

Introduce Plan to Provide Sewer Service for Novi

Sewers — the key to the development of Novi and Wixom — could conceivably be constructed in this area within the next three years.

Imminence of sewer construction came to light Friday as representatives from nine municipalities, including Novi and Wixom, met at Pontiac to discuss the possibility of extending the Farmington sewer disposal system.

The Farmington system, which runs to within one mile of the Novi village limits (Halsted road on Eight Mile road) is reportedly about 75 percent completed. Completion is expected by June 1, 1960.

The proposed sewer extension probably would continue along Eight Mile road to Novi road and then run north to Walled Lake where it would branch out to serve Wixom, Commerce township and Wolverine Lake. Novi, therefore, would be the first community serviced by the sewer extension.

R. J. Alexander, director of the Oakland county department of public works, told The News after the meeting that he was "very optimistic" over the possibility of extending the line to the area lying west of Farmington in Novi and Commerce townships.

The director pointed out that such a sewer interceptor would, if constructed, be "only temporary."

Because the total capacity of the Farmington system now under construction will not be completely utilized for 15 or 20 years, he said, most officials present at Friday's meeting saw no reason why additional areas should not be brought into the Farmington system on a temporary basis (or until Farmington will require total capacity).

Extension of the Farmington system, he said, is predicated upon plans by Wayne county in establishing its own sanitary sewer interceptor for this area.

If Wayne county plans to construct such a system within the next 10 to 20 years — and can assure Oakland county that such plans exist — the Farmington interceptor could be used temporarily until Detroit's plan is materialized, Alexander suggested.

Although Wayne county has been unable to make a definite commitment as yet, Clyde Palmer, Detroit sanitation engineer, has stated that his department "would look with favor upon accepting the sewage into the Farmington interceptor from the areas outside of the original district, knowing that a solution will be forthcoming at some future date to remove the connections from the Farmington system."

Wayne county officials reportedly are studying the matter and will report their decision at another meeting of the municipal representatives early next year.

Donald M. Pierce, chief of the sewerage division of the state department of health, also has indicated his approval of the plan to extend the Farmington interceptor to the areas west and north of Farmington.

Although the matter of financing the proposed sewers was not a major point of discussion at Friday's meeting, presumably it would be handled through the county with the cost being shared by the communities using the sewer system.

Meanwhile, the village of Novi has stepped up its studies to determine specific needs in Novi. These studies were started early this year after an area meeting of the Regional Planning commission meeting.

Village Manager Fred Olson, who attended the meeting Friday, said village studies "are well ahead of other communities which would be serviced by the proposed sewer system."

Planning Consultant Waldemar Johnson is expected to have the studies completed in time for a joint meeting of the council and planning board sometime next month, Olson said. The two groups will examine the present situation as related to sewers in the city of Detroit and Wayne and Oakland counties.

(The Novi township board decided Monday to arrange a meeting with the village council to discuss sewer possibilities).

Other municipalities have been asked to launch similar studies and make formal requests for sewers to the Oakland county department of public works.

Another joint meeting of affected municipalities will be called early next year by the department to "discuss progress and planning more specifically."

Olson predicted that sewers could be constructed in Novi within a three to four year period "provided the people in the affected areas support the sewer program."

"We are confident that passage of the sewer program will stimulate industrial and residential development within the areas tentatively set aside by the planning board on the master plan."

Fire Police Officer For Insubordination

Police Officer Roman Nowicki was dismissed from the Northville department Tuesday after being charged with insubordination.

The recommendation for dismissal was made by Chief Eugene King. After investigation of the details surrounding a series of incidents leading to King's action, the recommendation was upheld by City Manager John Robertson.

Nowicki, a resident of Livonia, has been a member of the Northville police department for six years. Manager Robertson reported the details of the removal of Nowicki to the city council in committee session Tuesday night.

According to the manager's report, the action leading to Nowicki's dismissal was triggered last week when Chief King observed Nowicki and Officer Andrew Cain in a local bar. Chief King, on duty, entered the bar to make an arrest. Both Nowicki and Cain were off duty and in civilian clothes.

Under regulations governing Northville police officers, passed more than six months ago by the city council, it is not permissible to enter a local bar except in the line of duty. Both Nowicki and Cain admitted knowing the rule. They said they had been in the bar approximately two hours.

For the violation Chief King issued a severe reprimand with a warning that another breach of the regulation would mean dismissal. Nowicki became further involved with Chief King when reporting for duty Saturday night. An argument between the two led to a statement by Nowicki that he did not respect Chief King.

Chief King immediately suspended Nowicki and reported his action along with a recommendation for dismissal to the city manager.

After a hearing with Nowicki Tuesday the manager upheld the dismissal and notified Nowicki. The manager told the council that Nowicki was critical of the police chief and revealed a "deep lack of respect." He added that Nowicki felt that conditions should not be allowed to continue and that "some change should be made."

Nowicki faced disciplinary action on one other occasion during his six years on the force. In October, 1956 he was suspended for two weeks and placed on 60 days probation by Chief Joseph Denton for "fighting on the street and in public places and using profanity in public." The incident took place in Northville while Nowicki was off duty.

Regulations governing dismissal of city employees make a provision for an appeal for a hearing before the city council if the aggrieved employee wishes. The request for a hearing must be made within 10 days.

Couse is Director Of Newly Formed State Chamber

Walter L. Couse, president of the Walter L. Couse Construction company and a resident of Northville, has been named to the board of directors of the newly formed Michigan State Chamber of Commerce.

Bylaws were approved and the officers and directors elected at an organizational meeting in Lansing last week. Robert P. Briggs, executive vice president of Consumers Power Company, was named president.

It marks the first time in more than 20 years that Michigan business has had organized representation. Bi-partisan in structure, five projects have already been outlined for study by the chamber.

They are: reorganization of the school districts; removal of legal obstacles to state economic growth; problems involved with cities crowding over into adjoining townships; investigation of allowing tax exemptions for certain business operations conducted by municipal governments, co-operatives, colleges and universities; and creation of new jobs.

Couse was one of 24 Wayne county residents named to the 70-man board. He is a past president of the Detroit Board of Commerce.

A KING SHALL REIGN — Members of the Northville high school Forensic club will present a one-act play dealing with the birth of Jesus and the persecution of children by Herod at a public performance in the high school auditorium Tuesday evening at eight o'clock. The play will be presented in conjunction with the choir's Christmas program. The club will also present the play at Eastlawn Resthaven, Northville State hospital, Novi Community center and for a school assembly. Pictured above, l. to r., are: Suzy Cowie (Mary), Sharon Hensch (Rachael) and David Stillson (Joseph).

Novi Progresses With Study Group; Elect 13 Directors

Three women and 10 men were elected to the board of directors of the recently organized Novi Citizens' Development committee Monday night at the community building.

Elected were: Mrs. Virginia Noble, Mrs. Gailah Fried, Mrs. Mary Guntzviljer, Lewis Crusoe, Emery Jacques, Don Woodward, Herbert Koester, Roy Crites, Kalin Johnson, F. M. McElroy, C. A. Smith, George Merwin and James Straus.

The newly elected directors will elect their own officers next Monday evening. The officers will include a chairman, two vice chairmen and a secretary-treasurer.

Close to 60 village residents were on hand for the election meeting, which included a film entitled "Gold Mine on Main Street" presented by George Lloyd of the Detroit Edison company.

In addition to electing the directors the 60 members who attended the meeting also approved committee rules and procedures drawn up by a group subcommittee.

Other candidates for the board of directors were: Joseph Crupi, John Kubeck, John Begle, M. D. West, Lee Mynatt, Sanford Sawyer, Bob McLelland, Dean Leheiser, Eugene Choquet, Richard Swenson, Waldo Johnson, and Edwin Steinberger.

The board of directors will act as the group's governing body, with each director responsible for one or more phases of community development.

Novi planning board members sparked plans for the citizens committee — at the recommendation of Planning Consultant Waldemar C. Johnson — in an effort to obtain a cross-section of ideas and opinions on village planning.

The underlying function of the committee, it has been explained, will be to answer this question for the board: "What kind of community does the citizen want for Novi?" A similar effort has been considered for many months in Northville with little success. The city council has sent inquiries to the school and township boards suggesting formation of such a committee — with particular emphasis on industrial planning for the area — but no definite action has been taken.

Some of the basic principles and goals of the committee include:

- Foster a healthy public effort for the acceptance and effectuation of a united public opinion in regard to planning;
- Preserve adequate industrial lands in order to assure a healthy job base for the community;
- The reservation of school sites located so as to best serve the neighborhood in which it is located;
- Make adequate provisions for parks and playgrounds;
- Encourage development of well-planned neighborhoods adapted to the physical features of the land.

Christmas Concert Planned by School

The Northville high school choir, under the direction of Leslie Lee, will present an annual Christmas concert Tuesday in the new high school auditorium.

Accompanists for the Christmas program, which will begin at 8 p.m., will be Sam Chizmar and David Sprunk.

Sarah Schrader will read the narration. The Christmas music program will include selections from different countries. They are: "Mexican Christmas Procession", Mexico; "Now the Holy Child Is Born", France; "Bring A Torch Jeanette Isabella", France; "Come Hither, Ye Children", Germany; "Carol of the Drum", Czechoslovakia; "De Glory Manger", Negro spiritual; "Carol of the Friendly Beasts", England; "The Three Kings", United States; "Behold the Star", and "Sweet Little Jesus Boy", Negro spiritual; "Keeping Holy Vigil", traditional; "Go Tell It on the Mountain", Negro spiritual, and "A Joyous Christmas Song", France.

Lyon Voters Okay School Bond Issue

A $615,000 bond issue was approved Tuesday as 849 Lyon township school district voters went to the polls.

The vote was 496 to 353 in favor of the bond.

School officials reported they were delighted with the special election turnout — and with the results. The turnout was one of the highest recorded in Lyon township, they said.

