Recount Demanded In Novi School Vote

Novi school district voters approved a 2½ mill tax increase by a meager one vote margin Monday — but within 24 hours, to the surprise of no one, a recount was demanded.

The vote was 202 to 201 out of a total vote of 415.

Twelve ballots were spoiled. These included six yes votes and six no votes.

Superintendent William Medlyn said election workers counted the ballots at least six times and are certain the final tabulation is correct.

The official canvass by the school board was scheduled for Wednesday night.

Early Tuesday afternoon, a recount of the votes was requested by Herbert Koester in behalf of the Novi Farmers and Landowners Protective association.

Polio Prevention Clinic Scheduled Oct. 9 & 15

Joint action by local civic organizations, school administrators and city officials has brought about the definite scheduling of a "Polio Prevention Clinic" for Northville.

The clinic will be held through the sponsorship of the Wayne County Medical Society which is currently conducting a vigorous "crash" program to stem the wave of poliomyelitis now at epidemic status in the county.

The clinic is planned for October 9 and 15 from 6 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. at the community center. Everyone — children and adults, alike — is being urged to take advantage of the $1.00-per-shot program.

While the cases of polio rise in Wayne county, none have yet been reported in the Northville area.

Fire Hits Farm, Woman Is Saved

Thirty prize show horses and a large complex of barns and stables were saved Saturday morning by quick action on the part of the Novi fire department.

Only a small living area was destroyed when fire suddenly broke out at Treehaven Farm at Nine Mile and Haggerty roads, one of the state's top training farms for fine horses.

Mrs. Henry Jennings, wife of Treehaven's proprietor, said the fire started in her kitchen when an oil heater apparently exploded.

Mrs. Jennings tried to reach the fire department by telephoning but could not get through.

"Then the smoke overcame me and I started to pass out," she said. "But our milkman saw the smoke and dashed in and pulled me outside."

Within minutes all Novi fire trucks had arrived and the blaze was under control.

Mustangs Ready to Meet Revenge-Minded Hollyites

Northville will open its home grid schedule tomorrow night against a tough Holly team that has good reason for revenge.

The Broncos, runners-up to the Mustangs for the league title last year, would like to settle a couple of scores.

The last time they were in Northville, in 1956, they ran smack into the Mustangs' most shattering offensive showing in years and dragged home with only a 32-0 whitewash to show for the night.

Then last year, Holly needed only a win against Northville to take the Wayne-Oakland league title. But the Mustangs, in a swirling snowstorm on the Brocos' field, held Holly on the 5-yard line in the final seconds to take a 14-13 win and the title.

Both teams opened the 1958 season last Friday against non-league opponents. While the Mustangs were dumping Plymouth (12-6, Holly was falling to Grand Blanc, 6-0.

But Coach Ron Schipper doesn't regard the Broncos as pushovers. With a strong crew of veterans from last year, Holly again figures as one of the stronger W-O teams.

That, coupled with Holly's desire for revenge, will keep Northville on its toes.

Game time at Ford Field is 8 p.m.

School Sells 5.9 Acres For Cut-Off

Final transactions between the board of education and the Wayne county road commission were completed last week leaving only minor obstacles in the path of the new Eight Mile road cut-off construction.

For a purchase price of $11,759 the county obtained 5.9 acres between the new high school and Amerman elementary school for the highway right-of-way. The price includes a special $100 per acre county sewer fee.

In addition to the monetary agreement the county also granted five concessions to the school board as safety measures in the area. In the sale agreement the county promised to:

1. Install deceleration lanes off the Eight Mile right-of-way;
2. Build a pedestrian overpass between the high school and the athletic field;
3. Erect a six-foot high chain link fence along the Amerman side of the right-of-way from Center street west to the overpass;
4. Improve North Center street from Baseline to Carlyle — this will include drainage, widening and paving;
5. Install traffic control signals where needed.

While the county must obtain right-of-way east of Novi road for the proposed $1½ million cut-off, John Hiltz of the Wayne county road commission said the department was hopeful of doing some grading this year.

Hiltz said there was an "outside chance" that Center street would be paved before the new high school opens in February. "It all depends on the weather and how soon we can start work," he said. Hiltz pointed out that paving on the highway itself could begin in the spring if grading were completed this winter.

"There is so much earth to be moved that if we don't do the grading this fall then we'll have to delay paving until late next year to allow time for compaction of the earth," he added.

The school and the road commission worked out another agreement. Much of the earth that needs removing from the high school site will be used by the county for its filling for the new highway.

The new cut-off is 1½ miles long and will extend from Eight Mile road, east of Novi road, to Taft road at Baseline.

In other school business last week a low bid of $3560 from the Cadillac Asphalt Paving company was accepted for paving an area around the Amerman elementary school.

The five bids ranged from Cadillac's low to $6222.64. Work is scheduled to begin as soon as weather permits.

GRACEFUL NAVE of Our Lady of Victory church which will be blessed in ceremonies next Tuesday evening. Edward Cardinal Mooney, archbishop of Detroit, and 30 priests will take part in the colorful event scheduled for 8 p.m.

22 Northville Merchants Start Parade of Progress

Twenty-two local merchants will take part in a two-month-long promotion designed to encourage shoppers to do their buying in Northville.

The event — to be known as the "Parade of Progress" — opens this week end and offers as its main attraction to shoppers a total of $612 in gift certificates to be given away weekly.

The event has been staged to coincide with the grand opening of three recently-remodeled Main street stores, Ellis Electronics, EMB Food Market and Revitzer Shoe Service.

