

New Ordinance Prohibits Hunting In City Limits

The blasts of hunters' shotguns will be heard again today (Thursday) as the curtain opens on another small game season — but the sound may not be quite so loud to residents of the city.

Council members provided a hiding place for the elusive ringtail pheasant by adopting an ordinance prohibiting the discharge of fire-

The ordinance further provides for use of firearms "on a duly licensed shooting range", or in self-defense or by police.

New city limits signs along Taft, Eight Mile and Beck roads were scheduled to be posted this week. No hunting signs were also posted in these open areas.

Similar action was taken by the Novi village council this week when hunting was prohibited in some 13 subdivisions.

Hunting season gets underway at 10 a.m. today and closes November 10.

Conservation officials, who are always deluged with complaints at this time of year, advise hunters to seek permission from property owners before entering likely pheasant cover.

Courtesy pays off, officials point out this week. Approximately 75 percent of more than 550 Michigan farmers contacted during a recent survey gave the "okay" to hunt on their lands sometime during the 1958 and 1959 seasons, they said. The survey covered urban areas as well as rural regions.

Even then, however, a 30-day permit must be obtained from the chief of police.

NO HUNTING HERE — Small game season opened today but nimrods accustomed to hunting in newly-annexed territory along Taft road and west along the north side of Eight Mile road to Beck road will have to find new sites. Northville councilmen passed an ordinance Monday night prohibiting the use of firearms in the city limits. Police and public works employees hurriedly posted the area. Wednesday. Shown above (l. to r.) spotting a city limits sign on Taft road at the 8 1/2-mile line are Billy Osborn and Superintendent Herman Hartner. Ready to post the "no hunting" sign is Officer Huston Butler.

'Wild' Dogs Kill Pony, Pigs

An eight-month-old pony — the pet of two young Novi children — was attacked and killed this week by a "pack" of vicious dogs.

The animal was found dead and partly eaten Monday, less than 24 hours after two pigs were destroyed, on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Chisholm, 29420 Meadowbrook road (corner of 13 Mile road).

According to Mrs. Chisholm, who kept her children inside the house Tuesday for fear that they might be attacked, a "pack of wild dogs" invaded the barn Monday while the family was away and killed the pony which was tied up inside.

Just a day before, she said, two pigs were attacked and so "terribly mutilated" that they had to be destroyed.

The pony, a shetland worth approximately $150, was the pet of two of her children, Cindy, 4, and Steven, 2. "But no amount of money could replace him," she said. "The children loved him. His name was 'Sundust'."

Although the county animal welfare director, Dr. Frank R. Bates, stated that the animals were probably killed by one or both of the Chisholms' dogs, Mrs. Chisholm declared she was certain it was not done by her dogs but by a pack of dogs seen in the vicinity during the past several weeks.

Dr. Bates reported after his investigation that he found blood on the Chisholm dogs. However, Mrs. Chisholm contended that her dogs probably came in contact with the blood after the pony was killed. The Chisholms own two large dogs.

"Our dogs knew the pony," she said. "And I'm sure they wouldn't do it. If we thought they would, we'd destroy them."

"It's those other dogs," she insisted. "At night you can hear them over by that swamp around here."

Mrs. Chisholm said her husband discovered the badly mutilated pigs after going to the barn to investigate "a commotion". As her husband approached, she said, two strange dogs, one black and white and the other part black, ran from the barn. Later, she said, he shot at one of them.

Her husband had tied the pony to a manger inside the barn, shortly before the family left the farm on business Monday, she said. They discovered the dead pony after returning. His hind-quarters were partly eaten away.

A donkey, also owned by the Chisholms, was in another barn and was not harmed.

Police Chief Lee BeGole said the attack was the first he has heard of since dogs attacked and killed more than two dozen chickens and turkeys near Novi and 10 Mile roads last year.

Poles 'n Polls Don't Mix

Police aren't bent on discouraging political campaigners from boosting their favorite candidates, but Chief Eugene King reminded the election enthusiasts this week that lamp post, public utility poles, shade trees and any public structures or buildings are out of bounds.

He said a section of the city's litter ordinance forbids posting any bills or notices — including campaign publicity — unless authorized or required by law.

Maintaining a non-partisan political attitude, Chief King warned that campaign signs would be torn down — regardless of party.

Report Shows Crime Rate In Northville

Northville is no haven for crime. A comparison of major crime rates was issued to the city council this week by Police Chief Eugene King.

The statistics list all of the crimes reported in Northville since 1954 in the 10 major categories. It also compares Northville's crime rate with the metropolitan area, state and entire nation.

But Northville's breaking and entering, larceny and auto theft show alarmingly high rates — the latter two topping the national average.

In the first six months of 1960 Northville has had 13 breaking and entering cases, five larceny (over $50) and 21 larceny (under $50) and 13 auto thefts.

During the entire year of 1959, for example, Northville had only three breaking and entering, a total of 46 larcenies and seven auto thefts.

"There's a definite outbreak of these particular crimes in the area," Chief King pointed out, noting that thefts from stores and schools have been particularly heavy.

The crimes listed in Chief King's report are: criminal homicide, forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, breaking and entering, larceny (over and under $50), auto theft, juvenile cases and forgery cases.

His report also contained a definition of each of these crimes. The most confusing to the average layman are the difference between robbery, burglary (breaking and entering) and larceny.

The definitions of these crimes are:

Robbery — Stealing or taking anything of value from the person by force or violence or by putting in fear, such as strong-arm robbery, stickups, robbery armed; assault to rob and attempt to rob.

Burglary — House-breaking, safe-cracking, or any unlawful entry to commit a felony or a theft, even though no force was used to gain entrance and attempts. Burglary followed by larceny is not counted again as larceny.

Larceny — Fifty dollars and over in value. Thefts of bicycles, automobile accessories, shoplifting, pocket-picking or any stealing of property or article of value which is not taken by force or violence or by fraud. Excludes embezzlement, "con" games, forgery, worthless checks, etc.

Chief King's seven year report shows that there have been no recorded homicides, rapes or robberies since 1951. In 1959 there were two cases of aggravated assault, but none in the other six years.

Here's the count on other major crimes in the city, the numbers listed starting with 1954 and continuing through each year to include the first six months of 1960:

Breaking and entering — 7-4-8-5-13-3-13;

Larceny (over $50) — 8-6-7-11-14-14-5;

Larceny (under $50) — 29-29-39-22-17-32-21;

Auto Theft — 11-12-10-5-11-7-13;

Juvenile Cases — 15-20-15-10-3-6-3;

Forgery Cases — 0-4-1-3-7-2-0.

One interesting statistic is the definite drop in juvenile cases during the past four years.

In comparative ratings — for all of the 10 major crimes recorded — Northville's crime rate per 100,000 population is 702. The national rate per 100,000 population is 896; the metropolitan area is 1,139 8; and the rate for the state of Michigan is 1,077.2.

Torch Drive In Full Swing

It all started Tuesday.

More than 100 local volunteers began ringing doorbells, calling on business firms and generally reminding the public at large that Northville's fourth annual United Foundation Torch drive is underway.

The campaign, aimed at collecting some $6,000 to benefit nearly 200 different agencies in the Metropolitan area, will be concentrated into 10 days in which residents will be asked to "give once for all".

Business solicitation began promptly Tuesday morning with a 10-man team headed by A. Russell Clarke, vice president of Manufacturers National Bank, Northville office.

"We plan to make personal calls on 120 business prospects in the area. Our goal is $1,142," Clarke stated.

Assisting Clarke as co-chairman is Alton Peters. Other solicitors for the business campaign are Charles Carrington, Wilson Funk, Carl Johnson, Fred Kester, Richard Lyon, John Miller, Philip Ogilvie and Merle Parsons.

The house-to-house drive is headed by Mrs. Harold L. Wright, who has 100 women helping her. They've outlined their plans for contacting every resident, dividing the community into districts and assigning blocks to every worker.

Their work began Tuesday, too, and while no collection tabulations have been recorded so far, early contributions have been promising. The residential goal is $2,264.

In all, Northville is expected to contribute about $6,000 to the UF campaign. This includes school, government and "special prospects" collections.

Last year Northville topped the $6,000 goal by over $5,500 goal by some $200.

The drive ends Friday, October 28. Torch Drive funds benefit boy and girl scout programs, King's Daughters, the recreation department, YMCA, Red Cross, Michigan Heart Association — to name but a few of the 200 agencies.

