

Adelson said anyone approached with such an offer should get a license number if possible and report it to police or the county health department.

City Mourns Loss Of Mayor

All Northville mourned the loss of its number one citizen this week. Claude N. "Pete" Ely, the city's only mayor, died suddenly Sunday. Funeral services were held Wednesday in the Casterline Funeral home.

Mayor Ely was not known to have been in bad health. Since his retirement last September he had been actively engaged in building a summer cottage in addition to performing his regular community duties. His sudden death from a heart attack brought to an abrupt end newly laid plans to enjoy retirement.

Mayor Ely was 65 and a life-long resident of Northville. He was known by everyone as "Pete". He was halfway through his term as first mayor of the city. He had served as the last village mayor and was a village council member for 10 years from 1942 to 1952.

Active in nearly everything that involved Northville, Mayor Ely was widely known throughout the state for his many endeavors as representative of our community.

In addition to his council duties, Mayor Ely was the city's representative on the Wayne County Board of Supervisors. His numerous other activities included membership in the Rotary club, member and past master of 136 F. & A. M. Masons of Northville, past patron of the Orient Chapter 77 of the Order of Eastern Star, charter member and past commander of the Lloyd H. Green Post 147 of the American Legion and membership in the First Presbyterian church. He was to have received his 40-year Legion membership pin this week.

For 37 years until last September "Pete" had been a substation operator for the Detroit Edison company. On the occasion of his retirement 150 friends and fellow employees honored him with a farewell party. He was given a gold ring and a portable electric saw to help build his Rifle lake summer cottage near Rose City.

Later "Pete" was presented with an album showing scenes of earlier days with the company and of his retirement banquet.

As a mayor and councilman "Pete" Ely was known for his steadfast loyalty to the community and all the people he represented.

Occasionally, he would take a position that became unpopular and politically unwise, but because he was convinced that it was best for his community, "Pete" would "stick to his guns".

He abhorred any suggestion of secrecy in city government and always insisted that the press was represented at meetings.

Mayor Ely was stricken suddenly Saturday afternoon and rushed to Harper hospital. He died Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m.

City flags were at half mast this week, while merchants displayed their street flags in honor of Mayor Ely. All stores closed from 2 until 2:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Mayor Ely lived all his life in Northville. He was born September 14, 1892 the son of Peter Ely and Nettie Hosmer. He was married December 12, 1919 to Lydella Murdock, the daughter of a local druggist.

He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Kent Esbaugh of Grand Rapids. Other survivors include two brothers, Tracy of Livonia and Willard of Dania, Florida; a sister, Mrs. Marguerite Vroman of Northville, and an uncle, Willard A. Ely of Northville. Three grandchildren also survive.

A daughter, Jean Anne, died in infancy in 1921.

A military funeral was conducted under the auspices of the American Legion. Honorary pallbearers were Councilmen A. Malcolm Allen, John Canterbury, Earl Reed and Ed Welch, Chief Joseph Denton, Attorney Philip Ogilvie, Herman Hartner, director of public works and City Manager John Robertson.

The Reverend John O. Taxis of the First Presbyterian church officiated. Burial was in a family plot at Rural Hill cemetery.

Mayor Claude N. Ely

See Allen As New Mayor

The city council's regular meeting this week was rescheduled for Monday after the death of Mayor Claude Ely last Sunday.

Presumably, one of the first matters of business will be the selection of a new mayor.

The charter provides that in the event of a vacancy a qualified replacement will be chosen by the council.

It is considered most likely that the council will call for A. Malcolm Allen, mayor pro tem, to resign as councilman and become Northville's second mayor.

In this event the council will then be charged with the duty of choosing another councilman.

Indications are that strong consideration is already being given Harvey Ritchie, who missed council election by 14 votes last April.

Bobby In Hospital

Bobby Wilson will be operated on at University hospital, Ann Arbor, tomorrow in an effort to repair a severe heart damage that is causing the eight-year-old boy to grow steadily blind.

William Wilson, Bobby's father, said that doctors at the hospital have given his son a "slim chance to live".

Wilson was an ambulance driver for the Casterline Funeral home when the family lived on North Center street until last last year.

Sports Car Show

A caravan of Mercedes-Benz sport cars will be on display at Petz Bros. agency in Northville for four days beginning Friday.

Owner Wilbur Petz stated that six of the famous foreign-made models will be available for demonstration driving. Petz Bros. is located at 200 South Main street.

Carnival to Feature Police Skin Divers

The Michigan state police will present the famous "skuba divers" at the Northville P.T.A. carnival next month.

Police Chief Joseph Denton said Trooper LaMar Erb will supervise an exhibit of the specially trained team of state troopers who do special skin diving. They are often called to recover drowning victims, lost articles, and boats that are sunk in Michigan's many lakes or rivers.

Pictures will also be on display depicting the types of emergency work performed by the "skuba divers".

The annual carnival will be held this year in the community building, the elementary and high schools on May 2.

Plans a'Plenty for Clean-Up

The Beautify Northville campaign took on a full head of steam this week as it rolled towards a month-long program of events beginning May 1.

Cub Scouts of Den 8, Pack 721, were scheduled to begin the organized work with a sweeping "pickup" of litter along tracks and South Main street entrance into the city. The scouts will start their clean-up Saturday morning at 9:30.

Another attraction planned to give the campaign a running start is an old-fashioned "Dutch Clean-up" in the business district. Brushes will be issued to every merchant in the downtown area Thursday, May 1 for an hour-long "scrub fest" of city streets and sidewalks.

