

for the Record

By BILL SLIGER

Tomorrow Superintendent of Schools Russell Amerman will appear before the county tax allocation board to justify the 1958-59 school budget. Treasurer Eural Clark will accompany him.

The visit will be "old hat" to Amerman who has made the trip annually since 1935.

Specifically, Northville will ask to have a tentative budget approved that calls for expenditures of $666,043. Debt service requirements boost this total by $212,893.75.

Therefore, the board will be asking for a maximum millage allowance of 29.95.

Right offhand, this means an increase of nearly 9 mills in schools taxes (last year's rate was 21 mills).

Coupled with this, to add more gloom to the future tax picture in the city and township of Northville, is an anticipated boost in the state equalized valuation. The county has informed the township that its present assessed valuation of $8,391,410 will be equalized to $9,021,820. Add 10 per cent to this for the predicted state equalization and it becomes nearly $10,000,000.

The city's total equalized valuation in Wayne and Oakland county is $9,074,673. It is expected that only the Wayne county section of the city will be equalized upward by the state, thus bringing the total state equalized valuation of the city to roughly $9,900,000.

Last year the township's state equalized valuation was approximately $7,600,000, while the city was equalized by the state at $8,900,000.

Some of this boost in equalized valuation comes from new development, building, etc. Some 200 acres annexed from Novi township added to Northville's tax base, for example.

But roughly, without becoming too involved in this complexity of figures, the taxpayer can figure out that, if his state equalized valuation has been increased along with the millage rate, taxes can go only one way.

Finding someone to blame for this increase has become a favorite pastime.

One of the targets is the recent re-assessment program. But this holds little water when you realize that school taxes are paid on state equalized valuations. Regardless of local assessments, the state will apply an "equalization factor" to bring local valuations up to the figure it desires.

The new high school building program has also been criticized, but this, too, was voted by the people. And few can deny the need for a new high school.

Some confusion arose over the advertised fact that our bonded indebtedness payments would not exceed 13 mills when votes were sought for the $3,000,000 bond issue in 1956. Under a state program any indebtedness above 13 mills for school construction could be borrowed from the state.

This same plan holds true. But in the meantime the state doubled the equalized valuation of our school district. Thus 13 mills became a much larger figure than it had been previously.

The board could not foresee this development or these: That funds would be reduced by extending the limits of the bus transportation program; and that combined with the increased state equalized valuation of the school district from $10,000,000 to $18,000,000 would cost the district some $60,000 in state aid funds for distressed districts.

There is some hope for relief. The school board is basing its budget needs on a state equalized valuation of $18,000,000. It already appears that this total will be nearer $20,000,000 in the school district. Thus to raise the same amount of money, a lower millage rate, perhaps 28 mills, can be applied.

Little else can be expected to provide an escape from the climbing school taxes in the next two or three years. Even then, when large interest payments are reduced, some thought will probably be given to another elementary school.

Only the miracle of new industry in our school district offers hope.

Work towards this end would seem more constructive than shotgun blasting of public officials with unsubstantiated claims.

Seek Contributions to Ely Fund

Definite steps were taken this week to establish the Claude N. Ely Memorial Fund and begin accepting contributions.

In a meeting held Tuesday night members of the fund committee outlined the purpose and general rules governing the administration of the fund.

Primarily, the fund will be created to perpetuate the memory of Northville's last village president and first mayor of the city.

Mayor Ely died suddenly April 20 after serving the community in public office for 16 consecutive years. Specifically, the committee agreed to open a Claude N. Ely Memorial Fund account at the Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit in Northville.

A deadline of June 20 has been set for accepting contributions of any denomination. Names of all contributors to the fund will be listed in The Record at the conclusion of this period.

The committee has set $1,000 as a minimum goal for the fund. It is expected that these funds will be invested with yearly interest being used as a cash award in the name of the Ely Memorial.

2 Week School Post as Deadline Nears

FOR SERVICE TO THE CITY — Mrs. Arthur Carlson looks at the plaque she received at the Michigan Week banquet Monday night, honoring her as Northville citizen of the year.

Bea Carlson Is Named Our Citizen of the Year

Mrs. Arthur Carlson — whose activities span everything from civil defense and the Red Cross to Brownies and the American Legion — was named Northville's "Citizen of the year" Monday night.

The award was presented to her at the annual Michigan Week banquet by American Legion Commander James Madigan.

Some 70 guests heard Madigan re-cap the many activities in which Mrs. Carlson has participated since coming to Northville in 1934.

In 1948 she was instrumental in forming the Northville Business and Professional Women's club, and served as president for two years. She has been Red Cross chairman in Northville for five years, supervising its annual blood bank and forming community Red Cross classes.

Mrs. Carlson helped organize the Northville civil defense program and has been active in it since then.

Currently she is a member of the Coordinating Council, "Beautiful Northville" committee and other civic groups.

Active in veterans' organizations, she is an officer in the Benton Parkway auxiliary, poppy sale chairman for the American Legion, and a member of the VFW auxiliary.

She is a committee member for Brownie Troop 4, was active in Cub Scout affairs, and worked with the First Presbyterian church Sunday school for years.

Known as "Bea" to her many friends, she and her husband live at 201 Fairbrook.

In presenting the award, Madigan said Northville admires Mrs. Carlson for her "infectious enthusiasm." "Bea," he added, "stands for beloved."

Amerman is studying methods for determining how the annual award will be made. Tentatively, the committee decided that the award will be made through the school system. Each year Northville's mayor along with representatives of the school board will act as a committee to determine on what basis the award will be given.

The committee is hopeful that the award will provide an incentive to others to contribute toward the improvement of the community and that Mayor Ely's long record of service will stand as a symbol for future generations.

The fund will be established so that all monies can be returned to the city's general fund in the event it should ever be discontinued. It is also stipulated that all funds will be returned to contributors if the program does not materialize.

Letters were being prepared this week to all service organizations and clubs in the community urging participation in the fund. Anyone wishing to contribute may use the accompanying coupon. All contributions should be sent to the Claude N. Ely Memorial Fund, Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit, Northville.

Kindergarten Registration

Registration of kindergarten children for fall classes will be taken at a special information meeting next Monday.

Northville's kindergarten program will be explained to parents at the meeting, to begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Amerman school multi-purpose room.

Parents must supply proof of their child's birth date. To be eligible, children must reach their fifth birthday by next December 1.

Gary Off to Capitol With Safety Boys

Gary Lee Stobbe, 11, of Main Street school, has been named to represent Northville safety patrolers at the 22nd National AAA Safety Patrol Rally in Washington, D.C., May 8-11.

Gary, who lives at 422 Dubuar, will make the four-day, all-expense trip along with 100 other safety patrolers from the state as guests of the Automobile Club of Michigan.

The youngsters were selected as the most outstanding of the 50,000 patrol boys who daily safeguard their classmates at crossings at 2,200 Michigan elementary schools.

During the honor trip to Washington, they will join 30,000 other patrolers from across the United States and Canada for the traditional march down Constitution Avenue. The five-mile long parade is the largest held annually in the Capital.

The Michigan delegation will meet congressmen from their home districts at a special luncheon arranged by Auto Club in one of Washington's leading hotels. Other highlights of the trip include meeting entertainment world notables and visiting historic landmarks and important government buildings.

Bobby Triumphs In Heart Operation

Bobby Wilson surprised everyone by coming through with flying colors last week.

His doctors had given him only a slim chance of pulling through the delicate heart operation that was slowly blinding him, but seven hours after he went into the operation room Bobby was out of danger.

Bobby, 8, used to live in Northville until his family moved to Detroit. He spent most of his days here in the hospital.

The operation, which involved closing a tube that connects the two upper chambers of the heart, was originally scheduled for last December.

But it was postponed when Bobby developed a cold.

In the meantime, his father was out of a job. Refusing welfare aid, his father finally found a new job after Detroit papers told the story of Bobby's plight.

While awaiting the operation at University hospital in Ann Arbor, Bobby received scores of get-well messages from new-found friends in the Detroit and Northville area.

