Mom, Dad Signing Up For School

The first night of registration for Northville's new adult education program resulted in 42 definite applications for courses in sewing, shop, art and typing.

Last night (Wednesday) more applications were expected as first classes are scheduled to begin Monday evening.

Assistant Superintendent of Schools Dr. Kenneth MacLeod, who has been named director of the adult education program, stated that several other applications were made for other courses which may be offered if sufficient interest is shown.

Novi Road May Open This Week

Novi Road was expected to be open from near Grand River to the Eight Mile cutoff today for "local traffic only."

According to Oakland county road officials, the road will not be opened to through traffic until about the first of November. Traffic will continue to be detoured along Taft and Meadowbrook roads during this period.

Paving of Novi road between Grand River and the cutoff was completed last week, and the road was opened to local traffic from the cutoff to 10 Mile road several days later.

The remainder of the road was to be tested early this week to determine whether or not it was ready for traffic. Barring some unexpected defect, this portion of the road was to be opened to traffic yesterday or today. However, cars probably will not be able to enter Novi road from Grand River until two "turning lanes" have been poured.

These two lanes, as well as similar lanes at the 10 Mile intersection, are expected to be poured this week. Considerable grading and shoulder construction remains to be completed, officials said.

Before paving was begun, approximately 170 trees were removed, the old blacktop road was torn up, the road bed was widened, a number of hills were cut down, and drainage was improved.

The new road consists of two, 12-foot concrete lanes, with approximately 40 feet of road right-of-way which includes the road itself.

O. E. Gooding Contracting company of Saginaw was awarded the paving contract for its bid of $283,452. The county and the federal government are splitting the cost.

John Gillies Dies Suddenly

John Gillies, shoe chain executive and owner of Hocking-Gillies at 115 East Main street in Northville, died suddenly at New Grace hospital in Detroit Monday.

Gillies was 67. He was president of Gillies Shoes, Inc. with stores throughout the metropolitan area. Hocking-Gillies opened their Northville store in June.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon (Thursday) at one o'clock from the Harvey A. Neely Funeral home, 16540 Meyers. Interment will be at Grand Lawn cemetery.

Gillies was born in Ripley, Ontario in 1893. He resided at 12780 Birwood in Detroit and is survived by his wife, Clair, and two daughters, Mrs. Jack Hancock and Mrs. Roy Hoke, both of Lathrup Village.

He was vice president of the Detroit City Rescue Mission, an officer of the Detroit Bible Institute and a member of the Christian Businessmen's association. He was also a member of the Iona Lodge 374, F. & A. M.

Torch Drive Quota Set

Torch Drive volunteers in the Northville area will try to reach a $3,406 quota in this year's United Foundation fund-raising campaign.

The announcement came from Mrs. Harold Wright, divisional chairman, who reported that the goal includes $2,264 from residential and $1,142 from business donations.

October 18 marks the opening of the ten-day annual Torch Drive campaign.

REGISTRATION for evening classes in Northville's new adult education program began Monday night with 42 applicants signing up. Dr. Kenneth MacLeod, director of the program, is shown registering (l. to r.) Mrs. William Baker, Mrs. Marilyn Boland, Mrs. Leroy Ordling and Mrs. Mary Price. Registrations were also taken Wednesday evening. Classes are scheduled to begin at the high school Monday night.

Band Decides to Earn It's Own New Uniforms

With many uniforms of his band members "near shreds," Band Director Robert Williams announced this week for a candy drive to help raise money for new uniforms.

Junior and senior high school band members will begin selling dollar boxes of candy next week Thursday through October 20. Much of the candy is expected to be sold during the homecoming game, October 14, with West Bloomfield. Candy also will be sold on downtown streets throughout the week.

"It's really a shame," Williams explained, "we have one of the top bands in the state — certainly the best in the league — and yet about 40 of our members are without or have incomplete uniforms. 'Some of the kids are camouflaging their uniforms with their own dark pants or coats. Many of their uniforms are near shreds, too small or too large.'"

Williams pointed out that this year's 45-member marching band "is the biggest ever." And with scores of additional youngsters coming up from junior high school, the band is likely to grow considerably more in the next few years, he added.

The poor condition of uniforms and the ever increasing size of the band, Williams explained, "means we need about 100 uniforms, costing about $90 each."

Because the band is considered a community unit, performing many community concerts, Williams believes that the community should help support it — particularly during the upcoming campaign.

Williams added: "We're sticking to our policy of not asking for money from our merchants, because we know that they are always the first to be asked to pay for anything that comes up."

Until this year, money for uniform replacements was furnished by the school, city, township and public donation. The basic uniforms were purchased some 15 years ago with money contributed by the school and local residents.

School Superintendent Russell Amerman explained that the cost to the school of supplying uniforms is too great. Therefore, he has encouraged the band to use some of its energy in conducting fund-raising campaigns as is done in many other communities.

It seems likely that the band will receive plenty of help in its upcoming campaign, Amerman pointed out that several citizens already have expressed interest in helping the band with its campaign.

The city council cut its annual $500 band appropriation from the current budget — even though individual council members expressed interest in the band problem — because it felt the budget needed tightening and that use of city tax money for band expenses was not proper.

The Northville township board also cut the band appropriation from the 1960-61 budget. According to Supervisor George Clark the board was informed by its attorney that the appropriation could not be legally made.

Sewer, Curb Bids Awarded By Council

The city council awarded bids for installation of storm sewers and curbs and gutters for five streets this week. The work is scheduled to be completed within a month and is a preparatory step to paving the streets, possibly next year.

Bids of $17,188.73 for curb installation and $9,300 for sewers were awarded to the contracting firms of Edward R. White and Lawrence W. Smith, respectively.

Specifically, curbs and gutters will be installed on Orchard drive, High Walnut, East and Elm streets. Storm sewers will be included on Orchard drive (between Main and Thayer) and Walnut.

The bids fell within City Engineer Harold Penn's estimate of $28,000. Eight contractors submitted bids at the Monday night council meeting. In other business Monday night the council took a "get tough" attitude with contractors late in completing city projects.

Adopting a philosophy that it would not, as a body representing the welfare of the taxpayers, permit contractors to escape the penalty charges for falling behind work schedules, the council approved a $1,000 penalty against Chicago Bridge and Iron for being five weeks behind schedule in erecting the new water tower. Actually, the penalty — $50 per working day — amounted to about $1500. Councilmen agreed on $1,000 after a representative of the company pointed out that bad weather hampered workmen.

In another similar case, the council refused to grant A&A Asphalt a two-week extension to complete the new city parking lot behind the Methodist church. Deadline for the job was September 26. In a letter the firm blamed delay on an excavating sub-contractor.

The council was also critical of the firm for working on Sunday. The noise reportedly interrupted the Methodist church service. It was decided to adopt a resolution prohibiting city contractors working on Sunday without council permission.

In final business the council answered citizens' questions regarding the special assessment for the Middle Rouge Interceptor sewer to Oakland county residents of the city. The assessment was approved by the council.

It amounts to a charge of $100 per acre for property owners in the newly annexed areas of the city. In Oakland subdivision residents are assessed half this amount — the same fee paid by Wayne county residents of the city for the sewer facility.

Hospital Authority Planners Adopt New Approach

Thieves Hit Novi School This Time

Apparently familiar with the interior layout, a burglar or burglars broke into Orchard Hills school late Tuesday night or early Wednesday morning, smashed open a wall safe and escaped with about $35 in change and small bills.

The school burglary was the second in three weeks for the Novi-Northville area. Two weeks ago thieves entered Northville high school, cut open a safe and made off with about $150.

Novi School Superintendent William Medlyn said he first learned of the theft at Orchard Hills from the custodian, Gorman Groves, who discovered it about 7 o'clock Wednesday morning.

State and Novi police, called to the scene, told Medlyn that the burglar entered through a temporary window near the ceiling of the multipurpose room. He jumped to the floor, a distance of about 10 feet, and began his search for money.

According to Medlyn, the thief apparently was afraid of forcing his office door because of a nearby night light. Instead, he entered an adjoining lavatory, ripped open several pieces of ceiling tile, climbed to the ceiling of Medlyn's office, removed more tile and then dropped to the floor.

The safe in Medlyn's office was ripped open from the wall and smashed away — unlike the high school safe which police theorize was cut open with a "professional's" can opener type device.

School room doors throughout the school were pried open and desks were ransacked. About $10 was taken from the kitchen, and the remainder from the safe. Checks that were inside the safe were scattered over the office floor.

Damage was estimated at approximately $500, although this figure could go considerably higher if the desks must be replaced, Medlyn said. About six doors were pried open.

The bid to form an area wide authority to provide hospital facilities has been given new life — just as the project seemed doomed as an impossible undertaking.

Officials representing six area communities decided to take the problem that threatens to kill the plan right to the parties responsible for the problem.

If they get the right answers, a concerted effort will be made to have the hospital authority plan put on the ballot in some 14 surrounding communities in April.

Meeting in Northville last Friday evening representatives of Northville township, Wixom, Salem, Farmington township, Livonia and South Lyon were told by Mayor A. M. Allen of Northville that the problem of bringing M.D.'s and D.O.'s together in one hospital seemed nearly impossible.

This has been the difficulty that prevented a possible November vote on the hospital authority act.

Representatives of several of the original 14 communities invited to study the hospital authority plan have steadfastly stated that they would not support any hospital plan that did not support equal use of the facility by both D.O.'s and M.D.'s.

Therefore a "proposed resolution was drawn stipulating that, if voters of the participating communities approved formation of an authority, hospitals supported by the authority would be open to both.

But Mayor Allen and Community General Hospital Administrator Calvin Monfils revealed to the representatives Friday night that officials of the Michigan Osteopathic association would not endorse the plan.

"They indicated that their organization would not support our authority unless the state hospital authority act is changed to permit equal use of the facilities in all authority hospitals," Allen told the group.

"In short," Allen explained, "the state association of osteopaths is asking that we help enact new state legislation."

General feeling of the representatives present at the Northville meeting was that this was not a problem for their proposed authority to undertake.

Under the state authority act it is up to the elected officials of the authority to determine the rules and regulations under which the hospitals should be managed.

