

Petitions Due Soon For Novi Council; Charter Approved

Novi township was one step nearer becoming a village this week with the announcement that its proposed charter has been approved by Governor G. Mennen Williams.

At the same time, charter commission officials announced that:

—candidates for village council have until a week from Friday to file nominating petitions.

—unregistered voters may get their names on the voting rolls starting today.

The charter itself and village council candidates will be voted on in a special election on September 22.

If the charter is accepted, Novi will be in business as a village. And only if it is accepted will the five councilmen serve in office.

If the charter and village status is rejected, the charter commission will have another chance to write an acceptable document.

Candidates for council must file petitions with Charter Commission Clerk Dirk Groenenberg by a week from Friday (August 22) at 5 p.m. at his home, 45265 12 Mile road.

General petition forms are to be used, and each candidate must have between 20 and 40 signatures.

To run for council, a person must have lived within the proposed village boundaries for a year, be a qualified and registered elector, own real property, and never have been convicted of a felony.

Voters will select five of the candidates to serve as village councilmen. They are the only elected officials, and will choose a mayor from among themselves.

Unregistered voters may register at the township hall daily from 4 to 8 p.m. and from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturdays.

The proposed village covers all of Novi township except four areas: Brookland Farms No. 1 subdivision, Northville Estates subdivision, and former sections of Novi now in Wixom and Northville.

The movement toward incorporation began a year ago when a five-man Board of Commerce committee circulated petitions calling for an election to set up a charter commission.

That election was held March 17, with voters balloting 509-442 in favor of starting work on incorporation. At the same time, they named a commission to write the charter: Walter Tuck, Dicon Taffalan, Russell Button, Harry Watson, and Phillip Anderson.

The commission finished the lengthy document in May, submitted it to the governor, and has waited since then for his approval.

Primary reason for the incorporation movement was to protect Novi's borders against annexation and incorporation. Within the past two years, Novi has lost the Lincoln plant and several square miles to Wixom and two smaller areas to Northville.

Expect High School To Open February 1

Barring unforeseen delays, Northville's new $2 million high school will have students in its classrooms and hallways February 1, 1958.

At least this is the target date announced by the board of education at a joint meeting with the city council last week.

Board President Nelson Schrader said that present plans call for all ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth graders to be moved from the present high school to the new North Center street location for the second semester of the coming year.

School Budget Up for Approval

The Northville school board will meet tonight (Thursday) to approve its 1958-59 school budget.

An estimate of $666,043 for operating funds and $212,893.75 for debt retirement has already been approved by the Wayne county tax allocation committee.

The board's budget decision tonight will finally determine what school millage taxpayers will pay this winter.

The original estimate of 29.95 mills was based on a state equalized valuation of $18,000,000. But the valuation has since been set at $21,000,000, which may lower the millage requirement somewhat.

$2,700 in Equipment Stolen at UAW Hall

More than $2,700 worth of office equipment was stolen Sunday night in a break-in at the UAW Local 36 hall across from the Lincoln plant in Wixom.

It was the second break-in at the building this year. A small amount of cash was taken last spring.

Police Chief Frank Jadzinski said the thieves smashed a back window, threw the office equipment out, and left by the window, even though a door is located adjacent to the window.

"No cash was stolen and no property was destroyed," Jadzinski said.

Jadzinski was to question two Inkster and Garden City youths Wednesday about the crime. They have confessed a boat and car theft in Novi the same day (see other story) and admit they were in Wixom.

Albert Roberts, financial secretary of the local, noted that the building is "made to order" for a break-in.

Strike Is Settled At Paragon Plant

Paragon Construction company began humming again last week after settlement of a sudden strike that shut down the structural steel plant for five weeks.

Some 140 striking employees returned to their jobs a week ago Monday. An additional 50 employees who had been laid off were called back to help catch up on back orders.

The strike, which began July 8, centered around wage demands. Terms of the settlement were not announced.

Life In Lebanon Is Hot and Lonely For Local Marine

Almost forgotten in the international tug-of-war over Lebanon and the Middle East is the individual American GI who is actually sitting on the powder keg. Last week, Corporal Harry Councill of the Eighth Marine Regiment, whose home is at 21849 Novi road, gave his wife this picture of the GI's lonely life in Lebanon.

"I'm back out in the field again. We moved out the day before yesterday when the army took over the place where we were. I did manage to get this paper and envelopes before we left.

"You ought to see where we have the post office set up. It's in a box car sitting on a railroad track. We'll be moving out in a few days.

Where we're going this time, nobody knows yet.

"Another marine was killed last night. Some gunk shot him in the head and took his rifle and ammo.

"I just traded two packs of smokes for a can of tuna fish and a can of spam. It was worth it to have a change of diet.

"I'm so darn lonely over here. I have too much time on my hands. I just sit around and think of how I would like to be home.

"It's real dark out now, and it's only eight-thirty. I'm writing this letter by candlelight. It's kind of hard on the eyes but it's better than nothing.

"I got the two letters from you today. One had a clipping about me in it. I hit the beach alright, but not like they said in the paper. Everyone got a big charge out of it!

(Editor's note: The story read, "With 1,800 other combat-ready Marines, Councill stepped ashore and immediately dug in on the narrow beachhead.")

"The word's out that we are going home soon, but don't get your hopes up. I don't want them to fall again.

"I've heard that the army is letting some of its men go on liberty, but I doubt it. If they are, maybe they'll let me go one of these days.

"I'll say one thing for this place—it's hot. They do have a lot of one thing you don't see much of at home, and that's lizards. They're about three inches long and are all over the place. I'll bet you can't walk 10 yards in the middle of the day without seeing at least two or three. They're about the color of the rainbow, and then some you can't think of. And the little jobbers are fast as the devil.

"Most of the people over here are real friendly. I think most of it is because we have money. They try to sell you everything from soup to nuts, with extra goodies on the side. One guy came around today selling watches and cans of spam and giving haircuts and shaves to boot.

"It looked like it might rain today, but it cleared up this afternoon. As I said before, the weather is hot, and as far as I'm concerned it could cool down for a while. At least the nights are pretty cool. It gets cold enough so that you need a blanket.

"Been drinking all sorts of beer lately. I even got some brandy in my foot locker. I haven't touched that, though. Have to save it for a special occasion of some sort!

"The bugs are bad. The flies are so thick that you're scared to open your mouth for fear of getting a half dozen or so in it. At night, the mosquitoes like to eat you up. They're not big—in fact rather extra small—but the numbers make up for the size."

"But around midnight Monday a long distance call came into the fire department wondering what was going on in Northville.

Somehow the elm pile had caught fire, and worried neighbors watched the 100-foot flames lap down on the Dutch elm bugs. It was visible quite a way up and out.

Firemen quickly extinguished the blaze, and Mr. Weber went back to his campaign. But this time, daytime.

