

ATTEMPTED BANK ROBBERY THWARTED HERE

GET THE POINT? — In two years Northville has lost two football games, both to the same team and both by a single point. Tomorrow night the Mustangs again meet their nemesis — the Plymouth Rocks. This week Coach Ron Schipper gave personal attention to extra point drills with Roger Atchinson (kneeling) and Wade Deal.

Novi Votes Monday On Charter For Village Status

Novi voters — probably 1,100 strong — will go to the polls Monday to decide whether or not to adopt a proposed village charter.

The vote is a climax of years of discussion and months of planning that has become the hottest issue of debate in the history of Novi.

Last March 17 voters approved incorporation by a margin of 67 votes, 509 to 442. At the same time they elected a charter commission that has since drawn a village charter for voter approval.

On the same ballot voters must choose five councilmen from a field of 10 candidates who will govern the village if the charter is approved.

Final tabulations of registrations show that 1,100 qualified electors registered before the 5 p.m. deadline Monday for the election. Because everyone in the limits of the proposed village had to re-register to be eligible to vote, it is likely that the vote will reach nearly 100 percent of registrations.

Of the ten candidates (see picture and background sketches on this page) five have been members of the charter commission. They are J. Philip Anderson, Russell Burton, Dirk Groeneweg, Dicon T. T. T. and Walter Tuck.

The other five candidates seeking a seat on the council are George Ames, Burt Fisher, David Fried, Leo Harrwood and Donald Woodward.

Polls will open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m. Qualified electors in precinct one will vote at the Novi township hall and precinct two electors at the Novi community building.

School Millage Vote, Too

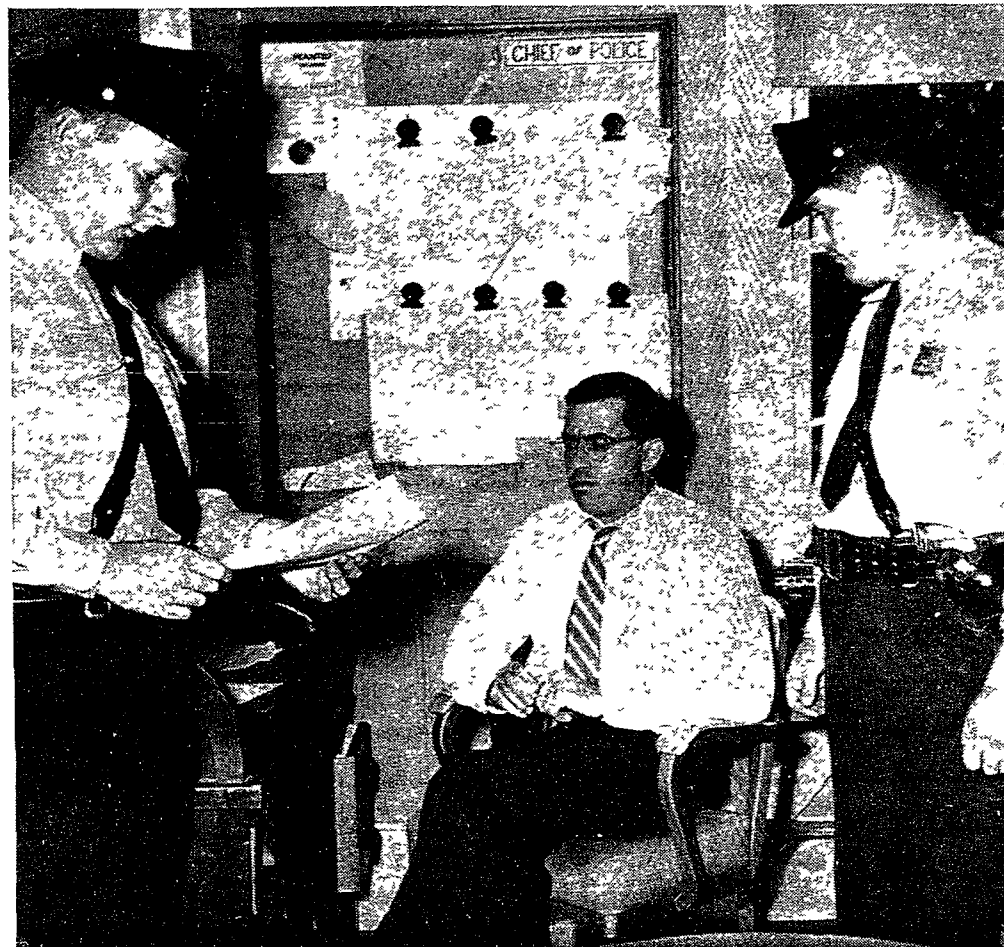

Novi school district residents will vote Monday on a proposed solution to the district's long-standing financial problem.

Facing them will be a request to increase the district's operating millage by 2½ mills for each of the next five years.

Polls will be open at Novi school from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Voters were reminded that the school election is entirely separate from the Novi village election the same day.

The school election is for residents of the school district only, and will be conducted at the school. The village election is for residents of the proposed village, and will be conducted at the township hall and community building.

If the increase of 2½ mills is approved, school taxes will total 17.48 mills. This includes 7.98 mills already approved for operating the schools and 7.00 mills previously voted for school construction.

CAUGHT — Richard Aul Valpey sat quietly at Northville police headquarters Friday shortly after he was arrested following a noon hour bank robbery attempt. He offered no resistance to Officers Leonard Mazuchowski (left) and Frank Heintz when the burglar alarm at Manufacturers summoned the officers.

"Nitro" Bluff Fails

A cool-headed assistant manager and prompt action by the Northville police department foiled an attempted $12,000 robbery at Manufacturers National bank in Northville Friday.

Richard Aul Valpey, 35 and unemployed, chose the Northville bank as his means to obtain needed cash.

Despite a threat that a bottle he carried contained "nitroglycerine," Valpey didn't get past Assistant Manager Leo Kalota's desk.

This week Valpey stood mute before Judge E. M. Bogart and waived examination. Judge Bogart placed him under $10,000 bond and Valpey is now awaiting trial before the circuit court in the Wayne county jail.

Shortly after 11 a.m. Friday Valpey entered the bank and asked for the manager (Charles Strautz). When told that he was out to lunch, Valpey was directed to Kalota. He handed Kalota a note (see below) that demanded $12,000 in $100 bills.

Valpey held a bottle and a briefcase. The bottle, his note said, contained nitroglycerine and the briefcase a revolver.

After reading the note twice Kalota finally decided that Valpey was bluffing (see story and pictures, page five). He turned to Receptionist Mrs. Ruth Stroth and directed her to ring the burglar alarm.

Within minutes Officers Frank Heintz and Leonard Mazuchowski were at the bank. Mazuchowski entered the front door while Heintz drove around to the back. Valpey meekly surrendered his "nitro" and gun to Mazuchowski.

In his confession Valpey said he was from Ft. Meyers, Florida. He had purchased a gun in Detroit (it was in his briefcase — and loaded) and drove to Northville Friday. According to police authorities, Valpey once lived in Plymouth. At that time he was married, but has since been divorced.

Valpey's complete confession, taken by Northville Chief Joseph Denton and Sgt. Conrad Konechny and Detective Robert Rutilla of the Michigan state police follows:

On the night of Sept. 11, 1958 I stayed at a motel on Michigan in Dearborn. At 11 a.m. I came to Northville in my 1955 Plymouth and parked in the Kroger parking lot. I had a pistol a Smith and Wesson on the seat of the car — a 32 caliber — the gun was loaded. I went from the parking lot to the bank. The gun was in a zipper case. I walked up to the assistant manager of the bank and gave him a note which I had made out. The note made a demand for $12,000 in $100 dollar bills. I also stated that I had a bottle of Nitro in my shirt pocket. The man at the bank said, O.K. we will sit down here. As I sat down with him he told a girl to push the alarm. The police immediately arrived and placed me under arrest. The gun I bought on Michigan avenue in Detroit. For Kalota's reaction to Valpey's note (shown below) see page five.

Mustangs Open at Plymouth

Tomorrow night Northville's high school football team opens its 1958 season at Plymouth.

The question seems to be: can a big, strong line stop a speedy quartet of backs?

And if you turn to the coaches of the respective teams for the answer you don't come up with much.

According to Mike Hoben (Plymouth coach), Northville is loaded with giants that will push his midweight linemen all over the field.

Ron Schipper (Northville mentor) must have the identical crying towel. He calls Plymouth the toughest team Northville will face all year. And, according to Schipper, Plymouth's slowest back can run circles around the Mustangs' swiftest runner.

Both coaches have good reason to be cautious.

The Northville-Plymouth games have been closely fought contests settled by the narrow margin of one point for the past two years. Plymouth was undefeated last year and the Mustangs lost only to Plymouth.

So the chips are down. The opener is the game to get past that might lead either team to an undefeated season.

