Will Decide Candidates For November Election

Northville voters will go to the polls next Tuesday to nominate their candidates for state, national and county offices in November's biennial election.

Democratic and Republican candidates for a dozen offices will be nominated. Top vote-getters for the two parties will run against each other in the fall election.

Voters are permitted to vote for candidates of one party, either Democratic or Republican, and may not vote a "split" ticket as is permitted in regular elections.

The name of one Northville resident will appear on the list of Democratic candidates. George N. Bennett, veterinarian and teacher of 48950 Six Mile road is a candidate for state representative. His opponents are Harvey J. Beadle, Democratic candidate who was defeated by Sterling Eaton in 1956, Beverly E. Pool and David J. Trombley. Representative Eaton is unopposed on the Republican ballot.

Only a few candidates are unopposed — notably the top three Republican hopefuls. Otherwise, most offices feature a lively race, with incumbents favored as usual.

The Democratic reign of Governor G. Mennen Williams faces its first serious challenge in recent elections, with a full slate of candidates out after the state and U.S. nominations.

Republican candidates include U.S. Senator Charles Potter and U.S. Representative William Broomfield, Michigan State's Paul Bagwell for governor, and a host of incumbent county officials.

Qualified electors of the city residing in precincts one and two will vote at the Northville Community Center, while precinct three votes at the Amerman Elementary school. Township residents of precinct one vote in the kindergarten room of the Main street elementary school, and precinct two votes at the township hall, 16860 Franklin road.

Polls open at 7:00 a.m. and close at 8 p.m. Candidates whose names will appear on the Wayne county ballot are listed below. Oakland county voters turn to page ten for their list of candidates.

Protested Call May Erase Braves' First Loss in 23

The Northville Braves' 22-game winning streak was snapped Tuesday night, but a question over the rules may erase the loss from the record book.

The Braves lost to the Rosedale Tigers, 2-1, in the opener of a three game series to determine which team will enter the state-wide Michigan Recreation Association tournament.

The game was played under protest after the fourth inning, when an umpire called out a Brave baserunner for breaking toward an occupied base. The runner returned to his base without being tagged, but the umpire ruled him automatically out.

A similar call occurred in the fifth inning with bases loaded. Pitcher Craig Bell gave up only two hits, but both came in one inning to give Rosedale its 2-1 margin. In the Braves' half of the fourth, Mike Zayit had scored on Larry Angove's single.

The Braves played Rosedale again at 6 p.m. tonight (Thursday) at Fisher field, Middlebelt at the C & O tracks.

Another game will probably be scheduled for next week.

A good-sized group of Northville fans attended the game. For a look at why the Braves' have the following they do, see page 9.

Can't Beat These Results

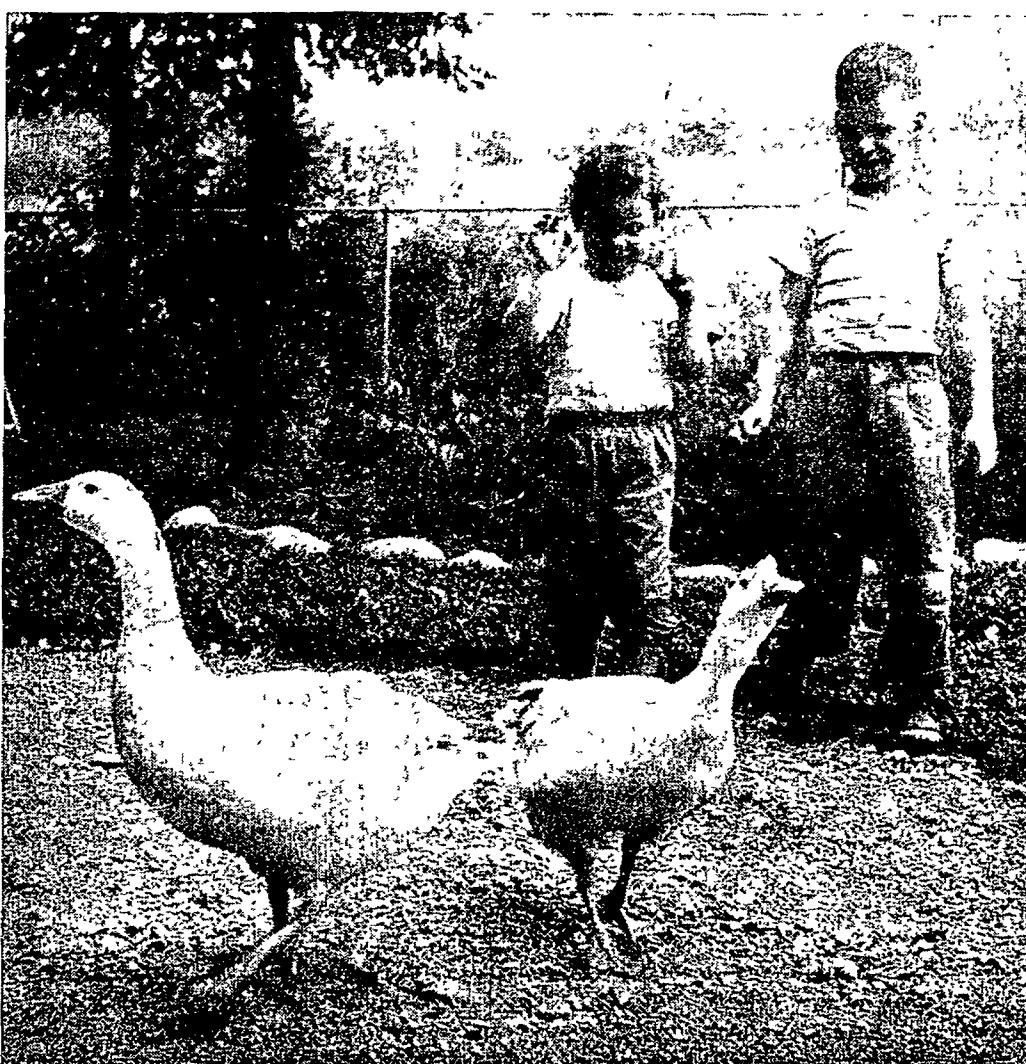

Record want ads get results—sometimes even before the paper hits the newsstands.

Such as last week when we discovered these two notices one on top of the other:

LOST: Year-old guernsey steer, tan and white, in vicinity of West Eight Mile between Griswold and Haggerty.

FOUND: Stray calf, tan and white. Owner may claim by calling.

A couple of quick calls were made, and the four-footed wanderer was home even before The Record reached the streets.

LEADING A GOOSE'S LIFE isn't half bad for "Gus" and "Googie," who've made their home with the James McNeelce family, 20145 Woodhill, since May. They spend their carefree days flapping around the yard, splashing in the swimming pool, and chomping hand-outs of clover from Jimmy, 6, and Cindy, 3. Gus and Googie will be permanent pets, unlike two other McNeelce geese who had a rather rude awakening along about last Thanksgiving.