The group then adopted a motion made by Salem Township Supervisor William Scheel that both M.D.'s and D.O.'s practicing within the proposed area authority be polled to determine their reaction to the problem.

"If our own doctors are willing to work together in a hospital, then I believe we should go ahead," he stated. His proposal won the enthusiastic support of Mayor Donald Brooks of Wixom and William Fisher, representing Farmington township.

It was declared that Mayor Allen and Monfils would prepare a questionnaire and submit it to doctors practicing in the area to include South Lyon and Lyon township, the village of Milford and Milford township, the village of Novi and Novi township, the city and township of Farmington, the city and township of Northville, Plymouth, Salem, Wixom and Livonia.

All of these communities have expressed interest at one time or another in the proposed authority.

After results of the questionnaires have been tabulated another meeting will be called. Upon these answers rests the future of the hospital authority, the representatives agreed.

Specifically, a hospital authority may be formed by an approving vote of a majority of the qualified electors of two or more cities, incorporated villages or townships.

The authority is governed by a board of directors appointed by governing bodies of the participating units and further elected by the appointees on a population basis.

The authority then may levy a tax up to four-tenths of a mill (40 cents per thousand dollars of equalized valuation). For the average home owner this tax would amount to approximately $1.50 annually.

Under the act the authority has the right to plan, acquire, construct, improve, enlarge, own, maintain and operate one or more hospitals located within or without the boundaries of the authority.

Construction of hospitals is planned according to the center of population

COMING DOWN — Workmen began tearing down this brick apartment house in the center of Northville's Main street business district this week. The event was witnessed with cheer by Carl Johnson and Fred Kester, who are shown above (l. to r.) with Lawrence Smith, contractor who will raze the building. Merchants Johnson and Kester are promoting a plan to lease the lot for free shopper parking from Roy Stone. All merchants in the business district are being asked to support the plan financially. Stone has agreed to pave the entire area between Northville Drugs and Northville Realty. The building will be torn down and the lot graded within two weeks, Smith stated.

STREET FACE-LIFT — Northville's paved streets are having their cracks, bumps and holes removed — a welcome change to motorists. Complete sealcoating is being installed on the older paved portions of Wing (shown above), Center, Carpenter, Grace, Hutson, Rayson and Horton. In addition the city is "spot patching" other paved streets where sealcoating is not required.

THEIR DREAM HOUSE — Hank and Shirley Tiilikka and their five children, Larry, 5; Bonnie, 6; Joanne, 3; Lynn, 11, and Peggy, 9, (left to right) lived in northwest Detroit before settling in their dream house at 20300 Westview. The Tiilikkas designed and have done much of the construction on their spacious ranch-style house.

The Henry Tiilikkas (the name's Finnish) weren't really trying to escape civilization when they moved from their northwest Detroit home to a 4½-acre plot in Northville about a year ago. They just wanted a country site on which to build their dream house, one large enough to permit five growing kids to run off their excess energy every once in a while.

And Northville, besides fulfilling these two conditions, reminded Shirley and Hank Tiilikka of the picturesque Upper Peninsula town in which they were both born and raised.

Ironwood, near the Michigan-Wisconsin border, is nestled in the rolling hills of the state's iron country.

It's akin to Northville in the unburied, more tranquil, pace they both keep.

The Tiilikkas bought the property cradling their dream home about six

Raise Funds For Hospital

The Hostess House of Northland Shopping center will be the scene of a mixed card party sponsored by the Northville Community General hospital auxiliary at 8 p.m. October 19.

A wide array of table and door prizes have been donated by local merchants, including dinners for two at several popular restaurants and movie tickets for three couples. The auxiliary has also received donations for a variety of items to be awarded as door prizes along with certificates for services that will be given away.

Lunch will be served at the close of the evening's activities. The card party is being directed by Mrs. Charles McDonald, chairman, assisted by Mrs. J. Goldsmith, Mrs. Elaine Snow and Mrs. G. Hubbert.

The public is cordially invited to attend the affair and vie for the many prizes. Mrs. Crispin Hammond (FI-9-0116) will provide ticket information.

years ago and set to work then to design a house that would fit their particular specifications. Several months of hard work later, they have a four bedroom ranch home with plenty of closet and cupboard space and one large sunken living room complete with beamed ceiling and one brick wall.

Five Tiilikka youngsters — Lynn, 11; Peggy, 9; Bonnie, 6; Larry, 5, and Joanne, 3 — and "Tinker", their pet Scotch terrier, help make the house at 20300 Westview a home.

Now that school has started the pace around the Tiilikka household has slowed considerably.

"Believe me," says Mrs. Tiilikka, "it's mighty quiet around here."

With Lynn at Main street elementary and Peggy, Bonnie and Larry at Amerman school, she has a little more leisure time to relax and dwell on mental pictures of how she plans to furnish her dream home.

Hank Tiilikka has had more than his share of building in the past few years. Besides doing most of the construction on his own home, he's been working on bridges and expressways in the Detroit area as a civil engineer with the Wayne county road commission. He's a graduate of Michigan Tech in Houghton.

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD-3

all sorts of things

By SHARON MAZANEC

PIX BRING KIX — When was the last time you picked up the family album (we hope you have one) and mused over the people, events and experiences caught motionless on the black and white prints?

More important, how long has it been since you've added any pictures to the album? A close family friend reminded us the other day that pictures don't take themselves, and that we should dust off the old box camera, (vintage unknown) and climb on the photography bandwagon that's currently rolling across the nation faster than a Connestoga enroute to the California Gold Rush.

The once arduous ordeal of sitting for a tinype is a thing of the past and taking pictures today is a "snap". Advances in photography — cameras, film picture processing — permit the average American to painlessly and quite inexpensively become a fairly accomplished shutterbug.

Three Northville women, Mrs. Audrey Joki, Miss Mildred Young and Miss Harriet Gibson left for Boston last month on a shutterbug's ideal of "a real vacation". The women planned to spend three weeks shutterbugging through New England and Quebec, Canada, on a "Through the Lens" camera tour. They were equipped to capture their travels on 35mm color stills.

Can you visualize autumn in New England and in technicolor?

School bells have rung, which very pointedly mean the kids are back in school. For the later elementary, junior high and high school students, the return to classes is old hat. Some of them have told us they're even happy to get back.

School officials and parents, too, will now concern themselves with how well the students bear up to the scholastic and social environment of the classroom. Will the adjustment, or re-adjustment be easy or won't it?

And what about the moms of school-age children? How do they fare now that the kids are packed off to school for the better part of the day?

One mother who spoke with, Mrs. James McNeiece, of 20145 Woodhill drive, sends all four of her youngsters off to school every Monday through Friday. With Donna, 12; Kathy, 11; Jimmie, Jr., 9, and Cindy, 6, under the teacher's watchful eye, the McNeieces' home is a little more tranquil than it was a month ago.

"Without four children underfoot," says Mrs. McNeiece, "I can get my housework done in the morning."

That leaves occasional afternoons for her to resume an interest she had to slight during the summer months. As a future substitute organist for St. John's Episcopal church in Plymouth, she returns to practicing the rich-textured music of the church.

Like to know a little more about a lot of things? The University of Michigan Lecture Bureau, a function of the University Extension service, can supply speakers and programs for clubs, study groups and schools, churches and civic and professional meetings at little or no charge.

There's a storehouse of knowledge between prehistoric man and space age technology — fine arts, world politics, music, history, business, recreation — much of which your group can hear about from lecturers who are specialists in their fields.

The University will provide a speaker without charge for community meetings sponsored by clubs and civic organizations if the purpose is to discuss either local or general social and civic problems. No fee is charged for lecturers who speak about the University itself. A small fee is charged for the first faculty speaker who appears before a closed group or on a program designed solely for entertainment.

Application forms and further information may be obtained from Lecture Bureau, U-M Extension service, 1610 Washtenaw avenue, Ann Arbor.

KITCHEN DIARY

Carrots Invade Cookie Jar

Never the twain would meet. That's what we once believed about cookies and carrots, but Mrs. Earl Baughman has proved us wrong with one of her Kitchen Diary recipes for this week.

Carrot cookies very nearly approach the dietitian's dream of blending the nutritious with the delicious without sacrificing either in the final concoction.

Mrs. Baughman, who lives at 51858 West Nine Mile road, tells us that these cookies are "especially good for the children." She tops them with an equally healthful orange juice icing. About the final product "My grandchildren just love them," she says.

In her recipe for Egg Plant Casserole Mrs. Baughman offers a formula for making a vegetable taste like a meat. The recipe is worth special note because it makes use of the unique flavor of the little known egg plant.

CARROT COOKIES

1½ cups sugar

Pupil Crippled By Poor Spelling

Poor spelling can pull down your child's grades in social studies, reading, science and other school subjects, say the nation's elementary school teachers. Many teachers mark down book reports, project notebooks, and test papers because they contain spelling and grammatical errors.

Why is spelling so difficult for many children?

"Learning to spell English is hard work," according to the National Education association, in its booklet "How to Help Your Child Learn." "Johnny would have an easier time of it with Spanish or Finnish, which are far more consistent in their rules."

Most schools concentrate on teaching children a list of about 3000 English root words that make up 98 percent of the words both adults and children use in written expressions. About 20 percent of these words don't follow the regular alphabetical rules, and these are probably the ones that are giving your child trouble.

Here are ways, suggested by the NEA, in which parents can help their children improve in spelling:

First, make sure that your child has no physical handicaps which may be holding him back — a speech defect, faulty hearing, or poor vision. If you suspect anything of the sort, have him examined immediately.

Have him make his own dictionary of "demon" words that plague him. Get him a scrapbook and have him devote one page to each alphabetical letter. As he masters the "demon," he enters it on the proper page.

Give your child the fun of adventuring with words. Encourage him to make a list of new and interesting ones he comes across. Play games with words. Oral riddles are fun. For example: "I'm thinking of a four-letter word that means sharp (keen). What is the word and how do you spell it?" Or ask him how many "happy" words he knows, how to spell (gay, cheerful, merry, smile, jolly). How many "sad" words? How many "holiday" words?

