Henry's Savings Help His Brother

There's one thing that young Henry Rochon wants more than a baseball glove, and that's to see his brother happy.

Henry, 10, saved his money for quite awhile to buy a new mitt.

But when his brother, David, 5, came down sick with a brain tumor this spring, he forgot about it.

He learned that one of the few things that makes David happy is watching him build models. So Henry uses his money to buy model boat and car kits instead of a mitt.

David spent the past week much as he has spent the several months since the coming tumor struck. He was in bed most of the time with a headache, but occasionally sat up to eat baby food or watch television.

On Monday, he was even able to go outside and get some fresh air.

Contributions to the David Rochon Fund at The Record have fallen off since his father went back to work. But the Northville Eagles Auxiliary recently contributed $25 to buy him medicine.

A neighbor lady, too, brings him something every Saturday — a coloring book, some records, and the like.

David developed the brain tumor after a fall downstairs last winter. It did not show up immediately. Doctors have told his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rochon, 729 Horton, that the tumor is incurable and that their boy is doomed.

Novi Board Orders Halt To Connemara Building

Septic problems and a misunderstanding between the Novi township board and a land development firm last week threatened to hold up further construction of homes in Connemara Hills subdivision near Northville.

The board last week refused to honor previous sanitary permits for new homes in the subdivision because a number of present homeowners have had severe septic failures.

The board told Robert Goodwin, land development coordinator for the Howard T. Keating company, developer of Connemara Hills, that new percolation tests would have to be taken before building permits are granted.

Goodwin said later that the Keating company would go along with this, but wanted assurance that the new tests would be honored in the future.

The problem is that a number of the 13 homes now built in Connemara have had bad septic problems, even though earlier tests indicated the soil was good.

(The exact number of failures is not certain. Goodwin claims there are three, of which two "can be explained", while others say there are at least five.)

Leery of future failures, Novi Building Inspector Harold Ackley has ruled that new tests must be taken on all lots before building permits are granted.

Goodwin, appearing before the board Wednesday, protested that the original sanitary tests are still valid and should be honored.

The board turned down the request, with Clerk Hadley Bachert commenting that "it looks as if you're trying to unload a lot of bad lots on unsuspecting buyers." All board members seemed to share

Two Transient Teachers Treated By Kansas Town

Two former Northville teachers had a run-in with the law in a small Kansas town last week, but the supposedly bad news quickly turned into good news.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hise, who taught in Northville schools until two weeks ago, were passing through Liberal, Kansas, on their way to Arizona.

"All of a sudden, a police car stopped us," Hise said. "I thought, of course, that I'd broken the law or something."

"But then this man in civilian clothes got out of the police car," he continued. "So Barbara and I figured it must be bad news of some kind, and they'd been notified to stop us."

But the man turned out to be Bill Crosley, owner of a Liberal restaurant.

The "bad news" was an invitation to spend the evening in Liberal with free food, free lodging and free entertainment as Liberal's "Tourists of the Week".

"Funny thing," mused Jesse between bites of fried shrimp at Crosley's restaurant, "we were planning to stop here anyway. In fact, we meant to stop for the night at the Tumbleweed Motel, and that's just where we're staying."

Jesse and Barbara are heading to Phoenix, Arizona, for new school positions. Jesse teaches English and Barbara the first grade.

During the past school year, Jesse supervised the school page appearing in The Record and put the finishing touches on a novel describing army life as he saw it in Europe. So far, it's still making the rounds of publishing houses.

As the Hises prepared to leave Liberal the next morning, Jesse thanked their hosts and asked "Just one more favor. I haven't looked at a road map lately. Could you tell me just where we are?"

Goodwin denied this, claiming that the lots are not bad and that tests in other parts of the lots would prove them acceptable.

"We could go to court and force Novi to honor the permits," he said. "But instead, we will go along with their desire for new tests and permits. It's understandable in light of the present failures."

"All we want is some assurance that the new permits will be honored in the future," he added.

Goodwin apparently did not make this point clear to the board. Instead, the board felt he was asking for blanket approval of the earlier permits.

Goodwin said he will contact the board again to explain exactly what the Keating company proposes.

The meeting brought several sharp exchanges between Goodwin and Building Inspector Ackley.

Goodwin charged that Ackley and County Sanitarian Larry LaMonte were being too hard on Connemara. He added that Ackley also had overstepped his duties by recommending to an "anonymous" phone caller (actually Goodwin) that Connemara was having septic troubles and might not be a good place to build.