Admittedly, Northville has a big line. From end to end they'll average 190 pounds. This compares to 155 pounds on the Plymouth forward wall.

At the same time, Coach Hoben concedes that his backfield is exceptionally fast and experienced. Backs Randy Egloff, Ed LaRoche, Paul Woodward and Wayne Sparkman will be hard to catch if the small Plymouth linemen can shake them loose.

Two Teen Dances This Saturday

Northville teen-agers will be able to dance almost all day long at local teen dances Saturday.

The regular teen record hop at the American Legion hall will be held Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5 p.m.

There is no admission charge. Members of the "teen hop" committee for this dance will meet Friday at the hall from 5 to 5:30 p.m.

Anyone knowing of a tape recorder available for use by this group is asked to contact John Goss, Sr. at the American Legion hall.

Later Saturday, a teen dance, sponsored by the Northville Recreation department will be held from 8 to 11 p.m. in the Northville community center.

Admission is 25c person.

Seek Commercial Building at Gravel Site

A large area in northeast Northville is now being cleared for possible development as a shopping center.

No commitments have yet been made, but potential developers will be contacted within several weeks.

The site, owned by Manning-Locklin Gravel company, is located on Griswold avenue just north of the C & O overpass. It is adjacent to the company's gravel pit, and covers about five acres at present.

Perry Manning, co-owner of the company, said present plans are to sell the area to a development company or work out some other "mutual agreement."

"Shopping centers are out of our line," he said. "We'll only try to interest a developer in going ahead with it."

"We're not sure how large the area will finally be nor of how the site will look when completely leveled," he added. "But it should be suitable for a supermarket and several other stores."

The Manning-Locklin location is one of several sites which have been mentioned as possible sites for a shopping center in recent months. It is the first to be publicly disclosed.

The site, shaped like a triangle, fronts on Griswold. It is readily accessible to both Northville and Novi, and would have space for adequate parking.

Most, and perhaps all, of the site is within the city. Zoning is no problem. It is already zoned for manufacturing — a category which allows commercial use as well.

Manning did not indicate when the development might start.

"We haven't contacted anyone yet, and we haven't been approached,"

he said. "We wanted first to see what we had to offer in the way of a site."

Manning-Locklin's gravel operation apparently would not affect a shopping development.

Asked how long the pit operation might go on, Manning said it would depend on how much gravel remains.

"That's a hard thing to determine," he said. "We still have roads and islands in the pit, and they'll eventually be taken out."

"The whole pit would then be full of water," he added, "but we might bring in new types of equipment to pump gravel from under the surface."

Manning said there are no plans at present for a sanitary land fill in the pit.

FUTURE SHOPPING AREA? This area east of Griswold avenue may be the site of a new shopping center for Northville. A greenbelt of trees along Griswold has been removed, and the site is now being leveled. This view looks northeast from Griswold at the C & O overpass.

City Purchases Two Water Pumps

City water control and facilities problems headed the agenda of the city council meeting Monday night.

Several bids were read for two pumps and electrical controls for the filter building soon to be installed to handle water supply and pressure requirements for the new high school area.

The bids of the Layne-Northern company of Lansing for pumps at $3,062 and from Charles F. Warwick representing the Liquid Level Controls company, for controls at $1,935, were accepted at a special meeting of the council Tuesday after examination and recommendations by City Engineer Harold Penn.

The council also discussed the possible forthcoming increase in city sewage fees.

"Sewer rate charge from the county could go sky high in the next four months," City Manager John Robertson predicted, "due to necessary expansion of the River Rouge interceptor system which Northville uses, by order of the Wayne county health department."

Detroit, as a result, would be raising its fee for treating sewage, from 3 to 4½ cents per 1000 gallons, Robertson said.

Proportionally, this would raise the county charge to Northville from its present 5c per 1000 gallons to 15 or 16c.

In order to keep profits balanced, Northville, now charging 10c per 1000 gallons for sewer service, would have to raise it proportionally to 21c.

Another factor weighing on local sewage service charge, Robertson explained, is that Northville uses only about 45-50 percent of its county-allocated sewage allotment.

With Wayne county communities being pro-rated for what they use in excess of the allocated amount, Northville carries an extra load.

In line with this, the council considered the advisability of providing more accurate measurement of county-treated sewage used at Northville-Downs, by installation of water meters.

It was pointed out that this might account for only a small part of the water supply actually used by the Downs, including sewage chiefly from restaurant and restaurant supply, excluding the undetermined consumption for care of horses and watering of the track.

The Downs also centered into a review by City Attorney Philip Ogilvie of communication between the city and the Downs on the proposed sale of the 2½-acre River street property to the race track. Negotiations are near agreement.

Other old business reviewed included a report by Robertson that fires in the city dump causing odors, which have roused public complaints recently, have not yet been completely stopped.

County Health Officials Urge Polio Shots for All

Families are urged to get their polio shots as soon as possible, Wayne county Health Commissioner Dr. Joseph Molnar announced this week.

"The number of polio cases in Wayne county has definitely reached epidemic proportions this year," Dr. Molnar said.

In Detroit, the number stricken has increased from 148 to 356 as compared with last year at this time.

By Tuesday 450 cases had been reported in Wayne county, 11 of them resulting in death.

Thirty new victims were reported Tuesday alone.

"This is the largest number of new cases in a 24-hour period since the 33, reported over the Labor Day week end," the doctor stated.

Dr. Molnar attributes the increase to general negligence in getting inoculations.

Evidence supporting his conclusion is that 60 percent of cases occurring this year have been polio in its most virulent form, paralytic polio.

Although polio has been known to develop even after shots were given, inoculation with Salk vaccine reduces the severity of effect.

Dr. Molnar also emphasized that polio, contrary to common belief, is no respecter of age.

Persons over 60 have come down with it recently, the Wayne county health department announced.

The earlier Salk vaccine campaign put emphasis on protecting children. Dr. Molnar stressed that the entire family should get preventive shots from their family doctors.

Polio immunization consists of a series of three shots.

Persons who received shots more than a year ago are encouraged to contact their doctor to see if a booster shot would be advisable, especially in light of the epidemic, Dr. Molnar said.

The Wayne county medical society set aside days for polio to doctors asking them to specially set aside days for polio inoculations.

Local doctors will be happy to give Salk shots at any time.

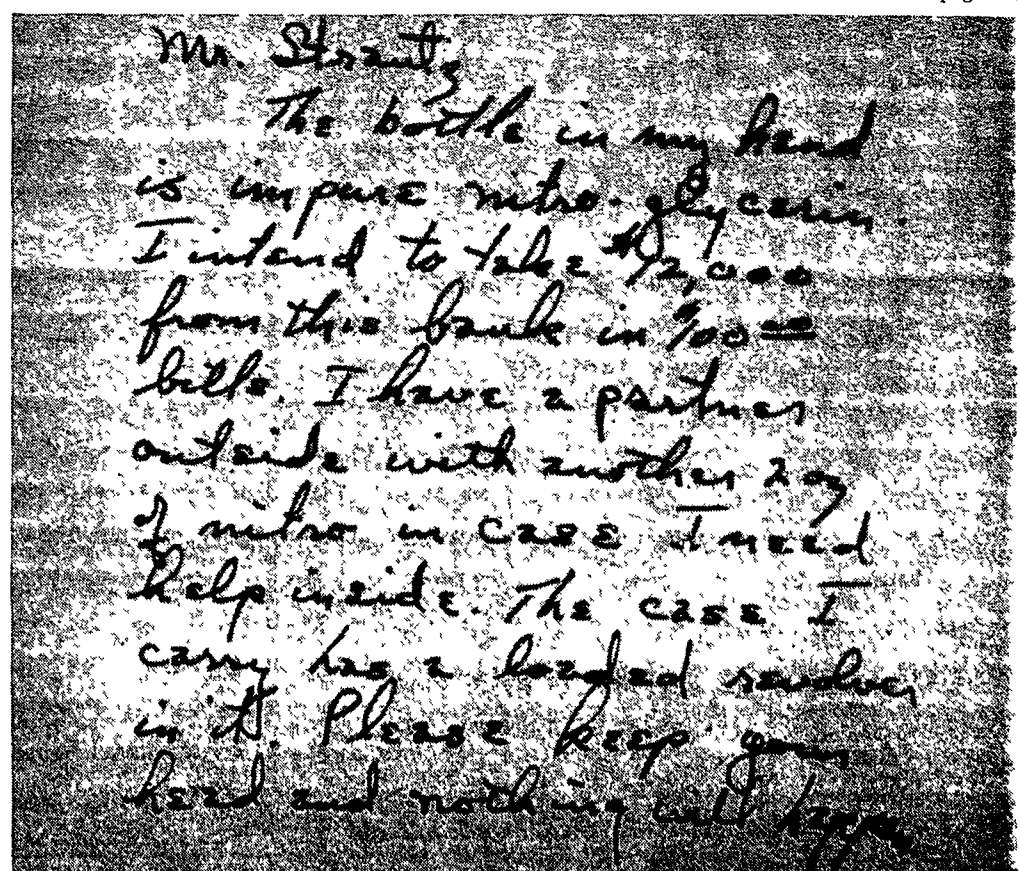

Although no cases have been reported in the Northville area, the health department announced, with plenty of vaccine for everyone, there is no reason for continuing to tempt the statistics.

