Sky Diver Mike Madigan Adjusts Chute

He Soars in Space Without Wings

Wind sweeps past your face as you climb out onto the wheel and cling to the wing strut.

White fleecy clouds drift by overhead.

Then suddenly your hands unlock and you fall backward into the emptiness of space.

For Northville sky diver Mike Madigan the only terrifying aspect of jumping into space is packed into a few seconds before the fall. But standing on the wheel of a plane at a height of 5,000 feet is no place to change your mind — so you shiver a few times and

Despite the "scare," the 24-year-old Eastern Michigan university sophomore, who lives at 42777 8 Mile road, claims sky diving is a safe, thrilling sport with no equal. And Mike is not alone. The hundreds of young men and women who head for the nation's airports each week attest to the sport's growing popularity.

Mike, who will join several other outstanding Michigan chutists in the state championship jump at the Novi Gala Day celebration August 27, began jumping only last spring. He logged 16 jumps in 42 days — then on July 14 he suffered a simple leg fracture when his chute failed to function properly.

Far from discouraged, he jumped again two weeks ago, this time into a lake to prevent reinjury to his leg.

"My leg's okay now," he said last week still showing a limp, "so I'll begin making land jumps again. I'll be in fine shape for the Novi jump."

Mike served four years in the air force where he first became interested in jumping. But it was not until the parachuting exhibition at Novi last year that he decided to take up the sport. He joined the Michigan Sky Diving team which meets weekly at Milan.

New members of his club take only a few basic lessons before making their first static-line jump. A static-line jump means the chute is opened automatically, he explained. Members must make at least five such jumps before beginning "free falls."

Sky diving does not begin until free falls start. A chutist who pitches himself into space and releases his chute is free falling; a chutist who plunges into space and glides downward while executing turns, dives and spins before releasing his chute is a sky diver.

According to Mike, the greatest thrill of this sport is being able to glide through the sky by using arms as wings. "You actually come close to imitating a bird — but of course you're falling steadily all the time and must open the chute before it's too late."

The most critical moment of every jump, he explained, occurs within the last few hundred feet to the ground. At this point the jumper must be ready for the touch down. An improper landing can result in serious injury.

But the jumper who knows how to touch and roll is in no danger, he added. "Sometimes landing feels about the same as if you were jumping off the roof of a house — and sometimes it's like stepping off a porch step."

What makes military jumping more dangerous?

According to Mike, the weight the paratrooper carries, and his "sleeveless" chute are two reasons for the increased danger.

When the sky diver's chute springs from its holster, a long sleeve pulls away, allowing the chute to gradually "bubble" or fill with air. The military chute has no sleeve, thus when released it bubbles almost instantaneously. This is the reason paratroopers experience the shock of an abrupt, sometime injurious bounce as the chute opens, he said.

Probably one of the most surprising and perhaps unappealing aspects of sky diving to the beginner is the fact that he packs his own chute. But in Mike's words, "Who is going to use more care than the fellow who intends to jump?"

City OK's New Building

The city council approved plans Monday night for construction of a 40x60 foot public works building.

The new structure will be built on city property within the fenced sanitary-fill property on Gerald avenue. Much of the work will be handled by city employees, Public Works Superintendent Herman Hartner stated.

Plans call for the building to be constructed of cement blocks with 14-foot overhead clearance inside. Construction will begin immediately and upon completion all public works equipment will be moved from the present Wing street site.

While no decision has been made, the council has discussed using the Wing street property (next to the cemetery) for a recreation site.

Hospital Authority Faces Problems

The second meeting of area community representatives seeking to establish a hospital authority produced obstacles that threaten the unanimity of the joint effort.

Citizens representing 14 communities met in Wixom last Friday evening in an attempt to complete plans to place the question of forming an area hospital authority on the November ballot.

It would appear that, with not more than two or three exceptions, the representatives would recommend adoption of such a resolution to their respective governing bodies.

A difference of opinion, however, as to the eventual operation of an authority hospital now confronts the group.

The plan was further complicated by the reticence of some representatives to push the issue fast enough to gain a spot on the November ballot.

According to Mayor A. M. Allen, Northville member of the committee, election laws permit proposals to be placed on the ballot as late as September 15. While he would favor prompt action, some communities suggest an April election date.

Probably the most delicate of the problems, however, is the insistence by Wixom and the village of Milford that it should be understood at the outset that the proposed authority hospital should permit combined use by osteopaths and MD's.

According to Community General Hospital Administrator Calvin Monfils, this decision is a matter for the authority to settle once it is formed. The Wixom and Milford groups, however, are pushing for adoption of a resolution that will assure the combination-type facility before the authority question is placed on the ballot.

While it is not yet clear whether the committee will continue its efforts to resolve their problems in time for the November ballot, another meeting has been called for August 26.

Mayor Allen told the Northville city council Monday night that he hopes the council will adopt a resolution calling for a November vote at the September 6 Northville council meeting. On the same evening, however, the Novi village council decided not to take action on the matter because it was Councilman Walter Tuck's understanding that the authority vote would not be proposed until April.

Meanwhile, South Lyon has already passed a resolution favoring a vote on the proposed authority. At the August 26 Milford meeting in the Bertha Baker school, which has been designated as a session open to the public, a representative of the Detroit Area Hospital Council will address the group.

Joint use of the hospital by osteopaths and MD's is certain to be the main matter of discussion. According to Monfils, Northville, Farmington and Plymouth would oppose Wixom and Milford on the question.

In the two meetings to date the following communities have been represented: Novi village and township; Farmington city and township; Northville city and township; Salem and Lyons township; South Lyon; Milford village and township; Wixom and Walled Lake.

While Plymouth was not officially represented by its city council, the meeting was attended by Dr. Barry Alford of Plymouth. According to Mayor Allen and Monfils, Plymouth has expressed some interest. It is generally believed that Walled Lake and Livonia, once considered as possible members, will not join the effort.

Specifically, the proposed hospital authority plan, if approved by voters of two or more townships, villages or cities, permits establishment of an "authority" with the power to levy a tax up to four-tenths of a mill on the state equalized assessed valuation. This authority is made up of representatives of the communities it serves and has the power to plan, build, buy, improve, enlarge, maintain, etc., one or more hospitals within or without the boundaries of the authority.

The assessed valuation of the area under consideration amounts to about $150,000,000, not including Plymouth. A four-tenths mill levy would yield about $60,000 annually. The inclusion of the city of Plymouth (the township has said it is not interested) would boost the valuation by $21 million, for an additional tax income of $8,000.

Rodeo, Homecoming Celebrations on Tap

A four day fun festival gets underway tonight (Thursday) at Northville Downs with activities jointly sponsored by the American Legion Post 147 and the Northville Optimist club.

Tonight the Legion's "Homecoming" event starts with the opening of the Cook Shows carnival. The carnival will be opened at 5 p.m. tonight and Friday and at 1 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

The second big attraction, the Optimist club's annual wild west rodeo, will be staged at the Downs on Saturday at 8 p.m. and again Sunday at 2 p.m.

The Optimist rodeo event promises to be the biggest ever undertaken by the local club. For the first time the annual rodeo will have two performances. The club is spending some $5,000 on the benefit promotion and in addition to the professional cowboys has lined up a host of prizes and a western orchestra.

For the Legion the Homecoming is a new idea. It will recapture the atmosphere of the country fair with foot races, pie-eating contests, penny scramble and sack races.

There will also be an award for the former resident who attends the event from the greatest distance.

The carnival itself will feature rides, games and sideshows.

The contests for boys and girls will be held Saturday at 4 p.m. On Sunday at 7 p.m. two bicycles will be given away to carnival ticket holders.

As a special attraction four "teams" will compete in an old-fashioned water hose fight.

The four-man teams will represent the Northville and Novi fire departments and the Northville Legion and VFW posts. They'll aim their sprays at a barrel hanging on a cable with the object being to force the barrel across the "enemy" goal.

To get residents in the "rodeo mood" the Optimists have hired the Western Ramblers, a well-known quintet featuring modern, western, polka and square dance music.

The Ramblers will entertain shoppers in the business district Saturday afternoon from two until four and will be on hand again Sunday afternoon at the rodeo. Saturday night the musical entertainment will be provided by Bob Williams and his Collegiates.

Featured with the Ramblers are: Dick Poupard, champion square dance caller; Slim Hagerman, "The Blue Grass Drifter"; Joe Clevenger, hailed as Michigan's fastest old-time fiddler; "Buddy Boy" Sikes, string musician and crooner; and Mickey on the accordion.

Cowboys from throughout the Midwest and Canada will compete for cash prizes in calf roping, steer bulldozing, saddle and bareback riding and roping.