New Fronts Are Planned For Stores

Three Northville Main street stores were scheduled for face-lifting projects this week.

The move to modernize E.M.B. Food Market, Ellis Electronics and Revitzer's Shoe Repair was announced this week by C. R. Van Valkenburg, president of the Northville Masonic Temple association, owners of the building. The Revitzer store is owned by Mrs. Elizabeth Blackburn, who is cooperating with the Masonic project.

Van Valkenburg said that a sandstone front extending to the second story windows would be installed. Large modern windows with aluminum trimming will angle inward from the extremes of the Ellis and Revitzer stores providing Ellis and E.M.B. with a common entrance-way with individual doors. The doorway to the upstairs Masonic Temple will be under the indented entrance next to Revitzer's, but opening towards E.M.B.

Van Valkenburg said the second floor area above the newly installed sandstone front will also be painted.

The project, scheduled to begin next week, will be done by the Michael J. Willing company.

Modern storefronts have been the topic of discussion by members of the Retail Merchants association for several years. Two years ago a firm specializing in store front design presented a program to local retail merchants outlining ideas and showing films of how Northville's retail area could look with new fronts. The Masonic modernization is the first project involving more than one store to be undertaken locally.

Council Approves Plat

City councilmen met briefly Tuesday to give final approval to the D & R Building company's Yerkes Estates number two.

The new plat will include 42 homes. Construction is expected to begin immediately. The subdivision, located at Baseline and Novi street, already has 27 homes in its first section. Approximately 200 homes are planned.

Willis Move Leaves School Board Seat

The Northville board of education will be one member short when it meets in regular session next Monday evening.

The resignation of H. Adrian Willis has been submitted to President Nelson Schrader and becomes effective August 1. Willis, elected to the board last year, was named vice president after the annual election this June.

Willis, formerly national advertising manager for the Kelvinator corporation, has accepted a position with the Daisy Manufacturing company in Rogers, Arkansas. The Willis family resides at 44700 Thorn Apple Lane and plans to move to Arkansas in the near future.

Presumably the board will take up the matter of naming a successor to Willis at the Monday meeting.

Warren Still Studies Annexation Suit Appeal

Officials of Warren Products company are still studying the possibility of appealing last week's court decision upholding the annexation of 220 acres in Novi by Northville.

Oakland County Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams ruled that the election in which the annexation was approved is valid, despite Warren's contention that all of Novi — not just the part being annexed — should vote.

Steel Was a Steal At Foundry Flask

Over $700 worth of steel was stolen from the Foundry Flask and Equipment company on E. Cady street Saturday afternoon.

Employees Marvin Bader and Ted Budek said they were cutting weeds on company property across from the foundry when the thieves made off with steel plates, scrap steel, and other steel pieces usually left outside in a storage lot.

A woman whose house is next to the lot, told police she looked out of her window and saw two men loading steel on a truck.

Since she knew the foundry was closed on Saturday, she walked across the street to tell Bader and Budek.

When they saw her returning, the thieves drove off.

The woman described the truck as old, either black or dark blue, with a long pick-up bed, and the word "Wilder" on the door.

Owner A. J. Weber of E. Cady, estimates the loss at over $700.

Postal Rates Go Up Tomorrow

New postal rates will go into effect across the nation tomorrow. First class mail will cost four cents instead of three, and air mail will jump from six to seven cents.

Two cent postcards will now cost three cents, and stamped envelopes will now cost four and seven cents instead of three and six cents.

The Northville post offices have adequate supplies of stamps on hand for the rate hike.

Nearly $400 Is Given to David

Several hundred Northville residents, sympathetic to the plight of young David Rochon, have seen to it that he will have enough medicine for awhile.

Some $235 was collected Saturday night when over 300 persons turned out for a swiss steak dinner sponsored by the VFW for his benefit. (See picture, page 3).

At the same time, the American Legion donated $100 to help his parents buy the medications that dull the pain caused by a looming brain tumor.

Another $50 dollars came from a group of boys not much older than David himself—the Cub Scouts of Northville Pack 755.

The contribution came just in time, for David was having his worst spell yet. Pain has racked him since Saturday, and even the sound of his mother's vacuum cleaner is unbearable.

Falls From Tree, Seriously Hurt

A common summer adventure resulted in serious injury for a Plymouth boy in Northville township, Monday afternoon.

James Hoffman, 11, and companion, George Gardner, were playing by Phoenix lake, between Five Mile and Northville roads.

James climbed a tree on the edge of the lake, slipped and fell from the tree into the water, striking his head on a stone.

He was taken to University hospital in Ann Arbor, with a fractured skull, Wayne County sheriffs office said.

University hospital reported that he has had two operations and is still in critical condition.

James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hoffman of Parkhurst avenue.

Ilka and Mike: They Find Us Friendly

Ilka and Mike Settle Down In New Northville Homes

Two young German students settled down in Northville this week for a year-long stay and a look at what America is all about.

Ilka Hartmann and Mike Gall, both 16, will take part in the student exchange program that has seen nearly a dozen European students live in Northville in the past few years.

They arrived just in time to say goodbye to Susan Clarke and Jurgen Hamacher, who left Thursday after a year here.

Ilka will live with the Drake Older family, while Mike will make his home with Postmaster Leland Smith and his family.

The two students will begin classes at Northville high school this fall, and already are meeting friends and contemplating courses. Ilka met her first future classmates at a dance Friday.

But before schoolwork starts, they both plan to do some getting-acquainted with people and places in America. Mike already intends to visit Black Lake and Mackinac Island with his foster family later this summer.

Travelling is nothing new to Ilka. She has visited much of Europe, including France, Denmark, England and the Netherlands. And her home is in the north German city of Hamburg, an international port whose cosmopolitan air is an education in itself.

Mike, though he has travelled little, already is quite familiar with America. A Yankee exchange student stayed with his family in Munster three years ago, and is now coincidentally a student at the University of Michigan.

When Ilka arrived at the Older home last Thursday, a letter awaited her from the Older's daughter, Julie, who is now in Europe as an exchange student herself. If possible, wrote Julie, she would try to visit Ilka's family in Hamburg before coming home.

Mike, a strapping six-footer, is anxiously waiting for football practice to begin. He's still not familiar with the game, but is hoping that Mustang Coach Ron Schipper will give him a chance to try out.

Both students are keeping their eyes open before saying too much about first impressions, but both agree that Americans are "friendly"—an observation made by many Europeans on their first visit here. But one thing troubled Mike at first—the casual dress of most Americans.

"We're used to wearing suits and ties to dinner or to the show," said Mike, "and it seems strange to see men dressing informally as they do here."

"But," he added, pointing to his own short-sleeved sport shirt, "it does make sense on hot summer days."

