

Curve Claims Two Cars

BAD CURVE — Two cars overturned and ended up in the ditch Saturday along this sharp curve leading from Novi road to the new Eight Mile road cut-off. James Wilson of Walled Lake, who was driving the car shown in the inset above, overturned Saturday morning about 8 a.m. He estimated his speed at 50 miles per hour. He was uninjured. Donald R. Calvin of Detroit also overturned his car at the identical spot at 4 p.m. on the same day. He estimated his speed at 45 miles per hour. Both cars were driving south toward Northville. (See accident story elsewhere). Northville Police Chief Eugene King noted that the new entrance road is an Oakland county road and that responsibility for posting rests with the county. There are no warning signs along Novi road as the curve is approached from the north and only the arrow pictured at the right-angle turn in the road indicates there is a curve ahead. Chief King stated that 25 mph is a safe speed to execute the turn and said he feared more accidents if the road is not properly posted before ice and snow conditions. The above picture was taken from the north and the cars overturned at a point between the approaching cars and road signs.

You Can Help TB Victims On Christmas

For the 14th consecutive year Mrs. V. George Chabut of Sheldon road is delivering Santa Claus' letters. They're from children at Maybury Sanatorium confined to their beds with tuberculosis. Mrs. Chabut sees to it that their requests are answered. Her job isn't too difficult. "I have generous 'Santas' from all over the area," she points out. Mrs. Chabut delivers or telephones the messages written by the children to persons indicating they would like to contribute a package. The packages, addressed personally to each child, are then taken to the Carrington Agency on North Center street and delivered personally by Santa Claus on Christmas morning at Maybury. Altogether Mrs. Chabut receives about 150 letters from children at the sanatorium. The Northville Rotary club takes about 40 letters. Residents from Northville, Detroit, Holly, Grosse Pointe, Plymouth and Farmington have taken letters regularly each year. But there are still a few available. In the past 14 years thousands of children have been made to forget their loneliness and confinement for at least a few happy moments. So if you'd like to make a small child's eyes light up Christmas morning when he finds his very own package being delivered to his bedside by Santa Claus, just call Mrs. Chabut at FI-9-3257.

Banquet to Honor City's Volunteers

Full time employees and council members of the city of Northville will pay tribute next Thursday evening to the part-time, non-paid and appointed citizens devoting time and efforts to city business. The dinner will be held at the VFW hall at 6:30 p.m. on December 8. Fifty-eight men and women serving on various committees and voluntary work forces will be honored as special guests at the banquet in recognition of their service to the city. Mayor A. M. Allen appointed Councilman John Canterbury to arrange details of the banquet. The list of honored guests includes those serving the city as members of one of the following groups: planning commission, board of review, building and zoning board of appeals, civil defense, recreation, volunteer firemen and volunteer police. A highlight of the program will be the presentation of the Claude Ely Memorial fund award. The recipient of the award will be one of the 58 honored guests. The fund was created shortly after the death of Mayor Ely in April, 1958 and represents about $1,000 in Detroit Edison stock. Yearly dividends from the stock are used for the award. Remarks will be made concerning the work of each of the various groups by Councilmen Canterbury, Richard Juday, Earl Reed and Ed Welch with major comments by Mayor Allen. Others expected to speak are City

Court Action Threatens City Special Assessment

Coordinating Council Eyes Area Issues

Northville's coordinating council, an organization originally formed to serve as something of a "clearing house" and coordinator of community group activities, has decided to intensify its interest in current area problems. In short, the representative of some 27 local organizations plan to study contemporary issues and report their conclusions to their various member organizations. As a starter, the council will undertake a study of the hospital authority plan and the problems surrounding Community General hospital. At its next meeting, December 15 at the city hall, the council will hear the authority plan discussed by Mayor A. M. Allen, president of the Community General hospital board and one of the principle advocates of the hospital authority plan. In explaining the coordinating council's decision to broaden its activities in community affairs Vice President Herman Moehlman pointed out that representatives attending the sessions have expressed a desire to stimulate meetings by playing a more active role in problems confronting the community. Issues discussed at the last meeting included the location of the proposed new city hall, economic development of the community, possible consideration of an independent community fund drive as opposed to participation in the United Foundation and the hospital authority.

