

Cady Zoning Decision Delayed Council Seeks $40,000 To Meet Water Debt

Northville planning commissioners postponed a decision on the proposed re-zoning of the north side of Cady street between Center and Church streets Tuesday night.

But the board ruled it would come up with an answer very soon, probably next Tuesday night.

The motion for delay came after two hours of discussion from an audience of more than 50 persons who jammed the small council room quarters of the city hall.

Specifically, the public hearing was called to change the zoning classification of the block from residential to commercial. The zoning would allow construction of a new A&P supermarket to face the parking-alley between Main and Cady streets. Under the plan parking would be provided next to the store. In addition local merchants are giving financial-backing to development of a 33-car parking lot on Main street between Northville Realty and Manville Drugs. The A&P store would face this Main street parking area.

Principle objections to the plan came from Mr. and Mrs. James Green, William Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Van Atta and Mrs. Margaret Johnson, all residents of Cady street.

Points most frequently mentioned included:

— lack of information surrounding plan;

— prospect of Cady street becoming service alley for stores facing parking-alley;

— truck traffic on Cady street and general poor surface condition of street;

— other locations within the city that are more desirable;

— belief that development would hurt the value of property on Cady street;

Merchants Roy Stone, Nelson Schrader, Essie Nirider, Leo Mainville and Carl Johnson spoke out in strong favor of the plan.

They placed great emphasis on the boost that business would be given from shoppers attracted by a modern supermarket. "While we recognize that progress may cause some inconvenience, we also have assurance that the builders will construct the store with consideration of the residents in the area in mind," Schrader said. He pointed out that local business badly needs a supermarket and that the construction of one within the business district would probably attract another. "At any rate it will give us security against other developments on fringe areas," he added.

Johnson and Nirider pointed to A&P's decision to stay downtown as a "boon" to local business. Johnson said if the store rebuilds out of town, others will follow and the downtown district would have heavy losses. "I positively know that another $100,000 project in our business district is dependent on the development of this supermarket," he added.

A minimum distance requirement from churches to enable sale of beer was pointed out as the main objection to other locations for the store.

In general the commission favored the re-zoning. Regardless of the store development, the commission stated that Cady street must be rezoned for commercial use.

The delay was brought about by George Zerbel's motion to confer with A&P to determine if they would consider another site within the business district.

Mrs. Green, as principle spokesman for the opposition, said that she favored having the store downtown but would rather have it on Main street or facing Cady. She also stated that the Green residence on the south side of Cady would be a better site with more available parking.

During the hearing the planning commission's consultant W. J. Johnson of Waring and Johnson introduced a futuristic plan for Northville. He cautioned that it was still premature. It provided a mall-type Main street with traffic flowing around the business district. The plan would re-direct Center and Main streets to form a circle around the business district.

Johnson upheld the parking plan for Main street as proposed in the supermarket project.

In commission discussion at the conclusion planners acknowledged the necessity of keeping commercial development tied to the present business district.

FUTURE PARKING — This Main street building along with an adjoining vacant lot will become a 33-car parking lot if the proposed supermarket plan materializes. A decision to re-zone Cady street to permit the construction was delayed Tuesday night by the planning commission. Council chambers were jammed with area residents and merchants at the public hearing.

Band Wins More Honors

"This is a terrific concert band by far the best I've heard today." That's how one of the judges summed up the performance of Northville's high school band after he and three other judges rated the local band "tops" in the district festival conducted Saturday at Willow Run.

In turning in the stunning performance, the Northville band earned the honor of entering the state band festival at Jackson April 18.

Northville received a "1" rating for the district showing from all four judges, and in 29 individual categories they were awarded 21 "A's" and eight "B's".

Directors Leslie Lee and Robert Williams were quick to add their own applause to the band, calling the students "an excellent group of musicians."

The performance was even more impressive, they explained, in light of the absenteeism during recent rehearsals because of widespread sickness among the bandmen.

Saline was the only other band which took a "1" rating in the district, which includes bands from Wayne, Oakland, Macomb and Washtenaw counties. Only bands with "1" ratings are permitted to compete in the state festival.

The performance Saturday was the second time in two years that Northville has walked off with top honors in the district. The band turned in a similar "1" rating last year.

Saturday's showing was the second major honor for the high school band in recent weeks. Earlier, Northville maintained the domination of the all-Wayne-Oakland league band selections by taking 33 of the 75 positions and ten "first chairs". It also placed members in all of league band's 20 sections.

In the festival Saturday, all bands were required to play "The Conqueror" by Tietke. The required composition was "Folk Song Suite" by Vaughn-Williams, and the selected composition was "Pavane Fourth Symphony" by Tchaikovsky.

Other comments on the performance of the Northville band:

"Good spirited tempo. Accents observed by majority. Good intonation throughout. Artistic reading by entire band."

"Balance throughout excellent. General reading terrific."

"Congratulations to director and bandmen. Shows a lot of fine drilling and training. Keep up the excellent work."

"Virtuosity in so many players. An outstanding group."

Judges were Leonard V. Meretta, Western State University; Al Wight, director of bands at Purdue University; Everett Kisinger, Illinois University; and Charles Minelli.

Local Debaters Drop State Match

Northville's championship debate team lost a sudden death, first round match Monday in the regional high school Forensic association tournament at Wayne University.

The loss to Class A Royal Oak Dondero dropped Northville, which won the Wayne-Oakland league championship this year with a 7-1 record, from the tournament.

Nearly 100 outstanding high school debate teams throughout the state are participating in the tournaments held at both Wayne University and the University of Michigan. The tournaments will culminate in the state championship debates at U-M April 18.

Marianne King and Charles Hix represented Northville in the elimination debate. They were coached by Florence Panattoni.

Cagers Draw Milford in District

Northville's high school cagers posted one win even before the district basketball tournament scheduled in Milford next week begins. It was the "luck of the draw". Athletic Director Al Jones, drawing for Northville Tuesday, came up with Milford leaving powerful Brighton and South Lyon meeting in the other contest.

Northville has beaten Milford twice during regular season play. The two teams meet Thursday night (March 5) at the Milford high school gymnasium at 7:30.

South Lyon, with an 11-3 won-loss record, and Brighton with a 13-2 mark meet Wednesday night. Winners of the two games play Saturday night, March 7 at 7:30 in Milford.

The district tourney champion will go to Willow Run to meet district winners from Milan, River Rouge and Blissfield.

The Mustangs complete their regular cage season tomorrow night at West Bloomfield. (See page 11).

Choosing Assessment Ratio Perplexes City

Personal property assessments came in for reviewing by the city council Monday night with the city manager explaining the state trend towards an assessment ratio of 50 percent.

The complications between county and state equalization factors, however, leave local assessors in Wayne county in a squeeze.

Manager John Robertson explained to the council that action taken by the state tax board on appeals made by Detroit Edison and Consumers Power company on their personal property assessments last year indicates that the state expects municipalities to bring their assessment ratios to 50 percent within three years.

Last year Northville used 85 percent. Detroit, which also used 85 percent last year, will use 83 percent this year, Robertson said.

Wayne county has indicated it will use a ratio of 80 percent, he added.

This is where the Wayne county communities are caught. Presumably, the municipality should follow the state recommendation and lower the assessment ratio to perhaps 70 percent this year with a goal of 50 percent in 1961. If this is not done, it is likely that industry and utilities will again appeal their assessments to the state and win rebates.

On the other hand, if Wayne county is using an 80 percent ratio and the city of Northville uses less, the county will apply an equalization factor to the area to bring up tax revenues thus affecting all taxpayers — real and personal alike.

While the council reached no conclusion on the personal property assessment ratio, it appeared that the only solution would be to apply a lower ratio in keeping with the state recommendation and then appeal any county boost.

The personal property tax applies to equipment and inventories of industry and retail businesses. It is loudly criticized on many counts.

Protests range from the fact that high assessment ratios — in the 70s and 80s — are often equalized even higher thus approaching 100 percent. The tax also is challenged on the basis of integrity.

Many claim that it encourages low-inventory and equipment valuation estimates.

The council will determine the assessment ratio after another report from Manager Robertson next Monday.

In other council business Monday night Mayor Malcolm Allen called for the council to begin study on special assessment procedures. The action came after Gerald Taft, 45518 West Eight Mile road, presented a request for sewer service under the special assessment act for some 90 acres in the extreme northwest limits of the city.

Taft, and the Springbrook corporation which he heads, plans a 90-home subdivision on 32 acres directly north of the high school and west of Northville Heights subdivision. On the west side of Taft road an additional 61 acres will be subdivided in the future. This area is not yet a part of the city's sewer district and must be accepted by the county before it can be connected to the present system. The city manager will seek this permission from the county.

In final business the council appointed Garrett Barry to another three-year term on the board of review. Payment of an $8,000 library bill was postponed until it was learned whether the county board of supervisors' library committee would render an opinion of the city's appeal against the increase. The mayor reminded the council that consideration should be given to turning the library service over to the school system.

The township board will meet March 3, 4, 9 and 10 at the township hall between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Property owners may check their assessments at the township hall.

The city board of review will hold its first session Tuesday, March 10 from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. March 11 the board will meet during the day and also from 8 p.m. until 10 p.m. The final session is scheduled for Saturday, March 14 from 9 a.m. until noon.

Attendance at the hearings is not expected to be nearly as heavy as last year when both boards were swamped. A reappraisal program undertaken in 1957 boosted some city and township assessments for 1958 as much as two and three times.

Any city resident whose assessment has been raised will be informed before the hearings by mail.

noon. Licenses, due this month, may be obtained at the city hall during the clinic. Only 89 of the township's 350 dogs have new licenses, while only 52 of the city's 250 dogs have been licensed for the coming year.

Major jobs remaining, Principal E. V. Ellison stated are those connected with general interior work — the largest being completion of the gym — problems of obtaining adequate water pressure, and leveling of grounds behind the gym and auditorium for parking.

