

Merchants offer $1,000 in Prizes for Downs' Event

Twenty-six Northville merchants will be celebrating the second annual Downs' Days event during the next eight days.

Sponsored by the Retail Merchants association and the Downs, the event will be climaxed on Saturday, June 23 with a special program for adults and children at the Downs in the afternoon. On that evening a host of prizes will be awarded downtown on Main street.

Tickets for the prizes will be given customers by the 26 participating starting tomorrow (Friday).

Top prize will be a Toro riding rotary mower that bags grass. Other outstanding prizes will include footwear, record albums, dry cleaning, summer furniture, etc.

Complete details of the June 23 program will be published next week. For sponsoring firms, see page nine.

Wider Track, Brighter Lights Greet Trotters

Northville Downs will have a brand new look—improved by an expenditure of some $500,000—when it opens its 17th harness racing season Monday night.

Immediately visible to the eye will be a wider track, brighter lights and new, modern horse barns.

The project to improve the Downs was announced last year by executive Manager John J. Carlo.

His plans call for spending $2,000,000 over a five-year period—and since the close of last year's meet he has completed about one-fourth of the job.

During the past year the track has been widened by 18 feet to permit eight horses to start abreast, instead of six with two trailing as in past years.

A new hubrail encircles the reseeded infield, while new lights double the illumination of the track.

Some 352 new stalls in winter type barns with 30 modern tack rooms have also been built.

Carlo has stated that his improvement program will include all new barns, a rebuilt grandstand and a $500,000 clubhouse on the first turn where bleachers are now located.

To complete the entire program Carlo said satisfactory negotiations with the Driving club, the Northville corporation owning the track property, would have to be reached.

One of the most outstanding features of the new barn along the backstretch (southern end) of the track is the pet project of Carlo's. The 40-stall barn has 30 tack rooms atop the barn completely insulated and electrically heated. Grooms can live here and wander out of the quarters onto the balcony.

By next year the board will be constructed atop the western end of this 400-foot barn clearly visible to fans in the stands across the infield.

With 39 nights Northville will enjoy three more racing dates than last year. Evidence that the improved facilities will attract better stables has already been noted with the receipt of some 1,000 applications.

Horsemen are expected to bring 800 horses to the Downs' meet. Stalls for 617 are available at the Downs, while nearby accommodations will be arranged for the remainder.

To make things even more interesting, the Downs is experimenting with a race program that includes one stake, the $12,000 HTA trot, and the six invitational. The traditional stakes have been dropped.

"The invitational will send the best trotters and pacers stabled at Northville against the top stars from Buffalo, Cleveland, Columbus and Chicago and will bring new names to our track each week. We know it will create a great deal of interest in our week end events," says Carlo.

The Northville leg of the HTA trot is scheduled for Saturday, July 30, and will bring most of the nation's outstanding four-year-olds to the Detroit area.

The schedule for the invitational exchanges: Friday, June 24, trot; Friday, July 1, pace; Friday, July 8, trot; Friday, July 15, pace; Friday, July 22, trot; and Friday, July 29, pace.

WIDER TRACK and brighter lights will greet harness racing fans when Northville Downs opens its 17th season Monday night. The track's new lighting system, which doubles the illumination, was tested for the first time last Friday evening. Widened by 18-feet the track now permits 8 horses to start abreast.

Cut-off Nears Finish; Novi Road Work Starts

Completion of the Eight Mile cutoff within the month is likely to mark the beginning of construction on Novi road between Northville and Grand River, county officials said this week.

According to Martin Strasen, Wayne county road engineer for this area, the cutoff probably will be opened to traffic before July 1. The highway probably would be opened earlier, he said, but for a delay in construction of the bridge over the C&O railroad.

Meanwhile, a tree removal crew began moving in equipment last week in preparation for work along Novi road. Oakland county officials point optimistically to a construction kickoff date before the end of the month. Completion of this project has been set for November 1.

Construction of the $1,500,000 Eight Mile road cut off, which extends from Eight Mile road, east of Novi road, to Taft road, began two years ago next month with the removal of the first home located on what was then called Carlyle street. All the homes along this street eventually were moved.

Grading of the 1.5 miles of roadway began last year. Paving, which began last month, has been completed except for approaches to intersections and the strip of roadway over what is now Novi road.

With the completion of the latter strip of concrete, the present Novi road will end just north of the C&O railroad. The new relocated southern section of Novi road will angle to the west near the entrance of the Village Green subdivision and pass over the Rouge river and continue on up to the relocated Baseline road.

Motorists driving south on Novi road who wish to turn east on Eight Mile road must take the Novi road approach lane mentioned above to the cutoff and make a left-hand turn on the new highway. Motorists must use this same route to get to north-bound Novi road.

The 22-foot concrete roadway will pass over the present Novi road, which will be filled with dirt—not covered by a bridge, continue west across Center street and between the new high school on the south and the Amerman school and high school athletic property on the north.

Oakland county officials this week revealed that the O. E. Gooding Contracting company of Saginaw had been awarded the Novi road paving contract for its bid of $288,452. Robert O. Felt, chairman of the Oakland county road commission, has explained that the federal government will pay approximately half of this total cost.

The road will be completely torn up, according to Felt, and its road bed will be widened. Hills will be cut down to improve sight distance and drainage will be improved.

At Least They Left his Car

Richard Willing, 19333 Smock road, probably won't leave his keys in his car unattended again. He did this last week when he parked his car on Griswold near Main street. When he returned, the car was still there, but his keys were missing.

A note said: "keys will be on the fourth telephone pole on West Seven Mile road".

Willing reported the incident and police drove him to the West Seven Mile road utility pole where, true to their word, the pranksters had left his keys.

Plans call for two, 12-foot lanes of concrete roadway—not asphalt—with approximately 40 feet of road right-of-way which includes the road itself.

The roadway will be widened to four lanes at the 10 Mile, Flint and Grand River intersections.

Approximately 170 trees, ranging in size from 8 to 37 inches in diameter, will be removed. Tree removal work was expected to get underway this week.

Meadowbrook, Taft and Beck roads will be used as north-south detour routes during construction, road officials said several weeks ago. During the period of construction, these village roads will be maintained by the county—which includes the laying of chloride.

Officials have indicated that reconstruction of the road north from Grand River to Walled Lake probably will be started within the next two or three years.

No License Office Here Until August

Northville area residents wishing to obtain vehicle licenses will have to continue using the Plymouth branch of the Secretary of State's license bureau until August.

Assistant Secretary of State Gordon Traye stated this week that a new office would be opened in Northville in August.

The Main street office was closed following the injury of Branch Manager John Litsenberger, who fainted and suffered a concussion while on duty. Litsenberger was discovered lying face down in his office by two customers and taken to Community General hospital.