One was from Mayor Louis Mirani of Detroit, who said more than a million Detroiters were pulling for him.

They're Old Pals Now

Rev. John O. Taxis shared the limelight with one of the nation's leading railroad men Monday.

He presented the invocation at the Detroit Economic club's weekly luncheon in the Veterans' Memorial building.

After Rev. Taxis took his seat, the Economic club heard from George Pearlman, president of New York Central railroad.

To Seek Re-Election

Congresswoman Martha W. Griffiths has announced that she is seeking re-election to the U.S. House of Representatives for a third term.

Couse Is New President Of Detroit Businessmen

Northville's Walter L. Couse was elected president of the Greater Detroit Board of Commerce Tuesday.

Couse, who is general contractor for the new Northville high school, has been a Detroit engineer and contractor for 37 years. He succeeds advertising executive Ross Roy.

The presidency is one of the highest business honors in the Detroit area and has been held by such leading Detroit figures as the late John S. Coleman and Charles T. Fisher, Jr.

Filling Couse's vacated position as vice-president is Ray R. Eppert, new president of Burroughs corporation.

The Couses live on 45875 West Seven Mile. They have three daughters and one son.

Michigan Week Goes On After Mayor Wells' Visit

Seventy persons attended the Michigan Week banquet Monday night climaxing a busy day for Northville's Mayor James V. Wells.

Actually, it was a busy day for Northville's regular Mayor, Malcolm Allen, too.

Wells, mayor of the city of Roosevelt Park near Muskegon Heights, was Northville's exchange mayor. Allen was represented in Roosevelt Park by Councilmen Earl Reed and Ed Welch.

Mayor and Mrs. Wells were entertained and escorted throughout the city by Mayor Allen and members of the Michigan Week committee.

The visitors were greeted at 11 a.m. Monday by the prize-winning Northville high school band and when they left in the evening they took along two bottles of Northville's famous spring water.

In between Mayor and Mrs. Wells sandwiched in a schedule that included a parade up Main street, a flag-raising ceremony and council session, lunch and a tour at Northville State hospital and tours through Allen Monument Works and Northville Laboratories in addition to a sight-seeing trip of the area.

At the council meeting Mayor Wells was officially sworn in as mayor for the day. He exchanged views and problems with Allen, City Manager John Robertson and City Attorney Philip Ogilvie.

At Northville State hospital the officials were joined by a group of businessmen for lunch and an address by Dr. P. N. Brown, director of the hospital. Dr. Brown reviewed the history of the hospital and described its functions in treating the mentally ill.

The Methodist church banquet climaxed the day's activities. Mayor Allen presented the visiting mayor with a key to the city.

Featured speaker at the banquet was George W. Matthews of the Detroit Edison company. Matthews narrated a series of color slides made especially for Michigan Week and dealing with the wonders of the state.

Special guest of Mayor Allen was Mrs. Claude N. Ely, widow of Mayor Ely, who died suddenly two weeks ago.

As a special feature of the banquet, three products made in Northville were given away. Selection of the winners was made Tuesday. They were: D. B. Ebert, a barbecue grill manufactured by the Leslie L. Diesem company; Mrs. Malcolm Allen, products of Northville Laboratories, and John Stubbenvoll, cider and donuts from Parmenter's.

Co-chairmen of the mayor's exchange day program were L. M. Eaton and Leland Smith.

In other Michigan Week activities Clayton Myers heads the Education Day committee which plans to present corsages and buttoniers to all Northville teachers. The flowers will be given through the courtesy of the VFW.

George Clark, Essie Nirider, Leland Smith and Charles Freydl, Jr. compose a committee planning a special week end sale in several local stores.

Clark Out; Board Hit By Critics

With the deadline for filing petitions three days away Northville's board of education had but two candidates for a single vacancy to be filled at the June 9 election.

Donald B. Lawrence, 522 West Dunlap street, obtained petitions Tuesday for the post.

Robert J. Herter, 46327 Seven Mile road, filed petitions Tuesday. Efforts to reach Herter for confirmation and a statement on his candidacy were unsuccessful, however.

Eural Clark, treasurer of the board, announced Monday night he would not seek re-election. Clark has served both as treasurer and president of the board in a tenure that spreads over 18 years.

Despite the shortage of candidates, interest in board activities broiled in an outburst of citizen criticism at Monday night's regular meeting.

Representatives of the newly-formed Northville Township Tax committee vehemently attacked the board with a barrage of statements that suggested mismanagement of school funds.

The outburst brought quick replies from Superintendent Russell Amerman who offered to review the budget privately with any members of the group interested.

During the discussion Amerman pointed out that school records are audited yearly by a certified public accountant.

Smarting under the attack, Amerman stated Tuesday that he considered the remarks as "character assassination" and was "at the point of seeing an attorney."

Avoiding specific charges the board critics referred to "frills" in the new high school, poor curricula and teaching personnel.

The group, organized "in protest to increased assessments and taxes," was represented principally by Mrs. Carl H. Wilson, Six Mile road, and Alex M. Lawrence of Meadowbrook road, a Northville township trustee. Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Clark of Seven Mile road also participated in the discussion, but to a lesser degree.

Lawrence stated Tuesday that the organization had many members but no candidates for the board vacancy.

"We're merely trying to eliminate the frills in education if possible," Lawrence stated. He said that he intended to accept the board's invitation to study the budget. Superintendent Amerman reported Tuesday that a May 15 meeting had been arranged with Mrs. Wilson for the purpose of reviewing the budget.

Donald Lawrence, the announced candidate, has been a resident of the area for 10 years. He has lived in the city for the past two years. Lawrence has three children, two in Northville schools and one at Eastern Michigan college.

He is a graduate of Shreveport (La.) high school, Phillips Exeter Academy of Exeter, N.H., and Harvard university. He received a B.S. degree majoring in economics at Harvard graduating in 1931. He is also a graduate accountant.

Lawrence is employed at Evans Products company in Plymouth where he is sales manager of the heating and ventilating division.

Lawrence is not entirely new to school activities. On one occasion prior to the letting of bids on the new high school, he was a member of a group criticizing the "campus style" design of the building. He indicated that expenditures were "too big" and urged investigation of single unit design for economy.

In announcing his candidacy Lawrence emphasized that he was not seeking office with his "fists clenched," but was interested in school affairs as a parent and taxpayer.

Candidates for the board have until 4 p.m. Saturday to submit petitions. A candidate must be a qualified elector and resident of the district as well as a property owner (husband or wife) within the school district.

Petitions are available at the board of education offices in the Main street elementary school. Each petition must be signed by not less than 50 registered school electors of the district.

Wednesday's 'Test' Night For Optimists and Wives

Next Wednesday's the night that Northville Optimists and their wives will learn what they can do and can't do — in theory, at least.

The answers will come from a short aptitude test to be given at the Optimist's Ladies Night program as part of the guest appearance of Daniel L. Beck, president of a Detroit executive training firm.

Beck will discuss the use of aptitudes in training personnel, helping young men and women decide on careers, and making promotions and appointments. A short film will be shown.

Tickets are available through Otis Tewksbury. Dinner will start at 6:45 p.m. in the Lutheran church hall.

Final Plans Made For Annual Bazaar

A final meeting to formulate plans for its annual luncheon and bazaar was held by the King's Daughters Tuesday.

The group met at the home of Mrs. George Mellen, East Baseline, to draw up final plans for the annual event scheduled for May 15 in the Methodist church hall.

Named as general chairman this year was Mrs. Nelson Schrader, Jr.

In addition to the luncheon, the bazaar will offer a large variety of home baked goods, hand-made aprons and many other articles for sale.

Luncheon will be served from 11:30 to 1 p.m. said Mrs. Elden Blery, kitchen chairman.