Newcomer's Corner

"I look upon every day to be lost, in which I do not make a new acquaintance."

—Samuel Johnson

"LET ME SEE, TOO!" — Year-old Brian Conser peeks into the book that sister Michelle is concentrating on so prettily. The encouraging smiles from Mother, Maureen, and Dad, Hugh Conser, seem to agree that you're never too young to learn.

Satisfaction was guaranteed for the Hugh Consers in the family enterprise that brought them to Northville.

Hugh and Maureen Conser not only picked out the place they liked best for settling down, but Mr. Conser, a builder and designer by profession, designed and built their contemporary home to suit everyone's liking.

The family, including 2½-year-old

Michelle and one-year-old Brian, moved to Commemara subdivision last December. They are former Garden City residents.

"We've always loved Northville," Mrs. Conser says, "and couldn't think of a place we'd rather live."

Mrs. Conser, who has helped others with their home decorating, took over the interior "engineering" of their new home.

Around this time of year the young couple look forward to Detroit's fleeting opera season. Both are opera-lovers, and Mrs. Conser has done some public singing.

"Homemaking is my biggest interest now, though," she says. To witness, she is an active member of Our Lady of Victory Mothers club.

Hugh Conser's extra-curricular talents turn to golf, Maureen says. "He's a pretty good golfer."

No one has challenged yet that Northville isn't such a bad place for golfing and singing and bringing up children.

Garden Show Proceeds Provide Annual Scholarship

Maybury Men Bring Home the Bacon

Eighteen entries in the Michigan State Fair handicraft competitions multiplied into earnings for Maybury Sanatorium gentlemen patients totaling over $180 this year, Mrs. Marjorie Owens, occupational therapy director, happily announced this week.

Some of the entries are now on display in the windows of The Record office.

Mrs. Owens says that with just four days' notice last year, her students managed to scramble together some $50 worth of winnings. "I said then that next year, we'd bring home $150, and we even beat that goal, Mrs. Owens said.

Most of the articles, including beautifully crafted leather, jewel, and metal work, paintings, and even model ship building were, according to Mrs. Owens, made by persons who had little or no experience in such work.

"They didn't believe they could do it," she says, "but I told them they could. There's a healthy competition among patients to improve their work."

Some of the items are still for sale.

The National Brown Swiss Association of Beloit, Wisconsin, announced that a Brown Swiss calf owned and exhibited by Walter E. Clark of Northville has recently been awarded special recognition in the State and National Bell Ringer program.

The animal, "You'll See Rosie's Tammy 365668", was selected by the Michigan State Bell Ringer Judging Committee as the Michigan State Reserve Bell Ringer Heifer Calf for 1958.

In order for an animal to become eligible for the state competition, it must have won first or second blue ribbon awards in its age classification at the canton show held in the local canton area.

Readers Speak Up:

See Tax Savings By Incorporation

It seems to me that this question of incorporation is being obscured by a lot of talk. A lack of knowledge of the issues involved may well be the greatest foe of incorporation. Quite possibly the question may be decided by people who know little or nothing about it.

The problem is not the tax limit, the road money or will we have a village manager. The real problem is to keep our taxes as low as possible and still maintain the services people want.

The members of the charter commission represent a better than average personal tax base and the idea that we are sitting up until midnight to raise our own taxes is silly.

We all know from experience that our taxes are not going to get any lower. The best we can hope for is to keep them as near as possible to where they are.

The only way to do this is to maintain as large a tax base as possible and prevent a duplication of services.

Winston Churchill once said, "with all its obvious faults I don't see how democracy succeeds at all. The only reason it does is because there is nothing better."

Village status is not 100 percent perfect but it is the best choice we have.

Novi township has lost more tax base in the past two years than it has left. This cannot continue without someone getting hurt.

Some people want to be left out of this incorporation with the hope of joining Northville. The question is — can they do it? We think not, in the foreseeable future. The loss of a subdivision is not too important to the village, but when 200 people leave and take half the township assets with them it becomes a serious problem to those who are left.

Incorporation will not close the door entirely to annexation but it will prevent the loss of valuable assets.

Sometime in the future the solution to the sewer problem in Novi will probably be through Northville and into the Detroit system. Surely some cooperation agreement can be worked out beneficial to all concerned.

In the meantime let us hang on to what we have left and get into a position to keep any new assets we may acquire.

"Sure I was scared!"
But outwardly, Leo Kalota was as nerveless as the "nitroglycerine" itself.

Perhaps that explains the undoing of the mild-mannered man who threatened to blow Manufacturers National Bank apart unless he got $12,000 in cash.

The war of nerves backfired on him.

Kalota, the bank's young assistant manager, is no veteran of danger. His army service was in peacetime, and he's never been close to flying bullets or falling masonry.

But Richard Valpey isn't apt to be lieve it.

Kalota and Valpey came face to face at 11:45 a.m. Friday.

Valpey had asked to see Manager Charles Strautz. Told Strautz was at lunch, Valpey asked for his assistant and was directed to Kalota's desk.

"I was reading a loan application," Kalota says. "When I looked up, he handed me this note."

"I read it once, rubbed my eyes, and read it again. Then I read it again."

Valpey sat quietly, holding his briefcase in one hand and the cotton-wrapped bottle of "nitro" in the other.

"I looked up at him and he looked at me. We just sat there staring at each other," Kalota says.

"So finally I asked what we should do now."

"He said, 'Well, I guess it's your move. My partner's waiting outside.'"

That's when the wheels started turning in Kalota's mind.

"I figured that he might be bluffing, because he wasn't threatening me and he didn't seem to be violent. All he did was fiddle with that bottle."

"I decided he wouldn't use it because he'd blow himself up too."

"Of course, I knew he probably had a gun. But it wasn't drawn, so it didn't bother me."

Coolly weighing these thoughts, Kalota decided he'd call Valpey's bluff — if it was a bluff.

He calmly asked Mrs. Ruth Stroh, whose receptionist desk is six feet away, to ring the police buzzer.

"Until then," says Mrs. Stroh, "I didn't know a thing about what was happening. But when Leo said to ring the buzzer, I knew something was wrong."

Valpey watched impassively as Mrs. Stroh pushed the buzzer and phoned to Miss Pauline Graham in the back of the bank, asking her to ring a second police alarm.

Then he started to unzip the briefcase.

"So I opened a drawer as if I was going for a gun too," says Kalota. "And there we sat, staring again, him with his hand on his briefcase and me with mine in the drawer."

Within seconds, Patrolman Leonard Mazuchowski entered the bank and walked up to Kalota's desk.

"Here's your man," said Kalota. Mazuchowski started to handcuff Valpey, but the nerve-shattered holdup man halted him.

"Here, you'd better take these," he said, handing the "nitro" and briefcase to Mazuchowski.

Then Mazuchowski and Patrolman Frank Heintz, who had entered from the rear, handcuffed Valpey and led him out.

"Why aren't you beating me up?" asked the bewildered bank robber as he stepped into the police car.

In the bank, the 20 employees and 10 customers chattered in amazement. None had known of the incident until Valpey was led out.

Kalota breathed easily and began answering questions.

What was it like? Wasn't he afraid? What made him think he could get away with the bluff?

"I don't really know what went through my mind," he says. "It's just a good thing he didn't say, 'C'mon, get a move on, buddy.'"

"If he had, we'd probably be out $12,000 now."

AFTER THE BATTLE — Assistant Manager Leo Kalota and Receptionist Mrs. Ruth Stroh of the Northville office of the Manufacturers National bank foiled the attempt of Richard Valpey to make away with $12,000 last Friday. Kalota called Valpey's bluff and told Mrs. Stroh to ring the alarm. She did and the befuddled Valpey sat and waited for the police.

SOUND ADVICE!

From the September issue of

NEWS LETTER

Abstract and Title Guaranty Co.

● "The chance to buy a home at a bargain price comes only once or twice in a generation. Everyone knows when opportunity last knocked.

The home bought for $5,000 in the early 1940s is worth 3-4 times as much today.

● Careful students of history say this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity is here again - now. Inflation will continue - even accelerate.

The buyer will have to pay more - much more - for his home, if he waits. Home values will rise sharply. Inflation will jump prices on all purchases, especially on real estate."

● We believe "No time like the present". Buy a home or home-site first.

"Your Family Shoe Store In Plymouth"

Population Now 24,000 In Novi, Northville, Wixom

The combined population of Northville, Northville township, Novi township and Wixom is now nearly 24,000—an increase of 7,000 or about 64 percent since 1950.

Most of the growth, both numerically and percentage-wise has been in Northville township and Novi.