His condition has improved and he is now recuperating at home.

Better Buy Those Dog Licenses Now!

Owners of unlicensed dogs have been warned by Police Chief Eugene King that a house-to-house check is being conducted by the Northville police department and violation tickets issued where dogs are not licensed.

Chief King said that dog licenses have lagged this year. New licenses were due in February. The police are checking the 1959 sales against the 1960 reports and contacting each owner who has not purchased a license.

The fine for no dog license is $3. Licenses may be obtained at the city hall.

Postmaster Hospitalized

Northville Postmaster Leland V. Smith is confined to Community General hospital where his condition is reported as "fair".

Smith was taken to the hospital Saturday after becoming suddenly ill Friday evening.

Township Residents Protest Outdoor Theater Zoning

More than 100 Northville township residents, along with several citizens and officials from adjacent communities, crowded into the township hall Tuesday night to protest the proposed rezoning of 21 acres for an outdoor theater site.

The site is located at the northwest corner of Five Mile road and the extension of Eckles road. It is in the extreme southeast corner of the township in the Plymouth school district.

Following the two hour-long public hearing, E. G. Sprunk, chairman of the zoning board, indicated that the board probably would make its decision on the matter within a month—but not before it had studied all arguments for and against the proposed zoning change.

If the board makes a recommendation to rezone, the matter must still go to the county coordinating council and finally to the township board for final action.

Among those persons who spoke against the rezoning—and specifically the theater—were representatives of the planning boards in Plymouth township and the city of Livonia. Both indicated that rezoning of the area would be detrimental to their communities.

Three separate petitions containing signatures of residents objecting to the theater were presented to the board.

Primary objections by residents of the township included: the theater would have an adverse effect on property values; would create a traffic hazard on Five Mile road, which according to several persons is already overloaded; would create dust problems on side streets; would result in extensive noise; would give rise to moral problems; and would not bring in a "good" tax base.

Speaking in favor of the theater, Roy Thompson, one of the three men promoting the project, explained that the site was extremely low and not suited for residential development, that the theater would be operated in such a way as to create as little nuisance as possible, that it would provide taxes for the township and the Plymouth school district, and would provide good entertainment for area residents.

An attorney for the promoters read letters from police in Redford, Farmington township and Wayne county road patrol, in which police authorities stated that outdoor theaters in their areas do not require their traffic control, that complaints of moral problems are few, and that accident rates have not increased because of the theaters.

Thompson and his attorney were the only persons present who spoke in favor of the rezoning and the theater.

Specifically, the zoning board has been asked to change the zoning classification from R-1-M to M-1. Option to a total of 34 acres has been taken by Thompson, John Kline and Arthur Kobierzynski.

Elect Angove, Becker, Johnson, Kipfer to Board

Northville school district voters, by more than a 2-1 majority supported the recommendation of the board of education and city council Monday and approved purchase of the Community Building for $145,000.

At the same time 916 ballots were cast in the election of Incumbent Dr. Waldo T. Johnson and James F. Kipfer for four year terms and Edward F. Angove and Wilfred C. Becker for three-year terms to the school board.

Taxpayers school district electors voted 488 YES to 212 NO to permit the school district to purchase the Community Building from the city of Northville.

Despite heavy daylong rains, the turnout was considered good. The total vote was less than 25 percent of the registration, but was still four times greater than last year's school election.

The heavy approval of the Community Building transaction must certainly be considered a vote of confidence for school officials; the board of education and city council.

A strong campaign to win support for the project had been carried on in recent weeks by school and city officials through newspaper articles and public talks.

Owned by the city, the building was constructed in 1934 but has been under lease to the school district for $1.00 per year since construction. Through joint meetings the school board and council hit upon the plan of turning ownership of the building over to the school system.

After gaining state approval to use existing bond monies originally earmarked for another school site, the school district then had to ask voter permission to buy the building with proceeds remaining from the $3 million 1956 bond issue.

The city council has declared its intention to use the money to provide new city hall facilities. A city hall study committee completed a report in April and unanimously agreed that there was a need for larger facilities. The committee's first recommendation was to construct a new city hall at the present site.

Just how fast the council will move on the city hall project is undetermined. After the transaction has been finally completed with the school district, it is anticipated that a planning program will be adopted.

In the race for four seats on the school board incumbent Johnson and Angove, running for the first time, won handily. Johnson led the four-year term candidates with a whopping 511 total, while Angove topped the three-year termers with 381 votes.

Becker won over Dr. Eastland by the narrowest of margins, 257-256, for the second three-year term.

A newcomer who has lived in Northville about 1 1/2 years, Kipfer pulled a mild surprise by winning a four-year term with 362 votes. He edged Gazlay by 26 votes.

The three new board members will join Dr. Johnson, who has been board treasurer, and William Crump, Donald Lawrence and Robert Shaffer.

The four openings on the board resulted from the expansion of fourth class school districts with 12 grades from five to seven members. Board President Nelson C. Schrader did not seek re-election.

In Novi incumbent school board candidates were defeated by Walter Ambinder and John MacBride. The winner had 240 and 174 votes, respectively, while Incumbents Jack Crawford and Dr. Harold Morris received 86 and 75 votes. A fifth contestant for the two board openings was William Dean who recorded 94 votes.

Rev. Taxis Accepts New Post

The Rev. John O. Taxis, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Northville since 1955, announced Sunday that he will conclude his pastorate here August 28 to accept a post at the First Presbyterian church of Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

The Rev. Taxis will serve as an associate pastor of the Florida church with responsibility for directing the total Christian education program.

A meeting of the congregation has been called for Wednesday, June 22 at which time a vote to concur with Rev. Taxis' request will be taken. Subsequently, commissioners will be elected to represent the congregation at the Presbytery of Detroit on June 28 to report the result of the vote.

Procedure then calls for a pulp committee to be elected to seek a successor.

The farewell sermon for the popular Presbyterian minister is scheduled for August 28. He announced that he and his family will follow their customary practice of vacationing during the month of July.

During his pastorate in Northville the Rev. Taxis can point to a record of expansion. The church entered 1958 debt-free after completing payments of $16,000 on a renovation program and $7,000 on the Manse property. Purchases of property adjacent to the church for proposed future expansion were made in April, 1958.

Other highpoints of his stay in Northville include: some 300 new members, tripling of average Sunday school attendance; dual church services; establishment of a choir award program, summer student pastor program, church school summer day camp; and development of the daily vacation Bible school program upon a "public school" basis.

The Rev. Taxis' "Children's Pulpit" during the early church service has proven highly popular and a unique source of religious training for the youth of the church.

In his new capacity, which he will assume September 1, the Rev. Taxis will be working primarily with the youth of the 1,800-member church.

