

Money Still Tight; Schools See Relief

Last month when the Northville school board moved to borrow some $188,000 against December taxes, the school district had come to the end of its rope as far as more present borrowing was concerned.

Covering some $50,000 a month in running expenses which include teachers' salaries, maintenance, and debt payment, the $188,000 was expected to last about three months. This week a glimmer of a financial upswing appeared with passage of the state budget, which provides a gross of $15 per pupil increase in state aid to school children.

State aid to Northville schools came to some $300,000 last year at $190 gross per pupil.

After millage deduction — 3 3/4 mills applied to state equalized valuation of the school district — and deductions for state primary allotments the total increase this year for Northville should come to a net $8,000-$9,000 or about $6 per pupil, Superintendent Russell H. Amerman said. Overall, deductions total more than $100,000 or about $60,000 in state aid and $45,000-$50,000 in primary money.

Deductible millage on state aid is up 1/2 mill over the 1958-59 figure.

However, benefit of the state aid measure is still doubtful, hinging on Supreme Court approval of the proposed tax plan.

The $8,000-$9,000 state aid increase is not expected to change earlier plans for the Northville school budget, according to Amerman.

"I'm trying hard to build up a little surplus for June to help cover summer expenses," he said.

Bids for the sale of $188,000 in tax anticipation notes will be opened at a special meeting of the board September 8.

New Tax Bothers Merchants More Than Customers

While the state digs in for a battle to determine whether its new 4 percent sales (use) tax is legal or not, local retailers are humming right along collecting the additional one percent with little trouble.

Roy Stone, president of the Northville Merchants association, said that he has heard few complaints from customers.

"The merchants are having the most trouble," said Stone. The schedule is too confusing," Stone pointed out that tax on the second dollar doesn't follow the same "bracket" as the first dollar. "We have to memorize eight brackets," he complained.

The schedule that retailers are using is as follows:

- 0-16c—no tax
- 17-37c—1c
- 38-51c—2c
- 52-77c—3c
- 78-112c—4c
- 113-137c—5c
- 138-162c—6c
- 163-187c—7c
- 188-212c—8c

Letters from the Wills' in Alaska

'Sometimes I get Homesick... But It's Just as We Dreamed'

EDITOR'S NOTE: A young Northville couple and their three small children warmed hearts and stirred up the adventurous spirit of many area residents when they announced last winter they were moving to Alaska with the now famous "Fifty Niners" caravan. After arriving in Alaska, the Jerre Wills family parted company with the caravan and moved their trailer to Clam Gulch preparatory to securing land upon which to homestead. Earlier this summer they found themselves an "ideal" plot of ground and began the tedious job of clearing the land.

Below are excerpts from the latest three letters from Mrs. Wills to Mrs. Perry Taylor, 340 Pennell.

JUNE 15, 1959:

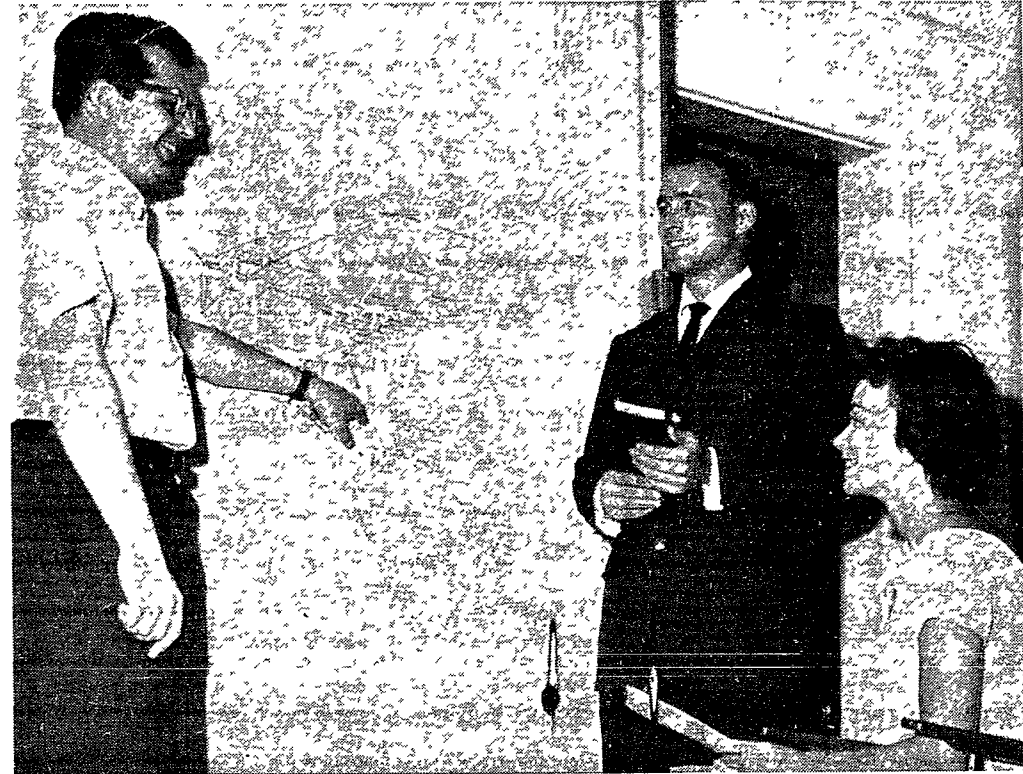

"First I want to tell you we have moved to Kaslof, Alaska. It's 15 miles from Clam Gulch (near Anchorage). We are parked on the side of a very nice lake and it's very pretty and quiet here — except for the birds. Jerre has filed on 80 acres of land, one-half mile back off the road.

"We'll have the most beautiful land in the whole state of Alaska. It is all high ground with large, straight birch and spruce. And it has a large sand-bottom lake near which we intend to build our house. But we can only wait and pray that we get it — for it is just what we had in mind in our dreams of our homestead in Alaska.

"Jerre is out fighting fire at Coopers landing south of Anchorage. This fire started last Wednesday, so it has a good start, although I haven't heard anything about it. Jerre left this morning. He will eat and sleep there until the fire is out.

"I'm already lonesome. It's real quiet, the girls (Cheryl 4, Susan 3, and Laurie Beth 1) are in bed for the night. I just noticed that the sky is clouding up. If it rains it surely will help put out the fire.

"Sometimes in the evening I think about back home in Michigan and I get very homesick for our church and friends. But we hope to have our home up here built soon and we have already made so many wonderful new friends — although the old ones can never be forgotten."

OFF FOR JAMAICA — While the rest of us are going about our normal duties next week Charles Dickinson and his sister, Lillian, of 333 Yerkes, will be enjoying an all-expense paid vacation in Jamaica. Charles was the winner of the grand prize offered by Northville merchants in the Downs Days promotion in June. A bachelor, he finally decided to treat his sister to the other half of the "trip for two". And, as you can see, she's happy about the whole idea. They're shown above getting details on the trip from Kurt Thrun (left), owner of Travel Centre in Plymouth, who is making all arrangements. Charles and Lillian will leave at 1:30 a.m. Sunday from Willow Run and arrive in Jamaica by noon Sunday after switching planes in Miami. They'll motor from the airport in Jamaica some 120 miles to the Arwak hotel where Thrun has assured them a week of gay entertainment.

Novi Residents Study Issues For September 15 City Vote

With the September 15 election less than two weeks away, election activities move into high gear this week with announcements of three upcoming meetings to air the incorporation question.

The first meeting, sponsored by the West Shore association, will take place at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the community building.

Members and guests will discuss informally the pros and cons of city incorporation.

Next Tuesday the Willowbrook association will sponsor a public panel discussion following the organization's first business meeting of the year. The discussion will begin at 8:30 p.m. in the community building. The panel will consist of the 17 candidates for the city charter commission.

A University of Michigan expert on metropolitan area problems will air the theoretical and practical aspects of city incorporation here September 11 to wrap up a three-meeting series sponsored by the incorporation committee.

Dr. William H. Gable will speak at the public meeting to be conducted at the Orchard Hills auditorium beginning at 8 p.m. When Novi voters go to the polls September 15 they will be asked to settle two proposals and elect nine city charter commissioners.

First, they must decide whether or not the village of Novi should be incorporated as a city.

The earliest Novi could become a city then would be in early 1960.

The incorporation question calls for a city without change of present village boundaries. The city would exclude the Northville Estates and Brookland Farms subdivisions located in Novi township but not in the village.

The second proposal asks the voters to approve or disapprove a village ordinance, which changed 120 acres of Nine Mile property from an agricultural to an industrial classification.

The candidates for the city charter commission are:

James Mitchell, Jack Crawford, Leo Harrawood, Arthur Heslip, Frank Watz, Herbert Dryer, David Fried, Clifford Farrington, Sanford Sawyer, Orlo Johns, Dean Lenheiser, Herbert Koester, Joseph Crupi, Bert Fisher, John Kubeck, Russell But-ton and Dirk Groenberg.

Still Hunt Cat That Bit Youngster

Little Jeffrey, 1 1/2, started his anti-rabies shots this week.

