J-Hop to Feature "Four Freshmen"

Many Northville folks, adults as well as students, will avail themselves of the strategically-timed J-Hop dance the evening after Thanksgiving, to cha-cha-cha off a little of that holiday turkey and plum pudding.

Highlight of the November 28 junior dance are the nationally-famous "Four Freshmen" singing quartet, the first "name" entertainment group ever to be hired for a Northville school dance.

The Freshmen will appear before the dance in a one-hour concert and will sing and play for three hours more at the J-Hop.

The remainder of the evening's music will be provided by the Frank Bridge orchestra of Detroit.

Tickets for the pre-dance concert, beginning at 8 p.m., are $1 each; dance tickets are $3.50 a couple. Either can be purchased from junior class students.

Any Northville adult or high school student (grades 10-12) may attend.

Churches Plan Special Services For Thanksgiving

Local churches will again observe the national Thanksgiving holiday with special religious and social functions.

The traditional union-Thanksgiving service of the Northville First Methodist and First Presbyterian churches will be held Thanksgiving eve, Wednesday, at 7:30 p.m. in the First Methodist church.

The Rev. John O. Taxis, minister of the Presbyterian church, will deliver the sermon, titled "Thanksgiving — 1958".

The Rev. Paul M. Cargo of the First Methodist church will have charge of the service and Methodist choirs will sing.

The Harmony choir, under the leadership of Mrs. Wilfred Becker, and the Sanctuary choir, directed by Ervin Nichols, will combine to sing a special arrangement of "Praise Ye the Lord, the Almighty". The Sanctuary choir will also perform "Chorale: St. Antoni", adapted from Brahms' "Variations on a Theme by Haydn".

The Northville First Baptist church will also hold Wednesday night services directed by Pastor Peter Nieuwkoop.

Dr. Franklin Wiley of the Gratiot Avenue Baptist church in Detroit will be guest speaker.

The adult First Baptist choir will perform during the program, which begins at 7:30.

Members of Our Lady of Victory parish were encouraged Sunday by Father Wittstock to attend the regular 8 a.m. mass this Thursday in Thanksgiving for God's blessings and graces received throughout the year. By past indications, many Northville Catholics are expected to attend.

St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church will hold special Thanksgiving services Thanksgiving morning at 10:30 a.m., conducted by Pastor B. J. Pankow.

Children of the Lutheran Sunday school choir will sing "Our Bounteous God" from Psalm 117. Special general meetings of the church membership, planned along a Thanksgiving theme, are scheduled from Thursday through Sunday by the Full Salvation Union Chapel, directed by Pastor James Andrews.

Two assemblies, an annual tradition at the church, will be held each of the days at 1 and 7:30 p.m.

Although no formal holiday service will be held at Willowbrook Community church, Pastor Byron Chapman announces that a harvest home festival dinner will be held at 6:30 Friday at the church.

Teen Dance Planned For This Saturday

The Saturday teen dance sponsored by the navy recruiter will be held this Saturday from 2 to 5 p.m., preceded by the movie "Silent Service" at 1:30.

The dance committee extends its thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Ellis of Ellis Electronics for their donation of two records last week.

Council Ready to Undertake $300,000 Water Improvement

Will Ask Voters to OK Special Bond Issue

Basic economics — and faith in the taxpaying voters of Northville — prompted city councilmen to reach an informal decision Monday night.

Next February 16 — in conjunction with the county primary election — taxpayers will be asked to approve a $300,000 bond issue for the improvement of the city's water system.

Last week the council was told there were two methods of undertaking the long-needed rejuvenation and improvement of the water system.

One method — a revenue bond — would not require a vote but could only raise $190,000 with a whopping $175,000 in interest to pay. It would be paid off from the system's revenues without a special tax or water rate boost.

The second method — a combination of revenue and general obligation — would require a three-fifths approval of the taxpayers voting on the issue. Because this method supports the bonds with guarantee of the city's entire tax base, more money can be borrowed at an interest rate approximately one percent lower. Under this plan the city can expect to raise $300,000. Again, revenues from the water system foot the bill without additional taxes.

Preliminary estimates submitted by City Engineer Harold Penn indicated that improvements required by the system would cost approximately $377,000. This can be pared somewhat, but not down to $190,000 the council decided Monday night.

Meeting with Attorney Stratton Brown, a bonding consultant of the Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone law firm, and Engineering Consultant James Pollock the council became convinced that the revenue-general obligation bond represented the best plan. Both consultants recommended this method.

Monday night the council will take official action. They will also begin studying alternate water-improvement plans submitted by Penn designed to provide the greatest bulk of the proposed improvement program.

Councilmen seemed assured of this much: The improvements will eliminate taste, color and odor deficiencies; Proper pressure and adequate storage will be obtained with a 350,000 gallon elevated tank;

More valves will be installed to allow repairs in case of water line breaks without interrupting service to large areas of the city;

More fire hydrants will give better fire protection;

Larger and additional water lines will give better service and allow frequent "flushing" to clean the system without lowering pressure;

A new well site at Novi road will be completely developed with pumps and a pump house.

Apparently, the council has decided to forego a water softening plant as too expensive at this time.

The council must now hurry to put its plan into action. Approval by the voters is, of course, the most important consideration at this time. While Mayor Malcolm Allen pointed out that "most people I've talked to want us to go all-out on this program," he admitted that everyone should be well informed on what the program includes.

City Office Candidates Must File ??

Filing confusion still surrounds Northville's April city election — but there's a growing suspicion that candidates will have to file by December 29.

Under the city charter, candidates for city office do not have to file until the period between February 1 and March 1.

State law, however, requires that candidates in cities where there is a county primary election must file seven weeks before the primary. So, while the city has no primary, the county does — on February 16.

Therefore, to comply with state statute, local candidates must tip their hands fully three months before the election.

As fair warning to prospective candidates for mayor and two council seats — get your petitions now at the city hall and file them by December 29.

It isn't so complicated in the township. Republican and Democratic hopefuls for supervisor, one trustee post, clerk, treasurer, board of review, constable and justice of the peace must file by December 29. Petitions are now available at the township hall. A primary is planned — provided there are enough candidates — February 16.

HERE GOBBLER, GOBBLER — Raymond C. Honsinger didn't really care who was first — he just wanted some volunteers as he started his annual job last week of preparing hundreds of turkeys raised on his farm at 54800 West Eight Mile road for Thanksgiving. But as usual, he had a difficult time convincing the birds that the axe in his hand was only a tool used to decorate wood blocks. Like other farmers in the area, Honsinger raises turkeys and sells them to area residents and stores during the holiday season.

