

SIGN HERE 300 TIMES — Before Northville can receive its $300,000 for the water improvement program the 300 $1,000 bonds must be signed by Mayor A. Malcolm Allen and Clerk Mary Alexander. The mayor completed his job earlier this week. The bonds become negotiable when Clerk Alexander adds her signature today in Detroit. The city has immediate obligations on the water project of some $125,000. The remaining $175,000 will be invested in 91-day government notes bearing approximately four percent interest. Most of the improvement program will not be completed and payable until next spring.

Hospital Still Hopes For Blue Cross Aid

It will be October 29 before Community General hospital authorities know whether the facility has been accepted for full membership in the Blue Cross plan. But in the meantime, they are doing everything possible to bring about acceptance.

Co-owner Abraham Farris stated, this week that plans are going ahead to broaden the board of directors, form a women's auxiliary and, in other ways, gain community interest and participation in the hospital.

He said that the hospital stood ready to accept donations for memorial rooms, a future addition or new equipment as needed to give even further evidence of community participation. "I'll even make a donation myself," Farris added.

Beyond this, Farris further stated that the hospital is taking immediate steps to assure care for all patients — whether under Blue Cross or other plans.

"So that Blue Cross members can receive care here, we are accepting them) at the $14-a-day rates which are available to us now under the non-participating Blue Cross plan," Farris stated.

In effect, the hospital is accepting the Blue Cross patients and gambling that on October 29, when the trustees of the Blue Cross organization consider Community General's application, that it will be accepted.

The hospital authorities learned last week that there was a strong possibility that the hospital could not qualify for membership because of its organizational set-up. The hospital is a proprietary, non-profit corporation. Blue Cross prefers that new members be strictly "community" or religious in support.

Opened early this month, the hospital was acquired this summer by Farris and Dr. H. L. Berge and completely renovated and re-equipped. It was formerly Sessions hospital.

The hospital has an open staff of physicians headed by Dr. V. George Chabot representing the communities of Northville, Livonia, South Lyon and Plymouth.

Hospital authorities generally believe that public reaction will play a strong role in gaining admittance to Blue Cross for the local hospital.

The city council already stepped into the picture by directing a letter to Blue Cross asking that the local facility be accepted. Other area Blue Cross members have indicated that they are writing to the organization pointing out the need for the hospital within the area.

Many believe that without Blue Cross the hospital cannot survive. Without the full benefits patients receive only $14 per day payment from Blue Cross. This is about one-half the average cost. It is estimated that nearly 70 percent of those carrying hospital insurance in this area are under the Blue Cross plan.

In informing the local hospital of the possibility of gaining only non-participating status the Blue Cross examiner pointed out that the reason was purely organizational. He lauded the condition and equipment of the hospital.

Stores Move to New Sidewalks Friday

Business will bust right out of the stores onto the sidewalks Friday when some 30 Northville merchants celebrate their brand new sidewalks with a price-cutting Sidewalk Sale!

The event will start sharply at 9 a.m. and early shoppers will reap a host of values.

The merchants association itself will join the celebration with a table of different values every hour. Their table will be located at Main and Center streets. One of the featured items will be bread at five cents a loaf.

Other outstanding savings include $12 per square yard carpet samples at 98c; $18.50 jackets as low as $1 and $4; gingerale at 96 cents a case; chenille bedspreads washed and dried for one cent; men's watch straps for 15 cents; half-gallon of ice cream for 39c; malted milks at 15c and many, many more values that you can find advertised throughout the pages of this week's edition.

What's more, the city is cooperating with the merchants by permitting free parking all day Friday.

Most merchants are going "all out" to make this one of the biggest one-day sale events in the history of Northville. Installation of new sidewalks throughout the business district has provided an excellent reason for the promotion.

All the participating merchants will bring their specials out of the stores and display them on sidewalk tables. Many of the items will be slashed to ridiculous prices to add fun to the carnival-like atmosphere — and also rid the store of merchandise that is first quality, but slow moving.

Committee members Roy Stone, Fred Kester, Essie Nirider, Harry Sedan and Charles Altman believe that the Sidewalk Sale has more participating merchants than any other event promoted locally. Many items to be offered are unadvertised and will come as a surprise to shoppers. Chances are, as the day progresses, merchants will bring new merchandise out to their sidewalk tables to keep the event going.

And, if the weatherman refuses to cooperate and rain should fall, the sale will be held Saturday.

'We're Broke' Says Recreation Head

Department Needs $1500 for Fall Program

Recreation Director Stan Johnston told city council members Monday night that the community recreation department is virtually "broke".

With the winter and spring recreation program still ahead Director Johnston said that $1,500 was needed to complete the schedule.

Johnston blamed the department's plight on an unexpected increase in participation in the summer recreation program.

Specifically, the department has $419.31 in cash and some $2700 at $300 per month still coming from the township. Current obligations total $2914.88.

This leaves the department with a cash balance of approximately $200 to finance the fall and spring program which Johnston estimates will cost $1825.

With the exception of Councilman Ed Welch the news came as something of a shock to councilmen. Welch is a member of the recreation committee that had "faced the facts" in a special meeting Saturday and decided upon a course to follow.

Other members of the recreation committee are Mrs. Alex Lawrence, Robert Merriam, Al Jones and Richard Kay.

As a result of Saturday's meeting Johnston said the committee was suggesting that the city and township contribute another $500 each for the current-year program. The recreation department would then plan a fund-raising event to obtain the remaining $500.

Northville's recreation department operates under a $9,600 yearly budget. Based on participation, the city pays $6,000 and the township $3,600.

Johnston explained that summer expenses rose sharply because of the ideal weather — which resulted in 42 swimming days out of 45 — and the total participation in the summer program hit an all-time high of 15,000.

"It's impossible to predict participation, therefore difficult to plan a budget," Johnston told the council. He pointed out that during his five years as director participation had tripled, yet the budget had been increased only $1100.

Johnston said that additional buses and more lifeguards were needed for the heavy swimming program and that many employees worked more hours than he had expected would be necessary.

While Councilman Welch was sympathetic to the recreation cause, Mayor A. Malcolm Allen and Councilman John Canterbury were not so easily convinced.

"This is poor budget control. If there are too many swimmers, then cut down on the swimming — or come and ask us for money at the time," Canterbury declared.

The mayor also suggested that some system of alternating the swimming days so that the same children did not attend every day might have been used. "There's no question it's a good program, but we can't have all our departments coming back and asking for more money. We can't turn to the people for more," he added.

Coincidentally, two citizens from the audience interjected opinions. One supported a complete recreation program with an increase in taxes if necessary. The other criticized the expenditure of $9,600 as too high for a community the size of Northville. In answer to the latter's question as to how Northville compared with other communities, Director Johnston admitted that it was "highly favorable".

"I'd rather have these youngsters busy with recreation than getting in trouble, however," Johnston said.

While the council decides what action to take, Johnston will carry the news to the township board.

$141.80 Collected In Polio Casters

Emergency March of Dimes canister collection Chairman Mrs. Fred Russell reported this week that $141.80 was contributed to the drive in canisters placed in downtown Northville businesses.

This brings the total close to $900 almost equaling the total collected in the regular drive this winter. Mothers' March collections held last month netted $690.60.

The emergency appeal was made to replenish national funds which had been depleted by polio epidemics and high medical costs last year.

In the regular annual March of Dimes campaign held early this year Northville residents contributed $1,061.

Council Letters

The city council was in a letter-writing mood Monday night and quickly approved two communications on behalf of community interests.

First the council approved a letter to the A&P company in Detroit offering city assistance in planning the proposed new supermarket. The council particularly used that company to remain in the downtown business district.

Secondly, the council sent a letter to the Blue Cross authorities requesting that the board of trustees look favorably upon the application of Community General hospital for full membership in the plan.

Rotary Rummage Offers More Weekend Values

Do you like bargains?

