

COMING DOWN — City work crews began tearing down the Frank Hills' real estate building this week after purchase by the city became final. Believed to be the oldest standing building in the business district, it was constructed in 1870. A parking area and widened alley facilities will be provided on the site of the 114 West Main street building. Razing began Monday at the rear of the building (below).

City Attempts to Hold Tax Levy As Bond Issue Passes, 456-172

Second Try Successful

If at first you do not succeed, etc.

This ancient moral proved sound last Monday for Northville's city council when the second attempt to pass a $300,000 water bond issue won 72 per cent voter approval.

In another light response at the polls the measure passed with 456 YES votes and 172 NO votes.

Last February the same proposal narrowly missed the required 60 percent majority for approval with 349 YES votes to 240 NO votes.

Before the council can launch its water system improvement program the application for the sale of bonds must be approved by the Municipal Finance commission of the state. Normally, this takes a period of three months. Another two weeks is needed to advertise and sell the bonds.

According to bonding authorities, Michigan's current financial difficulties have not helped the interest rates of bond sales in the state. The council can, of course, refuse the sale if interest rates are not attractive. But members are hopeful that by September, when it is expected the water bonds will be sold, the state picture will improve.

The approval came as something of a lifesaver for the council as it prepared the 1959-60 budget this week. Some $40,000 already spent for water department improvements can now be returned to the general fund from the bond issue. An additional $25,000 expenditure is also scheduled for water system improvements and this, too, would have been included in the new budget if the bond vote had failed.

The 72 percent approval by the voters allows the city council to sell $300,000 in general obligation bonds for the water improvement program. This guarantee by obligating the faith of the community permits the council to borrow more money at lower interest rates.

By resolution the council has pledged payment of the bonds from water revenues, however, to assure voters that taxes will not be increased to retire the 27-year bonds. In dollars and cents the improvements call for an expenditure estimated at $298,483.

They include: completion of the new Novi road well site, pump and pump house; chlorinating equipment; additional shut-off valves; additional fire hydrants; additional water lines; and a 400,000 gallon elevated storage tank.

Poppy Days

Today and Friday members of the American Legion and VFW posts and auxiliaries will conduct their annual Poppy Day sale.

Funds from the sale — "To Honor the Dead by Helping the Living" — are used to aid the living victims of our nation's wars. Local veterans' representatives will sell the poppies throughout the business area.

Ray J. Casterline

Casterline Services Held Last Saturday

Funeral services for Ray J. Casterline, 65, were held last Saturday afternoon from the funeral home he founded 22 years ago.

Mr. Casterline died May 13 at 9:45 p.m. at St. Joseph's hospital in Ann Arbor following a heart attack suffered earlier in the day at his Canton township farm where he had lived since retirement nine years ago.

Mr. Casterline came to Northville 44 years ago from Plymouth. At one time he managed the Northville office of Consumers Power company. He founded the Casterline Funeral Home in 1937. He was a 40-year member of American Legion Post 147 and F. & A. M. No. 186, a charter member, past president and honorary life member of the Northville Exchange club.

He was born July 20, 1893 at Dexter the son of Fred and Louisa Schrader Casterline. He is survived by his wife, Anna, whom he married May 29, 1918; a son, Fred, of Northville; two brothers, Clifford of Northville and Clyde of New Hudson; two sisters, Mrs. Esther Dixon of Plymouth and Mrs. Ruth Briggs of Northville; and a grandson, Ray J. III, of Northville. Another brother, Oren, preceded him in death.

The Rev. Paul Cargo and the Rev. John O. Taxis officiated at the services. Interment was at Rural Hill cemetery.

School Opens Bids For Junior High

Bids for the remodeling of the Northville high school for junior high school use were read before the board of education from six firms Monday night.

All the bids were turned over to Eberle M. Smith associates, architects, for study before awards will be made.

Low bid was submitted by Burger Construction company. It totaled $199,800. Other bids were John P. Barrett, $204,419; Killfoile-Wendelin Construction company, $216,440; Walter L. Couse company, $220,550; Ward W. Ross, Inc., $228,714; Pulte-Strang, Inc., $233,218.

Although school officials have been hopeful that the school would be ready for fall classes, it is almost certain that this will not be possible.

Superintendent Russell Amerman said this week that Main Street Principal Harry Smith had submitted a plan for accommodating the seventh and eighth graders in the Community building and the Main street grade school until the junior high is ready.

Grades nine through 12 will move to the new high school next fall.

Trash Pick-Up, Free Workers Available Saturday

The campaign to "Beautify Northville" will get a boost this Saturday when the committee sponsors a free trash pick-up service for city residents.

Seven trucks along with a host of volunteers will call for any discards that residents leave at their curbs and that can be lifted onto a truck.

The pick-up will begin at 8 a.m. Pick-up workers will be treated to a picnic lunch at 12:30 Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Palmer, 760 Thayer. Assisting Mrs. Palmer will be Mrs. Donald Hannabarger, Mrs. John Canterbury, Mrs. Richard Ambler and Mrs. Alfred Smith.

Residents can receive further assistance in clean-up work by contacting Northville high school's freshman class. The students have volunteered to do any clean-up work for city residents free of charge.

After their day of work a party is planned for the students participating.

Mayor Allen Collects Pay in Caro

While Northville was entertaining Caro's Mayor William Janks on mayor's exchange day (see page 11), Mayor A. Malcolm Allen was also enjoying himself in Caro.

With Mrs. Allen and Superintendent of Public Works and Mrs. Herman Hartner Northville's mayor spent the day touring the thumb area community.

And for his work he received the mayor's full day's pay — a check for 17 cents.

Mayor Allen was especially impressed by the fact that all of Caro's six councilmen and mayor are businessmen in the community. "This should deflate the story that businessmen can't participate in community government affairs," said Mayor Allen. "I was very impressed by Caro's pride in their community and the cooperation displayed between business and government," said Mayor Allen.

Approve 1½ Mill Boost But Hint at Reduction

City councilmen approved a $361,459 budget for 1959-60 calling for a 1½-mill increase Wednesday night.

The budget sets forth $110,588 in capital improvements. But while councilmen were consenting to approval of the new budget for a June 1 public hearing, they gave strong, informal indications that ways would be found to pare the budget down to last year's 11.5 mill level.

To accomplish this approximately $12,000 would have to be reduced from the capital improvements program.

After okaying the 13-mill budget for public hearing Mayor A. Malcolm Allen, as well as several council members, reported a hesitancy to give final approval to the increase.

Even though all the suggested improvements in the new budget are considered important, Mayor Allen agreed with the council feeling that passage of the water bond issue Monday helped the city's financial picture.

Some council members also believe that voters approved the water bond issue believing that the city could hold the line on expenditures for other capital improvements.

Even if the council decides to reduce the budget some $12,000 to avoid an increase in taxes, the new budget will provide approximately $98,000 in capital improvements.

Projects almost certain to win approval under this year's budget include:

- Paving of Wing, Fairbrook and First streets;
- Paving Novi street (in cooperation with subdividers of Yerkes Estates);
- Fencing city dump area;
- Paving Dunlap street parking lot;
- Installing storm sewer for parking area behind the Methodist church;
- Widening curve at Park Place and South Main.

