

City Holds Back Recreation Money

Recreation Director Stan Johnston wasn't as successful in his appeal for funds from the city council Monday night as he had been two weeks ago before township board members.

The township granted Johnston $500 to permit continuance of the recreation program during the winter and spring months.

UF Drive First Report This Week

First reports on progress of door-to-door solicitations in Northville's third annual United Foundation Torch Drive are expected late this week, Drive Chairman Mrs. William Cansfield said Monday.

Meanwhile, western Wayne county headquarters officials report that approximately $1,500 of the $2,368 quota for select prospects has been collected.

The drive started a week ago Tuesday and ends tomorrow.

More than 100 women solicitors and area captains are working with Mrs. Cansfield in canvassing Northville. The residential collection is the backbone of the local drive.

Home calls are being made each day of the 11-day drive during the morning, afternoon and early evening, Mrs. Cansfield said.

The total Northville goal — $100 more than collected last year — is $5,505. Included in this total are: House-to-house collection quota, $2,120; schools, $407; community business, $270; government, $340; and select prospects, $2,368.

Close to 200 metropolitan Detroit agencies are aided by Torch Drive funds, including Northville boy and girl scouts, recreation department and the King's Daughters.

Rotary to Hold Rural-Urban Dinner

The Northville Rotary club will hold its annual Rural-Urban night program next Wednesday at the First Presbyterian church at 8:45.

Speaker at the event which is conducted to introduce new residents to the community will be Congressman William Broomfield of Oakland county.

Chairman Dr. James Harris said that nearly 200 newcomers and Rotarians are expected to attend. Toastmaster will be Clifton Hill.

Entertainment will be provided by Karen McAllister, 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McAllister of Northville township. Karen makes frequent appearances on television as a singer.

Says School Board

"We'll Buy Building If Voters Approve"

Representatives of the city council were given assurance last week that the school board will take action to "prove their intention" of buying the community building.

City councilmen were told Monday evening by Councilman John Canterbury that this agreement was reached in a committee meeting held last Thursday between Canterbury, Mayor A. Malcolm Allen and Superintendent Russell Armerman and Donald Lawrence of the school board.

City and school authorities have been negotiating over the possible sale for several years. Only this year did the school obtain legal means to make the purchase. Enabling legislation does not become effective until 90 days after the current session of the state legislature convenes, however.

The school has maintained its need for the building will continue, but city authorities have pressed for action. According to Councilman Canterbury, the committee meeting decision provides that the school board will adopt a resolution at its next meeting calling for purchase of the building by June 1, 1960 if

Monday night the city council listened to Johnston's financial problems and told him to come back when he could report exactly how much money he had, what his income would be during the remainder of the recreation year, and what funds would be needed to complete the program.

Last month Johnston had asked the city and township for $500 each, saying the department was without funds and needed approximately $1500. Since winning township support and reducing several measures in the proposed budget for the winter-spring season, Johnston reported that his needs might be less than $1500. Originally, Johnston had stated that the department would attempt to raise the third $500 which would be required to meet recreational program plans.

The council quickly seized upon the possibility that less money would be needed. Councilman Earl Reed proposed that Johnston bring the revised financial report before the council at its next meeting.

In other business the council heard a complaint from Charles Altman, Jr., 866 Grace, that the city's insurance representatives had refused payment for water damages incurred when heavy rains flooded the Altman basement and garage. Altman said water rose to over four feet in his basement causing hundreds of dollars of damage and that he had presented a conservative bill for $210 to the city.

He added that he believed that the city had directed sanitary sewer flow through storm sewers and that this might have caused his trouble. The flooding occurred August 28.

The city manager reported that sanitary sewer flow had not been tapped into the storm sewer, but that an overflow valve on the sanitary sewer permits dilute sewage to overflow into the storm sewer in extreme storms to prevent flooding of basements. He said this had eliminated flooding that had previously occurred in six or seven basements in the Altman area.

The council directed the city attorney to examine Altman's claim and discuss the matter with insurance authorities to determine if there is any further action that can be taken.

In final business the council approved the county bulk food ordinance for publication (see page 15) after hearing an explanation of the measure by a representative of the health department.

legally possible.

The school board representatives definitely announced, however, that purchase will not be made without a favorable vote of the school district.

Presently the school board leases the building from the city for the cost of maintenance. It has been generally agreed that the school board would pay approximately $140,000 for the building. The city has indicated it would use the money to provide new city hall facilities.

In other committee business Councilman Canterbury said the group discussed forming a joint study committee (city, township, school) to consider reorganization of the community recreation program.

Officer Glasson Stricken with Pneumonia

Gil Glasson, senior patrolman on Northville's police department, was hospitalized suddenly Wednesday afternoon when doctors determined that he was suffering from double pneumonia.

At press time it had not been decided where Glasson would be confined.

OPENING DAY SUCCESS — Leslie Clarke of 26440 Taft road bagged his limit of two pheasants with little difficulty Tuesday as hundreds of hunters tramped the Northville-Nowi area fields in search of the gaudiest bird of them all. Many hunters reported large numbers of pheasants — but relatively few were as successful as Clarke. The season ends November 5.

Honor 24 New Citizens, Mrs. Geraci at 21ers Night

Twenty-four new citizens — and the person who has probably contributed most towards their yearly recognition in Northville — were honored last night at the 19th annual Citizenship Dinner.

The new citizens, 22 new "21ers" and two newly naturalized, were presented certificates of recognition of citizenship by Mrs. Essie Nirider, president of the sponsoring Coordinating Council. Mrs. Robert Wiloughby of the DAR, presented the new citizens copies of the "Declaration of Freedom".

A special presentation — a plaque in recognition of her contributions to community affairs and especially the Coordinating Council's Citizenship observance — was given Mrs. Samuel Geraci. Councilman Ed Welch, a former Coordinating Council president, presented the plaque.

Mrs. Geraci will move to Tavares, Florida next month upon the retirement of her husband, chief engineer at Maybury sanatorium and an employee there for the past 35 years.

Well known, and beloved for her efforts in behalf of the annual salute to new citizens, Mrs. Geraci has served two full terms as president of the Coordinating Council. She has kept the only complete record of the Citizenship banquets since they began in 1939. Her scrapbook will be turned over to the Northville library.

"I have no children, but I consider all our new citizens 'my 21ers'," said Mrs. Geraci.

Her work with the Coordinating Council has not been strictly confined to the 21ers, however. Chiefly through her efforts and interest in more citizen interest in community affairs, adult education classes in community affairs and development were conducted in Northville by instructors from the University of Michigan.

"We had most of the community and school officials enrolled in the classes, too," Mrs. Geraci proudly boasts. The curriculum was especially conceived for Northville, she points out.

Mrs. Geraci's other activities include 25 years work in the Michigan State university extension service, an organization in which she served as treasurer and publicity chairman for Wayne county. She has been a member of the Woman's club for 25 years and the Garden club for 23 years.

Mrs. Geraci's activities were abruptly stopped three years ago when she was involved in an automobile accident. She suffered a broken hip and leg, seven fractured ribs, broken hand, four breaks in the left arm and facial cuts requiring plastic surgery. She remained in traction for 101 days following the accident.

Her enthusiasm for helping the Citizenship banquet plans has continued, however, and she has contributed time and help from her home since she has been able again.

A grateful Mrs. Geraci told her friends that her "roots and heart will remain in Northville with my friends — I have enjoyed my community."

The Lutheran church gathering heard Dr. Arthur Bromage talk on "Tasks for Voters". Dr. Bromage is a professor in the department of political science at the University of Michigan.

Opening remarks and welcome were given by Robert L. Hart, chairman of the event.

The honored 21ers were: Faye L. McGee, Glenda Hurrelbrink, Irene and Delores Bongiovanni, Esther At-

HONORED — Mrs. Samuel Geraci was given a plaque in recognition of her contributions to the community at the 19th annual Citizenship Banquet last night. She is shown above looking at the scrapbook she has kept of the previous '21er' events. Mr. and Mrs. Geraci will move to Florida soon. Looking on is her faithful friend, "Rusty".

Sidewalk Measure Finally Wins Nod

Court Orders City To Issue Permits On Undersize Lots

Oakland Circuit Judge William John Beer Monday directed the city of Northville to issue building permits to the developers of Northville Heights for two lots which measure less than the minimum required by the city's subdivision ordinance.

The case was taken to the court after Northville's board of appeals refused to grant the permits. The two lots, approved by the planning commission and city council in the overall plat of the subdivision, measure 6,800 and 7,050 square feet. The minimum lot size requirement is 7,500 square feet.

The discrepancy was not discovered by the developers until after the subdivision was under progress. The court ruled that acceptance of the plat was approval of the lots for building.

Some residents appeared before the appeals board to protest issuance of the building permits at the time of the local hearing.

Planners, Council Study Zoning Plan

City councilmen and planning commissioners met in joint session to discuss the new zoning ordinance for the city of Northville as proposed by the planners.

The 43-page document was passed this summer by the nine-member planning commission after more than a year of study.

The two bodies are scheduled to meet again November 3 to complete the study after which the ordinance is expected to go to the city council. The council may make changes before calling for a public hearing on the ordinance.

The ordinance modernizes current zoning regulations in Northville that have been in effect for 15 years.

To Halt Parking On N. Center

Parking on the east side of Center street between Dunlap and the new Baseline road cut-off will be discontinued, the city council decided Monday night.

The action was taken at the request of the county. Center street is under county authority. It was pointed out that the street is too narrow to safely permit a school bus and oncoming vehicle pass when cars are parked on the street.

Sentence Postponed For Wixom Youth Pending Inquiry

Seventeen-year-old Robert Korthas of Wixom, accused of beating a Northville youth into unconsciousness last spring, remains free on a $200 bond today while the Wayne county probation department investigates the case.

Circuit Judge O'Hara referred the case to the probation department for investigation and recommendations following a trial at Detroit Tuesday.

Korthas is charged with beating 15-year-old Mike Myers last May.

The case came up before Judge O'Hara as a result of an appeal filed by Korthas' attorney, E. E. Juntunen of Walled Lake, who is protesting his clients' trial last summer before Northville Justice of the Peace E. M. Bogart.

Justice Bogart had sentenced Korthas to 90 days in jail, ordered him to pay a $100 fine and make restitution of Myers' hospital bills.

Juntunen contends that Korthas appeared before Justice Bogart without legal counsel.

By appealing to circuit court, Juntunen said, Korthas cannot receive a more severe penalty than that handed down by Justice Bogart.

According to Northville Police Chief Eugene King, Korthas and a 19-year-old companion admitted the beatings. Korthas' companion pleaded guilty of aiding in the beatings and was fined $25 and $5 cost. Korthas himself pleaded guilty of the beating charge in his trial last summer.

The confession of the two youths obtained by King brought an end to a four-month-long investigation.

Police had questioned about 50 boys and had checked more than 20 black Fords — the suspect car — before they finally questioned the Wixom youths.

The two youths told police they were returning from a dance in Farmington when they drove through Northville. Korthas said he saw Myers walking on the sidewalk near his Center street home about 11 p.m.

Korthas said he jumped from the car and asked Myers "What are you looking at?" When Myers answered, "Nothing, sir", Korthas knocked him to the ground, jumped back into the car and the pair sped away, King said.

Korthas told police he beat Myers because he was upset about "breaking up" with his girlfriend.

The city's long-discussed sidewalk ordinance finally gained approval for publication Monday night. The action came after weeks of study and argument — and literally years of consideration.

The measure must now pass the test of a public hearing November 2 before becoming law.

Under the new ordinance the city will have the authority to require property owners to replace sidewalk where it is determined to be in bad condition or hazardous, and to install new walks where none exist.

