Councilmen to Give Views On Water Bond Proposal

May 18 the city council will make its second attempt in three months to pass the $300,000 water improvement program.

From the start the council has been convinced that the plan was sound and vitally necessary for the community. The February vote, which fell five "yes" votes short of the necessary 60 percent needed for passage, came as a definite setback and disappointment.

Still certain that the improvements are needed, the council is evidently determined that every qualified voter understands exactly how each city official feels about the issue.

Monday night the council decided that the mayor and each councilman would submit a statement expressing his individual viewpoint on the bond improvement program.

These statements will be published by The Record next week.

Some $65,000 of the proposed $300,000 improvement plan has either been completed or is scheduled for this summer. The council has decided this work is immediately necessary, whether the voters approve the bond issue or not.

Work included in the $65,000 is the new water line for the high school, renovation of the reservoir equipment house and development of the new Novi road well site.

County Equalization Figures Announced For City, Township

City and township officials received the "news" of county equalization of local assessments and, with the exception of the Oakland county section of the city, found it much the same as last year.

Oakland county city residents enjoyed a drop in the equalization factor.

In the township assessments were boosted by $764,850 to $9,154,620, for a county factor of 1.09. This will probably become 1.19 (the same as last year) after state equalization.

The city's Wayne county section was appraised at $7,816,230, a boost of $275,000 over the city's assessed valuation. This gives a county equalization factor of 1.03 which will probably come up to last year's factor of 1.14 when further equalized by the state.

Unlike Wayne county, Oakland county equalizes up to state level. Therefore, Oakland county residents of the city will have a factor of 1.09, which represents the county boost of the city's assessment of $1,528,810 to $1,668,698. This is a 10 percent decrease from the 1.19 equalization factor used last year.

And, for the first time, it brings Oakland county residents under Wayne residents of the city. Previously, Oakland residents had protested the higher factor they paid on school and county taxes within the same city.

According to the Wayne county equalizers, Northville township was boosted because of extensive reductions made by the local board of review in acreage values. The county uses an assessed valuation of $200 per acre (average), while the township board of review reduced these to $100 per acre. A spokesman for the equalization board said the township board had cut land values "inconsistent with the level of equalization."

To the taxpayer the "equalization factor" is important because of its role in determining the amount of tax paid. County, township and schools levy taxes using "state equalized millage" against the assessed valuation of the property. Thus 10 mills becomes 11.9 mills if the equalization factor is 1.19.

Equalization does not apply to city (summer) taxes.

CleanUp Committee To Complete Plans

Reports by the "Beautify Northville" committees will highlight a meeting tonight beginning at 8 p.m. at the city hall.

Chairman Ed Welch called the meeting to review the progress of the various committee projects to be carried out this month as part of Northville's clean-up campaign.

The month-long drive to "Beautify Northville" was launched Friday morning with an old fashioned scrub down of Main street by merchants and businessmen.

Many other projects are now getting underway.

Letters to local business firms have gone out from Charles Strautz, sponsorship chairman, seeking donations of $10 or more to underwrite the expense of the campaign.

Meanwhile, John Canterbury, residential adviser and tree planting chairman, has set Saturday, May 23 as the tentative date for a special trash pick-up. Only larger pieces of trash that the regular city pick-up cannot handle will be picked up.

Canterbury reports that nearly 400 flowering crab trees have been sold on the last two Saturdays. A third and final sale will be conducted this Saturday, between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m., at Green Ridge nursery.

Several varieties of trees still are available, Canterbury said, and are priced between $1.50 and $2.75.

Property owners are urged to plant the trees on vacant lots. David Cameron, rural beautification chairman, has stated he will contact county officials to get their permission to plant the community trees along the length of the Northville road parkway.

Flowering crabw, the recently adopted official community tree, also will be planted at the corner of Seven Mile and Northville roads near the railroad tracks.

In other clean-up activity, Northville's freshman high school class

Doctors Consider Plan To Buy Sessions Hospital

COMMUNITY HOSPITAL? — Northville area doctors will meet tonight to decide if Sessions hospital, 520 West Main, (above) is to become a community-sponsored hospital under new management. Dr. L. W. Snow has obtained an option to buy the 30-bed hospital.

A move to purchase Sessions hospital, 520 West Main street, for operation as a community sponsored institution, may reach a climax tonight in a meeting of Northville area doctors and civic leaders.

Members of a pre-corporate committee appointed a week ago will report on legal and financial technicalities involved in purchase of the hospital, owned by Mrs. Irene Slater.

Dr. L. W. Snow, who is the unofficial chairman of area doctors actively seeking ways of purchasing the hospital, has obtained an option to buy the hospital from Mrs. Slater for a reported $30,000 cash and some $53,000 of hospital debts.

Attempts now are being made to form a corporation to purchase the hospital which will then be leased to an operating staff.

Matters likely to come under discussion tonight at the American Legion hall include:

- Actual purchase cost and accumulated debt figures.
- Projected operating expenses.
- Immediate maintenance costs.
- Amount of total capitalization needed and means of securing this money.

— Selection of a temporary board of directors preliminary to filing of incorporation papers with the state security commission.

Seventeen doctors from Northville, Plymouth, Livonia, South Lyon and Whitmore Lake attended the first meeting last Thursday. Novi physicians, Dr. Snow said, are very "enthusiastic" about the proposed community hospital even though they were not at the meeting.

He explained that Northville as well as neighboring doctors were anxious to see Sessions hospital back on a "firm foundation." Northville needs this hospital," he said, "and we have just about 100 percent backing by the doctors. "If they (the doctors) send their patients here, it will be filled in no time at all."

The hospital, according to Dr. Snow, has "skidded down hill" since the peak year of 1953 when it grossed nearly $189,000. This decline paralleled a move by "dissatisfied doctors" to send their patients elsewhere.

Preliminary investigation, Dr. Snow said, revealed that the state would re-establish a maternity license for the hospital provided a number of corrective repairs were made.

William Coomb, attorney for Mrs. Slater, explained that these repairs were relatively minor, including only construction of an incinerator, non-conductive floor covering in the operating room and a sprinkler system.

Willis Gray, an attorney and long-time hospital administrator in Michigan who was unsuccessful in a past attempt to purchase the hospital, has indicated the hospital could be successful, Dr. Snow said.

In a telephone conversation with Dr. Snow during last week's meeting, Gray said he had some $40,000 to invest in the hospital — $10,000 of it his own money.

However, doctors present at the meeting pointed out that if the hospital was to be "community sponsored," the money should not come from one source. A community drive for subscriptions, they suggested, might be a better solution.

The doctors decided not to make a decision as to the means of getting the money until the committee makes its report tonight.

Members of the pre-corporate committee are: Harry Rackham, Plymouth, and Elmer Wilson, Dr. Kenneth Eastland and Mrs. Walter Couse, all of Northville. Dr. Russell Atchison volunteered to act as an advisor to the committee. Contrary to circulating reports, however, Dr. Atchison stated that he had no intention of closing Atchison clinic.

Michigan Week

A full slate of Michigan Week activities will be highlighted in next week's edition of The Record.

The observance begins May 17 and continues through the 23rd. Mrs. Roy Soule heads the local program.

Special observances are planned for each day but festivities will start off Monday when Northville exchanges mayors with Caro.

Testimonial Tribute Next for Joe Denton

Council OKays Every Week Pickup Of City Trash

Councilmen gave a preliminary okay Monday night to once-a-week collection of rubbish in Northville.

The every-week service will begin July 1 on a contract basis with Harvey Willard, owner of the firm now collecting city garbage.

The new arrangement pleased city councilmen for several reasons.

First it affords better service. Currently, rubbish is being picked up every other week by the city's public works department.

Secondly, the chore is becoming increasingly burdensome for the city. Under the terms of the new contract councilmen believe the city will be money ahead by freeing workers from rubbish collection for other pressing jobs.

Perhaps most important, the city dump will not be used for disposal of the rubbish thereby prolonging the useful years of this facility.

Rubbish will be picked up at the curb, as in the past. It will be called for each Monday beginning at 8 p.m. Garbage collection will remain the same — once weekly and twice a week during the summer months beginning in mid-June. The new contract, now being drawn by the city manager, will call for an annual fee of $5,000 for the rubbish collection and $6,500 for garbage.