Novi township's population jumped from 3,410 in 1950 to the current 6,300 — or by 84 percent. Northville township increased by 81 percent, from 4,184 to 7,600.

On the other hand, Wixom gained but 59 percent, from 940 to 1,500 while the city of Northville saw only a 14 percent increase, from 2,981 to 3,400.

This picture was presented by the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission in a report on population growth in Wayne, Oakland, Monroe, Macomb and part of Washtenaw counties.

Population of the entire Detroit area grew by 27 percent, from 3,136,279 to 3,995,000 since 1950, the report showed.

That increase of 858,721 is equivalent to adding a city the size of St. Louis, Boston or Washington, D.C. to the area.

Biggest numerical growth came in out-Wayne (356,333) but the greatest percentage growth was recorded in Macomb (92 percent).

The city of Detroit grew by 50,000 (largest of any city) but this represented an increase of only three percent.

Commenting on the figures, the report noted that most of the growth has been due to an increase in family size. Migration accounts for only 70,000 persons.

On the other hand, population has been held somewhat in check by a low marriage rate (due to a low birth rate in the '30s) and by migration of unemployed workers to other areas.

Northville township's 84 percent growth and Novi's 81 percent are well ahead of the average for their respective counties (61 in out-Wayne and 62 in Oakland).

Some adjoining communities have grown faster, and others slower.

Livonia, eighth fastest growing community in the area, jumped from 17,534 to 52,000 (196 percent).

On the other hand, Plymouth grew only from 6,637 to 8,700 (31 percent) and Plymouth township from 4,945 to 6,900 (39 percent).

So, while the city of Northville has remained stable, Northville township has outgrown Plymouth and Plymouth township both numerically and percentage-wise.

In Oakland county, Farmington township has soared from 10,924 to 22,200 (103 percent) and the city of Farmington from 2,325 to 5,300 (128 percent).

Walled Lake has grown from 1,400 to 2,400 (71 percent) and South Lyon from 1,312 to 1,700 (29 percent).

Bible In Solitary Confinement

Recently I hear that the only book given to those who are placed in solitary confinement in the Navy is the Bible. A few years ago as I was waiting in the sheriff's office in Ottawa County to talk to a prisoner, I noticed a list of items which prisoners could take when being transferred to Jackson State Prison. At the head of the list was the Bible. It would seem that the officials of our State and County government see some value in the Bible for those who are committed to prison. It's regrettable that in our so-called "Christian Country" that we cannot see the value of giving the Bible to our young people before they get to prison! A few avowed atheists have by determined effort have seen to it that the Bible is ruled out of the public schools. Here and there some school boards and school officials have had enough Christian conviction and backbone to resist the order and are having the daily reading of the scriptures. It has been proven again and again that the knowledge of God's Word through the reading of the Bible has resulted in a decrease in delinquency crime, and school problems. We need what the Bible teaches to build a strong moral character in our youth.

A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush!

An understatement if you've ever heard one!

Comparing the industry which is located in your town with industry located somewhere else which your town might like to get, the bird in hand is worth a hundred in the bush, and more.

It's a hundred to one that the best opportunity your town has for more industrial payroll lies in expansion of its present industry.

The industrial payroll of your town is a priceless possession. Protect it. Other towns would like to get it and some may even now be trying. Don't take the industry in your town for granted. Show your pride in it. Help it expand.

There's no better payroll than the homegrown variety and it is, by all odds, the easiest to grow.

Flower "Hours" Well Spent

The Northville Record

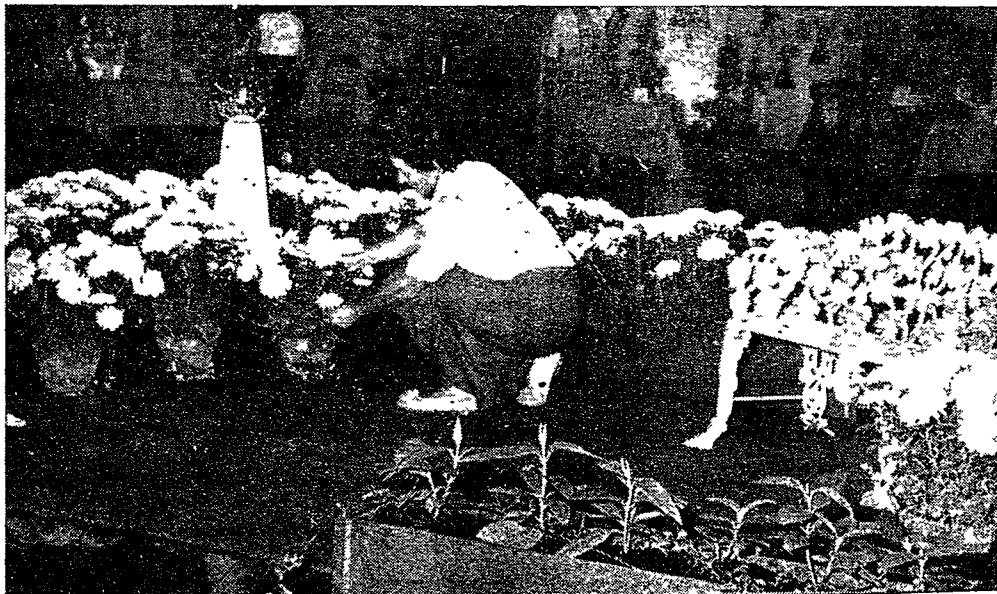

THE OLDEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY — EST. 1868 Thursday, September 18, 1958—9

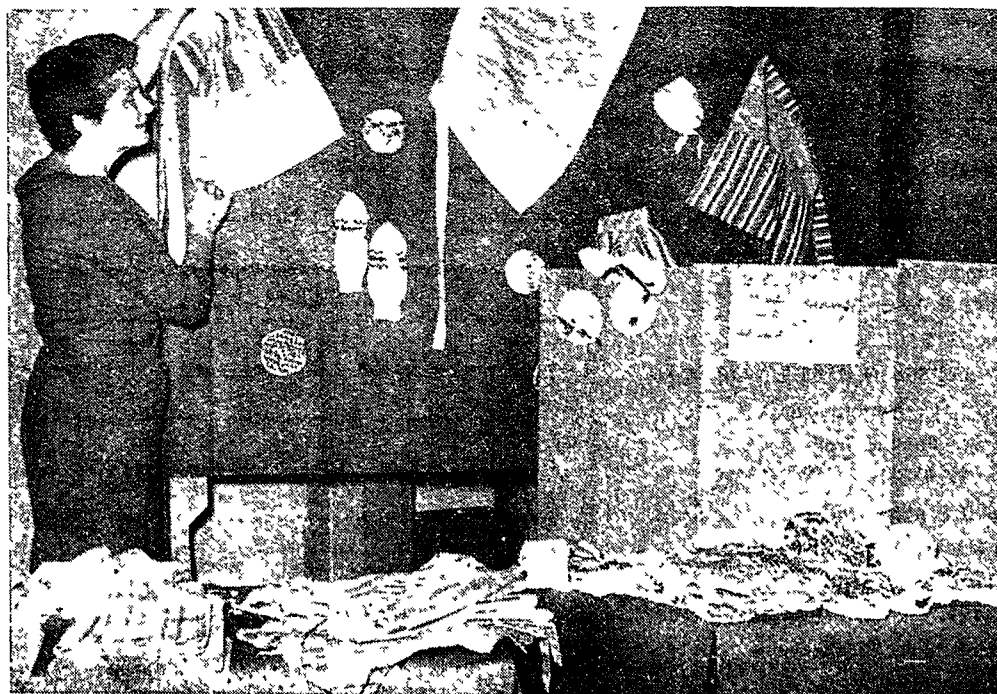

"CENTERPIECE" for the program was this garden-in-white, among rows of table displays, its sun-dial suggesting the "Hours With Flowers" theme. Mrs. R. J. Wright (left), chairman of the ways and means committee, and Mrs. N. K. Pattison, president of the Northville branch of Woman's National Farm and Garden club, can look over a successful show.

CHRISTMAS IN FLORIDA inspired this home decoration in dry arrangements of candles, cones and pines. Several club members joined talents for this prominent exhibit. Mrs. Ernest Wood puts finishing touches to a stubborn bow.

BRIGHT AND EARLY — Exhibitors had a busy morning preparing for the afternoon opening. Any but the experienced gardener could have been fooled by displays that looked so "naturally lovely" by 2:30. Mrs. Orson Atchinson applies the "plain hard work" formula to chrysanthemum arrangements.

FESTIVE BOOTHS marketing wares of Christmas decorations, trinkets, jams, fruits, vegetables and aprons were convenient reminders to visitors that Christmas is just around the corner, lest they be fooled by the spring-like atmosphere created by the garden of summer flowers. Mrs. Robert Niemi was in charge of the apron booth.

"One flower, one stone, is interesting enough to be displayed alone, however imperfect, because that is true to life."

