

City, School Explanations Leave Women Perplexed

Two Northville housewives, tired of cleaning road dust from their homes, determined this week to do something about it.

After taking their problem to the city council Monday evening and the school board Tuesday evening, housecleaning must appear as a pleasant form of relaxation to Mrs. Earl Chappell and Mrs. Fred Gotts, neighbors on North Center street.

Wednesday the women were disillusioned, upset and perplexed by the answers they received at the two meetings.

"We're ready to give up," admitted Mrs. Chappell.

Their experience with the workings of government began Monday evening when the appeared before the city council to ask when Center street north of the new cut-off would be paved.

They had heard that it was to be completed this summer; then they read that the project had been dropped.

They told the council that the road was in the worst condition ever — "and I've lived there for 34 years," said Mrs. Gotts. Patiently and politely they described living conditions across from Amerman elementary school to the councilmen.

Deep holes and stones damaged their cars, blocked entrances to their driveways; frequent grading and oiling by the city was ineffective, especially since other roads in the Oakwood subdivision area are blocked to through traffic to permit work on the Eight Mile road cut-off, thus sending more vehicles than ever up Center street.

"It doesn't pay to clean house, the dust just pours in again," they complained.

The council was sympathetic. Mayor A. M. Allen even called upon the city manager to read results of a recent traffic count that revealed the unpaved section of North Center street carries five times the number of vehicles as another street being given improvement consideration.

"You should have taken your problem to the school board," Mayor Allen stated, "they turned down a proposal to participate financially in the paving of the street."

"If we get the school board to go along and pay for their share of the paving, will the job be done this year?", asked Mrs.

Gotts.

It would, replied the council.

Hopeful, but not quite sure of their ground, the women followed the advice of the city council and appeared before the school board the very next evening.

Again they outlined their problem, told the school board of their experience before the city council and asked the board members if they didn't feel some obligation to help pay for the paving of the street in front of Amerman school.

Fully as considerate and understanding as their city counterparts, the school board agreed with Mrs. Chappell and Mrs. Gotts that the street should be paved.

"The city council told the school it was not going to pave the street because the bid was too high," stated newly elected president Robert Shafer.

"We've told the city we're willing to participate to the fullest," added retiring president Nelson C. Schrader.

"Are you sure the city understands you are willing to go along with this project?", asked a perplexed Mrs. Chappell. She mentioned that the council had referred to a letter from the school board stating that, because funds were not available at this time, the school would not participate in the project. Superintendent Russell Amerman then reminded the board that such a letter had been sent the city in answer to an inquiry from the city manager. "But the city had indicated the bid received on the project was too high, anyway," Amerman pointed out.

The board then explained that the letter merely meant the school was unwilling to participate "at this time", but that the door was still open to paving North Center street if the city supplied the school with proper specifics.

"In words remarkably familiar to those uttered the previous evening by the city council Schrader told the once-determined, but now slightly dejected women, that 'the pressure must come from the people to the city.'"

"The council's passing the buck," agreed Shafer and Schrader.

At the board's suggestion School Attorney James Littell carefully explained the school district's legal position in the matter of participating in public improvements.

He pointed out that the school had no legal obligation but was permitted by a relatively new law to participate in a special assessment for municipal improvement if the school board so desired.

Littell explained that a would be necessary for the city to establish a special assessment district and spread the cost and that after that was done the school board could pay its pro rata share "from its general operating fund," not bond monies, he emphasized.

Thus the school board secured itself in the position that it could not help pay for the project unless a special assessment plan was adopted (and the city had not done this) and further, there was a question of finding funds unless a financing plan could be suggested by the city.

Meanwhile, the city council has adopted the attitude that the paving should be done only if the school wanted it. Hesitant to establish a special assessment district, the city has plugged for a contract arrangement — presumably to save time and also money by having the contractor currently paving the cut-off undertake the job.

The unpaved section of North Center street from the cut-off to Ely drive (entrance to Northville Heights) has been something of a headache to the council.

Other streets need paving also and part of North Center abuts on newly annexed property (Northville Heights).

Thus while the city would pay for paving the strip in front of homeowners in the original city limits (on the east side of Center), policy would call for a special assessment against the newly annexed areas and the school on the west side of the street.

The entire matter of unpaved streets, dust and the confusion of the cut-off construction in the Oakwood subdivision area erupted in the council's face Monday night.

Mrs. Chappell and Mrs. Gotts were joined by Sidney Frid of Grace street and Lynn Partridge of 129 Baseline.

"Oakwood subdivision has been forgotten by the city," Partridge charged. He pointed out that blacktop at the corner of Grace and Baseline was completely gone and added that storm drains were plugged permitting standing pools of water.

Frid charged the city manager with laxity in the problems of Oakwood subdivision. "He drives up Center street every day and knows very well that all traffic is routed there because the other streets are all blocked."

As a solution Frid suggested that the city "get tough" with the contractor and make him keep two routes open. "It's all very quiet on Grace street, but I'm not complaining. All through traffic is barred," he pointed out.

Councilman John Canterbury came to the city manager's defense by stating that he had been most persistent in getting North Center street paved. Canterbury also asked Frid why he didn't take his suggestion to the manager, whereupon Frid stated he would not tell the manager how to run his job.

Despite city efforts, however, matters will become worse for Oakwood subdivision residents before they become better.

The cut-off itself is awaiting completion of the bridge before final stage-work can be undertaken. Wayne county road officials hesitate to predict an opening date for the cut-off.

After the bridge work is done, approaches to the bridge must be paved. Filling-in where the cut-off crosses Novi road and paving atop this roadbed must also be undertaken.

Meanwhile, the Oakland county road commission is about to close Novi road to through traffic from the cut-off to Grand River.

Traffic will be detoured to Meadowbrook and Taft roads. This will start immediately after July 4th and continue all summer while trees are removed and contractors widen and level the road. The project is scheduled for November completion.

Residents of Novi road will be able to gain entrance, but may find it necessary to "walk a block or so" to their homes, county road officials stated.

The confusion of having Novi road closed has already added to the Center street traffic. After the cut-off is open traffic will still be barred from Novi road, making use of alternate north and south routes necessary.

YOU TAKE OVER — Nelson C. Schrader (left), retiring president of the board of education, turned over the gavel to his successor, Robert Shafer, Monday night. Shafer, who previously served as board secretary, was elected president by the new seven-member school board at its first session since the June 13 election.