Encourage him to write frequent notes — to other children, to relatives — as thank-yous for parties and gifts. Check with him to see that all words are spelled properly and that the note is legible.

Observe how avidly your child watches television commercials, and turn this interest into a spelling game. Ask him to name the products he sees advertised, and to spell them. Aspirin, automobiles, bread, bottles, soap, shampoo, shave — the list is endless.

Play word games with him, such as Ghost, Junior Scrabble, Anagrams, Hangman.

Give him his own dictionary. He will use it faithfully, if you give him the good example of "looking up" the spelling of words.

Avoid "baby talk" with your preschooler or first-grader. It may be great fun for parents and doting uncles, but it's no help to your child in the real life of school. Make sure he hears all words clearly and correctly pronounced at home.

11 from Area Enter Cleary

Eleven area residents are among the largest class ever to enter Cleary college, Ypsilanti, this fall.

Listed among the new students are: Marjorie Baker, Kathleen Farley, Jacqueline George, Suzanne Powers, Lucretia Wendt and Douglas Whiteford of Northville; David Sandula of South Lyon; Linda Cook, Sandra Rickard and Alfrida Henke of Walled Lake, and Richard Burton of Novi.

Art Class To Start Saturday

Novi library-sponsored art classes for children will start Saturday morning at 9 in Novi school, located on Novi road.

Library officials announced this week that all interested children may attend the first class — whether or not they have previously registered.

Children are asked to bring pencils, drawing paper and crayons, as well as the first payment of $3. The total cost of the 10-week class is $6.

Philip Hefferton of the Detroit Arts and Crafts Institute, will teach the class, which is open to all children between the ages of 6 and 13. However, Hefferton will decide himself if a younger child may be accepted.

According to library officials, there is as yet an insufficient enrollment to offer adult art classes, music instruction or a Great Books discussion group. Adult art classes and music instruction will begin whenever enrollment is adequate. The discussion group probably will not be started until next spring.

Persons interested in any of these classes may notify the librarian at the library, FI-9-0720, or John MacBride at GR-6-3176.

Name Smock Park Lane

Unhappy township residents living on Smock road north of Five Mile road have reason to rejoice.

They're living on Park Lane now.

On action initiated by Township Supervisor George Clark the Wayne county road commission adopted a resolution to change the name of the road.

Residents complained because of the confusion with Smock road from Seven Mile road north. In addition, the "Five Mile Smock road" had once been known as Park road and many still refer to it as Park, Clark stated.

So the road commissioners compromised and came up with "Park Lane" for the half-mile section. Smock road north of Seven Mile road remains "Smock".

GOP Finance Drive Ends Here This Week

The county-wide GOP "neighbor-to-neighbor" finance drive heads into the stretch in the Novi-Northville area this week.

Mrs. J. P. Malley, 21633 Beck road, is helping to spearhead the drive in the Novi-Northville area.

Every contributor to the drive automatically becomes a member of the new GOP advisory committee, she said.

With heavy emphasis on family giving, a task force of workers has been busy ringing doorbells in this area since the drive was launched September 15. The drive comes to an end this week.

TRYING TO BE A CHRISTIAN

While on vacation this summer, I made acquaintance with a superintendent of a certain Sunday school. We had a few moments to converse and during the conversation he told me that he was trying to be a Christian. Immediately this suggested to me that this fine young man did not know the real gospel of grace at all. One cannot any more be a Christian by trying to be a Christian than by getting married by trying. Trying to be married must ultimately lead to engagement and a marriage ceremony in which that individual is legally united to a companion. Trying to be a Christian must also ultimately lead to repentance of sin and a personal faith in Jesus Christ, if that individual is to become a Christian. Christians are born, not made! Born again by the special work of God in the hearts of those who repent of their sins and embrace Christ as personal Lord and Saviour. How plain Ephesians 2:8-9 are in the King James, "For by grace are ye saved through faith, and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God. Not of works lest any man should boast." If you are trying to be a Christian, stop trying to earn this cherished name but humbly bow before God in faith believing and God shall accept you into His Christian family.

October 14 Plans Underway For Homecoming

While the Mustang gridders will be preparing to meet a tough West Bloomfield eleven in Northville's next home game October 14, another group of high school youngsters are also making preparations for the event.

For Friday, October 14 is Homecoming. This means the selection and crowning of a queen and the annual Homecoming dance.

The queen will be selected from a trio of senior girls, as yet unnamed. Her court will include the two other senior girls and a junior, sophomore and freshman.

At the game last year's Homecoming queen, Barbara Kruger, will crown her successor. She'll be escorted to the dance by the high school mayor, Dave Hay.

St. John's Open House Set Sunday

Northville area residents have been invited to attend an open house at St. John's Seminary, Five Mile and Sheldon roads, Sunday afternoon.

Father Edward Hogan, rector of the seminary, announced that seminarians will escort visitors through the spacious building between 1 and 6 p.m.

The seminary has private rooms for 215 students plus classrooms, a gymnasium and a large chapel. At present St. John's has 209 seminarians.

All seminarians at St. John's, representing the five Michigan Dioceses, are graduates of college and are receiving their last four years of training for priesthood.

Students on the Homecoming committee and their assignments are: Donna Williams, dance activity; Carol Regenhart and Sharon Hinchman, publicity; Grace Brinson and Linda McKinney, throne; Patty Rahaley, dance publicity; Linda Bell and Carol Budek, dance refreshments; Mary Mitchell, crown display; Pam Kay, flowers; and Nancy Starkweather, field activity.

6 Hospital Employees To Attend Convention

Northville State Hospital Employees Local 960 will send six delegates to the 13th annual convention of the Michigan State Employees Union Council No. 7 scheduled for Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Harris hotel in Kalamazoo.

Local 960 President Thomas Hedger will head the delegation which will include Frank Berry, Margaret Marcus, Irene Robinson, William Smith and Michael Cottrell.

Keynote speaker at the Friday afternoon session will be John Caldwell of Washington, D.C., special assistant to International President Arnold S. Zander. Caldwell was the keynote speaker at the union's convention in 1955 at Kalamazoo where a new union project was adopted.

Convention banquet speakers on Saturday evening will include Franklin K. DeWalt and Gordon W. Chapman, international secretary of AFSCME from Washington, D.C.

Approximately 200 delegates are expected to attend, which will make it the largest convention in the union's history.

State President George E. Summers of Marquette branch Prison Employees Local 684 will chair the convention.

FUN FOR EVERYONE — Patients at Northville State hospital had "a gay ol' time" Tuesday and Wednesday during the eighth annual Patients' Fair held on the hospital grounds. Game and refreshment booths were manned by Metropolitan area clubs and groups. Shown above inside one of the many game booths are four Northville women representing the Northville State Hospital auxiliary. They are: (left to right) Mrs. C. M. Hammond, Mrs. Daniel Brown, Mrs. Howard Meyer and Mrs. Raymond Henny. The other persons in the picture are patients. Other local groups which sponsored booths were: Northville Psychiatry association, National Council of Catholic Women, Psychiatric Attendant Nurses' association and Local 7, AFL-CIO.

Teachers Compile Guide For Elementary Curriculum

Northville elementary school teachers carried a new, freshly revised curriculum guide to classes with them this fall.

The 59-page guide designed to help the teachers instruct each elementary student as effectively as possible also represents a study in teamwork. In its final form it incorporates the time and talents of the entire elementary school teaching staff, the principals and Dr. K. M. MacLeod, assistant superintendent of schools.

Working at grade level meetings, the teachers provided the bulk of the guide's ideas and information during the 1959-60 school year.

Administrators were consulted periodically and Mrs. Florence Schermerhorn, Margaret Sours, Mrs. Isabelle Spooner, Mrs. Helen McCarthy, Stanley Golonka, Mrs. Dorothy Smith and Ada Fritz formed the seven-teacher committee charged with organizing material for the final draft, edited by Mrs. Schermerhorn.

The completed guide was formally introduced to school administrators and board members at a dinner meeting at the high school last week.

Richard Kay, Amerman school principal, said the new guide represented a complete revision of an earlier, outmoded version prepared about five years ago. He cited the latest curriculum aid as a "useful, workable outline that should provide continuity and help structure the elementary program."

General and specific objectives, basic textbooks and other resources for language arts (reading, language, spelling and handwriting), arithmetic and social studies in kindergarten through grade six are summarized in the guide.

Each section reflects the educators' attempts to improve the elementary curriculum, which, writes Superintendent Russell Amerman in his preface to the guide, must be subject to constant appraisal and re-evaluation to continue to be effective.

Authors of the curriculum outline stated that all teaching activity, including the use of their guide, should be conducted in keeping with the values that provide the underlying basis for a sound educational system.

They said the values, the educational philosophy, to which they subscribe are well expressed in a statement prepared by the Michigan Department of Public Instruction. They believe, for example, "that every person is important, has worth, and is endowed with human dignity; that close cooperation between home and school is essential; and that the school must promote the democratic ideal."

They further believe "in the freedoms essential to the perpetuation of a democratic society; in education for imaginative, logical and critical thinking; and in the use of all available information and resources to help in determining what the education of each child should be."

In translating their expressed principles to sound teaching practices, the elementary teachers said they recognized, above all, that "What is best for the child is the determining factor in all that we do."

Motorist Dodges Court Date

Northville police finally caught up with Detroit Earl Wilson Jackson this week. The elusive state hospital employee, who posed under the name Clarence Davis when arrested for a traffic violation in Northville last month, stood trial Monday and was fined $92.50 by Justice E. M. Bogart.

Jackson was arrested September 8 when officers ticketing him for an illegal u-turn discovered he had no operator's license. He was released on $25 bond but failed to return the next day.

After investigating officers learned that their "Clarence Davis" was actually Earl Jackson, a warrant was issued and Jackson was picked up and taken to the Wayne county jail. Released on $500 bond, Jackson neglected his September 19 court date but his lawyer succeeded in getting a two-week stay.

Jackson was in court Monday. He forfeited his first bond of $25, pleaded guilty to the traffic violation and driving with a revoked license, and paid $92.50 plus court cost.

