

Candidates Start Petitioning For City and Township Offices

Ballots on Way Out As Township Eyes Voting Machines

Northville township officially said goodbye to paper ballots Tuesday night as the board approved purchase of four new voting machines.

While the board did not actually purchase the machines, members wholeheartedly supported the plan after listening to Clerk D. J. Stark and a representative of a voting machine company. The machines will cost approximately $7,400.

Clerk Stark pointed out that under the paper ballot system a new precinct would have to be formed. At present precinct one has 750 registered voters and precinct two nearly 800. This is considered the maximum for paper ballot precincts, Stark said. With voting machines the precincts can go up to 1,400 registered voters.

Another point favoring the switch to machines was the probability that both precincts will vote at the township hall. Presently, precinct one residents (west of Sheldon road) vote at the Main street elementary school.

Board members believe that use of the machines in the February and April elections will acquaint voters and precinct workers with the operation in preparation for the heavier general election in 1960.

In other township business Attorney James Littell reported on a meeting with Northville City Manager John Robertson concerning rates paid the city for fire protection. Trustee Alex Lawrence and Clerk Stark were other members of the township committee meeting with Robertson.

Littell stated that Clerk Stark had proposed a "base rate" plan to replace the present formula which is computed on the number of calls made by the city department into the township.

During the current year 55 percent of the fire calls answered by the city department were in the township. But of these, Littell pointed out, 80 percent were grass fires. Littell told the board that the city manager admitted the township has some basis for its complaint of the present system but had not indicated whether the city would consider the new plan.

Pointing out that grass fires are usually minor in nature, Littell said the township would rather agree upon a base fee for the year plus assuming the hourly rate wages of the firemen working on township calls. "This would establish a set figure in the budget and do away with any question of whether we're being overcharged, or undercharged," he added.

The board directed the committee to meet again with the city to resolve the matter.

Northville Postal Officials Prepare for Christmas Rush

Northville postal officials and employees are bracing themselves for the deluge of Christmas mail and packages expected to pass through the office within the next few days.

The heaviest holiday rush in the history of the local office is expected. Postmaster Leland Smith predicts at least one-third greater volume this year than last.

Smith has announced that the Northville post office will be open until 2 p.m. this Saturday and all day — 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. the following Saturday and Sunday, December 13 and 14.

The peak rush for outgoing mail is expected to start about December 13, and the peak for outgoing mail about a week later — five days before Christmas.

To cope with this year's anticipated holiday rush, about 15 additional mailmen and 10 additional clerks will be on the job.

The postal official urges residents to mail cards, letters and packages early to avoid "late mail" and to speed up local post office efficiency.

City and township political activity began to stir this week as candidates gave indications of their April election intentions. Two township board members and one city councilman announced they would not seek re-election.

Supervisor Mollie Lawrence and Clerk D. J. Stark announced they are retiring from township government, while John Stubenvoll said he will not run for city councilman.

George L. Clark

In the city in addition to Councilman Stubenvoll's seat, the terms of Mayor Malcolm Allen and Councilman John Canterbury also expire in April. Both have indicated they will seek re-election, although Canterbury is pressed with new business responsibilities (see story page 8).

To date no petitions have been circulated for any of the city offices, however. Both city and township candidates must file petitions with their respective clerks by December 29. Township candidates face a February primary election, while city candidates are polled only at the April election.

Six petitions began circulating this week in the township. All were Republican hopefuls (the township has partisan elections in contrast to the city's non-partisan policy).

George L. Clark, 849 West Main street, announced his intention to run for the township supervisor's job. Clark is an insurance agent with offices in the Northville Realty building. He formerly owned and operated the present Northville Hardware business.

Other township petitions are in circulation for Mrs. Marguerite Northrup, 19480 Clement road, who is in the real estate business, for clerk; R. D. Merriam, 18910 Beck, for trustee, a position he now holds; Roy M. Terrill, 50900 West Six Mile road, who is also an incumbent, for treasurer; Lawrence Masselink, 4730 West Seven Mile road, incumbent justice of the peace; Donald E. Robinson, 39955 Six Mile road, board of review. Republicans are expected to complete the slate with a candidate for constable this week. Other Republicans could file for any of the above positions, however.

Although reports have indicated that Democrats will present a slate of candidates for the February 16 primary, no word of petitions in circulation has been received.

For Mrs. Lawrence the decision to retire as supervisor will bring to a close a 24-year career as a public official in the township. She has been supervisor for 17 years and seven years prior was township treasurer.

Retiring Clerk Stark, who took office in 1956, plans to concentrate on his real estate business.

While no petitions have gone out for Councilman Stubenvoll's post on the city council, rumors persist that at least two persons will seek the job. Council candidates will actually be running for two openings. His terms are for four years. The mayor's term is two years. Thus far there has been no indication that Mayor Allen will have opposition.

Hire Consultants For Zoning Review

Northville planning commission met Tuesday night with the newly retained consulting firm of Waring and Johnson to begin a program for a general zoning review of the city.

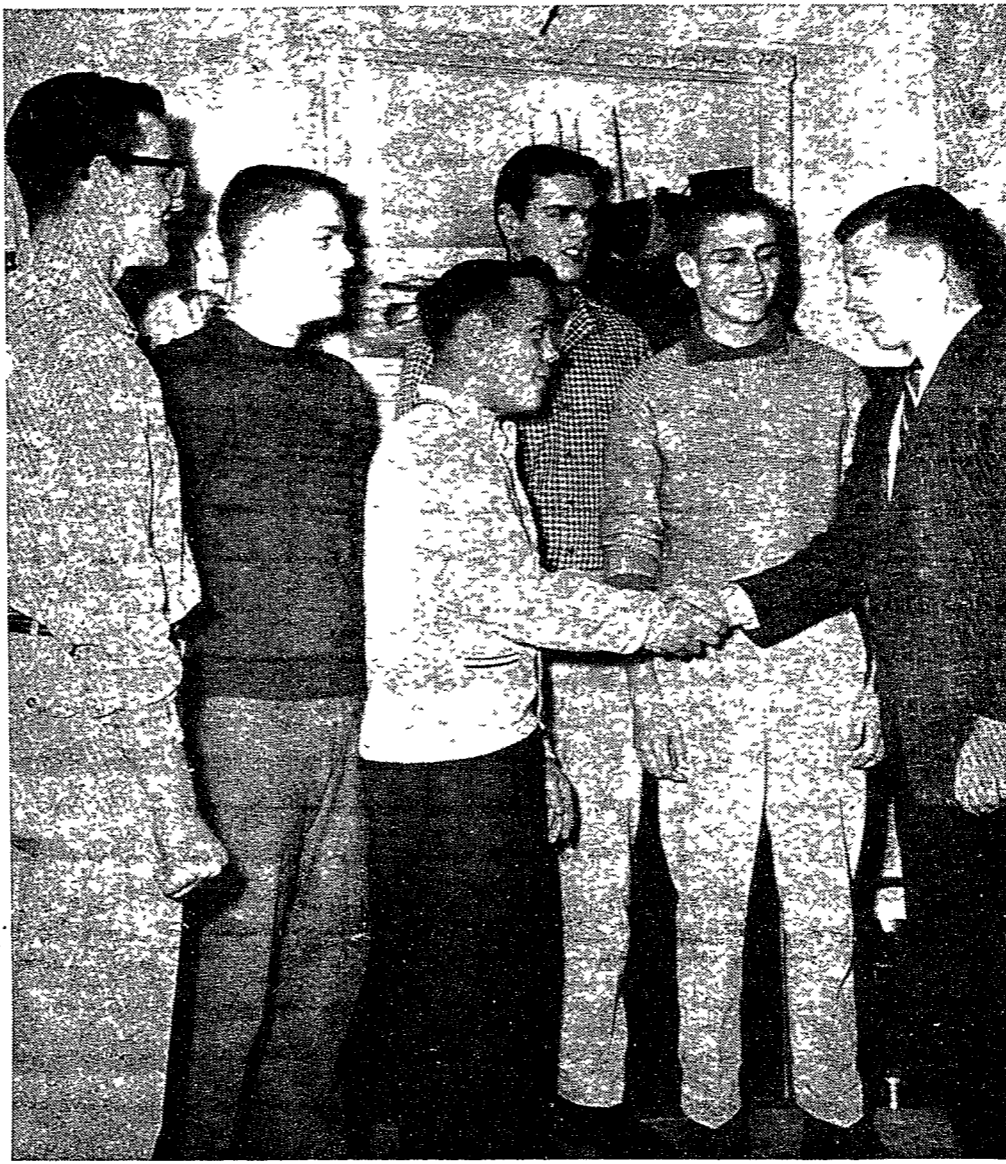

The firm was hired by the commission to assist and advise planners with technical practices of zoning.

