

International Trials Won By Local Team

Recording near perfect scores, the Northville Topnotchers Equestrian team won the major honors of the International Junior team trials conducted Friday through Sunday over the two mile course at the Bloomfield Hunt Club.

Members of the local team, coached by John Wallace, are Stephanie Altenburg, Sally and Bob Sample and Susie Wallace.

The Topnotchers have a long list of impressive wins in widespread competition.

Their first victory was the winning of the International Three-Day Challenge Trophy with a score of 1614 out of a possible 1650 points. In the Michigan zone finals for the Michigan championship, they took the honors in Dressage and cross-country with a score of 1039 out of a possible 1050. Their jumping score of 575 out of 600 gave them seven out of eight of the final season's points for a total of 22 out of 24.

For the six trials of the 1959 schedule, Captain Susie Wallace annexed the individual championship with 538 out of 550 points, and Sally Sample with 536 points took the reserve championship for the highest scores of the 40 riders competing.

Junior equestrian team competition, the first of its kind in the United States, was brought into being through the sponsorship of the Northville Optimist club. In 1952, starting as a Michigan team league only, it has now grown to include the Mid-West league in the Chicago area, the Toronto zone and London zone in Canada. Next season will include the Ohio zone which takes in Cincinnati and Columbus, Ohio.

In keeping with the Optimist club's youth work, the competition has two objectives: one to discover possible candidates for future Olympic equestrian teams, and the other to teach and encourage good sportsmanship.

The Northville Optimist club challenge trophies include the International Three-Day Challenge Trophy, the International Stadium Jumping Trophy and the venerable Junior Equestrian Team Challenge Trophy for Michigan teams, which is now nine years old.

The Optimist's committee in charge of this activity includes Dr. J. K. Eastland, Dr. Waldo T. Johnson, Maxwell Austin and J. P. Malley. The executive secretary is Mrs. Franklin Beeks.

Fine Youth $25 In Beating Case

The 19-year-old Wixom youth, who admitted accompanying another boy who allegedly beat 15-year-old Mike Myers last May, was fined $25 and $5 costs Saturday.

Northville Judge E. M. Bogart ordered Robert Soreno to pay the fine and costs after he pleaded guilty of aiding and abetting the assault. According to Northville Police Chief Eugene King, Soreno admitted accompanying the assailant, Robert Korthas, 17, and driving the car.

Korthas, free on a $200 bond, is awaiting circuit court trial. He originally was sentenced to 90 days in jail and was ordered to pay a $100 fine. However, a week ago an appeal for a circuit court trial was filed by Walled Lake Attorney E.E. Juntunen on grounds that Korthas appeared before Judge Bogart without legal counsel.

It now remains for the case to be reviewed in circuit court, probably in September or October. According to Juntunen, Korthas cannot receive a more severe penalty. And even another plea of guilty could result in probation, he said.

The confession by the two youths, obtained two weeks ago by Chief King, brought an end to a four-month-long investigation.

Police had questioned about 50 boys and had checked more than 20 black Fords — the suspect car — before they finally questioned Korthas and Soreno.

The two youths told police they were returning from a dance in Farmington when they drove through Northville. Korthas said he saw Myers walking on the sidewalk near his Center street home about 11 p.m. After they passed him, Korthas told Soreno to drive back.

Soreno stopped, Korthas jumped out, and asked Myers "What are you looking at?" When Myers answered, "Nothing, sir," Korthas knocked him to the ground, jumped back into the car and the pair sped away, Chief King said.

Korthas reportedly told police he beat Myers because he was upset about "breaking up" with his girlfriend.

The Northville city council had offered a $100 reward for information leading to the arrest of the guilty parties.

HOSPITAL HEADS — Congratulations were exchanged by Dr. Howard L. Bergo (left), co-owner of the Community General hospital, and Dr. V. G. Chabut as the latter examined the improvements and new facilities being installed in the former Sessions hospital. An open house is planned on September 6 before the official opening of the hospital. Dr. Chabut was recently named chief of staff.

Seek Cat for Rabbits Test

A two-year-old Northville baby may have to undergo a series of painful — sometimes harmful — anti-rabies shots unless a "yellow-reddish" cat is seen or caught by Sunday.

Douglas H. Slessor, 330 Hill, told The Record this week, that his two and one-half-year-old son, Jeffrey, must have the shots unless a stray cat which bit or scratched him is found by Sunday.

The cat escaped from a box as Slessor was about to enter the veterinary office of Thomas Heslip, corner of Seven Mile and Napier roads. Anyone who may see or have information about the young cat is asked to telephone Slessor, FI-9-2748, or Heslip, FI-9-0283.

To Open Bids Tonight For City's Water Bond

The city council will open — and award — bids for the sale of $300,000 in water system improvement bonds tonight (Thursday) at the city hall. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m.

It is expected — presuming the interest rates are acceptable — that funds to permit work to begin on the project will be available within 30 days. The entire project will take 150 to 200 days.

The council is now studying bids for installation of the water lines, hydrants and valves and for a 400,000 gallon elevated storage tank.

Councilmen must decide two per-tent points before the construction bids can be awarded:

1. Whether to permit a low bid submitted without a bid bond for the installation work to stand;
2. And which style of storage tank — the double ellipsoidal (with supporting legs) or spheroid (pedestal mounted) — to choose.

The first problem arose last week when Novi Building Service entered a bid of $94,801.83 — some $18,000 lower than the next bidder. The company failed to include a bond — required to guarantee faith of the bid — thus raising a legal question of whether the council can accept the bid.

Monday night City Attorney Philip Ogilvie stated in a legal opinion that there is no precedent in the courts covering the situation. He informed the council that it was his belief that the bond requirement could be waived, but warned that such action could bring a suit from the second low bidder, Terra Construction company of Detroit. Ogilvie further stated that the council should consider the effect that waiving of the bid bond requirement might have on future bidding in the city.