In addition provisions are being made for other projects that are not certain to develop this year. These include finances for the Main street parking lot in conjunction with the proposed A&P supermarket, curb and gutter for North Center street from Carlyle to Ely drive in front of the Amerman school (this may depend upon the attitude of the school towards participating in the paving program);

$20,000 for a relief sewer connected to a proposed sewer for a Gerald Taft subdivision in the northwest section of the city (this relief sewer would be connected at the southern extremity of the Taft sewer to relieve heavy sewer service in the city's northeastern section).

While councilmen provided some money in the budget for small increases in salaries, none were authorized.

The new budget, particularly if reduced to last year's 11.5 mill levy, must be considered extremely conservative. The city's new retirement program for employees has increased city expenses by nearly one mill, while labor and other costs have risen steadily. The city has not increased its tax levy to any degree since incorporation. At that time the millage was lowered from the old village level.

Four Try 'Escape' From Novi Village

Novi councilmen Monday studied court action by four property owners to disconnect from the village.

The cases and dispositions are: — Edmond Yerkes and family property consisting of three parcels, 36 acres, located on Eight Mile road, east of Novi road. A pre-trial hearing is pending.

— W. B. Chase property, three parcels, 115 acres, located next to the Yerkes property. Under 30-day pre-trial notice.

— John T. Mier property, 106 acres, located on Haggerty near 13 Mile road. A petition has been filed but an answer to petition not yet filed.

— Guy E. Seeley property, 40 acres, located next to Mier's property. Petition filed, but no answer.

Set 'Community Hospital' Plans

The effort to purchase Sessions hospital and reorganize the institution as a community-sponsored facility arrived at a definite plan of procedure this week.

With Attorney Charles McDonald named chairman of the program a committee of area doctors and interested citizens approved a dual-corporation organizational plan last Thursday.

Tonight (Thursday) this group will sign necessary papers for the formation of Community Enterprises, Inc. The organization is subject to approval by the Michigan Corporation Securities commission.

Both the proposed name and the plan for sale of stock must first be cleared by the state before the group can proceed with the proposed purchase of Sessions, McDonald pointed out.

The plan to purchase the hospital was advanced several weeks ago by Dr. L. W. Snow. An option to obtain the hospital for $30,000 and some $53,000 in debts has been obtained by Dr. Snow. Although the option expires May 25, Dr. Snow indicated it could be renewed.

In recent years the hospital, owned by Mrs. Irene Slater, has "skidded down hill" from a top gross of $189,000 in 1953 to a point where it is now unapproved for maternity cases by the state, Dr. Snow pointed out.

He has indicated that some 17 doctors, mostly former staff physicians of the hospital, from Northville, Novi, Plymouth, South Lyon and Whitmore Lake have expressed an earnest desire to re-open the institution.

In meetings to date some differences in opinion as to the extent of repairs and operating funds required to re-open the hospital have been evident among the doctors.

Specifically, Dr. E. T. Capuzzi emphasized that approximately $200,000 would be required to "properly equip and repair" the hospital to assure patients adequate facilities. His estimates included cost of the hospital, corrective repairs required by the state and expansion to a 44-bed facility. The latter has been determined as necessary to operate the hospital profitably. This opinion is reportedly shared by doctors associated with Dr. Capuzzi in Northville. They emphasize that more than just "minimum requirements" should be the goal of the rehabilitation program.

Last Monday evening a committee meeting attended by Drs. Snow, A. A. Holcomb, Irene Sparling, J.K. Sparling and Frederick Bentley, as well as Chairman McDonald, John Canterbury, Leland Smith, Harry Rackham, Leo Harrawood and Earl Reed decided upon the two-corporation method of organizing. The plan calls for forming a profit group incorporated at $150,000 and an operating non-profit corporation which will lease the hospital from the parent corporation.

Although a single, non-profit corporation set-up was discussed, the adopted plan was favored because it was believed more public subscriptions could be obtained if the possibility of a return on the investment existed.

An actual subscription campaign cannot begin until the corporate plan has been approved by the state, McDonald pointed out.

Advocates of the effort to open the hospital with a minimum of $100,000 have pointed out that all state health requirements can be met to provide adequate facilities and that further improvements can be made as the hospital becomes operative. They are also hopeful that some $53,000 in debts can be deferred or satisfied with stock issue to reduce the amount of capital necessary to raise.

Pardons are granted annually during a one week period, according to Mrs. Rhea Wilcox, librarian, to spur people into turning in books that are long overdue.

If the library is closed, Mrs. Wilcox asks that the books be pushed through the slot in the door.

ONE OF THE NEWEST FAMILIES in Novi's Willowbrook subdivision is Mr. and Mrs. Keith Kraus and their two-year-old daughter, Linda.

Two of Northville's newest and youngest teachers have moved into a new brick home in Novi's Willowbrook subdivision off Ten Mile road. They are Keith and Loretta Kraus of 41024 Hollydale. The couple moved to Willowbrook from South Lyon.

Sharing the fun and warmth of the new home is Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Kraus' two-year-old daughter. Linda soon will have a baby brother — or sister.

Mrs. Kraus teaches the sixth grade at Main street elementary school, and Mr. Kraus teaches high school English. They joined the Northville school system in September.

Mr. Kraus, a college and amateur tennis star, also coaches the junior high school tennis team.

Both parents were graduated from Eastern Michigan college at Ypsilanti. Mrs. Kraus has taught school at Mason and Riverview. He has taught at River Rouge and Charlotte.

Mrs. Kraus was born and raised in Detroit, while Mr. Kraus was raised in Ypsilanti.

Williams Appointed Director Of WJR Jr. Symphonic Band

Robert Williams of the Northville high school music department, has been appointed broadcasting director of the WJR Junior Symphonic band.

In his capacity as director, Williams will be working under the supervision of the well known conductor Henri Nosco, who is a graduate of the Conservatory of Music in Paris, a protege of Saint-Saens, and former assistant conductor to Arturo Toscanini.

The Junior Symphonic group was organized and is supported by the Metropolitan Symphonic Band Parents club, founded in 1954.

It is composed of 60 boys and girls from more than 20 schools in the Detroit area. The band is bound together by a common love of music and a compelling desire to express the joy it gives its members.

The nucleus for the band was formed in 1954 when a group of parents got together and decided to do something about directing youthful energies into worthwhile projects.

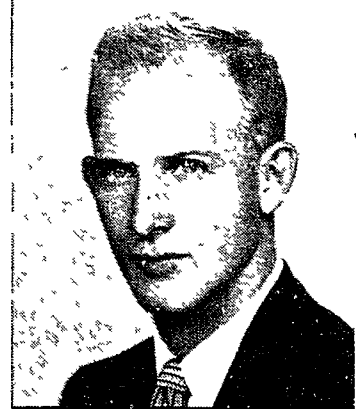

Northville has 13 seats in the band. They are held by Pat Meyer, Dorothy Sutherland, Harold Hartley, Kay Berryman, Fern Kinnaman, Ivan Ely, Don Busch, Karen Hill, Carol Tabor, Elsie Sedan, Linda Klocke, Susan Price and Christine Muller.