Mustangs Complete First Perfect Season

The fighting Mustangs wrapped up another league crown Friday, defeating Clarenceville, 45-0.

They tied the victory package with a bow that no other team in recent history of Northville high school has been able to duplicate — a perfect season. The Mustangs have chalked up 25 league wins in a row; their victory string in all games stands at 17.

Records show that there has been no local team as far back as 1930 that can boast such a mark. The best previous achievement was recorded in 1950 when former Coach Al Jones' gridders were tied only by Plymouth, 0-0.

Northville came within one game of a perfect season for the past two years. Both times, record hopes were upset by single point losses to Plymouth — a Class A team.

Northville's undefeated, untied season climaxes four tough years of building football finesse by Head Coach Ron Schipper and his Assistant Don Vaningen. Since 1955, these two Northville mentors have turned out three championship teams in seasons of 4-1, 7-1-1, 8-1 and 9-0.

This coaching combination, which has paid off in big dividends for Northville, had its beginning back in 1950 when Schipper and Van Ingen shared the limelight as teammates on the Hope college football squad.

Schipper came directly to Northville after graduation and coached the reserve team in 1952 and 1953. In 1954, he assisted Coach Dick Kay, now principal of Amerman school.

Van Ingen spent two years in the army after graduation. He coached at Clarkston in 1954 before he and Schipper joined forces here the following year.

Although Northville's head coach has seen several good local teams, he rates the 1958 squad tops. "I'm very pleased with the team's performance this year," he said. "We've had two real good years (1957-1958), but I honestly feel this year's team was the best I've ever coached."

Schipper isn't the only person who rated the local squad outstanding. Recently, the Mustangs were ranked second in the suburban team ratings for Class B schools, trailing only River Rouge. In state ratings for Class B, Northville ranked in sixth position with East Lansing number one.

Several members of the local Northville football team have been selected as members of All-Suburban teams chosen by the three Detroit newspapers. Winners will be announced at a later date.

Seventeen Northville seniors closed out their final season here last week. They are: Richard Ritter, end; Robert Starnes, halfback; Nelson Schrader, end; Jeff Goodrich, end; Larry Clark, end; Ronald Loynes, end; William "Spike" Walker, fullback; Roger Cheeseman, halfback; James Strange, fullback; Fred Schwarze, quarterback; Harold Searfoss, tackle; Talbot Hopper, halfback; William Boyd, quarterback; William Chizmar, tackle; Hugh Crawford, end; Douglas Ware, guard, and Scott Adams, guard.

TESTING — Monte Ellis (left), chairman of the Retail Merchants Christmas Lighting committee, will be given the honor of pulling the switch to light Northville's streets for the holiday season. He's shown above with Bruce Turnbull, president of the Retail Merchants association, testing the new switchbox equipment for the lights. He'll turn them on officially for the first time Thanksgiving night.

Christmas is coming to Northville Thursday evening.

At least the spirit of the holiday season will be brightened with the illumination of some 625 lights beautifully decorated with Christmas greens.

The lighting of the downtown decorations will officially open Northville's Christmas shopping season. Most stores will begin staying open evenings December 5, but a few will get a head start by opening regularly beginning Monday, December 1.

As usual, arrangements have been made for a visit from Santa Claus. The jolly fellow from the North Pole will stroll around Northville's business district and into the stores week days from 3 p.m. until 8 p.m. and on Saturdays from noon until 8 p.m.

Most stores have already decorated their windows for the holiday season. Many merchants have already reported numerous layaway purchases.

Come to think about it, there are only 24 shopping days until Christmas!

This year's Christmas lighting program was chairmaned by Monte Ellis of the Retail Merchants association. For a list of contributors to the lighting fund, see page 10.

T-H-E-R-E-'S A TURKEY — Plucked, stuffed and "zippered", in she goes and everybody knows that she'll come out a king-size Thanksgiving feast for the George Korzynskis (left to right): Mr. Korzynski, Margaret, Joyce and Mrs. Korzynski, their first in Northville.

The George Korzynskis of Northville Heights made it out to Northville just in time to have themselves an almost country style Thanksgiving this November.

As several other new families here, the Korzynskis, formerly of Dearborn, migrated to the suburbs when they found their one-time "suburb" on the edge of Detroit fast gaining the proportions of a minor metropolis.

"We moved off a 35-foot lot on to an 80 foot lot," Mrs. Korzynski describes their motives, in a nutshell.

The Korzynski girls, Joyce, 11, and Margaret, 9, both attend American school, where they are enrolled in the sixth and fourth grades, respectively.

They are also members of local brownie and girl scout troops, and

Mrs. Korzynski has wasted no time lending a hand to an intermediate troop of eighth grade girls, for whom she recently became co-leader.

Mr. Korzynski still works in Detroit, where he is a diamond tools supervisor for the Wheel Trueing Tool company.

Hobby-wise, Mrs. Korzynski likes to knit and sew.

Her husband's talent is woodcraft, and he has turned out lovely wooden vases, bowls and candlestick holders for family and friends.

The Korzynskis, who arrived here in October, add that "the friendliness of Northville folks" has made them feel right at home right away.

Give Kitchen Rules For Safe Holiday

A Thanksgiving kitchen can be hazardous, Michigan State university home economists warn homemakers this week.

Most frequent accidents, they report are falls, burns and cuts.

To avoid falls, clean up slippery substances — spilled water, grease, or foods — at once, and use only a safe step-stool when reaching for high shelves.

To guard against burns, keep potholders near the stove for convenience, and use tongs for handling hot food.

Store knives separately. Never leave them in the dishwasher, and store them immediately after washing.

Especially watch children in the kitchen. Try to keep kitchen traffic at a minimum. Start a little early and never get too rushed to be careful.

Mary Ellen Carroll - George Miller Married in Duns Scotus Chapel

Four bridesmaids in gowns of Kelly green chiffon over taffeta, carrying nosegays of variegated carnations, and the maid of honor, also in Kelly green, carrying a cascade of American beauty roses, preceded Mary Ellen Carroll down the aisle of Duns Scotus college chapel Saturday.

The Reverend John Wittstock of Our Lady of Victory parish, Northville, officiated at the double ring ceremony by offering a solemn high mass with the nuptial blessing, uniting Mary Ellen to George Harold Miller.

The bride is the daughter of the Jerry Carrolls of Farmington, and the groom is the son of the senior Millers of Northville.

Appliques of alencon lace and seed pearls adorned Mary Ellen's silk velvet gown. She completed her ensemble with a cathedral length, Brussels lace veil, and carried a lace prayer book with orchids and stephanotis.

