

SPEAKING for the Record

by BILL SLIGER

Along with his announcement of hours for collecting township taxes, Treasurer Roy M. Terrill did a little reminiscing this week and recalled the "good old days".

Statistically speaking, he didn't have to go back very far to make his point: that taxes in the township have increased sharply in recent years.

In his "letter to the editor" the treasurer brought out these facts:

1954 assessed valuation — $6,985,650; tax roll — $219,660.78
1955 assessed valuation — $7,241,280; tax roll — $232,740
The above two years represent village and township
1956 assessed valuation — $3,492,600; tax roll — $123,619.08
1957 assessed valuation — $4,031,090; tax roll — $221,761.86
1958 assessed valuation — $8,234,130; tax roll — $330,658.40
The above three years are township only

Terrill goes on to point out that previous to 1958 care-of-poor and drain-at-large assessments were included in the tax roll. This $4,700 will come from the township's share of the tax dollar this year.

He shows how the tax dollar is divided in the Northville and Plymouth school districts of the township:

Northville School District	Plymouth School District
County—20.1425 percent	County—23.3414 percent
Township—2.32 percent	Township—2.7066 percent
School—77.5375 percent	School—73.9520 percent
Rate per $1000 — $40.57	Rate per $1000 — $35.01

In his conclusion Treasurer Terrill points out that Wayne county's assessed valuation of the township was lowered from $9,248,720 to $8,234,130 by the board of review. Actually, however, it was brought back almost exactly to the higher figure by an "equalization factor" of 1.19.

Treasurer Terrill has no solution to the problem that is common to nearly every fast-growing, industry-poor suburban community caught in the classroom squeeze. More than likely, as a taxpayer himself, he's just exercising his right to complain.

Just for comparison, we took a look at the city taxpayer to see what had happened to him during this climbing tax era.

As for school taxes, city residents are in exactly the same boat as their township neighbors.

But when it comes to city taxes, it can probably be said that local taxpayers are paying LESS taxes than when they enjoyed village status.

Here's the comparison:

1954 assessed val.—$6,159,725; tax roll—$91,159.69
1955 assessed val.—$6,475,240; tax roll—$95,336.71

The above two years represent village status — all assessments in the city were lowered at incorporation and millage went from 14.7 to 19.5

1956 assessed val.—$4,428,140; tax roll—$86,228.25
1957 assessed val.—$8,562,890; tax roll—$99,012.47

In 1956, following the lowering of local assessments, the state began its "equalization" practice to bring assessments up to a point they (the state) felt they belonged. Thus in 1956 and 1957 the city was "equalized" to an assessed valuation equal to its present assessed valuation made during a reappraisal program last winter.

But, for all practical purposes, the city is now collecting $99,012.47 in taxes from its residents, when in 1955 the village was collecting $95,336.71. Since that time, growth in homes and business would undoubtedly make the average city tax payment per resident lower in 1958 than in 1955.

This is indeed a unique situation, probably unmatched in any city.

Taxpayers can feel little satisfaction from this blessing, however, as it cannot be denied that their taxes as a whole, including school and county, have gone up in direct proportion with the township.

Others would point out that the city now also receives approximately $90,000 annually in state tax rebates from racing. As a village the track paid $500 a night to the local government for general services provided.

The council has attempted, and can probably prove, that this track money has gone for capital improvements aside from the general operation of the city, however. In other words, it has been spent for items often paid by special assessment in many cities: as examples, fire truck, paving, curbs and gutters, land purchases for parking, etc.

Thus, while the school board has been moving steadily along in business-like manner to provide adequate facilities for its students, the city has been reticent to seek more tax dollars.

It's a sharp contrast. Some might criticize the school board for taking the biggest slice of the tax dollar, while most would probably praise the board's initiative to care for its interests.

But what of the city? Should municipal facilities be allowed to run down, or should the city council take a "school-board, march-forward" attitude?

Probably, for the sake of the taxpayer, a compromise policy must be reached.

In the meantime, the city has found a way to completely revamp its water system and do it without raising taxes. The $300,000 project will be financed from revenues of the water users.

But next February, voters will be asked to approve the bond issue as a "guarantee" of the loan and, consequently, make lower interest rates possible.

City councilmen have marched forward to the point where they are asking for a "vote of confidence" — not extra tax dollars.

In the past history of the city, this is a big step.

Candidates Scarce

No new candidates appeared with petitions for city or township offices this week.

Candidates for township and city offices up for election next April must file petitions with their respective clerks by December 29. Township candidates face a primary election February 16.

A slate of township Republicans have filed petitions. They are: George Clark for supervisor; Mrs. Marguerite (Rita) Northrup, clerk; R. D. Merriam, incumbent, seek re-election. Councilman John ment trustee; Roy M. Terrill, Stuebenvoll is retiring.

Incumbent treasurer, Lawrence Massellink, incumbent justice, and Donald E. Robinson, board of review. No petitions have been filed for constable.

Supervisor Mollie Lawrence and Clerk D. J. Stark announced last week they would not seek re-election.

No city petitions have been reported in circulation. Two council seats and the mayor post are up for election. Mayor Malcolm Allen and Councilman John Canterbury have indicated they will clerk; R. D. Merriam, incumbent, seek re-election. Councilman John ment trustee; Roy M. Terrill, Stuebenvoll is retiring.

NOEL, NOEL — Christmas songs and music echoed through the community building Tuesday as the Northville high school band and choir conducted a special Christmas concert. The successful program drew warm applause from area residents who listened to the arrangements played and sung by more than 125 bandmen. Patients and personnel at the Northville State hospital also enjoyed the same program on Monday. The concert featured the story of Christmas in song.

Salt, That Is

Temperatures Drop to Zero As City Workers 'Pour It On'

The weather, which has kept an unseasonably mild poker face up to the edge of winter, finally showed its hand this week end.

With snowfalls tying up traffic in midwestern metropolises and banking up to 20 feet high in northern Michigan towns, traffic officers and public works employees have become civic heroes of the moment.

Although the Northville police department reports no traffic or pedestrian accidents due to weather conditions, Public Works Superintendent Herman Hartner, Jr. reported that some 60 tons of salt — more than was used all winter last year — had been spread on Northville roads Monday and Tuesday alone.

Public Works employees have also been putting in overtime hours,

Hartner said, working up to 11 and 12 p.m. and starting out as early as 7 a.m. to combat unremitting snow flurries.

Wayne County Sheriff's office, however, reports a somewhat different traffic picture for Western Wayne county, including Northville township, through the early part of the week.

A rash of minor accidents hit township roads beginning Sunday. Seventeen accidents Sunday, 35, Monday, and 12 Tuesday, were reported for the area covered by the Sheriff's office.

"We're not working overtime," Traffic Bureau's Lieutenant Martin commented, "But we're being worked to death during regular shifts."

"Drivers just don't take time to adjust to weather conditions," he explained, "They start out to work their usual hour, expect to arrive at the same time, and generally rely on the same speed to get there. Then they blame it all on the weather!"

No pedestrian accidents or deaths resulting from overexertion in shoveling snow were reported by township police.

Falling temperatures, ranging between a high of 20 degrees Monday and a low of 0 early Wednesday morning didn't help the problem of snow removal.

Cold and snow, with brisk winds thrown in from time to time, for good measure, can, by weather bureau reports, be expected to continue throughout the week.

CAN'T WAIT — The snow had barely stopped falling this week when these eager high school sophomores decided they couldn't wait for the recreation department to clean the snow off the ponds at the Department of Interior's fish hatchery. So they brought along their own shovel and cleared away enough snow to permit some early skating. Watching Jim Sutton push the shovel are (left to right:) Edle Witt, Dottie Sutherland and Sarah Waterloo.