Councilmen have withheld a decision, weighing the possible saving to the taxpayer against the legal aspects. The city engineer and city manager have recommended Terra Construction, second bidder. Monday night, one week following the opening of bids, Novi Building Service had not yet submitted a bid bond, Engineer Penn reported.

The council is still pondering the selection of a storage tank. Monday night representatives of the two low-bidding companies explained the advantages of each tank. Engineer Penn has recommended the spheroid model as more economical to maintain and paint. He said that no fence would be required to guard against youngsters climbing the tank as all ladders and control equipment is housed within pedestal on which the tank is mounted. Penn also pointed to the appearance of the spheroid as a factor to consider.

The spheroid type will cost $86,790 and the double ellipsoidal $77,850.

Improvements Top $100,000

Hospital Staff Set; Plan Open House

New delays in renovation of Community General hospital (formerly Sessions) brought a sudden postponement to plans for an open house this week end.

However, the new owners — hurrying to complete improvements totaling more than $100,000 — announced definite plans for a public showing on Sunday, September 6.

At the same time announcement of the hospital's board of directors and staff of physicians was made.

Until Tuesday afternoon the open house was scheduled for Saturday afternoon for area physicians and Sunday afternoon of the general public. But last minute delays, particularly in preparing the second floor for inspection, brought about the decision to hold the opening one week later.

(See "Speaking for the Record", page 10, a column printed in an early press run before the postponement was made).

The hospital will be open for patients two or three days following the open house.

More than $100,000 has been spent during the past two months to renovate and equip the hospital to meet state hospital standards. Sessions had been virtually closed for several months prior to its sale in late June to Dr. Howard L. Bergo of Northville and Abraham Farris of Detroit.

Serving on the board of directors with Dr. Bergo and Farris will be Mrs. Bergo, Alfred Farris (a brother of the co-owner) and Dr. L. W. Snow of Northville.

The hospital staff will be headed by Dr. V. G. Chabut of Northville. Other staff officers are: Dr. J. K. Bosch, secretary-treasurer; Dr. I. L. Sparling, head of obstetrics; and Dr. Walter Hammond of Plymouth, head of surgery.

Other staff physicians as announced by Dr. Chabut include: Dr. L. M. Hotchkiss and Dr. Oscar Rosbalt of Livonia; Dr. Frederick Bentley, Dr. Ensign Clyde, Dr. Hammond, Dr. L. J. Salan, Dr. Charles Westover, of Plymouth; Dr. William Padelford of South Lyon; and from Northville, Drs. Chabut, Bosch, Sparling, Snow and H. Handorf, A. A. Holcomb and H. L. Dyer. Radiologist is Dr. Patrick Doast of Dearborn. Administrator of Community General is Calvin Monfils.

According to Monfils, equipment and physical improvements installed at the 520 West Main street building include: new x-ray unit and accessories, new surgical and delivery room suite, new bassinets, lobby and patients' room furniture, plumbing and electrical installations, conductive tiling in surgical, delivery and labor rooms and complete redecorating inside and out.

Further, the hospital has applied for a building permit to construct an addition on the second floor across the front and along the west side extending beyond the rear of present building. The addition will provide new rooms on the second floor and also bring the basement-located kitchen and laundry facilities to the main floor. Dr. Bergo has stated that the new section will be added as soon as patient demand becomes great enough.

The closing of all second floor rooms reduced the number of beds in Community General to 30. The second floor will be used for offices and storage.

Monfils stated that all personnel have been hired and the working staff numbers between 30 and 35.

To Rebuild Novi Road In Spring

Oakland county road officials this week notified the village that it plans to start rebuilding Novi road early next spring.

In a letter to the village of Novi, Robert O. Felt, chairman of the Oakland county road commission, said work would definitely start in the spring on three miles of roadway from Eight Mile road to the US-16 expressway and would be completed in the summer of 1960.

"Our plans for construction on Novi road," Felt said in explaining the postponement of earlier plans, "had to be laid aside because of the unduly heavy expenditures last winter."

"Ice forced us to postpone some of the work we had planned for this summer."

The county road commission announced plans for rebuilding Novi road — called "one of Oakland county's worst highway conditions" by road authorities — two years ago.

The chairman said Novi road will be completely torn up and its road bed will be widened. Hills will be cut down to improve sight distance and drainage will be improved.

Rebuilt Novi road will remain a two-lane road, but its 22-foot-wide surface will be of concrete — not asphalt.

Construction at the south end of the road will tie in with construction now underway on the Eight Mile cutoff around Northville.

Cutoff plans call for Novi road to be sealed off north of the C&O tracks inside the Northville city limit and for Novi-Northville traffic to be re-routed over the cutoff and down Center street into the heart of the city.

Appeal Board OK's Hospital, Clinic Expansion Plans

Northville's board of appeals granted exceptions to the city building code to four applicants but rejected another in a special meeting last week.

Applications for building permits were approved for Atchison Clinic, Community General hospital, the First Baptist church and Howard Atwood.

The board denied the appeal of the K&G Building company for permission to build houses on two lots in Northville Heights that measure less than the required 7500 square feet.

Two residents of the area, Charles McDonald and Donald Offord, both of Debra Lane, objected to the board permitting construction on the homes. McDonald said that he would not be opposed to building on the lots eventually, but that there were some 18 unsold lots within the subdivision which "should be developed first". The plat was approved by the planning commission and the city council on the statement of the developer's engineers that all lots met minimum requirements. One of the lots measures 6800 square feet and the other 7050.

The Atchison request for a building permit had apparently been turned down because a proposed $35,000 addition would require more parking space. In seeking the permit, Dr. R. M. Atchison said that adequate parking was provided. The proposed addition to the 501 West Dunlap street clinic calls for 11 new treatment rooms, an x-ray room, two waiting rooms, a diathermy room, kitchen and dining room. The addition would have two levels. No statement was made as to when construction would begin.