In the case of sidewalk replacement the cost must be paid entirely by the property owner. Exceptions in this case are when the city has changed the grade of the street, thus making it necessary to replace already suitable walk, or when sidewalk is damaged by city work crews.

The city will participate in the cost of installing new walks on property where none now exist (except in the case of new subdivisions).

During the first year following passage of the ordinance the city will pay (as it does now) one-third the cost of the new sidewalk. After one year the city will discontinue sharing in the cost and the property owner will foot the entire expense.

Further, the council has decided to participate financially in the cost of bringing property "to grade" for installation of sidewalks. This practice will continue as an integral part of the ordinance with no time limit set on its effectiveness.

This provision was included because of the great amount of rolling terrain in Northville which often requires deep "cuts" and retaining walls to install sidewalks.

It was on this matter of participating in "preparation" costs that proved to be the biggest stumbling block for councilmen to overcome.

Agreement finally came when it was decided that the city would assume one-third the cost of bringing the property to within one-foot of final sidewalk grade. The property owner would pay two-thirds, but not more than $200.

Frequently, of course, cost of bringing the property to grade will be slight. But, in unusual cases where retaining walls and deep cuts might be required, the $200 limit protects the property, councilmen reasoned.

Thus, during the first year of the city's new sidewalk ordinance, the property owner can have a new sidewalk (where none now exists) for two-thirds the cost of grading (with a maximum of $200) and two-thirds the cost of installing the cement.

After one year the property owner will be required to pay the full cost of cement.

The city is expected to make use of its ordinance in areas near the new high school where walks do not now exist. It is also anticipated that many property owners who do not now have sidewalks will have them installed next year to take advantage of the city's share-the-cost plan.

The ordinance gives the city the authority to compel the property owner to install a sidewalk — placing the cost on the property's tax bill if the walk has not been installed after due notice. (See ordinance on page five).

Good Excuse

Mayor A. Malcolm Allen was absent at Monday night's city council meeting, but councilmen agreed he had a "pretty good" excuse.

It seems he traditionally takes Mrs. Allen out to dinner on the evening of October 19. It's their wedding anniversary — and Monday was their 24th.

Elizabeth Wayne Delights Woman's Club with Travel Tips

To the delight of her loyal corps of radio fans — many of them Detroit housewives — Elizabeth Wayne has stepped out for a person-to-person introduction as lecturer.

The former mistress of ceremonies on WWJ's musical Minute Parade, a music scholar and accomplished singer herself — is now with the J. L. Hudson speakers bureau.

Talking Friday before the Northville Woman's club she recalled her recent "pilgrimage" to Europe's shrines of music and tour of overseas radio stations.

Her talk, bright with colorful word sketches of people, places and reflections from her trip, was directed as much at tourists in general as music lovers.

To travelers she offered some tips. Bone up on the places you plan to visit. Don't bite off more than you can chew. And savor what you chose to do.

Too many tourists make the mistake of trying to see everything they "should" see, she smiled.

If you don't like churches or museums, she quipped, don't feel guilty about passing them for a visit to a farm or factory if that interests you more.

To have a really memorable visit, she said, choose one or two places that have special meaning for you and bring back a living memory.

Her own memory-filled trip — mapped around art, music and radio — took her to Dublin, London, Denmark, Switzerland and Majorca. In Dublin she stopped at Radio Erin, visited historic concert and opera halls, and met contemporary Irish composers.

In London she visited "quietly charming" Covent Garden and heard the famed St. Paul's cathedral boys' choir at a Sunday service.

In Switzerland she attended a performance of the Brahms Requiem in a medieval cathedral, and in Majorca, visited the monastery where Chopin once composed.

She brought back to Minute Parade tapes and records of some performances, heard for the first time in this country.

Miss Glenn Cummings introduced Miss Wayne to the club at its second meeting of the season, and first guest day.

Home changed from France to Brookland Farms for the Charles Smiths and daughter, Sue-Ellen.

There's more than just a touch of France in the lovely new Brookland Farms subdivision home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, 44008 Brookwood.

Furniture, paintings, knickknacks and fond memories — all are part of the France the Smiths left a few months ago after three and one-half years of living in the European country.

But more French than any of these is little two-year-old Sue-Ellen, the Smiths' only child who was born in LaRoche, France.

It's been only four months since the family moved back to the United States from France where Sue-Ellen's father — then a first lieutenant — was connected with the Army Judge Advocate's office.

While stationed in Europe, the Smiths traveled extensively — more than 30,000 miles, visiting 17 countries.

Besides traveling, the Smiths were active in many other non-military projects. Mr. Smith, for example, was the recreational director in the resort town of Royan, France; Mrs. Smith was the social director in the same camp, which was for American children. Mr. Smith also was the district commissioner for boy scouts in France; Mrs. Smith taught a fifth grade class of American children.

The Brookland Farms newcomers met each other at the University of Michigan where both were graduated, he from law school in 1954 and she from the school of education in 1952.

An attorney, Mr. Smith currently is a member of the Mansfield DeWitt & Sulzbach law firm of Detroit.

Although the couple found leaving France — and its friendly atmosphere — a tough assignment, they have already made a good many friends in this area.

Both expressed delight and appreciation for the friendly reception they have received in Northville. "I was raised in small towns," Mr. Smith said, "but I have never been in a friendlier small community than Northville."

The Smiths plan to become members of St. Paul's Lutheran church.

Garden Club Hears Highlights Of Alaskan Trip

A talk on a 60-day Alaskan trip highlighted a meeting of the Women's National Farm and Garden association last week Tuesday.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. A. E. Northup on Spring drive. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. D. H. Clark, Mrs. Harold Wagerschutz, Mrs. R. M. Atchison, Mrs. Charles Ely and Mrs. G. A. Lipa.

Mrs. R. J. Wright was the speaker.

Traveling by car, the Wrights went more than 12,000 miles on their trip to Alaska — without a mishap.

One of their major stops, Mrs. Wright said, was at Whitehorse while Queen Elizabeth was visiting the city.

From Whitehorse, the Wrights went on to Alaska, visiting Dawson city — now a comparative ghost town; Fairbanks, Anchorage and Val Dee.

Prices in Alaska, Mrs. Wright said, "were somewhat higher than here." Gas was 60-65 cents per gallon, eggs $1.19 a dozen, milk 49 cents a quart and coffee and pie served in a restaurant was $1.50.

Slides shown by Mrs. Wright included beautiful scenes of mountains, glaciers, water, flowers and wild animals, as well as homes, stores, churches in the new state.

The Wrights also brought back many interesting and attractive souvenirs in addition to 600 pictures.

The Plymouth Corners Society, C.A.R. (Children of the American Revolution) held their first meeting Tuesday, October 20 at the home of Mrs. Donald Lawrence, West Dunlap street.

Strikes Car, Hits Ice Box Then Flees

A 41-year-old Farmington motorist who struck a car on Grand River east of Haggerty, smashed into a restaurant building and then fled from the scene Sunday is in jail today awaiting trial.

Albert Mulraney was jailed Monday when he failed to post a $100 bond after standing mute before Justice of the Peace James Lawson on charges of drunk driving and leaving the scene of a personal injury accident.

He faces trial Tuesday.

Six-year-old Cheryl Lollar, Detroit, who was riding with her mother, father, Rillen, and five brothers and sisters in the car struck by Mulraney's vehicle, suffered a possible foot fracture. She was treated at Farmington. No one else in the car was injured.

State Police said Lollar was making a left hand turn off Grand River when Mulraney's car struck Lollar's car on the left side.

The impact spun Lollar's car, which headed east, completely around.

Mulraney's late model car, which also was headed east, skidded several hundred feet along the shoulder of the road, leaped across a five-foot deep ditch, crashed through a fence barely missing the Jansen restaurant, and then smashed into a walk-in ice box in the rear of the restaurant.

Mulraney jumped from his car and ran east through several fields, State Police said.

State Police found Mulraney walking near Grand River about a half-hour later — after Novi and Farmington police joined troopers in search for the motorist.

Frank Jansen, owner of the restaurant, estimated damage to the ice box at about $1,500. The building was moved more than a foot off its foundation and a steel guard post connected to the building was knocked flat.

Jansen's car, parked on the opposite of the building was damaged slightly.

A restaurant employee, just leaving the ice box, leaped to safety as the car struck the building.

Clarice Rose of Farmington, owner of the car driven by Mulraney, reported the car stolen shortly after the accident — but State Police are still checking the validity of her story.

OOPS! WRONG ROAD — The driver of the car above, Albert Mulraney of Farmington, fled from the scene of an accident Sunday in which his car struck another vehicle on Grand River, leaped a ditch, crashed through a fence, and smashed into the store building above.

Protest Beck Road 'Business'

An angry group of Beck road area residents aimed protests at the village government Monday night for permitting a "trucking business" to operate near their homes.

The protests stemmed from a village board of appeals decision to grant Vern LaVasser a request for deviation to permit a garage for his trucks on property located on Beck road between Eight and Nine Mile roads.

The board granted the deviation in zoning (the property is located in an agricultural area) in a hearing on May 14.

No property owners adjoining LaVasser's property were present at the hearing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Straus, 23893 Beck road, who led citizens in their protests Monday, contended that the two adjoining property owners were not properly notified of the hearing.

The two property owners, Fred Cobb, 21355 Beck road, and Howard Meyer, 48120 West Eight Mile road, received a notice of the hearing, according to Mrs. Straus, which stated LaVasser of 790 Horton street, Northville, had requested a deviation for his property described as "Lot N. 14".

The two owners did not know where the lot was located, and, believing that it did not concern them, discarded the notices, she said.

Village Attorney Howard Bond explained that the council could take no action concerning the deviation matter because it comes under the jurisdiction of the appeals board.

He told the group that in his opinion it would be highly unlikely that the appeals board would grant a new hearing because several months had elapsed since the first hearing — and because LaVasser has already built a garage presumably for storage of his trucks.

However, Mrs. Straus argued that area citizens had on several occa-

Council Gives Olson 'Confidence' Vote

Denies Manager Is 'Running Village'

Village Manager Fred Olson received a unanimous vote of confidence from the council Monday night before a packed house of Novi residents.

The vote was sparked by a citizen's demand that the council either "fire" the manager or give him their full support.

Appoint 3 New Planners

Three new members were appointed to the village planning board by the council Monday night. The three men will replace two board members whose terms expired this month and a third member who resigned several weeks ago.

The newly appointed board members are: Guy L. Stevens, 40300 Grand River; Leo Harrawood, 27000 Novi road, and Arthur Heslip, 42680 Nine Mile road.

All three men, recommended to the council by the planning board, were appointed to three-year terms, beginning October 15, and ending October 14, 1962.

University Student Beaten, Robbed

State Police have joined village policemen in search for three men who allegedly beat and robbed a 20-year-old hitchhiker Sunday night.

The victim, Philip Petix of Birmingham, reportedly was on his way to East Lansing where he is a freshman at the university.

Petix told Patrolman Richard Noble that he was hitch-hiking at the corner of Eight Mile and the US-16 expressway when the three men offered him a ride.

He said he climbed into the front seat because two other men were in the rear seat.

Petix said he must have been knocked unconscious because he could remember nothing of the ride when he found himself lying in a ditch near the Novi road ramp a short time later.

Five dollars was missing from his billfold, but his suitcase was found untouched nearby.

The youth said he walked to the service station at the corner of 12 Mile and Novi roads where he called his father, a Birmingham physician.

Petix had bruises on his head, shoulder and leg. His clothes were dirty and torn, police said.

However, the council's vote was actually prompted by a story which appeared in last week's issue of The News in which a group of citizens criticized the council for permitting the manager to wield "top-heavy influence".