Annex Suit Goes To Supreme Court

Board Studies Old High School Rehabilitation

With completion of the new high school near at hand the Northville board of education at its meeting Monday night, turned to its next big worry — rehabilitation of the junior high school.

Preliminary plans for renovation, prepared by school administrators were reviewed and forwarded to Eberle-Smith architects who have been contracted for the work.

Major changes will be:

— Removal of the old heating plant and extension of heating lines from a new gas fired boiler to be installed in the Main street elementary school.

— Replacement of worn plumbing facilities

— Renewal of electrical wiring and installation of fluorescent fixtures wherever practical, according to lighting recommendations of the State Health Department.

— Conversion of the present study hall into a combination library and study hall.

Suggestions presented in last year's junior high school curriculum study report will also influence certain physical changes — chiefly classroom enlargement — for adapting facilities to modern educational needs, such as increased counseling and special services, more integration between related academic subjects, closer student-teacher relations, increased library facilities, and a broader fine arts program.

Although expectedly stating that without continued use of the community building, the school program for both junior high and elementary would suffer curtailment in important areas (such as the hoped-for elementary physical education program), Principal Elroy Ellison pointed out that the board will have to "stave off final plans" until a formal commitment about acquisition of the building can be obtained from state legal authorities.

By law, a number four-type school district, which Northville is, is not permitted to purchase a building for educational purposes without a vote of the people.

Earlier this fall, School Attorney James Littell presented a legal opinion to the board concluding that it could not purchase the community building for that reason, from bond money on hand.

In light of sharpened public concern recently about school fire safety, Principal Harry Smith also suggested study of the desirability of building a fire escape from the second floor of the junior high school. Other business covered at the meeting included a report from the elementary curriculum study committee, opening of bids on physical education equipment, and consideration of a proposed senior trip.

Student chairman of the high school senior trip committee, Fred Schwarze, reported to the board the class' study of a senior trip banquet.

The board postponed formal decision until later this month.

Plymouth Township City-Status Vote Set

Northville may have a new city on its borders come February 16 if voters living in 8.3 square miles of Plymouth township approve incorporation as "Plymouth Heights".

Wayne county supervisors approved placing the issue on the February primary ballot Tuesday.

Petitions for the proposed incorporation were submitted last June and headed-off an attempt by Garling Realty company to have a 20-acre subdivision area in the township annexed to the city.

The proposed "Plymouth Heights" includes all the township east of the north-south McClumpha road line. Presumably, the western part of the township could be annexed to the new city if incorporation was approved.

City officials, and many Wayne county supervisors, have frowned upon the proposal which would result in a city completely surrounding another city. Supervisors must approve an election however, if petitions are in legal order.

Northville and Warren Products are nearing a final showdown. This time before the state supreme court.

The age-old annexation battle between the city and the Base-line road manufacturing firm — which began in 1956 — has been through two circuit court trials and the score is even.

Finally, Warren Products, loser in the last court meeting, has gained the right to present its story to the highest court in the state.

Barn Doors Swing Open

An estimated 120 horses will begin making their winter home at the new Northville Downs' barns on Sheldon road today.

The influx of horses into Northville was made possible by action taken by the planning commission and city council.

The planners amended a zoning ordinance which restricted use of the barns to 15 days prior until 15 days following the racing season. The city council gave final approval to the action December 1, making the amendment effective December 11.

Heated discussion centered around the amendment restriction which was placed on the barns when they were built in 1956. Some protests were heard at the November 10 planning commission hearing but the action passed by a six to two vote.

Action to permit wintering in the new barns came about when Downs' General Manager John Carlo announced that old barns in the track area would no longer be used for wintering of horses. He called the old barns a fire hazard.

The decision to consider lifting the ban was made by the planning commission after Carlo and representatives of the retail merchants association sought the change.

Some 250 horses usually winter in Northville.

Workers Seek Retirement Hearing

A request for a hearing before the city council has been made by two Northville public works department employees protesting their forced retirement.

The employees, Richard Clark and Roy Utley, both over 65, were notified by the city manager last week that they would be retired from their duties January 16.

Under the city charter, employees may seek a hearing before the city council if the request is filed within 10 days of the discharge notice.

The matter was brought to the council's attention last week when City Manager John Robertson notified councilmen that he intended to relieve the men. He stated that they were unable to perform all the duties generally required of public works' employees.

Public Works' Superintendent Herman Hartner appeared before the council to back up Robertson's stand. In general, Robertson and Hartner told the council that, while both men work good, conscientious employees, they were, because of their age, unable to perform certain physical duties of the job.

The hard-pressed public works' department has been under some criticism in recent weeks for slowness in completing numerous jobs throughout the city. The city manager pointed out that the men would be replaced with more capable help.

Opposition to the move came from Councilman Earl Reed, who specifically called for the retention of Clark.

Mayor Malcolm Allen and the remaining councilmen backed the city manager but considered the possibility of providing the retired workers with part-time work where their abilities could be best employed.

In matters of hiring and discharging employees the city manager may act without council consent.

A retirement plan, newly adopted by the city this year, makes retirement mandatory at 65. This does not become effective until the plan has been employed for five years, however.

Presumably, the council will decide Monday night whether or not to grant the protesting workers a hearing.

Litigation over the 220 acres that includes the Warren plant has been boiling since 1956. An annexation of the area at that time was invalidated after Warren Products won a reversal by claiming vote fraud. The area extends from Base-line to the 8½-mile line and west from Novi road to a point 1,000 feet west of Taft road.

In addition to Warren Products the area includes Northville Lumber & Coal, the D & R Building company's new Yerkes Estates subdivision and several other residences. In the November election last year residents of the area in question voted nine to five for annexation, while Northville voters approved the annexation 159 to 32.

In its appeal Warren Products is expected to contend that the law governing annexations from townships was misinterpreted in conducting the local election. Because the entire area of the township is affected by the loss of valuation when part of its area is annexed, Warren attorneys claim that all residents of the township should be allowed to vote.

"We think the statute is in error and that damage is being caused by the misinterpretation of the annexation law," R. T. Martin, Warren executive has stated. "As a portion of their tax base is removed, the remaining people in Novi township must pay additional taxes to support this loss of revenue," he added.

A brief must now be submitted by Warren attorneys and Philip Ogilvie for the city. No date has been set for the hearing, which may be delayed until the April session.

When Warren officials undertook the present action last September, they sought, and received, financial aid from Novi township (not yet incorporated into a village) in the amount of $500.

Should Warren win reversal of the election, it would become one of three isolated areas of Novi township not a part of the village. The other areas, not incorporated are Northville Estates and Brookland Farms number one.

School Delay Placed At City's Feet

A letter from Walter Couse, general contractor for the new Northville high school, pointed the finger at the city as the cause behind the probable delay in opening of the $2 million building.

The letter, sent to the school board and city council, specifically stated that lack of water for the heating system prevented continuance of work on schedule.

The contractor and school officials had hoped for a February 1 opening date to allow second semester classes for junior and high school students to be conducted at the new high school. The old high school will then be remodeled for junior high school use.

City Manager John Robertson, upon reading the letter to councilmen Monday night, blamed delays in shipment of materials for the city's predicament.

A final section of pipe, only article preventing water flow to the school, was scheduled to arrive and be installed yesterday, Robertson stated. He said the school would have water this week.

School officials still plan to make the student switch to the new school as soon as the building is ready. They contemplate immediate work on the old high school when the move is made so that it will be available for junior high students in the fall. (See story elsewhere on this page.)