Anyone attending the annual Northville Garden club flower show Saturday afternoon and evening in the community building might have found the above Japanese thought on floral arrangement bedazzled by a multitude of unique and interesting displays.

Specimens and arrangements varied from fruits, jams, and familiar Michigan garden flowers to rare plants and robust vegetables, almost "too perfect" to be true.

This year's "Hours With Flowers" theme was incorporated into imaginative inventions including table pieces, miniature arrangements no bigger than a thimble, displays by children, arrangements in "favorite containers", and even a few charmingly simple Japanese arrangements, a special study during the past year by some club members.

leisurely strollers almost as soon as the show opened at 2:30. By 9:30 closing, an estimated 600 persons had viewed the exhibits.

Entries were received from Northville, Plymouth, Ann Arbor, Livonia, South Lyon, Farmington and Bloomfield Hills residents.

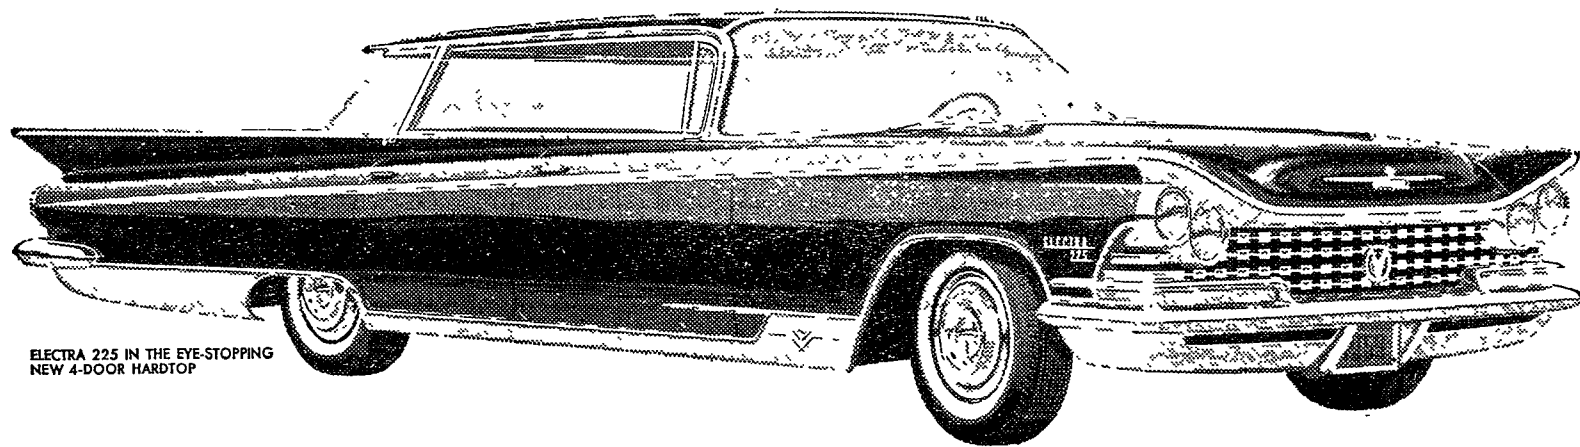

ALICE IN WONDERLAND — (At right). The colorful array of growing things had plenty to delight young eyes. But children were participants as well as viewers. Mrs. Paul H. Schulz (left) and Mrs. Charles Altman, Sr., in charge of the children's section, guide their junior customers through a special world of potatoes, turkeys, cabbage elephants, bright stones and shells, and other adventurous projects.

He's Sports Editor Sam Glassman of the Macon Telegraph who recently devoted his full column to Rowe.

"When you start looking down the Macon Dodgers' list seeking a player that might make the majors," wrote Glassman, "the name of righthanded Pitcher Ken Rowe stands out like a beacon light on a stormy night."

Ken, who won letters in football, basketball and baseball at NHS, was drafted by LA from the Detroit Tigers farm organization. After spending 1953 through 1956 with various minor league clubs, he went into the army for a two-year hitch. That's where he "found" himself.

"When I got out of the army, I made up my mind that if I continued being wild I would never get a shot with Macon, much less expect to go higher. So I made up my mind that I would get the ball over," he told Glassman.

Under the eye of Manager Danny Ozark, Rowe has gained enough control to lead his club with an 11-9 record (at last report), a .318 ERA, and only 55 walks in 141 innings.

Earlier this year, he hurled part of the South Atlantic league All-Star game.

Rowe, a pitching star around Northville since the days he hurled for Brader's pee wee team, the American Legion and the Northville Merchants, is 23 and big — 6-2 and 200 pounds.

"He has a fine attitude, wants to play, and easy to instruct," says Ozark.

Will Rowe, the son of Mrs. D. V. Rowe, 18340 Northville road, make the grade?

"As he continues to get more experience and confidence, he will be better and better and start pitching more and more," says Glassman. "This is when he will start up the ladder of success — with the top prize a berth in the majors."

Adams Eyes Varsity At Allegheny College

Dave Adams, all-league halfback for the 1956 Northville Mustangs, is given a good chance to win a varsity spot with the Allegheny college eleven this year.

Adams is a sophomore at the Pennsylvania school. Last year he played on the reserve team.

Allegheny opens an eight-game schedule on September 27. A member of the Presidents' Athletic Conference, Allegheny will be entering its 61st year of intercollegiate play.

It's That Time Again!

STARTERS — Eleven of these 13 Mustangs will open the 1958 season when Coach Ron Schipper's gridders meet Plymouth Friday night. Schipper had not yet named his starting ends and quarterback this week. Above (front row, l. to r.) are: J. Goodrich (E), N. Schrader (T), B. Juday (G), W. Deal (C), F. Mitchell (G), B. Chizmar (T), J. Gotro (E); (back row, l. to r.) H. Crawford (E), G. Morgan (RH), S. Walker (FB), B. Boyd (QB), F. Schwarze (QB) and B. Starnes (LB).

Mustangs On the Spot In League

How long can a football powerhouse go before the roof falls in? The Northville Mustangs will try to prove this season that longevity on the gridiron isn't necessarily limited to a couple of years.

Most of those in the know, including opposing Wayne-Oakland league coaches themselves, say the Mustangs have the talent to repeat as champions for the third year in a row.

But while talent is a big factor, it isn't everything.

The Mustangs have gone undefeated in league play the past two years, winning 12 and tying one.

Many of Northville's wins have been hard for their opponents to swallow, either because the Mustangs walloped them in almost embarrassing fashion or because they broke open a tight game with a second-half spurt.

In any case, all W-O teams have good reason for wanting to get Northville.

For the Mustangs, this means that no game will be a snap. They'll be facing charged-up opposition week after week, and — as was demonstrated last year — even mediocre teams are apt to be on fire when they meet Northville.

Just what teams will be the biggest challenge to Northville is hard to say. Except for the Mustangs, the league has been a balanced, dog-eat-dog affair for the past few years.

But Northville is keeping a wary eye on West Bloomfield, with ace Quarterback John Lucadam back again, and Brighton, which had a green team last year but has lost few key players.

Holly, Milford and Clarkston figure to be about equal, with Bloomfield Hills and Clarenceville still lacking in strength.

Northville, on the other hand, may have one of its best teams.

The Mustangs have lost 11 lettermen, including All-State Halfback Dick Biery and All-League End Bill Yahne. Also missing are both starting quarterbacks from last year's team.

But Northville still has a massive line, anchored by 225-pound Tackle N. C. Schrader who gained all-league honors last year. Back too are Ends Jeff Goodrich, Joe Gotro, Hugh Crawford and Larry Clark.

At tackle, besides Schrader, are Bill Chizmar and Harold Searfoss. Guards include Scott Adams, Bill Juday, Fred Mitchell and Art Fisher.

At center and kicking conversions is Wade Deal.

But it's a different story in the backfield. The Mustangs will be potent in two positions, with Halfback Bob Starnes and Fullback Spike Walker back after a good year in 1957.

At quarterback, Bill Boyd and Fred Schwarze are expected to share duties. Both are inexperienced.

Roger Cheeseman, Gary Morgan and Larry Nitzel — who likewise saw limited action last year — will compete for their second halfback spot, while Jim Strange will back up Walker at fullback.

Except for Starnes and Walker, the backfield is admittedly green. But Schipper figures he'll field a good starting foursome just the same.

The big worry is injuries. If a key man is lost, the Mustang attack could bog down quickly.

All in all, the season is still a big question mark. But the answers will start coming tomorrow night when the Mustangs open the 1958 season against the rival Rocks from Plymouth.

MAJORETTES — When the band starts playing, they'll be there! Northville's quartet of majorettes are: (l. to r.) Jay Ann Wittenberg, Sandy Lane, Sandy Gotro and Ann Parlon.

Watch Your Gun Around Home, Too

It's not necessarily the itchy-fingered hunter in the field who mistakenly kills someone.