You're bound to find plenty this week end! In addition to the merchant's sidewalk sale the Northville Rotary club will be staging its annual rummage sale Friday and Saturday in the grandstands at Northville Downs.

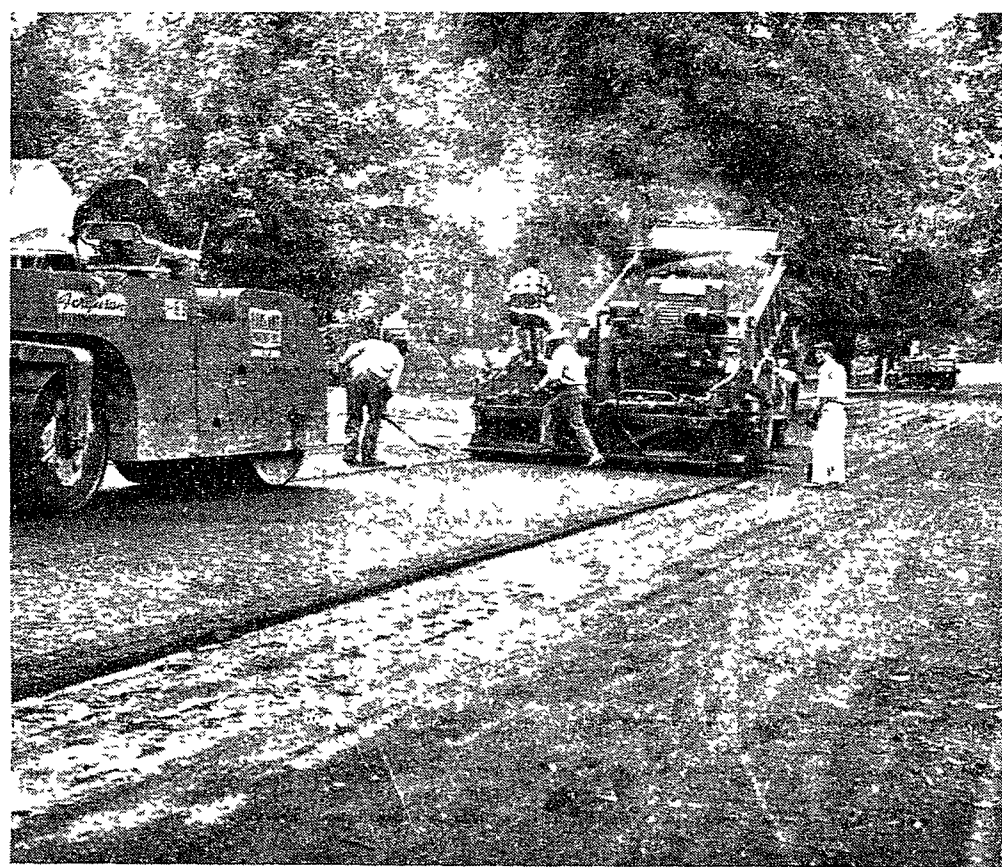

Chairman Wally Westerfield says the club has one of its largest selections of clothing and household items in the history of the annual event.

Judy to Appear On TV Program

That popular brand of gasoline that claims "you can expect more" will be providing something extra in viewer interest for Northville residents Monday night.

Special guest on the Jac LeGoff 11 p.m. newscast will be City Councilman Richard Judy, owner and operator of Judy's Standard Service, 302 East Main. Judy's appearance is part of a series by the sponsor of the program pointing out the role its service operators play in community life.

The program may be seen over WJBK-TV, channel two.

PAVING COMPLETED — Northville has had more than its share of streets and parking lots paved during the last two weeks. Above contractors are shown finishing the paving of South Wing street. Wing court, First and Fairbrook streets were also paved as a part of the same project. Last week the same paving crew completed the access road from Center street to the new high school and installed the parking lot behind the high school. The city parking lot on Dunlap street was also paved. Novi street is next.

Fire Sweeps Bob O' Link Clubhouse

Firemen from four area volunteer units are credited with arresting a roaring $10,000 blaze that threatened to destroy the entire Bob O' Link Golf clubhouse early Tuesday morning.

In less than an hour after the arrival of the first Novi fire truck at 2:30 a.m. the bulk of the fire which sent flames spiraling high above the clubhouse was extinguished.

Midge Cova, Bob O' Link professional, who himself was overcome by the smoke and heat, called the fire fighting job "the best I've ever seen." Cova said that he did not believe the building could be saved when he first saw the flames leaping from the roof.

Units from Northville, Walled Lake and Lyon township aided the local department. Lincoln-Mercury plant protection men refilled empty tankers at a plant hydrant.

managed by Russell A. Shields of Detroit, is fully insured. Originally, the clubhouse was a farm home. Later, after it was turned into a golf clubhouse, two additions were added to the building.

Less than a year ago fire nearly destroyed another frame golf clubhouse at Brae-Burn Golf Club on Five Mile road near Napier. An escaped prisoner from the Detroit House of Correction set off the Brae-Burn blaze.

Plans Underway For 21er Banquet

New citizens — those who have just come of voting age and those naturalized this year — will be honored by the Northville Coordinating Council and Optimist club at the annual "21-ers" banquet October 21.

Plans were announced this week by Banquet Chairman Robert L. Hart, second vice president of the Optimist club.

Letters will be going out this week to young people who will have become 21 between the November elections of 1958 and 1959. These people, after they have registered to vote, along with newly naturalized citizens, will be honored guests.

Names for the guest list are obtained through the school, but if there are persons living in this area who have not received a letter of invitation and are eligible, they are asked to call Mrs. Reng, FI-9-3268.

The dinner will be held at 6:30 p.m. in St. Paul's Lutheran church social hall.

Dr. Arthur Bromage of the University of Michigan political science department will be guest speaker.

Committee preparations for the event are being handled by members of both groups, Hart said.

From the Coordinating Council Mrs. William Cansfield is in charge of publicity. Mrs. O. F. Reng heads recruitment. Miss Ruth Knapp is decorations chairman.

The groups met last week to discuss final plans. Mrs. Essie Nirider, newly elected president of the coordinating council, replaces David Cameron who moved from Northville recently.

P-TA Open House Tonight at NHS

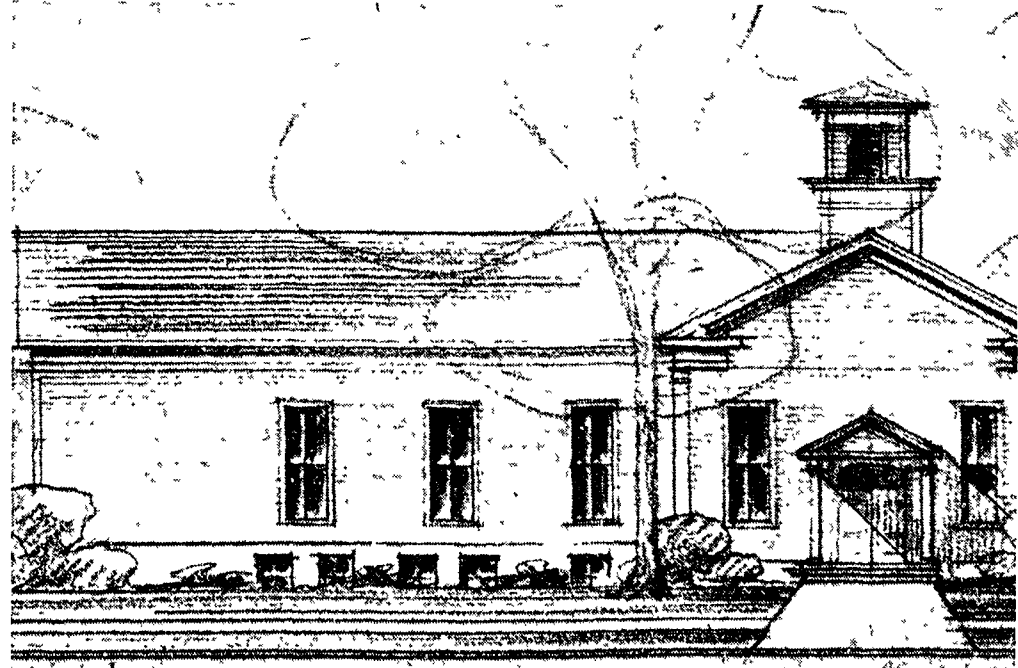

The P-TA open house tour of the new Northville high school will be held this evening, 8-10 p.m.