The Baptist church was granted permission to build an addition to within 12 feet of the rear lot line on Randolph street. The minimum under the building code in such a district is 35 feet. The addition will be 60x51 feet. The board rejected a plan submitted last spring by the church that would have taken the addition forward toward Wing street. Neighbors opposed the first plan. No objection was raised to the latest plan.

A 41x42 addition to Community General hospital (formerly Sessions) was granted, waiving the stipulation for providing additional parking. Attorney Clifton Hill, representing the hospital, pointed out that the building permit had to be obtained to satisfy state health and insurance authorities. The plan would provide for moving of laundry and kitchen facilities to ground floor level. Appeals to allow the waiver were made by Dr. L. W. Snow, Dr. J. K. Bosch and Hill. The doctors emphasized the need for the hospital, while Hill maintained laws were created for the welfare of the people — not to work a hardship.

In the final request Atwood was permitted to build a two-car garage closer to his High street house than permissible under the code.

March of Dimes Emergency Drive Gets Good Response

Northville residents gave a double dose of dimes to help fight polio this year.

Last week they responded to an emergency appeal from the March of Dimes by contributing $685.60 or close to 70 percent of what they gave this winter to the Mothers' March drive, which netted $1,061.31.

Mothers' March Chairman Mrs. Albert Leedham was surprised and delighted by the collection.

"It was just overwhelming," she said, "we just asked for cooperation, but this was more than that, we would have been grateful for two or three hundred dollars."

Worried at first that vacations would cut short her team of solicitors, Mrs. Leedham was happy to report that Northville was one of only two Wayne county communities outside Detroit, with full city-wide coverage.

She surmised that vacations probably put a slight dent in the number of residents contacted. However, she reported that most homes had been covered.

Northville also received the thanks of area and county headquarters for its "amazing" generosity.

The national March of Dimes fund had been depleted to a dangerous point by last year's polio epidemics and increased medical costs. Regular collections are held in January or February. The emergency drive was created to tide the nation over until the critical summer polio season was over. No goal had been set.

Cordis (center) of Hankinson, North Dakota, past-president of the North Dakota district.

Newcomer's Corner

"I look upon every day to be lost, in which I do not make a new acquaintance."

—Samuel Johnson

FROM COLUMBUS, OHIO are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bogart and children (l. to r.): Judy, Mike, Barbara and Tommy.

Newcomers, the Robert Bogarts of Cottisford arrived in Northville two weeks ago, though their house hasn't caught up with them yet.

It's still a hole in the ground at Whipple Estates. A homey hole in the ground, to be sure.

Meanwhile, the former Columbus, Ohio residents are camping out in an attractive ranch residence at Brookland Farms.

The Bogarts, besides Dad and Mom, Virginia, are Tommy, 12;

Barbara, 10; Judy, 7, and Mike, 2. Two furry additions to the family circle are kitten "Fluffy" and hamster "Hammy".

Tommy, a seventh grader this fall, is a model boy. His hobby is building model airplanes and boats. And keep your heads low, neighbors, his prize project, now under construction, is a model rocket with a 1,000-foot range.

The girls and their brother also like horseback riding. Judy has just started riding lessons here. She also collects china horses. Judy will be in the second grade at school this semester.

Pretty fifth-grader Barbara, collects china figurines.

Mr. Bogart, who is branch manager for Great West Life Assurance company, has degrees from Michigan State university.

Mrs. Bogart is a graduate of Mary Washington college. One of her favorite pastimes is sewing.

Nancy Describes Her Life With a German Family

Two months ago, Nancy Beard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beard of W. Eight Mile road, moved into a German family for the summer. Last June she and some 80 high school students from this area left for Europe as part of the Ann Arbor-Washenaw Council of Churches student exchange program. Her first letter to The Record tells about her adopted family.

I am living this summer as an exchange student with the Hermann Adam family in Nurnburg, Germany.

My father is a janitor in a Methodist hospital and we live in a five-story building with several other families who work at the hospital. I have four sisters: Gisela, 18; Waltraud, 17; Elisabeth, 8, and Christa, 6.

Gisela, who works for a book-publishing company in Nurnburg, is the only member of the family who speaks English, although my mother and sisters know many words and phrases by this time.

I've been learning German, though not fast enough to please me. I like the language very much.

The first few days were very strange for me, since Gisela leaves for work at 6:30 a.m. and doesn't return until 6 p.m. Therefore I was usually on my own conversationally. It's a terrible sensation, I discovered, to have people talk to you and not be able to understand even one word of what they're saying.

My mother tried so hard to talk to me that I felt almost ashamed for not being able to answer her. This started me worrying if I'd ever fit into life here. I needn't have.

Now we talk all the time — a strange mixture of German and English, helped along by hands and feet.

Life is very different here than in Northville. My German parents have no activities outside raising and caring for their children. They are also all very devoted to their religion and never miss going to church on Sunday. Gisela sings in the choir and teaches Sunday school.

Other than this, my family stays home.

My mother spends her day cleaning the house, cooking meals and shopping.

All the floors are waxed and polished every other day and at least once a week the walls, woodwork and everything else is scrubbed too.

Each day mother buys the food she will need for that day. We have a small refrigerator, but it's not big enough to hold several days' staples.

Our main meal is at noon, as it is in most German families.

It is always begun with soup and followed by potatoes, a salad, or sometimes a vegetable, meat and usually fruit or another light dessert. We eat a lot of potatoes, but not much meat. Meat portions are small and we don't get seconds. But no one ever goes from the table hungry.

For the evening meal we eat more lightly — usually salad and sandwiches, which in Germany are open-faced and often eaten with knife and fork.

The family is so wonderful that I'm really going to hate leaving them.

It's been a thrilling summer for me. I wish everyone could have shared this opportunity.

Tell Who Eats What and When At New High School Cafeteria

Sorry, kiddies.

That rumor — about having pizza every day at the new senior high school cafeteria is just so much mozzarella, according to Principal E. V. Ellison.

Outlining plans for the 240-seat eatery this week, Ellison pointed out that the daily menu will be conservative and nutritionally balanced.