The "unloaded" gun in the home is an even more dangerous killer, according to the National Safety Council.

In 1957, for example, firearms helped account for 1,150 accidental home deaths. Half of the fatal firearms accidents happened in the home.

By the Rev. Fr. John Wittstock
Our Lady of Victory Church

WHAT ARE YOU DOING FOR GOD?

We sometimes contact persons who rarely go to church saying that religion and church attendance does not do anything for them. They say that they get no religious experience from being active members of a church group. Such persons rarely, if ever, reflect on what they owe to Almighty God. I may get an emotional dividend out of my investment of worshipping God on Sunday but I do have the conviction that I have given the Creator public worship out of a sense of duty. Again I love to do it because God has showered His blessings upon me, the creature.

Each one of us should realize that the earth is filled with the Lord's kindness. His generosity fills, illuminates and renews the whole world, like the spring-time sun. By Him, the Word, all things were made. By Him, the Word made flesh, all things are being remade.

We have been made "just", that is, pleasing to the Father, by our re-birth in Christ at Baptism. As "sons in the Sun," it is our right and our great privilege to share in Christ's own praise of His Father. By Baptism and Confirmation, we have been given the Holy Spirit to help us to pray as we should. And with the inspired words of the psalms, we are given God's own words with which to praise Him rightly.

One of the principal parts of our worship (mass) is called the Offertory. Most of these prayers in the Offertory were taken from the Psalms of the Old Testament. These prayers give us the spirit in which we are to make our offering to the Good God. They are songs of joy, of joy in seeking God and in finding Him.

So religion might be drab and dull for those who seek spontaneous religious feelings out of their Sunday church attendance. But for those people who realize how much they owe God, who count their blessings instead of "sheep", religion is cheerful and joyous indeed.

Farmington Church To Have Rally Day

James Tesch, superintendent of the church school at St. John's Lutheran church in Farmington, has announced that Rally and Promotion Day will be held Sunday, September 28. A special program is being planned, at which the junior choir will sing. With the formation of the new adult class, regular instruction in the Bible is now available to persons of all age groups, beginning with three-year-old children. The church school meets regularly at 9:15 a.m. each Sunday in the Farmington junior high school auditorium, 33300 Thomas street, Farmington.

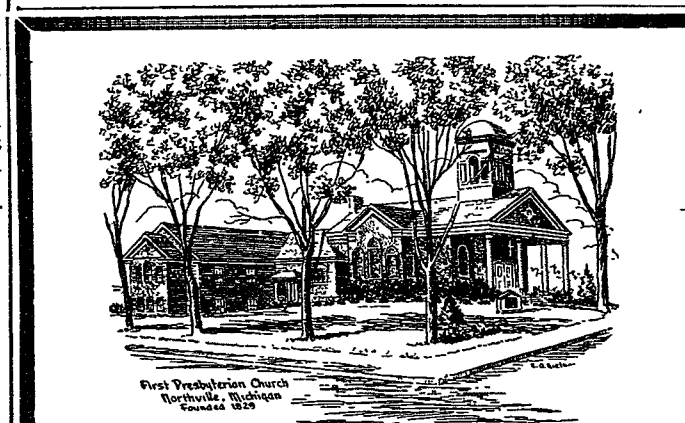

Members of the teaching staff include Mrs. Jack Morris, Mrs. Leo Harwood and Mrs. Woodrow Long, all of Novi; also Mrs. Betty Brundell, Miss Janice Brundell, Mrs. Fred Hartwig, Philip O'Herron, Mrs. James Tesch and Mrs. Melvin Walck, all of Farmington.
Seventy-six persons attended St. John's "family day" last Sunday.
Family day was inaugurated in order to acquaint the parents of church school pupils with what their children are learning and doing. Following the opening devotional period, parents were invited to sit in with their children's class for a portion of the instruction period.

Methodist church Sunday, September 21 at the 8:45 and 11 a.m. services.

A graduate of the University of Michigan this spring, Bruce is now enrolled at Drew Theological Seminary, a Methodist seminary for the training of ministers, located in Madison, New Jersey. Bruce, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ancil Felker, 113 Randolph, will begin a three year program leading to the bachelor of divinity degree in academic preparation for ministry in the church.

Active in Christian groups at Hillsdale college, and in the Wesley Foundation of the University of Michigan, Bruce spent last summer at a Methodist work camp in Calcutta, California working with Spanish American children near the border. This summer Bruce was a member of the Ecumenical work camp at Agape, Italy sharing in a rich experience of work, worship and discussion. While in Europe he visited the Netherlands, Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, France, Austria, England and Scotland.

| 3. To allow us to tackle our growing problems with a single, sound, centralized government. | 7. To acquire and put to community use the fees available to villages but that are now being passed on to county and state levels. |
| 4. To provide services as they become necessary throughout the community as soon as possible. | 8. To avoid a "bogging down" of progress. A defeat of the incorporation move would be a blow to the future development of Novi. |

On Barns, Incorporation and Permits

Barn Re-Zoning Requires Study

To the Editor
Northville Record
With considerable interest I read your Sept. 11 report that Northville Downs has announced it will no longer winter horses in the old barns adjoining the track. At the same time, the Downs is apparently sounding out Planning Commission members on the feasibility of rezoning the new Sheldon Rd. barns to permit wintering horses there.

In making this public inquiry, the Downs is to be commended for its new policy of conducting business in an open forthright manner. It's also conceivable that the Sheldon Rd. barns might possibly be a better wintering site — provided adjoining property owners are adequately compensated and proper limitations and safeguards are established.

It appears noteworthy that of the seven Planning Commission members present during the discussion, three were free-thinking and intelligent enough to ask for assurance that the old barns would be renovated before rezoning the new barns for winter use.

If the Record has quoted Downs' General Manager John Carlo correctly, he strongly inferred that these old barns are in deplorable condition, have inadequate toilets and drainage facilities, and are first-rate fire hazards. Anyone driving by these barns on the 7 Mile Rd. cut-off can readily see that Mr. Carlo has described these barns with astonishing accuracy. And anyone familiar with the history of racing in Northville knows that the state racing commissioner, with his power to withhold racing dates, is about the only authority the Downs recognizes.

If the Downs does make a formal request for rezoning at the September 23 meeting, members of the planning commission should study the matter objectively and in light of the Downs' past performance record. Commission members having either a direct or indirect financial interest in the Downs or the Driving Club should disqualify themselves. And, in addition, the property owners who are affected by such a rezoning should attend the meeting and state their present views.

Incorporation In $ and Cents
I have lived in Novi many years and have seen many changes, and with the potential here I sincerely believe in the future of Novi.

In the past two years I have seen four annexations from the township of Novi. There has been more valuation taken from this township than is left, the current assessed valuation being $10,623,025.

I hope you citizens realize each time we get some outstanding industry or any desirable tax base someone will get the idea of incorporating.

The Wixom Example
Wixom is a good example of this. When you are considering the costs of a village, I hope you will also consider what it will cost each of you as taxpayers here for your share of having Wixom become a city.

Wixom comprised about 6 percent of the population of Novi and will take about 40 percent of your personal property as they are entitled to their percentage of all personal property that the township owns. This includes money, fire equipment, etc. The exact amount has as yet not been determined as a settlement has not been made. If in the future some new city is set up, you will have to do this again with them.

Charter Fits Own Needs
Laws regulating township government are passed by the state legislature, and in the 1950 census Michigan had 1262 townships, which included:

702 townships with less than 1000 population;
330 townships with less than 500 population;
17 townships with less than 100 population;
6 townships with less than 50 population.

As you can see it would be very hard for the legislature to pass a law that would fit a township with a population of less than 50 people and have it apply in a township of from 20,000 to 60,000 people.

As a village you would adopt a charter that your charter commission feels will fit this community. This grants more flexibility to villages that is enjoyed by other local units of government. This charter is authorized, drafted, approved, and put in operation by local citizens only.

The Tax Question
Every community contemplating incorporation is interested in how much the incorporation will cost. The charter you are being asked to vote on is asking for 5 mills. If this is adopted, that is all that can be spread. If, in the future, additional money is wanted, the citizens of the village will have to vote on and approve more or it cannot be spread.

The article by Mr. Koester stating that the valuation is $29,000,000 is not correct, nor is the 20 mills. Another statement a few weeks ago talked of 12 mills. Both are misleading to you. Your charter states 5 mills, and that is the amount on assessed valuation, not on equalized.

The law states a village can spread 20 mills, but your charter does not ask this amount of money. The village cannot spread more millage than the charter specifies.

Township Service Limited
In a township government the amount of tax the township can spread is very limited. No matter how demanding the citizens are for service a township cannot levy more than the county allocation board will permit. In Oakland county it amounts usually from 1 to 1½ mills. It can readily be seen the township cannot provide much service, or a very high level of service, to its citizens with such a limited amount of revenue. The total millage cannot exceed 15 mills for county, schools, and township taxes.