Organizations represented at the last meeting of the council were the Retail Merchants association, Woman's club, Presbyterian church, city council, P-TA, Kings Daughters, Exchange club and Northville township. Moehlman conducted the session in the absence of the coordinating council's president, Mrs. Essie Nirdler. The council will continue with its regular activities, which include sponsorship of the annual citizenship banquet and Beautify Northville campaign.

But Moehlman urged all member organizations to send representatives to the monthly meetings so that their thinking may be reflected in the discussions. In explaining the coordinating council's decision to broaden its activities in community affairs Vice President Herman Moehlman pointed out that representatives attending the sessions have expressed a desire to stimulate meetings by playing a more active role in problems confronting the community. Local Family In Car-Plane Accident

Four members of the Arthur J. Adams family, 960 Allen, were involved in a fluke car-airplane accident Thanksgiving night when their car was struck by the landing gear of an airplane setting down at Plymouth's Mettetal airport. Mr. and Mrs. Adams and their eight-year-old son, Richard, who was riding in the back seat, were treated for glass cuts at Community General hospital. The boy needed three stitches in his hand. A daughter sleeping in the back seat was not hurt. The family was traveling west on Joy road when a four-seat Piper piloted by James K. Nicewander of Garden City sideswiped their car. The landing gear smashed into the door, hood and roof, knocking the car sideways across the road. Adams managed to keep the car on the road. "I looked out and saw the plane coming right at us with its landing light," related Mrs. Adams. "I just froze and couldn't say a thing." She said her husband had described the windshield's smashing as "a salt spray of glass." Mrs. Adams said that she was so covered with glass that a vacuum cleaner was used to get it from her hair. After the plane landed on the runway and nosed over, Nicewander and his wife, who were returning from Fraser, rushed over to the car to help the occupants. The crash occurred at about 6:30 p.m. as the Adams' family was en route to visit a friend in Plymouth following Thanksgiving dinner with relatives in Detroit. The plane was extensively damaged and the car may be claimed a total wreck.

JP Hearing Monday Night

Another public hearing is scheduled before the city council on Monday night. At its regular meeting the council will act on an ordinance to amend the method of compensation for the justice of the peace. The amendment provides that the JP will be paid an annual salary of $2,400 in lieu of fees, as now collected. E. M. Bogart, Northville's justice stated he will not seek reelection if the fee system is terminated. His term ends July 4, 1961, but election for the office is scheduled for April. Petitions for justice of the peace, and all other city and township elective offices, must be filed by January 3.

A proposed special assessment totalling some $9,800 for improvements bordering eight privately owned lots in the city of Northville was challenged Monday night at a public hearing before the city council. The improvements include paving, curb and gutter, storm and sanitary sewers and water.

The lots are located on Novi street between Hill and Maplewood and are owned by Mr. and Mrs. Donald P. Yerkes.

It marks the first time that the city has attempted to use its special assessment ordinance for street improvements, although sidewalks and the Middle Rouge Interceptor sewer have been paid by the special assessment system.

The assessment came about as a result of the council's recently adopted policy to special assess property owners for any improvements constructed in new subdivisions or undeveloped areas within the city.

Specifically Monday night James Littell, attorney for the Yerkes, listed three objections to the proposed assessment. They were:

1. That the improvements, except paving, have been made prior to confirmation of the special assessment rule, in violation of the city charter;
2. That the special assessment district fails to include all of the owners of the property who are especially benefited;
3. That the improvements were purchased from and made by private agencies without competitive bidding.