This means probably one main meat dish every day, soup, salad, sandwiches and beverages, and a far cry from the selection available in a commercial cafeteria.

However, the price is right, about 30 cents for the featured meal. A la carte service will also be available. Teachers and staff members will pay a slightly higher price.

"We're not out for profit," the principal added, "we'll be lucky if we break even."

Two full-time employees will be added to the school payroll with the opening of the cafeteria: the cafeteria manager, Mrs. Harold Knapp, former manager of a Livonia elementary school cafeteria, and a head cook. Other cafeteria employees, including salad cook, baker, two cashiers and two helpers, will work part time.

For a while the facility will be open only to senior high students and staff, Ellison said. When a better picture of the operation is formed, plans will probably be made to accommodate Amerman pupils and possibly other school children.

Meals will be served in three 30-minute lunch periods during the noon hour, Ellison said. Lunch shifts have been determined by individual class schedules and the student body is divided into about three equal groups, he said.

Because of the short lunch hour, Ellison added, probably few students will find time to eat at home. However, he said, the cafeteria will be open also to those who wish to bring their own lunches. No attempt will be made to force students to buy their meals at school.

Teachers will eat in the faculty lunch room.

GOD'S PLAN OF SALVATION
God's desire since the fall of man into sin has been to deliver him from such a condition.
For a man to be in sin simply means that his life, his physical and spiritual body is not under the control and direction of God's mind and will. "He is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be". He goes about to establish his own righteousness and has not submitted himself unto the righteousness of God by faith. This means that he controls or attempts to control his life and the movements of his physical body by the decisions of his own mind. He is not subject to God's will or God's action in and through him. He says, "We will go into a certain city and buy and sell and get gain, whereas he ought to say if the LORD WILLS we will do this or that". In his own mind or will he is a sinner. He misses the mark of God's righteousness. He comes short of the Glory of God. Death, the wages or result of such a course is his end.
Jesus came into this world to reveal to us a way of escape. He had a physical body which by reason of his physical birth was under the control, within certain limits, of the decisions of his own mind. But he refused to control his life and physical body in that way. He said, "I do nothing of myself. The atter that dwellth in me He doeth the works." In other words his life and the movements of his body did not reveal the decisions of his own mind, but revealed the "Will of Him that sent him." In that way he was truly, "God manifest in the flesh", for he did not manifest his own will or the decisions of his own mind but rather the will and decisions of his Father in heaven.

Christ demonstrated to and for the whole world — every intelligent being — that a person could be in this world and yet not be "OF IT" — not be conformed to the world — which means not to control your life and the movements of your physical body by the decisions of your own mind and will as others in this world do.

The Apostle Paul said, "I beseech you therefore brethren by the mercies of God that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, wholly, acceptable unto God — present your bodies to be controlled by God's mind and will instead of your own. This is acceptable unto God, and your reasonable service."

It is not reasonable for you to control your own body by the decisions of your own mind in an attempt to serve God when He stands ready to accept the responsibility of controlling your body as you present it to him for such service.

"And be not conformed to this world but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind — (Our minds need to be renewed in surrender to God's mind). That ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God."

In other words as you stand aside and relinquish your own control of your life and observe what God does with your body that is placed in his hands to be controlled by him you will prove (find out) what is good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God.

This is God's plan of salvation. To believe in Christ means to believe in and practice what he revealed. Are you a believer?

A.Y.H. Offers Comfort 'Outdoors'

An often glossed over national organization, which is of particular importance to outdoor lovers in the Northville-Novl area, is currently celebrating its 25th birthday.

According to Miss Lucille Heavner, member of the AYH Metropolitan Detroit Council, residents in this area are "right next door" to a AYH building program that is attracting national attention.

Hosteling's big project locally is the building of the first council-owned and operated Youth Hostel in the United States at Kensington Metropolitan park.

Now nearly completed, the Hostel is located on five and one-half scenic acres near the park. Named the Foote Hostel, after Mrs. Anna Elizabeth Foote, who for many years was an active leader in youth activities near Milford, it will provide year-round heated sleeping and washroom facilities for 26 girls in one section, 26 boys in the other.

The main building, overlooking Kent lake, will house a large recreation-dining area and fully equipped kitchen. When completed, this hostel will be available to youth organizations, church groups, scouts and school camping classes.

According to Miss Heavner, the youth hostel is the backbone of the AYH program. Often the hostel is simple overnight accommodations located at a school, camp, church, community center or farmhouse, she explained.

What is AYH?

The American Youth Hostel movement is dedicated to a practical understanding and appreciation of nature and of how people live, the Willowbrook woman said.

It is a non-profit, non-sectarian, non-political corporation organized for charitable and educational purposes.

"The purpose of the AYH is to develop healthy, happy, self-reliant, well-informed, community-minded and world-minded citizens; and to further good will among people of all lands by providing especially for youth, the inexpensive, educational and recreational outdoor and travel opportunities of hosting — through travel primarily by bicycle, canoe and on foot along scenic forest trails, byways and waterways, and to places of historic and cultural interest in America abroad."

Hosteling was initiated in 1934 in Northfield, Massachusetts by Isabel and Monroe Smith, former school teachers and scout leaders. The first AYH hostel had accommodations for 60 people and, by this year — the silver anniversary year — AYH had grown to 90 over night hostel facilities throughout the country.

An integral part of American Youth Hostels is the Metropolitan Detroit Council of AYH, one of 18 such councils spanning the United States. It is the only AYH Council in Michigan.

Its board of trustees includes leading citizens and business executives of the Detroit area.

Membership, according to Miss Heavner, is limited to persons between the ages of 4 and 94. In other words, she said, everyone is welcome to participate. "Anyone in this area, who loves the outdoors and would like to join in our fun, may call me for more information. My telephone number is GR-4-1523."

Slash Duck Season To Offset Drought

Michigan's 1959 duck hunting season has been slashed from 70 to 40 days as a result of the severe drought which hit the major duck producing provinces of Canada earlier this year.