Enrollment increases — especially in the elementary and junior high areas — had prompted school officials to request additional facilities.

The proposed building — designed for eventual elementary use — will serve temporarily as a junior high, since administrators conclude that the need in that area is greatest.

The site for the proposed building is already owned by the school district, located just south of South Lyon city limits, east of Pontiac trail.

King Family to See Home Of 'Fallen Jet' Sunday

Seven months ago an air national guard jet crashed into the backyard of the Eugene King home severely burning David and Beth King, 10 and four.

Sunday the Kings will visit the airfield from which the plane was based. Police Chief King and Mrs. King, David, Beth, as well as seven-year-old Greg and Patricia, six, will be the special guests of Col. Erick W. Kyro, commanding officer of the 127th wing based at Wayne Major airfield. The two other King children are just too young to enjoy the event.

Col. Kyro has promised the Kings a full day. After dinner at the airport terminal with members of the tactical reconnaissance wing, there'll be a tour of the base, inspection of planes and a first-hand view of some training flights.

David, who has become an avid flying enthusiast, hopes, too, that he'll get a chance to see Major John Moutier, the pilot who parachuted from the uncontrollable jet that crashed into the King's yard. They have become great pals and Major Moutier rates as a number one idol to David.

While David's recovery is nearly complete, Beth still faces more plastic surgery. Scars caused by the flaming jet fuel have left their marks on Beth's arms, body and head.

But she's not so frightened of planes, anymore, and she's being taken along Sunday because she has asked "to touch a jet".

In Christmas Volume

Local Stores See 10% Gain

Northville merchants and post office officials prepared for the "big rush" this week as "shopping days until Christmas" narrowed down to six.

While volume at the post office stands at about the same level as last year, Postmaster Leland Smith and Arthur Schnute, assistant postmaster, expect a record business.

Tax Notices Arrive In Township, Too

Because of a delay by the county, Northville township residents were late in receiving their school, county and township tax notices.

But, according to Township Treasurer Roy Terrill, the bills have all been mailed and are now payable.

Terrill will be in the Manufacturers National Bank office in Northville during regular banking hours on Tuesdays and Fridays to accept payments until the last of February.

The total levy against township property this year is $351,000, compared to $330,000 in 1958. Township residents living in the Northville school district will pay a millage of 44.32 against the assessed valuation of their property. Northville township residents living in the Plymouth district pay 34.95 mills.

School and county tax notices were sent to residents of the city of Northville December 1. Wayne county residents of the city pay 40.5 mills, while city residents living in Oakland county pay at the rate of 36.69 mills. The total of school and county taxes assessed in the city is $246,188.73 (Wayne county section) and $46,306.37 (Oakland county section).

BOXES, BOXES — Leonard Fritz has his hands full as the traditional load of Christmas parcels piled up in the Northville post office this week. Sorting the huge number of cards keeps this trio of helpers

(at right) busy, too. Mail is expected to increase about five percent this year. The post office has 20 extra employees helping to keep service up to date.

about WOMEN

Big Plans Afoot for Newcomers

Just arrived in Northville? Anxious to get acquainted? Wondering what's going on? A recently formed group, the Newcomer's Club of Northville, hopes to bring out the welcome mat for new residents and to acquaint them with community activities.

A group of women representing newcomers in Northville and neighboring areas met Tuesday evening at the Brookland Farms home of Mrs. E. E. Adams to put into action an idea that naturally followed the influx of new families to these parts during recent years — a newcomers club.

Tuesday's meeting means anything, the club will be a rousing success, said Mrs. Adams. Happy to find many common interests among themselves, the homemakers discussed ideas for possible newcomer group activities.

Mentioned were bowling, bridge, garden club, children's nursery, adult education classes, community players drama group, and square dancing.

Members have already reserved the school gymnasium one night a week for possible activities.

The Northville Newcomers club will be patterned after similar groups in other areas. Membership will last three years. By that time, it was thought, the group will have served its purpose to the member.

New members will be joining all along so that a stable association will continue.

Since Northville has never had a newcomers group, said Mrs. Adams, membership will be open to all new residents here less than two years.

"The most important thing now is to get the ball rolling," said Mrs. Adams.

With that in mind, a February get-together was planned. The event will include a covered dish dinner and an entertainment program.

Members are hoping for good support from fellow newcomers. A committee will contact newcomers before February. However, Mrs. Adams pointed out, their lists may be incomplete, and persons who have not been called are asked to notify their subdivision or area representative.

Suggestions or comments will also be appreciated, Mrs. Adams declared.

Following is the invitation committee and the areas they represent:

Mrs. E. E. Adams, Northville welcoming representative, FI-9-0066; Mrs. I. H. Benson, Livonia Hills, FI-9-3506; Mrs. R. Campbell, Orchard Hills, FI-9-3109; Mrs. W. E. Hanson, Meadowbrook Hills, GR-4-7907; Mrs. L. W. Holston, Northville proper, FI-9-0848; Mrs. Albert Leedham, Northville Heights, FI-9-1263; Mrs. Bradford McKimm, Echo Valley, FI-9-1596; Mrs. George Murray, Northville Estates, FI-9-1177; Mrs. Charles Smith, Brookland Farms, FI-9-2265; Mrs. Gerald Stoppes, Trend Homes, FI-9-3039; and Mrs. Herman Wedemeyer, Conemara Hills, FI-9-0149. A Willowbrook representative will be named later.

AAUW to Hear Curator

A lecture on modern art will highlight tonight's Christmas meeting of the Northville-Plymouth branch of the AAUW.

Guest speaker, William A. McGonagle, curator in charge of extension services of the Detroit Institute of Arts, will discuss "Impressionism—The End of Tradition and Beginning of New Concepts in 19th Century Paintings".

McGonagle, a member of the Art Institute staff since 1951, received his BA and MA degrees from the University of Minnesota. He is currently taking further graduate study at the school of museum administration, Buffalo, New York.

His talk and exhibit of slides will be followed by group discussion.

A program of inspirational reading and caroling is also planned.

The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. sharp, in Plymouth's Dunning-Hough library.

ALL'S FAIR in love and war, and cards, m' dear, Livonia guest Ben Troge reminds Mrs. Merner Ellber as he trumps her ace. The Troges and Ellbers were one of several tables of husband and wife teams.

BEHIND THE SUCCESS of Monday's Garden club card party were Mrs. C. Ratliff (second from right) and three of her aides (l-r): Mrs. N. K. Pattison, Mrs. D. H. Clark and Mrs. Pasquale Buoniconto. Christmas greens decked the halls.

Garden Club Card Party A Merry Holiday Success

Win or lose, a nice little game of cards will probably never be the same again for Mrs. Mildred Rutenbar.

The Wayne County Training school employee — envy of more than 200 smartly dressed Northville women who attended the Garden club's holiday card party Monday night — is the lucky euchre player who walked home with the door prize draped around her neck — a royal pastel mink neckpiece.

Asked for comments, Mrs. Rutenbar says, "I'm very happy and delighted — I guess overwhelmed is the word. I've never had a mink before."

Though she "very seldom" plays cards and had no idea the mink was being raffled, she and her husband went along as invited guests.

Her husband's reaction was galling.

"He bought me a fur stole for Christmas last year, but it wasn't mink," Mrs. Rutenbar explained. "But he's happy if I'm happy."

To top it off, the Rutenbars — playing partners — won the card game, too.

Mrs. Rutenbar has worked in the training school's accounting office for 30 years.

For those who were looking for just a good time, the party was a huge success, too.

The school gym, decorated with cheery paintings of Santas, Christmas trees and other holiday designs, made by training school students, greens prepared by school greenhouse superintendent, Fred Byrn, large pots of poinsettias, and a bright lighted Christmas tree added to the festive spirit.

Wafts of cigar smoke — kindly provided by the good number of husbands attending — lent a nice seasoned earnestness to the affair.

Refreshments were served early in the evening, by Mrs. Francis S. Jennings and her committee.

Northville merchants contributed gifts for door and table prizes. Table centerpieces — used as table prizes were made by General Chairman Mrs. C. E. Ratliff and her committee.

Training school facilities were obtained through the courtesy of Dr. and Mrs. Pasquale Buoniconto.

Garden Club President Mrs. N. K. Pattison and Vice President Mrs. D. Hurd Clark said proceeds from the club's first card party assured the club of two scholarships for 1960.

NEWS AROUND NORTHVILLE

Mrs. M. E. Enright of Bronx, New York arrived in Northville Sunday night for a week of pre-wedding parties and dinners honoring her son, Milton, and Julie Hammond, daughter of the Crispin Hammonds of Timberlane, who will be married here Saturday. As houseguest of her daughter, Mrs. George Jerome and family of Horton street, Mrs. Enright will remain a few weeks after the wedding.

Her former college roommate and bridesmaid, Mrs. Stanley Golonka, will hostess a spinster dinner for Julie Hammond in Ann Arbor tonight. Guests will include Julie's college friends from Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Straus of Beck road attended a Christmas dinner party at the home of the Gordon Arthurs of Detroit. Sixteen members of their square dancing group were present.

A rehearsal dinner for 25 will be given by Mrs. M. E. Enright and Mrs. Crispin Hammond Friday evening for their son and daughter, Milt Enright and Julie Hammond. Milt and Julie will be married Saturday.

Members of the Salem Congregational church will have a Christmas party Sunday at 7 p.m.

The Northville-Plymouth branch of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom will have its monthly meeting next Monday, December 21 at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Franks of Plymouth. The meeting will begin at 12:30, and members are asked to bring their own lunches. The discussion topic, "The Growth of Militarism in Our Society", will be led by Mrs. C. E. Woodruff.

Girl Scout Troop 223 visited Detroit's children's museum recently and attended a program on Christmas in Mexico.