Visitors are asked to assemble in the auditorium between 7:30 and 8 p.m. Schedules of exhibits and maps of the school will be distributed at 8 sharp.

Refreshments will be served throughout the evening in the cafeteria.

Mrs. Fran Gazlay is program chairman.

Baptists Plan $60,000 Addition

ARTIST'S SKETCH of the addition to the First Baptist church shows the addition extending south on Wing street. Construction is scheduled to begin in late October.

Plans for a $60,000 addition to the First Baptist church of Northville, Wing and Randolph streets, have been approved and construction slated for late October.

Announcement of the 60'x50' addition was made by the Reverend Peter F. Nieuwkoop.

The addition, which will extend southward from the present structure along Wing street, will increase the church capacity from 200 to between 350 and 375. Included will be a full basement providing Sunday school classrooms and kitchen and dining facilities.

Rev. Nieuwkoop said the New England type of architecture will be maintained. The direction of the auditorium will be changed from east-west to north-south by the new addition.

To help provide room and adequate parking space for the enlarged church Rev. Nieuwkoop stated that the congregation had purchased adjoining houses on Wing and Randolph streets. The present parsonage will be demolished or moved and the newly acquired house on Randolph will become the parsonage.

The addition is expected to be completed early next year when the local church will be celebrating its 125th year in Northville.

Evelyn Clark, Gerald Graham Married in Plymouth Church

A Nevada honeymoon awaited Evelyn V. Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Clark of Garfield road, and Gerald J. Graham, son of Floyd E. Graham of North Center street and the late Mrs. Graham after their August wedding in St. John's Episcopal church, Plymouth.

The Rev. David T. Davies performed the candlelight service, before an altar decked with gladioli and chrysanthemums. The bride wore a white taffeta floor-length gown fashioned with a lace and pearl-edged portrait neckline. Lace and pearl appliques trimmed the skirt front. A pearl crown held her fingertip veil. She carried a white Bible, a gift of the groom's father, cybidium orchids and stephanotis.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Dolly Myers was matron of honor. She wore an aqua silk shantung sheath dress with a net overskirt, a matching hat and carried a fan decorated with deep pink gladioli.

Bridesmaids, carrying light pink glads on fans were Maxine Lapham, sister of the bride, and Judy Huff. Their dresses were the same as the matron of honor's.

—Samuel Johnson

FROM WISCONSIN come August Newcomers Duane, Gwen and Chuckie Marshall, pictured with "Pokey", beside the stone fireplace in their Maxwell road home.

Spooner and Menominee, Wisconsin are old home towns of Northville newcomers, Duane and Gwen Marshall of Maxwell road.

Both are originally from Spooner.

Their most recent home, and that of their two-year-old son, Chuckie, has been Menominee, where they attended Stout college. Duane majored in industrial arts education and is an industrial arts teacher at Wayne County Training school. Gwen received her degree in home economics. At school she was affiliated with Delta Zeta sorority.

The Marshalls have never been in Michigan before, but it seems like they have. In Wisconsin they tell us, they could look forward to getting letters sent by mistake to our own northern Menominee, on the average of twice a week.

Hobby-wise Duane likes to re-finish furniture and has done over most of their home pieces. Gwen is anxious to know if any of her sorority sisters are living here too.

The Marshalls arrived in Northville late last month.

Amerman Teachers' Lounge Decorated by Mothers Club

Coming from a group of mothers the idea was a natural.

This week — after four years of preparation by the Northville Mothers' club — Amerman school teachers have a retreat of their own.

The whole project started four years ago when the club gave the school a few pieces of furniture for a teachers' room.

When the south wing of the building was opened two years later, a faculty lounge was provided, but due to overcrowded conditions, was converted to a classroom the next year.

The club went ahead anyway and raised another $400 for more furnishings.

With completion of the high school this fall and classroom crowding relieved, the room returned to its rightful occupants. Interior decoration got underway last week.

Furnishings now include several lounge chairs, two couches, a folding table, three lamps, a mirror, scatter tables, a throw rug, coffee table, drapes and two end tables.

Principal Richard Kay reported that the Amerman faculty is very pleased and thankful for the contribution.

"This is actually an indirect aid to the children," he said, "for if a teacher is able to escape from the rigors of classroom instruction for a few minutes a day, he or she is more mentally alert and ready to handle classroom problems. The value of a teacher's mental attitude in the classroom is immeasurable."

The Mothers' club, a service organization founded to aid local schools, last year donated an opaque projector to Northville schools.

Friday the Mothers' club will sponsor a fudge and cookie booth beside the Northville Realty office, in the merchants' sidewalk sale.

BPW to Meet Monday

Monday is meet-the-agenda night for Northville Business and Professional Women, and it promises to be filled with new and exciting program ideas.

Several committees plan interesting programs for the year, says Publicity Chairman Mrs. Mary Alexander.

Dinner will be served at 6:30 in the First Presbyterian church hall. All members are urged to attend.

Bake Sale Saturday

Northville Eagles auxiliary will hold a bake sale at the Merritt Real Estate agency Saturday.

Pies, cakes and cookies, as well as baked beans, will be sold.

Kickoff at Country Club

Next Friday, October 2 is a red letter day for the Northville Woman's club.

The much-anticipated opening meeting will be held that noon at Farmington Country club, Twelve Mile and Novi roads.

According to tradition the meeting will honor life members and past presidents. President Mary Yahne will preside.

The featured talk, "Life with a Capital 'L'" will be presented by Assistant Professor Dr. Loren LaMont Okey of the University of Michigan department of speech.

Members Mrs. John Robertson accompanied by Mrs. William Williams will entertain with musical selections.

Dr. Okey received his PhD at the University of Michigan and attended Iowa State Teachers college and Cornell college.

Married and the father of two children, Dr. Okey is chairman of the Interpretation Interest group of the Speech Association of America. He is also a member of Phi Kappa Phi, Theta Alpha Phi, Ann Arbor Council of Churches and the Michigan Speech association. During World War II he served in the U.S. Navy Reserve Medical Corps.

Brotherly Love!

Northville police refereed an all-night brotherly fracas last Tuesday.

At 2:15 a.m. Ora Orman Greenhoe, 111 West Main, reported that his brother, Lewis, injured him in a fight.

Police found him on Main street, cut and bleeding, and took him to Community General hospital, where he was treated and released two hours later.

Police escorted him home. Five minutes later Greenhoe called officers again to say that he and his brother had clashed again.

He was taken to the police office where he signed a complaint, and spent the night.

Lewis Greenhoe was later fined $25 and court costs by Judge E. M. Bogart, and ordered to pay his brother's medical expenses for injuries incurred in the fight.

NEWS FROM THE
AMERICAN LEGION

POST 147
REX HOLLOMAN — REPORTER

D. J. Stark, rector of Northville, sent the following to me, and I would like to share the letter and editorial with you.

"Dues paying time again and some of us wonder if it's worth it to belong just a plain sleepy dues paying member. Enclosed please find an editorial written by the editor of the Cocoa Tribune of Cocoa, Florida relative to the American Legion. I believe this fine editorial just about puts everything in a nutshell as to why I pay my dues in the organization."

From the editorial: "When one considers the many threats which face democracy today, and the subversive and unpatriotic and divisive elements which seek to weaken the United States, the role the American Legion plays in American life is appreciated."