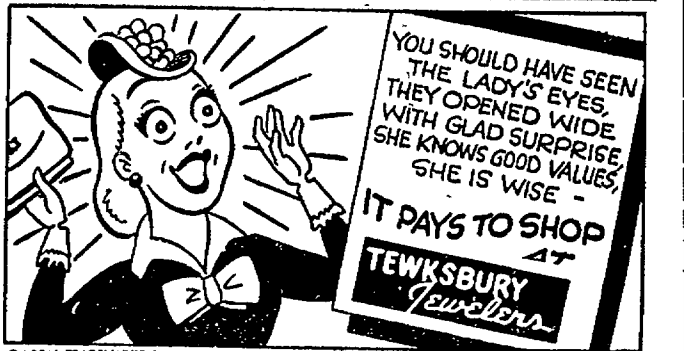

Betty Ports on Committee For U-M Fresh Air Camp

A Northville girl helped guide 700 fraternity and sorority pledges at the University of Michigan in their annual "Help Week" to prepare the U-M's Fresh Air Camp for the summer session held this week.

On the committee was Betty Lou Ports, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. P. W. Ports, 21120 Halstead, a freshman in the literature school at the university.

"Help Week" was instituted several years ago by the U-M Inter-fraternity Council and Panhellenic Association to replace the traditional "Hell Week", when fraternity and sorority pledges were given unpleasant assignments to informally "initiate" them into the houses. All harsh types of hazing are now outlawed on the U-M campus.

Little Ones Take to Interpretative Dancing

It doesn't take a concert stage and a full orchestra to have ballet.

Since September, some 30 Novi children have been doing it with a bare stage, some rhythmic piano music and lots of imagination.

They're members of a modern interpretative dance class held each Saturday at the Novi community building under Miss Nancy Sparrow, a professional instructor from Detroit.

"We're not so much interested in teaching ballet as in helping the children learn graceful movement and in giving them some form of expression," said Miss Sparrow.

Miss Sparrow, who once studied under famed ballerina and danseuse Martha Graham in New York, emphasizes interpretation rather than precise steps or routines.

Instead of practicing a pirouette, a young girl will do what a rippling piano passage makes her "feel like" doing. Perhaps she will emulate a waterfall, a spring day, or the wind. Mothers and visitors watching the youngsters — they range from three years to about 10 — are amazed at the imagination shown in the pint-sized productions.

Organizations in September by Mrs. David Fried and other Novi mothers, the class had its last get-together of the year Saturday. But if the kids have their way, it's a cinch to resume again next fall.

BALLERINA—No, Valerie Pinner is just expressing herself and having a good time while she's at it.

OUT OF THESE CONFINING SHOES — Little Mary Ellen Reiss and Paula Schaulitz prepare for a session of expressive dancing. The youngsters take their dancing seriously and at the same time have a lot of fun.

Symphony 'Pop' Concert To Feature Detroit Duet

Proving that true artistry knows no boundaries, the Plymouth Symphony orchestra, having completed a successful winter symphony series, is now preparing its 2nd annual "Pop" concert.

"Springtime" is the theme, and flowers, fountains, trellises and small intimate table groupings — refreshments served cabaret style — all are planned to enhance the ever-delightful fun of hearing musical comedy and popular semi-classical music played by a 90-piece symphony orchestra!

Highlighting the program will be the voices of Rosemary Murch and Fred Kendall who recently charmed a large audience at the Statler Hotel in Detroit with their "personality, showmanship and wonderfully satisfying voices" in this type of music — doing both solo and duet work.

Miss Emily Mutter Adams, concertmaster of the Plymouth and Detroit Women's Symphonies, will also be featured, performing the gay, intricate "Gypsy Airs" by Sarasate.

The program, opening at 8:30 p.m. Saturday, will be divided into three sections with two intermissions.

William Tell Overture, Rossini; Voices of Spring, Strauss; Sleeping Beauty Ballet, Tchaikowsky; Waltz of the Flowers, Tchaikowsky. Pleasure Train Polka, Strauss; Jalousie Tango, Gade; Gaete Parisienne, Offenbach; Espagnolo Rhapsodie, Chabrier; Gypsy Airs, Sarasate; On The Mall, Goldman.

Selections from Carousal, Rodgers and Hammerstein; Seventy-Six Trombones; Stars and Stripes Forever, Sousa.

Potted geraniums and garden trellises used as decorations will be sold after the concert. All proceeds from the "Pops" concert evening are used to support the Plymouth Symphony in its program of free symphonic concerts during the winter. Table reservations may be made by calling GL-3-2521, although there is other available seating.

Legion Auxiliary Meets

Members of the American Legion auxiliary will meet Wednesday evening, May 14 for their regular business session. The group will meet at 8 o'clock in the Veterans' Memorial building. Refreshments will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Spagnuolo of East Main street attended the first communion of their grandson, Petey, in Lansing on Sunday. They were also guests at the first communion of a nephew, Mikey Penimmo, of Lansing on Saturday.

Novi School News

Gary Shelby is a new pupil in the afternoon kindergarten class.

The second grade children entertained their mothers with a tea and program.

The third graders have finished a unit on birds and are hoping to take a trip to Kensington park to see these birds and their homes.

Joanne Groebel won the spell-down in Mrs. Crane's third grade. Kathleen Erwin was runner-up. New officers elected recently were: Billy Arnold, president; Edward Blackwell, vice president; Susan Wharton, secretary and Carey Joe Stevenson, treasurer.

Gerry Lynn Hazelton, third grader, gave a book review on "Eddie and the Fire Engine".

The fourth grade also had election of officers. President is Dawn Swenson; Kenneth Smith, vice president;

Jerry Musselman, treasurer, and Vickie Burgess, secretary.

Fifth Grade—Bill Jansen brought in his models of the Monitor and Merrimac in connection with their Civil War studies, and Clark Ball brought in a Union uniform coat button and bullet from the Battle of Chattanooga which belonged to his great-great-grandfather. The class wrote a letter to Michael Watkins, former classmate who lives in Kentucky.

Dixie Dague of Mrs. Salow's fifth grade has moved to Livonia with her family.

The class has arranged a bulletin board advertising the minstrel show. They also had a minstrel show poster contest. Rosie Putnam and Charles Van Every, III, placed first; Keith Crawford, second; Sandy Ronk, third, and Ralph Caliguri, fourth. Kay Gillett, Lynn MacDermid, Georgia Webb, Brenda Polak, Zeola Neely, Kathy Probst and Susan Price received honorable mention for their posters.

News from Wixom

Boy Scout Troop 118 and their parents held an outdoor meeting at the home of Scoutmaster Howard Coe Monday, May 5. Two newly acquired tents, donated by the P-T-A, and a camp trailer, made by Mr. McCall, were on display. Plans for a canoe trip in June, on the Au Sable river were discussed. Several fathers will accompany the boys on the week end trip. Roasted hot dogs and marshmallows were enjoyed around a camp fire at the end of the meeting.

Twelve boys of Troop 118 accompanied by several dads took a rather damp but enjoyable canoe trip on the Huron river last Saturday. This was a conditioning trip in preparation for a much more thrilling adventure down the Au Sable river with an overnight sleep-out.

Homemakers in the Wixom area are observing National Home Demonstration Week May 4-10. The annual achievement day program was yesterday in Pontiac. Mrs. W. Berger and Mrs. E. Welfare were

County Declares 'Stop Polio Week'

To stress the importance of getting polio vaccine, the Wayne county Medical Society and the Detroit department of health are sponsoring a "Stop Polio Week" May 12-17.

"During this week, May 12-17, a fee of $3 per injection has been suggested by the society to its members, with special consideration for multiple members per family. This price includes the vaccine," said Dr. Louis J. Bailey, president of the society.

"Your doctor may arrange special hours to handle the increased numbers coming to his office either to get their first shots or to complete their protection.

"Even though unemployed, families should still call their physician for special arrangements."

A recent survey disclosed the following facts about salk anti-polio vaccinations:

— 80 percent of adults over 20 years have had NO inoculations.

— 30 percent of school age children have had NO inoculations.