Elect New Board Officers

Shafer is President

Robert H. Shafer, a four-year member of the Northville board of education, was elected president of the enlarged seven-member board at its first official meeting following the June 13 election.

Previously, Shafer has served as secretary of the board.

The board elected all four of the hold-over members to office, naming William Crump, vice president, Donald Lawrence secretary and Dr. Waldo Johnson treasurer.

Newly sworn-in board members are Edward F. Angove, Wilfred C. Becker and James F. Kipfer.

In its initial action Tuesday evening the new board decided to change its meeting night to the second Monday of each month.

In other business conducted in the comparatively swift session the board signed an agreement with the city for purchase of the Community Building. The agreement stipulates that the transaction, approved by voters on June 13, will be completed within 30 days, allowing time for examination of property deeds.

The board also adopted a resolution authorizing the school district to borrow $50,000 against state aid. Because state payments are slow in arriving, Superintendent Amerman explained funds would be needed for summer expenses. The final payment of last year's state aid is not expected until August.

In final routine matters the board renamed James Littell attorney for the school district and decided to skip the July meeting, scheduling the next regular session for August 8.

Committee to Start Teachers' Salary Study Thursday

Organizational steps to clear the way for actual study were taken last Thursday evening at the first meeting of the newly appointed teachers' salary committee.

School Board Member Donald Lawrence directed the initial procedures and appointed Charles Yahn, a teacher representative on the committee, as temporary chairman.

Teacher Patricia Buebel was named recording secretary and two committees were appointed — one to investigate the areas of study and the second to establish rules.

The group decided to meet in the junior high school library on the first and third Thursday of each month beginning July 7.

Formation of the study group came about as a result of a request for salary increases by the Northville Teachers' club. After the request was denied because sufficient funds were not available under the present budget, Superintendent of Schools Russell Amerman suggested formation of the salary committee.

Specifically, the group has been asked to design a salary schedule and decide how to finance the plan.

The committee is composed of 21 members representing teachers, administrators, board of education, P.T.A. and the community at large. Lawrence told the group Thursday night that the school board and administrative staff was represented only to provide information and technical assistance — not to participate in or influence the committee study.

Superintendent Amerman outlined the financial difficulties faced by the school district and related the background leading up to the formation of the study committee.

A plan is expected from the advisory committee not later than December 1.

Teachers at the maximum level were given raises of $200 for the coming year, bringing their total income to $6600 for a BA and $6,900 for MA degrees.

A boost of nearly $3 million in the state equalized valuation of the school district may also permit increases for beginning teachers. Superintendent Amerman and Dr. Kenneth MacLeod, assistant superintendent, are studying this possibility. They have reported difficulty in acquiring new teachers because competing nearby school districts offer higher salaries than Northville's $4400 and $4700 (for MA degree).

Don't Forget Garbage Monday

July Fourth is no holiday for the rubbish and garbage collector. He'll call at the homes of Northville city residents as usual Monday morning.

What's more, he's expecting to pick up garbage containers at the curb — the same as rubbish — instead of behind the house.

The "curb service" garbage collection plan was adopted by the city council to save some $1,800 annually in fees and will be followed for the first time Monday. Collection of rubbish and garbage will now be made simultaneously.

Eastlawn Sold

Lawrence Keller, owner of Eastlawn Resthaven, located at 409 High street in Northville, announced this week that the rest home had been sold to B. Vezosi.

The Record was unable to contact Keller for further details, but it was learned that the transaction becomes effective July 1.

Council Discusses Variety of Problems

The city council had other problems besides unpaved streets to consider Monday night (see story elsewhere).

Several community residents have issued complaints concerning the manner in which automobile traffic is delayed at Center street and Hines drive.

To permit harness horses to pass and prevent a possible accident motor vehicles have been stopped even though a "green" signal exists for car traffic. Motorists have complained that they have been forced to sit "through three light changes", even though horses are a safe distance away.

The council advised the city manager to instruct the police chief to have attending officers use better judgment in handling the flow of traffic at the busy intersection.

Fairbrook street residents have also complained because the street is not posted for "no parking" during racing hours. One resident claimed his driveway was blocked and there was no parking space for visitors. Another complained that permitting parking on the street hurt their parking lot business.

The council decided that parking should not be prohibited on streets where it does not create a hazard, but that parking in drive-ways should be reported and offenders fined.

Councilman Ed Welch reminded the council of an old nemesis — truck parking on the streets in the business district. He pointed out that it created a traffic hazard and blocked many motorists who were either parked, or attempting to park. Welch urged the city to insist upon use of alley entrances for all deliveries where it is possible.

Other councilmen concurred and it was decided to instruct police to start warning delivery trucks.

In final business the council approved a pay increase for city employees — in the form of 50 percent payment of hospitalization insurance. The city manager reported that such fringe benefits are commonplace in many communities.

The total cost to the city amounts to about $1800 annually.

Downs' Attendance, Betting Up Despite Storm Warnings

Until Tuesday night Northville Downs was sailing along at a five percent increase over 1959 betting and attendance at the local track.

Area storm warnings cut attendance sharply Tuesday and left the track just one percent ahead of last year at the end of the eighth night of racing.

Average nightly handle for this season has been $221,944 compared to $219,603 in 1959.

Friday night the $5,000 Invitational Exchange Pace will bring stand-out sidewheelers from throughout the nation to Northville.

The second of six invitations listed to the Downs this year it is expected to present one of the finest fields ever to appear locally.

The field will include Don Roberts' speedy Red Red Robin, Pete Katona's Rockett Forbes who already has more than $20,000 in her bankroll; Brown Valley Farm's Royal Melody; and Everett Ham-mell's Cold Sunday, the track's top star a year ago.

Bill Sargent is bringing Valiant Way from Cleveland. He defeated the fastest pacers at Hazel Park in the final week of that meeting and the big pacer is at his peak.

Del Cameron is shipping in Newport Amigo from Monticello Downs in Central New York state and Elmer Conrad plans to have Ruby's Sun on hand from Chicago, currently the best performer in the Midwest.

City Tax Bills Payable Tomorrow

City taxpayers will receive their annual "greetings" this week notifying them that 1960 taxes are due and payable beginning Friday.

Northville's millage rate this year is 12.5, a one mill increase over last year.

Deadline for payment is August 31. After that date a four percent collection fee is applied to tax bills. The city's 1960-61 budget totals $362,750. About $119,000 of this is raised from local property taxes.