Village Gets Township Money
If Novi becomes a village, sales, and intangible and liquor tax money would go to the village treasury. Although the township board was given approval on a budget for $110,000. This money would go into the village treasury if the charter is adopted. I estimate the total revenue of the township, if the village carries, will be about $15,000 per year.

This, it should be understood will be the total amount the people will be paying the township board. (Under a village government the township board must be maintained as there are certain duties they would legally have to do.)

Better Roads Possible
Furthermore, the village would receive funds now going to the county road commission for maintenance and improvements of roads or streets within the incorporated area. The amount each community receives depends on several factors including major and local streets, the number of miles and the 1950 census of the area. This amount will be increased as a village, and some have asked what it will cost to take care of our own roads.

Under township law, the county road commission does all the work on roads. Regardless of your budget allowance, 20 percent goes into the overhead of the road commission as salaries, insurance, pensions, etc.

As a village you maintain your own local roads but you do not contribute this 20 percent.

As an example, if the road budget is $60,000, this 20 percent would pay for a man and run the road equipment per year. Also this 20 percent does not benefit directly the roads. This amount could be applied on the roads and they all need it. Therefore as a village we could have better roads.

Necessary For Services
A new village and its services will of course require the payment of taxes to provide those services that the people in the area need and which are now available or are performed inadequately. However, the reason for incorporation is to obtain the legal base for performing these services and means for distributing the costs in an equitable manner.

Would Stop Duplication
Unless we have some plan to incorporate what is left of the township, we may eventually have 10 cities as Royal Oak township has. Consider what is happening in Farmington township today. They may end up with eight different cities and villages. I don't believe you would want that to happen. When you are considering costs, think what this duplication would mean to a taxpayer.

Cost Up To Council
In brief, village government can cost just as little or just as much as the citizens of the area determine through their representatives on the village council.

If I have any information that you might want on valuation or taxation, I would be very happy to discuss them with you. Call me at Fieldbrook 9-2444.

Supervisor
Novi Township

Financial Outlook For Novi Village
Due to confusion concerning the tax structure and revenues for the Village of Novi I wish to present an estimate of revenues and expenses in a proposed budget prepared before the Charter Commission could intelligently determine the millage needs for this community.

In general, the expenses referred to in this statement are based on the expenses now being incurred by the Township of Novi with only minor increases for expansion of a period of just a few years.

In the case of the revenues anticipated, individual studies were made of each source of revenue. It has been determined that the sales tax revenues would remain the same as that being received in the township and this would amount to $28,000. In the case of the liquor license and intangibles tax the revenues to the community would be $2,500 for the former and $5,000 for the latter. We would have a revenue from building permits of approximately $14,000 and our conservative estimate shows that the community would receive at least $15,000 from traffic fines. Before considering any income from property taxes the community would receive $64,500 from the sources mentioned above and in addition to this road monies which would amount to $65,000 would be received from gasoline taxes which again would be of the variety not requiring any extra payments from the individual. In considering all of these sources of tax revenue the community would have for local improvement as well as local management a total of $139,000 to be spent at the discretion of its representatives here in Novi. It is understood that the road monies referred to can only be used for the maintenance, up-keep, and construction of roads so that there remains only $64,500 for the management of the community. To supplement this it would be necessary to have a small tax millage levied. This tax levy would not have to be the entire five mills which is the maximum in this charter. It could be considerably less at the discretion of the individuals who are elected to become your council members. The members of the Charter Commission felt that the five mill maximum was adequate to cover future expenses and it would not be necessary to ask for any millage increase in the immediate future.

Our survey disclosed that the expenses of this community would be in the neighborhood of $88,000 and as noted above $64,000 in monies would be taken in by the community before any property taxes are levied. Property taxes will have to be assessed in the amount of $24,000 to balance the budget.

The statement was made by Frazer Staman, Township Supervisor, that the township would receive $15,000 revenue after the incorporation is completed. It seems to me quite clear that the problem of duplicate expenses cannot be very serious financially if the township will only have revenue of $15,000 on which to operate. It is understood that their activities will have to be curtailed to such an extent the Village will have to assume any of the responsibilities now handled by the township.

Complains About Health Standards
To the Editor:
Are we going ahead or backwards? When we got our permit to build in 1952, we had to have 720 square feet of building. A well, septic tank, so many feet apart. (How do they get them on some of these lots today?) We could not live in a trailer house or in the basement, yet in 1958 a dwelling was built and inspected with a floor space of 15x20 feet, electric stove, waste water from the sink ran on the ground in the open and an outside toilet. But that is only a drop in the bucket to what we have had to put up with in July and August, but we are told there is now a health program.

ORDINANCE
An Ordinance, enacted under Act No. 160, Public Acts of 1958, of the State of Michigan, to provide for stopping and passing or meeting a school bus stopped to receive or discharge passengers; bus stopping on highways; meeting bus on divided highway; bus signal lamps.

Section 4. The driver of a vehicle upon any highway which has been divided into 2 roadways by leaving an intervening space, or by a physical barrier, or clearly indicated dividing sections so constructed as to impede vehicular traffic, need not stop upon meeting a school bus which has stopped in the roadway across the dividing space, barrier, or section.
Section 5. Every school bus shall in addition to any other equipment and distinctive marking required by law, be equipped with signal lamps mounted as high and widely spaced laterally as practicable which shall be capable of displaying to the front 2 alternately flashing red lights located at the same level and to the rear 2 alternately flashing red lights located at the same level. Said lights shall be no less than 6 inches in diameter and shall have sufficient intensity to be visible from a distance of at least 500 feet in normal sunlight and shall be actuated by the driver of said school bus whenever but only whenever such vehicle is stopped or is about to stop for the purpose of receiving or discharging school children.
Section 6. The provisions of this Ordinance are hereby declared to be immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety and are hereby ordered to take immediate effect after final enactment.

SPEAKING

for the Record

By BILL SLIGER

If you have had a traffic violation ticket during the past two years, you're a point-getter with the Michigan department of state.

And, under Michigan's new traffic violation point schedule, if you garner 12 points during a two-year period, you'll be up for re-examination and possible suspension of your driver's license.

The clamp-down on traffic violators was explained by Secretary of State James M. Hare at the 18th annual citizenship dinner here last week.

Hare stunned the audience by opening his remarks with the statement that he hoped there would be 1250 deaths on our state highways this year. It was, he added, the further ambition of his department to have 2000 persons disabled for life in traffic accidents.

This would be an improvement and a continued downward trend in state highway accidents that saw 2000 persons killed in 1956, Hare explained.

Until Hare's talk we had little knowledge of the state's scoreboard system. As Hare pointed out it's unpopular to "get rough" with drivers, but it's highly effective in reducing traffic fatalities. Michigan isn't nearly as strict as Connecticut, for example, where Hare says that one speeding ticket results in a 30-day driving suspension and two tickets a one year suspension.

"But Connecticut has the nation's best safety record on the highways," he added.

Here's how Michigan's point schedule works:

- A. Manslaughter—Negligent homicide—Felony in which a vehicle is used—Failure to identify self at the scene of an accident—Drunk driving or reckless driving 6 points
- B. Exceeding the lawful speed limit by 15 m.p.h. or over 4 points
- C. Exceeding the lawful speed limit by less than 15 m.p.h. 3 points
- D. Disobeying traffic signal, stop sign or improper passing 3 points
- E. All other moving violations 2 points

Each conviction for a moving traffic violation is recorded and maintained by the division of driver and vehicle services. Even if your offense is committed in another state the record eventually reaches Lansing.

Let's see now . . . during the past two years . . . two and two equals four . . . hmmm! How's your point total!

Teaching Responsibility

Parents are more than a little concerned that their child learns to be responsible — and it isn't a trait they inherit — but one they learn in the same sense that they learn to walk and talk. Parents who have the notion that their child will develop a sense of responsibility "when the time comes" had better give this important matter a little more thought. The infant who is too young to talk is laying the vital foundations for self-responsibility, or lack of it, each day he lives with parents who are responsible for his needs, whether it be food, a fresh diaper, rescue from the boredom of the playpen or bed, or some other need is laying the foundation essential to the development of a sense of responsibility. He is almost certain to respond to the example set by those who are responsible for his needs and comforts by becoming responsible or irresponsible.

The actual process of teaching responsibility begins in the early weeks of the child's life. The parents can best contribute to the process by being solicitous about the child's welfare without at the same time giving the child no opportunity to solve some of the problems which the infant is able to solve if left to his own devices. The next step in encouraging the child to be responsible for those needs which he can meet for himself comes when he shows the first signs of wanting to take over and do things for himself. These early signs come when he attempts to grasp a toy held up for him to see, or when he tries to take over the cup of milk held to his lips by his mother. These acts are an assertion of the desire to be self-sufficient, to take over, to be responsible.