Under the sponsorship of the Retail Merchants' association, "Parade of Progress" should produce a "carnival atmosphere" to the routine of shopping. Normal purchases will now be accompanied by a ticket which may mean a bonus gift certificate to the shopper. (See complete details on page nine.)

Of the 22 merchants participating each week three will award a $10 gift certificate to a lucky shopper. The other 19 merchants will give a $1.00 gift certificate weekly. Winners will be posted each Saturday and saved!

Cardinal to Bless Our Lady of Victory

The striking new Our Lady of Victory church in Northville will be blessed next Tuesday night in ceremonies attended by Edward Cardinal Mooney, archbishop of Detroit.

More than 30 other priests are expected to take part in the colorful ceremony at 8 p.m.

The church, of contemporary design, was completed last year and has been used for services since then.

Father Lucian Hebert, one-time administrator in the Northville parish and present pastor of Queen of Martyrs parish, will be the speaker.

Father Joseph Schuler and Joseph Schramm, pastors here for many years, will be chaplains to the cardinal in the service.

Father Schuler was the first resident pastor, serving 17 years until 1937. Father Schramm succeeded Father Schuler and served for seven years.

Two other recent pastors, Father Woods and Father Heraty, will be deacons at benediction.

The ceremony will consist of the blessing of the church, chanting of the litany of saints, a brief sermon and benediction.

The children's choir of Our Lady of Victory school under the direction of Sister Margaret Ruth, O.P., will sing.

Seminarians from St. John's Seminary will assist in the chanting of responses sung by Cardinal Mooney. The program should last about 45 minutes.

Dems, GOP Seek Bucks for Parties

Northville Republicans and Democrats announced plans this week for joining in the national "give a buck" campaign to raise funds for both political parties.

The national slogan is "Don't Pass the Buck... Give a Buck... to the Party of Your Choice."

The Northville Democratic club plans a door-to-door solicitation this week end. (Friday through Sunday) under George Bennett.

Authorized precinct workers and delegates will participate.

Northville Republicans plan no local drive, but have urged that contributions be sent to: 17th District Republican Headquarters, 14540 Grand River, Detroit 27. For further information, call BR-2-2093 or BR-3-7276.

The campaign has the support of both parties, and voters have been urged to contribute by both President Eisenhower and former President Truman.

Commission Decides To Air Issue in Public

Northville's planning commission adopted a "let's settle this" attitude Tuesday evening regarding the controversial subject of wintering horses at the site of the Downs' new barns.

Acting under its own authority — without a legal request — the board decide by a seven to two vote to hold a public hearing on a proposal to lift the restrictions on wintering horses at the new Sheldon road barns.

Although a definite date has not been set, the hearing will probably be delayed until early November. Chairman T. R. Carrington stated. Under the law a notice of the proposed change must be published at least 15 days before the hearing.

The Downs' request for the zoning change did not come as a surprise. Two weeks ago Downs' Executive Manager John Carlo, along with representatives of the Driving club and Retail Merchants association, had discussed the matter with the commission.

Planners had to take the action in their own hands, however, after it was pointed out that the Downs' request was not legal. The request did not carry the signature of the landowner (Donald S. Lawrence) as required. The barn area site is under a long-term lease to the Downs.

After a lengthy discussion of pros and cons both from the board and the nine members of the audience Commissioner Donald Hannabarger made the motion to initiate a proposal that the ordinance be amended to remove the restrictions on the use of the barns. It was seconded by F. L. Doran but drew negative votes from George Zerbel and Ernest Ebert. Other members of the commission include L. M. Eaton, Harvey Ritchie, Lynn Sullivan, Harry Wagenschütz and Carrington.

Zerbel and Ebert objected on two points. Primarily, they believed the action for hearing should be brought properly from parties seeking the restriction change (the Downs and property owner). Both also made it clear during the discussion that they "saw no change from two years ago when the board saw fit to make the restriction."

Zerbel and Ebert were steadfast in their position that the Downs had not properly repaired the old barns. "They have allowed the old barns to run down and become a mess. They'll do the same thing at the new site if we allow the change. Why don't they clean up the old barns?" were the persistent statements of Zerbel and Ebert.

A petition containing the names of 34 Northville merchants was presented by Carl Johnson upholding the change. "I'd like to see wintering of horses continue here and not just because it's good for business, but we've always done it," said Johnson.

Alfred Smith, J. Westover and Mrs. Bristow all spoke in behalf of wintering horses at Northville. Along with Commissioner Doran they upheld the character and desirability of the people connected with wintering of horses.

Objections were voiced by Bruce Bradshaw of Sheldon road whose residence is just south of the new barn area. He conceded that some improvements had been made during the past two years in the new barn area but that it "still remains a nuisance."

Basically, Bradshaw objected to the fact the barns were ever built in the area. He said it had greatly reduced property values there. He added that if the land were used for homes the merchants would have more business than they derive from the wintering of horses.

In reaching its decision to call for a public hearing on the matter the board emphasized that this did not mean they (the board) favored the change. Instead, the vote favoring a public hearing, merely gave commissioners an opportunity to get more public opinion on the matter, they insisted.

The conference, which stressed school financing, was held from Wednesday to Saturday. More than 1000 persons attended.

Motorcycle Wreck Injures Two Men

Two men were severely injured Saturday night when their motorcycle sideswiped a fire hydrant, careened out of control, and burst into flames on the Ford valve plant lawn.

Taken to University hospital in Ann Arbor were:

— Walter Knapp, 41, 308 South Wing, Northville, with a double compound fracture of the left leg.

