

Northville Wins National 'Cleanest Town' Contest

Northville won national recognition last week when the city was awarded first place in the 1958 National Cleanest Town Contest.

Announcement of the award was made in Washington, D.C., by the National Clean-Up—Paint-Up—Fix-Up Bureau.

Northville won the award on the basis of an entry submitted by John S. Canterbury, chairman of the city-wide "Beautify Northville" campaign conducted last May.

Cities and towns from all over the nation submitted entries in the contest following 1958 "Clean-Up" campaigns conducted in more than 6000 communities. The cities were divided into eight population categories with Northville winning top honors in the cities under 5000.

A trophy is now being engraved and will be forwarded to the city soon.

Darlington Denit, Director of Inspection, Department of the Interior, and James F. Steiner, Manager, Construction and Civic Development, Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

The "Beautify Northville" campaign was the first extensive effort by the community to conduct a "clean-up" drive. The program was sponsored by the Coordinating Council and had wide-spread public participation. Joseph Crupi served as co-chairman to Canterbury while other active members of the committee included Mrs. Peter Cuchetti, Mrs. Louise Cansfield, Lynn Sullivan, William McGee, Harvey Ritchie, Donald Lawrence, Alex Lawrence, John Robertson, Ed Welch, Mrs. Arthur Carlson and Donald Hannabarger.

Actually, more than 50 residents participated in the program assisting in various projects.

Canterbury's carefully prepared report drew special praise from the judges and Northville was acclaimed in particular for anti-litter and fire prevention activities during the month-long campaign.

Highlights of the campaign included: showing of color slides of the city's "eyesores"; anti-litter drive including a paper pick-up by cub scouts and distribution of some 3300 anti-litter bags by the Optimist club; vacant lot improvement; fire safety inspection of commercial buildings; city-wide trash pick-up drive by 47 volunteer workers; purchase of trash containers for placement in business district (soon to be completed); scrub-down of Main and Center streets by fire department and merchants; residential clean-up cooperation and public works projects to beautify the city.

Water Bond Issue Going Back to Voters

Set May 18 Election Date For Improvement Plan

You have to give the city council credit. It doesn't give up easily.

Monday night councilmen decided to send the once-defeated $300,000 water bond issue back to the voters.

A special election will be called May 18 with no changes made in the proposed water system improvement program.

Northville Draws Caro

The mayors of Northville and Caro will trade communities May 18 in the annual Michigan Week "Mayor's Exchange Day".

Northville was paired with Caro in a drawing held last week at Lansing. Caro is the county seat of Tuscola county and is located 30 miles east of Saginaw in the "Thumb" region. It has a population of 4,000 and is primarily agricultural. William A. Janks is mayor.

Mayor A. Malcolm Allen appointed Mrs. Roy Soule and Harvey Ritchie co-chairmen of the local Michigan Week event Monday night. David Cameron, appointed earlier by the mayor, notified the council that he will be out of town during the week-long celebration.

Roads Improved; Citizens Group Wants to Expand

Street conditions were improved in the Oakwood subdivision area this week following meetings between the city council and the "Oakwood Association" citizens committee.

The newly formed group met two weeks ago to seek ways of solving their road problems. Many of the streets have been impassable because of the severe winter and heavy use by construction trucks in the area.

Following an organization meeting the group, headed by Earl Walker, sent a committee to discuss the problem with the council. Later the council met with the entire group at the Amerman school and a plan to spread an inexpensive "fill" on the roads was adopted.

This week City Manager John Robertson said that Horton, Carpenter, Grace and Hill streets were being serviced. Novi street is scheduled to be paved this spring, so it is not being improved now.

Walker, president of the Oakwood association, said this week that his group is planning to become city-wide. "We want all citizens interested in Northville to join with us to help make ours a better city," Walker stated. He indicated the group will take an interest in more things than just roads and will attend the city's budget hearings before deciding their next steps. Earlier the group suggested paving of all city streets.

Tax Collections Lag in Township

Northville Township Treasurer Roy M. Terrill reported this week that township county and school tax collections for 1958 were the lowest in 18 years.

By the February 28 deadline township residents had paid 86.36 percent or $285,559.34 of a total roll of $330,658 in personal property and real estate taxes.

In previous years the average tally had reached 90-97 percent by this time, Terrill declared.

City receipts were about par, City Clerk Mary Alexander said, with 93.91 percent or $307,987.41 of the $326,900 roll collected.

A 4 percent penalty is automatically added to delinquent payments with an additional one-half percent each month after February 28 by the county treasurer.

Didn't the Wind Blow, Tho!

March lived up to its windy reputation Sunday with reported gusts up to 70 miles per hour. The heavy winds interrupted a calm morning at approximately 11:00 o'clock and continued most of the afternoon.

Numerous trees, limbs and signs were reported blown down but electric or telephone service was not interrupted in the Northville area.

Walking was almost impossible at the height of the storm. In the business district unanchored newspaper stands and hanging display signs were tossed about by the strong winds making walking dangerous.

A metal sign behind Hobson's Sweet Shop, 144 East Main, was torn from its base and caused $75 damage to a truck owned by Ronald Dethloff.

A new car owned by Carl Taylor of Inkster was struck in the side and rear by a falling tree causing $290 in damage. Taylor's car was parked on East Cady street.

In Novi police reported part of a barn blown down on 11 Mile road, a large window broken at a service station, trees blocking traffic on Meadowbrook road between Nine and Ten Mile, power cut-offs at three areas and several telephone wires down.