May Start Cutoff in October

Work on the $1,500,000 Eight Mile cutoff across the northern part of Northville is still scheduled to start this year.

John Hilts, engineer for highways for the Wayne county road commission, said contracts will be let in October unless condemnation proceedings drag on later than expected.

Work could then start immediately, he added. First project would be to fill in around the C & O tracks to allow it to settle over the winter. Hilts said the county has now acquired about half the land needed.

The other half will be included in a single condemnation case that will be heard in Oakland county in September. A crowded docket has delayed the hearing, he said.

"If the condemnation proceedings involve much of a fight, however, construction might be delayed until next year," Hilts said.

The long-awaited project, which will route Eight Mile traffic around Northville instead of through it, includes widening and surfacing North Center street from Baseline to the cutoff.

The cutoff will run roughly from the intersection of Griswold and Eight Mile on the east to the intersection of Taft road and Eight Mile on the west.

It will pass two new subdivisions and go between the Amerman elementary school and the new high school.

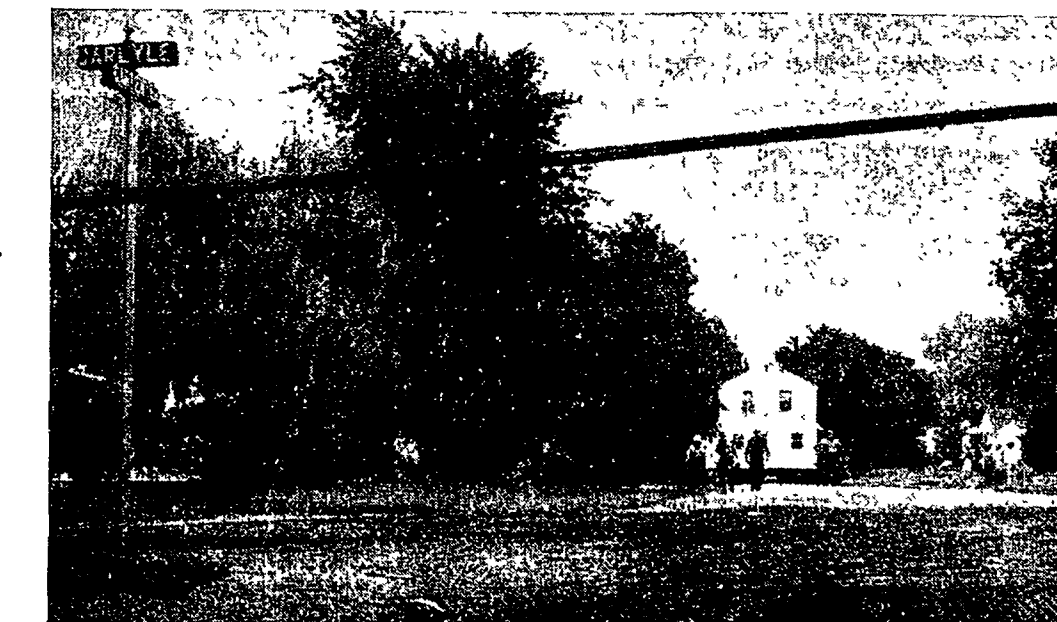

Hilts said the North Center street work is scheduled to start as soon as possible, so as to be ready for the opening of the high school. Because of federal regulations, work cannot start until the condemnation question is cleared up, he added.

Plans for the highway are nearly completed, and work can go ahead at a rapid pace once the contracts are signed, Hilts said.

Plans Still on Books For 11 Mile X-Way

The proposed conversion of Northwestern highway into an expressway next year will not change plans for an 11 Mile expressway into Novi, a state highway department spokesman said this week.

Work on the 11 Mile route will presumably start on schedule — sometime between now and 1962.

MAKE WAY FOR THE CUTOFF—The Eight Mile cutoff was one step closer this week after the first home was moved out of the road's future path last Friday. The home (distance) was moved from the corner of Carlyle and Carpenter to a new location half a block south on Carpenter.

Attend Conference For Homemakers

Four homemakers from Northville and surrounding areas returned from a homemaker's conference held at Michigan State university last week.

Over 1000 attended the entire four days of classes, lectures and tours. Almost another 1000 came for just one of the days.

Mrs. H. C. Seden of Randolph street was the only representative from Northville. Mrs. W. D. Hillebrand and Mrs. L. Tallon of Livonia, and Mrs. G. Mairs of Novi, also attended.

The women had their choice of 15-20 topics of immediate and broad interest to the homemakers.

Mrs. Seden studied economics, Mrs. Hillebrand and Mrs. Tallon signed up for lessons on efficient and easy ways of managing housework, and Mrs. Mairs learned about food marketing.

Especially interesting, the women say, were a tour through the state Capitol, and a talk by newspaper personality, Ann Landers.

More than 70 members and guests of the Wayne County Organic Farm and Garden club, visited five organic flower and vegetable gardens Sunday.

Beginning in Inkster, at the garden of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Decker, of Merriman Rd., members visited the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Sandness of Merriman Rd., the rose and perennial display of Mr. and Mrs. Harold T. Gotts of Garden City, and the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mensch of Livonia.

The trek was completed with a picnic at the Will Ingham home in Farmington.

Next month members will visit a commercial organic vegetable grower.

This meeting, Sunday, August 17, is open to anyone interested in gardening or farming.

For further information call Mr. Walter Mach, president at PA. 2-1182.

SUCCESSFUL DINNER — The VFW's benefit dinner for David Rochon Sunday proved to be a whopping success. The local veterans' group collected $235 for the Rochon family, $100 of which was turned over to the VFW by their brother veterans' organization, the American Legion. Clayton Myers, VFW commander, is shown above receiving his dinner from Mrs. Tom Hoxis and Mrs. Gil Perry. Some 325 persons were served and the swiss steak was gone by 6:00 p.m., Myers reported. Five-year-old David, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rochon of Horton street, is suffering from a brain tumor. Myers said the VFW received donations of food from Guernsey Farms Dairy and John Schroder, while many others worked to prepare the dinner.

Miss Dorothy Isanhart, Lawrence Swan, Married

Dorothy Isanhart, daughter of Mrs. Mae Isanhart and the late Charles T. Isanhart, became the bride of Lawrence Swan July 5, in a candlelight ceremony at the Livonia Methodist church.

The bride was given away by her brother, William Isanhart. Rev. Ralph W. Brown officiated.

The church altar was decked with white gladioli, and organ music accompanied the ceremony.

The bride's gown was white lace and nylon over satin. Her veil fell just below the waist, and she carried red and white roses and white baby mums.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Dorothy MacQuater, a cousin of the bride. Her dress was blue lace over white satin. She carried a bouquet of red roses and white mums.

Roberta Isanhart, a niece of the bride, was flower girl. She carried a basket of pink roses.