Hospital Dedication Set For Next Week

Blessing and laying of the cornerstone for St. Mary hospital in Livonia will be held next Monday.

Some six years after the initial fund-raising drive held in this area, construction of the $3,000,000 174-bed structure began six months ago and is expected to be completed by late next year.

Managed by the Felician Sisters, the hospital will serve the communities of Livonia, Farmington, Redford township, Northville, Plymouth, Plymouth township, Wixom and Novi.

The Rt. Rev. Jerome Smalarz, presiding judge at the Archdiocesan Tribunal, will officiate at the ceremonies.

Secretary of State James M. Hare and Ford Motor company Vice President George Walker will be guest speakers.

Officials representing the communities serviced by the hospital are also expected to attend.

The cornerstone will hold a steel box containing various records for posterity.

Among them will be lists of ecclesiastical and civic leaders, the Religious Superiors of the Felician Sisters Order, the St. Mary hospital staff, hospital Administrative Advisory Board members, hospital board of directors, official documents connected with the building of the hospital, names of architects, general contractors, engineers and superintendents, life members and patrons of the hospital guild, religious articles and souvenirs.

The program for the cornerstone ceremony follows:

Chairman, W. W. Edgar, chairman of the St. Mary Hospital Administrative Advisory board.

Invocation by Reverend Thomas P. Beahan, pastor of Our Lady of Sorrows parish.

Introduction of guests, W. W. Edgar.

Speakers, Honorable James M. Hare, secretary of state; George Walker, vice president, Ford Motor company.

"Messiah" Coming

Soloists will be Mrs. Leland Mills of Northville, soprano, and University of Michigan music students: Shirley Gosling Moore, alto; Millard Cates, tenor, and Gordon Ohlsson, bass.

Organist is John Hofmann, organist for the first Presbyterian church in Ann Arbor, and the pianist will be Mrs. Kathleen Bosch of Northville.

Final rehearsal is scheduled for the afternoon of the 21st at 3:30.

Director Lee invited college students who have sung in previous performances of the "Messiah" here to join the singers again this year.

Law Spares None

Two local law enforcement leaders had a run-in with authorities themselves this week, when Dogcatcher Roy Utley, driving the city dump truck, ran into Police Chief Joe Denton's 1959 Ford.

Colleagues Utley and Denton met bumper-to-bumper beside the Cady street cemetery Saturday morning.

Utley, who claims he had his eyes on the rear-view mirror and thus didn't see Denton, was turned into the cemetery.

Denton reported that he ran off the road to prevent a collision, but Utley just kept coming at him. The dump truck survived unscathed, but Denton ended up with $171 auto damages, and no small amount of mental anguish for his new car.

Plan Christmas Party For Junior Police

All junior police are asked to contact Northville Chief of Police Joseph Denton or any police officer stating whether they will be able to attend the junior police Christmas party December 20, beginning at 3 p.m. in the Northville theatre. Chief Denton also invites junior police to bring their younger sisters and brothers to the party.

DAR to Hold Christmas Meeting Next Monday

The Sarah Ann Cochrane chapter of the DAR will meet Monday at the home of Mrs. Claude A. Cruse on Nine Mile road.

A Christmas program following the theme, "Christmas in Song and Story" will be presented by the Triple Trio from Plymouth high school, and directed by Fred Nelson.

"JUDGE, I'M GUILTY"

A few weeks ago a man charged with breaking into a bank, said that he was in perfect health when he committed the crime, that he did not suffer from blackouts or dementia - praiseworthy and was not in need of psychiatric treatment.

"I just did it for the money" was the reason given. In this day and age we have some penologists who seek to excuse crime on the basis that it arises from mental ill health instead of a sinful heart. Once in a while we find a person who is willing to admit that he is a sinner. It's a very humbling experience for man to come to the place where he admits before God that God's Word is true when it says, "All have sinned and come short of the glory of God." That this statement is true of everyone is hard for certain people to understand. One need not commit great crimes to be a criminal — one offense is enough. So James 2:10 says, "Whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all." One of the first steps in repentance which proceeds faith is a consciousness of being a sinner. When you see yourself a sinner, then you will be able to see that you need a Saviour.

BEAR OR ELK? — Community leaders and public officers, who knew bear, elk and venison was being served, didn't know for sure what kind of meat they were eating at the annual hunters' dinner sponsored by the Lloyd H. Green Post No. 147, American Legion. But everyone agreed it was one of the finest meals they had eaten in a long time. Senior Vice Commander Howard Wright dishes up some of the tender meat for S. B. Stevens, above, while Harold Hatchett helps himself with the mashed potatoes.

Dies After Stroke While Driving Car

Funeral services will be held today (Thursday) at 2 p.m. from St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church for Herman C. Kreeger who passed away suddenly December 8.

Mr. Kreeger had been driving home Monday when he suffered a stroke paralyzing his left side.

He lost control of the car, which then swerved off the road and turned over in a ditch.

Two autoists following Kreeger carried him out and drove him to his home, less than a block from the accident.

He was taken to Grace-Northwestern hospital in Detroit, where he passed away some four hours later.

Mr. Kreeger was born May 2, 1894 in Salem township, son of Ferdinand and Ida Kreeger.

He had been a life member of St. Paul's Lutheran church and as a Lutheran Day school student had been confirmed April 24, 1910 by Rev. Manske.

He was employed as township road commissioner and by the Wayne county road commission in earlier years, and for the past 23 years by the Ford Motor company.

Survivors include his wife, Mary; a son, Donald; two daughters, Miss Phyllis Kreeger and Mrs. Norine Luedtke; four stepchildren, Mrs. Evelyn Little, Charles Mankia, Richard Hale and Mrs. Bevea Clement; five grandchildren; two brothers, Charles of Dansville and William of Plymouth; also five sisters, Mrs. Elsie Balko, Mrs. Matie Cockran, Mrs. Emma Copland, Mrs. Edna Huff, all of Northville, and Mrs. Minnie Korzon of Detroit.

Burial will be in Clarenceville cemetery.

Woman's Club Plans Tea To Honor New Members

Northville Woman's club will meet for a Christmas tea honoring new members December 19 at 2 p.m. in the Northville library.

In the program, Mrs. Robert Power will read "A Happy Christmas" and holiday carols will be sung by a quartet composed of Mrs. Drake Older, Mrs. Don Sober, Mrs. Wilfred Becker and Mrs. Paul Cargo, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Jan Bosch.

The Northville Record

THE OLDEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY — EST. 1868 Thursday, December 11, 1953—9

School officials and builders predicted this week that completion of the new Northville High School by the hoped-for February 1 opening date seems out of reach.

Superintendent of Schools Russell Amerman estimated building to be 75% complete but, according to building superintendent

Frank Ellis, work has been hampered by slowdowns resulting from delays in material shipment and work difficulties brought on by cold weather.

Favored with generally good conditions, workmen managed to keep up with and ahead of their March 1 "deadline" schedule throughout most of the summer.

Installation by the city of two deep-well turbine pumps, expected this week, will enable use of the heating plant, and remaining major indoor work — including laying of the gymnasium floor, interior carpenter work, hook-up of the heating plant, painting and installation of light fixtures — to proceed normally.

Shipment of materials has picked up somewhat, Ellis said this week, adding that with the chief problems out of the way the March 1 deadline can probably be met.

As far as it is practical, Amerman said, plans for the move into the new campus will hold "almost up to the last minute" in order to get renovation of the old high school building underway as soon as possible.

Both Amerman and Ellis indicated that measuring by present progress there is little reason to think that the moving date would be delayed much beyond March 1.