Roof shingles were lifted on many residences, while fallen and twisted television antennas were commonplace throughout the area.

WINDY WALKING — Sunday's fierce winds made walking almost impossible. Nancy Starkweather of Novi road manages to cross Main street, but she soon sought shelter. Note the upended news racks in the background.

WINDFALL — This huge tree at Main street and Seven Mile road succumbed to Sunday's gale. It was quickly cut down by tree-trimmers and removed from utility wires. Winds up to 70 miles per hour were reported in the area.

Same Story on Cady Re-Zoning

Northville planners re-enacted their meeting of two weeks' ago Tuesday night and again postponed action on the proposed rezoning of the north side of Cady street between Center and Church streets.

The decision to again delay acting came after George Zerbel and Lynn Sullivan reported results of a meeting with officials of the A&P company.

Rezoning of the street from residential to commercial is being considered as part of a proposed plan to construct a supermarket on Cady. Tentatively, it has been suggested that the store would face north on the parking-alley between Main street and Cady. Some residents of Cady street have objected to the arrangement on the basis that it would make an "alley" out of Cady and hurt property values on the south side of the street.

Because of these objections Zerbel and Sullivan sought to discuss alternate plans with the company. Zerbel stated that the company expressed a desire to stay in the business district and seemed willing to consider other plans. Specifically, Zerbel suggested bringing the location of the store to the northeast corner of Center and Cady facing either east or west.

He admitted that this plan would be more costly, but said the company was willing to examine such a plan. Zerbel contended that this would allow better future development of the street and not hurt southside values.

Zerbel hit out briefly at "pres-sures" brought upon the planners by interests both for and against the project. "We need more cooperation in our planning to do a better job for Northville. It isn't fair to pass this on to the city council without investigating all the possibilities," he added.

Sullivan expressed more concern over the parking proposal made by the merchants on Main street. "The city must provide $25,000 for parking; we're setting a precedent; besides I'm a taxpayer and I understand the city has already spent $100,000 on offstreet parking," he stated.

Sullivan was referring to a proposal by the merchants to purchase and develop a site between Northville Realty and Northville Drugs into a metered-parking lot. The merchants propose to give the city $28,000 towards the project, estimated to cost $34,000. Of the merchants' $28,000 some $10,000 is earmarked to assist the city in development of a parking and alley project at the site of the now city-owned Hills Building, 114 West Main street.

In most previous municipal parking and alley projects the city has financed the development from general funds.

Planner Donald Hannabarger questioned whether the planning commission was within its rights to investigate building plans or whether the body was merely concerned with zoning. Planning Consultant W. J. Johnson and City Attorney Philip Ogilvie stated that the planners had no "legal" authority to do so, but that it was becoming "an assumed responsibility". "From a practical standpoint those requesting rezoning usually submit their plans as a courtesy, but it is not necessary under the law," Ogilvie said.

Before the meeting concluded Hannabarger suggested that Ogilvie study the legal possibilities of the planning commission applying restrictions to its zoning recommendations, thus enabling the planners to zone with a definite plan in mind.

Other members of the planning commission present Tuesday night were Chairman T. R. Carrington, Forrest Doren, Ernest Ebert, L. M. Eaton and Harvey Ritchie. They are scheduled to meet again March 31.

Methodist Choir to Sing Selections from Oratorio

Selections from "The Holy City" oratorio by A. R. Gaul will highlight the 1959 Easter season performance by the Sanctuary choir of the First Methodist church.

The choir will sing during the 8:45 and 11 o'clock services on Palm Sunday morning, March 22.

Unlike many Easter and Christmas cantatas, Director Ervin Nicholas pointed out, "The Holy City" is neither narrative nor dramatic. As the composer describes it, "The treatment of the subject of this work is almost entirely reflective and sets forth the desire for a higher life."

An important theme of the work was suggested by words from the book of Revelation, "I was a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away."

Parts of the oratorio to be performed here are:

1. Instrumental Introduction (Organ) Mrs. Richard Somers
2. Full Chorus

Thine is the Kingdom, for ever and ever. Matt. 6:13.

I have looked for Thee, that I might behold thy power and glory. Ps. 63:3.

3. Women Chorus

They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. And He that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. Rev. 7:16,15.

4. Full Chorus

Great and marvellous are Thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are Thy ways, Thou King of Saints.

To thee all angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein. To Thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry, holy, holy, holy is the Lord of Hosts! Te Deum.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or the earth and the world were made, Thou art from everlasting. Ps. 90:2.

THE CROSS AND MAN'S DECISION

The most unpleasant prospect ever faced by anyone was faced by Jesus as he set himself to endure the cross . . . He had a real soul struggle to decide what to do about this coming torture . . . yet nevertheless not My will but Thine be done, he prayed.

The department of the mind where decisions are made is the most important of all. Many of us have never learned to make an honest, worthwhile decision. Most of just toss up a few desires, whims, wishes and decide to do as we gently please about things. We let this mental gymnastic pass for a decision when in many cases it is only a sly way of getting our own way about the matter.

A real decision is one that takes in all the facts. We must take into account the truth, the rights, wants, and desires of others. And above all we must face the greatest truth of all "what would God want me to do about this matter?" No one can really face life squarely with an honest decision until he has taken the will of God into account.