— Bill Weeks, 29, of Ann Arbor, with a double fracture of his left leg and burns.

Both were reported doing well this week.

Exact cause of the accident was not determined.

Weeks' brother, Harold, who was following the motorcycle west on Main street, told police that Billie lost control when he tried to avoid a parked car next to the curb opposite East Cady.

The car was out of gas, and was left with its parking lights on.

But Weeks said in Ann Arbor Wednesday that he had swerved to avoid a car pulling out of a gas station at East Cady and East Main.

The motorcycle jumped the curb, smashed into the fire hydrant, careened for 75 feet, and caught fire. Knapp was thrown clear but Weeks was tangled in the burning wreckage and had to be pulled free by his brother.

Damage to the motorcycle was estimated at $75.

"I look upon every day to be lost, in which I do not make a new acquaintance."

I'M ME! says the young fellow on Charles Kellogg's knee. Twins David and Michael have fun perplexing photographers. We leave it to you . . . which is which? Bonnie Kellogg says that David is the smaller.

Two little bald-headed ambassadors of good will accompanied Charles and Bonnie Kellogg of Park-grove, Yerkess Estates, on their recent move from Plymouth to Northville.

The Kelloggs' identical twin sons, 3½-month old David and Michael, are "frequently getting switched around, confusing photographers, and sometimes their parents," Mrs. Kellogg laughs, but being "just blue-eyed, bald-headed babies," yet their intentions are disarmingly honorable.

The young couple moved into their new home in August shortly after Charles' graduation from Lawrence Institute of Technology. He is now employed as an electrical engineer in Detroit.

The Kelloggs are members of the Presbyterian church and of the Plymouth Theatre Guild, for which Bonnie has done some acting.

Mr. Kellogg's parents, the Harold Kelloggs, are former Northville residents.

SUNDAY CHRISTIANITY

It's quite popular to attend church services these days. We are urged through newspaper slogans and T.V. advertising to attend the "Church of your Choice" and the result is a notable increase in church attendance. Now most Preachers and Church people are happy about this surge of interest and yet when analyzed there is little cause for optimism. It seems to be merely a one day Christianity that has little effect upon their lives after they leave the Church. There seems to be little holy about the way they spend the rest of the Lord's day. Their religion somehow does not effect the way they carry on their business from Monday through Saturday. As one preacher put it so aptly, "The world is sick of Church people who go to Church on Sunday and then curse God and live like the ungodly during the week." There are three primary reasons for Church services. (1) The worship of God by prayer, by praise and the quiet reflection upon His holy Word. (2) That through the preaching of the Gospel, the unsaved may come to know Christ. (3) That Christians may be instructed in the way of right living. This then involves more than the sacred one hour on Sunday. Let's make our faith a seven day a week Christianity.

CONNEMARA GOES AHEAD — Some 17 new lots in Connemara Hills have passed sanitary tests since Novi township ordered a re-test of all lots two months ago. Several septic failures had been reported. Since then, only one lot has failed to pass. Here, Building Inspector Harold Ackley and Robert Goodwin, of the Howard T. Keating company, discuss the latest successful test. In background is one of three new homes under construction.

Northville City Council Proceedings

A regular meeting of the Northville City Council was held at the City Hall Monday Eve., Sept. 15th, 1958 at 8:00 P.M.

Present: Mayor Allen, Councilmen Canterbury, Reed, Stubenvoll and Allen.

Minutes of last regular meeting were read and approved.

The following bills were presented for payment:

From General Fund $36,601.88

From Water Fund 1,302.88

It was moved by Welch, supported by Reed, that bills be allowed and paid. Carried.

Bruce Turnbull, representing the Retail Merchants Ass'n., talked with the City Council about their contribution to the Christmas street decorations for 1958. Mayor Allen informed him that this matter would be considered further by the Council and an answer given in a few weeks. Mayor Allen appointed Councilmen Stubenvoll and Reed to meet with the Retail Merchants Ass'n. in reference to this matter.

Bids were then opened for two deep-well Turbine Pumps and controls.

A special meeting was held Tuesday Eve., Sept. 16th, 1958 to award the contract covering these bids.

The contract for two Deep-Well Pumps was awarded to the low bidder, Layne-Northern Co. of Lansing, Michigan. Price $3062.00.

The contract for the controls was awarded to the low bidder, Charles F. Warrick. Price $1,835.00.

Atty. Ogilvie reported on the progress of the purchase of the Hills property.

Water rates for the Race Track were the next item on the agenda.

Mgr. Robertson reported that he had contacted Hazel Park as to their charges for this service, and he was instructed to get further information from the Wolverine Race Track before a decision is made as to what the City should charge Northville Downs for water and sewer.

Mgr. Robertson was also instructed to negotiate with the Downs about installing meters where the City knows the water goes into the sewer, (as much of the water used at the Track does not empty into the sewer) and that a lump sum be charged for the balance of water used.

Atty. Ogilvie was requested to review the agreement between the City and the D & R Bldg. and report what the city's obligation is in developing the boundary streets.

Mgr. Robertson reported that inasmuch as he uses the car purchased from the Federal Surplus for his business around town, that he should not receive a car allowance, but that when necessary to use his own car for out-of-town trips he should be allowed mileage. This arrangement met with the approval of the Council.

Mgr. Robertson also reported that a man had been hired to police the dump for the profit he can make off the salvage he collects from same. He will receive no salary.

Regarding the Fairbrook Spring property, grass is to be planted on it this fall.

