Hix Keeps Winning In Legion Debates

Legion to Hold Open House

Northville's Lloyd H. Green Post 147 of the American Legion will celebrate the 40th anniversary of the national veterans' organization this Sunday with a special open house from 3:00 until 5:00 p.m.

The local post is nearly as old as the Legion itself, having been organized six months after the national group was founded. (See weekly American Legion column on page five).

Auto Crash Victims Remain in Hospital

Three of the four Northville girls seriously injured in an auto accident two weeks ago still are hospitalized at Mt. Carmel hospital.

Reported in slightly improved condition are Ellen Rauber, 17, Sarah Plamondon, 17, and Janet Pauli, 14. Janet's sister, Carolyn, 16, was hospitalized three days at Atchinson hospital and then released. Sarah is to undergo surgery soon for setting of a compound leg fracture; Ellen, who suffered a compound leg fracture, is expected to be in traction for another six weeks; and Janet, who suffered a neck fracture, is expected to be out of traction soon.

The girls were injured when their car skidded off Five Mile road west of Eckles road in Livonia and slammed into a tree. Ellen was driving the girls to school at Ladywood high.

Tomorrow night Charles Hix, Northville high school junior, will face his third test in the national American Legion Oratorical contest when he meets four other district winners in zone competition at Reese.

Hix, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hix, of 114 Rayson, took district honors at Redford last Friday after winning out in local competition February 27.

The annual contest is sponsored as part of the Americanism program of the Legion and carries a top national award of a $4000 scholarship. The participants first give an oration on the Constitution of the United States and later must talk extemporaneously for six minutes on another phase of the Constitution.

In Redford Hix defeated representatives of Ladywood High School and Redford Union. If he is successful Friday in the zone meet he will compete in the state finals in Lansing. The state winner then must face the best orators from the nation.

Miss Florence Panattoni, high school debating coach, and James Madigan, Americanism chairman for the local Legion post, will accompany Hix to Reese Friday night for the zone competition.

City, Township Give Registration Totals

Total registration figures for the city and township were reported this week following the registration deadline Monday.

The township clerk reported a total of 1,585 persons registered while the city reported 1,890 registrations. Only those persons registered before the Monday deadline are eligible to vote in the city, county and township elections April 6.

Easter Seal Funds At Quarter Mark In Local Drive

At the close of the first week of the 1959 Easter Seal appeal Northville had reached about 24 per cent of its $1,800 goal, according to L. C. Sullivan, campaign chairman.

Sullivan reported that receipts from advance gifts and the first returns from the general mail total about $435.00.

He pointed out, however that about $1,400 remains to be raised before Easter Sunday, March 29, the final day of the drive. Sullivan said that the funds now in hand by the Easter Seal Society of Western Wayne County represent only a small fraction of the amount needed to carry on services for the crippled children and adults in this area.

Goals for the coming year include an extended period of Day Camp for crippled children, and increased educational and social opportunities for crippled teen agers and adults. The Easter Seal Center, in operation just over a year and a half provides excellent facilities for such activities.

Sullivan urged all persons to use the return Easter Seal envelope in making their contributions or to address their donations to: "Crippled Children, c/o Local Post Office."

Juniors to Present 'The Unguided Miss'

"The Unguided Miss", a comedy of contrasts — between social and school customs of American and European teenagers — will be presented at 8 p.m., March 19 and 20, in the Northville community building by the high school junior class.

Directed by Alvin Skow, the play speculates on the numerous misunderstandings and mutual influences that result in two American families boarding foreign exchange students for a year.

Caught off-guard at first in the "car-crazy" and club-heavy world of homecoming queen, Susan Bryce and her boyfriend, George, are the more restrained exchangeites, Carlos of Portugal and Lucia of Italy. Eventually, the two couples come to benefit each other through understanding and appreciation of their differences.

Author of the comedy is William Davidson.

SPLIT-LEVEL DESIGN — Architect John Allen's sketch of the proposed St. Paul's Christian Day school to be constructed by the Northville St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church by September, illustrates the two level plan accepted by church building and education groups. Groundwork is to begin in April. Working drawings were approved by the church Monday night.

Schools on Tight Budget Diet

While foreseeing a tidy—if frugal—financial picture for Northville schools in the remaining four months of the fiscal year, Superintendent Russell Amerman admitted at Monday's meeting of the School Board that tight economy will have to guide planning of the 1959 budget.

On-schedule receipt of 77.41% of tax revenues and expectation of state aid payments in the near future, Amerman said, have cleared local worries about a "financial crisis" from the slowdown of state allocations, which has left many Michigan schools in varying degrees of distress.

"The big problem now," he described budget planning, "is to determine our income for next year."

Northville schools have levied maximum millage during the past three years and could be expected to do so in 1959. But despite possible changes affecting size or demands on the operating fund (such as large enrollment increases, changes in state equalizing factor), he indicated that minimum adequate income for the coming 10 months seems reasonably secure.

Perhaps the most delicate chore involved in the new budget layout will come in the area of teachers' salaries, administrators said.

With general funds remaining more or less the same as last year, they pointed out, any increase in salaries—if the need should arise—will probably have to be solved by shifts within the existing salary schedule, rather than by adding money from some other source.

"About the strongest statement we can make on next year salaries," Amerman told the Board of Education, "is that we will stay pat on the present schedule."

Financial problems also excused the school from partial support of the local branch Wayne county library.

Speaking Monday with a representative of the county library board, the school board expressed sympathy with the library's plight, and recognized its increasing reliance on local funds, but could offer no help other than willingness to include on the school election ballot in June a proposal of special millage increase for library expenses.

The money theme also crept into less immediate school interests.

Administrative Assistant Dr. Kenneth MacClead distributed to the board copies of Dr. James Conant's report on "The American High School Today," "An Essay of Quality in Public Education" published by the Educational Policies Commission, and a written comparison of the Northville education program against their recommendations, which he had prepared. The full text of his findings will appear in next week's Northville Record.

In most cases, Dr. MacClead said, Northville schools compare favorably with suggestions in the reports.

Shortcomings, such as in high school counselling, psychological facilities, and further development or addition of certain academic programs are dependent on more money he said.

The elementary foreign language program—which has so rapidly captured public interest—is no exception. However, the board heard endorsements of it from visitor Mrs. Robert E. Beerbower, and from the elementary curriculum study committee which recommended "that such courses become an integral part of the elementary school curriculum, and that the necessary teachers and facilities be made available, but not at the sacrifice of the existing program."

Possible purchase of the community building by the school still awaits enactment of an amendment to the Michigan school code which does not permit fourth class school districts, such as Northville's, to purchase a building for school use.

Board President Nelson Schrader reported that, based on his recent talks with state legislators and lobbyists, there seems to be no opposition to passage of the bill. It is expected to be introduced this week.

In another legal matter school attorney James Littell delivered his opinion on limits of school policy concerning married students.

He concluded that there seems to be no legal basis for denying married students—simply on the fact of their married status—to continue attendance in high school or to participate in school activities.

Other business included Superintendent Amerman's announcement that Ely and Sons company asked to be released from its contract to supply oil for the new high school, stating that it could no longer continue to supply the fuel according to board specifications.

Representatives from the American school student council, Susan LaRue, Forest Mallot and Narda Trueman received the board's permission to use money raised in the sale of garden show tickets for a landscaping project, and to adopt the colors gold and blue as their official school colors. The students earned more than $300 on the sale of tickets donated by Green Ridge Nurseries.

Bond Issue Suggested For City-Wide Program

A citizens group organized primarily to protest against conditions of roads in the city's northern area may become the leading force in a drive to improve all Northville streets.

Meeting in a special-called session of the city council Monday night six representatives of the "Oakwood Association, Incorporated" recommended that the council undertake a city-wide road improvement program financed by a bond issue to be paid by increased millage.

The council greeted the proposal with open arms, while Mayor A. Malcolm Allen pointed out that "this is the first time any group has given us backing on a road program."

Initially, the Oakwood group was formed last week to "find out what can be done about road conditions." A second meeting was scheduled for last night (Wednesday) which most members of the city council were expected to attend.

Last week 70 residents of the area, generally north of Baseline and between Center and Novi road but including Northville Heights, met at the Amerman school.

They quickly selected a name for the organization and named Earl Walker president. Other officers include: Stuart Thomson, vice president; George Weiss, secretary; and John Steimel, treasurer. Charles McDonald was named attorney-advisor, while a committee of William Taft, Vern LaVassaur, Charles Altman, William Duguid, Thomson and Walker was named to meet with the city manager the next day.

The committee's session with City Manager John Robertson resulted in Monday night's special council meeting.

Specifically, the group called upon the council to do something about Hill, Novi, Grace, Center, Horton, Carpenter and Maplewood streets that have become, in many sections, impassable.

The committee came armed with suggestions. Both LaVassaur and Taft, experienced in road building, recommended a relatively new and inexpensive "fill" that could be used to give the mud-gutted roads a base. They even brought a box of the product called "31-W" described as the residue of a gravel pit operation. The tiny gravel-sand mixture would, they claimed, bind the mud if distributed in sufficient quantities on the roads. They estimated the cost at 30 cents per ton.

With the meeting progressing on friendly terms the council, citizens group, city manager and superintendent of public works agreed that the immediate problem was to make the roads passable and that the recommended fill was the best answer.

They also agreed that increased school bus traffic, construction trucks working at the high school, subdivisions and on the new Eight Mile cut-off had made the roads the "worst ever."

Finally, the discussion turned to long-range plans. The council admitted that because of lack of funds, no promise could be made as to when roads would be paved. Because of this uncertainty, no order of what streets should be done first has been established, it was pointed out.

"We want to help in this program and we understand the city's problem," Walker stated. The group then suggested a bond issue to improve the entire five miles of unpaved streets in the city. Estimates on the plan have been made as high as $500,000.

Altman then asked how such a bond issue could be passed when the citizens "just voted down an issue that wouldn't even have raised the taxes." Duguid retorted that the water bond issue should go back to the voters immediately. "It would pass easily," he stated.

At this point Councilman John Canterbury encouraged the citizens' group to help the council. "I made a plea for a citizens committee seven years ago—such a group doesn't have to be critical, but can help promote the council's efforts," he stated.

"I know each neighborhood has its own concerns, but I also believe we should not pit one section of the community against the other," he continued. Canterbury then pointed out that city taxes "have actually been lowered since 1955, even in the face of increased salaries and expenses."