The board stoutly defended Ackley and LaMonte and went on record as approving their standards and their decisions.

As for the phone call, Ackley said he knew he was talking to Goodwin anyway and that his remarks about Connemara were "only the truth".

Goodwin later defended Connemara. Despite the failures, he said, many lots are good. In addition, the Keating company is working to repair the failures and will continue to deal in good faith, he said.

List Donors To Ely Fund; Raise $1100

Contributions totaling nearly $1100.00 from 83 individuals, business firms and organizational groups made the proposed Claude N. Ely Memorial Fund a reality this week.

The fund, suggested by Councilman John S. Canterbury, is intended to serve as a tribute to the late mayor's conscientious devotion to the improvement of the community.

Because of Mayor Ely's long association with the Detroit Edison company, it has been decided that the fund money will be invested in Edison stock. Yearly interest from the stock will be used as a cash award to the individual selected by the fund committee for having made an outstanding contribution to the community.

The original committee working with Canterbury to establish the fund will now turn over the responsibility of the yearly selection to a regular memorial fund committee. The mayor, superintendent of schools, president of the school board and two appointees will direct the fund.

Canterbury's committee was composed of A. Malcolm Allen, Russell Amerman, A. Russell Clarke, Nelson Schrader and William Sliger. The committee sought wide participation in the fund without direct solicitation. All donations came voluntarily without collections.

Mayor Ely was active in community affairs throughout his years as a lifelong resident of Northville. He served as the last president of the village and first mayor of the city. Mayor Ely died suddenly of a heart attack last April. He had retired from the Edison company last September.

The committee was scheduled to meet tonight (Tuesday) to complete final details of establishing the fund. Clarks, Manufacturers National Bank vice president who has been accepting the donations, reported that some money was received as late as Monday. Deadline for contributions had been set at June 20. The final list as compiled by Clarke follows:

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Canterbury, Northville Realty (Carl H. Bryan, Levi M. Eaton), Northville Coordinating Council, Ernest Wilsher, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Welch, Harry Himelstein, Rev. and Mrs. John O. Taxis, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Sober, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Woodworth, Detroit Edison Company, Northville Rotary Club, Ruth M. Knapp, Veterans of Foreign Wars Northville Post No. 4012, Mrs. Charles Meisner, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Coolman, Pauline G. Stamann;

Mrs. E. B. Cavell, Mr. and Mrs. C. Harold Bloom, Stanley Kopec, (Continued on page 12)

The Northville Record building, 101 North Center street, was purchased last week by William C. Sliger, publisher of The Record.

The transaction was handled by D. J. Stark, realtor, representing C. Harold Bloom.

The newspaper, under former publisher Glenn Cummings, moved into its present location in 1952. Sliger purchased the newspaper from Cummings in August, 1956.

Acquisition of the building from Bloom followed a decision to maintain the newspaper facilities in their present location. Previous consideration had been given to the construction of a new building.

Sale of the building marked the second such Main street transaction in recent weeks. Earlier Druggist Leo Mainville purchased the building in which his store is located at 134 East Main street.

School Valuation $21 Million

Northville's exact school tax millage for 1958-59 is perhaps one step nearer final status with the announcement that the state equalized valuation of the school district will be $21,120,629.

While this gives the school board a specific figure on which to base the tax rate, Superintendent of Schools Russell Amerman stated that it will be mid-August before the budget can be definitely drawn.

"Until our teacher staff is complete and we know the exact size of our enrollment, we cannot complete our budget", Amerman pointed out.

Last year the school tax was 21 mills per thousand dollars of state equalized assessed valuation.

While Northville's high school teaching staff is complete, five elementary teachers are still needed. When board members know the exact figure on teachers' salaries and what state-aid, based on a per-student basis, will be received, the correct budget will be made.

The proposed operating budget as submitted before the Wayne county tax allocation board in May totaled $668,043. The school system's debt service requirement totals an additional $212,893.75.

The board based its proposed budget on last year's state equalized valuation of $18,000,000. To provide the necessary funds a millage of 29.95 against the $18,000,000 was required.

Presumably, if the budget requirement remains the same, the board will be able to lower the 29.95 mills because of the increase in state equalized valuation by some $3,000,000.