In other recent court action presided over by Justice Bogart:

Dale L. Swegles of Farmington, tried for passing bad checks, was fined $50 and cost, placed on probation for six months and ordered to make good the $185 he wrote in bad checks.

James L. Strange, 41801 Wilcox, Plymouth, and Richard K. Atchinson, 550 Orchard, were fined $25 each for interfering with a police officer in the line of duty.

A Flint man, Francis N. Burke, received a $50 fine and was told not to return to Northville after he pleaded guilty to a citizen's complaint that he had made immoral and indecent gestures to little girls.

Paul R. Hensley, 40295 West Nine Mile, Novi, was penalized $50 for reckless driving. He failed to appear in court August 20 and was later picked up by Chief Eugene King at the county jail, where he was serving five days for an offense in South Lyon.

Howard R. McKillip, Jr. of Plymouth received a $15 fine for an early morning horn blowing spree on Center street.

NORTHVILLE BRANCH
MILFORD FINANCE CO.
111 GRISWOLD FI-9-3320

About six months ago Tom Tierney of 231 Ely drive had an idea.

Last week that idea became a reality when 6,000 residents of Flora, Illinois were driving 1961 Fords, Falcons, Thunderbirds and Ford trucks.

This was Tierney's plan for introducing the new Ford models — simply create a "Ford Town, U.S.A." and give every one of the car-owning families at least two Ford cars to use for one week.

If gaining public attention is one of the prime aims of new-model introductions, then Tierney's plan was a rousing success. For months the idea has been given publicity in the nation's newspapers, magazines and networks.

At 28, Tierney's already had an amazing career in his chosen field. Those who know him would probably be willing to wager that he'll top his "Ford Town" idea — maybe by taking over an entire country!

Mr. and Mrs. Tierney and their two children, Debbie, five, and Noreen, three, moved to Northville from Chicago a year and a half ago. Chicago is Tierney's hometown and after high school he attended night school while holding down a daytime job.

Two years in the navy got him started in public relations work and after his stay in the service he joined an advertising agency.

Soon he became assistant chief deputy to the Cook county sheriff in charge of public relations. Tierney's ideas for improving public relations as well as service for this police body were unique enough to gain wide attention and publication in trade journals. Perhaps his most widely copied idea was the use of helicopters to report traffic tie-ups and direct their relief by radio.

Next Tierney became associated with the National Society for Crippled Children (Easter Seal drive) and helped organize the nation-wide campaign for funds.

In this behalf he was instrumental in gaining a spot on "This Is Your Life" for two of his national campaign chairmen, Joe Foss, former governor of South Dakota, and Ivy Baker Priest, treasurer of the United States.

Tierney has been with the Ford Motor company for three years. One of his first ideas to gain attention for the Edsel car in Chicago was to "freeze" a car in August.

Thus an Edsel, covered bumper-to-bumper by a two-inch layer of ice and appropriately surrounded by a covey of pretty girls, gained the attention of thousands of passers-by as well as photographers as it slowly melted into view on one of Chicago's main streets.

Last year Tierney conceived a sort of "junior Ford Town" idea when he proposed introducing the Ford trucks on a California ranch. The rancher was supplied with a complete line of Ford trucks and the press was invited to stay at the ranch and witness the performance of the new models.

As coordinator of the Flora project, Tierney has been a busy man for the past few months.

First of all Flora officials had to accept the idea. Their response was unanimous and the plan was revealed to the public on May 11 in the Flora Daily News-Record in a two-line, eight-column headline of two-inch high letters proclaiming "1961 Fords Will Be Introduced in Flora".

Flora was selected because it is the city closest to the present population center of the country.

The idea of the program was four-fold:

- to provide a massive and unprecedented pre-introduction test involving hundreds of typical car and truck owners;
- dramatize the social and economic roles played by cars and trucks in a community's life;
- give the nation's information media a first-hand opportunity to observe and report an entire community's reaction to new car and truck models;
- provide sufficient vehicles to test the effect an increased car and truck population will have on present day streets and parking facilities in a typical community.

Ford moved 1,600 vehicles to Flora and provided every family with a 1961 white Falcon, Ford or Thunderbird to drive. Each truck in Flora was replaced with a 1961 blue Ford truck.

Every car-owning family was given at least two models to use. But at the end of the project, the cars were all moved out to be sold elsewhere or used as demonstrator models by dealers throughout the country.

To process the reaction of the public to questionnaires concerning performance of the new models an IBM computer was installed.

In general the reaction of the townspeople was favorable — with the possible exception of at least one dealer for a competing automobile firm. But officially, Flora was flattered and happy to be chosen "Ford Town, U.S.A."

The entire project — assembling the cars, install telephones, prepare cars for use, provide accommodations for the press and official visitors, list all the families to receive cars (a slip up here resulted in a five-year-old boy being listed for a car — he received a miniature gasoline model instead) — probably cost Ford Motor company more than a quarter of a million dollars.

It proves what a young man with an idea — a small cog in a giant industry — can do in this land of opportunity.

But what on earth can Tom Tierney pull off for an encore?

NEWCOMERS to the area, the Tierney family reside in a new home in Northville Heights. Shown above are Mrs. Tierney, Debbie, 5, and Noreen, 3. They're mighty proud of Dad but will be glad to have him home for a change. His "Ford Town, U.S.A." idea has kept him busy in Flora, Illinois.

EVERY ROOM HAS ITS OWN THERMOSTAT TO VARY ITS OWN BEST TEMPERATURE. The ideal thermostat will vary according to personal taste, the use of a room and its exposure to wind or sun. Dial that temperature, and electric heat keeps you perfectly comfortable. Here's uniform heat—warmth that seldom varies more than two or three degrees in any part of the room, even quickly from wall to ceiling. And should conditions change, you can quickly warm up one room without overheating others. Built-in electric heat may cost more but it's worth every penny in solid comfort. And when you heat your home electrically, Edison's Budget Billing Plan equalizes heating costs over the year.

Mustangs Clip Bloomfield, 12-6

Fans were treated to an occasional reminder of an "old" grid-iron greatness Friday afternoon as the Mustangs clipped Bloomfield Hills 12-6.

Recovering from the shock of the 13-7 defeat at the hands of Holly two weeks ago — the first league loss in four years — the defending champion Mustangs reminded the Barons and other league opponents that another Northville championship is not an impossibility.

In upsetting the Barons — the pre-season darkhorse, Northville displayed an occasional brilliance that sparked previous Orange and Black squads to four straight championships.

But because brilliance was generously sprinkled with flaws (mostly fumbles) and because the victory was mostly the result of a determination to win, Coach Ron Howarth is reserving most of his bouquets pending the results of future contests.

Northville was the first team to strike pay dirt — and the touchdown came early in the first quarter. End Jim Petrock pulled in a pass from Quarterback Steve Juday and galloped 48 yards to the Bloomfield 12. Halfback Dave Hay shot around end to score the TD.

Bill Trotter's extra point kick was wide of the mark.

The Mustangs threatened again just minutes later as Senior Guard Fred Steeper covered a fumble on the Barons' first play from scrimmage at the Northville 34.

Moving to the Bloomfield 40, Northville also fumbled and the Barons took possession.

On the very next play, Bloomfield's star halfback, Biff Jones, dodged through a host of would-be tacklers and raced 63 yards for a tying touchdown. A bad pass from center ruined the Barons' hopes of a one-point lead.

Bloomfield Hills was back knocking on Northville's goal line seconds later as Northville Halfback Tom Darling fumbled the kickoff and the Barons took possession on the 28.

The Barons marched to the Northville 3 in one play, edged to the 1½ on a Northville offside penalty, and then batted their way to the one-foot line. But Northville's defensive unit rose up, knocked the ball from the halfback's hands on the next play and covered the ball in the endzone to end the threat.

Bloomfield covered another Northville fumble in the second stanza and started a 44-yard march to the Mustangs' seven-yard line. Once during this drive, a Northville interception by Halfback Dave Hay was nullified by a "roughing the passer" penalty.

Northville took possession on the seven as the Barons failed to advance in four downs. But Northville's Halfback Darling fumbled again with only a few seconds remaining in the half. Bloomfield advanced to the 4½ and lost possession on downs as the first half ended.

Dominating most of the second half although failing to capitalize on its ground attacks, Northville started its second touchdown drive early in the third stanza after taking a quick kick on the 33.

The Mustangs marched to the Bloomfield 37, punted and covered a Bloomfield fumble at the 10. On the second play from scrimmage, Fullback Bill Trotter smashed his way to the goal line, fumbled, and Halfback Tom Swiss fell on the loose ball in the end zone to take credit for the touchdown.

Trotter's extra point kick was wide of the mark.

Another Northville ground attack died on the Bloomfield 7, just one foot short of a first down late in the fourth period. The Barons moved to their 19 in a frantic race with the clock, lost possession on an interception by Petrock, took over on downs and moved to their 25 as the game ended.

The Barons, who knocked off third place Brighton in their league opener two weeks ago, surprisingly led the Mustangs in rushing, mainly because of two isolated long runs by fleetfooted Jones. The unofficial tally gives Bloomfield 208 yards to Northville's 204 yards. Northville led the aerial attack, 69 to 31.

Redskins Seek First League Win

Still looking for their first league win of the season — and remembering their humbling loss to Northville last season, the Milford Redskins will host the third-place Mustangs tomorrow evening.

The game will get underway at 8 p.m.

Redskin Coach Jerry Ganzel, hard pressed to field a football squad with some experience, is mainly concerned with building a future football strength. Of course, he and his team would like very much to upset the Mustangs.

"We lost 17 lettermen last season," Ganzel explained after the Redskins dropped their first two league games with Clarkston and West Bloomfield. "And we have only four lettermen on our starting eleven this year," he added.

Playing before a capacity homecoming crowd last year, the Mustangs had little difficulty in rolling over Milford.

The Redskins held the Mustangs to a single touchdown in the first half — but failed to come up with a threat of their own. The longest drive carried them from the 47 to Northville's 33 — the closest they came to scoring all evening.