A fantastic list of prizes, totaling 38 in all, will be given away during the two-day Optimist rodeo celebration. A television set, movie camera, power mower, patio furniture and picnic table and benches are sure to attract the adults.

Youngsters will be excited about the two power go-carts as well as many games and sporting goods that will be awarded.

Free parking is available at the Downs for both events. There's no admission to the carnival and tickets to the rodeo are available at the gate or from any Optimist or American Legion member.

Chairman of the Legion Homecoming is Robert Miller. Working on his committee are: James Madigan, secretary; L. W. Snow, Jr., John Goss and Otis Tewksbury, concessions; Michael Nash and Robert Wren, contests; Lewis Townsend, grounds; John Chedrick, police; and Bob Blough and Bob Collacott, publicity. Chairman of the Optimist rodeo is Roger McClain. Other committee members are: Bill Taft, rodeo events; Monroe Weston, concessions; Dick Huston, program; John Canterbury and George Kohn, publicity; and William Milne, tickets.

Area Resident In Jet Crash

An area resident, Lt. Col. Harvey D. Cook of 39620 Nine Mile road, crashed a flaming jet attack fighter into Lake Erie early Wednesday morning shortly after taking off from Grosse Ile Naval Air Station.

His condition was described as "fair" Wednesday noon at Wyandotte General Hospital.

Cook moved to Novi from Toledo about 1 1/2 years ago and is employed in Detroit as a structural engineer. He is married and has two children.

His flight was part of routine training being taken during a two-week summer tour of the Marine air force. Cook is commander of Marine Attack Squadron 222, stationed at Grosse Ile.

Piloting a Douglas AD-5N sky raider jet, Col. Cook took off at 7:00 a.m. Wednesday. Shortly after take-off he reported an uncontrollable fire in the cockpit. His wing man radioed "May day" distress signal as Cook's plane crash landed into Lake Erie about 13 miles south of the naval air station and three miles off shore just east of the Enrico Fermi atomic power plant near Monroe.

Early reports stated that Cook suffered second and third degree burns on both legs.

His rescue was made by helicopter and he was being taken to the hospital within 25 minutes of the time his plane crashed into the water.

Center St. Paving Still an 'Iffy' Issue

School board and city council members met jointly Tuesday evening in an attempt to reach a mutual understanding on the proposed paving of North Center street.

The project includes paving the street from the new Eight Mile road cut-off to an undetermined point north of the school boundary.

Attempts to arrive at a mutually acceptable method for financing the paving have thus far failed. Both city and school officials have told complaining residents of the area that they are willing to support the project — and that the delay has been caused by the "other" body.

Tuesday night the officials pinpointed the problem to the legal interpretation of a "special assessment contract."

The city has proposed that this method, provided as a special assessment procedure by the city charter, would be the "fastest and safest" means of financing the project. Under this contract the school would pay for one-half the cost of the street in front of school property. The city would pay for the other half from general funds.

It is understood, however, that the school board attorney, James Littell, has ruled that this procedure is not possible for the school to follow. Reportedly, his opinion called for creation of a complete special assessment district. Both Littell, and City Attorney Philip Ogilvie are vacillating and were not in attendance at Tuesday's session.

The special assessment district plan is not favored by Ogilvie. He has voiced legal doubts as to its workability because the city would not assess property owners on the east side of the street (original section of the city).

Both city and school board members agreed that time now makes it highly improbable that the project, when resolved, can be undertaken this year.

Board President Robert Shafel stated that the school "has always felt an obligation to participate in the paving of the street if a way could be found."

He pointed out that the school cannot use its bond monies and therefore funds would have to come from the general operating budget. He proposed that, when a method for undertaking the project is found, the school would need perhaps four years to complete its payments.

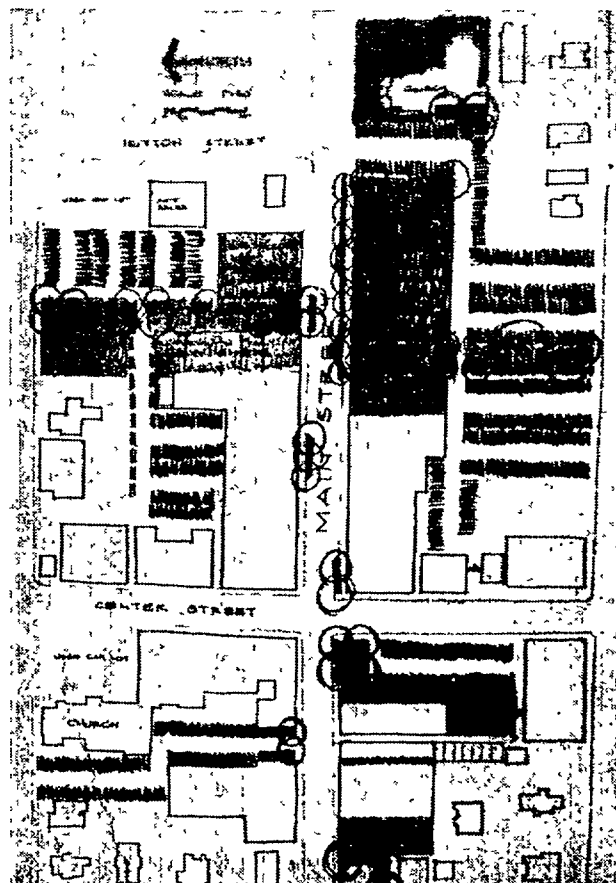

As the matter now stands, the school board has promised to obtain an opinion and explanation on the city's proposed "special assessment contract" plan from Attorney Littell early in September.

If the project can be undertaken by this method, the bodies agreed that it should get first priority next spring.

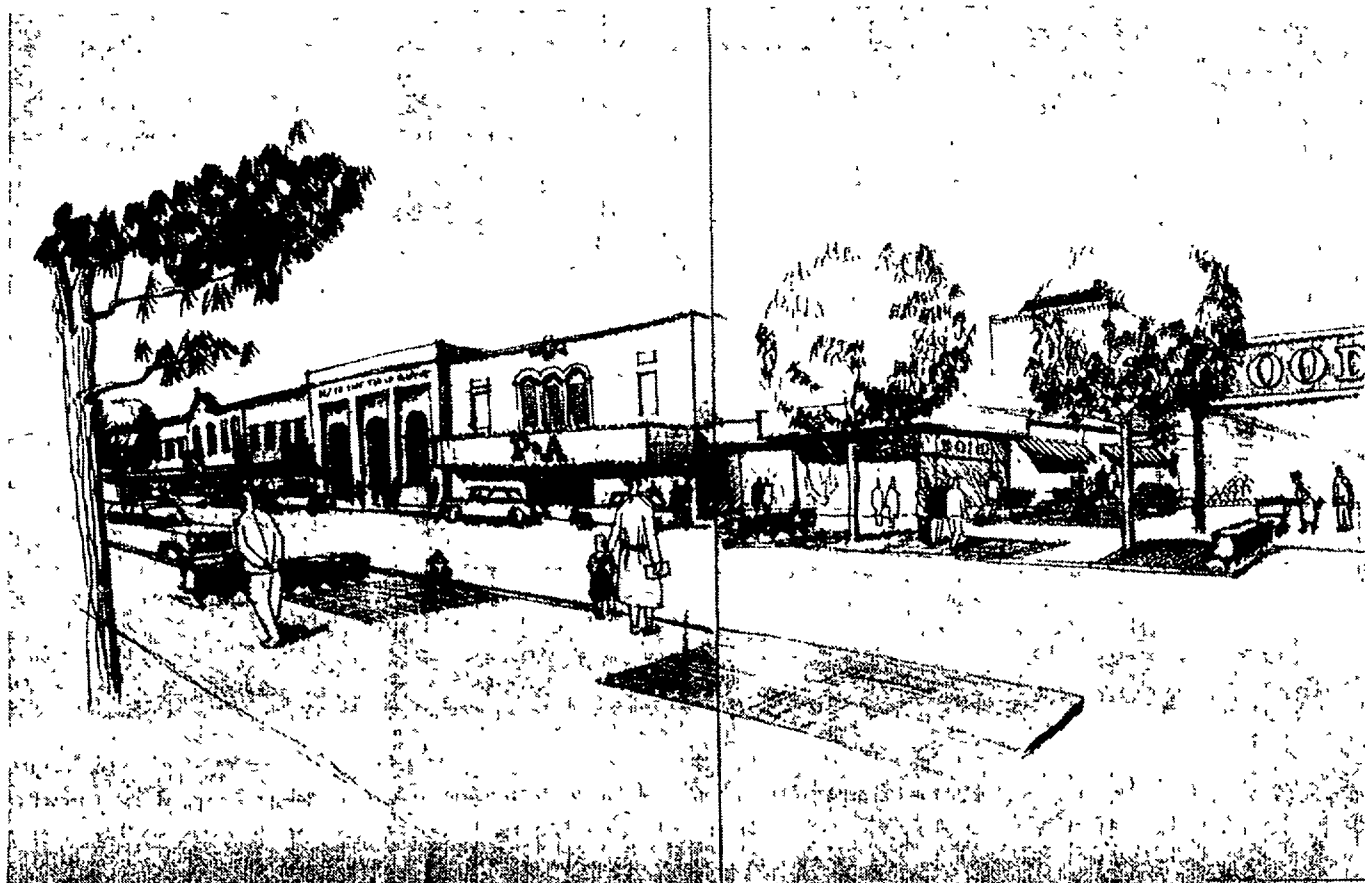

Meanwhile, the officials decided to delay installation of a permanent sidewalk in front of the Amerman school until the street paving is done. A temporary asphalt walk is planned for this fall.