An October 7-November 15 duck season was adopted this week by the Conservation Commission which set the state's waterfowl seasons and limits within a framework of federal regulations.

Although bag limits will remain unchanged for ducks in general at four per day and eight in possession, there will be notable changes in kill quotas of species.

Hunters may have only one canvasback, or one red head, or one ruddy duck in the bag or in possession. Last year, two canvasbacks or two redheads, or one of each, were allowed in the daily bag while the possession limit was four canvasbacks and redheads, singly or combined.

Keep Those Legs Limber

"Keep your eyes open and your legs ready."

That's the advice of Coach Chuck Yahne for Northville high school boys who wish to participate in cross-country competition this fall.

The coach said he isn't sure yet just when practice will begin for this new fall sport at the high school, but he indicated a schedule would be released soon.

"Cross-country is new here — I don't believe they have ever had it in the past," Yahne said. "It's ideal for those students who like to run but do not like football."

Yahne, who last year coached the high school track team, will devote all his coaching time to cross-country this fall.

Popular Singer Starts Business

Popular radio singer Fred Kendall is listening to a new kind of music these days.

The hum of a bowling ball rolling down an alley and the quiet clatter of an automatic pin setter caught his fancy — so Fred had a brand new bowling alley built in his home town of South Lyon.

Now Fred is a genial bowling alley proprietor who listens to the hum and clatter by day and sings for his supper in the evening.

Called Woodside Lanes, the bowling establishment is located just south of the South Lyon city limits on Pontiac trail.

The 130x66 brick and concrete block building contains eight alleys, complete Brunswick automatic pin setters, office, vestibule, locker room and lavatories.

Features include forced air hand-driers — replacing old fashioned towels, lockers for men and women, air conditioning, large parking area and a complete line of bowling balls and equipment.

Open bowling is regularly scheduled on all week ends. The lanes are open after 9 p.m. Fridays, and from 2 p.m. to closing on Saturdays and Sundays.

Offer Free Bowling Clinic

Northville Lanes will host a free Detroit News - sponsored AMF bowling clinic tomorrow at 2 p.m., Manager Angelo Gadioli announced this week.

The free bowling clinic is a two-hour show consisting of three major elements:

Bowling primer — 45-minute lecture and color slide presentation with demonstrations by star bowlers.

Prizes and questionnaires — 15-minute segment to award free AMF bowling prizes and time for completion of questionnaires.

Personal instruction — 60-minutes of free bowling with personal instruction by AMF star bowlers and house instructors.

Star bowlers for the clinic here include Ed Lubanski, Bill Bunetta, Frank Clause, Olga Gloor, Marge Merrick, Anita Cantaline, June Llewellyn, Pat McBride and Carmen Balvino.

1959 Pheasant Kill To Dip Below Million

Conservation department game men expect this fall's pheasant kill in Michigan to dip below the one million mark for the first time since 1952.

Their kill estimate of around 900,000 birds is based on ringneck production which suffered a noticeable drop throughout the state this year, according to brood surveys completed early this month by rural mail carriers.

IS THERE SALVATION
APART FROM BAPTISM?

G. M.

The greatest mistake that anyone can make is to add something to repentance and faith as a requirement for salvation. It is not faith plus good works, faith plus confession, faith plus the sacraments, faith plus church membership. It is faith in Jesus Christ plus nothing, that saves. In the New Testament in about 115 passages the salvation of the sinner is declared to be dependent only on believing. The merits of Christ's death do not come upon us through the holy waters of baptism, but through faith in the finished work of Christ. There are such passages as Mark 16:15 and Acts 2:38 which might lead one, who isolates certain verses from the rest of Scripture, to believe that baptism is a joint condition. However in studying any subject, the truth always runs as a straight line through it without contradiction. The experience of Apostle Peter at the house of Cornelius supports this claim. Acts 10, verses 44-48. Here the Gentiles heard the Gospel, believed it and received the Holy Spirit (the evidence of true conversion), before they were ever baptized. This one instance alone should be sufficient to prove that salvation is apart from baptism.

READERS SPEAK:

Says City Status
No Good for Novi

To the Editor:

A very important election is rapidly approaching for the residents of the Village of Novi. The results of which can have a very far reaching effect on all of our pocketbooks.

The question is: "Do we want a city?" I, for one, will have to answer NO.

In evaluating the merits of various forms of government, Township, Village or City I picked up my recent village tax receipt and tried to analyze it objectively.

When I first moved out to this area I checked into the local government, the school system and this area's potential future. All three looked excellent so I bought my home and settled down to some real country living. It didn't last long. A majority of the residents were sold on taking over the burden of a little more government thus supposedly protecting Novi's boundaries after Wixom had absconded with our biggest tax plum. A little like locking the barn door after the horse is gone.

A year of village rule is almost up. I would like every citizen of Novi to jot down all the extras you are receiving under village rule that you weren't getting under township rule. Pretty difficult isn't it? In fact I keep coming up with less service.

Obviously something must be wrong with my figuring. I certainly couldn't have just paid that additional tax for less service, this just doesn't make good sense. The real shocker comes when I hear that in spite of this extra tax money the village is still running deeper in the red.

Now this same group of people who have been having such difficult financial problems in running our village seem to feel that city status is the cure all. I'm afraid there will be a lot of rude awakenings if a city is thrust upon us.

More tax money will have to be raised to take care of additional services required as a city. This of course is over and above our recently increased school and county taxes plus the village taxes we are just trying to get acclimated to.

READY BY OCTOBER — Only the approaches to the new Grand River bridge over the Huron river near Kent lake remain to be completed before cars will be able to travel from Brighton to Farmington without using the expressway. The bridge is expected to be opened for traffic in October — several weeks before the contract deadline. Grand River merchants spurred the state highway department into building the new bridge after the old bridge was adapted for expressway use.

I'm sorry but I will just have to vote NO to city incorporation on September 15.

