For the first time in the memory of school officials, Northville will host a state Class B District Basketball tournament next week.

Hospital Auxiliary To Elect Officers At Monday Meeting

Area women will begin the serious business of organization Monday night in the second meeting of the newly formed Community General hospital auxiliary.

Election of officers will head the agenda.

The group held its first meeting last week with some 50 women from the Northville, Novi, Plymouth and Livonia area attending.

They heard appeals from the Rev. David T. Davies, president of the hospital board, and Hospital Administrator Calvin Monfils for the support and service of an auxiliary.

Three district and state leaders in the Michigan association of hospital auxiliaries also emphasized the important role of the women's group in the successful operation of a hospital.

The Community General hospital auxiliary has been launched largely through the efforts of Chairman Mrs. William Milne, Mrs. John Swain, Mrs. Lorne Dyer and Mrs. Dempsey Ebert.

In addition to playing an important part in promoting good public relations throughout the area for the hospital, the auxiliary provides volunteer service that can help trim hospital costs and free medical personnel for more important duties.

Monday night's meeting will be held at Our Lady of Victory church at 8:15 p.m. Area women who are interested in serving on the auxiliary are urged to attend.

Annex Registration Deadline Monday

Monday at 8 p.m. is the deadline for residents of the city of Northville and the 255 acres of Novi proposed for annexation to the city to register for the March 28 special election.

City residents must register at the city hall, while persons residing in Northville Estates or the abutting Novi village area must register with Township Clerk Hadley Bachert at the Novi township hall.

The area proposed for annexation is located on the northeast corner of Beck and Baseline.

Anyone who has registered or voted in the community in which they reside within the past four years need not register again to be qualified to vote in the March 28 election.

LAS VEGAS MOVES IN — For one night only, Las Vegas has moved into Northville with all its glamour and excitement. Although the money is fake, the prizes are real in this the third annual Lloyd H. Green Post Millionaire Party Saturday beginning at 8 p.m. sharp. Proceeds from the "Vegas" party will be used to help maintain the American Legion's Memorial Home. Several Legion members are shown above getting in a little practice — but they insist the games have been rigged to give the customer a fighting chance. They are (l to r): Howard Wright, Bob Collocott, John Stelmel, John Goss, Buzz Snow, Jim Madigan and John Chedrick.

New Fire Law Threatens Hospitals Here

Must Install Costly Sprinkler Systems

A new obstacle in a seemingly endless series that have confronted Community General hospital since its re-opening last fall arose this week.

It threatens the existence of not only Community General, but Atchison hospital as well.

Both institutions have been informed following inspections by the state fire marshal's office that to conform with new state fire law requirements for hospitals automatic sprinkler systems must be installed in the buildings

Cost of such installations has been estimated at between $8,000 and $10,000.

According to the new law, if the hospitals fail to comply with the ruling they would not be permitted to operate beyond May 15.

Inspection of the local hospitals was made last Thursday by Sergeant Oramel O'Farrell of the state police fire marshal division. The inspector explained that a new state law governing fire regulations for hospitals became effective May 15 last year. Hospitals, he said, have been given one year to comply.

Specifically, in the case of Community General and Atchison hospitals, the law states that all hospitals of wooden construction with a second story and basement must have a fire alarm sprinkler system.

The law applies to any state hospital of more than three-bed capacity. Community General has 27 beds and Atchison 15.

The inspection and new ruling came as a surprise to both hospitals.

Paul Beard, president of the board of directors at Atchison, stated that his board would meet next week to consider the ruling.

A "medical" hospital, Atchison is located on the second floor of Atchison Clinic, 501 West Dunlap. No surgery or obstetrics are performed at Atchison. It has been operating successfully for more than 10 years. A non-profit corporation, it is governed by a seven-member board which includes, in addition to President Beard; A. Russell Clarke, vice president; Mrs. R. M. Atchison, secretary; Mrs. Walter Couse, treasurer, and Edmund Yerkes, M. C. Gussell and Edward F. Angove.

Beard indicated that the cost of a sprinkler system might be "too expensive". He pointed out that the hospital was not a "money-making" venture and that board members had always donated their time to the project without pay.

As safety precaution in the event of a fire the hospital has fire escape facilities as well as personnel on duty 24 hours.

The second-story hospital area at Atchison is of wooden construction, while the clinic, or main floor area, is of masonry construction.

The problem is just as severe at Community General. Although part of the hospital is constructed of cinder blocks, the original frame house where the old Sessions hospital began still remains.