Other W-O league and area team scores were: Brighton 12, Holly 7; Clarenceville 13, Clarkston 13; Bentley 13, Plymouth 0; Berkley 20, Farmington 18; and Walled Lake 33, Pontiac Northern 14.

FIRST SCORE — Northville's Halfback Dave Hay (23) takes advantage of this wide-open hole to streak 12 yards for Northville's first touchdown against Bloomfield Hills last Friday afternoon on the Barons' gridiron. Jim Tuck, a Northville tackle, holds off a would-be Bloomfield tackler (60) in the foreground. Northville won the game, 12-6, to notch its first league victory of the season.

13 Lucky Number In Football Contest

Who said 13 is unlucky?

When it comes to winning football contests, it's definitely the age to be.

Last week two 13-year-olds, Dennis Anchors and Dan Bishop, shared top honors and divided the prize money in the weekly football contest.

It's the same story, but with new winners, again this week.

First place honors and $10 went to Jack Hooper, 43620 Nine Mile road, who missed only two games in a week of several upsets.

Second place and $5 was won by Jim Driscoll of 23898 West LeBost, Novi. Jim missed only three games. Actually, Jim's total of three misses was tied by Otto Regentik of 46144 Neeson, but Jim came closer to predicting the score of the Lions-Green Bay game and thus was awarded the money.

Both Jack and Jim are 13-year-old ninth graders at Northville high school.

For Jim it's a repeat victory. He shared in the prize money in one of last year's contests.

As usual there were a number of upsets to trip the dopsters. Most frequently missed games were: Northville over Bloomfield Hills; Purdue over Notre Dame; Oklahoma over Pittsburg; Florida over Georgia Tech; and, oddly enough, MSU over Michigan.

In his winning entry, Hooper picked all the tough ones accurately. He tripped on the Duke-Maryland game and also picked the Lions to down Green Bay.

In one of the biggest fields of entries the contest has ever had, eight contestants were close behind the leaders with only four misses.

Ringneck Population Up

Experts Predict Good Season for Nimrods

Pull up a chair and rally 'round the crystal ball, small game hunters! It's that time of year for gazing at your prospects in Michigan this fall.

Although the Conservation Department's crystal ball has been turned on all year long warming up for this seasonal preview, the picture was rather fuzzy until recently.

Now that its "power tubes" — department field surveys, questionnaires from hunters, game bird counts by farmers and mail carriers, and last year's hunting success records — are generating their final findings at full strength, the outlook is much clearer. By and large, it transmits good news for nimrods.

From southern Michigan comes the forecast that hunters will hit their 23-year high average of slightly more than 1,000,000 pheasants. Ringneck production has jumped 14 percent above last year in this part of the state, the birds' major range. Hunters took 914,000 of these wily birds in Michigan during the 1959 season.

A closer look at this year's brood production reveals that it was up 25 percent in the Thumb area, 23 percent in western Michigan (Ottawa, Muskegon and Allegan counties); 20 percent in central Michigan; and 9 percent in southeastern Michigan. In the southwestern sector, it dropped 13 percent.

Turning the crystal ball toward northern Michigan draws a picture indicating better shooting success among ruffed grouse hunters. Although gun pressure was down last year compared with 1958, hunters took 379,000 pats for their highest kill in five seasons.

Michigan's waterfowlers can look for about the same shooting success as they had last fall.

Canvasbacks and redheads have been scratched as legal targets to help them build up from their current low in numbers. Although hunters will have to hold their fire on these two diving ducks, they should receive enough action from other species to fill the gap as far as kill is concerned.

Go Mom Go!

Those buried urges to streak along a race course that mom has harbored all these years may soon be satisfied.

A meeting has been set tonight for all persons (that includes mom, dad and kids) interested in forming a Northville Go-Cart club. It will be held in the office of CHH III, above Manufacturers National Bank, at 8 p.m.

Persons unable to make tonight's meeting are asked to call Charles Lapham, FI-9-3466.

"Go-carting" is a new — but fast growing sport that has become known as a "family participation activity". Already more than a half-dozen Northville families have purchased carts and have started racing.

Although the initial expense may run as high as $275, go-carting is less expensive than many other sports, go-cart enthusiasts Chuck Lapham explains.

The most significant fact about this new sport, he said, is that it appeals to adults as well as youngsters. It brings the family together, he adds.

According to Lapham, the membership of the proposed club will be limited to 40 persons. To become a member, a family must own a cart by April 30.

Members will race Saturday and Sunday, from noon until 6 p.m., on the blacktop roadway in the Thomson gravel pit, Seven Mile and Beck. Under an arrangement with the township, spectators will be discouraged.

Speed in go-carting at the gravel pit is not as essential in winning as is driving ability — or skill in handling the cart on the many corners of the short track. The maximum speed of a go-cart is approximately 35 miles per hour.

Limited speeds and the fact that participants must wear helmets and safety jackets makes go-carting a relatively safe sport. Yet, as in any sport, accidents do happen if the driver is careless, Lapham says.

Because there is some danger in go-carting, youngsters below the age of 16, will be required to take a driving test under the supervision of some adult member of the club.

All of these safety rules and regulations, as well as other club laws, will be established at tonight's "family" meeting.

Phil Jerome Wins First In Triangular

Two Class A cross country teams dumped Northville last week — but the Mustangs continued to display a vastly improved lineup.

After splitting their first two games, the Mustangs finished second in a triangular meet here last week Tuesday against Clarkston and Plymouth and then dropped its match with heavily favored Garden City Friday.

Northville's ace runner, Phil Jerome, grabbed first place from the entire field of runners here for the triangular, which Plymouth claimed on points.

The other first four Northville runners to finish were Ivan Ely, Howard Sherman, Mike Adas and Dave Filkin.

Jerome finished second in the meet with Garden City. Other Northville runners in order of their finish, were Ely, Sherman, Adas, Filkin and Mike Daleo.

Events out of the Past

ONE YEAR AGO . . .

Firemen from four area volunteer units are credited with arresting a roaring $10,000 blaze that threatened to destroy the entire Bob O'Link Golf clubhouse early Tuesday morning.

Plans for a $60,000 addition to the First Baptist church of Northville, Wing and Randolph streets, have been approved and construction is slated for late October.

Recreation Director Stan Johnston told city council members Monday night that the community recreation department is virtually "broke".

Northville motorists will have to continue using the Plymouth road detour for more than a month, Wayne county road officials pointed out this week.

Emergency March of Dimes canister collection Chairman Mrs. Fred Russell reported this week that $181.40 was contributed to the drive in canisters placed in downtown Northville businesses.

One of Northville's oldest and best loved citizens, Miss Ada Roe, 90, of 508 West Cady, passed away September 14 at University hospital in Ann Arbor after a three week illness.

Rounding the curve of another grid season Friday, the Northville Mustangs smashed head-on into a pile of Rocks and tumbled from a mountainous winning streak, 9-0.

Groundbreaking ceremonies for one of the oldest congregations in this section of Michigan, the First Baptist church of Wixom, were conducted Sunday on Wixom road near West Maple.

FIVE YEARS AGO . . .

Mayor Claude Ely and the Northville city commission moved swiftly this week to forestall resignations of three patrolmen comprising the local police force because of low pay and long hours and an apparent let-down of morale due to the number of petty grievances within the department.

Immediate cause of the city's action was the resignation, since rescinded, of Patrolman Eugene King to accept a position with the Plymouth police department at $400 additional salary and a work week four hours shorter than the 48 required locally.

The Rocks from Plymouth high school left little doubt as to who had the better football team Friday at Ford field as they walloped the Mustangs of Northville high school 36-0.

Donald B. Severance, 392 Fairbrook court, was elected president of the State Court Records Assn.

The Northville city commission ratified by a four to one vote the proposal advanced by Commissioner Malcolm Allen at the previous meeting for appointment of a citizens' advisory committee to formulate a five-year program of public improvements for the city.

Decision of whether the city of Northville should cooperate with Wayne and Oakland counties in facilitating construction of a cut-off that would take traffic on 8 Mile road out of the center of the city has been deferred until the next meeting of the city commission on October 3.

An amending ordinance rezoning 325-acres of land northwest of Wixom road and Grand River for use by the Ford Motor company was unanimously approved by the Novi township board Monday evening.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO . . .

On Friday, September 28, the Northville high school football team opens the current season with Keego Harbor at Cass Benton park.

Newly installed American Legion Auxiliary, Unit 147, members are:

President, Mrs. Norine Simmons; first vice president, Henrietta Cohen; second vice president, Ruby Cole; secretary, Lean Hammond; treasurer, Lila Chapman; chaplain, Florence Alexander; sergeant at arms, Laura Smith; and historian, Clara Alexander.

Townpeople are invited by the library staff to drop into the local Wayne county branch to inspect the prize presented to the Northville unit for topping the state sales contest during the Sixth War Loan drive in 1944.

Named as Northville service heroes were A/S Earl F. Croll and James Howick.

According to general opinion the 1945 Flower and Vegetable show sponsored by the Northville branch of the Garden clubs was one of the finest ever held by the club. Entries were more numerous and in fine condition, thanks to good growing weather.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO . . .

The 18-hole handicap golf match for the handicap championship at Brae Burn golf club was won Saturday by Jack McLoughlin with a score of 78.

The Hamtramck Rotary club was the guest Tuesday of the local Rotary club for luncheon in the Presbyterian church house.

Walled Lake's "red-headed boy" made good in his practice try-outs with the Tigers Saturday and Sunday. After a conference, Del Baker, who has been closely observing Doug Tuttle's playing, told him that he would send him a contract to sign in a few days and that he should report in February for spring training at the Tiger camp in Lakeland, Florida.

The super structure of the new Ford plant at Northville will be built by the Cooper-Little company, Detroit contractors, the firm which was also awarded the contract for the sub structure and main floor, it was announced at the Ford Motor company offices at Dearborn.

The Johnsons are leading in the battle for softball supremacy and if they are able to take the Owens into camp successfully Sunday they will emerge with the wreath of victory.

Dayton Deal and George Westfall, who have been starring for the Johnson aggregation and Ed Wood and Leland Smith for the Owens, are expected to lead in the batters' battle.