Burn Bad Elms... But Not at Midnight

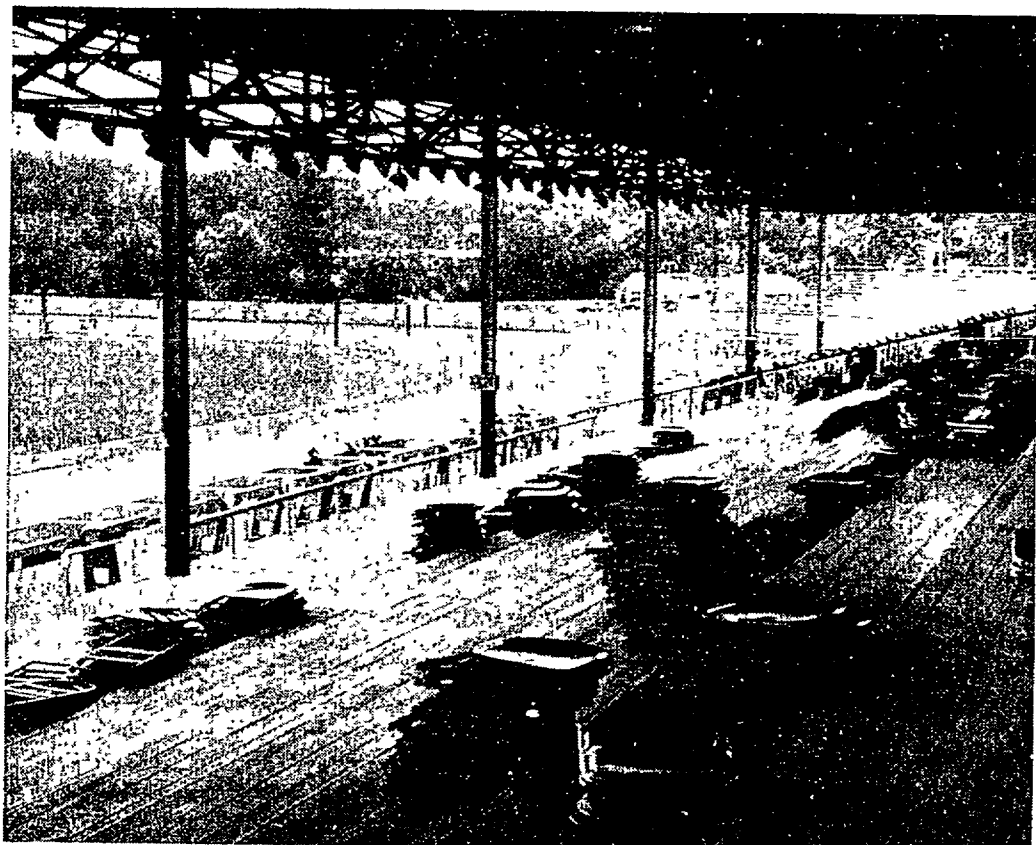

J. A. Weber, owner of the Foundry and Equipment company on East Cady street conscientiously set out to battle Dutch Elm worms and germs last week, by cutting down the diseased trees on his property across from the foundry, and piling them for burning.

But around midnight Monday a long distance call came into the fire department wondering what was going on in Northville.

Somehow the elm pile had caught fire, and worried neighbors watched the 100-foot flames lap down on the Dutch elm bugs. It was visible quite a way up and out.

Firemen quickly extinguished the blaze, and Mr. Weber went back to his campaign. But this time, daytime.

City Tax Returns Cut As Downs' Betting Off

CLEAN-UP CREWS began the task of closing Northville Downs after the 36-night season closed Saturday. Attendance was up, but betting down as this year's nightly average mutual handle fell nearly $8000 behind last year.

Northville's tax bite from racing at the Downs will drop seven per cent, or approximately $6000, from last year.

Final tabulations of the 36-night season that ended Saturday showed that more fans attended the harness races, but they bet less money.

The Downs' total mutual handle for 1958 was $8,715,882 compared to $9,496,850 last year. Last year's 36-night spring season reaped a nightly betting average of $249,917, while this year the betting averaged $242,108 nightly.

Although there were two more nights of racing last year, the total attendance at the track was higher this year. Attendance figures show that 182,850 fans came to Northville in 1958 and 179,959 last season.

Hopes were high in Northville that a season-opening pace set at Hazel Park might continue at Northville. But while the fans' enthusiasm grew, their pocketbooks apparently shrunk. Betting averages slumped as the year wore on and Northville Downs became a victim of the recession.

Downs' Executive Manager John Carlo pointed out last week that betting at the $2.00 window was up, but $10 bettors were scarce. This seems to account for the higher attendance-lower betting statistic.

At the opening of the season Carlo had pointed out to city officials that there was a good chance city revenues from the track would "rise as much as 50 per cent" if the Hazel Park trend continued.

The city will not be severe enough to effect the city budget, however. In planning the budget the council uses a conservative figure in estimating income from the track. Last year the city received $90,000. This year's total of approximately $84,000 is nearly the same as the 1956 return.

Braves Take District Title; Go into Finals Next Week

The Northville Braves won the district midjet championship this week and now will carry the city's colors into the state finals in Jackson next week. Their first game will be Monday at 10 a.m.

The Braves took the district crown with successive wins Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Their latest victory came Wednesday morning when they downed Willow Run, 11-4. Bill Cool and Craig Bell hurried for the Braves.

On Tuesday, the Braves got past a tough Inkster team, 4-2. Dan Brown singled home the winning runs from second and third with two out in the sixth inning. Inkster had tied the score in the previous inning.

Brown pitched five innings and Craig Bell two, giving up only three hits between them.

Recreation Director Stan Johnston said the Braves may have to stay overnight in Jackson next week, rather than coming home after playing two games in one day and going up again the next day.

But since the recreation budget includes no money for hotel rooms

Northville Included In Jobless Survey

Information to be used in compiling national figures on employment and unemployment will be collected in the Northville-Nowi area during the week of August 18 in the current population survey of the U. S. Census Bureau.

The information collected from local families will be combined with that collected in 329 other areas in the country to provide the national estimates.

Approximately 35,000 households are included each month in the Current Population Survey.

These households are selected at random under the Census Bureau's scientific sampling program to provide a representative cross-section of all classes of the population, and of all types of areas in the country—large cities, small towns, rural areas, and so forth.

Facts on employment and unemployment collected locally are forwarded to Census Bureau headquarters in Washington to be processed by the Bureau's electronic computer, known as Univac, to provide the national estimates. The national report will be issued in Washington early in September.

Kindergarten: What's It For?

In less than a month, scores of our children will put down their dolls and pistols and get ready for their first taste of school.

They've been talking about "kinnevgarden" for months, wondering what it's like and what to expect.

What is kindergarten—an organized play period, or the first big adventure in learning?

One educator says kindergarten's only function is to help the child develop socially.

Those questions probably puzzle parents too.

For his explanation of this view, plus a look at other problems surrounding kindergarten, see the second in a series of "Chats with Parents" on page 11.

High Line Falls, He Blocks Road

A Michigan Bell telephone installer was credited this week with preventing possible injury or death during the fierce rainstorm which lashed the Detroit area last Wednesday.

Installer Gordon Champion, who serves the Northville area, was driving a company truck along Northville road near Phoenix Lake when he saw lightning strike a Detroit Edison pole near Clemens road.

A secondary line fell crackling across the road in his path.

Seeing the possibility of danger to cars passing over the line, Champion swung his truck around and blocked the road. He gathered trash cans from around the neighborhood to make the blockade more effective.

With traffic halted, Champion stood by until a Detroit Edison crew arrived a few minutes later to repair the line.

Art Club Names Contest Winners

Winners of the art competition jointly sponsored by the Three Cities Art club and the Plymouth concerts committee, were announced Sunday, at the last colony concert of the season.

Mrs. Marjorie Becker, president of the art club, was awarded the $75 prize.