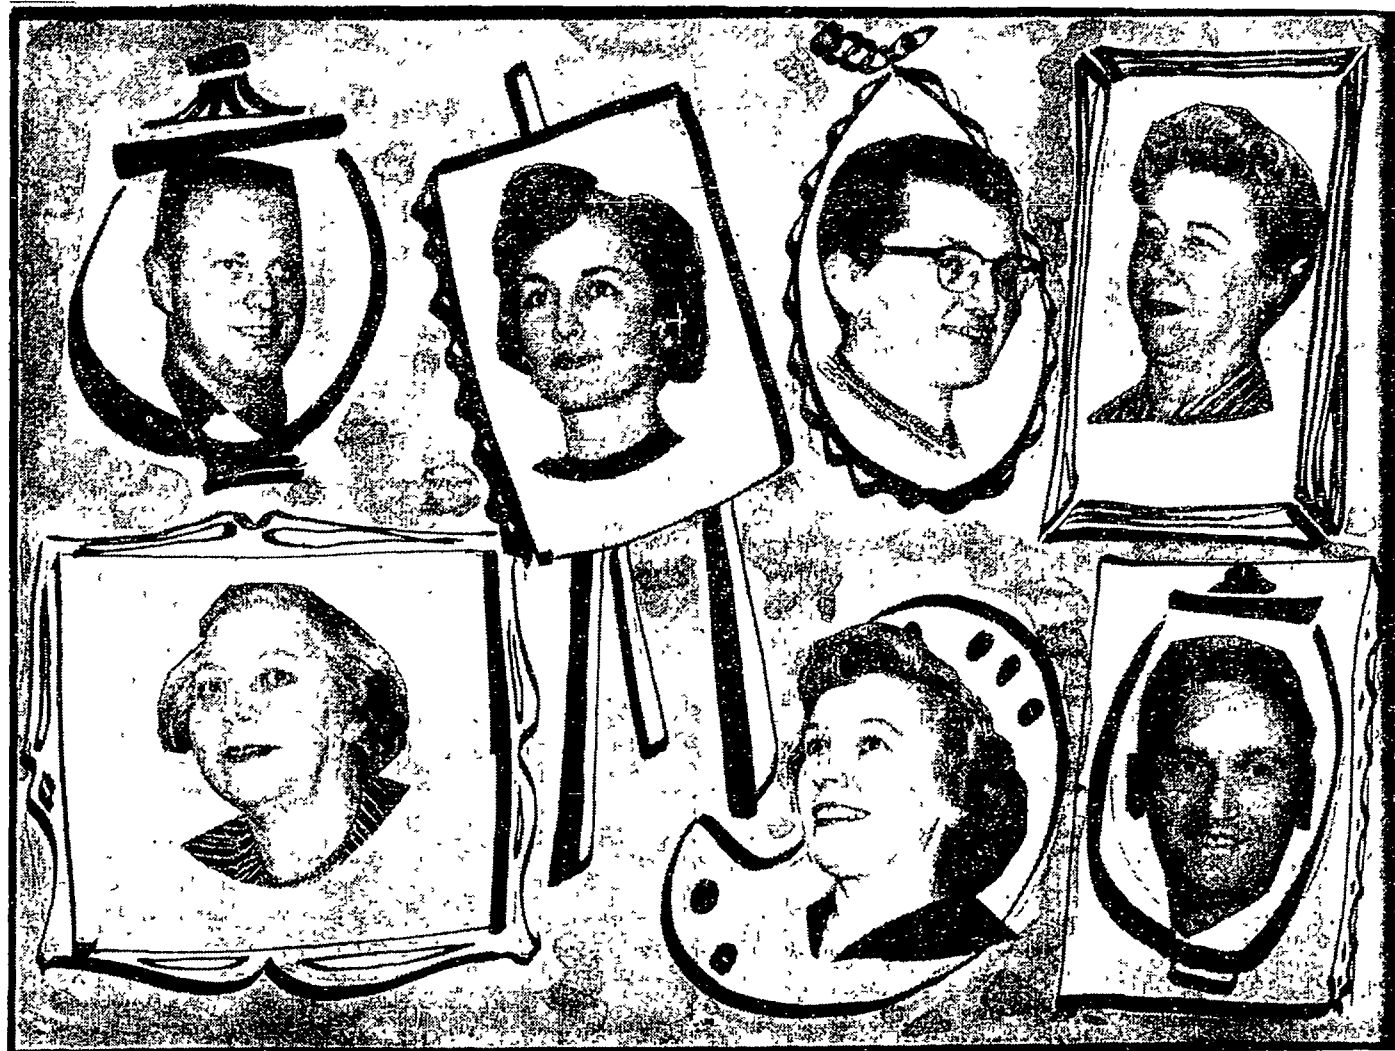

Currently the Community board of directors is struggling with financial problems dating back to last October when Blue Cross refused membership to the hospital because it was privately owned.

To overcome this, and retain the hospital facility for the area, a board of directors from the area-at-large was named to take over the operation.

Now the board, to retain its Blue Cross Plan membership, must find the financial means to purchase the entire facilities — building and equipment — from Dr. H. L. Berge and Abraham Farris. The latter two purchased the nearly-inoperable hospital last summer and completed extensive remodeling and equipment installations. They were forced to sell the hospital to the community even before operations began when the Blue Cross ruling was discovered.

Community Administrator Calvin Monfils admitted this week that the requirement had taken the board "by surprise" and was definitely a serious obstacle. He said the board was making new progress in its effort to solve its financial problems and reach a purchase agreement with the owners of the building. "We hadn't counted on this, however," Monfils stated.

Presently, Community General does not use its second floor for patients.

WHAT'S THEIR LINE? — Northville members of the Three Cities Art club — pictured here — agreed to be framed into a preview of their winter show which will be held this Saturday and Sunday at the community building. Each artist is shown silhouetted by his specialty. These will be exhibited in the show. The artists and their "lines" are top (l-r): Roy Pederson, ceramics; Barbara McKenzie, paintings; Linda Edgerton, jewelry; Marjorie Becker, paintings. Bottom (l-r): Catherine Hartley, paintings; Barbara Spaeth, paintings; and Jack Van Haren, ceramics and paintings. Works of Livonia and Plymouth members will also be shown. Exhibit hours are 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Mustang Band Wins Top Honors Again In District Festival

Northville's much praised high school band tuned up to its third straight winning performance Saturday in the annual district festival held this year at the new high school.

In turning in the stunning performance, the Northville band earned the honor of entering the state band festival to be held at Midland March 15. Last year Northville received top ratings at both the district and state meets.

Northville received a "1" rating (best conceivable performance) for the district showing of Class B schools Saturday. Clawson was the only other "B" team to receive a "1" rating.

In awarding the top rating, the four "B" judges explained that their jobs were extremely difficult this year because the performances were of a higher caliber than ever before.

Judges who rated Northville were: Harry Begian, Cass Tech High of Detroit; Leonard Merretta, Western Michigan university; Everett Kissinger, University of Illinois; and George Cavender, University of Michigan.

Close to 2,500 bandsmen from 35 area high schools were on hand for the district meet, which was held in Northville for the first time. The festival featured bands from class AA high schools down to junior high schools.

All hands competing in the festival were required to play: "Commando March" by Samuel Barber; "Allerseelen" by Richard Strauss; and "George Washington Bridge" by William Schumann.

For its special reading number (a piece of music unknown to the band) Northville drew a miniature overture by John Cavacas.