The American Legion usually takes patriotic and strong stands, and sometimes these stands irk those who feel that the Legion is "flag-waving". However, there has not been enough flag waving in this country in the last ten or 15 years, and certainly it is a much-needed thing in the U.S.

It, of course, can be overdone, and, we do not believe that anyone should be persecuted unfairly because of nationalistic or patriotic excitement. On the other hand, it is time that someone looked out for the best interests of the United States, and its survival, and the American Legion is generally sound on these things.

For example, at the last Legion convention, a resolution was passed blasting the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural organization. The resolution accused this agency of furnishing American schools with material that was "contrary to the American way of life."

We believe this is a sound indictment, and that the resolution passed will do some good. Also, the American Legion adopted a resolution blasting Hollywood movie producers for pro-communist films and dialogues, and we think this is, and was, a much-needed indictment.

Of course, the American Legion at its conventions has made some mistakes, but so has every other organization and everyone. On the whole, the patriotic anti-communist vigilant attitude in the American Legion, as reflected in its national conventions, is a good counter-balance in the sea of communist propaganda, communist agitation, communist-inspired race agitation, and other divisive forces which are at work among us."

Mr. Stark continues on to say: "And the nice part of it is: that some Northville citizens, and Legion members, known only to a very few and without any fan-fare and very little noise, have made their efforts count gallantly in their vigilant attitude of holding on to our American way of life and exposing the un-American element within our own midst in this community."

The Northville post is just a wee small cog in the big American Legion wheel, but altogether, the Legion's actions speak loudly from the sunny shores of Florida to the snow-capped peaks at Copper Harbor. This editor, a woman outstanding for her community activities in central Florida, has expressed her honest sentiments in her usual fine journalism in terms that I am proud to belong."

I want to thank D. J. Stark for sending this letter to me.

Colts Tie Plymouth
In Season Opener, 6-6

Northville's young junior varsity eleven, which last year compiled a 6-1 record, battled to a 6 to 6 tie with Plymouth Tuesday night in the season opener.

Halfback Tom Swiss galloped around end in the third quarter to score the Colts' lone touchdown. Plymouth also crossed the magic line in the third quarter on a 35-yard pass play.

Northville Coach Joe Wilkinson, who during pre-season practice wasn't sure of his team's potential, said the squad played fine ball and showed great potential.

Obituary

MRS. DORA G. HICKS

Funeral services were held September 21 for Mrs. Dora G. Hicks, 78, of 12743 Roselawn, Detroit, who passed away September 18 at Eastlawn Resthaven home. She had been ill for the past two years. Mrs. Hicks was born November 12, 1880, in Novi township, the daughter of William J. and Grace (Collen) Tiffin. Her husband, Albert, preceded her in death 20 years ago. Mrs. Hicks is survived by two sons, Floyd of Detroit and Arthur of Pontiac. She also leaves a sister, Mrs. Jettie Hamilton of Northville; two brothers, William of Northville and Charles of Wixom; and a granddaughter, Judith Lee. The Rev. Paul Cargo officiated at last rites from the Casterline Funeral home. Burial was in Oakland Hills cemetery, Novi.

EARL M. MARKHAM

Former Northville resident, Earl M. Markham, 50, of 317 Ann street, Plymouth, died suddenly September 18 at Atchison Memorial hospital after suffering a heart attack. Mr. Markham, born in Northville December 7, 1908 was the son of Horace and Mary Emma (Malloy) Markham. He leaves his wife, Wilva; a daughter, Irene, and a son, Ronald N., all of Plymouth. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Mazie Markham of Northville, and two brothers, William of New Hudson and Horace of Wayne. Mr. Markham moved to Plymouth from Northville in 1928. He was a member of the Plymouth First Methodist church and had been employed as a repairman for the Michigan Bell telephone company. The Rev. M. I. Johnson, D.D., conducted services at the Schrader Funeral home, Plymouth. Burial was in Lakeside cemetery, Holly, Michigan.

MRS. CARRIE WOODWORTH

Mrs. Carrie Woodworth, 79, 418 West Main street, passed away September 14 at Henry Ford hospital, Detroit, after a lengthy illness. Mrs. Woodworth was born December 19, 1879 in Northville, the daughter of Marvin and Lucy (Ambler) Bovee. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Virginia Bake of Northville and Mrs. Jean Buttermore of Plymouth, and a son, Harold, of Los Angeles, California. Mrs. Woodworth was a lifelong resident of Northville. Services were held September 17 from the Dempsey B. Ebert Funeral home Mr. F. Hull of Ann Arbor, a former Christian Science reader, officiated. Burial was in Rural Hill cemetery.

Northville Pioneer Dies September 14

One of Northville's oldest and best loved citizens, Miss Ada Roe, 90, of 508 West Cady, passed away September 14 at University hospital in Ann Arbor after a three weeks illness.

Miss Roe was born in Plymouth August 9, 1869, the daughter of Ambrose and Electa Roe. Soon after her birth her family moved to Salem where she spent her early life and taught country school.

The family moved to Northville in 1865, and Miss Roe spent the next 64 years in their original residence on Cady street.

With the passing of their parents she and her sister, Jessie, continued to share the home until Jessie died 39 years ago.

A devout member of the Northville First Presbyterian church, Miss Roe endeared herself to friends with her kindness and bright wit. In good health, she was able to keep active with her work and interests almost to the end of her life.

Possibly the most thrilling event in her memory occurred only a few months ago. In her diary for May 8 she wrote, "Great excitement, a jet plane crashed in the back yard."

Services were held last Friday from the Casterline Funeral home. The Rev. John O. Taxis, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated.

NEW EQUIPMENT — The city wasted little time in putting this new tractor with back hoe and front loader into use. The unit was purchased last week and was on the job Monday trenching for installation of a water line to connect a new fire hydrant behind the Main and Center street stores. The project is part of the city's $300,000 water system improvement program. Operator of the unit is Bill Osborne.

Do you see any prophetic significance in Russia sending their rocket to the moon? L.N.

If you are asking me whether I know of some verse in the Bible which foretells of this scientific achievement, then I would have to say, "No". However, there are two other factors in your question which are of prophetic importance. (1) The great advancement of knowledge (scientific or otherwise) is of prophetic importance. We read in Daniel 12.4 (Written 534 BC) "But thou Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end; many shall run to and fro, AND KNOWLEDGE SHALL BE INCREASED". The second factor is the rise of Russia. Joshua Kunitz says in his book entitled, "Russia, the giant that came last" — "For 1000 years Russia remained to all appearance an intellectual and spiritual void contributing very little to the cultural life of the world. A study of Russian history shows that this down trodden people have never been a nation to be reckoned with before. Today she is challenging the power of the great U.S.A. Back in Ezekiel 38-39 (589 B.C.) the Bible pictures Russia as a mighty force. Students of prophetic scriptures tell us plainly that we are nearing the end of the age.

3 Area Residents Win Top Honors At Horse Show

Three Northville area residents captured stake honors in the second annual Friendship Horse Show which closed Sunday at Novi.

Competing with close to 90 other horse owners who rode, drove or displayed approximately 150 animals, the three took first and second places in the Morgan Fine Harness Stake, and first in the Fine Harness Stake.

The local winners are: Eddy Earehart with "Billy B. Geddes", first; Walter Carrol with "Foxy Ann" of Greenhill Farm, second, in Morgan stake; and Muriel Haxer, with "Corvette", first, Fine Harness stake.

Other first place stake winners: Western, Linda Sinkler on "Co-ca", Ann Arbor; Five Gaited, Oak Knoll Farm, "Stony Ridge Sensation", Milford; Walking, Dottie B. Ellis, "E-S Midnight Lady", Birmingham; Three Gaited, Mahogany Farm, "Mahogany Fair Lady", Ann Arbor; Amateur Five Gaited, Mrs. H. E. Pedersen, "Blazing Linda Lou", Dearborn.