In other matters of school business the board awarded N. B. Hummon the contract for grading, seeding, sodding and maintaining for 60 days, the football field area at the high school. The bid was $18,353.50. Completion date for the project is October 1.

Here's Winning Plan for Shopping Area

A NEW NORTHVILLE — This is how Keith Brown, University of Michigan architectural student from Detroit, would redevelop Northville's business district. His entry caught the fancy of judges in the "Beautify Northville" commercial redevelopment contest and won the $150 first prize. His drawing was proclaimed "imaginative, economical, fits the area and possible to build within the limits of the area market" by the judges. Although not reflected in these prints, Brown's drawings made extensive use of colors. The shaded areas are new buildings, greenbelts and parking. He added approximately 20 new shops and two new supermarkets, but left most existing buildings standing. Bright colors, striped awnings were used to give a touch of newness to the old buildings. On the south side of Main street all of the existing buildings between the Presbyterian church and Mainville's Drugs were removed. Three or four new shops are proposed along the east wall of Mainville's facing the church. Between these new shops and the church are three new shops and a three-story department store. These buildings are recessed and facing Main street. A greenbelt is provided between these new shops, Main street and the church. Ample parking is provided in the alley and church area. On the southwest corner of Main and Center streets a small greenbelt (or park) area is provided with parking extending southward to the bowling alley. A supermarket and smaller shops are provided along the western edge of this lot with the supermarket at the rear near the bowling alley. On the north side of Main street it is proposed to replace all the buildings between Hutton street and the theater, except the gas station and auto agency. From Main street to Dunlap along the eastern edge of the theater new shops would face eastward. A greenbelt area would divide these shops from a supermarket. The market would face Main street and the greenbelt with parking provided all the way through to Dunlap. Architectural students from Wayne State university, the University of Detroit and Michigan, Lawrence Institute of Technology took part in the redevelopment contest. They visited Northville last May during the "Beautify Northville" campaign and their renderings were judged last week. Beautify Northville Chairman John Swain and W. C. Becker, assistant professor of fine arts at Wayne State university, were in charge of the contest. The judges, practicing architects, did not name winners in the high school class because only two entries were submitted. The $50 prize for this division will be split. Two $25 honorable mention awards were made to two other entries, one submitted by a team of three students from LIT and another by two students from U. of M. The LIT entry, called "most creative," is shown on page 12.

about WOMEN

GOOD BUY — Area residents who want to help Community General hospital and at the same time enjoy the Northland Playhouse performance of "Goodbye, Charlie" can do so by purchasing tickets for September 11 from one of the members of the hospital auxiliary. Postmaster Leland Smith is shown buying his tickets from Mrs. Lorne Dyer, chairman of the auxiliary's Benefit Night promotion. Proceeds of the project will be used to purchase hospital equipment. The play stars Eve Arden. Working with Mrs. Dyer as co-chairmen are Elizabeth Etz and Mrs. A. M. Allen.

Caution and deliberation in using colors will determine their over-all effectiveness in the interior decorating scheme of your home.

Home economists at Michigan State University say accent colors can add sparkle to your individual rooms, but don't use too much. They recommend the use of a few color accents for the greatest effectiveness, warning homemakers that too many colors in too many places detract from the total balance and contrast of a room's color plan.

If you feel a little uncertain about your "color quotient", your adeptness in selecting appropriate color combinations, here are a few suggestions which may help.

Consult a wheel or chart to learn which colors contrast and which complement. Take advantage of catalogs, books and any other literature dealing with the subject. Some of the larger magazines for homeowners and homemakers have published compilations of their knowledge. Store display windows, homes you visit and mayhaps a professionally trained person are sources for ideas.

Don't be afraid of colors. Soft and harsh hues seen alone take on new personalities and character when used properly.

Thousands of column inches in daily newspapers in the last few weeks have reported the strife and discontent rumbling in the Belgian Congo. Africa, for so many years termed the "dark continent" of the world, has attracted worldwide notice as its colonies become independent nations.

Much fact and fiction has been written about Africa and her provinces, one of the more recent being "The Firestorm Heart", a fictional account of South Africa by Stuart Cloete now on the shelves of the Northville public library.

Other interesting and enlightening volumes currently available at the library are Dr. Thomas Dooley's "The Night They Burned the Mountain", Nikos Kazantzakis' "The Last Temptation of Christ", and a work about storms on Michigan's Great Lakes, "Fresh Water Fury" by Frank Barcus.

This coming Sunday, August 21, a group of artists who "paint for fun and have fun painting" will show works from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. at 2385 Commerce road, between Commerce and Millford. The exhibitors from several communities nearby are associated with the Marion Zoner studio. Their oil paintings will be shown at this third annual exhibit.

Inconvenient weather will delay the exhibit until Sunday, August 28.

NEWCOMER'S CORNER

"I look upon every day to be lost, in which I do not make a new acquaintance."

—Samuel Johnson

With this week's newcomers we meet another profession — medicine. How much of a private physician's time is his own? How much belongs to his patients and meeting the demands of his occupation?

Dr. Robert Jaslow, new clinical director of the Plymouth state home and training school, left private practice in April to work for the state of Michigan. He wanted more time with his family — his wife Kay and their three children, Ann 10, Alan 7 and Paula 4. Before coming to Northville the Jaslows had lived seven years in Chambersburg, Pennsylvania where Dr. Jaslow was a pediatrician. When the decision to make a move came up, Dr. Jaslow and his wife weighed the alternatives, finally deciding in favor of the position at the state home and training school in Michigan.

Dr. Jaslow took up his new duties in April. Mrs. Jaslow waited for the children to finish the school year, arriving here in June.

They're very happy to be here, reports Mrs. Jaslow. "We like it very much and hope to remain a long time," she says.

Their residence at 43786 Doris court is temporary while they wait for a home to be built for them on the grounds of the institution. The house they would have occupied, an eight-room dwelling on Five Mile east of St. John's Seminary, was gutted by fire in January.

Like many of our Northville newcomers, Mrs. Jaslow is devoted to her role as a wife and mother. Her husband has worked in community affairs and been active in groups associated with the medical profession.

Dr. Jaslow did his undergraduate work at Lehigh university and studied medicine at Jefferson Medical college in Philadelphia. Prior to his April training school appointment, Dr. Jaslow, while maintaining private practice, was the clinical director of the Pennhurst State school for the mentally retarded in Pennsylvania.

Hobbies Offer Relaxation, Education for All Ages

Have you ever observed deltiologists busily engaged in an important bourse? They exhibit the gusto of an auctioneer, the shrewdness of the experienced bargainer and the alert observation of the trained scientist.

More simply, the deltiologist is a postcard collector, the bourse a postcard trading and selling session.

The mere fact that postcard collectors now bear such a scholarly-sounding title indicates the accelerated activity this hobby — and hobbying in general — is enjoying everywhere.

In Northville we have a prize-winning postcard collector in Mrs. Floyd (Betty) Kupsky of 318 Yerkes. In high school Mrs. Kupsky corresponded with foreign pen pals — an idea she got from her French teacher. Postcard collecting ran a poor second.

Nevertheless, her card collection was mushrooming all throughout those earlier years. In the middle forties she decided to pacify the creeping collecting mania and give the cards some logical organization. She joined the All-States Hobby club (ASHC) in 1949.

Thousands of postcards and 11 conventions later Mrs. Kupsky is still "bourse-ing" on any opportune occasion and through the mails (as far as London, England). She has prize ribbons, newspaper clippings and the job of ASHC corresponding secretary with a mailing list of 655 to keep her hobby fresh in mind.

Hobbies aren't just the idle fancies of people burdened with an overabundance of leisure time. This is illustrated by a run-down membership in the national hobby fraternity.

"Members embrace all age groups from youth to the 90's," says Mrs. Kupsky.