Assistant Director Robert Williams conducted the Northville band. He and Director Leslie Lee were the host faculty members.

"Citizens for Michigan" Meeting Here Friday

"Citizens for Michigan", the newly organizing statewide group seeking to resolve state problems by citizen action and interest, will hold a meeting here Friday night to establish a Northville-Plymouth area chapter.

The meeting will be held at the First Presbyterian church in Northville at 8 p.m.

5 Burglary Attempts In Business District

A rash of break-ins and attempted break-ins hit five downtown business places this week end.

Thieves entered three stores and pried open a newspaper coin box Sunday night or early Monday morning, making off with $25 in small bills and change.

By forcing a door they broke into Irvin's barber shop, 118 West Main. They entered Lyke Plumbing and Heating and Perfection cleaners, both in the same building at 116 South Center, after smashing a window and reaching in to open a door.

A door at the Kroger store had also been tampered with, police reported.

Early Saturday morning would-be-thieves were scared off by a burglar alarm after breaking a window at the Center street grocery, 113 S. Center.

Northville Police Chief Eugene King said it was possible all crimes had been committed by the same person or persons. He did not think they were the work of professional burglars, however.

Surprises Next Week!

There'll be "surprises and prizes" in 'The Record' next week certain to interest all our readers.

The message is so important that we're sending next week's edition to every home in the Northville-Nowi-Wixom area, whether they are regular subscribers or not.

This "bonus" circulation is worth nothing to advertisers, too. The full-area coverage will be provided at no extra charge for either classified or display advertisements.

One thing more — the series of articles on the early history of our area written by News Editor Jack Hoffman is being interrupted this week. It will be resumed in our March 3 edition.

Study Group Elects Officers, Sets New Program

Mrs. James Ross was elected chairman of the Northville Citizens Curriculum Study group at the organization's meeting last week.

Other elected officers are: Vice chairman, Mrs. Frank W. Angle; corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. W. Whittlesey; and recording secretary, John W. Swain, Jr.

In addition to its election, the group initiated the study of academically superior children with sub-committees in the kindergarten to third grade, fourth to sixth grade, and junior high to senior high school areas.

This new area of study is the fourth to be initiated by the study group at the request of the Northville school board.

After setting up the new study program, Mrs. Ross commented: "Because of the wide interest in this study we want all parents to know that they are welcome at any meeting of the group, either as members or as on-lookers."

Meetings are held the first and third Tuesday of each month at 8 p.m. in the junior high school library.

10-Cents Per Month Phone Hike Sought

Michigan Bell Telephone company today filed new rate schedules which would increase the price of residence service a dime a month here.

The proposed schedules, subject to approval by the state Public Service Commission, were submitted in Lansing in compliance with a recent commission order granting the company a revenue increase.

The new schedules would increase the price of all classes of residence main service 10 cents a month and most classes of business service 15 cents a month.

The price of Private Branch Exchange (PBX) trunks would go up 25 cents a month.

Other increases would apply here only to miscellaneous items such as service connection, automatic telephone answering and recording equipment, and PBX night answering service arrangements involving special equipment.

The Northville city council sent a written request to the Public Service Commission last week asking that attention be given to the manner in which the telephone rate increase was applied. The council suggested that a previous rate hike had been higher in Northville in proportion to other areas with wider free-calling privileges.

While the PSC has already granted the telephone company the right to increase its rates, the manner in which the schedule is applied must still be approved.

Abby Needed a Driveway

Moving from the well-heeled boulevards of Philadelphia into the first White House brought John and Abigail Adams face to face with the enduring facts of suburban life.

According to letters, the Adams' found "no walk, no carriage drive, no trees," and in the gentle language of the day, "not even the little house that is customarily found in the garden."

Abigail had to borrow china and silver for her first reception. And it was said she hung her laundry in one of the unfinished rooms.

These and other anecdotes about Presidents' wives were amusingly told by Mrs. D. Dwight Struthers of Grosse Pointe at Friday's meeting of the Northville Woman's club.

Mrs. Struthers covered the first 50 years in the White House with glimpses into the lives of the Adams', Jeffersons', Madisons', Monroes', Adams', Jacksons', Van Burens', Harrisons', Tylers' and Polks'.

It took John and Abigail just four large and seven small traveling cases to transfer the executive mansion from Philadelphia to Washington.

Thomas Jefferson, an intelligent and handsome man, called upon his married daughter, Martha Jefferson Randolph and family friend Dolly Madison to attend to "the entertainment of female guests" at state functions.

When Dolly Madison eventually blossomed into first ladyship in her own right, she was an instant hit.

A plump good natured woman who had a weakness for fancy turbans, Dolly had the prized ability of making everyone feel comfortable.

"Dolly Madison is a gay buxom dame," one observer noted, "Jamie, a withered up apple-jack."

But Dolly who had a way with carpenters and congressmen, could bring out a twinkle in Jamie's eye.

Elizabeth Monroe was Dolly's opposite number.

A regal, haughty beauty, she couldn't care for "anything as democratic as Washington society."

But Mrs. Struthers pointed out that the Monroes probably did more for the White House than any of the Presidents.

Going to the Monroe's socially was like going to court, and when their daughter was married she had a "New York style wedding" as it was called. Just the family.

Louisa and John Quincy Adams were the most scholarly couple, said Mrs. Struthers.

Louisa, the only first lady of foreign birth, was a native of England.

She had as many activities as Eleanor Roosevelt, the speaker declared, among them music and silkworm growing.

What a change when Andy Jackson rode into office.

His horsemen supporters galloped and yahoos'd up Pennsylvania avenue. Andy had to leap on his horse to beat them to the White House reception.

Jackson's wife, Rachael, died just before his inauguration and he planted a magnolia tree on the White House lawn in her honor. It's still blooming.

Van Buren was a widower. But in six months he had a first lady, daughter-in-law Angela Singleton Van Buren, who married his eldest son after a little matchmaking by Dolly Madison.

A socially reserved man, Van Buren was soon accused of high falutin' and dandy ways.