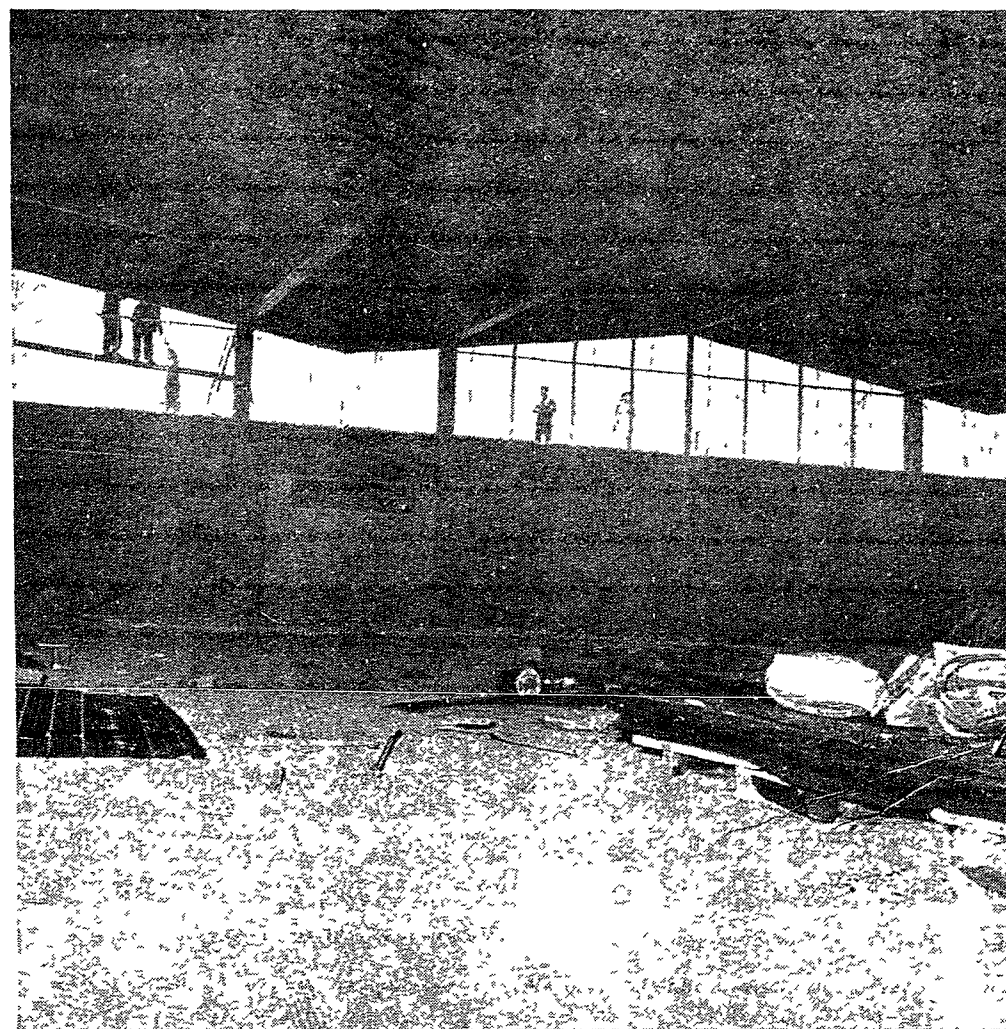

Goodwill Pickup Truck To Visit Here Monday

The next visit of Goodwill Industries pickup trucks to Northville is scheduled for Monday.

Goodwill trucks collect household discards of clothing, shoes, hats, toys, most types of furniture and other household discards.

To arrange for a Goodwill Industries truck pick-up, call the local Goodwill representative, Mrs. Lora Ault, at GR-4-294.

ACRES OF GLASS — Stretching between the various sections of the new school are beautiful glass corridors. Only the asphalt tile flooring and a few other minor details need to be completed in these glass passages.