This may be due in part to what Mrs. Kupsky feels is the "much broader scope of hobbies today." The ASHC, for example, reports 217 different hobbies among its members. The organization has two hobby categories — collective and creative.

At its annual three-day convention, held in a different major city each year, the club tries to convince the public to take hobbies seriously by opening aisles of free exhibits set up by club members.

Mrs. Kupsky, co-founder of the Wolverine Postcard club and member number two through an unfavorable flip of a coin, recommends hobbies because "They are relaxing and educational, too."

Return from Lake

Mrs. Jack D'Haene and her five children and Mrs. Donald Ritenour and her three children are home from Island Lake where they spent two weeks outdoors as tent-dwelling campers. The D'Haene children are: Jackie 13, George 10, David 7, Dirk 3, and Michael 1. The young Ritenours are: Curtis 7, Jo Ellen 5, and Susan 1.

She suggests them particularly for older people as a constructive channel in which to direct their time and interests.

What's Mrs. Kupsky's specialty? Tuck Oilettes, cards of the early 1900's depicting all types of subjects, are favorites she obtains through London dealer William Gummer.

The pursuits of other hobbyists in the states run all the way from button collectors to a woman who skillfully fashions the feather plumage of turkeys, chicken and geese into just about any figure imaginable.

Besides hobbying Mrs. Kupsky is president of the Northville VFW auxiliary and a member of the Community General hospital auxiliary. She has a family, too — two girls, Margaret 17, and Jenny 7, and two boys, Larry 16, and Floyd, Jr. 5.

POSTCARD COLLECTOR Mrs. Floyd Kupsky shows a sample of the hobby which has brought her acclaim in shows and exhibits over the past several years. She wears a ribbon from the 12th Annual All States Hobby show and convention held in Youngstown, Ohio this year.

Receives Diploma

Lawrence E. Green, 8762 Napier road, was among the more than 420 seniors graduated from General Motors Institute last Friday.

The graduation ceremonies marked the 33rd commencement for General Motors Institute, an engineering college which provides General Motors with 25 percent of its engineers.

The student body of 2,000 is made up of top flight high school graduates selected by G.M. plants for appointment to Cooperative Programs in either mechanical, industrial or electrical engineering. Students alternate between periods of theoretical education in the classrooms and laboratories at the institute and coordinated work experience at their plants.

Tasty Steak Owes Flavor to Recipe

Whoever heard of an economical meal using sizzling scrumptious steak? To quiet dissenting notes, Mrs. Kenneth Shrewsbury, Jr., 19777 Meadowbrook road, offers a recipe — very economical, she says — which has been a favorite with her family for years. Flank steak, oven-broiled and garnished with Mrs. Shrewsbury's flavorful preparation, is delicious with mashed potatoes.

Looking ahead to the festivity of the holidays — occasions for special pastries and candies — Mrs. Shrewsbury gives a famous Kentucky recipe for Bourbon Balls. It's a delicious candy for the holidays, she says.

FLANK STEAK

Mrs. Kenneth Shrewsbury, Jr.
Flank steak
Olive oil or butter
1 tablespoon butter
1 cup bouillon or consommé
1 cup mushrooms
1 tablespoon tomato sauce

or ketchup
½ lemon (juice)
salt and pepper
Season steak with oil or butter. Oven broil five to six minutes on each side.

Melt butter in saucepan; add flour and cook until slightly brown. Stirring constantly, add bouillon, mushrooms, tomato, lemon and salt and pepper. Cook five minutes; pour over broiled steak.

BOURBON BALLS

1 stick butter
1½ ounces bourbon
1 cup broken pecans
6 ounces semi-sweet chocolate (melted)
confectioners' sugar
Using all the ingredients, make a moist dough using enough powdered sugar to hold the mixture together. Form dough in small balls; roll in more powdered sugar. Makes about four-and-one-half dozen bite-size candies.

"These trails would shake the cab off an ordinary truck...but not our Chevy"

Few trucks are subjected to the body-wracking beatings that are part of a day's work for this Chevrolet Series 60 pulpwood hauler. It's owned by J. E. Fox, North Carolina logging contractor. As Bobby Fox, a partner in the business says, "Loaded with pulpwood, we drive over stumps and potholes you'd think would tear the truck to pieces. These trails would shake the cab off an ordinary truck, but not our Chevy. We can average an extra load a day... make $45 to $50 a day more with this Chevy than we can with the others."

In every weight class these Chevies are doing more work at less expense than trucks have ever done before. Drive one at your Chevrolet dealer's. It's an experience that could pay you big dividends.

"That 8-cylinder engine really performs," says Bobby Fox. "It's got the lugging power we need in the woods and walks right along with a full load on the highway."

Christ Jesus' response to the centurion who asked help for his palsied servant will be included in the Bible readings: "And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou has believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour" (Matt. 8:13).
From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following selection will be read (180:25): "When man is governed by God, the ever-present Mind who understands all things, man knows that with God all things are possible. The only way to this living Truth, which heals the sick, is found in the Science of divine Mind as taught and demonstrated by Christ Jesus."

Name Ebert
To Golden
Rule Order

The Ebert Funeral Home, 404 West Main street, has been officially notified of its acceptance into the fellowship of the Order of the Golden Rule—an international organization of funeral directors.

The affiliation was gained only after the Ebert firm received approval of many Northville people, who are in a position to speak with authority on the subject.
Funeral director-members of the Order are selected for their ability to uphold the ideals of this worldwide organization, which has been in existence for more than three decades.

The Order lays particular stress on the necessity of providing service to humanity at the time of need that is modern and comprehensive, and at the same time so moderately priced that it is within the reach of all—even those in the most humble circumstances.

Members of the Order identify themselves by means of a symbol, consisting of an armored knight with raised visor, who supports with his left hand a shield bearing the Order's motto: "Service Measured not by GOLD, but by the GOLDEN RULE". In his right hand the knight grasps a drawn sword, as if to signify his readiness to defend the high principles inscribed upon the shield.

THE HEAVENWARD LOOK

They "saw his face as it had been the face of an angel!" (Acts 6:15). That is what God's historian relates concerning Stephen, one of the seven deacons at Jerusalem, shortly before his martyrdom. This is not the description of unusual physical beauty, but of super-natural brightness. As this man was being condemned by the same court that had tried Jesus, God suddenly changed the appearance of his face. A bit of heaven was reflected on his countenance.

But not only was the light of heaven on Stephen's face. In the words of the Bible he actually "looked up . . . into heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus standing on the right hand of God." (Acts 7:55).

What Induces A Man To Look Heavenward?

According to the Scriptural account, Stephen looked heavenward, because he was "full of the Holy Ghost!" (v. 55).

Before a person has been influenced by the Spirit of God he sees only the things of this earth. He is earthly-minded. He has no interest in heavenly things. He is bound to this earth and its vanities.

Stephen could only look beyond this earth because his whole being was full of the Holy Ghost. Being full of the Holy Ghost, he was permitted to see the majesty of God and Jesus, the Son of God. This was the same Jesus who had lived a life of extreme poverty and utter humility on this earth—the same Jesus who had suffered the ignominious death on the cross, but now resurrected, glorified, and ascended, was at the right hand of the majesty of God, ready to receive this His faithful witness.

Being full of the Holy Ghost, we, too, can look heavenward. With the eyes of faith we behold the only true God and recognize Him as our Saviour. We know that Jesus the Son of God and the Son of man lived and suffered and died for us. We know that He rose and ascended for us and is now glorified at the right hand of His heavenly Father.

What Will The Heavenward Look
Encourage Us To Do?

Stephen could not contain himself. He had looked into heaven, and he wanted others to know it, too. So he preached that bold sermon which is recorded for us in Acts Chapter 7. The heavenward look will also move us to witness joyfully and fearlessly what we have received by faith. The only object that every true minister of the Gospel has in preaching is to bring heaven to others. When sin is called by its right name and people are exhorted to repentance and to faith, this is done with but one purpose in mind—to open heaven to them. And why do many lay Christians joyfully speak of their Saviour to others? Because they have the heavenward look, heaven in their eyes and heaven in their hearts.

Looking heavenward will do even more. It will help us to suffer patiently. Like infuriated beasts, the enemies of the Gospel rushed upon Stephen, dragged him out of the city, and stoned him. As those heavy stones buried themselves in his back and bruised his brow, he was able to endure, because he was given strength from above. He had seen heaven. Thoughts of heaven will likewise give us hope and courage in the face of all of our earthly suffering and will give us the patience we need every day and every hour.

Furthermore, looking heavenward will help us to pray confidently and forgivingly. As Stephen was stoned, he prayed confidently for himself: "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!" and he prayed forgivingly for his murderers: "Lord, lay not this sin to their charge." (v. 60). How similar to the prayer of Jesus: "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." (St. Luke 23:34).