Efforts to seek a home in Fort Lauderdale are now being made and the Rev. and Mrs. Taxis and their daughters, Linda, 15, and Barbara, 8, will move immediately after August 28.

"We've got everything here: fine neighbors, a million dollar view, parks, beautiful schools, and shopping just a few blocks away or in Plymouth," the young couple chorused.

In fact, "nothing" could attract the John Gibbons back to Detroit where they lived up until several months ago. They are finding too many assets in Northville to ever consider the change.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibbons live with their three young children in a modest frame house at 41980 East Seven Mile road. They wanted an older house, one that they could remodel to their liking. Much of the interior work has already been done — but according to Mrs. Gibbons, "we have a lot of work to do — especially with the outside."

The interior of the house is a "show room" for Gibbons' exciting hobby and occupation — antiques.

Just wandering in conversation with Gibbons and his wife as they trace their daily activities in this exciting field is a rich experience.
Gibbons began buying and selling antiques as a youngster. Later, he turned to selling foreign automobiles. But his old hobby grew until finally he decided to make it his "bread winner". Neither Gibbons or his wife regret the change.

Although Gibbons buys and sells all kinds of antiques, his greatest interest lies in the collection of antique cars. And he has a small but valuable collection of these tiny vehicles that enchanted youngsters of the 20's and 30's. Seeing them is a nostalgic experience.

For the Gibbons' children, Anna 7,
John 6, and Mike 5, the collection must be a real temptation — almost as if you were to collect ice cream cones. But, fortunately, for Gibbons and the children, there's plenty of fun in a new home: new friends, open space, trees — and the family's pet dog, "Sandy".

Clouds No Threat To Art Exhibit

Despite threatening rain clouds the Three Cities Art club's annual outdoor exhibit went off as scheduled last Saturday in Kellogg park in Plymouth.

Interesting demonstrations went on all day, one of the most popular being a weaving exhibit by Mrs. Kathleen Edgerton of Northville Studios on Randolph street.

Also of great interest was the pottery wheel demonstration by Roy Pedersen of Northville schools.

First prize in the Fine Arts division was awarded to Hal Stein for his gay oil, "Betrothtal". Second prize in this division went to Shirely Denison for her wax sculpture

"Maternity".

Both first and second prize
cash awards went to Lynn Dean Schmiedekne for a ceramic bowl and a woven beige and brown stole. The prize money was donated by Plymouth Rotary club and by Pease Paint company.

A feature of the annual exhibit is the audience popularity voting. Their choice this year was Marjorie Becker-er's water color, "Farm House" and to Roy Pedersen for a large ceramic bowl.

Mrs. Becker lives on Timberlane in Northville and Pedersen teaches in Northville schools.

Mothers to Launch "Summer Roundup"

Six teams of mothers, one from each of the six kindergarten classes, will launch a "P-T-A Summer Roundup" telephone campaign within the next week.

According to Mrs. Donald Robinson, chairman of the campaign, the purpose of the roundup is to remind parents of children who will enter kindergarten next fall not to forget that their children must have medical checkups before school starts in September.

Close to 160 children will be enrolled in Northville kindergarten classes next fall.

Should parents of these children lose the health record blanks they were given last month, they may secure "an extra" at the school or from most Northville doctors' offices, Mrs. Robinson said.

The mother-teams are: Mrs. Stanton Schaefer and Mrs. Linwood Snow; Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. William Weidner; Mrs. William Light and Mrs. Herman Toussaint; Mrs. Arnold Anderson and Mrs. William Walker; Mrs. Blake Couss and Mrs. Harold Penn; Mrs. Essie Nridner and Mrs. Lewis Alexander.

Adjourns Hearing On Assessments

Some 22 residents of Oakwood subdivision attended a public hearing Monday night called by the city council to establish a special assessment district to charge Oakland county residents of the city for use of the Wayne county interceptor sewer.

The hearing was adjourned after two hours and numerous questions until July 25.

While the residents attending the hearing agreed they had a responsibility to pay for the sewer service (which has already been charged by the county to Wayne county residents of the city), several questions were posed.

A fear that use of the special assessment ordinances might lead to a precedent for other projects, such as paving, was denied by the council. It was pointed out that the system would be used when necessary and that it provided for public hearings before enforcement.

The council was also asked to consider delay of levying the assessment properties not enjoying benefits of the sewer; and to request the county to waive the assessment until the ban on constructing new sewers is lifted in Wayne county.

The charge is based on a cost of $100 per acre. Individual lot owners in Oakwood subdivision will pay an average total of $20. The city is picking up half of the cost for residents of the original city limits.

Doors to the custodian's room, bookstore and general offices were pried open. An all-metal vault door in the general offices was also forced open, but the vandals were unable to open the safe. The safe was tipped over and the door badly damaged, police stated. A flashlight was reported missing from Principal E. V. Ellison's office.

ALL SUMMER FURNITURE TO BE CLOSED OUT AT 20% OFF

A SALE WITH A REASON - NOT JUST AN EXCUSE - DON'T MISS IT

Due to the death of Mr. Irving E. Blunk and the retirement of other key members of Blunk's, Inc. and other personnel changes, the decision has been made to liquidate — sell out all furniture and bedding to the public at most unusual price reductions. DRASTIC MEASURES HAVE BEEN TAKEN TO CLOSE OUT THESE STOCKS TO THE BARE WALLS.

When reorganization plans are completed certain present members of the organization, plus the possible addition of new members will take over the new management. They will have free rein to replenish — restock in the manner that the demands indicate.

The response to this ABSOLUTE CLOSE OUT SALE so far has been tremendous — we just could not take care of the huge crowds of people who came in. We have made extra arrangements to cope with this condition for the balance of the sale, and to those of you who were not properly taken care of, let us assure you that we will do so now.

Mr. I. E. Blunk passed away this past week, and we closed the store all day Friday, June 10th. If this has inconvenienced you we are sorry. Please accept our regrets. As quickly as possible we are bringing our warehouse stocks to our selling floors. New bargains will be ready for you tonight when the doors open at 6 o'clock.

Need 6 nice large bedrooms? This nice 3 apt. home could be converted to a 6 bd. rm. single home for about $20,000. Of course, it now brings in a rental of $110 per mo. and leaves the extra net entire first floor for the present owner. This property, nicely located, with only $2500 dn. and $95 mo. should go faster than free ice cream at a Boy Scout picnic. The full price is surprisingly low.

Want a combination of quality and price? This large brick 3 bd. rm. ranch is easy to reach, easy to live in — simply a gorgeous home for gracious living. Gas heat, large charming rms., a dream kitchen, a 2 1/2 car att. garage on a large lot 150x500 (1.72 A.) makes this a very desirable home. And better yet, I have a choice of 2 other homes of this type, all in preferred locations.