The session closed with these tentative proposals from the citizens group:

—that the council move forward immediately with stop-gap improvements on the Oakwood roads;

—that the water bond issue be sent back to the voters to alleviate the city's indebtedness to the water department;

—that a program be initiated for complete improvement of all city streets at one time with a bond issue.

Cady Re-Zoning Coming Up Again

Northville's planning commission will take up a familiar subject again Tuesday night in its third attempt to reach a decision on the proposed re-zoning of Cady street.

The planners held a public hearing February 24 and delayed action until March 3 in two previous meetings on a proposal to rezone the north side of Cady between Center and Church streets from residential to commercial.

A proposal to construct an A&P supermarket on Cady facing the parking-alley between Main and Cady street prompted consideration of the zoning change.

Planners postponed their decision until they could confer with officials of the firm and their contractors. Tuesday's meeting will be held at 8 p.m. at the city hall.

March of Dimes Nets $2,207.06

Final totals for the 1959 March of Dimes collection amounted to $2,207.06, general chairman Fred Stefanski reported this week.

Although short of last year's $2425.11 tally it is slightly higher than the 1957 figure of $2,186.16.

The largest single campaign program, the mothers march, this year under Mrs. Albert Leedham, netted $1,073.03 as compared with $1,175 in 1958.

Other contributions were as follows:

School coin collectors, $129.60; school coin cards, $217.83; peanut sales, $72.35; dance, $66.27; junior student council, $25; general coin collectors, directed by Gil Glasson, $121.88; dime boards, $94.50; march of dime sets, $179.60; bowling tournament, conducted by Northville Lanes, $80; clubs, $2; VFW, $100, headed by C. Myers; VFW auxiliary, $5; and Braders department store, $40.

Justice Voelker Can't Escape 'Anatomy'

Supreme Court Justice John D. Voelker has a difficult time not being Robert Traver, novelist.

As the author of "The Anatomy of a Murder" puts it, "writing a best seller is something like fathering quintuplets."

And while he tried valiantly to talk of the more serious business of the bench in his address to the Northville Rotary club Tuesday noon, Justice Voelker succumbed to Robert Traver before he was finished.

It just could be that the Ishpeming attorney enjoys the literary whirl.

Using keen-edged humor Traver, that is Judge Voelker, poked fun at the excitement that has accompanied his success as an author. Yet, he admitted that he wouldn't think of missing the "invasion of Hollywood" on Ishpeming when filming of the novel begins later this month.

He described himself as "a rising young novelist—in my fifties" and allowed that there would be enough room in a broom closet to comfortably accommodate the readers of his first three literary efforts.

But "Anatomy," his first novel, has been a whopping success with a "best seller" rating for more than a year. It's being translated into a dozen or more languages (Justice Voelker wonders who did the translation for England) and has reached the enviable economic point of diminishing returns. "I'm not trying to plug the book anymore," said Justice Voelker, "just unplug it."

As an incumbent candidate for the state supreme court, Justice Voelker compared his current campaign to a "literary tea".

"Everywhere I go people, especially women, ask me how I write.

I tell them with a pad of legal size paper, Scripts number two blue ink and an Estabrook pen," Voelker related. He added that this seems to make them very happy and has apparently boosted the sales of Estabrook pens.

In a more serious vein Justice Voelker described the work routine of the supreme court and said that despite publicity to the contrary, members of the court worked "in harmony" on nearly all matters. He admitted that in social legislation concerning workmen's compensation, etc., that there were sharp differences of opinion.

He said Michigan's supreme court was burdened with many more cases than other states of comparable size because there is no intermediary court. He is so busy writing opinions, that he will not write another novel while he's on the bench, he concluded.

Justice Voelker was introduced by Northville Attorney Clifton Hill.

IT'S A PLEASURE — Campaigning Justice John D. Voelker took time out after his talk to Northville Rotarians Tuesday to sign his pen name to a copy of the best seller, "The Anatomy of a Murder" for Mrs. William Davis. Attorney Clifton Hill, who introduced the supreme court judge, looks on.

Newcomer's Corner

"I look upon every day to be lost, in which I do not make a new acquaintance."

—Samuel Johnson

When the Harry Hazels began to get that crowded out feeling from Dad's bee hives and 52 rosebushes — 37 varieties — in their city backyard, they decided it was time to move.

To handle all their many interests — ranging from interior decorating, woodworking, coin and record collecting, gardening, hunting and outdoor sports, to guppy, rose, and bee-raising — they needed plenty of elbow room.

They settled for a three-acre spot in Novi.

Since their December arrival the Hazels have been busy remodeling their 12 Mile road home.

Mrs. Hazel supervises the interior decorating and Mr. Hazel takes care of the carpentry work including installation of all the knotty pine paneling which runs through most of the house.

That hasn't left much time lately for Mr. Hazel's coin collection which over the past three years has grown to a $400 set of old American coins.

Although both he and Mrs. Hazel enjoy gardening, Mr. Hazel's specialty is rose-growing. He also plans eventually to set up another colony of bees here and market comb honey on the side.

As a whole, the family, including daughters Barbara 15, Geraldine, 7, and Denise, 5, like outdoor activities. Barbara has a pop record collection.

Mr. and Mrs. Hazel also have two married children, a daughter, Mrs. Mary Alice Hendricks of Nashville, Tennessee, and a son, Larry, who is stationed with the U.S. Army in Ft. Lee Virginia.

Mr. Hazel, a meat cutter for the Sherwood Market in Detroit, is a member of the United Crafts Masonic lodge and of the Church of Christ. Mrs. Hazel belongs to the Northwest Emmanuel Lutheran church in Detroit.

Barbara is a sophomore at the Walled Lake high school. Geraldine is a second grader at Decker school.

Engagement Announced at Tea

The engagement of Emily C. Rhoads to Mr. Tom M. Johnson, son of Dr. and Mrs. Waldo T. Johnson of Novi Road, was made known at a tea given in the home of her parents Dr. and Mrs. Paul S. Rhoads of Evanston, Illinois.

The wedding will take place June 13, in the Northminster Presbyterian church in Evanston.

Both bride and groom-elect are graduates of the College of Wooster Ohio. Emily has an M.A. in education.

Tom, who is now attending Northwestern university medical school has a B.A. in psychology.

They will make their home in Chicago.

A.A.U.W. to Present Play At Meeting Next Thursday

The drama group of the local branch of the American Association of University Women will highlight next Thursday's meeting program with production of "Xingu" — a dramatic satire on clubs — at the home of Mrs. Robert Nulty, 1385 Park Place, Plymouth.

The meeting will begin at 7:45 p.m.

Also, because of recent requests for information about A. A. U. W. activities and membership policy, membership chairman Miss Elizabeth H. Demorest and Mrs. Donald Sutherland, branch president, this week welcomed all qualified women in the Northville, Novi, Redford Township and Novi side of Farmington to join the area organization.

The A. A. U. W. accepts as members all women holders of approved degrees from a list of over 400 colleges and universities. To be on this list, a college must have a high academic rating, provide a basic foundation of general or liberal arts education, make adequate provision for women students, give significant recognition to women on its faculty and administration, and maintain academic freedom in its administrative and teaching bodies.

Throughout its years as an organization, the A. A. U. W. has worked for higher standards in education and particularly for better education for women and greater recognition of women as teachers and administrators. All colleges seeking to be added to the A. A. U. W. list of approved institutions must have good housing for women students, treat women students on an equal basis with men, have on its faculty a reasonable number of well-trained women and accord the same salary and promotion arrangements granted men, and give some recognition to women in the administrative organization.

Eleven colleges and universities in Michigan are approved by the A. A. U. W. They are Albion, Central Michigan, Hope, Kalamazoo, Marygrove, Eastern Michigan and Northern Michigan colleges, the University of Michigan, Wayne State, Western and Michigan State Universities.

Prospective members wishing to attend next Thursday's meeting are asked to call Miss Demorest at GL 3-0384 for transportation.

Information concerning other colleges on the approved list may be secured by calling the membership chairman at GL 3-0384.

The Northville woman's Club will wind up its current season with the annual meeting and luncheon on Friday, March 20, in the Presbyterian Church House.

The social committee, headed by Mrs. C. M. Hammond, has charge of the luncheon at 12:30.

Lunch will be followed by a skit entitled "I Guess They're Not Perfect," directed by Mrs. James E. Littell. The cast of club members includes: Mrs. Richard Kay, Mrs. A. W. Hahn, Mrs. C. Harold Bloom, Mrs. T. N. Kampf, Mrs. C. M. Goodrich, Mrs. A. M. Lawrence, program chairman, will introduce the skit.

Mrs. Charles Yalme, president, will preside over the annual meeting which will follow this program.

Scouts Greet 47th With Grace

Parents and visitors attending the 47th annual Girl Scout Juliette Low birthday party Sunday afternoon in the community building were met by over 200 local brownies, intermediates, and seniors—along with their leaders—in crisp flocks of khaki and green.

In honor of their founding by Miss Low, the Northville girls were among the 2,530,000 girls from 7 to 17, and 765,000 adults in scouting who opened celebrations of Girl Scout week Sunday.

Beginning with the Pledge of Allegiance and recital of the Girl Scout pledge, the Northville program included troop presentation of "birthday pennies" wrapped to resemble logs, a brief illustration of the right and wrong way to wear uniforms, and introduction of senior scouts who will attend the annual international Girl Scout roundup near Silver Springs, Colorado, this summer.

Visitors were also given time to browse among various handicraft exhibits set up by each troop.

Festivities closed with the singing of taps by all troops, hands joined in a friendly circle around their guests.

Mrs. Albert Leedham was chairman for this year's event.

NOT BAD! — (left) Eric Johnson, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Johnson of Dubuair street, gives a gentlemanly once-over to the long line of troop crafts exhibits displayed in the corridor. ## Gladioli Began as Food Garden Club Members Told

A history of gladioli and their culture was presented Monday by Mrs. Howard Whipple in her talk before the Northville Branch of Woman's National Farm and Garden Association meeting in the home of Mrs. Glenn Cummings.

Mrs. Whipple, who with her husband has specialized in gladioli-raising for several years, began with information about the ancestry of the popular and colorful flower. Root gatherers around the Mediterranean were first to encounter the bulbs, which they used for food and medicinal purposes, she reported.