When faced with the greatest evil, death, the Christian can confidently pray: "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!" And do you know how to pray forgivingly? Do you know how to pray for those who wrong you? Are you able to forgive? As we behold Stephen, Jesus tells us: "Go, and do thou likewise."

Finally, looking heavenward, we can die peacefully. "And when he said this, he fell asleep." (v. 60). Thus the chapter of Stephen's martyrdom closes. Cruel death that it was, it is nevertheless called a sleep. Stephen's soul was now with Jesus. His body, buried by devout men, will be awakened on the last great day. Stephen, whose name in the Greek means "crown", had now received the crown of life.

Look heavenward. Do not for anything in this world give up the riches of heaven. Every day keep heaven first and foremost in your mind. Remember Stephen. Remember all of the martyrs.

"O God, to us may grace be given
To follow in their train."

Ann Arbor Hosts District Lutherans

The Rev. B. J. Pankow, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Northville, and Fred Sterner, Sr. will attend the 78th annual convention of the Michigan District of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod in Ann Arbor, beginning Monday, August 21. St. Paul's is one of 242 congregations in the Lower Peninsula which comprise this district. Also attending will be Harold R. Kenow, principal of St. Paul's Lutheran school.

The Rev. W. Harry Krieger, pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, Traverse City, district president, will preside at this convention of 244 pastors, 215 lay delegates and 240 Lutheran school teachers meeting in Ann Arbor from Monday through Thursday noon.

Major items of business to come before the convention will include election of all officers and members of official boards and commissions to carry out the program of the church. This convention will also decide a question proposed by a Detroit pastoral conference whether the president should be freed from congregation work to devote full time to the presidency. A memorial chapel in memory of the late Dr. Andrew Zeile of Saginaw, has also been proposed. The matter of acquiring a district office building to house offices of various boards and offices for district officials will also be considered.

The erection of a $50,000 chapel and student center at Wayne State university for Lutheran students attending there will be decided. Similar student centers and chapels have been erected at Ann Arbor and East Lansing. Because the parent body, the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod has decided to erect a junior college in the Detroit area for the training of full-time workers in the churches and school of the Synod, the Ann Arbor convention will consider a proposal to gather a fund to pay for the site of this new college.

Announcing the Affiliation of
EBERT
Funeral Home
404 West Main Street

This is an important announcement, because membership in the Order is open only to funeral directors of high professional standing; it is a distinction shared by carefully selected funeral directors throughout the world.

An application for membership cannot be passed upon by the Order itself; membership is granted only after the Order has made direct contact with those who are in the best possible position to know whether the applicant is worthy; families served, and the business and professional men of the community in which the applicant lives.

The Symbol which appears below is the identifying emblem of membership, and all users of this Symbol are pledged to give modern, comprehensive service, to advise wisely, and keep all charges moderate.

The Order is happy to present and recommend this firm to the people of this community and the surrounding territory, and takes pride in making this public announcement of the appointment.

Yanks Capture Baseball Title As Indians Flop

If at first you don't succeed, try again.

Members of the Yankee baseball team took this proverb to heart last week — and finally, after two previous failures, swept past the first-place Indians to capture the Knot Hole league championship.

An easy 8-0 Yankee win over the Athletics and a 4-0 victory over the Dodgers coupled with two Indian defeats led to the Yanks' success and the Indians' downfall.

In the final drive to the wire, the Indians not only slipped to second place but they were forced to share the runner-up spot with the fast-moving Athletics, who crushed the Indians, 8-0.

The last-place Dodgers set the stage for the upset by clipping the Indians 2-1. Ironically, the only other victory by the Dodgers this season was a 2-1 win over the Indians.

Taking advantage of the Indian defeat, the Yanks overpowered the Athletics to tie for the lead. Then the Athletics bounced back to score their 8-0 victory over the slipping Indians and wrapped up the season with a 4-0 win over the Dodgers.

Yankee pitcher Mike Hlohinec was instrumental in his team's victory over the Athletics. The young hurler was exceptionally strong at pitching and fielding.

Gary Becker of the Yanks collected three hits in three turns at bat to lead his team at the plate. Catcher Norbert Parent added two more hits to the Yankee victory.

Robert Shettler and Bill Davis shared the loss.

In winning their second game of the season, the Dodgers grabbed a 2-0 lead in the first and then hung on to claim the narrow victory.

Dave Wilder spearheaded the Dodger rally by stroking a single in the first to drive in Jim Peterson and Joe Bell. John Miller added a triple.

The Dodger defense also was very sharp, executing three big double plays — two started by Second Baseman Craig Turnbull.

The Indians' lone run was scored when Jim Daniels tripled and raced across the plate later on Rick Richardson's infield roller.

Bill Davis ruined any Indian hopes of winning the championship by firing a one-hitter. An infield bunt by Larry Parker of the Indians accounted for the lone hit.

The Athletics scored six in the third on a complete collapse of the Dodger defense — four errors and five walks netted the runs. John Beerbower tripled to bat in a run and Ralph Robinson singled for an RBI.

Winning pitcher Davis struck out nine batters. Tom Daniels was the losing hurler.

Hlohinec fired a no-hitter in dumping the Dodgers 4-0 in the final game of the season. He fanned 10 batters in claiming the victory.

The Yankees scored three unearned runs in the opening frame after a runner was caught in a run-down between third and home. The ball was thrown into deep left allowing all three runs to score.

Hlohinec, Parent, Mike Rathiff and Jim Hill came up with the four Yankee hits.

Jim Peterson was the losing pitcher.

A Barking Good Time

Huge Crowd Sees Pet and Doll Show

Hundreds of people lined Northville streets and circled the city hall park Friday evening to watch beaming, proud youngsters show off their pets and dolls.

More spectators were on hand for the recreation department-sponsored parade and show than ever before, department officials revealed.

And the enthusiasm shown by the participating youngsters and their pets was equally record shattering.

Bikes, floats, pets and dolls were all decorated for the colorful occasion which was kicked off with a parade along Wing street to Dunlap, from Dunlap to Center and from Center back to the park for judging.

Recreation personnel judged the event — the sixth annual Pet and Doll Show in Northville.

Winners and runnersup in the various categories included:

Dolls

Best homemade, Kathy Pardee, first; Nancy Logeman, second; Joyce Korzynski, third;

Lions Upset Bear Hopes To Gain Title

Playing heads-up softball, the Lions wrestled the Knot Hole lead from the Bears last week to claim the league title.

After sweeping into second place two weeks ago, the Lions nipped the league-leading Bears 8-7 in an extra inning contest, then closed the season with an easy 19-3 win over the cellar dwelling Tigers.

Meanwhile, the Bears, who clung to a first-place tie after losing to the Lions, fell beneath the rampaging Panthers 5-4, to slip to second place after leading much of the season.

In the only other final game last week, the Tigers upset the Panthers 18-11 for their first victory of the season.

Pitcher Dan Stoddard scored the Lions' winning run against the Bears. He also collected five hits. The Lions' defense contributed four double plays — two started by Richard Adams.

Stan Nirider and Bob Hicks were the losing pitchers.

The last-place Tigers exploded at the plate in grabbing their first victory of the season. Charles Fox, Jim Fox, Albert Currie and Mark Gazlay each had three Tiger hits. Grant Gillespie collected three hits for the losing Panthers.

Pat Cayley collected three hits and scored what proved to be the winning run for the Bears over the Panthers. Mike Terry, Gillespie and Barry Deal added two hits for the winners. The Panthers also completed a fast double play to aid their cause.

The Lions roared into first place and the championship by winning seven consecutive games after losing two of their first three and tying the other.

Darrell French and Phil Nelson each had four hits and Stoddard, Mike Skelly and Brian Myers picked up two hits for the Lions in their final game of the season — a 19-3 victory over the Tigers.

Albert Curry collected four hits to take batting laurels for the losers. Gazlay picked up three hits.

MOST UNUSUAL PETS — Mark Gazlay (left) and Jim Ritchie were easy winners in the most unusual pet classification of the annual pet and doll show Friday. The two boys exhibited their pet alligator. A calmen, we're told at long distance, is related to the alligator family and is found in South America. Shown with the boys and their pets is Jim Hammond of the recreation department.

YOU —

are buying a home. Is it for YOU or your landlord??? A man told me he had rented the same house for 18 years — (216 rent receipts covering about 2,160 sq. inches of worthless paper). He could have had 2160 square feet of nice home — and a nice "nest egg" besides in this same time. Even "Social Security" was forced on him — but he is still not sure where he can live next month. Will this be YOU?? Let's talk it over. Homes, Little Farms, Acreage or Lots are available at all prices — some surely within your means.