TORCH DRIVE volunteers are making it easy for residents to contribute to the annual campaign — they're collecting right at your door! Shown calling on Mrs. Edward Angove, 20181 Valley road, is Mrs. Stan Schaefer (right), one of the 100 local Torch Drive workers. A team of 10 men also started soliciting business firms this week. The drive ends October 28.

City Schedules 3 Public Hearings

City councilmen handled a variety of business Monday night including the approval of ordinance to prohibit the use of firearms in the city (see story elsewhere on this page), to vacate West street between Main and Cady, and provide that the newly annexed area be assigned to precinct three for voting.

The vacation of West street will be settled at a public hearing on November 21 at the city hall. The action was taken to comply with a request by the school board. West, unused between Main and Cady since construction of the community building, will probably become the property of the school board without easement restrictions.

Public Works Superintendent Herman Hartner informed the council that there were no city water or sewer lines, or other public utilities, on the site except those directly serving the school buildings.

The council will hold a public hearing October 31 to bring all of the Oakland county area annexed last March to the city (Northville Estates, etc.) into precinct three. The ordinance will become effective immediately so that residents of the area may vote November 8.

A public hearing was also set for November 7 to rezone land owned by George Kohs along the south side of West Cady between Wing and First from R-2 to R-3. Kohs recently told the council that the change had been approved several years ago by the planning commission, but somehow it never became official.

In other "business" Monday night the council promised to investigate complaints from Allen drive area residents that concentrated sanitary sewage is emptying out of the storm sewer causing bad odors.

A report from the city manager and public works superintendent indicated the problem has been alleviated.

The council approved transfer of the 1960 tavern and SDM license at 137 East Main street from John MacDonald to Charles W. and Helen E. Austin. Members turned down what appeared to be a request for an "exclusive" permit by Robert Cole to remove snow from residents' walks with a small tractor-pump. He was informed that he could contract with individuals to do the work, but the council warned against driving on walks of non-customers. The council warned this might "pack-down" the snow and make it difficult for residents to clean their walks.

An investigation of complaints of speeding on the new Eight Mile road cut-off was also ordered by the council. Chief of Police Eugene King reported that the county is ready to test the cut-off for average speed and recommend a limit.

City Manager John Robertson is attending the convention of the International City Manager Association in San Francisco and was therefore absent at Monday's session. He returns today.

A HOME-MADE PRODUCT — Production of two of the most popular Ford-made automobiles, the 1961 Thunderbird and Lincoln, is underway at the Lincoln plant in Wixom. Although both cars will not be introduced for sale until early next month, advance orders are already piling up, leaving Plant Manager William Singleton with high hopes

Candy Sales Boom

Citizens Organize To Aid Band Drive

The high school band "new uniform steamroller" continued to gain momentum this week with the official formation of a citizens committee and booming candy sales.

Elated with the news last week that C. E. Langfield, president of Northville Laboratories and a longtime band booster, had contributed $5,000 to start the new uniform campaign, school officials, students and interested citizens pitched in to boost the fund.

Last Thursday about 30 citizens organized the nucleus of a citizens' committee to help the drive and assist band members in their projects to raise funds.

The group elected Clifton Hill chairman and named Joseph Denton, former Northville police chief and friend of hundreds of local children of all ages, as honorary chairman of the campaign.

Elected with Hill were Mrs. Shirley Marshall, secretary, and Mrs. Donald Severance, treasurer.

Ivan Ely and Essie Nirider were named directors of the drive to solicit business and industry in the area, while Glenn Deibert will contact service clubs and Clayton Myers veteran and fraternal organizations.

Meanwhile, the school youngsters have been busy selling candy at $1.00 a box.

They've already sold their first order of 1,989 boxes and are now awaiting a re-order of 1,200 more boxes.

Working on a one-third profit, the candy sale figures to net over $1,000.

The citizens' committee decided against holding a house-to-house campaign, preferring instead to assist band members and other school youngsters in fund-raising projects.

But residents who are interested in helping Northville's 85-member band obtain their badly needed uniforms are urged to make contributions directly to the "Northville High School Band Uniform Fund".

Groom's Father Officiates At Mapes-Andrews Nuptials

Barbara Mapes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Mapes, was married to Thomas Andrews, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Andrews, in a ceremony conducted by the Rev. James R. Mapes, pastor of the Full Salvation Union chapel, at the groom's father's home, 51630 West Eight Mile, on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Andrews

The evening ceremony took place October 8 at the Full Salvation Union chapel before a candle lighted altar adorned with vases of white stock, mums and gladioli.

The Rev. and Mrs. Andrews, 51630 West Eight Mile, are the groom's parents.

Some 200 guests from Lansing, Kalamazoo, Flint and the Northville area honored the newlyweds at a reception in the church basement following the ceremony.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a waltz-length gown of lace and net with long sleeves and a scalloped neckline. A cap of sequins and pearls held her shoulder-length veil. She carried a cascading bouquet of white mums and ivy embracing a symposium orchid corsage.

Joan Lower, maid of honor, and Sharon Allen, bridesmaids, were attired in beige-toned, iridescent taffeta sheaths with bubble overskirts. Their accessories were in a complementing shade of burnt orange and they carried bouquets of bronze fusi and button mums accented with wheat, grapes and ivy.

The groom's best man was Aubrey King of Northville. His brothers, James, David and John, Andrews, were ushers.

"At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by the bride's cousin, Nancy Harger. She was accompanied by Dewey Gardner.

A dusty blue lace dress with black accessories was Mrs. Mapes' attire for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Andrews wore a gold and beige dress with matching accessories. Both mothers wore yellow mum corsages.

For their wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Canada, the bride chose a navy blue wool suit with blending accessories.

Pelto-Mai Vows Spoken in Detroit

Officiating at the afternoon ceremony was Dr. F. J. Pies.

The bride chose a full skirted taffeta gown with chintilly lace bodice for her wedding. Delicate floral patterns accented the skirt which was gathered at the waist of the front panel by a taffeta bow and in the back by a cluster of four taffeta roses. Sequins outlined the gown's scalloped neckline. The bride's fingertip illusion veil was held in place by a crown fashioned with chintilly lace and sequins.

A cascade arrangement of white roses with stephanotis and an orchid in the center formed the bridal bouquet.

The bride was escorted to the foot of the altar by her father.

Imgard Mai of Detroit, the groom's sister, was the maid of honor with LaDena Schult of Fort Wayne, Indiana and Marlene Brandt of Detroit serving as bridesmaids.

All three attendants wore identical lavender lace over taffeta dresses. Each dress was styled with a scalloped hemline, a pleated back panel sweeping from a small taffeta bow and a round neckline.

The maid of honor carried a basket of white carnations and roses while the bridesmaids carried baskets of white and miniature lavender carnations.

Suzie Rule and Laura Ann Little were flower girls. They wore white nylon dresses with lavender embroidery.

broidered designs and carried smaller baskets of lavender and white carnations.

Serving the groom as best man was Gerald Alwardt of Mt. Clemens. The groom's brother, Richard Mai, and Alwyn Dopp of Mt. Clemens were ushers.

"The Lord's Prayer" and "Perfect Love" were sung by soloist Rudolph Kilponen.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother was attired in a tiered, blue lace sheath. The groom's mother wore a beige silk sheath. Both wore orchid corsages.

A reception for 200 guests was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony. A buffet supper was served to 100 guests later at the bride's home.

To begin the wedding trip, which took the couple to Niagara Falls, Canada and Buffalo, New York, the bride chose an olive green jacket sheath, black patent leather accessories and a white feather hat.

The couple will live in Valparaiso, Indiana where the groom is a senior at Valparaiso university. The bride was graduated from Valparaiso last May.

Local Couple Wed in Rites At OLV

Northville residents Dorothy Vroman and William E. Widmaier were married October 8 in a noon ceremony officiated by the Rev. Father John Wittstock at Our Lady of Victory church.

Mrs. J. H. Vroman, 444 Yerkes, and the late Mr. Vroman are parents of the bride. The groom's parents are Charles Widmaier, 119 Randolph, and the late Mrs. Widmaier.

The bride, wearing a waltz-length gown of white brocade, was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Ivan D. Campbell, of Plymouth. Her bouquet was predominantly of white mums centered with an orchid corsage.

Attending her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Ivan D. Campbell. Her waltz-length gown was styled in aqua satin. Mrs. Fred Russell of Northville served as bridesmaid in a waltz-length dress fashioned in peach satin. A fall arrangement of mums, grapes and wheat formed their bouquets.