Best man was John Swan, the groom's brother.

Ford and Robert Isanhart, brothers of the bride, served as ushers.

Mrs. Isanhart wore a dress of light blue hemborg, and white accessories.

A reception for 150 local and out-of-town guests was held at the V.F.W. hall in Berkley, Michigan.

For her going-away outfit, the bride chose a black eyelet dress over pink, and white accessories.

The couple travelled to Gladstone, Michigan, the groom's birthplace, for their wedding trip.

They now reside in Livonia.

Fall Wedding Planned

Mr. and Mrs. Merle B. Fretz of Newberry, Michigan, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Ann, to William Hicks Bredow, son of the senior Edward F. Bredow of Northville.

The bride-to-be attended the University of Michigan school of nursing, and is a registered nurse at University hospital in Ann Arbor.

Bill attended Bowling Green State university and is employed as assistant to Controller of the Ferry-Morse Seed Company in Detroit.

The couple plan a fall wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Munro Weston and sons, of Butler street, spent last week in Muskegon.

Elected Auxiliary Chaplain

Mrs. Oscar Hammond of North Center street was named department chaplain of the American Legion Auxiliary at its 38th state convention Sunday.

She succeeds Mrs. J. Alvin Johnston of Detroit.

Election and installation ceremonies were held after memorial services for deceased members at Old Mariners church.

Mrs. Hammond was elected unanimously after being nominated by her district.

She has a 15 year record of serving diligently in the Northville Legion auxiliary.

She has been past unit president of the Lloyd H. Green unit No. 147 of the American Legion Auxiliary and secretary for seven years. She was rehabilitation chairman for the unit 17th district, and third zone and past district president.

Not planning to run for office, Mrs. Hammond says the nomination and election were "a big surprise."

She adds that the Hammonds are a "100 per cent American Legion family." Her two daughters and son are members, and her husband was recently third zone vice commander.

Japanese lanterns, palms, flowers, and a fish pond decorated the hall. A fish net from the Hatchery was filled with lucky-number balloons. The catch was later turned upside down on the crowd who collected prizes.

The Northville operators heartily thank the following merchants for their donations to the party:

Strength, Freedom Thru Divine Love

How strength and freedom are gained through understanding God, divine Love, will be a topic dealt with at Christian Science services Sunday.

One of the selections from the Bible in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Love" is this from Matthew: "And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people" (4:23).

"HOW'S TRICKS?"—That's what the turkey in the arms of Kay Honsinger seems to be saying to the trotting mare, Lady Volo, who gives the Northville turkey farmer his relaxation at the races during the summer months.

Turkeys Take Back Seat During Harness Season

What does a successful turkey farmer do during the summer months to get away from the gobble, gobble of his growing birds?

Ray Honsinger, one of Michigan's largest turkey farmers who resides just outside Northville's western city limits, has the answer — an answer that has kept him happy and busy in his spare time.

Ray uses his odd moments to following the harness races at Northville Downs where he generally owns one or two trotters and paces in competition. He seldom has had the best on the grounds, but he always has a good, fast-going horse.

At the present moment, Ray is enthralled with Lady Volo, an entrant in the $5,000 Wolverine Trot scheduled for Northville Downs next Wednesday. He isn't figuring on grabbing off the winner's share of the purse, of course. The speedy Ohioan, Annette Sue, who has a string of 12 straight and expects to have 14 in a row by the time of the stake, gets his nod.

"Shucks, we don't have a chance," smiles Ray. "But an owner always gets a big kick out of thinking his horse will beat the favorite and always likes to know just how close it'll be to the winner."

Ray's interest in harness racing dates back to when he moved to Northville some 30 years ago. He had a good pacer 20 years back in Calvin Mac who went to a record of 2:06 at a time when that was good.

Between watching the horses, he spends his time on the farm where he has had as many as 2,400 turkeys fattening up for Thanksgiving and Christmas. Right now he has about 1,800 and believes it will be just about his greatest flock of all time.

Fiberglass, Young Door Knock Off League Leaders

Fiberglass and Young Door served notice last week that they're no pushovers in the Novi Little League.

All-Stars

In Action Today

Novi and Walled Lake All-Star teams will meet this afternoon (Thursday) in the first round of district Little League tournament play.

Game time is 1 p.m. at the Birmingham Little League diamond on Eaton drive just east of Birmingham.

The winner will go on to the next round of district play. Schedule of future games was not available this week.

On the Walled Lake roster will be three Wixom players: Vic Burwell, Jim Hughes, and Charles McCall. The Novi roster was published last week.

Tonight's regular games have been postponed because of the play-off action.

Hitting and pitching like champs, they bowled over league-leading Paragon and second-place National Bank in three of four meetings.

Behind Paul Rose's fine two-hitter, Fiberglass edged National Bank, 3-0, and snapped the Bandits' five-game winning streak. Only a double by Mike Brady and a single by Tim Krug spoiled Rose's game.

Fiberglass scored all its runs in the third when Carl Nealy, Ralph Caligiuri and Rose tallied on errors. The Sluggers turned their guns on Young Door the next day, pounding out a 23-hit 27-4 win for Caligiuri, who limited the Tigers to four hits. Rose, Nealy and Caligiuri each had four safeties.

Young Door bounced back to down first-place Paragon, 14-7, with Jim Bertoni on the mound. Larry Long's triple and Carl Payton's double were the big blows. Tigers collected 12 hits off Jim Mazel.

In final action, Paragon padded its lead over National Bank by tripping the Bandits, 5-3. Jim Schingbeck hurled a three-hitter, as Tom Bingham three-for-three and Jim Driscoll's triple brought home the runs for Paragon.

Dodgers Down Commerce, 8-3

A double with two men on by Keith Green in the first sent the Wixom Dodgers off to an 8-3 win over the Commerce Cubs in Babe Ruth action Sunday.

Green pounded out three hits in four times at bat to aid Pitcher Neil Salo's cause. Salo struck out 11 Cubs, while his teammates were collecting 13 hits.

The Walled Lake Babe Ruth All-Stars—including Salo, Bill Green and Bob Tuck—fell to Northwest Detroit Sunday and were eliminated from the state tourney.

The Walled Lake team was managed by Wixom Manager Paul Green.

In farm team play, Wixom was edged by Union Lake, 16-13, with Buddy Gross hurling for the Orioles.

No Little League games were played, as the All-Stars warmed up for this afternoon's game (see box).

Games for the coming week: Babe Ruth—Sunday, v. Wolverine Lake, 4 p.m. and Tuesday v. Union Lake at 6 p.m., both at Walled Lake junior high; Little League (subject to change because of All-Star game)—Friday, v. Glengary, Wednesday v. Walled Lake, both 6 p.m. at Riley field.

Throw it Away!