MORE HONORS were bestowed on retiring Police Chief Joseph Denton Friday at the P-TA Fair, when local school children reviewed highlights of his life and career in a stage show and presented him with a memorial plaque. Here junior high student Suzanne Malmgren (left) and Jody Beerboer of Amerman school hear the chief's warm thank-you. Others participating in the presentation were Richard Milne, Main street school; Paul Faulkner, Our Lady of Victory, and Donna Williams, high school. Mrs. Denton had a hand in the surprise program too, by lending her husband's Boer War uniform for use in one of the dramatic scenes.

Richard Faulkner, Irene Newman United in Howell Catholic Church

St. Joseph's Catholic church in Howell was the scene of the wedding April 25 of Irene Charlotte Newman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Newman of Howell to Richard A. Faulkner, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Faulkner of Novi and the late Mr. Faulkner.

The Rev. Leo Kalinowski performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decked with white snapdragons. Organ music was played by Mrs. Zmuda.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a ballerina-length princess gown of embroidered silk organza, with batteau neckline and short shirred sleeves. It was accented at the waist by a flat bow and its batteau back featured a large bow of French illusion.

Her fingertip veil fell from a queen's crown of seed pearls and sequins and she carried a colonial bouquet of angel feathers, lilies of the valley, mums and orchids.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Dale Henry of Novi. She wore a ballerina length dress of dotted delphinium blue tulle with a taffeta cummerbund, and a veiled half crown of French braid. Her flowers were pink carnations.

Wearing matching maize gowns and carrying colonial bouquets of yellow carnations were bridesmaids Juliette Wilson of Howell and Carol Faulkner of Novi, sister of the groom.

Flower girls were Teresa Fay Henry of Novi and Julie Kay Fellows of Howell, both nieces of the bride. They wore yellow organza 'rocks and matching floral headpieces and carried tiny colonial nosegays of yellow carnations.

Jack Faulkner of Novi, brother of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Dale Henry of Novi, brother-in-law of the bride, and Lyle J. Fellows of Howell, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Newman chose a rose lace dress with beige accessories. Mrs. Faulkner wore a floral beige dress accented by a white hat. Both mothers pinned on orchid corsages. A special guest was the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Homer Ricketts of Shepherd.

Immediately after the ceremony, a breakfast was served at Caravel House to 20 guests, hosted by the bride's parents. An evening reception for 200 guests was held in the Howell township hall. Friends and relatives came from Novi, Romulus, Shepherd, Brighton, Fowlerville and Howell.

Assisting at the reception were Barbara Shriver, Leona Cummings, Beverly Ellwart and Joanne Andrus. For their wedding trip south the new Mrs. Faulkner selected a beige linen suit and cream accessories.

She pinned on the orchids from her bouquet.

The bride graduated from Howell high school and is employed by the Michigan Bell Telephone company. The groom, a graduate of Walled Lake high school, served with the armed forces for three years and is attending radio-electronics technicians school in Detroit.

The newlyweds are making their home on Bernard street, Howell.

IN NOVI

Stabs Husband, Kills Self

A happily married Novi housewife, who had a "lurking fear of cancer," seriously wounded her 65-year-old husband early Sunday morning and then killed herself.

The dead woman, Mrs. Henry Waineo, 53, of 45082 Grand River, was buried Tuesday in Oakland Hills Memorial Gardens.

Her husband was to be released from Pontiac Osteopathic hospital Tuesday.

Waineo, a self-employed painter and decorator, suffered head cuts and deep stab wounds of the chest and left arm.

He told State Police Detective Robert E. Rutila and Novi Police Chief Lee BeGole that his wife attacked him just after he sat down to eat breakfast.

She hit him over the head with a rolling pin, he said, and then struck him again as he fell to the floor. As he turned to face her she slashed out at him with a hunting knife.

The wounded man escaped through a rear door and fled next door to the Young Door company where a watchman telephoned Novi police.

When Patrolman Roy Hallock arrived, Waineo warned him that his wife had "gone crazy," was inside the house, and might have his shotgun.

But Hallock found all the rooms empty except for the bathroom which was locked. He heard water running inside, so he smashed in a door panel and opened the lock.

He found Mrs. Waineo floating face down in a tub-full of water. Dr. Lyle Fettig, ambulance driver Leo Harwood and Hallock removed the body thinking the woman might still be alive. But Fettig pronounced her dead.

An autopsy revealed Mrs. Waineo died from loss of blood as a result of self-inflicted cuts. She had slashed her arms with a razor blade found inside the tub. Police found the hunting knife on a basement workbench.

BeGole reported friends as saying the woman had been depressed for several days and had a "lurking fear of cancer." The woman refused to see a doctor. No indication of cancer was reported at the time of the autopsy.

Mrs. Waineo, born in Finland and a resident here since 1945, leaves no immediate relatives besides her husband. The Rev. Melvin E. Hagelberg of Northwest Emanuel church, Detroit, officiated at last rites from the Casterline Funeral home.

CleanUp Committee

voted to help Northville residents clean up their yards.

Only persons who are unable to work themselves will be helped, the class decided. The students set May 23 as their special free clean-up day.

People desiring help are asked to call one of the following telephone numbers between 6-9 p.m.: FI-9-1535, FI-9-3426, FI-9-0224 and FI-9-1055.

According to Welch, campaign emphasis this year will be on sidewalk improvement. Plans have already been made by retail merchants to back a downtown sidewalk renovation.

The Wayne county road commission is currently repairing many of the deteriorated curbs on Center, Main and Rogers streets.

New School Opening Delayed Until Next Fall

Hopes for moving into the new Northville high school this semester appear to have fallen through, Superintendent Russell Amerman indicated at the regular meeting of the board of education this week.

With less than a month remaining before summer recess, Amerman said, the effort and expense involved in a change of quarters at this time would make it seem impractical and "highly improbable".

Plans to hold June graduation exercises in the new building, however, have not been altered.

Contractors bids for remodeling work on the junior high will be opened May 18.

The delay in high school availability may be less serious than earlier anticipated. Parts of the building might be ready for use by October, Amerman estimated, and the rest perhaps by December.

A major portion of administrators' time recently has been devoted to teacher recruitment, administrators reported.

At least ten teachers, Amerman said, will not return this fall, including:

Amerman school: Patrick Esarey, sixth grade; Mrs. Lois Felker, third grade; Mrs. Marion Foss, first grade; Miss Carolyn Stuckey, kindergarten; Mrs. Peggy Brown, sixth grade. Main street elementary school: Mrs. Joan Reimer, first grade; Mrs. Patricia Merek, second grade; Mrs. Loretta Kraus, sixth grade; Miss Gertrude Martin, sixth grade, and Neal Anderson, industrial arts, high school.

The board also heard a report from elementary curriculum study group co-chairman Mrs. Wilfred C. Becker. She said that the group has completed a general survey of the present elementary curriculum and has launched committees for studies in special areas such as: psychological facilities, the gifted child, readiness, undergraded lower elementary, music and art, physical education, resource center, brochure for teacher recruiting, volunteer services and finances.

Other business included: acceptance of Mrs. Harold Knapp of Livonia as cafeteria manager for the new high school. She is presently cafeteria manager for a Livonia elementary school.

— appointment of Mrs. Eural Clark and Mrs. Marion Zayti as chairman and assistant chairman for the annual school census; — hearing an announcement by Mrs. Ambler that her Cady street property is available for purchase by the school;

— acceptance by the board to appear in the May P-TA meeting program for a discussion of school finances and general business.

City Awards Bids For New Well Site

The city council awarded contracts to low bidders for Novi well site development projects Monday night as recommended by City Engineer Harold Penn and City Manager John Robertson.

Successful bidders were:

— Glamorgan Pipe and Foundry company, for furnishing mechanical equipment under proposal A, $2,471.65 — William A. Dalee, Inc., for insert venturi and meter and calgon treatment equipment, under proposal A, $1,828

— Layne-Northern for furnishing and installing and furnishing the deep well turbine pump and auxiliary gear drive under proposal C, $3,309

— Elmer DeKay for furnishing and installing electrical equipment, wiring and controls, under proposal D, $4,500

— Paul Palmer for installing pressure reducing valve pits under proposal E, with remainder of work to be done by city employees, $1,245.76

— Harley Cole for construction of a pump house at Novi road well, under proposal F, $3,809.11

— Allard Contracting company for installation of mechanical equipment at the pump house reservoir and pressure reducing valve pits, was low bidder under G, $2,498, but public works employees will be given the job

Proposals E and G were recommended for only partial contracts by Penn because he thought they were higher than justified by his estimates.

Robertson also presented to the council a breakdown of city fire department costs in answer to a request by residents of Northville Estates for city fire protection.