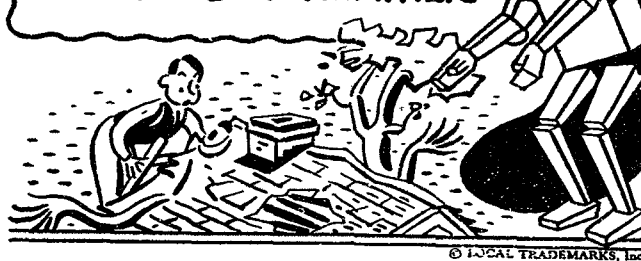

Reporting on the sidewalk proposition on Orchard Dr., Councilman Reed recommended that a gravel path be put in front of the Harry Smith and Warzinskiak properties at sidewalk level. Mgr. Robertson was instructed to see Miss Ruth Knapp about this matter.

Atty. Ogilvie presented a resolution which he had prepared between the City and Northville Downs regarding the River St. property, but no action was taken on same, as it was felt there were points that needed to be clarified before it was accepted.

No further business appearing, meeting was adjourned.

Fined $75, Costs After Accident

Autoist George Urteczek of 12 Mile road, Novi, should have stuck to billiards.

When Mrs. Donna Ann Proctor of Howell stopped to make a left turn near the 7 Mile road cutoff, Donald Moore of Berkley brought his car to a halt behind her.

But the intoxicated Urteczek, coming from behind, ran into the rear of Moore's car, and Moore, following a well-known principle, naturally ran into the rear of Mrs. Proctor's car.

Damages to the left front of Urteczek's car, the rear and front of Moore's and the rear, bumper and mufflers of Mrs. Proctor's automobile totaled some $1500 . . . $350, $950 and $300 in order of attack.

Urteczek was later fined $75 and costs in court for drunk driving.

The last time Mrs. Helen McCarthy, a third grade teacher at Northville's Main Street school, was carrying a regular Monday through Friday classroom schedule was in 1937 when she taught first grade in Northville schools.

Although she has been "subbing" on and off since then, her third grade assignment this semester marks 20 years of changes and developments in the educational system left behind.

The changes have been so many and so fundamental, she observes, that "if I hadn't been substitute teaching and making a gradual adjustment to new methods, it would be more difficult."

Besides such obvious improvements as radio, television, tape recorders, opaque projectors to aid teachers in science, music and art education, changes have evolved in some aspects of teaching philosophy.

Modern teaching has become more pupil-directed and less teacher-directed, Mrs. McCarthy says.

Classes are smaller where possible, and the teacher today "endeavors to meet the child at his own learning level and carry him as far as he can go."

Mrs. McCarthy adds that "there is a greater emphasis on developing the whole child."

Pupils have more responsibility in project planning and organizing under the guidance of the teacher, and now have the chance to evaluate their own learning progress.

"Service girls, safety patrol, future teachers, class officers—these all provide opportunities for assuming responsibility, acquiring experience in organizing, and what I consider almost as important, developing a concern for the welfare of others," Mrs. McCarthy says.

Not all changes have been in the classroom she points out.

Parents too have been "re-educated," she laughs.

Several years ago slow progress in a particular subject, or even failure, was commonly regarded as almost "a social disgrace," she says. Now, parents realize that a pupil might be in the third grade, reading at a third grade level, and doing science and arithmetic at a fifth grade level.

"We've even had parents ask us to let their child repeat a grade," she adds.

She claims the over-all developments in modern pupil-parent-teacher attitudes has been facilitated by the long-standing interest of Northville parents in schools.

"The interest of Northville parents in our schools has always been high, and our administration has always fostered the relationship. Parents are welcome at board meetings and encouraged to come into the classroom."

But one chief teaching thought that has remained unchanged through the years, Mrs. McCarthy adds, is that "for successful learning, the child should feel happy in his school room."

"Not that he needs to be coddled, but he should feel he is important and can make a contribution."

The new pupil-centered approach seems to bring out the best in individual children, Mrs. McCarthy indicated.

Art classes, for instance are less "pattern work" and "more personally creative."

"I feel I am on probation to myself," Mrs. McCarthy concluded, "in returning to full time teaching. If I feel I can meet the demands on the present day teacher I should like to teach a few years more. There is a satisfaction in thinking you have helped guide young lives."

Mustangs Snap 'Jinx'

Northville and Plymouth used the same old script Friday night, but their annual gridiron drama had a different ending than in the past couple years.

Offsetting a barrage of penalties with some outstanding defensive play, the Mustangs finally tripped up arch-rival Plymouth, 12-6, in their season's opener.

A capacity-plus crowd watched a near-duplicate of Plymouth's squeaky 13-12 victories in 1956 and 1957.

As in both those years, Northville outgained Plymouth statistically but never was able to bust the game open. What's more, the Mustangs again left themselves open for a one-point defeat by failing to convert after touchdowns.

Once again it was Northville bulk against Plymouth speed. And as before the Mustangs were their own worst enemies because of penalties. Given a few more seconds, the Rocks might have duplicated even the score. At game's end, Plymouth was on the Mustangs 19 and needed only a touchdown and conversion for a third-straight 13-12 victory.

But it wasn't in the cards. Two hard-charging backs and the Mustangs huge line, which outweighed the Rocks by 190 to 155, made the difference.

Final statistics give Northville only a slight edge in yardage (186-162) and actually a deficit in first downs (8-9).

But 85 of Plymouth's yards and six of its first downs came in the fourth quarter after Northville had a 12-0 lead.