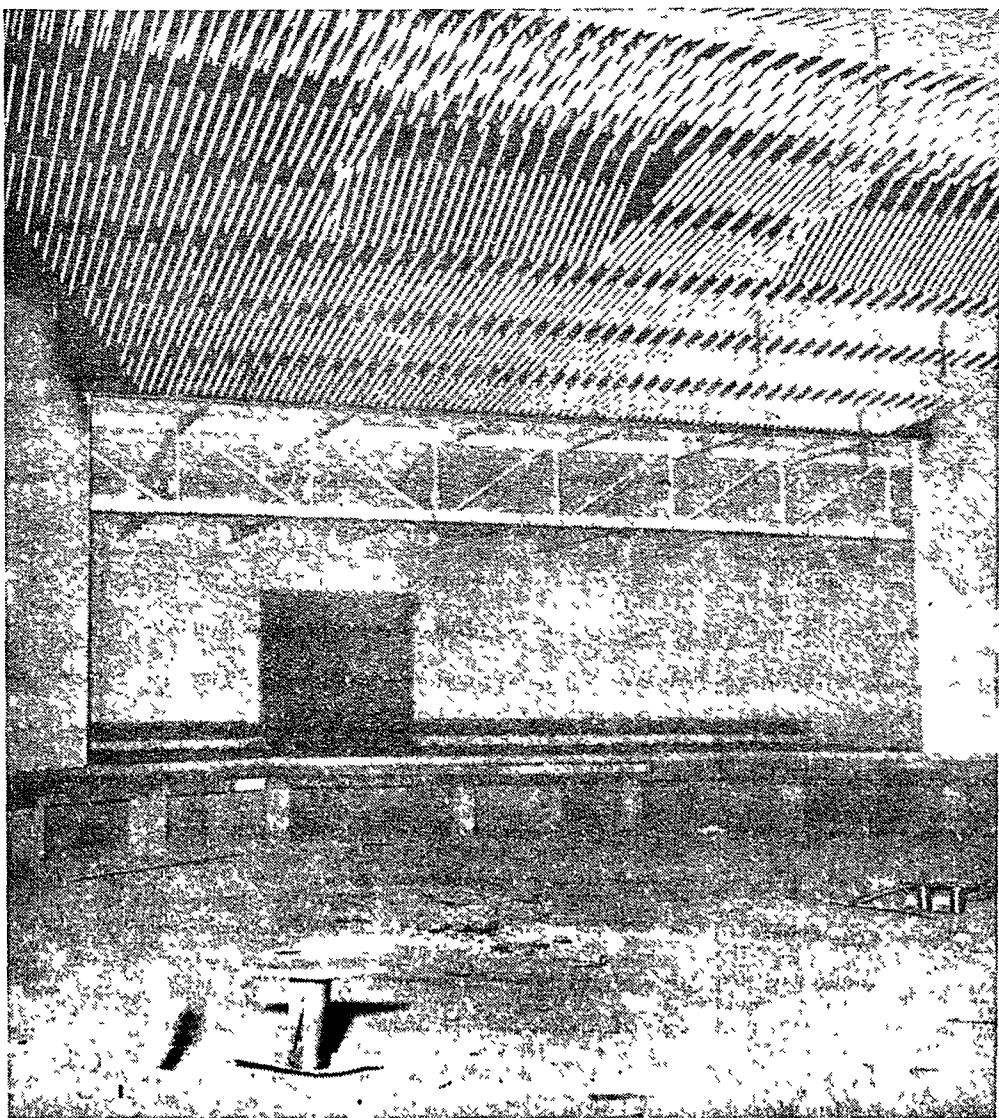

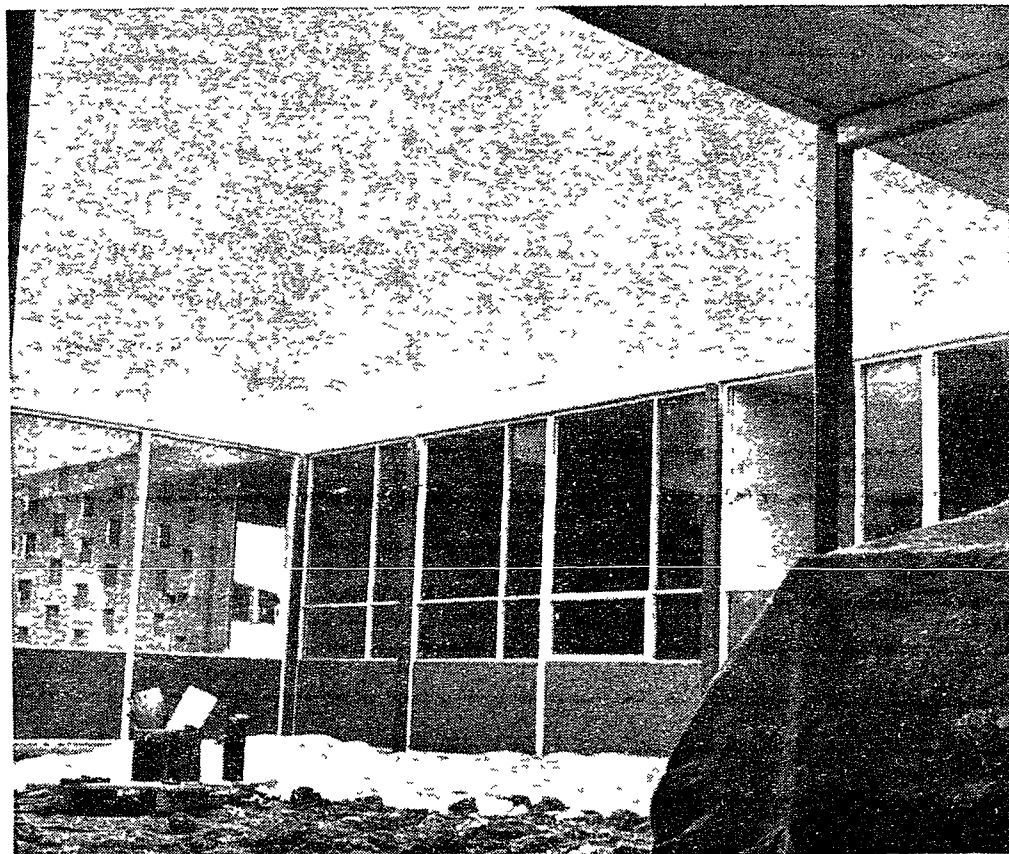

MUSTANG PLAYGROUND—Much work remains to be completed in the new high school gymnasium but the sound of thumping basketballs can almost be heard echoing through the huge cavern. Workmen silhouetted against the sky above are putting in the last panes of glass. Below them are the girls' shower and locker rooms. The boys' showers are located at the opposite end of the floor.

EXTERIOR BEAUTY — It will be pleasant work for administrative personnel who can look out of their office windows above into a pretty court (foreground). Located at the rear is a specially designed 'block wall'. The walk along the front of the building, from where this picture was taken, features redwood paneling.

CLASS PLAYS — Fledgling actors and actresses will take their bows on the 40x37-foot stage above in the school auditorium. One of the features of this room, which will seat 580 persons, is the unusual acoustical ceiling. The latticed woodwork will permit easy projection from all stage positions. Dressing facilities are located in the adjoining music room. Stage props will be designed and built in the shop rooms also adjoining the auditorium.

Set Scoring Mark

Mustangs Throw Rocks, 90-62

UP AND IN — Northville Guard Wade Deal jumps high out of the reach of Plymouth's Ed Sparkman to sink one of the four baskets he scored Saturday night. Deal's nine points plus the 81 others racked up by his teammates set an all-time Northville scoring record.

CAN'T BEAT GIANT — It was the same story all night long. Using every ounce of strength in his six-foot, nine-inch frame, Northville's Center Jeff Goodrich hawked the ball from the boards and leaped high to spear anything in the air. Mustangs shown above watching Goodrich take command of the basketball are Forward Joe Gotro (14) and Guard Roger Atchinson (12).

Basketball curtains opened on a first act flop but came down on a crowd-pleasing finish last week end as Northville's 1958-59 season got underway.

Northville's quintet took a 49-71 drubbing at Willow Run Friday — but on the next night sped to a whopping 90-62 triumph over Plymouth at the community building.

In dumping the Plymouth nemesis, the local squad set an all-time Northville scoring record.

And the score probably would have been a good deal greater if Coach Stan Johnston had stuck with his regulars.

Instead, he cleaned the bench, giving every cager on the squad an opportunity to display his talents.

For Johnston the victory was particularly sweet. It marked the first time one of his Northville teams has been able to defeat the Rocks. The Mustangs had lost five straight games with class A Plymouth.

The after-the-game hand shake with Plymouth Coach Jack Voyle was a fine topping for Johnston's dessert.

For the players who turned in the tremendous performance, the second game may have given them the confidence and hardwood finesse they'll need to capture the division and league championships — still 13 games away.

A clue to Northville's win over Plymouth is in the scoring percentage. The Mustangs fired 64 times and scored 32 for an amazing 50 percent shot record. Northville's free throw exhibition was even greater, 26 of 35 attempts for a 74 percent record.

For the first few minutes of play, the Rocks commanded the ball. But the fireworks soon began.

From beneath the basket, the corners, and the free throw circle, the Mustangs rained in their point-scoring shots. Few missed. By the end of the first quarter, Northville led, 23-7, and as the buzzer sounded at the half, the score stood at 45-24. The Rocks failed to make any real threats throughout the remainder of the game.

Northville's barrage increased to a 32-point margin — high for the night — in the third quarter. The score was 73 to 41 going into the final quarter when the bombardment finally dropped to 17 against the Rocks' last quarter outburst of 21 points.

Excitement reached a climax for Northville fans in the final seconds of play as reserve forward Bill Boyd calmly dropped two free shots to boost the score to the 90 mark — a magic figure few high schools ever reach.

Leading the way for the sharp-shooting Mustangs was forward Bob Starnes with 19 points. Center Jeff Goodrich tossed in five baskets and six free throws, while guard Roger Atchinson connected for 14 points.

Nelson Schrader and Dennis Falon scored 10 points each, Wade Deal, 8; Fred Schwarze, 8, and Jim Patterson and Boyd hit the scoring column with two points each.

Randy Egloff, Plymouth guard, was high scorer for his team with 20 points. Teammate Edward La Roach was next with 10.

Northville will play its first league contest Friday against West Bloomfield. The game is set to begin immediately after the reserve game which will get underway at 7 p.m.

Last year, the Mustangs clipped West Bloomfield twice, 56-35 and 55-42.

Mustangs Miss At Willow Run

They missed the easy ones while the talented Willow Run cagers scored at will.

That was the story of Northville's 71-49 loss to the Flyers Friday in the 1958-59 season opener at Willow Run.

Northville's floor shot record was exceptionally poor. And its five for 16 free shot record was little better.

Coach Stan Johnston called it "one of those games you can't do anything right. But don't take anything away from Willow Run's play."

While the hapless Mustangs tossed and missed, the red hot Flyers, who last year shattered Northville's tournament hopes in a 60-53 win, pumped away at the basket from all angles.