She added that horticulture specialists in Long Island have worked over 20 years to perfect some of the modern garden varieties, which now number over 5,000. Mrs. Whipple also offered suggestions for their cultivation. Gladioli require very little fertilizer, she said, and will grow in any soil that will hold moisture. Since their roots go deep for water it is advisable not to plant them near shrubs or trees where they will have to compete for moisture.

Also they should not be planted near squash, cucumbers, peas, beans, onions, or asters, since these carry fungi which attack gladioli. Chlordane or naphthalene sprayed over the soil in Spring will make it safe to plant gladioli in the same plot year after year. Bulbs dusted with spargon help prevent thrip.

Mrs. Whipple suggested that those interested in flower arrangement try raising miniature gladioli this year.

Club president Mrs. N. K. Pattison also read a letter from the Michigan Society of Architects on its sponsorship of reconstruction of the Biddle House on Mackinac Island, one of the earliest structures in the Northwest Territory, dating to the 1780's.

The Michigan Division of the National Farm and Garden association plans to reconstruct the garden of Mrs. Biddle. The Northville group will send a contribution for the project.

Mrs. Whipple was introduced by Mrs. D. Hurd Clark, program chairman.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Robert Niemi and her committee of Mrs. H. Meyers, Mrs. R. Nelson, Mrs. C. Schoultz, and Mrs. C. Altman. Mrs. Paul Schulz presided at the tea table.

Curriculum Study Group To Meet Next Tuesday

The Northville Curriculum study group will meet next Tuesday, March 17, in the Main street school lunchroom.

Members are urged to be present for this general discussion group to draw together information from the small "buzz" sessions held earlier at the grade level. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m.

$40,000,000 Development May Start This Summer

Construction work on the 2,000-home Lincoln Village development may get underway this summer, a representative of the Thompson-Brown company of Detroit revealed this week.

Plans for the $40,000,000, residential development, one of the largest ever contemplated in the state, were announced two years ago, but actual construction was delayed because of unstable economic conditions.

In making the construction date announcement this week, Howard Nopper of the company's land development division explained that start of construction hinges up on two factors: final approval of the disposal plant plans by the State Board of Health; and agreement between Thompson-Brown and the village.

He indicated that final approval by the state is pending and that no difficulties are anticipated between Thompson-Brown and the village.

If all goes well, he said, construction of the disposal plant may begin early this summer with actual house construction to start later in the summer or early fall.

Original plans for a revolutionary new sewage disposal plant were dropped after it failed to get approval of the health department. However, engineering plans for a new type of plant have received preliminary approval.

According to Ross Campbell, vice-president of Thompson-Brown, the new plant will be more expensive and will meet all standards of purity and safety set up by the department.

Agreement on drainage, building and road specifications still must be worked out with the village engineers — Johnson and Anderson, Inc., of Pontiac. Originally, negotiations were carried on between the township and the developers. Now, however, agreements will be between the village and the company.

No significant changes to original plans have been made, Nopper said. These plans call for construction of 2,000 homes, a shopping center, motel, restaurant, and an apartment house complex.

The huge development will cover 700 acres lying one mile south of the Lincoln plant and extending both east and west from Wixom road. Its commercial area will front on the Grand River-Wixom road intersection.

While the project was tentatively planned for completion in five years, Campbell has said it may take seven to eight years. Even this schedule may, however, be affected by future conditions in the building industry and home mortgage business, he pointed out.

Detailed plans include: — 2,000 homes in ranch, tri-level and Cape Cod styles on 600 acres of the former Hickory Grove Farm owned by the late Roy Mitchell.

— a shopping center, restaurant and motel on 40 acres at the southeast corner of Grand River and Wixom road.

— a possible "garden type" apartment house development, with broad lawns and boulevards, on another 40 acres south of the shopping center.

— a community water system, for which a well has already been dug.

— a sewer system serving every home, and a modern sewerage disposal plant located on a stream in the southwestern section of the development.

The first group of homes to be built will range in price from $18,000 to $22,000, but the range will probably fluctuate as the development proceeds, Campbell said.

Each lot will be between 12,000 and 15,000 square feet, although Thompson-Brown still is studying the needs and wishes of potential home owners in the subdivision.

'Protest' Meeting Planned at Wixom

A meeting at which "100 or more" residents of Wixom are expected to attend will be held Sunday at the elementary school in protest to the community's recently completed re-appraisal program.

In addition Constable James Sereno, one of the organizers of the meeting, has stated that he will submit his resignation to the city council tonight (Thursday) to avoid any "political criticism".

Police Resignation Still Wixom Issue

A letter of resignation submitted by Wixom patrolman Ronald Slomkowski was referred to the police chief following an executive council meeting this week.

Wixom councilmen decided to refer the letter to Police Chief Frank Jazdzinski after investigating the reasons for his resignation.

Slomkowski earlier told councilmen he would be willing to return to the police department if "personal problems" could be ironed out. Neither Slomkowski or councilmen would elaborate on these "problems".

Other police problems discussed two weeks ago will come under discussion again at tonight's council meeting.

Mayor Joseph Stadnik will ask for a transfer of unused budget funds to the police department to help finance a 24-hour police department, which requires two full-time policemen.

Stadnik's action in directing the police chief to hire a second full-time police officer came under fire at the last meeting. Two councilmen argued that the mayor should have first consulted the council before giving such an order.

The mayor, on the other hand, said he took the action because it was his duty and responsibility to assure adequate police protection for Wixom citizens.

Other matters to be discussed tonight will include:

Selection of a board of appeals member to replace newly appointed Councilman Donald Brooks;

Setting of an assessment percentage on personal property;

Arrangements of city participation in Michigan Week;

Report of investigations into the erection of flashers at the Beck road railroad crossing.

IN WILLOWBROOK:

Attend Lansing Conference

By Mrs. George Ames — Greenleaf 4-0830

Mrs. Gayla Fried and Mrs. Ruth Ann Moore spent Saturday in Lansing at the twentieth annual Citizens' Conference on Education at the invitation of the State Department of Public Instruction. The theme of the conference was "Goals for Educational Programs." Mrs. Fried acted as recorder for the group which discussed "Educational Programs in Michigan."

Mrs. Moore worked with another group on "Goals for Teaching Staffs." There were approximately two thousand people present from all over Michigan. Most of them were professionals in education.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vivian, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Henry and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Laub celebrated Mrs. Laub's birthday last Saturday with dinner at the Golden Dragon, and a movie at the Fox theatre in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. John Alexander and their son Johnny, have moved from Willowbrook to their new home in Waukegan, Illinois.

Mrs. Richard Vykdyal is in Hawaii, visiting her parents and her sister. Her husband will join her later and they will all return together.

David Ames spent the weekend in Detroit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Jane B. Rothwell. The March meeting of Our Lady of Victory Mother's Club was held last Tuesday evening. Betty LeButt, Dottie Flattery, Ruth George and Dorothy Richmond attended from Willowbrook.

Helen Beadle was hostess to the Monday evening pinocle group last week. Ellen Rumble and Agnes Driscoll were guest players. Ellen Rumble won first prize, Sylvia Klerk second, Agnes Driscoll third, and Sophie Martin fourth.

Tuesday bridge was held at the home of Ruth Moore last week. Jean McClelland was a guest player. Bernice Connafax won first prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Chismark celebrated the second birthday of their daughter, Beth, on Sunday with a gathering of friends and relatives. Included were Mrs. Herman Touse, Mrs. George Melson, Karen and Neil Melson, Mr. Louis Chismark Sr., Mr. Larry Chismark, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williamson and Dr. and Mrs. Maynard Bailey.

The other Wednesday bridge group met at the home of Virginia Barnes. Ruth George won first prize, Marguerite Parent second and Dottie Flattery won the booby prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKeon have moved to their new home on Willowlane.

Mrs. Donald MacDougall and Mrs. Clifford Farrington visited Mrs. Orlo Johns at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital last week. Mrs. Johns is expected to be in the hospital another three weeks.

DEDICATION PLANS — Members of the Novi Mothers' club are shown here with School Board President Arthur Heslip discussing plans for serving refreshments following the school dedication program Sunday. They are (left to right): Mrs. James McCormick, Mrs. Bernard Marchetti, Mrs. Erwin F. Geppert, Mrs. Fred Loynes and Mrs. Daniel Freytag.

NOVI HIGHLIGHTS:

Begin Work on School Fair

By Mrs. Luther Rix — Fieldbrook 9-2428

Plans have been completed and committees hard at work on projects for the forthcoming School Fair to be held May 8th.

All committees will be happy to receive contributions, also many grades can use extra help. If you have not been contacted and would like to work on the Fair, please contact either the Fair chairman, Mrs. Russell Taylor, or co-chairman, Mrs. James McCormick, of Orchard Hills, or publicity chairman, Mrs. Bernard Marchetti, also Mrs. Fred Loynes, chairman for prizes, for your contributions.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller returned recently from a two weeks vacation in Florida. While there they visited several Novi folks: Mr. and Mrs. Russell Race at Brantford, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Carroll at Ft. Meyers and Mr. and Mrs. George Hines and Mr. and Mrs. E. Ward at Largo. They also attended the funeral of Al Kruezer at Lake Wales.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Skeltis and children and Mrs. Anthony Skeltis Sr., spent Saturday with the former's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Tymensky in Wyandotte.

Mrs. Betty Johns of Willowbrook has been a patient in the Pontiac Osteopathic hospital for several weeks due to a back injury from a fall on the ice.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Trotter who celebrated their seventeenth wedding anniversary last Friday, March 6th. They celebrated on Wednesday of this week by attending the theatre in Detroit where they saw the "Ten Commandments."

Kathy and Denise, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Doyce Ward attended a birthday party for their cousin David, on Le Bost at Willowbrook last Saturday. David, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ward is four years old.

Mrs. Marie La Fond visited Mrs. Helen Hallaman at the Pontiac Osteopathic hospital last Wednesday. Mrs. Hallaman, who underwent major surgery, was able to return home on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Anglin have returned from a three weeks vacation in the Southland.

Novi Am-Vet Auxiliary

The Novi Am-Vet Auxiliary were hosts for the Regional meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Trickey Sr. Monday evening.

Representatives were present from Lansing, Keego Harbor, Pontiac and Novi. Novi's own Doris Callan, president of the Novi Auxiliary, is also the regional president and presided at the meeting.