Mrs. Catherine Hartley of Randolph street, and Mrs. Margaret Cramer of Wayne, won honorable mentions.

There were 15 entries by club members and out-of-towners. William McGonagle, extension director of the Detroit Institute of Arts was the only judge.

Mrs. Becker's painting automatically became the permanent property of the city of Plymouth.

Merchants Meet Tonight

The regular monthly meeting of the Northville Retail Merchants association will be held tonight (Thursday) at Northville Men's Shop. President Bruce Turnbull said the meeting night, normally the first Tuesday of each month, was changed for August only.

Dutch Elm Disease Hits Again

DUTCH ELM disease claimed two trees in the yard of Wayne Wilcox (left) of 45024 West Seven Mile road. John Miller of Green Ridge Nursery shows Wilcox how the disease-carrying beetles hole-up within the bark of American elms.

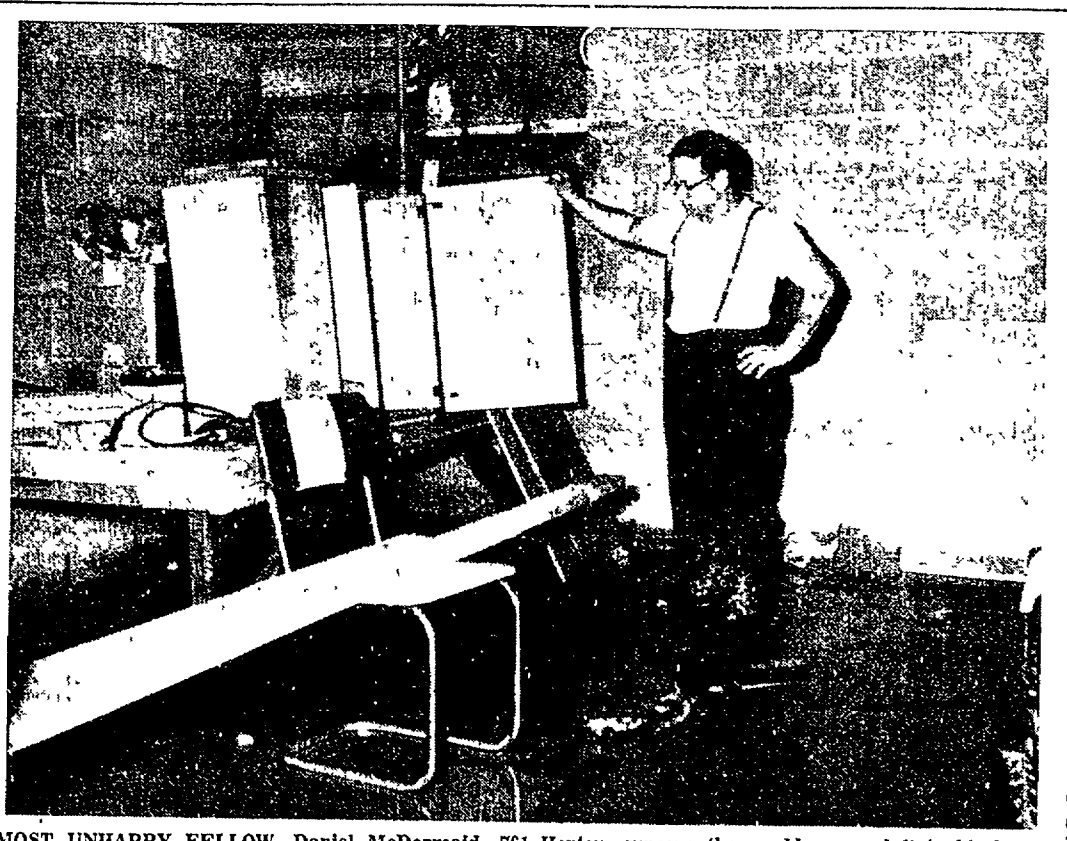

Northville has been invaded by beetles, the Dutch Elm disease carrying variety.

Preliminary returns from recent tests taken by the Michigan department of agriculture show that at least 20 American elms within the community are definitely infected. These trees have already been tagged by the state for destruction.

According to John Miller of Green Ridge Nursery, the outbreak is the greatest encountered in Northville. Miller explained that within a half-mile area surrounding the city a five year control program has been conducted. "Actually, we've had a very low mortality rate on the community-owned trees within the control district, but we have predicted that unprotected trees would be lost. The disease is now taking its natural course," he stated. Yearly spraying to prevent growth of the beetles is required.

Miller believes that a minimum of 30 to 40 lawn trees on private property will be lost within the community this year. "Numerous other American elms in unprotected areas around the community will be lost," he added. Miller estimates that there are 260 city-owned elms and probably 1000 others in the community.

Infected trees must be destroyed. Under state law they must be cut down and burned. Miller said that symptoms of Dutch Elm disease are: dying at the top, wilting and dropping of leaves prematurely, and excessive yellowing of leaves.

MOST UNHAPPY FELLOW—Daniel McDermaid, 761 Horton, surveys the muddy mess left in his basement shortly after water subsided. McDermaid had new kitchen cabinets stored waiting for installation when his basement was flooded last week. Several residents in the area have complained of the flooding to City Manager John Robertson, who reports that drainage from the new Northville Heights subdivision directly into the sanitary sewer is causing the trouble. He said the city has taken steps to correct the situation and has called upon the subdividers to cooperate in preventing recurrences.

CONCERT IN WATERCOLORS — Fifteen artists submitted paintings of scenes at this summer's Plymouth Colony Concerts in a judging sponsored by the Three Cities' Art club and the Colony Concerts. The winner: Mrs. Marjorie Becker (right) of Northville. But the keen competition prompted the judge, from the Detroit Institute of Arts, to award two honorable mentions on the spot — to Mrs. Catherine Hartley (left) of Northville and to Mrs. Marjorie Cramer of Plymouth. The paintings are now displayed at the Dunning-Hough library in Plymouth, after which Mrs. Becker's will be presented to the City of Plymouth.

Mrs. Cavell Brings Back a Little Of That California Sunshine

The Northville left behind by former residents who have settled in California, like the 49-ers ballad, is "gone but not forgotten."

Mrs. Izzetta Cavell, just returned from a trip to the golden state, found it a chance to revive memories and up-date new ones with old-time Northville friends.

Visiting her daughter, Mrs. Marilyn Casady, and family for three months, Mrs. Cavell saw Mr. and Mrs. George Hills, brother of Northville insurance man Frank Hills, in Downey, California; Mrs. Helen (Defenderfer) Johns, of Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Clawson, of South Gate; and Mrs. Grace Pettibone Harrison, of Belle Garden, Catalina Island.

The Hills', who had a fruit farm in Northville, are enjoying retirement, Mrs. Cavell says.

Mrs. Defenderfer has remarried, and one-time Northville blacksmith Hugh Clawson, who has been out west several years, is an engineer for a California oil company.

Mrs. Grace Pettibone Harrison, a former Northville school and Wayne county training school teacher, managed a rest home until this year. Her grandson, by the way, Mrs. Cavell points out, is "Bill Hawk" on the Wagon Train television program.

This wasn't Mrs. Cavell's first trip to California. She's made it a point to visit every other year for the past twelve years.

But this is her first journey by plane. The plane ride was lovely, Mrs. Cavell assures us, but her decision on a train ride home speaks for itself.

This time she went sight-seeing to Lake Tahoe, Las Vegas, Yosemite Park, and San Francisco, in addition to her visits to friends.