We cannot truly please ourselves with our decisions until we have earnestly tried to do what we feel God would want us to do. In the final analysis our lives must be pleasing to God or they are not pleasing to ourselves.

But you say "I do not want the things God wants me to want! I want the things I want". Here is the real crossroads of life. When we please ourselves selfishly we do not take God into account. We take the low road and the things which we choose for ourselves turn sour and the sweet turns to ashes; for all things betray him who betrays God.

When Jesus prayed, "not My will, but Thine be done" he set the course for every human decision. If we would live up to life and not down to it we must seek the will of God instead of our own. If we ask sincerely, God will perform the miracle of all true religion . . . He will put into our hearts "the want-to" so that when we decide, we want what God wants! This and this alone is the road to decision. Earth hath no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal when the will of man is in harmony with the Will of God.

Events Out of the Past

ONE YEAR AGO . . .

Northville was almost assured of an incorporated neighbor on the north, after Novi township approved village status Monday by a slim 67 votes.

At the same time, they gave a strong endorsement to the original incorporation committee by naming four of its members—headed by Walter Tuck—to the village charter commission.

A state senate bill that would have eliminated all city profits from racing in Northville was killed by the house of representatives. The measure, which won 22 to 9 approval in the senate a week earlier, was tabled by the house state affairs committee.

Twelve Northville students shared in the groundbreaking ceremony for the new Northville high school.

City residents outperformed their township neighbors in paying school and county taxes for 1957. Percentage-wise, city residents paid 93 percent of the total levied, while in the township slightly more than 89 percent of the taxes were collected.

Willowbrook Community church prepared for its special dedication services under the direction of R.H. Mueller, bishop of the West Central area of the Evangelical United Brethren church.

FIVE YEARS AGO . . .

Northville firemen were called to save the Novi Inn, located at Novi road and Grand River. The Inn, a landmark in this area for more than a quarter of a century, was destroyed by flames which apparently started in the basement. Firemen from Commerce, Farmington and Walled Lake also assisted the Novi fire department in fighting the blaze.

Fifty members of the Northville Optimist club and guests gave their home town a vote of confidence and a pat on the back with respect to its schools, stores, medical facilities, library, fire department and general spirit of friendliness.

Barbara Prunty was named valedictorian of the class of 1954 of Northville high school, and Jean Nieuwkoop was awarded the second honor of salutatorian.

Financial commitments made in 1953 may make necessary a slight increase in Northville's tax levy, Commissioner John F. Stubenvoll told Earl L. Reed and Ed C. Welch, newly elected members of the village commission, at its meeting.

Work was scheduled to begin on the new Northville elementary school as quickly as plans could be drawn and construction contracts awarded, Superintendent of Schools R. H. Amerman announced.

Construction of Northville's new community center, to cost approximately $210,000, was progressing rapidly, according to Wilson Funk, Northville recreation director and chairman of the building committee.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO . . .

The township of Novi was set to hold a special election to deter-

You Pay Less

TRUCKS ARE VITAL to every industry in Michigan, and no service or commodity which affects your day-to-day living could reach you without trucks. That is the basic way in which trucks serve you. But they benefit you in other important ways, too. For example—latest available figures show that Michigan's trucks pay over $65,000,000 annually in State registration fees and gasoline taxes alone, plus several millions more in mileage taxes and special taxes levied on the larger vehicles. In addition, of course, trucks pay all the other taxes charged against any business enterprise in Michigan—real estate property taxes, personal property taxes, business activities taxes, sales taxes, intangibles taxes, franchise taxes.

All these millions in taxes the trucks pay go to support the general welfare, to help pay for modern roads, hospitals, schools and colleges, parks and playgrounds, police and fire protection.

So, you see, thanks to the trucks, you pay less.

STARNES — Honorary Captain

High Mustang Scorer

Local Cage Honors Go to Bob Starnes

A player who "gave 100 percent in every game" was elected honorary captain of the 1958-59 varsity quintet last week by his teammates.

Bob Starnes, 17-year-old athletic standout at Northville high school, also was elected as the "most valuable player" by Northville basketball coaches.

In announcing Starnes selection as most valuable player, Coach Stan Johnston praised the 5'11" senior for his spirited participation throughout the season. "He could rebound, drive, and shoot—he was a good defensive player," Johnston said.

The Detroit News named Starnes to its all-suburban quintet along with George McDaniel of Holly, Don Appleton of Brighton, John Lucadami of West Bloomfield, and John Parks of Clarkston.

Starnes piled up a total of 236 points in 16 of Northville's 17 games during the season to capture team scoring honors. He scored 82 field goals and 72 free throws for an average of 15 points per game.

The honorary captain was high point man for the Mustangs in six games, second high in five others.

His best single game score was 21 points in the second West Bloomfield contest.

Starnes attempted 96 shots at the free throw line and hit successfully 65 times for a 68 percent average.

Besides excelling in basketball and football (He was called "the greatest halfback I've ever coached" by Coach Ron Schipper after setting a new Northville rushing record last season), Starnes takes part in many other school activities.

Currently, he is mayor of the school—or president of the student council.

Summer Baseball Plans Announced

Registration for spring and summer recreation baseball will get underway Saturday at the scout hall.

City Recreation Director Stan Johnston has called for early registrations in anticipation of what may be the largest baseball program in history.

Boys may register for the baseball program, which will start next month, between 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. Registrations will be accepted each Saturday morning thereafter until the season gets underway.

