

Booming Waterford Community Died in Flames

NOTE — This is the fifth article in the series by News Editor Jack Hoffman dealing with the early history of the area. To date he has covered the history of Novi and Wixom. This article is the second of five installments on Northville.

Farmers will tell you that the largest plants don't necessarily produce the largest vegetables. And historians are equally sure that fledgling communities don't always blossom into thriving cities.

One such community which died on the vine was Waterford—land county) was once larger than both Plymouth and Northville.

It had its beginning back in 1827 when Dyer and Gannett Ramsdell, brothers from Comington, Massachusetts, laid claim to 3½ sections in Plymouth township.

Gannett took up two sections, Sheldon to Northville roads, between Five and Six Mile roads, while Dyer claimed the wooded land from Northville to Haggerty roads, between Five and Six Mile roads.

Dyer Ramsdell on March 18, 1837, laid out and recorded the village under the name of Waterford, but for many years the post office was called Mead's Mill, a large flouring mill which once stood on the site of Haller's manufacturing plant. It was built by three brothers, Marshall, Wadsworth and Samuel Mead. However, at least one historian gives credit for the establishment of the mill to a Jabish M. Mead in 1834.

Dyer Ramsdell, anxious to ensure an ideal home for the mill employees and other settlers, laid out his property with wide streets and parks west of Northville road in what is now part of Northville township. He donated part of his property for a school site and a cemetery. A log school house was constructed on Franklin road north of the present site of the Northville township hall. When the school house burned down, a "modern" school building was erected. This school is now the township hall.

Most of the pioneers of the Waterford settlement are buried in the Waterford cemetery donated by Ramsdell and located on Franklin road.

Waterford Industries Mead's Mill faced on Mill street. Later a frame, country store was erected west of the mill near Northville road, also facing Mill street. The Waterford post office was located in the rear of the store.

The mill products were marketed in Detroit 22 miles away. They were hauled by horse and wagon along the trails through the swamp and woods.

Three cooper shops (barrel factories) were erected, and with the throng of farmers' wagons bringing wheat, to the mill, Waterford became a bustling community.

According to Clifford Cranson, 73, of 218 South Center, great-grandson of Gannett Ramsdell, his grandfather, Ashley Ramsdell eventually created the artificial pond located northeast of the Six Mile and Northville road intersections. A sluiceway or "water race" was built from the pond to the mill providing the necessary water power.

The water ran between earth dykes parallel with Northville road. It crossed under the Six Mile road through a wooden tube, continued to Mead's Mill, then crossed under Northville road to a foundry located in a section of what is now Cass Benton park.

Dyer Ramsdell and Seth Hughes built the foundry and shop for manufacturing farm implements. Their plows and cultivators became famous, and the manufacturing plant became one of the foremost in the state.

Still later, a sash and blind factory was built by Isaac Perry Andrews, and Cass Benton, who lived on Northville road, north of Six Mile road, operated one of the most profitable sugar bushes in the state. The sugar bush-shack stood among the towering maples behind his home. The park road now slices through this "sugar land".

The First Disaster In the midst of all this prosperity, disaster struck the fledgling community. The flouring mill caught fire and burned to the ground. Several thousand bushels of wheat and a large quantity of flour were destroyed.

The fire was a severe blow to the little village, but the Meads refused to call it quits. The debris was cleared away and with the financial backing of Frederick Carlisle, son of the Waterford physician, a much larger mill was built. This new mill was reputed to be the largest in the state. It was propelled by a huge wooden wheel, 18 feet in diameter.

The completion of the new Waterford Mill was celebrated with a "grand ball given on the floor of the packing room which was larger than most ballrooms in Detroit".

Hundreds of people from three counties were on hand for the dedication ceremonies. With the conclusion of the celebrations, the water was turned loose and the wheel hummed to a start.

The Underground Railroad During the height of prosperity about the middle of the 19th Century, sympathetic abolitionists made the village a haven for run-away slaves. These frightened Negroes, who found their way north via the celebrated underground Michigan railroad, were employed in the mill and the nearby factories. The Negroes easily found their way into Canada whenever capture was imminent.

Attempts to retake the fugitive slaves were mostly unsuccessful because the majority of the people were opposed to slavery, and though the law up-

We're 'Cleanest' Again

For the second consecutive year Northville has been awarded first place in its population category in the National Cleanest Town Contest.

Announcement of the award was made this week in Washington, D.C., headquarters of the National Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up Bureau.

The award was made on the basis of an entry submitted last month by the Beautify Northville committee, which was chairmaned by Ed Welch during the 1959 campaign.

It marks the second time in the two-year history of the "Beautify Northville" campaign that the community-wide effort has won national acclaim. Under the chairmanship of John Canterbury, Northville was awarded first place for its campaign to improve and beautify the community in 1958.

The month-long drive — conducted in May — is sponsored by the Coordinating Council.

Welch's committee included: John Woltman (vacant lot improvement); David Cameron (rural beautification); Charles Strauts (sponsorship); Lynn Sullivan (eyesore removal); Wilson Funk (pictures); Mrs. Louise Canfield (publicity); Richard Kay (schools); Mrs. Arthur Carlson (contests and stunts); John Canterbury (residential advisory and tree planting); Donald Lawrence (industrial areas); Joseph Petrock (homes); George Kobs (streets, streets and highways); A. M. Allen (governmental projects); Charles Altman (retail and commercial); and William McGee (health and safety).

Sullivan served as co-chairman of the campaign, while Mrs. Gladys Wallace was secretary and Mrs. Peter Cucchetti, treasurer.

Among the projects that the Beautify Northville committee promoted were the installation of new sidewalks in the business district, adoption of the flowering crab as the official community tree and the planting of the species throughout the area, a city-wide trash collection, a street "scrub-down" in the business district, renovation of the Northville Spring (by the Rotary Club) and creation of Joe Denton park.

The 1959 contest was judged by Walter A. Edwards, deputy assistant secretary for domestic affairs; D. Otis Beasley, administrative assistant secretary of the department of interior, and S. Howard Evans, community development specialist for the United States chamber of commerce.

The Grand National Award was won by Indianapolis, Indiana, while a special trophy went to Southern California where more than 60 communities joined in the clean-up efforts.

Northville was the only Michigan city to receive a top award, although a "certificate of achievement" was won by Sault Ste. Marie.

This is the complete list of trophy winners:

Official Thanks

The city council took official action Monday night to commend Councilman Ed Welch for his job as chairman of the "Beautify Northville" campaign.

Welch, and the council, also expressed appreciation to community residents who participated in the committee effort as well as those who helped the cause by improving their own homes and business places.

Best Notes Come From Northville Band

Northville high school continued its perennial domination of the Wayne-Oakland League by winning 36 places on the 87-member "all-league band".

The selections were announced this week. The competition — in which 175 student musicians displayed their talent individually — took place January 19 at Brighton.

Superiority of the Northville musicians was displayed by the fact that only 39 of its members competed. Three who missed top mention won alternate positions on the honor band.

Following Northville in places won on the band were: Clarkston, 16; Milford, 14; Brighton, 6; Clarencville, 6; West Bloomfield, 4; Holly, 3, and Bloomfield Hills, 2.

The Mustang band all-league members are: Carol Jones, bass clarinet; Linda Klocke, contra-bass clarinet; Joann Hinman, soprano sax; Susan Eastland, alto sax; Charles Sommers, tenor sax; Donna Williams, George Berryman, Carol Budek and Rhonda Atchison, cornet; Cecilia Newton, trumpet; Sam Chizmar, Alan Wakerbut, Leslie Sheehan and Julie Gazlay, flute; Margie Ann Baker, Eb clarinet; David Sprunk and Carol Tabor, oboe; Judy Stamann and Karen Hill, bassoon; Dorothy Sutherland, Laurie Chabut and Susan Cowie, French horn; Carol Leavenworth, Lee Klopfenstein and Stuart Schief, trombone; Susan Price, baritone; Ed Proctor, Pat Meyer and Harold Hartley, basses; Fern Kinnamon, Kay Berryman, Carolyn Langtry and Pam Kay, Eb clarinet; Roberta Davis, alto clarinet; Betsy Starkweather, snare drum, and Sarah Schrader, tympani.

The Northville band is under the direction of Leslie Lee and Robert Williams, assistant director.

Northville Estates Annex Election Set for March 28

City Hall Committee Elects Frid

Northville's "new city hall" committee held its first meeting Monday night naming a chairman and secretary.

Sidney Frid was selected to head the 20-member body, while Mrs. William Milne was elected secretary. Only three of the council-appointed body were unable to attend the first session.

City Manager John Robertson laid down the ground work for the committee before turning over the reins. Specifically, he asked the members to acquaint themselves with the need for a city hall, come up with a suggested size, style and locale, and a description of the facilities that should be included.

The committee was named by the city council last week. Its work is based on the supposition that school district voters will approve purchase of the community building from the city for approximately $145,000. The proposal will be on the June school election ballot.

While the city council has the right to sell the building without an election, the school must receive voter approval to use funds left from the 1957 $3 million bond issue.

An election to annex 255 acres of Novi to the city of Northville has been called for March 28.

The date was set this week by the secretary of state's office in answer to petitions for annexation submitted by Northville Estates subdivision.

Actually, the area proposed for annexation includes 120 acres of Novi township (Northville Estates) and 135 acres of the village of Novi (see map).

The state action in calling the election was significant for several reasons:

— first, Novi Township Clerk Hadley Bachert was instructed to conduct the election for both the township and village for residents of the area to be annexed only;

(This would indicate that the state takes the position that village incorporation does not offer protection against annexation by neighboring cities).

— and secondly, completion of the election in March would permit counting of the population in the area with the city of Northville, providing the annexation is approved by the voters.

(This was considered of importance by city officials. The decade census begins April 1 and cities benefit from population in state tax returns at about a $10 per head rate).

A possibility still remains that the Novi village board will contest the election if annexation to Northville is won.

The board indicated Monday night that it firmly believes that its village borders are protected against annexation. Village Attorney Howard Bond told the board that interpretation of the law from the village standpoint would substantiate this. He contends that all village residents — not just those living in the area to be annexed — should be allowed to vote.

But board members have chosen to "go along" with the residents of the area in question if they desire connection to the city. They have asked for persons owning property in the 135-acre village section to submit letters indicating their wish to join Northville.

Owners of two of the three parcels have complied. Only Mrs. Leona McDonald of Romulus has not. Mrs. C. A. Randall, owner of one of the parcels and a resident of the area in question, was a signer of the petition and, in addition, submitted a letter. She is the lone qualified voter in the village area.

Attorney Bond and the village board have indicated possible protest action if:

— Mrs. McDonald does not favor the annexation (as a non-resident of the area she cannot vote);

— or, if Attorney Bond determines that it is legally necessary for Mrs. McDonald to have had to sign the petition for annexation (she did not, but the petitions were still proclaimed "in order" by the secretary of state's examining officials).

Petitions asking for the annexation were circulated last December and filed with the state in January. The action was undertaken by the Northville Estates Civic association.

Composed of 36 homes of the $25,000 to $50,000 class, Northville Estates opposed village incorporation from the start. The residents have expressed a strong desire to become a part of Northville despite increased taxes because they "feel closely related to the civic, religious, educational and business affairs of the city." The area is already in the Northville school district.