Beth Anne Campbell, dressed in pale green brocade, was her aunt's flower girl.

Mrs. Vroman chose a silver and blue brocade dress and matching accessories for her daughter's wedding.

KITCHEN DIARY

Recipes Insure Moist Cakes

Mrs. Sherwood Stevens, 52475 West Nine Mile road, volunteered two of her favorite dessert recipes for Kitchen Diary readers this week.

She's taken those good, old-fashioned stand-bys — ginger bread and apple sauce cake — added a few of her own gourmet recipe twists and come up with two baked delights to tempt the palates of young and old.

Mrs. Stevens said she prefers to substitute lard for shortening in both recipes, thus making the ginger bread and apple sauce cake richer and more moist.

Both dessert ideas rate high on the homemaker's list because she notes that they're good "dressed up" or "dressed down". Whipped cream or butter icing are Mrs. Stevens' ginger bread trimmings. She transforms her apple sauce cake into a real Christmas fruit cake by adding nutmeats and candied fruits to the batter.

GINGER BREAD

Mrs. Sherwood B. Stevens
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup butter-lard mixture
1 egg
1 cup molasses (dark label)
2 1/2 cups flour
1 1/2 teaspoons soda
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon ginger

1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup hot water
Cream butter-lard mixture and sugar; beat egg; add egg and molasses to first preparation. Blend in dry ingredients which have been sifted together. Add hot water. Beat until smooth and bake in 350 degree oven until done (about 35 minutes).

APPLE SAUCE-CHRISTMAS CAKE

2/3 cup butter or lard
2 cups sugar
2 cups unsweetened apple sauce
2 teaspoons soda
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon cloves
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
4 cups flour
Cream butter (or lard) and sugar. Add soda to thick, cold apple sauce and combine with first mixture. Stir in remaining dry ingredients.
To make Christmas cake, also use:
1 cup raisins
1 cup currants
1 oz. assorted candied fruit
1 oz. red and green candied cherries
nutmeats
Turn batter into two large, or four small, square baking tins and bake at 325 degrees for about 90 minutes.

BEAUTIFUL — The Steve Horvaths and their daughter, Mary Ann, 14, are more than pleased with the colorful scenery surrounding their new home at 19220 Marilyn. The Horvaths formerly lived in Oak Lawn, Illinois, a suburb of Chicago.

Michigan acquired three more boating and fishing enthusiasts in August. Steve, Dorothy and Mary Ann Horvath didn't exactly come to the state looking for a place to launch their boat and drop a fishing line but now that they're here they plan to test some of the tourist claims made by the water wonderland.

The Horvaths moved from Oak Lawn, a Chicago suburb, in the middle of August when the head of the household (Steven J.) was transferred by Ford to the company's transmission plant in Livonia. He's been a supervisor in maintenance for the auto firm about 12 years. Steve and Dorothy Horvath and their 14-year-old daughter, Mary Ann, live at 19220 Marilyn.

AAUW SPEAKER — Professor Edgar W. Waugh of Eastern Michigan university will discuss "The American Presidency" tonight before the Northville - Plymouth branch of the American Association of University Women. The political scientist-author is the association's guest at a 6:30 p.m. dinner meeting at the Mayflower hotel in Plymouth.

How do the new surroundings agree with them?

"We particularly like Northville," relates Mrs. Horvath, "because it's so much like Oak Lawn. And what we've seen of the state has been very beautiful," she continued, "especially the lovely fall colors of the maple trees."

Mary Ann, a junior high student, has been looking for a girl scout troop in Northville. She's just three

Women Hold 9th Reunion

Present and past women employees of the Ford Motor company will hold their ninth annual reunion dinner at Lofy's restaurant (Arbor-Lili) in Plymouth Thursday, November 3.

The dinner will start promptly at 6:30. Reservations must be called in by October 31. Calls may be made to GA-1-8371, GL-3-2317 or GL-3-6277. This annual get-together was originally conceived by women who worked at the old Ford plant located near the corner of Five Mile and Northville roads during and after World War II. Many of them have either given up their jobs or transferred to the Ford plant in Ypsilanti.

The family couldn't leave the windy city without taking their pets, so "Tyke," just a Chicago dog, and "Peppy," the parakeet, now live in Northville, too.

The Horvaths have done some traveling — through the South and West — and in the last few years have become very fond of the Wisconsin countryside. This year Michigan will have its turn.

Symphony Opens Season Before Audience of 600

By Harold Hartley, Sr.

Over 600 persons heard the 95 players in the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra last Sunday afternoon in the auditorium of Plymouth high school, and were drawn by the first piece: Berlioz' Roman Carnival, into the atmosphere of 19th Century Paris.

This was the Paris of Victor Hugo, Chopin, George Sand; the Paris of barricades, and also of the can-can. Berlioz' strong and exciting instrumentation seemed almost defiance, as if he would drown the sound of rifles with heel-kicking and horns.

The second offering, Haydn's Symphony No. 88, took the audience to pre-Napoleonic Austria and the relative stability of the aristocracy. Haydn's music flowed like a river: grave, tender, ironic perhaps, but above all, endless.

Today it is greeted along world shores from the Congo to Canada — 104 symphonies, 76 quartets, 68 trios, 54 sonatas, 31 concertos, 24 operas — and much more!

The second part of the program

Nelson Hauenstein, faculty member of the University of Michigan, and the first solo flutist engaged by the orchestra in ten years. As far as "firsts" are concerned, it may be said that the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra makes it a practice to play programs which do not include any repeats, and Sunday's rendition was of that nature.

Resphigi's, The Pines of Rome, concluded the program with its musical symbolization of the barbaric thunder of ancient, lion-watching Rome; and carried a warning for modern times.

After hearing this program, given by volunteer musicians from 20 communities in three counties, I was convinced of the rightness of a statement made to me recently by a member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. He said: "The enthusiasm Plymouth has here, plus capable musicianship, creates a program quality equal to many of the best orchestras in the country."

The unmistakable stamp of Greatness!

In commerce, as in art, it is rare indeed that a creation emerges so inspired in concept and so flawless in execution that it is destined, at the outset, for certain greatness.

And yet, it seems not too soon to say that the Cadillac car of 1961 will take its place among the most memorable achievements of the automotive craft.

Its clean, classic form introduces a new look for the world's motor cars to emulate. There's a new proportion of glass to steel

... a new "oneness" of contour and shape ... a new relationship of interior to silhouette.

Inside, the story is equally remarkable. Here is new roominess in every dimension. Head room, seat height, and entrance room, for example, have been notably increased with impressive results in greater comfort and luxury for driver and passengers.

And as its beauty is ... so its performance does—incredibly nimble and quick ... smooth and floating ... quiet and obedient.

Cadillac's new engine is the very essence of controlled power ... steering is feather light and sure ... and Cadillac's new ride seems to make the roadway literally vanish beneath the wheels.

This is one car you must see and drive for yourself. The facts are simply too numerous and too exciting to accept second hand.

It's the 1961 Cadillac—and we know that you'll agree that true greatness is written all over it.

Resolution Regarding Vacation of Portion of West Street

KEYS NO. 3, 4, 5, 6

We continue with our keys to understanding the Bible with Key No. 3. One must always consider the context of a verse in order to properly understand it. Read what comes afterwards. It is as improper to take a verse out of context as it is to quote only a sentence from a conversation without reference to the context. Key No. 4 — Never isolate a subject from the rest of the teachings of the scripture. Look up a number of verses which deal with the particular subject under consideration and you will find that the truth runs as a straight line through all the verses. Key No. 5 — Never base a doctrine upon an obscure text. There are a number of scholars have admitted that they do not understand. Choose the verses that are clear to assist in the understanding of the hard passages. "In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established". No. 6 — Never force a passage of scripture by reading into it things that are not there. For example, Acts 16:32-34 are often used as proof texts for infant baptism. We may well suppose "that there were infants" is for reading into the text things not there. Note what each passage says.

Report Cars Stolen Here

Police reported that two cars had been stolen in Northville within the past week. Both were recovered.

Carl C. Martin, an employee at the Ford valve plant here, parked his 1953 tudor automobile in the lot across from the factory last Thursday and discovered it had been stolen when he finished work at midnight.

Novi police recovered the car Saturday in Willowbrook village.