Workers put in a busy week on Northville's new high school, but estimates on opening day have been moved up to early April.

Since Thursday, library equipment and auditorium seating has arrived, the building public address system installed, laying of the gym floor underway, and most work on other floors, completed.

Still smarting from a set-back at the polls the city council began looking for money Monday night.

Defeated by five No votes in the proposed $300,000 water improvement bond issue, the city was left with a $40,000 debt to the water department, nearly $10,000 in engineering and consultant fees and another $25,000 obligation if water at a newly-established well site is to be used.

Admittedly, with four months to run on its present budget, the city cannot meet any of its bills without borrowing money.

Although the council authorized the city manager to begin initial steps to borrow some $40,000 by selling tax anticipation notes, it was not at all certain that the city would follow his procedure to solve its financial dilemma.

Another solution is to take the bond issue proposal back to the voters. This has been strongly recommended by the bond attorneys in view of the closeness of the election.

It was suggested that a special election on the same $300,000 water improvement program could be held May 18.

While the council made no attempt to reach a decision in the matter Monday evening, Councilman Ed Welch spoke out strongly in favor of another election. Councilman Welch said he would be against a straight revenue bond, which would produce only $190,000 at a higher interest rate, and that he believed "the $300,000 bond would pass at another vote".

The city slid into its financial predicament by borrowing nearly $40,000 from the general fund to install a water line and pumps for water to the high school and Northville Heights area. In addition part of this money was used to revamp the reservoir and make use of a building at the old filter beds as a pump house.

Other obligations directly attributable to the water system include the engineering fees for a survey of the system along with recommended improvements and the consultant's charges for outlining the means of financing the proposed improvement project.

Because the council was working under a close deadline on the water facilities for the high school and Northville Heights, the work was contracted and paid by monies borrowed from the general fund.

The water department was to return the money from funds raised by the bond issue.

Within a few weeks the council must decide whether to:

1. Borrow $40,000 by the sale of tax anticipation notes to repay the general fund;

2. Try again to pass the bond issue and thus obtain the money to square the debt;

3. Continue with the new well project estimated at $25,000.

If the council borrows on the tax anticipation plan, the money will have to be repaid from next year's budget. Which probably means a tax hike or reduced services in other departments of the budget.

The council is expected to make its final decision at either the March 2 or 16 meeting.

One thing is certain. The city's general fund must be reimbursed soon. With tax collection time six months away the city cannot operate until then without repayment of the $40,000.

The sewer charge is included in the water bill. To the local average user the five cent sewer-use increase will amount to something between 50 cents and one dollar per three months — or two to four dollars per year.

At the recommendation of the city manager Monday night the council decided to adopt the flat 15 cent charge to keep the increase to a minimum. Manager John Robertson reported that Plymouth was going to 20 cents per thousand gallons for the first 10,000 gallons and 15 cents thereafter. Garden City has adopted a straight 20-cent charge, while Livonia will use the county charge of 11.5 cents.

Geraldine Hansen Married In Congregational Church

Mrs. Thurman Warford

In a double ring ceremony held February 7, at the Congregational Christian church, Salem, Geraldine Hansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hansen of Maxwell road, became the bride of Thurman Warford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Parker Warford of South Lyon.

The Rev. Virgil King of the Congregational Christian church, assisted by the Rev. John Drummond of Covenant Community church, performed the evening service.

Soloist Dale Grinstead sang "Because God Made Thee Mine" and "The Wedding Prayer", accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Harry Richards, a cousin of the bride.

Church decorations were baskets of stock, gladioli and chrysanthemums.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Bonbazine silk, with a bustle back and tinsel lace trimming. A shell cap held her fingertip veil, and she carried a bouquet of cymbidium orchids and stephanotis.

Virginia Hansen was maid of honor for her sister, Miss Mary Ellen Fisher was bridesmaid. Both wore floor length gowns of red velvet and carried bouquets of white gladioli.

Dale Freeman of Detroit served as best man.

Ushers were Irving Hansen, brother of the bride, and Jerry Horne of Detroit.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hansen selected a toast dress with mint green accessories.

Mrs. Warford wore a beige dress and brown accessories.

A reception was held for 125 guests at Salem township hall. Friends and relatives came from Rogers City, Detroit and Cincinnati.

For their wedding trip to Grayling, Geraldine donned a royal blue sheath dress and white accessories. The newlyweds are making their home at 300 North Mill street, Plymouth. Thurman is an officer on the Ann Arbor police department.

Since 1946, Mr. Budenz has appeared under government subpoena in 60 trials dealing with Communism. He testified against J. Peters, the man who directed espionage for the Communists, and also appeared before the House Committee on un-American activities in the early hearings investigating the Alger Hiss case.

In 1945 Mr. Budenz left the Communist party to return to the Catholic church. At that time he was managing editor of the "Daily Worker", official daily organ of the Communist party. He was also the president of the corporation publishing that paper, and a member of the national committee of the Communist party.

During the past 10 years, Mr. Budenz has devoted 4,000 hours to the FBI in furnishing information concerning the personnel and tactics of the Communists.

His autobiography, "This Is My Story", is declared to be "the most damaging evidence of the conspiratorial character of the American Communist party ever published." He has also written, "Men Without Faces", "The Cry Is Peace", a textbook, "Technicians of Communism", and the syndicated column, "Ex-Red".

Lila Lea Skow Wed in Iowa City To Law Student, James N. Molloy

St. Wenceslaus Catholic church, Iowa City, Iowa was the scene of the wedding of Lila Lea Skow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Skow of Horton street, to James N. Molloy.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Earl Corcoran and the late Leo Molloy of Independence, Iowa.

The Rev. Edward Neuzil performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with white carnations.

Soloist Cleo Schawtzberger sang "Ave Maria" and "Mother at Thy Feet is Kneeling".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of chantilly lace and raw silk, which featured a sabrina neckline and brush train. Her fingertip veil of chantilly lace fell from a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of garnet roses centered with white orchids, and a crystal rosary — a gift from the groom.

Rita Kay Skow attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore a red velvet sheath dress with taffeta cummerbund and white fur headpiece.

Pinned to her white fur muff were red garnet roses, ivy and streamers.

Bridesmaids, in matching outfits, were Pat Assmus and Betty Frantz, sister of the groom.

Jim chose Harold Plank as his best man.

Groomsmen were Delano Skow, brother of the bride, and Richard Frantz, the groom's brother-in-law, and ushers were Dean Hayward and Jim Knoll. The men all wore midnight blue tuxedos.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Skow selected a blue taffeta sheath dress with harmonizing accessories. Mrs. Corcoran chose a navy gabardine dress and navy accessories. Both mothers had corsages of white roses.

A brunch for the immediate family and members of the wedding party was held after the ceremony at Hotel Jefferson. An afternoon reception attended by 150 guests was held at the Knights of Columbus hall. Out of town relatives and friends came from Northville, Independence, Pocahontas, Ft. Dodge and Iowa City, Iowa, Decatur, Illinois and Redford, Michigan. Among the guests was Mrs. Alfred Messer of Morengo, Iowa, the bride's only living grandparent.

For their wedding trip to Chicago the bride wore a periwinkle blue two-piece knit dress with white and black accessories and an orchid corsage.

Lila Lea, a graduate of Mount Mercy college, is a registered nurse. Jim is a senior law student at Iowa State university.

They will make their home at 331 North Gilbert, Iowa City, Iowa.

Local Alumni Club Establishes Fund

A subsistence fund to assist graduates of Northville high school who attend the University of Michigan has been established, university personnel announced last week.

University officials said a $500 gift has been received from the Northville University of Michigan Alumni club for the establishment of the fund.

In making the money available, the local club — which was established in 1941 — stipulated that students receiving financial assistance will be asked to replace the money by making a gift to the fund. The club's gift was made through the Michigan alumni fund.

Northville's club—now inactive—was started by a handful of local residents, headed by Gerald Harrison, John Boyes, Mrs. E. A. Chapman, Mrs. L. M. Eaton, Mrs. Waldo Johnson and Dr. Howard Chapman.

The appearance here of the University Glee club a few years ago resulted in the raising of the $500 which was turned over to the university. Alvin Wistert and Robert Yerkes were instrumental in bringing the glee club to Northville.

MORE AND MORE mothers are appreciating the peace of mind that comes from giving their children "phone home money" whenever they go out. One mother puts it this way: "Phone home money is as important for children as a handkerchief. Often they want to go somewhere straight from school. It's such a comfort to me to know that they'll phone me first. And from the children's point of view, help is now always as near as a public call booth."

WILL MOM MAKE IT? Will she be able to rush from the shower downstairs to the phone before it stops ringing? Will she slip or trip on the way? And afterwards, when the panic has died down, will you perhaps decide that Mom deserves a special gift — an extension phone in her bedroom, handy to the bathroom, so that she never has to rush again. Call the Business Office, Michigan Bell Telephone Company, for details.

TALKING OF bedroom extensions, we've just heard of a man who sprained his thumb when he stumbled, on his way downstairs to answer a nighttime phone call. Shortly after, he had a bedside extension installed. But guess what happened the very next time he had a late phone call — he was all the way downstairs and groping for switches and muttering to himself before he realized that there was now no need to stir from bed!

WITH ALASKA ONE OF "us," a lot of flag makers are going to be busy with needles, thread and extra stars. Talking of flags, did you know that the world's largest belongs to Michigan—or more exactly, to the J. L. Hudson Company in Detroit. Its vital statistics—height 104 feet, width 235 feet, weight 34 ton. The oldest existing American flag can be seen at the museum in Old Bennington, Vt. The first flag to use the stars and stripes design was made by Betsy Ross in her cottage in Philadelphia (now a national shrine). The design was approved on June 4, 1777.