Trophies and cash prizes were awarded to winners in the stake and show events.

Sponsored by Henry Jennings and sanctioned by the Michigan Horse Show association, Lansing, the Friendship Show is held each year at the George Chapman stables, corner Nine Mile and Haggerty roads.

Part of the proceeds received by the Friendship club will be turned over to the United Negro College fund.

Mrs. Sam Kelly of Livonia was secretary of the show.

ANOTHER SUCCESS — The second annual Friendship Horse Show closed Sunday on another successful season. George Chapman, owner of the show stables at the corner of Nine Mile and Haggerty roads, (on horse), thanks Warren Comstock of Chicago, English horse judge. Mrs. Sam Kelly of Livonia, show secretary, and Bernie Weisbarth of Berea, Ohio, western judge, are shown at the left.

Cross Country Squad Speeds Away October 2

Northville's first cross-country track team will launch its fall schedule October 2 at Milford, Coach Chuck Yahn announced this week.

Four other meets have been scheduled and negotiations for still other meets are underway, he said.

The Mustangs will travel to West Bloomfield on October 6, to Walled Lake on October 9, and to Thurston on October 19.

A league meet is scheduled for October 16 at Kensington park.

"IT'S LIKE THIS, you can't win if your offense isn't clicking," Assistant Northville Coach Dutch Van Ingen (back to camera) probably is telling Plymouth's coach, Mike Hoben. Coach Ron Schipper, who saw his football squad take it on the chin after 17 consecutive wins, looks on just after congratulating the Plymouth mentor following the game.

17-GAME WIN STREAK ENDS

Mustangs Lose 9-0 To Rocks

Rounding the curve of another grid season Friday, the Northville Mustangs smashed head-on into a pile of Rocks and tumbled from a mountainous winning streak, 9-0.

The two squads opened the 1959 season here on the Ford Field gridiron before a capacity crowd.

The Plymouth roadblock halted a 17-game winning streak and gave the Rocks the most decisive win over the Mustangs since 1955 when they romped to a 36-0 victory.

Last season Northville humbled Plymouth 12-6.

The 17-game string of victories included both league and non-league contests.

Another more important record will go on the line tomorrow when the Mustangs clash with Holly on the Broncos' gridiron in the first league tilt of the new season.

To date the Northville eleven has chalked up 25 league victories in a row — and not another team is more cognizant of this record than Holly, for it was in October of 1955 that Northville started its unbeaten string with a resounding 32-0 victory over the Broncos.

Since 1955 the Northville gridders have pelted Holly with four straight losses, including last season's 26-6 debacle.

In losing Friday, the Mustangs played what probably was their poorest offensive game in three years.

The local gridders gained only 43 yards on the ground and 30 yards in the air for a total of three first downs. The Rocks, on the other hand, gained 183 yards on the ground and 67 yards in the air for eight first downs.

Northville's deepest penetration into Plymouth territory came in the fourth quarter in a drive from scrimmage that started on the Plymouth 45 yard line. It ended on the Plymouth 34 as the Rocks picked off the second of three interceptions in the game.

With less than 30 seconds to play before the half, Plymouth's triple-threat quarterback, Randy Egloff, booted a 16 yard field goal that nearly struck the cross-bar.

The field goal climaxed a Rock drive that started on the Plymouth 38 where Don Argor recovered a Northville fumble.

By far the most unusual and profitable play of the contest was the 72-yard touchdown gallop by Egloff in the fourth quarter.

According to one of the officials closest to the action this is what happened:

Egloff took the ball from center, plunged into a swarm of would-be tacklers, and then either Egloff or a team member screamed "fumble". While gridders from both teams searched the ground for the ball, Egloff squirmed from the left side of the pack and raced for the game's only touchdown. An end run for the extra points failed.

Northville drew only one penalty during the game for a loss of five yards, while Plymouth was nicked for four penalties which cost 26 yards.

Out of five fumbles, Plymouth lost the ball three times. Northville, on the other hand, committed three fumbles and lost the ball twice.

Other statistics:

Punts, Northville 5, for an average of 34 yards; Plymouth 5 for 30 yard average; passes, Northville attempted 14 completed 4, and Plymouth attempted 7, completed 4.

4 Other Leaguers Take Short End

Northville wasn't the only Wayne-Oakland league football squad to take it on the chin last week end.

Four other league teams went down to defeat in season openers, and one other settled for a tie.

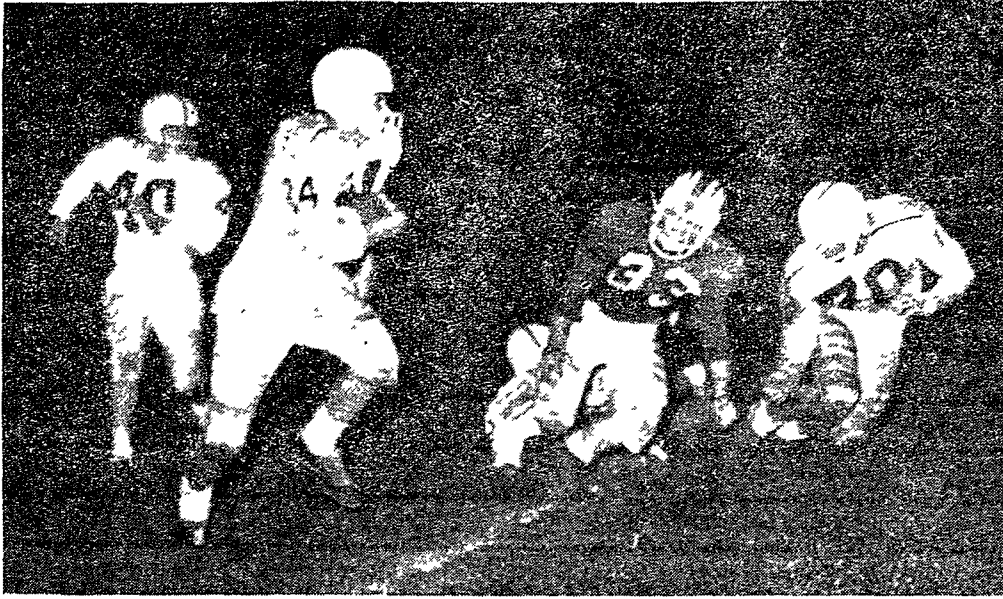

Holly lost to Grand Blanc, 33-13; Milford was clipped by Avondale, 20-7; Clarenceville fell to Ypsilanti Lincoln, 21-7, and Clarkson lost to Oxford, 13-12.

Bloomfield Hills was the only league squad to post an opening victory. The Barons rocked Oak Park, 18-6.