Nancy Spears was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Sue Beals, Eueanie Bemish, Margaret Connor and Lynn Schenk.

The bridegroom chose as his best man, Timothy Carroll, the brother of the bride. The guests were escorted by Victor Miller, Robert Gillick, Lawrence Bemish and Gerald Trost.

Mrs. Carroll wore an empire sheath of toast peau de sole for her daughter's wedding, and Mrs. Miller a champagne chantilly lace over satin. Both mothers pinned cymbidian orchids to their purses.

After a reception at Dearborn Inn, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon trip to Arizona and California. The new Mr. and Mrs. Miller will make their home in Northville.

New Track Location Under Consideration

An "indifferent" track promoting organization, which two weeks ago was handcuffed by a village planning commission decision, has indicated it will consider other Novi property for their proposed track.

B. F. Gregoric, president of the Grand River Enterprises, said his organization is considering other Novi track sites but that it really doesn't care now what happens locally.

Township Prepares County, School Tax Notices

Novi taxpayers will soon be receiving notices of their school, county and township taxes.

Treasurer Ray Harrison is currently preparing notices of the annual winter tax that are expected to be mailed during the first week of December.

The taxes are payable before January 20 without penalty.

For Novi it will mark the last time that the Lincoln plant will be included in its tax roll.

Tax notices for Wixom residents will be sent out by Novi and Commerce township this year, but the city will assume this chore next year.

The township, stripped of its state tax returns — such as sales, liquor, etc. — now that incorporation as a village has taken place, will be completely dependent upon tax levy revenues for its existence in the future.

This year the township will receive approximately $40,835 based on a 1.4 mill levy. The Lincoln plant represents close to half of this amount.

The total tax which property owners in the four school districts within Novi will have to pay for the 1958-59 budgets is as follows:

In the Walled Lake district: $43.86 per thousand dollars of assessed valuation;

In the Lyons district: $41.48 per thousand dollars of assessed valuation;

In the Novi district: $39.16 per thousand dollars of assessed valuation;

In the Northville district: $51.79 per thousand dollars of assessed valuation.

Of these amounts $1.42 per thousand goes to the township and $5.62 per thousand to the county. The remaining tax is for the school systems.

Taxes may be paid at the township hall. Treasurer Harrison will announce hours that he will be at the hall for collections next week.

Goodfellows' Sale Coming Up

Novi Goodfellows met Monday to plan their annual newspaper sale to raise funds for purchase of Christmas gifts for needy children and families.

Goodfellow members and volunteers will sell the 3,000 special editions of The Novi News December 12 and 13.

The organization is seeking volunteers to help sell the newspapers. Anyone interested is asked to call Charles Wallace, FI-9-2127.

Last year the Goodfellows collected $825. The money was used for baskets of food, clothing and toys for Novi families.

Board of Education Acts On Group's Suggestions

TEACHING STUDIES — One of the areas of study undertaken by the Novi Study Group concerns teaching qualifications, salaries, and other matters relating to teaching personnel. Shown here looking over some of the preliminary work of the Teacher Personnel committee are three Novi school teachers. They are: (left to right) Donovan Hanson, geography teacher; Paul Moore, chairman of the committee, and Mr. and Mrs. Gail Perkins, history and sixth grade teachers, respectively.

The Novi board of education has taken steps to comply with several recommendations of the Novi Study Group, group chairman reported here last week.

Study committee reports were presented at the third public meeting of the organization which seeks to improve existing school policies and to weed out those it considers bad.

Of the seven recommendations submitted to the board, three were either adopted or approved, three were tabled pending further study by the board, the seventh is being considered.

Study group members based many of their suggestions on the results of a questionnaire sent out to parents early this year. Nearly 80 percent of the parents replied.

The recommendations are: (1) That a general policy be written limiting class sizes to 30 students per room at the start of a school year.

Board members agreed that limitation of class sizes is desirable and voted to limit class sizes to 30 pupils at the beginning of the school year. In past years, the board explained, it sometimes has been impossible to restrict class sizes because of last minute resignation of teachers and because of a shortage of funds for employing a new teacher.

The board pointed out that enrollment figures of October 8 show an average class size of between 27 and 28.

(2) That students who complete grade work on a subject before the end of the school year be encouraged to tackle advanced grade work using books not normally used in the advanced grade.

The board decided to make available $50 for the purchase of such books and materials. But the board stipulated that the money be used to purchase only materials with subject matter advanced beyond the grade in which the pupil is enrolled. The teacher may make all choices, but the principal and superintendent will approve the material to avoid purchase of materials which are to be used in succeeding grades.

(3) That a policy be established concerning homework — and that teachers explain to parents what kind of help should be given students with homework.

This recommendation was discussed by the board, but formal action was withheld pending further study.

However, Board Secretary K. J. Bernard proposed the following steps to comply with the recommendation: Letters should be sent to pupils' homes indicating basic homework policies of the teacher together with specific ideas on correction, amount and grading. He also suggested the letter contain a clear statement of the teacher's views on parental assistance with homework.

(4) That all written work by students should be thoroughly corrected and graded.

(5) That a policy be established for obtaining of outside help to relieve teachers and supervision of lunch and recreation periods.

The board referred these two recommendations to Dr. William Medlyn, school superintendent, for discussion with Novi school teachers.

(6) That a system of semi-annual conferences for parents and teachers be set up for Novi, and that an open house be held to explain the purpose of the conferences.

The first semi-annual conference in the Novi school system was held October 29. Reports by several of the teachers indicate the first conference was successful, but that response by parents may have been better with more advanced notices.

(7) That land be purchased for a site for the proposed high school.

The board indicated that several members are discussing purchase of particular sites which have been suggested. Money for this land purchase has been set aside from an earlier bond issue.

Board of Commerce Committee to Meet

An executive meeting of the Novi board of commerce has been scheduled Friday for setting up plans for the regular meeting December 4. The board is planning to sponsor several events in the next few months, including Christmas decorations of the Novi business area, a pancake supper in January and a minstrel show in February.

Late Village Payroll Possible

The village payroll of $1,600, due November 30, may be late unless the Michigan Finance Commission acts immediately in approving the council's application for borrowing money.

Possibility of a late payroll came to light Monday at a meeting of the village council in which Attorney Howard Bond reported that action by the commission had been delayed a week because one of the commission heads was called away from Lansing.

Bond told councilmen that the best the village can hope for is approval within two weeks — past the payroll date. Once the approval is made, the council is empowered to borrow the money as outlined under the village charter.

To speed up the payroll machinery, the council decided Monday to request bids on the interim budget from three area banks immediately, despite the fact approval has not yet been given.