THE SMILE IS UNANIMOUS — The attractive John Rogers family are newcomers to Northville from Detroit. In friendly succession (left to right) are: Jeanne, Terrie, Mother and Dad, and Linda. Linda sits beside the built-in living room aquarium, Mrs. Rogers' hobby.

Former suburbanites whose fondness for small towns led them to Northville are Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers and daughters, Terrie, 7; Jeanne, 4, and Linda, 2. Originally from Birmingham, the Rogers' moved into their Carrington drive home from Detroit this October.

Mr. Rogers is an electrician for hall engineering at the WXYZ offices in Southfield township.

An interesting feature of their home is the built-in living room aquarium which Mrs. Rogers tends as a hobby.

Dad's pastimes include wood-working and bowling with the local Knights of Columbus team. He is a member of Our Lady of Victory church.

Terrie is a second grader at American school and belongs to Brownie Scout Troop 574.

Plymouth Concert To Feature 3 Soloists In Easter Time Program

Lyric Colatura Marilyn Cotlow, will be one of the three soloists, along with Richard Miller and Nat Sibbold, appearing with the Plymouth Symphony orchestra in its commemorative and Easter motic program this Sunday.

By including the festival music from Handel's opera, "Alcina", the orchestra will celebrate the bi-centennial of Handel's birth.

Also, Sunday's major concert work — Haydn's "Creation", Parts I and II, in which the soloists and Plymouth Civic chorus will perform — commemorates the 150th anniversary of the death of Haydn.

It is, in addition, a traditional Easter-time concert favorite.

The final presentation, "Divertimento for Orchestra", recently written by orchestra member, Grant Beglarian, will be played here for the first time in its entirety.

Mr. Beglarian is a music copyist who lives and works in Plymouth.

Miss Cotlow, who received her musical training in Los Angeles, has appeared in the New York performance of Menotti's "The Telephone" and with the Metropolitan Opera. She has sung in European opera presentations and has made frequent national concert and radio appearances for the past three years.

Tenor Miller is assistant professor of voice at the University of Michigan and has sung with the Plymouth orchestra before. He has appeared with the San Francisco Opera company and was leading tenor with the Zurich Stadtheater for four years.

Sibbold, singing the bass role, is well known for his local appearances with the symphony and in Plymouth churches. A Plymouth resident, he is employed by WWJ-TV in Detroit.

The Plymouth Civic chorus, directed by Fred Nelson, has rehearsed for "The Creation" for the past several months.

As usual, persons desiring reserved seats for the concert should call by Mrs. Harriet Randall, GL-3-1826 by Saturday.

Marilyn Cotlow

The program, to be held in the Plymouth high school gymnasium, will begin at 4 p.m.

During the concert, girl scouts, under Mrs. Edgar, will conduct a supervised nursery at the school for a small fee.

Discuss Foreign Language At P-TA Meeting Tonight

The foreign language and elementary school study group of the Northville P-TA will conduct a panel discussion on foreign language instruction in the grades at the regular meeting of the P-TA tonight (Thursday).

The panelists — who will answer audience questions — replace the language arts specialist originally scheduled to speak.

Mrs. JoAnne Hollar's fourth grade class will also perform. Other program features of special interest include a display of materials used in education for children patients at Maybury sanatorium.

The meeting will begin at 8 p.m.

Married 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Billman of Marilyn street will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary with an open house for friends and relatives Saturday.

The Billmans, originally from Williamsport, Pennsylvania, moved to Northville nine years ago from Detroit where they had made their home for 40 years.

Mr. Billman is in the real estate business here.

Offer Leader Training For Literary Study Groups

Northville adults can now enroll in the Great Books leadership guidance course to be conducted by staff members of the Great Books Foundation at the Detroit main library.

The program is open to all adults regardless of formal education. Classes will be held in the library auditorium, 5201 Woodward avenue, every Wednesday for 10 weeks, beginning March 18, from 8 to 10 p.m. These lessons are to train individuals in the theory and technique of leading a group of neighbors, friends and co-workers in a discussion study of the Great Books.

Instruction will include demonstration and practice discussions of works selected from the Great Books reading lists: "The Declaration of Independence", Aristotle's "Politics", Plato's "Apology" and Shakespeare's "Macbeth".

Persons wishing to attend should call Mrs. George Weiss, FI-9-3190.

Two Hartley Poems Published in Digest

Two poems by Harold S. Hartley, Sr. of 602 Randolph are included in the January edition of "Poetry Digest", a monthly magazine of poems.

One of the poems is dedicated to Dr. Stuart Campbell of Northville for his interest in music. The second poem is entitled "Ecology".

MUSIC

While feet near homelands linger
On golden scalloped land,
The horizon's mystic finger
Points beyond this sand
To songs of alien airs
Down ocean's emerald stairs.

Eyes in the forest are blind
Till flight-born silver is heard;
And dusting the littered mind,
A rose-robed arrowing bird —
Gay cellist of plumed fire
Plucking strings of blue desire.

The heart is a low gray cloud,
Dull prose of the spheroid earth;
Till lovers of music proud,
Cradling our soul's rebirth,
Rear Ladders choral-crowned
To firmaments of sound.

Novi Baptist Church

On Saturday there will be a rally at the Calvary Baptist church in Plymouth.

The Sunday school teachers and officers will meet next Tuesday at the church at 7:30 p.m.

Novi Mothers' Club

All the members of the school faculty including librarians, Mrs. Allen and secretary of Orchard Hills school, Mrs. Larson, were present at the Mothers' club meeting last Monday evening at the Orchard Hills school. The faculty had charge of the program which included the Noviettes baton twirlers, and a toe dance by Nancy Hansler. The speaker, a sheriff patrol deputy, held an open discussion on child delinquency after which a lunch was served.

Welcomed as guests were three former members, Mrs. John Klaserner, Mrs. Walter Tuck and Vincent Hayes.

Novi Girl Scouts

Senior Troop met at the home of Mrs. Kriedeman. Mrs. Guntzville was a guest who spoke to the troop about her experiences on her trip to the west. They also discussed future plans and settled cookie sale.

Novi girl scout day camp has been set for the month of July again and it is not too early to turn in applications for day camp counselor training to Mrs. MacGillivray.

Skating lessons at the roller skating arena on Eight Mile road have been canceled and classes have been moved to Tuesday evening, 7:00 to 8:00, with open skating following the lesson until 11:00. Leaders, committee people, friends, girl scouts are urged to attend. Cost is $1. Call Mrs. MacGillivray for further information.

Interference Troop 602 continued their embroidery work, turned in cookie orders. They sold 432 boxes of cookies, they are planning soap sculpture in a few weeks.

Mrs. Hanna's troop went ice skating in Farmington and had hot chocolate and donuts for treats. Transportation was furnished by Mrs. Diem, Mrs. Needham and Mrs. Hanna.

Mrs. Smith's troop made Brownie hats, learned a new square dance, "Skip to my Lou" and elected Mary Holmes vice president. They also had a new girl visiting the troop.

Treats were furnished by Kay Kettle.

Brownie Troop 456 wrote laws in their hand books and made posters illustrating the laws. They planned a skating party for this week.

Brownie Troop 1027 had an international theme at their meeting on Wednesday. They used the Brownie paper doll kit and cut out uniforms from various countries and tried on dolls. They played the Cookie Jar and What's in the Stew.

Brownie Troop 1027 met at the school last Wednesday. Mrs. Skellenger helped in the absence of the leader. They learned a new game: Land, Sea and Fire. Mrs. F'geppert furnished treats.

Novi Community School

The Novi Teachers' club elected officers at their February meeting. Ester McDonough was elected president; Arvis Coe, vice president; Frances Coe, secretary, and Arlene Noe, treasurer.

In Mrs. Nehale's sixth grade extra credit for science experiments was given to Burl Altaffer, Terry Krug and Bill Hansen last week. Burl's experiment showed how an electric current travels along a wire causing an electric light to burn. Bill made an electro-magnet and Terry showed the class how the direction of a compass needle can be changed by passing an electric current over the compass needle.

The sixth graders had a Valentine party February 13. Each pupil decorated a box and these were judged at the party. There were many lovely boxes but Stanley Gillet's, Rosie Putnam's and Peggy Angels' were voted the best. Refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

Mrs. Salow's fifth grade and Mrs. Bower's fifth grade pupils made a trip to Henry Ford museum February 17. Mrs. Salow's pupils wish to thank Mrs. Loynes, Mrs. Sprenger and Mrs. Ratcliffe for accompanying them.

Mrs. Paquette, Mrs. Sprenger, Mrs. Loynes, Mrs. Ratcliffe and Mrs. Bower's fifth graders visited the antique show in Mrs. Salow's room.

Bobby Harrison, a pupil in Mrs. Salow's grade, performed an experiment proving chemical changes entitled Dancing Mothballs. Linda Jackson performed an experiment making gas from wood chips.

Mrs. Bower's fifth graders wrote to thank Mrs. Ritter, Mrs. Trotter and Mrs. Ciot for their company on their trip to the Ford museum.

Mrs. Wilcox's fourth graders made pictures of Abraham Lincoln. On Wednesday, Kathleen Erwin put on a play called "Sleeping Robin, the Horse with Three Eyes" which she wrote herself. The following boys and girls were in the play: Richard Pierce, Thomas Zielinski, Reni Gattrell, Billy Groves, Ann Altaffer, Sherry Jones, Sharon Marchetti, Carey Joe Harnden, Gerry Hazelton, Sammy Button, Robert White, Fred Skellenger, Jack Crawford and Billy Bailey.

Sharon Marchetti put on a play last Friday for their Valentine party. There were 18 in the play, all those in the play on Wednesday and Robert Simenton, Peter Wilacker, James Davis and Joe Keg. The play was called "The Queen of Hearts Gives a Party".

Easter Seals Sent To 2200 Residents

Thousands of sheets of 1959 Easter Seals have been put in the mails reminding 2,200 residents of Northville that crippled children are "yours too".