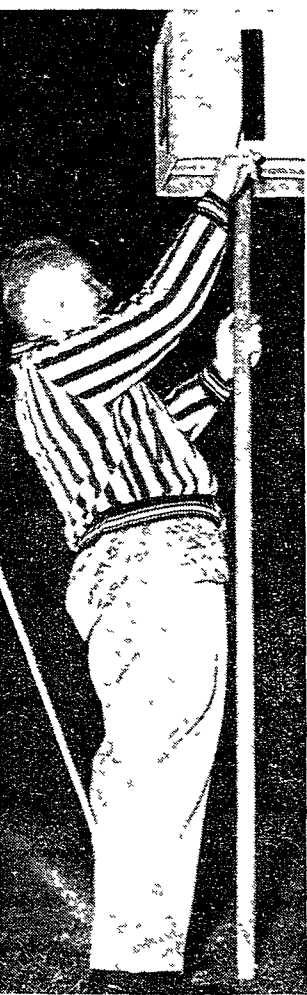

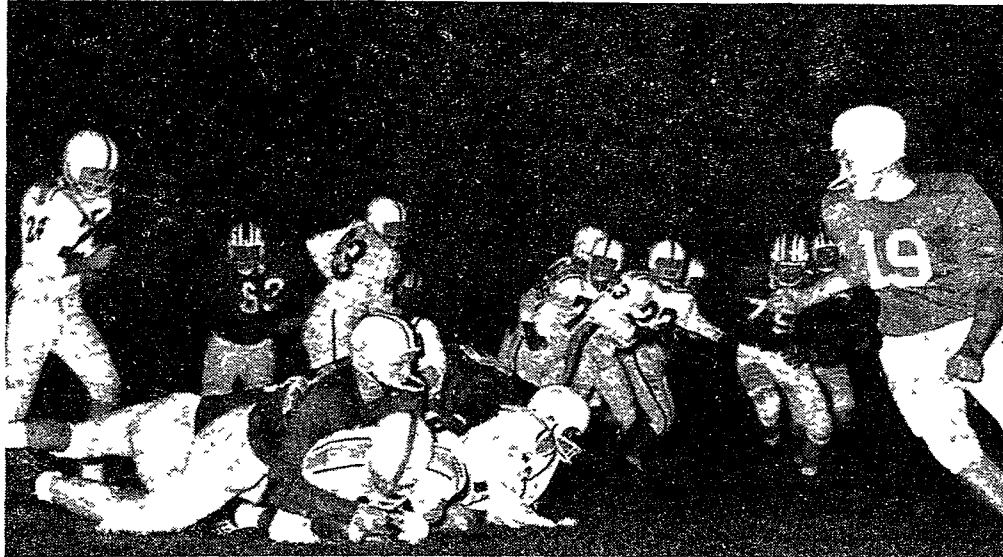

Walled Lake Beavers Open Season Sunday

The Walled Lake Beavers, Little League football squad, opens its season Sunday at 1 p.m. at the Walled Lake junior high school field. The Beavers will play the Livonia Blue Jays.

To help support the program members of the squad are currently selling candy throughout the area.

UNFAMILIAR as the final score was Northville fan's couldn't help but recognize the downs keeper Friday as he flitted back and forth along the sidelines during the opening football game. Barking out the down above is the Rev. John O. Taxis, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

Adams Notches Position On Allegheny Eleven

One of the key backfield players on the Allegheny college eleven this season will be varsity griddier Dave Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson E. Adams, 44009 Brookwood drive.

Adams, who played with the Mustang football squad three years ago, has nailed down one of the Gators' halfback positions. Allegheny's 8-1-1 record in the President's Athletic conference last year was good for second place in the eight-team loop.

The Gators, entering their 62nd year of intercollegiate competition, won conference wrestling and swimming titles while accumulating a 59-39-4 mark in nine sports last season.

MUCH ADO ABOUT SOMETHING

Shakespeare wrote one of his lighter comedies and gave it the title "Much Ado About Nothing." One sees that the play is just that, an ingenious drama which in the end amounts to very little.

There was a time, there was even a religious point of view, that thought about the world, "This is much ado about nothing." That time and that point of view has all but passed. We have the feeling that the issues are of supreme importance. We are playing for keeps. The world of mid-twentieth century is much ado about something.

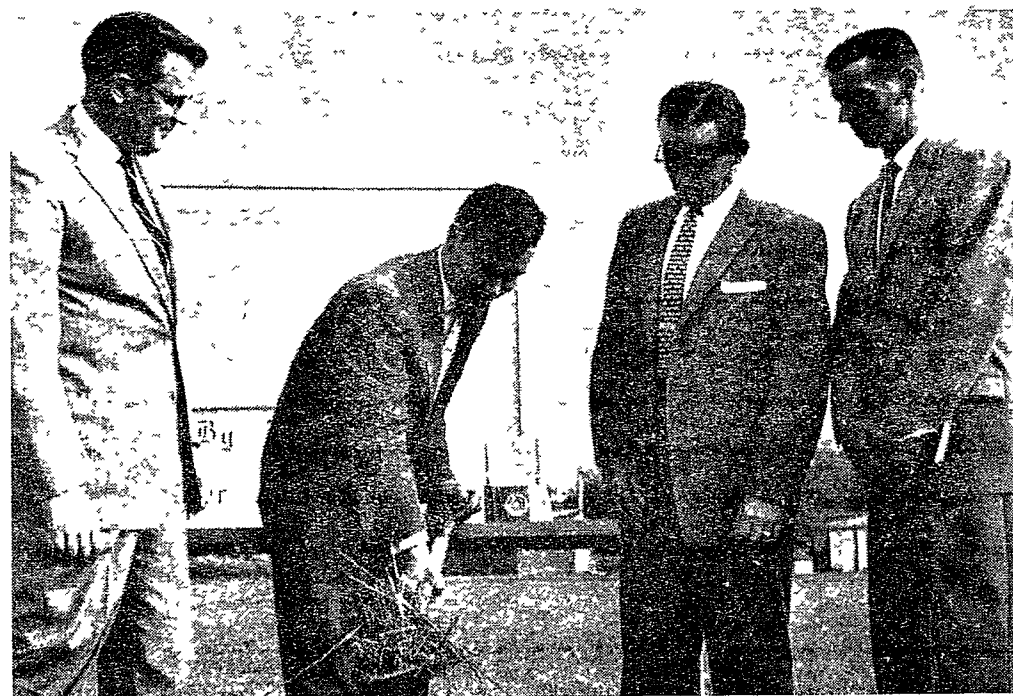

How can we help but be shaken? The Russians score a hit on the moon. There are breakthroughs in medicine and in other fields of science. Khrushchev comes to the United States and soon our President will visit the USSR. World War III "would cover the earth with ashes and graves." So the issue and alternatives of the time in which we live are before us. We can say with Ralph Waldo Emerson, "This time, like all other times, is a very good one, if we know what to do with it."

As a Christian minister I believe that this is the time to take some long strides forward for a Kingdom which is above all kingdoms, for a Lord who is above all Lords, for a Redemption that is above all panaceas of earth's manufacture. Let one's heart be right to God and to his fellow man. Let a man lean his soul against God and be saved. Let a man worship God in the sanctity of his heart and mind and in the sanctuary of the church of his choice. Let people band together in church and civic organizations so that they have a voice, and let issues be resolved, not in spite of the people, but with the help of the people.

I imagine that God is looking upon this earth and musing, "I wonder if they're going to make it. My children down there know so much but they are so slow to walk in the ways of righteousness and justice. New doors to the future are opened, but some want to keep that knowledge from others. The selfishness of men does not work my righteousness. Jesus Christ has in Him the best of me and the best of men. Let Him and His spirit be your example and guide and Saviour O world, so promising in possibility, so caught up in danger, I wonder if you're going to make it."

There is much ado about something. Each human being has cosmic, eternal significance. The time to fiddle around with life and play scratchy tunes is gone. Orchestral harmonies are needed. The role we have is not that of listener, but participant. We work together with God.

BAPTISTS BREAK GROUND — Groundbreaking ceremonies for one of the oldest congregations in this section of Michigan, the First Baptist church of Wixom, were conducted Sunday on Wixom road near West Maple. Construction of the new block and brick contemporary church building is expected to begin next week, with completion scheduled for late April or early May. Turning the shovel above is the Rev. Edmund F. Caes, pastor of the Wixom congregation. With him (l. to r.) are the Rev. Carl J. Grapentine of Walled Lake, Wixom Mayor Joseph Stadnik, guest speaker, and Joseph Porter, chairman of the church building committee.

Novi Population Tops County Increase Figures

The population of the Detroit Standard Metropolitan Area (Oakland, Wayne and Macomb counties) increased 873,803 from 1950 to 1959 according to figures released last week by the Regional Planning commission.

These figures showed that Macomb county had the largest rate of growth with 102.7 percent increase — or 190,039 more people since 1950.