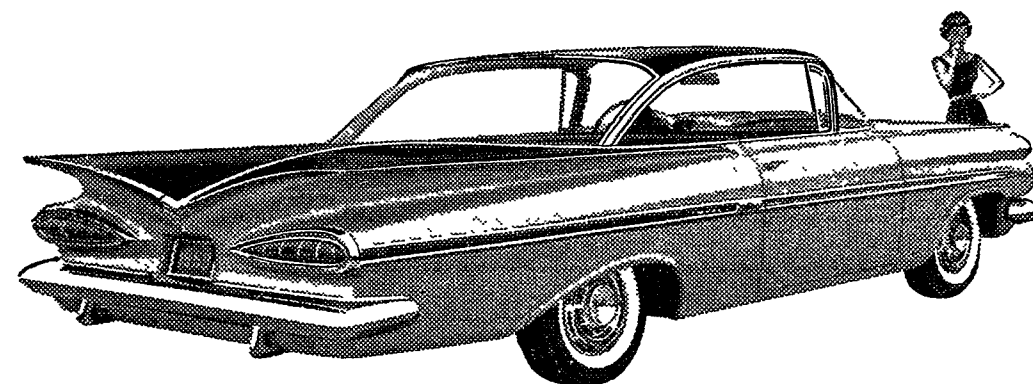

What revengeful spirit the Mustangs may have had at the beginning of the game dwindled away at each shot they missed. Then it became a matter of trying to hold down the opponents' score.

Willow Run surged to a 19-11 first quarter lead and then added 17 more points to move well ahead of the Mustangs at the half, 36-24.

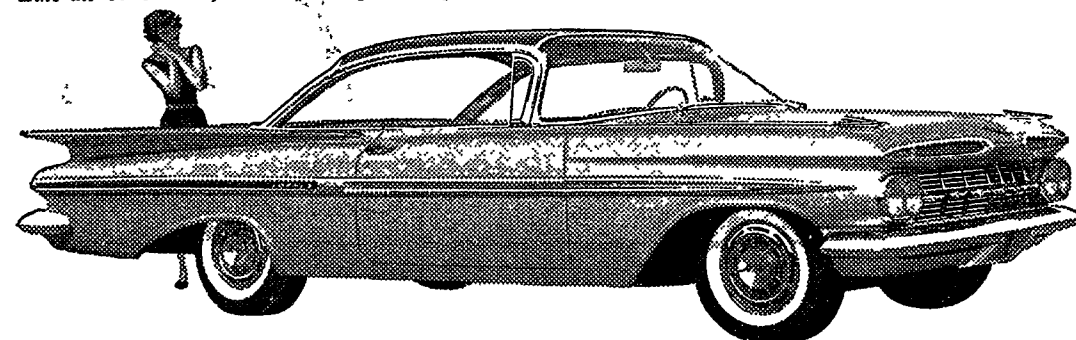

Northville outpointed the Flyers in the third stanza, 13-10, but Willow Run bounced back with a resounding 25 points in the final frame to completely handcuff Northville.

Jeff Goodrich led the way for Northville with 20 points. Nelson Schrader scored 10, Starnes 8, Deal 5, Atchinson 4 and Larry Clark 2.

Cager of the Week

One of the finest athletes ever to wear the orange and black is 17-year-old Bob Starnes who lives at 504 Dunlap. A regular guard with the Mustang quintet last year, Coach Stan Johnston switched him to forward this year to strengthen the team at that position. Starnes pitched in 19 points in taking top scoring honors in the exciting win over Plymouth Saturday. Besides excelling in basketball and football, the senior takes part in many other school activities. Currently, he is mayor of the school — or president of the student council. Starnes, who plans to enter college after graduation, has not yet decided what college or university he will attend.

Colts Lack Polish In Season Openers

A short practice schedule resulted in some unpolished cage maneuvers last week end for Northville's reserve team.

Lacking confidence and hardwood finesse, the Colts bowed first to Willow Run 55-31 and then to Plymouth 42-26.

Northville was able to hit the two-figure mark in only one of the eight quarters of play. The high water mark was reached in the fourth quarter of the opening game with the Flyers. A total of 12 points were scored.

The luckless Colts scored only seven points in the first stanza, four in the second, and eight more in the third.

Meanwhile, Willow Run cagers hit a high of 10 baskets and six free throws in the second quarter. They made eight points in the first quarter and added 19 more in the third. Northville's defense stiffened in the final quarter, allowing the Flyers a single two-pointer.

Dave Filkin, center, was high scorer for Northville with six points. The Colts slipped from poor to bad in the second contest with Plymouth. They scored four points in the first quarter, seven in the second, eight in the third and seven in the fourth.

Plymouth led at the half, 18-11. While the Rocks pitched away from the free throw circle for a 52 percent average, the Colts managed to sink 10 out of 29 attempts.

Forward Bill Juday and Tom Schwarze were high for Northville with six points each.

Exit 92,500 Deer

An estimated 92,500 deer were taken in Michigan during the 1958 season, according to the conservation department.

This is a high mark since the 1953 harvest of 99,500 and confirms a department pre-season forecast of a 10-15 percent increase over last year's take of 79,435 whitetails.

The Mackinac Bridge Authority reported approximately 13,000 deer were taken out of the Upper Peninsula, compared with 9,220 last year. Larger areas and quotas for antlerless deer accounted for the difference above the Straits. Apparently there was no significant change in the Upper Peninsula buck kill but the antlerless kill was probably close to the quota of 7,000 for the U.P.

In the Lower Peninsula, where there was no funnel such as that provided by the "Big Mac" for counting deer, accurate figures were hard to come by, but department statisticians said: "so far as we know now, the buck kill is definitely up over last year."

H. D. Ruhl, chief of the department's game division, indicated it is too early to estimate total kill figures for antlerless deer. Postcards were mailed December 2 to all hunters and until returns are in, no accurate information will be available. Chances are the antlerless kill in the Lower Peninsula exceeded expectations of 15,200 but he could not say by how much.

Novi, OLV Meet Wednesday

Novi elementary cagers will be seeking revenge when they clash with Our Lady of Victory next Wednesday in the 1958-59 season opener.

Both teams will dress 12 seventh and eighth graders for the contest set to get underway at 4:30 p.m. in the Novi gymnasium.

Coach Gail Perkins' young cagers, still smarting from the three beatings they took last year at the hands of the Northville quintet, are determined to win the opener.

But Bruce Turnbull's team, which has been working out at the Northville community building, has other ideas.

For fast results try a Record classified ad. Phone FI-9-1700.

According to Turnbull, "We're small but fast — just look out." Season schedules for both Novi and OLV have not yet been completed.

KEEP YOUR EYES ON JERUSALEM!

Jerusalem is the most important city in all the world. It is the only city in the world that is called "The Holy City" (Neh. 11:1 & 18). God promises a blessing to those who will pray for its peace. (Psalm 122:6). There is a very significant prophecy concerning it in which we ought to be interested. In Luke 21:24, we read "And they (the Jews) shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be lead away captive into all nations, UNTIL the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled." Particular attention should be paid to the word "Until". The present dispensation shall end when Jerusalem is no longer under Gentile control.

THE SITUATION AT PRESENT

On November 29, 1947 the United Nations made its first decision concerning the division of Palestine between the Jews and the Arabs. It was decided that Jerusalem was to be an international metropolis. This provoked the Jews and the Arabs.

The Jews and the Arabs fought in 1948 ending in a truce in December of that year. The Jews were the victors and the result was that they gained almost all that they asked for except Jerusalem.

Jerusalem is divided into two parts, the old city and the new city. The old city contains three sacred places for the three greatest religions of the world. The Church of the Holy Sepulchre for Christians; The Mosque of Omar for the Mohammedans, and the Walling Wall of the Jews.