But his father, Douglas Slessor of 330 Hill, is still hoping the cat that bit Jeffrey will be found so that he will not have to continue the painful series.

The stray cat, described by Slessor as yellow and white, bit or scratched Jeffrey last week. While Slessor was delivering the cat to Veterinarian Thomas Heslip, the cat escaped. The animal was last seen in the Seven Mile-Napier road area.

If the cat is seen alive, the series of shots can be discontinued. Anyone having information about the "yellowish-white" stray cat, please call Slessor, FI-9-2748 or Heslip, FI-9-0283.

Everything Ready For Water Project

Planners Set Hearing For Zoning Changes

A public hearing has been called for September 15 by the Northville planning commission to designate zoning classifications to four parcels of land in the northern section of the city recently annexed from Novi.

The planners' recommendations have not met with 100 percent agreement from surrounding residents and property owners, however.

Specifically, three parcels are located between the C&O railroad and the D&R Building company's Yerkes Estates. The developers have asked that the northern-most parcel — some 3.75 acres — be zoned C-1 (commercial), but planners have suggested M-1 (light industry).

They argue that this prevents diverting business from the downtown district. Merchants have indicated support of this idea.

Planners have suggested zoning a 2.5 acre parcel north of the city's well site C-1 and a 2.3 acre parcel on the south of the well site M-1.

Some residents of the subdivision have indicated they fear M-1 zoning because it might hurt property values.

The fourth parcel also belongs to D&R. It is being changed from R-1 to R-1-S zoning providing for larger lots (minimum 80 feet wide). It lies east of North Center and just north of Maplewood.

The hearing will be held before the nine-member planning commission at 8 p.m. in the city hall.

If approved by the planners, the measure would then go to the city council for public hearing and final okay.

Toddlers Start Fire In Vacant House

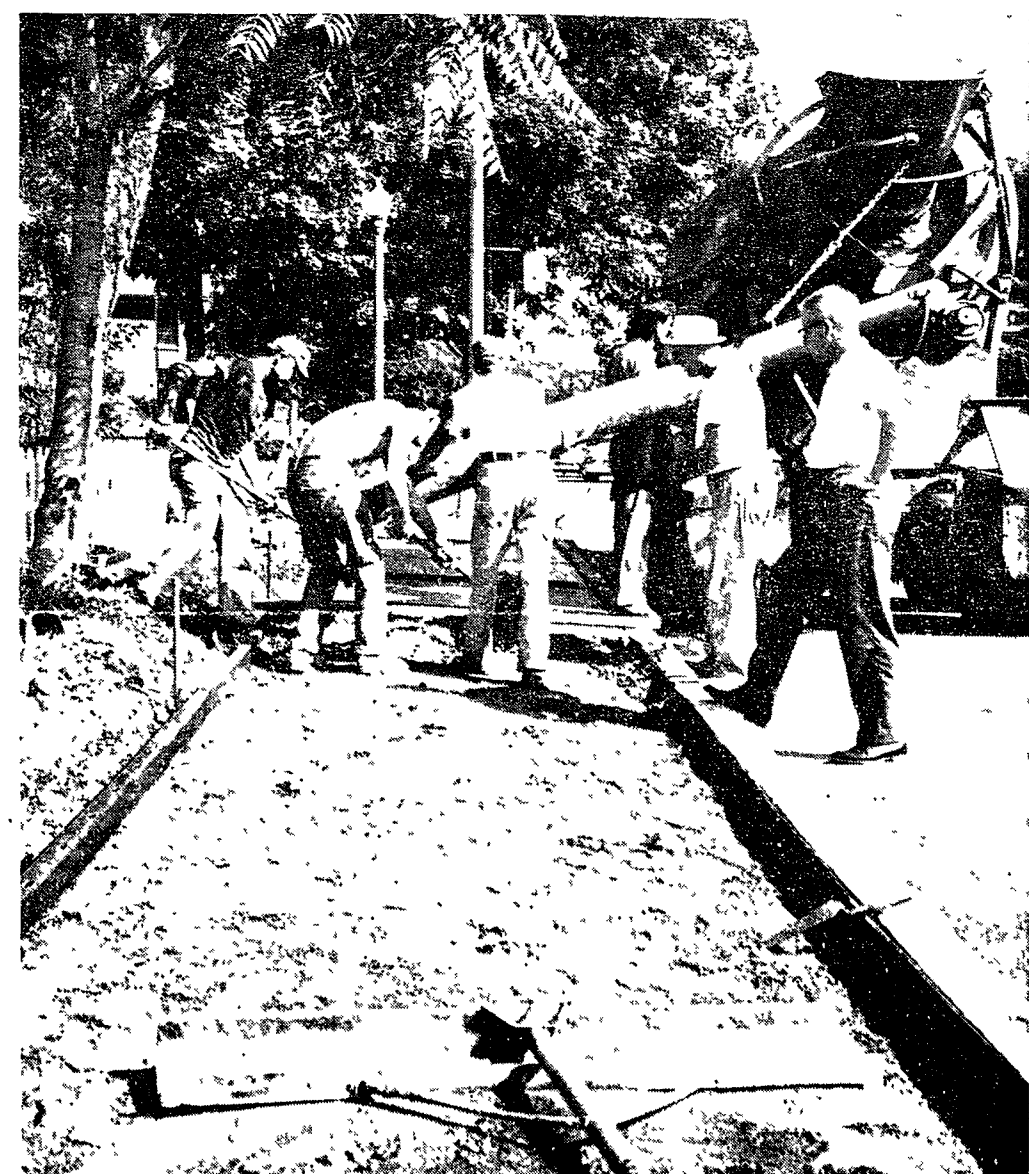

A mischievous escapade by two toddlers, age six and four, resulted in more than $2,000 fire damage to the unoccupied home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunter, 46901 West Main street, Monday afternoon.

Northville firemen extinguished the flames after the children admitted the incident to their parents, who summoned the fire department.

According to Wayne County Sheriff's Captain Gordon Traye, the children admitted entering the house through a milk chute. After igniting a chair in the living room as the result of playing with matches, the children reportedly attempted to put the fire out. Thinking they had been successful, they left.

Captain Traye said that Hunter had indicated he would not bring charges and that the parents of the children had been fully cooperative.

The home, valued at some $30,000, was closed three months ago when the Hunters moved to Tawas. Fire Chief William McGee said the fire burned the living room chair and completely through the carpeting and floor into a lower-level recreation room.

AT LEAST THEY STARTED — Work began to replace all business district sidewalks last week, but ended abruptly when workers were called to another project. Presumably work will start again this week. Merchant Carl Johnson is shown at right watching the first new walks being poured on Center at Dunlap. Local retailers inaugurated the idea of replacing walks early this summer. All property owners were asked to cooperate in the joint project, but City Manager John Robertson reports that some have not agreed to go along. Without a special assessment ordinance to require installation of walks, it is unlikely that a 100 percent job will be done.

With final steps completed Northville's $300,000 water improvement program was finally ready to be launched this week.

Bids for the 400,000-gallon elevated storage tank and installation of new lines, valves and hydrants were awarded Monday night.

But most important — and satisfying — to city council members was the interest rate won for the sale of bonds last Thursday.

In a sale which saw five bidders — representing some 15 bond houses — the council awarded the contract to Kenower-McArthur and company at an interest rate of 4.25442 percent.

Both Stratton Brown, representing the city's bond attorney firm of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, and James Pollock, who has served as financial consultant to the city in preparing for the water bond program, hailed the bid as "excellent".

Brown pointed out that a $7 million bond issue by the Livonia school district sold for 4.45 percent last week.

Pollock agreed. "I feel this is the best we could have done," he said. Total interest cost over the 27-year retirement period of the bonds will be $212,295.41.

While technically the city's water improvement bonds are "revenue" type, they carry the added guarantee of the "general obligation" bond having been approved by the voters last May.

The bonds are scheduled to be retired from revenues received from the water system without additional tax or water rate increases, however.

Printing contract for the bonds was awarded to Midwest Bank Note Co. of Plymouth, which is owned by Glenn Cummings of Northville.

The council decided Monday night, upon the recommendation of the city engineer, to purchase the "spheroid" type water tower. Total price of the tank is $66,790, as bid by the Chicago Bridge and Iron company. Penn said the tank requires less maintenance and painting than the standard "double ellipsoid" type which is mounted on legs instead of a single pedestal.

Another advantage is the fact that a fence is not required to surround the tank to keep out pranksters seeking to climb the tower. Less land is also needed to mount the tower, he said. Councilmen also agreed that the spheroid tower would be a more attractive landmark.

Installation work for the lines, valves and hydrants was awarded to Terra Construction company. Their bid was $112,943.77. Terra was actually second low bidder, but Novi Building Service (with a bid of $94,801.83) failed to include a bid bond check with the original bid. Terra also won the recommendation of the city engineer.

The contract for supplying and installing chlorinating equipment in two wells was awarded to S.S. Plumbing of Northville for $9040.