Township Denies Bid For Outdoor Theater

A request to rezone 21 acres in the extreme southeast corner of Northville township to permit construction of an outdoor theater has been denied by the zoning board.

The proposed site is located at the northwest corner of Five Mile road and the extension of Eccles road.

In a public hearing held June 14 Roy Thompson, John Kline and Arthur Kobierzynski had asked the zoners to change the zoning classification from agricultural to M-1.

More than 100 area residents — including citizens and officials from Plymouth township and Livonia — attended the hearing and protested vehemently to the rezoning.

The meeting was adjourned without repudiation of a decision.

Zoning Chairman Ed Sprunk said the board unanimously opposed the rezoning because it did not "fit into the overall plan for the area," which abuts on residential property.

On July 18 the township zoners will hear another request for rezoning. The Dunrovin Corporation has asked that 120 acres west of Hagerty and south of Six Mile road be changed from R-1 and R-1-F to agricultural to permit construction of a golf course. The hearing will be held at 8 p.m. at the township hall.

OFFICIAL MONDAY — The 50-star American flag — recognizing Alaska and Hawaii as our 49th and 50th states — becomes official Monday, July 4. Eight of the new flags will wave from newly purchased standards located in Northville's business district. The flag project was undertaken by the Retail Merchants association and headed by Charles Altman (pictured above), vice president of the local retailers group.

Part of the reason for heavy traffic on North Center street, claims Sidney Frid, is that other Oakwood subdivision streets are closed to through traffic.

More confusion and detoured traffic can be expected during the summer. Novi road will be closed after July 4 to permit rebuilding of the road to Grand River.

A city grader was at work on North Center street early Tuesday morning, but the grading and oiling only helps temporarily residents complain.

KITCHEN DIARY

Pudding Treats Answer Summer Dessert Need

Looking for that special dessert, certain to challenge the taste buds of any dinner guest, or member of your family?

Then by all means try one or all of these three pudding recipes with which Mrs. Edward C. Mollema, 213 South Wing, has had so much success.

The first, Mrs. Mollema's prize "Apple-Nut Pudding", is tender, nutty and cake-like, and should be particularly appreciated in the Northville area where so many Michigan apples are grown.

APPLE-NUT PUDDING

Mrs. E. C. Mollema
¾ cup sugar
1 well beaten egg
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup enriched flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 cup finely chopped (lart) apples

½ cup chopped California walnuts
1 tsp. almond extract
Gradually add sugar to egg, beating until sugar is dissolved. Add sifted ingredients. Stir in remaining ingredients. Pour into greased, eight-inch square pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) 35 to 40 minutes. Serve with whipped cream — or for those diet watchers just serve plain.

Another favorite of Mrs. Mollema is the "Snow Pudding", a dessert which grandmother used to please her family. This recipe doesn't appear too often in the modern cook books.

SNOW PUDDING

¾ cup sugar
¾ teaspoon salt

2 cups boiling water
5 tablespoons cornstarch
¼ cup cold water
2 stiff-beaten egg whites
1/3 cup lemon juice

Combine sugar, salt and boiling water. Blend cornstarch, cold water. Add to sugar mixture. Heat to boiling and cook five minutes, stirring constantly. Cool slightly and fold in stiff-beaten egg whites and lemon juice. Pour into one quart mold which has been rinsed with cold water. Chill until firm.

Serve with custard sauce: Beat three egg yolks slightly; add ¼ cup sugar, 1/8 teaspoon salt and blend. Stir in double boiler until mixture thickens, stirring constantly, chill and add ½ teaspoon vanilla. Trim it with almonds.

CHERRY PUDDING

(Use rhubarb, sour apples or strawberries — the same way as cherries).

Over 1 pint of pitted sour cherries put 1 cup sugar. Let stand while you make batter as follows: One tablespoon butter creamed with ½ cup sugar. Then add 1 cup flour sifted with one tablespoon of baking powder, ¼ teaspoon salt. Add ½ cup of sweet milk and stir well. Pour batter in buttered baking dish and add cherries, covering them with one cup boiling water. The batter will come to top while baking at 350 degrees for 30 minutes.

FRIDAY, JULY 1 — PACE

28 Win Prizes in Merchants-Downs' Celebration

WINNER of the third race in the qualifying events was Cimmie Worthington driven by Ray Wilcox shown here receiving a new whip from Monte Ellis, president of the Retail Merchants association. Below horses are shown coming down the stretch. The action was narrated by Orlow Owen.

For 28 lucky prize-winners and a host of candy-clutching kiddies Saturday's wind-up to Northville's Downs Days was a happy occasion. The celebration, co-sponsored by the Retail Merchants association and Northville Downs, was divided into two parts — a "field day" for the children in the afternoon at the Downs, and a presentation of major prizes in the evening on Main street.

At the Downs the children and their parents were treated to three harness races that served as qualifying events for Downs' entries. The program was arranged by Alfred Smith and Orlow Owen acted as master of ceremonies. After the races prizes were awarded and then the youngsters were turned loose to find candy hidden on the infield of the track.

Music for the program was provided by Bob Williams and a group composed of high school students. Prize winners at the track were: Ray Sugg, Mrs. Fred Webster, Mrs.

Mazzie Markham, Jennie Watson, Jerry Lyke, Joyce Stuckey, Ann Thompson and Betsy Nichols. Prizes at the track included ice cream, pizza pies, hotdogs, banana splits, roller skates, baseball glove, badminton and croquet set.

Big winner in the evening was Beatrice Plamondon of Northville. She won the Toro rotary riding mower — but promptly sold it to Monte Ellis, president of the sponsoring Retail Merchants' group.

Other evening winners and their prizes included: Gail Luchtman, barbecue grill; Mrs. Fred Webster, basket of groceries; Mrs. Irene Gray, lawn chair; Leo Hollis, lamp; Roger Atchinson, cooler; Sally Nelson, blanket; Mrs. J. B. Straub, traincase; Denise Spiker, handbag; Margaret Mitchell, four dress shirts; Jerry Brayman, flowers and two gift certificates; Nettie Leavenworth, electric steam iron; Dorothy Tuck, barometer; Dan Lute, pen and pencil set; and gift certificates worth between $5 and $20 were won by Joseph Crupi, Beverly Hill, Fannie Bunch, Don Biery and George Zerbel.

AT RIGHT — Hundreds of kiddies flocked the infield of the track and hunted for candy that had been distributed throughout the area. This event concluded the program.