For investment wise folks, I have a nice choice of 2 and 3 apt. homes, each in a separate price range — all showing a good profit. It's nice to let your tenants help you pay the bills — and these homes are priced no higher than a single home.

Nothing like a good lot or acreage buy for that dream home of tomorrow. I've got several that are real nice and priced right, too.

Girl Scouts

The girls and leaders of Brownie Troop 209 wish to thank the Northville Record for publishing our news throughout our first year as scouts.

Our last meeting of the year, held Tuesday, June 7, was used in writing thank you notes to our guests of the last meeting and for materials received. We also planned our picnic to be held on Saturday.

Our picnic was a huge success, the weather was perfect and everyone had a wonderful time. It was held between 10 and 1:00 at Cass Benton park. We played on the swings, teeter totters and slides, then had tracking and trailing and played Barnyard Bedlam, also our lunch, which everyone brought in paper bags and returned home.

A MODEL CATCH — Seven-year-old Raymond McCollum, son of Mr. and Mrs. George McCollum of Novi, didn't pull up a winner in the Sixth Annual Kids' Fishing Derby at Belle Isle Saturday, but he certainly made the most unusual catch. For several minutes as Raymond wrestled with his pole and line, excited judges and spectators looked on expecting a "real whopper". Up came this model yacht, a victim of earlier racing in the model yacht basin. The crowd was disappointed, but not Raymond. For him the catch was indeed a "whopper".

Rexall Wins First Games

Bankers Lose to Druggists But Hold First Place at Novi

National Bank assets climbed to a new high during the first week in June as the Bankers padded their record with two more victories in the Novi Little League.

The Bankers boast a 5-1 record, well out in front of the Anglin Earth Movers and Paragon Bridge & Steel tied for second with identical 3-4 records. Rexall Drug came up with its first victories in the league race but still is mired in last place with a 2-4 record.

Paragon's ace hurler, Joe Shuttler, spoiled the Bankers' clean record last Thursday scattering four hits and giving up three runs to claim an easy 8-3 victory.

George Simenton was charged with the loss. Mike Barnes and Mike Williams each clubbed doubles for the winning squad.

The Bankers won three earlier games, crushing Paragon 15-3 and the Earth Movers, 9-2 and 5-3. Simenton claimed the victory for the Bankers against Paragon, giving up only 4 hits while collecting two triples at the plate. Bill MacDermid was nipped for the loss.

Other top hitters for the Bankers included Cliff Hawley with one triple and one single, and Ricky Fox with three singles.

Ricky White and Simenton were winners of the two other games. White, who collected two singles and a double in four attempts, gave up four hits in putting down the Movers. J. Payton was the losing pitcher.

Simenton struck out nine, walked four and gave up four hits in his victory over the Movers. Norman Krogg was the losing hurler.

William Bailey tripped for the Bankers, and Krogg doubled.

The Druggists wrapped up two victories — their first this season — but dropped a 15-4 circus act to Paragon. Bill MacDermid hurled for the victors, while David McMillan took the loss.

Shuttler smashed a two-bagger and Dan Simonsen collected two hits in three trips to the plate to take hitting honors for the winners. Brian Miller doubled and Melvin Miller, his brother, collected two hits. Rexall nipped Paragon in an earlier contest, 8-7, behind the 11-hit pitching of Stan Gillett. Shuttler was the losing hurler.

Pete Gatteri of the Druggists smashed a double and single, while Gillett came through with a triple, double and a single. Tops for Paragon were: Shuttler, triple and two singles; Mike Williams, one double and two singles; and MacDermid and Gerry Eoyer, one double and a single.

Gillet pitched the Druggists to a 12-8 victory over the Movers. John Bertoni was nipped for the loss.

Gatteri smashed a double and two singles and Gillett collected a triple, double and single for the winners, while Wayne Wolverton cracked a homer, Bertoni tripped Norm Krogg, once

POWER

Power, obviously, is very important to people today. There is the ever-present battle for power among nations. There is the power of the mechanized world which operates our industries, runs our can-openers in the home and makes our automobile transportation possible. There is, also, the power of the atom and the tremendous lift-power which sends missiles into the high heavens above.

With all this power, one might be apt to think that man is quite sure of himself. On the contrary, the power of might and metal has again created a world powerless of itself to cope with the fear and mistrust which these successes have brought. It should be rather clear to all that, in the mad struggle for power, man, in the presence of his marvelous scientific discoveries and developments, has not yet discovered in total the moral and spiritual power with which to reliably control and utilize the powers of his achievements.

Back in the first century, when Roman political power was supreme and Greek thought held its dominating power over the minds of men, a little company of people, gathered together in the informality of a friendly setting, heard their leader say, "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you —". And, having received this power, this little band of devotees went out and, as a result of their simple but powerful efforts, the power of Rome became powerless and disappeared and the impact of Christianity has made itself felt for good in every quarter of our known world today! The power of Pentecost has been the secret to the progress of Christianity!

Meeting together in one place and being of one mind, the disciples waited and received the power of the Holy Spirit. Subsequently, they went forth to bear the Christian witness in Jerusalem—the center of their religious life, in Judea—the seat of their political and governmental life, in Samaria—the hot-spot of their racial and social tensions and "to the end of the earth."

This is the persistent and penetrating power of Pentecost — more powerful than all the powers man has been able to unleash. It is creative, not destructive, of good. It is God-given, not man-made. It can be yours through oneness of thought and prayer and commitment. Go to church every Sunday. There avail yourself of God's gift of the Holy Spirit bringing into life the power to witness for Christ!

NEW OFFICERS — These new officers of the Walther League of St. Paul's Lutheran church will be installed Sunday at the church. The installation program will begin with a vesper service at 5 p.m., followed by a potluck dinner and an evening of entertainment. Slides of Mexico will be presented by the Rev. B. J. Pankow and a "community sing" will be featured. A freewill offering will be collected. The new officers are (left to right): Ron Dietrich, president; Delores Feole, vice president; Carol Hellwege, recording secretary; Sherry Coykendall, corresponding secretary; and Carol Janetzke, treasurer.

Teachers Qualify For Social Security

Many Northville school teachers may receive social security benefits this summer, said Harry Baltuck, manager of the Detroit-Northwest social security office. This is true, Baltuck stated, because a social security beneficiary who works for wages may receive a benefit check for any month during which he does not earn over $100. Thus, he said, school teachers who have reached social security retirement age (62 for women, 65 for men) or those entitled to mother's benefits, may be entitled to receive a social security check for the months that school is not in session. This benefit will not be paid automatically, Baltuck continued, but must be applied for by each eligible teacher. Teachers who have reached retirement age or are entitled to mother's benefits who will not earn more than $100 in all months of the year are encouraged to contact the social security office. They may visit or telephone for additional information on their rights and privileges under the law. The Detroit-Northwest district office is located at 18260 Grand River. The phone number is BRoadway 3-1717.