The entire project is expected to require 150 days to complete. The installations are being made to give the city's system adequate storage facilities; improve the taste and color of the water; provide enough shut-off valves to isolate any trouble areas without disturbing large areas; larger lines for better circulation; "loop" the system and provide and give better fire protection with more water and hydrants.

Couple Slain in Nankin Give Novi Address

A young married couple — reportedly former Novi township residents — were found slain Tuesday afternoon by Wayne county sheriff's officers in Nankin township.

Denuties found Mrs. Beverly Lane dead with a rifle bullet in her chest at the home of her mother, Mrs. Hazel Baker of 32651 Palmer.

Beside her was the body of her husband, Melvin, 22. Officers said he shot himself after killing his estranged wife.

The Lanes had separated last month, police report, and Mrs. Lane was staying with her mother while Lane was living with his brother in Wayne. They had a 2 1/2-year-old son.

Their former address was given as Novi township but neither Novi or Wayne county sheriff's authorities could verify the exact address of the Lanes.

PILGRIM STYLE — The William McNeeces gather around their Early American dinner table, made by Mr. McNeiece. Missing from the picture is their son, Bill.

There must be something about Northville that looks good to New Yorkers. The William McNeeces, former residents of Warwick, Westchester county, New York, now add their numbers to the recent parcel of newcomers who hail from that eastern state.

The McNeeces, including their three sons, Bill, 19; Joe, 15, and Marty, 7, arrived here about a month ago.

Their colonial home on Seven Mile road overlooks a country terrain that seems for all the world like good old Warwick, Mrs. McNeiece says.

Mr. McNeiece, a graduate of the University of Connecticut, is a chemist for Roto corporation research and product development.

Mr. and Mrs. McNeiece's hobby interests go hand in glove. Anne McNeiece likes collecting Early American antiques and her husband is skilled at reproducing them.

Their attractive dining room table, chairs and hutch are all the handiwork of Mr. McNeiece. Mrs. McNeiece sometimes helps with the finishing. She also enjoys community service activities.

Bill expects to enter college this fall.

Joe, who will be a junior at Northville high is looking forward to the hunting season.

Marty will be a second grader

Jet Flight Tame as A Model-T

She had an 80-year-old lead on it, but the jet-age finally caught up with Mrs. Gregor Schneider of California.

This summer the spirited octogenarian decided to meet the young upstart on its own terms, and took her first air-flight cross-country, no less, by jet.

Accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Michael W. Quinlan and 14-year-old granddaughter Melinda, and Mrs. Schneider, 84, flew here from Van Nuys for a visit with Mrs. Schneider's son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schneider of Novi.

"I was scared at first," Mrs. Schneider admitted, "but after that it was alright . . . it was fine."

The three returned home Monday. For first timers, you've got to give them credit for nerve. Their round trip tickets didn't tremble a bit as the pilot waved them aboard.

"THE FEAR OF THE LORD IS THE BEGINNING OF WISDOM"
What is the purpose of education? Undoubtedly all educators will agree that the chief aim of education is to acquire knowledge, or wisdom. The next basic question then must be: "What constitutes true wisdom? God Himself answers this question through Solomon: "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; but fools despise wisdom and instruction." Solomon, the wisest ruler who ever lived, makes this statement in the very first chapter of his Proverbs (v. 7). Similar words were spoken by Job: "Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding." (Ch. 28:28).
To reverence, serve, and worship God must be the highest goal of education. The fear of the Lord is not to be just a little extra knowledge that is dubbed on top of whatever else is learned. It must be the very core, the very essence of all instruction. As one has said: "Those know nothing who do not know this . . . We are not qualified to profit by the instructions that are given, unless our minds be possessed with a holy reverence of God, and every thought within us be brought into obedience to Him . . . This is the alpha and omega of knowledge."
All knowledge is without value, unless we have learned how to use it to the glory of God and to the welfare of our fellowman.
True and lasting wisdom comes from God, and it is revealed to use in His Holy Word. This fact is recognized by a long list of learned men. "Doctors of Philosophy Look At The Bible" is the title of a booklet which contains the statements of 18 different men who hold the Doctor of Philosophy degree from various institutions. We quote a few of these men.
Dr. Robert A. Millikan, director, laboratory and physics, California Institute of Technology, said: "I consider an intimate knowledge of the Bible an indispensable qualification of a well-educated man."
Dr. Harold G. Petering, research chemist, Kalamazoo, stated: "The Bible, however, is not important to me only for the refreshment it offers on Sunday. It is important to me every moment of my life, for in it I have found my Saviour, and in it I daily find the answers to the many perplexing problems which present themselves in my personal and professional life. I hold the Bible to be the infallible and inspired Word of God, not in conflict with any science with which have ever dealt."
Dr. W. E. Bauer, professor of history, Valparaiso university, wrote: "There are really only three fundamental questions of life: 1. Where do we come from? 2. Why are we here? 3. What is our destiny? . . . Consciously or unconsciously, everyone must answer these questions . . . The answers must come from a source outside of man . . . It is only in the Holy Scriptures that satisfying answers can be found to the basic questions of life."
Dr. Louis A. Wolfanger, professor and research associate in land use, Michigan State university, remarked: "When I see the doubts which beset the skeptic, the aloneness, the drift and lack of hope beyond this little life-span, I thank God for the grace He has so generously extended to me . . . Does not your heart sing with joy when you rise in the morning, or when you are at work or play, and you stop to think that He is bearing our burdens and that He has taken our cares for the morrow? Mine does. My devout Christian parents, devoted parochial school teachers, and faithful pastors directed me to the unfailing promises of God's Holy Word in which I find security for such a time as this."
Dr. Earle L. Rauber, director of research, Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, Georgia, wrote: "As an economist, in seeking wisdom by which to understand this last tragic decade, I have finally discovered the futility of all merely human wisdom, of all that is not grounded in God's wisdom. If 'the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom,' I have concluded that the Word of the Lord is wisdom's sole, stable foundation . . . To those, therefore, who have the Word of God at the threshold of life I would say, 'Hold fast to it in spite of all temptations to let it go! To those who have it not I would say, 'Seek it out! . . . Only thus can we escape the spiritual barrenness of our age.'"
Truly, "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." For this reason St. Paul's Lutheran church of Northville is establishing a Christian day school at this time. May the Lord use it well for His eternal purpose.

Lutheran School Opening Service September 9

It is only in the Holy Scriptures that satisfying answers can be found to the basic questions of life."
Dr. Louis A. Wolfanger, professor and research associate in land use, Michigan State university, remarked: "When I see the doubts which beset the skeptic, the aloneness, the drift and lack of hope beyond this little life-span, I thank God for the grace He has so generously extended to me . . . Does not your heart sing with joy when you rise in the morning, or when you are at work or play, and you stop to think that He is bearing our burdens and that He has taken our cares for the morrow? Mine does. My devout Christian parents, devoted parochial school teachers, and faithful pastors directed me to the unfailing promises of God's Holy Word in which I find security for such a time as this."
Dr. Earle L. Rauber, director of research, Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, Georgia, wrote: "As an economist, in seeking wisdom by which to understand this last tragic decade, I have finally discovered the futility of all merely human wisdom, of all that is not grounded in God's wisdom. If 'the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom,' I have concluded that the Word of the Lord is wisdom's sole, stable foundation . . . To those, therefore, who have the Word of God at the threshold of life I would say, 'Hold fast to it in spite of all temptations to let it go! To those who have it not I would say, 'Seek it out! . . . Only thus can we escape the spiritual barrenness of our age.'"
Truly, "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." For this reason St. Paul's Lutheran church of Northville is establishing a Christian day school at this time. May the Lord use it well for His eternal purpose.

Break Ground Sunday For Episcopal Church

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the new proposed Episcopal church in Plymouth will take place Sunday, September 6 at 4 p.m. at the new site, 574 Sheldon road.

As is the custom the Rector, the Rev. David T. Davies, will turn the first sod and will be followed by the wardens of the parish, Messrs. Edwin C. Meredith and Ernest W. Ebert, Jr.

The president of the Episcopal church women of the parish, Mrs. James McNeice, will wield the chrome plated shovel in behalf of the women of the parish and Mrs. William Milne will represent the members of the church school.

The new building will be a rectangular building 128 feet long and 64 feet wide with all the facilities on one floor with the exception of the gallery for the choir which is located over the Narthex and at the rear of the church.