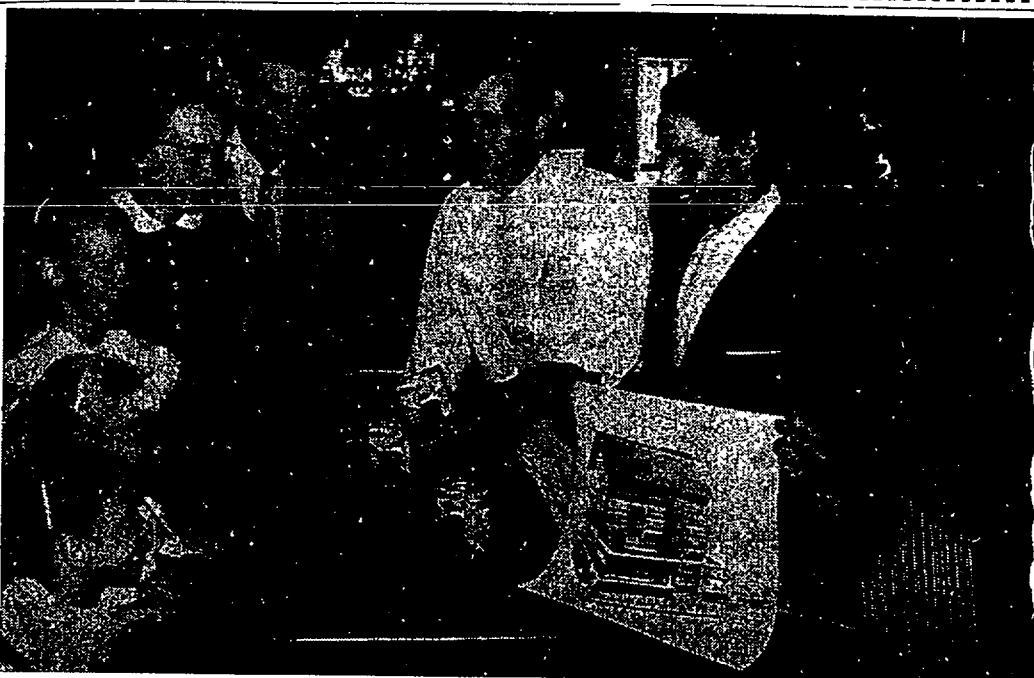

What a man throws away is of just as great importance to his life as what he keeps. What if we had to keep everything that came to us. Think how cluttered our home would be if we had never carried out the garbage; never burned the paper; kept all the boxes; second, third and fourth class mail; all the tin cans, bottles, cartons, sacks, and the trillions of trivia that come to us. We would all have to find a new place to live in a short time if we couldn't discard the things we don't want.

Well why not carry the idea a little farther into the realm of the mind and heart? Everyday there is a veritable flood of ideas, impulses, stories, tales, gossip, truth, fiction, hatreds, sentiments, etc., that come into our lives. Could it be possible that much of our confusion and unhappiness comes from the clutter of the soul that is caused by the things we forget to throw away? Did you discard that old misunderstanding of your brother when you thought he was scheming to take more than his share of the family estate? No? Still, living with the grist of foul immoral stories you heard at work? And.....How about that stack of prejudice you are keeping against Black people, Yankees, Protestants or Catholics and Japanese, etc.? Then there are those unclean habits we haven't had the courage to throw away—Not all ideas are worth keeping.

The Christian faith is strong in its stand for a clean life. The Apostle Paul states "Forgetting those things which are behind I press toward the mark". In a happy Christian's life "Old things are passed away.....Behold all things are become new". We are to put off the Old nature of Sin and PUT ON the new nature of Christ.

If we are unhappy perhaps this is our problem. Life has become a city dump because we neglected to discard the worthless, hurtful things. Life can become a veritable garden of eden if we allow Christ to cleanse our lives. There is no need for us to be a garbage dump for the trash of this world. There is hardly a person alive that wouldn't profit greatly by a general house-cleaning. The scriptural injunction still holds: "Cleanse to the good, but abhor that which is evil!"

Mighty Braves Almost a Legend

TERRORS OF THE LEAGUE — Between Dan Brown (left) and Craig Bell, league batters didn't stand much of a chance against the Northville Braves. In 20 games, the twosome gave up only 39 hits, hurled five no-hitters, 10 shutouts, struck out 175, and so on — ad infinitum.

Braves Notch 2 Shutouts Over Their Cousin Orioles

The Northville Braves and Orioles met last week for the first time, and the Orioles are probably just as glad it's over.

The Orioles had done pretty well in their division this summer, but like everyone else they didn't quite have it against the unbeaten Braves.

Playing two unofficial games, the Braves white-washed the Orioles both times to run their win streak to 22 games.

First, Craig Bell limited the Orioles to three hits while his teammates were gathering 11 for a 13-0 win.

Then the next day, Dan Brown snapped off a two-hitter and downed the Orioles, 7-0, behind his mates, 10 hits.

In other action last week, the Orioles won a make-up game with the Garfield Senators, 2-1, though out-hit 4-2.

Garfield scored first, but the Orioles put their two runs across in the fourth and made the lead stick.

Dan Bishop and Dave Jerome walked and went to third on a grounder. Bishop scored on Tom Swiss' sacrifice fly, and Jerome came home on a bad throw following the play.

Swiss, pitching for Northville, walked only one man and scattered the four hits to keep control of the game all the way.

The Orioles scored twice in the seventh, but the runs were nullified when the game was called because of darkness.

Every so often in sports, a near-perfect team comes along.

The 1958 Northville Braves won't gain the fame of the present New York Yankees or the 1947 Michigan Wolverines, but the Braves — in their own way — were just as incredible.

Paced by a pair of whirlwind pitchers who were equally at home at the plate, the Braves mopped up all opposition in winning the championship of their Livonia Recreation league division.

Their record book vouches for their perfection on every page. Among the eye-popping statistics for Manager Glenn Long's team:

—The Braves won 20, lost none, outscored their opponents, 262-23, for an average score of about 13-1.

—Of their 20 wins, 10 were shutouts, and never did they allow more than four runs or five hits a game (all this in the usually high-scoring midwest world).

—By contrast, they slugged out at least 15 runs in nine of the 20.

—Eight of the nine starters hit over .300, and seven of those topped .340.

The Braves' showing as a team was spectacular enough, but even it doesn't compare with the individual showing of Pitchers Dan Brown and Craig Bell.

In the 20 seven-inning games, they hurled five no-hitters (three in a row), tossed five straight shutouts, and never allowed more than five runs.

They struck out 175 batters (an average of eight a game), gave up only 39 hits all season long, and allowed only nine earned runs.

Unbelievable? Yep, but true. And there's still more to come.

Dan, whose dad is Dr. Philip N. Brown, medical superintendent of Northville state hospital, was the workhorse of the staff. During the season, Dan:

—won 13 straight, hurled three no-hitters (two in a row) and gave up only 19 hits all year long.