The Tuesday Book club met this week at the home of Mrs. Ellen Scott of Eight Mile road. Christmas readings were given by Mrs. Florence Schulz.

Girl Scouts of Troop 228 wrapped Christmas presents for their mothers last week and prepared for their holiday party this week.

Mrs. Florence Rose of Yerkes street entered Community General hospital Friday for observation.

Sunday, the First Methodist church Sanctuary choir, directed by Ervin Nichols, will present the Bach cantata, "For Us a Child Is Born". Soloists include Arthur Pipok, organist; Charles Strautz, John Hyde and Mrs. W. C. Becker.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Straus entertained the Kounty Korner Farm Bureau Wednesday evening for its annual Christmas party. Twenty-nine members attended and exchanged gifts. Guests also enjoyed a tasty potluck lunch and sang Christmas carols.

THIS IS AMAHL, the same little shepherd lad you've seen on television these past Christmas seasons. He'll be in Plymouth Sunday with the rest of the original NBC opera cast to present Gian Carlo's musical Christmas legend of "Amahl and the Night Visitors". Tickets can be purchased at The Record office.

Wed G. P. Girl

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Cowles Leacock announce the marriage of their daughter, Sheila Catherine, to David Edward DeJohn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Charles DeJohn of Beck road.

The wedding took place December 12 in Grosse Pointe.

Brownies Hold Tea

Brownie Troop No. 209 held its Investiture and Christmas tea last week. The girls served holiday goodies to their mothers, and made some of the tea table decorations. All members were there with their mothers except Patty Sessions who was ill.

Receiving pins were: Nancy Ambler, Denise Bidwell, Kay Blough, Judy Bogart, Linda Darnell, Colleen Deibert, Beverly Forsythe, Nancy Funk, Susan Galli, Valerie King, Denise Knight, Linda LaRogue, Patsy Long, Beverly Maroni, Holly McDonough, Nancy McDonough, Mary Procter, Anne Steigerwald, Denise Sterner, Corale Terry, Wendy Vradenburg, Theresa Vogt, Glenda Westfall, Linda Whitefield, Gail Wilcox, Ellen Wisner, Sherrie Zayti and Cheryl Burr.

Brownie Troop 574 are trying to brighten the days of patients at Eastlawn by visiting them and making little favors for them. We have a new girl, Peggy Tikikka, who transferred from Detroit. Nancy Secord's mother comes one meeting each month to teach singing. On December 7 Scout Troop 225 visited us and put on some skits.

Here's Help for Christmas Shopper

Having trouble finding "just the right gift" to please?

Well, it happens to everyone this time of the year. So — as a special service to our readers — our "roving reporter" went Christmas shopping this week.

Not really, of course. She didn't buy anything (at least, not on an expense account), but she shopped, just the same.

The idea was to help weary shoppers with a few suggestions that can be easily purchased right here in Northville. She looked for something different, not too expensive, and for everyone on the typical shopping list — man, woman or child, young or old.

Starting out with the Little People, the store with the same name has for the toddler, a Christmassy touch in red and white brother-sister match-mates. Brother's outfit is a red pop-over cotton shirt appliqued with a saucy vest-pocket scarecrow, and long white cotton pants. Sister's features matching long white rompers topped by a red cotton smock.

Plaid vests find lots of fans among the dapper young set. They come in plaids of moss green and grey, moss green and gold and the ever-popular red.

To go with them, bulky knit Perry Como button-down sweaters.

A great new idea in children's sleepwear are stretch sleepers. They grow with the toddler from birth to 18 months. In white, pink and baby blue, trimmed with red or plain, with pom-poms at the toe.

There's no better excuse for whimsy than Christmas. Fancy, but practical, are can-can petticoats and blouse-slips for little ladies.

Mistletoe is not only functional this year, but fancier than ever. Innocently perched in a gold tinsel halo, wrapped around glittering gold Christmas ball, or swinging in a fuzzy white bell, mistletoe arrangements are plentiful at Lila's.

Always welcome are holiday collar corsages of holly, tinsel and greens — perfect stocking fillers. Poinsettias are available potted and in arrangements. Cheery table and door arrangements run the gamut in spirit and price.

You'll find these Christmas floral suggestions at both Lila's and Jones Floral company.

A low cost gift that will find a permanent spot on your dinner table, starting with Christmas, is Northville Electric's trivet or coffee warmer. The attractive silver and black metal plate keeps beverages hot on the table.

Another holiday special for the young family, electric pop-corn poppers!

The college coed will love your gift of a travel iron with handy steam attachment, while Mom would like the pastel hand hair dryer.

For yourself or a friend, a lovely gift is Northville Hardware's 15" heavy glass lazy susan, its center dish covered with a shiny aluminum top.

Copper molds also make attractive club gift-exchange items.

Practical, but low cost is a deep casserole set in a perforated black wrought iron stand.

The handy-man of the house will appreciate a rolled steel tool chest, while handsome mailboxes in black and gold wrought iron designs and several shapes make a fine gift for the home.

With December sales as rare as June in January, shoppers for men's and boy's slacks should be flocking to Freydl's Cleaners and Men's Wear.

Prices have been reduced on all styles, Ivy league, Continental and regular.

Bulky sweaters with the latest shawl collars, boat necklines, and Pat Boone cardigans are smart gifts for the young man.

Northville Men's Shop Pendleton center is stocked with holiday treats for ladies and gentlemen.

Favorite Pendleton styles in women's skirts, sweaters and jackets are featured along with men's-to-match coordinates.

Something new under the sun are Pendleton's new line of ladies' cashmere sweaters, about $25, in cardigan and collar-pullover styles, both with bracelet length sleeves.

A nice buy in men's pajamas are the tailored Lazyday's.

To put sparkle into her holiday wardrobe, nothing's nicer than a jeweled cardigan. Orlon sweaters in black, white, pink and navy, embroidered with pearls and rhinestones are featured at Freydl Women's. Dressy clutch bags in velvet and faille are also eye-catching.

Kick around in Christmas slippers. Pom-pom toed Jiffies in sizes S-M and L come in white, red, black, aqua, bright pink and beige at Sibley's. Washable, rubber-soled, they make a useful, inexpensive gift.

Silk and silk blend dresses add a glamorous rustle to your holidays. And don't forget to have the right jewelry. Smart rhinestone necklaces and bracelets add the proper touch.

For father and son, a wonderful gift in HO trains is currently the big seller at Stone's Gamble Store. You build 'em yourself.

If you're stumped for a gift for your suburbanite friends, Stone's has a charming array of outdoor barbecue patio ware in polished wood. Individual items are low in cost.

And for the child who has everything, why not surprise him or her with a real pogo stick.

House-dresses and sturdy flannel work shirts are Christmas gift favorites, and Brader's has 'em.

House-dresses are priced around $5.95. Flannel long-tail shirts run from around $2 to $3.50.

Slippers for the whole family can be found at Brader's slipper bar. Prices are low.

To go with them, ladies' robes in quilted nylons and cottons, corduroy, flannel and chenille, are real pleasers.

Popular albums featuring vocalists, bands and Broadway musicals are available in stereo and mono-aural records, with about a dollar more for stereo, at Ellis Electronics.

Albums of Handel's Messiah make a lovely addition to the Christmas tradition in your home. One, with Leonard Bernstein directing the New York Philharmonic can be bought for a little more than $12. Messiah records bound in a book-type leatherette album by Sir Thomas Beecham and the Royal Philharmonic are around $25.

You'll be pleasantly surprised at the number of low priced quality gifts to be found in a furniture store — including furniture.

At Schrader's you can pick up a smart modern floor lamp with adjustable lights for around $23. End tables, under $25. Bright colored throw pillows on sale for about $4, and handsome card table chair sets for around $20. Card tables to match sell for about $10.

Imported brass, copper and silver candle holders and candelabra have caught shoppers' eyes at Johnson's Jewelry and Gift Shop. From Germany and India, they come in several sizes and styles — simple and festively ornate, most can be bought for less than $25, many for less than $10.

There are many more items and many more stores in Northville's shopping center to make the filling of your Christmas list an easy and pleasant chore.

And if money is no question, we might add another little trinket sure to tickle Mom, Dad or Lad.

At John Mach's — a T-bird would be Terrific; at Rathburn's the Corvair's are Cute; at G. E. Miller's the Darts are Darling; and at Gib Bergstrom's the Larks just Lovely!

New troops of Brownies will be formed after the first of the year. Mothers wishing to take training to lead a troop are asked to contact Mrs. MacDermaid, Neighborhood chairman, FI-9-2205.

INFLUENCING OUR CHILDREN

There are some parents who say, "We will not influence our children in making choices and decisions in matters of religion." So they let them choose whether they will go to Sunday school and Church or remain home. If they do go to Church the parents makes no effort to investigate the Church they are going to, making the foolish mistake of believing that all churches are alike. If parents will not influence them the secular schools will. Lustful literature will. Sex ads, beer ads, liquor ads will. Movies and T.V. will. The neighbors will. Business will. The playground will. As someone else has written, "We seek to influence our flowers, our vegetables, our crops, our cattle. Surely our children are of much more value than crops and cattle." If we would not tend our gardens and lawns they would grow up to weeds. If we do not give our children a Christian training then do not be surprised if their lives produce a harvest of weeds. It is a known fact that children who are reared in Sunday school and Church are seldom in trouble with the law. Do not be a delinquent parent, influence them for Christ in the home and send them to a Church where they teach the Bible.

Detroit Man Fined For Dumping Trash

Lewis Clever of Detroit was found guilty of violating a village ordinance by tossing trash on 12 1/2 mile road near Novi road and was fined $100.

Justice of the Peace Robert K. Anderson ordered Clever, a truck driver for a construction firm, to pay the fine or serve 100 days in jail. Clever had argued that the trash had spilled from his truck and that he planned to return to pick it up.

Local Stores

sales of higher priced items was good.