Novi's new village charter gives the council the power to borrow up to $40,000 in anticipation of 1959 tax collections to provide village operation funds.

The council earlier voted to borrow $25,000 after determining expenses for Novi — which officially became a village October 9 — would total $69,580 while total income during the nine month interim period would come only to $45,200.

In other action Monday night, the council voted to accept the township's offer to turn over the township hall provided the village assume all costs of maintaining the building and grounds.

Agreements on what constitutes "all costs" and "grounds" are to be completed before the transfer becomes final.

Other council business included the setting aside of seven days as holidays for village employees, excluding members of the police and fire departments. The holidays are: Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's, Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day and Veterans' Day. The village offices will be closed after 12:30 p.m. Saturdays.

Holidays and off hours for policemen and firemen are to be determined by Lee BeGole, village director of public safety.

The council accepted the low bid of Novi Realty company for bonding the village treasurer for $20,000 and other employees for $2,500.

Councilmen also voted to purchase 500 booklets containing the new village charter. A 50-cent charge to the public will be made for each book to pay for the cost of having them printed.

Several other matters were tabled pending further investigation. These included: Request for approval of road surfacing in Pioneer Meadows subdivision, proposals for disorderly, taxicab and plot ordinances, insurance on the new village truck, and approval of general rules and regulations under which the police department operates.

Following the meeting the council will sit down with Kenneth Warren, who has been retained to reappraise Wixom property, to study the progress of the program. Warren appraisals are expected to be completed by the end of December. The council will then determine an assessed valuation rate to be applied to the new appraisals.

In other city business Robert Trombley has been named to take up the duties of Ed Wendt as building inspector and public works supervisor. Wendt turned in his resignation at the last council meeting.

New committee appointments were also recently named by Mayor Joseph Stadnik. William Richards joins the industrial commission, chairman by Wes McAtee, while the newly named road commission is composed of Chairman Julius Nelson, Oscar Simmons, Vern Darling, Sr. and Maurice LeBarre.

Lee BeGole, Novi police chief, said the boy was struck by a car driven by Claborn Alsop, 19355 Fry road. The boy was apparently playing at a neighbor's home and ran from a driveway and into the path of the car, BeGole said.

The township proposal calls for turning over the hall with the stipulation that the village assume all costs, including those for heat, electricity, janitor and insurance.

Any final agreement, councilmen have indicated, would give the township the right to hold its board meetings in the hall.

Mrs. Charles Wallace, village clerk, reported that about 20 applications for village manager have been received. The council plans to begin interviewing the applicants next week.

He was a retired employee of Novi Equipment company, and a member of the Gaylord Street Baptist church in Redford township. Engineer Sincerely Mistaken

An item in the Now magazine tells about a train scheduled to leave Milan, Italy at 7:40 p.m. for Bergamo in northern Italy. 20 minutes later the train pulled into Rogodero in southern Italy. The engineer was puzzled for he knew that Rogodero was not on his regular route. He conferred with the conductor and the agent and concluded that the switchman in Milan had made a mistake. The train was pulled back to Milan and sent on its way to Bergamo. If someone had reported the matter the conductor probably would have said, "Surely the engineer knows what he is doing and where he is going." Well, this one time at least he didn't know where he was going. All of this reminds us that it is possible to be sincere and mistaken at the same time. The Lord spoke of "Blind leaders leading the blind" back in his day. We have examples in the scripture like the Saul of Tarsus, zealous for a wrong cause. How can we know that we are on the right track? This is one test — is Jesus Christ the very center of your belief? "I am the way, the truth and the life, no man cometh unto the Father but by me." John 14:6.

Thanksgiving

Not the start or finish of a year — but a good time to take "inventory" anyway.

Your table will be laden with most anything you desire. If you want it a little warmer, you just turn a little button on the wall. All in all, you are pretty well satisfied with life.

Going to take credit for all of it yourself? I cannot help but believe that we all have an unseen helping hand that gives us strength, freedom and the many blessings we take in a matter-of-fact way. I am sincerely humble when I admit that I don't do it all — and am very thankful to Him for that unseen helping hand that gives faith and hope for the day ahead.

Hope you feel the same way, too.

LET US GIVE THANKS
We have so much to thank Thee for,
dear Lord—
Thy love that gathers us in sweet accord
To pray and praise. For tables richly spread
And blessed peace that sweetens daily bread.
For joys of life that gild the passing days—
Home, work, love, friends. For freedom's shining rays
That spotlight cherished rights to think,
to speak,
To worship as we please. Lord, help us seek
For ways to share these gifts with all mankind!
And hasten on the golden years that find
From sea to sea the battle flags all furled—
Thanksgiving Day observed throughout the world!

NO PAYDAY

The only really poor people in the world are the thankless ones. These are poor indeed who have received great blessing and are still of the firm opinion they have been cheated. A man who has not received, may consider himself poor and rightly so, but a man who has already received a great fortune and feels he is still poor: This man is tragically poor! For him poverty is to be his permanent condition. No gift or blessing can cure his sense of poverty.

Thanklessness is a deep spiritual disease.
It has little to do with the size of the blessing received and a great deal to do with the inner spirit of the heart.

One man's life was miraculously saved

in a tragic accident in his early life and again in a terrible fire. This man had a fine family and great riches, yet he cursed God and held a deeply bitter spirit. There was no thanksgiving on his lips. He had received much, but his heart was unthankful. No blessing could be enough to cure his bitterness.

Another man was born blind and without legs. He spent the hours of his life in discomfort and darkness. He had no home, no wife, no family, and no wealth, yet from his lips came constant praise to God for the sweet music of spring, the warm sunshine and the joys of friendship and faith. Thanksgiving is the spirit of gratitude that finds riches in poverty. The thankless man finds only poverty in the midst of great riches.
There is no payday for a thankless man. A thankful heart always makes a man as wealthy as anyone in the world!

Area Service Stations Win Auto Club Awards

Two area service stations were honored Thursday (November 13) by the Automobile Club of Michigan for their service to Northville and Novi motorists.

Winners of the awards, which commemorated the club's 10 millionth emergency road service call since the service was established in 1922, were Grand River Auto Service and G. E. Miller Sales and Service.

The citations were presented to Mrs. Gerald Hazelton, representing the Grand River business, and to George Miller.

The stations, affiliated with AAA since 1947, were among 372 in Michigan receiving an award for five or more years' service to 6,000,000 AAA members in the U.S.

In 1922, Auto club handled fewer than 1,000 road service calls. Most of them were for flat tires. Last year, the club answered 667,000 calls, mostly for battery and ignition failure.

Auto club aided its 10 millionth motorist November 6 in Detroit.