The new city lies north and west of the old city. It has experienced an amazing population growth during the last few years. On December 6, 1948, the Premier of Israel moved his offices from Tel Aviv to the new part of the City of Jerusalem. This action was promptly condemned by the U.N. The order to move was never obeyed and never had been enforced by the United Nations.

This leaves the old city in the hands of the Arabs (Gentiles) and the new city in the hands of the Jews.

In between these two cities is a strip known as "No-man's-land". This division is guarded day and night by both sides. Here is where frequent border clashes occur. Barri- cades and barbed wire entanglements are the walls which separate these two.

THE POINT OF SPECIAL INTEREST

If the Jews should move in and take over the old City of Jerusalem, then the Times of the Gentiles would be at an end. It is at this point that the Lord Jesus will return for the second time. His return is the next great event in human history. The Bible speaks of a phenomenal evacuation of all Christians and the bodily resurrection of those who have died in the faith.

We seemed poised upon the very verge of a new age. Not the age of more nuclear surprises, or the age of space travel—but the age of the Lord's return. If the Jews should suddenly decide to enter and possess the old city (which according to reliable information, they are well able to do) the time of His appearing will be at hand.

Surely this should cause every unprepared person to do some serious thinking about God's offer of salvation through Jesus Christ.

HOLIDAY AT EASTLAWN—residents of Eastlawn Resthaven were feted at a Christmas party Thursday evening by members of the Northland chapter of the Dale Carnegie Alumni association. High School Musicians Join W.J.R. Junior Band

The newly-formed W.J.R. Junior Symphonic band is richer by one French horn and a tuba since Northville high bandmen Dorothy Sutherland and Terrence Patrick Meyer joined a few weeks ago.

Sophomore French-hornist, Dorothy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hurd Sutherland of Dunlap street, has been in local school bands since the sixth grade.

She and Pat auditioned after reading about the band in The Detroit News.

Being traditionally short on tubas, the Symphonic Band welcomed Pat, a freshmen member of the high school band and former junior high tuba player, with delight. He is the son of the Howard Meyers of West Eight Mile road.

The Junior Symphonic band numbering upwards of 50 members from some 20 Detroit-area schools, is sponsored by the Metropolitan Symphony Parents' club which was organized to promote increased opportunities for young instrumentalists to learn about good music.

The club hopes eventually to expand the band into 150 members, making up "A" and "B" performing and training bands. Auditions are still open to any applicant between ages 12 and 19.

Regular radio performances, under the direction of Wayne State university music student, Kris Drajath, are held Saturday evenings from the University of Detroit radio and TV center. In addition, four public concerts will be held yearly.

Pat and Dorothy's parents admit that the practice schedule — about six hours a week — is "somewhat grueling" for them as well as the youngsters, but agree that they are happy to go along with the students' musical interests, which are hard to discourage in spite of the rigorous schedule.

The Sutherlands and Meyers have become members of the Metropolitan Symphony Parents' club, and Mrs. Meyer is co-chairman of the executive board.

Local 896 Plans Retirees Party

The party, in honor of all Local 896 members retired from the Northville Ford plant, will include as guests retirees and their immediate families, present members of Local 896, supervisors and salaried employees of the plant.

Sixth Graders to Tell Views At P-TA Meeting Tonight

Sixth grade pupils Jeffery Stadnik, Dana Aro and Martha Salo will present their views on schools of today and the future at the meeting of the Wixom P-TA tonight (Thursday). The meeting will close with Christmas music and refreshments. Books for the school library, which were ordered by the P-TA last spring have all arrived. Numbering 44, the books cost $88.55, and include reading for several grade levels.

Police Tell Drivers Of Holiday Hazards

Chief of Police Joseph Denton pointed out this week that Christmas crowds in shopping areas create difficulties which, combined with the uncertainty of weather conditions, makes this one of the most dangerous times of the year from the standpoint of traffic accidents. "In cold weather, and especially in crowded cars, it becomes more difficult to keep windows clean for adequate vision," he warned. "A good defroster is essential. Dependable windshield wiper arms and blades are very important. Arms must have adequate pressure to remove snow, and blades should not streak and smear. The driver must give himself every opportunity to notice traffic signs and signals, and be able to see without difficulty other cars and package-laden pedestrians who are out in great number during the Christmas shopping season."

Denton also reminded drivers that stop-and-go traction is vital to efficient and safe winter driving. "If pavements become snow-covered or icy, the use of a good set of tire chains is an excellent precaution against becoming hopelessly stalled in traffic, or becoming involved in an accident," he advised.

TAKE A MESSAGE — "And, oh yes, I'd like a doll with dresses, shoes, a bike, some games . . ." That's the general message girls like Joann Klocke, 4, (left) and Vicki Lynn Puckett, 3, are leaving with Santa Claus who is visiting downtown Northville under the sponsorship of the Retail Merchants association. Until the night before Christmas Santa will be walking around the downtown area from 3-8 p.m. week days and from noon to 8 p.m. on Saturdays.

There are two new children in Miss Church's first grade. They are James Roten and Kenneth Enns. The Library club had a meeting called to order by President Diana McCollum. They collected dues and had a secretary's report. Librarian Mrs. Allen has a book on Christmas symbols and read a wonderful story to the club members. She also gave them ideas on how to decorate the bulletin board. Bobby Taylor drew some money from the treasury and bought candy canes for everyone. Bobby Taylor and Ricky Dryer were elected members of the entertainment committee.

Orchard Hills School

Miss Story's second grade planted some seeds in a jar for science to see how plants grow. They are reading a story about a fire in a barn, so they made a barn out of cardboard and some animals to live in it.

Carla Snyder had a Japanese guest at her home. She brought to class several things made of paper: a stork, balloon, little boat and a hat which the children all enjoyed seeing at sharing time.

What Grades Reveal

Mrs. G. B. writes: "I am a member of a citizen's committee appointed by our superintendent of schools to develop a new report card for the grades. We have had considerable discussion about just what the grades teachers put on report cards really mean. Can you direct us to some sources of information on this subject?"

There has been relatively little published dealing specifically with just what teacher's marks really do include. That side of the perennial pro and con discussion about report cards has been generally ignored in favor of the more heated one of whether we should have report cards at all. An increasing number of elementary schools are eliminating the marking controversy by initiating teacher-parent conferences for reporting and discussing the child's progress in school.

When a teacher gives a mark to a child as an outward statement of achievement—whether it be an A or B or 80 or 90—he risks the inevitable possibility of error. Any time any one person regardless of how fair he may try to be, sets out to pass judgment on the achievement of another he must recognize that an element of error is likely to creep in. Such universal factors as biases, "halo" influences, the role of the one being rated in his social group and community may affect the rating. These errors of judgment are a human weakness common to all people, even those whose occupational success depends heavily upon the ability to make correct judgments about others, some prime examples being credit managers, sales managers, personnel officers and social workers.

It is inevitable that two children of the same level of academic ability and achievement will sometimes be marked differently. One study revealed that mathematics teachers scored the same set of examination papers quite differently despite the fact that mathematics is a more or less exact science, one in which the answer to a given problem is predetermined and is, therefore, not subject to personal judgment as to which answer is right or wrong. In subject matter areas outside the exact sciences, differences of opinion as to what represents satisfactory and unsatisfactory achievement are likely to be much greater. Similar differences of judgment are found in all occupational groups.

To really appreciate the apparent inconsistencies among teachers in giving school marks, just imagine yourself as a teacher.