The Northville fire truck will spray walks and streets in the business district at 9 a.m. All parking of cars downtown will be banned for one hour to permit the "scrub fest". Each merchant will be asked to scrub down the walks and street directly in front of his store.

Northville's clean-up committee cannot organize all the community clean-up work. But they are making it as convenient as possible for residents to beautify their own homes and yards.

Plans are nearing completion for a "work pool". This reserve of workers will be available for hiring to do odd jobs around the home.

The clean-up committee will seek workers, as well as jobs for the workers to do. Any youngster or man who wishes to perform odd jobs may leave his name, age and phone number with the "Odd Jobs" desk at The Record office.

The clean-up committee also asks that residents having work to be done will notify the "Odd Jobs" desk at The Record of their request. A clean-up committee member will handle all the requests and attempt to see that anyone seeking work or help will be accommodated.

To encourage participation by residents in the clean-up drive a special "before and after" contest is being sponsored.

Prizes will be offered to the entrants who are judged to have done the best job of beautifying an "eyesore".

Anyone may enter. The Record will take "before and after" pictures which will be submitted to the judges. Residents must call The Record to schedule the picture before their project begins and again when it is completed.

The Beautify Northville committee will meet to finalize plans tonight (Thursday) at the city hall at 8 o'clock.

Suburban Shrine To Fete Judge Bowles

Members of the Suburban Shrine club will celebrate "Judge George E. Bowles Night" next Monday at the Plymouth Elks lodge. The event will honor Bowles, a resident of Plymouth and Wayne county circuit judge.

The program, previously planned for Arbor-Lil, will begin at 7 p.m.

A TYPICAL "before and after" situation for the "Beautify Northville" campaign is demonstrated in the above pictures. A messy pile of brush and weeds quickly disappears after the "phantom" with rake

In hand warns the "eyesore" cameraman to take his flashbulbs elsewhere. Residents will be offered prizes for the best "before and after" results. Pictures will be taken by The Record upon request.

FIRST CITY COUNCIL — Claude "Pete" Ely sat at the head of the council table as last village mayor and first mayor of the city. He's shown above with the first city council. Seated (l. to r.) are: Earl Reed, Clerk Mary Alexander, John Stubenvoll, A. Malcolm Allen, John Canterbury and the mayor; standing, Treasurer A. Russell Clarke and Attorney Philip Ogilvie. (More pictures, page 5.)

The group, comprised of members from Northville, Plymouth and Livonia, will meet in Northville on May 13.

Plans are being completed at this time for a new exhibit in the Dunning-Hough library in Plymouth. This is in accordance with the plan to rotate the artists' pictures shown there every three months. The current exhibit will be removed on April 26 and a new group of paintings will be hung by Jessie Hudson and her committee of Mabel Bacom and John Van Haren.

A new guest exhibitor, Mrs. Lynn Dean Schmiedeke, will have paintings shown in the special showing. Mrs. Schmiedeke is a resident of Plymouth, who teaches art in the Ann Arbor school system and is studying for her master's degree. She is a member of the Ann Arbor Art Association and was one of the group featured in a large exhibit in the Rackham Galleries earlier this year.

Last year this show attracted a large viewing audience and business manager, Mrs. McKenzie, said it is hoped that the area's interest in art will be further stimulated with this year's exhibit.

Hope Springs Eternal

The catalogue. It's here!

You pour over seed books showing flowers and vegetables because planting time is here.

Luscious pictures of ripe, red juicy tomatoes, corn higher than elephants' eyes, and super, giant larkspurs. An enthralling book, the seed catalogue.

Forgotten are last year's dreary board of cutworms, potato bugs and hungry pheasants looking for a free meal.

You hum to yourself while looking for trowel and spade. Gone are the weeds that shoot up overnight and that late frost that wiped out your small patch of lettuce last year.

In your mind's eye there are only lush beds of beautiful sweet peas climbing the back fence and an abundance of ripe, sweet melons.

At dinner your husband says, "Where'd you get those awful fingernails?"

And you worked too long your first day out — pass the sunburn lotion and the liniment, please!