This charge, along with several others aimed at village government, were given as reasons for a movement to return Novi to a township status. Miss Eugenie Choquet, who is spearheading the movement, lodged the protests for her backers.

Last week Miss Choquet said she would present petitions to the council Monday calling for an amendment to the village charter making it possible for a vote to return the village to township status.

Miss Choquet declined to present the petitions Monday because, as she told the council and citizens present at the meeting, she intended to secure a greater number of petition signatures. She said that close to 400 Novi residents had already signed the petitions. (See letter by Miss Choquet on page 8).

Her statements came after Albert Lesko declared it was time the council told the people just how much a special election costs the people. "I think it's about a $1,000," he added.

The last special election — for city incorporation — "was a disgrace," he declared. Fewer people voted for incorporation than those who signed the petitions calling for the election, he said.

Councilman Russell Button — who was one of the leaders in the city incorporation movement — asked fellow councilmen for the resolution giving the manager their full support.

"I think everyone should understand that the council is running the village," Button declared. "He (Olson) is doing just what the council tells him to do. In some cases he makes mistakes. It's natural . . . but he has quite a bit on the ball."

Some of the comments by the other councilmen — before the vote was taken — included:

Tuck — "Why don't you give the village a chance? If there are any faults you'd better find them with the council. In most cases the council knows beforehand what is going to happen. He is working strictly at the pleasure of the council . . . and doing a very conscientious job."

Tafralian — "Olson has from time to time made recommendations ahead of the council. He must. He's in a position to see what must be done . . . and he has done a fine job relaying information to us."

Groeneweg — "I believe Mr. Olson is a very able, conscientious, hard worker. If I was in his place I think I would go ahead and do many administrative matters without taking them up with the council first."

Anderson — "He has done a very good job. I back him 100 percent."

In related matters, Miss Choquet asked the council if Olson was retained under a "definite contract," and if the 1957 tractor recently purchased by the council "is breaking down continually."

The president replied that Olson was working at the pleasure of the council as outlined under the charter, and that the tractor was in working condition.

Other spokesmen working with Miss Choquet in obtaining signatures for the charter amendment, that would provide for an election to return to township status, indicated this week that the circulation of petitions will continue.

They declare that dissatisfaction with village government is general — and not specifically aimed at the manager. They have indicated a determination to acquire "as many signatures as votes cast against city incorporation" (over 700). Presumably, the petitioners hope to prove to the village council that there is heavy support for an amendment to the charter to permit the voters to return to township status if desired.

Local Torch Drive Nears Completion

First reports of progress in the 11-day United Foundation torch drive in Novi and Wixom were released this week by the Torch drive headquarters at Birmingham.

The drive started a week ago Tuesday and ends tomorrow.

Of the total goal of $2,975 in Novi, only $899 was collected by last week end.

Since all funds collected in Wixom become part of the Commerce township United Fund, no specific progress of collections in that city were reported. However, $2,695 of the $8,221 goal for Commerce township has been collected.

More than 100 women solicitors and area captains are working with Mrs. Lester Ward, chairman of the Novi campaign, and with Mrs. Lloyd M. Preston, chairman of the Wixom campaign in making house-to-house canvass. The residential collection is the backbone of the local drive.

Torch drive officials reported $783 of the house-to-house goal of $2,009 in Novi was collected through Sunday. In Commerce $630 of the $3,926 goal was collected.

Other solicitation reports in Novi included $13 of $59 for government, and $103 of $262 for schools.

Last year Novi residents pushed the local drive over the goal by 59 cents. The goal was $2,439.

According to Mrs. Ward, family services supported by the Torch drive last year helped 137 township families. These agencies included the American Red Cross, Blood Bank, the Catholic Social Service of Oakland county, Family Service of Oakland county, the Visiting Nurse association, and the Novi unit of the Michigan Cancer Foundation.

Section 1 — Definitions:

(A) Preliminary Cost — Preliminary cost as used in this ordinance is hereby defined as all expenses incurred in the establishment of a sidewalk site to within one (1) foot of the sidewalk grade and shall include, but not be limited to, the expense of necessary retaining walls, embankments, excavating and filling.

(B) Final Cost — Final cost as used in this ordinance is hereby defined as the cost of removal of old concrete, if any, the labor and materials used in preparation of the base for the sidewalk, which base is not to exceed 8-inches in depth, and the labor and materials used in the laying of the concrete.

Section 2 — Council Resolution

The Council of the City of Northville shall by resolution determine the necessity for the construction, reconstruction or repair of any sidewalk in any street or alley in the City of Northville, shall declare the intention of the City to make such improvement and shall set forth therein the manner of deferring, allocating and collecting of the cost of same.

Section 3 — Notice.

The City Clerk shall, by first class mail, notify the owners of property adjoining the sidewalk which it is proposed to construct, reconstruct, or repair, of the intention of the City Council to pass a Resolution relative to the making of such improvement. This notice shall describe the specific type of improvement to be made, the date of hearing at which said Resolution shall be acted upon, the proposed manner of deferring, allocating and collecting all of the costs of same and shall be mailed to said property owners at least ten (10) days prior to the date of said hearing. Said notice shall also state that the property owner may cause said work to be done in conformity with the plans and specifications on file with the City of Northville, provided this work is completed within thirty (30) days after the date of such notice.

Section 4 — Plans and Specifications

All sidewalks shall be constructed in conformity with the plans on file in the City of Northville and in accordance with standard specifications of the City of Northville. Where the sidewalk site is so located as to require preliminary work in the nature of embankments, retaining walls, abnormal filling or excavating, etc., such work shall be done under the direction and subject to the approval of the City Engineer. All concrete used in sidewalk construction shall, twenty-eight (28) days after placement, be capable of resisting pressure of three thousand (3,000) pounds per square inch without failure.

Section 5 — Permits.

No sidewalk shall hereafter be constructed, reconstructed or repaired in the City of Northville without a permit being obtained therefor from the City Clerk. The City Clerk shall be authorized to issue such permits upon payment of a fee to the City Treasurer in the amount of fifty (50c) cents for each one hundred (100) square feet of sidewalk or fraction thereof with a minimum fee of one ($1.00) dollar. Provided, however, that there shall be no charge for a permit to repair less than fifty (50) square feet of sidewalk. This permit shall be secured by the owner of the property abutting said sidewalk, or his agent and under the terms of this permit the owner shall agree to construct, reconstruct or repair this sidewalk in conformity with the grade established by the City of Northville, according to specifications attached to and conditions and guarantees contained in such permit, and where preliminary work is necessary same shall be done under the direction and subject to the approval of the City Engineer. The owner of the property abutting the sidewalk covered by such permit shall be responsible for the condition of said sidewalk.

No permit shall be required for sidewalks constructed under contract with the City or by the City Forces.

Section 6 — Sidewalk — Builder — Licensed.

No sidewalk shall be constructed, built, rebuilt or repaired in the City of Northville except by a licensed sidewalk builder except as hereinafter provided. Any person, firm or corporation desiring to engage in the business of building, rebuilding, or repairing sidewalks shall make written application for a license thereof to the Council which application shall contain the full name, age and place of residence of such person and expressing his willingness to be governed in all respects by all rules, regulations and specifications which are now or may hereafter be adopted by the director of Public Works for the building, rebuilding or repair of sidewalks, and shall be signed by two or more reputable citizens vouching for the applicant's qualification for such license. If such application is approved by the Council, upon payment of the license fee of five ($5.00) dollars, he shall be entitled to receive a builder's license. No such license shall be granted for more than one year and all such licenses shall expire on the 31st day of December each year. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to build, rebuild or repair any sidewalks within the City of Northville after this ordinance takes effect without having first secured a permit therefor under the provisions hereof.

Section 7 — Costs.

The cost of the construction, reconstruction or repair of any sidewalk in any street or alley, in the City of Northville shall be deferred, allocated and collected as follows:

A. New Construction.

If any sidewalk is constructed within one year from the date of enactment of this Ordinance one-third of the final cost thereof shall be borne by the City. Thereafter, the entire final cost of same shall be borne by the property owner. Provided, however, that should there be no sidewalk grade line established by the City then the period of time in which the City agrees to participate in the cost, as set forth above, shall be extended until one year from the date of the establishment of said grade line. Provided further, that the above provisions with regards to deferring and allocating of final costs shall not apply to sidewalks constructed in either subdivisions established under the Subdivision Ordinance, or those established under a contract with the City of Northville which has covered this matter.

B. New Construction — Preliminary Cost.

Should the City Engineer determine that preliminary work is necessary prior to construction of a new sidewalk then the cost of same shall be shared by the City and the abutting property owners as follows:

Two-thirds of said preliminary cost shall be charged against the property abutting said sidewalk and paid by the owners thereof; provided, however, that the total amount of said preliminary cost chargeable against any one abutting lot or parcel and payable by the owner or owners thereof shall not exceed the sum of $200.

The balance of said preliminary cost shall be borne by the City. The above ratio of sharing of the preliminary cost shall remain in effect until changed by amendment to this ordinance. The above provisions with regards to the allocating and sharing of preliminary costs shall not apply to sidewalks constructed in either subdivisions established under the Subdivision Ordinance or those established under a contract with the City of Northville which has covered this matter.

C. Reconstruction, or Repair.

The entire cost of reconstruction or repair of sidewalks shall be borne by the property owners abutting upon same. Provided, however, that should replacement, or repair of a sidewalk not deemed by the City to be in need of replacement or repair has been occasioned by any of the following circumstances then the cost of said reconstruction or repair shall be borne entirely by the City:

1. Where the sidewalk grade line has been changed.
2. Where construction activities of the City has damaged the sidewalk.
3. Where trees located upon public property has caused damage to sidewalks.

4. Where the damage to the sidewalk has been caused by any other activity of the City.

D. Collection of Costs.

The costs allocable to the abutting property owners shall become a special assessment upon the property in accordance with the provisions of Section 11.9 of the Charter for the City of Northville. The City Council shall, in its resolution, prescribe the time and manner of collection of said costs.

Section 8 — Permit To Owner To Build.

The City Clerk is hereby authorized to grant a permit to any property owner to construct a sidewalk in front of, or adjacent to, any real estate owned by him conditioned that such owner is skillful and competent to construct the same in a manner provided in Section 4 hereof.

Section 9 — Revocation of Permit.

The Council may revoke any permit issued under the terms of this ordinance for incompetency or failure to comply with the terms of this ordinance, or the rules, regulations, plans and specifications furnished by the City for the construction, reconstruction or repair of any sidewalks. The City Manager, or his designated agent may cause work to be stopped under any permit granted for construction, reconstruction or repair of any sidewalks for any of the causes enumerated in this section until the next regular meeting of the Council.

Section 10 — Penalty.

Any person, firm or corporation who shall fail to comply with any of the provisions hereof shall, upon conviction thereof, be subject to a fine of not more than One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars, or imprisonment in the City prison or any other place of confinement provided by the City for such purpose at the discretion of the Court, for a period of not to exceed ninety (90) days, or both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the Court unless otherwise provided in this Ordinance.

Section 11 — Repeal.