Oakland county followed with 263,999 additional people, an increase of 66.7 percent. Wayne county, outside the corporate limits of Detroit, had the largest gross population gain. It increased by 394,377, a gain of 67.3 percent. The county as a whole grew only 17.2 percent with an addition of 419,765 people.

Occupied dwelling units (households) in the Detroit Metropolitan area increased to 1,090,000 on July 1, 1959. This means a growth of 261,168 households took place since April 1, 1950.

Novi, which lost part of its population by the incorporation of Wixom and the annexation of property by Northville, showed a gain of 3,240 or about a 95 percent increase. The total population as of July 1, 1959 was 6,650.

Wixom grew from 940 people in 1950 to 1,810 in 1959 for an increase of 92.6 percent, and the section of Novi in Northville grew from 316 to 400 for an increase of 84 people.

The total occupied dwelling units in Novi grew by 100 percent, from 950 to 1,900. Wixom also grew by 100 percent from 250 to 500.

The city of Northville population increased only 24.1 percent, from 2,981 to 3,700. The township of Northville, on the other hand, grew from 4,184 to 7,700 for an 84 percent increase.

Total occupied dwelling units in the city grew by 215 from 895 to 1,110, while the township totals swelled by 485 percent from 586 to 870.

Chevy's done the next best thing to paving every road in America!

Brawnier bulldozer build!

Frames are stronger, cabs 67% more rigid. Front wheels and tires are precision-balanced. And that new suspension cushions jars and road shock that used to spell slow death for the truck's body and sheet metal.

Why we built two cars for 1960 . . . as different as night and day

On October 2—for the first time in Chevrolet's 49-year history—you will be able to walk into your dealer's showroom and see two totally different kinds of cars. ■ One is the conventional 1960 Chevrolet, brand new in appearance and more beautifully refined and luxurious than you can imagine. ■ The other is unlike any car we or anybody else ever built—the revolutionary Corvair, with the engine in the rear where it belongs in a compact car. ■ We'd like to tell you why we built two such different cars, how we built them—and for whom we built them.

Why two kinds of cars? Because America itself has been going through some big changes in the past few years. Our cities have been straining at their seams. Traffic is jam-packed. Parking space is at a premium.

And our suburbs have spread like wildfire. People are living farther from their work, driving more miles on crowded streets. There is less leisure time—but more things to do. There's a new standard of living—and more need for two cars in the family garage.

In short, America's automobile needs have become so complex that no one kind of car can satisfy them completely. That is why we at Chevrolet, keeping tab on these trends, have had a revolutionary compact car in the planning stages for more than nine years.

Thus, when we decided three years ago to prepare for production of such a car we were ready to build it the way it should be built. There was no need for a hasty "crash" program that would create only a sawed-off version of a conventional car.

That is why the two cars you will see in your dealer's showroom October 2 will be two entirely different kinds of cars. One is the conventional '60 Chevrolet—brand new in beauty, with new space inside, new spirit under the hood, a new feeling of sumptuousness and luxury never before attained by any car in its field. There is great V8 power linked with new thrift, plus Chevrolet's superb 6-cylinder engine. It is a traditional car that comes even closer to perfection—in silence, in room, in ease of control, in velvety ride—than any other car we have ever made.

The other is the Corvair, a compact car that is astonishingly different from anything ever built in this country. It has to be—because this is a six-passenger compact car, with a really remarkable performance . . . a car designed specifically to American standards of comfort, to American traffic needs.

The engine is in the rear. Among the basic advantages resulting from this engine location are better traction on a compact 108-inch wheelbase and a practically flat floor. But to be placed in the rear, the engine had to be ultra light and ultra short. So Corvair's engine is totally new—mostly aluminum and air cooled; it weighs about 40 per cent less than conventional engines. It is a "flat" horizontally opposed six—so it is only three cylinders long . . . and that leaves a lot more room for passengers.

Another weight saving: like modern airplanes, the Corvair has no frame the body-shell supplies it great structural strength . . . it's a welded unit that is virtually rattle-free.

The ride is fantastic. But to get it we had to design independent suspension at every wheel; conventional springing would give a compact car a choppy ride. Right now we'll make one prediction: no other U.S. compact car will ride so comfortably, hold the road so firmly and handle so beautifully.

Now there are two kinds of cars from Chevrolet—because it takes two kinds of cars to serve America's needs today. If you love luxury—the utmost in luxury—and if you want generous interior space, breath-taking performance, automatic drives and power assists—then the conventional '60 Chevrolet may be your choice.

If easy parking, traffic agility and utmost economy are high on your list—then you should seriously consider the Corvair. But the best thing to do is to look these two new cars over at your Chevrolet dealer's . . . take them out for a drive. It may be that the only logical choice for your family between two cars like this is—both. They make a perfect pair.

SUFFERED ONLY BRUISES — Al Harland of Dearborn is back on the job for D. J. McQuestion & Sons company this week after his narrow escape from death last Friday when this 13-ton grader vaulted down the side of the hill at the corner of Center and Base Line. Harland, who was still inside the cab when it struck the pavement below, suffered only bruises. His lunch pail was smashed between the twisted metal of the cab. Harland said the accident occurred as he was grading the hillside along the newly constructed road. The blade struck a rock, caused the machine to slip and then vault over the other end of the blade to the pavement.

A HOSPITAL FIRST — Little James Russell Robinson greeted the world last Wednesday afternoon and became the first baby to be born at the rejuvenated Community General hospital. Beaming Mrs. William Robinson of Livonia is mighty proud of her new son — but having babies is no new experience. She has five other children, two of them born in Northville. Mr. Robinson, a tool maker, is a member of the Livonia planning commission. Looking on in the picture above is Nurse Mrs. Kathleen Howerter, 16247 Homer road.

Monday evening 11 psychiatric aides were honored at a smorgasbord dinner at Northville State hospital. One hundred employees, relatives and friends were present and heard the address by Dr. Robert Yoder, assistant medical superintendent.

Following the dinner, the "Capping" ceremony was performed by Mr. John Wick, the hospital's director of nursing. The caps signify that they qualify as the first group of licensed psychiatric attendants at Northville State hospital. Wayne Watson of South Rogers.

State School Jam

A FAMILIAR ALARM was sounded as classes opened this fall for 1,645,000 public school students.

The schools were short of money, teachers and classrooms. The situation was especially critical this year because there was a delay in adoption of a school aid bill. There was further delay when a flaw in the bill was discovered after the Legislature has passed it and recessed.

Even without the mixup in school aid there was enough to cause concern among school officials.

Dr. Lynn M. Bartlett, state superintendent of schools, said Michigan is short nearly 8,700 classrooms "in spite of tremendous financial efforts by Michigan citizens."

Bartlett said schools will have to spend about $1,200,000,000 by the fall of 1964 to catch up on classroom construction needs.

Crowded classrooms and half-day sessions faced some students. Also facing students were 9,000 teachers who hold special certificates that allow them to teach on a temporary basis even though they do not meet desired standards.

Nearly 3,000 new teachers were on hand this year, bringing the professional school staffs throughout the state to about 65,000.

Student enrollment increased by about 70,000 from last year. But there were fewer school districts.

The number of school districts decreased the past year by 214, bringing to 2,296 the number of districts.

Smaller districts banded together to form large districts and other small districts annexed to larger ones.

The consolidation can't go fast enough for Bartlett. He backed a bill in the legislature that would have hastened school district consolidation. It failed to pass.

BACK-TO-SCHOOL movements signaled the end of the summer tourist season.

The Michigan Tourist Council was hopeful the season would gross 650 million dollars, which would top the record 1955 season by 25 million dollars.

Weather clipped the season at the beginning just as schools did at the end.

But unseasonably hot weather late in the summer stimulated the tourist trade and helped offset the slow start.

The boating boom, longer vacations offered by industry and continued interest in the Mackinac Bridge all helped, although bridge traffic was down from last year.

Competition remains keen within the tourist industry.