"I didn't have a freckle when I left Michigan," Mrs. Cavell jokes, but she picked up a few souvenirs of California sun travelling across the 110-degree desert.

She also had a chance to pick up a few other souvenirs for her china slipper collection, right now about 40 "feet" big.

Mrs. Cavell is the widow of the late Dr. E. B. "Doc" Cavell, and mother of Mrs. Sterling Eaton of Plymouth, and Dr. E. B. "Ted" Cavell Jr., of Tawas City, Michigan.

WELL-KNOWN Mrs. Izzetta Cavell, is just back from California, with "a freckle", a china slipper, and greetings from former Northville residents now residing in that state.

Mrs. Samuel Geraci and her committee of Mrs. Peter Cucchetti, Mrs. Nelson Schrader, and Neal Anderson will make up the invitation list.

But it's possible someone might be overlooked.

Mrs. Geraci would appreciate your assistance in supplying names of eligible guests. Her phone number is FI 9-3119.

Mrs. Louise Cansfield, president of the coordinating council, is in charge of decorations and seating. Dinner will be prepared by the Lutheran ladies.

John Canterbury is ticket manager.

Over 35 guests attended last year's banquet. This year our committee hopes to top that figure.

Art Club Exhibits at Northville Library

It may take a little neck-bending and optimistic up-looking, but the first exhibit of the Three Cities Art club in Northville is worth it.

Twelve paintings are displayed above the outer wall of bookshelves in the main reading room of the Northville library.

Artists participating in the exhibit are: Jessie Hudson; John Van Harren; Marjorie Becker, club president; Catherine Hartley; Mrs. F. D. Bacon; Margaret Cramer; Stanley Hench; Marion Sober; and Shirley Denison.

Mrs. Denison is exhibiting a sculpture. The exhibit will remain at the library for three months.

The club hopes to establish regular exhibitions in Northville as they have in Plymouth, exhibit chairman, Mrs. Catherine Hartley says.

The exhibits will be changed every three months. Mrs. Hartley says the next will show more works by Northville artists.

Sub-ettes Enjoy Achievement Day

The Sub-ettes club of Wixom held its Achievement Day last Saturday evening.

Blue ribbons for two years of meritorious membership were awarded Carole Bourgeois, Kathy Jazdzinski, Betty Keenan, Gayle Lahti, Jane Madigan, Nancy Millar, and Lois Mustonen.

One-year ribbons were presented to Nancy Holik, Sue McNulty, Vivi Mettala, and Martha Salo.

Membership certificates were awarded to recent joiners Pam Birchard, Linda Cheeseman, Jean Fekete, and Diana Laster.

Two-year ribbons will be forwarded to the Lindsay girls, Pat and Jane, in Roscommon, Michigan, where they are now residing.

The Achievement Day was attended by the parents and family of the Sub-ettes, who looked over the girls' exhibits of handicrafts before sitting down for the program.

The entertainment began with a quartet consisting of Gayle Lahti, Vivi Mettala, Lois Mustonen, and Martha Salo.

Sue McNulty and Diana Laster followed with a pantomime version of the song, "Purple People Eater." Pam Birchard and Sue sang "Tummy." Humorous skits completed the program.

Homemade pies were the specialty of the evening. Each girl baked the pies she brought. One of the lessons during the past year had been instruction in baking pies.

Girls entitled to awards who were unable to be at the party may obtain their ribbons from Mrs. Wilhelm Lahti.

Corine Kay Clark Weds Lawrence W. Mayer Here

MRS. LAWRENCE W. MAYER

Corine Kay Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eural F. Clark of High street, was married August 7, to Lawrence W. Mayer, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Mayer of Farmington.

Rev. John Taxis officiated at the afternoon ceremony in the First Presbyterian church.

The church was decorated with rhododendrons and white gladioli. The bride was given away by her father.

Miss Clark wore a gown of white pin-tuck embroidered sheer nylon. Motifs of roses and leaves wreathed the neckline and trailed down the skirt in vine-like sprays. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Gloria Clark, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

Her dress was blue and white print silk chiffon. She carried white roses and nerine lilies.

Best man was James Mayer. George Moore and Paul Braunstein served as ushers.

The bride's mother wore a dress of beige embroidered silk organza, complemented with brown and beige accessories and a corsage of pink nerine lilies.

Mrs. Mayer's dress was of blue peau de soie, and matching chantilly lace. She wore blue accessories and a corsage of pink nerine lilies.

A garden reception for 100 guests was held at the bride's home.

Arrangements of smilax, white roses, larkspur, and gladioli were placed around the garden. The tea table was decorated with smilax and white roses.

For the wedding trip to Grand Island at Munising, the new Mrs. Mayer chose a pink eyelet chemise dress, and carried pink sweetheart roses.

The couple will reside at 236 West street in Northville.

Young At Heart

Happy birthday to Miss Ada Roe! Miss Roe of W. Cady street celebrated her 89th birthday Saturday, August 9.

Born in Plymouth, Miss Roe came to Northville 63 years ago. Her parents built the house in which she still lives.

"I'm very thankful to have lived such a long life," Miss Roe says. "My mind is clear and my memory is good," she laughs heartily.

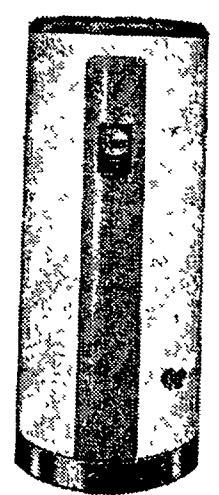

"Some people think it's pretty marvelous."

Saturday, Miss Roe joined Mrs. Carl Bryan of W. Main street, also born on the ninth, for birthday brunch.

They have celebrated together for several years.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Plymouth, Michigan

Assurance of God's readiness to supply all good to man will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul."

The ever-availability of divine goodness is set forth in the Scriptural readings, including this one from Luke (12:32): "Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (70:4): "Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified."

Bases Sermons On Lord's Prayer
Rev. B. J. Pankow, of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, began a special series of sermons on the Lord's Prayer last Sunday, using as his text the opening words of the prayer, "Our Father who art in heaven."

On the coming Sundays the seven individual petitions and the conclusion of the Lord's Prayer will be treated. Two services are conducted every Sunday morning at 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m., with Sunday school and Bible classes at 9:15 a.m.

Regarding his series of sermons on the Lord's Prayer, Pastor Pankow stated: "This prayer is so comprehensive that it can never be understood too well or prayed too well. It is rich with doctrines that satisfy the soul and help us meet the needs of the day."

Three graduate fellowships in education were given in the last 12 months by the American Foundation for the Blind.

Have You Received Salk Polio Shots?
Have you had your Salk shots to protect you against paralytic polio? Remember that your children's shots do not protect you. In fact, your child can bring home the polio virus and infect you while escaping himself.

Vaccine is plentiful. Three shots are necessary for complete protection. However, one is better than none. Two—the second taken 4 to 6 weeks after the first—will step up your resistance. The third shot—taken 7 months to a year after the second—provides high immunity.

In Wayne county there would be almost no paralytic polio if everyone had taken the shots. Instead there are 64 cases of poliomyelitis in Wayne county as of August 4.