All ordinances or parts of ordinances conflicting with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

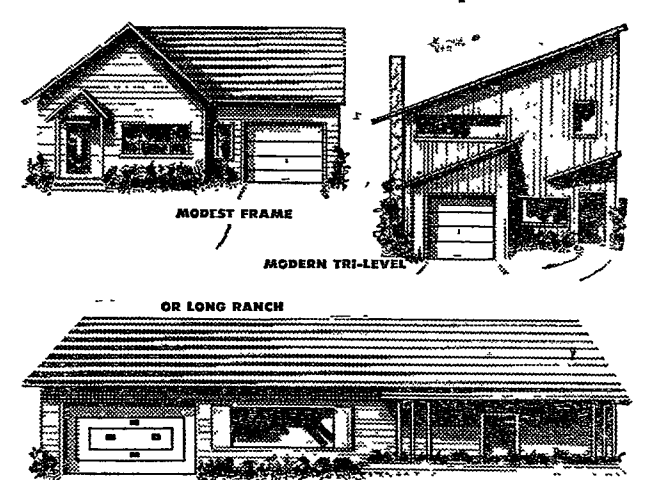

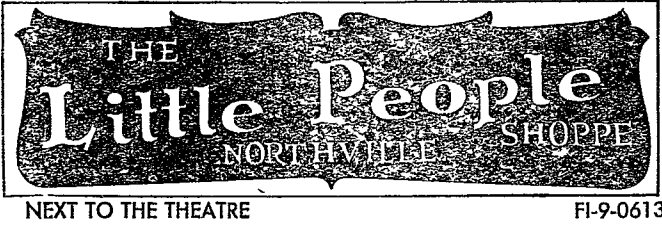

Should any section, subdivision, sentence, clause or phrase of this ordinance be declared by the Courts to be invalid the same shall not affect the validity of the ordinance as a whole or any part thereof other than the part so invalidated.

Section 12 — Effective Date.

This ordinance shall become effective 10 days after enactment and publication thereof.

A PUBLIC HEARING ON THIS ORDINANCE WILL BE HELD MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1959 AT 8:00 P.M. AT THE NORTHVILLE CITY HALL.

READERS SPEAK:

Explains Petitions Circulating in Novi

To the Editor:

As a private citizen who is definitely interested in the existing governments of Novi — I at this time feel that I must write an open letter to better state my position.

I, for one truly believed in becoming a village because I was told it would better protect our boundaries — I believed in the men of the Council for to me they were a cross section of the people of Novi from Educator to Farmer — so I voted for both . . . and I did all I could to have a Village . . . I am being honest with you when I tell you this.

Upon becoming a Village I found to my dismay that our boundaries were no better protected than they were before . . . for this I blame myself for not being better informed.

Personally I have sat back for almost a year and said nothing till all of a sudden a Councilman and some other people who believed as he did tried to shove a City down my throat as a solution to all our problems. I for one did not want a City and I did all I could to defeat it — to say that I was not alone in this belief is putting it mildly as the result of the last election showed. I do not like this constant turmoil, but I do object to things that are going on and because I do I am accused of agitating things. But to me if the majority of people in Novi believe that they have made a mistake in voting for a Village then they should be given an opportunity to reconsider. The only proper and legal way to do it is by amending the existing charter so provision is made that if the people of Novi so desire at some future date to vacate the Village they may do so and return to Township or Chartered Township as they may wish.

As long as this amendment is not inserted in the existing Charter, you the people have no recourse but to put up with existing conditions. Petitions are being circulated at this time for just such a purpose to put an amendment to the Charter of Novi. If you believe that you the people want another chance to reconsider then by all means sign the petitions. If you do not believe that you want this second chance then do not sign. You are not being forced to do something against your will.

You hear of the cost of elections. Well we do not deny that there is a cost, but why all of a sudden do they suddenly realize this? Surely when one of the Councilmen and the people who believed as he did tried to shove a city down our throats there was a cost to run this election or does it make a difference as to who is asking for an election? We the people or a member of the Council and the people who believed as he did. I for one would hate to think that there would be a difference.

You will be told because we object to some phase of the Village government that we are hot heads, that we are peeved, etc., but to me it is too petty to even talk about but I do want you to be made aware of the fact that they shall try to discredit us in any way they can. But as long as the majority of the people of Novi who know me and the things I stand for do not believe me capable of such pettiness then I am satisfied.

In closing, I say, let us recognize that we made a mistake and let us sign the petitions circulating to give us the people a second chance to rectify the mistake we made in voting for a Village . . . but at least give yourself an out if in the future you who are for a Village may become disenchanted. You will too have a chance to vacate if you so desire but only if this amendment is inserted in the existing Charter. This is all we ask you at this time — your cooperation to have the charter amended.

Youth Fellowship Conducts Services For Presbyterians

Members of the Westminster Youth Fellowship conducted both worship services at the First Presbyterian church in Northville last Sunday — the junior high members presenting the 9 a.m. services and the senior high members the 11.15 a.m. services.

The services were under the direction of Mrs. Gladys Weiss, but the material for presentation was prepared by the members of the youth groups themselves.

The youngsters related to the congregation their experiences and reflections at the Presbyterian camps they attended during the past summer.

Conducting the services for the junior high group were Peggy Sue Jones, Elise Batzer, Donna Williams, David Jerome, Susan Shafer, Alice Sinden, Cynthia Allen and Gordon Hammond.

The senior high representatives were Jon Batzer, Timothy Weiss, Philip Jerome, Elise Wagenschutz, Linda Taxis, Julie Gazlay and Arthur Fisher.

Kohs Elected Director Of Detroit Culver Club

George W. Kohs of Northville, presently serving as vice president of a national alumni association of Culver Military academy, last week was elected a director of the Culver club of Greater Detroit, at a dinner-meeting at the Harmony club.

The Culver club, consisting of 55 members, was incorporated last year. Its objective is to advance the best interests of the community.

Last Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Straus of Beck road attended the dinner-dance at the Ferndale Mothers' club.

FARMERS' DILEMMA — Northville area farmers prepared this week for the annual invasion of hunters which started last Tuesday — the pheasant season opener. Although most farmers and other property owners are not opposed to hunting on their lands many of them are forced to "post" their property — as in the picture above — to curb malicious destruction of fences, crops and animals. Nevertheless, the courteous hunter who seeks permission and takes care not to damage property will find plenty of room to hunt the king of them all — the Ringneck. Charles Lapham is shown posting a sign.

COLLECTORS NEEDED — Northville area chairmen for the annual UNICEF collection are looking for children to help in the drive. Mrs. Essie Mirider of the First Methodist church and Mrs. Rolf Batzer of the First Presbyterian church are in charge. Children willing to help can contact either of the women. Collections will be made Saturday afternoon, October 31. Films showing how the funds are used for needy children throughout the world are being shown in the schools this week.

Wayne GOP Women To Kick-off Drive

Republican women in Wayne county will kick off the 1960 campaign with a luncheon at the Veterans' Memorial building Wednesday, October 28, at noon. The affair was initiated by Ella Kooze, state vice chairman in charge of women's activities. The plans are being carried out by the state central women from each of the six Congressional districts with Mrs. Gladys Smith, 17th district chairman, as director of the program committee. The luncheon has been planned to honor the many little recognized volunteer women who work in Republican politics.

I. Lee Potter, special assistant to the Republican national committee chairman Thurston Morton, will be the speaker. Mr. Potter is well known as the state central chairman of the state of Virginia who assisted Meade Alcorn in "Operation Dixie". Mr. Potter was directly responsible for the return of the Virginia legislature to the Republican party in 1956.

Prior to the luncheon, Catherine Gibson, national president of the Federated Republican Women's clubs, will hold a reception for Mr. Potter at the Sheraton-Cadillac hotel.

All interested women, including those not yet active in politics, are welcome to attend. Reservations may be made by calling 17th District Headquarters, BR-3-7276; the Wayne County Headquarters, WO-1-7135, or Mrs. Smith, DI-1-8350.

Card Party Planned For Next Wednesday

A card party given by the Northville Business and Professional Woman's club will be held at the VFW hall, 438 South Main street, Wednesday, October 28 at 8 p.m.

There will be door prizes and refreshments and the public is invited. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Pheasant Hunters Keep Police Busy

Police received close to 10 complaints of hunters trespassing Tuesday on the opening day of pheasant season. Although several people reported nearly being hit by stray shotgun pellets no one was injured, police said.

Group Holds Fall Meeting

By Nancy Smith

A brisk and interesting business meeting followed by an excellent supper set the mood for a very enjoyable evening Saturday, October 10 when the Brookland Farms, No. One, association held its annual fall meeting.

The group, which met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Anchor of Chedworth drive, was called to order by Del Steigerwald, association president. Mr. Steigerwald first introduced and welcomed the new residents of the community, Bob and Natalie Regenhardt, Chuck and Nancy Smith and Mitch and Anita Wayne, both families of Brookwood drive.

The members then went on to discuss several items of old and new business, most particularly the possibility of building a private swimming pool for the area. A committee to investigate and to report on this project was appointed. Members of the committee are: Boyd Armstrong, chairman, Chuck Smith, Ray Anchor, Del Steigerwald and Dick Huston.

Also appointed to hold association positions were Mrs. Hud Adams, hospitality chairman, and Mrs. Nancy Smith, publicity chairman.

After the completion of the meeting the group adjourned for some conversation during the tasty potluck supper which had been provided by the wives.

Stop Sign Violators Get Police Warning

Motorists were warned this week that police will be watching for violators ignoring new village traffic signs.

Police Chief Lee BeGole said stop signs have been erected at five village intersections in an effort to reduce the number of accidents.

Several reports of violation have been reported to the department since the signs were erected. "The signs don't mean anything if the drivers are going to ignore them," he said. One of the worst offenders is the "stop sign drifter", the fellow who coasts past a stop sign.

New stop signs have been erected at Meadowbrook and Nine Mile, Beck and Nine Mile, Beck and 11 Mile, West Road and South Lake drive, and South Lake drive and Novi road.

Virus Research Work Recalled

The Northville Record

THE OLDEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY — EST. 1868 Thursday, October 22, 1959—9

They cut a hole in an egg, inoculated an embryo chicken, and made a spectacular medical discovery.

Briefly, this is the fascinating account of a young couple's research work at Vanderbilt university in 1931, part of which appeared this month in the Saturday Evening Post.

It is a chapter out of the lives of two prominent Northville residents — Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Woodruff, who live at 20145 Beck road.

At their home this week, the Woodruffs recalled the events leading to the discovery outlined in Post.

"We met at Yale medical school in 1922," Dr. Woodruff explained. "I came as a medical student and Mrs. Woodruff came on a teaching fellowship in physiology."

In 1925 Mrs. Woodruff, who completed her undergraduate work at Mount Holyoke, received a PhD in physiology. Dr. Woodruff was graduated the following year.

The Woodruffs were married in 1927 and Dr. Woodruff took his bride to Nashville, Tennessee, where he took his residency at Vanderbilt university hospital.

Mrs. Woodruff was given an assistantship in physiology at the university. "The following year," Mrs. Woodruff recalled, "I thought it would be pleasant to work near my husband so I became a research assistant in the pathology department under Dr. Ernest Goodpasture."

Meanwhile, Dr. Woodruff was made an assistant professor in the department.

Although husband and wife were engaged in independent research, they both specialized in the field of viruses — the tiny microbes that cause such diseases as polio, TB, yellow fever, measles, colds and flu.

The aim of their research was to purify, transplant, and trace the growth of a "pure" virus — something hitherto undone.

Because the fowl pox virus — farmers call it "sore head" — was easily recognized and not dangerous to work with it became the laboratory "guinea pig."

Dr. Woodruff tackled the painstaking job of developing a pure pox virus. He had to scrape material from the sores of the heads of sick chickens, then wash, and rewash the scrapings until they were completely free of bacteria.

Many time-consuming experiments later he came up with a perfectly clean virus.

Then it became Mrs. Woodruff's job of transplanting the pure virus to a living tissue (viruses demand living tissue).

Under the guidance of Dr. Goodpasture, she set out to transplant a virus to an uncontaminated living tissue. It was as important to have a "pure" living tissue as it was a pure virus.

Goodpasture bought an incubator and several dozen fertile eggs at a Nashville hatchery — and a "hatching" egg was selected for the living tissue.