Novi Auxiliary will serve the servicemen at Niki base next Tuesday sandwiches, cake and coffee for their annual dance.

Baptist Church News

The Baptist Church Unity Circle will meet next Tuesday, March 17, 7:30 p.m. in the fellowship room at the church. Slides will be shown on French Equatorial Africa and plans made for workday at the church.

Research Scientist Takes Teaching Job

Novi elementary school has a new science teacher — Kenneth MacKay, 50, of Ann Arbor.

MacKay, whose wife and one of four sons attend the University of Michigan, assumed his teaching duties last week. Donald A. Knodle, school principal, formerly taught the science classes.

The new teacher holds a bachelor of chemical engineering degree from Lawrence Institute. He has taken graduate work at the University of Michigan.

Before coming to Novi, MacKay was a research scientist for three years with the U-M Engineering Research Institute which is engaged in government and industrial contract work as well as pure science. MacKay worked with high temperature equipment.

Board Votes For BeGole

Township board members voted Monday to continue the appointment of Lee BeGole as township public safety director, a position he also holds for the village.

The vote was prompted by a request recently by the village that the "honorary" title be dropped. Board members pointed out that the village council should ask BeGole to resign his dollar-a-year job with the township if they object.

As township director, BeGole is charged with "keeping an eye" on township police and fire department equipment now used by the village. He also is to provide police protection for those few areas within the township that are not within the village.

Other township board action Monday:

Decided to table indefinitely action by Patrolman Vernon Loeffler to secure back pay of nearly $1,000 that he forfeited two years ago when the board suspended him for taking part in political activities;

Set 2:30 p.m. as the time for the annual township meeting April 4 at the Novi community building;

Decided to start preparation of the budget during the week of March 23 in order to have it ready for presentation at the annual meeting;

Voted to set aside $46 for paying the expenses of sponsoring a Novi student at Boys' State, sponsored by the American Legion at Lansing;

Approved payment of bills, including one for $500 to Warren Products to assist the company in its Supreme Court annexation appeal against the city of Northville;

Renewed two township insurance policies.

Scores of Novi residents are expected to join with the school board Sunday afternoon in dedicating Orchard Hills elementary school.

Orchard Hills was built and furnished last summer at a total cost of $612,000. It is located southwest of 10 Mile and Meadowbrook roads, near Willowbrook Village.

The dedication program will get underway at 2:30 p.m. with a brief formal ceremony. Tours of the building "built for the children" will be conducted from 3:00 to 4:30.

Highlighting the ceremony will be the "acceptance" of the building by Jack Crawford, treasurer of the board of education. Charles W. Lane, the school architect, will make the presentation.

Arthur J. Heslip, board president, will welcome visitors and guests following several organ music selections by Donovan Hansen, and the invocation by Rev. George T. Nevin, pastor of Novi Methodist Church.

Superintendent of Schools Dr. William H. Medlyn will introduce platform guests—which will include several members of the Charles Lane firm who will answer questions pertaining to the school building.

Rev. Byron Chapman, pastor of Willowbrook Community Church, will conclude the program with a benediction.

Special guests will include: Township and village officials, civic leaders, school superintendents from neighboring communities, Northville board of education members, former Novi board members, and the major contractors.

After the program, the Novi Mothers' Club will serve refreshments. Teachers and school children will conduct the tours through the building.

Orchard Hills, second and newest school in Novi, has been widely acclaimed as one of the best designed elementary school buildings in the country.

Both the Michigan and American Associations of School Administrators have praised the building for its unusual but functional design. Drawings of the building have been exhibited by the Association of American Institute of Architects in Washington, D.C.

Orchard Hills is made up of three "clusters" joined by two ramps or connecting corridors. The architects have pointed out that this arrangement was designed "for the children" to fit into the rolling landscape. A conventional compact unit would have been more difficult and expensive to build—and less attractive, they said.

According to Dr. Medlyn, the unusually designed school makes for a "residential" atmosphere, since students attend classes in small intimate buildings instead of one overwhelming unit.

Two of the three clusters or units are now in use. A third, containing four classrooms is finished and partly furnished but will not be open until next fall when enrollment is expected to increase.

The three units provide 12 self-contained classrooms, two kindergarten rooms with separate entrances, a multi-purpose room (which triples as a cafeteria, gymnasium and auditorium) a kitchen, library, health room, offices and a sound-protected room for speech correction and music classes.

Classrooms are termed self-contained because once the teacher closes the door there is no need for a child to leave—each room contains toilet and fountain facilities.

(For pictures of the school and additional information see page 9).

After the dinner, students from the Tabor School of Dancing and Judy Clappison, Novi dancing instructor from Evelyn Kreson dance school will demonstrate various dances. Miss Clappison will demonstrate the hula.

Mrs. Donna Cawell, Willowbrook singer, will conclude the program. She will be accompanied by Carol Hayes on the piano. Dancing will follow.

All women attending the program will receive corsages.

Retires Sunday School Post

By Mrs. Charles Ware — Market 4-1601

On Tuesday, March 3rd, the Wixom Junior Sunday School teachers of the Wixom Baptist church had a surprise party honoring Mrs. Eula Pearsall, who is retiring as Junior Sunday School superintendent after a dedicated service of thirty years.

The party was held at the home of Mrs. Stan Balon on Wixom road with twelve teachers present.

Mrs. Pearsall was presented a white leather covered Bible. Mrs. June Counts will take over the job that Mrs. Pearsall has vacated.

POST 147

March 15-17, The American Legion celebrates its 40th birthday nationally. Lloyd H. Green Post #147 is celebrating its 40th year, Sunday, March 15th, with an open house, 3-5 p.m., public invited.

In Northville the first meeting of World War I service men was called by Charles Murphy in September, 1919. Twelve men attended this meeting. They elected a slate composed of: Commander, Charles Murphy; Norton T. Green, Vice Commander; Conrad Langfield, Vice Commander; L. D. Stage, Jr., Vice Commander; Ross Dixon, Adjutant; and George Simmons, Finance Officer.

The first meeting was held at the high school, Jan. 19, 1920. At this meeting the name of Lloyd H. Green was adopted and application was made for a charter. First assured meeting place was the K of P Hall.

During the year 1922, the bodies of the men who died in France were brought home. Among them was Lloyd H. Green. The Citizens and Veterans of Northville attended each of these funerals. Lloyd H. Green was interned in the Veterans Memorial plot at Rural Hill Cemetery with full Military Honor.

In November, 1923, a set of by-laws was prepared and accepted, which are still in force today.

According to the post history, The American Legion Women's Auxiliary was formed September 16, 1924 by Mrs. Florence Alexander.

During the next few years, the Post brought in more new members and had many fund-raising projects.

On Feb. 10, 1942, Lyle H. Alexander resigned as Post Adjutant having been appointed State Adjutant. He still holds this position.

On October 10, 1944, it was decided to hold a Pancake Breakfast on Armistice Day, (Nov. 11). This has become an annual affair eagerly looked forward to by all citizens of Northville.

On July 10, 1945, the first meeting was held at the new Veterans Memorial Home, 100 W. Dunlap. The Memorial Home was dedicated on V.J. Day, Aug. 14, 1946.

The first World War II Commander was David McDougall. The first Korean War Commander is our present Commander, L. W. Snow, Jr.

Highlights of the Legion program in Northville today are: Teen age dance, co-sponsored by the Post and U.S. Navy Recruiter; Post Commanders and Hunters dinner; Feather Party; Veterans Day and Christmas gifts to Veterans; Easter gifts to children at Maybury Sanatorium; Pancake Breakfast; Flag Burning Ceremony; Post Oratorical Contest; Millionaires Party; eleven boys sent to Boys State last year with cooperation of various organizations in this area; Sponsor a team to the American Legion State Bowling Tournament; Flag pole and Flag dedication Ceremony in Spring for New High School; Plaque given at Mayors Exchange Day Banquet to a Northville outstanding citizen; purchase of three hospital beds, wheel chairs, crutches from their Poppy Welfare fund to be used preferably by Vets, but also to citizens of our community.

On Sun., March 15th, at 10 p.m. Frances Langford will dedicate her special colorcast to the American Legion on the occasion of its 40th Anniversary. She will be joined by an all-star cast, including Bob Hope.

U-M Freshman Enters Debate Tournament

Lillian Zinnecker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zinnecker of Ridge court, will be among the 12 University of Michigan students participating in the Michigan Cross Question Debate tournament at the University of Michigan tomorrow.

Student debaters from U-M, Eastern Michigan college, Wayne State and Western Michigan universities will present their arguments at the Frieze building before beginning-speech classes.

The topics: "Resolved: That the Further Development of Nuclear Weapons Should be Prohibited by International Agreement."

The debate begins with a member of the affirmative side presenting a four-minute speech, followed by three minutes of questions from a member of the negative team.

Lillian, a member of the U-M debating team, is a June graduate of Northville high school and was on the high school team. She was valedictorian of her class.

Burroughs Introduces Fastest Sorter Device at Plymouth Plant

Burroughs Corporation has introduced the world's fastest document sorter, a precision electronic device that reads characters printed with magnetic ink on bank checks and other documents and sorts them at the rate of more than 1,500 per minute.

Ray R. Eppert, president, hailed the new Burroughs Magnetic Character Sorter as a "major breakthrough" in solving the biggest bottleneck in banking — sorting a tidal wave of billions of checks, deposit slips and other documents.

The device was unveiled Wednesday morning at a press preview held at the Burroughs Plymouth division plant on Plymouth road. It will be manufactured in the Plymouth plant.

In most banks, thousands of checks pour in daily from a variety of sources, including other banks, Federal Reserve banks, clearing houses and from each bank's own over-the-counter operations.

Before posting of the items to individual accounts, the checks must be placed in proper order or sequence. The new machine, sorting 10 times as fast as a single person in the manual operation, will free employees from tedious, time-consuming tasks for more important banking operations.

Burroughs also displayed publicly for the first time the Magnetic Imprinter and the Magnetic Amount and Account Number Printer. Both are employed to print numbers and symbols in magnetic ink on checks and other items, providing the "trigger" for automatic devices in the bank's system.

These products were developed to conform with the common language adopted in principle by the American Bankers Association in 1956, and form a part of Burroughs Magnetic Ink Character Recognition (MICR) program. A type font designated E-13-B was approved late in 1957 and final specifications are expected to be released soon.