Informally, the city council has expressed approval of the annexation. It has promised a statement concerning its position in addition to an analysis of revenue versus cost to the city.

Registration deadline for the election is February 29. While only residents of the proposed area to be annexed may vote in Novi, all city residents who are qualified electors may vote.

A majority must vote in favor of the proposal in both the city and Novi for the annexation to be completed.

LITTLE REMINDER — The little girl with the little license tab atop the little car is just a little reminder that there's little time left to buy your 1960 license tabs! Monday, February 29 is the deadline. John Lisenberger, manager of the Northville office, reports that sales are about 500 plates behind the same date last year. He'll keep his office open next week and on the final day until 8 p.m. to accommodate the late buyers. Oh yes, our little model is Amy Robinson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. O. J. Robinson.

Women Start Campaign For Hospital Auxiliary

The drive for a Community General hospital auxiliary got underway Monday night when some 50 Northville, Novi, Plymouth and Livonia area women met for an organizational run-up.

"We need you and your support," hospital president the Rev. David T. Davies of Plymouth told the audience.

His statement was emphatically underlined by the speakers: Hospital Administrator Calvin Monfils, Mrs. Henry Sill, Mrs. Albert E. Vossler and Mrs. Vernon Kerwin, district and state leaders in the Michigan association of hospital auxiliaries.

Five local women are credited with launching the auxiliary program: Chairman Mrs. William Milne, Mrs. John Swain, Mrs. Lorne Dyer and Mrs. Dempsey Ebert.

Membership is open to all women residents of areas the hospital serves: Northville, Northville township, Novi, Novi township, Plymouth, Plymouth township, South Lyon, Livonia and Farmington.

Monfils declared that creation of a hospital auxiliary had been under discussion by the hospital board of trustees for the past several months. It was seen as a very real need.

First, it would play a vital role in the area of public relations. Secondly, volunteer service would help trim hospital costs and free medical personnel for more important duties.

Finally, a volunteer group could shoulder fund raising campaigns.

Monfils stressed the public relations angle.

"No hospital can expand without public support," he said.

And, he added, the hospital does hope to expand. Presently the three area hospitals, Community General, Atchison and St. Mary of Livonia, are 122 beds short of adequate local coverage while population is rapidly growing.

"You as ladies of the community can take a little bit of the hospital's goodwill to the people, and thereby bring back public support," he said.

Among hospital services, volunteers can handle, Monfils and Mrs. Sill included: reception desk, sitting with patients, answering the phone, patient feeding, playing with child patients, management of coffee shops and gift and library carts.

Fund raising also got the nod from Monfils. "I'm not one to turn away money," he said.

"Certain types of equipment are directly needed. If anyone offers to buy them for us, it's alright with me."

The next meeting will be held February 29 at 8:15 p.m. at Our Lady of Victory church.

ENTHUSIASTIC participants in Monday night's organizational meeting of the Community General hospital auxiliary were (l. to r.): Mrs. Henry Sill, principal speaker; Mrs. John Swain, Mrs. Lorne Dyer, Mrs. Dempsey Ebert, Mrs. Albert E. Vossler, also a speaker, and Mrs. William Milne.

She's On The Air

The prospect of facing klieg lights, a battery of cameras and an early morning TV audience might scare off a less enthusiastic soul.

But to Northville housewife, Barbara (Mrs. Donald E.) McKenzie, who goes down on video tape next Monday, it's all for art.

The attractive painter, member of the Three Cities Art club (Northville, Plymouth and Livonia) will chat with WWJ's Faye Elizabeth during her 9:55 a.m. TV program.

They'll discuss the Three Cities' upcoming two-day art show being held February 27 and 28 in the Northville community building — the club's second Northville exhibit.

Last summer she chaired the highly successful annual Three Cities June Outdoor Art show at Kellogg park, Plymouth.

The mid-winter exhibit, Mrs. McKenzie will tell TV viewers, will feature oils, water colors, colleges, mosaics, jewelry, pottery and sculpture.

Admission is free. The club was organized some three years ago by a small group of amateurs and professionals who hoped to spark interest in the various arts in this area.

Its number of shows has increased with the club's growth, Mrs. McKenzie said.

Besides the annual June exhibit, the club features rotating exhibits at the Plymouth and Northville libraries, and has exhibited at performances of the Plymouth Symphony orchestra.

Individually, members have also shown their works in Michigan art and crafts show.

Hours of the winter exhibit will be 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Newcomers are reminded that Sunday is their big day.

The first mass get-together of new Northville area residents (those here two years or less) will take place Sunday evening in the Northville community building.

The get-together is planned as a kick-off to formation of a newcomers club.

A slate of officers and by-laws will be presented to guests at the dinner, dinner chairman Mrs. Charles Smith said.

She reported that many have expressed enthusiasm for the club idea. Close to 200 are expected to show up for the pot-luck dinner Sunday.

Handwriting analyst, Mrs. Howard Kraft will be program speaker.

Northville city-township recreation director, Stan Johnston, will be master of ceremonies.

Once a club gets underway, Mrs. Smith said, four big social events will be planned for each year.

(1)—For Charter provisions relative to special assessments, see Charter, Sections 11.1 et seq.

Section 2-501 Definitions
In this ordinance, the following words shall have the meanings ascribed to them, unless the context requires otherwise.
(A) "Improvement" means any public betterment the cost of which may be defrayed by special assessments as authorized by the charter.
(B) "Cost" includes the expense of the survey, the preparation of the tax roll, notices, advertising, printing, financing, legal, engineering, construction and condemnation and all other costs incidental to the making of the improvement.

Section 2-502 Advisory Petition
This council, to ascertain whether or not a reasonable number of property owners to be assessed desire any particular improvement to be made, may request and receive a petition therefor, or may receive such a petition voluntarily presented, but in either event, such petition shall be advisory only.

Section 2-503 Contents of Petition
Each advisory petition shall be addressed to the council and contain a brief description of the improvement sought to be made or the nuisance or hazard sought to be abated and shall be signed only by property owners. Each signature shall be followed by a brief description of the property owned by the signatory. The signatures on such petitions shall be verified by the oath of one or more of the circulators of such petition, before filing.

Section 2-504 Filing of Petitions
Advisory petitions shall be filed with the clerk who shall refer them to the city manager. The petition shall be presented to the council at its next regular meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose, together with the recommendation of the city manager.

Section 2-505 Plans and Specifications
Upon receipt of advisory petitions, or upon its own initiative, the city council shall consider the adoption of an initiatory resolution; in such case it may direct the city manager to prepare, or cause to be prepared, plans and specifications of the improvement to be made; an estimate of the life of the improvement and of the cost thereof; a description of the assessment district or lands affected; and such other pertinent information as the council may request.

Section 2-506 Initiatory Resolution
Whenever the council shall have power to make a public improvement by special assessment, it shall by resolution set forth the improvement intended to be made and direct the city manager to prepare a report containing any information it may require relative to such improvement.

Section 2-507 Report of City Manager
The city manager shall prepare his report and set forth therein; a schedule of all property affected by the proposed improvement and the owners thereof; the assessed valuation of each parcel of land and any tax delinquencies thereon and whether such land is improved or unimproved; and such other information as the council may have requested. The city manager shall present this report and the plans and specifications to the council, together with his recommendations as to what proportion of the cost should be paid by special assessment and what part, if any, should be a general obligation of the city; the number of installments in which the assessment should be spread; and the lands which should be included in the special assessment district; and as to whether the property to be affected is to be assessed according to frontage, area, valuation, benefit, or other basis.

Section 2-508 Notice of Hearing (2)
After the presentation of the report and the plans and specifications, the council shall by resolution, order the same filed with the clerk and provide for a public hearing. The hearing shall be held not less than ten days after notice thereof has been sent by first class mail (3) to all property owners in the proposed district as shown by the current assessment roll of the city.

(2)—The provisions of this section are mandatory, see Charter, Section 11.2. (A).
(3)—Ibid.

Section 2-509 Public Hearing, Objections and Changes

At the time and place specified in such notice for the public hearing, the council shall meet and hear any person to be affected by the proposed public improvement. The hearing may be adjourned from time to time by the council and the council may make any changes in the proposed improvement or assessments which it deems reasonable or proper and in the best interests of the city. In the event any proposed improvement is extended or enlarged upon or additions made to the district to be assessed, no final determination shall be made by the council until after another hearing is held pursuant to notice as required for the original hearings.

Section 2-510 Resolution of Determination

After said public hearing, the council may, by resolution, determine to make the improvement and defray the whole or any part of the cost of the improvement by special assessment upon the property especially benefited in proportion to the benefits derived, or to be derived, and designate whether it is to be assessed according to frontage, area, valuation, benefit, or other basis. By such resolution the council shall approve the plans and specifications for the improvement; determine the number of installments in which assessments may be paid; determine the rate of interest to be charged on installments, not to exceed six per cent per annum (4); designate the district or land and premises upon which special assessments shall be levied; direct the assessor to prepare a special assessment roll in accordance with the council's determination; and designate the name by which said assessment roll shall be known and referred to.

(4)—See, Charter, Section 11.3. (C).

Section 2-511 Special Assessment

The assessor shall thereupon prepare a special assessment roll including all parcels of land within the special assessment district designated by the council and shall assess against each parcel of land such relative portion of the whole sum to be levied against all the lands in the special assessment district as the benefit to such lot or parcel of land bears to the total benefits to all lands in such district. There shall also be entered upon such roll the amount which has been assessed to the city at large.

Section 2-512 Certificate of Assessor

Upon completion of such assessment roll, the assessor shall attach thereto, or endorse thereon, his certificate to the effect that said roll was made by him pursuant to a resolution of the council (giving date of adoption of same) and that in making assessments therein, he used his best judgment and conformed in all respects to the directions contained in such resolution and the city charter and the provisions of this ordinance. Thereupon, the special assessment roll shall be filed with the clerk who shall present the same to the council.

Section 2-513 Special Assessment Roll; Filing; Hearing; Date

Upon receipt of such special assessment roll, the council shall order it filed in the office of the clerk for public examination, and shall by resolution, fix the time and place when the council shall meet and review such roll. Said meeting shall be held not less than ten days after notice thereof has been sent by the Clerk by first class mail to all property owners in the proposed district as shown by the current assessment roll of the City. Such notice shall specify the time and place of such meeting. The Council may, in its discretion, publish notice of said meeting, not less than ten days prior to date of said meeting.

Section 2-514 Objections; Filing, Hearing

Any person deeming himself aggrieved by the special assessment roll may file his objections thereto in writing with the clerk, which written objections shall specify the manner in which he deems himself aggrieved. The council shall meet and review the said special assessment roll at the time and place appointed or at an adjourned date thereafter and shall consider any written objections thereto.

Section 2-515 Objection to Improvements

If, at or prior to final confirmation of any special assessment roll, written objections to the proposed improvement have been filed by the owners of property who will be required to bear more than fifty per cent of the amount of such special assessment, the improvement shall not be made or authorized without the affirmative vote of four members of the council. (5).