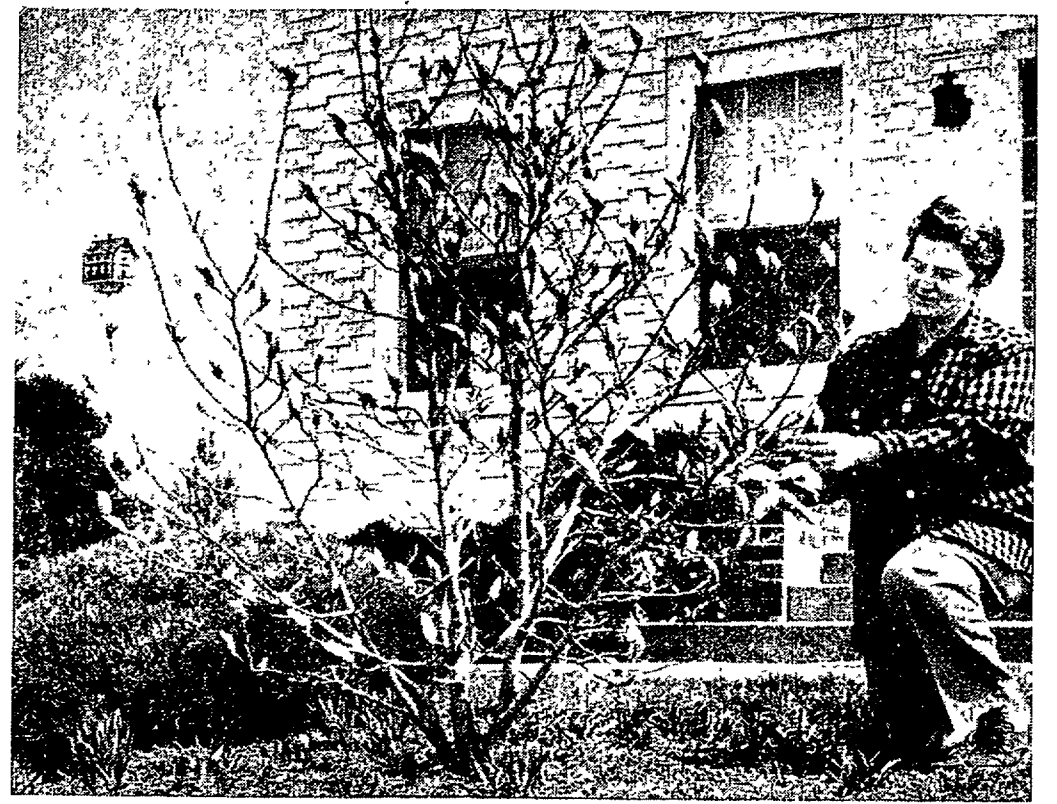

But when the family says, "Pass the homegrown vegetables," and a friend admires the flowers, you knew it was all worth while.

Pass the catalogue.

Gardeners Respond To Warm Weather

TOO NICE OUTDOORS — So Mrs. Joseph Denton of 503 Randolph, takes advantage of the weather to re-pot some of her house plants and revitalize others. Mrs. Denton also has a beautiful flower garden with many perennial plants in her backyard.

MAGNOLIAS ABOUT TO BLOSSOM — Mrs. Robert Merriam, 18910 Beck road, prunes her magnolia tree in front of the family home, a 100-year-old former farm house. Did you join the other gardeners who were outside, planting, weeding, transplanting, cultivating or spraying?

Still Time to Register For "Heart" Classes

Homemakers can still register for the free "Heart of the Home" classes of the Michigan Heart Association to be held in the Livonia area according to Mrs. Hannah R. Pretzer of Wayne State university who conducts the classes.

The opening class will be held on May 8 and will meet at the Rose-dale Garden's Civic Association building, 9611 Hubbard, from 1 to 3 p.m. There will be a series of four classes.

BROWNIE TROOP 4

Brownie Troop 4 met Monday at the scout building and had refreshments. Then they all hiked up to the woods near Resthaven and had a friendship circle. On the way back they picked flowers.

4. Mr. Ellison gave the Board a verbal report on his attendance at the North Central Association meeting in Chicago.

5. Members of the Teachers' Club presented a plan for an over-all salary increase of 7 percent for faculty members. Copy of the proposal is on file in the office of the Superintendent. This was a voluntary recommendation by the Teachers' Club and would cost the Board approximately $12,000.00 to $14,000.00 more than the present annual increment of $200.00.

The Board advised the salary committee that it is anxious to do its best for the faculty financially, but is at present powerless to make any promises on salaries at all, due to the State's delinquency in forwarding State Aid payments to the schools. Board promised to consider the committee's proposal when a full board should be in attendance and as the financial picture firms up for next year.

6. Mr. Littell discussed with the Board the results of his negotiations with the Wayne County Road Commission relative to the pedestrian overpass which the Commission has agreed to place over the Eight Mile Road cut-off. Mr. Littell recommended that Board accept consummation of this transaction with qualifications as previously reported, whenever the Road Commission is ready. Board concurred in this recommendation.

7. Mr. Littell also discussed with the Board the contract for laboratory equipment with the Laboratory Equipment Company of Mineola, Long Island. The contract had been sent to Mr. Littell for approval. Mr. Littell suggested further investigation.

8. Mr. Miller, of the Green Ridge Nursery, presented preliminary sketches of a landscaping proposal for the Amerman School. These plans are merely for the purpose of determining the extent of the Board's thinking, with no estimates of cost, as yet.

Mr. Miller was asked to supply prices as soon as possible on the seeding of the west slope of the Amerman School, below the baseball field, this being the area of most immediate concern.

9. Kitchen Equipment contract: Mr. Littell has not yet approved the contract with Great Lakes Hotel Supply Company who were the low bidders, and Mr. Ellison further investigated the equipment they propose to sell us while in Chicago last week.

Mr. Willis moved that the contract for kitchen equipment be awarded to the lowest bidder, at $42,642.00 the Great Lakes Hotel Supply Company. Mr. Clark supported. Motion carried.

10. Mr. Kay produced a proposal for blacktopping part of the area back of the Amerman School. Price was procured from the Ja-Ron Asphalt Paving Company, 27,471 feet at 18¢ per square foot — $4,944.78. Tabled for further study and additional bids.

Report of Special Committees:

Mr. Crump of the Curriculum Committee, presented a written report of the activities of the committee during February and March. The Committee expects to complete its work during April and will very likely be able to present its findings to the Board at its next regular meeting.

Upon motion by Mr. Willis and second by Mr. Clark the meeting was adjourned at 12:10 A.M.

Fire Destroys Barn, Granary Building

TOTAL LOSS — John and Peggy Gibson unhappily survey the ruins of their grandfather's barn. An early morning fire completely destroyed the barn, a granary building along with 2,000 fruit crates and combine and baler last Friday. The Gibson farm is located at Sheldon and Six Mile roads.