Lila's noted a definite upswing in business starting with an early "open house" promotion before Thanksgiving. Northville Men's Shop pointed to interior remodeling and installation of new displays as producing record results in sales of certain gift items — particularly shirts and ties.

In general Northville Christmas shopping business seems to be running at about a 10 percent pace above last year.

Jewelers, druggists, florists and smaller gift stores are optimistically looking to the final week for record sales locally.

Jr. Police Christmas Party To be Held Wednesday

The annual Junior Police Christmas party will be held next Wednesday, December 23 at the P&A theatre.

Junior Police and their friends are invited to attend, said Chief of Police Eugene King.

Showing of movies will begin at 3:30 — half-hour after school dismissal.

Each youngster will receive a Christmas stocking filled with treats.

Parents will be able to pick up their children at 5 p.m., King said.

The Junior Police Christmas party was established several years ago by former Chief Joseph Denton.

Sprunk Joins Detroit Typesetting For New Process

The merger of the staff of the Bechhold Sprunk company with Detroit Typesetting company was announced this week by Donald J. Lane, president of Detroit Typesetting.

The 53-year-old Bechhold photo engraving company is headed by Edwin G. Sprunk, 47105 Stratford court, Northville.

Sprunk will be manager of the new DuPont "Dycril" printing plate department for Detroit Typesetting.

"We are pleased and proud to have Ed Sprunk and his staff with us. Their lifetime of experience and skill in photo engraving, combined with the speed of the new Dycril plate making process, assures our customers of quality letterpress printing plates," said Lane.

In commenting on the merger of his staff, Sprunk said, "We feel that the new Dycril process provides us with the opportunity to be of even greater service to the many firms we have served over the many past years. Dycril is the greatest advance we've seen in letterpress platemaking in all our years in business."

Norman Sanford Buys Station Here

Announcement of the sale of Juday's Standard Service, 302 East Main street, to Norman Sanford was made this week.

Sanford, a former Northville resident who has been operating a station in Saline, is now operating the local station. It has been renamed Sanford's Standard Service.

Richard Juday, former owner, recently became agent for Speedway products in this area.

Sanford, whose wife is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Miller of Northville, was a member of the United States air force for eight years prior to purchasing the Saline station two years ago.

The Sanfords have three children, Paul 13, Ilene 8, and Gerald 1 1/2. They have moved to Northville and reside at 529 Horton. They are members of the Baptist church.

DAR to Discuss American Music

The Sarah Ann Cochrane chapter of the DAR will hold its regular monthly meeting next Monday at the home of Mrs. Ernest Shave, 40300 Fairway drive.

Program for the day will be a discussion of "American Music, It's Contribution to Christmas Carols", narrated by Mrs. Walter Gemperline of Plymouth.

Music will be sung by the Plymouth Woman's Glee club. Regent Mrs. Robert Willoughby will preside at the 1 p.m. meeting. Tea will be served afterward.

IN WILLOWBROOK:
Santa to be Here Saturday
 By Mrs. George Ames — Greenleaf 4-0830

Don't forget! Santa will be in Willowbrook from 1 to 3 p.m. this Saturday, December 19 at Teen Town hall. He will have a small gift for each child who visits him.

Sandy Proctor celebrated her third birthday last Friday. Her party guests were Mary Kay and John Parent, Jimmie Stine, Billy Reiss, Alan Bamford, Denise Jamison and Denise Koenig.

Our Lady of Victory parochial school held a roller skating party at the arena in Plymouth last Monday evening. Bobbie, Tom and Nancy Byrd, Jim and Mike Barnes, Ted, Paul and Ann Bunker, Mike, Debbie, John and Tom Bauer and James and John Richmond were a few of those who attended from Willowbrook.

Buddy George celebrated his ninth birthday last Monday. After a birthday dinner, he took his guests, Vincent Mikla, Anthony Abruzzo, Douglas and David Cook, Paul Bunker and his brother, Douglas, on to the OLV skating party.

Shirley Hurlburt was hostess to the Tuesday pinochle club last week. Esther Lippert was a guest player. Helen Waugh won the first prize, Esther Lippert, second: Aldean Carter, third, and Sarah Soule won the booby prize.

The Wednesday Pinochle club had its Christmas party last week at the home of Vivian Musselman. Vivian's daughter-in-law, Dollias, is a new member of the club. Sylvia Klerkx won first prize, Sophie Martin, second: Kay Buck, third, and Claire Martin won the consolation prize.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Louis Chismark entertained Dr. and Mrs. Maynard Bailey and their children, Christine and Bobby.

Mr. Chismark is now returning to work. He has made a fine recovery after his recent surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivo Musselman enjoyed a pleasant two days in Detroit, which included dinner at Carl's Chop House on Sunday and at Topinka's on Monday.

Nancy Milliken was hostess to the Tuesday Bridge club last week. Irene McCormick won first prize and Ann Schultz won booby. Ann Diebel was a guest player.

Mrs. Jane B. Rothwell of Detroit was a houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. George Ames over the week end. The Towne club of Farmington held its annual Christmas dinner-dance at Sammy's in Royal Oak last Saturday evening. Dr. and Mrs. Donald Wingard, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Blackburn, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Emery Jacques attended from Willowbrook. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Holmes, who formerly lived here but reside in Sandusky, Ohio, were also present. The Holmes' were houseguests of Dr. and Mrs. Donald Wingard for the week end. They plan to move back to Willowbrook in about six weeks.

On Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Frutche accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Dick Powell of Southfield to a concert given by the Detroit Women's Symphony Orchestra at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Introducing this week: Mr. and Mrs. James McCloskey and their two daughters, Mary Pat, 2, and Anne, 8 months. The McCloskeys are former residents of Detroit. Mr. McCloskey is a senior salesman with the Scott Paper company. Mrs. McCloskey was formerly a teacher of English at Southfield high school. They share an interest in bridge, ice skating and skiing.

The women's auxiliary of Holy Cross Episcopal Mission held its December meeting at the home of Mary Frutchey. They were assisted in their plans for the coming months by Mrs. William Tesen and Mrs. Vic Diefenderfer of St. Andrew's Episcopal church in Livonia. Mrs. George Mairs, Helen Barber, Sarah Norton, Barbara Coan, Maribah Garbin, Mary Ann Farrington, Marlene MacDougall, Betty Johns and Ruth Pritchard were present from this area.

Obituary

JOHN GOW
Funeral services were held December 14 for John Gow, 84, of 44201 West Ten Mile road, who passed away December 11 at Crestview Rest Home after a three years' illness. Mr. Gow, the son of Carl and Mary Gow, was born January 22, 1875 in Farmington township. His wife, Florence Sarah, preceded him in death. He leaves one son, Alfred of Novi; three sisters, Mrs. Louise McClelland of Walled Lake, Mrs. Augusta High of Pontiac, and Mrs. Ella Biery of Baltimore, Maryland; three grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. Mr. Gow, a retired farmer, had made his home in this area for the past 45 years. The Rev. Paul Cargo of the Northville First Methodist church, officiated at last rites held from the Casterline Funeral home. Burial was in Oakwood cemetery, Farmington.

MRS. E. GAIGE KUHN
Mrs. E. Gaige Kuhn, 60, of 9850 West Seven Mile road, passed away December 10 at University hospital, Ann Arbor, after a short illness. Medical secretary at Atchison Memorial hospital, Mrs. Kuhn had made her home in Northville since 1934. She was born February 27, 1899 in Bay City, the daughter of Edward and Eva Prohazka. Mrs. Kuhn is survived by her husband, Oscar, whom she married September 17, 1927; by a daughter, Mrs. June Schroder of South Lyon, and two brothers, Donald Prohazka and Edward Brooks of Bay City. She also leaves three grandchildren, Mrs. Barbara Clark of Howell, Dorothy and Corless, and one great-grandson, Randy. Eastern Star services were conducted Sunday night by Plymouth Chapter 115, OES, of which Mrs. Kuhn was a member. Funeral services were held December 14 from the Casterline Funeral home with the Rev. Peter Nieuwkoop of the Northville First Baptist church, officiating. Burial was in Rural Hill cemetery.

Northville High Choir To Sing Christmas Carols

The Northville high school choir, under the direction of Leslie G. Lee, will become carolers next week, as they entertain patients and residents at Maybury sanatorium, Eastlawn Resthaven and Northville State hospital with programs of holiday music. The choir will also sing at the Novi community center and for the Northville Rotary club, and will take part in a Christmas program at the school with other students.

Library Club Sets Up Yule Decorations

The Northville high school library club has brought a touch of Christmas to the library's second floor showcase.

Pat Haywood, Debbie Hines and Pat Pressley have decorated the case.

Another committee composed of Carol Yahne, Connie Crump and Susan Templeton, has decorated the library windows with stars and book covers.

The girls announced that permanent birch shelving has arrived, and that they are busy transferring books from their temporary place on library tables to the shelves.

Bill Hilt Performs With 'Men of Song'

Bill Hilt, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hilt, 46501 West Main, has been selected a member of the Kemper Men of Song at the Kemper school, Boonville, Mo. The Men of Song is under the direction of Richard Huffman.

The group performed with the University of Missouri chorus and orchestra in their annual performance of Handel's Messiah at the university. Huffman plays the cello in the university orchestra. Kemper is the only school outside of the University which will be represented in the program.

The Kemper Men of Song present numerous performances for events both on and off the Kemper campus.

Nothing too large for the new flatwork ironer we now have in operation! What a fascinating machine.

This ironer is 110" long, capable of ironing the largest sheet. As the sheet is fed into the machine, a series of belts carries it to the ironing surface and is ironed to a "hand-finish" smoothness. Thus a job of satisfaction on all your sheets and flat pieces.