Girl Scouts

Girls in Scout Troop 15 heard Miss Ruth Knapp, of Northville, discuss the history, work and financing of the American Red Cross. They were also told of the activities of the Junior Red Cross. Under the leadership of Mrs. Frederick P. Tanner, the Plymouth troop met at the Presbyterian church on Thursday evening for the informative talk.

Troop 19 met last week to make plans for summer camping after school is out. They also discussed the recent P-TA carnival. The meeting was closed with the traditional "circle".

Girls in Troop 4 have been busily engaged in making maps. At their regular meeting last week the maps were finished. Afterward the group reviewed the girl scout laws for the special "fly-up" they will have on May 21.

Name Chairmen For Torch Drive

Chairmen for the 1958 Torch drive community campaign in the Northville and Novi areas were named this week.

Mrs. Worth Kramer of Dearborn will head the western Wayne county unit, which serves Northville, while Mrs. Victor H. Marsh, of Royal Oak will lead the Oakland county unit, serving Novi and Wixom.

The 1958 organizational plan calls for division of the entire Detroit metropolitan area into five units.

In each, the community campaign division will solicit all residences and community-identified business places. In previous years, the community campaign — then known as the women's division — solicited only homes and smaller business places.

The community campaign is the only division of the Torch Drive which will be concerned with geographical limits.

SCHOOL BOARD CRITICS UNINFORMED

To the Editor:

I attend all the regular meetings of the Northville Board of Education including that of last night. Frequently, I have noted the arrival of voluble groups with an axe to grind before the Board and the departure of these groups to be unheard from again after their problems and opinions were courteously heard and answered by the Board. Many of these groups conduct themselves in a manner which encourages cooperation, but I have often marveled at the self-control of board members and school administrators when they are subjected to uninformed criticism.

Last night a new low was reached when a small and obviously uninformed group castigated the board members and administrators as "stupid administrators", etc. They accused Supt. Amerman of dishonesty in the preparation of the budget. Even worse, they failed to retract these accusations after they were immediately furnished with a copy of last year's financial report and a detailed comparison with this year's proposed budget, and were informed that every Fall the financial report in detail is published in the Record. Many remarks were made relative to the hiding of information, which remarks were, in my opinion, entirely unfounded.

Altogether, it was a shameful and disgusting display of our "democratic way" — shameful that our elected board members and our school officials are subjected to such irresponsible tirades, and disgusting that people like these show such an appalling lack of knowledge of local governmental functions and finances when such knowledge is

ON SCHOOLS AND VILLAGE

To the Editor:

There are times one would like to see a little less clearly. We would like to wear dark-colored glasses to obscure some of the things that are facing the citizens of Novi. Nevertheless we have no choice but to face things honestly as they are. But a minority group which sees things they prefer, and does not look beneath the surface, is not beneficial to the township as a whole.

We are at the present faced with some important problems that will decide the destiny of Novi. A village charter and school problems: Schools, we all know, are necessary. But selfish and interested groups should not be tolerated with, as in the case of the last school bond issue. Had my request for a recount been granted by the school board, it would have revealed that Willowbrook was the interested group that wanted a school in their community. It was brought out that Lincoln Village was the proper location because of its potential growth, but the school board yielded to pressure groups.

Now Mr. William Medlyn, superintendent, has a budget problem. He will be saddled down with two schools and open the new one at a cost of $25,000 for 3 or 4 teachers, and $12,000 for operating cost to accommodate the Willowbrook children and 50 to 100 from Lincoln Village if and when it becomes a reality. To do this we will have two schools operating at half of its capacity. In order to get him out of his present difficulties, a newly formed study group is being organized which is called the Novi P-TA who are, by the way, citizens of Willowbrook along with some school teachers. Surely, the Mothers Club in the past have done well for Novi.

Now as to the proposed village charter. Much has been said in this regard. To approve a charter in any form with only 5,200 residents is not good sound business. The present recession will have an effect on the community for some time, and I can't see too much progress until business and the working man gets back on his feet. Remember a village will not give you more service. Instead it will take some things away from you, but it will increase your taxes.

either published or is available for the asking.

It can be said that we all have the "right" to publicly air our opinions and complaints regarding public business. But, with "right" comes "responsibility" — responsibility that our opinions and complaints are based on facts, not hearsay. For the past three years, only two lay citizens of this school district have regularly attended School Board meetings.

I would venture to say that if the attendance had been one hundred rather than two, the almost slanderous statements that were heard last night would never have been made.

In contrast to the brickbats being thrown at the Board, I believe we have an excellent school system run by a good Board and well-qualified superintendent and principals. We can make many improvements, but only if we are willing to do a little less unfounded criticizing and a little more spade work.

NEW BAND UNIFORMS?

To the Editor:

All glory, laud and honor to the Northville high school and Community Band for their splendid performance at the State Festival held in East Lansing. No doubt there is an article elsewhere in today's paper telling about the Number One Ratings that our band received in this competition. This feat was achieved because of many hours of hard work and loyalty on the part of the band members and Bob Williams who directed them. It was achieved IN SPITE OF the many threadbare, shiny-seated, too short and obviously outgrown and outworn uniforms! The small handful of a dozen Northville-ites who watched and heard not only our band but several from other schools were much impressed with the fine groups of boys and girls that were participating. What a pity that so few adults care to share in this glorious experience.

Believe me, one is amply repayed by just attending one of these events, for any moral support given to the youngsters is shown to be appreciated. In the coming year — before another State Band Festival — can't we as citizens of Northville give not only our moral support but financial support to this fine organization by attending all of their concerts and by being generous in our giving when the "hat is passed" so that some or all of the "old" uniforms may be replaced and when our band goes forth to another such event they will not only take with them their musical ability and loyalty but new uniforms and confidence in themselves that all of us in Northville are in back of them at all times just as we all have shown ourselves to be in support of our athletic teams. What better reasons are there for the entire lack of so-called juvenile delinquency in our town?

Morality vs. Christianity

Christianity is moral, but not all morality is Christianity. Think it over! There are a number of people who believe that if they lead a reasonable respectful moral life, then they are qualified to be called Christians. They have the confidence that "if" there is a heaven hereafter they will be fit to enter on the basis of their moral goodness. Nothing could be farther from the truth. Surely the virtues of honesty, generosity, philanthropy, pity, love, etc. are morally good graces found in many a person of high moral character and these are approved by Christian teachings. These graces of conduct overlap in the lives of a morally good person and a Christian. There are two very real differences however. The Christian has been born again, regenerate by the Holy Spirit of God, without which man cannot enter into the Kingdom of God (See John 3:5) and, he has a Saviour who died for his sins and short comings. Here the moral man is found lacking. Even though his moral character makes him a good neighbor and a good citizen down here, he still lacks the life needed to live with the redeemed in eternity. Since he has not humbled himself and received Christ as Saviour, his sins are still charged against him.

Urges Heavy Watering To Save Trees, Shrubs

Thorough watering of transplanted trees and shrubs was urged this week by John Miller, city forestry consultant, to avoid heavy losses.

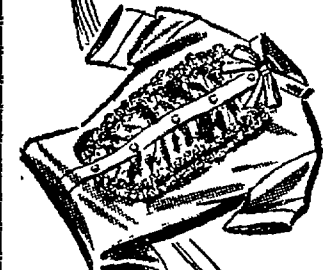

Miller, owner of Green Ridge Nursery, noted that extreme dry weather and high winds this spring make it necessary to water all plants, new and old. "But newer trees and shrubs must surely be given heavy and regular watering to live under present conditions," Miller stated.

Electronic Career

Navy electronics schools prepare Naval personnel to operate and care for the 3700 different types of electronic equipment used every day aboard ships and at shore stations.

The electronics equipment used by the Navy to send and receive messages, detect plans and ships, and determine distances of targets needs constant testing, repairing, and maintenance to keep it in top operating condition.

Further information on the electronics field may be had by contacting Chief William E. Walter at the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce on Mondays and Wednesdays from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. or by calling PA-1-7250.

A Face-Scrubbing for Main St.