In pointing out the compatibility of the devices with the E-13-B type font, Eppert said that Burroughs had cooperated with the ABA Technical Committee on Mechanization of Check Handling throughout its search for a satisfactory common language.

"Burroughs began investigating automatic sorting of documents several years ago," Eppert said, "so we were fortunate in having considerable experience in this field prior to adoption of the MICR principle. This has been advantageous as the development of the ABA common language progressed."

Since 1955, Burroughs sorters employing fluorescent techniques have been in actual use in banks on an experimental basis.

The new sorter is a development of the Burroughs Research Center at Paoli, Pennsylvania, where scientists and engineers have also designed such data processing equipment as the guidance computer for the Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile.

The Magnetic Amount and Account Number Printer will be manufactured in the Burroughs Division plant on Second avenue in Detroit. The Magnetic Imprinter, first device manufactured which holds the precise tolerances required for magnetic sorting, was developed and will be manufactured by the Corporation's Todd Company Division in Rochester, New York.

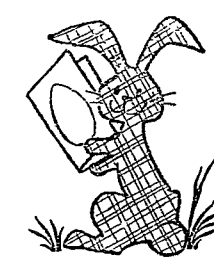

By addition of conversion equipment, the sorter will fit into the most sophisticated automation systems, including those which utilize full scale electronic computers for check handling, proving, bookkeeping and preparation of customer's statements. Its flexibility will permit banks to use it for savings accounts, installment loans and other operations requiring high volume sorting.

One of the technological features is the sorter's ability to process inter-mixed paper and card checks of various sizes. And because the average check is handled by many people before it finally is deposited with a bank, the device has a high tolerance for processing documents that become worn.

GOOD LUCK — Wilbert Petz (left) bids farewell to the automobile business and offers best wishes to Gib Bergstrom, new owner of the Studebaker-Mercedes Benz agency at 200 South Main street.

Gib Bergstrom Buys Studebaker Agency Here

A familiar name in automotive dealerships will replace another well-known for many years in the Northville area.

Petz Bros. Studebaker agency, 200 South Main street, became Gib Bergstrom, Inc. last week. The new owner of the local agency has already taken over operation of the dealership.

Bergstrom, who operates two used car lots in Detroit, has been an automobile dealer for 15 years. He formerly owned dealerships in Detroit and Kansas City. The local agency is the authorized dealer for Studebaker Larks and trucks, Mercedes Benz and also offers a complete service and parts department.

A resident of Highland Park, Bergstrom has been an active participant in community affairs and is a former director of the board of commerce of that city.

Wilbert Petz, who resides at 39900 Sunbury, stated that he has no immediate plans for the future other than "a vacation".

READERS SPEAK:

NORTHVILLE NEVER WAS PARTISAN

Yes, Mrs. Barry, Mr. Lawrence was right — this is the first time partisan politics has been injected into city elections.

Under the old Village Charter, the Village Commission Charter and the present City Charter, all elections have been non-partisan, and it should be kept so.

At a time when Northville had 4 or more Republicans to one Democrat, for a term of over 30 years two of the three village offices that received remuneration were held by Democrats. Many Democrats served on the Council and as Mayor.

About 35 years ago Detroit adopted a Commission form of government, at that time the Republicans controlled the City. The Democrats pleaded for a non-partisan form of City government and the Republicans gave it to them.

But, when Walter Reuther assumed control of the Democratic party, or perhaps at least, became a major factor in Party Policies, every effort has been made to defeat non-partisan Republicans regardless of Ability or Integrity. And many powerful Democrats are advocating a return to partisan politics in City government, and the hand has reached Northville.

No, Mrs. Barry, save your shame for the offenders.

A REPUBLICAN
(Name Withheld)

Local GOP Better Get Busy ... Or Else

Again referring to the Feb. 19th issue of the Northville Record in which appeared a letter by Donald B. Lawrence deploring partisan politics in our non-partisan elections, I phoned the writer complimenting him on his letter. It brings out some facts that should be studied seriously by every Northville voter, Republicans and real, not so-called Democrats, alike.

In today's issue of the Record, Mar. 5th, the Democratic party has a fine picture and good coverage of their recent meeting, which included the picture of their candidate for the Mayor of Northville and a statement by the 17th District Chairman Meyers — quote

"Northville will be Democratic before too long." I agree, it sure will if many of you Republicans don't get off your timid, lazy, sit-down-on-it and get to work for your party and back its candidates, especially in this so-called off-election year such as the one coming up in April. Check and see if you are registered so you can exercise that precious privilege, to vote, then get out and vote as if your life depended on it. More may depend on it than you think. Join a Republican study group and become familiar with the issues and candidates. You'll be surprised and I wager ashamed that you haven't done your share.

Sincerely,
Bea Carlson

DEFENDS LETTER ON NOVI POLITICS

To the Editor:

In answer to Mr. Geo. Simmons' letter to your paper — Simmons quoted only part of my statements as written in my letter to him. I wrote to Simmons: "During the past two years certain individuals have insisted on involving my name in Novi Township politics. It is my intention to stop it once and for all and to show the people in Novi that the real trouble-maker is not Bachert, but Staman. I will not go into detail at this writing but I can assure you, I am not talking thru my hat, I am going to name names and dates. But, on with my real reason for writing you — a few weeks ago MacDermid filed for Township Clerk against Bachert — I was accused by some of being behind MacDermid's move."

I did talk with MacDermid concerning who had encouraged him to run and he told me Staman had talked to him for others and that Geo. Simmons was one who was willing to spend money to defeat Bachert. I wrote to Simmons hoping he would deny this action against Bachert and if he did deny it, that would show MacDermid and others just how far Staman would go to reach his goal. Remember MacDermid made a statement in this paper that no member of the Township Board had anything to do with his running for Clerk?

When MacDermid's ad appeared in the Novi News, I felt I had but one course to follow and that was to deny the accusation as strongly as possible that I had anything to do with MacDermid's action. MacDermid and others in Novi know of my outspoken defense (during my activities in veteran affairs locally and during my term as State Commander of AMVETS) of men who gave much more than I, Simmons or any other man who came back from a war in one piece. The line of attack used by some of these same men against Bachert back in 1947 when he ran for Supervisor was that "he had lost a leg and couldn't get around to do the job of assessing". Many men since the Civil War have used the title "disabled veteran" and in Bachert's case — he is a man who has never asked anyone for anything and his outstanding job as Township Clerk is a matter of record — not only to men like myself who worked with him for a year and a half but also in Oakland County. To charge him with using his disability as a qualification — was a blow below the belt.

As for me trying to tell Simmons how to vote — the election was over when I wrote him and I couldn't care less how he votes. But I do deny him or anyone else the right to try and suppress my right to defend my name or my beliefs — no matter where I live.

Sincerely,
Charles Trickey, Jr.

OVER AND OUT — Mark Johnstone of Plymouth crawled out of his car uninjured last Friday evening after the vehicle skidded on Edward Hines road near the Cass Benton park entrance and rolled over. Johnstone, who was alone, lost control of the car as he rounded the corner, deputy sheriffs said.

Mediation Work Helpful to Judge Bowles

Fourteen years experience in the field of labor relations as a mediator have proven invaluable to Wayne County Circuit Judge George E. Bowles in his work as a trial judge during the past two and one-half years.

Judge Bowles, who served for six years as chairman of the State Labor Mediation Board, won the respect of both labor and industry for his impartial and fair consideration of their respective viewpoints.

He has carried this same philosophy over into his duties on the bench. "I find the work of a trial judge gives lots of opportunity for using successfully the techniques with which all labor negotiators are familiar in mediation," Judge Bowles said. He points out that a settlement negotiated with the assistance of the trial judge takes less time than a trial, is less expensive, and often is a more just result.

Judge Bowles, who was appointed to the circuit court in 1956 and elected in 1957, is a candidate for re-election April 6. In this regard Judge Bowles recently stated "as a non-partisan judicial officer, I have not sought, nor will I seek any support or endorsement except on the basis of judicial fitness and performance. I have not promised, nor will I promise, any concession, favor or preference in consideration or exchange for any support or endorsement."

A resident of Plymouth, Judge Bowles is active in community affairs as a member of the board of trustees of the First Presbyterian church, PTA, chamber of commerce, Plymouth Rock Lodge, F.&A.M. and Plymouth Symphony Society and Torch club.

An avid family man, it is not unusual to see the Bowles' family — sons Franklin, 14; Stephen, 10, and even daughter, Gloria, 16, enjoying a rousing game of "softball" with the judge on the pitcher's mound.

In his comparatively short time on the bench Judge Bowles has gained a reputation for hard work, probably stemming from his boyhood days on a farm near Grove City, Pennsylvania. During the past year he stands second among the court's judges in number of cases handled. His decisions include the largest settlement — some $249,000 — ever handled in the Wayne circuit court and the support of a Detroit city anti-smoke ordinance dealing with traffic on the Detroit river, which was later upheld by the state supreme court.

Perfection to Open Drive-In Laundry

A drive-in laundry and dry cleaning service will be located in a new building to be constructed soon on Center near Main street in Northville.

The announcement was made this week by John McAllister, owner of Perfection Laundry and Dry Cleaning. According to McAllister, the building will be constructed as an addition to the Alex H. Lyke Plumbing and Heating office at 116 South Center. Dimensions of the entire building will be 16' by 32' with Lyke maintaining his office in the rear.

A drive around the entire building will allow customers to drive in on the north side and leave their laundry at a window on the south side of the building without getting out of their car.

McAllister said he expected the new building to be ready around May 1st. Perfection is now located at 202 West Main street in Northville.

Talk by Pastor Cargo Highlights Meeting

Highlight of Monday's dinner meeting of Alpha Nu chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma was a talk by the Rev. Paul M. Cargo of the Northville First Methodist church on "Peace: Its problems and Possibilities."

Special guests for the meeting held in the Arbor Lil restaurant, Plymouth, were members of the organization's Kappa chapter. Program arrangements were handled by the World and Community Service committee.

Rev. Cargo traveled in Mexico during the summers of 1944 and 1945, was an officer of a Peace Seminar to Europe in 1955.