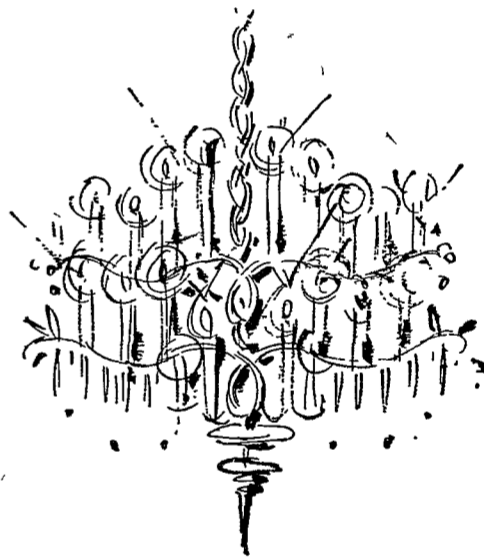

We'll wash your sheets "snow-white" and iron them to a "smooth-as-glass" finish.

IT WAS NOONTIME. The lineman opened his lunch box and looked inside.

"Peanut butter sandwiches! Last week, yesterday, today; nothing but peanut butter sandwiches! I don't care if I ever see another peanut butter sandwich."

"Gee," said a friend. "Why don't you ask your wife to make you something different?"

"Wife?" answered the lineman. "Who's married? I made these myself."

CHRISTMAS GIFT TIP

Would you like to give a present that brings pleasure, convenience and security... for only about 25¢ a week? In addition, you can take your choice of nine attractive colors. Interested? Well, the gift is an extension telephone, and it's one Christmas present that will bring happiness for years to come—wherever it's used. To give a phone to someone special, call our Business Office today.

DID YOU EVER WISH THAT YOU WERE TWINS during the month of December? One person to stay home and write Christmas cards, cook and decorate; while the other takes charge of the shopping and visiting. It would make everything a lot easier, wouldn't it? Now a telephone won't do quite as much work as an extra person, but it certainly can speed up some of those last-minute chores such as shopping, visiting, or making appointments. If you kept a record of all the telephone calls you make during a week, you'd see the time and money you save by telephoning!

ALL OF US AT THE TELEPHONE COMPANY send you our best Christmas wishes. We'll be trying to give you even better service in the year to come.

Mustangs Upset W-O Defending Champs, 53-52

WRONG BALL JOE — Joe Gotro (22) appears to be grabbing the face of an unidentified Brighton player in this picture, but he's only reaching for the ball. Teammate Roger Atchinson (24) watches.

GUESS WHO GETS IT — Forward Doug Varelle (35) Brighton cager grabbed this loose ball as it headed for the sidelines. But the officials ruled his foot was off the playing floor and Northville was awarded the ball. Other players in the picture are Joe Gotro (22), Don Appleton (33), Wade Deal (54), Dave Bosworth (55), Verellen (35) and Roger Atchinson (24).

A 16-year-old sophomore set Northville's gymnasium afire with a burning cage performance Friday that permitted the Mustangs to grab a thrilling 53-52 victory over defending champion Brighton.

The victory was the first in three times out for Northville, which now holds a 1-1 record in the Wayne-Oakland county league. Tomorrow the Mustangs will invade Bloomfield Hills (1-1), which defeated Milford, 43-38 Friday.

Steve Juday, Northville's substitute left guard who watched the Bulldogs chew up his teammates throughout the first half to lead 25-19, came off the bench in the third period to spark the Mustangs to life.

With less than three minutes to play in the third, Juday dropped in a free throw to put Northville out front, 27-26, for the first time since a short-lived Northville lead in the early minutes of the first period.

The lead jumped back and forth until Juday and Right Guard Roger Atchinson pushed Northville out front 33-29. Brighton then netted a field goal and added a charity toss to inch within one point of the Mustangs at the buzzer, 33-32.

By now the roar of the crowd, which sensed a possible upset over the Bulldogs who last season claimed the league title with a 10-0 record, drowned out the whistles of the officials.

The Bulldogs surged back into the lead as the final stanza opened, but again the lead changed hands repeatedly until Center Wade Deal tied the score at 37-37 and Atchinson connected on two more free shots. Jim Patterson dumped in a two-pointer giving Northville a four-point 41-37 lead.

The Mustangs continued to push ahead, climbing to a 48-39 lead with little more than two minutes to play.

For fans and players alike the final two minutes of play probably were the longest ever played here. One hoarse sideline commentator whispered "it took ten minutes to play the final two."

Brighton pulled to within seven points of the Mustangs at the two-minute mark, 48-41. Juday dropped in two from the charity line, and Brighton quickly added two easy field goals and a charity toss to close the gap, 46-50.

Juday dropped in two free shots with 68 seconds to play. Brighton added two of their own four seconds later. With 46 seconds to play Juday netted another free shot giving Northville a 53-48 point lead.

The Bulldogs then scored two more free shots and added a field goal to move within one point of the Mustangs, 53-52. But Juday called for time, put the ball into play from half court as the final four seconds ticked off.

With his amazing 16-point second half performance, Juday captured scoring laurels for his hilarious team and stole the thunder from his brother Bill, who recently was named an all-state griddler.

"They picked on the wrong fellow when they started fouling Steve," Coach Dutch Van Ingen beamed after the game. Of the 14 times Juday walked to the free throw line, 12 resulted in Northville points.

But it wasn't only his performance at the charity line that helped Northville to its first victory of the season. His commanding floor play, which obviously did much to spark the Mustangs, drew praise from fans throughout the buzzing gym.

Veteran Roger Atchinson was equally impressive on the hardwood. He scored 13 points for Northville, including nine free shots in nine attempts in the final two stanzas. Deal was Northville's third highest scorer with four field goals and two charity tosses.

Don Appleton, one of the highest scorers to play in the W-O league, pumped in 12 free shots and 12 field goals. The 6' 5" Brighton center blistered the hoop for 15 points in the final frame.

Altogether, Northville netted 31 free throws in 43 attempts while Brighton hit 18 of 29. The Bulldogs scored 17 field goals to the Mustangs' 11.

In other league contests last week, Clarenceville grabbed its second straight win by pouncing West Bloomfield, 62-49. The Trojans (2-0), who two weeks ago trimmed Northville, now is tied with Holly (2-0), which beat Clarkston Friday, 50-41.

Sports

Colts Lose First Game; Brighton Wins, 50-46

A 19-point first quarter burst enabled Brighton's junior varsity quintet to down the Northville Colts here Friday, 50-46.

The loss was the first in three starts for the Colts this season — and the first in 13 games for most of the players who were members of the Northville freshmen team that posted 10 wins without a loss last season.

Northville bounced back with 18 points of their own in the second stanza and outscored Brighton in the final frame, but failed to catch the high scoring Bulldogs.

The four-point victory was slimmer than it appeared when the officials turned in their statistics. The Colts connected on 14 of the 22 times they stepped to the free throw line for a 64 percent average, while Brighton hit 16 of 38 for a 42 percent average.

The Colts fought back from a 30-26 first half deficit to tie the score early in the third quarter and then jumped out front by one point. However, Brighton grabbed the lead minutes later — and at one time led by 10 points.

Late in the fourth stanza, Northville fought to overtake Brighton which launched a stall with a 48-44 lead. In an attempt to get the ball, the Colts committed a foul and Brighton flipped in two free shots, making the score 50-44. Northville managed to score two more points before the game ended.

Right Guard Tom Long scored 14 points to lead Northville in scoring, while teammate Don Busch, center, flipped in 10 points.

Dave Hill of Brighton was also high for his team with 14 points.

With the cooperation of his neighboring seatmates, the problem was corrected after considerable effort.

Winter Activities Near at Kensington

Winter activities at Kensington Metropolitan park near Kent lake are expected to move into full swing with the snow fall and below freezing temperatures.

Featured at the 4,500-acre recreational site are: tobogganing, skating, sledding, ice fishing, hiking and picture taking.

The park has a lighted ice rink with a warming shelter. Night skating is permitted until 10:30 p.m. Ice fishing is popular on the 1,200-acre Kent lake. For ice conditions call MU-4-4245.

Gym Bleacher Seats The Enemy Behind

Well, now that it's finally happened, everybody can heave a sigh of relief and get back to the dignified pursuits of daily living.

MUSTANGS' FOOTBALL BANQUET — Nearly 100 varsity football players, coaches, fathers and Mustang fans were on hand last week Wednesday for the annual Awards Night Banquet, sponsored by the Northville Exchange club. Letter awards were distributed to 37 players and manager at the dinner program held at the Methodist church. Dempsey E. Ebert was the master of ceremonies. Shown in the picture above with their coaches and Guest Speaker Jack Fouts (center with football), member of the University of Michigan coaching staff, are three Mustangs who received special awards. Pictured (left to right) are: Coach Ron Schipper, Wade Deal (awarded the honorary captain's trophy), Fouts, Bill Juday (most valuable player football trophy), Larry Nitzel (sportsmanship trophy), and Assistant Coach Dutch Van Ingen.

Freshmen Grab 2 For 12 Straight Wins

Northville's freshmen quintet grabbed its 12th straight victory Friday, defeating Plymouth on the opponent's court, 61-42.

Earlier in the week, the freshmen cagers edged Willow Run in the season opener, 35-31.

Coach Joe Wilkinson, who coached the freshmen to an undefeated 10-0 season last year, said the squad looked particularly good at Plymouth. Friday's victory was the second this season — and the 12th in two seasons.

The freshmen gained a 15-6 first quarter lead against Plymouth, then added 15 more in the second stanza to boost the score to 30-14. Northville added 19 more in the third frame, 12 in the fourth, while Plymouth hit 14 in both quarters.

Craig Bell, forward, scored 20 points to lead Northville, while teammates Don Biery and Tom Swiss scored 10 and 9, respectively. Bell and Jim Juday were high scorers for Northville with 10 points each. Biery scored 8 points.

Celtics, Pistons Post 1st Victories

Two Warren Products senior men's basketball teams bounced back from opening losses to post their first victories. The Celtics bombed the Warriors, 41-29, and the Pistons smashed the Royals, 44-32.