Officer Gil Glasson, while on routine patrol last Friday night, investigated a car parked across a driveway at 562 Randolph.

Paint on the car bumper seemed to indicate, said police, that the car belonging to the Wayne County Road Commission and used by Eural Clark had been pushed from a parking place in front of Clark's home at 235 High street.

Clark was unaware the car had been taken. He said a brief case and papers he had placed on the seat were missing.

In recent court action, two Northville residents, Harold Weeks and Calvin D. St. Clair, were fined $10 and $25, respectively, for fighting on a public street.

Booker T. Bell, a patient at Maybury sanatorium, was sentenced to 60 days in the Detroit House of Correction for being drunk and disorderly on a public street.

A conviction of reckless driving resulted in a $75 fine for Miles Dunn of Detroit.

If the volume of coffee, donuts and cider consumed during the two-day grand opening celebration last week end of Stone's Gamble store and Sally Bell Bakery are any criteria of business — then it was booming!

Sally Bell Owner Harold Searfoss and Roy Stone, owner of Gamble's reported that they served 400 cups of coffee, 30 gallons of cider, 125 dozen donuts and 200 pieces of cake.

The two-day event marked the grand opening of the store's following installation of new store fronts.

Baptists Set Dedication on 125th Birthday

With the formal dedication of its handsome new addition Sunday afternoon, the First Baptist Church of Northville will celebrate 125 years of continuous service to Christ. A combined dedicatory and anniversary service will be held at 3 p.m. in the remodeled church. Regular services will be conducted throughout the day.

Highlighting the special afternoon service will be the dedication address by Dr. Howard Sugden of Lansing's South Baptist church. Also included in the program will be:

- Invocation by the Rev. Arnold Cook, pastor of the Novi Baptist church;
- Scripture reading by the Rev. Gordon Northrup, pastor of the Farmington First Baptist church;
- Congratulations from Dr. Ray Hein, state mission director, on behalf of the Michigan Conservative Baptist association;
- Dedication prayer by the Rev. L. P. Burcker, editor of the "Fundamental Fellowship" paper;
- Benediction by the Rev. Richard Burgess, pastor of the Salem Federated church.

- Choir rendition of "To God Be The Glory", under the direction of George McDaniel.
- Rev. Peter Nieuwkoop, pastor of the church, will act as program moderator.
- Persons attending the special afternoon service will have an opportunity to look over the completely remodeled interior of the church.
- The biggest change in the basic appearance of the frame building is the addition of a 60'x50' wing which extends southward from the original structure along Wing street.
- Although the New England architecture has been maintained, the remodeled interior of the church has been radically changed, with the direction of the nave or auditorium changed from east-west to north-south.

The main entrance to the church has been retained, but the vestibule now faces the side rear of the nave. The south wall of the old church has been removed, forming a long, unbroken line of sight from the north wall of the old church to the chancel located at the extreme south side of the addition.

The new addition, which has increased the adult seating capacity from 200 to 360, also includes a full basement, which in turn contains a still uncompleted fellowship hall and large kitchen. Lavatories also are located in the basement.

Adjoining the basement addition, under the old church, is a primary room a nursery, and eight recently remodeled Sunday school classrooms.

Minister Roll

Listed below are the names of 49 ministers who have served the Northville Baptist church during its 125-year history.

The Rev. Peter F. Nieuwkoop, present pastor of the church, holds the distinction of serving the longest period — nine years.

Nathan Noyes, William Wood, W. G. Wisner, S. Chase, J. L. McCord, W. H. Gregory, Ezekiel Mosher, Sylvester Cochran.

J. L. DeLand, J. C. Baker, J. S. Cox, C. H. Richardson, B. L. Van Buren, G. A. Ames, M. A. Churchill, H. P. Eldridge.

F. T. Rae, L. G. Clark, F. E. Arnold, C. S. Nightingale, E. A. Schlammase, J. J. Phelps, O. M. Thrasher, S. F. Dimmock.

N. E. Musser, T. J. Murdock, S. J. Slough, Frank Brass, A. N. Riley, Franklin Prestedge, Herbert Grimwood.

A. K. MacRae, J. W. Priest, W. R. Barbour, K. S. North, R. M. Traver, Dr. R. H. Chapman, Lloyd Young, Walter Ballagh and Peter F. Nieuwkoop.

west side of the building. The other entrances are located on the south, east and north sides.

Parking is provided on the south and north sides of the church. Additional parking eventually will be provided with the removal of church-owned houses located on Wing and Randolph streets.

Although the estimated cost of the addition and remodeling work was close to $75,000, Pastor Nieuwkoop explained that work by members of the church reduced this estimated cost to $50,000.

Now a congregation of 182 members, the Baptist church was launched on a cold winter night (Tuesday, February 3, 1835) 125 years ago by 17 dedicated men and women.

The Rev. Nathan Noyes, who came to Northville just two years earlier, presided over this organizational meeting. Pastor Noyes wrote these words of his arrival here:

"I found myself in the woods, almost among entire strangers; observed a house near Northville for a short time. I now began to look about, and see if I could suit myself anywhere in this region of the country. I found a few Baptists scattered in this place, who appeared much rejoiced because my lot had fallen in among them."

A committee composed of Ebenezer Pennel, John Lemmon and Joseph Stiles was appointed to present the constitution, providing for a society consisting of the church and congregation.

Members of the first board of trustees were Henry Knapp, David Gregory, Lester Sha, Merrill Randolph, Samuel Rogers, William Munn and Pennel.

A site was acquired two miles west of Northville on Taft road and a small log building was erected to house the new congregation.

Pastor Noyes chose Matthew 11:28 as the text for his first sermon. "Come unto Me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

On May 1, 1843, the site at the corner of Randolph and Wing was purchased from William and Sarah Dunlap, parents of Mrs. Jennie White who was one of Northville's most popular historians.

On September 20, 1848, the society was reorganized on the same plan as the first, with Lewis Vrandenburg, Aldrich Knapp, Winfield Scott, James B. Palmer and Rogers as trustees.

The church building was enlarged in 1859, and in 1879 it was extensively repaired. A 1,000-pound bell was placed in the church tower by Samuel and Daniel Rogers and Aldrich Knapp at a cost of $280.

Among the interesting bits of history is the action of the congregation to discontinue the rental of pews as of November 29, 1859. Another motion authorized the trustees to erect 14 stalls beside the church, which were to be sold to the highest bidders. The proceeds from this sale were to pay for the building of the stalls and erection of a fence around the "meeting house" and repairs on the church building.

Individual Communion cups were first used in July 1895.

Also appearing in the early church records are the names of these laymen and laywomen: H. R. Holmes, Dr. Burgess, Dr. John M. Swift, J. K. Lowden, R. H. Beal and Lena M. Sloan. Dr. Swift reportedly took an extremely active part in the life of the church. He was the town's leading physician, a public speaker of exceptional note, and a highly praised singer.

THE GLEAMING new interior of the First Baptist church is finished in natural fir. Behind the altar, shown above at the end of the center aisle, is the choir loft. The nave, entirely new, now extends in a north-south direction, along North Wing street. Parking is provided on the north and south sides of the church with entrances on the north, east and south sides.

THE REVEREND Peter F. Nieuwkoop, pastor of the Northville First Baptist church for the past nine years, will act as moderator of the dedication and anniversary services Sunday afternoon. Marking its 125th year in the community, it is the third oldest Northville church.

Colts Top Milford With Ease, 38-20

Like their parent Mustang eleven, the Northville junior varsity team had little difficulty rolling over Milford here last Tuesday, 38-20.

With his team leading by a comfortable margin by the end of the first stanza, Northville Coach Al Callahan began emptying the bench. Close to 30 players saw action before the game ended.

The victory was the second this season for the Colts who edged Plymouth 7-0 in the opener, lost 7-6 to Holly and then battled to a scoreless tie with Bloomfield Hills two weeks ago.

Actually, last week's victory would have been even more impressive but for three penalties which nullified Northville touchdowns. Two of these "useless" touchdowns came on runs of more than 60 yards.

Northville's two halfbacks, Ron Rice and Jim Jiggins, shared the Colts' scoring honors — although Tackle Dave Jerome exhibited some backfield qualities in spearing a Milford pass early in the game.

Rice opened Northville's barrage with an end run that carried 45 yards for a touchdown just minutes after the opening whistle.

Jerome intercepted a Milford pass in the same period and raced 15 yards for a touchdown.