The mailing, greatest in the campaign's 26-year history, was the first step in the month-long appeal conducted by the Easter Seal Society of western Wayne county to raise funds for continuing and expanding services to crippled children and adults. It will continue through Easter Sunday, March 29.

L. C. Sullivan, chairman for the drive, said that "every citizen in Northville will have an opportunity to help provide, maintain and expand the many services needed to rehabilitate the physically handicapped."

"Funds last year made possible an excellent beginning program of social adjustment services in our center: clubs, classes, and a summer Day Camp using our own facilities instead of borrowed ones."

Sullivan announced that advance gifts totaling over $800 have already been received by the Easter Seal Society.

Goal for the 1959 appeal in Northville is $1,800. The Easter Seal campaign is being conducted simultaneously by 1,700 state and local affiliates of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults located in the 49 states, District of Columbia, Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

Approximately 90 percent of the funds remains in the state where raised to finance rehabilitation services for the area's crippled. The remainder helps support a national program of direct service, education and research.

County Residents Answer Broomfield

Are Oakland county residents interested in their Federal government?

The answer is an unqualified "yes", says Congressman William S. Broomfield.

Last week, Broomfield sent out more than 10,000 questionnaires to sample the opinion of his constituents on 10 phases of the Federal government. "The replies have been coming back by the bagful," he revealed.

So far, results haven't been tabulated. But according to Broomfield, the results will be known within the next few weeks.

"Some of the answers we got were surprising, to say the least," Broomfield said. "One man wants a $2 an hour minimum wage and a 39-hour work week as his answer to our nation's financial problems. Others want to cut off all Federal spending and practically do away with Uncle Sam."

Most are emphasizing "no frills" in government, and a surprising number appear to be in favor of an extra gasoline tax to help pay for the Federal highway program.

Broomfield said the questionnaires were mailed to registered voters with "no regard to party affiliation. I wanted to find out how a cross section of the people of Oakland county feel on these subjects, not just the Republicans."

Obituary

W. H. LaBounty

Wesley H. LaBounty, 2854 Erie avenue, Toledo, Ohio, passed away at Maybury sanatorium February 22 after an illness of two years. Mr. LaBounty was born February 19, 1910 in Cleveland, Ohio. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. H. F. Lowry of Toledo. Services were held February 24 from the Dempsey B. Ebert Funeral home, the Rev. Paul Cargo of the Northville First Methodist church officiating. Burial was in Rural Hill cemetery.

MRS. SARAH ELLEN HILL

Funeral services were held February 23 from the Casterline Funeral home for Mrs. Sarah Ellen Hill, 610 Randolph, who passed away February 20 at Whitehall Convalescent home. She had been ill the past two years. Mrs. Hill was born October 3, 1867 in Pennsylvania the daughter of Adolph and Katherine Kegarise. Her husband, Frank A., preceded her in death. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Lock (Nellie) Koonz of Northville and a son, James A. Morehead of Huntington, West Virginia, and a sister, Mrs. Louise Bauer of Ravenna, Ohio. She also leaves seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. For the past 13 years Mrs. Hill had been living with her daughter. The Rev. John Rae of Farmington road, Gospel chapel officiated at last rites. Burial was in Rural Hill cemetery.

"Fight Crime With Integrity" - Piggins

"You can't beat integrity into a criminal with a night-stick," Edward Piggins, former Detroit police commissioner, told Northville Rotarians.

"Now in private law practice in Detroit, Piggins is an April candidate for circuit judge."

Piggins had some startling crime statistics to reveal. He reported that at its present rate crime will increase 35 percent in the next 10 years while the population grows 17 percent. He further added that crime has increased 56 percent since 1952 and that crime now costs us 10 times as much as our contribution to churches and 83 percent more than the cost of education.

Piggins could offer but one answer to the growing crime rate. He pointed to the personal integrity of every individual as essential to combat both juvenile delinquency and crime at the adult level. "We are becoming money-rich and character poor — raising children but not families," Piggins added.

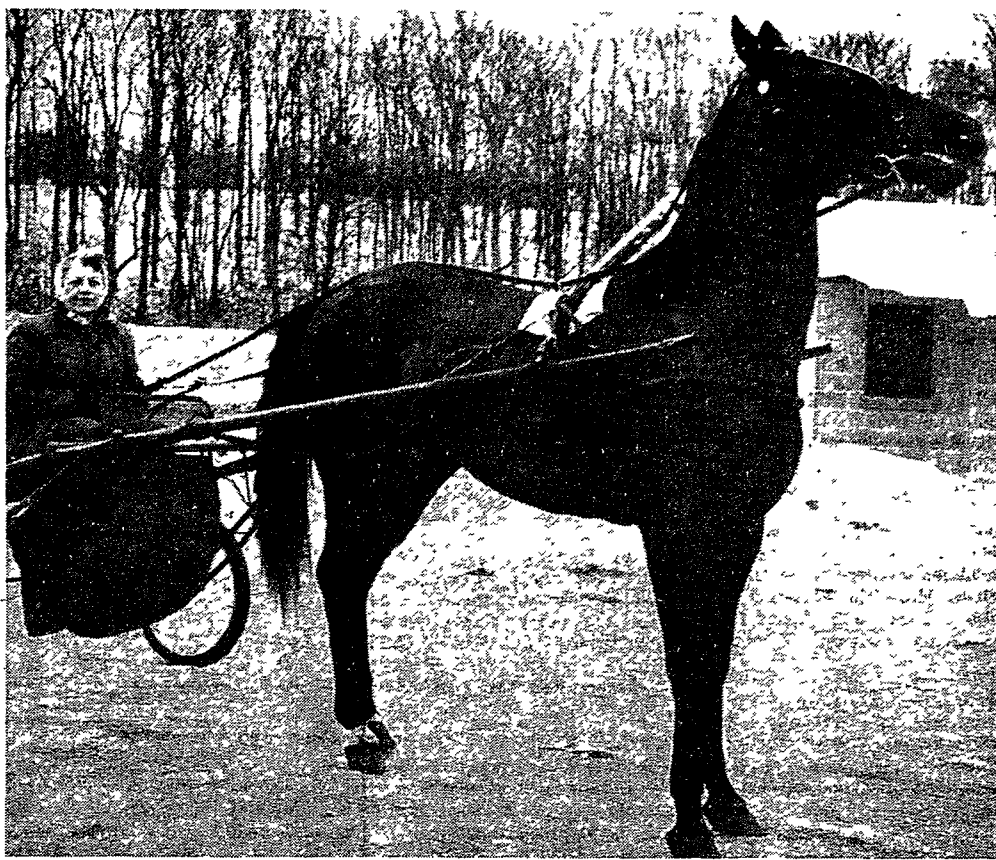

High School Junior Takes More Honors

Back again with entries in the Scholastic-Anso photography exhibit this year, Northville Record Photographer and photo processor, Harold Hartley is doing better than ever.

Last year, Harold, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hartley, Sr. of Randolph street, submitted 24 photos — three of which were accepted for exhibition.

Two of these later won national awards and one was chosen for a national traveling exhibit of 25 photos which were shown in 500 U.S. high schools.

This year seven of Harold's 10 entries were selected to be hung in the Crowley Milner galleries. Of the 30-35 photos on display, Harold's is the largest individual collection. Color as well as black and white slides and prints are displayed. Harold's entries are all black and white prints which he has taken and developed himself.

ANOTHER WORKOUT FINISHED — One of the many horses receiving daily exercise on the winter stable oval and on the Downs' track is "Skyland Lad" owned by Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Doren, 234 High. Here Mrs. Doren pauses a minute before "Skyland Lad" is returned to the stable after a vigorous workout on the frozen oval.

Downs Plans Biggest Season With 7 Stake Events in 1959

With more than 200 horses quartered on the grounds in the most extensive winter training program in history at Northville Downs, track officials announced plans for a series of seven stakes for the 1959 campaign — the most ever for the half-mile plant.

Executive Manager John Carlo in announcing the stakes program stated he believed it would bring the best racing in years to Northville.

"We have the final qualifier of the spring series in the fabulous HTA pace as the big feature," he pointed out. "And to make things more interesting we have secured a date one week later for an invitational pace for HTA eligibles that we believe may develop into one of the finest races staged in the Detroit area all season."

The Downs' 36-night meeting opens with the $10,000 added HTA pace on Saturday, June 27 to kickoff opening week. The Invitational, which packs a value of $5,000, is scheduled for Friday, July 3 and is expected to attract a large entry due to the fact that the week originally was open on the HTA schedule. The $50,000 finale of the spring series is carded for the following week at Roosevelt Raceway in New York City.

The Northville trot, for 16 class eligibles, is slated on Wednesday, July 8 with a value of $3,500. The $3,500 Northville pace, also for those in the 16 class, follows on Wednesday, July 15.

Then the ante goes up with the $4,000 Wolverine, for 14 class pacers, on July 22 and the $4,000 Wayne County, for 14 class trotters, on Wednesday, July 29.

The early closing stakes program winds up with the $5,000 Tri-Meet pace, for horses that started and were non-winners of $20,000 in 1958, on Friday, July 31.

In addition, the Downs will hold the two and three-year-old pace and trot stakes of the Michigan colt series with the dates to be announced later. Each of the colt events is expected to have a minimum value of $2,000.

The winter training program will continue at Northville Downs until the later part of March when it is believed Hazel Park will be opened to horses for the start of that meeting in mid-April.

Plymouth Cagers Seek League Title

Plymouth cagers appear headed for the top four positions in its bid for the league championship. Plymouth - Northville - Training School league with less than half of the cage season remaining.

Heide's of Plymouth has rolled over seven straight opponents in its bid for the league championship. Latest of their conquests was last week's win over sixth-place Northville Optimists, 56-23.

Close behind Heide's is the Plymouth Optimists with an impressive 6-1 record. The Optimists refused to fold in the league race last week, posting a 38-29 win over fourth-place Begingers — another Plymouth quintet.