Each of the four teams has now won one and lost one in the newly-organized league, co-sponsored by the Warren Products company and the Northville Recreation department.

COLTS' FOOTBALL BANQUET — Thirty-three football players and six coaches were feted Tuesday at a junior varsity banquet sponsored by Harris Howell, who acted as master of ceremonies. The two JV coaches, Joe Wilkinson and Ralph Redmond, were presented with wrist watches during the dinner program held at the community building. Members of the Detroit Hypnotology Society gave a demonstration in hypnotism to show the gridders the educational value of the science. Shown above with Guest Speaker John Henry Johnson of the Detroit Lions are Craig Bell, (left) and Danny Pattison, members of the Colts' football squad which won 5, lost 2 and tied 1 last season.

Our Lady of Victory Church

PRE-CHRISTMAS REFLECTIONS

Be cheerful always and ever thank the Generous Giver of good gifts; no matter what happens, always rejoice when the will of God is accepted in you, be it through sickness and trials or through success or achievement.

Nothing should sadden your heart so much as sin, no matter what may befall you. Do not let anything excite you and disturb your inner calm but be conscious of God's presence.

Be ever alive to every chance of doing something for the glory of God and the good of your neighbor. Do not lose courage; for the weakest in God is still always stronger than all the power of men.

Shun all curiosity in all matters that do not concern you or that may lead you into sin. Be easy on others, strict with yourself. If you are in charge of others, never rebuke them while you are extremely excited. Wait until you have pacified yourself.

Cultivate a cheerful disposition that is always humble, peaceful, modest and edifying. Do not easily become discouraged. Even when there seems to be no escape from afflictions, remember that your Savior will deliver and comfort you at a time known to Him. Be confident in prayer and often say with sincerity, "Thy will be done!"

I will live from day to day as if this present day might perhaps be my last. This day is only loaned to me in order to glorify God and to gain merit for myself in heaven.

Be humble, for the proud men cannot please God. Always be friendly toward your fellow men, even toward the one who has offended you most.

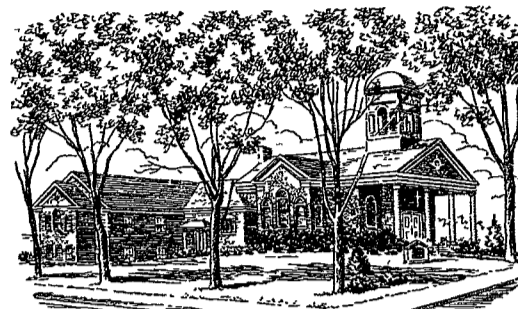

Do not look down upon anybody, for all persons are redeemed by Jesus Christ. Be ever mindful that what you have done to your neighbor, that you have done to Jesus.

Always be thoughtful of how much you can give rather than receive and surely then peace of heart will be yours in abundance.

"A Service To The Living, In Memory of Those Whom You Love"

FOR MORE THAN ROUTINE SERVICE . . .

The Ebert Funeral Home offers completely personal service to every family. As some funeral directors do, we might just render that routine service expected. But that is only the beginning.

We take time and make the effort to find out all the little personal requirements of your family, your faith, and all concerned. This personal service we render — in full.

Slow Sale of Seals Threatens TB Program

Quinton Smith, a big man, had a big problem.

His wife and three of his four children were in Wayne county tuberculosis hospitals. Furthermore, Mrs. Smith was worried about the children and worry never helps a TB patient get well.

Smith, who is six feet, one inch tall and weighs 260, had all he could do to visit his wife at Herman Kiefer hospital in Detroit, his children at Maybury sanatorium near Northville, and find time in between to earn a living.

In a way, there are two organizations here who have the same problem: The Tuberculosis and Health Society and the Detroit Tuberculosis sanatorium. Both of them depend on Christmas Seal dollars to help TB patients get well faster, and yet both of them have reached a crisis this year.

For Quinton Smith, the problem came to a head when his wife worried so much about the children that she simply walked out of Kiefer hospital and came home to see how things were. Her husband walked her right back in, advising her that she couldn't come home until she was well.

Then he went to a store, bought a camera and a basketful of film, and started taking pictures of his children — Quinton Jr., 6; Michele, 2; Steve, 1, all at Maybury, and Patsy, 11, at home. He took the pictures to his wife to prove that her youngsters were happy and well cared for. Each week, he took more pictures and soon, his wife settled down to the business of getting well and left the worry about her children to those trained to handle them.

All the Smiths but Steve are home now, very happy they'll have Christmas to share together.

But the TB and Health Society and the Detroit Tuberculosis sanatorium may not come up with the same happy ending. At an emergency meeting of their joint operating committee, they agreed their program of fighting tuberculosis in Wayne county would have to be cut back unless there is a quick upturn in the sale of Christmas Seals.

Both organizations depend solely on Christmas Seals to finance their work which includes mobile chest x-rays, tuberculin skin tests of school children, medical research, a summer camp for 500 children of TB families, direct service for TB patients and their families and health information for young and old.

With the campaign more than half completed, only $135,830 has been received in the Christmas Seal Sale. To carry on the TB fight next year, $325,000 is need.

"We know more people will help as they learn of our plight," said Max L. Lichter, MD, president of the TB and Health Society. "For 35 years citizens have responded nobly to the crusade against tuberculosis."

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO . . .
Northville and Warren Products are nearing a final showdown. This time before the state supreme court. The age-old annexation battle between the city and the Baseline road manufacturing firm — which began in 1956 — has been through two circuit court trials and the score is even.

A request for a hearing before the city council has been made by two Northville public works department employees protesting their forced retirement.

The employees, Richard Clark and Roy Utley, both over 65, were notified by the city manager last week that they would be retired from their duties January 16.

An estimated 120 horses will begin making their winter home at the new Northville Downs' barns on Sheldon road today.

The influx of horses into Northville was made possible by action taken by the planning commission and city council.

Basketball curtains opened on a first act flop but came down on a crowd-pleasing finish last week end as Northville's 1958-59 season got underway.

FIVE YEARS AGO . . .
A completely revised plan for a new subdivision originally composed last September was presented to the Northville village commission Monday night by Jack Burckman, Northville builder.

The subdivision would be located on a six-acre plot of ground formerly owned by Mrs. Jennie Cousins of Ann Arbor, with the entrance at the west end of Dubuar street.

Carmi Benton, 82 years of age, died early Wednesday morning after a long illness. Mr. Benton was a pioneer resident of this vicinity. Cass Benton park is named for Mr. Benton's brother.

Donald P. Yerkes, Jr. was elected to the board of directors of Depositors State bank. He fills the vacancy left by the death of John Boyce.

Mrs. Mary Jane Keller, 547 Fairbrook, is the newly-appointed evening chief operator for the Michigan Bell Telephone company. . . . A controversy over dictatorial attitudes of the National Board of Control of the National Exchange clubs erupted into virtual civil war at Wednesday's luncheon meeting of the Northville club when Clifton Hill, prominent attorney, introduced a motion to surrender the club's charter.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO . . .
The winter tax rate for Northville township has been set at $16.88 per M of assessed valuation. This is lower than last year when the rate was $17.10.

Purchasers of $50 in 6th War Bonds will be given free tickets for admission to "Irish Eyes Are Smiling." Students get tickets for their free matinee at school.

Servicemen named as American Heroes in the Northville Record included Hadley Bachert, Arthur Hicks and Harold Van Sickle.

Funeral services for the late Ralph H. Kuchnel, superintendent of the Northville Ford Valve plant, were held in Milford December 5.

Because of their record for stamp and bond sales in the month of November, Northville schools are flying the Minute Man flag. This means 90 percent or better of the faculty and pupils bought bonds or stamps in that period. Three rooms participated 100 percent, including Miss Nelson's, Miss Bakeman's and Miss Rohl's.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO . . .
Some 450 students were given an enforced holiday Tuesday forenoon when a fire broke out in the Northville high school building that had more smoke to it than actual flames.

The disastrous fire that swept the Kerns hotel in Lansing early Tuesday morning with a loss of at least 25 lives, brought sorrow to Northville residents who know many of the victims of the tragedy.

One of the more fortunate survivors is a resident of Northville, Frank L. Thompson who resides at 504 West Dunlap street. Mr. Thompson escaped from the tragedy with a minor sprain of his ankle.

Mrs. Camilla Smith-Dubuar, one of the oldest and best-loved residents of Northville, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward H. Lapham, High street, December 12, at the age of nearly 82 years.

Of excellent stock on both sides, she was the granddaughter of Rev. Marcus Swift, an outstanding minister in the Methodist church, and through her father was a descendant of Gen. John Swift of Revolutionary fame.

Before her 20th birthday she was married to James A. Dubuar, son of the Rev. James Dubuar, long a pastor of the Presbyterian church in this village.

Minutes of The Northville Board of Education

14—Thursday, December 17, 1959—THE NORTHVILLE RECORD

Regular Meeting — Dec. 7, 1959

Meeting convened at 7:40 p.m. in Board of Education office.

Present: Members Crump, Johnson, Lawrence, Shafer and President Schrader.

Others Present: Supt. Amerman, Asst. Supt. MacLeod; Principals Ellison, Kay and Smith. Mrs. A. Becker and Mr. F. Gazlay.

I. Minutes of Nov. 2, 1959 were read and approved as corrected.

II. Communications:

1. LaPorte and Penn, relative to survey of high school athletic field.

2. Wayne County Ass'n. of School Boards, re: December meeting at Highland Park.

3. Lyndon Welch of Eberle Smith Associates, re: meeting with Board of Education to discuss final payment to contractors.

4. Letter from State Fire Marshal, relative to approval of junior high school.

III. Report of Superintendent

1. Finances: Superintendent reported that there are sufficient funds on hand to pay bills through December. Finances after that date will depend on tax collections and state aid payments.