Sincerely,
George F. Merwin

Need School Bus Drivers
Senior High Principal Says

School Transportation Director Principal E. V. Ellison has just joined the "It never rains but pours" club.

Job transfers and moves from the community have suddenly left him short of school bus drivers for the coming year.

Women as well as men are eligible for the jobs, he said. No bus or truck driving experience is required. Any experienced adult driver under 65 years of age may apply. Work hours vary from about two to four, depending on the particular run.

A bus will also be available to transport students from the high school to Cass Benton park for sports work-outs, he said.

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO ...

Although taxes in the Northville school district will be increased this year, taxpayers might gain some solace from the fact that the boost is not as great as predicted. In a special budget meeting held last Thursday the school board approved a general fund budget of $668,043 plus debt retirement payments for 1958-59 of $174,331.97.

Five candidates for the proposed Novi village council tossed their hats into the ring this week.

The five are: J. Philip Anderson, Burt Fisher, Leo Harrawood, Dicon Tafraian and Walter Tuck.

Flooded basements brought residents of six different homes on Carpenter and Horton streets to the city council meeting with protests Monday night.

Three Detroit men learned Tuesday that Bob-O-Link golf course is no place to hunt for birds of that name or any other.

The three were caught prowling around the course with .22 caliber rifles.

FIVE YEARS AGO ...

The best interests of the citizens of Northville would be served through adoption of a city form of government, a special committee reported to the village commission Monday night.

Northville's First Presbyterian church, the oldest Protestant church building in the Detroit area, is approaching the completion of its extended restoration program.

Oil has been struck in a third well in the Northville area, it was revealed Wednesday.

Because of the shortage of classrooms in Northville the village commission Monday evening granted the Northville school board permission to utilize the present boy scout building at Dunlap and Rayson streets.

Two members of Detroit families, both children, drowned in Walled Lake Sunday when the overcrowded boat in which they were enjoying an outing was swamped by a large wave.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO ...

The Northville Record received a report that Staff Sergeant Essie Nirider and Marine Pfc. William J. Sutton were wounded in action. Nirider was wounded in France and Sutton was wounded in action at Guam.

Three Northville young people were to attend the Presbyterian summer conference at Clear Lake Monday. The delegates were Shirley Ely, Mary Ellen Babbitt and Blake Couse.

Two fires in the latter part of the week made things pretty hot out on West Seven Mile road. On Thursday evening fire leveled three buildings and damaged two buildings on the Starkweather farm, and Friday a grass fire threatened buildings on the Van Sickle place.

The Northville Community Service Ration office in the village hall will not be open August 22 and August 25.

Mrs. Hadley Bachert received a letter this week from her husband who is with the U.S. Army, telling of his receipt of the Purple Heart for wounds received in action in the European theatre of war last June.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO ...

The Northville Wolverine, leaders of the Triple A league, added another victory to their ever-growing string by defeating Plymouth Motors here Sunday, 3 to 2, and are ready to take on DeSoto, one of the strongest teams in the league, at Navin field in Detroit.

It is but a short cry to the football season and Coach Ted Watts and three of his fighting Orange and Black gridiron players will begin training for next week way up in Wisconsin.

The coach, Capt. Eddie Bender, blunzing fullback; Dayton Deal, another halfback, whose speciality is passing, and Irvin Marburger, head field general, will leave Saturday.

Politics is in the air! The campaign is well under way! And Northville people are especially looking forward to the primary election September 11 because one of their honored citizens, Dr. L. W. Snow, former village president, is one of the foremost contenders for the office of Wayne county coroner.

Opening the activities of Young People's Week at Salem Federated church, Russell M. Atchison, senior medical student at the University of Michigan, addressed the congregation Sunday morning.

In addition to the regular tournament games at the Northville Wayne County Fair, a high spot in this year's baseball program will be an exhibition contest between Harry German's Old Timers and the Northville American Legion team.

CHECKING OVER SCORES on one of Camp Davaja's olympics score boards were (l. to r.) Paul West, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton West of Connemara road; John Miller, II, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of Napier road, and Tom Wright, son of Mrs. Lawrence Wright of Fairway drive. Local Reservists at McCoy

An Army Reserve Ordnance battalion drawing its men from more than 20 villages and cities in Michigan began two weeks' annual active duty training at Camp McCoy, Wisconsin last week.

The 406th Ordnance Battalion, commanded by Maj. Howard P. Fox of Ann Arbor, where it is headquartered, brought to this post specialists of many types from all parts of the state. Represented are the 831st Stock Control and the 906th Stock Accounting Detachments of Hastings, and the 366th Vehicle Park Company of Grand Rapids. Both of these units are satellites of the 406th.

Other personnel of the 406th have reported in from Detroit, Dearborn, Royal Oak, Flint, Ypsilanti, Northville, Plymouth and other points in southern Michigan. Even Marquette in the Upper Peninsula is represented.

The battalion's total active duty strength is 27 officers and warrant officers and 125 enlisted men. Among the group are three from Northville: Sergeant Ralph C. Parris, Specialist Fourth Class James M. Allen and Private First Class Darwin R. Teshka.

The Reservists will be engaged primarily in on-the-job training, during which time the specialists in ordnance activities will develop further their military functions. They will, for example, work in arms and vehicle repair shops on the post, in administrative and supply offices, and in teletype operations. A principal activity will be that of assisting post ordnance in military maintenance.

*miles per gallon

one of 7 big bests Chevrolet gives you over any car in its field

Proof that Chevy delivers the most miles from a gallon comes from an indisputable source: this year's Mobilgas Economy Run. For a pair of Chevrolet sixes with Powerglide walked away with the first two places in their class — got top mileage, in fact, of any full-sized car. Over the Run's long, rugged course, over mountain and desert in the long, long haul from Los Angeles to Kansas City, the winning Chevrolet averaged a whopping 22.38 miles per gallon. That's the kind of economy-engineering that keeps you saving while you drive!