Local Members to Attend VFW Conclave at Detroit

Michigan will provide its largest delegation in history when the 61st annual National Convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars opens for business Sunday in Detroit.

Among the members attending the convention as delegates from Northville Post 4012 are Walter Sousa, commander; Charles Ash, quartermaster; Tom Moxie, senior vice commander; Clayton Myers, Lawrence McArthur and Arthur Ash are alternate delegates.

Two VFW auxiliary members, Margaret Rager and Beatrice Myers, also will attend the convention.

State Commander Harold Barr, Muskegon, said he thought upward of 5,000 Michigan persons would join with more than 25,000 other delegates and guests to make this convention one of the largest in history.

Top speakers have been lined up for the five-day parley which will close with election of national officers August 26. T. C. Connell, Killeen, Texas will succeed Louis G. Feldmann, Hazleton, Pa. as national commander.

Among the speakers slated to address the overseas veterans' group are Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Allen Dulles, chief of Central Intelligence agency; Thomas Gates, defense secretary; Wilbur Brucker, secretary of the Army; Clarence L. (Kelly) Johnson, designer of the famed U-2 airplane; Marine Corps Commandant General David M. Shoup; Admiral Arleigh Burke, chief of Naval operations; Dudley Sharp, Air Force secretary; and others.

Dulles, who addresses the VFW's Distinguished Guests banquet Monday will be awarded the Bernard Baruch Award for "his contributions to the cause of peace."

Johnson will be given the Map Arnold Award for the person adjudged to have done the most in the field of aviation.

Business of the convention will center about the more than 500 resolutions submitted from all sections of the country covering everything from national defense to internal VFW affairs.

Color of the convention will be centered about its 7-hour parade, drawing elements from all the 50 states, and the Million Dollar Pageant of Drums, to be held on Wednesday.

Michigan will enter several champions in competition with crack units from all sections of the country. Defending its national senior band title will be the Morley S. Oates Post 701 band of Lansing. Title threats in other divisions include the Lamplighter senior drum and bugle corps of Detroit; Sarnia Lionettes junior drum and bugle corps; Holland, Wayne and Coldwater senior drum corps.

Wixom Union To Break Ground Today

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the new UAW union hall at Wixom will take place this afternoon (Thursday) at 3:15 p.m.

According to UAW Local 36 President Sam Fishman, local and state officials will join with UAW leaders in launching the $120,000 building program.

Among the special guests will be Lt. Gov. John Swainson, Emil Mazey, secretary-treasurer of the International Union-UAW, and the Mayor Donald Brooks of Wixom.

The new union hall building, which is expected to be completed by late November, will be located on some five acres of property across from the Lincoln-Mercury plant.

The 64'x82' building will have approximately 8,000 square feet of floor space. Entrance to the two-level building will be made through the front, with the upper level housing offices and the lower level, lobby, restrooms, kitchen, coatroom, beverage room, storage space and the auditorium.

The auditorium, situated in the rear of the building will seat approximately 400 persons.

Plans also are underway for a $50,000 credit union building to be located on the same property, but construction is not expected to begin until sometime in 1962.

Local 36 offices and the present credit union offices are located in an old converted house purchased by the union several years ago. Once the new structure is up this building will be razed.

Boys Plague Novi Police

Teenagers continued to harass police and citizens last week end near the Walled Lake Amusement park.

Latest in a series of arrests for disorderly conduct was a Wixom youth, who after being told to leave a park dance because of improper dress, scuffled with a park officer.

The youth, who was arrested, suffered a nose injury. He stood mute Monday before Judge James Lawson of Farmington and was bound over to circuit court to stand trial. He was freed on a $50 bond.

An 18-year-old Milford boy, Daniel Moore, was arrested Friday night for three traffic violations. Police chased his car along East Lake drive at speeds up to 75 mph before Moore's car spun out of control and crashed into a tree.

Charged with reckless driving, speeding and driving a car with no registration, Moore will appear in Novi court next Thursday.

Four teenagers arrested last week end charged with hitting a young man on the head with a rock while walking near the park have been released. Charges against one youth, who appeared in court Thursday on a charge of disorderly conduct as a result of the assault, were dismissed for lack of evidence.

Four Detroit area youths will face charges of being minors in possession of liquor when they appear in court next Thursday.

Police said they apprehended the youths last week end after a citizen's complaint that someone was driving one of the graders parked along Novi road near Brookland Farms subdivision.

Liquor was found in their car, police said.

Officials of the O. E. Gooding construction company, which owns the grader, also reported that someone poured sand in the fuel tank of an earth mover parked on Novi road between 10 Mile and Grand River.

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO...

The first step toward Northville's $300,000 water system improvement program was taken Monday night as councilmen heard bids from 14 contractors and suppliers.

A 17-year-old Wixom youth was released from the Detroit House of Correction Tuesday on $200 bond after being sentenced to 90 days last Friday by Northville Judge E. M. Bogart.

Construction of another multi-million dollar building for the mentally retarded may be started late next winter at Sheldon and Phoenix roads, a spokesman for the department of mental health predicted this week.

Donald "Dutch" Van Ingen has been named head basketball coach at Northville high school to succeed Stan Johnston who resigned after the 1958-59 season, Athletic Director Al Jones announced this week.

Dedication of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church Christian day school will take place Sunday. Two new teachers will join the staff at Our Lady of Victory school this fall (1959) Principal Sister Rose Edmund, O.P., announced.

The addition of 20 — possibly 21 — new teachers in the Northville school system will push the total number of instructors to an all-time high this fall.

Opening of school is still three weeks away, but Novi teachers and administrative officials are readying their books and papers in anticipation of a record enrollment.

FIVE YEARS AGO
Charles Trickey, Jr. was appointed Novi township treasurer following the resignation of Mrs. Russell Woodworth, wife of the former township treasurer.

Two locomotives and nine freight cars were derailed on the Chesapeake & Ohio tracks between Novi road and Nine Mile road when one freight train crashed into the rear of another.

A 20-acre subdivision on the Lewis D. Crusoe estate at the northwest corner of Novi and Nine Mile roads was granted tentative approval at the Novi township board meeting Monday night.

George B. Deery, managing editor of the Northville Record since January 1, 1955, suffered a heart attack on the boat returning to Detroit from Bob Lo. He was taken by ambulance to Receiving hospital when the boat docked, but was pronounced dead upon arrival.

Considerable concern was expressed by Mayor Claude N. Ely and various members of the Northville city commission over the prospect of additional flooding of residential property in Oakwood subdivision by water draining off the grounds of the new Amerman elementary school when the fall rains come in September.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO
Pfc. Robert J. Beasley was awarded two bronze stars in less than a week for duty performed in the front lines in the last two battles of the war in Europe. Beasley volunteered for duty in the last two battles in Northern Italy as an aid man in rescuing the wounded and it was for this performance that he was awarded the two bronze stars.

Award of the Legion of Merit for exceptionally meritorious service with General Courtney H. Hodges.

First United States Army was made to Lieut. Col. Ward H. Van Atta, at an impressive ceremony held at Fort Jackson, South Carolina.

C. R. Ely and Sons were designated local sales representatives for Norge Products in Northville and vicinity.

The first of the annual summer band concerts will be held Tuesday, August 28 in the village park if there are enough members of the band present at practice.

The Community Rationing Service which has functioned so nicely for Northville people at the village hall Wednesday noons, is to be discontinued.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Work was scheduled to stop on all work relief projects in Northville which were in progress under Wayne County Emergency Relief administration, and the 54 men employed were to be laid off as well as nine more men working at the U.S. Fish Hatchery here.

The proposed addition to Northville high school, to be built with the aid of Works Progress administration funds, will cost $25,000, $3,500 or $4,000 of which will have to be supplied by the village, according to the "rough figures" of Eberle M. Smith, Detroit architect.

In one of the closest games of the season, the Owens edged out a 4-3 victory Tuesday evening over the scrappy Ely team and strengthened their hold on first place in the recreation softball league here.

When the Northville high school football team lines up for its first home game of the season in September it will play on the new athletic field at Cass Benton park rather than at the fair grounds.

The blacktopping of South Center street from Cady street to the parkway drive was expected to be finished this week, according to engineers of the Wayne county road commission.

More and more people are dialing direct to their friends all over the country. This fast and convenient service is the result of many years of planning to keep pace with progress.

Dialing responsibilities are inherent in this progress. One incorrectly dialed digit can connect you to a telephone in the wrong city. If this happens to you find out, if possible, the city reached and then notify the operator so you will not be billed for the call.

VACATION BOUND:

If you're headed for a new vacation area, here's a hint that might save you some time and trouble: To find any product or service—drugstores, doctors, garages, theatres—just look in the local Yellow Pages. It's crammed with lots of information about local businesses. Without taking a step, you can make a fast tour of the shopping district—just by glancing through the Yellow Pages.