Five age classes will be organized in the Northville-Livonia-Plymouth league this year, Johnston said. They are: Class D, 18 years and under; Class E, 15 and under; and Class F, (midgets) 13 and under. Younger boys, 9-10, will form the Knot Hole baseball league, while boys 7-8, will make up the Knot Hole softball league.

Cost for a registration card is 25-cents. Novi youngsters may register at additional cost.

Last year approximately 250 boys participated in the Northville baseball-softball program. Twelve teams were enrolled.

In the Midget division last year, the Northville Braves piled up 24 wins without a loss to win the class F title. They also added a playoff win over Roseville and took three in a row for the district crown and a trip to Jackson.

The Braves dropped their final game to Jackson Queens, 2-1, just one game away from the state midget baseball championship.

Two other area nines did well in the state tournaments. With Doyle Hay and Jim Anderson from Northville's Class F squad in the outfield for Livonia, the neighboring team downed Battle Creek for the state Class F crown.

Plymouth shut out Grand Rapids, 5-0, to win the state Class E title.

Northville's Class F team finished third behind Livonia and Bill's market, while the local Class E nine ended the season with a 4-6 record—good enough for fourth place.

In the knot hole division, the Yankees took the baseball title with a 9-3 record and the Cubs won the softball crown with a 6-1 record.

Plymouth Cagers Near League Title

Two of Plymouth's senior city league teams moved a step closer to the title last week with victories over Northville and the training center.

Plymouth Optimist cagers, who two weeks ago knocked off Heide's to gain a first-place tie in the league, downed the Northville Optimists, 51-46.

The win over Northville was the second this season for Plymouth. In the earlier contest, Plymouth barely edged the local quintet, 29-28.

Heide's of Plymouth had little trouble rolling over the Red Birds from the training school, 53-34. It was the second win over the Red Birds this season—and the ninth league victory for Heide's.

Novi's league squad tried desperately to avenge an earlier loss to Plymouth V.F.W., but dropped its second contest with the third place team, 30-24. V.F.W. won the first game, 27-16.

Fourth-place Begingers swamped Northville Royals, 64-28. It was the local squad's ninth loss against a single victory. The lone win was posted over the Novi Specials last month.

Only two games for each of the league squads remain to be played. Tonight Heide's takes on Beginger, Plymouth Optimists host the Northville Royals, and the Red Birds play the Northville Optimists.

Heide's, chosen to represent the Plymouth-Northville-Training School league, in the inter-city tournaments in Detroit, was scheduled to play Dearborn yesterday.

River Rouge Bites Too!

Brighton's "best season of the year" came to an abrupt halt last week in the regional tournament at Willow Run.

The Bulldogs took it on the chin from River Rouge 68-44 to shatter all hopes of a regional and possibly a state championship.

Brighton claimed the Wayne-Oakland league title with a 10-0 record and then edged Northville, 55-53, to capture the district crown at Milford.

Meanwhile, Holly won both its district and regional tournament titles. The Broncos posted a 65-52 win over Flushing to capture the regional tournament Saturday. They were to start state quarter final action this week.

Auto, Appendicitis Strike Brothers

Two Northville area brothers are patients at the University hospital today because of separate weekend

"accidents".
James Dolan, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Dolan, 9535 Chubb, was hospitalized Friday after a car struck and seriously injured him at Seven Mile and Chubb roads.
James' 16-year-old brother, Thomas, was rushed to the hospital Monday where he underwent an emergency appendectomy.
The younger boy, who is reported in fair condition, suffered two leg fractures, internal injuries, and multiple cuts and bruises. He and his brother were both treated at Atchison hospital first and then transferred to Ann Arbor.
According to Washtenaw deputy sheriffs, the Dolan boy had just gotten out of a car at the corner and was crossing Seven Mile when he was struck by a car driven by Anthony Kresge, South Lyon.
Deputies said the driver was unable to avoid hitting the boy.
Mrs. Dolan said her older son was in good condition.

Suggestions Worth $4671 to Pair Here

Two employees of Northville's Ford valve plant picked up $4671 in cash awards for their suggestions made to improve production methods at the plant.
William J. Scott of Livonia was awarded $2736 for his suggestion for a more economical use of graphite lubricant applied in forming valves.
Ford may get its money right back. Scott indicated he would buy a new car with the prize money.
Gene L. Holland of Dearborn township, a cost analyst in the plant controller's office, won $1935 for his suggestion that intake and exhaust valves be steam cleaned before final inspection. Previously, the valves were washed by hand.
Holland will use his money to build a new recreation room in the basement of his home.
Since Ford started its suggestion program in 1947 more than $6 million has been awarded employees.

City Hunts Unlicensed Dogs

Northville's police department will begin a city-wide canvas next week to warn dog owners who have not obtained new licenses.
The council instructed the city manager to begin the canvas at once after he reported Monday night that only 150 of the city's 300 dogs had been licensed this year.
The penalty for the first warning is $3.00. Second and third warnings bring $5 and $10 penalties, respectively. Licenses cost $1.10 for male dogs and $2.10 for females.
In other council business Monday night the council approved a hike in sewer rates by Wayne county. The county is boosting its sewer charge to the city 6 1/2 cents per thousand gallons. The city will increase its rate to water users 5 cents per thousand to help offset the county increase. The average water user will thus pay from two to four dollars per year more for sewer use. This bill is included in the regular city water bills.
Sidney Frid, 865 Grace, asked the council why they didn't challenge this increase. Talking to the mayor, he said, "I don't see how you can sit here and not even examine these increases from the county without even bothering to understand them".
Frid pointed out that other communities were protesting.
The council took the position that a portion of the increase was being used to add new sewer lines to help Northville and that the complaining communities were not receiving this benefit. On the recommendation of Councilman John Canterbury the city manager was instructed to investigate the matter, however.