Under the state equalized figures, city residents living in Wayne county will have their assessed valuations boosted by 1.14 for school tax purposes. Oakland county residents of the city will have a 1.19 equalization factor. Township residents also face an equalization factor of 1.19.

Northville's area-wide reassessment program last winter brought about the sharp 50% reduction in the equalization factors. Last year's factor in the Wayne county section of the city was 1.73 and 2.41 in the Oakland county side. Township residents were equalized at 1.89.

Longshot bettors got off to a good start in the first race. Palairish driven by Ray Sugg came home to pay $52.20. Daily double ticket holders won $190.60 for $2.00 as Wolf Gang driven by George Shultz paid $5.20 in the second race.

Archie Niles, Jr., was the only Northville driver to bring home a winner. He copped two seconds in addition to a first. Niles led all drivers at Hazel Park with 17 firsts, seven seconds and five thirds in 45 starts.

New officers took over the duties of directing the Northville Rotary club this week.

Douglas Lorenz was elected to take over the gavel from E. L. Devine, who automatically becomes a member of the club's board of directors.

Lorenz' vice president is Walter Belasco. New secretary of the club is L. M. Eaton, who replaced Rev. John O. Taxis. Only new addition to the board of directors is A. Malcolm Allen. Arthur Schnute remains as club treasurer.

The new officers took over Tuesday and announced the roster of committee assignments for the coming year.

Most Northville business firms will close Friday in the traditional observance of Independence Day, July Fourth.

Manufacturers National Bank will conduct its usual longer Friday hours on Thursday, opening at 9:30 a.m. and closing at 7:30 p.m. The bank is also closed on Saturday.

Joining the bank in a long weekend will be the Northville public library and the Record newspaper office. Both will remain closed Friday and Saturday.

Betting Off But Hopes Are Still Up

Northville Downs' opening night Monday fell 1000 customers and $35,000 betting dollars below last year's first night, but track officials were not disheartened.

Despite the drop, the attendance and betting topped opening night in 1956 by 800 fans and $27,000 in bets.

Executive Manager John Carlo was quick to point out that a better comparison can be made with 1956 than 1957. "We opened early last year and had no competition from the runners. In 1956 our dates compared with this year and we also had competing running races," he pointed out.

The surge in harness racing interest has prompted Carlo to freely predict a big boost in betting and attendance at the Downs this year. Pointing to the records set at Hazel Park, he reminded the city council last week that Northville might well expect a 30 per cent increase over its $90,000 tax take of last year.

The city's 1958 budget of $290,000 places expected revenues from state returns on racing at $90,000. Additional monies would come as a welcome relief to councilmen working on a tightly drawn budget.

Downs' officials look to this week-end to establish some indication of what can be expected this year.

Monday night 5184 fans greeted the trotters and placed bets totaling $240,840. Last year betting at the Downs averaged $255,000 a night.

Biggest opening crowd in the Downs' history was 1950 when 9261 fans jammed the grounds. Largest opening night of betting took place in 1955 when the handle was $296,621.

Weather was ideal Monday and long range predictions indicate that the local track will not be plagued with rains that fell during 27 of the 38 nights last year.

Longshot bettors got off to a good start in the first race. Palairish driven by Ray Sugg came home to pay $52.20. Daily double ticket holders won $190.60 for $2.00 as Wolf Gang driven by George Shultz paid $5.20 in the second race.

Jurgen and Susan Visit Woolly West

Jurgen Hamacher and Susan Clarke, Northville's student ambassadors from Germany and England, have been squeezing in a few more miles of U.S.A. before they return home July 24.

Jurgen recently returned from a trip West with the Walter Couse family. The trip, planned with an eye to historical interest, passed through Springfield, Illinois, President Lincoln's home, Abilene, Kansas, President Eisenhower's birthplace, and President Truman's home, Independence, Missouri.

They also saw some memorable scenic profiles: Colorado Springs, the Rocky Mountains, a cowboy town at Cheyenne, Wyoming, and of course, the Chicago stockyards.

Susan and the Alvin Skows, enjoyed a tour of Iowa, and a visit of an international vacation, biting relatives. The Skows visited grandmother in Maringo, Iowa, and Susan saw her first American wedding.

They also visited the University of Iowa, and were shown around the Estherville county bank and the refrigeration plant in the Amana Colonies, which was of special interest to Susan. The travellers also dined at the restaurant of former Yankee ballplayer, Bill Zuber, and polished off a real Yankee holiday.