"THE NARROW TRUTH"
One must admit there is a confusion in the babel of voices bidding for the souls of men. Some of these voices deny the authority of the scriptures, but the vast majority claim that their doctrines are based on the Bible. When they all agree, then everything is well, but when they disagree how will the average layman know who is right? Well, don't give up in despair, because God promises in John 7:17, "If any man will do His will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself." The secret of knowing is whether you really want to do His will. Perhaps this one suggestion will be of help to you today.

TRUTH HAS DIMENSIONS
Suppose I were to describe the Baptist Church building to you and say, "The Baptist church is a wood frame building. It has stained glass windows. It will seat 250 people. It has a tower which holds a bell." As long as I stick within the limitations of the facts, then I am telling the truth. Suppose I were to say, "The Baptist church is 15 feet high and is painted brown." Now I am not telling the truth because I have departed from the dimensions of truth. I have given you this simple example to demonstrate to you that truth has dimensions.

TRUTH CONCERNING GOD
Truth concerning God and His Son, Jesus

Christ, has dimensions too. Those dimensions are given to us from God through Divine revelation. The majority of the space in the Gospels is given over to the description of the person and life of Jesus Christ. There are many things we could say and remain within the dimensions of truth. We could say that He was God's only Begotten Son and that He was born of the Virgin Mary without the means of an earthly father. We could say that He worked many miracles and preached that men should repent and be converted by believing in Him. We could say that He voluntarily died upon Calvary for the sins of the whole world. Then you could take each one of these statements and deduct many facts and all of them true. However, suppose I should say that Jesus Christ had an earthly father, that He was not Divine and that He did not arise from the dead. That moment I have departed from the truth and stated a falsehood.

Beware of those who say, "It may be inferred" or "We can well suppose" or those who read something into the text that is not definitely stated. When we imagine or suppose, then one opinion is probably as good as another.

The dimensions of truth on any subject is found in your Bible. Read it, study it, check what you hear and what you believe by it. Make sure you stick within the dimensions of the truth!

Represent Church At District Meeting
The Rev. B. J. Pankow, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, and Edward Brugman, elected delegate of the congregation, will represent the church at the 77th convention of the Michigan district of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod meeting in Kalamazoo from Sunday through Thursday.

The district includes 147 churches from all parts of the lower peninsula and has a total membership of nearly 200,000 members, served by 144 pastors and missionaries.

Major items of business to come before this convention will include a proposal to establish a new preparatory college in the Detroit area; the election of delegates to the 1959 national convention in San Francisco; a proposal to conduct a district-wide evangelism program in the fall of 1959; and some officials anticipate decision on plans to build a central office for the district.

The American Foundation for the Blind granted 20 scholarships to blind persons in the last 12 months.

DO YOU KNOW there's a place in the United States where you can reach four states without moving? It's at the southwestern corner of Colorado with New Mexico to the southeast, Utah to the northwest and Arizona to the southwest.

AND THERE'S ANOTHER PLACE where you can reach almost everywhere in the world without moving. It's the place where your telephone sits. That telephone is your magic carpet—far faster than a jet airliner and much, much less expensive. For less than ten dollars you can talk with people in England, Germany, Norway, the Netherlands, or dozens of other places. For less than two dollars you can be talking with friends or relatives in California. You don't know anyone in California? Well how long since you've talked with your sister—or brother? Remember you can call places a day's drive away for less than a dollar.

AND SPEAKING OF LONG DISTANCE

If so, just keep your eyes skinned for one of our many Public Phones—in stores, gasoline stations, and in handy roadside Telephone Booths. They're a real boon to travelers who call back when they forget something, call ahead to let folks know when they'll arrive.

PARTING SHOT: A scandalmonger is someone who puts who and who together and gets whew!

Paragon Captures Novi Crown Again

The Novi Little League ended its regular season this week with the championship pennant waving high over the Paragon Steelers for the second straight year.

The Steelers, who had been in the driver's seat most of the season, nailed down the championship last week with three decisive wins. Meanwhile, National Bank's bid to overtake Paragon failed and the Bandits instead found themselves fighting to hold onto second place against fast-moving Fiberglas.

Regular play ended yesterday. But still on the schedule are two makeup games and a post-season "world series."

Paragon clinched the pennant with a 17-6 win over National Bank as Ron Rice slammed out a home run and triple. The Steelers' 15-hit attack included other triples by Bobby Jones, Dan Simonson and Jim Mazel and doubles by John Alexander and Jim Driscoll.

Jim Schingeeck gave up but seven hits, including a triple by National Bank's Cliff Hawley and a double by Jack Fritz.

Jim Mazel took the mound to lead Paragon to its second win, a 6-5 thriller over Fiberglas. Driscoll and Tom Bingham doubled for Paragon while Mazel was holding the Sluggers to three hits.

Paragon made it three straight with a 15-6 win over National Bank in a makeup game. Rice's three safeties and Mike Williams' four walks aided Pitcher Driscoll's five-hit effort.

National Bank managed to squeeze in one victory—a 7-1 win over Young Door in the fastest game of the year (1:10).

Terry Krug held the Tigers to five hits while National Bank's Mike Goto and Mike Brady were collecting a pair each.

In final action, Fiberglas downed Young Door, 22-1, as Paul Rose homered and gathered two other base hits while Ralph Caligiuri was hammering out four-for-four. Carl Nealy was the winning pitcher.

Three Hits Enough For Class F Team

Trailing 1-0, Northville scored twice in the sixth when Dave Hay and Juday singled and Karl Karg and Jim Anderson grounded out, each driving in a run.

Water Carnival Is Tomorrow

Scores of Northville and Novi boys and girls will dive for watermelons, chase balloons and swim against the clock tomorrow afternoon in the annual Northville recreation department water carnival.

It will last most of the day, and will feature events for boys and girls from seven years on up.

Buses will leave from behind the Northville Community building at 9:15 a.m. tomorrow (Friday) and will return about 4 p.m. The carnival itself will be held at Whitmore Lake's Groome's beach — scene of

Good Rubdown Helps Stop Swimmers' Itch

A brisk rubdown with a dry towel immediately after coming out of the water is the best preventive for "swimmer's itch," according to the Michigan department of health.

"Swimmer's itch" is caused by a tiny flat worm that penetrates human skin when it is covered by a film of water and when the water is evaporating. The worm is not known to penetrate while a person is in the water.

When the flatworm bores into man, an annoying skin irritation is set up for two or three days. The itching can be reduced with calamine but can be avoided entirely by using the towel rubdown method.

Tourney a Snap, So Far

The Northville Braves lived up to form Monday as they methodically slaughtered Nankin township, 13-1, in the first round of state tournament play.

The game was almost a season's sample for the Braves, whose average score during the year was the same 13-1.

A 10-run outburst in the third inning put the Braves beyond reach of Nankin and allowed Manager Glenn Long to replace starter Craig Bell with Bill Booth, a player "picked up" from Livonia for the tourney.

(Tournament teams can pick up three players from other teams in their league.)

Bell had allowed only one hit and a single run, but Long decided to save him for a later game. Booth went the rest of the way, giving up only one hit himself.

While Nankin was held to two safeties, Northville was slugging out 13 — including a double and single by Dan Brown and three singles by Mike Zayti.

Playing without a sign of pressure, the Braves notched single runs in the first, fourth and seventh innings.

But the coup de grace came in the third when 16 batters went to the plate.

Jim Juday and Brown walked. Bell, Zayti, Bill Coole, and Rick Clarke singled. Beard was hit by a pitched ball, Larry Angove walked, Tom Long reached base on an error.