The Northville Record

THE OLDEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY — EST. 1868 Thursday, May 8, 1958—9

FINISHED — Looking just like a freshly scrubbed kitchen floor, you could almost hear a woman's voice calling, "don't walk on it!"

TIRED — Merchant Roy Stone, appropriately dressed for his street-cleaning role, had to take time out for a quick breather.

HOUSECLEANING — Postmaster Leland Smith made certain that his post office "furniture" was cleaned, too.

The campaign to beautify Northville started right at street level on opening day, May 1.

A hearty crew of merchants and Chief Bill McGee's fire department gave Main and Center streets a scrubbing the likes of which had never been seen before.

The chore took more than three hours and all agreed it was a job well done. The streets and sidewalks from Wing to Hutton on Main street and from Dunlap to Cady on Center received a thorough, old-fashioned scrubbing.

About twenty merchants and businessmen pitched-in to help. Fire hoses were attached to fire hydrants when possible and also to the pumper truck. All cars were prohibited from parking during the clean-up to the dismay of some shoppers. But when they saw how clean the streets looked, everyone agreed it was worth the inconvenience.

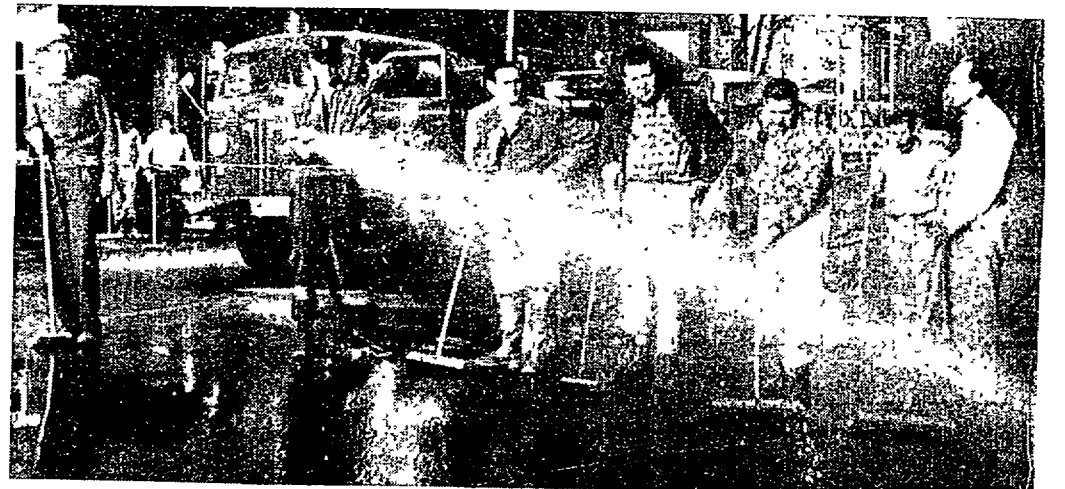

The stunt (which turned out to be a most worth-while project) was the work of Harvey Ritchie's retail committee for the "Beautify Northville" campaign.

THE WOMAN'S TOUCH — No cleaning job would be complete without the supervision of a woman. Merchant Lila Collins gives a "work crew" cleaning instructions.

HEAVE HO — Up the street scrubbed the mighty crew led by a fireman and hose. Later the crew discovered it was easier to scrub down hill!

HORSEPLAY — It wasn't all work. Here the photographer is given a quick shower by Charles Freydl, Jr.

Carnival Was More Darn Fun

The Northville P-TA Fair was its usual big, bustling success Friday night.

From late afternoon until nearly midnight, hundreds of boys and girls and dads and moms packed the midway at the community building, high school, and Main street school. Ticket sellers were besieged, and turned over a tidy pile of dollar bills that will go into new equipment for the schools.

The lads impressed the gals with their skill at the game booths, and many a parent got revenge on Elvis at the "Record Smash".

An exhibit of state police skin-diving equipment attracted a lot of awed young fellows who temporarily decided they had found something new to grow-up-to-be.

Bob Whiteford, "Doc" Whiteford and Jim Drew turned out to be champs of the pie-eating contest.

Mom and dad had their hands full keeping an eye on Susie and handing out just one more dollar to Tommy for more tickets.

Those behind the carnival — Chairman Fran Gazlay and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Conley, outgoing co-presidents of the P-TA — won't know for awhile just how much the fair made. But it will be a lot.

"The carnival was a success due to the efforts of so many Northville individuals, businesses and organizations," said Gazlay. "Listing them all is impossible, but special mention must be made of Ed Angove, Dayton Deal and Joe Pet-rock."

"Northville can take real pride in this annual cooperative effort to provide our students with equipment and scholarships and to bring informative programs to the parents".

Another thank-you went out to a dozen Webelos and Cubs from Pack 721 who braved the rain Saturday to clean up after the carnival. They included John Blackburn, Mark Lipa, Gary Davis, Tom Schults, Kent Hunter, Dave Thomas, Greg Penn, John Samuli, John and Jim Beer-bower, Jim Kleinsorge and Mike Mahoney.

55 Local Students Take Tests For College Merit Scholarships

Some 55 students at Northville high school took the National Merit Scholarship last week.

An estimated $5 million in Merit Scholarships and other awards are at stake in the national competition, now beginning its fourth year.

Merit Scholarships are provided by some 80 corporations, foundations, professional societies and individuals, as well as by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation itself, which conducts the competition.

The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying test is a three-hour measure of educational growth and aptitude. Emphasis is on broad intellectual skills and on understanding and ability to use what has been learned, rather than on sheer knowledge of facts.

A group of 10,000 students — composed of the highest scorers in each state — will advance to the semifinals when the results are reported next fall. Semi-finalists will then take a second examination, and those who repeat their high performance will become finalists. Further evaluation of their grades, citizenship, and extra curricular achievements will follow, and the winners will be announced in the spring of 1959.

The scores may also be used in many high schools to help students make decisions about college and the most appropriate courses to major in.

Each Merit Scholarship carries a stipend based on the need of each individual winner, and is renewable annually without further competitive examination. The average stipend in past years has been $650 per year. The minimum award in the 1958-59 program will be $100 a year and a maximum will be $1500 a year.

Seniors' Big Night Tomorrow

The social event of the year comes to Northville high tomorrow night when the class presents its annual Senior Prom.

The dance will be from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. in the community building tomorrow (Friday).

Music will be furnished by Jack

Braun's orchestra.

In the planning stages for months, this event promises to be the best in years due to the hard work of all the senior class members.

Those on the advertising committee are Mike Willis, Alice Sutton, Jacqui Campbell, Susan Clarke, Sally Lemke, Laura Bell, Judy Boyd, and Ann McKeel.

The decoration committee under the direction of James Hammond and Lil Binnecker, includes Eileen Gallagher, Elsa Couse, Ardye Alwood, Dick Stuber, Jurgen Hamacher, Mike Petz and Betsie Mer-

Meaker. They will not tell the theme of the prom, however, as it is to be revealed tomorrow night.

Deadline Is Today

The Commercial club met last Wednesday and decided by unanimous vote that the deadline for scholarship letters would be May 8 (today).

The club also voted that two $100 scholarships be given. The judges chosen for these scholarships are: Mr. Stefanski, Mrs. Lee and Mr. Meaker.

There is $263.07 in the treasury.

MACY'S BASEMENT? Nope, just the junior midway at the P-TA carnival. No one thought of it as such, but the 1958 carnival was probably the largest mass-gathering in Northville history. How many were there is anyone's guess — but it was packed.

BUSY MAN — Fran Gazlay (left) had 1,001 things to do as chairman of the carnival, including helping determine the winners of several prizes. Dayton Deal gets ready here to announce the names.

DIG DEEP — Russ Relmer was in his traditional role as the "Walking Fish Pond". His pockets held many surprises for the youngsters.

STEP RIGHT UP — Clayton Myers turned "hawker" for a night at the carnival and manned one of the nearly 20 game booths that lined the midway. Dozens of other parents took turns at various jobs.