Until then, the Mustangs had handled the Rocks decisively. Through the first three quarters, Plymouth gained only three first downs and 77 yards against Northville's first downs and 165 yards.

What held the Mustangs in check was their own over-eagerness. They were slapped with 105 yards in penalties, including six for 15 yards, while the Rocks had only 20 yards stepped off against them.

Only the red flag and a pair of Northville fumbles kept the score close in the first half.

After exchanging punts with Plymouth, the Mustangs moved from their 21 to the Plymouth 16 in 10 plays, including a 28-yard gallop by Halfback Bob Starnes.

There a Rock interception was fumbled right back to Northville, and the Mustangs had a first down on Plymouth's 15. But Starnes fumbled for a six-yard loss, and the Rocks took over on downs.

After stalling the Plymouth drive, Northville finally struck home. Fullback Spike Walker slashed off tackle for 32 yards and carried across from the one moments later.

Wade Deal's conversion was wide to the left.

Until then, Plymouth had netted a meager 32 yards. But taking over on their 40, the Rocks — aided by 20 yards in penalties — moved to the Northville 23.

The Mustangs' huge line held firm and the ball changed hands on the 19. But a fumble by Walker gave Plymouth another shot, and the Rocks passed to the nine.

Then it was Plymouth's turn. Starting from their own 31, the Rocks — aided by two 15-yard penalties — moved 47 yards to the Northville 12. Then Randy Egloff dropped back and heaved a perfect pass to Al Runge in the end zone.

Northville had one more chance to ice the game when Hugh Crawford recovered a Plymouth fumble on the Rock 15.

Starnes took a statue-of-liberty handoff from Quarterback Fred Schwarze and cracked across into the end zone, but another 15-yard penalty nullified the score.

Plymouth took over on its 25 for one final drive. In 10 plays, the Rocks roared to the Northville 10, and the specter of another 13-12 score hung over the Northville bench. But two last second pass plays failed.

The tense crowd, seeing 20 seconds left on the clock, did not immediately realize that the game was history. Finally it struck home, and Northville fans poured onto the field as the Mustangs lifted Coach Ron Schipper to their shoulders.

Then the huge crowd trickled off the field as the Plymouth band ceremoniously played "Happy Days Are Here Again" in the center of the gridiron.

But on the next play Larry Nitzel intercepted for Northville and raced back 54 yards just as the half ended.

Plymouth tried hard to give Northville a fatter lead early in the third quarter. A Rock safety fumbled a punt but recovered it himself. Then Starnes intercepted a Plymouth pass, but the Mustangs failed to move.

Finally, late in the third period, Northville mounted its second touchdown drive. With Starnes and Walker eating up short yardage, the Mustangs moved from Plymouth's 35 to the 2. Starnes then smashed across for the score.

Deal's kick again travelled wide of the uprights.

Then it was Plymouth's turn. Starting from their own 31, the Rocks — aided by two 15-yard penalties — moved 47 yards to the Northville 12. Then Randy Egloff dropped back and heaved a perfect pass to Al Runge in the end zone.

WO Schedule Starts Tomorrow Night

The Wayne-Oakland league schedule gets underway tomorrow night with a full schedule of four games. Top encounter of the night will be at Northville where Holly tangles with the defending team champion Mustangs.

Six W-O teams kicked off the 1958 campaign last Friday night with mixed success against non-league opponents.

Northville's 12-6 conquest of Plymouth highlighted the bill.

West Bloomfield's rating was raised a notch or two when the Lakers blasted Pontiac St. Michael, 33-7, without raising a sweat.

Clarkston dropped Oxford, 6-0, and Brighton whitewashed South Lyon, 13-0, to make it four wins for W-O teams.

Milford lost in the final seconds to Avondale, 14-13 while Holly fell to Grand Blanc, 6-0.

Bloomfield Hills and Clarenceville were not scheduled.

The complete schedule for tomorrow night:

Holly at NORTHVILLE
Bloomfield Hills at Brighton
West Bloomfield at Clarenceville
Clarkston at Milford

Watch for Rabies; The Dogs Are Bitin'

With cases of dog-bite on the rise, it's a good idea to know how to guard against rabies.

Since bites can lead rabies, health officials suggest:

1. Have your dog vaccinated as advised by a veterinarian.

2. Do not touch a stray dog or a sick one.

3. Have any dog bite treated immediately by a physician and notify the police department of the incident.

4. Report stray dogs to the police department.

BUT THIS ONE DIDN'T — An official informs Bob Starnes that his 16-yard touchdown run from a statue-of-liberty handoff is no good. Someone was detected holding, and instead of another TD, the Mustangs had the ball way back on the 31 yard line.

THE SALVATION OF YOUTH

"Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them," are the words of the wisest King of the East given by Divine Inspiration. The best time for thinking about one's salvation is in the earliest years of one's life. I would give you two good reasons for doing so —

TO AVOID THE PIT FALLS

How we need the care and guidance of the Saviour to avoid the pit falls of sin which would ruin their entire lives on earth. How frightening it is to realize that by just one single mistake the entire life could be marred. A young man driving recklessly crashed into a stake rack truck.
He was convicted of manslaughter and is now in Jackson State Prison. Another young man strikes up a friendship with a bar maid, spends the night with her and contracts venereal disease which shall plague him the rest of his life. A young lady forced into an early marriage because of pregnancy. A young person who takes his first drink that eventually makes him an alcoholic. Yes, young people need the Saviour early in life to avoid these snares.

BECAUSE AGE HARDENED THE HEART

The following statistics gives us the facts —

Nineteen out of every 20 who ever become Christians do so before they reach the age of 25.