The Novi township residents, recently informed that Novi police protection has been withdrawn from their area, appealed to the city for fire services, should these also be discontinued by Novi, as they anticipate.

Robertson's report was turned over to council members for study.

In an unscheduled appearance, First Baptist church Pastor Peter Nieuwkoop questioned the council about local civil defense facilities and program. Councilman John Canterbury suggested organization of a public group to study the problem and the city manager agreed to look into the present civil defense arrangement here and in neighboring communities.

Contractor Paul Palmer volunteered to donate his services and materials to the city for sidewalk repair.

Dr. Walter Belasco, owner of Bel-Nor drive-in, was given 30 days to improve present garbage disposal facilities at the restaurant. Smells and fly ash from the drive-in incinerator caused neighboring residents to complain recently.

Contacted last week, Belasco agreed to cooperate with the request.

Suggest One Boss For Training School And New Hospital

A single administrator for the Wayne County Training school and the Plymouth State Home and Training school, now being constructed on adjoining land, was asked Friday.

Both the County Administrative Board and the Supervisors' committee for the county institution approved the step.

The change would ultimately lead to state ownership and control over a facility that has been a part of the county for 30 years. The County Board of Supervisors has been urging this for several years.

The Sheldon road school now has an enrollment of 750. Dr. Pasquale Buonicontio, the medical superintendent, has been there almost four years.

The county gave the state 230 of its 900 acres in 1956 for construction of the new training school — sorely needed because of long lists of retarded children waiting for admission to a state institution.

The first unit, a four-story hospital building, will be completed in the fall. Eventually the new school is slated to house 1,700 children at all levels of mental retardation.

WHEN PEOPLE WORK—

When people work, everyone benefits. Workers are able to buy the things their families need. The merchant sells more goods. There is more work in the trades, the services, professions and elsewhere. These are things of which prosperity is made.

The factory payroll dollar rolls all around the town. As it rolls, it grows and there is some of it for everybody.

The economic research department of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States made a study and found that 100 more factory jobs in a town mean that . . . 296 more people are brought into the community . . . 112 households are created . . . annual personal income in the community increases by $590,000 . . . bank deposits increase by $270,000. It's up to all of us to help build payrolls.

Join hands with your local industrial development organization and the Michigan Economic Development Department to help your community prosper.

Novi Sets Election For Incorporation

Novi voters will go to the polls June 16 to decide whether or not the village should incorporate as a city.

Date for the election was set Monday by the village council after Clerk Mrs. Charles Wallace reported petitions containing more than 100 signatures had been checked and certified.

The resolution setting the election date won the unanimous approval of councilmen, who may be voting themselves right out of office.

However, they had no alternative but to set a date. Village Attorney Howard Bond told them they were required by law to set an election date because the petitions contained more than the necessary signatures of Novi property owners.

The June 16 ballot will also ask voters to elect a nine-member charter commission to write a new city charter should the change in status win approval.

Candidates for the charter commission have until May 18 to file petitions. This also is the last day for residents to register with the village for the election.

If Novi votes to become a city, another 90 days is allowed to prepare a charter. The charter, along with a slate of new city candidates for council, would then come up for another vote.

A question and answer session on the good and bad points of city government will be sponsored May 19 by the West Shore association. The meeting will get underway at 8 p.m. in the community building. The public is invited.

Councilman Russell Button, who offered the incorporation step as a solution to village-township differences during the annual meeting in April, said Tuesday that he will seek election to the charter commission.

Button said he hoped all the members of the council would seek election to the commission to "assure adoption of a good charter."

The councilman said he favored adoption of the present village charter with only minor changes.

The only other announced candidate for the charter commission is Herbert Koester, one of the nine persons who circulated incorporation petitions.

As requested by the petitions, the election will call for a city without change of present village boundaries. The city would exclude the Northville Estates and Brookland Farms subdivisions.

In such a case, Brookland Farms would be an isolated township surrounded by a city. Northville Estates would also remain part of the township, but its boundaries adjoin Northville.

Albert Lesko voiced strong protest against city incorporation at Monday's meeting. The 12 Mile road resident said he wasn't dissatisfied with the council, but he felt it had shown very little accomplishment since formation.

He said the council and the village have had barely enough time "to get its feet wet."

(Novi voters decided in favor of village incorporation in March of 1958. The vote was 509 to 442 for incorporation.)

However, the nine petitioners have indicated that initial response to steps for incorporation have been "very favorable."

Joining in the support for incorporation, Button declared Monday night that "for all practical purposes Novi is already a city."

Elimination of township government is the only essential change that would come with incorporation, he asserted.

Conflicts between township and village governments have been the major sparks behind the incorporation move.

State Senator to Answer Questions on Income Tax

How do people really feel about a state income tax? And why are Republicans taking their present stand in the state legislature?

Answers to these questions — and more from the audience — will be given Friday night, May 15, by State Senator Paul T. Younger at a meeting sponsored by the 17th district Republican committee.

Senator Younger was formerly a prosecuting attorney for Ingham county and is now serving his second term in the state senate.

Several area Republicans including Township Supervisor George Clark will attend the meeting. It will be held at the Cadillac public school, Schoolcraft at Coyle, at 8 p.m.

9 Mile Area Residents Band to Curb Rezoning

Nine mile area residents opposed to rezoning of the Arthur J. Heslip property to an industrial classification have formed the Novi Civic Improvement association to represent their viewpoints.

Residents indicated they will vigorously protest the reclassification of the property, located at 42680 Nine Mile road, at the second public hearing which has been set for next Wednesday at the community building at 8 p.m.

The village council called for the second and final hearing to consider the proposal to change the Heslip property from an agricultural classification to general industry. Planning board members, who conducted the first stormy hearing, recommended the zoning change.

A spokesman for the association, which was formed last week, said the organization is "dedicated to the preservation and enhancement of property values in the village of Novi through the wise long-range development of the natural assets of the village."

Also "to the promotion of the general welfare of home-owners, business and professional people, and manufacturers of the village through the recognition and protection of the interests of each group for the ultimate maximum benefit of all."

Newly elected officers of the association are: president, G. H. Frobel; vice president, George F. Merwin; treasurer, Robert T. Flattery, Jr.; and recording secretary, Mrs. Claude A. Crusoe.

The directors are Frobel, Merwin, Flattery, Mrs. Crusoe, William R.its many natural assets."

Slattery, Dean H. Lenheiser, William B. Walker, Jr., C. A. Smith, Robert F. Camefax, Mrs. John H. Begle, Delbert Steigerwald and Dennis Schwarz.

Mrs. Crusoe stated Monday that the association plans to submit a petition outlining objections to the village council next Wednesday. She said the petition will contain approximately 350 names.

Briefly, the association viewpoints are:

— The Heslip property is not likely to be used in the foreseeable future for manufacturing use.

— The proposed rezoning is not justified under the decisions of the Supreme Court on grounds that it might provide or even would of certainly provide a greater tax base.

— Residents' right to live in a district uninhabited by commercial or industrial establishments is a valuable right that may not be unreasonably impaired.

— The proposed rezoning would not promote public health, safety and general welfare, but would jeopardize public rights.

The petition requests that the council "contemplate the longer range vision of what the village (or city) of Novi can readily become and, by courageously adhering to a well advised plan of development, give the assurance of security to the home-owners, merchants, professional people, manufacturers and land developers who have already been or will become attracted to the village because of its many natural assets."

Students to Exhibit Classroom Projects

An open house exhibit of high school student projects will be conducted next Tuesday evening in the community building.

The projects have been designed and created by students in mathematics, English and science.

Teacher sponsors for the classroom projects are Diane Lance, mathematics; Florence Panattoni, English; and LaGene Quay, science.

Projects from Miss Lance's class are models of geometric design, including planes, spheres, cubes and architectural construction.

English students have created models of buildings which existed during the periods in William Shakespeare's creations, "Julius Caesar" and "Silas Marner". Students also have constructed model maps of these periods.

Science students will exhibit models of organic and inorganic compounds. They will display charts showing the physical characteristics of metal, chemical reaction charts, a spectroscopy, and research reports on gases.

The public is invited to attend the open house show any time Tuesday evening.

Fined and Sentenced For Disorderly Conduct

Pleading guilty, Andrew Hann III, 22, of South Lyon was fined $35 and court costs and sentenced to 20 days in DeHoCo Saturday by Judge E. M. Bogart for drunk and disorderly conduct.