In Uniform

San Diego, California — Marine Pvt. Richard F. O'Hare, son of Mrs. Dorothy L. O'Hare of 547 Fairbrook, completed recruit training September 8 at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego.

The 11-week course included instruction in all basic military subjects and infantry weapons.

Upon completion of training new Marines are assigned to a unit for further infantry training, or to one of the many Marine Corps schools.

San Diego, California — Louis W. McLean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. McLean of 318 River street, graduated from recruit training September 16 at the Naval Training Center, San Diego.

The graduation exercises, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp", included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

In nine weeks of instruction, the "raw recruit" is developed into a Navy Bluejacket, ready for duty with the fleet.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN BANDSMEN — These local residents are members of the University of Michigan Marching Band which will appear at all Wolverine home football games and make two away-from-home trips this fall. Shown with Assistant Prof. George R. Caven-der (far right), assistant band director, are (l. to r.): George Berryman, 727 Carpenter, and Thomas Williams, 446 Eaton drive. The 170-member band traveled to East Lansing last week end and to Madison, Wisconsin October 29. Each bandsman spends at least eight hours a week rehearsing for each appearance.

Wednesday evening service, 8:00.
Reading room in church edifice open daily except Sundays and holidays, 11:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.; 7 to 8 p.m. Wednesday and 7 to 9 p.m. Friday.

How sickness as well as sin can be overcome through spiritual understanding of God will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday.
Teachings of Christ Jesus are featured in the Bible selections which include his admonition concerning the "corrupt tree (which) bringeth forth evil fruit" (Matt. 7:17). The subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "Are Sin, Disease and Death Real?" This correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will follow (343:14): "Jesus strips all disguise from error, when his teachings are fully understood. By parable and argument he explains the impossibility of good producing evil; and he also scientifically demonstrates this great fact, proving by what are wrongly called miracles, that sin, sickness and death are beliefs — illusive errors — which he could destroy and did destroy."

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

By the Rev. B. J. Pankow, Pastor
St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Northville

A LOST SOUL FOUND
Have you ever read St. Luke Chapter 15 in the Bible? If you never have, why not take time to do so now?

This chapter reveals in a wonderful way the love of the Savior for lost sinners. Here Jesus shows us that the recovery of one single lost soul is motive for the greatest joy.

In 30 verses Jesus relates three matchless stories — the parable of the lost sheep, the parable of the lost coin, and the account of the prodigal son.

LOST
In each of these stories Jesus teaches that the lost soul is a direct loss to God. In that fact we have the infinite paths of this chapter. He is the Shepherd whose sheep has wandered off. He is pictured by the woman whose piece of money has disappeared. He is represented by the father whose son has wandered far away into the world of sin and shame.

God originally created man not to live in the dominion of sin and Satan, but in God's Kingdom. After man fell into sin, God showed His great love by sending His only begotten Son to redeem man. And Christ, the Son of God cannot forget what He has done for man. He loves every lost soul as much today as when He gave His life on the cross for the salvation of mankind.

This should give careless sinners food for serious reflection. You are God's, redeemed by the blood of His own Son. But you have gone away from God, walking in your own paths and seeking your own selfish ends; and God misses you. He longs for your affection and desires your return. How can you continue to be indifferent to Him? The lost soul is lost to himself. Out of the Shepherd's care and away from the green pastures of God's Word and the fellowship and encouragement of his fellow Christians, such a soul wanders endlessly, is continuously exposed to the dangers of the devil and the world, and subject to fright and terror and despair.

Great is the loss of a single soul! Should we now say: "The lost soul's trouble is of his own making; he should be left to his own fate?" Surely not.

FOUND
There is only one solution. The lost soul must be found. No cost, no effort must be spared.

The faithful shepherd leaves the 99 sheep in safety and sets out after the one lost sheep with unabating fervor of search. The woman who has lost the one coin sweeps her house with unremitting diligence. The father of the lost son looks to the horizon, anxiously hoping for his son's return.

And what indescribable joy when the lost is found! Having found her precious coin, the woman jubilantly calls her friends and neighbors together, saying: "Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost." And the shepherd, what does he do? Does he strike the sheep or speak to it harshly? No, he lifts it gently to his shoulder and carries it back to his flock and home. He, too, invites his neighbors, saying: "Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost. As for the father, when he sees his son return, he has compassion and runs toward his son, embracing him and kissing him. "Let us eat and be merry," he rejoices, "for this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found."

Dear friend, have you been found? Or is God still yearning for your lost soul? Return to Him today.

Public Invited to Hear 'Iron Curtain' Talk

"A Year Behind the Iron Curtain" is the subject of the talk by Katherine Pierson at the Presbyterian Men's club dinner, 6:30 p.m., Thursday evening, October 13 at the church fellowship hall.

Miss Pierson, now attending Michigan State university, attended the University of Warsaw and lived with several Polish families. Last year she had the opportunity to visit Moscow in the company of a Polish youth group. Her talk will be accompanied by color slides. Reservations may be obtained by calling Jan Reef or Gunnar Stromberg. The public is welcome.

HAPPY 101st BIRTHDAY — A special party was held by personnel of one of the wards at Northville State hospital to celebrate the 101st birthday of one of the patients. Some of the other patients also contributed to a fund to provide presents and refreshments. Patients are remembered on birthdays and special holidays through the Red Cross Gray Lady "Adopt-a-Patient" program, although more volunteer groups are needed for this function. Shown above congratulating the birthday patient is Dr. P. N. Brown, hospital superintendent, who emphasized the importance of such recognition in the care and concern of patients. Looking on (l. to r.) are: Mrs. Madge Savage, LPN; Louis Kuykendall, LPM, and Mrs. Cliff McLean, RN.

Plymouth Symphony Opens Fifteenth Season, October 16

Nelson M. Hauenstein, assistant professor in woodwind instruments at the University of Michigan, will be the featured soloist for the first concert presented by the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra Sunday, October 16. The program will be given in the Plymouth high school at 4 p.m. Compositions by Berlioz, Haydn, Vivaldi, Griffes and Respighi will be played by the 100-piece orchestra, now in its 15th season, and conducted by Wayne Dunlap.

The "Goldfinch Concerto for Flute and Strings" by Antonio Vivaldi and "Poeme for Flute and Orchestra" (a tone poem for orchestra dominated by a haunting song for a flute) by the poetic American composer Charles Tomlinson Griffes will spotlight Mr. Hauenstein's talents as flutist. Mr. Hauenstein, a member of the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra and widely featured soloist throughout the state, is a graduate of the Eastman School of Music, a recipient of the degree of Bachelor of Music from the U. of Rochester, and a master of Music in Music Education granted by the University of Michigan. He is also recognized as one of the organizers of the U. of M. Woodwind Quintet and the Baroque Trio.

A portion of the program will carry a Roman theme. Conductor

Wayne Dunlap has selected the "Roman Carnival Overture" by Hector Berlioz and "Pines of Rome" by Ottorino Respighi. Berlioz, one of the great pioneers of music, left the classical "past" to become the first great romantic composer. Using literary subjects, fantasy and remarkable innovations in orchestration his music is passionate and in the large design. "The Roman Carnival Overture" was composed originally as a prelude to his opera "Benvenuto Cellini"; later the composer made it an independent symphony. Played in three sections the first movements present a saltarello or 16th century Roman dance, a dashing figure for violins and violas; the main melody is a beautiful song for an English horn; and the third subject is a dance theme returning to the opening saltarello.

Ottorino Respighi, whose importance as a modern composer rests on his contribution toward helping bring about a symphonic renaissance in Italy, portrays the four sections of Rome in "The Pines of Rome". His brilliance in instrumentation and utilization of modern harmonies are in evidence in these selections. The Pines of the Villa Borghese, the Pines Near a Catacomb, the Pine of Janiculum, and the Pines of the Appian Way are visited on this impressionistic tour of Rome. The most famous of the gay, effervescent Paris Symphonies, "Symphony No. 88 in G Major" by Franz Joseph Haydn, will also be played. Written about 1787 at the request of the city of Paris where the composer was well known and admired, this is one of Haydn's most often performed symphonies. Typical of Haydn's symphonies, a slow introduction prefaces the first movement. A song is first heard in the cellos and oboe in the second movement. Part three, the "Minuetto", or minuet, has a peasant like vitality not unlike an Austrian folk dance. The finale is in rondo form... vigorous and vital.

Forthcoming concerts will feature Nelita Ann True, pianist; Jean Harter, violinist; Eleanor Burton, soprano; Shirley Love, mezzo; Fred Kendall, tenor; Nat Sibbold, bass; Emily Mutter Adams, violinist; and the Plymouth Symphony chorus directed by Fred Nelson. Dates for these concerts have been set for November 20, December 11, January 29, March 19 and April 16.

Open to the public without charge, all concerts are held in the Plymouth high school gymnasium. Baby sitting arrangements for guests with small children will be available for a small charge.

Making Walking Easier in City

MILES OF NEW SIDEWALK are being installed in Northville as a result of the new sidewalk assessment ordinance which the city council put into effect recently. At right is shown the new sidewalk along the Eight Mile road cut-off. Walk has been installed along both sides of the cut-off from Center to Novi street. At left is a scene typical of many throughout the city where damaged sidewalk is being removed and replaced. The city pays one-third the cost of installing new sidewalks, but the property owner pays the full amount for replacement. In most cases the walks are being installed under a bid negotiated by the city.

World War I Veterans Wake Up!

During the year 1949, a group of World War I Veterans (12 in all) held a succession of meetings in the Cleveland, Ohio, area in an attempt to start a new organization composed exclusively of men who served in the first World War.

Probably not one of the Veterans who attended the meeting in October, 1949, could have envisioned the forceful, fighting group that has sprung from that humble beginning in the past 11 years.

Today the Veterans of World War I of the U.S.A. number some 200,000 members, with 44 Departments and over 2,100 Barracks in every State of the Union. In addition, there are units in the far flung Philippine Islands, France, Ireland and Alaska.

The newly-organized group stated emphatically that it was not their purpose to be antagonistic to any other Veteran society. As a matter of fact, they outlined fully their determination to work in accord with other groups.