—pitched and won the first five games of the season (all one- and two-hitters).

—did the impossible when he (now get this!) struck out every batter who faced him in a 10-3 win over the Grant Dodgers. Whiffing the first eight batters and 12 of the first 15, Dan got all 18 opponents on third strikes.

Craig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bell, joined the team after the season was a third gone, but was spectacular nonetheless. His showing:

—six straight wins, including four shutouts; only three runs were scored off him, and of these only two were earned.

—a no-hitter and a total allowance of only 11 hits in the six games.

—19 strikeouts in one seven-inning game. Striking out the side in five innings, he fanned the last nine men who faced him.

There was only one trouble: the Braves had too many good pitchers. Mike Zayti, one of the league's best, played in the outfield instead. And Dick Pubanz, after a 10-0 win early in the season, was sidelined with an injury.

At the plate, the exploits of Brown and Bell were no less amazing. They led the Braves 1-2 in both batting and home runs.

Craig hit for 483 and hammered six homers, while Dan slugged at a .464 clip and registered three round-trippers. (When one was pitching, the other was at short-stop.)

That's an average of .365 for the team (218 hits in 599 times at bat.)

With such pitching and hitting, it's small wonder the Braves are given a good chance in the forthcoming Michigan Recreation Association tournament.

But win or lose, they've already made history in Northville.

a rule that ends a game whenever a team is ahead by 15 runs or more at the end of an inning.

Northville collected 11 runs in the first inning as Jim Anderson doubled with the sacks full and singled two more home in his second appearance of the inning.

Steve Juday allowed only one hit and coasted to his third win.

Against the Training School, Northville slammed out 15 hits—a season's high. Anderson's homer, triples by Fred Steeper, Juday, Carl Karg, and Butch Willing, and three hits each by Dave Hay and Mike Myers paced the Northville attack.

Butch Willing and Bill Chapel combined for a one-hitter.

Northville edged Davis and Lent, 3-2, as Anderson doubled one run in and Steeper set up the other two with well-placed bunts. Bob O'Leary held Davis and Lent to three hits.

Anderson, completing a bang-up week, drove in the winning run in the final inning to give Northville a second win over Davis and Lent, 10-9.

Anderson drove in three runs and Steve Juday two, while Steeper collected three safeties and scored four times.

Juday relieved O'Leary and got credit for the win.

In class E play, Northville had to settle for a split in two games, both won by one run.

A slow grounder by Wade Deal drove in John White with the winning run as Northville got past Fisher's, 4-3.

Fine outfield play marked the game. Two long pegs from Pete Gross cut Fisher runners down at the plate at crucial moments.

Northville scored in the third when Bill Juday walked and eventually scored on an error, and Bob Starnes tallied on Gross' single.

Rogers Atchinson scored the final run on a passed ball after advancing on Joe Kritch's double.

Two days before, Wayne Ford slipped past Northville, 2-1, as Northville was held scoreless after the fourth. Joe Kritch allowed only two hits.

It's Getting Near Turtle Time

Northville youngsters were advised this week to start getting their turtles for the up-and-coming Turtle Trot.

The annual event, which usually draws scores of turtles of all shapes and sizes, will be held August 11 at the high school playground.

Youngsters who can't find a turtle may get one from Recreation Director Stan Johnston.

Also coming up are the pet and doll parade on August 13 and the water carnival at Whitmore Lake on August 15. Full details will be published in The Record next week.

Grand Slam Homer Big Blow for Yanks

John Badalutz' grand-slam homer in the second inning led the Yankees to an 11-3 win over the Red Sox in Northville knot-hole baseball last week.

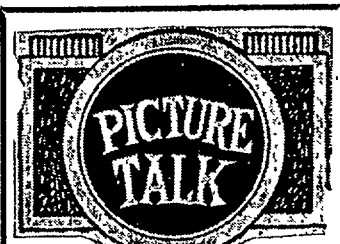

The Yankees won again when Jerry LaRocque tripled to drive in three runs in the Yanks' 14-2 conquest of the Dodgers.

The Red Sox downed the Giants, 5-4, as Gary MacDermaid drove in the two winning runs in the sixth inning.

In final action, the Giants beat the Dodgers, 3-1. Knot hole softball scores:

OLD CAMERAS NEVER DIE. I thought it was a gag at first. This guy comes into my shop with an old, beat-up camera—something like Grandfather used.

"Can you fix this?" "Let me take a look at it," I answered. It had been a good camera in its day but its day had passed with the Roaring Twenties.

"I can fix it for you but why don't you keep it for a souvenir and get another camera? You can get a new camera that's easier to use and takes better pictures than your old one. And it will cost less than fixing your antique," I told him.

I showed him one of my favorites, the Kodak Duaflex. It was love at first sight. The Duaflex sold itself when he looked through the "what-you-see-you-get" viewfinder. In fifteen minutes the guy was on his way out with his new camera and six rolls of film.

"Hey, wait a minute. You forgot your old camera," I called after him.

He stopped. "Oh that. You can keep it!"

Anyone want to buy a good old camera? Real cheap.

ROTARIAN CONCLAVE—Huddled in brief discussion during the activities of the annual Rotary foreign exchange student dinner are District Governor Eugene Olsen of Adrian, Douglas Lorenz, Northville Rotary president, and Philip Ogilvie, chairman of the program. An overflow crowd attended the banquet last week to bid farewell to 53 foreign students from throughout the state. The dinner was held at the First Presbyterian church.

Reckless Driver Fined

Theodore Merle Byers of Five Mile road, Plymouth, pleaded guilty to a charge of reckless driving, before Judge E. M. Bogart, last week. He had been drinking. He was fined $75 and court costs.

Miss Cynthia Gates of Napier Rd., spent several days last week at the sixteenth annual Morgan horse show in Northampton, Massachusetts.

Strike Still On

At Paragon Plant

The strike situation at Paragon Construction company remained unchanged this week.

Negotiators for the company and Shopman's Local 508 met last Friday but no settlement was reached.

Paragon has been completely shut down since July 8 when some 140 employees walked off the job in a dispute over wages and other benefits.

Honoring Him

A married couple of my acquaintance have a unique way of celebrating one another's birthday. During the week in which the wife's birthday falls, she has the pleasure of doing what she would like to do that week and the husband honors her requests. It's "her week" and he seeks to especially please her all the week long. Then when his birthday arrives the wife especially seeks to please her husband all that week. What a wonderful celebration this is. As I thought about this arrangement, how a lot of matters would be settled regarding our proper conduct as Christians on the Lord's Day if we would practice such a honoring of love. Since the Christians are not under the Mosaic law and no specific rules are given for proper conduct on the Lord's Day for the Church, controversy has resulted. However the behaviour of love under grace goes farther than the mere letter of the law. It is not enough just to fulfill a code of "do this" and "don't do that". The law of love tells us that we ought to sanctify this day because we want to honor and please Him. I John 3:22 shows us His blessing upon those who "keep His commandments and do those things that are pleasing in His sight."