Father and son, Harley and Bob Cole of South Center street, returned from hunting last week with one deer apiece.

NEWS FROM THE AMERICAN LEGION

REX HOLLOMAN — REPORTER

Veterans' benefits, which will cost slightly more than $5 billion this fiscal year, are one of the big spending items in the federal budget.

After once again scanning the Bradley Commission recommendations which the President has had for over two years, and considering the separate budget items of the Veterans' Administration, we surmise that compensation, pensions and hospitalization were the main subjects. These programs reflect about 80 percent of the VA's budget. Personnel and general administration costs no doubt were in focus.

What are some of the plans for reducing veterans' program costs that have previously been suggested? The Bradley Commission, when all niceties are removed, advocates eventual elimination of non-service-connected pensions on the basis that social legislation has advanced so far as to make much of the non-service-connected pension program unnecessary. The commission suggests that such pensions only be considered as a "reserve line" to be used in cases where veterans are destitute and have little or no entitlement to social insurance or old-age assistance. It is the position of the Bradley commission that a total benefit of $70 per month should suffice for a single veteran, and $105 if he has a wife. The commission would also tighten up on widows' and orphans' non-service-connected death pension.

Several proposals to reduce service-connected disability compensation costs have also been made. Initially (it is going on now) there would be a review of all such cases with a view toward reductions and eliminations. Another plan is to change basic law and authorize reduction or elimination of compensation on the basis of the veterans' ability to earn his own living in spite of his disability. In other words, they would gear compensation to employment — a procedure that the Congress of 1917 said would never be done. Still another proposal is to eliminate the 10 and 20 percent cases by paying them off in a lump sum.

In the matter of hospitalization the admission of non-service-connected cases to VA hospitals has been under attack for a long time by powerful groups in and out of government. They would remove the reasonable limitations now prevailing and make non-service-connected hospitalization available only to those who are "down and out". That is how they would save federal hospitalization costs.

When you say "I Am An American Legionnaire" it means — deep in your heart, you have a very real concern for the welfare of disabled veterans and the dependants of deceased veterans. Join your American Legion now!

Mr. and Mrs. John Angell will entertain in their new home on Meadowbrook road Thanksgiving day. Guests will include Mrs. Harriet Angell and Miss Ruth Angell of West Cady street, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Campbell and son, Thomas M. of Wing court, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell and son, Robbie, of Livonia and Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacGaffin and son, James, of Detroit.

BACK IN VENEZUELA — Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Kerr and daughter, Sara Jane, were recent Northville visitors at the home of Keer's mother, Mrs. Bertha Kerr, 211 West Cady. They have returned to Amuay, Venezuela where Kerr is a laboratory technician with the Creole Petroleum corporation, one of the world's largest producers of oil.

Baptists Plan Potluck Supper

Mrs. Charles Ware — Market 4-1601

Saturday evening the church helpers of the Wixom Baptist church are having a planned pot-luck supper. This dinner is to spark the kick-off of the bond drive which will be conducted to enable the building of a new church on Wixom and Maple roads. The guest speaker will be Dr. John Drummond of the Baptist Covenant church. John V. Williams of Memphis, Tennessee will also speak. The Baptist church has owned the land on Wixom and Maple roads for some time.

Last Sunday the Hickory Hills Civic association planted a permanent Christmas tree donated by McCoy Craig of Hickory Hills golf course. The tree was planted on the VFW grounds and is wired for lighting.

Thursday evening the newly formed Walled Lake-Wixom Lions club met at the VFW hall in Hickory Hills. Robert Merkle is the president. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Sorensen are spending a week in Washington, D.C. with Mrs. Sorensen's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Bruning. Some more lucky deer hunters are J. P. Bill Welke, his four sons and a nephew. Each bagged a deer at Beaver island. They were on the island at the time of the sinking of the S.S. Carl Bradley and the boys had to fly back because of the storm. Bill stayed behind with the truck and six deer and proudly drove them home when the weather subsided.

During the Welke stay on the island, Mrs. Welke visited her daughter at Port Sanilac. Jim Robinson got his deer at Iron Mountain and Dick Robinson shot a spike-horn, totaling three deer for the Robinson family. Cyril Abbott snared his deer in Rose City, a four-pointeer. Last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chambers attended the dedication of the new "Kirk in the Hills" church. The Rev. Harold DeWendt read the dedication. Mrs. LaRue Bogart is still in Sessions hospital in Northville. The city council will meet Wednesday evening instead of Thursday. Bill Luch and John Ware spent the week end at Harrison. Monday evening Hilda Furman with a group of five from Milford attended a concert given by Jerome

Open New Benefits In Social Security

The Social Security Administration has announced that it is trying to reach about 400,000 people who may be eligible for payments under the 1958 amendments to the social security law.

An intensive effort is being made by the Bureau of Old Age and Survivors Insurance, locally and nationally, to reach the newly-eligibles and inform them that claims must be filed before benefits can start.

The 1958 amendments extend social security benefits to many people who were formerly denied and to others who are newly-eligible.

For example, people now receiving disability insurance benefits were notified in October that changes have been made which may mean cash benefits for disabled children, young wives with children in their care, and wives age 62 or over.

To be eligible such dependents must file application.

Holiday Dinners Take Planning

The Northville Record

THE OLDEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY — EST. 1868 Wednesday, November 20, 1958—11

Howard and Agnes Mitchell, proprietors of the Northville Old Mill restaurant, have whipped up thousands of turkey dinners like clockwork.

Their restaurant, noted here for its Sunday turkey special, served 250 gobble plates last Mothers' day alone.

But in their years of cooking experience at home and in business, the Mitchells can recall no major resistance from one of their birds or menus to shape up properly, explaining that it's all a simple matter of careful planning.

Planning itself, though, has undergone a big change during the past few decades, they point out, with the emphasis today on efficiency and dispatch.

"The old family custom of working for days in advance for a Thanksgiving or Christmas dinner at home has largely been abandoned," Mr. Mitchell says, "for most families, taking all morning or afternoon — or both — to make the meal, and then washing dishes all evening 'is no way to spend a holiday'."

The time when families spent days, weeks — and counting the plum pudding and fruit cake — months readying the holiday meal are gone, Mrs. Mitchell adds.

Allowing for that last stronghold of tradition, the plum pudding, modern homemakers, the Mitchells say, can cut down "fixing time" to hours and still enjoy a sumptuous meal with use of a few well placed short cuts.

Some suggestions: make the stuffing or dressing a day ahead; buy rather than make your own rolls and mince meats; use canned onions and ready-made pie crust mix; prepare the plum pudding the week end before the meal.