(5)—This provision is mandatory, see Charter, Section 11.2. (E).

Section 2-516 Corrections and Changes

The council may correct said special assessment roll as to any assessment or description of any lot or parcel of land or other errors appearing therein. Any changes made in such roll shall be noted in the council minutes.

Section 2-517 Confirmation or Rejection of Roll

After such hearing and review, the council by resolution may; confirm such special assessment roll with such corrections as may have been made; or refer it back to the assessor for revision; or annul it and any proceedings in connection therewith. The clerk shall endorse the date of confirmation upon each special assessment roll and upon confirmation such roll shall be final and conclusive.

Section 2-518 Contract Authorized in Lieu of Special Assessment Procedure

In the event that all persons or property owners to be affected by any proposed improvement agree that such proposed improvement be made and that a special assessment be levied in connection therewith, the city may, in lieu of the foregoing procedure, enter into a written contract with all of the persons or property owners affected thereby, which contract when approved and executed, shall operate as a complete special assessment procedure and the assessment shall be made in accordance with said contract.

Section 2-519 Lien Created

Upon the confirmation of each special assessment roll the special assessments shall become a debt to the city from the persons against whom the assessments were made, and shall until paid be a lien upon the property assessed for the amount of such assessments and all interest and charges thereon. Such lien shall be of the same character and effect as created by the charter for city taxes and shall include accrued interest and penalties. (6).

(6)—See, Charter, Section 11.7.

Section 2-520 Lien to Remain Unimpaired

No judgment or decree, nor any action of the council vacating a special assessment shall destroy or impair any lien of the city upon the premises assessed for such amount of the assessment as may have been equitably or lawfully charged and assessed thereon. Failure of any owner to receive any notice required to be sent under the provisions of the city charter and this ordinance shall not invalidate any special assessment or special assessment roll. (7).

(7) See, Charter, Section 11.10.

Section 2-521 Due Date; Installment Payments

All special assessments shall become due upon confirmation of the special assessment roll or in annual installments not to exceed fifteen in number as the council may determine at the time of confirmation and if in annual installments, the council shall determine the first installment to be due upon confirmation or on the following July 1st and subsequent installments on July 1st of succeeding years.

Section 2-522 Notice, Publication; Fees and Penalties

The assessment roll shall be transmitted by the clerk to the treasurer for collection immediately after its confirmation. The treasurer shall give notice by one publication in a newspaper which shall meet the requirements of Chapter 16, Section 167 of the charter that said special assessment roll (identifying it) has been filed in his office and specifying when and where payments may be made thereon. He may mail statements of the several assessments to the respective owners, as indicated by the records of the assessor, of the several lots and parcels of land assessed, stating the amount of the assessment and the manner in which it may be paid; provided however, that failure to mail any such statement shall not invalidate the assessment or entitle the owner to an extension of time within which to pay the assessment.

Section 2-523 Payment Prior to Spreading on Roll; Division of Assessment

The whole or any part of any such assessment may be paid during the period of sixty days from the date of confirmation of the special assessment roll without interest or penalty. Not later than fifteen days after the end of said sixty day period the treasurer shall transmit such roll to the assessor with all payments upon assessments noted thereon. The assessor shall then divide any remaining balance of each assessment into such number of equal installments as shall have been fixed by the council; provided, that if such division operates to make any installment less than ten dollars ($10.00) then the assessor shall reduce the number of installments so that each installment shall be above and as near to ten dollars ($10.00) as possible.

Section 2-524 Setting Up of Assessment on Tax Roll

The first installment shall be spread upon the next City tax roll in a column headed "Special Assessments", together with interest upon all unpaid installments from the date of the confirmation of the roll to the 1st day of July of the year in which such tax roll is made; provided, that any fraction of a month shall be considered as a full month. Thereafter, one installment shall be spread upon each annual tax roll, together with one year's interest upon all unpaid installments; provided, that when any annual installment shall have been prepaid as hereinafter provided, then there shall be spread upon the tax roll for such year only the interest upon all unpaid installments.

Section 2-525 Collection of Installments

After each installment has been placed on the tax rolls, the same shall be collected by the treasurer with the same rights and remedies, and the same penalties and interest, as provided in the charter for the collection of taxes. On the 1st day of the 3rd month following due date, the treasurer shall add to all assessments or installments paid on the 1st day of the 3rd month and thereafter a collection fee of four per cent (4%) of the amount of the assessment. All collection fees shall belong to the City and be collectable in the same manner as the collection fee on city taxes.

Section 2-526 Advance Installment Payments

After the expiration of the sixty day period provided for in Section 2-523 of this ordinance, any installment which has not been spread upon the tax rolls may be discharged by paying the face amount thereof plus interest thereon to date of payment. Any person desiring to pay such installments in advance shall first secure the proper statement from the assessor to permit the treasurer to compute the amount to be paid. The treasurer shall report to the assessor all advance payments on installments so that the assessor shall have such information. More spreading installments on the next city tax roll.

Section 2-527 Insufficiency of Original Assessment

Should the assessments in any special assessment roll, including the amount assessed to the city at large, prove insufficient for any reason to pay the cost of the improvement or which they were made, then the council shall make additional assessments against the city and several lots and parcels of land, in the same ratio as the original assessments, to supply the deficiency; but the total amount assessed, against any lot or parcel of land shall not exceed the value of the benefits received from the improvement, provided that the additional pro rata assessment shall not exceed twenty-five per cent (25%) of the assessment as originally confirmed unless a meeting of the council be held to review such additional assessment, for which meeting notices shall be mailed as provided; the case of review of the original special assessment roll.

Section 2-528 Excess of Assessment

The excess by which any special assessment proves larger than the actual cost of the improvement and expense incidental thereto may be placed in the general fund of the city if such excess is five per cent (5%) or less of the assessment, but should be assessment prove large the necessary by more than five per cent (5%) the entire excess shall be refunded on a pro rata basis to the owners of the property assessed. Such refund shall be made by credit against future unpaid installments in the inverse order in which they are payable to the extent such installments then exist and the balance of such refund shall be in cash. No refunds may be made which contravene the provisions of any outstanding evidence of indebtedness secured in whole or part by such special assessment.

Section 2-529 Collection of Delinquent Special Assessments by Court Action

In addition to any other remedies and without impairing the lien therefor, any delinquent special assessment, together with interest and penalties, may be collected in an action in assumpsit in the name of the city against the person assessed, in any court having jurisdiction of the amount. If in any such action it shall appear that by reason of any irregularities or informalities the assessment has not been properly made against the defendant or upon the premises sought to be charged, the court may, nevertheless, on satisfactory proof that expense has been incurred by the city which is a proper charge against the defendant or the premises in question, render judgment for the amount properly chargeable against such defendant or upon such premises.

Section 2-530 Limitation on Assessment District

No special assessment district shall be created by the council for any one public improvement which includes property having an area in excess of twenty-five per cent (25%) of the total area of the city. No public improvement project shall be divided geographically for the purpose of circumventing this provision. (8).

(8)—See Charter, Section 11.2. (B).

Section 2-531 Single Lot Procedure

Whenever an expense shall have been incurred by the city upon or in respect to any single lot or parcel of land, which expense is chargeable against such lot or parcel of land and the owner thereof, and is not of that class required to be pro-rated among several lots or parcels of land in a special assessment district, the amount of labor and material or any other expense or service for which such expense was incurred, with a description of the lot or parcel of land upon or in respect to which the expense was incurred, and the name of the owner, if known, shall be reported by the city manager to the council. Such expense shall be charged as a special assessment and the procedure and enforcement of payment shall conform with the provisions of the charter.

Section 2-532 Contested Assessments

No suit or action of any kind shall be instituted or maintained for the purpose of contesting or enjoining the collection of any special assessment (1) unless within thirty days after the confirmation of the special assessment roll written notice is given to the council of intention to file such suit or action stating the grounds on which it is claimed such assessment is illegal, and (2) unless such suit or action shall be commenced within sixty days after confirmation of the roll.

Section 2-533 Illegal or Invalid Assessments

Whenever any special assessment shall, in the opinion of the council be invalid by reason of irregularity or informality in the proceedings, or if any court of competent jurisdiction shall adjudge such assessment to be illegal, the council shall, whether the improvement has been made or not, or whether any part of the assessments have been paid or not, subject to the decision of the court, have power to cause a new assessment to be made for the same purpose for which the former assessment was made. All proceedings on such re-assessment and for the collection thereof shall be conducted in the same manner as prescribed for the original assessment, and whenever any sum or part thereof levied upon any property in the assessment so set aside has been paid and not refunded, the payment so made shall be applied upon the re-assessment or if the payments exceed the amount of the re-assessment refunds shall be made.

Section 2-534 Severability Clause

Should any section, clause or provision of this ordinance be declared by any court to be invalid, the same shall not affect the validity of this ordinance as a whole or any part thereof, other than the part so declared to be invalid.

Section 2-535 Effective Date

This ordinance shall take effect ten (10) days after its enactment or upon its publication, whichever is later.

A public hearing will be held on the above ordinance at the next regular meeting of the city council at 8 p.m., on March 7, 1960 at the City Hall, City of Northville.

NOTICE TO DOG OWNERS

IN THE CITY OF NORTHVILLE

There will be no dog vaccination clinic in the City of Northville during the month of February, 1960, as has been the custom in the past. Those dogs that were vaccinated by Dr. Tom Heslip at the clinic in 1959, were given the Live modified vaccine, which is effective for a two-year period; therefore dog owners who have their vaccination certificates for the year 1959 issued by Dr. Heslip will be able to get their dog licensed for 1960 on the strength of this certificate.

Those dog owners who have dogs that have not been vaccinated, or did not receive the live modified vaccine will be required to take their dog to a veterinarian to be vaccinated. All dogs must be licensed on or before March 1st, 1960. Licenses can be obtained at the City Hall.

Now Novi Women Have Own Club

"A good idea" — talked about for years — finally stepped into action last Wednesday at the first meeting of the Women's Civic club of Novi.

Some 50 smartly dressed women gathered at the Novi community building to hear kick-off speaker

Dr. Wallace F. Watt of the Michigan Department of Mental Health discuss their civic role.

"Many local women have expressed a strong desire for this kind of club," said Program Chairman Mrs. Richard Noble.

On their encouragement she and a group of civic-minded women, including wives of councilmen, spearheaded the move. "It's strictly non-political," she emphasized.

Speaking on "The Dilemma of Modern Women," Dr. Watt outlined areas of civic activity where women have proven successful and where they are needed today.