Chairman T. R. Carrington stated that the planners would attempt to bring the 20-year-old zoning ordinance up to date and undertake a general re-zoning plan for the city.

The consultants will meet again with the planning commission at the January 6 session.

Smith gave the following tips for insuring prompt and safe delivery: 1. Put an addressed slip of paper inside the package so it may be returned in case the wrapping is destroyed or the outside address obliterated. 2. Addresses should be printed plainly on ONE SIDE of packages. 3. Print addresses on package wrappings — and not on labels which may peel off and become lost. 4. If possible tie a string around letters labeled for specific areas, such as local, Detroit, other parts of Michigan, and for other states. Air mail letters should be separated from regular mail. Officials remind residents that domestic Christmas cards bearing no written message may be sent for 3 cents if they are two ounces or under. Sealed cards containing written messages are subject to first class rates of 4 cents. Additional postage must be affixed to packages that contain cards and letters. If not, the entire package may be sent at first class rates.

Proposal for Split Racing Dates Opposed by Northville Downs

Local Gridders Win Honors

Five Northville high school students were honored for their football prowess last week end as the three major Detroit newspapers and Pontiac Press named their all-state, suburban and league teams.

But in the eyes of Northville's Coach Ron Schipper, who is more acquainted with the abilities of his team, 11 regular players and numerous substitutes all had a share in Northville's first undefeated season.

Larry Nitzel, Gary Morgan and Roger Atchinson, all Mustang halfbacks "proved to be excellent runners," the coach said. Hugh Crawford, Joe Gotro and Jeff Goodrich at the ends gave the team additional drive, he added.

All these players and others will be honored at the annual football banquet beginning at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, December 10, at the First Methodist church house.

Sponsored annually by the Exchange club, the banquet will feature comments by Michigan and Michigan State university coaches and star football players. Names of these gridiron greats have not yet been disclosed.

Movies of the 1958 Michigan-Michigan State game will be shown. Highlighting the event will be the presentation of letters, most valuable player, honorary captain, and sportsmanship awards by Coach Schipper.

mention on the Times all-state eleven. Other Northville players who Schipper called "outstanding" included Fred Mitchell and William Chizmar, anchor men for the Mustangs' "don't give an inch line" and William Boyd and Fred Schwarze who piloted the club to the championship from their quarterback positions.

Inglis Suggests 2 Meets With Spring Opening

Northville Downs Executive Manager John Carlo took a dim view this week of the proposed "split" racing dates for next season as submitted over the week end by State Racing Commissioner James H. Inglis.

Under Inglis' plan racing would open in Northville on April 27 and continue until May 16. The doors would then close until July 13 when another 18-night session would begin.

Council Discusses Forced Retirement Of City Employees

Carlo called the proposal a "completely wrong assignment of dates". He also rapped Inglis' habit of scheduling dates without consulting track representatives for their opinions.

Inglis defended his idea to The Record by pointing out that Northville gained opening dates with no opposition from any other track for the first 18 nights. He pointed out that split dates were not unusual in other states and that Wheeling Downs in West Virginia has three different meetings.

Inglis also stated that his plan would bring harness racing dates at Hazel Park and Wolverine Raceway closer together, thus avoiding loss of good stables to other tracks. Carlo could see plenty wrong with the plan.

"It would be alright if we had accommodations for early racing," said Carlo. "As a matter of fact, I'd prefer the opening dates because it draws more bettors," he added. Carlo pointed out, however, that Hazel Park has gas-heated stands for comfort of the fans and the Downs does not. Opening dates also attract more stables trying their horses for the first time in the season, he stated. He said Northville could not accommodate them all. "We'd need 40 percent more stalls," he added.

Carlo again dug at the commissioner's secretive date-planning by indicating that the Downs would equip its facilities for early racing if there was any assurance early dates would be received each year.

While Inglis told The Record that he believed the split would benefit Northville financially, it appeared certain that Carlo would oppose the plan.

A hearing is scheduled for next Tuesday at 10 a.m. in the commissioner's office. Carlo stated that he would ask for summer dates and 42 nights instead of the 36-night schedule as proposed. A final decision is expected late next week.

Under Inglis' proposed set-up for next year Northville gets 36 nights, Hazel Park 48, Wolverine 42 and Jackson 36.

Councilman Ed Welch stated that he was ready to accept the city manager's opinion. Other council members followed this stand.

Councilman John Canterbury pointed out that if these men were being given easier chores when high priority work was going undone because of their inability to perform, then they should be released.

Councilman John Stubenvoll pointed out that in a few years retirement will become automatic under the city's new pension plan. "We (Continued on Page 8)

ROASTED PRODUCE — More than $1,000 worth of produce was destroyed Tuesday when fire swept through the interior of the loaded truck above. Fred Rosera, driver for the Cusmano Brothers Produce company, Detroit, discovered the blaze when his semi-truck stalled at the corner of Seven Mile and Clement roads. The motor trouble was not the cause of the fire. A gas heater used to keep the produce warm probably caused the fire, Northville firemen theorized. The partially damaged truck trailer, enroute from Detroit to Maybury sanatorium, and the produce were partially covered by insurance.

Ruth Ann Johnson Weds Carl McClure In Novi Methodist Candlelight Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. McClure

Baskets of white gladioli and mums decorated the altar of the Novi Methodist church Saturday evening, November 22 for the wedding of Ruth Ann Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Johnson of Novi road, to Carl R. McClure, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vester McClure of Walled Lake.

One hundred guests attended the candlelight church service performed by Rev. George T. Nevin.

The bride chose a gown of bluish pink tulle under white nylon tulle. Its floor-length skirt covered a second skirt of pleats and was accented with bluish pink flowers. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was held in place by a crown of seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of Stephanotis and white orchids.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Margaret Wixom, who wore a princess-style gown of open blue chiffon taffeta, with ballerina skirt featuring a modified balloon bottom. Her flowers were a cascade of blue mums.

Bridesmaids were June McClure, Betty Lipke and Mary MacDermid of Walled Lake, and Marian Dailey of Farmington, attired in ballerina length gowns in open blue taffeta with pleated cummerbunds and balloon bottoms. They all wore pink gloves and sequined hats with face veils and carried cascades of pink mums.

Wayne McClure was best man for his brother.

Seating the guests were LeRoy Wixom, Charles Burcham, Gerald Stoddard and Morey Lipke.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Johnson chose a dress of grey lace over rose taffeta with rose accessories.

Mrs. McClure selected a navy blue sheath with black accessories. Both mothers pinned on corsages of pink roses.

A reception for 150 was held after the ceremony at Atkins hall in Walled Lake.

The newlyweds are now residing at 303 Duana street, Walled Lake.

Audrey Gates and James Oleace Fry, both of Plymouth, were united in marriage by Justice E. M. Bogart Saturday evening, November 29. Mr. and Mrs. William Pruett, also of Plymouth, were the attendants.

Recite Marriage Vows At Presbyterian Church

Northville's First Presbyterian church was the scene of the marriage of Janice M. Stanford to Roy Hamer October 18.

Janice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stanford of Orchard drive. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy N. Hamer of Novi.

The afternoon candlelight ceremony was performed by Rev. John O. Taxis. The church was decorated with basket arrangements of white chrysanthemums and gladioli. Organist Mrs. W. G. Williams accompanied Ray Van Valkenburg who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride, given away by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of antique silk shantung, designed by Mrs. Stanford, with empire princess lines, long sleeves, a scalloped scoop neckline and accented at the back waist by a large bow with streamers falling to the hem.