"The commonest mistake people make is not getting a head start," Mrs. Mitchell says.

As for deciding the quality of the meal, the Mitchells agree that next to getting a good "firm and plump" turkey, stuffing is most important, with gravy running a close third.

Compromise seems to be the guide to selecting most holiday menus. Favorite menus are largely an individual matter, they explain, and have as many variations from choice of fowl right down the line.

The Mitchells' recommended "typical" menu, time-tested to please almost anyone follows:

Tomato-Clam Juice Cocktail

Celery hearts — ripe and stuffed olives — carrot sticks, roast turkey — sausage and chestnut stuffing — giblet gravy. mashed potatoes — buttered green peas — steamed acorn-squash rings — creamed onions — cranberry-orange relish — whole cranberry sauce — hot rolls and butter — mince pie — plum pudding with brandy hard sauce — cider — fruit — nuts — coffee

Tomato-Clam Juice Cocktail

Mix one can tomato juice with three bottles clam juice, one teaspoon of both horseradish and Worcestershire, juice of one lemon, and a dash of tabasco.

Roast Turkey

Preferably select a turkey that is oven ready, dressed and cleaned. Rub the neck and body cavities with salt, pepper and flour. Spread butter over the breast and legs. Lightly fill body cavity with stuffing. Sew up cavity. Tie legs together with string. Lightly stuff neck cavity, and draw neck skin over cavity to the back, fastening with a skewer. Fasten wings behind back. Roast in a slow oven (325 degrees) until the drumsticks can be moved up and down easily, then remove and put bird on a large platter. Let stand about 20 minutes while gravy is being made. Decorate drumsticks with paper frills.

The Michigan State university extension service recommends allowing three hours roasting time for a four-pound Beltsville turkey, four hours for an 8-pounder, five hours for a 12-pounder, six hours for a 16-pounder, and 7½ hours for a 20-pound bird. Allow about 1 cup of dressing for each pound of turkey at ready-to-cook weight.

Stuffing

For success of the basic celery-onion stuffing, the Mitchells advise that you use only day-old bread, no rye or whole wheat.

Saute the celery and onions in sausage or bacon drippings, add a few fresh eggs, salt and pepper. Moisten the bread or else, pour sauted celery and onions with stock and water over bread crumbs and toss lightly. Guide proportions by remembering to avoid making stuffing too soggy.

Giblet Gravy

Wash giblets. Cook neck, heart and gizzard about two hours in boiling, salted water with a bay leaf, onion and a few celery leaves added. Add liver during the last 20 minutes. Drain and save stock. Remove meat from neck and grind or chop with giblets. To make gravy, pour drippings from roasting pan into bowl. Skim off fat and put one-half-cup fat into saucepan. Blend in ¼ cup flour. Measure skimmed drippings and add enough stock or water to make six cups. Cook fat and flour until it boils. Add liquid all at once and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Add giblets and season.

Cranberry-Orange Relish

For eight servings. Pick over and wash three cups cranberries. Cut one large orange in half. Squeeze and reserve juice. Put rind through food chopper with cranberries. Add one cup sugar, three tablespoons honey and reserved orange juice. Mix well.

Plum Pudding

¾ cup seeded raisins
¾ cup seedless raisins
½ cup diced citron
½ cup chopped nuts
1 cup sifted flour
½ pound suet ground
½ cup sugar
2 eggs, separated
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon double acting baking powder
1½ teaspoons cinnamon
¾ teaspoon each allspice and cloves
½ teaspoon nutmeg
¼ cup brandy, cider or fruit juice

Cut seeded raisins into small bowl, add seedless raisins, citron and nuts. Add half the flour and mix well. In large bowl, mix suet with sugar and add beaten egg yolks, then fruit and nut mixture. Sift remaining flour with salt, baking powder and spices and add to the first mixture. With the ¼ cup liquid. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Grease and flour a 5-cup pudding mold; grease and flour cover. Pour in mixture and cover. Coffee cans if

FOR A PIONEER APPETITE — Though both of Canadian birth, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mitchell, owners of the Old Mill restaurant, have been preparing turkey dinners in Northville since 1947. Nova Scotian Mrs. Mitchell, pictured here, learned the art of holiday cooking when she was a girl, and when such meals were week-long productions at least. Mr. Mitchell, from Saskatchewan, selects the Old Mill menus, and is no mean cook himself.

HERE'S A VARIETY OF MRS. MITCHELL'S FAVORITE DRESSING RECIPES

BRAZIL NUT STUFFING — Add chopped Brazil nuts in the ratio of 1 cup to each 6 cups of stuffing.

OYSTER STUFFING — Add 2 cups of drained and chopped oysters to each 6 quarts of bread crumbs.

SAUSAGE STUFFING — Add 1 pound brown-and-serve sausage, cut in small pieces, to 20 cups of stuffing.

WESTERN FRUIT STUFFING — To each 6 cups of stuffing, add 1 cup dried peaches or apricots, cut in pieces.

WILD RICE STUFFING — To each 6 cups of stuffing, add ½ cup wild rice, boiled in salted water.

CHESTNUT STUFFING — To each 10 cups of stuffing, add 1 pound chestnuts. Cover chestnuts half way with water, add salt and bay leaf. Cover and cook 20 minutes. Pour off water; put chestnuts back on heat to dry. Remove peel and skin. Chop coarsely.

ORANGE-RICE STUFFING — For duck or other game. Cook 1 cup celery with leaves in ½ cup margarine for 4 minutes. Add 1 small onion, minced; 1 cup water, ¼ cups orange juice, 2 tablespoons grated orange rind, pinch of black pepper. Bring to boil. Add 2 cups packaged pre-cooked rice and mix just to moisten. Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 15 minutes.

MUSHROOM AND GIBLET STUFFING — Sauté ½ pound sliced mushrooms along with onions and celery tops. Add the cooked giblets and neck meat from one turkey to the recipe.

CELERY-ALMOND STUFFING — For each 6 cups of stuffing add ½ cup toasted blanched almonds.

PENNSYLVANIA DUTCH STUFFING — Prepare 6 cups stuffing as follows: beat 2 eggs and 2 cups milk together and pour over one quart of stale bread cubes. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Stir in 1½ cups mashed potatoes, 1 minced onion and ½ cup finely cut celery. Melt ¼ cup margarine in skillet. Add stuffing and cook 10 minutes, stirring frequently. Use for poultry while still hot.

MINT STUFFING — To each 6 cups stuffing, add 1 cup chopped fresh mint or 2 tablespoons dried mint.

SHRIMP STUFFING — To 6 cups regular dressing add ½ pound chopped shrimp and the juice of half a lemon.