Mrs. Woodruff carefully cut away a section of the shell without breaking the egg and then inoculated the embryo with a pox virus. Then a tiny glass window was sealed over the hole so the researchers could watch the reaction.

Within a week the virus started growing in the living embryo.

The Woodruffs were elated, the medical world profoundly grateful. A medical breakthrough had been achieved.

Shortly after making her historical discovery, Mrs. Woodruff resigned from her research post to raise a family. Dr. Woodruff in 1935 accepted a position at William H. Maybury sanatorium where he now is director of research.

The significance of the Woodruffs' discovery was twofold: It provided a means of raising other viruses, and it provided scientists with an inexpensive method of producing vaccine.

By World War II, egg-grown small pox viruses were being used to inoculate thousands of troops. Similarly, influenza, yellow fever, typhus and "horse sleeping" vaccines were massed produced in eggs.

Today Mrs. Woodruff contents herself with raising three children, Alice, Mary Jean and Charles, participating in many local civic activities, and holding down the presidency of the Northville Democratic club.

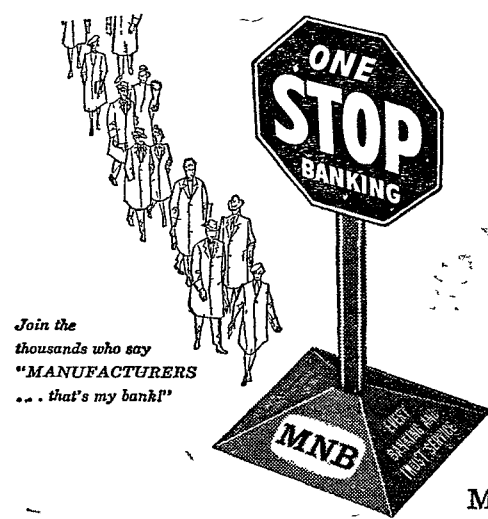

Dr. Woodruff, on the other hand, still is actively engaged in research work. Currently, he is studying, along with other members of the staff, immunity in tuberculous and the effects of Streptomycin and other new wonder drugs on the tubercle bacillus and on the TB patient.

Early work at Vanderbilt university by Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Woodruff (above) of Northville was recalled this month in a Saturday Evening Post series entitled "Virus Hunters" by Greer Williams. The articles were taken from a book by Williams to be published next month.

RAILROAD FEATHERBEDDING:

$500,000,000 LOSS

TO THE NATION—INCLUDING YOU—EVERY YEAR

Featherbedding on the railroads — pay for work not done or not needed — is costing the American people the shocking total of more than $500,000,000 a year.

You pay for it every time you shop, because featherbedding costs are hidden in the price of everything you buy.

Obsolete union work rules, involving the railroad operating employees, are responsible for this gigantic burden. Right now, for instance, these rules require every diesel locomotive to carry a fireman — even though diesels have no fires to stoke, no boilers to tend.

The forthcoming negotiations between the railroads and the unions are urgently important to the whole nation.

In asking the unions to drop these featherbedding rules, all the railroads ask for is a fair day's work for a fair day's pay.

Center Deal Knew Mustangs Would Win; Cops Grid Quiz

It was a winning week end for Mustang Griddier Wade Deal.

The Northville center played a big part in his team's key victory over West Bloomfield Friday night and came up Monday as the winner of the weekly football contest.

Wade missed only two games. And while he broke the reign of the women fans (last week women won first and second place, they still weren't to be denied).

Mrs. William Slattery, 46812 Dun-sany, upheld the female forecasters by winning second place. Mrs. Slattery, whose sons, Mike and Tom, play varsity and junior varsity football at Northville, missed only three games. A real sports fan, Mrs. Slattery was a contest winner last year.

In another week of several upsets, no one else missed as few games as Deal and Mrs. Slattery. Several contestants picked all but four games correctly. Some of these included Jack Jones, Francis Wilkin-son, C. Hinchman and Al Jones.

Most frequently missed games were the State-Notre Dame, Wisconsin-Iowa, Miami-Navy, Ohio State-Purdue and Detroit-San Francisco.

Deal slipped up on the State-Notre Dame and Wisconsin-Iowa games, confidently picking the Mustangs to win. Mrs. Slattery missed the same games, plus the Auburn-Georgia Tech squeaker.

There's another contest this week — and for those who haven't been winning, the ol' professor has a few inside tips:

Notre Dame to derail the flying wildcats of Northwestern; State to keep going and upset Indiana; Penn State to stop Illinois; Michigan and Minnesota to play to a bruising tie; and (here's the real flipper) the Lions to lambast L.A.

Bingham Wins "Most Valuable" Novi Player Award

Tommy Bingham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bingham, 23906 East LeBost, was named the most valuable player in the Novi Little League at a league banquet Satur-day at the community building.

Other winners receiving awards were: George Birchfield, batting championship (.615, 11 home runs); Ricky White, best pitcher, 5-2; and Butch Rice, most valuable player in the Babe Ruth League.

Highlighting the banquet, which drew close to 200 boys and their parents, was a talk on the importance of sandlot baseball by Ted Kazanski, property of the Milwaukee Braves.

Prior to joining the Braves, Kazanski was a $100,000 bonus player with the Philadelphia Phillies.

Hosts for the banquet were the officers of the Novi Little League: Richard Bingham, president; Richard Ritter, treasurer; Lester Ward, secretary, and John Williams, player-agent.

The meal was prepared by the Novi Rebekahs.

Billy "B" Ends Season With 3 More Firsts

Northville's winningest show horse wrapped up the 1959 season last week by capturing three firsts in the first annual horse show at Cleveland.

Billy B. Geddes, a four-year-old Morgan horse, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Eddy Earehart of Northville, placed in the following events:

First, four-year-old and over model stallions, Grand Champion model stallion; first, junior Morgans under saddle; first, fine harness; second, Morgan English performance; third, Morgan English stake class.

A TELEPHONE INSTALLER was recently working outside a woman's house. After climbing the pole, he rang her number to tell her that her telephone service would be discontinued for a few minutes.

"Just a minute," the woman answered. "There's a telephone man working outside. I'd better tell him, too."

Before the startled lineman could say a word, the housewife had come out to tell him that he was wanted inside on the telephone—a real example of a one-way conversation!

THE TIME: Evening

THE PLACE: A bedroom

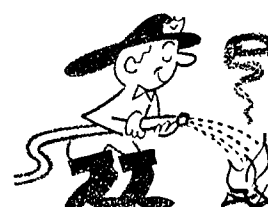

SOUND: A telephone ringing from a distance.

"George! George, wake up! The telephone is ringing... George!" Still half asleep, the husband struggles out of bed and dashes to answer the telephone before it stops ringing...

Has this ever happened in your home? If it has, then you already know the best reason for installing a convenient, colorful bedroom extension. It will cost about a quarter a week, but it's worth lots more than that in pleasure and security. For more information about bedroom extensions, call the Business Office.

FIRE! FIRE! Volunteers everywhere drop what they're doing and rush to the scene of the emergency. Before long, the community whose volunteers arrive fastest will probably be equipped with one of Michigan Bell's Alerting and Dispatching Systems. These systems were developed by telephone company engineers at the request of volunteer fire departments all over the country. Because they use regular telephone exchange equipment to warn volunteers, these Alerting Systems are both faster and more accurate than old-fashioned sirens or fire whistles. All in all, they are a great improvement in public safety for small towns.

Mustangs Hit Top Performance Friday

Crush West Bloomfield, 20-6, To Take W-O League Lead

A fired-up Mustang eleven kicked over their opponents and stomped on the oddsmaker at Keego Harbor Friday night.

By upsetting "favored" West Bloomfield, 20-6, Northville's football team stretched their league winning streak to 29 straight games and once again stamped themselves as rulers of the Wayne-Oakland county league.

The victory gives the Mustangs undisputed possession of first place; the loss dropped the Lakers to a second-place tie with Clarkston, which upset Brighton last week, 14-7.

Northville Coach Ron Schipper had nothing but praise for his squad after Friday's game.

He and his assistant, Dutch Van Ingen, called Friday's contest one of the finest team performances by a Northville squad since the Mustangs started the streak back in 1955. "Certainly," Schipper added, "it was by far the best team effort this season."

Friday's victory was considerably sweeter than Northville's earlier three league wins this season for several reasons:

Several sportswriters and many football fans had stamped the Mustangs as underdogs; the Mustangs admittedly did not play their "best ball" in the earlier contests; and the undefeated Lakers were playing on their own gridiron before a capacity homecoming crowd.

Despite these odds, the Lakers failed to get off the ground. They threatened early in the contest, but sputtered weakly throughout the remainder of the game as the Mustangs rose to the occasion.

The Lakers had their wings clipped early in the first quarter when a 27-yard touch down gallop by Halfback Wayne Ross was nullified on an offside penalty.

West Bloomfield gave up the ball on downs one play later — and the Mustangs' fleetfooted halfback, Larry Nitzel, streaked downfield for 47 yards — a play which put the Lakers on the defensive throughout the remainder of the game.

Nitzel and Halfback Roger Atchinson took turns carrying the ball to the seven where Nitzel raced around end for Northville's first touchdown. Center Wade Deal's kick went wide of the uprights.

The Lakers took the kick-off, sped 10 yards and then died on their own 27-yard line where they were forced to punt.

Then on the first play from scrimmage, Atchinson dropped back and fired a long pass downfield. End Joe Gotro sped past West Bloomfield's aerial defense, pulled in the pass from over his shoulder, and went into the end zone unmolested. Deal's kick gave Northville a 13-0 lead with several minutes remaining in the first quarter.

West Bloomfield took their second kickoff on their own 12-yard-line and carried to the 23.

Twice Northville's aggressive line-men knifed through the Lakers to smother the carrier behind the line of scrimmage. But a 43-yard-gallop around the right end by Fullback Tom Moran put the Lakers in a scoring position.

In the series of plays that carried the Lakers into the end-zone for their lone touchdown of the evening, one came in the air — despite earlier predictions that West Bloomfield's greatest threat was its aerial attack.

It was a 10-yard smash around the left end by Ross which gave the Lakers the six points.

The Mustangs came back with a 69-yard touchdown drive, which included two pass plays good for a total of 53 yards.

Young Steve Juday fired both passes. Nitzel pulled in one good for 34 yards, and Fullback Gary Morgan grabbed a 19-yard pass that carried Northville to the Lakers' seven-yard line.

Halfback Dave Hay sprinted around end and into the end zone on the next ground play, but the touchdown was erased from the scoreboard by a five-yard Northville penalty. Morgan then sped through a wide-open hole in the line to add six more points to Northville's score.

Both teams went scoreless in the third stanza, as the defensive units on both sides took turns pushing each other backwards. When it was all over, the Mustangs were standing with the ball on their own 25.

Several plays later in the final quarter, Northville started an 83-yard march climaxed by a 47-yard race to the goal line by Nitzel. Deal's point after kick put Northville out front 26-6.

The Mustangs were threatening again — after recovering a Lakers' fumble — when the game ended.

Deliriously happy Northville players lifted their equally thrilled coach to their shoulders and marched triumphantly to the Lakers' side of the gridiron, while Schipper waved a newspaper clipping that had all-but predicted a sweeping West Bloomfield win.

Although the Mustang victory was a demonstration of a tremendous team effort, the sparkling performance by Lineman Wade Deal, Bill Juday and Fred Mitchell seemed to give Northville its polished appearance.

Play after play these three Northville players led their teammates in smashing through the Lakers' forward wall to shatter West Bloomfield's offense — which in four previous games had amassed more than 100 points.