Her shoulder-length illusion veil was caught by a headband of white velvet leaves, also fashioned by Mrs. Stanford. She carried a bouquet of white roses and trailing ivy.

Maid of honor was Betty Stevens of Northville. She wore a ballerina length gown of gold chromspun taffeta, featuring a princess front, three-quarter length sleeves, scoop neckline, basque waist back, and full back-gathered skirt. Her flowers were bronze chrysanthemums.

Virginia Van Valkenburg of Vicksburg and Eleanor Thompson of Livonia were bridesmaids, wearing frocks styled after the maid of honor's, in toast and bronze chromspun taffeta, respectively. Both carried bouquets of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Terry Hamer assisted his brother as best man.

Ushers were Tom Stanford, brother of the bride, and Larry Hamer, cousin of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Stanford chose a dress of navy crepe and wore a small rose velvet hat. She pinned on a corsage of white mums.

Mrs. Hamer selected a turquoise wood dress and matching hat and also wore a white mum corsage.

A reception for 150 was held at the Presbyterian church hall with guests attending from Northville, Livonia, Plymouth, Vicksburg and Vermontville.

For her traveling outfit the bride chose a dark grey chemise suit and red accessories.

The newlyweds spent a one-week honeymoon in Virginia Beach.

Both are graduates of Northville high school, class of 1957. Mr. Hamer is employed by Western Electric. They are now making their home in Livonia.

Mrs. Delmer Schuler of West Seven Mile road has returned home after her recent confinement in St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor.

Newcomers from Redford township are the Richard Endresses of Clement road and their children Richie, 7, Arthur, 5, and Patricia, 1, who moved to Northville in July.

As has been the case with several other new families here, the Endresses were attracted by bigger lots and abundance of open space in this area.

"The children especially like it," says Mrs. Endress. "It's just like living in the country."

The recent rearing of a full-blown winter may have put a damper on Mr. Endress' leisure enjoyment of these outdoors, but autumn mornings he likes to get in a little small game hunting around their home, before work. He is a salesman for the Upjohn company.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Endress also enjoy gardening.

Richie attends the Main street school and Art goes to Amerman.

Woman's Club To Hear Talk About Owls

Mrs. R. J. Wright, a resident of Northville for the past two years, will speak at the regular meeting of the Northville Woman's club tomorrow at 2 p.m. in the Northville library.

Mrs. Wright studied piano at the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago where she received special recognition for assisting in the training and advancement for the musical education of children.

She taught in the Conservatory of Music in Aurora, Illinois until 1928, when she came to Detroit and had her own studio.

Her hobbies are books, flowers, and a collection of more than 200 owls from all parts of the world.

Her subject at the meeting will be "Owls of the World" and she will bring specimens to illustrate her talk.

Cooperative Nursery Accepting Applicants

The Northville Cooperative Play Group has a few immediate openings for qualified three and four-year-olds. Membership Chairman Mrs. Cameron Campbell has announced.

The nursery school which has been operating as a cooperative for more than a decade meets three mornings a week in the Northville First Presbyterian church from 9 to 11:30 a.m.

For further information, call Mrs. Charles Sorenson at FI-9-0366 or Mrs. Robert Tefft at FI-9-0261.

Bazaar Reminder

Last minute reminders are given to early Christmas shoppers by members of Our Lady of Victory Mothers' club that the club's annual Holiday Bazaar and Tea will take place today (Thursday) from 1-5 p.m.

The bazaar will be held in the church social hall, and the tea at Meadowbrook Country club, both at the same time.

Ann Arbor Civic Ballet, Plymouth Symphony To Have Joint Christmas Concert This Sunday

The Ann Arbor Civic Ballet will join the Plymouth Symphony orchestra in a colorful Christmas program at the next regular symphony concert Sunday, December 7.

The ballet company, composed mostly of promising student dancers from the Western Wayne county area, will perform highlights from Act I of Tschickowsky's "Swan Lake".

The orchestra will play another Tschickowsky ballet and traditional Christmas-time favorite, "The Nutcracker Suite", also "La Boutique Fantasque" by Rossini-Raspighi, the story of a toy shop come to life, and Corelli's "Christmas Concerto". The last piece, written at the start of the 18th Century, will feature first chair symphony musicians in solo roles.

The corps de ballet will wear the traditional length ballet skirt, half way down the legs and silver-winged costumes and the prima ballerina and danseuse, the attire customarily worn for their parts.

The concerts are held in the gymnasium of Plymouth high school. For the convenience of families with small children, a nursery is provided by the girl scouts for a small charge in Room 15 of the school.

Symphony Society members may reserve seats by calling Mrs. Harriet Randall at GL-3-1826 before Sunday.

Members will be asked to present their membership cards, since space for reserved seats is limited, and an attempt will be made to give them to those who are actually entitled to them.

The dancers are headed by Evelyn Falatine as the Swan Princess, and Don Randazzo, the Prince. The chorus includes Stephanie Smith, Margaret Smith, Susan Woods, Jane Towsley, Jean Hammer, Mary Lou Gall, Gay Shirey, Linda Gibson, Serene Shaneyfelt, Carol Barrington, Elia Bafs and Karen Hayes.

WCS to Have Christmas Lunch

The WCS of the Northville First Methodist church will have a Christmas luncheon at the church fellowship hall next Tuesday at 12:30.

Seeley Circle will be host for the meeting.

The program will be "Christmas, Christmas Everywhere" by Martha Cargo and Geraldine Mills.

Cynthia Gates of Napier road and Mrs. Marjorie Dugan of West Eight Mile road spent the Thanksgiving holiday in Denver, Colorado with Captain Virginia Farr at Fitzsimmons army hospital.

Married Saturday

Ruth Edna Ramp of Livonia and James Wesley Cowles of Detroit were united in marriage by Justice E. M. Bogart at the home of the bride's parents on Schoolcraft road in Livonia Saturday afternoon, November 29 before a group of relatives and friends.

Lewis H. Robinson and Patricia G. Cowles, both of Detroit were the attendants.

On Sunday the Chambers' dinner guest was Mrs. Mildred Sanderson of Middle Straits Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley McAtee and family were guests of the Merrill Austins of Howell for Thanksgiving.

ICE RINK — Willowbrook neighbors decided recently to help make winter a season of fun for area youngsters. So they borrowed a dozer and pushed a dirt mound around a 200x75-foot piece of property near Holly Dale and LeBost and began the numbing job of flooding the rink. Four of the ice-cold adults, who are beginning to wonder if winter is really fun, aim one of the hoses borrowed from the Novi fire department. They are (left to right): Donald Simonsen, 40928 Holly Dale; Earl Brady, 40960 Holly Dale; David Fried 41040 Holly Dale, and Ronald Jennings, 41001 Holly Dale.

CONVENIENCE LIKE THIS FOR ONLY 25¢ A WEEK

IN THE OLD DAYS The phone rang. You pulled up the covers and pretended not to hear. "Please go down and answer it," said your wife.

"Your turn," you muttered, knowing all along that you'd have to crawl out of bed and struggle into those slippers.

1958 The extension phone rings on the bedside table. You reach out to answer it from the comfort of your bed. No delay, no trouble, no arguments. This is the kind of luxury that handy extensions can give you.

Each extension phone costs only $1.10 a month*.

The installation charge is $2.25—this covers any number of extensions if installed at the same time. Extra one-time charge for color. To order yours just call our Business Office.

Northville Council Proceedings

A regular meeting of the Northville City Council was held at the City Hall Monday Eve., Dec. 1st, 1958 at 8 P.M.

Present: Mayor Allen, Councilmen Canterbury, Reed, Stubenvoll and Allen.

Minutes of last regular meeting were read and approved.

Bills for $8,714.40 from the General Fund and $4,073.22 from the Water Fund were presented for payment and it was moved by Welch, seconded by Reed, that same be paid. Carried.