Juday singled, Brown doubled, Bell walked, Zayti reached base on a fielder's choice, and Coole walked.

Clark finally struck out and Beard flied to the right fielder, but 10 runs had already come trotting across the plate.

The Braves were due to play again Tuesday and, if victorious, Wednesday. If successful then, they would go on to the state finals in Jackson starting next Monday.

For the Taking

The price of gasoline may be high these days, but some people don't know when they have it good.

Eighteen-year-old Kenneth Ray Mixon of Inkster and three minors were picked up by police for stealing a water hose from the Gazlay property on S. Rogers street, Friday.

The boys intended to use it to siphon gas for their car.

Mixon was fined $50 by Judge Bogart and sentenced to 30 days in the Detroit House of Correction.

The minors, from Inkster, Detroit, and Novi, are awaiting trial in Detroit juvenile court.

ONLY MAKE BELIEVE

Funny what a grown man will do. I was checking my display case of movie cameras this morning when I picked up a Brownie Movie Camera to polish some fingerprints off the chrome trim.

Out of habit, I guess, I snuggled the camera into my right hand, raised it to my eye and looked through the viewfinder. All of a sudden I found myself taking make-believe scenes with the Brownie Movie Camera.

Kids started running through the spray of the garden hose . . . neighbors were clustered around the bar-b-que . . . In the middle of the store, no less. I shook my head a little and continued "shooting." Next there was a birthday party and then a family get-together. The store was really getting crowded.

I don't know how long I kept this up, but when the mailman came in I guess I looked silly standing in the middle of the store playing "make believe" with an unloaded camera. He muttered something about "This guy's working too hard," set the mail carefully on the counter and tip-toed out.

I guess I was working hard but not too hard. Taking movies, even make-believe ones, is fun.

Northville Council Proceedings

A regular meeting of the Northville City Council was held at the City Hall Monday evening, August 4, 1958 at 8:00 P.M.

Present: Mayor Malcolm A. Allen, Councilmen Canterbury, Reed, Stubbenvoll and Welch.

Absent: None.

Minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

Bills in the amount of $21,042 from the general fund and $1,958.46 from the Water fund were presented and allowed to be paid.

Sam Bongiovanni and Andrew Torok appeared before the council to discuss the possible flooding of their property on North Center street and the means to prevent such an occurrence. A retaining wall and tiling were two suggestions. Mayor Allen recommended that the City Manager and City Engineer investigate this matter and ascertain cost of both methods and report their estimates to the City council.

The resolution for adoption of a Michigan Municipal Employees Retirement plan was presented and discussed. It was the consensus of opinion that the Retirement plan should cover full time employees and full time administrative officers and be made retroactive as of August 2, 1958. It was moved by Reed, supported by Canterbury that the City of Northville adopt the Resolution regarding the Michigan Municipal Retirement plan. Carried.

Manager Robertson reported that he and Elroy Ellison had discussed the importance of a joint meeting of the School Board and City Council and Wednesday, August 6th was agreed upon, the meeting to be held at 8 P.M. in the office of the Board of Education. Manager Robertson suggested that both Attorney Ogilvie and the City Engineer Penn attend this joint meeting.

Attorney Ogilvie, upon request suggested that both Attorney Ogilvie to the Water Ordinance to be published in the Northville Record, August 7th to supersede the amendment which was published July 24, 1958, as follows:

Water Frontage Best Investment

Babson Park, Mass.—Most people think the best place to invest money is the stock market. So they give their money to some broker, who sends it to New York City. This may or may not be a good place to get a quick profit; but the best investment for the long pull may be waterfront land in your own neighborhood.

OUTBOARD MOTOR GLAMOUR

Speaking of the stock market, I am greatly impressed by the relative action of railroad stocks and automobile stocks vs. outboard motor stocks. For instance, the first mortgage 4% $1,000 bonds on the New York, New Haven, and Hartford Railroad can be bought for about $450.00, or at a discount of over 50%. General Motors sells today just under the 45 of a year ago, while Chrysler sells near 50 today compared with 78 a year ago. The Ford Motor Company has just reduced the dividend on its stock.

While declines have taken place in the stocks of companies whose product operates on wheels, a big advance has taken place in motorboat stocks. Outboard Marine, adjusted for stock splits has increased to a price of 25 from an equivalent 2 1/4 in 1953, a gain of 1000%. This is because people are tired of using automobiles for pleasure driving, owing to crowded highways, lack of parking space, and increasing accidents. Families get more peace and quiet in a small outboard. In short, the automobile is becoming largely a business accessory; the glamour of driving is fading away. This is a fundamental reason for the decline in automobile sales.

WATERFRONT REAL ESTATE

There will always be interior land to buy. As roads are extended, more land constantly comes onto the market. Interior land is like money; it depreciates just as the dollar does unless backed by increased population and industry. But, there is only so much waterfront property. There never was, and never will be, any more. This is another reason why waterfront land, wherever located, is probably the best investment for the long pull for both residences and industry. Cities and towns bordering oceans, lakes, or rivers will continue to grow and their waterfront property will continue to increase in value.

As an illustration of the increasing popularity of water, note the advertisements for backyard swimming pools which can be bought at department stores! Children as a very early age are being educated to love the water. This popularity has so spread that the Babson Institute has built probably the best swimming pool in New England, costing over $200,000.00, to satisfy the demand for water sports and to make sure that every student who graduates can swim like a fish. SKIING AND OTHER SPORTS front property. There never was, sports were rowing a boat or swimming; but today these are "old hat." The outboard motor has taken the place of rowing; while skiing and underwater exploring have taken the place of playing on the beach or in the "old swimming hole," with which most readers are acquainted. This underwater exploring is a most fascinating sport which just recently started. Those engaged in it put long plastic fins on their feet, and either a can of oxygen on their back or a tube leading up to the surface. They discover marvelous new kinds of fish, crabs, and curiosities of all kinds, including the wrecks of vessels, some of which may contain pirate gold or silver. The way to make money is to invest in corporations in some new industry of permanent value. When I was a boy, it was the railroads that held the glamour; later, water power and the development of electricity. Recently it has been the automobile; but the future will deal with the discovery of unknown wealth under lakes, rivers, and oceans. Thus far this has been done by haphazard dredging, but in the future it will be done by underwater diving.

Therefore, if you are buying property today, try to get some waterfront. If you own waterfront, do not sell it. To make money in any investment, buy into something for which the demand will increase and where the supply is more or less limited. The reason our dollars will gradually become of less value is because they can be printed in unlimited supply. The reverse is true of good waterfront property.

CONTEST WINNER—Because she owned a 1916 vacuum cleaner, Mrs. Grace E. Stark, 124 Randolph, won a brand new 1958 Hoover Convertible model from Schrader's Home Furnishings last week. Mrs. Stark, shown with Eugene Maloney of Schrader's, was one of 76 persons to enter a vacuum cleaner in the local furniture store's "oldest vacuum cleaner" contest. Announcement of the winner was delayed while the Hoover company brought in experts to determine which of the entries was the oldest. Mrs. Stark's cleaner was a Frantz Premier Model E. Joseph Blake, 51451 Eight Mile road, had the second oldest model, a 1918 Frantz, while Dr. James Harris was third with a 1918 Regina Model K.

SPEAKING

for the Record

By BILL SLIGER

Last week the school board and city council sat down to discuss a 12-point agenda of mutual problems mostly concerning service installations at the new high school.