After 25 only one in 10,000
After 35 only one in 50,000
After 45 only one in 200,000
After 55 only one in 300,000
After 75 only one in 700,000

Dr. Wilbur Chapman tested a meeting where 4500 persons were present. The result was —
400 were saved before 10 years of age
600 were saved between 12-14 years of age
600 were saved between 14-16 years of age
1,000 were saved between 16-20 years of age
25 were saved after 30 years of age
1,875 in the crowd were still unsaved

The story is told of a geologist who was lowered into a canyon by his friends in order that he might study the rock formations. Each day he was lowered a little farther and then at the close of the day his friends would bring him to the surface again. There came a day when his friends could not pull him up again. The weight of the geologist, the additional weight of the rope and the distance made it impossible to pull him up as usual. So it with the weight of past rejections which makes it nigh unto impossible to make a decision for Christ. How wise it is then to heed the words of the wise king Solomon to "Remember thy Creator in the days of thy youth."

Weather Not to Blame

When do most auto accidents occur? When it's raining . . . snowing . . . foggy?

You're wrong, no matter which you picked. Most motor vehicle accidents, according to the National Safety Council, occur when the weather's clear or cloudy.

The council's recently published statistical yearbook, "Accident Facts", reports that more than 8 out of 10 fatal auto accidents occur when the weather is good.

Infectious Tuberculosis On Rise

More cases of infectious tuberculosis are being found in Detroit and Michigan this year, the Michigan T.B. and Health Society reports, reversing a trend toward decline which started in 1954.

Dr. W. L. Howard, medical superintendent of Maybury sanatorium, commented that families should be reminded that tuberculosis is still a serious disease.

"We've entered into a period of complacency that is grave," Dr. Howard said.

He attributed it largely to "a boomerang of modern treatment."

"Patients experience prompt and extensive improvement under modern drug treatment and think they can ignore continued medical instruction and the admonition of the staff."

"They feel good in 3-4 months and leave treatment early. The average case takes something little less than a year to be ready for release."

Doctors have been concerned about the increase for several months, Dr. Howard added.

"The trend is beginning to show the opposite effect from what we were enthused about five years ago when the T.B. death rate was reduced from 25-5 percent with new drugs."

A large percentage of new cases is among children, Dr. Howard declared.

"In nearly 85 percent of children's cases we've been able to trace the source of infection to some adult with T.B."

"Many such adults have been sanatorium patients who have left against medical advice, knowing they could spread their T.B.; in some cases, it's been almost maliciously done."

"Although 'not all patients are scoundrels' and not all have contagious T.B.," Dr. Howard explained that "several outstanding cases on the hospital record show that one person has been known to infect 8, 10 and 13 children."

At Maybury, which handles all children's cases in the Detroit area, he said, the greatest demand in beds recently has been among child patients below five years of age.

Hospital beds for children are completely filled, he reported, and the problem has become one of portioning out facilities to the best effect.

"T.B. is a serious problem for children," he continued, "while adults can protect themselves against carriers, children might not."

"We can more or less tolerate T.B. in a person over middle age, who has had a pretty full life, but it's harder to rationalize crippling T.B. in a three-month-old child, when it could have been prevented."

Some persons with contagious T.B. are committed to hospitals through legal action, Dr. Howard pointed out. Any person having active T.B. who will not or cannot protect others against catching his infection must submit to the verdict of the courts.

"Patients not committed by the courts can't be restrained, he explained, and very few patients are committed through the courts."

With treatment being paid out of tax money, the increase brings up another issue, he added.

"It is entirely unfair to taxpayers when patients leave prematurely or put off medical care."

"The person who returns after having allowed time for the disease to spread in himself, doubles, triples and quadruples the cost of treatment."

Illustrating the extent to which the problem has developed, Dr. Howard pointed out that with the fiscal year ending June 30, records showed that nearly 50 percent of the patients committed to the sanatorium had been previously treated.

"The delay in legal proceedings gives ample time for contagious T.B. carriers to infect others."

Two basic principles for effective control, the Doctor suggested are: to check spreaders; and to discover and treat T.B. in others before they become contagious.

Besides appealing to patients' responsibility not to expose others to contagious T.B., Dr. Howard recommended control measures of x-ray examination for all adults who suspect they might have come in contact with an infected person, and regular tuberculin skin tests for children.

"T.B. is not a respecter of persons," the doctor concluded, "it can affect persons in all walks of life, and of all ages."

U. of M. Extension Classes Include Seven Credit Courses

Theater appreciation, introductory astronomy and introductions to logic are all being offered in Ann Arbor as extension courses for the first time this fall by the University of Michigan Extension Service.

They are included in a group of seven credit courses which will begin next week. Enrollment is open, however, to those interested only in subject matter and not in credit.

"Theater Appreciation: The Arts of the Theater" is a lecture course surveying the arts of the playwright, actor, director and designer. Attention will also be given to opera, musical comedy, films and television, all approached from the point of view of the audience.

Conducted by Dr. Bruce L. Nary, the course opens at 7:30 p.m. next Tuesday in 171 School of Business Administration.

"Introductory Astronomy" is an elementary discussion of the methods and instruments of the astrono-mer and the results obtained by applying them to the solar system. Visits to the Angell Hall Observatory will be included. Instructor is Professor Hazel M. Losh. Opening session will meet at 7:30 p.m. in 2003 Angell Hall on Monday.