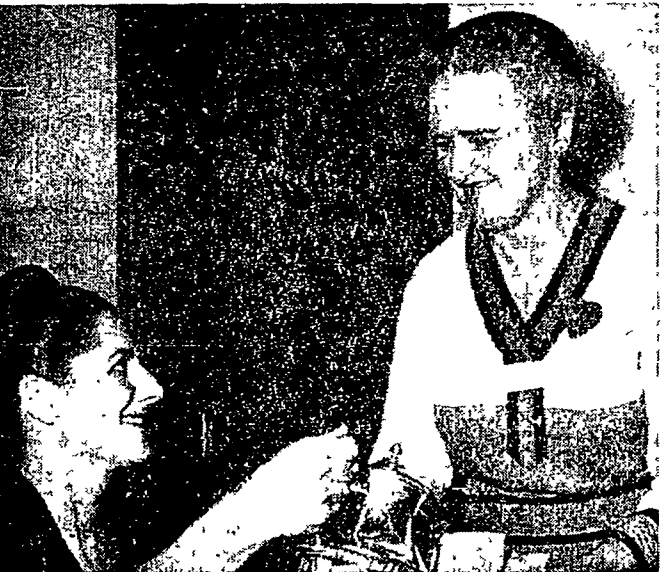

Possible club projects discussed among the Novi women included: establishment of a public library; sponsorship of children's swimming classes; and establishment of a hospital committee to visit and aid elderly or disabled community citizens.

Mrs. Owen Bellinger was named general committee chairman at the meeting. She will appoint committee heads by the next meeting, March 9.

The club will meet regularly the second Wednesday of each month at the community building. Membership is open to women of Novi and neighboring areas. Refreshments will be served after meetings.

TALK — Dr. Wallace F. Watt discusses civic club projects with Mrs. Richard Noble (center) and Mrs. E. Jacques.

AND TEA — Attractive Mrs. Dicon Taffalran pours tea for Mrs. Vincent Hayes after the meeting.

Assessment Act Gets OK; Name Plan Body Members

A special assessment ordinance giving the city council the authority to assess municipal improvements against the benefiting property owners was passed for publication by the council Monday night.

The long-studied ordinance (published in full on page four) will come up for passage at a public hearing before the council March 7. Specifically, it enables the council to charge against benefiting property owners such improvements as sidewalks, sewers, paving, etc.

In other business Monday night the council approved plat number three of Yerkes Estates subdivision. Located northwest of the Novi road-Baseline intersection area, the development now has approximately 65 homes. Another 68 lots are provided in the new's plat and building will begin immediately on these models. Altogether, the subdivision will have approximately 200 homes upon completion.

Councilman John Canterbury and A. Russell Clarke, vice president of the Northville office of Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit, were selected as city representatives on the council-proposed community development committee. The township representatives are Robert Shafer and H. B. Putnam, while the school board named William Crump and Donald Lawrence.

A meeting of the group to outline its area of work and determine the need for broader committees will be held in the near future.

Air Force To Visit Weekly

T/Sgt. Irving D. Kaiserman, local air force recruiting representative, announced this week that he will be in Northville every Tuesday and Thursday from 10 a.m. until noon at the city hall.

Immediate vacancies exist for all categories of personnel, including the officer training program, aviation cadets for pilot and navigation training and regular enlistments for male and female personnel.

'Novi Race Track' Finally Crosses Wire Dead (at) Last

Remember the proposed race track in Novi?

It had residents up in arms for more than two years. It even brought about a special election in February, 1957. At that time voters approved, 382 to 351, the rezoning of a parcel of land at Grand River and Meadowbrook roads for the proposed track.

Naturally, the attraction was — and remained — the lure of the tax dollar.

When B. F. Gregoric, head of the Grand River Enterprises corporation, moved his site for the proposed "82½ million harness-thoroughbred facility" to Ten Mile and Taft road the controversy continued.

Finally, Novi "lost" its track when the village planning commission refused to rezone the new 200-acre site.

The promoters, who moved their proposed site from Grand River (where zoning had been approved) to the Ten Mile - Taft area because it was more "suitable with future highway plans", next turned their attention to the South Lyon area.

Difficulties again thwarted their efforts and the group moved to Fenton.

Finally Gregoric, whose Grand River Enterprises group changed personnel from the early days when George Kovacs and Dr. A. A. Holcomb of the Northville - Novi area were interested, made its first official bid for a track license.

Last week Commissioner James Inglis denied their request. What's more he ruled that the group "failed to show financial responsibility". Reports of the hearing termed it "ridiculous" at stages.

Dr. Holcomb and Kovacs, as well as Mrs. May Babbitt of Northville, testified before the commission that their names were being used as subscribers. They denied any connection with the venture.

The Wayne county prosecutor's office has now expressed an interest in Gregoric and his chief aid, C. M. Skender, for possible violation of the blue sky law.

Pilate Faces Trial In Circuit Court

A 27-year-old Novi man, charged with receiving and concealing some $20,000 worth of stolen office equipment, will be arraigned in circuit court Tuesday.

Charles Pilate, 45145 Mayo drive, was bound over to circuit court following an examination before Justice of the Peace Robert K. Anderson here Thursday.

Pilate, who has maintained his innocence since arrest, is free on a $1,000 bond.

A companion of Pilate, John LaPointe, 26, same address, is also free on bond awaiting trial in Detroit on a charge of breaking and entering at night.

LaPointe told police Pilate had no part in the breaking and entering, however, and Pilate denied knowing the "stuff was hot".

All of the stolen equipment, which was stored in a fashionable Connamara Hills home in which the men lived, has been recovered.

Post Office Seeks Clerks, Carriers

Northville Postmaster Leland V. Smith has announced the opening of a new Civil Service examination for clerks and carriers at the Northville post office.

Postal clerk and carrier positions offer a starting pay of $2 per hour, automatic annual increases, night pay differentials; liberal vacation and sick leave plans, low cost insurance benefits, generous retirement plan and a uniform allowance.

To apply you must be at least 18 years old, and be a resident or bona fide patron of the Northville post office.

FORBIDDEN SEX LIFE

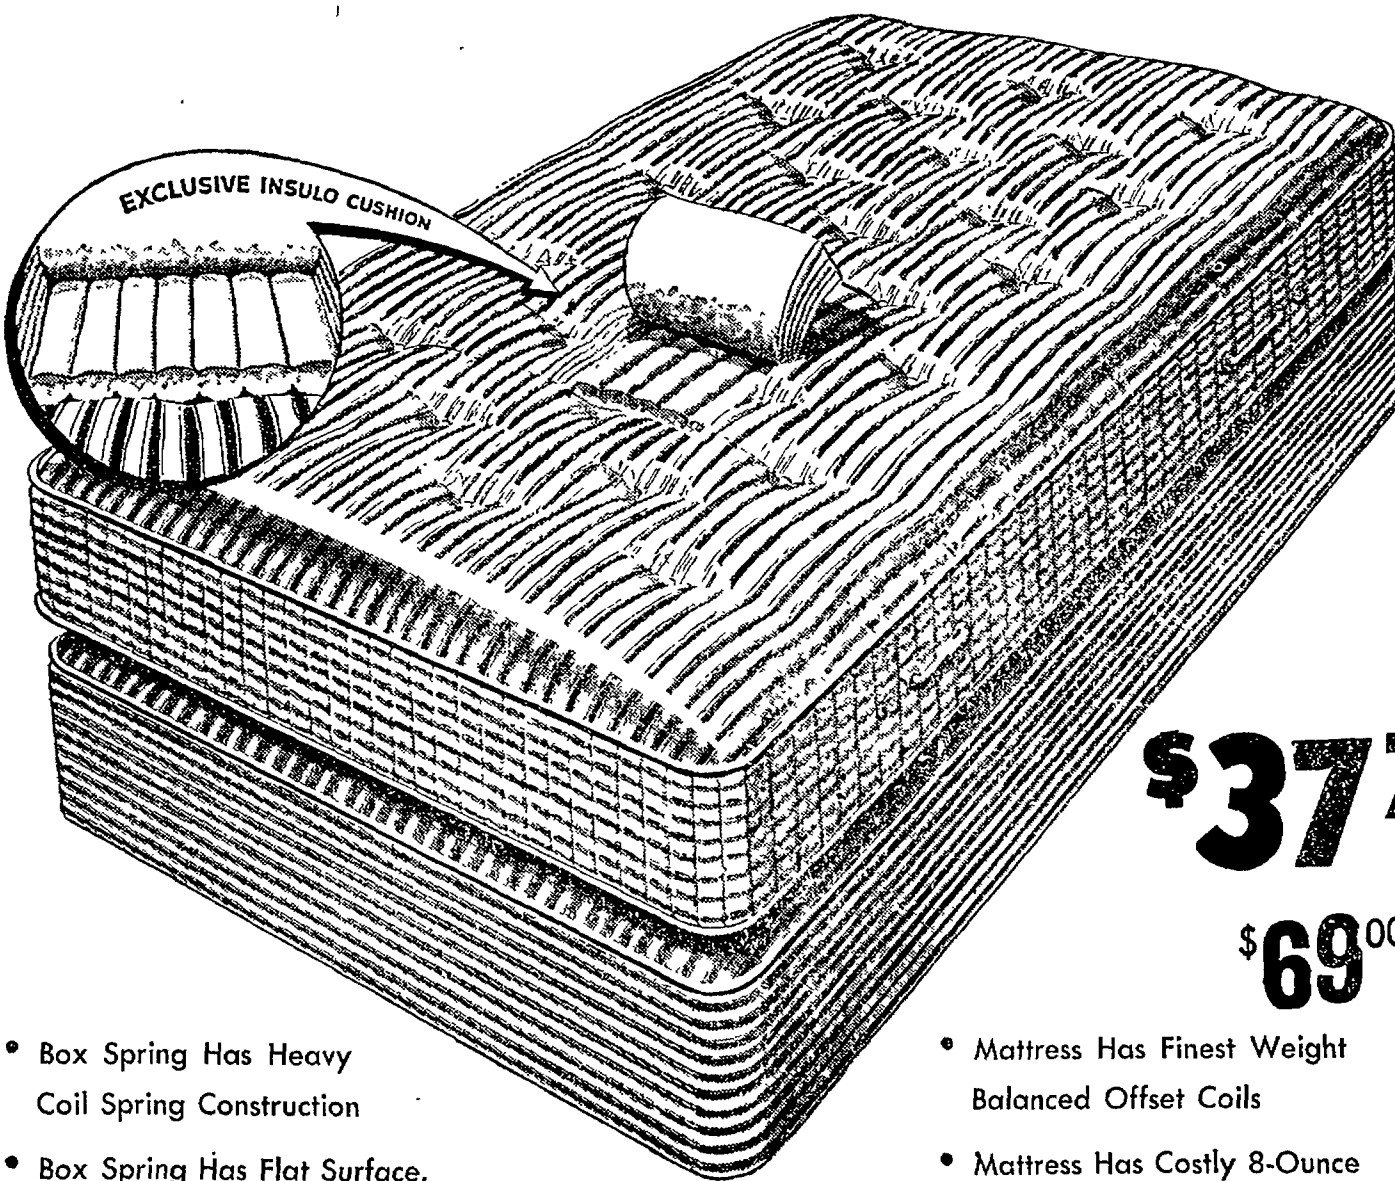

The seventh commandment deals with the life of sex. It says, "Thou shalt not commit adultery." The Lord warned that at the end of the present age there would be a repetition of the days of Noah.

That these days are among us may be seen from the following report. It is reported that there are 5,000 houses of prostitution in Detroit alone. 100,000 young women enter white slavery yearly. One million babies are born illegitimately every year. (FBI). 300,000 unmarried high school girls became mothers last year. One out of every four marriages end in divorce. These are only those adulterers who have been classified, but God knows the number who sin in unholy wedlock under the cover of darkness. Remember this — this law is not relative! This is God's unchangeable law whether it be 2000 BC or 3000 AD! Jesus said in Matt. 5:32 "That whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery; and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery." The easy divorce laws of the land will never hold up before the bar of God. Thousands who have been divorced and remarried will stand the eternal judgment of God unless they have found forgiveness through Jesus Christ.