Injuries Still Hamper Thinclads

Northville's track fortunes took a turn for the better last week, but the injury-ridden Mustangs were still not up to full strength.

Two of the Mustangs' biggest point-producers were out of action Friday when Northville placed third in a triangular meet with Clarenceville and Brighton.

Clarenceville took the meet with 55 points, while Brighton netted 47 and Northville 32.

Dick Biery, returning to action after being sidelined with an old nose injury, led the way for Northville. Biery won the broad jump and 440 and was on the Mustangs' first-place 880 relay squad.

But Bill Yabne, out with a pulled thigh muscle, and N. C. Schrader, still undergoing observation for a bad shoulder, had to sit it out.

Other point-getters for Northville were: Dick Ritter, first in the mile; Roger Cheeseman, Hugh Crawford and Hank Bathey, who with Biery made up the winning 880 relay team; Dick Stuber, second in broad jump; Crawford, second in the 100 and third in the 220; and Ron Loynes, third in the 880 and fourth in the shot put.

The Mustangs' last-place finish was nevertheless their best showing in three meets this year.

Northville was in for another tough meet last Tuesday night against Milford and Waterford. The EASY MONEY — Dave Hamilton didn't expect much when he tried to "tote the bag" Saturday at Shay's Shell station in Northville. But, with (left to right) Kit Shay, Lynn Warner and Frank Konopaski calling encouragement, Dave made the one-mile haul along South Main without dropping the heavy bag once. For his 10 minutes work, Dave got a $50 prize, a kiss from his fiancée, and a brisk rub down from his mother, Mrs. Frank Hamilton, 426 South Main. The bag-tote will go on for two more week ends.

Redskins have breezed through league competition, while Class A Waterford has lost only to powerful Pontiac this year.

Last night, Northville was scheduled to meet West Bloomfield and Bloomfield Hills in a triangular meet which Coach Charles Yabne thankfully called "more in our class".

Results of these two meets were not available at press time.

Next event for the Mustangs is the regional meet on May 17.

Wixom's Babe Ruth Team Finds Two Benefactors

Thanks to a couple of baseball fans, Wixom's Babe Ruth team will have new baseballs and bats for spring training.

For awhile, it looked as if the team might have to use cracked bats and threadbare balls during workouts leading up to their opener on June 8.

But Monday night, William Richards, 28060 Wixom road, and Elmer Burnstrum, 48900 12 Mile, agreed to split the $30 cost of new equipment.

Both the Babe Ruth and Little League team are still holding thrice-weekly tryouts and practice sessions in preparation for the coming season.

The Little Leaguers, under Bob Hughes, work out at 6 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Babe Ruth tryouts are held Tuesday and Thursday at 5:30 p.m. and Saturday morning at 10 a.m. under Walter Tuck.

Little League is for boys aged nine through 12. Babe Ruth players must be between 13 and 15.

Two One-Hitters Add Up To Win and Loss for NHS

A pair of one-hitters were in the Northville Mustangs' record book this week — one in the win column, the other in the loss column.

Jeff Goodrich handcuffed Clarenceville with a single hit Monday afternoon to give Northville a 2-0 win. Hurling his best game of the year, Goodrich struck out 10 and was in control all the way.

The win put Northville's league record at 3-2 and gave the Mustangs a share of the lead in their division.

Northville itself managed only three safeties, but two of them came at the right time. After Rog Atchison and Joe Kritch walked, John White singled Atchison home and sent Kritch to third. Cap Pethers then squeezed Kritch home with the insurance run.

But last Thursday, the one-hit business went against the Mustangs. Kritch, the Mustangs' most effective pitcher so far this year, limited Milford to four weak hits but they added up to enough runs for a 5-1 win.

Kritch himself kept the Mustangs from being blanked with a no-hitter when he provided Northville's only single and scored its only run. Said one observer, after seeing the two games with their total of eight hits, "I'm beginning to wonder if kids can hit nowadays."

Cliff McGrew, Detroit, made the first hole-in-one at Fox Hills country club Saturday.

He made it on the 163-yard sixth hole, using a 6 iron. He had an 18 hole score of 76.

He was playing with Don James of 272 Pacific, Plymouth.

Northville's golfers took two second places in triangular matches Friday and Monday.

Led by Bill Chizmar's 45, Northville had 192 against Holly's 190 and Clarenceville's 198 at Meadowbrook country club.

Mike Eastland and Fred Schwarze tied at 46 to lead Northville to its second-place 193 score against Milford (171) and West Bloomfield (198) at Pontiac country club.

WHY GO TO CHURCH?

Perhaps you will be surprised to learn that the scriptures do not command people who are not Christians to go to church. There is no merit before God for non-Christians to attend the services of some church. He is neither any better before God, or any worse, whether he stays home or attends. The value of attending a church where the whole counsel of God is preached is that he hears the Gospel of Jesus Christ which is able to save his soul. If he obeys this Gospel by receiving the Lord Jesus Christ as his Lord and Saviour, then his church attending is worthwhile.

I would like to suggest six reasons why Christians should regularly attend the services of a true Gospel Church.

A CHRISTIAN SHOULD GO TO CHURCH TO WORSHIP GOD. The Lord Jesus said, "For where there are two or three gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." It is true that God is everywhere present. It is also true that God is pleased to meet with His people in a special way when they are gathered together.

A CHRISTIAN SHOULD GO TO CHURCH BECAUSE IT IS IN KEEPING WITH THE HOLY DAY. All our days belong to the Lord, but only one day is set apart as "the Lord's Day." From the beginning of the Christian church the believers have voluntarily set aside the first day of the week for rest and worship.

A CHRISTIAN SHOULD ATTEND THE SERVICES OF THE CHURCH because it is his opportunity to be instructed, exhorted, encouraged and if need be rebuked from the Word of God. When Phillip the Evangelist asked the Ethiopian in Acts 8, "Understandest thou what thou readest?" He replied, "How can I expect some man to guide me?" . . . Pastors, who are true to God and called of God, are men selected for that very purpose.

A CHRISTIAN SHOULD ATTEND THE SERVICES OF THE CHURCH BECAUSE GOD HAS COMMANDED HIM TO DO SO. Hebrews 10:25, "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see that day approaching." The normal spiritually healthy Christian is a regular church attendee. He knows too that his love for God is expressed by obedience to His commands. And, church-going is one of His commandments.

A CHRISTIAN SHOULD ATTEND THE SERVICES OF THE CHURCH because it is the only way the testimony can be maintained in a community. It is only when Christians combine in unity and joint effort that the work of Christ goes forward. Very little is accomplished by individual efforts of Christians. It takes a united family to send forth missionaries and maintain a sound Evangelistic center.

A CHRISTIAN SHOULD ATTEND THE SERVICES OF THE CHURCH because the Holy Spirit of God prompts him to do so. I never have met a real Christian who did not believe that he should go to church. The Spirit of God which indwells every true believer teaches him that his place is with the Lord's people on the Lord's Day.

THERE IS NO POST-EASTER SLUMP
AMONG GENUINE CHRISTIANS.

Attends Ministry Seminar with Students

Bruce Felker, 113 Randolph street, Northville, a senior at the University of Michigan and a member of the social action committee of the Wesley Foundation there, was among the 28 college students who were guests at a ministry seminar at Garrett Biblical Institute in Evanston, Illinois, recently.

The seminar included dialogues on "Why Have Ministers?", "What Does a Minister Do?" and "How Does a Person Decide to Enter the Ministry?"

Guests were carefully chosen by professors in their respective colleges. Active and interested in the religious work on their campuses, they are not necessarily committed to other ministry.

Phone local news items — parties, dinners, trips — or just a friendly get-together with the neighbors — to the society editor, Northville 200.

A SMALL HOUSE PLANNING BUREAU DESIGN NO. C-330

DESIGN C-330. Here is an attractive home that offers ample space and many fine features. These include a large living-dining room and a modern kitchen which also provides room for dining.

The three generous bedrooms all have wardrobe type closets. More handy storage space can be found in the hall linen cabinet and the coat closets conveniently located at the front and rear entries. Other features are a recessed bath tub and a full basement.