DO YOU EVER have a question or a problem about your telephone service? Perhaps you'd like to know more information about a new extension phone or find out about a charge on last month's bill. If you ever want to know anything about your telephone service, don't hesitate to call us at GL-3-9900. Giving you the service you want is what keeps us in business, and we're all happy to help you!

SPEAKING for the Record

By Bill Sliger

While plans to construct a new supermarket in Northville seem, for the moment at least, to be at a standstill, there's other progress being made toward improving the downtown shopping district.

This week winners of the "Beautify Northville" commercial redevelopment contests were announced.

Judges considered the winning entry practical and economical—possible to build within the present limits.

Jack Swan, this year's clean-up program chairman, is hopeful that more can be done with some of these drawings than awarding cash prizes to their creators.

Right now he's planning to call a meeting of community planners, officials and retailers to study the results of the contest and discuss ways of initiating an overall community redevelopment plan.

A long-range plan for development and expansion of local commercial facilities is as important as a program to secure new industry for the community.

While the acquisition of industry is basically aimed at providing steady employment and helping reduce the tax burden for homeowners, commercial redevelopment can accomplish the same thing and avoid the loss of present tax income through deterioration of our business district.

The best news we've heard in a long time insofar as our business district is concerned was the retail merchants' association plan to make a parking lot on Main street where a vacant apartment house now stands.

The site is the center of our shopping area. A paved parking area in place of the empty lot and brick house would certainly be a big improvement in both appearance and shopping convenience.

It follows that if parking is made more convenient for the shopper, he'll trade here more often.

The businessmen are to be commended on this parking lot idea. I hope nothing happens to scuttle the project.

* * *

There's no need to drive far for family entertainment this week end. Area residents can enjoy the American Legion "homecoming" program—a four-day carnival starting today—and the Optimists' annual rodeo on Saturday evening and Sunday afternoon.

Both events should provide lots of fun for adults and children, too, and come as a dandy climax to summer vacation.

Michigan Mirror

His Word's Law

THE LONG ARM of the Attorney General's office reaches out to put a finger on every single department, agency, board, commission, office or group working with or for the state.

Not even the Executive Office, which has general supervision over all state functions, has a greater hand in running Michigan.

It's because the Attorney General, and his battery of deputies and assistants, handle all legal matters for the myriad of activities in which the state involves itself.

Basically, there are 12 divisions in the Attorney General's department.

Some lawyers work exclusively with one agency or department which has litigation in state or federal courts regularly, or which engages in activities that require contracts or other legal documents to be drawn up all the time.

Examples of this would be the Highway Department, the Conservation Department and the Michigan Employment Security Commission.

Other attorneys working for the state are on call to handle specific problems, make investigations, write opinions or handle legal research when the state becomes involved in legal problems.

The Attorney General is the chief law enforcement officer of the state.

He may also intervene in any lawsuit, civil or criminal, in which the people of the state are a party or interested. The Attorney General is also empowered to work with county prosecutors and may give them guidance or aid when necessary.

Law is the blueprint to guide all citizens and groups in building the future of the state.

The Attorney General is charged not only with enforcing and helping interpret existing laws, but with helping make new laws that are workable and understandable.

He advises the Legislature and the Legislative Service Bureau in drawing up the prospective laws.

Though a part of the executive branch of government, the Attorney General's relationship with the legislative branch—and the judiciary—gives him a vested interest in every state activity.

His opinions, while not having the weight of a judicial decision, nevertheless guide the activities of groups and individuals alike.

And when he goes to court, the Attorney General might be representing the whole state of Michigan or just one of its citizens.

EVEN THE AGE-OLD process of getting married is subject to change.

A new form of medical certificate for getting a marriage license went into effect last spring. The State Health Department has warned prospective brides and grooms to make sure they use the new form—or they might run into a hitch before they get to the altar.

The new form requires the name of the laboratory performing required blood tests, and the specific test that is used.

Unfortunately, a few doctors failed to make the change to the new form. And county clerks are forbidden to issue licenses until the name of the laboratory which performed the blood tests is checked against an eligibility list.

Frustrating delays or upsets could result from failing to make sure the proper form is used, the Health Department warns.

* * *

FORTY-SIX SHORT YEARS ago, the last known Passenger Pigeon died in captivity.

Less than forty years before that, hundreds of men gamed at least a part of their subsistence by trapping the wild and beautiful birds in Michigan and shipping them for eventual use as a table delicacy.

The birds were so numerous in the early days of Michigan history that Indians were said to have killed them with clubs, poles and oars when they were roosting in trees or flying low to the ground.

In 1876, the three largest breeding places of the Passenger Pigeon in Michigan were in Newaygo, Oceana and Grand Traverse counties.

Carloads of the birds, comprising billions of birds and thousands of tons, were shipped from the state.

Shortly, the beautiful "slate blue, chestnut, hazel, metallic gold and green, red, orange, black, white and bluish" birds were gone.

The lesson in conservation is obvious.

Roger Babson

We Make Our Own Future

Babson Park, Mass.—One of the reasons given for anticipating the prosperity of the "Golden Sixties" is the constantly increasing population, both in this country and in the world as a whole. It is true that investors must recognize population as a factor in stock prices; but it is only one of many factors.

Teenagers

Considering the United States alone, the age factor is now a vital force in manufacturing, business, college enrollments, investments and other considerations. Many of today's young people will become voters for the first time this year, and may be a factor in the November elections. The high birth rate of World War II is now showing up in the large number of teenagers reaching college and/or employment age. For a while, those dealing in baby foods, clothing for youngsters, etc., profited greatly; more recently, teenagers have been a source of good business for retailers (and of headaches to many parents!).

Now, these young people are about to be thrown on their own, to make good either in college or in the competitive business world. This is something which should be recognized by employers, parents, and by the young people themselves. Just now there is a shortage of workers in many lines of industry—especially of office employees. After the summer vacation is over, there should be a letup in the demand for such jobs, and the shortage of workers might develop into a surplus during the next year or two.

Growth in Foreign Population

In China, with its population of over 600 million, 1,200,000 babies are born every week. The same is true proportionately of India and Pakistan, with their combined population of about 500,000,000. It is true that measures are being taken to limit the birth rate. On the other hand, new means of sanitary living, free medical supplies, and proper nutrition are causing fewer babies to die. Hence, I see no prospect at the moment of a limit to the net growth of these nations.

The Malthusian Theory advanced in 1798 contended that the world will some day run out of arable land to feed the expanded population. Although the land surface from which to feed people is limited, (and far surpassed by the area of lakes, marshes and oceans), yet the growing shortage of water required to sustain life and industrial activity may be even more serious.

Two Sides of the Coin

Increase in population cannot be taken, at face value, as an optimistic factor for the future. In order to translate people into producers and customers, we must have a social and moral environment which will generate initiative and ambition. Only as the proper environment, income, and demand rise along with the growth in population do the greater numbers of people assure prosperity.

On the other hand, if initiative is stifled by unfair taxes or government "giveaway" social practices or poor health, then capital formation, employment, incomes and consumption will lag the rise in population. In that event, the growth trend in population, now considered to be bullish for the future, may work as a depressing influence.

FASCINATING FACTS ABOUT NATURAL GAS

The "Sunshine Clothesline"

As a youngster, J. Ross Moore carried heavy baskets of wet laundry to the clothesline in sub-zero North Dakota weather. He watched his mother suffer from cold, numb fingers and struggle with line-hung, board-stiff, frozen clothes. He vowed then to lighten his mother's household burdens—and he did—with Gas, the Miracle Fuel, to help him! His clothes-drying inventions progressed from a drying shed where laundry was hung inside a Gas-heated cabinet to a tumble-drying machine which tumbled clothing over and over in a Gas-heated drum. This was the forerunner of today's modern Gas clothes dryer—a dream come true for the homemaker. It not only protects her health, but it protects her laundry—and provides—automatically—and perfect weather conditions for "anyday-anytime" laundering.*

*Today Natural Gas, Nature's "stored sunshine", lightens countless household burdens. Write or call Consumers Power Company to learn of the many wonderful Gas appliances and automatic Gas home heating now available.

GET THE FACTS — BETTER YET — GET GAS! PG-7179-20

Why there's no laundry like an ALL-ELECTRIC LAUNDRY

gives you more time for the things you want to do

HOTTER WATER AND PLENTY OF IT. Only an electric water heater can regularly deliver 160° water without burning out. Really hot water goes farther and gets clothes cleaner. An electric water heater needs no flue because there is no flame. That makes it the only water heater you can put any place you want. Right next to your washer, for example, to eliminate a long, heat-wasting pipe run. Some electric water heaters fit under kitchen counters.