SCHOLARSHIP FINALISTS — Two of the 10,000 finalists from more than 550,000 senior students tested in the National Merit Scholarship competition are Crispin Hammond and Nancy Beard of Northville high school. Shown above completing a 'heat of fusion' experiment in their physics class, Crispin and Nancy must wait until April to learn just how high they finished. Merit Scholarships are four-year awards and range from $100 to $1500 per year. Grades, leadership, citizenship and extra-curricular activities are also considered along with the test scores. The national organization gets its funds from a $20.5 million grant from the Ford Foundation and Carnegie Corporation. It is considered a rarity to have two finalists from one high school.

City Hall

The council has indicated that it will earmark funds for the sale for a new city hall.

In its first meeting the advisory committee named two sub-committees, one to examine other city halls in communities comparable in size with Northville, and the other to investigate possible sites or buildings in which to locate a city hall.

The group decided to meet weekly on Tuesdays in the city hall. It must complete its work by May 1.

Some indication of the complications that may develop for the committee was displayed at the opening session when the question of including a library in the city hall was raised.

The group will start determining the needs for the building next week when it meets with two department heads — the city clerk and police chief — to learn what facilities they believe necessary in the proposed building. In subsequent weeks other department representatives will be questioned.

Good News for Dogs: No Shots this Year!

Northville's annual vaccination clinic for dogs won't be conducted this year.

The city announced its intention to pass-up the clinic when Dr. Thomas Heslip stated that he had used "two-year" live modified vaccine at last year's clinic. Thus, dogs vaccinated at the February 1959 clinic will not need new shots until 1961. Dog owners whose pets have not been vaccinated, or did not receive the two-year vaccine, must take their dog to a veterinarian and provide proof of vaccination when obtaining licenses at the city hall. Deadline for licenses is March 1.

By Elementary Study Group

Three-Year First Grade, 'Readiness' Check Asked

A 1960 version of the little red schoolhouse formula would be "the 3R's plus TV" if the just-released elementary curriculum study report is any indicator.

Although television as a teaching medium is but one of the areas covered in the study (a revolutionary development in itself), almost all parts of the school program — from teaching methods to curriculum selection — have obviously taken on a jet-age wrinkle these past few years.

Just how much have our elementary schools "grown up" in one generation?

Without actually saying so, the report makes some interesting revelations.

First, there's the new issue of television as a teaching medium. Foreign languages are now seen as a basic modern communications need.

And images of the student and the classroom have undergone basic changes, as report recommendations indicate.

Work of the 38-member committee received high praise from the Northville school board when its completed report was presented and accepted.

By request of the board, the study was begun in September, 1958.

Thirty-two laymen representing a geographic and socioeconomic cross-section of the school district joined Principals Richard Kay and Harry Smith and four teachers for the undertaking. Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred C. Becker co-chaired the project.

The group based its recommendations on opinions of teachers, current education literature and comparisons of school programs in other communities.

Its working definitions included:

Goals of Elementary Education—

Recognition and encouragement of originality; development of motor skills; preparation for junior high; use of full capabilities; appreciation of fine arts; independent reflection and reasoning leading to critical analysis; good group adjustment; good basic ideas of self-discipline; good study habits; sound knowledge of basic skills; sincere self-expression; ability to communicate; social and emotional growth; understanding of cultural heritage; practice in scientific solutions to problems; recognition and respect for authority; early recognition and help for exceptional and gifted children; promotion of racial, religious and social understanding and respect.

Republicans to Sponsor Panel Discussion Meet

"Where Your Tax Dollars Go" will be the title of a panel discussion at the Tuesday meeting of the Greater Northville Republican club.

John Robertson, Northville city manager, will discuss disbursements in the city; George Clark, Northville township supervisor, will cover township activities; and William Tyler, tax analyst for the Detroit Trust company, will talk on county allocations.

The panel discussion is the second of a current series of informative meetings to promote greater civic awareness.

All area Republicans are invited to attend the meeting which will be held in the home of Rita Northup, 905 Spring drive, beginning at 8 p.m.

Local Man Appointed To Merchandising Post

Appointment of Charles O. Irvine, 20055 Westview drive, as assistant to the director of merchandising has been announced by M. B. Cather, vice president and manager of the Detroit office of Grant Advertising, Inc.

Irvine will direct sales promotion activity for the Electric Auto-lite Co. account and a new three-company marketing promotion launched by Autolite, Carter Carburetor Division of ACF Industries, Inc., and Holley Carburetor Co.

Irvine attended Michigan State university and the Detroit Institute of Technology, and has been active in automotive advertising for several years.

grammar; spelling; arithmetic; science; social studies; art and music; physical achievement.

Among the committee recommendations were:

Kindergarten Readiness—

Institute readiness classes two weeks before school opening to determine maturity and readiness of all children entering. Recommend that the immature wait until the following year.

Ungraded Lower "EL"—

Reorganize the first three grades by elimination of grade distinction.

Determine groupings on the basis of results of reading readiness tests and teacher observation of physical and social maturity.

Resource Center—

Smaller Lots Not Needed In Northville Township, Yet

The Editor:

Tuesday evening, February 9, a public hearing was held in the Township offices relative to adoption of a new residential classification, R-1-H Country Homes Districts. Its adoption would permit erection of homes on lots having a minimum of 18,000 square feet — by permissive reclassification of areas now requiring lot areas of one acre or more.

I appeared at this meeting as an interested R-1-E (Country Estates—acre or more) resident to learn of the benefits to accrue from—or objections to this new classification. On the side of benefits the Zoning Board indicated this change was the result of an extended study (by the board) in anticipation of a need for smaller lots evidenced by a "trend" to larger homes on smaller than acre lots. A true trend is a gradual development, a tendency, an inclination. This would seem to preclude the need for this change until some real demand was made for it of a repetitious nature.

If the "trend" is real and imminent and the board's study made independent of any outside influence, why and how could they devise or approve a provision for SIDE YARDS as narrow as eight feet? Is this how the $50,000 homes are contained on less than acre lots?

My objection was also to "opening the door" to a reclassification possibility in some areas where smaller lot sizes would be objectionable — particularly where the usual public apathy would probably attend the final hearings in a specific case. There is no demand for this classification unless a specific development has been indicated with present classifications pointed to as obstacles. The board admitted to no such demand or request. No exception was taken to my surmise that land developers or builders must have provoked this classification study and that any benefits to accrue would be to developers and builders. However, I am not alone to know the northwest corner of Seven Mile and Haggerty has been and is under consideration for development.

Only three or four other property owners were present at the hearing — one person expressing approval of the new classification, without giving a reason or indicating his business or profession. It is public apathy — as evidenced by the attendance at this hearing — that permits zoning regulations and legislation to "get on the books" to which we sometimes have an abrupt awakening. When and if a change is necessary, something more or less than the R-1-H classification might be desirable. With trends frequently running in cycles, it could be that five years from now acreage demands for single family residences will be greater than ever.

Can you believe Part IV of the proposed ordinance providing for this classification when it stipulates: "The provisions of this Ordinance are hereby declared to be immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, and safety..."

preservation of the public peace, health and safety? If not and if you agree with my position and purpose taken here, you should register your opinions with the Township Board immediately, before it accepts this unnecessary and questionable land use classification.

Mustangs Gain Weekend Split

Bulldogs Win 70-66 At Brighton

With an eye toward its second straight Wayne-Oakland league championship, Brighton was forced to fight to the wire to clip last-place Northville, 70-66, in its own gymnasium last Friday.

The Bulldog victory, coupled with a loss by Clarenceville, catapulted Brighton back into a first-place tie with the Trojans. Earlier in the season, Brighton lost to Northville in an exciting 53-52 match.

For the Mustangs who have lost their last five league games, Friday's defeat was in many ways a victory. It marked the first time since the team began its nose-dive that it looked like a polished quintet.

Despite the loss, Coach Dutch Van Ingen was pleased with his squad's performance, particularly during the first two quarters.

Behind the 8-point spurt by Guard Roger Atchinson, the Mustangs grabbed a 19-15 first quarter lead. Atchinson then went scoreless in the second frame, but teammate Wade Deal took up the offensive, flipping in five field goals. His 10 points along with the help of three other squad members accounted for the 17 second-quarter Northville points.

The Bulldogs, paced by lanky center Don Appleton, forged back with 23 points in the second stanza to claim a 38-36 lead at the halfway mark. Appleton scored 8 points in the first quarter, added 11 more in the second.

Brighton widened its lead to 8 points in the third stanza, 59-51, as Appleton netted three more field goals and four charity shots. Atchinson scored 7 of Northville's 15 points.

Appleton lost his shooting eye in the final period and the Mustangs galloped to the wire in a determined bid to catch the fleeing Bulldogs. But when it was all over, Brighton was the winner even though Northville grabbed last-quarter scoring honors, 15-11.

Altogether, Northville tied Brighton at the free throw line with 16, while the Bulldogs fired 27 field goals to the Mustangs' 25.

The tall Brighton center, who scored 24 points in the earlier contest with Northville, led his squad in scoring Friday by blistering the hoops for 34 points. Atchinson took honors for Northville with 18 points, while teammates Wade Deal and Forward Steve Judy scored 16 and 14, respectively.

In other W-O games, West Bloomfield upset Clarenceville, 51-45, Milford continued along its red-hot victory path by rolling over Bloomfield Hills, 62-48, and Clarkston swamped Holly, 70-60.

Michigan Hunters Favor "Any Deer"

Deer hunters currently being polled by the Conservation Department are two-to-one in favor of "any deer" hunting in Michigan, preliminary returns of an opinion survey reveal.

Sixty-four percent of the hunters responding answered "yes" to the question, "Do you think it is necessary to shoot a limited number of does and fawns, as well as bucks, in some parts of Michigan?" Thirty-two percent said "no" while the remainder gave no answer.

Post-card questionnaires were mailed to hunters throughout the state January 30. Hunters were randomly selected from 1959 license stubs. By February 9, approximately 38 percent had replied.

In 1956 and 1957, the "pro" and "con" percentages were virtually the same concerning "any deer" hunting. In 1958, slightly more than 60 percent favored the department's deer management while 37 percent were against it.

Following the first big "any deer" season in 1952, more than 800 persons wrote to the division; about 600 expressed their views on the department's deer management program.

Of these 600, roughly 59 percent were opposed to the taking of does and fawns. The remaining 41 percent supported "any deer" seasons. Department game men consider the latter percentage quite dramatic since those harboring a complaint are more apt to state their case than those who are satisfied or nearly so.

NO COMPETITION — Jim Patterson, 6' 3" Northville forward, has no difficulty snatching this jump ball from his Plymouth opponent who is partially hidden behind Plymouth Forward Thompson (35). Forward Gary Morgan (34) looks on.