The exterior, with low roof lines and wide overhanging eaves, consists of wall shingles and vertical siding, brick planter, shutters, high bedroom windows and asphalt shingles. Floor area is 1188 square feet, cubage is 21,978 cubic feet. For further information about DESIGN C-330, write the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minnesota.

Domestic Harmony

Best way for a couple to develop harmony and compatibility is to take on some household remodeling chores together.

The husband can feel superior doing the heavy work, and the wife can get her licks in when it comes to do the decorating — selecting the color scheme and doing the painting.

Lawn Hard to Handle?

Do you have a rocky yard that just refuses to grow a proper lawn? Then, maybe you need to install a patio deck of durable two-by-fours. There is no further upkeep and no record of a wood deck ever having to be mowed. Just be sure you have a sturdy foundation of larger dimension pieces as a frame to hold the two-by-fours. Leave drain space between each one of about a quarter inch.

Don't paint or stain, just let the wood weather to an attractive gray.

CLEAN-UP CREW — These Explorer scouts of Post 242 are helping in the "Beautify Northville" campaign and hoping to take a trip to Yellowstone National Park this summer as a result. Presently the boys are helping Paul Palmer clean up the area around his recently-purchased home on Thayer boulevard. The money they earn doing odd jobs will be saved for the trip. Shown above leading brush are: (l. to r.): John Baggot, Jay Leavenworth, Advisor Leon Bogotatis, Crew Leader Woody Aenebach and Paul Palmer; (on the truck): Chlp Ely, Kerry Madigan and Sumner Gow. The boys are looking for more work. Got any clean-up jobs?

Building Down In Detroit Area

The first-quarter building lag in the Northville-Nowi area was repeated throughout metropolitan Detroit, figures released this week indicate.

New home construction in Wayne and Macomb counties dropped by 50 percent from the first three months of 1957. In Oakland county, seven percent fewer permits were issued.

The figures — which show an overall 37 percent drop for the Detroit area — were compiled by the Detroit Metropolitan Area Planning Commission.

"There are indications that the housing market may become active in the near future, however," the quarterly report stated. "The passage of the Sparkman bill eases housing credit and mortgage terms, and also is expected to give the VA housing program a boost."

The report lists the following number of new home permits in January, February and March: Northville-1, Northville township-3, Novi township-7, Wixom-2, Plymouth-8, Plymouth township-7, Livonia-238, South Lyon-0, Walled Lake-0, Farmington-20, Farmington township-54. Detroit continued to lead the entire area with 321 permits, but it was a severe drop from the city's 850 permits in the first quarter of 1957.

Livonia ranked second behind Detroit with 238, followed by Dearborn Heights, Madison Heights, Warren, Royal Oak, Ypsilanti township, Oak Park, Nankin township and St. Clair Shores.

Twenty-Year Wonder

Twenty years ago, the old-fashioned mill construction technique was converted into residential design. The result is the wood, plank-and-beam style so popular in modern homes because of structural efficiency and attractive appearance. Appearance grades of Douglas fir and west coast hemlock lumber lend themselves especially to plank-and-beam styling because of their lovely texture and soft, golden pastel colorings.

Repaint Outdoor Furniture For Beauty and Protection

The approach of the "outdoor living" season suggests repainting or refinishing garden, porch, picnic or lawn furniture. These jobs differ from most paint projects, in that weather resistance becomes a most important factor.

Picnic style furniture is bound to have knots and cracks which are part of the rustic effect. These cracks and deep scratches should be filled with putty, plastic wood or stick shellac and allowed to dry overnight. Be sure to apply generously to allow for shrinkage when it dries. Always sand to remove any excess.

If you are working with old wood furniture, remove the old paint where it is chipped or peeled. Use steel wool, sandpaper or paint remover.

For a sealer, use aluminum paint on all patch spots and knots to hold back stains from resin or sap in knots.

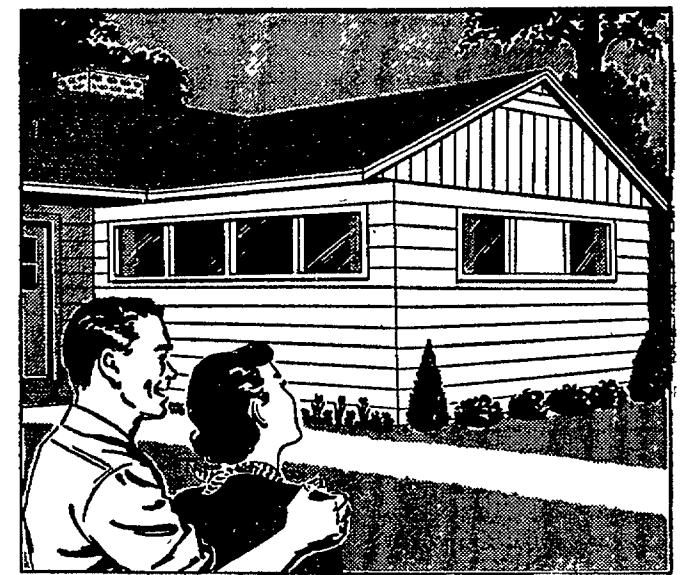

Use a generous coat of gloss or semi-gloss or good exterior enamel for most wood surfaces. To protect wood against moisture, be sure to paint all edges, ends and underside surfaces.

Outdoor furniture should receive at least two coats of paint, preferably three. A 24-hour drying period should be allowed between coats. Before adding each additional coat, sand lightly to provide the proper bite. For additional weather insurance, finish with a thin covering of spar varnish.

With metal furniture, start by rubbing the surfaces with steel wool to remove any rust or scales. Next wash the soap and water. Be sure metal is thoroughly dry before painting.

All surfaces, including the undersides, should receive a coat of metal protective primer. Allow a 48-hour drying period. Next apply two coats of the same exterior enamel as used in wood furniture, allowing 24 hours between coats.

Worthy of our acclaim...

It's time we were telling the world about Michigan. We certainly have plenty to brag about. In fact, we take for granted things that other people would cherish.

Take our great fresh water supply, for instance. There are few people that don't envy us for that. Michigan is bordered by four of the five Great Lakes, has 11,037 inland lakes and 36,000 miles of streams. This gives us the greatest fresh water supply in the world for industry, transportation, health and recreation.

Michigan's great educational system is another outstanding asset. Its centers of research are distinguished. The University of Michigan was the first state university with a governing board elected by popular vote. Michigan State University was the first land grant college. Michigan was also the first state to have a Superintendent of Public Instruction and the first to assure each child a high school education at public expense.

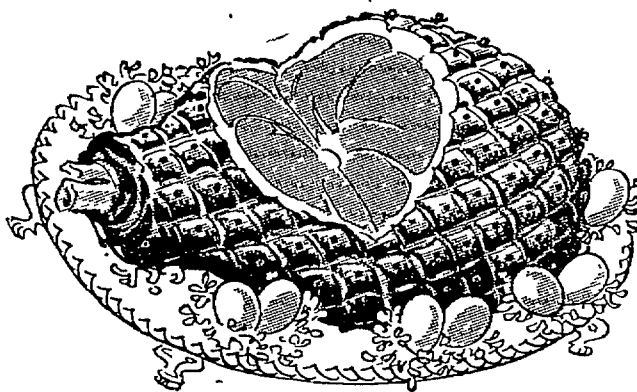

It's Great to live in Michigan!

Fire in Your Home: It Need Not Happen

With Northville well into its month-long clean-up campaign, Chief William McGee this week issued some timely tips about fire prevention.

At the same time, he reminded Northville families that they can safeguard their homes against fire by taking advantage of a free safety check-up during May.

A call to the fire department (phone 61) will bring a qualified safety consultant to your home.

In the past, such safety inventories as these have been given credit for removing many unnoticed fire hazards and for probably preventing loss of both property and life in Northville.

Chief McGee's suggestions for insuring that fire won't strike your home and family:

Watch for potential hazards during your regular house-keeping.