Jiggins came up with his first touchdown in the same quarter, crashing through the line for a 14-yard tally. He scored his second touchdown in the second quarter on a 55-yard pass play from Quarterback Don Biery.

Late in the third quarter Northville again hit paydirt, as Rice skirted end and raced 35 yards for a touchdown.

Rice came up with the final touchdown late in the game. He scored from the 15-yard line.

Extra points — all scored on rushing plays — were added by Rice and Quarterback Gary Stobbe.

The Colts, who were scheduled to clash with West Bloomfield at Keego Harbor Tuesday, will take on Brighton Tuesday.

Wixom Hawkeyes To Meet Tonight

The first orientation meeting of the Wixom Gun club since the election of officers will be held tonight at 7 p.m. in the Wixom city hall.

Club membership is open to all area boys and girls between the ages of 11 and 18. Meetings will be held the first and third Thursdays of each month.

Actual gun range practice will not begin until sometime next spring, according to Lt. D'Arcy Young of the police department. At that time members probably will use either the gun range at Novi or the range at the park north of Wixom.

Some rifles will be furnished.

This program will include the following classes: (1) Introduction, registration, and reasons for hunting regulations; (2) firearms and ammunition; (3) handling of firearms, bows and arrows; and (4) behavior afield, planning the hunt, and summary and written review.

Sponsored by the Wixom police department, the 55-member club voted recently to call themselves the "Wixom Hawk Eyes". Officers elected were:

Dave Taylor, 15, of 1891 Charms road, president; Dave Chesseman, 414, of 511 North Wixom road, vice president; Claude Mailey, 14, of 28660 Summit court, secretary; Pat Moore, 13, of 1090 North Wix-

10—THE NORTHVILLE RECORD Thursday, October 20, 1960

TOP PICTURE — No one was happier than pretty Sharon Hensch during homecoming festivities at halftime here last Friday evening. Sharon, a senior, was elected queen of the homecoming by fellow students Friday afternoon and then later was the main attraction during the parade around Ford Field at halftime and during the homecoming dance following the Northville-West Bloomfield game.

West Bloomfield Wins 20-0 Friday, Nears W-O Title

Playing its finest game of the season before a capacity-plus homecoming crowd, Northville completely dominated the soggy gridiron at Ford Field Friday night.

But the Mustangs made one fatal mistake: they didn't control the scoreboard, which winked its verdict through a steady drizzle, West Bloomfield 20, Northville 0.

Thus, the high-flying Lakers de-throned the stronger defending champions and virtually wrapped up the 1960 Wayne-Oakland league crown.

For West Bloomfield, the victory was a double potion of good medicine: it meant a championship and it healed the wounds of the '58 and '59 grid losses to Northville.

And for Northville, the loss was especially bitter because it meant the end of a four-year reign as champions of the W-O league and it meant that one of its bitterest rivals will wear the 1960 crown even though Northville was the stronger of the two teams.

Just as there is no question as to who claimed the victory, there also is no question as to which team dominated the game. Look at the record:

Northville picked up 15 first downs, while West Bloomfield settled for four. Northville piled up 168 yards rushing and 74 yards in the air. West Bloomfield, on the other hand, gained 130 yards on the ground and only 31 yards in the air.

Northville attempted 12 passes, completed nine. West Bloomfield attempted two, completed one.

Still more evidence: excluding its touchdowns, the Lakers never penetrated beyond Northville's 37-yard line. The Mustangs, on the other hand, marched into the West Bloomfield camp five times, once to the four-yard line and once to the one-foot line.

If there was a key to West Bloomfield's victory Friday, it was neatly demonstrated three minutes after the opening whistle of the game.

After fumbling the kickoff, the Mustangs covered the ball and proceeded to march to the mid-field stripe. Then, with seven yards to go for a first-in-ten, Halfback Bill Trotter anchored himself for a fourth-down punt.

Taking advantage of a momentary lapse in Northville's defenses, the Lakers smashed through the line and secondary and smothered the kicker. And with the ball bouncing on Northville's territory, Bloomfield's Dave Helmreich scooped it up and galloped unmolested 47 yards for the touchdown.

Before the quarter ended, the Lakers took advantage of another Northville "sleeper" and added a second touchdown.

Taking a short kick after Bloomfield's first TD, Northville plowed upfield to the Bloomfield 27, then fell back 20 yards in the face of a sparkling defense. West Bloomfield took possession and in three plays pushed to Northville's 37. Halfback Roger Hess caught Northville napping, dodged his attackers, found a

M. Hlohinec, Jim Lyon Win Contest

Mike Hlohinec, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hlohinec, of 529 Randolph, is one of the happiest sixth graders at the Main street school this week.

He won the weekly football contest and $10 for his entry which correctly predicted the outcome of 13 of the 16 games.

But it wasn't easy. Mike was tied with three other contestants, also with three misses. But he edged out Jim Lyon of 27141 Novi road for top honors by coming closest to picking the score of the Lions-Eagles game.

Jim, 15, is a 10th grader at Northville high school. His second place finish is worth $5. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lyon.

Two others who also missed three games, but slipped on predicting the professional score, were G. D. Fowler of 20930 Chigwidden drive and Florence Orr of 748 Grace street.

A host of entries missed only four games. Most frequently missed of the quiz games were Purdue's win over Ohio State, Northville's loss to West Bloomfield, Minnesota's victory over Illinois, and, of course, every contestant missed the Oklahoma-Kansas tie.

Contest judges report that some contestants are eliminating themselves immediately — by not signing their entries. Be sure to write your name in the space provided. Also, many times a contestant forgets to mark the outcome of one or more of the games. Naturally, these are missed.

hole, and skipped across for the TD. Though mortally wounded, the Mustangs continued to roll over the Bloomfield defense. One 21-yard drive was stopped at the Bloomfield 38 when Northville fumbled and lost the ball. Another march carried from the Northville 5 to mid-field. Meanwhile, Bloomfield picked up less than 10 yards in the second period.

But despite this power the Mustangs were still looking for a touchdown at the half. Aside from the score, the half ended on still another sour note for Northville. With less than 10 seconds to play, the Lakers faked a kick and moved the ball three yards to their 20.

An official called an offside penalty against Bloomfield, but another waved the end of the half, claiming time had run out before the penalty was called. Fans and coaches roared their objections in vain.

Partisan fans roared again — approvingly this time — as the Mustangs covered a Bloomfield fumble on the opening second half kick. Starting at the Lakers 39, Northville marched methodically to the four in seven ground plays.

Then on fourth down, Quarterback Steve Juday dropped back and arched a pass into the end-zone. Northville's end Jim Petrock snagged the ball but not before he stepped behind the end-zone and out of the playing field, thus nullifying the TD.

The long arm of bad luck reached

Bulldogs Eye 2nd W-O Win

There'll be growling aplenty tomorrow night when the Brighton Bulldogs invade Northville in search of their second league victory of the season.

The Bulldogs, will come here licking the wounds of a one-point loss to third-place Clarkston last Friday night. The 7-6 loss dropped Brighton to a fifth place tie with the Redskins of Milford.

Coach Bob Wolcott's biggest worry this season has been his squad's lack of spirit. The Bulldogs "fell completely apart" against the first-place Lakers two weeks ago, losing 33-0.

"Some boys appeared to have some spunk, but others were just lost on the field," one Brighton backer observed.

Aside from the humiliating defeat at the hands of the Lakers, however, Brighton has looked good in its two other defeats and two victories this season.

The Bulldogs opened the season with an 18-13 victory over non-league South Lyon; lost to Bloomfield Hills, 20-14, after leading most of the game; tripped the out once again in the period and sent Northville spinning. Taking a punt deep in their own territory, the Mustangs carried to the 34 — only to lose the ball on a fumble.

Bloomfield offense sputtered backwards, however, and the Lakers were forced to punt. The Mustangs could do little better and after losing five yards also punted.

Then on the first play from scrimmage, West Bloomfield's all-state candidate, Halfback Jack Newton, who was far from impressive most of the night, finally broke away from his hounding attackers and raced around end for a 37-yard TD.

Now with little chance of overtaking the Lakers, Northville launched its longest drive and most impressive threat of the game.

With Quarterback Juday rifling passes and calling the ground attack, the Mustangs marched from their own 35 to the one foot line — 65 yards away. Northville picked up a first down at the 8.

Juday's final attempt to sneak the ball over from one foot out appeared successful until officials peeled away the pile of gridders. The ball was just inches from the goal.