Under the great National Commander Lew Brake, the Veterans of World War I were granted a National Charter by the United States Congress, thus placing the organization on a par with the other great Veterans' organizations of the United States.

Legislative Program:
First on the Legislative program is a bill to grant a pension of at least $100.00 per month to all honorably discharged veterans of World War I.

The average World War I Veteran is 67 years of age and many thousands of these men find it extremely difficult to secure and hold down any kind of a position which will provide for them a living wage. They are in desperate need now and this is the time that a grateful government should come to their assistance.

Any World War I Veteran living in the Plymouth, Northville, Walled Lake, South Lyon or Livonia area who will drop a card to Commander Herb Treadwell, 709 Harding St., Plymouth, or to Quartermaster Al Brocklehurst, 657 Wing St., Plymouth, will receive a brochure giving full details on the World War I organization.

Chevy's new trunk is something else that will please you hugely — what with its deep-well shape and bumper-level loading it holds things you've never been able to get in a trunk before.

Yet, generously endowed as this car is with spaciousness and clean-etched elegance, it holds steadfastly to all the thrifty, dependable virtues Chevrolet buyers have come to take for granted. Your dealer's the man to see for all the details that make this sensationally sensible '61 Chevy a new measure of your money's worth.

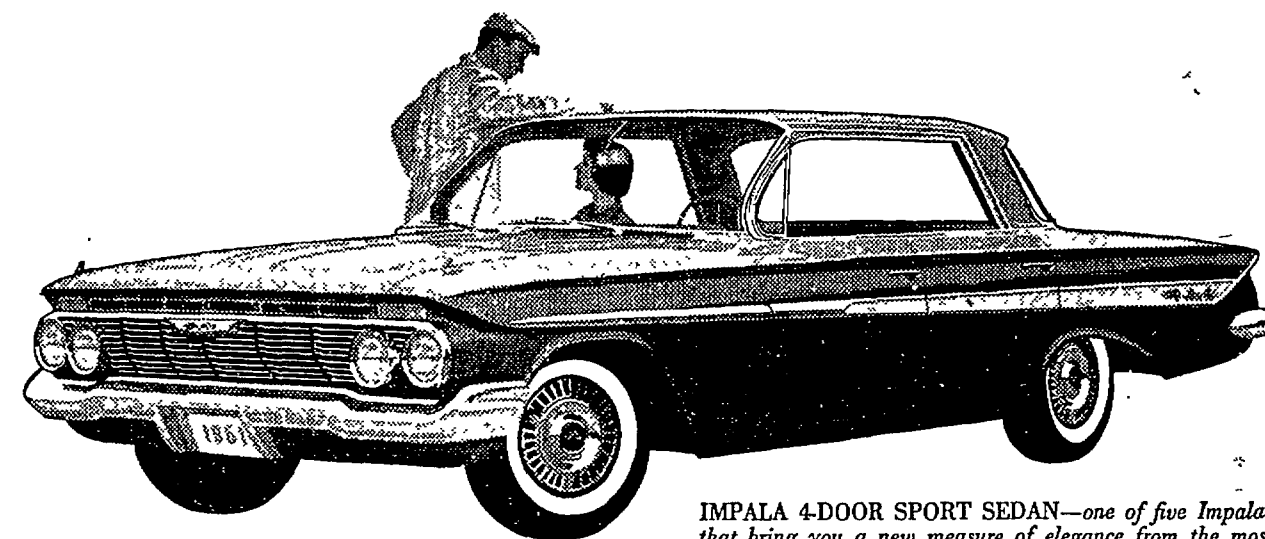

There's never been a trunk like it before! The floor's recessed more than half a foot and the loading height is as much as 10 1/2 inches lower.

NEW '61 CHEVY CORVAIR

More space...
more spunk
and wagons, too!

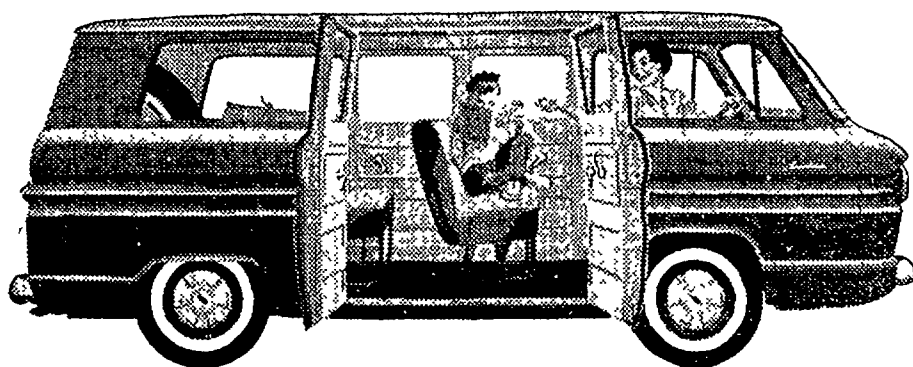

The newest car in America: the CORVAIR 700 LAKEWOOD 4-DOOR STATION WAGON.

CORVAIR 700 CLUB COUPE. Like all coupes and sedans it has a longer range fuel tank.

CORVAIR 700 4-DOOR SEDAN. Provisions for heating ducts are built right into its Body by Fisher.

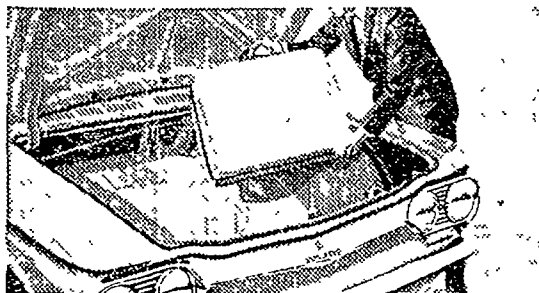

Here's the new Chevy Corvair for '61 with a complete line of complete thrift cars.

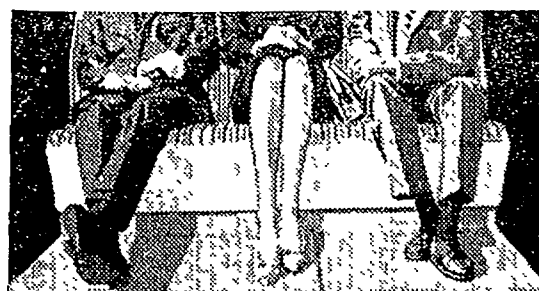

To start with, every Corvair has a budget-pleasing price tag. And Corvair goes on from there to save you even more. With extra miles per gallon... quicker-than-ever cold-start warmup so you start saving sooner... a new extra-cost optional heater that warms everybody evenly. Riding along with this extra economy: more room inside for you, more room up front for your luggage (sedans and coupes have nearly 12% more usable trunk space).

And our new wagons? You'll love them—think they're the greatest thing for families since houses. The Lakewood Station Wagon does a man-sized job with cargo, up to 68 cubic feet of it. The Greenbrier Sports Wagon you're going to have to see—it gives you up to 175.5 cubic feet of space for you and your things. Compare that with any other U.S. wagon going!

Corvair's whole thrifty lineup gets its pep from a spunkier 145-cu.-in. air-cooled rear engine. Same rear-engine traction, same smooth 4-wheel independent-suspension ride. See the polished and refined 1961 Corvair first chance you get at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Spare tire is in the rear in coupes and sedans—leaving more luggage space up front.

Even middle-seat passengers sit pretty, thanks to Corvair's practically flat floor.

Now in production—the GREENBRIER SPORTS WAGON with up to twice as much room for people and things as ordinary wagons (shown with optional at-extra-cost third seat in position).

Proper Sleep is Important To Your Child's Health

School work will be easier for your child and he will learn faster if he is fully rested when he leaves home for school each morning, Dr. Joseph G. Molner, City-County Health commissioner, reminds parents.

To make sure that your child is fully rested and ready for new ideas and responsibilities requires careful planning and may require persistent and constant supervision to get this sleep pattern established early in the new school year.

Daytime naps drop sharply when little children reach five and enter kindergarten. See that your child is not deprived of sleep he needs at night. The large group of children he mingles with in the classroom are new to him and many of his school experiences are new too so that he is likely to be keyed up. These new experiences can cause fatigue and must be balanced by relaxation, rest and sleep. This makes it necessary for parents to have definite plans for more rest at home.

The kindergarten child should be in bed at 8 p.m. if he is to be up at 7 a.m. If your child is nervous or tired by the middle of the morning, the chances are that home conditions and home planning should be improved.

Children in elementary school need nine to 11 hours of sleep, depending on their age, general health and physical makeup. In general teen-agers need at least eight to nine hours sleep. A little experimentation will determine if he is up an extra 15 minutes at night means "dopey" irresponsibility in the morning. A good general rule is to see to it that a school-age child goes to sleep early enough to awaken naturally in the morning.

If at all possible, the adolescent should sleep alone. Firm springs and mattress are important, for the hours spent in bed can very easily contribute to poor ways of holding the body if beds are sagging or too soft.

Adolescents should have a chance for all the rest and sleep they will take. Any adolescent who seems "lazy", who sleeps "too much" or doesn't seem to build up energy from the rest he gets has something wrong with him, and what it is, physical or emotional, needs to be discovered by a doctor.

Many an energetic child hates to be inactive, but he needs some quiet relaxation to keep from being overstimulated. Radio and television programs should be turned off and home work completed before bed time so that a period of quiet relaxation is possible before the child goes to bed. Parties for students should be saved for Friday and Saturday nights.

In discussing the difficulty of having children turn off the television or radio programs, Dr. Molner suggests to parents that teen-agers feel less frustrated when they have a voice in working out family plans to see that they get sufficient sleep. However, the last word must remain with parents where the young person's health is the point of issue.

NORTHVILLE

By HUGH C. BRONAUGH, Manager

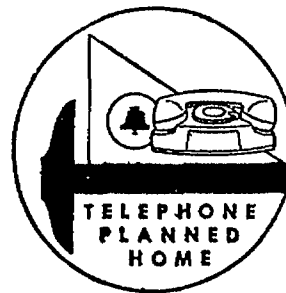

We thought we would take this opportunity to remind you that this Monday, October 10, is the last day you may register for the November 8th election. Never think that your vote "won't make any difference." This is not so. Many elections have been lost or won by a single vote. Be sure to register on or before October 10, but above all, we urge you to exercise your heritage to vote!