MUSIC was provided by Bob Williams (left), assistant director of music at Northville high school, and Ed Proctor, Gary Wakenhut, Janice Williams and Suzie Price.

DOWN'S Executive Manager John Carlo greeted the adults and children who attended the afternoon program at the track. Also introduced were Mayor A. M. Allen and Merchants President Monte Ellis. Behind Carlo is Alfred Smith, program chairman.

Births

A boy, Daniel James, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fuller of Detroit, June 7 at Grace hospital. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fuller of Northville and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Reagan of Grand Rapids.

THE PRECIOUSNESS OF OUR SALVATION

Jesus said: "The kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls, who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it." (St. Matthew 13:44-46).

Both of these parables of Jesus emphasize the preciousness of our salvation.

No matter how we may come upon our salvation, whether seemingly by accident, as the man who found the treasure in the field, or by diligently seeking it, as the merchant who found the pearl of great price, let us become convinced of its great worth.

The man who found the treasure in the field immediately knew that here was something of immense value. The merchant who in his trade came upon the pearl mentioned knew in that moment that this was not just another pearl, but a pearl of great price.

The treasure and the pearl both represent the salvation that is found in Jesus Christ

Salvation for all eternity! This is something truly precious. It and everything that has association with it should be regarded as priceless.

Jesus Himself is precious to us, because He brought about our salvation by means of His death and resurrection. The Bible says: "Unto you, therefore, which believe He is precious." (1 Peter 2:7). With His blood He redeemed us and earned heaven and everlasting life for us. "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation . . . but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot." (1 Peter 1:18-19).

So we sing:
*Jesus priceless Treasure,
Fount of purest pleasure,
Truest Friend to me.
Ah, how long in anguish,
Shall my spirit languish
Yearning, Lord, for Thee?
Thou art mine, O Lamb divine!
I will suffer naught to hide Thee,
Naught I ask beside Thee.
Should we not gladly give up the less precious in favor of the inestimable gift of God's salvation in Christ Jesus?*

SCOUT FUN — More than 230 Girl Scouts and Brownies from Northville, Plymouth and Wayne attended the annual, week-long Girl Scout Day Camp in Plymouth last week. Supervised by Mrs. Fred Sterner of Northville and aided by some 35 other staff members, the program included games and prizes (donated by Northville and Plymouth merchants and the Northville Optimist club) and a one night camp-out Thursday for Girl Scouts and Intermediates. Above, three eight-year-old girls — their mouths filled with crackers — attempt to break their balloons in a balloon blowing contest. They are (left to right) Eileen Madigan, Northville; Florence Bush, Plymouth, and Linda LaRoque, Northville.

Sample Cops Top Honors

Northville's ace horse rider, Bob Sample, continued his victory pace in Middle West competition last week after withdrawing from the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club horse show earlier this month because of inclement weather.

The 17-year-old Northville senior, riding his talented horse, "High Society", scored a quadruple triumph at the Bloomfield Open Hunt club show, held Thursday through Sunday.

Competing against nearly 70 of the top riders in the Middle West, Bob picked up the coveted American Horse Show medal class award, the horsemanship over-fence class, the Michigan Hunt perpetual challenge trophy, and the reserve equitation championship.

Thus, but for the Grosse Pointe show from which he withdrew, the young Northville rider remains undefeated in five shows this spring. He has won 10 blue ribbons in these shows.

By winning the AHSA medal class championship last week, Bob and his horse, which he and his coach, John Wallace, broke 2½ years ago, earned a position in the "world series" of horse shows next November at Madison Square Gardens.

His sister, Sally, 19, earned a similar award last year, but decided not to go to New York. Bob, however, plans to compete at the Garden.

Riders, ages 14 to 18, were judged on ability to ride and position in the over-fence class. Junior riders had to jump three-foot, six-inch high bars.

Last fall, as a member of the Northville Topnotchers Equestrian team, Bob and his teammates copied top honors at the sixth annual awards banquet. The Topnotchers were awarded the Class "A" division trophy in Michigan equestrian competition.

Bob, who hopes eventually to compete in the Olympics, will enter five more shows before leaving for New York next fall. These include Jackson, Metamora, Toledo, Holland and Castle Park.

Three Bunts Help Braves Nip Brewers

Three well-placed bunts and a fielding error helped Northville's National league nine nip the Wayne Brewers, 6-5, Thursday at Cass Benton park.

Down by two runs, 4-2 in the last half of the sixth, Relief Hurler Glenn Deibert stroked a timely single, took second on a balk, and then scampered home in front of Bob Tuck to tie the score as Doug Swiss bunted the ball which was in school squad, 12-6, and the sixth win this season against five losses, fumbled by the first sacker. Tuck gained a base with a sharp single.

Butch Pethers slapped a perfect bunt, and then Jim Mahoney laid down still another bunt to drive in Swiss and Pethers with the winning runs. The game was called at the end of the sixth because of darkness.

Deibert, who pitched the final 1½ innings after relieving Keith Mueller, was credited with the win. Duke and Finch shared mound duty for the losers.

The Northville victory was the second this season over the Brewers. The earlier score was 7-4.

Against WCTS a week ago Tuesday, Northville took advantage of numerous errors and five hits to claim the victory and avenge an earlier, 8-5 loss to the training school.

Mueller and Deibert shared mound duties for the Braves, with Deibert taking credit for the win. Katts, who was relieved in the final inning by Carson, was tagged with the loss.

The Northville Orioles, the Class "F" American league squad, upset the first-place Wayne Athletics, 5-4, last week.

The victory, the fourth in a row for the Orioles, gives the Northville nine a 4-7-1 record.

Fine pitching by Ron Vrandenburg with hitting power supplied by Dan Bishop, two doubles, Gary MacDermald, two singles, and Bob Bell, Rick Milne and John Mach, singles, resulted in the victory.

Hurls 3-Hitter, But Loses

Hurler Dave Luedke was nicked for only three hits Monday — but even so, Northville Recreation stumbled to its first defeat of the season as the Redlegs came up with an easy 12-3 victory.

The young Northville pitcher fanned 10 batters in his futile attempt to save the Eastern division league game, but Teammate Gordie Hammond's scratch single in the fourth was the squad's lone hit.

Recreation was down 4-3 in the last of the fourth when the Redlegs took advantage of a host of Northville errors to ice the game which was called at the end of five innings because of darkness.