The public hearing on the amendment to the Zoning Ordinance relative to the wintering of horses was the first item of old business. There being no one present who raised objection to its passage, it was moved by Reed, seconded by Canterbury, that this amendment be adopted as published in the Northville Record Nov. 20th, 1958. Carried.

Next item of old business was the report of the City Attorney on the agreement with the Wayne County Board of Auditors regarding the $50 rental fee for the police teletype. If teletype service is to be continued, it will be necessary for the City of Northville to enter into this agreement, effective as of Sept. 1st, 1958. Moved by Canterbury, seconded by Allen, that the following resolution be adopted:

"Resolved, That the agreement between the Wayne Co. Board of Auditors and the City of Northville regarding the $50 per month fee for teletype service be entered into and signed by the Mayor and the City Clerk." Carried.

Payment of Library Bill was the next matter to be considered. The City Council feels that the bill submitted for more than $8,000 for the year 1958, is excessive, and they requested that Mgr. Robertson write letters to both the Wayne Co. Library Board and the Library Committee of the Wayne Co. Board of Supervisors and arrange for an audience with the Board to discuss this problem.

A resolution was presented to authorize retaining the firm of Miller, Canfield, Paddock & Stone as Counsel to assist in the processing, presentation and approval of a $300,000 General Obligation Bond issue to be voted upon by the qualified and registered voters of the City of Northville at the Primary Election to be held on Feb. 16th, 1959. The proceeds of this Bond issue shall be used to make additions to the Water distribution system, additions to the Water storage facilities, improvement of the quality and quantity of water, and development of the new well site. In answer to questions raised by Sidney Frid as to how the City will subsidize this issue, it was pointed out that a hydrant rental would be charged to the City's General Fund of $50 per hydrant per year, which would add approximately $6,000 to the yearly income from water. He was also informed that according to the figures arrived at by James Pollock, the financial consultant of the City, that the revenues from water sales as projected over a 27-year period would more than take care of the bonds. At the conclusion of this discussion, it was moved by Reed, supported by Stubenvoll, that the resolution be adopted as presented. Carried. Mgr. Robertson was instructed to prepare a simplified form of the formula to be used for paying off these bonds, for distribution to interested parties.

Councilman Stubenvoll, reporting for the committee on Christmas decorations, stated that they had met with Bruce Turnbull, president of the Retail Merchants Ass'n., regarding this matter and were informed that $850 had been collected by the Association from various sources for this project. They had installed a 200 amp. service to take care of the lighting, as the City electrical inspector had said that a 100 amp. service was not sufficient. All bills have been paid to this point but it will cost about $160 to take down and store the lights. It was moved by Stubenvoll, supported by Reed, that the City Pay $150 to the Retail Merchants Ass'n. for this project, as well as pay the light bill. Carried.

The last item of old business was in regard to the State Health Dept. requirements on easement to new well site. Mgr. Robertson reported that he and City Engineer Penn had gone to Lansing to consult with the Michigan Dept. of Health regarding this problem. It was pointed out that the Michigan State Health Dept. feels the City should own the property which the present easement crosses to reach the site of the new well. The City Council feels the subdividers should be asked to donate the land involved in this easement, and it was decided that the Mayor and City Manager should talk with the D & R Bldg. Co. regarding the donation of this lot.

An agreement between the City of Northville and the C & O R. R. Co. regarding the maintenance by the City of Northville of sewer and water lines to be installed by the Wayne Co. Road Commission under the railroad right-of-way, was presented for consideration. Atty. Ogilvie reported that he and Mgr. Robertson had met with the attorney for the Wayne Co. Road Commission to discuss this agreement, and it was pointed out that the Michigan Dept. of Health would O.K. this installation if it was looped to the hydrant in front of Warren Products. Mr. Krue, of the D & R Bldg. Co. agreed that they would make the connection from the installation by the City under the Railroad at the time they install the sewer and water lines to the property owned by them east of Warren Products. The City Council feels that a contract with the D & R Bldg. Co. must be acquired to loop the water line to the aforementioned hydrant before the agreement with the C & O R.R. is signed, this installation to be made within a three year period. Atty Ogilvie will contact Mr. Krue regarding this matter, and a special meeting will be held Monday night, Dec. 8th, 1958, to act on the C & O R.R. agreement.

Under new business, Mgr. Robertson discussed with the City Council the retirement of Public Works employees over the age of 65 years. It is the feeling of both Mgr. Robertson and Supt. Hartner that the Department would be much more efficient if those employees who have reached retirement age were replaced with younger men. The matter was left to the discretion of the City Manager.

There being no further business, meeting was adjourned.

Signed
 Mary Alexander, City Clerk

Board of Education Changes Meeting Date

The Northville board of education will hold its December meeting Monday, December 8 at 7:30 p.m. in the Main street elementary school offices.

The board agreed last month to postpone the December meeting, regularly scheduled for the first Monday of the month, to enable members to attend the meeting of the Michigan Association of School Boards December 1.

Cub Scouts to Sell Christmas Trees

Cub Scout Pack 755 will again be selling Christmas trees in Northville this year, but for one week only.

Last year the Cubs sold trees during the three weeks before Christmas.

They will begin their sale this year the week end preceding Christmas in the vacant lot between Lyke Plumbing and Northville Lanes.

Home Economics Club Plan Holiday Party

The local home economics club will hold a pot-luck Christmas party at the home of Mrs. William Hensch 540 Orchard drive at 7 p.m.

Special guests will be Mrs. Isabelle McClellan, Wayne county demonstration agent, and Mrs. Harry Stuck, Wayne county club president.

C.A.R. Announces Clothes Collection

The meeting of the Plymouth Corners Society of the C.A.R. was held at the home of Janet Willoughby last Tuesday.

Members also decided at this meeting to divide into two groups, the younger group meeting on the second Saturday of each month, and the older group, starting with 8th graders, on the third Tuesday of each month.

Plans were also made to send Christmas gifts to the Indian school in Harbor Springs and to collect clothes for the Kate Duncan Smith and Tamasse Mountain schools in South Carolina.

Anyone interested in contributing clothing to this project should call FI-9-1054 or FI-9-3457.

State Plans Road Work At Local Mental Hospital

Surfacing of drives at Northville State hospital is among projects announced by the State Highway Department for its December 10, letting in Detroit. Plans call for surfacing of one mile of aggregate drives with completion set for July 31, 1959.

Local Accountants Attend Tax Seminar

Mildred M. Doren and Florence Kates of Northville accountants, were at Kellogg Center, East Lansing, last week attending the mid-winter Tax Seminar sponsored jointly by the Independent Accountants Association of Michigan and the Continuing Education Department of Michigan State University.

"With the 1958 changes and elections keyed for study, members are entering into the conference type of program, which was pioneered in last year's clinic," says Warren Bissell, state secretary of IAAM, and Tax Clinic committee chairman.

Monday's seminar featured John Raymond and Peter Chirco of the Detroit tax attorneys firm, Raymond Chirco and Fletcher. Two hundred members and guests attended the conference.

IAAM members are known as the counselors of small business and the new federal laws which affect small business especially require the first big study since that following the 1954 code enactment.

Since Michigan's taxes are a continuing interest, a state tax forum, lead by Reuben Forsman, Donovan Rau, Harry Jury and Garret Van Coevering featured group discussions.

THE MOST BACK-BREAKING JOB OF THE WEEK!

Most women will agree that washday is the most back-breaking job of the week. First you wash the clothes, then put up the lines and wipe them with a damp cloth. Look for clothespins, hang the clothes and put props up. And during this hectic time, watch out for the children, dogs and the weather. But hours of work can turn into hours of fun with an Automatic Gas Clothes Dryer. Wash any time you wish—day or night—an Automatic Dryer will tumble-dry your clothes in minutes. Clothes will dry soft and fluffy, ready to fold and put away or damp dry, ready to iron. Eliminates sprinkling and cuts down ironing time. Steams wrinkles out of suits and coats. Your washables will last longer... look fresher with gentle dryer care. Banish washday drudgery and weather worries forever! An Automatic Gas Clothes Dryer will guarantee it!