Symphonic concerts originate at the University of Detroit radio and TV center at 1:30 Sunday afternoon.

The band will perform under the baton of the new director in a special television broadcast May 29. The band will present a drama, Symphonic Murder in B flat, beginning at 8:30 p.m. over Channel 56.

Plans for a concert in Northville are underway.

HOW TO BE HAPPY

Recently I heard a rebroadcast of a lecture entitled, "How to be happy while living to be 100" by Dr. John Shindler. It was a masterpiece of good advice. I would like to give you the main points today. The key — "I'm going to keep my attitude and my thinking as cheerful and pleasant as I can." Then the 8 points given were as follows: (1) Quit looking for knocks in the human motor. (2) Learn to like work. (3) Learn to have a hobby. (4) Learn to like people. (5) Learn to be satisfied. (6) Learn to accept adversity. (7) Learn the habit of saying the cheerful and the pleasant and avoid saying the unpleasant. (8) Learn to meet your problems with decision. Surely these facts are worth pondering and putting into practice.

BUILDING UPON A FOUNDATION IS BETTER

However, these facts, wise as they may be, are built upon a foundation of sand. The foundation of a really happy life must be laid much deeper. It must begin with a right relationship to God through Jesus Christ. How can a man be really happy when he knows that his sins have separated him from God and that he must one day stand in judgment to be charged with these sins? All his attempts to be happy in this life will be but a "mock smile" since underneath there is fear, superstition and a guilt complex. But the good news is that he can build upon a Christian foundation if he wills. God has made it possible, through the sacrifice of Christ upon Calvary, for man to be reconciled to Himself. The matter of their sins have already been taken care of through the sacrifice on Calvary. When their sins are taken care of in this way, the guilt complex doesn't stand a chance. The fear of death and the judgment are erased and the heart is at rest upon the sure promises of grace and mercy to those who trust in the Saviour. This is the sure rock foundation for a Happy Life.

NOW BUILD UPON THAT FOUNDATION

Not all Christians are as happy as they ought to be. The reason is that they do not build upon the foundation according to the rules laid down for them in the Holy Scriptures. After carefully considering the suggestions made by Dr. Shindler, I find the majority of them are in full agreement with the rules given in the Bible for Christian conduct. Take for example the key — "I'm going to keep my attitude and my thinking as cheerful and pleasant as I can." Compare this with Philippians 4:4 which says in the King James, "Rejoice in the Lord always; and again I say rejoice." Or as the Williams translation states it, "By the help of the Lord always keep a glad spirit, yes I will repeat it, keep up the glad spirit."

If you have not accepted Christ as your Saviour, why not yield to Him right now. Then by God's help start living the Happy Life.

Baccalaureate Hoods To be Presented Sunday

Graduating seniors at Madonna college, Livonia, will receive their baccalaureate hoods Sunday following 10 a.m. mass in the college chapel. Fr. Ronald L. Heideberger, assistant secretary of the Catholic Charities, will celebrate the mass and preach the sermon.
Other pre-graduation activities will take place during the week. The annual senior garden party, celebrating the birthdays of students and faculty, is set for Thursday, May 28. Later Thursday afternoon, freshmen will present a program at the flag-raising ceremony honoring the seniors as representatives of their college and their country. Following an evening candlelight procession, Sodality prefect Marlene Soltysak will crown the outdoor statue of Mary.

The next day, the senior class will bid its farewells to a program for the student body. The evening will be marked by a senior farewell dance.
All students will attend mass in a body the morning of May 28 when the intention will be for the class of '59. The following day mass will be offered for the intentions of alumni and benefactors of the college.

Archbishop Dearden To Confer Mercy Degrees

His Excellency, the Most Reverend John F. Dearden, D.D., Archbishop of Detroit, will confer degrees on 84 graduates of Mercy college, 8200 West Outer drive, on Thursday, June 4 at 6:30 p.m., it was announced this week by Sister Mary Lucille, RSM, president.
The Reverend Neil G. McCluskey, SJ, education editor of "America", will deliver the commencement address.
Prior to the commencement exercises which climax a week of activities honoring the seniors, an academic procession, including the faculty and the candidates for degrees, will form at the administration building and swing out across the campus to McAuley auditorium, scene of the conferral.

Northville Industry Thrived in 1890

The following "first 100 years" history of Northville was written by T. R. Carrington, Northville insurance agent, and his son, Charles, as a project of Michigan Week's "Heritage Day" which is celebrated Friday.

T. R. Carrington is a lifelong resident of Northville and has always been highly interested and active in community affairs. He picked up much of the information for this 1827 and 1927 review of Northville as a boy listening to the stories of the oldtimers.

Born in 1887 Carrington has spent all but 10 years of his working life in the Northville business district. As a clerk in Sam Knapp's grocery (where Ellis Electronics is now located) he would listen to board of commerce members (called the 16 "setters" by Carrington) swap yarns. Two members of this group were original settlers of Northville. Carrington loved to listen to George Bradley, "a great story teller".

Carrington himself has had a diversified career as an employee of Stimson Scale Works, an industrial laborer, conducting a newsstand on the D & C navigation line, and postal work that led from clerk to assistant postmaster and finally postmaster. As a youngster working at Stimson, he recalls making $1.75 a day for a 59-hour week in 1909. He left this job to clerk in a Main street store for $1.50 per day and longer hours because it offered "a better opportunity" and gave him a chance to listen to the oldtimers spin yarns.

Northville celebrated its Centennial in 1927, however, the first settlers arrived in the vicinity in 1825. Three different families claimed to have arrived here first, but in the absence of proof we might call it a dead heat. The pioneers were largely from New York, York Statens as they called themselves. These people were responsible for naming the community Northville, after Northville, New York where some of them had lived.

Loading their possessions on covered wagons they traveled by land to Buffalo, by boat to Detroit and finally made the two to three day trip to Northville. A few traveled overland all the way taking the Canadian route to Detroit. When they arrived they found hard wood forests which they cleared prior to building log cabins and outbuildings. The first early settlers were largely farmers, but soon after someone dammed a creek, and a saw mill and a grist mill were the results. Store keepers, shoe makers, carpenters and a blacksmith naturally followed.

The first frame dwelling was erected in 1831 on the site where the Veterans' Memorial hall now stands; about 1860 it was moved to 318 Randolph street where it is still in use. Soon after the coming of the settlers came the churches. The Presbyterians built a church on their present location in 1836 where it served the new congregation until 1849. During that year it was moved to 137 East Cady where it was remodeled into the dwelling which now stands. The church built to replace the building moved in 1849 forms part of the present church structure.

The first school house built within the boundaries of the present city was erected of stone in the early 1830's at the site of the parking lot in the rear of the Kroger store. It stood there until 40 years ago and a picture of it is hanging in the Northville Public library today.