A WONDERFUL WORK-SAVING TEAM—YOUR WASHER AND DRYER. Make your automatic washer and dryer a matched pair—both electric. It takes an electric dryer to keep white clothes white; to preserve the sparkling new look in colored and patterned fabrics. Electric drying is so clean because there is no flame, no products of combustion.

BRIGHTEN WASHDAYS WITH GOOD LIGHTING. When you plan your electric laundry center, be sure to get expert advice on adequate lighting. You'll be surprised at how well-planned lighting can reduce fatigue.

4 Local Gridders To Play Tomorrow In All-Star Game

Four former Northville football players will wind up practice today with the southern Oakland county eleven which will clash with a northern county squad tomorrow night in the first annual Oakland County All-Star classic at Pontiac.

Lou Creekmur, coach of the "southern" team, has indicated that all four Northville players will see plenty of action in Friday's contest.

The four are Blaine Ashby, Fred Mitchell, Gary Morgan and Dave Nash.

All four were invited, along with Wade Deal and Bill Juday, to compete in the all-star game, sponsored by the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce. Deal will be unable to play because he is out of town, and Juday has been informed that his athletic scholarship to Vanderbilt university may be jeopardized should he play. Coach Creekmur has been pushing has squad through daily drills in an effort to knit a smooth-running team. Most of his players have worked during the summer months and are in fairly good condition.

More than 25 area high schools will be represented in the game which will start at 8 p.m. in Wismer stadium in Pontiac. Only outstanding players who graduated last year are permitted to play in the contest. Coaching the northern eleven will be Leon Hart.

Mitchell and Nash, both varsity linemen with the Mustangs last season, will alternate at line positions, Ashby and Morgan probably will see action in the backfield — although Creekmur may move Morgan into an end position during the contest.

All four boys are graduates of Northville high school last June. Mitchell, Nash and Ashby are 18, and Morgan is 19. The former Northville stars will carry weights of 175, 165, 170 and 180 pounds, respectively.

Local Horses Win in Livonia

Two Northville horses were in the spotlight as they won longshot races during the second week of the Wolverine Harness Raceway meeting in the Detroit Race Course in Livonia.

Eli Morris, owned by Leon and Elnora Leach of Northville paid $20 to win as the 11-year-old gelding, driven by Wally McMurray on August 8, defeated True Frisco by 1 1/2 lengths.

Saturday night, August 13, Abbe's Lincoln, owned by J. Michael Janclick of Northville, won the second race to pay $10.60 to win. Driven by Don McMurray, the 5-year-old gelding nosed out Punky's Volo.

The Wolverine meeting continues through Saturday, September 24.

Children Win $6 In Archery Contest

Boys and girls walked off with $6 in prizes Friday at the annual archery tournament conducted by the Northville Recreation department at Ford Field.

The split tournament was for children ages 7 through 11 and ages 12 and over. First prize winners received 75 cents, second prize winners, 50 cents, and third prize winners 25 cents.

Each contestant fired two rounds of six arrows at a target 15 yards away.

The winners were: Ages 8-9, Ronnie Baggett, first; Jerry Asher, second; and Craig Turnbull, third; Ages 10-11, Dale Sterling, first; Mike Conley, second; and Daryl Holloman, third;

Ages 12-13, Jerry LaRoque, first; Frank Pauli, second; and Mike Turnbull, third; Ages 14-16 (Girls), Sue Hubbert, first; Susie Conley, second; and Darlene Baggett, third.

It's Exam Time!

Veteran and fledgling varsity football players and students planning to join the high school cross-country team were called to attention this week with the announcement that physical examinations will begin next week Friday.

According to Athletic Director Al Jones, veteran players and those students who expect to make the varsity squads this year should report to the high school promptly at 9 a.m. August 26 for physical examinations.

Players who fail to show up next Friday will have to make appointments with their own physicians,

Jones emphasized. All players must have examinations, he said.

Students who expect to play varsity football, will receive physical examinations at the high school Monday, August 29.

All other students interested in junior high school sports will receive examinations during the first week of school in September, Jones said. Dates and times of these examinations will be announced later.

Varsity Coach Ron Horwath and his assistant, Dutch Vaningen, will begin issuing football uniforms within the next week or two, Jones revealed.

Reception For Taxis'

Sunday, the Session of Northville's First Presbyterian church will hold a farewell reception for the Rev. John O. Taxis and family from 6:30 until 9 p.m. in the church's fellowship hall.

Rev. Taxis will conclude his duties as pastor of the First Presbyterian church, which he has served since 1955, with a closing sermon to his congregation the following Sunday, August 28. He assumes a new post as associate pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Fort Lauderdale, Florida the beginning of September.

As associate pastor of the Florida church with responsibility for directing the total Christian education program, Rev. Taxis will be working primarily with the youth of the 1,800-member congregation.

Sunday's reception will afford all members of the congregation the opportunity to offer farewells to Rev. Taxis. The Session has arranged for music and refreshments.

Obituary

ROBERT W. DEARING
Robert W. Dearing, 52, a Northville resident since 1948 and a World War II veteran, died Tuesday, August 16 at Sinai hospital in Detroit. Mr. Dearing of 1956 Caldwell, had been hospitalized periodically since April with leukemia. He was born October 5, 1907 in Albion, Michigan, the son of Henry and Leora (Rouse) Dearing. Survivors are his wife, Elizabeth; two sons, Larry, 15, and Donald, 14, of Northville; and his mother, Mrs. Henry Dearing of Highland Park, Michigan. Mr. Dearing had been employed as an electrical engineer with Detroit Edison company for 31 years. He was a graduate of Highland Park high school, Highland Park junior college and Michigan State university. His affiliations included the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the American Institute of Electrical Engineers and the Reserve Officers association, in which he was a major. A military funeral service under the auspices of Mr. Dearing's reserve unit, the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars will be conducted at 10 a.m. tomorrow, August 19 from the Casterline Funeral home. The Reverend Albert Kee of the Highland Park Baptist church will officiate. Burial will be at 2 p.m. at Riverside cemetery in Albion.

Good News For Township

Northville township residents will soon receive lower fire insurance rates as a result of new fire classification as determined by Michigan Inspection Bureau.

According to Township Supervisor George Clark, the township classification has been changed from class 10 to class 9. Dwellings within 1,000 feet, measured over a public highway, of a fire hydrant have been reclassified to class 8, Clark stated. The class 8 rating carries the same fire insurance rates as class 7, the rating carried in the city of Northville.

The change should result in reductions in fire insurance rates of between 10 and 15 percent, Clark stated. Industrial and commercial properties will also be individually re-rated.

The reduction does not apply, Clark said, to "homeowners policies", but strictly to the fire insurance policy. A reduction in homeowners' policy rates in the township was made earlier this year, Clark pointed out.

WOMEN BOWLERS!

BRUNNER BOWLER CASUALS

NOW AVAILABLE AT

VILLA DRESS SHOPPE

WORN EVERYWHERE BY THE SMART WOMAN BOWLER!

Dresses and skirts are fast becoming the order of the day at bowling lanes across the country. And why? Because, women enjoy being women . . . and looking like women, too. Nothing brings out a bowler's best like the confidence of looking her best. And let's face it, gals, there's very little that's feminine about a pair of slacks. That's why top women bowlers take a strictly feminine approach to their game. It's not enough to be the best at the lanes . . . they want to look their best, too. That's why you see more and more women wearing Brunner "bowler-casuals". For only Brunner combines the fit and action-free comfort you need with fashion-wise, wear-everywhere styling.

HONORABLE MENTION — This drawing by a trio of LIT students won $25 in the Beautify Northville redevelopment contest. It would call for complete leveling of the city's business district. The shops are circularly arranged. The tall structure is a hotel-office building, while the uppermost corner building is the city hall. Judges called this entry "most creative and imaginative, but not economically feasible".

MISCHIEF MANOR

Schoolmaster J. B. Preston told the Town Council of Hatfield, England it should build a house for child vandals to tear to pieces. "We would call my house 'Mischief Manor'," Preston said, "It would be left half completed and we would let the children roam through it, leaving a trail of havoc. Then having worked off their surplus energy, they would go home rid of the lust for destruction."

Mr. Preston seems to think that one day's use of surplus energy on the part of the child will rid him of his lust for destruction. There are too many incidents on record of young hoodlums carrying on their depredations for weeks and months before being caught by the police, to really believe that theory. A child should be taught the Holy Scriptures which reveal his responsibility toward his parents and the State and God.

Judges admit that it is a very rare thing for children who have been regular attendants of Sunday School and who have had the godly example of parents before them, to be found guilty of vandalism. Children who are taken to Sunday School regularly have no need of "Mischief Manors" — nor will they leave "a trail of havoc" behind them.