BEST STYLE—It's the only car of the leading low-priced 3 that's unmistakably modern in every line. "In its price class," says POPULAR SCI-ENCE magazine, "a new high in daring styling."

BEST BRAKES—In competitive tests of repeated stops from highway speeds, conducted by NASCAR*, Chevy outstepped both of the "other two." Naturally—Chevy brakes with bonded linings are far larger, built to lengthen brake life by up to 66%.

BEST TRADE-IN—Look at the record—the used car prices in any N.A.D.A.† Guide Book. You'll find that Chevy used car prices last year averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the "other two."

BEST ENGINE—Chevrolet engines have long won expert praise and, just recently, Chevrolet received the NASCAR Outstanding Achievement award for "the creation and continuing development of America's most efficient V-type engines."

BEST ROOM—Official dimensions reported to A.M.A.‡ make this abundantly clear. Chevy front seat hip room, for instance, is as much as 5.9 inches wider than in comparable cars.

BEST RIDE—MOTOR TREND magazine names Chevy "... the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." But this is one Chevy feature you really should discover for yourself, at your Chevrolet dealer's. Stop by soon!

SPEAKING for the Record

by BILL SLIGER

Next week Northville will have a hospital again.

Since the closing of Sessions hospital several months ago the community has been without the facility which had been a source of pride for so many years.

The realization that Sessions was operating on its last legs was cause for concern to many area physicians and residents who had depended upon its use. An effort was started by Dr. L. W. Snow to purchase the hospital and have it operated as a community-owned property.

In the course of these plans Dr. Howard Bergo, a Northville resident who owns and operates Maybury Grand hospital in Detroit, entered the picture and offered to purchase Sessions outright.

The result has been a complete renovation costing far more than $100,000.

The newly-named Community General hospital has been completely redecorated. It has been reduced to a 30-bed hospital eliminating all use of unapproved second floor facilities. New equipment in virtually every area of the hospital has brought it up to standards that have won state health department and Blue Cross insurance approval.

The work of Dr. Bergo and his administrator, Calvin Monfils, has brought high words of praise from the doctors who will use the hospital.

Dr. George Chabur, who has been named chief of staff, has praised the renovation as a "remarkably fine job of providing for patient welfare as well as physician accommodation."

After this week end Community General will close for two days to "clean-up" after the public inspection. It will open again for regular use on Wednesday.

The new owners, Dr. Bergo and Abraham Farris, have indicated that as operations develop and demand for more bed space is apparent an addition will be constructed. Plans have already been approved that will provide more beds on the second floor and bring laundry and kitchen facilities from the basement to a new section on the rear of the hospital.

Even with the opening of the new St. Mary hospital in Livonia this winter, our area is badly in need of hospital accommodations.

The opening of Community General next Wednesday is good news to all residents of our area. Everyone should take a few moments to visit the hospital this Sunday and see what has been done to provide our community with a modern hospital that may someday be just that "few minutes closer" that can save a life or prevent unnecessary suffering.

Roger Babson

Furniture Investing

Babson Park, Mass. — Many of my readers will be visiting their old homesteads during the summer. I urge them to go up into the attic and see what it contains in the way of discarding furniture. There may be something of value which was brought from New England by your grandparents or great-grandparents.

Story of a Poor Teacher

When I first met Miss Helen Temple Cooke she had borrowed $1,000 to start a small private school for girls in Wellesley, Mass., which she named "Dana Hall". Around that time I started a small school for boys in Wellesley. Miss Cooke and I became very good friends, helping each other in many ways. She came to me one day and asked if I had any ideas about investments for a "poor school teacher". She added that she had been thinking of buying old furniture, of the proper period, believing that this would gradually become more valuable. I agreed that her plan seemed wise. Thereupon she started to put her savings of a few hundred dollars a year into carefully selected old mahogany furniture secured from old attics, auction rooms, and wherever she could find something which could be properly restored.

Some two years ago Miss Cooke passed on to a better world and left this furniture to Dana Hall (which has become a very well known institution). As the school is now raising money for new buildings the trustees have decided to auction off this old furniture and other treasures — for which Dana Hall should get around $100,000.

Stuffed Furniture of No Value

The fact that a thing is old does not necessarily make it valuable. Stuffed furniture — however old — is of little value; old books, in general, sell at auction for perhaps 20c each; and old pictures have little value. But if the furniture is made of mahogany and is of the right period, it makes little difference how badly it may be broken. An antique dealer can usually replace a missing part.

Another thing to look for is old glass. Unfortunately, copies have been made by modern glass makers which are now sold in the dime stores. Almost every grandmother, however, has a few pieces of actual Sandwich glass. A set of half a dozen of these goblets should be valuable even if your grandmother is still using them in her kitchen.

Certain kinds of old-fashioned jewelry have a good market, but such items should be appraised by an accredited jeweler. Any diamonds acquired over 50 years ago would have to be recut in order to be salable today. Old gold and silver, however, always have a value, selling by weight. An antique dealer is usually interested also in old brooches even if they did not cost much at the time. Modern costume jewelers have not copied all of these brooches because of the labor involved.

Stamp Collections May Have Value

Many young people collect postage stamps. I saw an album the other day which had only two stamps of any worth out of a collection of five thousand, but these two stamps are valued at several hundred dollars each. Foreign stamps are not often worth much. The World Wars have upset foreign countries; furthermore, some of the newer countries are constantly printing new issues in order to sell them to collectors, and this disturbs the foreign stamp market.

I advise interested young people to confine their collection to U.S. stamps. Old letters found in attics may have some old United States stamps on them that could be sold at a good price to an honest dealer. Probably your public library has a stamp catalogue which will give you a price quotation for each of these U.S. stamps.

What Causes Inflation?

The government can always print more money. Therefore money in the bank or elsewhere is not a good hedge against inflation as it may become slowly but constantly of less value. An inflation hedge should be something whose supply cannot be increased — such as oceanfront property and underground resources. The same principle applies to old mahogany furniture, Sandwich glass and old U.S. postage stamps. This is a good test to apply when buying anything for your home.