Mad Underdogs

Friday night's sparkling performance by the Mustangs might suggest that Coach Ron Schipper's gridgers play best when cast in the role of the underdog.

It's a rarity for the Northville squad — and one that, some at least, resent.

Several clippings of last week's Record article naming West Bloomfield the favorite were returned Saturday — edited with such comments as "you goofed". One questioned the loyalty of the "good old hometown paper".

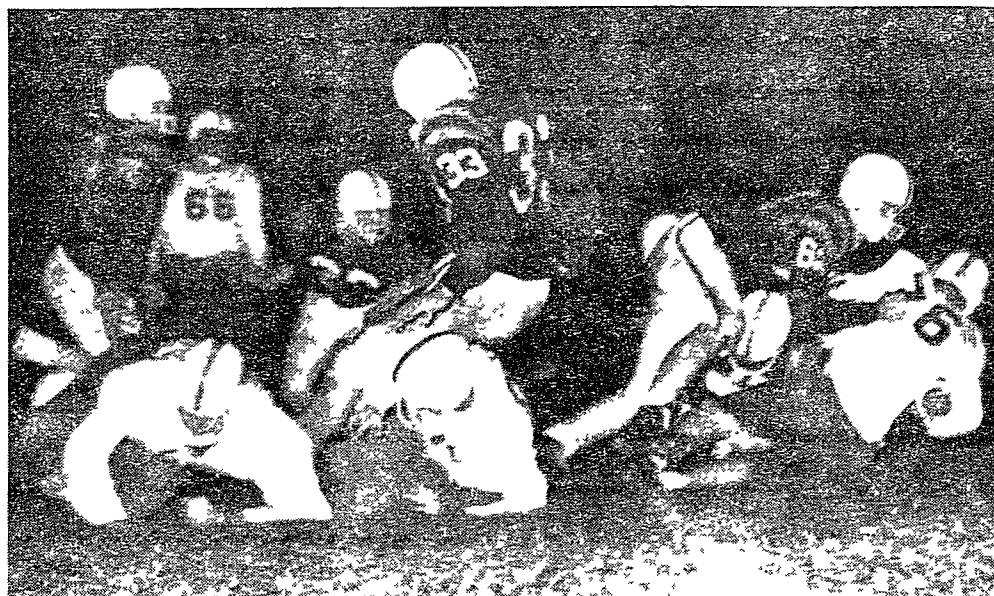

The Record will keep calling them as we see them — and Friday night what we saw looked good! The team played up to its potential for the first time this season and in some small measure we hope our "underdog" article helped.

We congratulate the Mustangs and Coach Schipper!

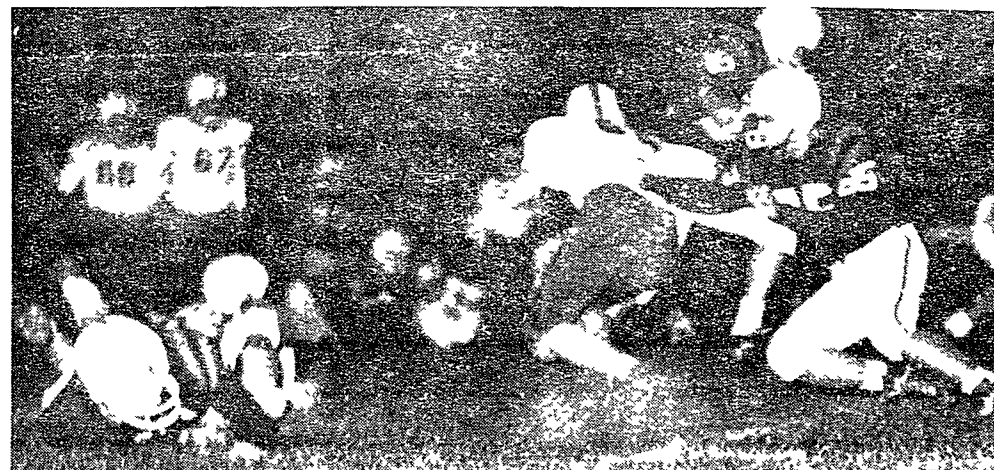

(But a word of caution — Brighton can rise to heights, too, so watch that helmet size!)

NORTHVILLE'S CHARGING LINEMEN smashed through the Lakers' wall repeatedly to spill the ball carrier behind the line of scrimmage. Above Center Wade Deal (63) and an unidentified teammate grind up the Lakers' star halfback, Jim Newton (76). Other Mustangs in the picture are Fred Mitchell (73) and Gary Morgan (33).

GALLOPS AWAY — Halfback Larry Nitzel galloped 47 yards for Northville's final touchdown on this fourth quarter play. Dave LaFond (65), Northville tackle, is shown at the right.

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD—Thursday, October 22, 1959—11

29 Game Streak, W-O Lead At Stake in Brighton Game

A disappointed Brighton football team will welcome Northville into its parlor tomorrow in hopes of feasting on the fattest team in the Wayne-Oakland league.

Still smarting from the 14-7 slap in the face last week at the hands of Clarkston, the Bulldogs are anxious to get back into the league race.

A victory over Northville not only would place Brighton in reaching distance of the championship but would also be sweet revenge for the Bulldogs' 26-0 loss to the Mustangs last season.

Northville will carry a remarkable 29-game league winning streak and the league's first-place flag into tomorrow's game. The Mustangs are in first place, boasting a 4-0 record, and well on their way to their fourth straight championship.

Clarkston, by virtue of its win over Brighton, is tied with West Bloomfield with three wins and one loss. The Bulldogs are tied for third place with Holly with a 2-2 record.

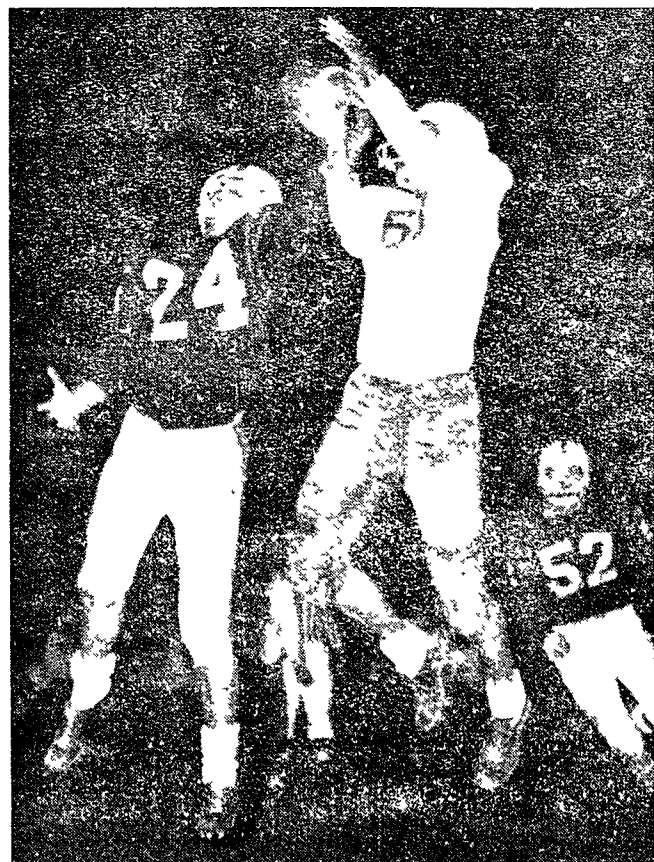

Brighton's only other loss was to West Bloomfield two weeks ago when the Lakers romped to victory in a 39-19 thriller.

Coach Ron Schipper's greatest concern as his team prepares to invade Brighton is to avoid a "letdown" after the Mustangs' great performance last week at Keego Harbor.

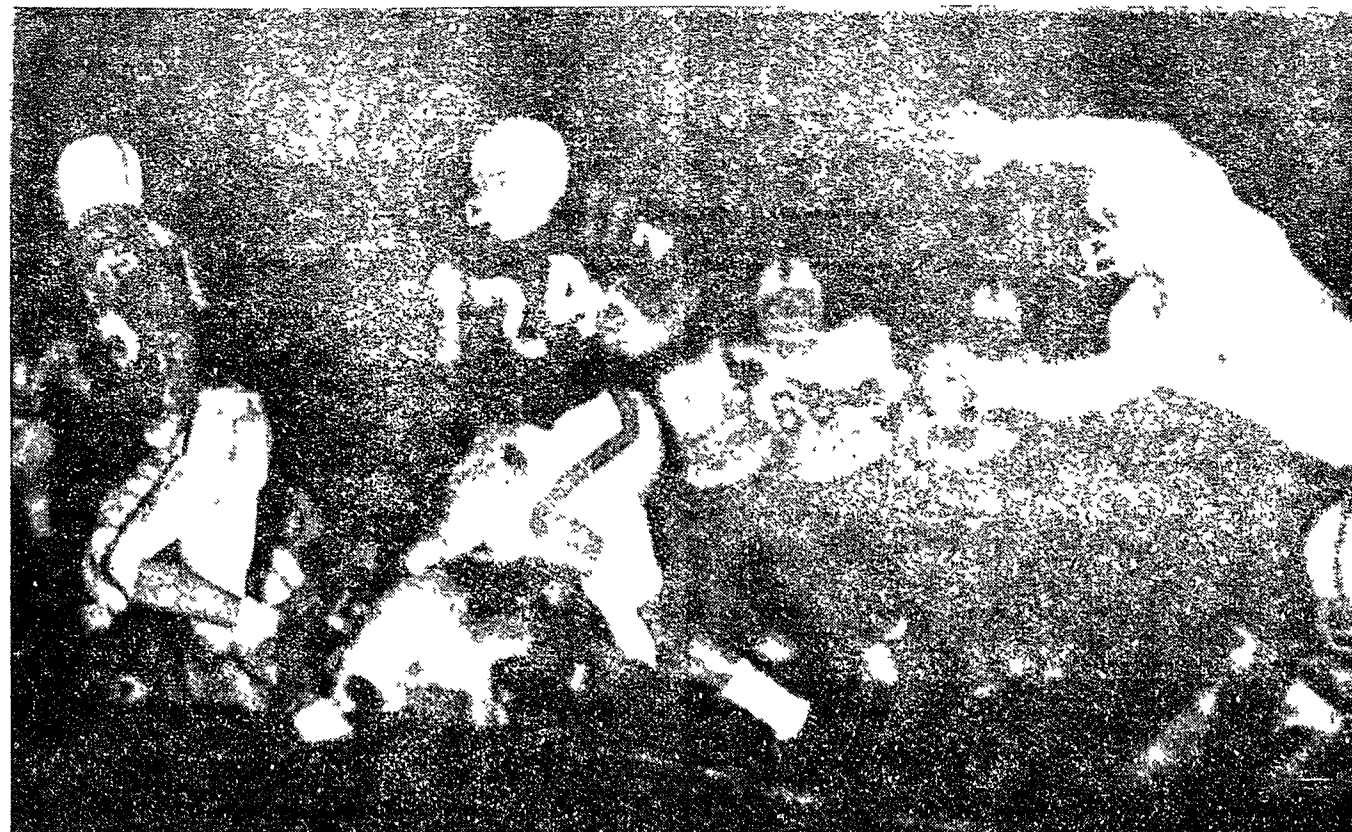

Northville, he admits cannot afford to "letdown". A single loss could topple the Mustangs from the top "We've got to do our best in all of our remaining games," he declared.

THEY SAID IT COULDN'T BE DONE — But a fired-up Mustang 11 proved differently. Here, after chalking up their 29th straight win, the Northville players hoist Coach Ron Schipper to their shoulders. Schipper is carrying a blackboard containing a pre-game Free Press story which gave Northville an underdog rating.