"COKETAIL PARTY" — Several Northville homes were the scene of pre-J-Hop "Coketail Parties" for celebrating high school students last Friday evening. Host Chuck Hix passes the cakes to (left to right): Gart Tremor, Allen Wakenhut and Joan Baskins in the Hix home on Rayson street.

Weather Clouds J-Hop But It's Success Anyway

Northville high school juniors will never know if the sudden blustery weather this week end proved a boon or a jinx to their J-Hop hopes Friday.

Despite the weather, ticket sales at the door were high, said Class Sponsor Robert Williams, and a large crowd turned out for both the pre-dance concert and the dance — about 650 tickets at $1 each were sold for the concert alone.

In addition, the Four Freshmen, who arrived late from Philadelphia — completely canceling the concert — agreed to cut their fee in half, thus reducing the controversial expenses by some $500.

"But quite a tidy sum was probably lost in spectator seat income," Williams said, when those who missed the concert were naturally permitted to claim spectator seats and hear the Freshmen at the dance.

Previously tickets were to be sold separately for the concert for spectator seats during the dance, and for the dance itself.

"With about $1,150 in total ticket sales, final profits came close but not quite up to the break-even point, Williams said. Entertainment fees amounted to $1,065.

He added, though, that "even with the Freshmen's original asking price, the class could have made a profit if the weather had been good and everything had gone as scheduled."

Comments from parents and students indicated that other than financially speaking — and even that wasn't so bad — the dance was a big success.

Several students and parents hosted pre-Hop parties, and many adults attended the dance.

"The Freshmen lived up to our expectations," Williams said, adding that "hiring a name entertainment group again for a community like Northville could definitely be a money-making, not a money-losing proposition."

The Frank Bridge orchestra of Detroit provided dance music throughout the evening.

Firemen On the Job But Sit This One Out

Here's one blaze that's off the records.

The fire department has given its benediction to the Michigan Gas Storage company on Napier road to fire away this week.

As part of preparation to convert some of its property into a bulk storage area, the company began Tuesday burning rubble and accumulated debris now scattered around it.

So far no hasty alarms have been turned in, the fire department reported.

Razed Haller Plant To Get New Offices

Reconstruction of the fire-swept offices of the Haller, Inc. plant, 16580 Northville road, began last week. Completion is expected within six weeks.

Fire, which apparently started in the main office on the second floor of the plant, swept through four adjoining offices, the engineering department and the lobby three weeks ago.

Office and drafting equipment as well as plant records were destroyed. Many of the machines located elsewhere in the plant were damaged by water from the sprinkling system and fire hoses.

John Haller, owner, estimated the damage at $50,000. The building and equipment, he said, were fully insured.

The plant owner commended the Northville fire department for "their splendid cooperation" in fighting the fire. Firemen brought the blaze under control shortly after arriving at the scene. Fire was confined to the front section of the second floor.

NORTHVILLE STORES

COME AND GET 'EM — Rotary President Doug Lorenz holds two of the fruit cakes being sold by the Northville club for its crippled children charity work. The cakes may be purchased from any Rotarian, at several stores, or at the Carrington Agency at 120 North Center street where the club's supply is kept. Chairman of the annual project is Dayton Deal.

John Canterbury Named To Top Ford Division Office

Promotion of John S. Canterbury to one of the top positions in Ford division of the Ford Motor company was announced yesterday by W. A. Folsom, general manufacturing manager.

Canterbury, a Northville city councilman, was named material control manager-manufacturing operations for the Ford Motor division.

He will be directly responsible for five departments including: manufacturing programming, production scheduling, parts control, inventory planning and handling and traffic. The department also has control over the 13 assembly plants of the Ford division which manufacture more than one million cars and trucks annually. Canterbury's rise at Ford has been meteoric. He joined the company in 1951 as organization analyst and has had four promotions leading to his new position. He leaves the position of administrative manager to take up his new duties.

A native of Marion, Ohio, Canterbury was educated at Ohio Northern, North Carolina and Denver universities. His master's degree in management led him to a staff position with J. L. Jacobs & Co., management consultants. Later he was director of management planning for the U.S. Naval Center at Cleveland, Ohio and director of organization and management for the Economic Cooperation Administration.

Canterbury's term of office as councilman expires in April. He has expressed a desire to run again if his new business responsibilities permit. (See story on page one.)

Township to Air Rezoning Issue

A public hearing on proposed amendment to the zoning ordinance of Northville township will be held Tuesday, December 16 in the Northville township hall at 8 p.m.

An earlier announcement in The Record erroneously reported the hearing date as December 1.

The proposal concerns changing the present residential zoning of certain areas to a new special classification described as "multiple family residence" districts.

In one area, change involves an existing convalescent home off Seven Mile road, near Northville State hospital, within what is now a residential district.

Request for a similar zoning change involves the Seth Benton property and surrounding property owned by L. W. Gagner and J. R. Brickelton.

Fraternal and charitable groups have expressed interest in purchasing one of the residences owned by Benton, for their club activities.

Council Discusses

either have to accept this program as being right, or not — there's no moral responsibility involved, regardless of how hard-hearted this may appear," he added.

Councilman Reed pointed out that if public works' men were to be retired at 65, then other departments should be investigated. The city manager indicated that this would be undertaken, but that the public works had been selected first because of the heavy demands on the department for production.

In other business the council:
— passed a resolution to employ bonding attorneys to begin bond work for the $300,000 water bond program;

— assured Sidney Frid, 865 Grace, that revenues from the system will pay off the bond without added taxes; the council promised Frid a breakdown of the figures after Frid charged the rates would not support the issue;

— approved a $150 contribution to the retail merchants for Christmas lighting.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ardito had Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boucke.

Shirley Hurlburt was the hostess for the Willowbrook pinocle club last week. Paula Swenson, a guest player, won first prize. Millie DeHayes won second, Jean Cromer, third, and Claire Miller won the consolation prize.

HOW DID YOU VOTE

"Last Sunday, I voted to close the church; not intentionally nor maliciously, perhaps, but carelessly, thoughtlessly, indifferently, I voted. I voted to close its doors, that its witness and its testimony might be stopped. I voted to close its open Bible on its pulpit — the Bible that had been given us by years of struggle and by the blood of martyrs who died that we might have it to read. I voted for our minister to stop preaching the glorious truths of the gospel of Jesus Christ. I voted that the children of the Sunday School no longer be taught the Bible and no longer lift their tiny voices in singing. I voted for every Missionary to be called home, every native worker supported by the church to stop preaching, every hospital, every school and every dispensary in its foreign missionary fields to be closed. I voted for the darkness of superstition, the degrading influence of sin, the blight of ignorance and the curse of selfishness once again to settle their damning load on the shoulders of an already overburdened world. For you see, I could have gone, and I should have gone, but I didn't. I stayed away from church last Sunday".

Children Cheer Snow and Cold

The Northville Record

THE OLDEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY — EST. 1868 Thursday, December 4, 1958—9

ONE DOWN — Falling is fun when you're on skis — and young! Earl Leavenworth, 10, of 588 Randolph, and Tom Ling, 10, of 521 Randolph, seem to enjoy being right in the snow and their skis just give them a good excuse for frolicking.

Old Man Winter couldn't have timed his entrance better! At least, not as far as the small fry are concerned.

Just when they were home for Thanksgiving vacation the cold and snow came. And like magic hundreds of sleds, skis, discs and toboggans appeared wherever there was any reasonable incline to slide down.

The cold snap — which reached a reported zero in open areas where the strong winds had free wheeling — brought with it several inches of snow. And while the kiddies were enjoying their winter sports, motorists had less fun.

Icy roads made driving hazardous — but the drivers careful. No bad accidents were reported in the area during the holiday week end, but a few cars were "stuck" or "froze-up".

The snow and cold seemed to have its effect on Christmas shoppers. Stores reported business brisk. The falling snow, coupled with glowing Christmas lights, traditional music and the appearance of Santa Claus, gave Northville's business district a Christmas glow in November.