Fine Program Slated For Next Concert

Over 700 music lovers in this area packed up their families and picnic baskets last Sunday, and headed out to the Plymouth Colony Farms for an afternoon of picnicking and an evening of musical enjoyment at the Colony concert.

This second year of the concert series has been an enthusiastic reception from families, says Margaret Wilson, publicity chairman for the programs.

Parents are realizing that it is a pleasurable and effective way to introduce their children to fine music, she says.

An interesting program is offered for next week, which features the work of contemporary American classical composers, Britten, Barber, and Walton. Also on the program are works by Vivaldi, Schubert, and Strauss.

LIFE ISN'T ALWAYS THIS SERIOUS or sedentary at the Wayne Steeles. Nancy, Douglas, and Wayne relax a moment for the photographer.

The only remnant of the Wayne Steeles' old Texas home, besides their serenity about hot weather, is an out-door barbecue grill made by themselves from an oil drum.

The Steeles of Wing Ct., moved here 2 weeks ago from Dallas with 10-month-old Douglas, who was born in a 106 degree Texas "cool spell".

Steele, who is a personnel assistant for the Kroger Co., enjoys, as pastimes, cooking roasts and steaks over his oil drum, golfing and photography. He's photographed Douglas since he was half an hour old, and the travelling couple has a large photographic log of the places they've been.

Mrs. Steele, a former elementary school teacher, also likes the fairways, but says that right now "my pastime is my home".

Little Douglas, whose life is still one big pastime, like a real Michigander, is especially accomplished at splashing in the bathtub and blowing kisses.

Mrs. Bundy Named to Head UF Drive in 11 Townships

Mrs. Bundy served as a Torch Drive regional chairman for townships last year, and is a member of the Michigan United Fund budget committee.

The townships are Addison, Commerce, Farmington, Groveland, Holly, Lyon, Novi, Rose and Springfield Townships, and the Huron Valley Townships of Highland, Milford and White Lake. Chairmen will set up the campaign organizations within their districts.

DIAL SERVICE

and new telephone numbers
will come Sunday, July 20

The most modern type of dial telephone service — fast, dependable, easy-to-use — will be extended throughout Northville at 2:01 a.m. Sunday, July 20.

Present Fieldbrook telephone numbers won't change.

All other numbers, however, will change to the same NAME (Fieldbrook) and FIVE NUMERALS. For example:

Fieldbrook 9-0163

In dialing, of course, only the first TWO LETTERS of the name are used, followed by FIVE NUMERALS, as shown in a new Northville directory you'll get before July 20. Then you'll dial your own calls throughout this local calling area.

Many of you will dial your own calls across Michigan and across the Nation

And those of you with one-party and two-party line telephones will enjoy the newest, fastest, most exciting type of out-of-town telephone service . . . Direct Distance Dialing.

DIRECT
DIALING

Thus you'll find it easier and faster to "keep in touch" with many business associates, relatives and friends . . . in other communities in Michigan and other states from historic Boston to San Francisco's Golden Gate.

William Chase II Takes Bride

Martha Sheffield Brown of Hughes, Arkansas, was married to William Byer Chase, II of Eight Mile road on June 14 in Hughes Methodist church. The church was decorated with a deep background of California woodwardia trees and southern smilax. Golden altar vases and wrought iron baskets held white stock and gladioli. Cathedral candles were placed on either side of the white satin pre-dieu, and tall gothic candelabras were grouped among the flowers.

Miss Brown was given away by her brother, Charles Dillard Brown. Rev. John Crosby of St. Andrew's Episcopal church in Marianna, Arkansas, officiated.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jan Hartman of Dearborn, Kay Crider of Princeton, Kentucky, Ginger McDuff of DeVall's Bluff, Arkansas, Mrs. Henry R. Widdow, Jr. of Memphis, Tennessee and Mrs. Woods Wright, also of Memphis.

The bride's sister, Mrs. George M. Jennings, Jr., was matron of honor. Maid of honor was Miss Jackie Edwards of Fulton, Kentucky, Miss Brown's roommate at Memphis college.

Assisting the groom were George M. Jennings, Jr., Jan Hartmann, Henry Widdow, Jr., Tom Bronson, Ed Defolio and Jack Burch.

Lowell Taylor of Hughes acted as best man.

Melinda Burch, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. Ring-bearer was Dillard Brown, a nephew.