Big Season Predicted For Air Conditioning

Air-conditioning in every home is rapidly becoming as common as the car in every garage. More and more, air-conditioning is being taken for granted as a necessity of modern living.

It is estimated the retail sales curve of the air-conditioning industry will rise to 4 1/2 billion dollars this year and to almost 7 billion in 1965.

Basically there are four ways air-conditioning can be installed in older homes:

- (1) Central air-conditioning;
- (2) Units that become part of existing warm-air heating systems;
- (3) Units that become part of hot water heating systems;
- (4) Individual room air-conditioners.

A central air-conditioning system consists of a basic unit containing a compressor, condenser, cooling coil, air filter and blower along with a duct system to rooms and room registers.

In a house using a warm-air heating system, the cost of air-conditioning can be kept low by using the existing duct and register system.

Chilled Water System

A house that is heated by hot water may sometimes be cooled by insulating the existing hot water pipes and running chilled water through them. A central refrigerating unit must be installed and the radiators replaced with dual-purpose units.

When it comes to room air-conditioners, the wide choice of units this season makes it easy to choose "just the right one" to suit your individual needs.

Most standard units are available in 1 1/2 and 2 horsepower models with dimensions in width ranging from 23 to 27 inches, in height from 14 to 20 3/8 inches, and depth from 12 to 30 inches.

In general, the larger the unit is in physical size the higher its cooling capacity, which is measured in BTU's (British Thermal Units) and is noted on each unit.

Finger-Tip Control

Finger-tip control of cooling functions is assured by rotary knobs, push-buttons and slide controls. The controls allow the user to select the combination of temperature, air circulation and dehumidification he prefers, while a choice of fan speeds also permits quiet night-time operation.

In addition, most units have adjustable air directors to cut down drafts, and filters which almost totally eliminate airborne dust, dirt and pollen, thus providing relief for hay fever and allergy sufferers.

Most manufacturers provide installation kits which allow their units to be installed in almost any type of window (including case-window) by means of frames, panels or an accordion-pleated device which adjusts to the window size.

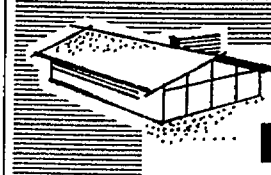

Growing in popularity are "through the wall" installations which leave windows clear and permit the unit to be almost flush with interior and exterior walls.

FASCINATING FACTS ABOUT NATURAL GAS

Pattern of Progress

In 1911 a western rancher, Bill Harron, tried in vain to convince a group of men that Turner Valley was rich in Natural GAS. All efforts failing, he lit a gas leak seeping from the rocky floor of the Valley, then calmly began frying eggs. One example of how men of vision and courage discovered and proved the vast potential of Natural GAS!

Today Natural GAS provides energy, not only for frying eggs, but for storing and preserving them! A tiny gas flame that makes toast is the magical element of the silent, automatic GAS refrigerator-freezer. Natural GAS is the wonderful household servant that gets so many things done well—and in a hurry!

*The modern, automatic range, refrigerator, water heater, clothes dryer, indoor incinerator, air-conditioning, and house heating are ALL run by Natural GAS in millions of today's modern homes. Call or write your Consumers Power Company to learn more about Natural GAS.

POWER

Power, obviously, is very important to people today. There is the ever-present battle for power among nations. There is the power of the mechanized world which operates our industries, runs our can-openers in the home and makes our automobile transportation possible. There is, also, the power of the atom and the tremendous lift-power which sends missiles into the high heavens above.

With all this power, one might be apt to think that man is quite sure of himself. On the contrary, the power of might and metal has again created a world powerless of itself to cope with the fear and mistrust which these successes have brought. It should be rather clear to all that, in the mad struggle for power, man, in the presence of his marvelous scientific discoveries and developments, has not yet discovered in total the moral and spiritual power with which to reliably control and utilize the powers of his achievements.

Back in the first century, when Roman political power was supreme and Greek thought held its dominating power over the minds of men, a little company of people, gathered together in the informality of a friendly setting, heard their leader say, "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you —". And, having received this power, this little band of devotees went out and, as a result of their simple but powerful efforts, the power of Rome became powerless and disappeared and the impact of Christianity has made itself felt for good in every quarter of our known world today! The power of Pentecost has been the secret to the progress of Christianity!

Meeting together in one place and being of one mind, the disciples waited and received the power of the Holy Spirit. Subsequently, they went forth to bear the Christian witness in Jerusalem — the center of their religious life, in Judea — the seat of their political and governmental life, in Samaria — the hot-spot of their racial and social tensions and "to the end of the earth."

This is the persistent and penetrating power of Pentecost — more powerful than all the powers man has been able to unleash. It is creative, not destructive, of good. It is God-given, not man-made. It can be yours through oneness of thought and prayer and commitment. Go to church every Sunday. There avail yourself of God's gift of the Holy Spirit bringing into life the power to witness for Christ!

NEW OFFICERS — These new officers of the Walther League of St. Paul's Lutheran church will be installed Sunday at the church. The installation program will begin with a vesper service at 5 p.m., followed by a potluck dinner and an evening of entertainment. Slides of Mexico will be presented by the Rev. B. J. Pankow and a "community sing" will be featured. A freewill offering will be collected. The new officers are (left to right): Ron Dietrich, president; Delores Feole, vice president; Carol Hellwege, recording secretary; Sherry Coykendall, corresponding secretary; and Carol Janetzke, treasurer.

Teachers Qualify For Social Security

Many Northville school teachers may receive social security benefits this summer, said Harry Baltuck, manager of the Detroit-Northwest social security office. This is true, Baltuck stated, because a social security beneficiary who works for any month during which he does not earn over $100. Thus, he said, school teachers who have reached social security retirement age (62 for women, 65 for men) or those entitled to mother's benefits, may be entitled to receive a social security check for the months that school is not in session. This benefit will not be paid automatically, Baltuck continued, but must be applied for by each eligible teacher. Teachers who have reached retirement age or are entitled to mother's benefits who will not earn more than $100 in all months of the year are encouraged to contact the social security office. They may visit or telephone for additional information on their rights and privileges under the law. The Detroit-Northwest district office is located at 18260 Grand River. The phone number is BRoadway 3-1717.

Big Season Predicted For Air Conditioning

Air-conditioning in every home is rapidly becoming as common as the car in every garage. More and more, air-conditioning is being taken for granted as a necessity of modern living.

It is estimated the retail sales curve of the air-conditioning industry will rise to 4 1/2 billion dollars this year and to almost 7 billion in 1965.

Basically there are four ways air-conditioning can be installed in older homes:

- (1) Central air-conditioning;
- (2) Units that become part of existing warm-air heating systems;
- (3) Units that become part of hot water heating systems;
- (4) Individual room air-conditioners.