Earlier, Recreation crushed the Clarenceville Eagles, 13-3 and the Phillies, 11-6, for the first two wins of the season.

Eric Peterson picked up the victory over the Eagles and Billy Lusk

WOMEN'S SOFTBALL LEAGUE — Carol Ann Sparling, member of the Northville Smith Products softball team, digs in for a cut at the ball. The catcher is Mary Champagne of the Ypsilanti squad. The local girls lost the game, 10-2, their third loss this season, but they had plenty of fun as they do in every game.

Class 'D' Nine Splits Openers

Northville's Class "D" nine split its opening two games last week, nipping Livonia Recreation, 5-4, and then losing to the Plymouth Elks, 2-1.

Roger Atchinson, varsity player with the Mustangs for the past four years, fanned 11 batters and gave up eight hits to claim the Northville victory over Livonia. His two sharp singles and three runs batted in won him top honors at the plate.

Livonia jumped to a 3-0 lead in the first inning as Dick Kobane and Jim Carmichael came up with two scratch singles — good enough to bring across all three runs.

Northville failed to score until the third. Tom Daniels opened with a bunt single. Don Coleman lined a single to center, sending Daniels to second. Two outs later, Atchinson stroked a single to right to score

Daniels.

The local squad bounced into a 4-3 lead in the fifth on singles by Dave Hay and Atchinson, a walk by Tom Daniels, and an error at the plate.

Recreation tied the game at four runs in the sixth on a hit, a wild pitch and another single.

In the last of the seventh with the score tied, Jerry Sniegur, who had grabbed a low liner in the first half of the inning to prevent the winning run from scoring, led off with a walk. Dave Hay dropped down a sacrifice bunt, and Bob Stuber drove in the winning run, smashing a single over first.

Stuber gave up only four hits, keeping the heavy hitting Plymouth players off stride most of the game, but the Elks still managed to win.

Northville took the lead in the first inning on two errors and a beautiful slide around the catcher by Hay.

The Elks scored their two runs in the fifth on a pinch-hit triple by Ron Toth, a throwing error at the plate, a double by the winning pitcher, Don Lomonaco, and another throwing error to second.

Both teams committed three errors.

Northville area children were reminded this week that they must register at the Scout hall before they can participate in the city-township recreation program.

Children may register any week day morning. A fee of 50 cents for Northville city and township residents is charged, and $8 for non-Northville children.

Two Wixom Teams Whip Yanks Sunday

Wixom's Number 2 Little League baseball squad managed to grab a piece of first place Sunday, whipping the Glegary Yanks, 7-4.

The victory gives the Wixom Orioles Number 2 nine a 7-1 record, good enough for a first-place tie with the Walled Lake Tigers.

Gary Connelly was the winning hurler. Jim Buffmyer was behind the plate. Terry Blake led the Orioles hitting attack with three doubles.

In the first division league, the Orioles' Number 1 team clipped the Yanks, 3-2, Sunday. The Wixom squad currently holds third place with a 5-3 record.

Day Camp Opening Set for Tuesday

The city-township sponsored day camp and the girls' summer recreation program will get underway Tuesday, Recreation Director Ken Conley announced this week.

Also on tap next week will be the first free trip to Briggs stadium for boys and girls, ages 18-15. All children wishing to attend the Thursday game are asked to sign up at the Scout hall before Wednesday.

Buses for the trip will leave at 11:45 a.m. from the community building. Adult chaperones are needed for this trip, Conley emphasized. Interested persons are asked to call FI-9-1676.

Day camp is designed for children between the ages of 5 and 12. The camp will include arts, crafts and games.

The girls' program schedule includes:

MONDAY — Tennis, ages 10-11: 12, 8:45-10:15; ages 13 and over, 10:15-11:45, at Cass Benton park; TUESDAY — Same age brackets, times and place;

WEDNESDAY — Badminton, shuffleboard, horseshoes and croquet, same ages, times and place;

THURSDAY — Softball, same ages and time at First street diamond; FRIDAY — Archery, ages 7-10, 8:45-10:15; 11 and over, 10:15-11:45; golf, 12 and over, 9 a.m., at Ford field.

Three of Northville's regulars missed the game. They were Jim Juday, Craig Bell and Tom Swiss.

In two games last week, the Plumbers nipped the Novi Giants, 2-1, and crushed the Wayne County Training school, 13-3.

Swiss was credited with the victory over Novi. He was relieved in the fifth by Bell. Novi's two hits and one run came in the seventh inning. Zielenksi was the losing hurler.

Elwell took hitting honors for Northville with two hits in four attempts at bat.

Elwell was the winning pitcher against WCTS, although Swiss took over mound duty in the fifth and set fans to buzzing as he fanned nine of the 10 batters he faced.

At the plate for Northville, Bell slugged a triple and a single, and Juday a double and single.

Northville City Council Proceedings

A regular meeting of the Northville City Council was held at the City Hall Monday Eve., June 20th, 1960 at 8 P.M.

Present: Mayor Allen, Councilmen Canterbury, Juday and Welch. Absent: Councilman Reed.

Minutes of last regular meeting and of Special meeting held June 13th, 1960, were read and approved.

Bills amounting to $9,878.94 from the General Fund, $404.10 from the Water Fund and $134.09 from the Water Construction Fund were presented for payment, and it was moved by Juday, supported by Welch that these bills be paid. Carried.

Several representatives of architectural firms were present to acquaint the Council with their qualifications for bidding on the proposed new City Hall. Mayor Allen thanked them for presenting their services, but informed them that the City is not yet ready to receive bids for this work, but that they would be given an opportunity to present their proposition when the City is ready to hire an architect. Sydney Frid, who was chairman of the City Hall Committee, suggested that the Council give the matter of where the City Hall is placed serious consideration, as he feels the present location is too valuable a piece of property to use for this purpose. He feels it is ideal for business development. He was assured that there would be no hurried decision regarding this matter.

Letter was read from Northville Public Schools stating that following the successful vote of June 13, 1960, they are prepared to take final steps to purchase the Community Bldg. at the sale price of $145,000, upon notice from the City that they are ready to sell.

Regarding the paving of N. Center St., the School Board is not interested in sharing in the paving of this street right now, because there are more urgent demands on their remaining funds.

Moved by Welch, supported by Juday, that the City pay the $5.00 membership fee to the Michigan Good Roads Federation. Carried.

A letter was read from the Michigan Municipal League stating that their Board has taken unanimous action to join the Citizens for Michigan, Michigan Education Assn. and others in support of the League of Women Voters - Junior Chamber of Commerce proposal for a constitutional convention.