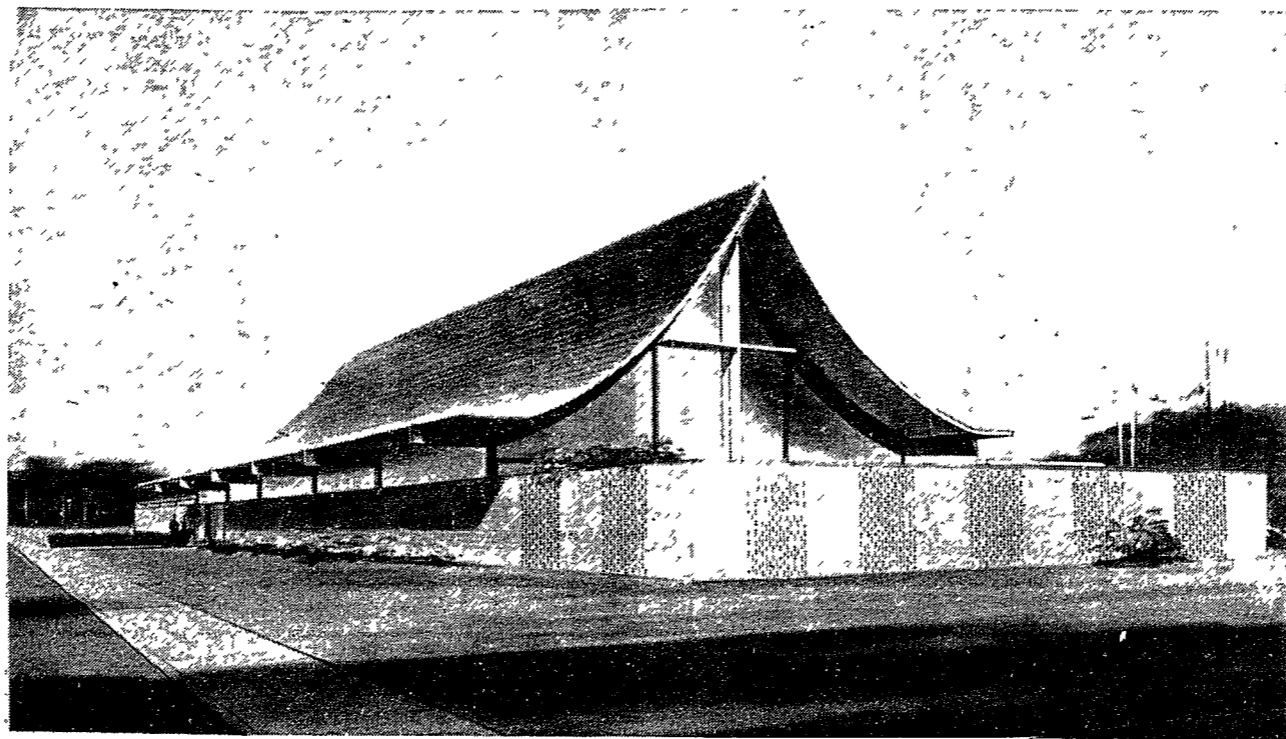

The church will seat 350 and the altar which will be located in the north end of the building will be a free standing altar. The building will be situated north and south parallel to Sheldon road and the north end of the church will be entirely of glass. Beyond the glass there will be an enclosed court which will be landscaped and will provide the background for the altar.

Also in the courtyard a huge cross 35 feet high will stand and this will take the place of the customary altar cross. The outside cross will simulate the cross on which our Saviour died and its appearance will change as the weather changes. The cross will also be visible at night.

The parish hall will be separated from the church proper by a 16 foot wide Narthex and the stairway to the choir gallery will be located in this area and will be a decorative feature in the Narthex. With the aid of folding door the hall can be readily divided into class rooms for the church school. Also included in the parish hall will be a ladies' parlor, kitchen, heating room, ladies' lounge and washroom facilities.

On the west side of the church proper, the rector's study, sacristy, another heating room, storage room, secretary's office and men's washrooms are located.

It is hoped the building will be ready for occupancy next Easter Day, April 17, 1960. The members and friends of St. John's Episcopal church are cordially invited to join with us for the ground-breaking ceremony.

ARTIST'S SKETCH of the new Episcopal church shows the view from Sheldon road in Plymouth. A ground-breaking ceremony will be conducted Sunday. Several Northville families attend the church and will take part in the Sunday ceremonies.

IS HELL A LITERAL PLACE?

B.M.

Since my sympathies are with man, I wish I could tell you that there is no such place as hell. I wish I could say as some do, "All the hell a man gets is right here on this earth". I wish I could say that, "Hell is the grave and when the wicked die, they are no more". But I cannot say this because I know that the best authoritative Teacher that ever lived said, "Then shall I say also unto them on His left hand, depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels." He also said in Mark 9:43 "And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched." A list of the people who will be cast into hell are found in Revelation 21:8. Since all of us are guilty in one way or another, we are faced with this awful judgment. But, Jesus Christ came so that we might obtain forgiveness and eternal life and escape hell. This deliverance will be granted to all who repent of their sins and receive Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour.

Mayor, Manager To Attend U.P. League Convention

Over 800 mayors, village presidents, councilmen, managers and other elected and appointed officials from the 415 cities and villages comprising the league are expected to attend the three-day annual gathering this year.

Northville will be represented by Mayor A. Malcolm Allen and City Manager John Robertson, who will be accompanied by their wives.

Mayor Glenn S. Allen, Jr. of Kalamazoo, president of the Michigan Municipal League, will make presentations of awards to winners of the League Annual Report contest at the opening session of the league convention Thursday morning.

Readers Speak Up on City Incorporation Status in Novi

To the Editor:

Many, many years ago, the Greeks wrote a story about the Sirens who sat on the rocks and reefs of the sea and sang very beautiful songs to attract sailors and their ships to their doom. Human nature being what it is, the Sirens had a booming wrecking business going until a wise gentleman named Ulysses used common sense to figure the thing out and sailed his ship past the danger. Although this tale was folklore, it does, like many fables, have a pointed moral.

Right now, the "Song of the Sirens" can be heard in the Village of Novi, being sung by the politicians and would-be politicians to lure residents into approving the resolution to make Novi a city.

"City means less tax, City means less tax, Hi ho, Come to the City"

As the Ulysses story teaches, the promises of the lyrics aren't true. Novi citizens must use their common sense and vote against city status on September 15th.

Kalin S. Johnson

The service day for all employees of the city of Novi during which they shall be required to work shall consist of eight consecutive hours in any one day or 24 hours. No employee shall be required or permitted to work for more than this eight-hour service day, except in a case of emergency which would result in a serious loss, damage or impairment of the city's service. No employee shall be required to work more than five service days in any consecutive seven days of 24 hours each.

These are just some of the highlights that should be put into the charter. In closing, I hope you will consider city incorporation very seriously, and then do your duty on September 15, you must also elect a nine-member charter commission.

Herbert Koester

would have the same tax limitations as the village charter.

To this date, no one has suggested any possible reason for continuing to live under the dual government which presently exists. No one claims that city is a cure-all for any and all problems that we in this community face, but it is far better than our present situation. I, for one, would rather have the tax money that I am presently spending for township government given to the school district, than to have it spent for duplication of government services.

LILLIAN BYRD, City Clerk
City of Wixom, Michigan

To the Editor:

I believe it could be said that since moving into Novi in 1949 my efforts have been toward good government and worthy projects. On September 15, the voters must decide the question (shall we incorporate as a city?) and eliminate dual government system. Incorporation was decided by the majority of the voters of Novi a year ago. City status is just another step forward. City incorporation should not be considered as a frightful undertaking, but more so an honored privilege.

Today we are operating a village at 4 mills, and the township at 1½ mills, a total of 5½ mills. If we become a city, and take into consideration our school millage from an all-around point of view, the actual operating cost of the city would be 4 mills instead of 5½ mills. To clarify myself just a little more, I would say that our schools are operating on a tight budget, and are about ready to go before the voters and ask for 1½ mill increase. If we would eliminate the cost of township government, the school board could ask the county allocation board for this 1½ mill instead of asking the voters for this additional amount. If we continue to operate with two governments, the cost will be 7 mills.

Now as to the city charter. Many corrections could be made from our village charter. I would favor the following titles in the city charter: Incorporate under another name and style instead of the City of Novi; the executive or administrative of the city shall be vested in the mayor, city clerk and the city treasurer; elected from the city at large; the legislative power of the city shall be vested in a common council composed of nine members, and to be elected from the city at large; common council shall have the general control of public utilities.

There shall be the following commissioners appointed by the mayor: department of public works, parks and recreation, city plan, public lighting, water board, board of health, board of fire, public welfare, purchases and supplies, police, rapid transit, corporation counsel, auditor-general, etc.

Walled Lake Homecoming
Approximately 5,000 people watched the homecoming parade in Walled Lake Sunday afternoon. Although the streets were damp from the heavy rain the parade started on schedule but several other events were called off. Twenty-five floats were entered. The four winners in the float judging were: most original, St. Mathew's Lutheran church; prettiest, Walled Lake Lions club; most appropriate, Walled Lake Farm Bureau. Best talent award went to the 4-H club of Walled Lake. Prizes for ugliest heard went to Charles Taylor of Milford; best trimmed beard, John Lorang of Walled Lake; best, luxuriant, Harper Dunlap of Walled Lake.

To the Editor:

After reading George F. Merwin's letter in last week's Novi News, it was my feeling that a campaign is being waged, innocently or otherwise, to place a phoney issue before the people in the coming election in Novi. The issue in the coming election is "SHALL WE BECOME A CITY OR REMAIN A VILLAGE?" NOT "Shall we return to the Township or change to City?"