Tom and Joe appear from all available evidence to be almost identical in capacity and achievement as third graders. Tom is exceedingly cooperative, lively, friendly, dependable, and a leader in his group. Joe is a "gloomy Gus" who dislikes participating in group activities, is belligerent, and has few friends in the room. Would you consider this difference in their citizenship to be something which should be included in their marks? It depends on what you think marks should mean: should they reflect only learning achievement or should they represent all of the desirable personality characteristics of the child?

Would the marks you gave reflect the child's industry, determination, affable cooperation, concern for the interests and welfare of others, genuine affection for his teachers, adaptability, and initiative? Are these characteristics likely to be determining factors in success for the child who enters an occupation in which he must get along and influence the opinions of others?

The venerable axiom about the value of "an apple for the teacher" may contain a sizable grain of truth, especially as practiced by the modern grade school child. The shining, red apple has now been replaced with the ready smile, eager help for the teacher, dinner invitations, well-time inquiries about the teacher's family or dog or a sly compliment. And who would say that he could easily avoid repaying these spontaneous and delightful lifts toward a more bearable day when marking time rolled around?

Security, Not Freedom, 'Most Wanted'

Babson Park, Mass. — As I look back over the sixty-odd years as a voter and try to interpret the Democratic landslide of the last election, which happened while I was in Africa, I am forced to this conclusion: The average voter today is more interested in seeking "security" than he is in keeping "freedom." Now the only real security which I have been able to discover is spiritual security. This is confidence in one's God and in oneself so that, come what may, one can, and will, not only survive but meet competition successfully. So the thing that disturbs me most about the present wholesale desire for security, particularly in a time of plenty, is that it suggests a senile civilization, not the youthful, fearless men that made this nation great.

The Democratic landslide was a tremendous rebuff not only to the present Administration's "pay-as-you-go" domestic policy, but also to its foreign-aid policy. The voters seem to be saying, "We want peace, but we are unwilling to sacrifice for it." Our fathers knew that freedom and peace were conditions that had to be cultivated by each generation. Life, for our forefathers, was full of hazards. They were in danger of being scalped by Indians, were often cold and hungry and without material comforts; but they were free men. Today we are slowly, but certainly, surrendering those hard-won freedoms as we move in the direction of a welfare state.

SOAK THE RICH!
Subsidies and guaranteed "womb-to-tomb" economic aids of every variety have to be paid for by someone. Uncle Sam has no mystical source of revenue. Money for your unemployment security or old-age pension comes out of your pocket, not Uncle Sam's. He has no pockets; and if he did, I am afraid they would be full of holes! When you put a ceiling on a man's earnings by taxing his initiative, man tends to give up. And when you soak business and industry, you begin to destroy those financial sources that built our great educational institutions, hospitals, research centers and libraries. You then begin to scare away private risk capital because the return is just not worth the risk. Then government steps into the breach to subsidize those projects which private capital formerly undertook. This means that more money has to be collected from your pay check in the form of taxes. Furthermore, as government takes on these responsibilities, it also assumes control over them. Thus, the individual, little by little, surrenders certain aspects of his freedom in exchange for what he thinks is security.

In my humble opinion, it then becomes but a matter of time before national bankruptcy sets in; in that event, all of our economic legislation may not be worth the paper the laws are written on. It may not happen in your lifetime, or perhaps even in your children's life span; but it can happen sometime. The history books will look back upon such a period as an era of economic leaches. I have long said that the next sizable depression will be brought about by organized labor's over-reaching itself. While we should be grateful for labor's watchful eye, we should at the same time be concerned about strikes and about any of labor's actions which result from its being exempt from the Anti-Trust laws.

OUR FOUNDING FATHERS
Our founding fathers expressed their freedom in terms of responsibility. Each, indeed, was his brother's keeper.

We're Coming Back From "Recession Hollow"

MICHIGAN IS recovering slowly but surely from the "great recession" of 1958.

But the impact and its ripples reaching to every corner of the economy linger on. Men are going back to work in the automobile factories, but it may be months or years before full recovery will result in full employment.

The state unemployment compensation fund ran low during the period and the prosperity of individual workers and their families suffered. Although the trend is now reversed, it will take time to recover.

Hardest-hit of governmental functions was the public welfare system and taxpayers will be paying the bill for months.

Nine counties ran out of money before December 1 and called upon the state to support their entire welfare programs. The largest county to that point was Muskegon, the city that several years ago became the classic example of economic distress for the nation.

Counties normally pay up to 70 percent for welfare services, with the state paying 30 percent.

First signs of trouble came during the spring when the welfare caseloads dropped, but much less than in other years. Generally more jobs are available in the summer, but last year there were fewer such opportunities.

The situation worsened steadily. Now the state welfare officials are predicting a deficit approaching $15,000,000.

They already have asked for a combined Federal-state-local program totaling $179,474,204 for 1959-60, a jump from the inadequate $125,490,359 available during this fiscal year.

Price of special programs, including direct relief, services to the blind, and other welfare functions, will soar from $55,494,500 to $61,955,380.

Costs of state institutions under the social welfare department will increase from $4,226,310 to $6,420,706, most of the hike going into a new Boys Vocational School at Whitmore Lake.

This is just one phase of state government that will need more money during the next fiscal year. Mental health officials are anxious to ease the overcrowding in hospitals, the state's prisons are jammed and a sitdown strike at Jackson was attributed to the low budget for food.

Public health services need expanding to care for an increased caseload; the state's public colleges and universities fear they will lose key faculty members unless they get a salary raise.

That is the background, a partial picture, of the problem faced by the 1959 legislature, which is already split between House and Senate, Republicans and Democrats, urban and rural.

The scene is complicated by a new campaign to revamp the state's tax structure, a plan headed by an income tax proposal which is bound to become controversial.

There may be proposed a doubled tax on beer; now taxed at $1.25 per barrel, and other levies.

The only safe wager as the 1959 session gets underway is that, while some of the problems will not be solved, some will be. The right answers may not always be found, but the 144 lawmakers will have had every opportunity to earn their $5,000 salaries by summer.

MICHIGAN'S Department of Labor is a misnomer.

For years, it has been confused with the State Labor Mediation Board, the Workmen's Compensation Department and the Michigan Employment Security Commission (MESC). The department neither mediates labor disputes, handles claims from injured workers or arranges weekly benefits for those who are out of work.

Actually, the department's major task is industrial safety.

It conducts inspections in factories, enforces regulations concerning elevators, handles claims for back wages and performs a large number of services both for the industry and working man.

Another of its functions is to enforce the state's child labor law. Before a child under 18 can work for money, he must have the approval of the state labor department.

WRITTEN ON THE RUN
I haven't had much time to polish up my prose this week. Early bird Christmas shoppers (bless 'em) have had me on the run. But thought I would pass some hasty observations about our portion of the holiday counter attack.

COLOR IS BIG. Question most shoppers are asking about cameras, "Does it take color?" Most frequent answer, "Yes". Even Brownie Star Cameras, priced as low as $5.95, take color snapshots and color slides.

35mm IS BOOMING. Lots of shoppers are looking at and buying Kodak's new Pony II 35mm camera. A honey of a gift. Takes color slides that are beauties. Price right at $26.75. Ask us to show you this one if you're looking for a gift for someone "special".

MOVIE CAMERAS MOVING FAST. Brownie Movie Cameras are on many a shopping list. New Brownie with built-in exposure meter getting a big play. No wonder. It makes the kind of gift that puts an extra thrill into Christmas morning.

OPEN ME FIRST. Seems everybody thinks the "Open Me First" tags we supply with Kodak gift cameras are a great idea.

GETTING PRESSED FOR GIFT IDEAS? Then see us . . . quick! We have a shopful of gift suggestions that we can make. Just drop in and ask for Instant Help.