Clean out leaves from gutters.

Keep leaves and dried grass away from building foundations.

Burn trash in a special isolated area, with an attached hose always nearby.

Give particular attention to clearing out attic and basement, garage and closets of old clothing, furniture, piles of newspapers and magazines.

Never keep flammable liquids such as gasoline in the house.

Oily rags should be thrown away or closed in metal containers. Oily mops should be hung up with plenty of air circulating around them, preferably outside.

Install a heavy, tight-fitting door at top of basement steps to check possible fire's spread.

Check and clean heating plant.

Dust fixtures and lights.

Replace frayed electrical cords.

Have an electrician check wiring to determine adequacy.

With trash, flammable liquids, oily rags cleared out, spontaneous ignition is practically eliminated, Chief McGee said.

And should fire start from an uncontrollable source, it will not have the ready fuel of papers, rags, old mattresses, and the like, to feed on.

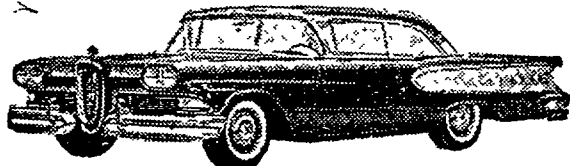

"Check-up, Clean-up, Paint-up, Fix-up and defeat a stubborn foe — fire," the Chief said.

State GOP to Back Ike

REPUBLICANS IN MICHIGAN will steer their 1958 campaign for Congressional seats on a program supporting the often criticized policies of President Eisenhower.

The most serious threats of revolt in the ranks against national politics has been quietly quelled, at least for the present.

For months the pressure had been building up beneath the surface to scrap the president's "New Republicanism" and state the party's conservative goals in certain terms.

Party leaders are pushing for support of the president's decisions in the Defense Department shakeup, the veto of the rivers and harbors bill and other red hot issues.

The switch back to conservatism had been growing, starting with a group of Republicans in the legislature.

Most of the sentiment was centered in the Senate. There Senator John P. "Joe" Smeekens (R-Battle Creek), an energetic freshman, challenged the party to develop its own issue.

It existed in speeches last summer by Senator Edward Hutchinson (R-Fennville) along the same line.

"The right-to-work bill may never be enacted by the legislature, but it would make a wonderful campaign issue," said another member of the group.

At the same time Republicans in the legislature were backing Eisenhower and following the line their conservative critics call "me-tooism".

It was no secret that some of the party's top leaders wanted to pass Gov. Williams' $20,000,000 intangibles tax increase but lacked the votes.

The fact that enough Republicans took positions to give Williams his long-sought executive reorganization plan was not lost on those checking the political winds for 1958. The reorganization proposal, is considered an efficiency move and worthy of non-partisan support even though it increases the power of the governor.

Another way-station in the short trip of the rebels was the 14th Congressional District organization in Wayne county, which formally urged a return to conservatism.

It split the group in Detroit, and it left its mark.

Into this cauldron of intra-party dissent came Paul D. Bagwell, the Michigan State university professor, as a party candidate for governor.

While another candidate may be standing in the wings, his party support is questionable. Bagwell has the organization to sweep to a primary victory, barring unforeseen developments.

But, the pre-primary squabbles follow the historic pattern. Republicans have been known for their divisions over the candidate for governor. History tells the story.

Can a Republican beat Williams this year? Time will tell.

MICHIGAN'S DAIRY Princess for 1958 was selected last week in East Lansing.

A Fowlerville girl, Judith Mae Dammon, was picked from a field of 36 county princesses in competition for the state honor. Alternates were Gwen Oswald of Vicksburg and Jean Ann Parish of Fairgrove.

INVESTIGATIONS have broadened their check into charges of alleged brutality to patients in the state's mental hospitals.

Rep. Carroll C. Newton prompted the probe when he took the House floor to make the dramatic charges that his brother-in-law was severely beaten at Coldwater home and training school.

There was a hearing in the last days of the 1958 session at which some details emerged. The patient, doctors and attendants said, was in tractable and required restraint.

The hearing ended with the hospital system generally cleared of the charges, but with a number of questions unanswered.

The House organized an interim committee to follow up.

Rep. Harry J. Phillips (R-Port Huron) was named chairman. He conducted a similar investigation a decade ago and has been a leader

On Tour with Hill and Johnson

Stockholm Breakfast Is Fine - - If You Like Eggs

(Editor's note: Northville's Cliff Hill and Carl Johnson report again on the latest developments in their 14-country swing through Europe—including an eggs-aspirating breakfast in the capital of Sweden.)

If I were to chronicle this journey, this day would be entered as "The Day of the Breakfast".

At 8:30 a.m. we decided to find a place to eat breakfast. It took until 9:30 to find one open for business in Stockholm. In this small eating place was the typical sign in Swedish and English: "Gentlemen must wear ties". From our experiences the day before, we had a tie apiece in our pockets so we could enter.

We ordered bacon and eggs, toast, tea and coffee. By then, we were very hungry — so in my best Swedish (straight from a guide book) I said to bring the eggs at once. The waiter brought back two eggs apiece almost at once. After ten minutes I said, "Hurry up with the bacon". In came two more eggs apiece with several strips of bacon. By then we had run out of toast so I ordered more toast. Back came the eager waiter with toast and four more eggs.

We really wanted some more tea and coffee but decided we didn't dare risk the chance of getting four more eggs, so we passed it up. Carl tried to order jam but settled for a bunch of grapes with no more eggs.

When we left, the waiter tried his English on us, "Americans in Sweden like eggs".

Prices here are much higher than in Copenhagen. It is interesting to observe that many women on the streets wear sack or chemise coats, and chamise and trapeze dresses.

The police here walk the beat in pairs — one woman and one man — the man wears a beautiful sword — neither one carries a gun.

The people are very formal and there is much bowing and hand-shaking. On the roof of the hotel, I took a polaroid picture of an old couple and party on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. When I gave them the finished pictures in one minute they were amazed and it took four hand-shakes with each one plus two bows apiece to make a graceful exit. When I tell you there were 15 people in the party, you can estimate the required formalities.

All traffic keeps to the left side here, yet the steering wheel is on the same side as the U.S. cars — it adds a spirit of adventure to every taxi ride.

All elevators are automatic. It required much patience (which I have not) to discover that when you are on the ground floor and wish to go up — you push the "down" button (to bring the elevator down to your floor) then get on and push the "up" button to the floor you desire. The opposite procedure is needed when you are up and wish to go down.

Dinner at Rich's — Stockholm's most famous restaurant — was unique. Tried the ever prevalent Smorgasborg. Some of the dishes were pierced and pickled grapes, cucumbers and sliced peaches with wine sauce, cheese in deep brine and french fried cheese. There was smoked fishes, eels, octopi, reindeer, wild turkey (so the menu said) and a host of varieties of caviar. The meal including service charge in lieu of tipping (which is practiced here) came to $3.40 each.

I note in the groceries that tea and coffee average about 20 kroner or $4.00 per pound — which must be the reason coffee is always served in demi-tasse style here with no refills unless charges are extra.

Everything closes up here at 12:00 midnite and the stores do not open until 10 a.m. but close promptly at 5 p.m.

The Swedish people ask me many times about the "digression" in America. When I tell them that only 6 percent of our people are unemployed they reply: "The bad stories we hear must be Russian propaganda". Considering my destination I am noncommittal.

At Rotary club luncheon today, a member asked if we knew the president of the tube mill at South Lyon. Another asked if we knew the Bear Archery store at Grayling, Michigan.

Another Swedish man (they resent being referred to as "Swedes") inquired if I knew one Archie Benson, a Detroit policeman. When I admitted my lack of acquaintance, he was puzzled because Benson had been in Detroit for 12 years and he was sure everyone of any importance knew him. I explained I was a very small lawyer in a small suburb of Detroit and his confidence in Benson was restored.

I go to Finland tomorrow and then to Russia. I will write from there when I have the time.