It was agreed by the Council members present that Mgr. Robertson be sent to the conference of the International City Mgr's Assn. to be held at San Francisco, Calif. Oct. 16th to 20th, 1960.

A letter was read from C. R. Ely & Sons asking the City to stop disposing of rubbish on their property adjacent to the City Disposal Area. They also refused an offer by the City to purchase this property at the appraised value of $800. The City Attorney was authorized to write a letter in reply to the Ely letter, and to prepare a resolution for condemnation of Lots 13, 14 and 15 of Green Valley Acres, as well as the Ely property.

It was moved by Canterbury, supported by Welch, that an initiatory special assessment resolution be adopted to supercede and cancel the resolution passed Apr. 4th, 1960, regarding improvements to that portion of Novi Ave. which lies north of Hill St. The new resolution calls for these improvements to be made to Novi Ave. between Hill and Maplewood Sts. and then approximately 112 feet west on Maplewood to the west line of Yerkes Estates Sub. No. 3. Motion was carried.

Moved by Allen, supported by Welch, that the City Council hold a special meeting Monday Eve., June 27th, 1960, for the purpose of accepting the City Manager's report on special assessing improvements to Novi and Maplewood Sts.; taking up the matter of codification of ordinances; also to take action on resolution regarding annexation of dump property, now located in the Township, to the City of Northville. Motion was carried.

Resolution regarding the sale of the Community Building by the City of Northville to the Northville Public Schools School District, was presented, and it was moved by Canterbury, supported by Allen, that this resolution be adopted. Carried.

Moved by Welch, supported by Allen, that it having been determined there would be no advantage to the City of Northville in asking for competitive bids on Garbage and Trash collection for the year commencing July 1st, 1960, through June 30th, 1961, the provision to do so is hereby waived. Carried.

It was then moved by Welch, supported by Allen, that the contract with Willard Sanitation Service be executed covering the period from July 1st, 1960 to July 1st, 1961, which contract shall be the same as last year's, with the following changes:

1. That the contract price shall be reduced by $1,800.
2. That garbage pick-up be made at the curb rather than behind the house.

3. That garbage shall be picked up twice a week during the months of August and September.

This motion was carried.

There being no further business to come before the meeting, same was adjourned at 10:30 P.M. (Signed) Mary Alexander, Clerk

Signs of Good Furniture

When you shop for furniture of wood, try the doors and drawers to be sure they fit well and open and close smoothly. Mabel Cooper, instructor in related arts at Michigan State university, says doors should not sag and the inside of drawers should be finished to give a smooth surface that is easy to clean. Dovetail construction inside the drawer means top quality craftsmanship. Good furniture also features drawer bottoms of plywood or of the newer molded plastic forms which are faced with a wood panel at the front.

Hinges and pulls should be strong enough to stand the strain of use. Table leaves should fit perfectly when inserted or raised, and the wood and finish should be the same as the table.

The back and underside of quality furniture is sandpapered and finished. Sealing both sides of the wood gives a smooth surface and reduces the chances of swelling or shrinking. This step is skipped on low-priced furniture because of the added cost.

Miss Cooper suggests you note how the back and underside of a chest or desk are attached. Screws used with drilled holes indicate care in workmanship. Nails are used to speed construction though it results in furniture that is less rigid.

A quality finish on furniture is designed to bring out the beauty of wood color and grain. It has a rich depth, or patina, obtained by much rubbing and the effect is quite different from the shine of varnish or lacquer. Inspect the finish in a good light to be sure it is smooth and free from rough spots.

Impregnated wood is a new development for furniture surfaces and is achieved by treating the wood with a resin and then compressing it. This is highly resistant to heat, alcohol, acids, scratches and discolorations and is usually applied as a veneer.

It's Easy if You Know How

LINING up strips: here wallpaper is being aligned with the previous strip. Note the extra few inches at molding (safety margin) later to be trimmed off.

TEAMWORK: do-it-yourselfer is smoothing down strips of wallpaper, while his helpmate is pressing the seams down lightly with a seam roller.

TOOLS for paper-hanging are pictured here: bucket for paste, bag of paste, empty can for primer sealer or glue size, yardstick, bowl and sponge for washing down paper, razor blade cutter, string, spoon and chalk for a home-made plumb line to give you a correct vertical, scissors, paste brush and smoothing brush, wallscraper, seam roller for pressing seams.

Hanging wallpaper is not difficult, and here are a few tips to make it even easier.

1. Be sure to apply a coat of primer-sealer to plasterboard walls before papering. Or you can use cut shellac to which you add an equal part of alcohol. This coating makes it possible to remove the paper in the future without damaging the plaster board. After the primer-sealer or shellac a coat of glue size should be applied.

2. In papering over wall cloth, wash with a solution of either strong soap or ammonia and water in order to cut the gloss finish. Then apply glue size and allow to dry for an hour or two before hanging.

3. In papering over existing wallpaper, be sure that the old wallpaper is tight to the wall. If it is loose in spots, remove the old paper. It is also best to remove old wallpaper where the seams have been lapped since the old seams will show under the new wallpaper.

4. Most wallpapers sold today have had the selvage trimmed off at the factory. If not, the dealer will trim the papers for you at a nominal charge, thus eliminating the need for a cutting table and straight-edge. A kitchen table or two card tables, covered with wrapping paper will work well for matching and pasting strips.

5. Do not worry about getting paste on the pattern side when you buy trimmed wallpaper since it can be washed off after hanging.

"BILL DING MEANS BETTER LIVING"

SPEAKING

for the Record

By Bill Sliger

It appeared for a moment at last week's council session that the body might adopt a resolution urging residents to sign petitions to place the constitutional revision issue on the November 8 ballot.

If there had been unanimity on the matter, I believe the suggestion would have been good and proper.

Local government is the grass roots' level of our entire democratic system. It should have an opinion as to whether it functions effectively under the rule book of its big brother.

At any rate, the brief discussion did point up the fact that much confusion surrounds the circulation of petitions currently being conducted to beat the July 8 deadline.

A total of 231,218 signatures is needed. If this requirement is met, the constitutional revision question will appear on the November 8 ballot.