FIXING UP FOR FALL? A lot of people find that this is a good time for getting things done around the house. And it's a good time to think about getting the extra convenience of an extension phone in your bedroom. It's particularly nice in the winter. If the phone rings at night, you don't have to hop out of a warm bed to take the call. Our new Princess phone fits nicely on any bed table—and its built-in night light is an added convenience. To order a bedside extension phone today, just call your telephone Business Office.

*****

ONE OF THE LATEST improvements in home building is free Built-in-Wall telephone wiring—throughout the house. Special wiring, designed to provide for all future telephone needs, is concealed in the walls of your home during construction. When you move in and order telephone service, the installer locates the hidden wires with an electronic detector and connects your phones. Built-in-Wall wiring assures neat, attractive telephone installations in a wide choice of locations throughout your home and permits you to change locations readily at a later date. If you're thinking of buying or building a new home, be sure to call us at Michigan Bell. We'll be happy to install Built-in-Wall telephone wiring... at no cost to you or your builder.

LOOK WHAT DODGE HAS DONE FOR COMPACTS

The name, Lancer: one hardtop; one 2-door sedan; two 4-door sedans; two wagons. What kind of cars are they? This kind: two feet shorter; many pounds leaner; a couple of hundred dollars less in cost than usual automobiles. Lancer welcomes a family of six lavishly. Has plenty of trunk. Its fully-unitized body is very quiet, very tough. Lancer is also mannerly. It corners decisively, takes a well scarred road with aplomb. Parks obediently. More reasons to buy? Read on. The interiors are rich, but simple: Shed soil, wear well, feel good. The engine is highly spirited, but extremely light on regular gasoline. One more thing, Lancer is built by Dodge. Our name is on it. This means Lancer will stay nice and shiny. How so? The body is rustproofed by an exclusive Chrysler Corporation process. Enough talk. Meet Lancer at your Dodge Dealer. Now.

COMET — On display today at West Bros. Mercury-Comet in Plymouth the Comet for 1961 offers a choice of two engines, the Thrift-Power Six and the new 170 engine.

SPEAKING for the Record

By Bill Slinger

Don't be surprised if the city council decides against building a new city hall on the same site as the present location.

Although this was the recommendation of the citizens' study committee, there has been some inclination by council members to investigate the possibility of selling the city hall land for commercial development.

Advocates of this plan would then build the city hall on city-owned property on South Main street between the Ford plant and the Old Spring.

They argue that the city hall land is too valuable, both in dollars and toward the future development and preservation of the present business district, to retain for municipal use.

Actually, the council has not given any serious consideration to this matter as yet. Last week they received the $145,000 check for the community building from the school district, which will be earmarked for the city hall building. Now the council is studying possible architects.

Speaking of city halls, Wixom is well underway with its new building. The $32,000 structure is being built on a 7½-acre site on Pontiac trail just east of Wixom road. It will contain a fire garage, firemen's office and quarters, and offices for the police, clerk, treasurer and mayor.

Sunday several hundred residents and officials from surrounding communities attended a corner-stone laying ceremony officially marking the first building project undertaken by the three-year-old city.

A touch of beauty will be added to the new city parking lot behind the First Methodist church.

Planter boxes will be installed at both the Main street and Dunlap street entrances.

The idea was suggested to the council by an alert, but unidentified, citizen who apparently recognizes that the "Beautify Northville" effort is a year-around job.

If the efforts of a handful of merchants prove successful, the community will have another parking lot in the center of the business district, between Northville Realty and Mainville's Drugs.

The plan calls for tearing down the old apartment house currently standing on the lot and paving the entire area for free parking. Merchants will lease the lot on a yearly basis.

Personally, I think the idea is excellent. It will provide our community with badly needed, convenient parking — and also do away with a building which contributes nothing to the appearance or function of the business district.

Thursday, September 29 was truly new model introduction day in the John Mach family, 45241 Byrne drive. For John it was the day that the new 1961 Fords were put on display at his dealership in Northville.

But Mrs. Mach stole the show when she introduced Jane Leigh, a bouncing six pound, 4½-ounce model born at 7:30 a.m. at Annapolis hospital.

War in 10 Years?

Barcelona, Spain — During the weeks I have been in Europe, I have constantly asked questions. I have talked with all kinds of people from taxidivers to ambassadors. Let me add that the U.S. Embassies everywhere have been very kind and patient with me, as they are with all Americans who call upon them.

The first question I always ask is: "Do you expect World War III?" The answer, almost unanimously: "Yes, but not for ten or twenty years." Furthermore, most expect that it would be started by China.

"Will it be an atomic war?" Most people replied: "Probably," but some feel that by that time there will be some sure defense against atomic bombs.

"Will Cuba be Communist?" "Yes, but there are many breeds of Communism as there are denominations of Protestantism."

"If Russia attempts to go too far in Latin America will the U.S. enforce the Monroe Doctrine?" Answer: "Yes."

"Does Mr. K truly want a reduction in armaments?" "Yes, because to hold his power he must constantly improve Russia's standard-of-living. To do this, Mr. K must spend less on armaments."

"Could Europe possibly remain neutral in the event of war between Russia and the U.S.?" "Yes, in view of the new weapons which may then be available."

"Are you European people interested in 'space travel' and going to the moon?" Answer: "Not so much as you are in America. We have trouble enough on this earth without seeking more."

"What about Africa and undeveloped nations in other areas?" "European nations are interested in every part of the world where there are natural resources of minerals, oil, gas, water and sunshine."

"How do Europeans feel about inflation?" "Everyone looks upon inflation as dangerous. It is very harmful for all who have savings in banks, insurance policies or annuities."

"Have any Europeans benefited from inflation?" "Yes, those few who held mortgaged real estate and the gold to repay these mortgages. Those who held unmortgaged real estate profited provided they had the gold or its equivalent to pay the taxes."

"In what are careful Europeans now investing?" "In rented or producing property away from possible Communist seizure." Such real estate is constantly increasing in value.

"What about utilities as investments in Europe?" Answer: "Since most of the utilities are owned by municipalities or the state, they offer practically no investment possibilities."

"How are personal taxes in Europe?" The European people think they are high due to state welfare projects. But I am inclined to believe the U.S. has the highest taxes in the world.

"What about unemployment in Europe?" "With the exception of West Germany, Italy, Switzerland, and one or two other countries there is much unemployment."

"What about wages?" "Both wages and the cost-of-living are low in Europe. Probably Spain has the poorest record."

"Is it safe for American manufacturers and investors to buy stocks of West German, Italian or French corporations?" Answer: "Most of these are making money, but it is risky to buy such stocks unless one knows the corporation officers and understands why the owners are selling. There is no 'Dun & Bradstreet' in these countries, no 'Securities & Exchange Commission'."

"What about the American election in November?" The feeling is that Kennedy will be elected, although the people with property say they would vote for Nixon. Some believe that if Kennedy is elected, his father will try to back the biggest boom in U.S. history with the Dow-Jones Industrial Average going to 800.

"The idea that MPPPA wants to get across is this:

An inmate, or a parolee, or a probationer, is subject to social influences much stronger than the ones which make most of us act the way we do in our normal daily lives. A person who has made a mistake, even though he might want to reform, meets suspicion, social stigma and misunderstanding to a great degree.

Even family and neighbors are wary of a person who has been in trouble. The general public shuns "ex-cons" and "jailbirds."

One natural reaction of the person who has been convicted of a crime is to fight back against the person or persons who refuse to accept him as a responsible member of the community.

The attitude and influence of other prisoners, if an offender is institutionalized, is also important in shaping his behavior upon release.

The concept of corrections held by the general public may be second only to the influence of correctional workers in rehabilitating an offend-

Public Attitude Toward 'Ex-Cons' Studied

THE MICHIGAN PROBATION, Prison and Parole association wants to help inmates of correctional institutions think better of themselves by helping the public to think better of the inmate.

They call it "mobilizing social influences for correctional change". "Social influences," however, is a broad and inclusive term. It could also be subject to a wide variety of interpretations which would be flattering neither to the MPPPA nor inmates in Michigan prisons and other penal institutions.

The idea that MPPPA wants to get across is this:

er, says the MPPPA.

A late September meeting of the organization tried to bring out the whole panorama of influences — working both ways — between offenders, the public and the groups working in corrections.

No whitewash of lawbreakers was intended.

The psychological aspects of criminal behavior, whether they cause habitual lawbreaking or some other problem, are not neglected by the MPPPA.

But even psychological problems have to be treated within the context of society.

The aims of the MPPPA would be to have correctional procedures all working toward the same goal, increase society's understanding of the offender and the offender's understanding of society, and bring groups related to the correctional field in to the integrated effort for a greater degree of rehabilitation.

BUTCHERS WITH A THUMB on the scale are a common subject of cartoon quips.

Not so funny are the occasional cases where a buy gets less than the legal measure of a product because of deliberate misrepresentation by the seller.

It's the job of the Foods and Standards Division of the Department of Agriculture to police the weights and measures of goods offered for public sale.

It tries to protect the public from paying too much for the goods received.

Dealing with reputable firms, understanding what is bought, knowing how quantity is determined and examining the cost per unit of measure can help the public protect itself.

But the Foods and Standards division warns consumers to remember the old legal maxim: "Let the buyer beware".

A HOPEFUL NOTE has crept into talk from the Michigan Economic Development Department on the nebulous quality called "economic climate".

Michigan has a much better "image" outside the state than it has enjoyed for a long time, the Department says.

Local industrial expansion programs, building of new manufacturing facilities and a general optimism among business and community leaders in all parts of the state has improved the feeling of outsiders, the Department says.

The Department hopes the optimism — and consequently the improved image — will spread.

Necessary ingredients to help the movement catch fire are business confidence, governmental stability, and pride in Michigan accomplishments in Michigan people.

Interested citizens would like to see a snow-balling, or pyramiding, return of confidence in the "economic climate".