Making The Right Decision

Life is a series of decisions. From the first time we reached for a certain toy in the play pen until we give our last direction with our closing breath, we are confronted with decisions. Since these decisions determine the course of action, our happiness and usefulness to God and man depends upon making the right decisions. Some decisions are minor, some major. Some decisions effect our entire future on earth. The decision of choosing a mate, for example, is such a decision. It is evident from the record of divorces that many are making the wrong decision. The greatest decision that we have to make is the answer to the question posed by Pilate to the crowd who brought Jesus before him. His question was, "What then shall I do with Jesus who is called the Christ?" Every person who reads these columns, every person who reads or hears the Gospel must answer that question. You may say, "I will accept Him as my Lord and my Saviour." You may also say, "I reject Him, I will not believe, I will not yield." You may ignore, or delay, or lightly consider — that then is your answer. Your decision will effect your entire eternity. God requires a decision from you. What will it be?

Orchard Hills to Show 'Campus' The Northville Record

THE OLDEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY — EST. 1868 Thursday, March 12, 1959—9

UNUSUAL DESIGN — Cited as one of the best designed elementary schools in the country, Novi's newest school has been carefully worked into the contours of the landscape by means of a "cluster" layout.

Novi's second and newest elementary school, Orchard Hills, which is nestled on rolling countryside, surrounded by apple orchards, will be officially dedicated Sunday afternoon.

Widely acclaimed as one of the best designed elementary school buildings in the country, Orchard Hills was built last summer at a cost of $612,000 and was opened in the fall. It is located southwest of 10 Mile and Meadowbrook roads, near Willowbrook Village.

The 240 students who attend the school, work and play in two of the three units which make up the "campus". The third unit of four classrooms, which was finished later, is not yet being used.

Each of the three "clusters" or self-contained units are connected by glassed-in ramps, similar to the halls at the new Northville high school.

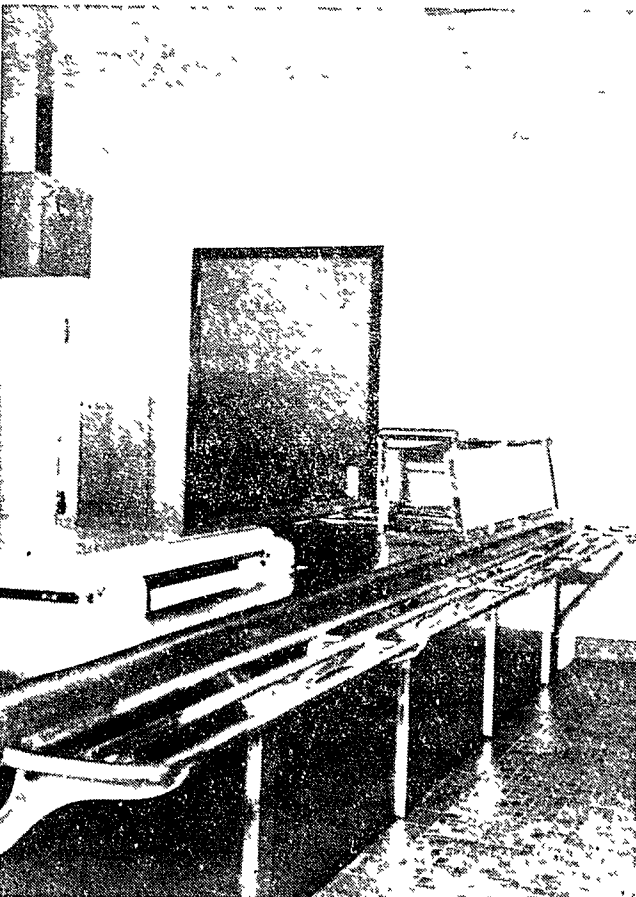

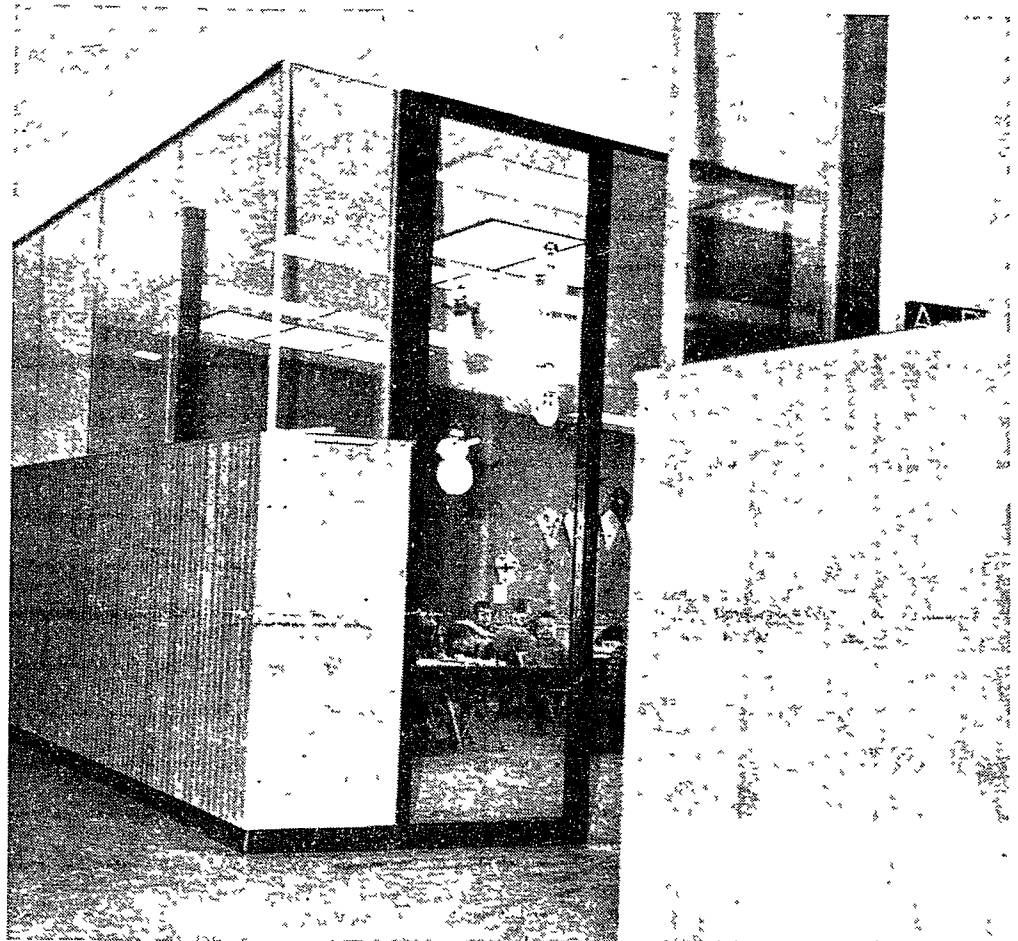

The architects, Charles W. Lane and Associates of Ann Arbor, designed the buildings and gently sloping connecting ramps so they would fit into the rolling landscape. A conventional compact unit, they explained, would have been more difficult and expensive to build on the hilly site.

Dr. William H. Medlyn, superintendent of schools, who makes his office in the unusually designed school, has pointed out that the cluster arrangement makes for a "residential" atmosphere, since students attend classes in small, intimate buildings instead of one overwhelming unit.

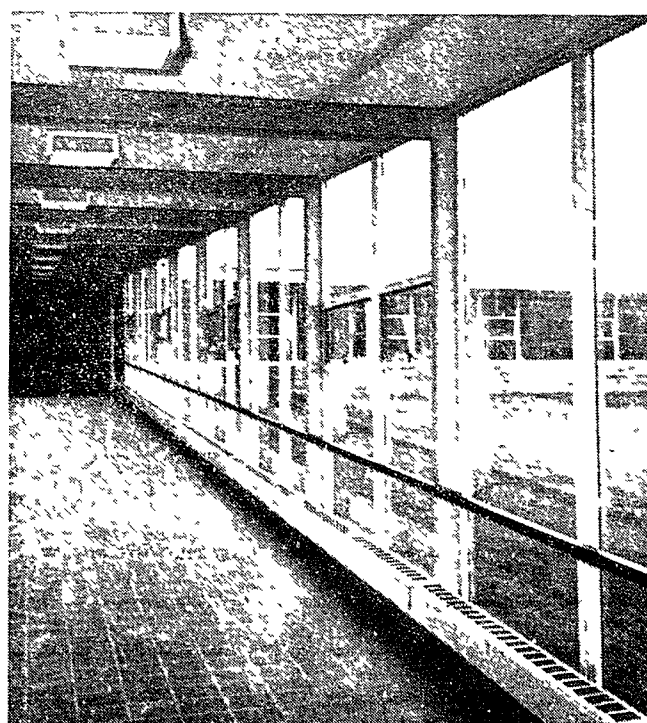

Medlyn said the cluster arrangement helps give the child a sense of belonging to a smaller group, as well as allowing smaller children to be together in one unit and older children in another.

The three building "clusters" provide 12 classrooms, two kindergarten rooms with separate entrances, a multi-purpose room (which triples as a cafeteria, gymnasium and auditorium), a kitchen, library, health room, offices and a sound-protected room for speech correction and music classes.

LIGHT, WARM CLASSROOMS — (At left): The paneled and glassed walls of the classrooms and halls lend warmth to the interior of the classroom units. Recessed lighting and the large windows are special features.

KITCHEN — One of the features of the central building is this kitchen-cafeteria located across the hall from the school library.

GLASSED CORRIDORS — Shown here is one of the two "ramps" or corridors which lead from one "cluster" to another. The glassed corridors are similar to the halls in the new Northville high school.

BIRD'S EYE VIEW — This model shows how the new Orchard Hills school looks from several hundred feet over Meadowbrook road. Building "A" is a classroom unit which is not yet being used; "B" is a proposed future addition; "C" includes administration offices, library, gymnasium and the kitchen; and "D" is a classroom unit.

THE WORLD'S MOST BEAUTIFULLY PROPORTIONED CARS

You'll love the full six-passenger comfort in the cars

BUILT FOR PEOPLE!...

Just one standard was used by Ford in designing its 1959 car — people! First, Ford made the door openings wider, so it's easier to get in and out. Next they made sure that six big people—not just four or five—could stretch out on seats that are padded their full width. Result? More room for everybody's legs, elbows, hips and hats... more solid comfort than ever before.

BUILT FOR SAVINGS!...

Savings start the moment you buy a Ford. A price tag comparison with major competitive cars will prove it! And you go right on saving. Ford's standard engines that thrive on regular gas save you a dollar each tankful. Ford's Full-Flow Oil Filter means oil changes only each 4000 miles. Ford's aluminized mufflers last twice as long. And new Diamond Lustre Finish never needs waxing!