The meeting was called by the school board and was attended by the full board and council as well as the superintendent of schools, city manager, city attorney and city engineer.

Actually, the board had some questions concerning costs to the school for on and off-site water and sewer installations where some areas of misunderstanding had arisen between the two bodies.

Specifically, the board asked about:

Per acre assessment costs for land in the Amerman elementary-high school area for Wayne county interceptor sewer use;

School costs for installation of a storm sewer to accommodate drainage from the high school;

Cost differentials arising from adjustments made when city and school storm lines did not coincide for connection;

And improvements on North Center street, water pressure for the school, snow removal at the high school and problems arising from increased school population at Amerman elementary school.

It was apparent in the meeting last week that there was sufficient reason for the joint session.

Basically, the board was concerned that every dollar it spent was justifiable. Likewise, the council was there to be sure that the city collected its fair share.

The misunderstandings, bound to arise in projects of this magnitude, were readily explained when all the details were aired. While some minor questions were left for future settlement, in the main the two bodies reached agreement.

In the past we have occasionally chided the council and school board for a lack of liaison, or at least understanding, between two groups responsible for spending hundreds of thousands of dollars of the taxpayers' money.

While we're ready to commend the board and council for action that, we believe, brought about better understanding and appreciation of mutual problems, we couldn't help but notice that in some instances the meeting was almost too late.

This can be explained to some extent by the difficulty in arranging a night suitable to all. Still, the school expressed deep concern for student safety for the increased number of children attending Amerman elementary school this fall. It also came as a surprise to this writer that the high school would be open for students February 1st. Here again there are certain safety measures, especially on North Center street, where the city, county and school must closely coordinate their planning.

City fathers, with far fewer dollars at their disposal than the school district, must scratch their collective heads to keep up with new service demands and still maintain existing facilities in reasonable good repair.

Chats with Parents

First Year Learning

by Glenn E. Smith

Kindergarten is sometimes thought of as the only year in the education of the child when he is not taught anything.

Actually such is not the case. Though the kindergarten day is not divided into periods for teaching definite skills as are the later grades, the teacher directs the learning of the child throughout the day, in the classroom and on the school grounds during outdoor play periods. In schools having no kindergarten, the first grade usually provides many of the experiences provided for kindergartners.

Kindergarten teaches the child how to work with others for the best interests of the group.

On the playground, the child acts out what he has learned about the community by playing fireman, policeman, and—thanks to television—big, bad western gunman and the Wyatt Earps who tame the bad men.

Though this sort of play may seem pointless to some, children not only learn how to take their places in the group but they also sharpen their concept of what is good and what is bad behavior. Certainly such play is a part of the child's social and moral development.

To fully appreciate the early years of school from kindergarten through the first few grades, one needs to keep in mind that the child develops physically, mentally, emotionally, morally, intellectually, and in other ways all at the same time. He does not just grow in size as may appear to the naked eye.

Neither does he grow in all these aspects at the same rate. Some children grow faster physically than mentally, and others grow relatively faster or slower in other aspects of their development.

There is no rule or pattern concerning who grows faster in one way than in another. The early school years give children experiences which help them bring more closely together their many growths.

For example, one child may develop rapidly mentally while seeming to remain emotionally immature. He gradually learns that the reason he is usually the last one chosen to be on a group team is because he loses his temper when things do not go to suit him.

Butterfat Chief Finds Home Here

Robert Haass of Northville has purchased the registered Guernsey bull, Twin Oak's Butterfat Chief, according to the American Guernsey Cattle Club.

The new sire was bought from Mary T. Smith of Howell. This bull is out of the fine Guernsey cow, Brook-Lynn of Dunrovin, that has an official production record of 15,597 pounds of milk and 793 pounds of fat, made on two times daily milking in 365 days. He was sired by Sagamore Chief.

School Pinch Tightens

RELENTLESS as the passing of time is the continuing pressure for more school facilities. If Michigan's citizens do not face up to the problem, the natural result will be a steady deterioration of the educational system. If they do, solutions can be developed and the "problem" controlled.

BIGGEST PINCH comes at the college level. Masses of youngsters who clogged grade schools beginning years ago are now preparing for college. Campuses are already crowded; are in pressing need of classroom and other facilities. These take years to build.

Reductions in state college and university budgets in the last session of the legislature meant a moratorium on building programs for this need. It also meant that most of the teaching staff, already on the short end of the salary stick, received no pay increases.

RESULTS: The more competent staff members of the state institutions are hired away by other colleges and universities or by private industry; fewer good teachers to teach more students in increasing crowded space.

Unless ways can be found to finance sound education programs for those who want to attend college, today's high school student may not be able to become tomorrow's college student.

PRESSURE IS STILL great at grade school level. Dr. Lynn M. Bartlett, state superintendent of public instruction, recently pointed out that more than a million and a half youngsters are enrolled in public schools. In September about 70,000 more will be attending classes than last year.

Some 11,000 more classrooms are needed now; this despite the 4,130 which were built last year. By 1964 about 29,000 more classrooms will be needed.

The state requires 2,500 to 3,000 more teachers this year than last year. This makes a total of 61,000 teachers and administrators working in school systems.

Records show Michigan will spend about $725 million this coming year for educating its young people. This seems to be a large sum.

Whether it is a large enough sum or not is a decision every parent and every citizen should be anxious to make—after a complete consideration of the facts.

SUMMER VISITORS are an important part of Michigan's economy. And some of them offer a resource that has hardly been tapped.

This potential was described by Don C. Weeks, director of the Michigan Economic Development Commission. "Among these vacationers are many manufacturers," he points out. "They like to come to Michigan because they enjoy our lakes, streams, beaches and the quiet comfort of our resort areas. It's quite possible that a goodly number would be willing to put a plant in Michigan so they could work in the area where they like to play. Maybe the thought had never occurred to them—nor been suggested to them."

A WELL PLACED, FAVORABLE word from a service station attendant, a chamber of commerce official, a housewife, reminds Weeks, might be all that is needed.

To show that it can happen here, Weeks tells how Morely, a small community on U.S. 131 in Mecosta County has a new industry. Bill Turner, a banker, overheard a stranger in town mention his intention to build a new plant.

Mr. Turner didn't know the man nor did he have any idea about what he was speaking. He inquired around until he determined the man's name, his business and address. A trip to see the manufacturer resulted in selection of Morley as the site for a new plant, even at a time when the manufacturer was waiting for replies from several other communities to which he had sent inquiries about facilities. The whole town pitched in to build the plant and now Morley employment is up by about 50 workers.

AS A RESULT of conversations with "strangers in town" two other small Michigan communities have "live" industrial prospects, relates Weeks. One of them became a good prospect because a large catch of fish made him enamored of the area he was visiting.

MICHIGAN FARMERS ARE FAVORING at least as well as last year, is the indication as this year's crops ripen for harvest.

Strawberries did the best in many seasons, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture. The weather was just right to produce a large crop of this tasty fruit.

Raspberries did well too, especially when a large carry-over of frozen berries was on hand from last year.

GRAPES MIGHT BE A PROBLEM. This year some 56,000 tons are expected. This compares with 48,000 tons last year. But the catch is the big New York crop which will offer competition. New York will market almost twice the number of grapes as it did last year.

Michigan apples will be on hand in somewhat fewer number than last year. About 10,200,000 bushels should be produced. But the crop will have a tougher competition than last year when much of the yield from western orchards was frozen out. This year other states had good growing weather.