The question as to whether or not we should become a Village or remain a Township was placed before the people in an election held one year ago. This issue was fairly debated and resolved in favor of Village government by an overwhelming majority of the people. Why cannot the issue in this coming election be just as fairly debated?

Every authority has said that in a community such as ours, a city status is far preferable to a village status. In our present situation, we are paying for a township government which is performing no service that is not already being done by our present village government. As a matter of fact, we were promised by some of the township officials that there would be no duplication of government where possible. Instead, the township officers have done everything possible to see that the township does not relinquish any of its authority. This has resulted in expensive duplication and endless bickering, which can be avoided by a city form of government.

The claim has been repeatedly made that city government would bring an increase in taxes, but no one has said why this would come about. This statement is without foundation. If the cost of operating our government is going to increase, it is going to increase whether we remain as a village or change to a city, because the village government is, in effect, the same government that we would have as a city and with the same power to tax. Under any form of government, those who demand increased services are going to have to pay for them. There is no doubt that for the city charter (if a city is voted for)

PLAN 1959 TORCH DRIVE — Division chairmen for the business and industry solicitation for the 1959 Torch Drive in western Wayne county met recently to begin plans for the coming campaign. The meeting, called by County Select Prospects Chairman Marshall F. North, was the kick-off for recruitment and training of about 50 men who will sell the Torch Drive's "Fair Share Chapter Plan" to 300 area firms. "These firms contributed about $30,000 to the 1958 Torch Drive", North explained. "If the managements of these companies will give a good hearing to our solicitors and adopt the plan we propose, many of them can easily double their contributions." Pictured above are: (l. to r.) Pierson J. Ide (Redford township chairman); Douglas C. Mullen, Chairman North, and A. Russell Clarke (Livonia-Northville chairman).

MINUTES OF THE NOVI BOARD OF EDUCATION

August 12, 1959
The regular meeting of the board of education was called to order by the president, Mr. Heslip, at 8:10 P.M. on Wednesday, August 12th. Present were Mr. Heslip, Mr. Taylor, Mr. Crawford, Mr. Erwin, Dr. Morris, Dr. Medlyn and Mr. Knodle. Absent: none.

The minutes of the July 8th meeting were reviewed, and it was moved by Dr. Morris, seconded by Mr. Taylor that these minutes be approved as published. The motion carried.

It was moved by Mr. Erwin, and supported by Dr. Morris that the July 15th minutes be approved as published. Motion carried.

The treasurer's report, which showed the following balances, was approved as read:

General Fund	$2,911.50
Payroll Fund	$11,841.82
Lunch Fund	$350.95
1957 Building and Site Fund	$201,956.41
1950 Debt Retirement Fund	$1,460.14
1955 Debt Retirement Fund	$28,135.79
1957 Debt Retirement Fund	$11,486.42
1958 Debt Retirement Fund	$4,806.25

Dr. Medlyn reported on the paving at Orchard Hills, which had been completed, and on the tile field. The architect, Mr. Lane, had requested a special meeting to discuss the paving, the tile field, and other items pertaining to the Orchard Hills job. The date set for this special meeting was Wed., August 19 at 6:45 p.m.

Concerning the paving, the first part paved had not been primed, as called for in the specifications; however, an additional one year guarantee had been promised on the unprimed portion.

Also, while the specifications called for paving in two courses, the job had been paved in one course. It did appear that for two inch paving, the usual procedure is to lay the paving in one course, as had been done.

Dr. Medlyn reported that the seeding at Orchard Hills is to be done by our own help.

Financing of bus purchase is to be handled through National Bank of Detroit at an interest rate of 4 percent. Other bids obtained had been 4 1/2 and 5 percent. The two old Dodge buses are for sale.

Five additional teaching contracts were submitted to the Board for signatures. Only one vacancy remains, that of the 7th and 8th grade geography teaching position.

Dr. Medlyn presented a tentative schedule for the 1959-60 school year. This schedule, which was based on 9 1/2 months or 195 days, was to be taken up for approval at the special meeting on August 19.

Dr. Morris and Mr. Taylor are to meet with Dr. Medlyn on Tuesday, August 18 at 1 P.M. to look at playground equipment for the Orchard Hills playground.

Bids on the bus insurance were to be presented to the Board at the special meeting.

Bids on bus tires were presented. The Board asked for additional bids, which were to be available for presentation at the special meeting.

The financial outlook for the next year was discussed. Dr. Medlyn reported that the outlook was not too favorable, since the state still owed the school district's for part of last year's state aid, and it was uncertain what money would be forthcoming from the state during this fiscal year, with the 1959-60 state aid bill not yet written.

Mr. Taylor reported that the Board of Commerce is sponsoring an all day celebration of the first anniversary of the village of Novi on Sept. 12, and that the Board of Commerce was requesting the use of the playground and parking area at the Novi School for this event.

It was moved by Dr. Morris, supported by Mr. Erwin, that the Board of Commerce be granted the use of the grounds at the Novi School. The motion carried.

Mr. Crawford submitted the name of Stanley Orzechowski for school janitor. Dr. Medlyn felt the budget would not permit hiring additional custodial help.

The secretarial position had not been filled. Dr. Medlyn was in the process of interviewing applicants.

The committee on city incorporation had requested the use of the multi-purpose room at the Orchard Hills School for a meeting Sept. 8. It was moved by Dr. Morris, supported by Mr. Erwin, that the building be made available to the committee if not needed for the faculty dinner, and that the committee be so notified. Motion carried.

It was moved by Mr. Erwin and supported by Dr. Morris, that General Fund bills in the amount of $2400.15 and Building and Site Fund bills in the amount of $349.51 be paid. The motion carried.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:35 by the president.

H. S. Atchinsons

Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Atchinson observed 50 years of marriage Tuesday night with 100 friends and relatives at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Orson Atchinson of 550 Orchard drive.

The Atchinsons, who reside in Salem, were married there on September 1, 1909. Mr. Atchinson, currently active in the real estate business in Northville, has been a farmer and a builder. The Atchinsons have been life-long residents of the area. Another son, Norman, lives in Plymouth.

Bad Day for Charley

The sun was shining last Thursday but cement contractor Charley Guidobono was under a dark cloud. In four minutes flat the 24-year-old Detroitier got two tickets from Northville police.

At 8:39 police spotted his pickup truck parked facing the wrong way in front of Cloverdale dairy and started writing a ticket as Charley came down the street.

Offended he grabbed the ticket, hopped into his truck, and took off down the wrong side of the street, cutting back into the southbound lane at the head of traffic which was stopped for a red light.

At 8:43 police called him aside again. Result: $5 and court costs for illegal parking; $25 and costs plus suspension of license for 30 days.

You Brain-washer We've Got Your No.

Now we know what love is. When a gentleman out of a job buys a lady a diamond ring on time and assumes payments in her name, because his credit rating's no good . . .

When he thinks she'll be true even if it takes five years to pay . . .

When the lady gets tired of waiting and tells police the gentleman is trespassing when he brings the payments to her every month . . .

When the gentleman keeps on paying and the lady declares she won't give back the ring . . .

When the judge keeps slapping a $50 fine on the gentleman for trespassing . . .

The Northville police department has had the romantic serial running on its dockets for the past two years, and the poor guy still owes $400 on the diamond.

Is he nuts? No. "That's love," says the chief.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mellen of San Antonio, Texas have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Mellen and children, Sarah and Brian, for the past two weeks. The first week the two families vacationed in Cedarville in the Upper Peninsula. After returning the guests stayed another week, leaving for Texas Friday. Mr. Mellen is the son of the George Mellens.

Obituary

EARL ATCHISON

Funeral services were held August 28 for Earl Atchison, 75, 19445 Fenmore, Detroit, who passed away August 25 at Receiving hospital after a few days' illness. Mr. Atchison, an employee at William H. Maybury sanatorium for number of years, was born May 25, 1884 in Salem, Michigan, the son of Benjamin and Etta (Bennett) Atchison. He made his home in the Northville and South Lyon area for several years. Mr. Atchison is survived by three sons, Warren of Salem, Obed of Caro and George of Washtenaw county; two daughters, Mrs. Louise Keller and Arlene Atchison of Northville, and one brother, Harry, of Salem. He also leaves seven grandchildren. The Rev. Richard Burgess of Salem Federated church officiated at last rites from the Dempsey B. Ebert Funeral home. Burial was in South Lyon cemetery.

Police Halt Local Family But Sentence is Very Pleasant

The police car stopped them at the ice cream bar near the city line and then the fun began.

Out filed blond Melvin R. Johnson of Fairbrook street, his three children running for a bathtub, and wife, bright-eyed with the thought of a shampoo.

The Northville foursome were homeward bound after a rugged two weeks camping tour of Canada and the eastern states, when the Jamestown police nabbed them as guests of the city on Route 17 Hospitality Day.

The Johnsons were dined and red-carpeted to the Hotel Jamestown by Norman Johnson, president of the Jamestown city council, and Merton A. Johnson, hotel manager.

"Wow, bathtubs," the kids cheered. "A shampoo for me," Mrs. Johnson added, "You know how you feel after two weeks at a camping site."