About the time of the Civil War infant industries began to develop and with the arrival of the railroad in 1870 Northville quickly became a thriving industrial community, reaching its peak about 1890. At that time the Globe Furniture company, manufacturing church and school furniture and also bells for churches, schools and farms, was employing 200 or more men and one woman.

The J. A. Dubuar Manufacturing company, in addition to operating a large saw mill, manufactured wheelbarrows, hose reels, tackle blocks, mast hoops and air rifles. The Ely Dowell Works was a small but busy factory. These manufacturers combined with a milk condensory, a cheese factory, two flour mills, three blacksmiths and a brickyard, made this a prosperous community.

In May 1899 the Globe Furniture company was completely destroyed by fire and was not rebuilt. This was a stunning blow to the economy of Northville and recovery was slow. The company was later reorganized but never reached a level of employment of over 20 percent of that of the original company.

The American Bell and Foundry company was organized after the Globe had burned and was a highly successful enterprise employing about 30 men for many years. In 1906 the Stimson Scale company moved here and for many years was the major industry. When the Ford Motor company purchased the

J. A. Dubuar Manufacturing company and established the present valve plant a new high in industrial employment was reached in Northville.

In 1870 a fish hatchery located here, later it was taken over by the U.S. Bureau of Fisheries and operated at high efficiency, now it is practically idle at the same location.

Interurban trolley cars arrived in 1900 and afforded Northville folks cheap and convenient access to Detroit until 1924 when the service was discontinued.

In looking back over the old days many personalities stand out among the men who contributed to the building of a good and prosperous community, but three names, perhaps, overshadow the others. These are not only worthy of mention here, but their brilliance requires that they be included in any report of Northville's early progress.

James M. Swift was one of the early graduates of the University of Michigan medical school and a man of varied talents. He came here as a young man and for over 50 years played a prominent part in the life of the village. An excellent speaker, he often was called on for addresses at funerals and for church services, indicating a high degree of spiritual accomplishment. A fine singing voice placed him in various singing groups, but most of all he was an excellent physician. He had remarkable success in treating "ague" (now nearly unknown) and people came to him from all parts of the state for treatment.

J. S. Lapham, merchant and banker, came here from New York state, and for many years operated the largest store in this area, and started the first bank here under the name of J. S. Lapham and company. This private bank later sold out to the Northville State Savings bank in 1905. Mr. Lapham was an excellent business man and became Northville's first rich man. His residence still stands as Northville's present city hall.

Francis R. Beal was one of the founders of the Globe Furniture company, under his leadership as president and general manager, the company became one of the leading manufacturers of church furniture in the United States. He was always an active churchman and a leader in community affairs.

In concluding this brief history of Northville's first 100 years I find many omissions, events that deserve mention, but I can say that Northville is, and I trust, will be a good place in which to live.

OLDTIMERS will remember this "crow's nest" at Main and Center streets in Northville. It served as a handstand for weekly concerts. That's The Record building on the right, while on the left is Ambler House Hotel, since burned down. The handstand was removed around 1919. This picture was found in the Hills' building as it was being torn down Tuesday by city employees.

Art Club Members Win in Exhibition

Two members of the Three Cities Art club won first and second places in the all-women painting exhibition Monday in Detroit.

Several hundred women from all parts of Michigan were on hand for the exhibition, sponsored by the Wayne County Cultural Achievement committee of the Michigan Week program.

Mabel Bacon of Plymouth was awarded first place for an oil painting, and Marjorie Becker of Northville won second place in water colors. Mrs. Harold Hartley and Barbara McKenzie of Northville each had one picture exhibited.

A total of 150 paintings were exhibited; hundreds of other paintings were entered.

The exhibit took place in the Kessler Buick showroom.

Officers Installed Monday by B.P.W.

Installation of new officers for the coming year highlighted the meeting of the Business and Professional Women last Monday night at the Presbyterian church house.

The following officers were installed by Mrs. Lynn Sullivan: Miss Margaret Ragar, president; Mrs. H. P. Ritchie, vice president; Mrs. Marian Foss, corresponding secretary; Miss Eleanor Martz, recording secretary and Miss Leona Parmenter, treasurer.

The members also surprised Mrs. Mollie Lawrence with a corsage in recognition of her contributions as former township supervisor. Mrs. Lawrence will be leaving soon for an extended trip to Florida.

Members are urged to attend the final meeting of the year in June to help celebrate the 11th birthday of the club. The meeting will be held at Arbor-Lil in Plymouth.

SORRY —

What? Can't we buy a home with nothing dn.? Both of us were sorry — they with no money and I with many nice listings.

Sorry, but my listers just won't take old bottle caps, race track stubs or last year's rent receipts for dn. payments. That green stuff that some call "lettuce" is very necessary in the purchase of a home. Not a big bundle of it, but around $800.

You will be surprised at the nice group of homes, apts., lots and commercials that are available for you at this time. My office girl (wife) is away for a short time. If no answer to my phone, please call back. Happy to talk with you — happier to show you through some of my offerings.

Plymouth Company Donates $15,000 To St. Mary Hospital

Sister Mary Columbine, administrator of St. Mary Hospital of Livonia, announces that Evans Products company of Plymouth has donated $15,000 toward the St. Mary Hospital building fund.

"The company's willingness to share the burden of making the community a better place to live in is appreciated not only by the hospital staff," said Sister Mary Columbine, "but also by every man, woman and child who will in the future have an occasion to use the hospital."

It is hoped that other industries in the area will also take up their share of community responsibility in promoting the hospital which will service not only the people of Livonia, Plymouth, Northville, Farmington and Redford township but also all employees of all industries located in these communities.

Construction of the hospital is progressing most satisfactorily. The five-story structure is under roof and has all windows installed. Crude partitioning of room areas has reached the fifth floor and plastering has begun on the first and second floors.

Boldt-Holmes Rites Read in Commerce

In a double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with white blossoms and candelabra, Mary Alida Holmes became the bride of Pvt. Jack Lowell Boldt April 25 in Commerce Methodist church.

Rev. Perry A. Thomas read the service before which Linda Shull sang "Fraulein" and "Oh Perfect Love". The newlyweds' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Holmes of Commerce and the Darrell Boldts of Almont.

The bride selected a colonial gown of chintilly lace over tulle and satin which featured a fitted bodice, high neckline, small lace collar and long sleeves. Her fingertip veil of English silk illusion was held by a crown of seed pearls and hearts. She carried a prayer book with white roses and Stephanotis.

Maid of honor for her sister was Orli Ann Holmes. Bridesmaids were sisters of the bridegroom, Mrs. Mertrie Termin and Ruth Boldt. All wore blue nylon gowns, white accessories and carried white satin hearts trimmed in lace with tiny pink rose corsages attached.

Serving his brother as bestman was William Boldt of Jackson. The guests were seated by Garry Perkins and Robert Boldt. Ring bearer was Danny Termin and flower girl was little Kathy Heck.

The bride is a graduate of Walled Lake high school and granddaughter of Charles Holmes and the late Mary Alida Holmes of Novi.