SNOW PALS — Gail Kucuski and Larry Chismark had fun giving one another rides on their sled. As you can see from the snow on their suits, a few times they managed to topple over. Gail, 10, lives at 40995 Ten Mile road and Larry, 6, at 23980 East LeBost.

GLAD TO SEE YOU — Mr. and Mrs. Ed Welch, 222 South Wing, were so happy with the thought of having their two daughters home from college for Thanksgiving that they displayed this "Welcome Home" sign. The girls seemed to like it, too. That's Dorothy at the left — a sophomore at Hope college — and Mary, a freshman at Hillsdale.

Eight Hunters Seven Bucks

A hunting party hosted by the Nelson Schraders of Orchard drive last week turned out to be a highly successful event.

Seven of the eight deer hunters in the party got their bucks!

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Schrader at their Gaylord farm were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Bathey of Northville and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schrader of Plymouth. In addition the Schraders' children, N. C., Jr. and Sarah, joined in the hunt.

Everyone — except Mrs. Bathey — bagged a buck. For Mrs. Edwin Schrader it marked the first time she had hunted.

Cagers in Action Friday

The 1958-59 basketball season couldn't begin on a more spirited note than it will for the Mustang quintet this week end.

Tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. the local cagers will open the season at Willow Run against the Flyers who last year shattered Northville's tournament hopes in a wild 60-53 win.

The following night here at 7 p.m. in the community building, Northville will tangle with the Plymouth squad which rocked the helpless Mustangs in a 56-35 upset in the second contest last year.

Locally, a revengeful spirit should be at a fever pitch. The stage is set for two exciting season openers — particularly on Saturday. But will the Mustangs measure up? Do they boast a potential winning team?

These questions will be answered tomorrow and Saturday. Yet some inkling of what they will be can be seen in the comments of Coach Stan Johnston and the actions of the team.

The Northville mentor has repeatedly pointed out that the short practice period this year may hamper the Mustangs early in the season. Practice — which began little more than a week ago — was held up nearly two weeks by a late football schedule.

(The football schedule was extended this year because Clarenceville had a two year agreement with Farmington to complete, hence the Northville-Clarenceville game was postponed until a later date).

Last Friday the Mustangs, with only a few practice sessions under their belts, scrimmaged with Walled Lake's class A quintet and came away victorious — 120-80. Johnston, obviously pleased with his team's performance, chided observers' optimistic predictions. He blamed over-optimism on the part of the public as well as the team as a factor in the Mustangs second place finish in the 1957-58 season.

The Mustangs nearly chased West Bloomfield from the floor in the opener last year, but fell completely dead in the following contest with Plymouth, Johnston recalled. Northville will face two almost entirely new squads Friday and Saturday. Willow Run, which last year won only two games while losing eight, is building its hopes around two veterans, Marcellus Scott and Andrew Jones.

Class A Plymouth also has two players back from last year. They are Ron Turkett and Randy Egloff. These two cagers did not start with the Rocks at the outset of last year, but as the season drew to a close they stamped themselves as permanent fixtures.

Johnston and his team would like to throttle Plymouth probably more than any other team. The Rocks have defeated Northville for five consecutive games. Local cagers will attempt to end the Plymouth jinx as did Northville's gridders in their opening contest with the Rocks this year.

Five of the six possible starters for Northville saw regular action last season. They are: Bob Starnes, forward; Fred Schwarze and Roger Atchinson, guards; Jeff Goodrich, center and forward; and Nelson Schrader, forward.

Wade Deal is the sixth cager Johnston may start against opponents this week end.

Twelve Northville players will dress for the game. These include several returning members of last year's reserve squad.

Northville will play Willow Run and Plymouth twice this year; the second game against the Flyers will come on January 24 here at the community building, and against the Rocks February 7 at Plymouth.

Ten of Northville's games scheduled this season are Wayne-Oakland league contests. Because the league has been divided into two divisions, the teams will play two games with schools in their own division, and one game with non-division teams.

Northville, West Bloomfield, Holly and Milford make up one division, and Clarkston, Brighton, Clarenceville and Bloomfield Hills the other.

The quintet sporting the best record of the two divisions at the end of the season will be declared the league champion. No playoff game is planned.

Basketball Tickets On Sale Tomorrow

Regular admission basketball tickets will be sold only at the gate this year, Athletic Director Al Jones announced this week. Reserve seat tickets will not be sold.

Student tickets, Jones emphasized, will not be sold at the gate. They must be picked up at the high school office prior to the game. Grade school and parochial school students also must get their tickets at the office.

All nine of the home games to be played at the community building will get underway at 7 p.m. with junior-varsity contests. The varsity games will start about an hour later.

The opening game with the Flyers at Willow Run will start at 6:30. The Northville Colts, coached this year by Don Van Ingen, will take the floor first.

from the PASTORS STUDY

By the Rev. James F. Andrews
 Full Salvation Union Chapel

The unity of the faith to which we come as a result of keeping the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace is more than a crystalized expression.
 Rather it is a thing of the spirit that is not discerned by the natural man. He cannot know it because it is spiritually discerned. It must be experienced to be known.
 All normal adults have within themselves the knowledge of the truth of how to walk. Such knowledge is a spontaneous consciousness.
 They know by this consciousness that they possess such knowledge. No one is able to take it from them by reason. Such truth cannot be explained. It can only be demonstrated.
 At one time none of us possessed the knowl- edge of the truth of how to walk. We did not come into such knowledge by having it explained to us. Rather, we simply grew into such knowledge through the spirit of life which moved in us by reason of our physical birth.
 The truth of God is like that. We must be born of the spirit to lead us into all truth.

 When we arrive it will not be at a crystal- ized expression alone, but at a living con- sciousness which fills us.
 The unity of the faith will be similar to the unity that exists in the knowledge of the truth of how to walk. There is no division among us as to this. All of us are united in the truth of how to walk because the same living consciousness fills us all.
 Even so when we arrive at the unity of the faith there will be no divisions among us and all will speak the same thing because the same living consciousness will be filling us all. But now as we go on to perfection we realize it is true that — "All efforts on the canvas fail, all words and rhyme cannot unveil, the beauties hid- den deep within, unseen by natural eyes of men. But when I look on canvas fair, or read the beauties written there, perceive 'neith flesh's much suppression, a soul is struggling for expression."

"GIVE A BOOK to give a child a Merry Christmas" is the smiling advice of Kevin, 7; Anne, 3; Mike, 10, and Meri-K, 5, Craw who, along with other Sunday school children at Northville's First Presbyterian church, will this week be advertising the coming Presbyterian Women's association book collection and tea scheduled for December 10. The collection will benefit needy and shut-in children.

Collect Gift Books at Tea For Children's Christmas

The Northville First Presbyterian church Sunday school children will be sporting green Christmas tree tags as they return home from Sun- day school classes this week end, announcing the Presbyterian Wom- en's association book collection and tea.
 The tea, scheduled for 1 p.m., December 10 at the church hall, will be for contributors of books or money to purchase books for needy and shut-in children in the Detroit Pres- byterian East Side parish, at May- bury sanatorium and at Detroit's Children's hospital.
 Publicity Chairman Mrs. James Craw, says most of the books are expected to go to the East Side parish. East Side Pastor, the Rev. John Hazelton will attend the tea.
 For those unable to attend the tea, a bin will be available at the church during the week of the 10th for depositing books.

 "The collection has aroused quite a bit of interest," Mrs. Craw re- ports. Money and book donations already amount to some three doz- en books, she said.
 Contributions of books for all school or pre-school aged children or money will be accepted from any local residents.
 The association asks that all books be gift wrapped and labeled on the outside of the package with title and reading level.

The happiness of your life de- pends upon the quality of your thoughts.

Learn More About Tests

Mrs. L. L. writes: "At a recent P-TA meeting the principal of our daughter's grade school talked about the various tests the school gives to children and what the results are used for. My husband and I felt that his explanation was not entirely clear. Where can we find a book that will tell us more of the things parents should know about these tests?"

Trying to learn more about the tests your child takes at school is a worthy project one which more parents should undertake. Presumably your letter refers to "standardized" tests, which are published and sold to schools by commercial publishers.