Specifically, the proposal on the ballot would be to amend the present state constitution to:

— require an election next spring on whether a constitutional convention should be called;

— adopt a new method for electing delegates (from three from each of the state's 34 senate districts to one for each of the 144 representatives and senators);

— provide that the convention would be called by majority approval of those voting on the question (not all electors going to the polls voted on the convention issue in 1958 thus, although it polled more "yes" than "no" votes, it failed because the total was less than a majority of all votes cast).

Nearly everyone agrees that our constitution — over 50 years old and weighted with 67 amendments — needs revision.

The bickering takes place over the manner in which delegates to the convention should be selected.

The current suggestion has wide support from both political parties, though not completely from either.

Certain Democratic forces fear that Republicans will dominate the convention.

Some Republicans are not satisfied with the majority representation accorded the GOP under the new delegate plan — because it is not as large as it would be under the existing plan of three delegates from each senate district.

But there are many issues in our constitution that need study (the Citizens Research Council of Michigan recently published a 42-page report discussing the major points in objective, non-editorial manner). And the current petition drive is the first means toward making this study a possibility.

If you have the opportunity, sign a petition. This will enable the people to vote on the proposed amendments to our present constitution.

If these amendments are passed in November, you'll have another opportunity to decide next April whether or not you wish to call for a constitutional convention.

High Level Job Security

JOB SECURITY in upper reaches of state government is a question that bothers some of the heads of the state departments.

Elected officials, of course, expect to take their chances every time their name goes before voters at the polls. But many of the men holding top administrative jobs are appointed.

The Civil Service Commission has decided to make a study to find out if there is a need to put some — or all — of these appointive jobs under the classified service.

Present regulations call for keeping the top jobs unclassified and not covered by Civil Service.

The philosophy behind this is that men holding these positions would want to do so strictly on the strength of their own ability to perform required duties adequately.

Perhaps more importantly, the Civil Service Commission has assumed that appointing authorities — the Governor, state commissions or boards and the top administrators themselves — would want to hold the power to replace an administrator at will.

The Civil Service provision in the state Constitution reads as follows:

"The state civil service shall consist of all positions in the state service except those filled by popular election, heads of departments, members of boards and commissions, employees of courts of record, of the Legislature, of the higher educational institutions recognized by the state Constitution, all persons in the military and naval forces of the state, and not to exceed two other exempt positions for each elected administrative officer, each department, board and commission."

Stocks in Bear Market

Babson Park, Mass. — I have been thinking of this subject for some time, and have about concluded that seeing what happened in the last bear market may be the best way of answering this question. It will be noted that I have arranged the industry groups according to their percentage of decline.

Among the industry groups that suffered the least are the shipbuilding and tire and rubber-goods stocks, which declined about 15 percent. Home electric appliance stocks fell 17 percent, department store stocks went off 19 percent. This listing is likely to change, however, and stock groups which may suffer the least in the next bear market may be those relating to the supplying of electric power, the oil and gas producers, and bituminous coal mining. Fertilizers should have increased use, with the need to feed a growing population; this should enable this industry to come under the category of relatively small decline. Stocks of companies owning large tracts of timber lands which supply the basic raw materials for certain synthetic fibers and plastics may also be able to hold their own, especially because of their inflation-hedge characteristics.

The industry groups which showed up next best included the following: — Soft drinks and canned foods, which declined 20 percent; shoes, down 23 percent; chemicals, publishing and motion picture, down only 25 percent; building materials stocks, down 26 percent; farm machinery off 27 percent; aircraft manufacturing down 28 percent; and industrial machinery stocks down 29 percent. Aircraft manufacturing, however, may fall off more.

Stocks in the auto, sugar refining, brewing, mail order, general chain store merchandising, and cement groups declined around 30 percent. Paper stocks fell 32 percent. Stocks in the textile and apparel and steel industries declined 30 percent. Radio broadcasting groups declined 37 percent. Meat packing stocks declined 39 percent. Because of their timber land and ore holdings, certain of the paper, steel, coal and gas stocks may do better in the next bear market. Unless there is massive unemployment, the merchandising and apparel groups also may suffer to a lesser degree than in the last bear market.

The groups which suffered the most included the radio and television manufacturers, and mining and smelting — which were off 41 percent. Truck manufacture stocks dropped 42 percent. Air and rail transportation stocks were off 45 percent. Copper, lead and zinc stocks fell 49 percent; also aluminum stocks. The carpet and rug group declined more than 50 percent. Over the long run, stocks of natural resource companies should ultimately prove valuable to the investor with patience.

During the last bear market, the electronics stocks were not popular. There was then no attempt to fire long-range missiles, or to circle the moon with rockets. This is something which has developed during the present bull market, which has been in existence for about ten years. This electronic and space work might change the positions of many of the groups listed above.

My own opinion is that these electronic and space stocks would be listed with those which showed a decline of over 40 percent. I, of course, am in favor of a gradual reduction in armaments. On the other hand, if gradual disarmament comes about, I fear that the electronic and space stocks could severely suffer. In fact, a good many of the other stock groups mentioned above would do well to hold their record of the last bear market.

Becker Enters Race
In Oakland County

Arthur C. Becker of Southfield has announced his candidacy for Republican nomination to the state legislature from Oakland county's fourth district.

The fourth legislative district, presently represented in the house of representatives by Democrat S. James Clarkson, is bounded on the north and south by 14 Mile and 8 Mile roads, on the west by the west county line of Lyon township, and on the east by the cities of Berkeley and Oak Park.

Becker is a special deputy sheriff for Oakland county and vice president of a Detroit printing firm.

John A. Titus of Berkeley has also announced he will seek the GOP nomination to the house in the August 2 primary.

IT ONLY FEELS LIKE POWER STEERING
(Corvair doesn't need it)

Corvair's ingenious design simply places the engine in the rear. That means less weight on the front wheels and a lighter, happier feel in the curve of your hands. No power assist is needed in a car that's naturally nimble. See what a fresh engineering approach can do? From handling and parking ease right on, there just isn't anything ordinary or conventional about Corvair. Look at its practically flat floor, four-wheel independent suspension, fold-down rear seat. Its air-cooled rear engine that never needs water or antifreeze or radiator repairs... and leaves engine heat and noise back where you've been. All these special advantages are standard in every Corvair. Just wait till you see how much they add to your driving pleasure. But why wait!

FASCINATING FACTS ABOUT NATURAL GAS

GAS - Radiant Highlight

In 1816 Rembrandt Peale, a noted Baltimore painter and museum owner, invited guests to view his paintings and curios. The highlight of the evening was not the exhibit — but ILLUMINATION by GAS! — but the visitors were so delighted with this wonderful new lighting that they shortly after the artist's display, the first Gas company in the New World was formed — The Gas Light Company of Baltimore.