Harrison died in office even before his wife had a chance to arrive in the Capitol.

His successor, Tyler, was called a chilly man. Nevertheless, he fathered more children than any President.

Tyler met his second wife, Letitia at the scene of a tragic shipboard accident.

He was saved from death when Letty hid his hat, detaining him from joining several congressmen who were killed by an explosion.

Letitia was a beautiful young girl who made the most of her six months as first lady.

She affected a tiara, purple robes, ladies in waiting and a throne type seat when receiving guests.

Washington matrons just winked and waited, said Mrs. Struthers.

Sarah Polk Tyler was first lady for President Polk, a slender man who wore suits two sizes too large in hopes of correcting it "It didn't do a thing for him," Mrs. Struthers laughed.

At Polk's farewell ball, he had the first lady of first ladies on his arm.

After half a century, Dolly Madison, still a glorious figure, joined him in leading the grand march.

Four months later, both were dead.

Mrs. Struthers was introduced by Mrs. Richard Martin, chairman of the day.

Soprano Mrs. Leland Mills, accompanied by Mrs. E. Langtry, sang American folk song selections before Mrs. Struthers' talk.

A.A.U.W. Tea, Craft Show Attracts Crowd Monday

A steady caravan of cars crunched up snow-banked Bradner road and scores of smartly shod feet beat a path through the F. D. Sober garden to view craft exhibits and sip tea at the Plymouth branch AAUW tea and crafts show Monday afternoon.

Samples of needlework, tapestry and several kinds of weaving were shown in the house while visitors enjoyed tea. Meanwhile hostess, Mrs. Sober, gave demonstrations on looms in her garden studio, "nutmeg house" which had been decked out for the event with all sizes and shapes of spinning wheels, looms and handicraft tools.

Exhibitors from Northville were Mrs. T. G. Hegge, who demonstrated tapestry weaving and spinning, Mrs. Charles Yahn, Jr., English smocking and Mrs. Thomas Cummings, belt loom weaving.

Needlework by Mrs. Stuart Campbell was also displayed.

Proceeds from the show, chairmaned by Mrs. Richard Larson of Livonia, will go toward the organization's building fund. Mrs. Cummings is building fund chairman locally.

Mental Health Talk Tonight

Teachers Karen Watia and Ralph Redmond and parents Robert Beerbower and Mrs. George Jerome will play roles in a dramatic skit before the Northville P-TA tonight.

The play, which dramatizes child behavior problems, will precede a discussion on mental health led by J. Clayton Lafferty, psychological consultant with the Wayne county superintendent's office.

Lafferty's talk will be the second in a series of four programs covering various educational areas.

The meeting, to be held in the community building, will begin at 8 o'clock.

MEET THE PARTAS — Friendly Echo Valley newcomers Don and Barbara Parta pose with their three children (l-r) Karen, David and Rolf, and puppy (believe it or not) "Tauna".

February newcomers from Livonia are Don and Barbara Parta and their three children, Rolf 8, David 7 and Karen 2.

Parta, a project engineer for General Motors Ternstedt division, Detroit, is a native Detroit, and graduated from the University of Michigan.

His wife, who hails from South Dakota, attended Augustana college and the University of Michigan.

where she majored in chemistry.

A working chemist for some years, Barbara says, "I dropped out of the American Chemical Society when our second son was born."

Since then her activities have taken on a suburban color. She soon expects to set up a cub scout den in Echo Valley.

Her husband is an ex-scoutmaster.

Barbara also likes to sew. She adds that Don — a handyman's handyman — is a whiz at "home improvements". His hobby is raising tropical fish.

Son Rolf is an avid reader. "He was almost late for school this morning," Barbara says, "because he got interested in a book."

The family pet is "Tauna", a German Shepherd puppy.

"CORVAIR HANDLES BETTER, STEERS MORE EASILY, RESPONDS MUCH MORE QUICKLY AND HOLDS THE ROAD MORE SECURELY THAN ANY STOCK FOUR-DOOR SEDAN EVER MADE IN THE U.S."

If you think we're enthusiastic about Corvair, leaf through the leading automotive, sports and science magazines and see what the experts are saying. Then, by all means, drive one yourself.

"Corvair's steering is so light that at parking speeds it feels power assisted; it is so precise as to be absolutely without play, and it is fast enough to allow complete control over every situation."

—Karl Ludvigsen, Sports Cars Illustrated

"Steers like a feather and is extremely quick. . . This is a beautifully designed automobile, engineered by real pros. . ."

—Tom McCall, Mechanix Illustrated

"Most surprising thing to me outside of the excellent handling characteristics was the feeling of roominess inside. . . I didn't have the sensation of driving a small car and the headroom was greater in the Corvair than in some standard size cars. . ."

—L. H. Houck, Automotive News

"So far as shopping goes, the Corvair is a housewife's dream. It's small and easily maneuvered without any power steering, and so easily parked . . . it's a lot easier to unload a cart full of groceries into a front trunk at the supermarket than it is into a rear one."

—Rosemary Francis, Popular Science

"I want to state as firmly as I can that the Corvair handles as beautifully and is as safe as—if not safer than—any family car on the road today."

—Jim Whipple, Car Life

"There is none of the typical whine normally associated with rear-engined vehicles. Inside the car, the effect is quite unlike anything we have ever experienced. It almost seems that there is no engine, and the general effect is so quiet as to be almost uncanny."

THE SWINGING DOOR

Jesus said, "I am the door," and this affirmation opened up a new realm of thought. Here the door is not a material substance but a person. By Him one does not enter into a building but into salvation. "I am the door: by Me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out and find pasture." (John 10:9)

Can't you imagine Jesus saying, "Come into my peace, then go forth to a world in turmoil?" These are wonderful words of comfort: "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

Jesus had an inner peace, a fortress of inner strength from which He went forth to battle the enemies of man, sin in all its guises.

The followers of Jesus discovered that they needed this inner peace if they were to have spiritual power. They found it through prayer, conviction, and the knowledge that they were forgiven, redeemed men.