In other business the council: — decided upon the suggestion of Councilman Canterbury to try flushing hydrants on Saturday nights in the southeastern section of the city as recommended by some residents; — set Monday night for a meeting of a committee to study a special assessment ordinance;

— approved a resolution by the city attorney to the Wayne county road commission requesting the inclusion in the sewer district of some 65 acres of property owned by Gerald Taft in the extreme northwest section of the city; — set March 30 as the night for councilmen to discuss procedure for selecting a police chief to replace Joseph Denton, who will retire in May;

— set the next official council meeting date for April 13, instead of April 6, election day;
— heard Oscar Hammond of the American Legion announce that the Legion and Optimists will jointly sponsor a community-wide testimonial dinner for Chief Denton on May 23.

Report of Auditing Committee:

The Auditing Committee approved bills and payrolls for payment as follows: bills—General Fund, $5,638.51; 1954 Debt Retirement Fund, $17,671.62; 1957 Building and Site Fund, $62,553.36; payrolls—$46,699.54.

Unfinished Business:

1. Oil—C. R. Ely & Sons have requested to be relieved from their contract to supply fuel oil for the new high school, because they find themselves unable to supply the oil specified. It was moved by Mr. Lawrence that a letter be written to Ely's advising them that in view of their request for release we are now buying oil from another company but are not necessarily releasing C. R. Ely & Sons from any of the obligations of their contract. Motion supported by Mr. Shafer and carried.

New Business:

1. Three members of the American School Student Council, Forest Lamott, Susan LaRue and Narda Foreman, appeared to ask permission for the children at Amerman School to purchase and plant approximately $320.00 worth of trees and shrubs around the entrance of their building. The children have earned this money by selling flower show tickets through a cooperative arrangement with the Green Ridge Nursery. It was moved by Mr. Crump and supported by Mr. Shafer that this permission be granted and a letter of commendation be sent to the student body at Amerman School. Motion carried.

2. Mr. Walter Kaiser and Mrs. Harry Wagenschutz of the Wayne County Library appeared before the Board to discuss the financial difficulties of the local branch of the library. Since the units which support the library are not providing sufficient funds, the school is being appealed to as the most logical taxing agency to supplement the library's income. Board took no action on this matter.

3. The McFadden Corporation has provided an opportunity for us to buy a new bus body for approximately $1,000.00 less than the regular price, and the Board recommended that the administration contact the other bus companies to determine if a comparable price saving could be obtained from them.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:40 p.m. on a motion by Mr. Lawrence, supported by Mr. Crump.

Miss Gertrude Woodworth, sister of Mrs. Jude Nelson had surgery at Osteopathic Hospital, Pontiac.

from any premium. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid trict is authorized and required by erty therein such ad valorem taxes as may be necessary to pay these bonds and the interest thereon, without limitation as to rate or amount.

A certified or cashier's check in an amount of $12,700.00 drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Treasurer of the School District, must accompany each bid as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid be accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. No interest shall be allowed on the good faith checks and checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, Attorneys, Penobscot Building, Detroit, Michigan, which opinion will be furnished, without expense to the purchaser of the bonds prior to the delivery thereof, approving the legality of the bonds. The purchaser shall furnish bonds ready for execution at his expense. Bonds will be delivered without expense to the purchaser at a place to be designated by the purchaser.

Inquiries with respect to the details of the issue should be address-

SPEAKING for the Record

by BILL SLIGER

In a little more than two weeks voters will go to the polls to elect some county and local officials.

Except for the city's precinct three all of the voting will be done by machine.

For the first time in an election (the machines were introduced at the primary but only 100 voters showed up to meet them) the township will vote entirely by machine.

Two machines are located at each of the two precincts — at the Main street elementary and the township hall.

With nearly 1,600 persons registered in the township (the city has 1890) machines have become a necessity. And while they're certain to speed up the calculation of the totals, voting may be a little slower until residents become acquainted with the machine method. (The Record will publish instructions before the election).

* * *

In the April 6 election Wayne county residents will be voting for 18 circuit court judges. Sixteen of the list of 32 candidates are incumbents.

I've always found that voting for huge lists of state and county officials can be a frustrating experience. Most of us, as voters, have little opportunity to really know the candidates. And past election results show clearly that many times an official is elected by "name" only. He may not be the person we thought we were voting for at all.

Personally, I don't know many of the candidates for the Wayne circuit bench and can only draw my conclusions from what I read and hear.

In the case of two of the candidates, however, I do have something to pass on to readers who, like myself, must vote on opinions gathered second-hand.

Judge George E. Bowles is the first. He's a resident of Plymouth and a personal friend of mine. As a matter of fact, he served as my attorney (before he was named to the bench) when negotiations were underway for my purchase of The Record nearly three years ago. He still serves as a member of our board of directors.

I believe George Bowles possesses all the qualities that we generally think of as necessary to make a good judge. And they go beyond intelligence, ability, background and education.

It's an almost impossible-to-define combination of integrity, impartiality, humility, kindness and understanding.