He was ordered to pay an additional $50 for destroying the uniform of arresting policeman Frank Hines, and placed on the Indian list for a year.

Detroit Fined; Draws Reprimand For Passing Bus

A Detroit man whose car recently struck and seriously injured a six-year-old Willowbrook boy was back in court last week on a second license violation.

Theodore L. Smith, who works in South Lyon, was fined $25 for possessing an expired operator's license. He was fined for a similar violation two weeks earlier when his car struck Mark Earl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Earl.

Justice of the Peace Robert K. Anderson dismissed a charge of passing a stopped school bus because the bus, rented by Our Lady of Victory school in Northville, did not possess a school sign or signal lights.

In dismissing the case, Justice Anderson reprimanded Smith for his action. The 36-year-old man, who has had four moving violations in the past two years, passed the bus on 10 Mile road near the scene of his earlier accident.

According to Novi police, the Earl boy, who suffered serious head and internal injuries, ran into the path of Smith's car just as his school bus approached the scene.

Police theorize that the boy, who is reported in good condition at home, saw the bus approaching and ran across the street to meet it without looking for cars coming from the opposite direction.

Other court cases before Justice Anderson included:

John J. Barrett, of Okemos, paid a $100 fine for reckless driving after pleading guilty;

Girl Scouts

Mothers of Brownie Troop 574 members were invited to a special meeting Monday at Amerman school.

The girls entertained their guests with songs they had learned recently and presented them with hand-made cards.

Later, while the mothers discussed day camping with Leader Mrs. W. Sterling, the brownies were treated to a program by Susan Hubbert, Sally Mallette and Gayle Leedham, visitors from Brownie Unit 234.

Edward S. Piggins to Speak May 14 At 'Ladies Night'

Newly-elected circuit judge and former Detroit Police Commissioner Edward S. Piggins will be the guest speaker for the Presbyterian Men's club annual "Ladies Night" dinner next Thursday, May 14.

SINS OF OMISSION

Some good living, moral people do not feel their need of a Saviour because they do not commit certain sins. They do not get drunk, gamble, swear or commit adultery. They are good neighbors and do a good job at keeping the golden rule. They usually are quite irritated when a Gospel preacher suggests that they are really no better in God's sight than the basest of sinners. Yet this is exactly where the charges in Romans 3:10-23 places them. He says there is no difference. It is true that some of God's commandments deal with negative things; it is also true that God expects us to do certain things. If we leave them undone, then we are sinners just as well as if we violated one of the negative commandments. Every now and then we find someone being jailed because they didn't pay their income tax. They may never have robbed a bank, or murdered or run off with someone's wife, but they did not do something that was their responsibility. I John 3:23 gives us His chief commandment when it says, "And this is His commandment, that we should believe on the name of His Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as He gave us commandment." Have you omitted this requirement?

THE OLDEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY — EST. 1863

Thursday, May 7, 1959—9

"IN JUST-SPRING . . . the balloon man whistles far and wee," little Kay Lanning knows, as she is drawn to Navy Recruiter John Goss' rainbow-colored cat-faced tribe.

"STEADY MAVERICK," L. C. Sullivan advises junior midway marksman Robert Hines, "just don't shoot the light bulb". Games to test the luck of young and old were set up on the Main street campus.

"NO HUCKSTER worth his derby could resist your smile, madam," Charles Ely, Jr. answers Berwyn Brown's request for another string of tickets. Proceeds topped last year's by some $200.

"GEE, GET A LOAD OF THAT torsion-air antimacasser, exclaimed (l. to r.) Mike Murany, Bobby Hicks and Mike Conley, as they studied the State Police patrol car exhibit.

"WELL, SOME HAVE IT and some don't," dandies Craig Bell (left) and Jim Juday summed up their successes as they walked away from one concession toting a high chair and stuffed bunny.

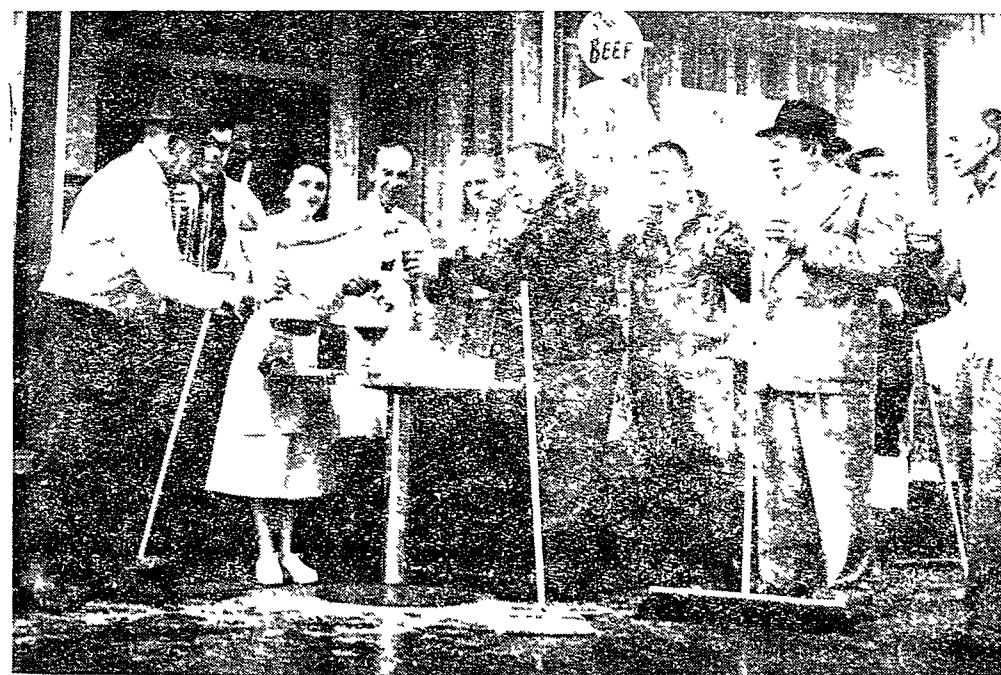

"YOU'RE WAY OFF," said the lady. The weight-guessing booth was no place for diplomacy, but despite Attorney Cliff Hill's shrewd guesses, seventh grade teacher Nancy Dingman emerged victorious.

At the Street 'Scrub Down' . . .

INVASION—An army of merchants and businessmen, armed with brooms and hoses, attacked Main street Friday morning as part of Northville's all-out war on dirt. When the brushing and scrubbing was finished, the clean-wet street was concrete evidence that the month-long "Beautify Northville" campaign was off to a flying start.

COFFEE BREAK — With half the street already sparkling in the early morning sun, the crew of make-shift street cleaners took time out for coffee and doughnuts served up by The Old Mill restaurant. The merchants, and policeman paused only briefly, however, before completing the job — which started between Wing and Center on Main and ended at Hut on.

TIDAL WAVE — Merchant Bruce Turnbull brings up the rear, sweeping down the backwaters of the tidal wave which just gushed past his business place.

LET 'ER GO — Stan Smith and Charles Freydl, Northville firemen, "crank up" the hydrant, which along with the department pumper, was used to flood the street with water.

CLEAN PATH — Postmaster Leland Smith makes sure Northville citizens have a clean path to one of his downtown mail boxes. Smith was one of two dozen business men taking part in the street-washing.

Mustangs Dump Trojans, 13-7

Post 4th Victory After Losing 5-0 In No-Hit Contest

Northville batters came out of a hitting slump Monday to paste Clarenceville with its first league loss of the season.

The 13-7 victory on the Trojans' diamond was welcomed medicine for the Mustangs who dropped a no-hitter to Milford last week.

Northville, which shares second place with Clarenceville, now has won four league games and lost one. If Milford finishes the week without losing, the Redskins will hold an undisputed first place.

Bill Boyd, starting pitcher for Northville, was lifted in the fourth inning after giving up five hits and five runs. Although Boyd had given up only five hits in two previous starts, he was in trouble in each of the innings he pitched Monday.

Northville's winning pitcher, Jeff Goodrich, who replaced Boyd, gave up three hits and walked three batters.

Coach Al Jones benched Fred Steeper and switched Boyd to replace him at second.

Roger Atchinson, left fielder, and Dave Hay, center fielder, led the Mustangs' hitting attack, each collecting three hits in four trips to the plate.

Catcher Wade Deal and Steve Juday, shortstop, each pounded out two hits for the local nine. Goodrich, Bill Juday, Bob Stuber and Boyd each collected one hit.