Busy Monday for Mayor Janks

The Northville Record

THE OLDEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY — EST. 1868 Thursday, May 21, 1959—11

Leslie Lee (left) was surprised and happy to receive the American Legion's annual Citizenship Award from Oscar Hammond and John Chedrick.

At the Michigan Week luncheon Chairman Mrs. Roy Soule presented School Board President Nelson C. Schrader with a Wayne county "New Frontiers" award for the new high school building. Schrader accepts while Principal E. V. Ellison (left) and Superintendent Russell Amerman look on.

Monday was a busy day for visiting Mayor William Janks, his wife and Caro Trustee and Mrs. Arthur Geib.

In one day they were given a concentrated indoctrination on life in Northville by Michigan Week Chairman Mrs. Roy Soule and her committee members.

The mayor and his party were met by the committee at Griswold and Main street and paraded through downtown behind the high school band.

At the city hall a flag raising ceremony preceded a brief council meeting between Mayor Janks, Mayor Pro Tem John Canterbury, Councilmen Richard Juday and Ed Welch, City Manager John Robertson and Clerk Mary Alexander.

The Rev. John O. Taxis of the First Presbyterian church opened the meeting with a prayer.

After accepting a key to the city Mayor Janks and his council exchanged information about the communities of Northville and Caro for nearly an hour.

Mayor Janks and Trustee Geib painted an attractive picture of their community of Caro that made Northville officials blush with envy.

Caro can boast of these advantages paid from a 13-mill budget, said Mayor Janks:

— four municipal parking lots (three paved);

— village-wide street paving program;

— sidewalk repair and maintenance;

— a brand new village-township hall combination with fire and police departments included paid for from city general funds with a $30,000 contribution from the township;

— an independent community development corporation that has attracted three new industries to the village (see Speaking for The Record, page 14);

— a community swimming pool will be completely paid for next year with a special two mill levy voted for the project.

Mayor Janks admitted there were some problems, however. The village is now studying plans for incorporation into a city and the state is pressing for a reappraisal of local property assessments (completed last year in Northville).

The mayor had many questions about city status and our charter. After the meeting the group joined members of the Exchange, Optimist and Rotary clubs for luncheon at the First Methodist church.

Mayor Janks liked our spring water.

At this meeting Chairman Mrs. Soule presented a Wayne county "New Frontiers" citation to School Board President Nelson Schrader, Superintendent Russell Amerman and Principal E. V. Ellison for the community's new high school. Schrader, accepting the award, pointed out that the new building was the result of work and planning of hundreds of interested citizens in the community.

The American Legion, represented by Oscar Hammond and John Chedrick, presented its annual Citizenship Award for outstanding community service to Leslie Lee, director of music at Northville high school.

Principal speaker for the luncheon was G. R. Harrington, divisional manager for the Michigan Bell Telephone company, who spoke on the future development of our nation and Michigan. He emphasized that Michigan was fourth last year in the nation in industrial construction and added that $3½ billion have been invested in the state by auto firms since 1950; Detroit Edison has started a $300 million five-year expansion program in the state, and Michigan Bell is spending $75 million per year. He was introduced by Area Manager John Kamego.

Finally, the visiting mayor and his party visited the Ford valve plant, the new high school and Northville Laboratories before calling it a (busy) day.

At the high school Mayor Janks took time out to judge an industrial advertising poster contest sponsored by local industries for "Our Livelihood Day". First prize (a $12 art kit) went to fourth grader Linda Bulmon, while Kathy Cassel won second prize (a $5 kit). Honorable mention awards went to Gary Pacific, Emilie Wilson, Marlon Slentz, Sarah Mellen and Grace Brinson.

Rollyson Accepted For Medical Class

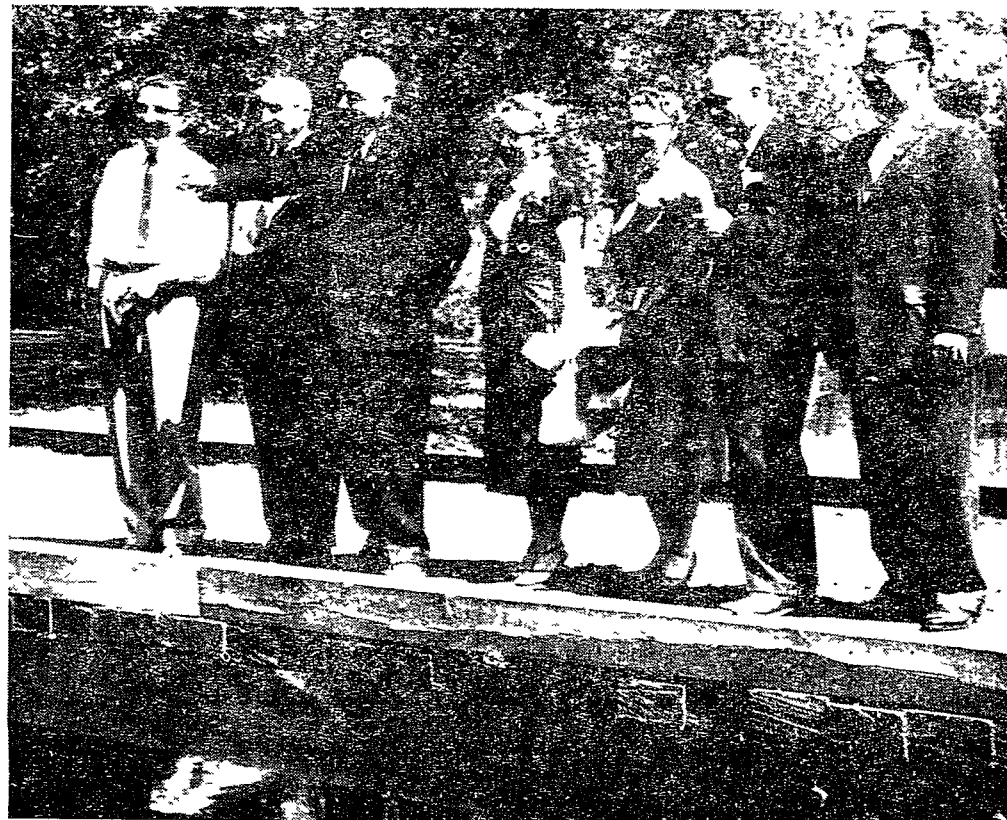

John D. Rollyson, 21668 Garfield, has been accepted along with 200 students to form the medical class of 1963 of the University of Michigan.

Assistant Dean Robert G. Lovell, M.D., reported that more than 800 students had applied for the 200 spaces. Michigan has the largest entering class of any medical school in the nation, equaled only by the University of Tennessee.

In selecting the 1963 class, a preliminary screening of applicants was carried out by alumni of the medical school. These practicing physicians, scattered throughout the state, had been invited to participate in the difficult selection process.

While members of the official Michigan Week party look on Mayor Pro Tem John Canterbury turns over the key to the city to Mayor William Janks of Caro. Standing (l. to r.) are: City Manager John Robertson, Clerk Mary Alexander, Councilman Ed Welch, Postmaster Leland Smith, Canterbury, Caro Trustee Arthur Geib, Janks, Councilman Richard Juday, Mrs. Janks, Mrs. Geib, Mrs. Roy Soule, Mrs. Canterbury.