Then Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and children, Ronald, 15; Corrine, 12, and Janette, 7, were treated to a night on the town.

Meanwhile their trusty road-weary car was gassed up, washed, oiled and greased for the trip home. Seventeen communities between Binghamton and Jamestown, New York celebrated a Hospitality Day by stopping one car each and giving their guests the keys to the city. By happy coincidence, Johnson, a chemist for the Fish and Wildlife Service, is of Swedish descent, and Jamestown has a large Swedish population. "We heard so much about Jamestown and the Swedish people," he said, "it was a special treat to be guests there."

School Bus Drivers Go Back to School

Northville may soon have one of the sharpest school bus driver teams in the state.

Fred Clark of West Main street, who has been operating school buses for the past eight years, recently completed a special course in bus driving at Michigan State university. He was one of about a half-dozen bus drivers from Wayne county schools selected to take the course.

In turn, he will now teach other local drivers, and eventually, instruct bus operators at other county schools.

Clark was recommended for the program by school administrators.

Public to See Hospital Sunday

The Northville Record

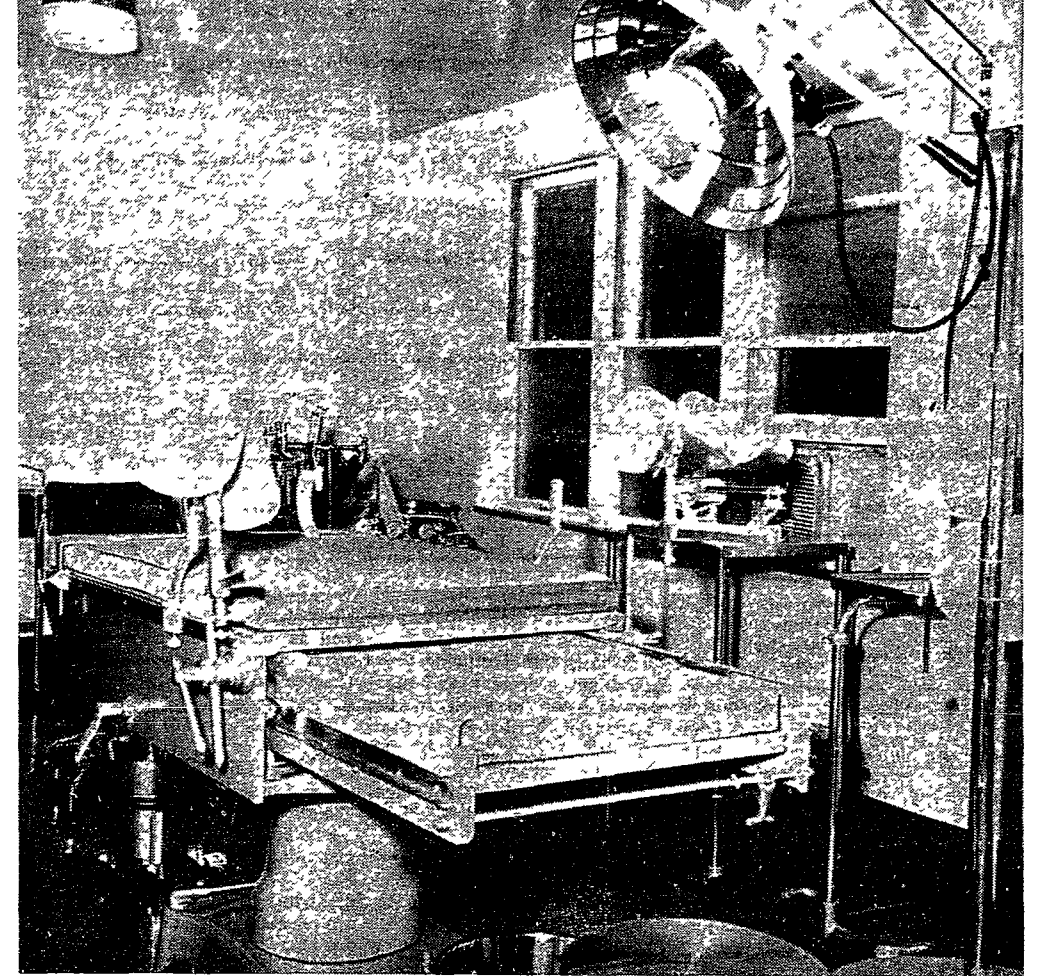

THE OLDEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY — EST. 1868 Thursday, September 3, 1959—11

A new lobby will greet visitors to Community General hospital. Besides new furnishings, the area has been redecorated.

A completely rejuvenated x-ray room features a new 300 milliamper unit with fluoroscopic accessories.

This newly equipped and redecorated delivery room will greet new arrivals at Community General.

The long-awaited opening of Community General hospital will take place this week end with area physicians taking the first look at the new and improved facilities.

Sunday the general public has been invited to an open house inspection from two until four p.m.

It is expected that patients will be admitted for the first time next Wednesday, allowing time for cleaning up following the open house.

More than $100,000 in repairs and new equipment have gone into the rejuvenation of the former Sessions hospital. The hospital, closed for several months when it failed to meet state and Blue Cross insurance standards for handling maternity cases, was purchased by Dr. Howard L. B ergo and Abraham Farris.

Dr. B ergo and Farris, along with Dr. L. W. Snow of Northville, Mrs. B ergo and Alfred Farris will serve on the board of directors of the hospital.

The staff will be headed by Dr. V. G. Chabut of Northville with Dr. J. K. Bosch, secretary-treasurer; Dr. I. Sparling, head of obstetrics; and Dr. Walter Hammond of Plymouth, head of surgery.

Other staff physicians include Dr. L. M. Hotchkiss and Dr. Oscar Rosbalt of Livonia; Dr. Frederick Bentley, Dr. Ensign Clyde, Dr. Hammond, Dr. L. J. Salan, Dr. Charles Westover, of Plymouth; Dr. William Padelford of South Lyon; and from Northville are Drs. Chabut, Bosch, Sparling, Snow and H. Handorf, A. A. Holcomb and H. L. Dyer. Radiologist is Dr. Patrick Dooust of Dearborn. Administrator of Community General is Calvin Monfils.

Presently, the hospital will accommodate 30 patients. Plans for an addition may double this total.

A typical room offers modern furnishings in bright, airy surroundings.

An Ideal Community: Industry, Pure Water, Refined Residents and a Cure for Alcoholism

Editor's Note — Councilman John Canterbury ran across a booklet entitled "Northville, the Ideal Suburban Village" from the Michigan Historical Collections at the University of Michigan Library recently. He forwarded the book to The Record and the information is so interesting that we are passing along some of the passages. As near as can be determined, the book must have been published around 1900. It was designed, illustrated and published by the Eagle Steam Printing and Engraving company of Northville.

"Northville — the ideal suburban village — has living streams of sweet pure water, laden with health-giving minerals, where the forest trees afford ample shade from the noon day sun.

"Hills abound in every direction with magnificent subterranean springs, embodying in their constituent parts almost every conceivable mineral ingredient which is known to be efficacious in medical jurisprudence."

And describing the journey, by train from Detroit into Northville the booklet continues: "We rush swiftly across the high bridge at Mead's Mills, whirl around a sweeping curve, and behold the beautiful village of Northville nestled among the hills on our left. Alighting from the train (at the new and handsome depot which the F & P M company has erected) we see to our right the little lake, which is now being beautified, and which, when completed will be one of the loveliest spots "imaginable."

And in 1900 Northville was a bustling manufacturing center. Here's what the book has to say about industry and commercial development of the era:

"The largest concern, the Globe Mfg. Co., was established in 1864 by C. G. Harrington . . . manufacturing school and church furniture . . . employing 200 persons — trade extending to Europe, South America, Francis R. Beal is president and general manager."

Hanrahan Refrigerator Co. — "a corporation recently formed among our leading businessmen for manufacture of refrigerators, now building a large 3-story brick factory to employ 150 men."

J. A. Dubuar Manufacturing Co. — "J. A. Dubuar, secretary and manager, extensively engaged in the manufacture of hardwood lumber, manufacturers of pulley blocks, wheel-barrrows, screen doors, garden hose reels and the Globe General Custer Repeater and Michigan Air Rifles."

Tonquish Mfg. Co. — "a new company manufacturing a line of moderate priced parlor and library tables."

The Ely Dowel and Manufacturing Co. — "a Dowel pin is a very small part of a piece of furniture — it must be of good material, perfectly dry, fit well and not allow joints to gap or fall apart after being placed in somebody's parlor. W. I. Ely, president."

The Clover Condensed Milk Co. — "Organized in 1886, this company has one of the most exceptional plants in the U.S. When the present company was organized, their first step was to consult chemists and scientific men as to improvements upon the old methods of manufacture. The report emphasized the following features: 1st. — Location in a section where the land is hilly and abounds with pure spring water; 2nd. — Porcelain pans to be used instead of copper pans; 3rd. — Thorough sterilization and evaporation by heat of the milk as quickly as possible after milking; 4th. — Pure cane sugar to be used as a preservative; 5th. — Adoption of rules and regulations for the production of the milk. Accordingly they located in Northville, an ideal dairy country. Their farms are stocked with the best cows — sown entirely with sweet clover and watered by pure running springs. They are the only manufacturers in the world using porcelain pans, and their works are as perfectly equipped as science and skill can make them. The Porcelain Brand of the Clover Condensed Milk Company is without an equal in the world."