The bride wore a dress of chantilly lace over silk taffeta. Its bouffant skirt featured a butterfly bow in back which extended into a cathedral train.

Her fingertip veil of French illusion fell from an open coronet crown of matching lace edged in seed pearls. She carried a cascade of lilies of the valley centered with white orchids.

The bridesmaids wore afternoon-length sheath dresses of mint green, with all-over scalloped lace tiers, and carried bouquets of light hybrid orchids.

Mrs. Brown chose a cocktail-length dress of mauve chantilly lace over pink taffeta, and matching accessories. Mrs. Chase wore a cocktail length dress of pink organdy over taffeta, also with matching accessories.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony.

For their Florida wedding trip the new Mrs. Chase selected a mauve-trimmed sheath and matching accessories.

The bride attended the University of Mississippi and Memphis State university. She was a member of Phi Mu sorority at both schools, and in 1955 represented Hughes in the Miss Arkansas contest.

The groom is a graduate of Cranbrook high school in Bloomfield Hills, and the University of Michigan, where he was a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. He is now a production control assistant for the Shatterproof Glass corporation. The couple will make their home at 7755 Normile in Dearborn.

Carol Elaine Sutton, John W. Funk, Married

A candlelight ceremony in a setting of daisies, stephanotis and gladioli was the scene of the marriage June 14, of Carol Elaine Sutton to John William Funk.

Rev. Henry Welch officiated at the First Presbyterian church in Plymouth.

On the bride's side, the wedding was definitely a family affair. All her bridesmaids were her sisters, daughters of the Jesse Suttons of West Seven Mile road.

Mrs. Robert Evans was matron of honor, and maid of honor was Gretchen Sutton.

Bridesmaids were Virginia Sutton, Mrs. Betty Pankow, Mrs. Lois Nelson and Alice Sutton.

Susan Sutton, a niece of the bride, was flower girl, and nephew Kippy Pankow served as ringbearer.

The groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Funk of Yerkes street, chose Richard Gates of Jackson, Florida, for his best man.

Ushers were: Frank Alandt of Dearborn; Dr. Leonard Howard, Grand Rapids; Parks Hendry, Pontiac; Thomas Hopper, Ann Arbor; and Robert Borcherts of Detroit.

Mrs. Margaret Flattery, an aunt of the bride, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

All the bridesmaids and little Susan wore dresses of blue organdy over white, and large blue picture hats, designed and made by themselves. They carried baskets of daisies and ivy.

Mrs. Sutton selected a beige taffeta dress and toast accessories. She wore pink roses.

Mrs. Funk wore a pink polished cotton dress complimented by a fuchsia velvet hat. She pinned on a corsage of deep pink roses.

WEAVING THE FLAG

The late Secretary Franklin K. Lane has a famous speech, "Makers of the Flag". Mr. Lane imagined that one morning when he went into the Land Office the flag greeted him and said, "Good morning, Mr. Flag Maker."

"I beg your pardon, Old Glory. Aren't you mistaken? I'm not the President of the United States, nor a member of Congress, nor even a General in the Army. I'm only a Government clerk."

"I greet you again, Mr. Flag Maker," replied the voice, "I know you well. You are the man who worked in the swelter of yesterday straightening out the tangle of that farmer's homestead in Idaho, or perhaps you found the mistake in that Indian contract in Oklahoma, or helped to altar that patent for the hopeful inventor in New York, or made that mine in Illinois more safe, or brought relief to that old soldier in Wyoming. No matter. Whichever one of these beneficent individuals you may happen to be, I give you greeting, Mr. Flag Maker."

"We are all making the flag," he said. "That boy in Georgia struggling to win the Corn Club prize this summer . . . that mother in Michigan working from sunrise far into the night to give her boy an education . . . WE ARE ALL MAKING THE FLAG."

"The work that you do is the making of the flag," said the Symbol. "I am whatever you make me, nothing more. I am your dream of yourself, your hope of what a people may become . . . I am song and fear, struggle and panic, and ennobling hope. I am the day's work of the weakest man, and the largest dream of the most daring . . . For you are the makers of the flag and it is well that you glory in the making."

You and I add stitch to stitch in the making of our generation's flag. May the flag that we make — the product of our thoughts and of our work — be worthy to fly above our land and our sons tomorrow.

Braves Take 15th in Row; Run Margin Now 123-3

Chalk up two more wins for the Northville Braves.