Plymouth VFW clung to the third spot by virtue of a narrow 29-26 victory over the training school's Red Birds.

In other games played last week, the Novi Specials turned in their first victory of the season with a 33-15 win over the Northville Royals.

1—CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late William D. McCullough of Plymouth wish to express their sincere and heartfelt thanks to the many wonderful friends, neighbors and relatives who were so generous with their kindness and remembrances during the long illness and loss of our loved one. Special appreciation is extended to Rev. Melbourne I. Johnson, D.D., of the Methodist church; Alfred Smith, vocalist; Northville Lodge No. 186 F.&A.M.; Union Chapter No. 55 R.A.M., Northville; the Schrader Funeral Home; Mrs. Edna O'Conner, organist; and to the pallbearers, Ernest Henry, Roswell Tanager, Earl Foster, Duane Johnson, Donald Slee and Charles Minthorn, all of whom were fellow workers of Mr. McCullough at the Plymouth post office, and also members of the Plymouth Masonic Lodge.

Bessie B. McCullough, Dorothy L. and Lawrence O. Ransom, Karen and Jack Ransom.

We wish to thank all our friends and neighbors for their many expressions of sympathy and beautiful floral pieces. Rev. Paul Cargo for his comforting words, the attendants at Whitehall for their wonderful care, and Fred and Emily Casterline for their many kindnesses at the loss of our dear mother and grandmother.

The Carrie Litsenberger Family

Police Break Up Minor Beer Party

A post-Valentine day drinking party ended in a series of fines and a detention home sentence for four area minors — three boys and a girl — Sunday, February 16.

On the complaint of neighbors, the party, held above the Northville restaurant where one of the youths was living, was discovered shortly after midnight by Northville police.

After tracking down tips from Detroit sources, police last week located two out-of-town adults who purchased beer for the minors, but who were not at the party.

Charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor were Ray E. Mates, 22, of Detroit, and Charles Fisher, 22, of Redford. Both were found guilty and fined $60 and court costs each by Judge E. M. Bogart Friday.

The younger boys, John LeHam, 19, of Church street; Louis Brynd, 19, of Garden City, and Terry Welch, 18, of River street, all plead guilty and were fined $5 and costs for disorderly conduct in drinking at a minor party.

The girl, 16, was referred to the juvenile detention home.

Learning of the complaint, John Poulos, owner of the restaurant and overhead apartments, evicted LeHam the next day.

Swainson Guest Speaker

Northville Democrats, members of the executive committee of the 17th district Democratic organization, and members of neighboring Democratic clubs are invited to attend a potluck supper this Saturday at the community building, sponsored by the local Democratic club.

Michigan Lieutenant Governor John Swainson will be guest speaker. State Senator Raymond Dzendzel, State Representative Harvey Beadle and Elsie Gilmore, chairman of the Wayne county organization, along with Democratic candidates in the spring election are also expected to be present.

Lieutenant Governor
John Swainson

The program will follow the 6 p.m. supper at 7:30 sharp.

Alfred Meyers, chairman of the 17th district Democratic organization will serve as toastmaster.

Heading the dinner committee are Walter Gothe, chairman, assisted by Aubrey French.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Harvey Whipple, chairman; Mrs. Samuel Baxter, Mrs. George Bennett, Mrs. Ed Cassel, Mrs. Don Fowler, Mrs. Walter Gothe, Mrs. Joseph Miles, who will also present piano selections, and Mrs. Harry Sanders.

Families planning to attend are asked to bring one hot casserole and one cold dish and their own table service.

Single persons may bring relishes and rolls or call Mrs. C. E. Woodruff, FI-9-1644, or Mrs. Walter Cothe, GL-3-4138 to see what is needed.

TOPS Club Nearing Membership Limit

What TOPS (Take Off Pounds Sensibly) club members lose in pounds they seem to gain in membership.

This week the club announced that its roll call is fast approaching the 50-member limit, with only five openings remaining.

Because of this, persons interested in signing up are asked to call Mrs. Donald Offord at FI-9-3199, rather than join by dropping in on meetings as many have done up to now.

The 7:30 p.m. meetings are held at Amerman school.

A neat 56-pound loss was reported among 44 members last week alone.

International Institute Presents Finnish Lunch

Local women, Mrs. Mabel Cooley and Miss Ruth Knapp of Northville, and Mrs. Martha Egge of Plymouth will assist on the food committee for the Finnish Easter luncheon to be served at the International Institute, 111 East Kirby, Detroit, next Thursday, March 5.

The luncheon, which will begin at 12.30 will consist of a typical Eastertime menu of Finnish dishes, including baked ham, liver and rice loaf, rutabaga casserole, green salad, Finnish rolls and prune tarts.

For more information call TR-1-8600.

Cub Scout Pack 755 Resumes Meetings

Cub Scout Pack 755, sponsored by the Northville First Presbyterian church, will resume meetings — which have been temporarily discontinued for the past few months — next Thursday, March 5 at 7 p.m. in the church hall.

The pack, under Scoutmaster Louis Lanning, will now meet regularly on the first Thursday of each month.

A CHURCH'S REPUTATION

The popularity of a Church is seldom a sign of a healthy spiritual condition. What Jesus said of a man is also true of a Congregation. "Woe unto you when all men shall speak well of you!" (Luke 6:26). It surely is not a compliment for a Church when the wrong people speak highly of it. Surely the world of the ungodly are likely to have a strong prejudice against a Church that condemns wickedness. They will not exactly love them when they make it clear that the vast majority are on the broad road that leads the downward course to eternal destruction. Even the preaching of the Gospel is an offence to them for while it is the sweet savour of life to those who believe, it is the savour of death to those who reject it. The precious verse found in John 3:16 which tells of God's love in providing salvation to those who believe, speaks also of perishing to those who refuse to believe. So we see that a Church which believes in a clear-cut sounding of the Gospel and a denouncing of sin, is not to be spoken of too highly by the unsaved man on the outside. Jesus warned His followers in John 15:18-25 that would be the case.

It's 'Alaska Ho' for This Northville Family of Five

The Northville Record

THE OLDEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY — EST. 1868 Thursday, February 26, 1959—9

The little ones only know they're going on a "trip" — going to live in the "little house" parked outside.

But they, too, seem to radiate the excitement and adventurous spirit apparent in their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerre Wills, 55286 West Nine Mile road.

In just one week this young couple and their three little girls, Cheryl 4, Susan 2½ and Laurie Beth 10 months, will make a trip — a trip that will take them from their little frame house west of Northville to a new home in the virgin wilderness of Alaska's Kenai Peninsula.

In just one week they'll join 25 other Michigan families on a 4,200-mile trek across North America in search of "opportunity".

Jerre and his wife Margie, decided to join the Michigan band of pioneers just three weeks ago. But, according to Jerre, "once we made the decision we started getting ready right away."

They sold their chickens and rabbits, much of their furniture and their car, and bought a used house trailer. (Jerre will pull the trailer with one of the eight trucks loaned to the pioneers by a Detroit trucking firm).

The Wills purchased a year's supply of canned and dry foods. They bought warm snow suits for the children — and boxes of extra clothing and shoes. Lanterns, guns, shovels, knives and axes have joined the growing pile of essentials.

The family will allow themselves one significant luxury — they plan to take along their 21-inch TV set. But even this "extra" will be useless until electricity is available a year or two away.

Jerre is a factory worker, dissatisfied with the uncertainty of steady employment. He doesn't expect to find a "pot of gold" in Alaska — "just a chance to make a decent living."

Hundreds of Michigan folks are planning to move to Alaska, the Wills explained last week as they packed. Already three "wagon trains" to Alaska are planned. The first called the "Fifty Niners", which will leave March 5, will include 15 children, 12 women and 19 men, as well as the Wills family.

A second group will set out for Alaska in July after the spring waters have soaked into the dirt roads, and another group will leave next fall.

The Fifty Niners plan to travel westward across the United States to Montana where they'll turn north to get on the Alcan highway. They'll be traveling in cars, trucks and trailers.

The three-week trip is the only part of this pioneering adventure that worries Margie. She herself was born and raised on Drummond island in the Upper Peninsula, but she's afraid something might happen to her children during the long ride through the North American wilds.

Once in Alaska's Kenai Peninsula, located in the southern section of the new state, the group will establish a small community. The men will begin the monumental task of carving roads into the rugged, untouched lands that lie between the Pacific ocean and the high mountain range to the east.

They'll chop wood for heat, buildings; they'll catch fish and shoot wild animals for meat, and they'll stake out their 160-acre homesteads.

After a year of communal living, the families will establish homes on their own farm lands. They'll build log cabins, rail fences and dirt roads. They'll plant gardens and raise a few farm animals — just enough to meet their own needs. Later, when the land has been cleared, they'll begin farming on a larger scale.

The Wills family will live in their small house trailer. They'll wash in the same mountain streams where they will get their drinking water. They'll use kerosene lamps and makeshift plumbing. They'll wear dungarees and heavy wool shirts. And they'll eat bear steaks.

Communication with the outside world will be only as close as the little town of Homer — 25 miles to the south. For 25 families Homer will be the crutch in emergencies. Here they'll find doctors, food and equipment — ice cream, books and letters.

And from Homer — someday — will come the electricity that will light the lives of 50 pioneers.

Today, an Alaskan home still seems like a dream for the Wills. But it's as real as the boxes and trunks stacked in the corner of their home — or as real as the three little snow suits the children like to wear.

NOT ONLY A SPORT NOW — For Jerre Wills, hunting no longer will be just a sport. The gun he is cleaning may one day be used to protect his family from an attacking Kodiak bear — as well as a means of securing daily meat rations.

BUNDLED — Ten-month-old Laurie Beth seems unconcerned as mother dresses her in the snow suit which will soon protect her against the Alaskan cold.

GETTING READY — The toughest job of all is getting ready for the move. It means selling furniture, packing suitcases, and saying goodbye to friends and relations.