Village Green Features 3 New Models

12—Thursday, May 21, 1959—THE NORTHVILLE RECORD

Japanese ash is featured in the Village Green kitchens in addition to built-in oven, cooking top and a disposal.

The Village Green, the second plat of the D & R Building company's Trend Homes, was opened to the public this week with three new models for inspection.

The 43-home development is located between Novi road and Novi street just north of Baseline. Entrance is at Allen drive on Novi road.

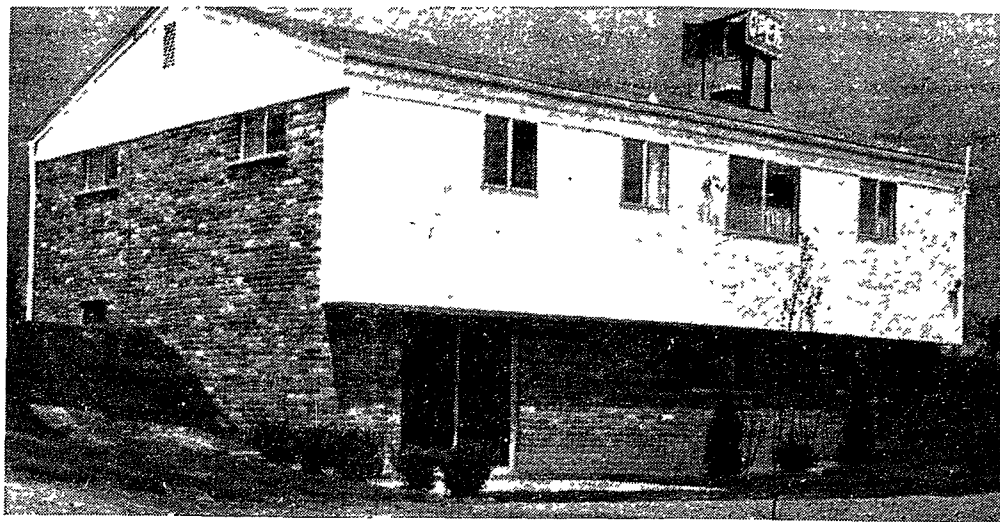

The three models — a contemporary, bi-level and colonial — range in price from $14,950 to $16,250. All models are of brick construction with three bedrooms and full basements.

The Village Green will bring the number of homes in the entire development to 70. A total of 200 homes are planned in the entire D & R development.

The new bi-level model features a patio off the basement level family room. A glass door wall opens onto the patio from the family room. Walls of the room are done in pecky cyprus.

Other features of the new Village Green homes include minimum 60-foot width lots, basement lavatory, gas and oil heat, storms and screens on sliding windows, garbage disposals, built-in oven and cooking top, Japanese ash kitchen cupboards and interior doors, twin-bowl vanities in full tile baths.

FHA and veterans' financing is available.

The Village Green bi-level model offers an attractive combination of indoor-outdoor living features. It is one of three models now open for inspection.

Hats Off To Michigan!

Michigan Week — May 17-23 — with its emphasis on all of the things for which this great state of ours is famous, is a good time to consider the vital importance of the motor truck . . . Here is a servant of the people which does indeed serve everyone: the farmer, the business man, the retailer, the housewife, the vacationer, the boy or girl at school.

Everything you eat, wear, or use travels all or part of the way to you by truck. Yes, trucks are as much a part of Michigan as its vast productive capacity, its beautiful scenery, its great educational facilities, its fine people.

Senior Trip Cripples Nine

Mustangs Stumble On Pitcher's Mound In 3 Diamond Tilts

He tipped his billed cap. It was Coach Al Jones' way of saying goodbye to the vacationing seniors and three baseball games. With hurlers Jeff Goodrich and Bill Boyd off on the senior trip last week, Northville promptly lost two diamond tilts — one a league contest.

Oak Park edged the Mustangs 12-10 in a comedy of errors, while West Bloomfield nipped the local nine, 4-3.

The two pitchers were back Monday, but the week-long layoff took its toll. Bloomfield Hills smashed out 11 hits to stun Northville, 6-3.

It was a revenge game for the Barons, who dropped their first tilt with the Mustangs, 6-0, as Boyd tossed a two-hitter.

The loss to the Barons dropped the Mustangs to second place in the Wayne-Oakland league standings. If Clarenceville and Milford win their games this week, they'll share the lead.

Northville's overall diamond record is nine wins and four losses. The Mustangs dropped their first game with South Lyon, 10-5.

Northville's overall diamond record is nine wins and four losses. The Mustangs dropped their first game to South Lyon after.

The local team has posted wins over South Lyon, Willow Run, West Bloomfield, Clarkston, Bloomfield Hills, Milford, Holly, Brighton and Clarenceville.

A first inning barrage of four runs on four hits stunned the Mustangs who never fully recovered.

The Barons added two hits in the second, one in both the third and fourth, and three in the sixth. But it wasn't until the sixth that they were able to push across their final two runs.

Northville scored in the third, fifth and sixth innings. A three-hit rally in the final inning failed to produce more than the one tally.

Boyd, who started the game and took the first Baron assault, was nipped for the loss. Goodrich relieved Boyd as the Bloomfield Hills rally mounted, but the big right hander could not find the stopper.

The five Northville hits were split evenly between Steve Juday, Jim Anderson, Bob Stuber, Bill Juday and Boyd.

Barrett and Borgon took batting honors for the Barons with three hits each. Paige collected two hits in four trips to the plate.

Gerhard, who went the distance, was credited with the victory.

Roger Atchinson, who a week earlier was credited with a four-hit win over Holly, took it on the chin Thursday as the Lakers socked him for 10 hits.

Kreig was credited with the win. Dave Hay, Northville center fielder, collected three hits in four trips to the plate in capturing individual hitting honors.

Teammate Wade Deal, catcher, punched out two hits in four attempts, while Steve Juday, short stop, notched one hit.

Gary Lee, John Lucadam and Ed Rubens each collected two hits to lead the Lakers' hitting attack.

Northville's nine committed three errors, compared to one for West Bloomfield.

In the first game with the Lakers, the Mustangs' senior pitcher, Jeff Goodrich posted a three-hit 6-0 victory on the West Bloomfield diamond.

Oak Park scored 12 runs on nine hits to defeat Northville 12-10 Wednesday.

In losing, the Mustangs collected twice as many errors as they did hits. They committed six errors while rapping out three hits in 24 trips to the plate.

Steve Juday, Wade Deal and Hurler Dick Willing notched the Northville hits. Perlove led the Oak Park hitting attack with two singles.

Willing, who had mounded help from Bob Sample and Dan Brown, was nipped for the loss. Detimer was the winning pitcher.

Wade Deal, catcher, drew two of the Northville errors, while Bill Trotter, second baseman; Fred Steeper, third baseman; Roger Atchinson, left fielder, and Willing each were charged with one error.