Colts Salvage Victory After Loss to Brighton

Brighton's junior varsity cagers crushed Northville Friday, 59-30, but the Colts picked themselves off the floor to edge Plymouth the following night, 35-33.

In their attempt to avenge an earlier 50-46 loss to Brighton, the Colts took a slim 8-7 lead at the first quarter mark, before the Bullpups launched their sizzling barrage.

By intermission time, Brighton had jumped to a comfortable, 25-19, lead.

Brighton added 11 more points in the third stanza, then peppered the net for 23 points in the final frame. Meanwhile, the Colts skidded to 7 points in the third quarter, 4 in the fourth.

Center David Filkin led Northville's futile attack with 11 points. William Chapple and Don Busch were the next highest scorers for the Colts with 5 points each.

Brighton's Guard Dennis Pearsall collected six field goals and five charity shots for a total of 17 points.

The Colts appeared ready to lose another game in the opening minutes of the Plymouth game. They could muster only 5 points in each of the first two quarters while Plymouth scored 12 in the first, 6 in the second.

Down 10-18 at the intermission, the Colts cut the lead to 7 points by the close of the third stanza.

Three Northville cagers sparked to life in the final period, scoring a total of 16 points. With less than five seconds to play, Dave Filkin flipped in the winning basket after three quick attempts from under the net. The 6' 3" center was hacked on the arm in the process, stepped to the free throw line, and flipped in the final point of the game.

Tom Long pumped in 6 points and Don Busch 4 in that crucial quarter. Filken took scoring laurels for his squad with 17 points.

Arch-Rival Plymouth Falls, 53-45

The varsity Northville quintet has had a starvation diet in the W-O league, but with Class A squads the menu has been almost lavish.

The Mustangs gobbled up arch-rival Plymouth here Saturday night, 53-45, after barely losing to the Rocks when the two teams clashed early in December.

Saturday's victory gives the Northville squad a 2-1 record against Class A teams. After losing to Plymouth, 44-41 in December, the Mustangs rolled over Farmington, 47-41, two weeks later.

Plymouth jumped to a 16-14 first-quarter lead Saturday then slipped behind at the intermission as Northville pummeled in 16 points in the second quarter to the Rocks' 9.

Guard Roger Atchinson scored only 2 points in the opening stanza, but fired eight charity shots in eight attempts in the second period. He also scored two field goals.

Both teams turned cold in the third quarter, with Northville maintaining a 1-point edge as Plymouth scored 7 points and the Mustangs 9.

All-State football star Randy Egloff, who scored 22 points in the first Northville tilt at Plymouth, divided his scoring between the two halves. He had three field goals and four charity shots at the half, then scored an identical number of shots in the final half for a total of 18 points.

Atchinson matched the Plymouth star's output with five field goals and eight free throws. Forward Jim Patterson was runnerup in scoring for Northville with 14 points.

The Rocks had a better percentage record at the free throw line, but the Mustangs scored more points, 19-17. Northville scored 17 field goals to Plymouth's 14.

Northville's freshmen quintet crushed Clarenceville, 69-36, last week to post its 12th straight victory of the season and stretch its two-year win streak to 26 games.

Clarenceville failed to dent the freshmen attack in any of the four quarters. Off to a comfortable 15-point lead in the first quarter, Northville continued to bomb the nets throughout the contest.

The quarter scores were 22-7, 13-10, 20-11 and 14-8.

Forward Craig Bell drew high point honors for Northville with 14 points. Teammates Tom Swift, Dickran Oranian and Jeff Crawford each scored 10 points.

The freshmen will host Clarkston here tonight beginning at 7 p.m.

BODY — SOUL — SPIRIT

Man is a trinity. God has created him with a body, a soul, and a spirit. (1 Thess. 5:23).
The body has to do with the material, physical part of man, while the soul and spirit has to do with the immaterial, inner man. All men are herein alike.

However, there is a vast difference between a person that is a Christian and a person that is not a Christian. This difference is the realm of his spirit. The non-Christian's spirit is not alive towards God. Ephesians 2:1 says "He is dead in trespasses and sins", even though he may be very much alive in his body and soul. Paul made reference in 1 Timothy 5:6 to widows living in pleasure as being "dead while she liveth". This is true of every unregenerated human being. God is not in all of his thoughts. He is not interested in religious things. He doesn't understand and furthermore he doesn't care!

HUMAN NATURE THINKS HORIZONTALLY

Since man is by nature dead spiritually, he thinks only horizontally. Being alive in his soul, he is man-conscious but not God-conscious. For this reason he may make himself very acceptable to man.

He may be a good neighbor, a good citizen and a man of good works. He may be very well educated and possess lofty ideals, but for all of this there is something missing in the realm of his spirit life.

He cannot understand much about the things of God. The Bible is not a closed book, but a very dull book to him. Sermons from the Bible are to be endured. His membership in a Church is purely for social reasons. He may pray occasionally when in trouble or in times of mental stress. He knows nothing about fellowshiping with God. He doesn't care to talk about spiritual things.

All of this is due to the fact that something is wrong in the realm of the spirit and this needs to be corrected.

HOW CAN THIS TAKE PLACE?

Jesus gave the answer to Nicodemus in John 3. In vs. 3 he said, "Except a man be born again he cannot see (understand, perceive) the Kingdom of God." Then in vs. 5 he makes it plain that this new birth is a prerequisite for entrance into the Kingdom of God.

This new birth which brings life to the spiritual part of man is a miracle of God. Referring to Eph. 2:1 "And you hath he quickened (made alive) who were dead in trespasses and sins." It is the same body, the same soul, the same spirit, but now something has happened that will change that whole life.

Things once cherished now are no longer cared for. Things once despised are now cherished. Life has come to the spirit. John 3:16 gives us the answer.

By a definite act of faith whereby we receive Jesus Christ as our Saviour, we can receive this new life in our spirit and will revolutionize our entire lives

Episcopal Bishop To Visit St. John's

The Right Reverend Richard S. Emrich, PhD, STD, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan, will visit St. John's church, Plymouth, Sunday at 4 p.m. to administer the Rite of Confirmation to a class of juniors and adults who have been instructed and prepared by Rector The Rev. David T. Davies.

Bishop Emrich came to Michigan in 1946 a Suffragan Bishop and in 1948 became the Diocesan Bishop succeeding the Right Reverend Frank W. Creighton, STD, who retired at that time.

Bishop Emrich was born in Mar-din, Turkey in 1910 of missionary parents. Following graduation from Phillips Andover Academy, he attended Brown university, the Episcopal Theological school in Cambridge, Massachusetts and Union Theological seminary in New York City.

He then studied at the University of Marburg, Germany, receiving the degree of doctor of philosophy.

In recent years he has received honorary degrees from American and Canadian universities, and in 1958 was made an honorary commander of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire by Queen Elizabeth II.

After a year as curate at St. John's church, Waterbury, Connecticut, he was instructor, assistant professor and professor at the Episcopal Theological school in Cambridge for ten years, until 1946, during which time he also served as rector of churches in Massachusetts.

Following the service on Sunday, a social hour will be held in the church hall in honor of the confirmees and will be in charge of Mrs. Howard Beck.

Robinson Group

The Robinson Group, sponsored by Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service, will meet next Wednesday at 12:30 at the home of Mrs. Charles Davis, 9011 Ball street, Plymouth. The program will be devoted to program planning for next year. Visitors are welcome.

Dearborn Woman Named U. F. Committee Chairman

Mrs. Irving F. ImOberst, Cherry Hill and Brady, Dearborn, this week was named chairman of the United Foundation Women's Organization Operating committee for western Wayne county.

The committee which she will head will be made up of representatives of community leadership and Torch Drive campaign leaders from western Wayne county. It will work toward developing a better understanding among volunteers and contributors of the work being done by Torch Drive services in western Wayne county.

Mrs. ImOberst served as chairman of the western Wayne "Infomana" last year. Her new volunteer post includes membership on the overall Operating committee of the UWFO, which is headed by Mrs. Worth Kramer, who served as general campaign co-chairman for Community Campaigns in the 1959 Torch Drive and as western Wayne county Torch drive chairman in 1958.

Novi Man Elected To Architect Institute

A. Richard Swenson of 24385 Le-Bost drive, Novi, has been elected a corporate member of the American Institute of Architects and assigned to its Detroit chapter.

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO

The city council's campaign to "sell" its proposed $300,000 water improvement program rolled merrily on its way this week with the climax just days away.

The complex sale of 2.1 acres of River street property by the city to Northville Downs is finally nearing completion.

Purchase of the land, which is owned by the county, was proposed nearly two years ago. In a drive sparked by the late Mayor Claude Ely the city blocked efforts of the Downs to buy the land directly from the county.

Mayor A. Malcolm Allen was elected a regional officer of the Michigan Municipal League's Region III at the annual meeting of the group in Highland Park last Thursday.

Playing without the team's star forward, Northville's junior varsity quintet throttled Milford 52-40 Friday and then stumbled beneath the rampaging Willow Run cagers Saturday, 68-44.

The orchestra of "last minute" tradesmen — carpenters, painters, electricians, and moving men — have begun tuning up for a fast-paced finale at the new Northville high school.

FIVE YEARS AGO

A $750,000 appropriation for construction of an occupational and recreational therapy building at Northville State hospital is recommended by Gov. G. Mennen Williams in his budget message to the state legislature.

It is planned to start construction of additions and improvements to the Walled Lake school system about March 1, according to Superintendent of Schools Clifford Smart.

Ninety dollars was donated to the March of Dimes drive by the children of Novi school in a special program last week at the community building. Fifth graders assisting in the school drive were Greg Larson, Shirley Coleman, Fred Angel and Donna Lien.

A freak accident caused the loss of an eye to Colin Sikkila, 13, of Walled Lake while he and Dick Norton were in Dodge park. The boys were carrying a BB gun as they walked through woods, when they saw a shotgun shell half buried in the ice. Colin shot at the shell, which exploded, one pellet grazing his ear and the other lodging in his eye.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Tuesday evening at the high school gym an event of an unusual interest to civilians and veterans alike was witnessed by a crowd of approximately 150. The institution and installation of Post 4012, Veterans of Foreign Wars was under the leadership of the ritual team of Wolverine Post No. 171 of Redford.

At the hour of closing for filing petitions for names on the Northville township primary of February 19th petitions had been filed for the following persons: supervisor, Mollie Lawrence; clerk, Fred W. Lyke; treasurer, Royal Terrill; board of review, Frank Thompson, Luther Lapham; constables, Ward Masters, Eber W. Lester and Melvin P. Mitchell.

Area young farmers slated to take their examinations for the army are: Wayne Parsell, Alvin Hansen, John Gibson, Floyd Grogg, Charles Salow, Edward Ash, Ralph Wilkie, Roger Goudeseune, John Cockrum, William Lute, Same Le-one, Frederick Eichstadt, Orville VanSickle, Alvin Keehl, Raymond Rossow, Arthur Breitmeyer, Harold Wilson, Arthur Rutenbar, Howard Hochstad, Gerald King and Robert Eichstadt.