In the closing seconds of the game, Juday completed five short passes, despite a steady drizzle. His passes carried Northville into Bloomfield territory as the game ended.

Redskin eleven that upset Northville, 12-7; and then last week lost to Clarkston on the last play of the game.

In last week's contest, the Bulldogs took a six-point lead in the third stanza on a 30-yard TD gallop by Randy Marx and up until the closing seconds of the game appeared headed for victory. But Clarkston's Bill White pulled in a 28-yard pass from Harold Weston to tie the game and Jim Gunther kicked the winning point.

Last year Northville rolled to a 20-0 win over the Bulldogs.

A blocked punt and a recovery by Northville in the opening minutes of play set the stage for the Mustangs' triumph — its 30th in a row at the time. Brighton's biggest threat of the evening was a long series of line plunges which carried the Bulldogs to Northville's 26-yard-line.

Other W-O league and area scores last Friday night included: Holly 13, Clarenceville 7; Milford 13, Bloomfield Hills 7; Plymouth 40, Redford Union 7; Walled Lake 14, Berkley 0; Southfield 7, Farmington 0; and Lutheran West 34, South Lyon 6.

Dublin Gridders Edge Novi, 12-6

In what was probably their most impressive game this season, the Novi junior high school gridders lost 12-6 to a much stronger Dublin eleven last Thursday afternoon.

"The boys did a real good job," Coach Gail Perkins explained later. "But Dublin had some heavy fellows and our boys were a little reluctant to tackle them."

Dublin grabbed a six-point lead in the second quarter, then added a clinching TD in the fourth quarter. Late in the final stanza, however, Halfback Mark Ross raced 30 yards for what would have been a touchdown — but a holding penalty nullified the TD.

Two plays later, however, Ross pushed over a "good" touchdown from 14 yards out.

Ross and Defensive Center Bill Hanson were by far the most outstanding Novi players in the game, Coach Perkins said.

Novi will host Emmanuel Christian of Pontiac this afternoon in a grid contest scheduled to get underway at 4 p.m.

Northville's junior high eleven, which trimmed both Novi and Dublin earlier this season, ran up against a powerful Belleville team last week and came out on the short end of a 34-0 score.

STOPPED SHORT — Halfback Dave Jerome (23) finds himself crashing to the ground under a West Bloomfield tackler in an attempt to skirt the end. The Lakers won the game 20-0.

In Cross Country

Jerome Hits Racing Stride

With the conclusion of a full week of cross-country competition Friday, Northville Coach Chuck Yahne had plenty of reasons for wearing a smile.

In only its second season of competition, the Northville squad has risen to become a formidable threat for its far more experienced opponents. To date this season, the Mustangs claim three victories, a second-place triangular finish, and a fourth-place W-O league place.

Last week Monday, Northville dumped West Bloomfield 23-34, for the second time this season, finished fourth Wednesday in the W-O meet at Kensington park, and walloped Riverside high school Friday 25-31.

And there's little doubt that the Mustang's number one runner, Phil Jerome, is one of the top speedsters in the league if not in the entire metropolitan area. Jerome sped to a first place finish in the triangular match, first in both West Bloomfield matches, first against Clarenceville (which nipped Northville two weeks ago 27-28), first against Riverside and second in a field of 35 runners at the W-O match last week.

In the W-O meet, Northville's Ivan (Chips) Ely finished fifth.

The Mustangs had little difficulty dumping the Lakers in their return match (Northville won the first match 25-30). Jerome finished first; Ely, second, Mike Adas, fifth; Dave Filkin, sixth; Mike Daleo, ninth; and Daryl Hopper, 10th.

Against Riverside at Warren Valley Golf Course, Jerome finished first; Ely, second; Howard Shereman, fifth; Adas, eighth; and Daleo, ninth.

After Death".
Scriptural readings will include the following: "Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils... Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy this will be read (46: 20-24): "Jesus' unchanged physical condition after what seemed to be death was followed by his exaltaunmistakably a probationary and progressive state beyond the grave."

FOSTERING MORE HOME LIFE

No matter how poor and humble a house may be, if it is a true home for the family, it will be a place of happiness, security and a haven of peace. At the very outset of married life, newlyweds should begin their married life in a home of their own, independent of parental control.

A home should be a place where proper values are given to things. Religious and spiritual values should come first in family life. Then, too, truly wise is the married couple that prefers a baby to a new car or other luxuries. Babies, though they require much attention, are a blessing to a home. A mother finds her greatest happiness in her children. Her heart is made for them, and she will never be fully satisfied until she experiences their love. Children, too, act as a safeguard against divorce. Statistics show that chances for divorce lessen a great deal in proportion to the higher number of children in the family.

Parents should not vie for their children's love. Each spouse should strive to instill in the children a love for both parents since children need the love of both for their personal development. Fathers should realize without being resentful that their children may be drawn more closely to the mother because of her loveable qualities and loving care. She is the heart of the family.

Just as personal cleanliness and neat appearance foster better relations between the spouses, cleanliness and neatness of the home and proper preparation of the food will strengthen family ties. Both parents should uphold each other's authority over the children. Training the children is the responsibility of both father and mother.

Married people should be on their guard to avoid financial pitfalls. Let them plan the family economy together. Both should make sacrifices to lay aside a certain amount of money for a rainy day. To live beyond their means in order to keep up with the neighbors is to court financial hardships. There is usually something wrong with the husband who, having enough money, does not give his wife sufficient amount to provide for the current family needs, or else forces her to beg this money from him. It is a help also if each has a little spending money to use as he pleases. The husband should try to obtain a job which is suited to his ability and will best provide for his family. He should not impair his health by taking on too much work or by working at a job too strenuous for him.

Both man and wife should be satisfied with their lot in life and not pretend to be what they are not. Happiness and peace are worth more than all the money in the world.

St. Johns To Exchange Rectors

The Rev. Edward R. A. Green will exchange with the Rev. David T. Davies, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, Plymouth, on Sunday for all the services of the day.

This is an exchange that has been arranged by the Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich, Ph. D. S.T.D., to promote fellowship and understanding among the parishes and missions of the Diocese. The public is cordially invited to attend any of the services of the church.

The Rev. Green received an AB degree from Michigan State college. His post graduate work in theology was done at Seabury-Western Seminary in Evanston, Illinois, which is affiliated with Northwestern university. While in the seminary, he was awarded three scholarships on a competitive basis, two for general high scholarship, and one in the particular field of New Testament.
He received a BD degree from the seminary in 1934.

Mr. Green was ordained deacon in St. John's church, Detroit, by the late Rt. Rev. Herman Page, then Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan, and he was then assigned to St. Peter's church, Tecumseh, where later Bishop Page ordained him to the priesthood. He remained in Tecumseh for seven years, and in July 1941, became the rector of St. James' church, Sault Ste. Marie.
February 1949, Mr. Green became Canon Pastor of the Cathedral church of St. Paul, Detroit. On September 1, 1951, he became rector of Christ church, Dearborn.

the direction of Arthur Pipok and Ervin Nichols, the Church School with Harold Marks as superintend-the now defunct Northville Academy.

The articles of faith adopted in 1835 were the usual quaintly expressed statements regarding God, man, sin and Salvation. With changes in Michigan law, a new constitution became effective on February 10, 1931.

About 1927, the church interior underwent considerable reconstruction.

The church celebrated its centennial in 1935 with a week of special festivities.

The present pastor, Peter Nieuwkoop, came to Northville in November, 1951.

During his first year of ministry, the charter was changed and a new constitution written and adopted. A second missionary, Mrs. Marguerite (Coykendall) Shaw was added. The church now has a monthly missionary commitment of $450 with missionaries in Pakistan, Angola, Africa, Nigeria, and Alaska.

Remodeling prior to the present work and addition included new modern restrooms, a new heating plant and extensive remodeling of the church basement to provide Sunday school rooms.

The present church membership stands at 182, with attendance averages for the past year at 222 for morning services, 214 in Sunday school, and 129 for evening services.

SEATING capacity of the new nave is now 360 adults, compared to 200 before the addition was constructed.

A CHAPEL adjoins the nave and is used for various worship activities including Christian education classes.

Congratulations

Fire Fighting Skills Displayed

9 Departments Take Part In Local Show

Roaring sirens aroused Northville citizenry last Wednesday evening (October 12) as fire equipment from nine area departments drove through town and congregated at the Downs for a special Fire Prevention Week demonstration.