THEIR BATS EXPLODED — Terry LaRue (standing) and Joe Hay of the Northville Orioles joined teammates Monday in using a red hot bat that produced 27 runs on 15 hits. Fortunately for the Pierson Gophers of Livonia, the bat was retired in the fifth when the game was called because of darkness.

Two Tracksters Win Positions In State Meet

Two Northville track stars will carry the Orange and Black into the annual state meet Saturday at Michigan State university.

Nelson Schrader and Tom Darling notched starting positions in the state meet by virtue of their third place showings last Saturday in the Thurston Invitational.

Schrader tossed the shot 46 feet for third place, while sprinter Tom Darling took third in the 100-yard and 220-yard dashes. Darling's time in the 100 was 10.6, in the 220—23.4 seconds.

The two Mustangs will kick up their heels in the same events at Lansing.

Tom Ritter captured third place—and a single point — for Northville at Thurston but his 56.5 showing in the 440 was not among the best heats to qualify for the state meet.

Another point winner for Northville — which placed fifth in the Invitational — was Bill Walker in the shot.

Altogether, Northville took 13 points. Other team scores: Cranbrook, 84½; Bloomfield Hills, 27½; West Bloomfield, 24½; Lutheran W., 17½; Holy Redeemer, 12, and Clarenceville, 11½.

Northville Netters Drop 3 Straight

Despite constant improvement by Coach Ron Schipper's racket-swinging squad, the Mustangs dropped their last three matches.

According to Schipper, the tennis team is improving — but so are the opponents.

Latest of the defeats was the 4-1 drubbing at the hands of the Bloomfield Hills netters on Monday. John Rodgers was the only Mustang to notch a victory, 4-6, 6-3, 7-5.

Other singles scores against the Barons: Dennis Fallon lost 2-6, 6-3, 6-2, and Joe Gotro lost 4-6, 6-4, 6-2.

Karl Karg and Scott Adams lost their doubles, 6-3, 6-3, while Jim McCarthy and Don Lawrence lost 6-1, 6-4.

In earlier matches, Northville lost to Oak Park, 5-2, and to Plymouth, 2-5.

Fallon scored singles victories in both matches: 6-1, 6-1 against Oak Park and 6-3, 6-4 against Plymouth; Rodgers dumped his Oak Park opponent, 3-6, 6-3, 6-1, and Long and Gotro took Plymouth, 6-4, 4-6 and 6-3.

OLV Nine Wins, 6-5

Our Lady of Victory's baseball nine edged St. William's of Walled Lake Sunday, 6-5 in an extra inning contest.

John Bertoni doubled home, a teammate in the sixth inning to help his team to victory. Ken Skover and Dick Burton shared mound duty for OLV, which now has a 2-2 record.

Northville Little Leaguers Rally for Three Victories

Northville recovered from a first round knockdown last week and rallied to score victories in the opening week of the 1959 midwest baseball season.

The Northville Braves — last year's champions — fell flat in the opener against Wilcox Redlegs, 14-0, but came back with a brilliant one-hit, 5-3 win over the Grant Dodgers of Livonia.

Meanwhile, the Northville Orioles, who were rained out in their opener with the Jefferson Yankees, scored a 9-8 victory over the Wilson Red Socks.

David Luedtke, Oriole hurler, pitched a one-hitter Monday as his teammates bombed the Pierson Gophers 27-0 in five innings.

The barrage stopped in the fifth when the game was called because of darkness. But before it ended, the Orioles crossed home plate three times in the first and again in the second, 10 times in the fourth, and 11 in the fifth.

Gary Stobbe, Braves' hurler, gave up only one hit in whipping the Dodgers. His teammates rapped out 10 hits while collecting six costly errors.

Charles Bailey, left fielder, doubled and tripled home three runs to take individual hitting honors for the Braves.

Bailey and Jerry LaRoque made up the losing Braves' battery in the opener against the Redlegs. Jim Mahoney collected the lone Northville hit.

Two Oriole batters accounted for seven of the team's nine runs. Joe Hay collected a triple and two doubles to drive in four runs, while teammate Dave Jerome drove in three runs on two hits.

Gary Grys, who relieved Dave Luedtke in the third, was credited with the victory.

The two Northville teams are coached by Ken Conley. The Braves play in the class F, National League, while the Orioles play in class F, American League.

Both leagues are made up of 12 teams, representing Northville, Livonia, Wayne, Clarenceville and the Wayne County Training school.

Local Linksters Fire 7 over Par In Edging Oak Park

Two Northville high school golfers fired seven over par scores Monday to give the Mustangs a four stroke win over Oak Park at Plum Hollow golf course.

Bill Chizmar and Mike Eastland, who two weeks ago fired their lowest scores in high school competition, both shot 43 against Oak Park.

Bill Reuter fired a 45, while Mustang Mike Slattery, who had trouble on the greens, brought up the rear with a fat 57.

Chizmar fired pars on the second, fourth and sixth holes, while Eastland shot pars on the second, sixth and ninth. Nine hole par at Plum Hollow is 36.

More than 100 area youths entered the contest, which was divided into two age groups.

Brothers Win 1st Place In Model Car Contest

Two brothers walked away with the model car customizing contest sponsored by O'Dell's Hobby shop.

David Bartschi, 16, and his brother, Robert, 10, both won first prizes for their entries. Both received five dollar gift certificates.

The winners were judged on originality, neatness and workmanship. Other winners were Joe Gotro, Patrick Modos, Walter and Robert White.

More than 100 area youths entered the contest, which was divided into two age groups.

SPEAKING

for the Record

by BILL SLIGER

The brief council meeting held Monday morning with Mayor William Janks of Caro as part of the Michigan Week Mayor's Exchange day festivities was something more than a mere formality.

Mayor Janks had a few remarks that proved to be genuine "eye-openers" for Mayor Pro Tem John Canterbury, Councilmen Richard Juday and Ed Welch, City Manager John Robertson and a small audience.

Of most interest was the Community Development corporation.

This 12-member non-profit corporation is, as the name implies, an independent group (with official backing and support) bent upon interesting small industry in locating in Caro.

While Mayor Janks did not go into great detail, this is briefly how he described the function of the group.

First, potentially new or expanding industries are sought and examined. If the prospect appeals to the development corporation, a definite effort is made to entice the concern to locate in Caro.

And this goes beyond the routine propaganda expounding the desirability of the community.

The corporation offers a brand new plant with a 10-year purchase agreement.

The capital is raised by going to businessmen, local investors, etc., and selling 10-year, six percent notes. The new industry becomes the outright owner of the plant in 10 years (or sooner if the notes are retired faster).

The proof of whether such a plan can work is in the results Caro has had. Two light industry concerns have been obtained by the development group and a third is moving in shortly. All are within the village.

According to Mayor Janks, the first was a canning company sought because in addition to providing employment it also would provide a ready market for area farm products.

The Northville council has often discussed such a program for our community. Not too many months ago Mayor Allen suggested that a definite effort be made to bring small, diversified industry to the area.