In all the complexity of today's life let us heed Jesus' invitation, "I am the door. Come into my peace, then go forth to a world in turmoil."

We can imagine Jesus saying, "I am the door. Come into certainty and go forth in conviction." Jesus had certainty.

At the beginning of his ministry when Jesus was at Capernaum teaching in the synagogue, "They were amazed at his way of teaching, for he taught with the ring of authority, quite unlike the Scribes." (Mark 1:22)

Jesus' word's have the ring of authority today. Jesus' actions backed up his words.

Together they made up certainty and conviction.

You know, there is a greeting that we often use that has in it more than meets the ear. You have heard someone say to you, "What do you know for sure?" Next time someone asks you this you might take some time to reflect, and then tell him the things that are sure for you — and there isn't anyone who couldn't set down some certainties.

Some I would think of in religion are: God is Love, Jesus Christ is uniquely God's Son, and in him is Salvation. "God has made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on the earth." "Whatsoever a man sows that he shall also reap."

Answer with this and the next time your friend might simply say, "Hello!"

Jesus knew things for sure. His teachings had the ring of authority, and his actions proved his words. "I am the door. Come into certainty and go forth in conviction."

Browning said,

Years make men restless — they

needs must spy

Some certainty, some sort of end

assured

Some sparkle, through from topmost

beacon-tip,

That warrants life a harbor through the haze.

Passing through the door to Christ and the Kingdom of which he is the Lord does not mean retreat. This is true advance, for to heed Christ's invitation is to open up possibilities we have scarcely dreamed on. "I am the door: by me if any man enter in he shall be saved, and shall go in and out and find pasture."

Most people think of Michigan as the automobile state.

Our fame as car makers is world-wide as it should be.

Michigan manufacturers produce 35 percent of all cars, trucks and other automotive vehicles made in the United States, including the output of their assembly plant operations in other states.

All but a handful of the major trade names of the American automotive industry designate products made or originated in Michigan.

Michigan is the home of the automotive "Big Three" — Chrysler, Ford and General Motors — as well as the business headquarters for the smaller American Motors corporation.

And it's also the home of Continental Motors of Muskegon, the world's largest manufacturer of internal combustion engines.

While the auto industry is decentralizing its production facilities, to place assembly plants closer to east coast, west coast and southern market, Michigan continues to be the core area and brain center of the industry. Of the 113 new plants built by auto makers since World War II, 44 were built in Michigan, including executive office headquarters and research and testing laboratories.

Primarily centered in Detroit — motor capital of the world — the automobile industry also reaches into many other Michigan cities the auto-making plants in Dearborn, Flint, Lansing, Pontiac, Willow Run, Wayne, Wixom, Kalamazoo and the parts and sub-assembly plants in Grand Rapids, Jackson, Saginaw, Bay City, Muskegon, Port Huron, Ypsilanti, and many others.

Famed the world over for our manufacture of motor cars, Michigan is also industrially pre-eminent in scores of other ways.

We lead the nation in the production of cereal foods metal-working machinery mobile homes salt sporting goods furniture for public buildings steel springs window shades and many other products and we are the nation's leading builder of ships and pleasure boats.

Our greatest manufacturing industries are those engaged in production of metal products and machinery processed foods chemicals and allied products printed materials and paper products and, of course, transportation equipment, including boats, buses, trucks, tractors, trailers and automobiles.

From our factories come an amazing variety of more than 2,200 manufactured products, which we can proudly label "Made in Michigan."

We have the nation's largest cement plant at Alpena the world's largest concentration of gray-iron foundries at Muskegon the largest forge at Detroit the largest book paper mill at Kalamazoo the largest horsehide tannery at Rockford.

We have the nation's No. 1 baby foods plant at Fremont the "Magic Capital of the World" at Colon, whose leading industry is the manufacture of magicians' equipment the nation's only wooden shoe factory at Holland the world's largest factory for making billiard table and bowling alley equipment at Muskegon the world's largest pharmaceutical plant at Kalamazoo.

Bay City is rated a major center of the nation's welding machine industry Marquette is the world's chief producer of charcoal briquettes.

Lansing has been called the nation's production leader in drop forging "F.O.B. Detroit" has become an industrial byword around the world.

Recently our industries have moved into the space age, with production of Jupiter missiles and Redstone missile boosters at Chrysler's Michigan Ordnance plant near Detroit guided missile destroyers by Defoe Shipbuilding company at Bay City electronic computers by Burroughs corporation in Detroit avionics equipment by Lear, Inc. in Grand Rapids and missiles, communications satellites and upper space weather recording instruments by Bendix Aviation corporation in Detroit and Ann Arbor.

Mustangs Trample Barons 77-55; Close Season Here Saturday

Scoring its highest point total of the season, Northville avenged an earlier defeat with a decisive 77-55 win over Bloomfield Hills on the local court Friday night.

In an impressive team effort — perhaps their best showing of the year — the Mustang cagers had three players scoring more than 15 points.

Guard Roger Atchinson led all scorers with 24 points, while Steve Juday hit for 19 and Wade Deal 17.

The Mustangs outscored the Barons in every quarter. Starting slowly, but gaining momentum as the game progressed, Northville "put the game away" in the third quarter.

Leading at the half, 39-31, the Mustangs jumped to a 57-40 margin at the end of the third period.

The win made it two in a row for Northville, but did not lift the cagers out of the W-O league cellar. In the first Northville - Bloomfield Hills game the Barons downed Northville, 51-38.

Both teams had good results with their one-hand push shots from the circle area, but Northville was superior around the boards. Juday and Deal were particularly effective in scoring on follow-up shots.

Tom Maron led the Barons with 23 points, while Bruce Billings scored 16.

Coach Dutch Van Ingen's cagers have two more regular season games before next week's district tourney to be staged at the local gymnasium (see page one).

Friday night the Mustangs journeyed to Clarkston for their final W-O League game. Clarkston dumped Northville, 61-52, in the first meeting here.