SORRY, IT BELONGS TO ME — Northville Right Halfback Roger Atchinson (24) refused to give up this eight-yard pass from Quarterback Steve Juday early in the fourth quarter. Dennis Alix (64) leaps back in an unsuccessful attempt to intercept the ball.

KEY BLOCKING played an important role in Northville's surprising victory over West Bloomfield. In the picture above, Halfback Roger Atchinson (24) pedals through one of the many holes opened by the

CHOOSING "THAT GOOD PART"

The historian Prescott relates that when Cortez and his Spanish soldiers were evacuating the City of Mexico by night they were confronted with the alternative of taking with them great supplies of gold or of abandoning it and saving their own lives. Cortez had warned: "He travels safest who travels lightest." But many did not heed this good advice and perished.

As the Spaniards endeavored to cross the breaches in the causeway that led out of the city, those most heavily weighted down by the fatal gold were "buried" with it in the salt floods of the lake either because of sheer weight or because they were slowed in their advance and became the targets of deadly Aztec arrows. On the other hand, those who were not so cumbered escaped. They had wisely chosen in favor of their own lives.

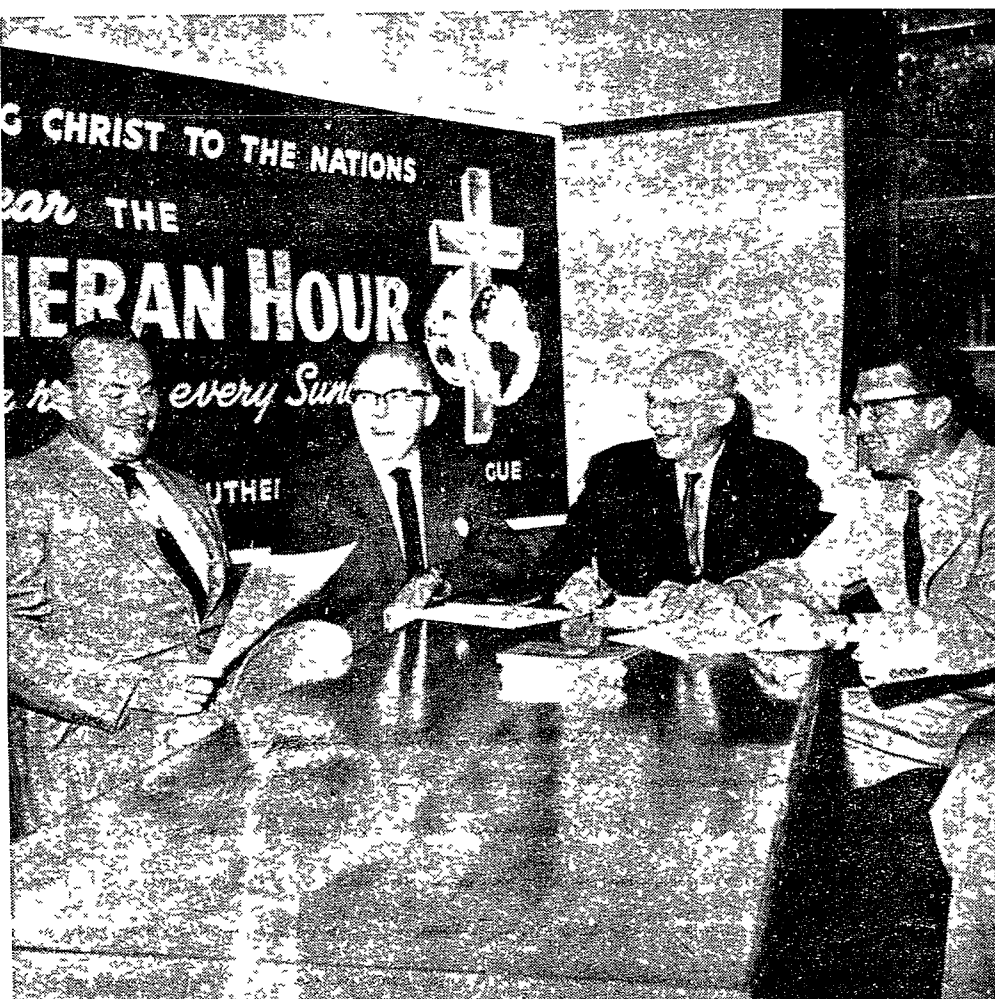

Several hundred years later Stanley, the man who found Livingston in Africa, was also forced to travel lightly. When he started his trek across the dark continent he carried enough books to fill several shelves — 72 books and the Bible. As his journey continued through the days and weeks, he was obliged gradually to throw away the books until they were all gone but one — the Bible. It is said that he read it through three times on that remarkable trip.

Stanley, too, made a discreet selection when he kept the Bible but discarded the other books. It will never be known how much the Scriptures meant to him during those lonely days in Africa.

Many Christians today likewise give first place to the Bible in their travels. With little room in their luggage for reading matter, they do not fail to take along the Bible, or at least the New Testament. They thus choose in favor of God's Word. That is as it should be.

Choosing that good part means to prefer God's Word to everything else in life. If our chief concern is the welfare of our immortal soul, we will gladly read and hear about God's plan of salvation for us in Christ Jesus. All other things in life must be considered of less importance, because Jesus' words alone abide forever. He alone has the words of eternal life, because He alone became the sinner's Substitute by his suffering and death on the cross.

Jesus emphasized the importance of that good part, when Mary sat at His feet hearing His Word. To Martha, who was more concerned about material things, the Savior said: "Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things; but one thing is needful, and Mary hath chosen that good part which shall not be taken away from her." (St. Luke 10:41-42).

OPEN HOUSE — St. Paul's Lutheran church has joined with hundreds of other Michigan Lutheran parishes in sponsoring a district-wide open house, November 1-5 "Sharing Our Faith in Christ" is the theme of the endeavor — largest project of its kind ever undertaken. Special invitations are being distributed throughout this area, inviting the unchurched to worship at St. Paul. In the picture above, members of the local open house committee making plans for an area wide canvass to reach the unchurched, are (left to right): Ray Marz, rally chairman; Ralph Williams, prayer; Fred Sterner, general chairman, and Don Kreeger, survey.

Northville City Council Proceedings

A regular meeting of the Northville City Council was held at the City Hall Monday evening, October 5, 1959 at 8 P.M.

Present: Mayor Allen, Councilmen Canterbury, Juday, Reed and Welch.

Minutes of last regular meeting were read and approved.

Bills amounting to $12,000.68 from the General Fund; $4,769.42 from the Other Government Fund, $790.00 from the Escrow Account, and $305,123.65 from the Water Fund, were presented. It was moved by Reed, supported by Welch that these bills be allowed and paid. Carried.

Public hearing on the Uniform Traffic Code was the first item of old business. There being no one present who raised objections to its passage, it was moved by Reed, supported by Allen, that same be adopted by reference. Carried.

Engineer Harold Penn reported that the cost of a temporary sidewalk on W. Main St. between Rogers and Orchard Drive would be approximately $1,105.00. The City Manager and Public Works Supt. are instructed to install this walk in the most economical manner.

It was moved by Welch, supported by Allen, that the schedule of wage and salary increases as submitted be approved, retroactive to July 1st, 1959. Carried.

City Engineer Penn reported that the approximate cost of constructing a sidewalk on East St. from Elm St. to the High School would be $4,825.00.

Mgr. Robertson was authorized to invest $10,000 of the Cemetery Trust Fund in 1975 U.S. Government Securities.

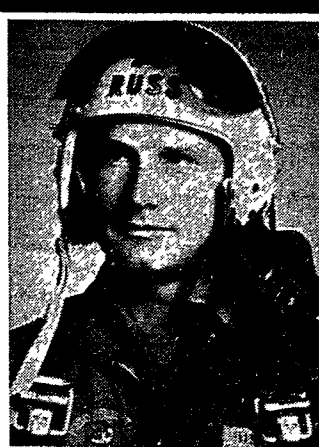

Under new business, it was proposed that the parking lots maintained by the City on private property be returned to their owners, as same are not used extensively during the daytime and the income from same is very little. It was decided to discontinue the use of the lots referred to, at the corner of Center and Dunlap and Center and Main Sts., and Mgr. Robertson was instructed to write the owners that the City will not be using this property for parking after Dec. 1st, 1959.

The Bulk Food Ordinance was the next item brought up for discussion. It was decided that more information was desirable regarding this ordinance, and Mgr. Robertson was asked to have a representative of the Wayne Co. Health Dept. come to the next regular meeting to explain some points about which there are questions. A notice is to be sent to all establishments in the City that will be affected by this ordinance inviting them to this meeting.

The meeting of the City Council with the Planning Commission to review the proposed new Zoning Ordinance is to be postponed to Oct. 20th, 1959.

There being no further business, meeting was adjourned.

(Signed)
Mark Alexander, City Clerk

'Thanks' Says Director Of County March of Dimes

Charley Gehringer, campaign director for the Emergency March of Dimes said that the total raised during August by volunteers in Wayne county totaled $289,600.

"We feel that this is not only a tremendous task that our volunteers accomplished in a short time, but it also represents a vote of confidence from the public," Gehringer said.

"This week we are pleased to mail out checks. Children's Hospital, the Rehabilitation Institute of Greater Detroit and McGregor Center received $45,242.72. The hospitals — Henry Ford, Herman Kiefer, Harper, Detroit Memorial and the Respirator Center in Ann Arbor received $111,920. Bills for appliances, physical therapy treatments and cost of attendants in homes accounted for $23,887. This is less than half of what we owe these institutions but we are pleased to be able to make such a substantial payment." "I'd like to thank everyone in Wayne county for the fine campaign."

News from the American Legion

The flag should never be treated as trash, no matter its tattered condition, nor left to any unknown fate. The flag code of the United States provides that: "The flag when it is in such condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, should be destroyed in a dignified way." The code adds: "Preferably by burning".

In death, as in life, the worn flag should not touch the ground, but should be burned on a rack or stand, or in a container or furnace, and offered the deference of a parting salute as it burns. Kerosene or other flammables may be used to speed the burning when the flag is not burned in a furnace.

Where no public ceremony is available, private flag disposal by the owner should be observed. A wire garden incinerator makes a good stand. Those present should stand respectfully and render a brief salute as the flag burns.

Legion-sponsored public flag disposals are better, and are conducted by the Lloyd H. Green Post 147 of Northville each November 11.

The flag burning ceremony helps impress flag etiquette upon the public and renders an appreciated service to citizens who do not know what to do with old flags.

Anyone who has a worn or tattered flag may turn it in at the Legion home, 100 West Dunlap, or call FI-92206, and we will gladly pick it up for you.

The Metal Show, in the International Amphitheatre, will feature latest materials, products, processes and techniques in the multi-billion-dollar metalworking industry, according to Allan Ray Putnam, managing director of the metals engineering society. There will be 400 exhibitors.

Theme of the major annual industrial exposition is "Materials and Fabrication Preview of the Soaring '60's". Attendance of 50,000 is expected.

"Cigarette Law"
Topic of Discussion

Shall police enforce the law which prohibits persons under 21 years of age from smoking in public?

This is a question currently under consideration by Oakland county police departments. It was the topic of discussion by the Juvenile Officers association of southern Oakland county last Thursday.

The state law prohibits:

- Sale of cigarettes to anyone under 21 years of age.
- Smoking by anyone under 21 years of age or the use of tobacco in any public place of business, highways, parks, streets or alleys.
- Loitering by persons under 21 years of age in public places for the purpose of indulging in cigarettes and tobacco.

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO . . .

Northville's city council took a major step in its program to help improve and develop parking and alley facilities this week with the purchase of the Frank Hills' building, 114 West Main street.