The Northville Mills — "Manufacturing the celebrated brand of Gold Lace flour, a rapidly increasing business owned by W. H. and R. C. Yerkes."

Frank N. Perrin Carriage, Wagon and Blacksmithing plants — "Mr. Perrin's reputation as a manufacturer is unexcelled and his warehouses are stocked with the choicest productions of the carriage builders' art."

The book then continues to extoll Northville's retail stores including Teichner & Co. which handled "dry goods, gents' furnishings, carpentering, groceries and wholesale and retail produce"; Chas. R. Stevens, "the pioneer of business here" with drugs and prescriptions; J. S. Lapham & Co., mercantile and banking, who built "the first and only brick store in the village of Northville in 1848"; A. E. Rockwell, jeweler; Geo. E. Waterman & Co., hardware; Sands & Porter, furniture, undertaking and bicycles; Knapp & Yerkes, hardware, coal, tin and sheet metal; F. A. Miller, meats; A. H. Kohler, grocery.

The book then mentions the Park House "for the needs of the weary, hungry and thirsty — the best $2.00 per day hotel in Michigan."

A most unique business was the Yarnall Gold Cure Co. "An institution for the rational treatment and radical cure of the alcohol, opium, cocaine, tobacco and cigarette habits." The huge corner-located building advertised terms for treatment as follows:

"Alcohol or Liquor patients, three weeks course, $50, payable in advance — after three weeks, $15 per week; Brain and nerve treatment, same prices as alcohol or liquor cases; Tobacco and Cigarette treatment, $15 per week; Morphine and Opium cases, $20 per week for three weeks, after that $15 per week; the Hon. T. E. Tarsney was listed as president of the institute and Edwin L. Crosby, secretary, with Dr. William H. Yarnall, medical director and general manager.

The book continues its description including the Northville Record — "established in 1869 . . . a paper which has seen its ups and downs (mostly downs) of life . . . the various changes in ownership usual to a country weekly . . . present publisher is F. S. Neal . . . as an advertising medium it is without rival in reaching the people in this part of the country"; the Moffat Opera House, located at Dunlap and Center streets "is a well equipped place of amusement and has a seating capacity of 800."

"This is Northville," says the booklet, "an ideal suburban village with modern and handsome residences — its people cultured, refined and progressive."

Optimists to Meet

The Northville Optimist club will hold its first regular business meeting of the new year September 9 in the Lutheran church auditorium beginning at 6:45 p.m. Plans for the 1959-60 year will be discussed.

Officers for the ensuing year are: president, George Kohls; first vice president, Del Steigerwald; second vice president, Robert Hart; secretary, Roger McLain; treasurer, Robert Miller; sergeant-at-arms, Glenn Deibert, and chaplain, Rev. B. J. Pankow.

100 Gridders Open Drills

Seventeen Lettermen On Hand

Seventeen returning lettermen were on hand Monday when Coach Ron Schipper ordered Northville's gridgers into the traces of the season's first practice.

Altogether, more than 100 young hopefuls took the field in obvious attempts to impress the coach and notch themselves positions on the starting eleven.

But by the end of the first hour of running and jarring sleepy muscles back to life, many of the puffing youths longed for the pine bed of a shady spruce.

While a few of the boys wondered if the cheers of a crowd were worth the riggers of practice, Schipper wondered out loud what the 1959 season had in store for Northville.

Graduation 1959 had eaten away 18 veterans — six of them regulars. Some of Northville's most powerful, effective gridgers had gone.

Only five of the returning 17 lettermen will attempt to snag positions in the backfield — and only one or two of these were in starting positions last season.

How well the holes in the forward wall can be plugged and how well the newcomers will stand up under the pressures of the sea of charging gridgers are questions that have Schipper chewing his nails.

The coach's first and only maneuver in the infancy of practice is the decision to switch hulking Wade Deal to a tackle position. Last year's center substitutes Dave Nash and Dick Willing are front line candidates for Deal's position.

Deal, according to the coach, will make a much more effective tackle than some of the other line candidates because of his size and agility.

The star center on Northville's 1958 championship team will continue to kick the Mustang's extra point. All the coaches seem to agree that no one is likely to equal the accuracy of his "magic toe".

Other returning lettermen are: Roger Atkinson B, Blain Asby G, Arthur Fisher G, Joe Gotro E, Dave Hay B, Robert Hilton T, Mike Janchick G, Bill Juday G, Dave LaFond T, Fred Mitchell G, Gary Morgan B, Larry Nitzel B, Richard Ritter E, and Fred Steeper B.

The Rocks of Plymouth will look and feel more like boulders when the season opens September 18 at Ford Field Schipper predicts.

Boasting a "tougher-than-ever" squad, arch-rival Plymouth will be out to avenge its 1958, 12-6 loss. The Northville triumph over the Rocks last season was the first in three years. In previous contests Plymouth squeezed past Northville by the same score of 13-12.

Schipper refuses to look beyond the opening tilt with Plymouth — although he will admit there are several dark horses looming up in the Wayne-Oakland league race. The success of these "maybes", Schipper explains, depends a great deal upon the abilities of new head coaches at Clarkston, Clarenceville, Milford and Holly.

All of these are "problems" facing the coach of a championship team — but he's counting on a repeat of the '58 season as he barks commands at his players in the two-a-day practice sessions.

CHECKING IN — Three of the 17 returning lettermen check with Coach Ron Schipper for equipment as drills got underway this week. Coach Schipper's Mustangs have a tough record to beat. Last year the team failed to lose a game and extended its dominance of W-O League play to three consecutive years. Pictured (l. to r.) are Blaine Ashby, Wade Deal, Bill Juday and Schipper.

Stovall Wins Ann Arbor Post

A former Northville high school athlete has been named head football coach at Ann Arbor's University high school for the coming season.

Jack Stovall, who coached last year at Hartland, replaces Jay Stielstra.

Stovall, who co-captained the Mustang eleven, was a halfback on the University of Michigan squad in 1956. After graduation from Michigan in 1957 he attended the University of Delaware for a year on a fellowship. At Delaware, Stovall was assistant backfield coach for Davey Nelson, former U. of M. great and developer of the winged-T.

Stovall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Stovall, now reside in Howell. He is married to the former Jean Freydl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Freydl of Seven Mile road. The Stovalls have two children, Kristi 6 and Kevin 3.

Special Permits Out For Deer Season

Conservation department workers will begin mailing application cards for special deer hunting permits to some 4,200 license dealers in Michigan this week.

Distribution should be completed by September 15, giving hunters until midnight, October 10, to submit their applications to the department's Lansing office.

Versatile Morgan Horses Compete This Weekend

For spectators who like variety in their horse shows, the all-Morgan horse show scheduled for this Saturday and Sunday at Woods and Water Farms, Pontiac trail at Nine Mile in South Lyon, really fills the bill.

The annual event begins Saturday at 1 p.m. with the displaying of breed classes. Performance classes will be staged Sunday beginning at 10 a.m.

The show holds particular interest for many Northville residents. The new national president of the Morgan Horse Club, Inc. is G. F. Taft of West Eight Mile road, who will have an entry in the week end show. Other Northville entries are owned by the Milo Dugans and the Edwin Earebarts.

Taft has been a member of the board of directors of the Morgan Horse Club, Inc. for 12 years and was vice president for four years. He was elected head of the national organization during the annual National Morgan Horse Show last month at North Hampton, Massachusetts.

Competition in the Morgan events include saddle-horse classes, harness classes, speed events, English and western style riding and model classes displaying the finest examples of the breed.

Morgan breeders are extremely proud of their animals, which they consider the "All American" horse.

Originated in America, the Morgan was the horse that New Englanders worked on farms and then used for driving.

Morgan exhibitors are proud that this was the horse of Custer, Grant and Sheridan, of Brigham Young and the pioneers. Buggy horse or cow pony, the Morgan performed any task.

Spectators will find more than 100 top examples of the famous breed Saturday and Sunday at the Michigan show.

Two Local Boys Enter Bay City Tournament

Northville high school tennis teammates, John Rodgers, 15, son of the C. W. Rodgers' of Baseline, and Tom Long, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn C. Long of Baseline, took part Sunday in the Bay City Recreation Tennis tournament, which drew close to 200 participants, adults and youngsters from all parts of central Michigan.

Long finished in the semi-finals and Rodgers the quarter finals, both playing singles against some 60 boys 15 years and younger.

Though the boys are members of the Northville high tennis team they entered the Sunday tournament on their own.

Two weeks ago they participated in a similar tournament in Saginaw.