2. Cafeteria: As directed by the State Department of Public Instruction, a separate fund has been established as a depository for cafeteria and milk funds. All cafeteria operational costs will be paid from this fund with special checks signed by three members of the Board of Education.

Separate bookkeeping accounts have been established to record all cafeteria and milk transactions.

Mr. Ellison then reported that a perpetual inventory has been started, buying policies investigated, menus and work load of cafeteria workers studied and other suggestions given by the Department of Public Instruction are being put into practice.

Mr. Ellison further reported that we are still having trouble from the lack of soft water in the cafeteria. Engineers are studying the problem. The faulty oven has been repaired.

3. Activity Fund: The following inactive funds in the Activity Fund were recommended for transfer to an active fund:

Class of 1959—$25.47
Class of 1958—$169.37
Class of 1957—$228.49
Class of 1956—$33.88

Moved by Schrader and seconded by Crump that the amounts listed, less any encumbrances, be transferred as the first donation to "The Northville High School Athletic Field Lighting Fund". Motion carried unanimously.

4. Curriculum: Superintendent announced that a portion of the January meeting of the Board of Education will be spent in reviewing classes being offered this year at the high school. Particular attention will be given to certain classes organized as "accelerated" to present an added challenge to the better students.

It is planned to discuss the Elementary Curriculum at the February meeting, and the Junior High Curriculum at the March meeting.

5. Insurance: An analysis of Property Insurance Coverage for the Northville Public Schools has been made. Copies are attached.

6. Building and Site Funds: An analysis of the Building and Site Funds is being prepared and will be presented at the next regular meeting.

7. Fencing Around Baseball Field: We will probably need some type of fencing around the east and north sides of the new baseball fields. The Superintendent was instructed to investigate fences similar to "snow fences" and to have them installed so that they will not interfere with mowing the grass at the top of the slope on the east side.

8. Diplomas: Motion made by Johnson, seconded by Lawrence, that high school diplomas be awarded Mr. Harold Gagnon and Mr. Richard Widmaier. Carried.

9. Tuition: Agreed to admit a certain 11th grade pupil on cash tuition basis if and when the family moves from the school district.

10. Federal Aid: Dr. MacLeod reported on Title III of the Federal Aid Program. This involves aid in the following areas: Science, Mathematics, Foreign Language and Audio-Visual. While the State plan has not been approved in Washington, the major point is that the funds would be available to school districts on a matching basis in these teaching areas.

The Board gave approval to participation in the plan, provided that materials to be purchased are part of our regular budget requests and are submitted for approval in advance.

11. Progress Report, High School: Mr. Ellison reported that the first basketball game at the high school operated smoothly as far as could be observed. Aisles will be painted in the bleachers to facilitate seating and movement of patrons during and after the games.

Mats will be hung to cover the projection on the folding doors. The boilers are now functioning better since electrical starting trouble has been corrected.

12. Progress Report, Junior High School: Mr. H. B. Smith reported as follows:

a. Library shelving has been installed.

b. Library furniture has been promised by January 1.

c. Basement has been tiled.

d. Passageway between grade school and junior high has been completed.

e. Improperly installed ceiling tiles are being repaired.

f. Library books are being ordered.

g. Tack board has been installed.

Mr. Smith and Superintendent were authorized to replace broken or cracked chalk board as needed and to tile the areas at the bottom of the basement stairs.

13. Leg Injury: Mr. Ellison reported on injury to high school student caused by school bus tire throwing a stone on loose gravel.

IV. Report of the Curriculum Committee:

Mrs. Audrey Becker, co-chairman of the Citizens Elementary Curriculum Study Committee, reported that the Committee report has been written and is in the process of being reproduced.

As soon as copies are available they will be distributed to the members of the Board of Education.

Tuesday, January 19th was set as a tentative date for a joint meeting of the Board of Education and the Committee.

Mrs. Becker stated that since the section of "The Study of the Gifted" has been omitted from the present report, that the Committee would like to continue as a group to study the problems of "Opportunities for the Gifted".

It was moved by Johnson and seconded by Crump that the Citizens Elementary Curriculum Study Committee be continued as a committee to "Study the Gifted Child". Carried.

The Board expressed appreciation for the work done by the Committee and suggested that there would be other specific areas for study after a report on the "Gifted" is formulated.

V. Committee Reports:

1. Mr. Shafer and President Schrader will confer regarding payment for extra manhole installed on East Street by the City.

2. Mr. Crump will confer with LaPorte and Penn relative to the Engineering Survey on the high school athletic site.

3. Mr. Ellison will present a report on "lighting parking lots" at the high school at the January meeting of the Board of Education.

VI. Report of the Secretary:

Delinquent taxes: $1,492.40 from Novi Township $67.78 from Salem Township 1,815.17 from City of Northville $1.50 and 3,826.55 from Northville Twp.

Primary Money: $19,310.61 from Wayne County Board of Education.

VII. Report of the Treasurer:

Treasurer Johnson reported the following balances at November 30, 1959:

General Fund $87,194.09
1949 Debt Retirement Fund $2,463.06
1954 Debt Retirement Fund 2,280.99
1957 Debt Retirement Fund

Series A $18,264.35
1957 Debt Retirement Fund

Series B $28,313.56
1957 Debt Retirement Fund

Series C 13,322.70
Building and Site Fund $108,905.05
Moved by Crump, seconded by Shafer that the report of the treasurer be accepted. Carried.

VIII. New Business:

1. Moved by Shafer and seconded by Lawrence that a laundry sink taken from old art room be sold to Mr. R. R. Amerman for the bid price of $5.00. Carried.

2. President Schrader discussed the need for considering lighting the new high school football field and track area.

Inasmuch as lights cannot be paid for from Building and Site Funds, it will be necessary to explore other means of financing.

The lights at Ford Field were paid for by local organizations, under the sponsorship of the Northville Exchange club. Action will have to be taken soon.

3. A discussion of the athletic budget and general finances ensued. Mr. H. B. Smith, Chairman of Activity Fund, will review the receipts and expenditures of the Athletic Department at the next regular meeting of the Board of Education.

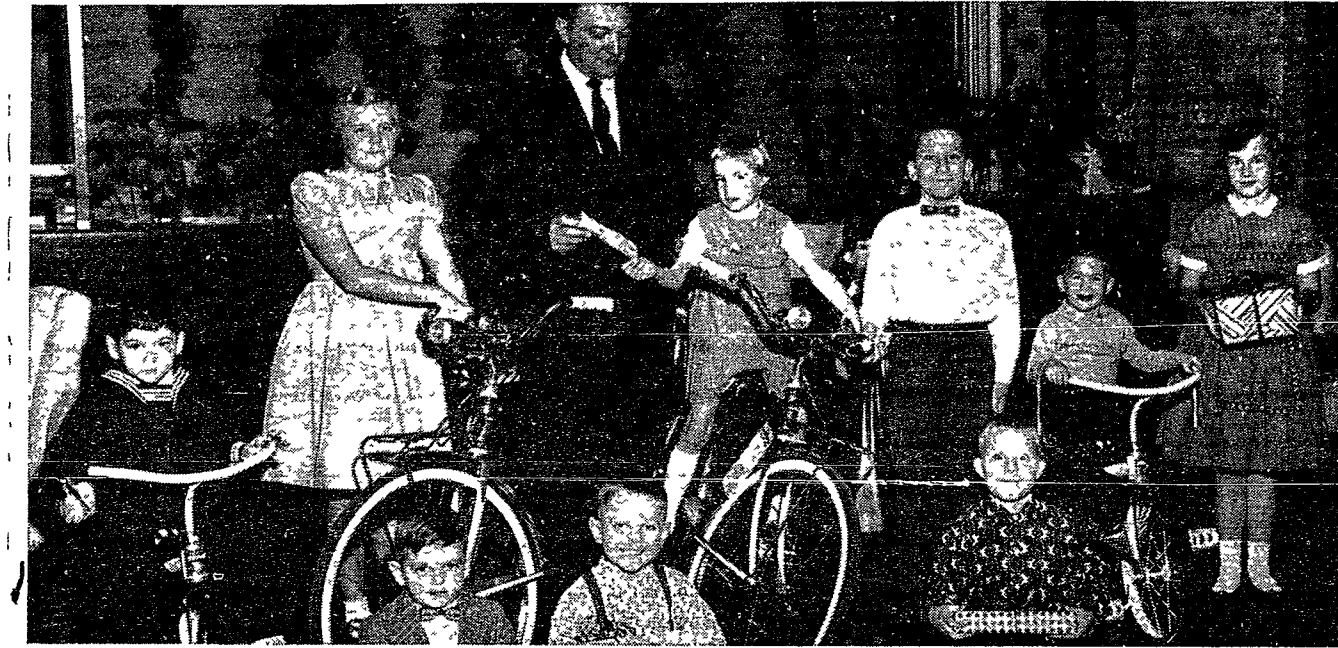

Superintendent Amerman reported that the official audit of last year's activities is expected daily from our auditors.

IX. Adjournment: Meeting adjourned at 11:30 p.m., on motion of Johnson, seconded by Crump.

Robert H. Shafer
Secretary

Welfare is one of the most important projects of the American Legion. Our service officer is busy throughout the year attending the needs of different comrades in distress. This may be a basket of groceries to a veteran's family. It may be a carton of cigarettes to a comrade in the hospital. He may be working on a pension for one of our older veterans or a disability pension for one of the younger veterans. He passes out gift boxes to veterans at Maybury sanatorium.

This coming Sunday we will hold our annual Christmas party for the children of Northville Legion members. Santa Claus will pass out presents to 100 children expected at the party. This party is one more of our service officer's projects.

On the 24th of December our service officer will give out food baskets to needy families in the Northville area.