The midget wonders made it a perfect 15 in a row for the season last week when they walloped the Grant Dodgers, 21-0, and the Wilcox Redlegs, 12-2.

The Braves have now outscored the opposition 123-3 in their last eight games.

As usual, Dan Brown and Craig Bell shared the pitching honors. Bell downed the Dodgers on a single hit, while Bell allowed the Redlegs but three.

Against the Dodgers, Bell also doubled and homered to aid his own cause. Ed Beard had four for five, including two doubles, and Mike Zayti lashed out three singles.

In dumping the Redlegs, the Braves racked up 13 hits and scored in all but two innings. Wilcox was held scoreless until the fourth and fifth innings, when single runs were pushed across.

The Northville Braves were held in check for the fourth time this year as they fell to the Optimist Indians, 3-2.

The Orioles scored twice in the first inning when Pitcher Tom Swiss homered to score behind Dave Jerome. But despite several threats, they failed to score again.

The Indians tallied once in the fourth and twice in the fifth.

Midget schedule: Orioles: Wednesday v. Wayne Ford, there; Monday v. Wilson at Cass Benton; Wednesday v. Livonia at Cass Benton; all games 6:15 p.m.

Braves: Thursday v. Livonia at Fisher #3 (Middlebelt and C & O tracks); Tuesday v. Elm at Cass Benton; Thursday v. Training School at Cass Benton; all games 6:15 p.m.

Northville Wins on 2 Hits; Class E Finds Going Rough

Northville's class F team collected only two hits against Wayne Civic last week, but they went a long way.

The two safeties were good enough for five runs and a 5-3 win over Wayne, as darkness halted the game in the sixth.

Northville jumped off to a 3-0 lead and padded it to 5-1 before Wayne came back in the fourth with two tallies. Jim Anderson's two-run double in the third was the deciding blow for Northville.

In class E play, Northville had less luck. Held to a meager nine hits in two games, Northville lost both: 4-3 to Livonia and 9-4 to Plymouth Elks.

Northville led Livonia until the sixth when three runs came across. A final run in the seventh gave Livonia the game.

In Northville's big third-inning, Pete Gross singled and Rog Atchinson reached first on an intended sacrifice. Joe Kritch doubled Gross home, and Gary Morgan singled to drive in Atchinson and Kritch.

Kritch allowed only four hits himself.

Against the Plymouth Elks, Northville got off to a 2-0 lead on a walk and three Plymouth errors. But Plymouth went ahead 7-2 by the fourth inning.

Northville scored its final two runs in the fifth when Gross walked, Kritch tripled and Morgan singled.

Class E schedule: Thursday, v. Wayne Ford at Cass Benton; Tuesday, v. Fisher Shoes at Plymouth high; next Thursday, v. Plymouth Elks at Cass Benton. Saturday (July 5), All Star game at Adrian.

Class F schedule: Wednesday, Bill's Market, Riverside; Monday, Livonia Jets, Cass Benton #1; next Wednesday, Livonia Police, Whitman junior high, W. Chicago and Hubbard. All games 6:15.

IT WASN'T THE HEAT — IT WAS THE EMBARRASSMENT

The temperature went up 20 degrees when this fellow came into the store. He was spouting like Old Faithful. "I told you a month ago," he said icily, "that I was going on vacation to some pretty rugged country."

"That's right," I said. "Did you get some good movies?" He tapped his foot menacingly. "I ran out of film half way up a mountain. And I missed some wonderful footage of goats and rare flowers because I couldn't get close enough."

"Sorry about the film," I said, "but why couldn't you get closer to the goats and flowers?"

"I happened to be standing on top of a mountain," he said. I want to tell you I learned a lesson from that fellow. In fact I started a new service in my place. I call it the Vacation Planning Department. To make sure you don't miss any of the shots you want on your vacation, we're ready to help you map your trip as if it were an African safari. We'll tell you what kind of a camera you should have, what it will do and how much film to take.

We'll even tell you how a telephoto lens can help you take pictures of far-off goats and flowers. That way you won't have to step off a mountain top to get the picture you want.

TransAmerica Pace Friday

The TransAmerica pace, which has taken the east and midwest by storm in its one year history, returns to Northville Downs Friday with the nation's standard four and five-year-old pacers competing for a $10,923 purse.

The TransAmerica gives harness racing fans in Detroit and vicinity an opportunity to see the sport at its absolute best, General Manager John Carlo said.