Ponies? The Ladies Love 'Em

The Northville Record

THE OLDEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY — EST. 1868 — Thursday, July 31, 1958 — 11

It was a mild, breezy afternoon and five Northville ladies settled in a first row box over the newly combed oval at Northville Downs. It was a perfect setting for shop talk by the quintet of race horse owners: Mrs. Archie Niles, Sr., Mrs. Archie Niles, Jr., Mrs. John Janchick, Mrs. William Rattenbury, and Mrs. Forrest Doren. All make a yearly circuit of national racetracks. "It's more than a hobby," said Mrs. Rattenbury.

"It's a lot of hard work," Mrs. Niles Sr., added. "But it's a peaceful life, around those barns," Mrs. Janchick said. "You may have to fan the flies once in a while, but it's the most peaceful, relaxing life." And they must know what they're talking about. All these ladies have had years of experience with racing horses. Mrs. Niles Sr., from Massachusetts, married a race driver. They bought their first horse, an old gray mare, in 1931. "He pawned my diamond to buy a buggy," she laughed. Not only that, but Mrs. Niles wasn't any cowboy. "I was afraid of horses. When I saw that mare, I wouldn't go near her." Since then, she's raised 8 children in the saddle. "Raised her own grooms," her daughter-in-law says, "and she even got brave enough to learn how to drive."

Three sons of this famous racing family are drivers — Archie Jr., Willard, and Howard. A fourth, Norman, operates his own horse moving vans, driving by mechanized horsepower. Two girls, Sandra and Eileen, now married, have helped care for the family's horses since they were small, and have one horse now named after them.

"I can't begin to count all the horses we've owned," Mrs. Niles says. They have five now: Lois Colleen; Goodnight Irene; Sandy Van; Sandra Eileen; and Harmony Colt. Mrs. Niles Jr., a pretty redhead, also stepped unprepared into the racing world. "I was afraid of horses too," she admitted. But it takes more than a horse to scare a redhead. When she first walked into the barn, she saw a mouse in one corner. That made the horse look like an old buddy.

Mrs. Doren, a nurse at Atchison hospital and owner of Skyboy, comes from an all-round racing family. Her father, an auto racer, died in a track crackup when she was a little girl. She grew up with her grandparents in Indiana, who raised race horses.

"Grandad asked me to help, and I broke and trained my first horse at 9." "They call Skyboy 'Houdini,'" she says, "because he takes his halter off and wanders around the barn looking in other stalls." Patimutuel racing is only 14 years old, but Mrs. Janchick, from Missouri, like most of the women, remembers watching harness racing at fairs since childhood. She's regularly employed as parental care supervisor at the Wayne County training school, but she and her husband try to work with the horses as much as time permits. Mr. Janchick sometimes drives. They own Abbe's Lincoln and Vera Spencer, "an old campaigner," who's now 'expecting.' Mrs. Rattenbury, also from Indiana, also married a man who loves horses.

The Rattenburys do all their own work taking care of their horses. This means a lot more than meets the eye, because they have a full barn to care for: Spencer Son; Dandy Candy; Big Chief; Mighty Stepper; Fast Queen; and First Honor. Everybody agreed it was hard work.

The grandstand conversation rolled on and away with talk of "packing feet," of "scrapping, wiping, walking, and feeding" horses, of winnings, of critical injuries, of the $2,500 they estimate it takes to keep a horse running each year. "The public doesn't know what goes on after a race," Mrs. Janchick said. "Especially on a muddy day," Mrs. Archie Jr. laughed. "Hard work, but it gets in your blood," Mrs. Rattenbury explained. "And you're always hoping for that one good one . . . Mrs. Janchick said. "For that stake winner," Mrs. Archie Jr. affirmed.

"But then," concluded Mrs. Niles, "you sure have to haul a lot of manure"

RAISING RACING HORSES is a happy business. These three Northville ladies (l-r) Mrs. William Rattenbury, Mrs. Forrest Doren, and Mrs. John Janchick give the tote board a temporary cold shoulder while they enjoy a little shop talk about their horses.

LADY IN SILKS—Mrs. James Fleming, one of three women harness drivers in the U.S., looks over her horse Prize Day after a work-out by her brother-in-law, Jack Fleming. A driver for 25 years, Mrs. Fleming has taken it easy since opening at Hazel Park earlier this year. Women may no longer get licenses, but those who originally had them may still drive.

SPEAKING

for the Record

By BILL SLIGER

While Northville's "clean-up" campaign had most of its activities concentrated into the month of May, the program still continues.

Sponsored by the Coordinating Council, the drive was given real zip by the enthusiastic leadership of John Canterbury. Many of its projects are just now beginning to show results. At least four new trash receptacles will soon be placed in the downtown area, gifts of the city, Junior Chamber of Commerce, Optimist Club, Methodist Church, Business and Professional Women's Club, and Garden Club.

Work is underway to install new signs at the approaches to the city as a welcome to visitors and listing the three local service clubs.

The Novi road approach to Northville was improved by the county as a direct result of efforts of the clean-up committee.

Canterbury started right at the top with the C & O railroad. A letter to the president of the company brought a personal response from the district manager. The company took steps to clean up weeds and make other improvements at their local station.

Still in the determination stage is an official flower or bush for the city. Nurseryman John Miller heads the committee in this project. Under the present plan, the selection will be made before fall and a large lot purchase of the choice will be made so that residents may acquire them at the lowest possible cost.

* * * *

Novi township board members recently decided to check into the possibility of a cooperative phone number service for fire and police protection between Walled Lake-Wixom and Novi. It would help solve the night duty problem that small communities face if one central office could dispatch calls for the entire area.

Along the same lines the Northville city council discussed the idea of a cooperative police plan with Northville township. Many township residents call upon city police when an emergency arises and the local officers respond with aid until Wayne county sheriff's patrol arrives. With our township population growing, it seems logical that such a program would be desirable. It would probably have to be worked out with the blessing and participation of the sheriff's patrol.

* * * *

Novi's Leon Dochot and Eugenie Choquet deserve high praise for their work in creating interest and activity in Civil Defense. This important community function is all too often neglected because the threat of an attack or disaster by enemy forces seems so far removed.

This didn't dampen the enthusiasm of these newly appointed co-directors, however. They've boosted the membership in Novi's CD unit from 10 to 200. They keep members busy learning first aid and other safety measures, and in addition have set up a strong auxiliary police force. At the beginning, the directors used the well-proven "door prize" method to gain attendance at meetings.

Since then, interest and enthusiasm for the responsibility of the job to be performed has kept the group active.