The commotion attracted a good crowd and the curious remained to see the show.

Fire fighting trucks, pumpers and rescue equipped vehicles were on display. On hand to explain their function were representatives of Novi, Northville, Plymouth township and the city of Plymouth, Superior township, Canton, Detroit House of Correction, South Lyon, Salem and the Wayne County Training school.

One of the highlights of the program, co-sponsored by Northville's Chief William McGee and Novi's Chief Fred McGee, was the old-fashioned hose battle.

Four-men teams from each department competed to see which could move a barrel along a wire with the force of a fire hose and spray.

Plymouth was the winning team, defeating Plymouth township in the finals. Northville lost in the semi-finals to Plymouth, while Novi was a first-round loser to Plymouth.

In other activities the use of resuscitation equipment was explained with firemen demonstrating its use.

Another, more spectacular demonstration, was the extinguishing of gas fires with carbon dioxide and dry chemical.

The demonstration, designed to remind residents of the danger of fire and display the proper means of combating it, was considered a success.

"We didn't know quite what to expect," Chief McGee pointed out. "But next year I think we can have a better program and attract a larger crowd. Those who attended seemed to like what they saw," the chief added.

SPLAT — The Northville (left) and Plymouth teams are shown above aiming their hoses directly at the pulley-hung barrel each trying to force the target toward the other team. Plymouth won the competition and was awarded the trophy — the barrel. Northville had won the competition last year in Plymouth.

USE of carbon dioxide bottles in extinguishing fire was demonstrated at the conclusion of the program. The fireman is crouching with the carbon dioxide bottle, while standing by is another helper with a dry chemical, which proved extremely fast acting in dousing the flame.

Again carbon dioxide is used to extinguish flames, this time simulating a broken overhead gas line. The demonstration, part of the week-long observance of Fire Prevention Week, was held at Northville Downs.

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO . . .

Petitions calling for an election to return Novi to township status will be presented to the village council.

The Record learned reliably this week that the petitions began circulating Monday and that 200 signatures had been secured by Tuesday evening.

Defending Champion Northville will carry a string of 28 straight league wins against a West Bloomfield eleven that many are predicting will lift the crown from a proud but teetering Mustang team.

A new board of directors took initial steps Tuesday night to purchase Community General Hospital. It was chilly, the band was in fine form, the crowd a capacity.

And best of all the Mustangs trampled their homecoming opponents, Milford, 22-0.

A fourth quarter aerial attack by the Northville Colts carried the junior varsity squad to a 13-7 victory over Milford.

The newly-organized Rotary club of Novi has been granted a charter by the board of directors of Rotary International, it was announced at Rotary headquarters in Evanston, Illinois.

FIVE YEARS AGO . . .

After an actual two-year waiting period, not counting the years before that Northville residents spent hoping and wishing for action, paving started this week on the 7-Mile road cutoff with an average of 800 feet being completed a day.

"Two for the money", "double trouble" or "double blessing". Anyway that you look at it, well wishers will be getting two cigars this week from High School Principal Elroy Ellison . . . his wife presented him with twin daughters Tuesday.

The mighty Mustangs, hardened after their losing encounter with the Clarenceville Red Devils last week, hope to repeat their last year's victory (26-0) when they meet the Centerville team Friday.

Leo Lawrence, a well known resident of Northville for the past 43 years, died Tuesday at St. Joseph's Mercy hospital in Ann Arbor.

David Hartner, Northville high school student, was named chairman of the Homecoming planning committee.

The Wildlife Sanctuary committee established by the Northville P-TA in the spring of this year, met at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Mary Begle, Nine Mile road. The following members were present: Mrs. Maxwell Austin, Mrs. Wilson Funk, Robert Hart and Harold Hartley.

Two 14-year-old high school girls were injured and a late model car was badly damaged when a teen-age Detroit youth traveling at a high rate of speed overtook and plowed into the rear of a moving truck loaded with apples on 10 Mile road west of Taft.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO . . . Northville football squad bowed to Milford 24-0.

Two Northville homes were saddened this week by receipt of news of the War Department's final verdict in the cases of missing servicemen. Both Robert Stueckle, S2 and Pfc. Walter Myers are officially listed as "killed in action".

Harry B. Smith returned this week to the faculty of Northville high school. It will be remembered that Mr. Smith held a position as coach and teacher in general science on the school faculty for three years. He left in December of 1940 to take employment with the Dole company in Hawaii. He entered the army three and a half years ago and has spent most of the time overseas, serving as captain in the infantry in Hawaii and Peleliu, in the Palau islands group.

Mrs. James Green, executive chairman for the War Loan committee, announces that the next local drive will be in charge of the Lloyd H. Green Post, American Legion.

Named as Northville service heroes in the Record: James H. Murray, S1/c, and Earl S. Collins, Jr., QM2/c.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO . . .

Northville's police car will have no other marks than it now carries, according to a decision rendered by the village council.

The council, after a stormy session, voted to have a wide yellow band painted around it, together with the word "police" in 6" letters.

Nine head of cattle were destroyed when a large L-shaped barn located on the Five Mile road about two miles west of Salem burned to the ground Friday. The farm, which was owned by a Detroit firm, was tenanted by Herman Ketcham and his family and carried no insurance.

Fifty bags of cement lying idle now in the warehouse left from village projects will be utilized to good purpose when repairs start on the bridge on High street just past Randolph. The vote to improve the road going up to Eastlawn by widening the bridge was made at the council meeting Monday.

Stark Brothers will officially end 47 years of service when the doors are closed October 15. Since the original announcement was made in August of their intention to quit business, the two brothers, Bert C. and W. H. Stark have conducted a going-out-of-business sale.

New American Legion officers were installed. They were: Mrs. Wilbur Johnston, president; Mrs. Floyd Lanning, first vice president; Mrs. Charles Freyd, second vice president; Mrs. Barton Connors, secretary; and Mrs. Archie Kerr, treasurer.

From a Record editorial: "If you ask us what thing we remember best about this game (second World Series game between the Tigers and Cubs) it would be: The sight of that slashing home run that Henry Greenberg hit over the left field wall. It zoomed and soared like a comet — no wonder the fans like the players who 'swat' the ball over the fence. Yet how foolish Hank looked when he struck out. It would be a poor sportsman who would want home runs all the time".

Estates Civic Group to Hold Fall Meeting

The Northville Estates Civic association will hold its annual fall dinner meeting tomorrow evening, Friday, October 21 at the Thunderbird Inn at 7:30 p.m.

William Slattery, president of the association, will introduce and welcome new residents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Guild, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Willenborg and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zywiec.

Business matters pertinent to the subdivision will be discussed.

SPEAKING for the Record

By Bill Slinger

If registrations are any criteria (and they certainly must be), then area residents will be voting in record numbers come November 8.

A presidential ballot is always cluttered with long rosters of candidates and proposals. This year, for example, there will be candidates for state and national offices from five parties in addition to the two major political parties.

The heavy vote is certain to require poll officials to urge voters not to tarry behind the curtain.

Therefore it seems worthwhile to refresh our memories on the three proposed constitutional amendments that will appear on the ballot.

Proposal No. 1:

This is an amendment to the constitution which will continue a method of financing school buildings that was adopted by the people of Michigan in 1955. Because the amendment of 1955 was considered to be an experiment in financing, a time limit of July 1, 1962 was placed on it with the thought in mind that, if it proved successful, it could be continued by submitting another amendment to the voters. Although the 1955 amendment does not expire until July 1, 1962, it is necessary to adopt a new amendment before 1962, in order to continue the present method of financing without interruption.

The plan was adopted to make it possible for hard-pressed school districts with limited tax resources to pay for schools over a 25-year period. It places the faith and credit of the state behind school building bonds with the thought that the school districts benefit from lower interest rates.

The new proposal will boost the time limit for school construction bonds from 25 to 30 years. It also removes the requirement that a school district must levy a tax rate of at least $13 per $1,000 in assessed property to prove itself in need of a state loan. Under the new provision the legislature has the power to lower the 13-mill minimum if it wishes.

Specifically, the measure has permitted school districts to finance school buildings by issuing bonds that are payable over a long period of time from taxes not limited to the 15-mill amendment. Prior to 1955, school district financing school buildings through the sale of bonds were required to pay the bonds over shorter periods of time because of the tax restrictions of the 15 mill limitation.

The Northville school district, for example, sold its $3 million bond issue five years ago under this plan. It was required to levy up to 13 mills before the state would take over the payments — but the local debt-service millage is now around 7 mills.