It was last year that fans here saw two of the greatest races in history when a field of 15 speedsters clashed in the inaugural of the TransAmerica at Northville Downs.

This time, 10 or 12 of the original 24 nominees are expected to start in the rich event which was inaugurated by Harness Tracks of America, an association of harness racing parimutuel tracks from coast to coast.

The HTA decided to sponsor a series of events for four and five-year-old pacers because no stakes of any consequence were being offered anywhere in the United States for standardbreds of that age.

There is the rich Little Brown Jug, (the Kentucky Derby for 3-year-old pacers) and numerous other grand circuit stakes for the sophomores — but then they immediately had to go against aged stars as four and five-year-olds.

To make the stake more enticing, the HTA set a nomination fee of a mere $500 to make the pacer eligible for the spring and fall series—a total of 15 events—each winding up with a $50,000 stake in New York City.

Then to make sure the horses would remain in competition for the entire series, the rules provide that only the top 10 in point standings in each series qualifies for the rich finale.

With but two stakes remaining in the spring series — at Northville Downs Friday and Buffalo Raceway on July 11

Paragon Wins 8th Straight To Boost First Place Lead

The Paragon Steelers strengthened their hold on first place in the Novi Little League last week by walloping Young Door, 22-3, for their eighth straight win.

National Bank, which had led the league until two weeks ago, went down again and fell two full games behind the Steelers.

Paragon got some heavy hitting from three of the Steelers. Jim Mazel slammed out two home runs, Jim Driscoll had four for four including a homer and double, and Bobby Jones had three for three.

Mazel was the winning pitcher, Jim Bertoni was the loser for Young Door, but whiffed 10 of the Steelers.

National Bank tumbled to Fiberglas, 7-6, as the Sluggers picked up their second win of the week. National Bank pitcher Mike Gotro allowed only six hits while his teammates were picking up 10 off Fiberglas' Marshall Rose, but the runs went the other way.

Fiberglas belted Young Door, 15-5, for its second win. Ronnie Ward held the Tigers to four hits and struck out nine for the winners.

Paragon 9 2
National Bank 7 4
Fiberglas 4 6
Young Door 2 10

Little League Schedule: Wednesday, National Bank-Fiberglas; Monday, Paragon-Fiberglas; Tuesday, Paragon-Young Door; Wednesday, National Bank-Fiberglas; Thursday, National Bank-Young Door.

First Haircut: A Young Man's Ordeal

"Don't you brutes think this is just a little unfair,"

There comes a time in a young man's life when he learns that all is not sweetness and roses or mud-pies and toy trains.

There are responsibilities to bear, he discovers, and one of these is to look like a man.

Few men aside from Louis XVI and General Custer have made the masculine grade wearing curls, so the rule is that they must go.

Freddy Shipley, 425 East street, reached this milestone in his young life last week.

For 17 months, his curls have grown golden and long. They meant no more trouble than an occasional scrubbing by Mom or a good combing when company was coming.

But suddenly they became cursed. They took Freddy unsuspecting into a world of high stiff chairs and unseen whirring machines and a determined stranger who wouldn't let go.

Small comfort it was that Mom and Dad sat close by. They smiled and said kind words, but the frightening ritual continued.

Freddy roared protests. He twisted and pushed. He bellered and scolded. But little good it did. Freddy and his curls were soon parted. Then it ended. Freddy was dusted and powdered and primped and patted, and the stranger turned him loose.

Dad judged him critically. He decided the haircut was a major improvement for his young son.

Mom gathered up a few curls for the scrapbook and wondered why Freddy had to have them when daughter Dorothy's hair was straight as a string.

And the stranger, now a nice man in a white coat, made peace with Freddy by offering him a fat lemon sucker.

Freddy accepted warily. Then he smiled and decided that if this was all there was to growing up, it might not be so bad after all.

"Me gettun scalped."

"Whatcha got against curls?"

"I knew if I screamed loud enough I'd get a sucker."

Willowbrook ...

David Ames accompanied his grandmother, Mrs. June Rothwell, of Detroit, to the Tiger "Oldtimers" ballgame on Saturday afternoon. He was greatly thrilled to see such baseball greats as Ty Cobb, Charlie Gehringer and Hank Greenberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Dyke Blanton, former residents of Willowbrook, who now live in Palmer Heights, Ohio, spent the weekend here with Mr. and Mrs. Ken Milliken.