CORN BREAD STUFFING — Cook chopped onions and 4 tablespoons chopped celery in ½ pound margarine until light brown. Add a few sprigs of chopped parsley, 4 cups corn bread crumbs or cubes, 1 teaspoon poultry seasoning, dash of thyme, salt and pepper to taste. Mix well.

caved, make fine molds. Cover with several layers of wax paper. Put mold in a deep kettle. Add boiling water to come up half-way on container. Cover kettle and steam 3 hours. Add more water if necessary. Unmold pudding and serve with brandied hard sauce.

Brandy Hard Sauce

Cream 2/3 cup butter. Add ¼ cup brandy and 2 cups sifted confection-ers sugar. Beat until fluffy, and chill. Sprinkle with nutmeg if desired.

For a table centerpiece, Mrs. Mitchell suggests a favorite from her childhood — free arrangement of colorful fruits — pineapple, oranges, grapes, nuts and apples, complemented by a formal "cinner" service, individual place mats and candlelight. About carving, usually acknowledged the man's job, Mr. Mitchell offers a few tips: be sure the knife is sharp enough for easy slicing; remove drumsticks and wings first.

Notwithstanding their culinary abilities, but somewhat expectedly, the Mitchells will close shop Thanksgiving day, and dine out, at a restaurant, of course.

RECAP OF MUSTANGS' PERFECT SEASON

Coach Ron Schipper's championship football squad can look to their defeat of Plymouth in the opening game as the highlight of Northville's perfect season. The Mustangs snapped the nemesis' jinx in a 12-6 thriller.

A capacity-plus crowd watched a near-duplicate of Plymouth's squeaky 13-12 victories in 1956 and 1957. Northville gridders took an early 6-0 halftime lead on a 39-yard gallop by Fullback Spike Walker. Halfback Bob Starnes padded the score in the third quarter crashing over the magic line from the two. Wade Deal's two conversion attempts failed.

Until then, the Mustangs handled the Rocks decisively. Through the first three quarters, Plymouth gained only three first downs and 77 yards against Northville's first downs and 165 yards.

Smarting from the first half beating, Plymouth started a drive in the third quarter from their own 31, which ended with a 12-yard-touchdown pass. The kick was wide.

Not satisfied, the Rocks electrified the crowd in the final quarter by roaring to the Northville 10. The specter of another 13-12 score hung over the Northville bench. But the explosive drive was too late.

Happy Northville fans had a hint of things to come when the Plymouth band struck up "Happy Days Are Here Again" as the game ended.

Northville vs. Holly
The Mustangs had little difficulty in dumping the Broncos 26-6 in Northville's first league contest.

But for the performance of a then unseasoned Mustang, Northville may have been handed its first league loss in three years. Larry Nitzel, a 158-pound scatterback who carried the ball only seven times as a sophomore last year, scored twice on dashes of 17 and 38 yards, set up another touchdown on a 32-yard punt return, and hauled back three more punts for a total of 43 yards.

Northville vs. Bloomfield Hills
While the Mustangs' awesome defense was holding Bloomfield in check, Northville's backs swept methodically downfield four times for a solid 28-0 win over the Barons.

Defensively, the Mustangs were at their best. Bloomfield penetrated foreign ground only three times — to the 47, the 48 and the 24 — and gained only 60 yards on offense except for two fourth quarter drives against Northville's reserves.

Northville vs. Milford
Backing up 20 points in the first quarter, the Mustangs picked up points periodically through the rest of the game to crush Milford 34-6 on the opponent's gridiron.

Starnes, Nitzel and Walker divided the scoring with Starnes and Nitzel picking up two touchdowns each. Wade Deal was successful in four out of five extra point attempts.

Northville vs. West Bloomfield
The fighting Mustangs had to fight off a second-half West Bloomfield threat and an over-confidence bug in eeking out a 27-26 victory.

Fired up in the first half, Northville grabbed a 20-6 intermission lead and then had to hang on desperately to win.

A capacity homecoming crowd — perhaps the largest ever to witness a game at Ford field — sat glued to the stands until the final whistle.

When it was all over, it was the accurate toe of Center Deal which spelled out the difference in the score. Splitting the uprights on three of four attempts, Deal kept Northville's perfect season intact.

Northville vs. Brighton
The Mustangs had to overcome an added obstacle in their battle with Brighton: a mud-soaked field.

But despite the intermittent, sometimes heavy rains, Northville ran and passed as though it were a sunny afternoon, winning 26-0.

Northville picked up 115 yards passing and 297 yards rushing for a total offensive of 412 yards. The Mustang defensive unit held Brighton to a total of 88 yards on the ground and in the air.

Starnes and Walker led the Mustangs' offense. Starnes ran beautifully to score three times, his longest effort a smartly executed "Statue of Liberty" good for 84 yards.

Northville vs. Clarkston
Displaying near-perfect football both offensively and defensively, Northville rolled to an easy 47-0 win over Clarkston.

Northville's performance prompted Coach Schipper to praise his squad: "This is really what makes them great. They all like to play ball — Friday night they ran, blocked and tackled viciously."

Significant in the win was the fact that Northville wasn't forced to punt all evening. They rushed the Clarkston kicker consistently, resulting in a 13.6-yard average for seven punts.

Northville vs. Howell

With their first perfect season only two games away, the title-hungry Mustangs gobbled up How-ell's football squad in a 53-7 feast. Except for the goal posts, everything on the gridiron seemed to fall before the hard-driving Northville players.

Perhaps the most exciting play of the game was a 97-yard gallop into the end zone by Starnes. But the touchdown was nullified by a Northville penalty. Two plays later, however, he broke loose again and dashed 88 yards.

Mike Janchick, Northville halfback, was carried from the field after suffering a torn knee cartilage. He was hospitalized for a day, and was unable to play in the last game.

Dads Shouldn't be Pals

A common notion among fathers of young boys is that they should try to be a "pal" to them. Most of them don't really mean to be a pal in the true sense of the word but think they should spend some time doing the things boys like to do with their son. Fathers usually begin the father-son relationship when the boy is barely big enough to stack blocks and continue it on the do-it-together basis until the boy begins to show a preference for the company of boys his own age.

The wise father shares his boy's activities as a father rather than as a pal. He is careful to see that his son respects him as a father, as a more mature person who knows how to enforce the rules of games played together with fairness and firmness. One of the obvious signs of the pally father is always allowing the small boy to win all competitive games played with father. While allowing the small fry to win his share of victories, or a little more, will do no harm, teaching him that he must always win by letting him do it is hardly designed to prepare him to lose to boys of his own age as he must sometimes do when both are honestly striving to win.