The Trojans' coach sent four pitchers to the mound to check the Northville hitting barrage. Jon Nelson, rated as one of the best hurlers ever to perform at Clarenceville, took the loss.

Coach Al Jones' Mustangs went to the plate 21 times against Milford Friday but each time came away empty handed.

In winning the 5-0 game, the Redskins' hurler Bob Hoy posted the first no-hit, shut-out game in the Wayne-Oakland league this season. It was one of the best in league history.

Hoy would have captured even more laurels but for the last batter who drew a walk. Eighteen of the 21 men he faced, went down on strikes.

The loss was the first this season for Jeff Goodrich, who fanned 10 batters and walked two. Only one of the four Milford runs was earned. The others came on errors by Dave LaFond and Bill Juday.

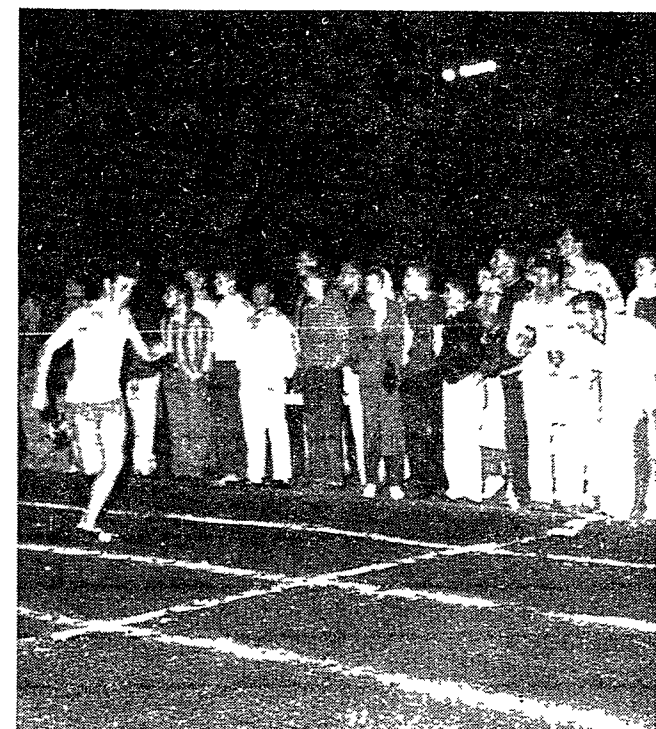

Milford rapped out five hits and was errorless in the field.

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD—Thursday, May 7, 1959—11

WINS AGAIN — Although Northville dropped its triangular match with Milford and Bloomfield Hills last week, the Mustangs star Tom Darling continued to dominate the track. The local speedster took first in the 100-yard dash, first in the 220, second with the 880 relay team, and third in broad jump. Here he finishes far out front in the 220.

Northville Tennis Team Scores First Victory; 5-0

"They looked very good against Southfield and I was pleased with their showing against Clarenceville."

That's how Coach Ron Schipper expressed himself Monday night after his tennis team swamped Clarenceville 5-0 on the opponent's court. It was the Mustangs' first win in four starts this season. They dropped one match to Bentley and another to Birmingham without scoring a point, and then lost a squeaker to Southfield.

Southfield scored its narrow 3-2 victory over Northville last Thursday. In singles matches, Dennis Fallon and John Rodgers each took a point for the Mustangs by winning four of six sets. Fallon won 6-1, 4-6, 7-5, while Rodgers won 4-6, 6-1, 6-3. Jim McCarthy lost 6-1, 6-2.

In doubles, Karl Karg and Joe Gotro lost 6-3, 6-3, while Don Lawrence and Scott Adams lost 6-4, 6-2.

Need More Jobs

Response to an appeal for work for Northville boys and girls has increased, but still more jobs are needed, City Recreation Director Stan Johnston declared this week. Several youngsters, he said, have received excellent jobs, but there are others who would like part-time summer employment. Anyone who has odd jobs around the home to be done is asked to call the scout hall, FI-9-1676, between 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. on Saturday.

Milford Redskins Scalp Mustangs In Track PowWow

When the dust settled at Milford last week, Northville tracksters found themselves at the bottom of the totem pole.

At the top with scalps from almost every event was the always-powerful Redskins.

Northville Coach Chuck Yahne after checking the scores, which had Milford out front with 63 points, Bloomfield Hills, 39, and Northville, 29, had but one comment:

"They're plenty tough."

Milford's track team has for several years been one of the toughest in the league.

Two Mustangs captured five-point, first-place awards for Northville. Nelson Schrader placed first in the shot put event, and Tom Darling won the 220 and the 100 yard dashes. Darling also placed third in broad jump.

Jim Petrock took second place in the 100 and Bob Starnes tied for second in high jump.

Roger Cheeseman, Larry Nitzel, Starnes and Darling combined their running abilities to win second place for Northville in the 880 relay.

Other point winners were Bill Walker, 3rd, shot; Starnes, 4th, 440; and Cheeseman, 3rd, low hurdles.

The Mustangs, who were scheduled to meet Bloomfield Hills Tuesday on the Barons' track, have now placed third in two matches, second in another, and scored 15 points in the Thurston Invitational.

Northville Linksters Post Lowest Scores

Two Northville linksters had cause for celebration Monday night.

Bill Chizmar and Mike Eastland both shot their lowest scores in high school competition while helping the Mustangs to a fat 167-173 win over Thurston.

Both boys shot scores of 38 on the par 35 back nine at Meadowbrook country club. The 38 was the lowest Chizmar had shot in four years, and it tied a low Eastland shot last season.

Chizmar turned in five pars and one birdie, while Eastland posted four pars and two birdies.

Bill Reuter shot a 44 and Mike Slattery, 47, to bring up the rear for the Mustangs.

Contrasted sharply to Monday's win was the 169-195 romp by Plymouth last week. The Rocks had little difficulty in turning back the Mustangs at Brae-Burn golf club.

Eastland took honors for Northville with a 46, followed by Reuter with 47. Chizmar slipped to a 49 and Slattery shot 53.

The match scheduled with Holly last Wednesday was rained out.

Northville's next match will take place at Brighton with the Bulldogs.

Midget Baseball May Start Monday

The 1959 spring-summer recreation baseball program will start next week with games in the midget division.

City Recreation Director Stan Johnston earlier this week said dates and times of the games have not yet been determined, although he indicated the games probably would begin on Monday.

Two teams make up the midget division this year, he said. They are the Braves and the Orioles. Rosters have not been completed.

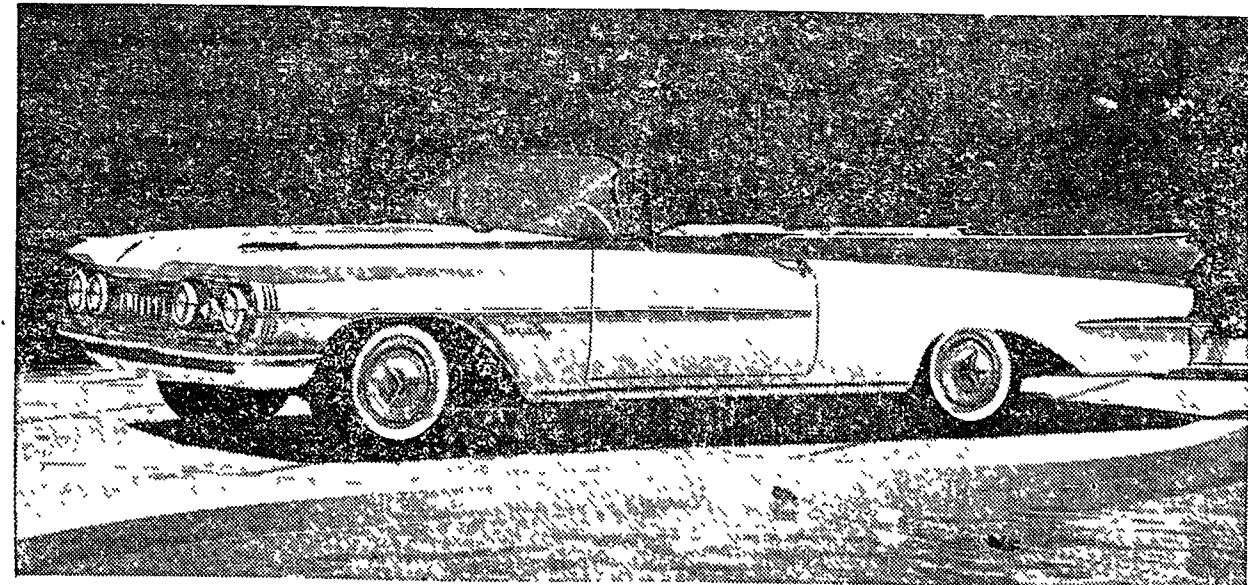

Ken Conley, one of the two coaches from last season, will coach both teams this year. Games will be played at Cass Benton park on alternate days.