A special appeal has been received by the State Salvage Bureau at Lansing for waste paper. With this information in mind the American Legion boys who are doing this heavy salvage job appeal to all patriotic citizens to gather and tie their papers and set them on their steps or curb on Friday.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Indications are bright for the Northville Wayne County Fair for 1955. After returning from the convention of the Michigan Association of Fairs, held in Detroit on January 23 and 24, Northville delegates were optimistic about the coming fair.

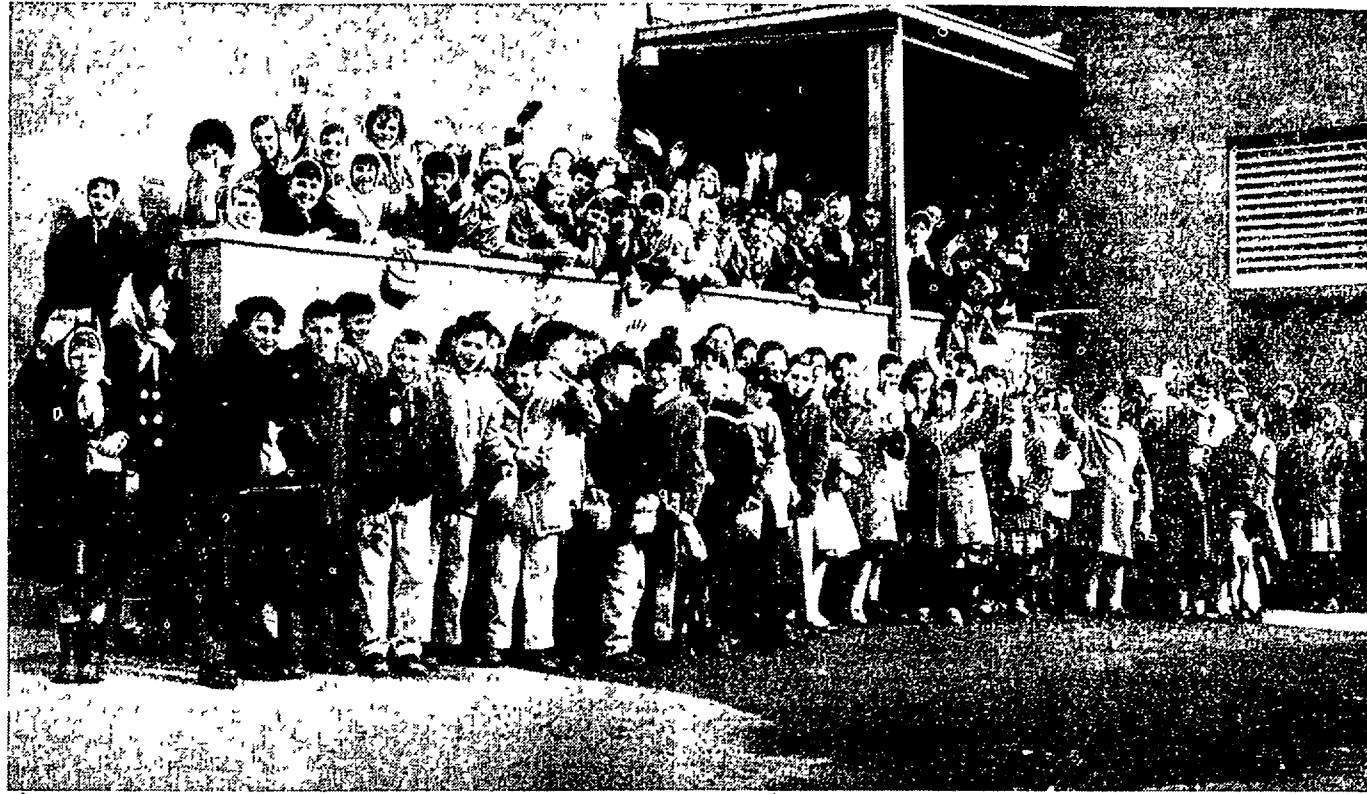

The first arrest made in Northville in several months occurred Saturday afternoon, when Chief of Police William H. Safford arrested a man accused of being one of a party of four that took women's coats from a parked car on the Grand River road several months ago.

Northville won its 10th consecutive victory of the season last Friday evening when the Orange and Black five overwhelmed Van Dyke by the score of 56 to 9.

The reserves also trimmed the Van Dyke rivals, by the score of 18-1. This was a slow and uninteresting game.

Constable Philip W. Donon of Spring drive, was unanimously elected president of the Constable's club of Detroit and Wayne county for the ensuing year at their weekly meeting.

Modernizing the homes of Northville, the benefits that it brings, the methods of securing loans, the time of payments and other details were explained by L. P. Malone of the Federal Housing Act office, to the Exchange club Wednesday noon.

READY TO GO — Some 250 safety patrol boys and service girls from all of Northville's schools boarded buses and spent an afternoon at the Shrine Circus Tuesday. The trip was arranged by the Northville police department with Officer Gil Glasson accompanying the children, along with 10 other adult chaperons. The buses were provided by the schools and John Sackett, while tickets for the events were purchased by T. R. Carrington, Ed Bogart, Jack Gray, Dr. George Chabut, Conrad Langfield and Angelo Gadioli.

Debaters in Regionals Today

For the first time in the eight-year history of Wayne-Oakland league debating, Northville lost the conference championship this season. Clarkston won top honors.

The Mustangs won five of their eight debates this season, while the junior varsity team copped eight victories in nine meets under the guidance of Coach Miss Florence Panatoni.

Last season the varsity debaters won seven and lost only one.

With its second-place finish, Northville notched a berth in the regional debating tournament scheduled today (Thursday) in Birmingham.

The Birmingham regional tournament and similar regional contests throughout the state are preliminary to the final competition of the Michigan High School Forensic association.

Debate teams in 211 Michigan high schools — second largest program of its kind in the nation — will match wits on a national topic: "Resolved, that the Federal government should substantially increase its regulation of labor unions."

The competitive debate season, which ends in February with elimination tournaments, is sponsored by the Bureau of School Services at the University of Michigan.

Last year Northville's championship debate squad lost a sudden death, first-round match in the Forensic association tournament at Wayne university. The loss to Class A Royal Oak Dondero dropped Northville from the tournament.

Marianne King and Charles Hix, who is completing his fourth consecutive year of conference debating, represented Northville in the elimination round last year.

Varsity debaters this year include: Linda Taxis, Shannon Jensen, Don Lawrence, Dennis Gilbert, Mike Adas and Hix.

Minutes of last regular meeting were read and approved. Bills amounting to $8,255.63 from the General Fund, $1,849.24 from the Water Fund and $12,126.59 from the Water Construction Fund were presented for payment. Moved by Juday, supported by Reed, that these bills be paid. Carried.

Mgr. Robertson reported on the status of the sidewalk b/l's for the business area, stating that 90 percent of same had been collected; also that the oral and written examinations for the position of patrolman had been completed and that 4 men had been recommended. A decision should be made by next week as to which man will be hired.

The Methodist Church Board has requested a meeting with the City Council regarding the church tower, which it is believed is the property of the City. Mgr. Robertson was instructed to arrange such a meeting.

It was decided to hold an informal meeting Monday night, Feb. 8th, 1960, to discuss the A&P Store proposition with the Retail Merchants Assn. if this date is agreeable to them.

A resolution was presented for consideration by the Council that the performance bond furnished by Glenview Building Co. and the K&G Construction Co. dated Apr. 2nd, 1958, be released upon the receipt of a bond from these companies for $16,000.00 covering the following improvements to Northville Heights Sub. No. 1.

1. Expansion joint, Debra Lane west of Carrington, approximately 200 ft., to be repaired.
2. Curb at northwest corner of Carrington and Debra has to be repaired.
3. Expansion joint on Ely Dr. south and other transverse joints which were repaired are to be sealed.
4. Repair driveway cuts.
5. Pave Ely Dr. north from Center St. to the westerly boundary of said street at line of Sub. No. 1.
6. Pave entrance to Ely Dr. south to N. Center.

Moved by Reed, supported by Juday, that this resolution be adopted. Carried.

Moved by Allen, supported by Canterbury, that Rules of Procedure of Planning Commission with the addition of budget item, be adopted. Carried.

Moved by Juday, supported by Canterbury, that amendment to Dog Ordinance prepared by City Attorney be published in Northville Record, and that public hearing on same be held at the next regular meeting, Feb. 15th, 1960. Carried.

Mgr. Robertson reported that he had attended a meeting with the Detroit Water Board to discuss the use of Detroit water by the City of Northville at some future date; that the City of Detroit would be prepared to furnish water to Northville within five years, or possibly sooner. Mr. Robertson was instructed to obtain many more facts and figures regarding this proposition, for future consideration.

The sale of the Community Building to the Northville Public Schools will be on the ballot in June, barring any unforeseen circumstance. The City Council will discuss methods of publicizing the sale and use of the money received if sale is made, at the informal meeting to be held Feb. 8th, 1960. It is to be understood that the City Council wishes to use proceeds of such sale to build a new City Hall.

Moved by Allen, supported by Reed, that the term of Cyril Frid on the Board of Review, which expires in 1960, be extended for another three-year period. Carried.

Moved by Reed, supported by Welch, that the resolution prepared by Atty. Ogilvie canceling the agreement with Stanley J. Fons dated Feb. 29th, 1944 (which granted the Village of Northville the right to enter upon land owned by Stanley J. Fons for the purpose of dumping rubbish, ashes and other like material upon the swampy section of said land) be adopted. Carried.

No further business appearing, meeting was adjourned.

SPEAKING for the Record

By Bill Sliger

Although little has been said, or printed, in recent weeks, the financial problems facing Community General hospital have not diminished.

Operating at about an 18 to 20 patient average, the hospital has been "holding its own". Weakest department, from the standpoint of occupancy, has been the maternity section. But it is pointed out that the hospital facilities were not available when present expectant mothers were making plans with their doctors for a hospital.

In short, the board is optimistic and definitely convinced of the need for Community General.

Right now the board is wrestling with two problems:

1. The immediate economic situation; 2. The long-range picture.

We expect to have more information on the first problem to publish in our news columns soon. It's enough to say now that the board of directors is attempting to negotiate with the owners of the facility (Abraham Farris and Dr. Howard Berge) to clarify present financial arrangements and establish a firm price for outright purchase of the building and equipment by the Community board.

Once this is done the board will undertake a fund-raising drive to permit proper operation of the hospital to meet current and near-future demands.

But board officers are now convinced that the real answer to hospital needs for the area lies in the state hospital authority act.

Briefly, this act was passed in 1945 to permit the establishment of "hospital authorities" by two or more cities, townships or incorporated villages, or any combination thereof.

Such an authority — the Peoples Community Hospital Authority — now exists and serves the Wayne county area of Taylor, Huron, Nankin, Flat Rock, Wayne, Inkster, Dearborn (township), Romulus, Sumpter, Ecorse, River Rouge, Lincoln Park, Melvindale, Trenton, Allen Park, Ypsilanti, Salem, Superior and Augusta. The authority operates Beyer hospital in Ypsilanti, Annapolis and Outer Drive hospitals, and has under consideration an 85-bed hospital in Trenton.

To form such an authority voters of the governmental areas involved must approve a tax levy not to exceed 4/10th of a mill annually.