"Introduction to Logic" is the first course in philosophy to be offered in the Ann Arbor program. Dr. Carl Cohen will give attention to the principles of argument and proof, both deductive and inductive, and to the theory of languages and communication and to the methods of science. Opening session will meet at 7:30 p.m. next Thursday in 165 School of Business Administration.

Other credit courses in the Ann Arbor extension program are "Money and Banking," "Personnel Administration," "Introduction to Literature: Short Story and Poetry," "Elementary General Psychology," and "Fundamentals of Speaking."

Variety of Classes Start at 'Y' Monday

Classes down the alphabet from A through V begin this month at the YWCA.

Leading the list are archery, Afro-Cuban dance, and automobile driving.

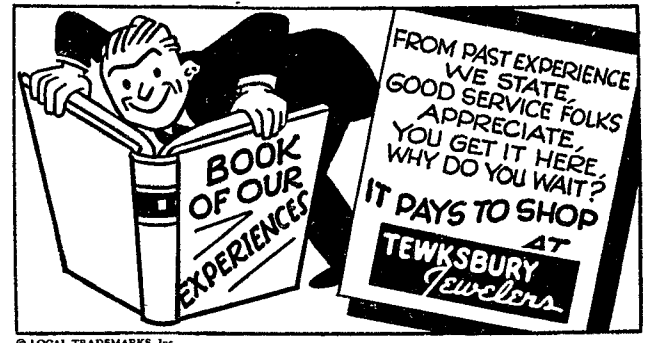

Among the "b's" are bridge classes.

The list of more than 300 classes offered by the five YW branches includes handicrafts such as ceramics, sketching, interior decorating, typing, cooking; and sports such as tennis, swimming, judo, fencing.

Other courses include psychology, how to know the stock market, Michigan law, and social and square dancing, ballet, voice and diction.

Many of the classes are open to both men and women. Some are scheduled for the convenience of home women, others for the woman who works, and still others are scheduled, on Saturdays, for junior and teen-age girls.

Beating the Recession

Babson Park, Mass. — Government decisions, including those determining federal and local taxes, will now affect our businesses and personal lives more than ever before. To prosper in business, we must know what our government is doing on all affairs. We must also heed the Law of Supply and Demand. Our politicians refuse to tell the voters the truth about this Law.

Importance of Commodity Prices

Goods are plentiful today, for the most part. Now that the shortages of war and its aftermath are gone, few people stop to think much about commodities and the Law of Supply and Demand. Many who invest sizable sums in securities — some times nearly all their life's savings — will buy stocks in companies about which they know little.

When I buy stocks, I like to know something about the goods or services which the company makes or sells; to find out what raw materials it uses, and how plentiful or scarce, these are. Knowledge of such conditions, upon which your investments depend, will help you when buying or selling a business, when seeking new employment, and especially when making investment decisions.

Depressions Are Natural

The Law of Supply and Demand shows that there is nothing unnatural about depressions. Those who prepare for both depressions and booms by keeping out of debt and working harder and better will have little to fear. The present recession should be a healthy development. It permits us to digest the excesses of the last boom.

During a recession period merchants should increase their advertising. At the same time, they should attend more strictly to business by reducing inventories and liquidating debt. Manufacturers should recognize that recessions call for a thorough reorganization of their employment and manufacturing to bring them into closer harmony with prevailing supply-demand conditions. Agriculture should keep in mind that freezes and drought also are natural and should prepare for them. There is no sense in thinking that the economy will remain stationary for very long.

Watch Developments Abroad
Recent cuts in the price of aluminum were originated by Canadian producers to offset increasing competition from Russia. Reliable reports indicate that we may expect further changes in domestic supply-demand ratios in key commodities due to Russia's rapid industrial progress. If this increase persists, Russia will eventually be supplying large quantities of coal and oil to all Europe. Naturally, this could lead to weaker price trends in the U.S. and — for oil — in the Middle East. We, therefore, may be forced now to temporarily ignore the Law of Supply and Demand, as a defensive move, and charge certain uneconomic legislation to defense, along with our cost of missiles and other shooting devices.

Russia does not now possess anything like our standard of living. But she does possess vast resources, excellent scientists, and a dedicated, disciplined determination to make best use of these resources and talents to advance her political aims. As she pursues her foreign trade program, changes in individual supply-demand relationships will occur. Some of these will have far-reaching effects upon our entire economy and upon specific American businesses. Think what has recently happened to copper, lead, zinc, wool and certain other products.

Money and Labor Markets

Few people fully understand our money system or the precise significance of labor in our economy. Banks make their money only by lending cash. Wage earners secure their employment according to their services can be used advantageously by business. The ups and downs of these money and labor markets should be governed by this Law of Supply and Demand.

Depressions are usually merely periods when demand, in the aggregate, has fallen off. At such times bargains are available and the bases of new fortunes are made. Truly the Law of Supply and Demand is as fundamental as Gravitation. What a pity it is not honestly and frankly explained by our political leaders.

Laws for Delinquents

DELINQUENCY among the teenagers of the new rock and roll generation is creating new ripples of alarm among the men who make the laws for Michigan.

Muggings, sluggings, robberies, car theft, vandalism — and a chuckle at the rules society lives by: all are too common for comfort.

The problem arose in other generations. Though the case now may have different roots, the problem remains.

A special legislative committee headed by Rep. Harry DeMaso, of Battle Creek, is studying blunt testimony from shocked adults in an effort to develop new controls over the young.

Probate Judge Lee Mallison of Battle Creek suggests a form of "communal living" for teen-agers in trouble. It would be established in their hometowns but out of their former environment.