Perhaps the most widely used of these tests — the intelligence or I.Q. test — measures the child's capacity for learning. Next in popular usage are achievement tests, which measure how much the child has actually learned. Achievement tests are available for most school subjects so that each teacher may determine how much each child has learned in a particular subject.

The child who scores high on an I.Q. test should make a superior score on a general achievement test if he makes full use of his learning capacity. If he achieves at a lower level than his learning capacity has equipped him to achieve, educators dub him an "under-achiever". Since his capacity sets the upper limit of his learning ability, he can't possibly score higher in achievement than his true intelligence will permit. Let's remove any mystery which may seem to surround intelligence and achievement by using a simple kitchen illustration. Step right over here by the kitchen sink and examine these two clear glass tumblers, one just half as large as the other. The larger one has an 8-ounce capacity for liquids and the smaller one has a 4-ounce capacity. Let's assume that the water which we will draw out of this faucet represents learning, and we'll begin by filling the smaller tumbler brimming full with it. Once filled with four ounces of water, the tumbler is completely full; and it has gained its full capacity of learning and any additional we might try to force into it will run off into the kitchen sink.

Now, let's pour the water from the smaller tumbler into the larger one. We observe that the larger tumbler is only half filled; its learning comes up to only half of its capacity. While the smaller tumbler held the water only by taxing its full capacity, the larger one holds it easily.

This simple illustration applies to a situation which exists in most classrooms. The child of average intelligence must work up to full capacity just to keep his level of achievement up to average; he must use all of his brain power to keep even with other children of average general intelligence. On the other hand, the child of superior intelligence can make average grades with little or no effort. If however, he wishes to make superior grades, he too must work at full capacity. Capacity represents the child's ability to learn; achievement is what he actually does learn.

The special aptitude tests mentioned above measure such special talents as musical aptitude, mechanical aptitude, artistic aptitude, aptitude for making things with one's hands, and other specialized aptitudes. Aptitudes of this kind are akin to intelligence but only in that both are native traits, those which the child has at birth. Special aptitudes and intelligence do not necessarily go together in the same person. A child may be unsuccessful in school subjects and still achieve fame and fortune as a musician, artist, mechanical genius, or in some other work which requires a kind of special aptitude.

A discussion of tests prepared for parents and teachers, "What Tests Can Tell Us About Children", is available through Science Research Associates, Chicago, Illinois.

NEWS FROM THE
AMERICAN LEGION

POST 147
REX HOLLOMAN — REPORTER

An end has come to the subtraction of veterans' pensions from Social Security disability benefits — the so-called "offset" law was killed by Congress shortly before it went home in August, when it passed the 1958 Social Security Act, Public Law 85-840.

In two years, the notorious "offset" had denied their Social Security benefits to some 30,000 veterans, all seriously disabled and unemployed.

A year earlier, the Congress had called a halt to subtracting veterans' compensation from Social Security benefits . . . with the end of the pension offset in August, the Congress put to death — within two years of its passage — the first significant law attempting to merge veterans benefits with Social Security . . . The American Legion had strongly protested the "offset" law, found Congress in sympathy after observing its discriminatory operation.

CHRISTMAS ON A BUDGET

Maybe you work your Christmas shopping budget the way a very systematic friend of ours does. This young lady allots a certain amount of her cash to every name on her list. Practical? Mighty. Because it lets her do her Christmas shopping without mortgaging her New Year.

If you shop the same way, clip this little list for near-future reference:

Under $5: Kodak Film, plus your pick of filters, lens shades, cable releases and other photo aids to make a camera fan happy.

About $5: Most anyone would be glad to get a new Brownie Starlet Camera. Takes all three types of pictures: color slides as well as color and black-and-white snapshots.

Less than $10: a really wonderful gift idea: the Brownie Starflash Outfit. Includes: Starflash Camera, built-in flasholder, bulbs, batteries and film!

About $15 or so: your choice of the world famous Brownie Hawk-eye Camera Outfit or Starflex Outfit. Both include camera, flasholder, films, bulbs and batteries.

Sky's the Limit: our shelves are loaded with memorable gifts. Movie cameras. 35mm cameras. Projectors.

Come on in and make fast work of a whole column of names on your shopping list.

Two Local Teachers At Wayne Institute

Northville high school and 31 other Detroit area schools are participating in a Radiological Monitoring Institute today and tomorrow.

Wayne State, in conjunction with the Department of Public Instruction and the Michigan Office of Civil Defense, are holding the institute at the McGregor Memorial Conference center.

Attending from Northville will be Fred Stefanski, assistant principal, and LaGene Quay, science teacher.

Each of the 32 high schools have received equipment valued at $400 for use in science classes. At the institute the participants will learn how to care for and use their equipment. They also will learn how to utilize this civil defense equipment to strengthen their science programs.

Members of the faculty of the College of Liberal Arts and the Medical School are participating in the institute which is being coordinated by the college of education. Dr. Peter Dean, department of science education of the university, is general chairman.

Among the items discussed will be "Atomic Structure and Radioactivity", "Nuclear Weapons Effects", "Radiation Effects", "Radiation Instruments", "Application of Measurements" and "Protection and Handling of Radioactive Materials".

Wixom Councilmen Act on Three Issues

The Wixom city council which met early last week, took action on two local issues, including an appointment and the allocation of $280 to the County Drain Commission.

William Berger was named a member of the city's new road commission. His appointment marks the fifth and final one to be made by the commission. The other members are Chairman Julius Nelson, Oscar Simmons, Vern Darlington Sr. and Maurice LeBar.

The council voted to allocate $280 to the drain commission for completion of the city storm sewer cleaning projects. The commission told the council the project could not be completed without additional funds. The project bill thus far stands at $1,020 — not counting the $280.

Councilmen agreed to call in representatives of the state police and the Oakland county road commission to help settle the parking dispute in the city. Wixom merchants have asked that parallel parking be abandoned, while some persons insist the present system be retained. No date for the meeting with state and county representatives was set.

Kenneth Warren, who has been retained by the city to re-appraise Wixom property, met with the council to discuss the progress of the project.

Warren's appraisals are expected to be completed by the end of December. The council will then determine an assessed valuation rate to be applied to the new appraisals.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Girl Scout Troop 224 recently held an election of officers. Linda Seccord was elected troop treasurer and Antoinette Alexander, troop scribe.

The troop has divided into patrols, and a president and secretary-treasurer were also elected for each.

In Patrol 1 Antoinette Alexander was chosen president and Peggy Gibson, secretary-treasurer.

In Patrol 2 Kathleen Kovarik was elected president and Nancy Schaefer, secretary-treasurer.

In Patrol 3 Linda Lemon was named president and Susan Conley, secretary-treasurer.

The girls made Thanksgiving turkey cups for the residents of Eastlawn Resthaven home, and are now completing their tenderfoot rank.

Brownies of Troop 223 under the joint leadership of Mrs. Frederick Hart, Mrs. Gunnar Froebel and Mrs. Richard Kay, have been enjoying international "scouting" recently.

Thursday, the girls and their leaders visited the Detroit International Institute Old World Market.

Last week, Mrs. George Newman, from England, the mother of Brownie Penny Newman, talked to the troop about life in England. She illustrated her discussion with a toy London double-deck bus and a book on royalty, and distributed English-made candies.

This week Mrs. Ralph Ballou of Thornapple lane who comes from France, will speak to the girls about her native land.

State Approaching Estimated $100 Million Deficit

SPECIAL SESSION Jitters have attacked the Michigan politicians who fear chaos in 1959. With the house evenly-divided between Republicans and Democrats, 55 to 55, groups with immediate problems are predicting a squabble that will last until spring. They worry that a continued instability will prevent constructive legislation which can solve their problems. Technically, the legislature for 1959 will convene at 12 noon January 14.

IF TRADITION HOLDS, most of the controversial and important decisions — the budget, taxes and major policy matters — will be bypassed until the jam up in the dying days of the session. Agencies and special interest groups are afraid that their causes will be lost in the bickering of the early parts of the session and disregarded in the log-jam at the end.