A central air-conditioning system consists of a basic unit containing a compressor, condenser, cooling coil, air filter and blower along with a duct system to rooms and room registers.

In a house using a warm-air heating system, the cost of air-conditioning can be kept low by using the existing duct and register system.

Chilled Water System

A house that is heated by hot water may sometimes be cooled by insulating the existing hot water pipes and running chilled water through them. A central refrigerating unit must be installed and the radiators replaced with dual-purpose units.

When it comes to room air-conditioners, the wide choice of units this season makes it easy to choose "just the right one" to suit your individual needs.

Most standard units are available in 1, 1 1/2 and 2 horsepower models with dimensions in width ranging from 23 to 27 inches, in height from 14 to 20 3/8 inches, and depth from 12 to 30 inches.

In general, the larger the unit is in physical size the higher its cooling capacity, which is measured in BTU's (British Thermal Units) and is noted on each unit.

Finger-tip Control

Finger-tip control of cooling functions is assured by rotary knobs, push-buttons and slide controls. The controls allow the user to select the combination of temperature, air circulation and dehumidification he prefers, while a choice of fan speeds also permits quiet night-time operation.

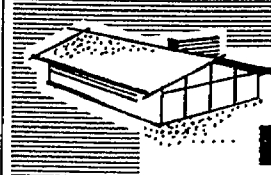

In addition, most units have adjustable air directors to cut down drafts, and filters which almost totally eliminate airborne dust, dirt and pollen, thus providing relief for hay fever and allergy sufferers.

Most manufacturers provide installation kits which allow their units to be installed in almost any type of window (including casement windows) by means of frames, panels or an accordion-pleated device which adjusts to the window size.

Growing in popularity are "through the wall" installations which leave windows clear and permit the unit to be almost flush with interior and exterior walls.

Events Out of the Past

ONE YEAR AGO . . .

The Northville township board instructed its planning commission to study a request by Gerald Taft to permit 56 acres of his township property to be annexed to the city.

Sunday afternoon roping, riding and bronco busting will be the order of the day as the Optimist club presents its annual Rodeo and Western Horse Show.

Because a proposed sewerage rate increase—approved by 78 to 4 vote by the county supervisors last December—has been reversed by the county board of review examining sewer rates, the health department issued a temporary order refusing to grant permits for sewer construction.

The votes of less than 15 percent of Northville school district's registered electors returned all three incumbent candidates to office in Monday's school election.

Novi's oldest citizen, Mrs. Lydia Adell Richardson, 103, passed away at Novi convalescent home June 9 after a short illness.

A final decision on a request for rezoning of a 120-acre Nine Mile road farm to an industrial classification will be made Monday.

The three-year battle over 220 acres that includes the Warren Products plant ended this week with the decision going to the city of Northville.

FIVE YEARS AGO . . .

Because four candidates are seeking one opening on the Northville board of education at the election, school officials anticipate a heavier vote than usual. The candidates are Eural F. Clark, incumbent, whose term is expiring; Robert L. Hart, Drake Older and Bruce Turnbull.

Twelve students were given diplomas at the graduation ceremony at Our Lady of Victory school by the Rev. Anthony J. Heraty, pastor of the church.

The city of Northville held up awarding the contract for construction of sanitary sewers and water mains in the Yerkes subdivision, located in Novi township, until rumors of a possible attempt by Oakland county or Novi township to break up the city boundaries prove to be fact or fancy.

Newly elected student council officers: James Allen, mayor; Janice Howarth, secretary; and Roger Nieuwkoop, treasurer.

For the first time in 35 years as Novi township clerk, Earl Banks missed a meeting of the township board. His absence from the session was due to confinement in Mt. Carmel Mercy hospital.

Emil Arbour of North Haven avenue, a former member of the Royal Canadian Mounted police, was sworn in as a part time member of the Novi police force.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO . . .

Sixty-six seniors will receive diplomas June 14.

Election campaigning was climaxed at the Northville high school by the voting which placed Clayton Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Graham of Lake street, in the mayor position of the student council for the school year 1945-46.

According to Village Assessor Bert Stark, the village tax rate for 1945 will be 18 cents lower than during the past year, the new rate being $21.84 per thousand of assessed valuation. The assessed valuation was increased about $21,000.

Ward Masters, well known Northville citizen, has purchased the business of the Brownie Feed Store on East Main street, formerly the Northville Feed Store.

Rev. Lloyd E. Young, pastor of the First Baptist Church, began his third year of ministry in Northville.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO . . .

The "Grand Opening Sale" of the new A & P food market in Northville was launched.

The firm of Albert Kahn, Inc. of Detroit, nationally famous architects, was commissioned as architects of the new Northville Ford plant, is now working on the plans.

The 59 members of the 1935 graduating class of Northville high school received their diplomas from Superintendent of Schools R. H. Amerman in the Penniman-Allen theatre.

Important parts of the program were the address by the class valedictorian, Mary Louise Boyden, and the salutatorian, Edward Angove. The class prophecy was given by Violet Johnson, and the will by Maurice Giles and Marguerite Norton.

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Flint of Novi entertained at a family dinner party in honor of the 84th birthday of Mrs. Flint's father, William D. Simmons.

If you have been saving up laughs, prepare to shed them now, for "Life Begins At 40", opens at the Penniman-Allen theatre.

Seeking the construction of a new grade school building in Northville under the new $800,000,000 federal work program, Superintendent R. H. Amerman and Sherrill W. Ambler visited Lansing to submit their project to the state welfare director.

Bible School Opens Monday at St. Paul's

The annual two-week Vacation Bible school will again be held at St. Paul's Lutheran church, High and Elm, beginning next Monday at 9 a.m. for children from kindergarten through junior high school age.

Parents who still wish to enroll their children are asked to do so in the Sunday school office of the church from 9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. or on Monday morning from 8:30 to 9:00 a.m.

The Bible school will again feature Bible stories, songs, handicraft projects and supervised games. It will be held Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. On the last day of the school, Friday, July 1, there will be a closing program at 7:30 p.m., to which all parents and friends are invited.

More information may be obtained by phoning the church office at FI-9-3140.

Wixom Policeman To Sponsor Gun Club

Wixom teen-age gun enthusiasts will hold an organizational club meeting June 21 at the city hall under the watchful eyes of the Wixom police department.

According to Police Lt. D'Arcy Young, all city boys and girls age 12-18 are invited to attend the meeting which will get underway at 7 p.m. Officers will be elected and an explanation of the club program will be given, he said.

A few guns will be provided. The club will use either the Proud Lake rifle range or the range on the Birch Park Gun club property.

The Wixom club will be a non-profit organization for teaching teenagers safety precautions and how to become marksmen. It will be a member of the National Rifle association which has more than a quarter million members.