This mixture constitutes Judge Bowles' character. And to this writer, it is far more important than the aforementioned "intelligence, ability, background and education". These may normally qualify a man to sit in judgment of others, but they do not provide the depth of character needed to help a judge reach a just decision.

The other circuit judge candidate I want to mention is Edward S. Piggins. I am not personally acquainted with Piggins and know him only through his reputation as Detroit's former police commissioner.

He spoke before the Northville Rotary club recently, however, and his subject was very close to this writer.

Piggins talked with authority on crime and its alarming increase in our country. But, unlike most authorities, he gave a simple, direct explanation of the sad slackening of our moral fiber.

He boiled it down to integrity, or rather, the lack of it. "We must let our integrity be rigid in all things, and towards all men," he stated.

Almost every day we have an opportunity to test this principle.

When we make concessions in our daily lives that cut inroads into our integrity, we are giving ground that cannot be gained back. And when we, as leaders in government, business, industry and our homes, are willing to close our eyes ever-so-slightly to what is morally right for personal profit or gain, we are creating a crooked path for our future generations to follow.

Mr. Piggins' sincerity and approach to living have won my vote. I hope you, too, will support Judge George E. Bowles and Edward S. Piggins on April 6.

Our Schools Rate 'Good' in Comparison

How do Northville schools measure up to standards proposed by modern educators?

"Favorably," says Administrative Assistant Dr. Kenneth MacLeod, who adds "that if funds were available to bridge local shortcomings in areas of counseling, foreign languages, elementary art, music and physical education, the Northville system would be superior even to the present 'ideal'."

His findings, outlined in two pamphlet-size reports, are based on comparisons of Northville schools with recommendations of recently published studies on school quality, "The American High School Today," Part III: Recommendations," by Dr. James Bryant Conant and "An Essay on Quality in Public Education," prepared by the Educational Policies Commission, composed of national educators and professional people.

Copies of the reports were distributed at last Monday's meeting of the school board and will be issued to local educators and parent-teacher groups. Comparisons, Dr. MacLeod pointed out have been based solely on factual information — statistics, records, figures and curriculum policies, and in the case of high school student performance, upon records of the past three graduating classes.

In comments about professional salaries, standards for a medium-sized school system was used. The text of Dr. MacLeod's outline is as follows, with recommendations in light face type and current Northville school practices in bold face.

Plans for improvement of certain areas of the existing program — upon increases in operating funds — are under consideration. This study by Dr. Conant, President Emeritus of Harvard and former United States Ambassador to the Federal Republic of Germany, was made possible by a grant from the Carnegie Corporation of New York.

Dr. Conant and staff members visited 103 high schools in 18 states. The recommendations listed were prepared as a result of visiting schools, discussing problems with teachers, students, parents, administrators, etc.

Recommendations:
1. There should be one full time counselor for every 250-300 pupils in the high school.

No persons designated as counselor. The principal, assistant principal and faculty do a great deal of counseling.
2. Individualized programs for students should be encouraged. Labels such as College Preparatory, Vocational, Commercial, etc. should be discouraged.

Northville High school follows the practice as recommended.
REQUIRED PROGRAM FOR ALL:
3. (X) A. 4 years of English.
3 years required but 90% of graduates elect at least one additional year.

B. 3 or 4 years of Social Studies. Should include American History and Government and/or American Problems.
Includes American History, American Government and/or World History, World Problems and Sociology.
C. One year of Mathematics in 9th Grade. Algebra or General Mathematics.
One year of Mathematics in 9th grade. Algebra or General Mathematics. 60% of graduates elect two or more years of mathematics.

D. One year of science in 9th or 10th grade. Might be biology or general physical science.
Two years of science required. May be elected from life science, biology, physical science, chemistry and physics. 30% of graduates elect 3 years of science.
9 or 10 courses with homework. Same.

ELECTIVE COURSES
3. (Y) 7. Courses in addition to physical education, art and music should be encouraged. Courses should contain significant sequences to develop marketable skill or those of academic nature.

STANDARDS FOR PASS AND FAILURE
Elective courses — high standards should be maintained especially in foreign languages, science and mathematics.
High standards in elective courses are maintained.

REQUIRED COURSES
A student may be given a passing grade if he works to full capacity whether or not a certain level of achievement has been reached. Subscribe to this policy. Remedial courses in English and mathematics should be offered if need is indicated.

These are included in regular courses especially at the 9th grade level.
4. Ability Grouping
In required subjects and those elected by students with a wide range of ability the students should be grouped according to ability subject by subject. Example: (one group for most able, one for average, another for the slow reader).

We group according to ability in English in each grade. This grouping because of scheduling pattern usually follows in other courses.
5. A Supplement to a High School Diploma
A complete record of all courses with grades should be given in addition to diploma.
Not done at present.

6. English Composition
English composition should occupy about one-half the total time devoted to study of English. Each student should be requested to write an average of one theme a week.

Northville High school follows this plan.
7. Diversified Programs for the Development of Marketable Skills
Should include commercial, home economics and vocational programs related to job opportunities in the area.
Can qualify in commercial but not other areas.

8. Special Consideration for the Very Slow Readers
Pupils in the ninth grade who read at 6th grade level should be instructed in English and social studies by special teachers. Remedial reading should be part of the work. Elective courses should be directed according to their abilities.
Haven't facilities or personnel at present.

9. The Program of the Academically Talented — Should include:
4 years of mathematics
4 years of English
4 years of one foreign language
3 years of science
3 years of social studies
Same, except only 2 years foreign language.