A STEADY effort is underway to guarantee the food purchaser that she gets her money's worth of wholesome products. Key people in this campaign are 59 food inspectors in the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Basic inspections conducted by this crew involve checking of scales used to measure fruit, meats and vegetables; checking to see that such products are accurately labeled as to weight and grade; checking sanitary conditions in the store or restaurant where food is served.

While it is realized that most food outlets are operated by honest people, trying to run their businesses according to law, it is also apparent that there are also those merchants who need to be kept in line by the knowledge that a state inspector may call any time. And the thought of such inspections reduce chances that the latter type merchant will take unfair advantage of the legitimate store-keeper by bending or breaking the law.

For example, records of the state agriculture department for May show that 11,969 packages were reweighed to check the accuracy of the label. While 9,724 packages contained as much or more than was represented, 2,245, almost 19 percent, were short. These were boiled down to 79 arrests for violation of which 77 resulted in conviction.

During May 10, 127 weighing and measuring devices were checked. While 9,039 proved to be accurate, 1,088, about 10 percent were in need of adjustment.

During the same month 16 official sanitary notices were served upon proprietors ordering them to correct filthy conditions.

The state inspection service which shows that most merchants do give full measure, is also ready to check complaints from people who think they have received less than they paid for. Such reports are received at the Department of Agriculture in Lansing, and relayed to field inspectors in the appropriate district for investigation.

IT'S ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE to see modern earth moving equipment at work building highways without wanting a closer look.

Plans for Michigan's Highway Week include the chance for everyone to inspect such dramatic machinery at close quarters.

County road commissions and dealers in road building equipment will be requested to hold open houses during the October 4-10 observance. There will also be tours of construction projects. The public will learn about the importance of a good street and highway system from newspaper stories, radio and television programs, billboards, placards, and by other means.

Michigan Highway Week is sponsored by the Michigan Good Roads Federation and the Michigan Highway Users and is, naturally enough, receiving cooperation from the state highway department.

The week will emphasize the value of a better road system, but the real glory of modern highways can be appreciated best when one drives along a recently completed road and remembers for comparison's sake how slow and congested was the inadequate pavement the new system replaced.

MORE THAN a quarter million dollars in advertising space was donated by newspapers of Michigan in a one year campaign to develop a closer understanding between industry and the people in local communities.

The 26th advertising message appeared this month in most of the 319 newspapers in the state which took part in the campaign. Ads were quarter page in size and featured several themes, including the following: an industry is an advantage to the community where it is located; an industry has a responsibility to the community where it is; an understanding, cooperative attitude by individual people in the community is of great value in attracting new industry; organized planning to provide for normal industrial needs makes a better community.

Millions of readers were contacted by these messages, which were scheduled to appear twice a month. Ideas for copy and art came from the Industrial Promotion Committee of the Michigan Press Association, which met with officials of the Michigan Department of Economic Development. The organization and MPA were listed as sponsors of the ads in conjunction with each publication.

More than 80 percent of the state's newspapers pledged space to this campaign. The list included the largest and the smallest newspapers; both daily and weekly.

Editors reported appreciative response from people in their communities. Hundreds of letters and personal conversations demonstrated local interest. There was great interest displayed from other states, and the Economic Development office received numerous requests for the entire series of ads.

Participating newspapers received personal letters of commendation from Don Pears, Speaker of the house, and a resolution of appreciation was passed in both the Senate and House.

The campaign came at a time when Michigan was receiving much bad publicity as a state where industry is not appreciated or treated fairly and was a graphic demonstration that such reports were over-emphasized.

NOTES

Sealed bids for the purchase of tax anticipation notes of Northville Public Schools School District, Michigan, of the par value of $188,000.00 will be received by the undersigned at Board of Education Offices, Northville, Michigan until 8:00 o'clock P.M., Eastern Standard Time, on the 8th day of September, 1959, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read.

The notes will be dated September 1, 1959, will mature June 1, 1960 and will bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding 4 1/2% per annum. Both principal and interest will be payable at such place as may be agreed upon with the purchaser. Denominations and form of notes to be at the option of the purchaser. Accrued interest to date of delivery of such notes must be paid by the purchaser at the time of delivery.

Said Note or notes shall be subject to redemption prior to maturity in inverse numerical order at par and accrued interest on the first day of any month prior to maturity thereof, upon fifteen (15) days' notice served upon the holder or holders thereof, or published in a newspaper or publication circulated in the State of Michigan, which carries as a part of its regular service notices of the sale of municipal bonds.

For the purpose of awarding the notes the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the notes from October 1, 1959 to their maturity and deducting therefrom any premium. The notes will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the Northville Public Schools. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the notes or at a price less than their par value will be considered.

The loan is in anticipation of the Operating Tax due and payable December 1, 1959.

Envelopes containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposal for Notes".

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of 2% of the par value of the notes, drawn up on an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Treasurer of Northville Public Schools must accompany each bid as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder. Checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of the purchaser's attorney approving the legality of the notes, to be secured at the purchaser's expense. The purchaser shall furnish notes ready for execution at his expense. Notes will be delivered at such place as may be agreed upon with the purchaser.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

Possible Safe Crack Studied by Police

Northville police are investigating what appeared to be attempted larceny or attempted safe cracking Saturday night at the D&C store on Main street.

Around 10:30 Saturday night a patrolman discovered the back door of the store open. Manager Fred Kester was called and after an examination of the main floor, the door was locked. It is not known whether the door was left open accidentally Saturday evening or opened later by a prowler, it was reported.

Sunday, after Kester returned to investigate with police, they found a pin removed from the safe door, bars removed from the inside of a back window, an office desk drawer pried open and a set of keys missing. "This doesn't seem to be a break-in, since there are no signs of forced entry from the outside," Chief Eugene King declared.

King surmised that someone entered by the door and left before police arrived or hid until the door was locked.