Nasser's Fund Drives

Babson Park, Mass. I do not know Lebanon, but I have for many years studied Egypt. Although Russia may be aiding Nasser, the latter is the brains of the present Lebanon-Iraq troubles. As I explained a few weeks ago, Nasser is trying to form a federation of the five nations which sell huge quantities of oil throughout the world. Nasser wishes to be the selling agent for all this oil rather than have these countries compete with one another.

History of Nasser's Program
Egypt is a very poor country although it is one of the oldest existing nations. Its people are very poor. It had been ruled by Farouk, a playboy king who never was interested in the welfare of the people.

Nasser, who was a high officer in the Army, saw this condition and determined to rectify it. He first dethroned the playboy king and then started some constructive plans to get more money for his people. His first attempt was to build the great Aswan Dam on the Nile River and he thought that England, France, and the United States had agreed to finance it.

Suddenly this underwriting was withdrawn. This was a great disappointment to me although my friend, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, after a return from Egypt personally told me that our Republican Administration probably did the right thing by withdrawing.

Tried Suez Tolls

Nasser's next attempt to get funds was by raising the tolls of the Suez Canal. This again brought the United States into the picture in a way to get the ill will of all these countries—England, France, and even Egypt. Readers will remember how the canal was blocked and everyone lost money.

Although our Administration agreed to Nasser's increasing the tolls, shipments declined so that Egypt did not get any more real money. Thereupon Nasser attempted to form the "oil empire" described above. The first nation to fall in line was Syria, which has since been followed by Iraq.

Oil the Cause of the Trouble

Ever since the Crusades of centuries ago, every war has been claimed to have been started for some great moral purpose. All nations in the Near East conflict claim that they are fighting for freedom. President Eisenhower insists that if the people of Iraq had peacefully voted to depose their king, no U.S. marines would be in Lebanon today. To have, however, a rebel band murder the king of Iraq and his premier is contrary to the Eisenhower doctrine.

Let me, however, say that if there were no oil in the Near East, there would now be no marines in Lebanon! This conflict will not result in a shooting war with Russia as Russia has all the oil that she needs. The kings of all these Near East nations are controlled by the world's big oil companies.

These big oil companies will naturally despise Nasser for stirring up this trouble. It, however, might be much cheaper for the United States to provide some other means for Nasser to get funds for his poor people.

Effort on Investments

Readers have been wondering how this situation will affect their oil investments. The large oil companies are divided into two groups: The international oils, such as Standard of New Jersey, Socony Mobil, Texas Co., and Standard of California, which get large quantities of their oil from the Near East; and the domestic oil concerns, led by Phillips, Shell, Continental, and Union Oil, which get most of their oil from North and South America. Theoretically, the stocks of the companies depending on the Near East should decline, while the stocks of companies getting their oil from the United States, Canada, and Venezuela should increase in price, although this differential may have already been discontinued.

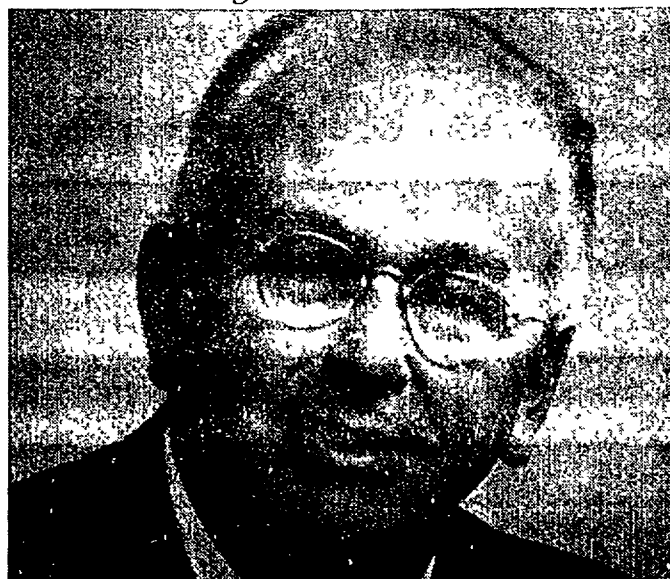

In view, however, of the Near East situation, it would be well for readers not to overconcentrate in the international oil stocks.

Well Oiled Williams' Machine Blocks Bagwell

REPUBLICANS have an energetic candidate running for governor at a time when voters have become used to energy, sparkle and action. He is Paul D. Bagwell, who won one national election with crazy hats and flashy vests and slogans.

Bagwell learned the technique worked when he was elected national president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce a few years ago. He proved it again in the years in which he served as state March of Dimes chairman. Bagwell has some professionals in his camp, and they are growing with the job.

Campaigners have been tacking up small signs in every cranny. "Bagwell was here," on the chance he will become as well known as Kilroy, of World War II fame.

They paid $1,700 for a 1908 Oldsmobile to carry him on his campaign, to dramatize the age of the 1908 state constitution and hint that Democrats have held the office long enough.

Bagwell's speeches are full of the old college zip, but laced with tough facts dug up by dedicated researchers.

Brashness comes unnaturally to Bagwell, who lived the polite life of a college professor and, though never a snob, counted top business executives among his friends.

One report quoted an aide as saying "Bagwell had to talk himself into coming uninvited" to a legislative party at Cheboygan where he went on a handshaking tour of the hall.

Though he was eyed with misgivings by some Republicans when he tackled Williams, Bagwell has been advised to avoid mistakes of his unsuccessful predecessors.

So now, he will seek out legislators in their districts and ask their advice—which he can use, and offer his help—which most legislators can use.

Other Republican candidates have encountered wide schisms in the party, which he hopes to circumvent.

The contrast of the Bagwell effort with the highly-tuned Democratic machine is startling.

From Gov. Williams down to the newest precinct worker, the party is organized. It is the workmanship of State Chairman Neil Staebler and the result of dedication to a cause.

Staebler enjoys phenomenal success in keeping the party interested and fighting during the dull off years between campaigns.

He has organized contests, coffee hours, style shows. No one who ever worked for the Democrats has ever been forgotten—unless he strayed from party principles.

Another maneuver is the "promotion-apointment" system Williams uses.

When an important vacancy occurs, Williams names a worker in a lesser post to fill it. This creates two appointments where only one vacancy existed.

It has the tendency to keep young men working in state government, and for the party.

Williams chooses his appointees carefully. Few have fallen short of the intelligence, diligence and stamina demanded of important public jobs.

It is safe to assume that none will vote for Bagwell and, maybe, they will even distribute Williams' bumper stickers and help fill a hall occasionally for one of his speeches.

One observer put it cynically: "For a Republican candidate to win now, he has to beat a popular Williams, and most of state government, in addition to getting his own people behind him."

Officials are worried about a new threat to the state's safety record: the 100 mile-an-hour speeders.

Secretary of State James M. Hare predicted his driver record files would have more than 400 cases by the end of the summer.