In the midget division last year, the Northville Braves piled up 24 wins without a loss to win the class F title. They also added a playoff win over Roseville and took three in a row for the district crown and a trip to Jackson.

Call 'Moonlight' JV Game

Northville's junior varsity nine battled Ypsilanti to a 4-4 tie Monday before the game was called because of darkness. The contest will be finished at a later date. The Colts have won four games and lost two so far this season.

"FAITH IN OUR FAITH"

Sometimes a layman says some things that are expressed a great deal better than some of our sermons. Such is the case of an article entitled, "Are we forgetting God in Religion?" written by Sydney Harris in The Detroit Free Press. In case you missed it let me give you the heart of what he said. He states that a great deal of revival of religious interest in the United States is actually a perversion of the right goal of religion. To quote him, "What we have today is not so much faith in God, or faith in a creed, as faith in faith". We believe that it is good to believe no matter what the content of this belief may be. Such an attitude may masquerade as religion, but is really a combination of superstition and sentimentality. Faith is a means; it cannot properly be an end."

SOME EXAMPLES

Syd Harris is no doubt referring to the many pious platitudes that we hear people make. Last fall before going to the hospital for surgery a business acquaintance of mine said in sort of a consoling way, "Well, just have faith, that is the main thing. Faith is a great thing!" He didn't say who or what I should have faith in. Someone else says, "Well, just have faith, everything will turn out all right, it always does!" Does it? How about the traffic victims, or those injured by accident, or victims of floods and hurricanes?" Then there are the cooing religionists who say, "It doesn't matter what you believe as long as it makes you feel good." Harris says, it robs theology of its claim to ultimate truth and those who believe this have no right to call themselves Christian.

SAVING FAITH COMPOSED OF THREE TRUTHS

Hebrews 11:6 "for He that cometh to God must believe that He is". That is knowledge. A person must have faith to believe what the Bible says about God, about Christ, about the Redemption Plan as outlined in God's Holy Word.

The last part of the same verse says, "And that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him". This is Confidence. The confidence that an honest, seeking heart will not seek in vain. If one earnestly seeks to be reconciled to God, he will surely be led to the Gospel. The experience of Cornelius in Acts 10-11 is a good example of this.

The third thing is Acceptance. John 1-12 says "To as many as received Him—" that is to receive Him as your Saviour and Lord. This is putting faith into action. This is doing something about the belief you have. This is total commitment to Christ and trusting Him for eternal salvation.

This saving faith is something tangible because it is based on the Word of God. This is the only faith that results in conversion.

We have seen then, it is not enough just to have faith. Our faith must be firmly anchored in the revealed Word of God.

Madonna College Is Accredited

Regional accreditation by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools has been granted to Madonna college, Livonia.

Announcement of the decision by the accrediting commission was made public at the association's recent annual meeting in Chicago. Attending were Sister M. Assumpta, president of the college, and Sister M. Raynelda, academic dean.

A four-year liberal arts institution conducted by the Felician Sisters, Madonna college was opened as a senior college for women in 1947. The college was approved by the Michigan Commission on College Accreditation and by the state board of education.

Formal application for the highest accreditation by the regional agency was filed last July with a comprehensive self-study report on the college.

In December the institution underwent a two-day inspection by the assigned North Central examiners: Dr. William H. Conley of Marquette university and Dr. Howard G. Johnson of Ball State Teachers college (Indiana). Accompanying them were two associates: Dr. Merritt Ludwig of Grinnell college (Iowa) and Dr. H. S. Stillwell of the University of Illinois.

Madonna college offers bachelor of arts and bachelor of science degrees. Within a liberal arts curriculum it offers programs in teacher education, medical technology and home economics.

Leave Allowance Decisions to Child

Most parents agree on the purpose of giving a child an allowance, usually provided on a weekly basis. It is a means of helping them learn to manage money and to develop judgment and responsibility in their spending. The child needs to learn to feel that his choices in the spending of money are approved by his parents, and that the things which interest him enough to cause him to spend his money for them are worthwhile. In a small way, he feels that spending money which is his makes him part of the family in budgeting matters.

One of the questions which plagues parents is: "At what age should our child have an allowance?" Fortunately, the question answers itself in most families. The time to begin an allowance is usually when the child feels the need and desire for it enough to request it and then repeat the request when it is not forthcoming.

Certainly allowance time does not begin until the child has some reasonable knowledge of what the relative value of small coins is. This doesn't mean that he should be able to discern that two dimes and a nickel make a quarter or what any other combination amounts to. Rather, he should know that more money buys more things, which is a starting point for learning relative values.

Parents often make the mistake of assuming that because the five-year-old wants and has an allowance he should begin immediately to learn how to spend discriminatively. Neither should the allowance be given with a host of "strings" attached to it. The child will never learn to handle money if he is told how his entire allowance must be spent. Don't let the child learn, as a famous comedian once said, that "The big print gives you something and the little print takes it away" by providing him with an allowance and then repossessing it bit by bit for infractions of family rules which are not in any way connected with the allowance. An allowance should be provided to help the child learn how to handle money rather than as a means of punishment by taking it away for failure to live up to some family standard.

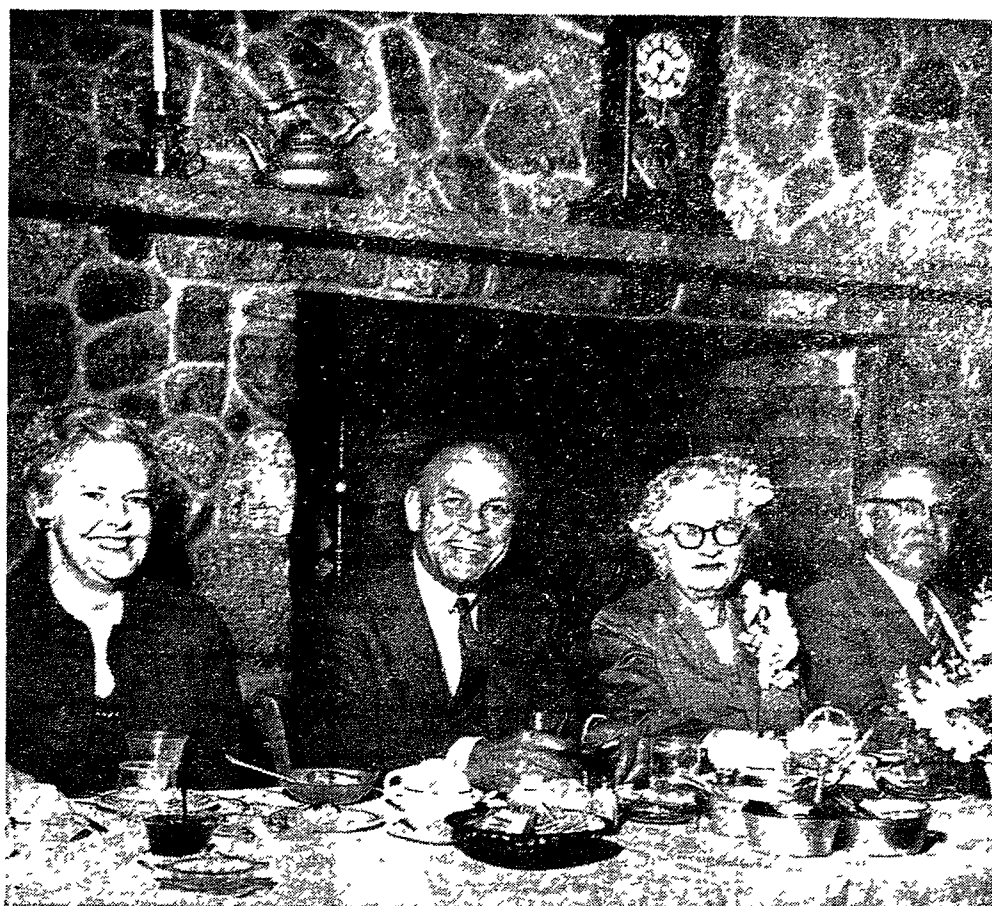

Don't be surprised if the five or six-year-old spends all of his allowance the first day or two for assorted candy bars and comic books for himself and friends. It usually won't help to remind him the week following that he spent all of his allowance on Monday last week and had to do without for the remainder of the week. His memory is short and his compulsion to spend money is strong.