Other elective courses may be added if time permits. A minimum of 15 hours of homework should be required each week.
Yes.
10. Highly Gifted Pupils
Some special arrangement should be made for the highly gifted. If there are enough, special courses similar to the Advanced Placement program should be offered.

At the present time the 12th grade science seminar is the only special course offered.
11. The Academic Inventory
An inventory should be made each year concerning the members of the graduating class.
Not at present.

12. Organizations of the School Day
Should be 6 periods in addition to required physical education and/or driver education.
A seven or eight period day might be organized with periods as short as 45 minutes. If the shortened period is used, all laboratory courses should have double periods. The more periods available the greater the flexibility and the more opportunity for electives.
Northville has 6 periods plus lunch. Average student is assigned 5 classes and 1 study hall. Some students have classes every period.

13. Prerequisites for Advanced Academic Courses.
Admission to advanced courses should be open only to those who have demonstrated adequate ability in the previous course in the sequence.
Northville High school follows this practice.
14. Students should not be given a rank in class according to grades in all subjects. Students should be ranked according to required subjects. Some students will choose easy subjects to achieve a high rank.
Northville High school counts grades in all courses except physical education. An examination of courses chosen by previous valedictorians does not indicate that courses were elected with the thought of achieving a high rank.

15. Academic Honors List
Honor roll should be published for students receiving "B" or better. A student who graduates with honors should have some mark of distinction placed on diploma.
Northville High school does not do this. Honor students are indicated with an * on graduation program.

16. Developmental Reading Program
A program to increase speed and comprehension in reading should be made available, on a voluntary basis for all students.
Northville High school has such a program. However all students cannot be accommodated because of lack of teachers.

17. Summer School
A tuition free summer school should be operated for those who wish to advance as well as those who have to repeat courses.
Northville High school has never conducted a free summer school.

18. Three or four years of a foreign language should be offered. Students should be urged to take four years of one language.
Northville High school offers two languages two years each.

19. Science Courses
Required course in biology or physical science required for all. In order to elect chemistry and/or physics a pupil should have earned at least a "C" in algebra and 10th grade mathematics.
Northville follows this practice.

20. Home Rooms
Home rooms should be organized in such a way as to be significant social units. The home room should represent a cross section of courses and abilities. The same group should be kept together for four years if possible.
Arranged alphabetically, normal attrition will change membership each year. NHS home rooms are organized for administrative not guidance function.

21. Twelfth Grade Social Studies
A 12th grade course in American problems or American government should be required.
American government is required in the 12th grade.

1. Educational offerings should be appropriate to different students and different social needs. Elementary and secondary programs should be flexible enough to provide a broad general education and to ensure that the interests and talents of each pupil are discovered and developed.
1. Elementary — Every effort is made in the home rooms to individualize instruction.

Experiences in music and art are curtailed because of insufficient number of trained faculty in these specialized areas. At present we have one elementary art teacher and one elementary music teacher for two schools. This means that specialized art and music training is limited to one 30 minute period per week per class.
2. Secondary — Up until the present, Northville High school has not been properly equipped to give a well rounded program in commercial, industrial arts and homemaking and physical education.

With the completion of the new Northville High school greater opportunities will be available to give students more flexibility in making elective choices. The problem will now be to obtain sufficient number of trained staff members to advise and instruct in these expanded areas.
We will continue to individualize instruction in all academic areas. The new library, auditorium, class rooms and laboratories will provide greater incentive for greater achievement.

B. The staff should be professionally competent and of sufficient size and specialization.
1. Every member should possess the bachelor's degree or its equivalent and a large share of the staff should be at the master's level.

1. Out of a professional staff of 78, there are only two who do not have the minimum of a bachelors degree. Both of these teachers have more than three years training and are rich in years of experience.
The training of the Northville professional staff includes:
Doctors degree 1 1.2
Master degree or higher 31 40
Bachelors degree plus 28 36
Bachelors degree 16 20.3
Less than bachelors degree 2

*78 100%
*Includes psychologist here two days each week.
2. To assure classes of reasonable size and the needed support of the teaching function, a school system should have at least 50 professionals per thousand pupils.

2. Northville has a professional staff of 78 for 1,725 pupils. If we were able to have 50 professionals for each 1,000 pupils we should have 86 professionals. If we had this number we could:
a. Provide additional help in art, music and foreign language elementary — 2
b. Provide physical education classes in elementary — 1
c. Provide library and more psychological assistance in elementary — 1

d. Provide guidance counselors in junior and senior high schools (one for each 300) — 3
e. Provide greater opportunity in commercial, vocational and physical education — 2
Total additional 9

In the 1959-60 school year we expect the following additions to pupil population by normal growth. This does not allow for any growth by new families moving into the Northville school district.
Kindergarten, About the same as this year:
Elementary Grades 1-6, About the same as this year:
Junior High, About 40 more (Larger seventh grade);
Senior High, About 60 more (Larger ninth grade);

We could gain about 100 pupils from known sources without any population change or adding to the size of the school district.
C. School leadership should seek improvement
1. Today's trends are tomorrow's actualities. The wisdom of the decisions made by school leaders today determines to a considerable extent the future quality of the school.

1. Evaluation — Northville has established a testing program which measures intelligence and achievement in the elementary schools and intelligence, interest, aptitudes and achievement in the high school.
2. The Northville professional staff constantly seeks improvement via:
1. Constantly examine current practices to ensure best possible methods of instruction.