REAL PIONEERS — It's a real pioneering family which faces all the hardships of old, with the additional difficulties of making a radical adjustment to the wilderness from one of the nation's largest metropolitan areas.

PONTIAC NAMED CAR OF THE YEAR

"Pontiac with wide-track wheels is the best combination of ride... handling... performance and styling of any '59 car" — The Editors of Motor Trend Magazine

In making its annual automotive award, the staff of Motor Trend Magazine, leading automotive publication, tests and evaluates all new cars. Here are quotations from the April 1959 issue:

"The stability of the 1959 Pontiac is the outstanding automotive advance of the year. Everyone considering a new car should experience it."

"It's the best balanced passenger car in America. We firmly believe that in moving the wheels farther apart, to develop the widest stance of any American car, Pontiac has created an entirely new sense of balance and handling security."

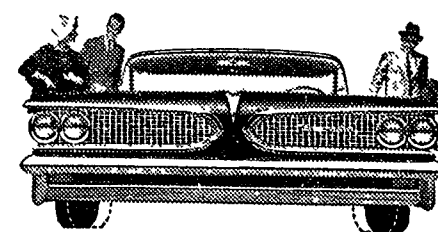

"Pontiac's lines are clean, simple and beautiful. It has a fleet look, a trim appearance. The wide wheel design contributes greatly to its over-all integrated styling. Any comparison with narrower track cars readily shows the difference."

"For the economy-minded, an efficient new engine. The new 420E Tempest economy engine offers remarkable performance along with exceptionally high mileage while operating on regular grade gasoline."

"Pontiac is again tops in performance, based on our extensive road testing. Acceleration is outstanding, yet the engine is unusually quiet and smooth."

Your nearest Pontiac dealer will be glad to let you road-test this award-winning automobile on your own. You'll see why it's the year's most talked-about car!

THE ONLY CAR WITH WIDE-TRACK WHEELS

Wheels are five inches farther apart. This widens only the stance, not the car. Pontiac takes a better grip on the road, hugs tighter on curves and corners. Sway and lean disappear, ride is smoother, balanced, steadier. Handling is easier. You drive with a new confidence, a comforting security. Pontiac gives you roadability no "narrow gauge" car can offer.

FREE! If you would like a reprint of the complete, illustrated article with all the tests and evaluations on which Motor Trend judged Pontiac "Car of the Year" — see your Pontiac dealer or simply send your name and address on a postcard to Pontiac Motor Division, Department 10, Pontiac, Michigan.

LENT IS A TIME OF GRACE

The Holy season of Lent is not only a time of doing penance but it is a period where in we all become cognizant of the fact that our souls should be filled with divine grace. Do you remember that scene in the Scriptures where Christ becomes transfigured on Mount Thabor? At nightfall Jesus is absorbed in prayer, while His disciples lie down and fall asleep. As the Divine Master prays, the splendor of His divinity breaks through the cloak of His humanity, and His face begins to shine brilliantly like the sun and His garments become white as snow. Two men, Moses and Elias, come to Jesus and are transported in glory with Him. Peter, standing in awe, cries out: "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If Thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles, one for Thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias."

While Peter speaks, a bright cloud overshadows this satisfying spectacle, and from the clouds the voice of the heavenly Father is heard, "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased. Hear you him!" The Apostles fall on their faces, frightened. But Jesus touches them and gives them courage. Then darkness returns and toward morning they leave the mountain.

What is the message of this Gospel? It emphasizes that Christ is true God and true man. He permits His disciples a momentary preview of His glorified body. At the ascension into heaven the transfiguration of His human nature becomes a permanent state. In the splendor of the Transfiguration He will appear on earth once more to judge the living and the dead.

The Gospel shows us more. We see on Mount Thabor several men — Moses, Elias, Peter, James and John, who are the representatives of both the Old and New Covenants. They too are included in the Transfiguration. They are witnesses to the fact that Christ wishes to lead all men to glorification. He will not only free men from sin but to have them participate in His eternal splendor, through grace (participation in the divine life of Jesus) here on earth, through glory in the next life.

What is grace? It is not merely a humble recognition of men by God; it is an elevation of the soul, a transfiguration of the soul. Just as the sun shines down on the world, not only to give warmth and light, but also to transform the earth from the barrenness of winter into a paradise of previous flowers and fruits, so too does the grace of God stream down on men in order to transform their souls. St. Peter, the first Pope, says that by grace man is made a partaker of the divine nature. The man of grace is one whose soul has been transformed. Such transfiguration of man is not visible during his life on earth, any more than Christ's divinity was manifest during his time on earth. St. Paul has said that our life of grace is hidden with Christ in God. The soul of the man in grace is truly transfigured and if one were able to see this with bodily eyes, the soul would resemble Christ as He appeared on Mount Thabor.

This thought then should be paramount in our minds during Lent especially. This is an opportune time to relinquish prejudice, bigotry and hatred that we might be in a better light to see our fellow men's souls.

Wixom Baptists Honor 77 Years of Service

Several members of the First Baptist church of Wixom were honored at a special dinner last week for their long years of service and consecrated labor for the church. Each of the honored members received a certificate award pre-

Seven Cagers, Coach To Bow Out Friday

Seven seniors and their coach will end basketball careers for Northville tomorrow night when the Mustangs clash with West Bloomfield on the Lakers' court.

The game also will determine whether Northville will take the third place position in the 1958-59 Wayne-Oakland league race or fall to fourth place.

For Coach Stan Johnston the game will mark a finish to a head coaching job that he assumed in 1955 after Richard Kay gave up the reins to become principal at Amerman school.

Johnston announced his resignation two weeks ago in a letter submitted to the Northville school board. His reasons for giving up the post were threefold:

1) His position as recreation director is taking more and more of his time;

2) He wants to continue his studies for a master's degree;

3) He feels he is needed at home more now that his children are in school.

A win over West Bloomfield tomorrow would give Johnston a coaching record of 44 wins and 20 losses. A third place position this year would be the lowest any of his teams have finished since taking over as head coach.

Under Johnston, Northville shared the league championship with Clarkston in 1956-57.

No decision as to who will replace Johnston has been made.

Cagers who will play their last game in league competition tomorrow are: William Boyd, Larry Clark, Dennis Fallon, Jeff Goodrich, Nelson Schrader, Robert Starnes and Fred Schwarze.

Northville remains tied for third place with Clarkston by virtue of its 66-52 victory over Milford Friday. The Wolves claimed their piece of third place with a 66-50 win over Bloomfield Hills.

The Trojans from Clarenceville nearly upset league leading Brighton, but dropped to fourth place when the Bulldogs salvaged the win with a basket in the final 12 seconds of play. The score was 55-53.

Brighton clinched at least a share of the league championship with the victory. The Bulldogs now have won nine straight games without a loss.

Second-place Holly (8-1) dumped West Bloomfield 75-69 to stay within reach of part of the title.

Northville's offensive unit pumped in 23 field goals and 20 free throws in beating Milford Friday for the second time this season. The Mustangs won the earlier game with an equal number of points, 66-46.

The local quintet jumped to re-sounding 20-8 first quarter lead behind the sharp shooting of Bob Starnes and Bill Boyd, but the Redskins split the net for 16 points in the second stanza to clip Northville's lead to 6 points at the half.

Northville's cagers increased their lead to 8 in the third quarter, scoring 16 points to Milford's 14. The Mustangs matched their first quarter barrage in the final stanza, while Milford pumped in 14 points.

Starnes took scoring honors for Northville, hitting seven field goals and six free throws. Roger Atchinson was second high with 12 points, followed by Boyd with 10.

Bob Roselle took scoring honors for the Redskins. He pumped in six field goals and two charity shots.

Hot Pack For Cold Players

A special hot pack apparatus, valued at nearly $80, has been donated to the high school athletic department by Elmer Wilson.

According to Al Jones, athletic director, the "hydrocollator" is a widely used hot pack that can "work miracles" on sprains and strains suffered by high school athletes.

The hydrocollator, he said, will be put into use along with the new whirlpool bath to be installed in the new high school training room this year.

Colts Fall Apart But Salvage Win

They fell apart in the last two quarters, but a second quarter barrage of 21 points saved the game for the Colts here Friday.

The victory was the junior varsity's sixth against eight losses — and the second win over Milford this season.

Coach Don VanIngen's squad climbed to a 11-10 first quarter lead and then peppered the net for 11 free throws and five field goals to go out front 32-22 at the half.

Northville's 6' 2" center, Jim Patterson accounted for six of the charity tosses and three of the field goals in the all-important second quarter. He pumped in two field goals and two free shots in the first stanza.

Milford took advantage of an avalanche of bad floor plays by Northville in the third and fourth quarters to narrow the gap to four points. Forward Tom Darling's five-point output in the final two stanzas was high for the Colts, who went sour after blistering the net in the second quarter.

Northville scored 20 times out of 32 attempts at the free throw line for a 65 percent average, while Milford managed to hit only 10 of 22 for 45 percent.

Patterson failed to add a point to his first half output but still walked off with the scoring laurels with 18 points. Darling was next with 9 points.

Guard Ernie Miller was high for his team with 10 points.

Local Eighth Graders Wrap Up Season Friday

Sparked by an important 28-14 win over Brighton here Saturday, Northville's eighth grade basketball team will attempt to wrap up the 1958-59 season with a victory over Easton Friday.

Coach Roy Pederson's squad will take a 7-2 record into Friday's game. Both defeats came at the hands of Felrath.

In Saturday's game against Brighton, Pederson used everyone of his players. His squad pulled to a 12-3 first quarter lead and then coasted to the victory.

Earlier in the week, the eighth graders edged Dearborn Roosevelt, 36-34 on the opponent's court.

Shooting for Record Season

One of the most successful cage seasons in Northville's history will come to a close tonight for 14 high school freshmen.