In other words, school districts have the state to fall back on if a 13-mill levy won't meet their building debts. Like Northville, about 500 state school districts have financed buildings under this plan. Only 13 have had to actually borrow from the state.

The Northville school board officially went on record at a recent meeting as favoring a "yes" vote on this proposal. Superintendent Russell Amerman has flatly stated that the district would not have a new high school without the state guaranteed plan.

Proposal No. 2:

This takes very little comment. Each voter must decide whether or not he favors the question.

Shall the Michigan constitution be amended to increase the limitation on the maximum sales tax rate from 3 percent to 4 percent?

Proposal No. 3:

This proposal is designed to make several changes in the procedure for calling and conducting a Con-Con (Constitutional Convention.)

A primary feature of the proposal is a change in regard to the composition of any future Con-Con. Instead of three delegates from each of the 34 Senatorial Districts, as presently prescribed by the State Constitution (making a total of 102 delegates), there would be one delegate from each State Senatorial District and one from each State Representative District (making a total of 144).

Another important change would reduce the vote required to call a Con-Con from a majority of those participating in an election to a majority of those voting on this particular issue.

A third change embodied in the proposal would change the timetable for choosing delegates and holding a convention. The proposal would require that the delegates be nominated and elected within four months following a vote to hold a Con-Con. Consequently, if the proposal is adopted this November, the question of holding a Con-Con on the new basis would be placed on the April 1961 ballot. So if the Con-Con were voted on favorably next April, Michigan would hold its Con-Con in the fall of 1961.

Following the holding of a Constitutional Convention, the actions and recommendations of a convention must be submitted to the populace for adoption.

The holding of a Con-Con was voted on in 1958. At that time 62 percent of those voting in the election voted on the Con-Con issue. The vote fell 15 percent short of the necessary percentage needed to call a Constitutional Convention under the Constitution as presently in force.

Newspaper Week

SPECIAL WEEKS are a dime a dozen so it comes as no surprise that Michigan newspapers don't tout very hard during National Newspaper Week, which started this year October 15. And newspaper people would be surprised to see much new evidence this week (or any other) of appreciation for the important part a newspaper plays in a community or for the increasingly difficult economic problems faced by those who work with newspapers.

Michigan Press Association lists 352 members, virtually all the newspapers of the state. It includes all 56 dailies and 297 weeklies. There are perhaps 20 additional weeklies in Michigan which are not members. Combined circulation of MPA members as computed last October when official figures must be filed with the post office was 3,202,125. Of this total 2,384,862 are published by dailies; 817,263 by the state's weeklies.

A new daily will be born in the state October 31. It will be called "the Huron Shore News-Press" and will be published in East Tawas by K. Berkeley and J. Berkeley Smith, a father and son combination. The elder Smith started a weekly in East Tawas in 1940 and bought the Oscoda Press in 1946. The daily will combine the two.

Newest weekly on MPA records is the Portage Herald near Kalamazoo. Len Colby, publisher, is a former radio-TV man who started the newspaper about two years ago. It is now a going concern with a circulation just above 6,500.

A newspaper's value to a community is seldom realized until it becomes unavailable. Anyone who has been through a newspaper strike or in a community where the newspaper ceases publication can understand this. The "you never miss the water 'til the well runs dry" aspect of newspapers is a source for concern to publishers.

Since a newspaper acts as a nucleus for a community, merchants believe it important to have one in their area, though they do not always support it as they should by using its advertising columns. Readers are both producers and consumers of newspapers. Without them to make the news, there would be no need to produce a newspaper. And people tend to "look at the hole instead of the doughnut" when considering their home town newspaper by comparing it with a publication from a much bigger city.

Next time you look at a newspaper, be it little or big, keep in mind that publications like this fill a great need in the nation; that few voters could react intelligently without them, that the community, national and commercial information they bring to you is important!

MICHIGAN CAN continue to guarantee the loans floated by school districts — a system which schoolmen say has worked out well so far — if voters adopt the constitutional amendment which will be proposal number one on the November 8 ballot.

Present provisions similar to the proposition up for approval are due to run out in 1962.

If enough voters say "yes" on election day, the state could stand behind the school districts in their borrowing for another 10 years. Some changes, most of them relatively minor, in the state's role in this phase of borrowing would also be made.

As the law and Constitution stand now, the state can borrow up to $100 million to help school districts in trouble make payments on bond issues, according to Harold R. Brown, of the Department of Public Instruction.

This limitation would be removed under the proposed new setup, he said.

The Legislature, as under the present system, would have the power to prescribe the conditions of the loans made by the state, subject to constitutional limitations on the lawmakers.

Brown said the main purpose of the proposal on the ballot was to have the state guarantee the loans.

But the school districts might get a slightly better interest rate from the fact that the state is behind the bond issues. Brown said some school people think present bond issues should have been able to get a better interest rate anyway.

The proposed law would also allow school districts to float bond issues for shorter periods than required under existing rules.

Only 25 to 30 year bonds can be guaranteed by the state under existing conditions, but bond issues to be paid off in 15 or 20 years or even shorter periods would be eligible for the state backing under the proposal on the ballot.

MICHIGAN'S DRIVER education program received a double honor recently from the Insurance Institute for Highway Safety.

Seven other states received the annual achievement award along with Michigan. But a special award for providing driver education in the state's public schools for non-public school students went uniquely to Michigan.

Higher Taxes: Small Cost of Freedom

En Route Home — The direct debt of our Federal Government today, for which government bonds or short-term bills are issued, is approximately $240 billion.

This means that when you buy a government bond as the best possible security, you should realize that many billions in these bonds have been issued. They are looked upon by banks, educational institutions, and other investors like yourself as the safest place in which to have one's money, but it is not generally realized how many such bonds are outstanding. It is as you were buying shares of stock in a corporation and looked only at the price without giving any attention to the number of shares issued.

In addition to these bonds, the government has also guaranteed billions of dollars in other fiscal obligations. These are known as "contingent liabilities", such as the guaranteed home mortgages, loans to farmers, aid to colleges, hospitals, veterans, etc. Although the U.S. is the greatest country in the world, it is very generous and extravagant.

Furthermore, if we should go into a depression the Federal Government would take on some liabilities of states, municipalities, farmers, veterans, and many business concerns in order to prevent bankruptcies.

All of the money being spent on armaments is not spent on missiles and other forms of explosives. When I visited Cape Canaveral in Florida and saw one of the missile sites explode (all of us were in an underground vault watching via television), I saw a million dollars evaporate in a few seconds.

This is not true of many military expenditures. The radar system which encircles this country to give us advance notice of enemy bombers is a good investment — as are also our nuclear submarines, airplane fields, highways, etc.

I recently visited Washington, D.C. and was astonished to find that our Federal Government is building the largest and best airfield in the world. It is primarily for jet planes, and has runways two to three miles in length. War or no war, this is surely a good investment.

This airfield is about 20 miles from Washington and the government is building a straight new highway from the airfield to the center of Washington. But this is not all. Some 12 miles south of the airfield is planned a most elaborate electronic control center on 20 acres of land.

This control center will look like an ordinary two-story office building in front, with walls of glass and stainless steel. Behind it will be a high building which will look like a mammoth safe-deposit box with cement walls 16" thick. There will be emergency living accommodations in the basement for the workers.

In addition to the cost of the land and the building, it is said that the electronic devices therein will run over $3 million.

No structure will stand a direct hit from an atomic bomb. But while it is believed that a bomb from an airplane or a missile from some Russian satellite could destroy Washington, it would not necessarily harm these buildings or the people and machinery therein. The only danger would be the fallout. To eliminate this there will be tanks on the roof which will hold 100,000 gallons of water, which, in two hours, would clear the roof of any contamination from fallout. I understand that mammoth airfields and structures similar to this are planned for areas near all the largest cities.

Regardless of what is said in Congress or by Presidential candidates, we should realize that expenditures have to increase rather than decrease. A tremendous effort must be made to keep the budget in fair balance in order to protect our gold supply and our credit abroad. The U.S. dollar must be kept sound as a means of protection. It is foolish to talk about reduced taxes. With the exception of reducing foreign aid help to farmers, veterans, and other large and politically strong groups, we are bound to have higher federal costs and higher direct and indirect taxation. Let us pay these increased taxes cheerfully and thank God we are living in the U.S. instead of anywhere else in the world.