Nancy Milliken's aunt, Miss Gordon Curtaz, has just spent a week here on her way back to her home in San Francisco. She has just returned from a trip to Europe.

Carol Pohlman celebrated her tenth birthday with a family party on Saturday.

Virginia Barnes was hostess for the Wednesday evening bridge club this week. Marguerite Parent won first prize, Dottie Flattery second, and Agnes Morrison consolation prize.

The Tuesday Bridge group met at the home of Fay Dukes. First prize went to Irene McCormick, second to Barbara Coon, and Fay herself took booby prize.

The Jack Carter family spent their vacation making a trip to their old homes in Oakridge and Knoxville, Tennessee. They visited with their families and enjoyed a trip through the Smokey Mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sale have recently returned from a trip to their former home in Boston, Massachusetts. On their way they enjoyed a short stay at the Thousand Islands area of the Saint Lawrence River.

Attends Air School

2-FOR SALE - Real Estate

Congratulations - -

to you "Bill" Sliger on the purchase of the building housing The Northville Record.

"Bill" - you, your nice wife and family were already sold on Northville when you purchased your pretty home through me some time ago. You have again expressed your confidence in our community in the purchase of an actual "home" for the Record.

I am very proud of your continued confidence in me in providing the services of a Realtor in this purchase. Please accept my sincere wishes for your success.

Home buying of any kind in Northville is a wise move. This fine community of predominating home owners, well kept homes and gracious living is a symbol of happiness that many "outsiders" envy.

It is WISE to buy property in Northville right NOW. Homes with shade trees, landscaped lawns and flower gardens (without pioneering) are available. Let me show some of them to you.

A SINGLE PLANK ENOUGH!

A Christian sailor was dealing with a man who was visibly moved under the preaching of the Gospel. All his pleadings were in vain as the man refused the mercies of God because of his wicked life. "I am too bad and have sinned away my day of grace," the sailor told him the story of the dying thief, but the man said this was a special case. Then the old sailor said, "I have sailed the seven seas in some of the stoutest ships ever built and took consolation in the fact that they were able to weather the fiercest storms. But when I was shipwrecked and in danger of drowning it was a single plank that carried me to safety. When 50 or more years of my life had gone and I was in danger of everlasting destruction, it was a single plank from the Word of God that carried me into the harbor of His love and salvation. That plank was, 'Let the wicked forsake his way and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord and He will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.' This plank was enough for the man he was dealing with and friend it's enough for you."

Melted Tar Brings Warning

Melted tar on Novi road this week brought a plea for extra safety from Novi Police Chief Lee BeGole.

The tar, recently laid, has been melted most afternoons during the current heat wave. It, together with fresh gravel, have made Novi road even more treacherous than usual.

"Drivers should anticipate slippery stretches, especially when they're coming over the crest of a hill," BeGole said. "Melted tar can be as dangerous as ice."

"They should follow at a safe distance, not only to allow room to stop," he said, "but to keep tar from splashing up on their windshield."

U.S. Navy Stations Recruiter in City

A U. S. Navy recruiter began duties in Northville Monday as the Navy launched a new recruiting program in the Northville-Plymouth area.

On duty daily at the American Legion Memorial home is EN/1 John P. Goss, a 14-year veteran of the Navy.

Goss will be at the hall Monday through Saturday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. to discuss plans for a Navy career with young men and women.

He and his wife, Christine, are now living with their three children at 318 Plymouth road. The family arrived in Northville Monday.

Goss served in the European theater during World War II and was stationed with a minesweeper out of Charleston South Carolina, before coming to Northville.

Seeks GOP Nod For House Seat

Lucas S. Miel, a national leader of profit sharing industries and president and general manager of the Commercial Steel Treating corporation, filed voter petitions Monday to qualify as a candidate for Republican nomination to the U.S. House of Representatives from the 17th Congressional District.

An active farmer as well as an industrialist, Miel said he would conduct a campaign in behalf of "the forgotten man of 1958 — the employer."

"We have 5,000,000 men and women in this country looking for jobs," Miel said, "hence, they are looking for an employer to hire them. Even with 13 additional weeks of unemployment compensation, they'll be spending that time looking for men — employers — to provide jobs."

Miel said it was essential to create "a climate in which the employer can prosper, and with him the employee and the public."

"We must make the voters realize that when you kill an employer, you kill the employees, too; mortality for the business is mortality for the jobs."