A win will give the freshmen 14 straight wins without a single loss. No other freshmen team has done as well — and few other teams can match this record.

South Lyon's young cagers are the only obstacles in the way of a perfect season. Coach Joe Wilkinson's Northville squad will clash with South Lyon tonight at the community center. The game will get underway at 7 p.m.

Northville is favored to win — but Wilkinson is convinced the game won't be a pushover. South Lyon will be seeking revenge for an earlier 50-44 defeat. Knocking off a power package like Northville would be a feather in their cap.

"My boys just can't let up if they want to win. I think they realize it," Wilkinson said.

In games last week, the local freshmen dumped Thurston 38-25 on the opponent's court and then rolled over Brighton here 37-31. Northville took every quarter against Thurston, 10-8, 14-6, 6-4 and 8-7.

Steve Juday took scoring honors with 10 points followed by Tommy Long with 9.

The freshmen took only two quarters with Brighton, but they piled up 19 points in the first quarter — enough to let them coast to the victory. The quarter scores were 19-10, 6-8, 10-7 and 2-6.

Novi Eighth Graders To Close Cage Season

Novi's undefeated eighth grade basketball team is expected to close out its season this week against Our Lady of Victory.

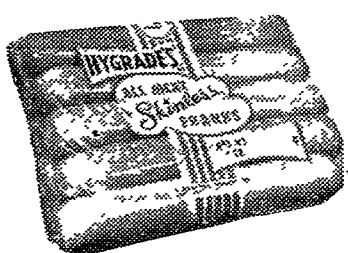

Coach Gail Perkins said his squad will play Hartland today and possibly OLV later in the week to wrap up the season.

The eighth graders racked up their eighth straight win last week, defeating Dublin 37-24. Novi was out front 14-11 at half time. Jim Lyon took scoring honors with 17 points; Bill Challas was next high with 10 points.

ANYONE SEEN BOLT? — Despite the failure of National Open Champion Tommy Bolt to appear as principle speaker at Meadowbrook Country club's annual sports' banquet last Friday night, there was no shortage of sports' celebrities. Among the more than 400 fans and athletes who attended were (l. to r.): Gordie Howe and Syd Abel of the Red Wings, Sports' Announcer Bob Reynolds and George Wilson, coach of the Detroit Lions.

Events Out of the Past

ONE YEAR AGO . . .

The Northville high school band put on a stunning first-place performance in the district band finals to warm up for the state band festival.

The cost of living went up — even for dogs. The township board ruled that no longer will stray dogs be lodged for $1.50 per day until their owners call for them.

Top honors as valedictorian of the Northville high school class of 1958 went to Lillian Zinnecker, whose academic average for four years placed her at the top of the class.

Northville Heights, the first complete subdivision planned within the city limits, celebrated its official opening.

Putting together good, solid basketball and some smart bench work, the Mustangs rampaged to their biggest and happiest win of the year — a resounding 78-67 triumph over Wayne-Oakland league champion Clarkston.

The Northville Colts ended the season with a 12-3 record.

FIVE YEARS AGO . . .

The Northville board of education voted a $200-a-year salary increase for members of the faculty and staff at the Northville schools.

Oil was struck on the farm of Ralph Wilson at 10489 West Seven Mile road. The oil was reportedly found at 3,270 feet.

Marr Taylor of Detroit purchased the Cy Owens Ford agency in Northville.

Claude N. Ely, a member of the commission for 12 years, was the lone candidate for president, succeeding Conrad E. Langfield.

Funeral services were held for Harry S. German, Sr., former mayor of Northville, prominent broker and one of the best-known baseball figures in the state.

Legislation which would give the village of Northville the same share of state racing revenue as now received by cities was under consideration in the state legislature.

The Northville Mustangs clinched the Wayne-Oakland county league championship with a 63-60 win over Keego Harbor.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

The design of the Northville honor roll was formally approved and the drawings turned over to the construction committee.

Application blanks for the army-navy qualifying test were made available through the high school under the direction of Superintendent R. H. Amerman.

The business lot owned by the Grennan estate on the corner of Main and Center streets was sold to Conrad E. Langfield, president of Northville Laboratories.

Rev. Earl Cook, pastor of the Novi Baptist church announced his resignation.

The following persons were elected captains of the Red Cross drive: Mesdames L. M. Eaton, E.C. Buell, Willard Ely, H. F. Wagenschutz, Frank Freydl, Donald Secord, Luther Lapham, Ward Masters, C. C. Winter, Samuel Geraci, E. M. Starkweather, I. D. Peat, Harvey Whipple, A. M. Lawrence, A. S. Gots, M. S. Sweet and Miss Ruth Knapp.

Roy Terrill, treasurer of Northville township, announced that about 95 percent of the winter taxes were collected. The tax roll totaled $60,725.69, and collections totaled $57,621.07.

Northville high school closed the league basketball season with eight wins and six losses.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO . . .

Occupants of several homes in Orchard Heights were routed by gas from leaking mains. Residents of L. C. Stewart, George Harper, Alfred Parmenter, Charles Doelker and George Milne were affected by the gas leak.

Northville Republicans held a good fellowship banquet at the Presbyterian church. The banquet was headed by Supervisor Willard A. Ely, while Elmer L. Smith, township clerk; Charles Scholtz and Mrs. William Safford were in charge of the banquet arrangements.

Democrats for the first time in more than a quarter of a century promised Republicans competition. They planned to name a full ticket.

Dr. A. T. Holcomb of Novi was honored for his 50 years as country physician.

Only officers whose terms would expire in the spring were to be voted on in the April election at Novi. Those whose terms were to expire included: Township Clerk Earl Banks, Treasurer George Simmons, Justice of Peace LaRue Bogart, Supervisor Charles Hamilton, Frank Durfee, board of review; and William Mairs, highway overseer.

READERS SPEAK:

Dues Versus Beliefs

To the Editor:

Letters appearing in the Northville Record last week discussed the entry of the Democratic club into the non-partisan water bond issue, and questioned the activity of the Committee on Political Education in the election.

These letters failed to bring out the most fundamental question. How is it right that labor union funds can be applied to such political purposes — local, state or national?

Every Northville citizen who belongs to the AFL-CIO helped defeat the water bond issue, whether he personally favored the issue or not.

When a part of the money a union member pays in dues to his union goes into C.O.P.E. or other political activity, a union man may find himself supporting people and issues, through the union, that he personally would vote against. And it's a losing battle. He fights against his own money.

Sincerely,
Milton D. West
Northville

Insurance Man in Top Ten

Drayton Court, 6864 Six Mile road, Northville, has been recently named as one of State Mutual Insurance company's top ten agents for the month of January according to the company's president, Holley K. Fisk.

Cort gained his position on the "Top Ten" list through his outstanding sales record for the month. He has been a State Mutual agent since 1941.

Township Republicans To Meet Monday Night

Twenty-five members of the Republican club steering committee will meet Monday evening at the home of George Clark, 849 West Main street.

The group will hear a sub-committee report on plans for the spring election in the township.

Driving Club Re-elects Five Board Members

Five directors were re-elected to the board of the Northville Driving club at its annual meeting of stockholders last week.

Directors elected to a two-year term were: Frank Baldwin, C. A. Hoffman, Arthur Schnute, Nelson Schrader and L. W. Snow, Jr.

Other members of the 10-member board are Clifton Hill, Dr. L. W. Snow, Gerald Taft, Russell Walker and Donald Yerkes.

"My Gas Clothes Dryer helps give me extra time!"

Mrs. Rita Doran
17083 Ego Ave.
East Detroit,
Michigan

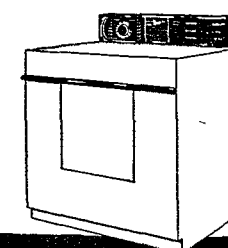

"It's so convenient to dry clothes with my Gas Dryer. While my wash is being dried I can catch up on other things that have to be done. In our home, anything that saves me time is needed. Our Gas Dryer is a time-saver I wouldn't want to do without."

Busy women like Mrs. Doran find they can eliminate hours of drudgery each week by using an Automatic Gas Dryer. What could be simpler than tossing a load of wet clothes into the Gas Dryer and turning a dial? What could be nicer than having a stack of soft, fluffy, sweet-smelling clothes only a short time later? Yes, this is convenience no busy homemaker should be without.

IT'S FOWL WEATHER—Humans aren't the only critters to complain about the unusually cold winter. According to conservation authorities, winter's toll among birds is extremely high this year. The uninhabited icy home above located just outside Northville is grim evidence of the cold injustice.

NEWS FROM THE AMERICAN LEGION

POST 147
REX HOLLOMAN — REPORTER

VA BUDGET FOR 1960

In comparison to the 1959 budget there is a dollar reduction of over $41 million. At the same time, the total VA budget authorized by the President and the Bureau of the Budget is over $138 million less than the amount actually requested by the Administrator of Veterans Affairs. Of this amount $47 million is for compensation, pension, and readjustment benefits but since these are statutory requirements the cuts made no material difference as the Congress will supplement funds if necessary.

The areas where pinches might come are general operating expense, medical administration and miscellaneous operating expense, inpatient and outpatient care. In these areas the extent of service is limited to personnel and other needs that appropriated funds will provide. Eating into such funds are increment increases in salaries, and the well recognized cost increases in medical care and hospitalization.

Nearly $68 million was cut from the administrator's request for construction funds and it appears that the three hospitals at Oakland, Cleveland and Washington, D.C. will be further delayed. They were authorized in the 40s.

All these points will be developed by American Legion witnesses as they prepare to appear before the Appropriations committees in behalf of the 1960 budget for the VA.

Catholic Census Results Released

Based on October's Catholic census, Detroit Chancery officials last week announced that total Catholic population in the Archdiocese of Detroit numbers 1,288,761.

Included in the 8-division archdiocese are the counties of Lapeer, Lenawee, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, St. Clair, Washtenaw and Wayne.