As the child grows older he seeks other responsibilities, notably those which are accompanied by varying degrees of personal freedom. The small boy insists that he be allowed to mow the lawn without adult interference, and gets more satisfaction out of moving the machine a few inches alone rather than he would out of moving it a greater distance with the help of an adult.

The small girl in the family insists on sweeping with a toy broom even though it delays the house-cleaning job which urgently needs to be finished. This desire of children to take over without interference from adults should be seized upon by parents to give the child experience in sharpening a desire to accept responsibility.

One common failing of parents in helping children to develop responsibility is impatience, the impelling desire to finish the job at hand as quickly as possible and with a minimum of interference. When the child wants to help make cookies, mother says impatiently, "I can do it faster than you can." Dad says to the small boy, "I'll let you help next time. The ball game is about ready to come on TV." Teaching the child to take family responsibility takes patience and a willingness to get jobs done half as well in twice the normal time. But the delay, and irritations, painful as they are, are worth it when the child begins to show the results of his training. It is important that when the child tries to help and doesn't contribute to the project at hand as adults would he should be complimented rather than criticized. If you would teach him to seek responsibility rather than shy away from it, be complimentary about his efforts no matter how meager they may be.

Constance Foster's booklet, "Developing Responsibility in Children" offers many helpful hints to parents about how to teach children to be responsible.

Though child psychologists emphasize the importance of the first year or two in the child's life in learning responsibility, the child actually increases his sense of responsibility until he approaches adulthood. The time to begin teaching responsibility is when he shows the first sign of interest in doing things for himself. How well the child handles responsibility later will depend upon the start you give him.

Annexations, Consolidations Sweep State

MODERN MICHIGAN is in the throes of an almost accidental move to make the city the basic form of government.

Though numerous annexations of whole townships are disappearing inside the city limit signs. For better or for worse several metropolitan areas are growing rapidly.

Flint is fighting in the courts to adopt two nearby towns and parts of eight townships; Battle Creek has elaborate annexation plans; Holland is making news with similar ideas.

The Citizens Research Council of Michigan has urged that the four fashionable Grosse Pointes—Grosse Pointe Farms, Grosse Pointe Woods, Grosse Pointe and Grosse Pointe Park—near Dearborn be merged to provide single services at less cost than now.

Supporting and opposition forces have their own valid arguments. Taxes, of course, are the major issue from the standpoint of every citizen's pocketbook. Annexing to a city area can be quite a tax jolt to either of the groups, but usually the annexed area feels the increase as new or improved services become available.

Local government is centralized by annexation as it wipes out the older basic form of township government. Resentment goes deep in smaller government offices. "But it's silly to have three fire departments when one will do," said Tilden Mason, of the research council.

In preference to annexation, a number of smaller towns and townships are working to consolidate into a new and separate metropolitan or city unit.

Another phase of the problem, most prominent in school districts, is the indebtedness of the annexed and the annexing units.

Cities are generally unwilling to take on the bonded debts of a smaller annexed area. Smaller units are not eager to join bigger areas where the public debt is large and thus help pay it off.

A centralized government in the hands of a responsible executive has been a goal of reformers on the state level for years.

The research council's reports and recommendations to the legislature all have pointed the way.

Reformers won a major victory last year when the sharply-divided legislature finally approved a bill to give the governor power to reorganize the administration.

POLITICAL PARTIES are trying to give the Teamsters Union to each other.

The donation battle started when Teamster Boss James R. Hoffa fell from Democratic grace in 1952. Democrats have since complained that Hoffa wanted to take over their party.

For years, until the 1952 split, the teamsters supported Democrats. Reports show that Hoffa's support still was present for Democrats that year.

Democrats said that Hoffa supported former Republican U.S. Senator Homer Ferguson during his last unsuccessful campaign and lent help to others in the party.

Republicans retorted this year that Wayne County Prosecutor Samuel Olsen and others accepted money for their campaigns from the union. Olsen received $11,000.

A Senate committee in Washington released the list, showing others in the past few years have partaken of teamster bounty to campaign for election.

Governor Williams, in support of a resolution at the party convention in Grand Rapids, ordered Democratic candidates to shun teamster help this year.

Republicans followed the next week with a similar resolution. They also condemned Hoffa's help along with aid from UAW President Walter P. Reuther and other union leaders.

Williams said in his campaign that the Republican attempt to give Hoffa back to the Democrats has been unsuccessful.

Republicans claim Hoffa never left the Democratic camp. They also point out that the only teamsters elected to the House of Representatives have been Democrats. Perhaps no one will ever know even unto election eve just who Hoffa is supporting, if anybody.

Don't Delay Home Purchase - Prices Won't Drop

Babson Park, Mass. — Whether you pay rent, own your home, or plan to build, you are interested in the building outlook. You are concerned, too, with how such costs compare with those of five or ten years ago and you want to know the prospects for the future.

Costs of Building
Land values have stood up amazingly well during the sharp setback met by general business. With few exceptions, land is now selling for as much as or more than it was a year ago. Vacant land well located in relation to the business centers of most cities often commands a premium price, especially if zoning laws permit it to be developed for parking space. Meanwhile, land in the suburbs continues upward in price, as does "close in" farm land. I am bullish about most land. A severe depression could sometime cut land prices, but the long-term trend is for higher prices. Generally speaking, the longer you postpone a given land purchase, the more the land will cost you.

The construction industry is now zooming along in high gear. Despite the business downturn earlier this year, expenditures for residential building for the first seven months were about the same as a year ago. Bolstered by this good consumer demand and by steadily rising wages, construction and building costs are at an all-time high (as measured by an index covering 20 leading cities). Price pressure for most building materials will continue generally firm or upward.

Shall I Build As An Investment?
I am not in favor of building — or buying — residential property to be rented as an investment. Such property is usually fairly high in cost and often does not bring in any very large return. It is expensive to maintain and can turn out to be a big headache if unemployment becomes widespread, forcing people to "double up".

A further reason for steering clear of investment in residential rental units is the tax situation. Local taxes on real estate are heading higher. They will make sharp advances during the next few years and rent returns probably cannot be boosted sufficiently to fully offset this additional expenditure. Also, if war should come, rent controls would be invoked promptly; but there would be no ceiling on taxes!

Shall I Build A House To Live In?

If you need a new house, and especially if you have children who require more space, then I would advise you to build, or to buy, now. Proper living accommodations are important to health and happiness. So if you need a house now, or a bigger or better home, I say build or buy it. To delay such a purchase when you really need it is to cheat yourself. There is a chance you may be able to build or buy for less money at some future time when unemployment may deflate today's high costs. When or if that time comes, however, you may be frightened to build or buy.

For those couples who cannot now see their way clear to buying and carrying a single house, I strongly recommend the purchase of a two-family or "duplex" house. The two-family house, if well located and bought under favorable circumstances — and if you live in one half yourself — is one of the best real estate investments you can make. You may think this conflicts with what I have written about rental residential property. However, I make the two-family house an exception. If you own one of these and LIVE IN IT, you have a good hedge against higher costs and taxes, for your tenant shares the burden with you. Furthermore, your presence will ensure his taking better care of the property than if you were an absentee landlord.

Houses Versus Land
There are two other important points to remember:

1. When you build a house in a good neighborhood, the LAND should INCREASE in value from the day you move in; but depreciation on the house will begin directly after its construction is completed. Therefore, don't be skimpy about the lot. Get as much land as you can and economize on the house!

2. Consider transportation. Although it is easy now to buy autos and gas, it may not always be so. Therefore, I advise building where you are within walking distance of a bus line or shopping center.

MICHIGAN BELL

DO YOU SOMETIMES feel that it takes hours to cook a meal but only a few minutes for your family to eat it? If you do, count your blessings. There are some people who'd keep you busy cooking all day and night. Take the Belgian who once ate 44 boiled eggs in 30 minutes . . . the man from Chicago who put away 77 hamburgers at a sitting . . . the Australian who swallowed his way through a mound of 480 oysters in the hour.

YOUR HUSBAND and the children eat a great deal less than some, you see. Even so, to feed them well, you need to spend a lot of time over your pots and pans. That's why a handy extension phone in the kitchen is such a big help. It lets you answer the phone without leaving your cooking — or young children — to chance. The space-saving, wall type extension is most popular for kitchens. It comes in a choice of colors and costs only $1.10 a month, plus tax.

SCHOOL DAYS are here again, and with them comes the chore of outfitting the kids for fall and winter. Always reminds us of how much the youngsters grow from year to year (especially boys' feet). At a time like this remember there's no quicker, simpler way of buying things than to look in your phone book Yellow Pages to find the nearest dealer. And when you're in doubt, you can use your phone and call to make sure who's got what. Do your searching in the Yellow Pages and save time and shoe leather.

IF YOUR CHILDREN WILL be away at college, keep in touch by Long Distance. If they have a busy schedule, they might not be in when you call — but that's an easy problem to solve. Just have them call you "collect" one evening each week. It costs very little. And that familiar voice on the telephone will be the best cure for the blues ever invented.