The father who insists on being a pal has never learned that his small son doesn't want to play games or take part in sports with a grown man who behaves like his friends in the group. He accepts small behavior from his friends as okay, but he wants to feel that his father is a grown man who can take over any knotty situation which may arise in the group of boys and straighten it out. He wants to feel, too, that his father is not trying to be a member of the boy group even though he plays baseball, football, or some other athletic game with them. Much of his respect for his father is based upon the knowledge that a man is somehow more self-sufficient and grown-up than are small boys; he gets a comfortable kick out of the unshakable belief that his father is the best athlete, the best musclemen, the smartest father in the whole country, to say nothing of his rank above other fathers in the neighborhood.

The pally father indulges in adolescent behavior because he honestly thinks it is expected of him, or because he thinks it is the best way to strengthen his personal bonds with his boy. He thinks Junior looks up to him for having the courage to sneak into private property and take fish from a lake which sports a huge "no fishing" sign. He plays touchball with the boys and encourages Junior to inch the ball forward a few inches while the opposition is in a huddle. Unfortunately, he hasn't learned that out of these small incidents, harmless as they may seem, big lessons are learned, lessons which may seriously color the attitudes and habits of a boy who is in the most impressionable and formative years of his life.

Even though all small children sometimes revolt at the presence of standards, they want the comfort of knowing that reasonable rules are for their own good and will be enforced for that reason. Pally behavior which puts Dad on Junior's level is never good. The father's place in the family is as head of the house and as an adult when he takes part in the activities of children. The pally parent might stop and imagine himself having a temper tantrum when the child knocks over a stack of blocks he has tediously constructed. Most pally behavior is about of this same level.

There's Still Hope for Republicans

Babson Park, Mass. — While I was on the ocean returning from Africa, an important Congressional election took place. In looking over the newspaper headings I find they range from "A blow to Eisenhower" to "The GOP is dead". Of course, the election is a great disappointment to Mr. Eisenhower; but my statistics show that the GOP got 44 percent of the national vote. This is not too bad.

When the Democratic Party Was "Dead"

Let me answer the second comment with a personal story. When I was assistant secretary of labor during World War I, I became well acquainted with Cordell Hull, who later became secretary of state. After the death of President Wilson, followed by the Republican landslide, Mr. Hull had no official position, but was chairman of the defunct Democratic committee. Before leaving Washington I called on the man who was later to become secretary of state. I found him in a tiny office of the Press building. When I asked how things were going, he showed me a letter from the owners of the building stating that the rent of the office was over three months due and that, unless they received $50 immediately, Mr. Hull must get out. In regard to Mr. Hull I took $50 from my pocket and gave it to him for the rent.

I thought no more about this until I received an invitation to a dinner for the purpose of reviving the Democratic party. Even then I thought nothing about it until Mr. Hull called me to the platform and introduced me to the audience as "Roger W. Babson, who saved the Democratic party." He then told the above story. This was only a few years before the Democratic party again swept the country and elected Franklin D. Roosevelt, who had it under control for going on four terms. The same situation could easily repeat itself for the GOP.

Russia Must Be Happy

As I have mentioned in my column many times, do not expect a shooting war. I believe, however, that Russia has planned an intensive economic war and that the recent recession marked the beginning of it. Even today, though feeling is much better in this country, we have statistically a large number of unemployed. Therefore, our drift toward inflation and socialism must make Russia very happy.

Unfortunately, being in Africa I did not hear the addresses of the successful Democratic candidates. An analysis of the returns indicates that the election was a great victory for the union labor leaders. Not only was the "Right to Work" proposal snowed under, but this was after the investigations of the Teamster's Union and of other union misdoings. Why the stock market should have gone up in view of the election is beyond me. We are feeling better only as a man does when he takes a "highball".

State's Broke . . . Seeks New Tax Revenues

MICHIGAN'S WEEK of organized chest-pounding and self-promotion next May 17-23 will have a new slogan to guide the way.

"We're proud of Michigan". Behind the slogan will be thousands of workers, from giant industrialists to small businessmen and farmers — all dedicated to the principle that success is a Michigan product.

For six years, the Michigan Week organization has been using "It's Great to Live in Michigan" as its slogan. The change broadens the scope of the program, officials said.

Political overtones are present again as the group of citizens and officials prepares for the 1959 celebration.

For two years, Republicans have charged that Democratic tax-business policies have driven companies to other states and discouraged expansion in Michigan.

Democrats counter-charge that Michigan actually has been prospering and getting new business and industries and that the Republican charges are hurting the state's national reputation.

With its new slogan, the Michigan Week organization feels some of the arguments of both sides can be neutralized.

OUR STATE GOVERNMENT is broke.

Top officials headed by Gov. Williams discovered after the November 4 election that less than $10,000,000 remained in the treasury and school aid payments were $18,000,000 behind.

Schoolmen said that dozens of districts already had borrowed $40,000,000 since July 1 to pay operating expenses for the year.

For a time, there was sentiment to call a special session of the 1958 legislature to straighten out financial matters before the new year arrives. Officials said it would not be necessary, though this could change anytime.

They are holding back more than $12,000,000 in appropriated funds for Michigan State university, the University of Michigan and Wayne State university.

These schools can operate on an emergency basis by using student fees until the money can be paid from the state treasury.

Officials hope, by delaying payments, to hold out until the 1959 legislature meets and, possibly, come up with additional tax revenue.

If it comes, Democrats will try to pin the responsibility on Republicans and the House tax study committee headed by Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton), its chairman.

Republicans will hotly charge the tax was caused by Democratic spending demands.

OBSERVERS DEPICT the state Senate as the last bastion of the Republican party in a state government. All major elective offices are held by Democrats and there is an even 55-55 division in the House.

Republicans have said they will attempt to organize the majority in the Senate as the "voice" of the party. The plan to hire a public relations man has been revised.

The whole idea depends largely on the direction that Paul D. Bagwell, a Michigan State university professor, takes in his role as titular head of the party in Michigan.

Traditionally, the candidate for governor holds the title, but few defeated Republican candidates in the last few years have tackled the job with enthusiasm.

problem of taxes and spending, school finances and government reform, here are some of the items to watch for in the 1959 legislative session:

1. Another attempt to place the 18 year old vote on the ballot as a constitutional amendment, this time with the support of both parties.

2. A series of mental health reforms, both in commitment of patients and administration of hospitals. These will result from studies by three committees during the summer.

3. A number of proposals to merge similar functions of government, under the governor's new power to reorganize agencies with the legislature holding a veto power.

4. Some proposals designed to eliminate waste in government, a result of summer-long investigations by a Senate study committee.