Catholic population of Wayne county totaled 878,657, with 126,844 Catholic children reported attending Catholic schools and 89,415, public schools.

Oakland county, with a Catholic population of 149,006, showed 19,623 children enrolled in parochial schools and 20,870 in public schools.

The metropolitan Detroit area, covering Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties numbered 1,193,693 Catholics, with 164,842 children attending Catholic schools, against 134,110 in public schools.

Conducted under the auspices of the Detroit Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Men, the census recorded 1,069,199 calls made by 38,000 lay church men.

Eighty-six percent of the dwelling units in the area were visited, they reported.

The complete census report was broken down for individual counties, showing Catholics 29.3 percent of the total population of 4,319,790.

However, in the Greater Detroit Metropolitan area where 92 percent of the Catholics of the Archdiocese reside, they numbered 31 percent of the total population.

SPEAKING for the Record

by BILL SLIGER

When I was a little boy I used to run everywhere that I would go. To church, to school, to the store, home from school, the church, or the store.

I'd take big steps, trying to miss every crack in the walk (step on a crack, you'll break your mother's back).

My worries were monumental. Would I be able to go to the show Saturday afternoon? And, if so, what would happen to Tarzan in the 13th thrilling adventure? Remember? He was left last week face to face with a ferocious lion and if he took one more step backwards he would fall in a pit of pithons.

As I grew, so did my responsibilities.

Soon it was my duty to mow the lawn. A magazine route followed and each week I would deliver 14 Liberty magazines, four Woman's Home Companions and two American magazines. I received two cents for each Liberty, a nickel per Companion and a phenomenal dime for the American customer.

The money remaining after I paid my route manager was mine. Shows were a dime, haircuts 15c and for two cents you could get a candy sucker that would last you through two recesses and a noon hour.

Our school was next to a fire station. The firemen would watch us play softball on the playground and throw the ball back to us if we "fouled" one over the fence.

On election days the fire station served as a voting place for our neighborhood. There used to be long lines of people waiting to vote.

I barely knew who was running for office. We'd all wear buttons — Hoover or Roosevelt — it didn't make much difference. I suppose some of the elections were for our city council — or perhaps a bond issue.

All I remember is that the lines were long.

It's a shame to grow up and worry about things like "short lines".

And, if last week's important water bond election in the city was any criteria, only one-third of our qualified voters are concerned.

Using this percentage 301 votes represent a majority in the city and 267 votes rule the township.

In the city's eight-man race for two council seats April 6 fewer than 100 votes could elect a councilman!

It's just possible that we don't have the time anymore. And with television, airplanes and rockets we've become more sophisticated than our parents and grandparents. Voting was a big thing in their day.

A sad commentary to "government of the people, by the people and for the people". And how disheartening it must be to those citizens who assume the added responsibility of holding public office.

Berlin and War III

Babson Park, Mass. — I know Berlin. I had an office there before World War I. I also was a correspondent for the New York Times and my daughter Edith Babson Mustard and her mother lived in Lucerne, Switzerland, while I traveled throughout Europe. Later we owned a home in Washington, on 14th street adjoining the Russian Embassy, where I saw much of the Germans.

Russia Determined To Get Berlin

The Germans, at the instigation of Kaiser Wilhelm, pushed south to the Mediterranean Sea. (As a reminder of him, I have the steering wheel of his private yacht at my homestead at 58 Middle Street, Gloucester, Mass.) Soon after the Germans met defeat in World War I, Hitler rallied them again to fight for the same cause, "Pan-Germanism" as they called it, presumably with Russia's help.

But Russia has not only become a traitor to Germany, but has secured one-fourth of Germany and a large slice of Berlin itself. The Germans are determined to get this back. The Russians figure that if they can get England, France and the United States to withdraw their troops, Russia can peacefully absorb Berlin and perhaps later all of Germany. As a first step in this campaign, Mikoyan was recently sent to visit us.

Berlin Will Not Wait Too Long

Russia will want to postpone her recent Berlin ultimatum as long as she fears China at her "back door", but the Germans will not wait too long. They are the bravest and strongest people in Europe. If World War III comes, it will be started from Berlin. The Germans believe that they will be backed secretly by Hungary, Bulgaria, the Czechs, and all the Slavik nations. Germany will fire her atomic bombs over these "buffer" countries, while Russia will not dare to destroy them. They may be the safest place to live during World War III, if or when it comes!

Russia pretends that her great enemy is the United States. Russia's talk about Capitalism is merely window-dressing. Russia would like to take us over by infiltration — and the help of a radical pro-labor party in the United States — but not by destroying us. I repeat: Russia fears Germany on the West and China on the East. Germany would like to get to the Persian Gulf and get indirect control of Turkey and India; but her main objective today is to win the Russian satellites — or buffer states, so called. This, Germany is preparing to do. Washington cannot talk about this, but those in authority know it. On the other hand, so long as Russia is able to destroy Germany with bombs, I cannot believe that Germany would attack Russia; but this I will discuss next week. All depends upon whether anti-missile missiles are available.

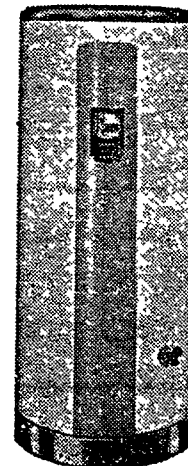

Berlin and the Stock Market

In a recent column, I stated that I am 60 percent bearish and 40 percent bullish on the stock market. My main reason for being 40 percent bullish is because I believe that the next World War will be between Russia and Germany — and with her allies, Germany would finally win. Wall Street believes that this would be the end of Communism for another 40 years. All though the United States would be in such a war, we would not bomb Russia unless Russia bombed us but would be content to keep the Germans well supplied with atomic or hydrogen bombs and anything else they might need. We cannot forget Germany's hideous and barbarous crimes under the Hitler regime; but have the Germany people ever "double-crossed" us? Have the Russians? I have this Berlin affair in mind when saying "I am 40 percent bullish."

I am more than ever convinced since my recent visit to Africa that the above is the Berlin program. This is why England retired gradually from India. And Great Britain is now in the process of turning seized German territory in Africa over to the native tribes, with her finger crossed as to what the final results will be. Charles DeGaulle and Great Britain will be glad to aid Germany when she strikes. Republicans and Democrats in Washington should stop fighting between themselves; but watch Berlin and trust President Eisenhower, who knows Europe better than any of them.

More Laws in Hopper

CITIZENS WILL obey between 100 and 200 more laws next year. These will be the successful bills from the estimated 1,000 legislators will sponsor in the weeks and months ahead.

The new laws will range from some obscure correction in the drain code to important, and perhaps vexing, revisions of the state's tax structure.

Michigan's present laws would fill a good-sized bookcase. Some are ignored, like the prohibition against watching a ball game on Sunday.

Lawmakers have created their own legends in Michigan.

One member of the legislature is said to have come to a session pledged to vote "no" on everything simply because "the people have too many laws now."

Another this year sponsored a bill that has been defeated every time it appeared since he first introduced it 25 years ago. Someone suggested starting a "Quarter-Century Club."

Statisticians curious enough to do the job once figured it costs $2,000 to sponsor a bill in the legislature.

The bills start as an idea in the mind of someone who sees the need for more controls, fewer controls, better law enforcement, or less, more state services or, maybe, for no reason.

There is always a number of bills legislators sponsor because a voter back in their districts asked them to, and most of them die without fanfare or excessive sorrow.

It is then possible for the legislator to return home and soothe the voter who had the idea, thusly:

"Gee, I tried on your bill. I introduced it and fought like a tiger, but those other fellows just wouldn't go along."

Proposals come to the legislature as ideas and are put into bill form by experts known as bill-drafters. It is a rare occasion when a legislator drafts his own bill.

Each bill must be read three times, though the first two times are within seconds of each other. This is immediately before it is referred to a committee for study. The third reading is just before a final vote.

Usually, a bill is never completely read aloud.

Committees work on a bill, listen to the pros and cons. The committee vote is often the most important. Many bills never get out of committee to be considered on the floor.

When they do, they are placed on a debate schedule known as "general orders" or "special order on general orders", giving it a priority. After debate, it goes to third reading.

Third reading brings the final vote and, if it passes, the bill goes to the opposite house where the process is duplicated before it is sent to the governor's office for his signature.

MORE THAN 3,000 state employees will get an extra pay raise July 1.

It will be in addition to the seven percent boost granted all employees under the merit system by the state civil service commission.

Reason for the extra increase involves adjustments in ratings and levels and the changes are being made generally in the highest and lowest classifications.

The cost will be between $157,000 and $230,000 a year.

CONSTRUCTION of a new 10-story state office building, estimated at $9,800,000, has apparently been shelved for this year.

The committee of legislators trying to arrange the project ran into trouble borrowing money, after insisting that the employees retirement fund wanted a too-high interest rate.

So now, construction of the office building and a separate home for the Michigan Supreme Court both are waiting for the legislature to act on a special bonding program.

dish after dish after dish...

there's always plenty of hot water

the new electric water heater way

GET IT HOT . . . GET A LOT to put that sparkle back into china and glassware. Dishwashing is easier and quicker when the water's really hot, and there's plenty of it for rinsing.

Thanks to Edison's Super Supply Plan, a new electric water heater is always on the alert—day or night—to supply hot water for all family needs.

Here's the convenient, modern way to GET IT HOT . . . GET A LOT for an operating cost as low as $3.88 per month.

Only electric water heaters give you all these important advantages:

- ☒ Efficient—the heat goes into the water
- ☒ Fast—new, more efficient heating units
- ☒ Install anywhere—need not be near a chimney
- ☒ Outer shell—cool to the touch all over
- ☒ Long life—meet Edison's rigid standards
- ☒ Edison maintains electrical parts without charge
- ☒ Automatic—all the time
- ☒ Safe—clean—quiet—modern