The regular season closes Saturday night when the Mustangs host South Lyon.

In other league contests, West Bloomfield upset high-flying Brighton 54-43; Holly turned the tide on the Trojans of Clareville, 77-67; and Milford — the team that played door mat throughout the early part of the season — nipped Clarkston, 63-58, in an overtime game.

The latest Milford victory earned the Redskins a piece of a three-way tie for first place with Clareville and Brighton. Milford and Clareville will clash tomorrow in a showdown battle for the top position. Brighton will meet Holly in its bid to gain its second straight W-O championship.

Colts Edge Bloomfield For 8th Win

Northville's junior varsity quintet spotted Bloomfield Hills 6 points at the end of the third stanza Friday then roared back with 14 points in the final period to edge the Barons, 38-36.

The victory was the eighth in 13 starts for the Colts, who have lost only one game since losing to Holly on January 15. It was the second win over Bloomfield Hills. Bloomfield Hills led the Colts throughout much of the low-scoring contest after the two teams battled to a 6-6 tie at the end of the first period. By intermission, the Barons were out front, 16-14.

Teammates Don Bronson, Frank Heidenfelder and Bryon O'Neil launched a third quarter attack which pushed the Bloomfield lead to 6 points. The Barons scored 14 points in the third quarter, while the Colts hit three field goals and four charity shots.

In the all-important final quarter, Northville netted four field goals and six free throws while holding Bloomfield to only 6 points.

Right Guard Tom Long and Center David Filken took scoring laurels for the Colts with 10 points each. O'Neil, who plays guard for Bloomfield, flipped in eight field goals and three free throws for a total of 19 points to lead his squad in scoring.

Play Finale Tonight

High Flying Frosh Shoot for 29th Win

Northville's freshmen quintet will have its guns aimed at what may be an unprecedented 29-game victory streak when it clashes with West Bloomfield here tonight in the season finale.

The odds are stacked heavily in Northville's favor, but Coach Joe Wilkinson isn't ready to predict a second season of undefeated basketball. Instead, he'll send his cagers into the game with a warning that "the season isn't over yet."

To date the high flying freshmen cagers have romped over 14 teams in compiling its amazing record this season. Coupled with last year's string, the squad can boast a two-year record of 28 victories without a loss.

West Bloomfield could put more than one feather in its hat if it up-sets Northville tonight. Earlier in the season the local squad rolled over the Lakers, 60-37.

If their latest two games, the Northville cagers smashed Clarkston, 67-44, Thursday, and then rolled over Brighton Monday, 68-48.

Craig Bell fired 20 points in the first game, 25 in the second contest to lead his team in scoring in both games. Tom Swiss scored 16 points in the first game, while Don Biery netted 10 points in the first contest, 18 in the second.

Quarter scores: Clarkston, 18-5, 14-19, 11-8, 24-12; Brighton, 13-5, 18-8, 21-17, 16-18.

Safety Is No Accident

With Michigan continuing to rank high on the list in traffic deaths, it is time each of us who drives a motor vehicle takes a solemn oath to do something about it . . . Like the professional truck driver who makes his livelihood piloting a truck or truck-trailer over our streets and highways, we need to know the rules of safe driving and practice them. Safety is no accident — it's planned that way . . . Obey all traffic laws, be courteous, drive "defensively" (trying to anticipate the other fellow's move), be sure your vehicle is in good mechanical condition. There are other sound rules, but these are four of the most important and if you'll practice them conscientiously you'll help to save a life—and it may be yours!

NOTICE TO DOG OWNERS

IN THE CITY OF NORTHVILLE

There will be no dog vaccination clinic in the City of Northville during the month of February, 1960, as has been the custom in the past. Those dogs that were vaccinated by Dr. Tom Heslip at the clinic in 1959, were given the live modified vaccine, which is effective for a two-year period; therefore dog owners who have their vaccination certificates for the year 1959 issued by Dr. Heslip will be able to get their dog licensed for 1960 on the strength of this certificate.

Those dog owners who have dogs that have not been vaccinated, or did not receive the live modified vaccine will be required to take their dog to a veterinarian to be vaccinated. All dogs must be licensed on or before March 1st, 1960. Licenses can be obtained at the City Hall.

Local Students Win Art Awards

Four Northville high school students were awarded gold keys for art work entered in the 18th annual regional Scholastic Art Awards exhibition Saturday.

The Northville entry was the first in the history of the exhibition, art instructor Jack VanHaren explained Monday.

The winning students are Kathleen Cassel, John Gazlay, Harold Hartley and Carol Simon. Hartley won his key for photography, the others won with paintings. Linda Bulmon and Carol Morse were awarded certificates for their paintings.

The exhibition, which opened Saturday for two weeks in the auditorium of Crowley, Milner & Co., includes works by hundreds of students from a six-county area.

More than 1,000 pieces of art, ranging from painting and weaving to jewelry and graphics, are on exhibit under the co-sponsorship of Crowley's and The Detroit News.

Of the hundreds of art works, 150 have been selected by a panel of judges to be entered in the national competition in New York. National awards include 400 gold medals, more than 100 tuition scholarships, and many other honor awards and cash prizes.

Four pictures by Hartley were judged among the finest in the exhibition and will be entered in the national contest.

In judging the regional exhibition at Detroit, a panel of men and women cut the number of the original 3,500 entries from 86 schools to 1,040.

Win Ferris Honors

Two Northville students are among the 434 Ferris Institute students who were named to the Dean's Honors list for academic excellence during the fall quarter, Dr. Ardwin J. Dolio, vice president for academic affairs has announced.

To be named to the dean's honors list a student must maintain at least a B average while carrying a full academic load.

The Northville students are Gary E. Holman, trade and industrial, and Barbara Rollings, specialized education.

READERS SPEAK:

Only 60 Years Off!

To the Editor:

I am interested in your articles about Northville history, but think the statement (February 11) which you quote from the late Charles Dubuar must be an error about the first settlement being in 1885. It should probably be 1835.