Peaches will amount to a 3,000,000 bushel commodity. This year's crop is expected to be especially tasty.

Dive Kills Ex-NHS Student

A former Northville high school student died Saturday after breaking his neck in a dive into shallow water at a lake near Jackson.

Doctors said Fritz Smith, 19, died from a ruptured blood vessel in the brain.

Smith had lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Smith, on Eight Mile road near Meadowbrook until 1956 when the family moved to Jackson.

He had attended NHS through his junior year, graduating from Napoleon high school. He was to have started his sophomore year at DePauw university in Indiana this fall.

Smith broke his neck last Thursday when he dived into two feet of water off a dock at Clark lake. After the accident, he told his father he thought the water was deeper because it appeared to reach the waist of a buddy swimming nearby.

Attendants said he spent a "fairly good night" Friday but seemed restless and apprehensive. He called a doctor to his bed Saturday morning and died at 7:30 a.m.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by two brothers, Thomas Franklin and David Crittenden Burr.

Youths Sentenced For Burglaries Throughout Area

Crime has come high for four of 10 Plymouth and Livonia youths who recently admitted nearly 100 burglaries in western Wayne county, including seven in Northville.

The four were sentenced to terms ranging up to 15 years in prison. Three were placed on probation and three others are still facing sentencing.

Sentenced to prison terms by Judge Richard Smith of Bay City in Washtenaw circuit court were:

—William H. McIntosh, 19, 41830 Five Mile, Plymouth, 2½-15 years;

—Barnard M. Fornwald, 19, 397 Pacific, Plymouth, concurrent terms of 2½-15 years;

—Kirkland H. McGowan, 18, 483 Ann, Plymouth, 2-15 years;

—Curtis McGowan, Kirkland's twin brother, 1½-15 years.

Three youths were placed on five years' probation. They are:

—Linda Kramer, 17, 42518 Schoolcraft.

—Dow J. Swope, 19, of Livonia.

—Leonard Ballinger, 17, 14894 Northville road.

Three other youths still await sentencing: John Kramer, 16, brother of Linda; Gerald D. Cowan, 17, 305 Roe, Plymouth; and Earl Goodwin, of Livonia.

Juvenile jurisdiction over Kramer was waived, and he is being tried as an adult. Goodwin, who escaped the original police roundup of the gang, was picked up in Kentucky and returned.

The youths' amazing spree, which included thefts from some 100 restaurants, stores and gas stations, was broken up July 7 when Ann Arbor police arrested them after they had stolen a car from Northville.

Their break-ins in Northville netted them about $1,000. They included: Northville Lanes bowling alley (twice), Asher Pure Oil station (three times), Amerman elementary school, and Bel-Nor drive-in restaurant.

Four of the youths also admitted setting fire to a barn at Six Mile and Sheldon to distract police while they broke into Asher's.

Water Carnival Ends Swim Clinic

Swimming lessons sponsored by the Hickory Hills Civic Association in Wixom ended Sunday with a water carnival of nine aquatic events.

In the beginners class, Arthur Walker took first place in the dog paddle race and the stone hunt. The breath-holding contest was won by Nancy Merkle.

In the intermediate class, Mike Posey "swam" off with first places in the free-style race and the underwater swim. Sandy Cavallaro was winner of the newspaper race (floating and reading a newspaper without getting it wet), while her brother, Carmen, took honors in the spoon and ball race.

Sandy Cavallaro won the greased watermelon race and was awarded a gold loving cup and the melon.

Don Smith, the Red Cross Swimming Instructor, did not forget the adventuresome adults. In the balloon pushing race, Bill Mills tied with his wife, Aline, for first place. A run-off awarded Bill first prize.

Assisting Don Smith in organizing the swimming classes were Wilhelmina Lahti, Mary Vollmer and Aline Mills.

The beginners class consisted of 22 members: Busty Burden, Linda Burden, Lona Cavallaro, Kathy McKnight, Nancy McNight, Nancy Merkle, Cheryl Mills, Debbie Mills, Robert Mills, Douglas Lahti, Mark Posey, Chuck Rolo, Ellen Simmons, Denise Stafford, Mary Anne Vollmer, Arthur Walker, Betty Walker, Billy Walker, Leland Walker, Sharon Whaley, and Daniel Whaley.

In the intermediate class were 10 participants: Carmen Cavallaro, Sandy Cavallaro, Gayle Lahti, Joyce Posey, Mike Posey, Ruth Posey, Charlotte Preston, Lauren Savage, Renee Savage and David Stafford.

MOST ORIGINAL FLOAT — The dog sled ridden here by parka-clad Mark and Martha Gazlay was not only original but timely. It commemorates Alaska's coming statehood.

CONGRATULATIONS — "Champ" gets a kiss from "Susie" for being named biggest dog in the show. Susie herself ran under a porch during the cat judging and missed out. With their pets are Mike and Mitzy Conley.

THE TELEPHONE POLE lost out, too, when William G. Casker, Jr.'s, car skidded into it at Sheldon and Edward Hines roads, Sunday night. Casker, from Highland Park, says he was driving 45 miles an hour when he suddenly lost control of the car. It hit the right shoulder and swerved across to the left shoulder, skidding 110 feet into a telephone pole. The impact tore the pole down. Casker got off with facial cuts and lacerations on the legs.

In MSU Marching Band

Harry Sedan, who learned his music at Northville high school, will be in the big time this fall.

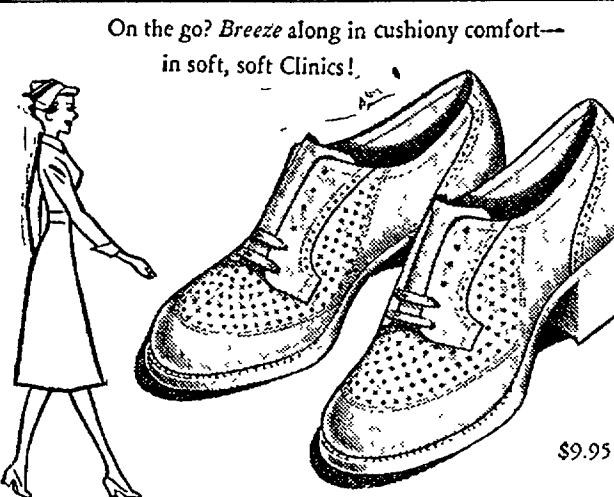

He was accepted last week into the Michigan State university marching band as a bass horn player.

A June graduate of NHS, Harry will study law enforcement at MSU.

Too Many People!

A United Nations report tells us that by the year 2000 this world may begin to have too many people. By the year 2000 the world's population will exceed six or seven billion. In the next century it could hit 10 to 25 billions they said. The population in the United States is increasing at the rate of 7,000 persons per day. Just think of that! The problems of food supply and social needs are staggering. The report said, "Never in the history of mankind have numbers of the human species multiplied as rapidly as in the present century." What can all of this mean? What are God's plans? He has revealed them plainly in the prophetic scriptures. The present age will end when Christ shall come and raise the dead who have died in the Lord and remove the remaining Christians from off this earth. Then there will be a period of seven years during which God will visit judgment upon the earth. One fourth of the world's population will die within a period of the period of Judgment, Christ shall return with His saints and set up His Kingdom on the earth. Fantastic? Yes, indeed, for God is a God of the fantastic!