Fewer Train Riders

Babson Park, Mass. — The Boston & Albany (New York Central) and the Boston & Maine railroads are asking to drop scores of trains and stations. Increased fares are not the solution. People simply will not ride the trains if fares are increased further. I have just returned from Arizona on the swankiest train — the Santa Fe's "Superchief". There were 54 passengers in eight beautiful cars hauled by two engines and a crew of ten men. The passenger business will gradually decline to almost no riders. Now the riders are 90 percent old people; the young people travel in automobiles, buses and planes.

Railroads Are Doing Everything To Reduce Costs

The railroads have bought new passenger cars, which are air-conditioned. But they are cutting out checking trunks on many trains and are closing express offices. This saves carrying baggage cars and men to handle baggage, both at the stations and in the trains. Even the freight business is falling off, although the railroads are running faster freight service and adopting "piggyback" transport from point of loading to final destination. Now electrical freight yards are being built and salesmen are calling on shippers for business. Freight business may again increase, although the new federal highways will be another handicap.

The railroads, however, will successfully compete with the newspapers, magazines and billboards in selling advertising space. In dining cars, if there are any waiters, they will not bother with table linens; but will use only paper napkins and place mats. On these will be printed advertisements of the foods we are served! All stations and much right-of-way will be sold for advertising space, although this income may gradually decline as passengers become fewer. Freight cars and freight yards, however, offer some advertising possibilities for both national and local products.

What More Can the Railroads Do To Get Income?

The railroads are the largest real estate owners in the United States. This is true not only of the Santa Fe, the Union Pacific, the Northern Pacific and the Southern Pacific, but of every one of the 700 railroads now operating. Land owned but not now used by the railroads could be sold to pay up all their bond issues. Selling this land would not only save them interest and taxes, but would benefit the communities in which these 700 railroads operate. The railroads should be allowed to consolidate and raise or lower their rates of fare and freight charges.

Railroads having large terminals will stop trains 1,000 feet further out than the present stops; hence, unless there are more "red caps" passengers will have to carry their bags further. This will give the railroads some wonderful property, however, to rent for supermarkets, drive-in theaters, bowling alleys, etc. in the heart of the cities, irrespective of the decrease in passengers. These, moreover, could be two-story buildings, if desired, which would be readily financed by insurance companies.

Railroads Are Necessary

We must have the railroads for heavy freight. They are the life blood of the nation. This was proved during the two World Wars. When the railroads had a monopoly, they abused the people. They are now suffering from this but this will all be changed. It will be changed by greater efficiency, fairer labor and tax laws, and by their being given freedom to run their own business as do the bus companies, trucking concerns, airplane companies and taxis with which they must now compete.

Now a word — in closing — to investors: In most instances, you who hold railroad stocks might do well to sell them, putting the money in a bank until industrial stocks have their crash in price; then re-invest in good dividend-paying industrial stocks. You who hold railroad bonds should probably keep them. When the railroads wake up to the advantages of getting into the real estate and advertising business, most of these railroad bonds should be paid off at par.

Spotlight on Mackie

DEEP CONCERN was expressed within the state administration as the Senate prepared to investigate the highway department. Not since the days when Gov. G. Mennen Williams was focusing attention on the operation of former Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler has the spotlight of unfavorable publicity been centered so much on the department's administrative practices.

Considerable furor existed even before the investigating committee was officially named.

Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said he would rather be spending his time building roads than answering questions.

Sen. John H. Stahlin (R-Belding), who authored the resolution setting up the probe, told Mackie not to worry. He intended to get most of his information from independent sources.

Any investigating committee can be a forum for powerful thrust in the drive by politicians and administrators alike for favorable public opinion.

Mackie already has called on his public information section to answer statements by Stahlin.

Resources of the Republican State Central Committee's press agent were thrown into the battle to help pave the way for the investigation when a dispute developed over right of way procedures in Gratiot county.

Legislative investigations often are barren of conclusions. When there are conclusions, they often are not translated into laws or changes in administrative practices.

The lack of reform by law, however, does not diminish the effectiveness of legislative investigations.

Getting a point across to the public is often satisfaction enough for the investigator or the investigated. Both Mackie and Stahlin will be using all of their skill and resourcefulness to do this during the time when publicity is focused on the investigation.

A SEVERE SETBACK for thousands of users of Michigan state parks. That's the way House Speaker Don R. Pears described Gov. G. Mennen Williams' veto of the bill to charge entrance fees to finance a park improvement program.

But Williams said there was still time to get an adequate and equitable financing plan ready for the 1960 park use season.

The governor's veto of the park bill was generally regarded as a surprise.

Williams, who favors a bonding program, shortly before the veto had announced he was "opposed to but not opposing" this year's bill.

It has been three years since the Conservation Commission has had capital outlay money for state parks. The park fee bill, which called for an annual charge of $2, would have been too late for the 1959 season.

During the past three years, it has been a battle between the park fee approach and bonding.

This year's bill would have used the fees to retire a five-million-dollar bond program.

But the governor, who said 30 million dollars was needed, said the program was "grossly inadequate" and a "feeble effort".

ALMOST AS surprising as the veto of the park fee bill was the signatory Williams put on a bill requiring reflectorized license plates.

Motorists next year will pay a 35-cent fee when they purchase license plates.

The governor said he was for the bill because traffic safety experts had assured him it would help cut the death toll on highways.

Opponents of the bill objected to what they considered to be undue pressure by lobbyists.

Sen. John H. Stahlin (R-Belding) said a Minnesota firm was the only one able to meet specifications for the reflectorized material to be used in coating the plates.

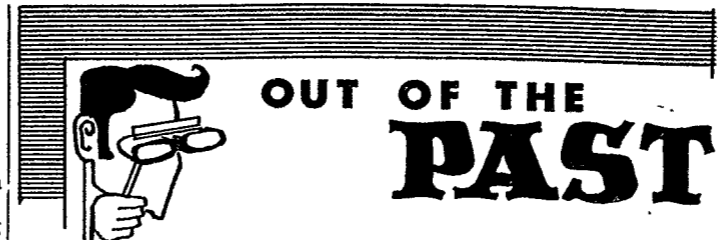

But State Controller James W. Miller has assured Stahlin others will be bidding.

Stahlin, incidentally, claimed rumors were being circulated that he was trying to lower the specifications for the material so his Belding manufacturing firm could compete.

"This is not true," Stahlin said. "We don't want anything to do with the thing."

The new type plates will be mandatory beginning in 1961. However, the extra fee will be charged a year early to build up a fund for purchase of the material that will make plates pick up light and reflect it at night.

As one aftermath of the license plate bill, the 1959 plates will last two years instead of the three originally intended. It had been planned that tabs would be used in the upper right hand corner of the 1959 plates in 1960 and 1961.

ONE YEAR AGO . . . Warren Products, Inc. served notice this week that it will continue its fight against annexation into the city of Northville.

Officials of the Baseline road plant have taken steps to appeal the July decision of Oakland County Circuit Judge-Clark J. Adams to the state supreme court.

Novi school district voters will finally be asked on September 22 to come to grips with the district's current financial squeeze.

Official steps were taken Tuesday night by the Northville city council to get its water improvement program underway.

FIVE YEARS AGO . . . Following three separate requests for an autopsy to confirm the cause of the death of James A. Tizard, 70, of 580 Plymouth avenue, last Saturday night, the Wayne county coroner's office has ordered that one be held.

Fifteen Northville elm trees are infested with the dreaded Dutch elm disease and must be removed, returns from the MSC laboratory revealed Wednesday.

More than 1,300 high school students and elementary school pupils will troop back to their classes next Tuesday as the 1954-55 school year gets underway.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO . . . Cooperating with the request of the state and county health authorities, Northville schools have postponed the dates of opening from September 6 to September 13.

Organized by a committee consisting of Richard Shipley, the Misses Gertrude Deal, Wilma Rattenbury and Marie Humphries, and Warner Neal, the reunion was a complete success.

Village sidewalks will be repaired, announces Street Superintendent Earl Montgomery.

NO "FAVORS" INVOLVED . . .

A number of years ago, William Wrigley, the chewing-gum maker and ball-club owner, decided that everyone in America knew about his gum and that there was no further need to advertise it . . . so he ceased advertising.

He also almost lost the gum business. As well known as his gum was . . . when he was advertising it . . . it was quickly forgotten by millions of people. Other gums were being advertised, so people bought them. Mr. Wrigley put his advertising back to work and saved his business.

Wrigley never made the mistake, however, of thinking his advertising was a "favor" to the news papers, and other media in which he placed it. He was in business of making sales, not extending favors. Yet, this is an error often made by some retail merchants. They feel that everyone knows they are in business, and their advertising is only a favor to the newspaper.

Actually, it is no favor at all . . . any more than it is a favor when customers buy what advertisers have to sell. The absence of vigorous, continual local advertising does as much to drive people to go off somewhere else to shop as the siren lures of distant merchants.

Advertising, thought-out advertising, is news and people look for such news where they can find it. Trade always goes to the active merchandiser and the consistent advertisers of genuine values.

No "favors" are involved.

The merchant who thinks everyone knows him too often gets around to advertising only when he has a going-out-of-business sale. It has happened many times.