Salute to B Students Without Gold Tassels

To the Editor:
To the other "B" average Northville High graduates.
Your parents, the high school faculty, as well as your fellow students and the colleges in which you are enrolled will know that you have completed the full four years of

Choquet Okay

To the Editor:
The old guard are pulling their last strings: one, is that they want to incorporate the four corners as a city; and the other is to recall Councilwoman Choquet.

If they would be successful in their attempt to gain city status, then of course there would be no need to recall Miss Choquet, because she would be living outside of the planned city incorporated area — that area the city backers (THE OLD GUARD) would be living in. Whatever their motive is in this last desperate move, the road's end is close at hand for them. I have been observing Councilwoman Choquet at the council meetings, and am impressed with her attitude toward the citizens and their needs. If there ever can, or will be, peace in our community, Miss Choquet will help toward the goal if given a chance.

Mrs. Wallace, clerk, gave a very good account in your last week's (Readers Speak Up) of what has happened, and what we can expect in the near future without any further comment from me. In a few words, all I can say for her is that she was honest and a good village clerk. We will miss her.

high school education with a "B" average or higher. This letter is only to let others know, so that they, too, can congratulate you.

Have no regrets that only a few hundredths of a point kept you from having the coveted "3 points", at the end of the seventh term. Perhaps, if you had not majored in so many subjects, or had not carried 200 or more credits, you might have made it.

You didn't receive the "gold-colored tassel" that was presented to 26 of your classmates for 3½ years of high school education, with the assumption that they would not drop below the "3-point" average on completion of this last term.

Your parents will be proud of you as they have always been, but they may find it a little hard to explain to relatives and friends; the difference between you and the other "B" students, when you walk across the platform with no "gold-colored tassel" adorning your mortar boards. Your "high stature" will be apparent to all in the way you accept your diploma.

There will be no star before your name on the program, designating the honored students of the Senior Class of 1960. Your STAR will glow in the hearts of your parents when you distinguish yourselves in the fields you have chosen at the colleges "here you were so readily accepted a few months ago as "B" or higher academic students.

Being just parents, with the same instincts of all other parents, we wish only to pay honor to these students:

David R. Nash, enrolled at Hope college as a liberal arts student; Dean O. Herman, enrolled in the school of architecture and design at the University of Michigan; Martin A. Klerkx, enrolled in the college of science and arts as a physics-math major at Michigan State university, and to all other "B" students, WE SALUTE YOU!

Wants Investigation

Let's clean house!

To the Editor:

The village council meeting of June 6th left me nauseated, to say the least. Much could be said about many things, but for the sake of unity, that we heard so much about and saw so little of, I will forego all but the one thing that seems most important to me at this time.

Mr. Fred Olson, Russell Button and myself, by letter or written statements to the council, asked for an investigation of Councilwoman Choquet. These requests so far have been completely ignored. All the things that came to light that evening cannot just be swept under the rug and expected to stay there.

If Councilwoman Choquet thinks her nose is clean, she should welcome an investigation. And if it should prove not to be, I don't think she should be allowed to keep her seat in the village council.

The first and foremost requirement for unity in any community is to have people of high integrity and good reputation in public office.

'Kids' are Behaved

To the "Cultured" People of Novi:

We have attended many council meetings in the past at which controversial issues were discussed intelligently although at times heatedly. Regarding the council meeting of June 6th, we would like to observe that it appeared to be the so-called "cultured element" of Novi who charged the air with mud and accusations, while the "kids" sat quietly as well behaved children are taught to do.

Perhaps the "cultured element" could learn from this and other examples of the past that defeat of a belief by the majority should be accepted gracefully and in a sportsmanlike manner.

SPEAKING for the Record

By Bill Sliger

An epidemic that undoubtedly does not confine itself to our area is currently a matter of deep concern to local police and city officials.

The problem is vandalism. Highest on the list of offenses being committed is gas stealing.

Area businesses, such as sand and gravel concerns, fuel oil dealers and the construction crews working on the Eight Mile road cut-off — have reported heavy losses of gasoline.

Even the city itself has been plagued by vandals taking gasoline from city equipment and pumps.

One businessman, Clayton Myers, told councilmen last week that gas thieves are slashing the hoses from his gas pumps when they cannot remove the gasoline.

Similar destruction of property is reported at the other favorite targets of the gas-thieves.

Other forms of vandalism, including fights (in two cases knives were taken from youths involved in a fracas), speeding and noisy "gunning" of cars have also been reported.

According to Police Chief Eugene King there are several reasons for the outbreak:

- a shortage of policemen;
- need for another patrol car;
- failure to bring charges against young offenders;
- light penalties that result when vandals are caught and charged;
- and need for citizen cooperation in catching offenders.

(At least one businessman is taking care of the last point. He has a shot-gun armed guard watching gas pumps on his property with instructions to shoot at prowlers.)

The council has recognized the police shortage and provided funds in its new budget to hire an office clerk. This will free an officer for patrol work. Northville's police department has operated with one less officer since the retirement of Chief Denton, more than a year ago.

Funds for a second patrol car have also been appropriated. Chief King points out that vandals know exactly where Northville's lone patrol car is at all times and plan their crimes accordingly.

The matter of severity of penalties rests, of course, with our justice court. The very fact that the city is taking steps to clamp down on vandalism should naturally carry over into the court, however.

The existence of excessive vandalism in Northville is difficult for Chief King to admit. In the past police have claimed it was at a minimum here.

Now he is disturbed.

"Gas-stealing and beer-drinking parties are no longer considered crimes by many teenage youngsters," Chief King declares.

Parents should take notice of this statement by our police chief. He has talked with many of our youngsters; he knows the perennial offenders.

But when he finds an attitude of acceptance of these serious offenses within a cross-section of our teenagers, it is time the subject of proper conduct comes up for discussion at the family level.

Correcting the misconception that because others do something it is alright — even fashionable — will sound better when explained by mom or dad than by a judge or police officer.

Labor Holds Price Line

Babson Park, Mass. — The Dow-Jones Industrial Stock Average has declined from a high of 685 on January 5, 1960 to under 600, from which it is just rebounding. Manufacturers are wondering why commodity prices have not broken correspondingly. The main reason is the increased costs of labor. All the basic industries are well organized and producers are timid about cutting wages for fear the union leaders will call strikes.

Price Stability

This overall price stability does not apply to all commodity quotations. We have seen widespread declines in wholesale prices for foodstuffs; and farmers expect to receive less for 1960 crops.

However, owing to the demand by consumers for small quantities of foodstuffs which they purchase at the supermarkets, retail prices have remained high. It not only costs retailers more to sell small items, but the cost of packages and displays is greater. Supermarkets present a fine show which appeals to consumers, but in reality their prices are not as low as is generally supposed.