GAS - Household Delight

People are still delighted with GAS! The modern homemaker proudly exhibits her all-gas kitchen with Gas appliances that save her hours of time and miles of walking — the year-around Gas air conditioning that insures warmth in winter and cool comfort in summer. In myriads of ways Natural GAS is enthusiastically acclaimed the modern "ideal household servant".

Fishing's Fun' But You Can Over-Do A Good Thing

Dayton Deal, Nelson Schrader and their sons, Wade and Nelson, Jr., aren't talking about the "big one that got away" after returning from a six-day fishing trip to Canada.

But the Northville quartet does have a weird tale to tell about their experience near Chapleau, Ontario last week.

It goes like this: After arriving Saturday morning (June 18) they decided to choose a lake accessible only by airplane to try their luck. The two sons, both former Northville high school graders, were flown first in the small plane to an island on the lake where a tent and motor boat was available.

But when the plane returned for the fathers, bad weather set in and the plane could not make the trip. The boys had sleeping bags and food, but no fishing tackle or gasoline for the boat.

Sunday noon the weather cleared allowing the fathers to join their sons.

The fishing was good and the time passed rapidly until Tuesday evening when the plane was due back to return the vacationing fishermen to civilization.

You guessed it — the weather prevented the pilot from making the trip. As a matter of fact, he couldn't return until Thursday afternoon.

By this time they were out of food, cigarettes, gasoline for their outboard and stove.

Their meals consisted of fish, which they wrapped in foil and cooked in coals.

Hears Planning Talk

George Zerbel, chairman of the Northville planning commission, spoke to members of the Coordinating Council at its June meeting last week.

Zerbel explained the work of the commission and used maps to illustrate how community planning is developed.

He pointed out that the aim of the planners is to protect the desirable characteristics of the community, as well as guide future developments based upon anticipated needs.

"Decisions of the board must be based upon consideration of the welfare of the community as a whole," Zerbel explained, even though some individuals may suffer disappointment and inconvenience.

A representative of the consultant firm of Waring and Johnson works with the city planning commission.

EXCLUSIVELY FOR VETERANS

Say, Buddy, how about that promise you made to God back during the war? You will pardon me for bringing this matter to your attention but that night as your ship was passing through the dark waters where the enemy subs were reported to be lurking, what did you vow to God if He spared your life through that hour of peril? Or on the front lines, that day when the shells were bursting all about you and it looked like death might come any moment — what was that prayer that you silently prayed and made a covenant with the God of Heaven if He would spare your life? Yes, like many, you have forgotten them! He spared you and you promised to become a Christian and live for Him! Look, let's not be dishonest with God. It's bad enough to break your word with men, but it's worse to break your word with the living God. You were a soldier of courage on the battlefield and you will need some of that courage to stand up for Jesus Christ and tell others that today you will pay your vow by receiving Christ as your personal Savior and you intend to follow Him.

NEWS FROM THE AMERICAN LEGION

Bob Colacott — Reporter
POST 147

This being the last article I will write this year, I think it is only fitting that I report on the Legion's accomplishments during the past year.

In the field of welfare our welfare chairman, Bob Miller, reports a total spending of $654 to the following: the Red Cross and United Foundation; the Legion's Otter Lake Bilet for children of veterans who are in need of assistance; Christmas time, 11 veterans' families were helped by our donation of food, clothes, etc. In all, there were 23 veterans' service cases handled in which money was spent.

In addition to the money spent we have loaned out five beds of the hospital type and two of these are still in use. Two pairs of crutches have been loaned and one pair is still in use. Six wheel chairs were loaned and one is still out. In addition to these several loans were made that we have no record of.

I would like to point out that all the money spent on service cases plus the cost of beds, wheel chairs and crutches is taken from our welfare fund. Our welfare fund is financed by our annual Poppy Sales each year. This money cannot be touched by anything or anyone except for the field of welfare.

Americanism Chairman Jim Madigan reports that flags were presented to ten Brownie scout troops in Northville, the Rainbow Girls of Northville, five Brownie troops in South Lyon, one Pioneer Girls' troop and boys' troop of the Lutheran church, South Lyon, and one flag to the American Library Society at South Lyon in addition to these, several flag presentations were made to different schools in the Northville area.

At each of these presentations a film entitled "Stars and Stripes" was shown. This film was given to the Northville schools by the Lloyd H. Green Post 147 in 1958. This film will be shown to any group who will contact the Americanism chairman of the American Legion through Post Commander J. J. Steimel, FI-8-1682.

The Oratorical contest was a success this year. We had two local boys competing. The boys were Jim Tuck and Charles Hix. Jim won the local, district and third zone contests. He also placed third in the state contest.

Outgoing Commander Howard Wright would like to express his thanks to all of his fellow Legionnaires who helped him during his year in office. He also asks that we all give the same support, or better, to our new commander, John Steimel.

READERS SPEAK:

Kids Need Example

To the Editor:

I always read your column, "Speaking For the Record", but the one a week or two ago about delinquency in Northville was, I think, most timely and to the point. Anyplace where the youngsters congregate is subject to vandalism, though I do think Northville has been exceedingly fortunate in having so little of it.

Thanks are of course due to our police force and the many business people who have shown their interest in young people.

We do, in general, have a good crop of youngsters here — and young men and young women; the young people of today are no worse than when we were young, only different and they have more freedom and therefore more opportunities for getting into mischief than the young people of former generations did, they need more and different guidance and control.

Most of the difference in the generations lies in the amount and kind of discipline and mostly, the example that is set them at home.

If pop swipes a sandwich from a co-worker's lunch box (just a laugh, of course) or mom "borrows" something from her neighbor when no one is at home, why shouldn't he try it, especially, if they don't get caught?

The discipline comes in teaching your youngster that anything in a store or other people's property, means "Hands Off".

If he does take something that does not belong to him, he returns it with an apology and if it is spoiled or defaced he pays for it out of his allowance.

Parents would do well to spend some free time with their young people, that is also free time for the youngsters and see that they are free to bring their young friends home.

Parents can learn a lot more by keeping their mouths shut and their eyes and ears open than they can by demanding, arguing, scolding, etc.

The old adage: "Train a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart therefrom." is just as true today as it ever was.

Sincerely yours,
Grace S. Miller