NOTICE OF SALE
$225,000NOVI COMMUNITY SCHOOL
DISTRICT
Oakland County, Michigan
BUILDING AND SITE BONDS,
SERIES 2

Sealed bids for the purchase of Building and Site Bonds, Series 2, to be issued by Novi Community School District, Oakland County, Michigan of the par value of $225,000 will be received by the undersigned, at the Novi Elementary School Building, 26350 Novi Road, Novi, Michigan, until 8:00 o'clock P.M., Eastern Standard Time, on Wednesday, the 25th day of March, 1959, at which time and place said bids will be publicly opened and read.

Said bonds will be dated December 1, 1958, will be coupon bonds in the denomination of $1,000 each, will be numbered consecutively in the direct order of their maturities from 1 to 225, both inclusive, and will bear interest from their date at a rate or rates not exceeding 5% per annum, payable on June 1, 1959, and thereafter semi-annually on December 1 and June 1. Each bid shall state the annual interest rate or rates upon which it is submitted, expressed in multiples of 1/8 of 1%. The interest rate for each coupon period on any one bond shall be at one rate only. Accrued interest to date of delivery of such bonds must be paid by the purchaser at the time of delivery. Said bonds will mature serially on the 1st day of June in each year as follows: $5,000 in each of the years 1960 thru 1969, $10,000 in each of the years 1970 thru 1979, and $15,000 in each of the years 1980 thru 1984. Bonds maturing in the years 1969 to 1984, both inclusive, are subject to redemption by the school district prior to maturity, in inverse numerical order, on any one or more interest payment dates on and after June 1, 1968 at par and accrued interest plus a premium on each bond in accordance with the following schedule:

$25 if called to be redeemed on or after June 1, 1968 but prior to June 1, 1971
$20 if called to be redeemed on or after June 1, 1971 but prior to June 1, 1974
$15 if called to be redeemed on or after June 1, 1974 but prior to June 1, 1977
$10 if called to be redeemed on or after June 1, 1977 but prior to June 1, 1980
$5 if called to be redeemed on or after June 1, 1980.

Notice of redemption shall be published not less than 30 days prior to the date fixed for redemption, at least once in a newspaper or publication circulated in the City of Detroit, Michigan, which carries as a part of its regular service, notices of the sale of municipal bonds. The remaining bonds will not be subject to redemption prior to maturity. Both principal and interest will be payable at such bank or trust company as shall be designated by the original purchaser of the bonds.

The bonds are to be a part of a total authorized issue of $825,000 voted for the purpose of defraying the cost of remodeling the Novi Elementary School building, erecting and furnishing a new elementary school building, and acquiring additional school sites in said school district, and will be the general obligations of the school district, which is authorized and required by law to levy upon all the taxable property therein such ad valorem taxes as may be necessary to pay said bonds and the interest thereon, without limitation as to rate or amount.

For the purpose of awarding the bonds, the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the bonds from April 1, 1959 to their respective maturities and deducting therefrom any premium. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the school district. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the bonds or at a price less than their par value will be considered.

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of $4,500 drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Treasurer of the school district must accompany each bid as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid be accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. No interest shall be allowed on the good faith checks and checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Dickinson, Wright, Davis, McKean and Cudlip (Claude H. Stevens, of Counsel), attorneys, Detroit, Michigan, approving the legality of the bonds. The cost of said legal opinion and of the printing of the bonds will be paid by the school district. Bonds will be delivered at Detroit, Michigan.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Envelopes containing the bid should be plainly marked "Proposals for Bonds".

District Title Eludes Mustangs

Bulldogs Nip Northville In Tourney Finals, 55-53

Northville tried to scale a mountain Saturday—but slipped just inches from the top.

The league champion Brighton Bulldogs claimed the peak with an exciting 55-53 tournament victory over the Mustangs at Milford.

With championship flags planted atop both the Wayne-Oakland league and the district tournament, Brighton set out for more glory in the regional tournament. The Bulldogs were to clash with district winners from Milan, River Rouge and Blissfield.

Meanwhile, the local varsity cagers packed away their jerseys. For seven of them and their coach Stan Johnston, Saturday's game ended high school cage careers.

Johnston, who assumed the head coaching job in 1955, announced his resignation several weeks ago. His successor has not yet been named. The seniors are William Boyd, Larry Clark, Dennis Fallon, Jeff Goodrich, Nelson Schrader, Robert Starnes, and Fred Schwarze.

Northville clashed with Brighton in the district tournament, after knocking off a greatly improved Milford quintet 60-51 Thursday night. Brighton rolled over South Lyon to gain the finals with Northville.

Saturday's loss to Brighton was particularly hard to swallow for Northville, which ended its regular season with an overall 6-9 record and a 5-5 league record. The fourth place league finish was the lowest since Johnston took over the coaching reins.

A win over Brighton would have "dressed up" the mediocre league record and would have been a fine farewell for Johnston.

But the Bulldogs were equally anxious to win. The victory was an ideal frosting for the league championship, which Brighton claimed with 10 straight wins without a defeat. It was the finest season in Brighton's history.

Although both teams were "up" for the contest, neither was hot under the basket. Northville's 17 points in the final stanza was high for the game.

The fourth quarter surge moved Northville into a tie in the final 30 seconds of play after trailing most of the game. Forward Bob Starnes tied the score with a 12-foot jump shot after Fred Schwarze, guard, netted two important charity tosses.

Then with less than five seconds to play, Brighton's right guard, Russell Hudson, potted a long shot to give the Bulldogs the victory—and the district championship.

Northville jumped to an early lead in the first quarter but fell behind as the quarter ended, 15-13. Nelson Schrader, playing probably his best game of the season, scored four field goals in the quarter.

The Bulldogs increased their lead to three points in the second quarter, pumping in four field goals and five free shots while the Mustangs rang up 12 points.

Northville scored 11 points to Brighton's 12 in the third quarter. Then the local cagers started their drive which gave them the brief tie. Schrader and Brighton's star forward, Sean Lavan, fouled out as the game neared the finish.

Forward Bob Starnes, who scored four field goals in the final quarter surge, took scoring laurels for Northville with an 18-point total. Schrader was next with 10 points.

Don Appleton, center, was high scorer for Brighton with 14 points. Teammates Lavan and Hudson were runners up with 12 points each.

Former Mustang Tournament Bound

Northville's Clayton "Cap" Pethers left for Rochester, N. Y. today with 11 other Lawrence Tech cagers to participate in the two-day Rochester Institute of Technology invitational tournament opening tomorrow night.

LIT was invited to the tourney on the basis of its tremendous surge from a 2-21 record a year ago to the commendable 13-14 mark this year.

Pethers was one of the three leading scorers for LIT this season. He averaged 15.1 points per game, second only to Henry Pollard who averaged 16.9 points.

Northville scored 11 points to

Plymouth Cagers Share League Lead

Plymouth Optimist cagers knocked off Plymouth Heide's last Thursday, 31-27, to gain a first-place tie in the senior city league.

The defeat was the first in nine games for Heide's. Earlier in the season, Heide's edged the Optimists 32-31.

Plymouth VFW took command of second place with a relatively easy 47-39 victory over Plymouth's other league squad, third place Begingers.

The only team from Northville to post a win Thursday was the Optimists. The local squad handed the Novi Specials their eighth loss of the season, 30-28.

In the other game Thursday, the Red Birds from the training school rolled over the Northville Royals, 44-34.

Pave District Path Over Milford, 60-51

Northville stepped on the league "doormat" Thursday at Milford in gaining a crack at the district championship.

The 60-51 win over Milford was the third time this season that the Mustangs defeated the Redskins. Northville won two earlier games, 66-52 and 66-46.

Northville's victory pushed the Mustangs into the finals with the Brighton squad which turned back South Lyon.

According to Coach Stan Johnston, Milford, which shared the league basement with Bloomfield Hills, played its finest game against Northville Thursday. The Redskins took advantage of most of Northville's errors and took command of the boards throughout much of the game.

The Redskins pumped in six field goals and three charity shots to tie Northville in the first quarter. But the challenge was short lived.

Northville's 6' 9" center, Jeff Goodrich, added 10 points to his 7-point first quarter output to lead the Mustangs to a 33-27 half-time edge.

The local cagers tallied 13 points to Milford's 12 in the third stanza, and then added 14 more in the final quarter as the Redskins added another 12 points.

Goodrich had his best night of the season in pacing Northville; he netted 12 field goals and five free throws. Teammate Bob Starnes was next high with 11 points. Gene Schuett, Milford guard, took honors for his team with 16 points.

DISTRICT MEETING—Northville's Fraternal Order of Eagles was host organization at a district meeting Sunday at the American Legion hall. Jack Allison (right), local president, greets John Shaw (left), district 3 chairman, and D. D. Dunlap, visiting state trustee from Adrian. Nearly 120 district members from southeastern Michigan attended the meeting.

OPENING TODAY—Chuck Cummings, manager of the new Hubbel's Department store in Walled Lake, busily stacks bolts of fabrics as he prepares for the store's grand opening celebration today, Friday and Saturday. The store will feature a complete line of men's, women's and children's wear as well as yard goods and white goods. Owner of the new store is Forrest Hubbel, well known commercial developer. Cummings was formerly associated with R & M department store of Union Lake. A television set and 600 pairs of hose will be given away during the 3-day grand opening.

ONE YEAR AGO . . .

Years of discussion and months of planning neared a climax as several thousand voters prepared to go to the polls to decide if Novi township shall incorporate as a village.

Legislation that could eliminate all city profits from horse racing came one step closer to reality. Despite strong opposition from senators representing the afflicted areas of Jackson, Livonia, Hazel Park and Northville, the measure won approval of the state senate.

A district championship and a crack at the regional title eluded the Northville Mustangs. After winning their way into the district finals, the Mustangs saw their tournament hopes shattered in a wild 60-53 defeat at the hands of Willow Run.

Bernie Morrison, owner of Famous Stores, announced he will close his Northville store in the "near future."

Our Lady of Victory's seventh and eighth grade basketball team concluded its basketball season with five wins, three losses, for a fourth-place standing.

FIVE YEARS AGO . . .

Five hundred and twenty-four of Northville's 1,132 registered voters (46 percent) cast ballots at the spring election.