Park attendance is up from last year. There were 16,428,888 park visitors through August, an increase of 8.32 percent or about a million from the first eight months in 1958.

Thousands were turned away from park camp sites.

Resorting business is getting bigger! Areas that used to roll up the sidewalks at summer's end are preparing for autumn visitors. The fall color season is helping the tourist industry more and more every year, thanks to a large degree of increased advertising.

And then there's the winter sports season.

The Tourist Council is spending $280,000 for advertising to emphasize the state's year-around attractions.

A SUCCESSFUL INSTRUMENT in promoting Michigan — the newspaper — was honored during special ceremonies at the Michigan State Fair.

"This is a mighty force in Michigan," said Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson, as he traced the role of the newspaper in the state's development.

Swainson spoke at a program featuring the presentation of Centennial awards to 33 newspapers that have been telling Michigan's story for 100 years or more.

"You have helped make Michigan great and will help make it even greater," Swainson said in noting it was fitting there should be special recognition for newspapers.

"Like many of our blessings and advantages, too often they are taken for granted," he said.

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO . . .

Northville's planning commission adopted a "let's settle this" attitude Tuesday evening regarding the controversial subject of wintering horses at the site of the Downs' new barns.

Acting under its own authority — without a legal request — the board decided by a seven to two vote to hold a public hearing on a proposal to lift the restriction on wintering horses at the new Sheldon road barns.

Novi school district voters approved a 2½ mill tax increase by a meager one vote margin Monday — but within 24 hours, to the surprise of no one, a recount was demanded.

The vote was 202 to 201 out of a total vote of 415.

Thirty prize show horses and a large complex of barns and stables were saved Saturday morning by quick action on the part of the Novi fire department.

Only a small living area was destroyed when fire suddenly broke out at Treehaven Farm at Nine Mile and Haggerty roads, one of the state's top training farms for fine horses.

FIVE YEARS AGO . . .

More than 250 Northville friends of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton D. Hill gathered Saturday afternoon at the Hill home, 17740 Beck road, for an open house in honor of Judge James H. Sexton, of Plymouth, a member of the Wayne county probate court since 1923.

A proposal for a new subdivision containing 66 family units and costing approximately $500,000 struck a snag when presented to the village commission at its meeting Monday night.

However, provided all the details can be worked out, the subdivision is to be built on the six acre property formerly owned by Mrs. Jennie Cousins of Ann Arbor, at the west end of Dubuque street.

A record turnout is expected in Novi School District No. 8 Monday as voters go to the polls to decide on a $200,000 bond issue for ten new classrooms.

Luncheon at the Michigan Union in Ann Arbor will mark the opening of the Northville Woman's club fall season Friday afternoon.

An appeal to do something to safeguard children who walk to school along West Main between Orchard drive and Rogers street was made to the village commission by Mrs. Harry Wagenschutz Monday.

She pointed out that there are no sidewalks in that block, and accordingly children must use the pavement to reach the sidewalk on the east side of Rogers. The traffic hazard, therefore, is great, she said.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO . . .

Superintendent R. H. Amerman announced Tuesday that this year's enrollment has reached a total of 967 pupils for both grade and high school.

The enrollment of pupils at the Novi public schools is greater this year by some 20 odd names, than that of last year. One hundred and forty-five boys and girls have registered for school year in 1944-45, from the kindergarten through the eighth grade.

Supt. Lutes and a full staff of teachers began their year's work Monday.

The Northville Methodist church announced plans for V Day — when it comes.

Elroy Ellison, grade principal, of Dunlap street, received the degree of master of arts from the University of Michigan.

Marilyn Goza, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goza of West Seven Mile road, is the new assistant at the Wayne county library. She will assume the duties left by Lorraine Lapham, who entered Michigan State college.

Opposing the so called "Home Rule" amendment for Wayne county, which will be submitted to electors at the November election, the Northville commission has gone on record as against the proposal and also urging a "no" vote on the part of the electorate.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO . . .

More than 753 pupils answered the call of the school bell here Monday morning, filing to their places to make a record first week attendance in the Northville public schools.

A vote of thanks for his "splendid community service and aid in organizing the club" was extended to Dr. Linwood W. Snow by the Young Republican club, which named him its honorary president.

Northville will shortly have a new postmaster. At least, all signs seem to indicate that.

The term of Postmaster T. R. Carrington, who was appointed by President Hoover in 1930, expired early in March, 1934.

The appointment of a new postmaster will have no effect on Assistant Postmaster D. J. Stark, who holds that post by virtue of civil service.

On Food and Health

Babson Park, Mass. — Once each year I like to discuss foods. Usually it is at the close of the summer, which I spend at Gloucester, Mass., where I was born. There I once peddled vegetables and fruits from a milk wagon. I, of course, am not writing only as a layman, surely not as a physician or druggist.

Vitamins, Minerals and Bulk
In my youth I never heard of "vitamins, minerals or bulk" in connection with food. In the spring we were given cod-liver oil, which I hated; and molasses with sulphur on bread once a day. Then we were given "Jellies" which my mother bless her soul had "put up" during the hot days of summer. We had potatoes, cabbages, squash and carrots in the house cellar; but no green vegetables from November until rhubarb came again.

When ill, we were "built up" on raw fertile eggs and raw milk. No other kind of eggs or milk was known. We had no bathroom in the house, but walked through the snow to a little "out-house" — 20 feet in the rear. We walked two miles to school and back twice a day — (while the children of 1950 are taken by bus and exercise in a beautiful gymnasium after arrival). We always attended church and Sunday school whatever the weather.

Did Live Seeds Save Us?

As I look back to the food of those days, I realize that my mother unconsciously fed us on live seeds. For instance, she not only refused to buy canned corn; but went out in the garden and picked the corn ten minutes before dinner and we ate it "on the cob" when the kernels were alive. She always avoided cooking tomatoes or cucumbers or any berries because cooking killed the seeds. We got our fats from home-made butter; and our carbohydrates from oatmeal and corn meal; and the needed minerals from codfish dried in the sun.

The babies of those days were started in life on "mother's milk". If a mother did not have enough of her own, a "wet nurse" would be called in. Now babies are fed only "dead" pasteurized milk and baby food which has been "dead" for months in a can. Twice a day father brought cool fresh water from a spring; but now we boil the water and kill the vitamins, or else use city water which has chlorine or perhaps fluoride to kill the germs which we now eat dead instead of alive.

I Make A Forecast

We can still buy fresh orange juice rather than canned or cooked. Fresh fruit juices will always be in demand, but the time may come when we will take an orange seed as a pill once a day! These seeds are now sold at a premium for the pigs and chickens, which also get the best of the fish of which we buy the filets. Frozen foods have a wonderful advantage for distributors; but they are dead foods valuable largely for bulk.

Let me repeat, I am speaking only as a layman (readers should not pay too much attention to my forecast.) But here it is: Someday your grandchildren will buy packages of seed (now sold by the supermarkets for planting in the spring). These seeds they will soak and eat alive during the year — just as we now take vitamins, minerals, and other expensive pills which are sold at drug stores. Furthermore, they will get a variety of seeds in order to get such proper diversification as the family physician may order. The old motto "From Rags to Riches" may become "From Seeds to Health".

What About Gravity?

Life Magazine for September 7, 1959 has an excellent article on "Bulbs". It, however, omits one important fact, namely that bulbs and seeds have one very unique power — the power to defy gravity. They not only know when spring has come, but they have an exclusive God-given power to defy gravity and push upward through the hard soil which has been frozen all winter.

P.S. When you read this I will be on the ocean headed for Sweden, Denmark, Germany and elsewhere. Am taking a package of mixed seeds with me.

Mrs. C. Lemieux of Stoney Pointe, Canada visited her sister, Mrs. Jim Spagnuolo of East Main street this week.

Larry Wright, Jr. spent the past week in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He returned this week to resume studies at Western Michigan university.