Mallison, who agrees that not all officials who work with youths share his views, said part of the blame is the attitude of leniency toward youngsters nowadays.

"A social worker, a veteran in the field, told me a boy shouldn't be treated harshly because he only stole a car," he said. "This worries me and I believe it would worry the state."

Dr. James J. Brennan, of the Michigan State University Police Administration department and a former New York City police veteran, has views similar to Judge Mallison's.

Four major factors in the upbringing of a child share the blame if he goes wrong, Brennan said.

They are the family — the basic unit of society — the church, the schools and the community.

If all four are working together and approach their top efficiency, juvenile delinquency is unlikely. "Families have the first responsibility. From the day a child is born, there is the influence of the home to protect and guide him. Those with happy families rarely get in trouble," Brennan said.

Schools have the child in a captive audience for at least 12 years. Churches have the responsibility for the moral tone of every child's character.

Those are recognized waypoints in the process of growing up. Dr. Brennan proposed fourth, the community which can — if it will — control the vice, the type of magazines on the newsstands.

Another judge, Vallie W. Dussia of Monroe, proposed a system of camps, similar to the depression-era Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) program.

This would be aimed at separating youngsters in trouble from their environment and the influences that created their problems; give them constructive work to do.

Judge Dussia said he would appoint a special committee of probate judges to study the problem and come up with recommendations for such a program.

This proposal brought up another problem — the state law which bars youngsters between 14 and 18 from working unless they get special permits from the state labor department.

Youths 14 and 15 years old cannot work after 9 p.m. or before 7 a.m. and 16 and 17-year-olds cannot work after 10 p.m. or before 6 p.m. Work in certain jobs is banned before 18.

The law wobbles between the too-severe and the too-lenient for teen-agers.

The really tough juvenile delinquent under 17 often can get off with a lecture from a serious crime, but the 17-year-old who makes a minor mistake can go to prison with his elders.

Strict laws can send a boy to prison for several years when, the experts agree, a six-month stay in jail could do more to teach him the error of his ways and salvage a life.

Michigan has 21 offenses for which the offender can be sent to prison for life. Generally, the crimes against property are punished more severely than the crimes against other people.

Legislators are considering a number of proposals.

The 1959 legislative session is expected to see proposals for a work camp plan, similar to Camp Pugsley for probationers near Traverse City, a new family court system and a revision of the state's penal code.

Meanwhile, the first work on a new $12,000,000 boys vocational school is underway.

One way or the other, Michigan is attempting to meet the problem of juvenile delinquency again.

Helping the Teacher Teach Your Child

Some misguided parents take too literally the oft-repeated statement of educators that parents should share the task of educating their children; they overlook the fact that educating a child consists of much more than teaching him to read and write. Though the child learns little or nothing about these academic skills before he enters school, he does learn a great deal about home, community, and people which provides a necessary background for the things the school seeks to teach him.

Parents sometimes make the mistake of trying to give their children a head start in school by attempting to teach them to read, write and spell before they enter school, and before they are physically and mentally ready to learn academic skills. The results of this well-meaning help on the part of parents can have disastrous results. The child may actually learn these skills slower when he is ready to learn them simply because parents attempted to teach him before he was ready and without a knowledge of the best way to teach a small child the fundamental academic skills. There are plenty of other things parents can do to help the child increase his reservoir of learning without attempting to teach him skills which he is unready to learn.

One authority on child development states that three important keys to the child's learning are curiosity, eagerness and energy. Parents have untold opportunities to capitalize on the child's curiosity and eagerness to learn. The endless number of questions asked by the pre-school child clearly indicate his curiosity and desire to learn. These questions should provide stimulation for parents to help the child build a background of knowledge and information upon which later academic learning will be based.

The present trend toward either supplementing or replacing report cards with parent-teacher conferences is bringing the home and school closer to a complete understanding of how both can work together in the best interests of the child. It is important that the child look upon his home life and school life as parts of the same experience if he is to make a good adjustment to school.

If parents are to be most helpful in helping the school teach their child, there are some "musts" to be observed. First, they should recognize that they are not experts in how to teach academic skills and leave much of the job to trained teachers.

A happy home life is the best preparation parents can give a child for learning at school. Family dissensions and bickering often create tensions in the child which interfere with learning at school. The child who lives at home in an atmosphere of affection and calmness is almost certain to learn better than a child of equal ability whose home life is disturbed by stormy family differences.

It is important that parents recognize that they have certain obligations to their children which the school cannot fulfill. Helping the child to develop assurance and poise through parental love and the comfort of the family circles is a must for parents. While the child's early education is dominated by the task of learning the fundamental skills, parents must help him develop into a socially developed child through home training. Though the experiences at school will help with his social development, it is still the major responsibility of the parents.

A STRANGER IS IN TOWN

He is representing a company considering your town and several other towns as a place to put a manufacturing plant. But he isn't talking about that. He isn't even calling on the chamber of commerce or the town officials; not today, maybe never. They may never know he was here.

He came just to talk to people along the street and get an impression of the town. It may be a good impression or it may not be. That depends on the people he meets. At least he will know what they think of their town.

He will be influenced perhaps by a merchant, a cab driver, a barber, a service station attendant, a banker — perhaps by you.

Every citizen is a spokesman for his community, a good spokesman or a poor one. Your enthusiasm for your town can attract industry and put money in your pocket. Your lack of enthusiasm will send industry searching elsewhere.

It's just plain good sense to talk up your town, always.

Join hands with your local industrial development organization and the Michigan Economic Development Department to help your community prosper.