Fire completely destroyed a barn and granary building on a Sheldon road farm owned by Ralph Gibson, 44711 West Six Mile road, in the early morning hours last Friday.

Ten tons of hay, some 2,000 fruit crates and a combine and baler, all housed in the barn, were also destroyed by the flames.

The buildings were located on Sheldon road near Six Mile adjacent to the residence of Gibson's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Gibson.

The fire was first noted from the elder Gibsons' residence, however. A daughter, Myra, awakened at 3 a.m. to see the reddened skies and called the fire department. Other reports came from as far away as Telegraph road where a sheriff's patrol car spotted the bright glow.

Northville firemen kept the flames from spreading into nearby fields and the John Gibson home. The fire smoldered throughout the next day.

Gibson reported that prowlers are frequently noted in the area and that Thursday several motorcycles had been parked near the barn. He theorized that someone had left a burning cigarette in the building. There was no electric power to the barn.

BIBLE REVEALS TITLE DEED

The Now magazine tells of a woman in Kansas who opened her Bible recently and found the deed to her house for which she had been searching since 1937. Let's hope that she had another Bible that she was using during this time. However, the Bible, though the world's best seller, is probably the most ignored book. Its practical uses run all the way from a pious centerpiece to paper press to preserve the flower from a loved one's casket! The Bible has a much better use than this. In fact, the Title Deed to a Mansion in glory can be found in the Bible. John 14:2-3, "In my Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also." Here is a treasure which awaits all who will repent by turning their backs on a life of sin to cast in their lot with the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. Start searching the Gospel of John with the prayer on your heart for God to reveal the way to a home in heaven.

25 Years for Russ Amerman

The Northville Record

THE OLDEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY — EST. 1868 Thursday, April 24, 1958—9

Twenty-five years ago this week, the young principal of Northville high school stepped up from that position and into the job as superintendent of Northville schools.

At his desk in a red brick building next to the high school he surveyed his new job.

The Depression was at its worst, and Northville's teachers were facing the possibility of going unpaid. The new superintendent made a decision, then arranged to issue $11,000 in scrip to meet the faculty payroll and other obligations.

Such was the start of Russell H. Amerman's career as superintendent 25 years ago, today.

A few days later, he appeared before a group of Northville businessmen and in words that ring true even today said:

"Several problems face our schools at the moment. What will happen to them in the years to come? Along what road shall we travel? And how shall we meet the added difficulty of troubled expenses?"

In the 25 years since then, Amerman has come to be one of Northville's most highly-regarded citizens. It's a regard based partly on his conscientiousness in solving those problems he cited in 1933, and partly on his devotion to Northville's youth — a devotion that ultimately guides him in every decision.

Said Principal Elroy Ellison this week:

"From the first time I knew Russ, he has always stressed one basic principle: 'Whatever you do, think first about whether it's good for the students.'"

To make sure that Northville students do have what they need in the way of schools, teachers and facilities, Amerman puts in a schedule that would make a less devoted man shudder.

His work day begins no later than 8 a.m. and often earlier, even on mornings after a past-midnight session with the school board.

The day is filled with a steady round of business: calls from architects and salesmen, talks with parents and faculty members, studies of blueprints and financial reports, meetings in Detroit and Ann Arbor, a look at a maintenance problem or the new high school site.

Some weeks, he is away from home every night, meeting with the school board, architects, community groups, the city council, or any one of a dozen groups.

Yet he still manages to keep in touch with the students. At basketball games, he cheers with the best of them, and when Northville's debaters are on stage he's very apt to be in the audience.

Even in the few hours when he is free from school matters, Amerman turns to other activities. Over the years, these have included:

— continued interest in Rotary club affairs, which has earned him the unofficial title of "Mr. Rotary" in Northville and consideration for the district governorship.

— work with crippled children, including 16 years as executive secretary of the Wayne out-county chapter of the Society for Crippled Children and Adults. Several years ago, he was appointed to a life membership on the board of directors.

— the past presidencies of the Wayne county Superintendents Association and the district chapter of the Michigan Education Association.

— work with "slow" children, which helped lead to the establishment of a day-school for special students at Wayne county training school.

— church affairs, including teaching a Sunday school class at the First Methodist church.

— the safety patrol program, which resulted in Northville becoming the first school district outside Detroit to have a team of safety boys.

But the bulk of his time goes into Northville schools, and especially into two particular problems: finances and construction.

From the day he was forced to issue scrip to teachers in 1933, finances have been a continuing headache. The school budget — $60,000 when he started — has grown to about $650,000, and the problems have increased proportionately.

At present, with the school system growing rapidly and public concern over taxes greater than usual, the task of providing a good, economical educational system is more challenging than ever.

New school construction was slow to come, but has stepped up greatly with the postwar growth of the area.

When Amerman became superintendent, Northville had a grade school and the present high school. In 1936, the grade school went up in smoke and was replaced with the present Main street school. It was added to in 1949.

In the early 1950's, the school board realized that another elementary school was needed. The result was the present Amerman school, opened and dedicated to the superintendent in 1955.

"He felt highly honored and very humble," said Mrs. Amerman, "but most of all, he felt it was something to live up to."

Then came the Amerman school addition last fall, and now the imposing new high school on a hill-top overlooking the community.