Aside from a program undertaken several years ago by an area study group, nothing has been done. Results of their work are not encouraging and many obstacles can be pointed out including the great number of vacant plants in the Detroit area which may be rented reasonably.

Yet, what Caro can do, Northville should be able to do. Our strategic location and easy access to a large labor market gives us definite advantages.

If we sincerely want to attract light industry to the area (and some would argue this), then we should act. Undoubtedly, when Mayor Allen returns from Caro he will bring some information about the function of the development corporation.

I believe the mayor should appoint at least one councilman and the city manager to set up the mechanics of forming such an organization locally.

It must be completely independent of city or township government, but should have the support and representation of both governing bodies.

Township Supervisor George Clark has been a strong advocate of planned community development and his assistance should be sought by Mayor Allen in establishing the groundwork and eventual formation of a committee.

One of the first steps should be to study the Caro plan and then find capable, willing area residents to serve on the committee. This would not be difficult. I have talked with many city and township residents who would work hard in such an effort if someone would step forward and provide the leadership.

State is Big Happy Family this Week

MICHIGAN'S eight million citizens proudly threw out their chests this week in observance of Michigan Week.

When all of the reports are in, this year's Michigan Week promises to be the most successful celebration in the six-year history of the unique event.

Michigan is the only state in the U.S. that sets aside one week each year to tell the rest of the world about its past, present and future wonders.

Republicans and Democrats, labor and management, farmers and residents of our cities join hands in a common effort to promote the state and its unlimited advantages and resources.

In all, more than 5,000 persons from all walks of life are taking an active part in the planning of Michigan Week programs in the state's 83 counties.

This is proof that the people of Michigan can and will work together for the common good of their state.

Michigan Week is unique in other ways, too. It is financed, for instance, by voluntary contributions from civic, business and labor organizations.

In this day of so-called "government handouts", it is refreshing to see an event of this scope financed entirely by private funds.

The state legislature could appropriate money to finance Michigan Week. Other states use tax money to help foot the bill for their "spectaculars". But not Michigan.

The per capita cost of Michigan Week is less than one-half of one cent.

There's no way to estimate the "return" on each dollar spent to promote Michigan Week. But it probably would seem unbelievable if it were known.

The state receives literally millions of dollars worth of free publicity each year as a result of Michigan Week.

In addition, it receives hundreds of thousands of dollars of donated time from the 5,000 citizens, including many top executives, who offer their services to make and execute Michigan Week plans.

Officials of Greater Michigan, Inc., a non-profit organization that sponsors Michigan Week, consider the annual celebration a long-range investment in the state's future.

As a result, a great deal of emphasis is placed on the observance of Michigan Week by school children tomorrow's leaders.

School officials say boys and girls graduating from high school today know more about Michigan and its colorful history than graduates of just a few years ago, thanks to Michigan Week.

"It has been the most amazing thing I have ever seen," a veteran Lansing teacher said.

"The interest in Michigan and its history in the last four or five years has even resulted in the publication of half a dozen new books about Michigan and we are using several of them as text books."

The same teacher, a history major, said he believes Michigan Week has created a demand for historical novels about Michigan.

"We have been so busy growing that no one has taken the time to write these novels," he said. "But more authors are using the many plots available for colorful historical novels about the state because there is a market for these books."

ACTIVITIES in many of the state's schools have almost become a part of the curriculum. Teachers plan activities in the fall and students work on them through the winter and spring.

In many cases, Michigan Week activities in schools involve the entire community or school district.

But for those of us who are not in school, Michigan Week is a refresher course to prepare us so that we can "sell" Michigan to our friends and neighbors in the other 49 states for the next 51 weeks of the year.

In the end, the "return" on each dollar invested and the thousands

Lack of Anti-Missile Missile our Peace Guarantee

Babson Park, Mass. — My last few days in Florida were spent at Cape Canaveral, which is located on the east coast of Florida, some 150 miles south of Jacksonville. From here the tests are being made of the various intercontinental missiles, by which World War III, if it ever comes, will be fought. I understand there are three other "proving grounds" — in Alabama, in Arizona and on the Pacific coast.

Leading Corporations Producing Missiles

These missiles are contracted for by the Department of Defense with various important corporations such as the Douglas Aircraft company which builds the "Thor", the Northrop Aircraft company which makes the "Snark", the Martin company which builds the "Titan" and "Vanguard", General Dynamics' Convair division which constructs the "Atlas", Boeing Aircraft which is building the "Bomarc", and the Chrysler corporation which makes the "Jupiter". These companies compete for the best engineers, metallurgists, and other scientists. Such specialists are not under the bureaucratic restrictions of government workers, hence can be paid higher salaries. The work is under the able direction of General Donald N. Yates.

I was much impressed with what I saw, including the launching of three of these missiles. They vary in length from 25 to 65 feet, each divided into three stages, and cost

$2,200 Scholarship Goes to T. Hopper

Talbot Hopper, a 17-year-old Northville high school senior, has received a $2,200 scholarship for the first year at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Massachusetts.

The first-year William H. Donner Prize scholarship is the second scholarship received by Hopper. He also received a scholarship from the University of Michigan.

Although he is still undecided (he didn't learn about the MIT prize until his return from the senior trip) he probably will attend MIT where more specialized engineering courses are offered.

Should he attend the university, he will take up physics; if he attends MIT, he will major in aeronautical engineering.

MIT officials said Hopper will be eligible for additional financial aid for his second and succeeding years.

What About the Anti-Missile Missiles?

My great disappointment at Cape Canaveral was to learn that no anti-missile missiles have been perfected. Hence, though Russia, or the United States, or certain other countries, will soon be in a position to destroy, none of them now have the necessary means of defense against an enemy missile. Once in a while the engineers feel they are on the right track; but the targets which they use move very slowly compared with the speed of an enemy missile. My days at Cape Canaveral convince me of what I have said before — that there will be no World War III until some country discovers and has in production a dependable anti-missile missile. Our Defense Department feels that our engineers will be successful in producing such and we are now erecting stations around our large cities for firing such anti-missiles when they are perfected and in production.

Chevy pickup pulls through "bottomless" pastures to keep stock fed!

At the Hall Bros. Dairy Farm, Montgomery, Ala., they say this 4-wheel drive Chevy will go anywhere to keep stock fed—even through hub-deep muck that makes it a fight all the way. And yet after a full year of it—no mechanical trouble of any kind!

That Chevy pickup may not win any beauty awards (till it's cleaned up). But it's sure walking off with the top prize for dependability. And that's standard Chevrolet procedure. Put a Chevy truck to work and it keeps on working until you say quit. Not before.

We aren't claiming that every Chevrolet truck is turning out to be a miracle-worker and averaging 100,000 miles before a valve job. (Even though some are going 150,000!) You're sure to find, however, that you can't buy more truck dependability at any price. And that's borne out by the fact that more truck owners put their faith, and their payloads, in Chevrolets than in any other make.

Take your load and schedule figures to your Chevrolet dealer. He'll specify the best way to handle both and save in the bargain.

No job's too tough for a Chevrolet truck!

Now's the time—see your local authorized Chevrolet dealer for a real truck buy!