My husband's grandfather, the late M. Starr Northrop, came to Michigan via the Erie Canal in 1837, settling on the Northrop farm two miles west of Northville on the Seven Mile road.

Eliza M. Northrop
(Mrs. Floyd A. Northrop)

Editor's Note: Mrs. Northrop is correct. Dubuar actually said the first settlement in Plymouth township was in 1825.

LET'S KEEP CLEAN

NOTE: The following two letters came from Helen McCarthy's third grade class at the Main street school.

To the Editor:
I am glad Northville won the Cleanest City award this year. You can help keep Northville clean by not throwing papers on the ground. I think if we keep Northville clean again next year maybe we can win the award.

Kay Sterling

I don't know what you think about Northville winning the cleanest city award but I personally wish we could win it again. It looks very clean and beautiful and that's the way it should stay.

SPEAKING for the Record

By Bill Sliger

All of the city's problems are not always confined to the limits of its borders.

A good case in point is the water service to a handful of township customers.

No one is quite clear on how the circumstances came about (there's nothing in writing), but the fact remains that some 41 residences in Bloomcrest subdivision out West Main street are receiving city water service.

About 10 more homes in the Clement road - Orchard drive area are also served on this city line. A few others are scattered. The township customers pay "double rates".

Admittedly, their service is bad. They receive their water through a four-inch line (apparently paid for by the developer of the subdivision many years ago) that is adequate to service about 10 homes.

And even though the council's first concern must be to residents of the city, no governing body operating a utility (like the water department) likes to have dissatisfied customers.

The matter came to light again recently when a lot-owner in the area desirous of building a house asked if city water would be available. Temporarily, at least, the council turned thumbs down. They took the attitude that service to the township users is bad enough without making it worse.

Now they are checking the cost of enlarging the line and providing proper pressure to the area (most of the homes are on high ground). Presumably, if the home-owners want to stand the cost of improving the facilities, the city will accommodate them.

But then a question of policy is certain to arise. If township home-owners abutting water lines are willing to pay for water line installations to their area, and they will pay double rates, how far does the city go?

It's a question confronting many cities. Some treat their water department as a separate, self-supporting utility seeking all the customers it can serve. Others, like Northville, have said no outside customers at all.

But welcome or not, Northville has township customers—at least a handful—and therefore a responsibility to provide service.

The results of the drawings for the annual "Mayors Exchange Day", highlight of the Michigan Week celebration, have been announced.

Northville will exchange with Hartford; Novi with Thompsonville, and Wixom with the U.P. community of Iron Mountain. Michigan Week will be held the week of May 15.

This ought to be of interest to bowlers. The day might not be far off when you'll be rolling on granite alleys. According to Mayor Mike Allen, who operates Allen Monument Works, the Rock of Ages company has completed tests and will now market a solid slab granite alley!

Tax-Hedge Investments

Babson Park, Mass. — The wise investor is anxious to hedge against three main handicaps: (1) Inflation, (2) labor leaders and (3) taxes. Let us consider, this week, hedging against taxes. These will surely be more serious each year.

Non-Taxable Bonds

All non-taxable bonds are cheaper than they have been for years. The "full faith" Municipals are rated best; but I think that most of the turnpike Revenue Bonds are fairly good at their current prices. If you buy them now and later do not like them, you can probably sell them at a profit. You need not keep them until maturity.

When loaning money on mortgage it is wise to make a fairly low rate of interest, plus your approximate income tax. Then your mortgage interest will be net. Certainly, in the case of rents you should insist that the tenant pay the taxes as part of the rent. This has many advantages and is fair to all parties. Of course, there is no way to hedge against "death taxes" except by giving money away before you die. I will discuss this later.

Duties on Imported Goods

Certain cities, such as Buffalo, offer opportunities to buy foreign goods that are selling at very low prices in Germany, Japan and other countries. You must stay 48 hours outside the U.S.A. and are limited to $200 in purchases at any one time; but you can make purchases as often as you wish. This is the only honest way to avoid import taxes.

Various other means can be found to save taxes on merchandise. These include "sales taxes", which can be avoided most easily by persons living near the borders of certain states. There also are allowances which your tax return permits you to make on doctors' bills, medical costs, hospital charges, benevolent gifts to churches, etc.; also exemptions for certain children, and other deductions. You can secure a list of these from your local bank.

National Federation of Independent Business

If you are an average businessman as well as an investor, you should at once join the National Federation of Independent Business, Inc. Its headquarters are at Burlingame, California. This association has secured some helpful tax and other legislation from Congress. The most helpful man is C. Wilson Harder, president.

When the federal agents check your income tax payment, they will be absolutely honest as to the mathematics. If you have paid too much they will tell you so, just as they would if you had paid too little. But they will not tell you how you could have saved tax money. It therefore will pay every taxpayer to employ some accountant in his locality to make out his tax return. This will save the taxpayer money — the charge will not exceed $25 and will perhaps be less. Don't be "penny wise and pound foolish".

What About Death Taxes?

These are very hard to avoid if you are married and leave an estate of over $120,000 (if single $60,000), but the federal tax can be reduced in various ways. If you are young or middle-aged, give a certain amount to your heirs every year. You can give $3,000 annually free of tax. You also are allowed to give annually from 20 to 30 percent of your net income to religious, educational and scientific bodies. Such gifts I make regularly; this is really a joy.

The large investor, however, who misses this "joy of giving" and is trying to be the "richest man in the cemetery" has another means of cutting death taxes. Certain U.S. Government Bonds can now be bought at a discount of about 15 percent or more which will be accepted at par in payment of death taxes.

Curfew for Juveniles?

A PRESSING PROBLEM facing Michigan lawmakers this year is the search for means of stemming the tide of juvenile delinquency.

Juvenile delinquency affects less than 3 percent of school-age youngsters, yet it constitutes a major factor in the eventual total cost of crime.

The legislature recognized this problem two years ago and set up a study committee, headed by Rep. Harry DeMaso (R-Battle Creek), to study it.