Born in Ypsilanti, Amerman grew up in Belleville and was graduated from Hillsdale college. He then taught in Montpelier, Ohio, and served as principal in Mineral Point, Wisconsin. Coming to Northville in 1927, he served as high school principal and science teacher and directed the choir and band.

Six years later, he was appointed principal upon the sudden death of T. J. Knapp. Shortly after that, he made a promise which has been more than well-fulfilled:

"I am concerned not with making myself a spectacular success but rather with endeavoring to make as few mistakes as I can."

Future Teachers Told Of Overseas Teaching

A eye-witness account of teaching overseas was presented before the Future Teachers of America last week.

Miss Joan Mishika, who taught in France before coming to teach in Northville, discussed her overseas experiences at an FTA pot-luck supper.

Next Thursday, FTA members in the sophomore, junior and senior classes will journey to Eastern Michigan college in Ypsilanti for a day's visit.

Nearly 800 Michigan high school students are expected to attend the University Michigan all-state music and drama program at Interlochen.

TRAINING CAMP for several hours Thursday and Saturday was at Cass Benton park. Further tryouts and practice sessions are scheduled for the same place this Saturday morning.

OOPS — Sonny Spaeth got a bad hop on this grounder but fielded the next one like a pro.

NOW SWING — Jim Spagnuolo gets some batting tips from Stan Johnston.

Big Day for Midget Tryouts

Cass Benton park was a miniature Tigertown last week.

Nearly 100 young ballplayers turned out Thursday and Saturday to show their wares and try for a spot on one of Northville's midget league teams.

Under careful scrutiny of Recreation Director Stan Johnston, his staff, and several players from the Northville varsity, each of the junior sluggers got a chance to show what they could do.

Some of them will be placed on two midget teams — the Orioles and Braves — which will compete in the Livonia recreation league this summer. Others will be assigned to four knot-hole teams which will compete among themselves.

"All boys who try out will be assigned to one team or another," said Johnston. "No one will be left out."

Johnston said the recreation staff will place each boy according to his ability, so that each will have the type of competition that enables him to develop best.

The two 11-13 teams are now nearly filled, and will begin their schedules in May. The other four teams, which will include boys aged 9-11, still have room for more players. Interested boys may register at the scout hall at 9 a.m. Saturday morning.

Northville's other recreation league teams will not get into action until after school is out in June. They will include Class E (18 and under), Class F (15 and under) and pee-wee (6-8) teams.

In addition, Northville will again have several adult teams in competition this year. Further plans for those squads will be announced later.

THE LONG WAIT — Midgets wait in line for their turn in an outfield practice session. All candidates, formed into several tryout groups, had a chance to bat, field and perform other baseball skills.

QUESTION PERIOD — Midgets quiz Johnston about their schedule for the year, future tryouts and scores of other details that only an eager young ballplayer could think of.

Mustangs Win 11-Inning Thriller

A misjudged flyball broke up an 11-inning pitchers' battle Monday evening and gave the Northville Mustangs a hard-earned 2-1 win over Clarkston in their first league game of the year.

Pitcher Jeff Goodrich went the entire route for Northville, giving up only three hits and striking out 12.

But Goodrich's brilliant showing was almost topped by Clarkston's Dave Gaddis, who likewise pitched the entire 11 innings. Gaddis allowed but four hits and one walk, and fanned 19 of the 39 Mustangs who faced him.

Goodrich and Gaddis were locked in a tense hitless duel for five innings until Northville broke the ice with a safety in the fifth.

But the Wolves scored first, pushing across a run in the sixth on a single, two walks, and an error.

John White, who had two of Northville's four hits, tied it up in the seventh when he blasted a triple to send Gary Morgan home from first.

Then in the top of the 11th, Joe Kritch reached third on a fluke triple that fell 20 feet from the waiting Clarkston outfielder. Bill Boyd slammed out a sacrifice fly to bring Kritch home with the winning run.

Goodrich retired Clarkston on an easy fly and two strike-outs to wrap up the game for Coach Al Jones and the Mustangs.

By comparison, the Mustangs had little to cheer about last Thursday, when a heavy-hitting Plymouth squad belted Northville pitchers for 14 hits and rambled to an 11-1 rout.

Goodrich started and was relieved by Cap Pethers, but neither could stem the tide. Myron Hopper paced Plymouth with four for four, including a long home run.

The Mustangs picked up only three hits against Hopper and Ken Knipschild.

Netters Win, 5-0, In Clean Sweep

Northville's veteran tennis team got off to a promising start Thursday by registering a clean sweep over Clarkston.

Playing near-flawless tennis, the Mustangs downed the Trojans 5-0 without losing a set.

The singles results: Tom Williams — 6-0, 6-2; Jim Hammond — 6-0, 6-1; Bob Baker — 6-0, 6-4.

The doubles results: Dick Buckley and Ed Wittenberg — 6-1, 6-1. Dennis Fallon and Dave Janetzke — 6-0, 6-0.

Braders Win Playoff

The Thursday Night Ladies' bowling league ended the season with a tie for first place between Brader's and Tewksbury Jewelers.

The roll off took place Sunday night at Royal Recreation. The Brader team emerged the victors.

65 New Candidates Out For Novi's Little League

Novi's Little League was back in business this week as some 65 new candidates tried out for positions on the league's four teams.

Chairman Bill Hansor said the league will operate much as it did last year.

The four teams, which again are sponsored by Novi firms, will be the Fiberglass Sluggers, the National Bank Bandits, the Paragon Steelers, and the Young Door Tigers.