A door-to-door canvass project was organized Monday at a meeting of Northville-area Republicans and is underway now, Donald E. Robinson, delegate from Northville township precinct No. 2, announced this week.

Novi village councilmen began making appointments Monday night and found that there were also many other problems that need immediate attention.

Novi seems headed for another "race track rezoning" question identical to one that developed into a public referendum last year.

FIVE YEARS AGO . . .

No coercion or compulsion will be used in determining what areas outside the present village limits will be included in the newest attempt to gain city status for Northville.

The Neal building, 120 North Center, for 20 years home of The Northville Record, will be the new home of the Carrington Insurance agency.

Sale of the brick structure, built early in the 1930's after its frame predecessor had been destroyed by fire, was announced this week.

Northville movie fans will no longer have to go to other towns to see their favorite pictures when the A&P theater on Main street reopens this month.

The Northville Retail Merchants association has endorsed incorporation of the village into a city, it was revealed at the group's monthly meeting Monday night in the American Legion hall.

Those little Red Devils from Clarenceville nearly played Northville's Mustangs off their mental and physical feet Friday night, but their opening bit of devilment only served to arouse the ire of Co-Captain Joe Girardin and his teammates. Despite numerous heart-breaking penalties and some rough going, the Mustangs finally emerged victorious 25 to 13.

Appointment of Joseph E. Elliott as manager of its Northville store is announced by A&P Food stores. He succeeds Warren Ottinger who was promoted to the company's Trenton store.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Frederick Walker and George E. White received Purple Heart awards for wounds received in action in Europe and the Pacific.

Plans are being laid for the new Presbyterian project, the moving of the Manse. It is expected that this building will be moved across Main street in the vacant Frid lot.

Eventually, the church expects to purchase the Blackburn home adjoining the church property which will be used as the Manse. The present one will then be sold.

Rev. J. Leslie French is the newly appointed pastor ad interim of the Northville Presbyterian church.

The first home football game will be played today, Friday, at Cass Benton park with Milford. The kick-off will take place at 3:30 p.m.

The War Production Board of Detroit has granted the Northville Veterans' Memorial building full priorities for the complete renovation of the building. Work will begin on the building within the week, according to chairman of the trustees, George Simmons.

The champion pacing gelding of 1944 will show here at Northville Downs next Saturday.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Skrzycki gained its fourth successive Class AAA championship of the Detroit Baseball Federation by defeating the Northville Wolverines, 17 to 0 here Sunday.

Old friends and neighbors of John S. Haggerty, veteran member of the Wayne County Road Commission, have completed arrangements for a banquet in his honor at the Mayflower hotel in Plymouth.

Dr. H. H. Burkart, Northville's village president, will speak briefly on the appreciation of Northville and its citizens to Mr. Haggerty for the fine system of roads he and his road commission have been instrumental in placing in and around Northville.

Chief among the 13 men who have been active in the manufacture of dairy products for more than 30 years are Charles E. Rogers and his brother, John.

The Rogers brothers have been pioneers with their father in the condensed milk work and builders of machinery for this staple food product. They have won an enviable position in the trade.

J. G. Alexander, 35 years a resident of Northville and for ten years of those years engaged steadily in selling real estate in this vicinity, has kept up his subdividing activities in spite of the much heard of depression.

Just now Mr. Alexander is cutting up an 80-acre plot of land on the corner of the Seven Mile and Sloan roads into small parcels and is finding many buyers.

Imports vs. US Economy

Stockholm, Sweden — Last night I sat in the lounge of the Grand Hotel with representatives of prominent American corporations who were in the beautiful city of Stockholm to spend the week end. Their chief subject of discussion was what will happen to U.S. labor as a result of increasing imports from Europe.

European Industry Booming

Every one of these men is leaving tremendous orders for machine parts which will be sent to the U.S. and assembled into consumer products now being manufactured in the United States. They classify all the way from bicycles to motorboats, with automobiles, of course, leading the way. Surely new autos made in the U.S. will not stop the flow of new cars coming from Europe. Today I saw a new Dauphine car selling in Paris for $835 with U.S. models priced from about $950 — $1100. (These are Renault built).

Not only are the European Common Market and Outer Seven countries competing with the United States, but they are competing with each other to give our U.S. manufacturers both high quality and lower prices. These European manufacturers pay 80 cents to one dollar per hour for skilled male employees and from 60c to 75c per hour for female employees who apparently can do the work just as well. Executives who would secure annual salaries of $25,000 per year in the U.S. receive only about $5,000 here in Europe. They, moreover, are very able men.

More Modern Machinery

Being Used in Europe

It is not only a difference of wages, but also of spirit and ambition of the workers and of the models of the machinery used. Recently, I had dinner in Halmstad, Sweden at the lovely home of the Swedish manufacturer of razor blades for the Schick-Eversharp Injector razor, which I personally use. He is making and wrapping these blades on new high-speed machines not yet introduced in the U.S.

What About Labor Unions?

Many in the U.S. think that Europe has no labor unions. This is not true. All the countries have labor unions and, I am told, this even applies to Russia. The fact also is that the labor leaders who operate these unions are intelligent and reasonable. They are sometimes government appointed. These unions are subject to the same laws and taxes to which the management associations are subject.

The main difference between the European unions and those in the U.S. is that labor leaders and union members in the U.S. appear to have very little interest in either their employers or the consumers who are to use their products. In Europe these labor leaders and members are anxious for their employers to make fair profits and for the consumers to enjoy their products. This difference is the main reason why U.S. manufacturers are buying so many parts in Europe to put into products to sell in the U.S., and are even making the entire products to sell in Europe and various countries abroad.

What About Tariffs?

All these U.S. manufacturers who are visiting Europe — at least those whom I meet — are griping against our State Department in Washington. They claim that our State Department is even rude to them, telling them that if they cannot compete with Europe in manufacturing costs they had better "sell out" and "retire from business". Of course, what our manufacturers want is higher tariffs. Our State Department tells our U.S. manufacturers that such higher tariffs would eventually result in World War III.

Large merchandisers such as Sears, Roebuck & Co. are making big profits importing finished household products from all European countries and also from Japan. They want tariffs kept low. They praise our State Department for their present stand. Therefore, my conclusion is that present tariff relations will continue and will result in much more unemployment in the U.S. This, however, should teach us all a good lesson — both wage-workers and employers; it may be a "blessing in disguise".

Need Businessmen in Government

IN MICHIGAN nearly everybody talks about the state's economic climate. And many are doing something about it.

Among the latest to announce they will work for a more favorable economic climate are 39 business and civic leaders who will meet in December to formally organize a Michigan State Chamber of Commerce.

Articles of incorporation for the state chamber were filed with the Michigan Corporation and Securities Commission early in October.

Diversified forces are being mustered to promote Michigan economic development.

The Republican-controlled Legislature has created special committees to study the state economy.

Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams has appointed 200 Industrial Ambassadors, a special committee on Michigan's Economic Future and a commission to set policies for the Department of Economic Development.

A non-partisan Citizens for Michigan movement has been started by American Motors President George Romney.

And both political parties are preparing for a 1960 repeat of the arguments about economic climate sounded during the 1958 campaign.

No conflict should be presented by these efforts and those of a state chamber, according to incorporators of the Chamber of Commerce.

The chamber hopes to provide a central organization to coordinate all activities geared to advance the general prosperity of Michigan.

Behind the new organization is the belief that businessmen should take a more active interest in government.

Founders of the state chamber are Robert P. Briggs, executive vice president of Consumers Power Co.; Thomas R. Reid, civic and governmental affairs manager for Ford Motor Co., and Arthur H. Sarvis, United Finance Corp., Flint.

Eleven of the steering committee members are from the Detroit area. They are S. D. DenUyl, William Day, E. O. George, W. B. Hurley, K. G. Taylor, George Russell, E. H. Rydholm, Harvey J. Campbell, Richard L. Chapman, Walker L. Cislser and Reid.

Outstate members are Briggs, Sarvis, Vincent Fochtman, Traverse City; Edward J. Frey, Grand Rapids; W. T. Gillespie, Midland; Edgar L. Harden, Marquette; Max P. Heavenrich, Saginaw; Creighton D.

Holden, St. Clair; Paul C. Johnson, Muskegon; Kermit Krum, Battle Creek; William D. McIntyre, Monroe; Stephen St. Nisbet, Fremont;

Walter Patenge, Lansing; Travis W. Pearce, Jackson; Donald J. Porter, Grand Rapids; B. W. Reeve, Iron Mountain; Dr. George W. Slagle, Battle Creek; John H. Warden, Houghton; W. R. Boris, Jackson; Rex Potter, Battle Creek; Gerald L. Johnson, Marquette; T. G. Cordell, Port Huron; A. C. Boyd, Lansing; J. T. Hay, Muskegon; R. H. Albert, Saginaw; John A. Chapman, Benton Harbor; W. F. Doyle, Lansing, and William Palmer, Lansing.

MICHIGAN'S newspapers, representing the strongest combined force promoting the state's economic development, joined forces for celebration of National Newspaper Week, which ended October 21.

A compilation of figures based on the 1959 Michigan Newspaper Directory and Ratebook, published by the Michigan Press Association, shows total circulation of Michigan newspapers in 1958 was 3,191,523 — highest on record.

Michigan's 56 daily newspapers had a total circulation of 2,390,613 and the 302 weeklies had a circulation of 800,910.

CONSIDERABLE fanfare about alleged abuse of patients was in the air last January when Governor Williams appointed the Mental Health Inquiry Board.

It was asked to determine whether patients were receiving humane care and treatment and to review administrative practices.

A truck is a lot of things . . . food for your table, clothes for your back, heat for your home. A truck is medicine for a sick child, gasoline for an automobile carrying a traveling salesman, merchandise for the store on the corner . . . A truck is something you simply could not do without — housewife, manufacturer, farmer, retailer, teen-ager, or whoever you may be. Because everything you eat, wear, or use depends on trucks to get to you . . . So, next time you see a truck on the road, remember—it's there because it's got a very important job to do—for you.

HERE'S WHAT MAKES the CORVAIR REVOLUTIONARY

Short and sweet! Engine's in the rear—where it belongs in a compact car. With more weight on rear wheels, you get extra road-gripping traction for cornering and driving on ice, mud or snow. Also, by avoiding nose-heaviness of front-engine compact cars, Corvaire handles easier, brakes better, rides smoother. Styling of both 4-door models is clean and uncluttered . . . as fresh and functional as modern architecture.

Unipack Power Team

Engine, transmission and drive gears are neatly wrapped in one lightweight package. Takes less space, leaves you more.

UNISTRUT BODY BY FISHER

Body and frame are combined into a single rigidly constructed unit that reduces Corvaire's weight, enlarges its passenger space.

Practically FLAT FLOOR

Corvaire is America's only compact car with a virtually flat floor that gives you full 6 passenger comfort. For extra space, folding rear seat converts easily to make room for 17.6 cu. ft. of cargo.

TRUNK'S UP FRONT

Lots of luggage space under the hood, where it's convenient for groceries, packages.

NEARLY 3 FEET SHORTER

Corvaire's almost 5 inches lower, 1,500 pounds lighter, too. Its compact size makes it a joy to jockey through traffic, a pleasure to park. No need for power assists.

AIR COOLED

You never have to fuss with antifreeze. Turbo-Air 6 warms up quicker, with less wear on parts. Airplane-type heater goes to work almost instantly.

4-Wheel Independent Suspension

Springs at each wheel cushion bumps independently of each other for a ride that rivals much costlier cars.

Revolutionary Rear Engine

works small miracles with mileage. It's the world's first production 6 with the ultra-smooth power of horizontally opposed pistons.