After voter approval the governing bodies of each unit appoints one member to the hospital authority board for each 20,000 population, or fraction thereof. Seven members at large are then named by the appointed board members to form the authority board.

With its funds (which may come from an annual levy of less than the 4/10ths limit) the authority may then plan for building or expanding of hospitals as they are needed within the area limits of the authority.

Interest in such an authority has increased to a point that Mayor A. M. Allen (also treasurer of the Community General hospital board) has asked the city council for permission to bring in an expert on the subject to acquaint local officials.

As a matter of discussion, the local hospital board has suggested approaching South Lyon, Novi, Northville (city and township) and possibly Walled Lake, Plymouth and Livonia in formation of such an authority. The possibility of joining the existing "Peoples" authority will also be explored.

At any rate, the local hospital board now feels that only through this act (without a major supporting grant) can the present and future population of our area expect to have adequate hospital facilities anywhere near at hand.

It is most likely that the present Community General hospital facilities would be made to do until such population growth would require a new facility. The authority would then determine the proper size and location of such a hospital.

Highly successful, the Peoples Authority is currently operating at an average cost per home owner of $120 per year. Through bonding, supported by the tax income, it has constructed three hospitals, expanded a fourth and plans more expansions.

State on Economy 'Kick'

ECONOMY is the watchword of the 1960 legislative session. Both sides say it is needed. The question is where and how much.

Two senators showed where $43,800,000 could be saved by a "drastic pruning program."

Governor Williams said the program — advanced, but not advocated, by Republicans Glyde Geerlings of Holland and Lynn O. Francis of Midland — was too drastic.

The senators themselves said it might be too drastic.

Less dramatic was the economy program outlined by Williams in his budget message.

Under Williams' economy program, the state would have to spend money to save money.

The governor asked for $75,000 for a study on an electronic data processing system which he said would ultimately produce savings of at least $250,000 annually; $364,311 to convert a soap factory at the Ionia Reformatory into a central laundry for other institutions at an annual saving of $50,000; and $600,000 for mental health research which would reduce the necessary hospital beds and patient population.

Just as Williams says Republicans go too far in economy plans, Republicans say Williams doesn't go far enough.

STREAMLING of government through a series of agency mergers is one way Williams would economize.

Insurance Commissioner Frank Blackford, who headed the advisory committee that made the reorganization recommendations, said the Insurance Department, Banking Department and Corporation and Securities Commission should be consolidated into one department.

Blackford could be in line to head the new department. Banking Commissioner Alonzo L. Wilson plans to resign early this year.

DATE TO REMEMBER: The end of February is the deadline for purchase of auto license plates. It's also the eve of the start of Michigan's new boat registration law.

When the boat law goes into effect March 1, state, county and local police will have power of arrest on the Great Lakes.

All power boats must be registered with the state. A $2 fee will be charged.

Motorists boaters making late purchases of auto license plates would be wise to ask for a boat registration form when they get to the head of the line at their secretary of state branch office.

CONFUSION has marked the debate over a petition drive to put the constitutional convention issue on the Nov. 8 ballot.

The farm bloc and some labor groups have urged their members not to sign the petitions being circulated by the League of Women Voters and the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Democratic Governor Williams and the Republican State Central Committee have endorsed the petition drive, but have suggested the Legislature could place the proposal on the ballot by a two-thirds vote, thus eliminating need of the drive.

The lineup of supporters and opponents is pretty well known; the actual provisions involved have been hard to get across.

Four major changes would be made if the League-Jaycee proposal gets on the ballot and is approved by a simple majority voting on the question.

Many think the vote will be on whether a constitutional convention should be called. It's not as simple as that.

The Nov. 8 vote would be a constitutional amendment which would be but one step in a long process.

Paramount importance in the League-Jaycee proposal has been attached to the provision which would change the vote required to call a con-con. At present a majority of those voting at an election is needed. The requirement would be changed to a majority of those voting on the question.

But key to the proposal is a change in the method of selecting convention delegates.

One delegate would be selected for each Senate seat and one for each House seat. Under the present provision, three convention delegates are selected from each senatorial district.

The actual vote on whether to hold a constitution convention would come at the April, 1961 election. As it stands now, the question would not be submitted to the electorate until 1974.

Science Clubs Help Boost our Young Talent

Babson Park, Mass. — When I was in Moscow, getting statistics relating to its public school system, I was asked what we are doing to teach science to our teenagers. By "science" the Moscow school authorities mean mathematics, physics and chemistry.

What Are Science Fairs?

For definite information I could think only of the work of William Guild of St. Petersburg, Florida in developing science fairs, science clubs and previews-for-teachers. This work especially interests me as it discovers young people with exceptional natural talents. Any of these might easily become an Edison or a Steinmetz or some other great inventor if given individual attention when young.

Since my return, I have mailed back to Moscow clippings from newspapers describing this work. I have also mentioned the work of the Osborn Creative Educational Foundation of Buffalo, New York, which is endeavoring to awaken the creative possibilities in all people. Both of these are non-profit institutions supported by gifts from interested donors.

What Makes Grass Green?

Guild's theory is that the true scientist is the one whose curiosity has led him to inquire into everything that 99 percent of the people take for granted. At an exhibit given by youngsters at Tampa, Florida, I noticed a boy with four saucers on his desk. One had green peas, another yellow carrots, a third red beans, and a fourth white corn. When I asked him why they were on his desk, he replied: "To make me curious as to why the different colors from the same soil, same water, and same sunshine." He is much unlike a U.S. Secretary of Defense who is reported to have said: "I'm not interested in why the grass is green."

The primary intent of these science fairs is to stimulate a youngster's native curiosity into a lively desire to find out the reason for things. If he "catches fire" and his imagination is stirred he is on his way to becoming a great scientist. Russia makes her selections in a rough and heartless manner; but Mr. Guild does it on a voluntary basis — lets the youth, instead of Mr. K, decide his future.

United States and Russia Compared

Yet I am happy to say that this voluntary American program is already being used in 51 cities of Florida alone, and I do not know how many are starting in other states; while the Moscow system is hunting for prospects in over 1,000 Russian cities. This is something that our Defense Department should take seriously. I would like to see the Guild Science Center give each year for this work the cost of one missile experiment. It would save our country a billion dollars a year as well as perhaps prevent World War III.

I hope this story will cause the superintendents of schools in wide-awake cities to send for further information. There is no cost to any city for putting on a "science fair". It interests the teachers and parents greatly. In fact, these "fairs" could help in selecting new teachers; the more useful teachers like to be in a city which operates a science fair once each year, and the kids certainly love it all.

World's Most Marvelous Machine The Human Brain

Once at a dinner in London I was so fortunate as to sit next to George Bernard Shaw. Among other questions he put to me was this: "Why is it that the most marvelous of all machines, possessed by everyone, is so seldom used and why does this especially apply to you Americans?" When I asked him the name of this most marvelous machine, he replied, "The human brain, used to less than 5 percent of capacity."

I then asked him how the use of the brain could be increased, and he replied, "By developing people's curiosity. 95 percent of what you Americans read or hear actually goes in one ear and out the other. It is only when something heard or seen develops one's curiosity that this marvelous brain works for a few minutes." This is what the science Center is trying to do. I wish William Guild would not be content to apply the work only to youngsters. Bankers and investors are especially guilty of acting upon "tips" instead of thinking about and studying the valuable facts which are available.

DETROIT EDISON

Waterford Boom Died

held them, the slave holders were continually foiled in their attempts.

A paper issued in Detroit in 1851 read in part:

"The road (underground railroad) is doing better business this fall than usual. The Fugitive Law has given it more vitality, more activity, more passengers, and more opposition, which invariably accelerates business. We have been under the necessity of tearing up the old strap rails and putting down the regular T's so that we can run a lot of slaves through from almost any of the bordering slave states into Canada, within 48 hours and we defy the slaveholders and their abettors to beat that if they can."

According to Glenn King, 68, of 18959 Northville road, a colony of Negroes once lived along the Reservoir drive west of Waterford.

One of the fugitives was a young Negro named Robert Wallace, who acted as a janitor of the mill and slept in the office on the second floor. Fred Carlisle took great interest in the young man, teaching him to read and write.

On the night the first mill burned, he was asleep in the office. With the flames licking up the side of the frame building, the crowd of spectators gasped in horror when the Negro appeared at an upstairs window. There was no ladder to reach him. He hesitated, then jumped to the hard ground below. Crippled for life as a result of the jump, the Negro later became a minister in the Wesleyan Methodist church.

Second Disaster

Seven years later the new five-story mill was again struck by fire and was destroyed. The flames were visible as far away as Detroit and Ann Arbor.

After the second mill fire, the nearby factories continued to operate for several years. But with the development of factories and business places in Plymouth and Northville, the labor force in the village dwindled and Waterford began to die.

Late in the 19th century, an oldtimer wrote for the Northville

Record:

"And now, where's Waterford? It's no where. It has not appeared on the maps of Wayne county for years. It has been omitted from the Michigan State Gazetteer nearly two decades and it is not even a flag station on the railroad. The post office department long ago wiped it off its list.

"The sawmill has rotted and fallen away little by little. There is not a vestige of that great mill except the empty excavation and a few pieces of broken machinery scattered about. The shops that for so many years resounded with the rub-a-dub-dub of the barrel making have tumbled down.

"The main part of the plow factory still stands empty and desolate. The sash and blind factory might just as well never have existed.

"The school house is now a barn. The church — but Waterford never had a church, and it might be that's what's the matter with the village that has burned and rotted away."

Waterford Pioneers

Of the four sons Gannett Ramsdell, Ashley succeeded to the ownership of the property and died in 1886. Jonathan C. became a circuit court judge at Traverse City, Thomas P. became a leading attorney at Manistee, and Dyer Jr. left the village to establish a farm at Portland. Frederick Carlisle worked in the flour mill, studied medicine, then took up politics. He drew up the resolutions adopted at the formation of the Republican party in 1854.

M. L. Whitney abandoned the old saw mill and moved to Dent City.

The Meads, after leaving Waterford, built several other mills, including two in Detroit.

In 1898, a streetcar line called the DP&N (Detroit, Plymouth and Northville) was built along Northville road. The only sign of the once flourishing community for the DP&N passengers was the old country store.

Mrs. King's grandfather, Myron Loud, was the last store proprietor before Mrs. King's parents (Richards family) made it their home.

Henry Ford later purchased the store and the adjoining property from Richards. He intended to move the building to Greenfield Village, but through a misunderstanding, the building was torn down and later rebuilt at the corner of Six Mile and Northville roads. The building is now occupied by Snyder's grocery store.

Many of the original store contents are presently located in a Waterford (Oakland county) store at Greenfield Village.

Ford subsequently built a factory on the site of Mead's Mill (Haller building.) And the familiar hum of the Waterford water wheel, once used to grind up wheat, produced the power to manufacture gauges and precision tools in the new era of automobile manufacturing.

(Next week read about the formation of Northville township and the Northville pioneers.)

Wilbur Harris of Grass Lake (right) was named president, and Edward Bush, vice-president. The group's meeting was part of the opening day activities of the five-day educational event at East Lansing. Mrs. Spencer's husband was a national director in the organization for 12 years.