The league schedule will open in the middle of May, Hansor said, to allow more games and an earlier end to the season. Each team will play two games a week.

The primary problem at the moment is filling managerial positions. Men interested in managing a team may contact Hansor at FT-9-2083.

Not all of the 65 new candidates will be placed on one of the four Little League squads, since only 24 openings are available. Those who do not make a team will probably be assigned to a "minor league" team.

Hansor said boys who played last year and are now too old will probably be organized into a separate league similar to the Babe Ruth program.

(Little League players must be between 8 and 12 years of age.)

Hansor and other Little League officials will meet tonight to work out final details of this year's program.

Last year, in its first season, the Little League offered organized baseball to nearly 100 youngsters on both regular and minor league teams.

Golf League Opens Next Tuesday

Get out those irons, men, the Northville Golf League is ready to start play!

Tuesday night play opens on another 20-week season at Brae Burn golf course on Five Mile road. League President Ed Sprunk reports that a few openings still remain for anyone interested in playing.

Matches begin at 4:30 with teams of two members each competing on a handicap basis. A banquet with prizes for the winners climaxes the schedule.

Dave Adams Runs On Allegheny Squad

Dave Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson E. Adams, 44009 Brookwood drive, Northville, is a member of the track squad at Allegheny college in Pennsylvania.

Adams graduated in 1957 from Northville high school where he excelled in football and track.

 St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Northville

ESTIMATING THE VALUES IN OUR LIVES

The Apostle Paul was being transported as a prisoner to Rome to be tried there before Caesar to whom he had appealed. The voyage on the Mediterranean proved to be perilous and disastrous. Off the island of Crete a tempest arose that was so violent that the sailors could no longer control the ship's course but gave her up to be driven by the wind. On the following day much of the freight was cast overboard so that there would be less danger of the ship's foundering. On the third day the huge main yard was thrown into the sea. As the dark storm continued neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and all hope of being saved was abandoned by the sailors. Then the ship was lightened still more. All the wheat was cast into the swirling waters. Finally the ship reached the island of Malta. Here, the vessel ran aground and was wrecked by the surf. But by the grace of God not one of the 276 lives was lost.

It is certain that had the ship not been lightened of its heavy cargo, it would have sunk in the deep Mediterranean.

This voyage of the Apostle is typical of life. Spiritually speaking, many people are attempting to carry too much worthless cargo and will come to ruin unless they cast it overboard.

Therefore, it is extremely necessary that we evaluate our lives correctly. Only that which is genuine and indispensable dare we retain. Spiritual values will enrich us for time and for eternity.

That is what the Apostle referred to when he wrote to the Philippians: "But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord; for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but refuse, that I may win Christ, and be found in Him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith; that I may know Him, and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being made conformable unto His death; if by means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead."

(Chapter 3:7-11)

Retarded Children Display ADF Work

Out at the Our Lady of Providence School near Northville, the students live in a special world.

For them, it's the best of all possible worlds. For these are retarded children — or, in the gentle phrase of their teachers, exceptional children.

At the school they are able to feel at home, as they never could in a world of normal people. They can make friends and learn to minimize or overcome their handicaps. They are shown how to care for themselves and how to get along with and help others.

They advance as far as they can in studies and skills. The school, staffed by the Daughters of St. Mary of Providence, has a capacity for 80 girls — and it is completely filled, with a waiting list. This is the beginning. The nuns hope to expand the school located on Beck road near Six Mile, in the near future.

The Archdiocesan Development Fund made the school possible by advancing a considerable sum of money for the erection and furnishing of the first unit.

The ADF has also obtained land for a parallel school for boys. Priests and brothers experienced in this work have agreed to staff the school when it is ready for occupancy.

Money for the ADF is raised each year by a campaign among all the Catholics of the archdiocese. Last year Catholics contributed more than $1,600,000 to the drive to enable the ADF to assist a multitude of works of the Catholic church. The 16th annual ADF campaign will be held in every county in the archdiocese this year from April 27 through May 12.

A retarded child can be born into any family, regardless of education, economic status, background, race or religion. In the United States, 300 retarded children are born every day in the year. Three per cent of the population — almost 5,000,000 — are afflicted.

Hidden Valley Is Dream Come True

HIDDEN VALLEY — Shown above are two of seven homes now occupied at Hidden Valley subdivision in Northville. In the distance is the valley, where a half-acre pond will soon be constructed for use as a recreation area.

Wrought Iron Adds Beauty to Home

Many homeowners appreciate the grace and richness of wrought iron railings and columns and recognize how much they can do to enhance the appearance and value of the home but hesitate to include them in improvement or new construction plans because of the feeling that they are too expensive.

Modern methods, however, have greatly reduced the costs involved in the fabrication of wrought iron. In fact, cost of wrought railings and columns is often less than that of masonry and wood where good design and construction practice is followed.

Good wrought iron is practically indestructible and, with a minimum of maintenance such as occasional painting at intervals dictated by climatic conditions, it will last indefinitely.

Ornamental iron work finds many uses, both inside and outside, on old and new structures.

Wrought iron railings may be used on both exterior and interior staircases and balconies, around porches, stoops, landings and platforms, "airing porches", swimming pools, etc., wherever an added touch of beauty is desired or danger of falls exists.

Wrought iron columns, like railings, are gaining increasing popularity in interior decorative and structural applications such as balcony supports, room dividers, etc.