THERE ARE PROBLEMS that need immediate action, some of them urgently. Probate judges want something done quickly about the juveniles in trouble because of mental illness and who cannot receive treatment because state institutions are overcrowded. Schoolmen are worried that the education provided by financially distressed local schools will fall far below minimum standards. They want money problems settled now. There is pressure to get started early on a program to obtain new sources of revenue, possibly a state income tax. With the state heading for a deficit estimated up to $100,000,000 and state agencies running into new pools of red ink every day, it is understandable that the worried ones want early action. The most recent request for a special session in December, came from Rep. James Goulette (R-Ironwood), who was defeated and will not be back for the regular session starting January 14. He wants the $5,000 pay of legislators raised to $7,500. Gov. Williams has informally rejected all attempts to get the legislature back before 1959. Most of the items suggested were before the 1958 legislature and he can see little point in a repeat performance in which the same men who failed to act in three of four months will be asked to settle everything in three or four days. Then too, a special session would bring back the Republican majority in the House; the 1959 session will give him a better chance to get the Democratic version of the solutions. Another factor is that at least 15 members of the 1958 legislature will not be in the same status when the 1959 session begins. Six Republican House members will not be back in 1959, five Senators will have retired or moved to other arenas. ONE QUESTION in William's political future is already settled. The governor, whose vote was third in the Democratic races this year, was considered an even-money bet to try for the U.S. Senate seat now held by Patrick V. McNamara in 1960. It was assumed by observers that his relatively poor showing would hurt his chances for the presidential nomination. But Williams announced he would support McNamara in the 1960 primary. This leaves the same observers guessing what he does plan. When they recall the background picture, they can find no real indication what the governor has in his mind. McNamara was almost an interloper in 1952 when he entered the primary against Blair Moody, the choice of Williams, for the Senate seat then held by Homer E. Ferguson. Williams had appointed Moody, a Detroit newspaperman, to the seat in the Senate vacated with the death of Senator Arthur E. Vandenberg. Moody was later defeated by Republican Charles E. Potter. So, this was to be the comeback of Moody with Williams' blessing and vote-getting power. Moody died tragically before the spring primary and, though he received a sizeable "memorial vote", McNamara, of course, was elected as the Democratic candidate. Democrats were forced to shift gears and support McNamara, and most will agree that Williams' popularity meant the difference in the vote which elected McNamara. There has not been the rapport between Williams and McNamara that there was between Williams and Moody. Now, Williams is wholeheartedly, at least publicly, supporting McNamara for re-election. Few expect the governor to try for a seventh consecutive two-year term in Michigan. He has now held office longer than any other governor. But like most things in politics, the voter will have to wait and see, and vote in 1960.

SPEAKING for the Record

by BILL SLIGER

We make it a rule not to publish unsigned letters — although we do withhold signatures upon request.

This week a letter arrived signed "Your Peripatetic Old Timer" bemoaning the passing of an iron rail which stood in front of our office for many years. It was a favorite gathering place for many to exchange the time of day and watch the people go by.

The writer says "I can remember sitting on this time worn rail, dangling my feet in the window well, discussing the topics of the day with long and true friends . . . the quiet peace that sweeps over one as they rest on that comfortable rail is hard to describe". Furthermore the writer enclosed a dime "for a suitable plaque, which I suggest could be installed on your building in the area of the deceased rails".

We, too, regret the passing of this old landmark. Often we enjoyed eavesdropping on the conversation of the frequenters of the old rail from within the office.

We suspect, perhaps, that the writer had not "dangled his feet in the window well" in recent years, however. It had become something of a problem — both for sanitary reasons (it was used as a catch-all) and as a fire hazard. In short, the window well held very little glamour for those workers in our shop who would usually find unpleasant contents of every description following each week end.

The rail — badly worn and staggering from the weight it had held for many years — was removed as a safety measure. One policeman called it "the best thing that ever happened" when the rail came down.

I'll go along with the oldtimer, however. It may look better in front of the Record. But something of the past has been removed. And we're nostalgic enough to be sorry, but progressive enough not to want it back.

Your dime — along with a small contribution of our own — has been turned over to the Pete Ely Memorial Fund. The late mayor was our closest contact with Northville of old.

Perhaps something will come from this fund to give us a better Northville in the future.

Roger Babson

You Can Build Your Own Wall Against Inflation

Babson Park, Mass. — Are you one who finds yourself constantly worrying about your financial future? Do you never seem to have quite enough money to make both ends meet? Perhaps, while successful in many ways, you are a very poor manager of your own finances? You are, if you are a young married couple with children and if you have not cash reserves, available for emergencies, equal to your annual earnings, or if you are not building solidly in that direction!

I ended last week's column by forecasting that we will find the Democratic cure for inflation worse than the Republican disease of taxation. This week let me expand this thought. Both the war and peace-time demands of our economy have increased the federal debt nearly $260 billions since 1932 to a figure now pegged by law at $288 billions. This is an average debt of some $6,000 per family. I suspect that by the early 1960's our federal debt limit may well be lifted to $300 billions.

A first important reason for the climbing debt is that our government is fighting an extremely active cold war. America's concern over what goes on in the rest of the world increases the national debt. Stepped-up nuclear weapons research and production, and the very expensive probing of outer space, also add to the national debt. And if Russia dumps onto world markets still more raw materials produced by slave labor, the U.S. Government will undoubtedly have to undertake financial operations to help protect American agriculture and industry. As the debt limit goes up and government activity expands, you can be sure costs will go up and nobody's dollars will go even as far as they go today. A second important reason for inflation is the "easy-buck" attitude of both labor and management toward government work. We all know that if productivity increases faster than wages, prices decline. On the other hand, if wages go up faster than productivity, prices rise. In the interest of national well-being we must fight a vigorous cold war. In so doing, however, it is obvious that unless we give our government a full measure of productivity, we only cheapen our own dollars in the long run. To be prosperous, a nation must be productive. Productivity comes from two sources: government spending and consumer spending. It is both government spending and the tremendous rise in consumer spending that have increased our standard of living so markedly. The American spirit of "the opportunity is there if you want to make something of it" has driven our standard of living to startlingly high levels in recent years.

This example of Americans consuming their way to prosperity has perhaps done as much as anything to combat Soviet ideology. But there has been serious danger inherent in consumer spending. Adequate personal, as well as corporate, standards of financial conduct have been lacking. Like the prodigal son, many have awakened during this past year to find they have spent all their resources and are right back where they started a dozen or fifteen years ago.

I, therefore, urge a carefully considered program of finances for all. I conclude that oldsters will have profited from experience.

Here, then, is a program for young people. First, build up your cash reserves to a point where they equal a year's earnings (Savings Banks, Federal Savings Association, Postal Savings, Government Bonds); second, start an inexpensive straight life insurance program; third, purchase a good non-cancellable health insurance policy as a protection while you are getting established in the early years of your work and while your earnings are but modest; fourth, buy a home of the type and in an area that will appreciate in value; fifth, with the help of good financial counselor commence an investment program, preferably of good common stocks, to help offset the inflationary spiral. Keep your holdings well diversified. Remember the clue to financial well-being is saving and investing part of every pay check before spending any of it for the necessities of living.

how to fit a college education into your budget

Now, through National Bank of Detroit's College Education Plan, the broadening, enriching benefits of college are more easily and readily available to young people. Now, thousands of deserving high school students in the Metropolitan Detroit area who could not have gone to college can go. And many students already in college can be relieved of the threat of staggering financial difficulties!

The plan in a nutshell: NBD advances payments, covering the student's major college expenses, to any accredited college or university.

The payments, which become a loan to the student's parents, guardian or sponsor, are repaid in installments over a period of up to 6 years. So by budgeting the cost of the education over a longer period of time, you never face a large cash outlay and the plan enables you to guarantee completion of the college program.

How do you get details? Just call the manager of your nearest NBD office or, better yet, drop by and talk with him. He'll be glad to show you how the National Bank of Detroit College Education Plan puts higher education within your reach right now— simply, inexpensively and conveniently.