This man who devotes his time and energy to his many responsibilities is a vital link in the chain of the Legion. I, for one, as well as the rest of the membership, would like to say thanks for a job well done. His name, Bob Miller. Keep up the good work, Bob.

Ford Employees Compete for Service Awards

Ford Motor company is extending its Community Service Awards program to include Detroit area employees for the first time, it was announced recently.

The awards are made to employees who voluntarily have performed some outstanding community service.

J. Philip Martin, manager of Ford's community relations department, said nominations will be accepted through January 15, after which judges will select the winners. Recipients will be honored in February.

Employees may be nominated by their families, fellow employees or anyone familiar with their community activities.

James Rambeau Studies at Kenyon

Senior James M. Rambeau, 22275 Haggerty road, is attending Kenyon college in Gambier, Ohio. The college began its 136th year this fall.

The all-male college, founded in 1824 by the first Episcopal bishop in the Northwest Territory, consists of an undergraduate department and a theological seminary.

nity activities. Nominations may be based on services performed in the calendar year or over a period of years.

Ford has conducted its Community Service Awards program in 10 cities outside the Detroit area since 1955. The program is designed not as a contest but as a means of recognizing employees who take an active interest in their communities without seeking reward. The awards are plaques bearing an engraved commendation from Henry Ford II, president, Ford Motor company.

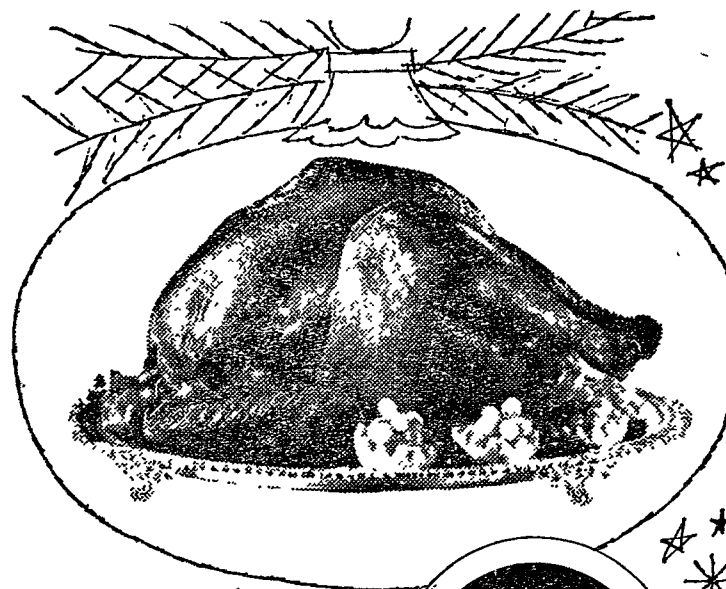

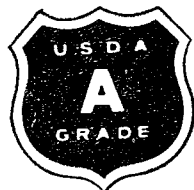

Among the activities which qualify an employee for nomination are participation in:

- Elected or appointed public office.
- Political activity in either major party.
- Citizens groups such as P-TA, civil defense, traffic safety, city planning or neighborhood associations.
- Scouting, Junior Achievement, 4-H, Future Farmers of America, CYO, boys' clubs and other youth and recreation programs.
- Community fund campaigns.
- Special community projects by clubs, societies and church groups.

Land Value and Parking

Babson Park, Mass. — There are various tests for selecting the right city to buy land for a new super-market or apartment house or merely for an investment. One test is population growth; others are the tax rate, water supply, and — very important — the condition of the schools, the churches, and the character of the people.

The Plight of Most Cities
Although we are now in a period of prosperity with wealth increasing rapidly, yet we are not using this wealth to improve our daily living. We certainly have not provided the mobility for our citizens which good business and good health deserve. Our streetcar lines are going into bankruptcy; our railroads are giving up passenger business; our roads are overcrowded with private cars and trucks. Therefore people are moving to the suburbs while still working in the cities, creating an impasse in mobility within the cities.

All of the above means that the best cities in which to invest money are those which have widened their roads, provided ample parking space, and are making trucks deliver and pick up at night. Although our present prosperity is due largely to the automobile, it is this very industry which is revolutionizing our cities, and crumbling real estate values. We owe much to Henry Ford, but I wish he were alive today to help us out of this dilemma.

Motor Age Problems
The automobile has given us new freedom; but, paradoxically, this industry to which we owe so much is also threatening to strangle us all and make us live and work in city caves. Yet the biggest part of the transportation program has barely started. The huge roadbuilding program will not only change the faces of all cities, but will set the location for new cities. These may be very long and narrow, with very wide streets for autos. In the rear may be streets meant wholly for trucks to pick up and deliver merchandise; while our sidewalks will have two stories and our stores two "ground floors".

No city should be blamed for getting into the present messy condition. The New England locality in which I am writing this column had its streets laid out by cows 300 years ago. These cowpaths were gradually widened for ox wagons, then for horse-and-buggies. Most cities have inherited today's problem. But, oddly enough, most city residents do not own autos or get very upset about the congestion, so city planners find it hard to get recommendations adopted.

Traffic Problems Can be Eliminated

It is hopeful that cities are beginning to study the traffic problem and are employing traffic engineers. Newspapers are joining the demand for a solution which will restore the prestige of their cities and not leave them manufacturing, business, and living slums. Cities have long been conscious of water pollution, and most cities have pure water today. Some are concerned about air pollution but are just awakening to the importance of proper zoning, and the development of parks, forests and conservative projects. Although we have only 60 people per square mile, compared with Japan's 620, yet traffic conditions in Japan today are better than in the U.S. Better living and transportation conditions would justify increasing taxes; people would accept a higher tax if they got more for their money.

Conclusion
In view of the above, the wise investor in real estate is giving much more attention to traffic conditions, parking space, and road control. When one builds a new home, the value of the HOUSE declines from year to year; but if the city has proper traffic control, the value of the LAND will increase year by year. This is something city newspapers as well as real estate agents should emphasize. I believe in reviving the old city centers, with proper traffic regulations. The new shopping centers may be fads which are now at their zenith.

Chambers of Commerce, Boards of Trade, and Merchants associations should therefore give their primary thought to improving the transportation and parking facilities of their cities. They should remember that their task is not to keep things as they are, but to forge ahead and prepare for the great changes which are already in progress.

A Merry Christmas?

WILL YOU SUFFER the loss of a loved one before the end of the holiday season? An extra effort to see that you don't is underway by the Michigan Highway Safety Commission and news media of the state.

Accidents and highway deaths increased during December. Few people like to discuss it, but a little thought right now might save your life, or your involvement in an accident costing someone's life.

"Drinking drivers or pedestrians account for 42 percent of the accidents," says Joseph A. Childs, commissioner of state police. "And this percentage is higher in December." Childs is not talking about drunks so much as the number of moderate drinkers who are not considered drunk at all. Regardless of a person's capacity and attitudes about drinking, the hard fact is that people who have been drinking are involved in disproportionately high percent of accidents.

The moral is clear: If you drink, do not drive!

Extra driving care is required because of frosty windshields or icy roads. Carelessness is a vicious thing which is a danger to all drivers.

Childs pointed out that the "good" driver is commonly involved in serious accidents. "It's not fair to blame our whole problem on teenagers and drinking," he stated. "While these groups merit special consideration, it is important to realize that many names which appear on accident records are listed there for the first time. They have a long record of good driving — or maybe good luck — and in a moment of carelessness they become involved."

How do you keep the public concerned? That's the main problem faced by safety experts. Listed below are some topics they consider important:

There are 50,000 "accident prone" drivers on the roads today — 20,000 more than last year.

There is a great increase in the number of drivers without licenses. These include drivers whose licenses have expired, those who never received a license, and most importantly, drivers who have been ruled off the road. (Try an experiment. Right now, check the expiration date on your license. Then ask 10 of your friends to do the same. Chances are you would find someone whose licenses expired).

Tougher enforcement by local officials is required. Safety officials will ask police officers to check licenses more carefully and urge judges to be more severe with drivers whose licenses have been revoked.

An effort to make it "vulgar" rather than "wicked" to violate traffic regulations will be undertaken. A great part of the problem is considered to be the public's attitude about driving. The new content, if it can be created, would help.

The push for a Christmas safety campaign is only part of the story. Those who work in this field know the problem requires constant and long term attention. Since many interested parties, including a Michigan Press Association Traffic Safety committee, began work six years ago, a number of recommendations of traffic experts were put into effect. As the state's record improved substantially it seems the importance of these has slipped from public attention. There is belief that there should be a new emphasizing of these factors.

There was authorization, for instance, for 200 additional state troopers to cope with traffic problems. These men were hired. But 48 of these positions are now unfilled because of cutbacks required by the state's financial position.

Exclusive of Detroit, the number of policemen assigned to traffic in Michigan cities, is 1,172 fewer than is recommended by standards devised by the National Safety Council.

Driver training in high school, considered by some to be the most important factor in reducing the death rate, is also an expensive matter. Some of the schools where effective programs have been conducted have indicated that they may be dropped.

Strict enforcement of laws is effective but difficult to keep in effect. Courts and police departments reflect to a great extent the feeling of their communities. If people "just don't care", enforcement tends to lessen.

Improved roads have also reduced the death toll. But still more bridges need to be widened, curves regraded, trees cut down. These things are costly, but if the accident rate is to be reduced, the expenditures must be made.

Exactly 50 people died in traffic accidents last year in the 78 hour period at Christmas. If the record is to be better this year, it will take the cooperation of all drivers. If the number of people are maimed or killed on streets and highways to be reduced to the minimum over the next 12 months, it will take the attention and the effort of everyone.

***
Newspapers, radio and television have demonstrated their desire to keep this matter before the public. Safety organizations are anxious to work hard. Government officials want to do what they can.

The big question is will the public get the message; understand and be willing to act for its own protection.

Every individual in the state has something to say about the answer. Are you willing to do your part.