TREE PROTECTION

If tree limbs are split in a windstorm, do not grab hold of them and pull them from the tree. If you do, you may pull off a long strip of bark from the main trunk and thus permanently disfigure the tree. Cut limbs off evenly with a saw. If dangerously high from the ground let a tree expert do the work. He will doctor the tree.

placed the utility area. A central or individual heating units can be the choice of the owner. Cubage is 21,867 cubic feet. The exterior design remains the same. Exposed rafter ends, wide horizontal or shingle siding and home-made shutters are all worked in shades of rustic brown. Floor area is 1182 square feet. A small, pleasant new subdivision, built along a hillside that slopes into a valley, is nearing completion in Northville.

Seven homes are now occupied in Hidden Valley, located on Clement near Seven Mile, and another three are still to come.

This summer, a small lake will be developed in the valley behind the homes, providing a recreation area for the more than 20 children and their families who now live there.

"It's been a dream for many years," said Mrs. Albert Northup. "We've planned it as a country park area, with nice homes, a pleasant view, and a good place for children to play."

Mr. and Mrs. Northup platted the land two years ago, had fences and a barn removed, and had 8,000 yards of dirt hauled in to develop the hillside lots.

The homes are built by their son, John Northup, and are sold by the C. A. Lipa company.

The seven homes — all designed as bi-levels and tri-levels to allow maximum use of land — range between $20,000 and $25,000 and offer family kitchens with built-in features, fireplaces, activity rooms, and two bathrooms.

In addition, they feature center hall plans, two-car garages, and other custom features designed to meet the needs of individual families.

REFLECTED HEAT

Get more heat from your radiators by slipping a sheet of aluminum foil behind them.

SECOND COATS

To prevent checking or wrinkling avoid applying final coats of paint until undercoats are thoroughly hardened.

STORING CORDS

Avoid extension cords knotting up or kinking during storage. Wrap them around large empty tin cans before putting them away. A large empty juice can is ideal for this. Tuck the tail of the cord under the last turn to prevent unraveling.

TOENAILING TIP

A neasy trick will keep 2x4's from slipping when being toenailed. Drive an extra nail just behind the loose board. Driving it in only an inch or so will keep the wood from slipping. It will pull out easily afterwards.

GLASS EDGES

To round or bevel the edge of freshly cut glass wrap a piece of ordinary sandpaper around a sponge or a small piece of foam rubber and sand the edge smooth.

SPEAKING for the Record

By BILL SLIGER

Sunday our community lost one of its most loyal friends. Aside from his family, there was nothing "Pete" Ely loved more than Northville.

Often he would recall his days as a boy playing along the river, the tracks or fields now covered with homes.

At council sessions "Pete" could tell you where and when every piece of sewer or water pipe had been installed in Northville.

He was extremely proud of the fact that he was our last village president and first mayor of the city.

"Pete" was proud that his community was debt free; that he was from "Bealtown"; and that Northville was a nice little community in which to live.

Occasionally, during council sessions when "Pete" opposed a measure because of a principle, he would let go with an outburst that defined his position emphatically and unmistakably.

Other times, "Pete" would control himself and proudly and quietly turn in his chair to whisper to this reporter, "Didn't get mad, did I?"

Our mayor was a man of extreme high integrity who possessed a remarkably simple means for reaching a decision. And although his presence will be missed at the council table, "Pete" leaves this guide to help all future councilmen: "Is it good for Northville?"

The sudden death of Mayor Ely shocked all members of Northville's official family. Their comments follow.

Personally, I will feel the loss of "Pete" deeply. He has been my lifelong friend. He will also be missed by the community to which he devoted so much time.

A. Malcolm Allen, Councilman

Men like the late Mayor Ely are unfortunately too few in number. His long and deep devotion to this community, his forthright courage to fight for everything he thought best for all the people of Northville without regard for personal or political consequences, and his unquestioned high ethical standards make his loss to this community one that will be felt for a long, long time.

In addition to his importance to our community from a personal standpoint, I deeply feel the loss of one of the finest friends and counselors I have ever had.

John S. Canterbury, Councilman

Northville just sustained a great loss in the passing away of our dear mayor, Claude "Pete" Ely. He will long be remembered for his time and effort in municipal affairs of which he gave unstintingly as one of the city fathers.

To his family and many friends my deepest sympathy.

Earl L. Reed, Councilman

It was with keen regret and a sense of personal loss that I learned of the passing of our mayor. During the years of our association at the council table I have come to admire and respect him for the courage of his convictions.

He gave unstintingly of his time in fulfilling the duties of his office, and in his love of Northville and his concern for the welfare of all its citizens he had no equal.

Ed Welch, Councilman

Northville's number one citizen's passing last Sunday left a hard-to-fill vacancy on the city council.

Mayor Claude "Pete" Ely considered the welfare of Northville in making all his private and public decisions. I, personally, have lost a true friend.

John C. Robertson, City Manager

A man like "Pete" with his willingness to serve the public comes along far too seldom. His passing is a great loss, not only to myself individually, but to the city as a whole.

Philip Ogilvie, City Attorney

Gubernatorial Line-up

POLITICAL SIGNS of 1958 point toward the voter as the man of the year.

Both major parties are busy trying to put down rebellions. A change of philosophy might be in the making for Republicans, but Democrats envision their brightest hour in Michigan.

The developments make the voter a king whose decision next November 4 will decide the kind of government the state will have at least two more years.

Governor Williams, at the crest of a decade of power, is seeking his sixth consecutive term.

Republicans have two candidates ready for the primary with another said to be ready in the wings.