Supplies Adequate

In most cases, supplies of raw materials are sufficient or can be increased rapidly if prices should rise. Therefore, changes in most commodity prices may be downward rather than upward for a while. An analysis of price trends should consider foreign demand and supply also. Not only will competition become more severe within this country, but foreign imports are crowding us more and more.

When I was in Europe recently, I was astounded at the low prices which are being paid there to labor. Japan does not produce many basic commodities, but confines her exports to manufactured products. Wages are very low in Japan. Reports from China vary, but presumably wages there are even lower than in Japan. If I can get a visa, I will visit China and get the facts about China's wages and her exports, which now go largely to Russia.

Outlook for Copper and Oil Copper production in the U.S. is affected by gradually rising wages; hence the price of copper should be well maintained. Copper producers are, however, handicapped by the fact that the metal has a long life; some of that now being used in the electronics industry once existed in the form of trolley wires or our grandmothers' kettles.

In the case of oil, gasoline, and other petroleum products, there is no such problem; when these are used up they are totally consumed. However, the world now faces a surplus of oil. Not only have the Arab states large supplies which they are anxious to sell, but the production of the Sahara Desert must be considered. France is very much interested in this Sahara production. President DeGaulle is striving for self-sufficiency in order to regain world status.

Exceptions To The Above

The main bullish argument for oil is that Nasser, president of Egypt, may succeed in becoming the "sales manager" for all the Arab countries and stop them from cutting prices or giving special favors.

I have recently made studies on the effect "fallout" might have on commodity prices in case of World War III. I asked various authorities whether farmers would be obliged to buy more or less fertilizer to offset the radioactivity which might be absorbed by surface crops.

In case of World War III, our government might not allow the planting of new crops. Milk, beef and other products from livestock which feed on grass could be severely affected if contaminated by unfavorable fallout winds. I, however, am confidentially informed that this contamination could be offset by the free use of water and lime. The price of lime has not varied much in the past three years, but has been around $10 per ton F.O.B. quarry. In short, I believe that downward pressure will continue in most industrial commodities, especially the metals and oils, and in farm and other commodities where large surpluses exist; but lime may be an exception.

Boys Need Help

Members of the Ugashonten boys club will hold their annual rummage sale next month — but right now they're looking for things to sell.

Persons wishing to donate rummage sale items are asked to call FI-9-0121.

Proceeds from the rummage sale to be held July 8 and 9 will be used to defray cost of the club's annual trip — this year to Canada.

Tourist Council Sells State All Year Around

MICHIGAN'S TOURIST attractions are the product for a year-around hard-sell campaign.

The Michigan Tourist Council uses all the media of communications plus numerous general information techniques to promote the state's vacation spots both within the state and throughout the nation.

And the council gets good cooperation from commercial groups within the state.

The Council divides its commercial advertising program into three parts to coincide with the three major vacation seasons in the state: winter, spring-summer and autumn.

Advertisements timed to exert the greatest possible sales influence just prior to the time when vacationers make their plans for each season are placed with magazines, newspapers and radio-television.

A comprehensive array of informative and attractive literature is also prepared by the Council.

The whole package is aimed at helping people pick the right spot for their vacation from among the practically numberless recreation facilities in Michigan.

In addition to the advertising that is bought and paid for, the Council prepares news-type press releases and pictures that are passed out to newspapers, magazines, radio and TV.

Underlying the whole program is a personal-contact public relations program that has two major purposes.

First, it must keep in touch with resort operators, tourist services and vacation spots so they can best take advantage of the Council program, and second, it must continually deal with potential users of Michigan's vacation spots and stimulate renewed and expanded interest.

This part of the Council's program includes a whole range of appearances at outdoor and travel shows, both in Michigan and out of state; personal service information dispensed by mail and in face-to-face meetings with vacationers and potential vacationers; contacts with transportation companies, industries, wholesale and retail firms and social and professional organizations; showing of films and giving of lectures on Michigan attractions, and preparation of public-service announcements by radio and TV.

In addition, the public relations part of the program involves participation in tourist industry improvement programs.

DISTINGUISHED LOOKING Paul Adams, the Michigan Attorney General, recently completed a task that a shy man might have shunned.

The staid old state of Massachusetts wanted to know whether Michigan law prohibited the wearing of "slacks, shorts or trousers" by women when appearing in public.

A legislative researcher in Boston threw the task to Adams as part of a survey program.

"We can learn of no occasion on which a woman was convicted of disorderly conduct or indecent exposure by reason of the fact that she was attired in slacks, shorts or trousers," Adams said in a letter to the Massachusetts official who asked the question.

Furthermore, Adams issued a press release outlining the entire exchange of letters.

While hardly a delicate subject, the question of women's attire could be expected to raise an eyebrow or two in some quarters. Adams handled it forthrightly — and publicly.

CITIZENS FOR MICHIGAN, that non-partisan, political action group headed by American Motors President George Romney, has come out for a Constitutional Convention as a means to modernize the state's 52-year-old basic law.

Included in CFM's stand on the controversial issue was a nine-point program of things that the group believes need to be changed.

Longer terms in office for governor, legislature and other elected state officials was one of the recommendations.

CFM also backed: a shorter, more concise Constitution; fewer elected state officials; fewer elections held at more regular intervals; elimination of "earmarked" funds to be fed by general state revenues; stronger home rule in county and metropolitan governments, and changes — unspecified — in the present formula for apportioning seats in lawmaking bodies, presumably both state and national.

Other changes which CFM called for would affect noticeably the judicial and legislative branches of state government.

The group advocated changes in the method of selecting judges, particularly Supreme Court justices who are now nominated by party but elected on a non-partisan ballot, and a stronger legislature by permitting a Legislative Council and appointment of the Auditor General by the Legislature.

OUT WHERE THE COUNTRY CAN
TEAR A TRUCK TO PIECES—

Chevy
middleweights work done

in a day!

Where they used to deliver 2,300 gallons of liquefied petroleum gas in other trucks, Petrolane Gas Service of Long Beach, California, can now deliver 3,500 gallons a day! That's 7 days a week usually, over back trails and up into high rock country with maximum GVW loads. And with Chevy's Torsion-Spring Ride pacing every foot of the way! "You don't get any more jolting on washboard roads than you do in a passenger car, or any sidesway on curves," says driver Bernie Stone. "I used to take some rough roads at from 5 to 8 miles an hour. Now I can go 30 over them." Petrolane has over 200 Chevrolets hauling for them.

If you think we're excited about Chevy's independent front suspension, you ought to talk to the truck owners who are profiting by it. They'll tell you Chevy's torsion-spring design is the hottest thing to hit the industry since trucks began. Drive one—that's the proof, short and sweet.