They elected Claude N. Ely as village president to succeed Conrad E. Langfield, and put two new men, Earl L. Reed and Ed C. Welch, on the village commission. A. Malcolm Allen, who served two years on the commission, was returned to office by an outstanding plurality of 343 compared with 189 for Reed, the runner-up.

Bud Hartner, superintendent of public works, suffered a wrist fracture when the crank handle bucked as he was trying to "rev up" the village road scraper.

The Northville Retail Merchants association voted for local stores to remain open two evenings each week, provided 80 percent of the downtown stores agree.

Oil drillers readied their equipment to put down four new oil wells to the north and west of Northville in Oakland and Washtenaw counties.

The tournament hopes of the Northville Mustangs were blasted by a fighting Walled Lake basketball team in the second game of the tournament series at Walled Lake. The score was 64-55.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO . . .

The Northville high basketball team by winning eight out of 14 league games, qualified for the district tournament on which they were undefeated until the last game. Representing Northville: Steve Follino, Bill Light, Douglas Slessor, David Amerman, Dick Ritchie, Fred Wick, Winston Erlandson, Tom Houghton, Dick Green, Linwood Snow and Glen Hardesty.

The Northville community service ration board traded quarters with the police department. The rationing center was changed to the first floor of the building where the police desk used to be, and the police department was changed to the private room on the second floor of the village hall.

Arthur Schnute was chairman of the Northville Crippled Children Easter Seal Sales committee which included R. H. Amerman, E. M. Bogart, Conrad Langfield and W.H. Cansfield.

Plans were rapidly taking shape for the proposed new Veterans Memorial hall.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO . . .

Plans were underway for a centennial celebration at the Northville Methodist church. Rev. H. Malinson, 67th pastor of the church, headed the planning group.

Northville Republicans picked these candidates for the township ticket: Supervisor, Willard A. Ely; clerk, Elmer L. Smith; treasurer, Mrs. Jennie Cousins; highway commissioner, Ernest L. Kohler; justice of the peace, Arthur S. Nichols; board of review, G. Carmi Benton; constables, Philip Donon, Frank N. Perrin, James L. Black and Ullie A. Tibbitts.

Democrats of Northville honored Charles A. Sessions, oldest Democrat in Northville, at their caucus by electing him permanent chairman of the Democratic caucus.

Another checker playing tournament was in progress at Novi school. Semi-final round winners: Edwin Hill, Laura Toletene, Mervin Trotter, Robert Snow, Madeline Bramer and Lloyd Holmes.

Wage Guarantee Coming

LABOR might be forcing industry to provide a guaranteed annual wage in an economic war of attrition.

The principle of GAW was established some years ago by UAW President Walter P. Reuther. It won a compromise in labor-management negotiations, but fell short of victory.

But now, by extending other phases of labor's fight for more security, it is possible to see signs of success.

Labor unions always have considered the state's unemployment compensation program inadequate. Last week, it got support from an unusual quarter.

Three University of Michigan professors reported results of their research showing that jobless benefits in all states are generally inadequate.

They said that all workers should be covered. Michigan's law covers those in plants with four or more workers. They said benefits should last 30 weeks, some seven and one-half months. Michigan's runs 26 weeks, or six months.

They said that a worker should get 40 percent of his take home pay while jobless. Michigan's ranges from 40 to 50 percent.

The AFL-CIO in Michigan is now campaigning for perpetual unemployment compensation, benefits for the entire period of unemployment, no matter how long.

Republicans in the legislature are proposing a plan under which workers would contribute to the fund which is tapped for the benefit checks.

The idea was first brought up for consideration by the unions, but Republicans stole a march on them by publicly announcing the idea early.

Oddly, unemployment compensation started first as a fringe benefit for workers, negotiated by unions with a strike threat as its major weapon.

At present, employers make 100 percent of the contributions to the fund based on the payroll assessment. The more jobs they keep constant, the less they contribute.

VOTERS will decide April 6 whether to give the state legislature extraordinary powers in case of a disastrous enemy attack.

The proposal, which came from the Federal Office of Civil Defense, would allow the legislature to fill offices temporarily to keep government alive until normal operations could be resumed.

It would require an enemy attack on the United States and, specifically, damage which would vacate important governmental offices.

However, it does not say what would happen if the legislature were bombed out.

MAIN discussion in the legislature centered on the change in name of the State Board of Agriculture to the board of trustees of Michigan State University, but a side comment drew most attention.

During debate, one legislator indicated that Michigan State would start campaigning soon for a medical school.

There was consideration for the idea several years ago, but university officials denied it was part of the plan when the name was changed from "college" to "university."

Evidence has grown that the medical school will be the next project at MSU.

One source said that the university is attempting to obtain the Boys Vocational school property for that purpose.

VOLUNTARY commitment procedures for the mentally ill will be streamlined if a bill pending before the legislature becomes law.

Under present laws, all commitments must follow the same route. Patients must be examined by two psychiatrists and be granted a hearing before a probate judge.

The new bill would enable those who voluntarily enter state hospitals to be committed by "declaration", without the court procedures.

Automation is Best Protection Against Inflation

Babson Park, Mass. — Except for intermittent periods of deflation, we have had a slow but constant inflation for as long as statistics are available. In fact, the reason gold and silver coins have rough edges is so they cannot be clipped — so a little of the gold and silver cannot be stolen as a hedge against inflation.

The Inflation Craze Just now almost everyone is excited about inflation. Of course, normal inflation will continue; but I anticipate nothing serious unless World War III breaks out. If you believe there will be no World War III during the next ten years, then forget inflation. If you do expect such a War, the best investment is gold and land which will earn its taxes, especially land bordering an ocean, a lake, or a river. Buying stocks now as a hedge against inflation is a waste of money.

There has been no period in American history when serious inflation accompanied unemployment and heavy imports. Increasing Federal and personal debt is only one cause of inflation. The main cause is a scarcity of goods with an increased demand for goods. With present foreign competition and its increasing supply of cheap labor causing more domestic unemployment, there can be no scarcity of goods.

Automation Is Increasing Union labor could cause price inflation; but the use of automation by our manufacturers is fast keeping up with labor's demands. The use of photon by printers, of electronics by manufacturers, and of other labor-saving devices by businessmen will partly hold down prices. The chief companies supplying automation devices are Aeroquip Corp., Beckman Instruments, Bullard Co., Cincinnati Milling Machine, Cutler-Hammer, Inc., Ex-Cell-O Corporation, General Precision, I.B.M., Sperry Rand Corp., Kearney & Trecker Corp. and R.C.A.

We cannot now lick Russia in an economic war. In Russia all are paid and promoted according to their efficiency and output. Russia has the population and the discipline. To attempt to abolish labor unions in our country would not only mean death for any political party advocating it, but might require a "man-on-horseback" or a dictator like deGaulle of France. Hence, I advise readers not to depend on legislation against the labor unions, but to get our manufacturers to adopt automation and compel our bankers to finance the great costly changeovers.

Requirements of Automation Automation may be defined as the automatic processing of raw or semi-processed materials into finished products. The typical manufacturing plant of today consists of related but unconnected machines that perform successive steps in the creation of a final product. Separate persons operate these machines and transfer the work from one machine to another. Under full automation, the plant would become a single giant machine, drawing in raw materials at one end and pouring out finished goods at the other — all being directed by electronic controls.

The adoption of full automation would often require an almost complete scrapping of existing plant. The design of the factory, the machine tools, the control mechanisms, and the materials-handling equipment would all have to be integrated. The plant layout would have to be scientifically engineered, and the flow of materials planned and timed to a delicate balance. Such a plant would largely depend upon mass production of a single product.

What Companies Need Automation Most Following is a tabulation indicating the relative importance of wage costs in significant industries. Coal, copper and gold mining, fishing, lumber — not listed — also have high costs. The table shows where the pressure to adopt automation will be greatest. Management and labor must become more professional and technical. The labor force will adopt broad rearrangement. This also applies to education. Wise young people should now train for the Automation Era — planning, selling and financing its adoption.

Finally, let me say — Only labor and stock prices are now abnormally inflated. Labor will be held in check by automation. This leaves the stock market as the most inflated economic factor. Is it common sense to buy stocks as a hedge against inflation when stocks are the most inflated of all things? Surely this is "trying to pull yourself up by your bootstraps." Good stocks are now okay for income, but unless the U.S. is to suffer a World War — the purchase of stocks as an inflation hedge, at their present inflated prices seems illogical. There may be one exception — namely, stocks of companies having large productive land with oil, mineral, or timber holdings.

Tough-built Chevy truck bulls its way deep into the woods for mammoth loads

This big Series 60 Chevy bulls its way as far as 8 miles into the Louisiana woods, fights over ruts and jagged stumps . . . then grinds back out with towering loads of logs! The Sabine Lumber Company attests to the truck's ability to take it: "Chevrolet makes the best truck for our type of operation."

Out where a truck is known for the beating it can take, Chevy's making friends fast. Truckers like the way these toughies hold up; the way they wade right in, take their lumps, yet stay in shape.

Today, it's grit that Chevy's showing the trucking industry. Real toughness that pays off in job-after-job dependability . . . in ability to get work done at least expense. You can match Chevy muscle against any tough light, medium- or heavy-duty job and know you've got it beat!

Your Chevrolet dealer's ready right now to meet your special work requirements. Stop by and see him soon.

HOW DOES YOUR TOWN MEASURE UP?

An industry always takes the measure of a town before thinking seriously of locating a plant there.

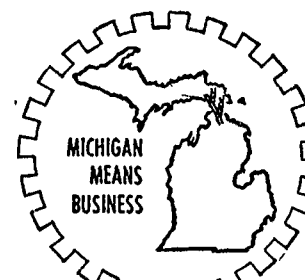

Make your own check list and measure your town for yourself.

You might start by marking yes or no on each of the following questions: Does our town have good industrial sites? _____; Financing available for plant construction? _____; Modern and adequate schools? _____; Attractive shopping facilities? _____; Pleasant residential sections? _____; Well supported churches? _____; Good streets and highways? _____;

Progressive municipal government? _____; Adequate public services? _____; Widespread community spirit? _____; Strong civic leadership? _____; Wise zoning provisions? _____; Good community planning? _____.

If your check list shows much room for improvement, it indicates the job to be done.

Join hands with your local industrial development organization and the Michigan Economic Development Department to help your community prosper.