Parents should watch for signs of a desire to save for a toy or vacation trip and encourage it. Saving for things he wants may be the beginning of saving a little of his allowance for more worthwhile things. This, in turn, may develop into the savings habit. Generally it is useless to urge the child to save part of his allowance for some distant use. He has little sense of time, and none of the future beyond today or tomorrow. Money is valuable to him because it will buy candy bars and comic books.

The child's allowance should never be large enough to expect him to meet all of his whims. Make it small, but large enough to meet most of his frivolous needs but not down to the last chocolate bar or ice cream soda.

The Frank and Mary Lawrence book, "How to Help Your Child in School", provides many helpful hints about your child's allowance. They agree that an allowance provides the child an opportunity to learn management and values if parents handle it sensibly. Don't make a family problem out of how it is spent, and never make it a burden to the child rather than a pleasure.

HONOR MRS. LAWRENCE — More than 100 friends of Mrs. Mollie Lawrence gathered at Hillside Inn last week to honor her for her 24 years service as a member of the Northville township board. Mrs. Lawrence, who retired this spring, served as township supervisor for 17 years and prior to her appointment to that post served as township treasurer for seven years. Mrs. Lawrence was presented with a gift of traveling luggage after the dinner. Seated here with Mrs. Lawrence are (left to right): Mr. and Mrs. James E. Littell, Mrs. Lawrence and D. J. Stark.

Three Northville Students Receive U-M Scholarships

Three Northville high school students are among the 513 Michigan high school graduating seniors to receive Regents-Alumni scholarships at the University of Michigan.

The three students and their college choices are: William E. Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Boyd, 44180 Durson, Novi, college of engineering; Miss Myrl L. Douglas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cox, 50165 West Eight Mile road, school of education; Talbott R. Hopper, 47733 West Seven Mile, college of engineering.

These scholarships carry a stipend equivalent to semester fees for the 1959-60 freshman year and are renewable for the normal length of the undergraduate degree program in which the student enrolls, provided his academic record justifies renewal.

The award winners were selected from 1,311 applicants representing 338 high schools. At least one scholarship is available each year for every accredited high school in the state.

Robert G. Yerkes, 20178 Haggerty, is scholarship chairman for the local U-M Alumni club which worked with the scholarships committee in making the awards.

Wins Scholastic Honor

William F. MacPherson of Northville is among the 750 students to be honored tomorrow at the 36th annual honors convocation on the University of Michigan campus. Students receive class honors for maintaining all "A" and 3.5 averages for the past two semesters.

Northville Clergymen Attend Workshop at State Hospital

One hundred and twenty-five clergymen attended the annual Clergymen's Workshop Tuesday at Northville State hospital, sponsored by the Wayne county chapter, Michigan Society for Mental Health.

Local clergymen attending from this area included Fr. Edward T. Cope of Northville State hospital; Fr. John Wittstock of Our Lady of Victory church, and the Rev. George P. Jerome, Protestant chaplain at both Maybury sanatorium and Northville State hospital.

Fr. Robert Hinks, S.J. of the University of Detroit, a member of the Mental Health Society's board of directors was the chairman and a principal speaker.

Acting as hosts were the hospital's three chaplains: Father Edward T. Cope, Rev. George P. Jerome and Rev. Clarence H. Siess, Catholic, Protestant and Lutheran chaplains, respectively.

The program began with an address by Father Hinks, "The Science of Helping People" and a discussion period moderated by Rabbi Richard C. Hertz of Temple Beth El, Detroit.

Dr. Philip N. Brown, medical superintendent at Northville State hospital later addressed the group and gave a progress report of the hospital's program, and difficulties encountered due to the budget reductions during the past year.

He introduced Rev. Sheldon Rahn of the Detroit Council of Churches, who pointed out that both the Michigan Society for Mental Health at 153 East Elizabeth, and the Community Information Service at 51 West Warren are good resources for clergymen to use when seeking assistance from social agencies to help with specific problems they encounter in their religious counseling.

Dr. Jacob J. Miller, director of intensive therapy at the hospital, also discussed "Mental Health Problems as Encountered in Pastoral Work," covering symptoms and problems and ways in which pastors may be of assistance to parishioners or their families. He also discussed delinquency problems and how these may be distinguished from mental illness.

The talk was moderated by Dr. Aloysius S. Church, assistant medical director, St. Joseph's Retreat, Dearborn.

NEWS FROM THE AMERICAN LEGION

POST 147

REX HOLLOMAN — REPORTER

Too often we are prone to think of the American Legion as an organization whose sole purpose is to secure various federal and state benefits in behalf of veterans. True, the American Legion has been in the forefront for many years serving as the champion of the wartime veteran, however, we believe the real strength of the American Legion is found in its community centered activities.

Most illustrative of this service to the community is the Legion's child welfare and youth activities. Legion posts and their affiliated groups have compiled an outstanding record in this field since 1925, spending millions of dollars on such activities. A considerable portion of this amount was spent for direct aid for children of deceased or disabled veterans. Funds for this purpose are derived in large part from the annual sale of poppies.

The lion's share of child welfare expenditures by the Legion has gone for various needs within the community itself benefiting veterans' and non-veterans' children alike — contributions to various community health and welfare agencies, for recreational facilities for youth, for hospital equipment, parties for institutionalized and hospitalized children and hundreds of other projects. Such activities in themselves are proof that this organization's success has been arrived at largely through its identification with the community and its concern for the welfare of the community.

As long as the American Legion continues along such a path it will remain strong, vigorous and an asset to the American way of life. We wish the Legion continued success in the years ahead and commend its purposes and principles to the citizens of our community.

Wills' Choose New Alaskan Home

Northville's Alaskan family, Mr. and Mrs. Jerre Wills and their three young daughters, have decided to "go-it-alone".

News of their decision to leave the now famous "Fifty-Niner" group and settle in a Kenai peninsula community was revealed recently in a letter to Mr. and Mrs. Perry P. Taylor of 340 Pennell avenue.

According to the letter, the Wills have decided to settle at Clam Gulch, a small community not too far from the city of Homer.

Concern for their children led them to make this decision.

"My husband and I decided to leave the group (Fifty-Niners)," Mrs. Wills wrote, "because we did not like the land where they decided to go... (because) we have two girls who'll be going to school this year and next... (and because) I'm expecting a baby in September."

"We... care too much for them to try going out to the valley (north of Anchorage) the others had picked out. There are no doctors, schools or way of transportation except by plane."

"People here in Alaska seem to think they made a bad choice and we agree with them. But nevertheless, we wish them all the luck in the world."

"We are trying to find land in a small place called Clam Gulch... It is very beautiful... We have parked our trailer in front of the C.G. store and I can sit here and look out over Cook's Inlet — which is part of the ocean... mountains off in the background — all very breathtaking."

The Wills, who formerly lived at 5526 West Nine Mile road, made the 4,200-mile trek to Alaska with their children, Cheryl 4, Susan 3 and Laurie Beth 1. They left Northville early in March.

"We arrived in Anchorage the day before Easter, so we were able to go to Easter services. We went to a very beautiful Presbyterian church... They had a children's group singing... it was all very nice." (The Wills were members of St. Paul's Lutheran church in Northville).

Persons wishing to write the Wills should address their letters "Clam Gulch, Alaska, general delivery".

The program will be presented by 65 dance students of the women's physical education department of Albion college under the direction of their dance mentor Mrs. Mary Blanche Packer.

Miss Walter is a freshman at Albion college.

SPEAKING

for the Record

by BILL SLIGER

Joe Denton, Northville's retiring police chief, will undoubtedly receive many tributes at the banquet planned in his honor on May 23, but probably none will touch Joe any deeper than the plaque he received at the P-TA fair last Friday.

It came from his very special friends, the children of the community. All the elementary kiddies had a hand in writing an appropriate message to be inscribed on the plaque. The chosen words, which seemed to be representative of all the phrases written were: "Thank you for being our friend and understanding helper."