2. In-Service university courses.
3. Staff meetings where new methods and materials are discussed.
4. Attendance at professional meetings.
5. Reading professional books and periodicals.
6. Personal evaluations.
7. Active citizen study groups.

How About 'Michite'?

MICHIGAN, like Maine, has had trouble adopting a catchy nickname to advertise its splendors and identify its citizens abroad.

For years, the name of "Michigander" has been used by some and considered an insult by others.

Now Robert G. Furlong, executive secretary of the Michigan Tourist Council, proposes "Michiganian", a choice he believes retains identification without any of the overtones of "gander".

Furlong feels that the name could add to the project of luring millions of tourists from other states to the Water Wonderland each year.

In the past several years, the state has been promoting the idea of year-around attractions in Michigan, which now ranks near the top among the tourist volume of the states.

Furlong hopes the "Michiganian" idea catches on better than similar attempts over the years.

But Michigan's nickname troubles pale when Maine takes over the stage. There have been suggestions like "Mainites" and "Mainers" and "Mainliners".
But what is more puckish than "Maniac"?

A 'MILLION DOLLARS' may be available for Michigan to develop educational television facilities within the state. According to Paul Lutz, chairman of the Working Committee on Education Television, there are several bills in Congress which will appropriate money to states willing to work up programs. The money, he emphasizes, is for the purchase of equipment, and there are no strings attached concerning the nature of the programs. "In other words," he says, "there is no issue here of federal control of a state education system."

Present plans, if the money becomes available, call for production of programs which would be used over existing commercial stations. These would mostly involve adult education, and would permit experts in many fields to supply information in many fields to the public at very little cost.

"Unexpectedly large audiences have developed for the few education programs already presented to the public, even though they are telecast at such weird hours as 7 a.m.," said Lutz. "If we can get this program going, the public stands to gain a great deal."

CIVIL RIGHTS is expected to be one of the top non-financial issues of the 1959 legislative session. The state now has civil rights. There is also the Fair Employment Practice Commission with authority as a separate unit to negotiate disputes over discrimination in employment.

Democratic leaders want to merge them under a new Civil Rights Commission and expand the scope of both functions as they now exist.

One idea is to include age in the anti-discrimination system, along with race, creed, national origin and color.
The biggest fight is expected to be over the extension of powers to ban discrimination in schools, housing and other uncovered areas. Public accommodations, such as hotels and restaurants, are now included.

Most recent change came several years ago when a law was enacted making it illegal to discriminate against a tavern patron because of race, creed, color or national origin. If discrimination could be proved, the tavern could lose its license in court.

FEPC reports it has been successful in negotiations between employers and employees who have charged discrimination, despite the lack of powerful punishments to meet out to either.

EGGS FOR BREAKFAST can help you become an egg head.
That's one analysis of Dr. Albert E. Heustis' suggestion that children can learn easier in school if they have a substantial breakfast.

The term describing the first meal of the day breaks down into "break fast", which Dr. Heustis, state health commissioner, says is actually the case.
Growing children are more likely to react to hunger and concentrate best when perfectly at ease with the world, well fed and comfortable.

MICHIGAN'S pioneer "normal college" at Ypsilanti will become Eastern Michigan university on June 1. The institution started as the state normal college years ago and recently had its name changed to Eastern Michigan college.

In three years, the state has developed from one publicly-supported university, the University of Michigan, to five though the institutions were here all the time.
Michigan State college attained university status to become the second one. The state took over Wayne university in Detroit to gain the 3rd.

Mrs. T. M. Kampf reviewed Jesse Stuart's "Plowshare in Heaven" for the Tuesday book club this week.

This is the author's fifth volume of short stories. He is probably known best for his book "Taps for Private Tussie", which was a Book of the Month club selection a few years ago.

WHOLESALE DEATH

According to a report which I read recently, we now possess biological powers which make the H-bomb look like a toy. It is reported that our Government has spent $50,000,000 research to perfect this poison. It is so powerful that less than one seven - millionth of a gram will kill you, and one gram will kill seven million people just like you. One cubic inch of it will kill every living person in the United States and Canada. Surely we have every reason to hope that it will never be used by our Government or others.

If they do "WHOLESALE DEATH" will be more than a startling title. But friend, even if we escape such wholesale death, we still must die sometime, should the return of Christ be further delayed. After death we must face God in the judgment where the sentence of our eternal destiny will be passed. Would we not be wise to give a lot more consideration to this very real future event? The New Testament declares that "All have sinned" (Romans 3:23) and therefore will not be acquitted in the judgment. The secret of being prepared can be secured by studying the meaning of Luke 24:47 — do you care enough to look it up? Your soul's destiny depends upon it.

Car Damages Total $800 In Saturday Accident

A Northville man was injured Saturday in an automobile accident at Edward Hines road, one-half mile south of Main street.

Martin E. Somers of Horton street was treated for cuts and bruises by Dr. H. Lorne Dyer after his car was hit by an auto driven by Charles C. Campbell of Carleton.

Campbell, who admitted driving 42 mph in a 25 mph zone said he didn't see the stop sign or flasher signal for which Somers had stopped. As Somers started up, his car was struck in the side by Campbell's which skidded 37 feet in an attempt to stop.

Damages to Somers' car were estimated between $400 and $449 and to Campbell's, at $400.