Drastic measures, at least for those involved, were proposed in bill form by DeMaso's committee.

A statewide curfew proposal would set 10 p.m. as deadline for children under 12 and midnight for those under 16.

One proposal called "revolutionary" by DeMaso would provide up to $200 fine for parents violating probate court orders on child supervision.

Conservation camps for youthful offenders and a juvenile delinquency study center also were proposed.

A "shock attack" approach to the juvenile delinquency problem is getting support.

Perhaps the most startling approach has been the sentencing practices of Calhoun Circuit Judge Alfonso A. Magnotta, who has put youthful offenders in solitary confinement on meager diets of bread, milk, water and vitamin pills.

A church group asked the state Supreme Court to investigate Magnotta's practice. The court refused.

Justice George Edwards let it be known several weeks later he didn't think much of Magnotta's approach. He said he considered such practices to be in violation of state law, public policy and judicial ethics.

"The restricted diet provision is neither original nor novel," said Edwards. "In varying forms it has been used in the history of punishment for centuries. In most civilized countries it has been abandoned because experience showed that it did not work."

Edwards is of the school that says social revenge and harsh punishment rarely help.

Somewhere, either to one extreme or to the middle, there may be an answer to juvenile problems. Michigan is a leader in the search.

AN EXODUS of aides from Governor Williams' camp early this year just about cleared out the original crowd around the Governor when he first took office.

In a brief period it was announced that Paul Weber, Williams' press secretary, was going to work for the Civil Service Commission; legal aide Alfred B. Pitt was going to work for a U.S. Senate subcommittee; and administrative aide William Monat was going to the faculty of Pennsylvania State college.

Weber was the only male oldtimer left. Pretty Julie Lawler, Williams' personal secretary, and other secretaries on the original staff remained.

A clue that Williams would not seek reelection was seen by many in the staff exits but few were willing to bet on it.

Weber insists the Governor's decision was not known at the time his aides made their decisions.

Weber said Monat wanted to return to the campus life, Pitt wanted to broaden his experience as a lawyer, "and I want to make a buck."

A FORMER GOVERNOR'S son is making a bigger than usual splash in his maiden plunge into politics.

Although a newcomer, Sen. John Fitzgerald (R-Grand Ledge) is considered to be in the "inner" circle of that exclusive club, the State Senate.

He is sponsor of the resolution that will, if given a two-thirds vote in the Legislature, put a sales tax hike proposal on the Nov. 8 ballot.

Capitol veterans say John has the same mannerisms of his father, the late Gov. Frank D. Fitzgerald.

His grandfather, after whom he was named, was a member of the House of Representatives just before the turn of the century.

Before he was elected to the Senate in 1958, Fitzgerald was legal advisor to the Senate Judiciary committee.

Like most GOP senators, Fitzgerald is often critical of the "liberal" leadership of the Republican State Central Committee. When the committee adopted a resolution favoring calling of a constitutional convention, Fitzgerald said he feared it was trying to "ram" something down the throat of the voter.

However, he has been more prone to compromise than many senate Republicans.

Make Census Takers Show Their Credentials

An individual who falsely represents himself as an enumerator in the 1960 Census of Population and Housing is taking a chance which might result in a $1,000 fine and three years in prison. A warning that pretenders will be prosecuted under Federal law has been issued by the Bureau of the Census, U.S. Department of Commerce.

The Census Bureau advises that householders should request persons representing themselves to be Census enumerators to show their credentials. If the individual refuses to show his credentials he is not a census taker and householders should notify the police. While the main work of enumerating the population begins on April 1, some field work for the Census of Housing already is under way.

The 1960 census taker will wear a badge, printed in color (red, white, blue) bearing the official seal of the United States Department of Commerce, with the word "ENUMERATOR" superimposed on it. The enumerator will also be carrying a portfolio bearing the legend "1960 Census of the United States" and containing official Census report forms. To take the 1960 Census, the Census Bureau will employ about 160,000 enumerators and 10,000 crew leaders to supervise them.

All individuals are required by law to furnish the census takers with the information covered in the 1960 census inquiries and the census takers are sworn to treat all such information confidentially. The Census Bureau uses the information only to compile statistical summaries which are published only in such form that information about individuals is not disclosed.

FASCINATING FACTS ABOUT NATURAL GAS

Product of Mother Nature

The scientific explanation for the origin of Natural GAS is unknown—but everyone knows Mother Nature produced it. One theory is that over a period of millions of years, plankton (primitive sea life) was distilled into Natural GAS by extreme heat and pressure and Mother Nature covered and protected it with layers of rock.

A Benefit to Man

Man reaps increasing benefits from Natural GAS — it is a superb fuel.* It is also a rich mixture of hydrocarbons used as raw material in the manufacture of plastics, fertilizers, etc. It is ideal for processing glass, metals, food — because of its cleanliness, controlled heat and economy.

*It is America's favorite fuel for home heating. Seven out of ten new homes built today use Natural GAS for heating. Consumers Power Company is rendering greater service to more and more GAS customers every year.

PLAIN MURDER

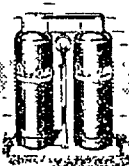

The sixth commandment says, "Thou shalt not kill." Last year better than 13,000 people were murdered in cold blood here in the United States. That is one every 40 minutes. 17,000 committed suicide which is self-murder. 900,000 abortions were committed. We think of the terrible purges in dictator-ruled countries. Since 1918, 255,078 ministers of the Gospel have been liquidated by Communists. Hitler and his Nazi henchman exterminated 6 million Jews. And so it goes! Now no doubt among the readers of this column we will not find potential killers in this report. However, there were over 100,000 people killed by auto "accidents" in our country. We wonder how many of these were really unavoidable "accidents" or how many were due to carelessness and negligence. A man may as well be careless with a loaded and cocked shotgun in a crowd on Main street as to be careless with the wheel of a car in his hand. Murder caused by careless driving is a crime against man and sin against God. This commandment does not include truly accidental deaths, capital punishment, or serving in the army in times of war. God values human life — do you?