All of the efforts of the children from the Main street and Amerman schools were saved, however, and turned over to Joe. We thought the following, written by second, third and fourth graders, were worth passing along:

"Mr. Denton, you're very nice even if you've given our Dads tickets around twice. We know where you stand in Northville";

"To Mr. Denton: We like you when you help us cross the street, but we like you anyway";

"Thank you for helping us across the street. Thank you for helping us to cross the streets that are not here yet";

"Thank you for all you've done to help us. I think we will never have one like you";

"You did a lovely job. I wish you were not going to retire. I think you are the best policeman ever";

"All of us enjoyed the junior police and the movies and clubs you started for us and for your kindness";

"We are sorry to see you go, you were a very good policeman";

"We like you because you gave us the badges";

"In honor of Joe Denton, a friend and helper to us children in good times and bad times";

"You have done very well for Northville and God will thank you for doing it";

"Mr. Joe Denton helps children. He helps cats and dogs. When children wave at him he waves back";

With Northville well into its month-long clean-up campaign, Fire Chief William McGee had some timely tips about fire prevention this week.

His department will make a check of commercial establishments to correct fire hazards. At the same time he reminds homeowners that a simple safety inventory of their home may save loss of property or life.

Here are some precautions you can take at home says Chief McGee:

Watch for potential hazards during your regular house-keeping.

Clean out leaves from gutters.

Keep leaves and dried grass away from building foundations.

Burn trash in a special isolated area, with an attached hose always nearby.

Give particular attention to clearing out attic and basement, garage and closets of old clothing, furniture, piles of newspapers and magazines.

Never keep flammable liquids such as gasoline in the house.

Oil rags should be thrown away or closed in metal containers. Oil mops should be hung up with plenty of air circulating around them, preferably outside.

Install a heavy, tight-fitting door at top of basement steps to check possible fire's spread.

Check and clean heating plant.

Dust fixtures and lights.

Replace frayed electrical cords.

Have an electrician check wiring to determine adequacy.

Michigan Mirror

Income on the Upswing

RECOVERY from economic ills of the past year is being demonstrated by gradual increases in personal income. And Michigan looks good.

Individual income increased 7.6 percent during February, the last figures available, compared to the national average increase of seven percent.

Thousands are still unemployed, though the number is being reduced every month.

All states showed a spurt toward recovery except Arkansas.

Michigan's total personal income for the month was $1,410,600,000.

Nevada had the largest increase in the nation, 14.96 percent. This was attributed to the rise in non-manufacturing business, mainly desert resorts and tourism.

Increases in industrial states, including Michigan, were related to higher wages, rather than more jobs.

The reports from national sources stir up lurking fears of organized labor about automation. Labor leaders charge that thousands of workers laid off in the past year will have no jobs to return to because their places have been taken by machines. Members of the legislature point to the increased unit-production figures of automobile companies in Detroit and the fewer number of employees.

Alaska, the 49th state, was one of the losers in the report, showing a 4.8 percent reduction in personal income for the survey period.

FEDERAL SURPLUS foods are coming into Michigan in greater volume than any other state.

Current figures show that 538,385 persons are receiving the free food, which is made available to direct relief clients to supplement the diet.

Other portions of the shipments go to public institutions and school hot lunch programs. Michigan took more than 10 percent of the total of Federal surpluses in 1958.

MORE than 1,000 school lunch cooks and managers convened in Lansing last week for a look at some of the latest equipment and a session complete with seminars in the field.

It was all designed to better equip schools and their employees to provide better hot lunches for Michigan's school children.

NATIONAL reports indicate that Michigan's financial plight has damaged Gov. Williams' chances of moving onto the country's political stage in 1960.

They report that, while Republicans are suffering from the situation in Michigan, the guns are being trained on Williams nationally as the governor of a state that faced bankruptcy.

For that and other reasons, Williams has stepped up his speaking schedule around the country. One observer found a bit of irony in the two-sided coin.

Williams told a California audience that Michigan is going through a period of temporary hard luck and will pull out of its fancied dilemma shortly.

Back in Michigan, Williams repeated that the state is facing bankruptcy, its universities are suffering from lack of cash and the situation is the fault of Republicans.

"He's preaching Michigan's prosperity to the country and, back here, he's saying it isn't so," said one lawmaker.

Democrats waiting to enter the race to become Williams' successor have been warned to keep their ambitions to themselves until after the 1959 legislature adjourns.

Williams has not said he will not run again, but Democrats in the running will be disappointed if he does. To get into the race before the legislature quits for the year would compromise Williams' position in bargaining for his income tax and other programs.

Secretary of State James M. Hare is seen as the most-likely heir to Williams' role in the Democratic party in Michigan.

A question mark is Supreme Court Justice George Edwards. Two others still thinking about the move are Treasurer Sanford A. Brown and Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson.

Lyons Gardens, a 106-unit South Lyon subdivision located on Pontiac trail, between Nine and Ten Mile roads, has opened for inspection.

The new subdivision features the Peter Pan three-bedroom home built by the Storybook Builders company.

A Newman development, the Peter Pan has a full basement, a 20-foot family country kitchen, sliding glass window wall, step down vestibule, center pass hall and bath tile.

The inside-the-city subdivision features paved streets and city water and sewers.

Homes are priced at $14,500, with no money down for veterans, and FHA terms.

A spokesman for General Realty, sales agent for the home, said the South Lyon site was chosen because of the convenience of rapid transportation, which enables residents to reach the Detroit city limits in less than 40 minutes via the Grand River expressway, but more important, its close proximity to Kensington park.

But there are other more important reasons for owning some shares in such a bank. Banks are the most carefully government-supervised form of investment. Once or twice each year the Federal Government Examiners call (unannounced in advance) to make an audit of your local National Bank; this is in addition to certain state examinations. This means that the stock which you buy should be of a national bank, or else you should get a letter from one of the bank officers stating that it has joined the Federal Reserve System, which includes certain qualified state banks and trust companies.

Diversification and "Hidden Assets"

The assets of national banks and many state banks and trust companies are exceedingly well diversified. As owner of a national bank stock, your money is loaned to hundreds of different companies or individuals, most of them the best risks in your city; but loans are also made to large national companies. No Mutual Fund or Investment Trust has its assets as well diversified; furthermore, a condensed financial statement of the bank is published in your local paper once or twice a year.

Whenever a bank examiner thinks an investment or loan is questionable, he asks that the bank collect it, or sell it, or charge it off to one dollar! Usually, the questioned asset is charged off even though the directors believe it will turn out okay. On the bank's books it will henceforth appear at a value of one dollar. These charged-off assets are known as "hidden assets". Many of them will someday become valuable. The older a bank is, the more such hidden assets it will have. Hence, this is one reason for buying stock in an old bank.

Market and Yield

With the exception of stocks of large banks in New York City and a few others, their marketability is not good. This means that local bank stocks are hard to buy or sell—that is, they are not "listed" nor are they officially traded "over the counter". So, when you wish to buy or sell ten shares, you should go to the president or to one of the other higher officers who will invite you in to sit by his desk and give your story. He will want to know whether you will be an asset to the bank's reputation or not. Secondly, such a stock is much like joining an exclusive club.

Bank stocks are issued at various par values from $10 up to $100. Most sell at a premium over their book values. Before talking with your banker about buying, you should call upon one of the directors whom you may know. Ask him to explain all this to you. Ask the approximate price and the annual dividend. The latter, divided by the price, gives you the yield. That is, if the stock sells at $25 and pays an annual dividend of $1.00, then the stock yields you 4 percent. This may seem a small yield, but it is not too little for the security, diversification, and supervision which you receive.

P.S. Be sure to go to the stockholders' meeting each year and meet your other "club" members.

Roger Babson

Invest in Your Bank

Babson Park, Mass. — I have recently been talking with a prominent General Motors official about small cars. He is rather skeptical as to whether small cars built by General Motors would sell after the first year or two. Reason — "Most people buy cars — large and small — for prestige, not for transportation. This desire for prestige causes us to build larger and heavier cars."

"The average buyer wants to keep up with or go ahead of his neighbor! In fact, this is the real reason he buys small imported cars — to have a car to talk about, not to save gas."

"In fact, I believe" — he continued — "that the present buying of Ramblers is largely a fad. Style and fashion now apply as much to automobiles as to the length of skirts, size of hats, or color of shoes worn by women."

Careful Supervision

I have taken a long time to get to my point, which is this: You can make no expenditures of money which will give you such prestige as will owning a few shares of stock in your best local bank. But, be sure to get the stock of your most conservative and most highly regarded bank. Owning stock in "second stringers" will not give you prestige.

But there are other more important reasons for owning some shares in such a bank. Banks are the most carefully government-supervised form of investment.