Democrats were the first to run into trouble.

A group of rebels headed by former Congressman Frank E. Hook, of Iron River, charged that Williams and labor bosses are "leading the state down the road to socialism".

They argue the loyal, oldtime Democrat is being read out of the party, with Williams and "the crew-cuts" of a latter-day liberal wing taking command and running the show.

State Chairman Neil Staebler immediately denounced the rebels.

Republicans hope the group will help them. It has already entered a state in the Democratic primary for the first time since Williams became the party choice for governor in 1948. The campaign can show how much opposition there is to the governor within his party.

Williams will be going into the election with Senator John B. Swainson (D-Detroit) as his running mate. Democrats are already guessing whether they will win by 300,000 or 600,000 votes.

Dissension among Republicans is on a more idealistic plane.

The active 14th district organization in Detroit has repudiated "modern Republicanism," charging it is a "me-too" approach doomed to defeat from the better-organized Democrats.

They call for a return to traditional conservative Republicanism. GOP leaders are fearful that the split-off will cause trouble when all are asked to back the candidate after the primary.

Considerable support for the conservative approach has developed among some legislators, who are pressuring Senator Edward Hutchinson (R-Fennville) to carry their banner.

The most likely Republican candidate is Paul D. Bagwell, professor of communications skills at Michigan State University, who has a leave of absence without pay.

His salary runs to $1,400 a month at the university.

Another candidate is little-known Richard I. Moore, a Wayne automobile salesman. His present political obscurity is reminiscent of 1949 when the politicians asked, "Who's Williams?"

Bagwell is 44, three years younger than Williams, and is nationally known as an educator and as once national president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

He suffered a football injury 26 years ago and the complications of polio made him permanently disabled. He walks with a cane.

Bagwell, who led the Republican ticket two years ago as candidate for auditor general, had led March of Dimes campaigns and other civic undertakings in Michigan.

Superimposed over the bickerings in each party and the formal appearance of candidates is the state of the state's finances and those of its people.

Michigan's state treasury is headed for a deficit that could climb to $65,000,000 next year. More than 415,000 workers are jobless. More government services are needed for an expanding population.

The search for answers to the problem has created still another campaign issue.

Williams is seeking a bigger budget and more taxes, pinpointed on corporations and banks.

Republicans are seeking to cut spending in state government and to delay new taxes until they finish a sweeping study of the state's revenue sources next year.

College Misfits

Babson Park, Mass. — A great hullabaloo is being raised about the need for space in our colleges to take care of all our young people of college age. To insist that college education become universal would be to lower our educational standards to the level of mediocrity. In the present world struggle of the survival of the fittest we need to turn out from our colleges something considerably better than mediocre teachers, scientists and businessmen. The colleges need something to work with in the first place; the large number of purposeless, immature high school graduates who find their way into our colleges have no business there!

Educators Must Set Their Own Houses In Order

What I am about to say will stir considerable controversy. Frequently I am asked if I do not think the large numbers who flunk out of college do not constitute a great national waste of manpower. The real waste is for colleges to continue to use funds for more buildings to house more and more incompetents who are bound to flunk out; or who, if they don't flunk, will drag down the level of performance. The problem which confronts us is one of intellectual honesty. It begins with secondary school headmasters who, with tongue in cheek, recommend for admission to college individuals whom they must know are not qualified for college.

Many college directors of admissions will tell you, in confidence, that the supply of fitted students is far from abundant. I could give cases in which principals have made parents, pupils and college officials believe the young people were something they really were not. They got them into college with obviously abstruse recommendations; then left them for the college authorities to flunk out and send home. I am told that a certain prep school guarantees your son's admission to the college of his choice, or your money back. What that school does not guarantee is to keep the son in college!

Parents Must Become Masters In Their Houses

A college education for sons and daughters is eagerly sought today by many parents more as a mark of social accomplishment than for the learning the degree should represent. One college dean has said this about the attitude of parents whose children flunk: The amazing reaction many times is: "But my son just can't flunk; what will the neighbors think?"

Inferior educational preparation for college, or in college, cannot be cured just by raising teachers' salaries and building new buildings. First, there must be a rekindling of the will to learn — something parents have a lot more to do with than they will admit. Second, colleges must make of education a privilege, not a right. Perhaps Sputnik No. 1 will prove to have been our great educational Pearl Harbor, a jolt into the realization that for self-defense we had better become intellectually honest with one another.

By Cindy

One day the third grade teacher at a local elementary school asked each of her students to draw a picture of the neighborhood store he or she liked best. And as you might expect, the heavy favorites turned out to be toy shops, soda bars and candy stores.

But there was one entry that surprised even the teacher. It was a carefully drawn picture of one of the National Bank of Detroit's neighborhood offices.

The artist was a nine-year-old girl named Cindy Murray. And when she was asked why she had chosen to draw our bank, she replied simply, "Because all the people there are so nice when I go in with my Mommy."

Pretty good reason, wouldn't you say?

We think Cindy's picture is one of the nicest compliments we've ever had, because it's tangible evidence of something that is very hard to put on paper: a warm and friendly spirit. Our sound management policies that provide solid strength and security, the customer convenience of 61 close-to-home offices—these specific facts are easy to express, but friendliness is rarely so well defined.

Won't you visit us soon yourself? There's a National Bank of Detroit office in your neighborhood. Open a savings or checking account there and get to know National Bank of Detroit. And we think you'll see what Cindy means.

More friends because we help more people