Attorney Littell's complaint drew little comment from the city council but won an adjournment of the hearing until January 23. The special assessment project came about as the result of the development of Yerkes subdivision number three. The development, in the extreme northeast corner of the city, is owned by the D&R Building company.

The land was purchased from the Yerkes' more than five years ago. In its subdividing the developers have "opened up" Novi street from Hill to Maplewood, thereby leaving the eight other lots on the west side of the street still owned by Yerkes facing a new street. Thus it was the council's decision to have the subdividing pay for half the cost of the improvements (the east side of the street) and assess the property owners (in this case the Yerkes') for the other half.

Actually, however, in earlier meetings with Yerkes the city council decided that the assessment against the Yerkes property would be 80 percent of the half share. Presumably, the assessment was reduced 20 percent as recognition of taxes paid on the land in previous years. The council or city attorney did not answer Littell's charges Monday night. It is clearly true, however, that the project has begun — as protested in point number one. All work except the paving is complete. In point two the complaint is based on the fact that the city assessed one side of the street, and has a contract with the subdivider for the other side. Littell pointed out that technically the special assessment district did not, therefore, apply to all the property owners on both sides (i.e. those living in homes purchased from the subdivider).

The third point dealing with failure of the city to seek competitive bids has been defended by the council. The council maintains that the lowest possible bid was received because the city availed itself of the same contractor already employed to do improvement work throughout the entire subdivision. In his argument Littell expressed sympathy with the city cause and did not question its right to special assess, only the method in this instance. He indicated that the city could still special assess for the unstarted paving program. But he indicated that he would take court action if the entire project were assessed as proposed. Some indication was held out that a compromise might be reached. But the council preferred to discuss the problem with City Attorney Philip Ogilvie before reaching any conclusions.

P-TA to Show Film

School board member James Kipfer will moderate the film, "Directions for the Future", at a general meeting of the Northville Parent-Teachers association next Thursday, December 8, in the community building. The senior high school will also sing Christmas songs. Refreshments will follow.

Area College Study Takes New Twist

The momentum that sparked a proposed survey here of the community junior college by the Northville Citizens Study committee ground to an official halt Monday night. Board members agreed with Mrs. James Ross, citizens committee representative, that the seven members who had volunteered for the original assignment, were just not enough to cope with the vast study the group had elected to undertake.

Late in October, in the wake of a surge of public opinion favoring such a survey, the board charged the committee with the assignment. According to by-laws governing the citizens committee, 25 members must participate to comprise an effective study group. With the door to this project slammed shut, school board member James Kipfer opened another by suggesting that a smaller pilot study be launched by the small core of the yet concerned citizens group. Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Frank Angile, another member who participated in earlier studies, joined Kipfer in his recommendation that a questionnaire be circulated among high school juniors and seniors and their parents to get some attitudes on the community college movement. The board formally authorized High School Principal E. V. Ellison to administer the questionnaire, and directed the seven citizens to tabulate the results and evaluate their findings. In other business Monday night, H. Earl Hanson, certified public accountant whose firm recently completed an audit of the school district's books for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1960, told the board that he had found everything in order. "The books are clean," he said. He complimented the school officials and added, "Miss (Alice) Hochbach does a fine job of record keeping for you."

A bid for a 1961 No 240 International Harvester tractor submitted by the Kirchhoff Implement company was accepted. A sum of $3,445 was allocated for the purchase. The tractor will be used for work on school grounds and snow removal.

Merchants Await Christmas Buyers

The weatherman may be asleep but balmy temperatures have not lured Northville merchants into forgetting that Christmas is just 21 shopping days away. This week the local retailers are officially opening the Christmas shopping season. But many report that shopping and layaways are already brisk, an indication that many plan to do their gift buying early this year.

You'll Find the Answers... to your Christmas shopping list problems in a timely and helpful article by Sharon Mazance, who toured Northville stores and suggests a variety of fine gifts. See page 2.

To put the city in the Christmas mood gaily colored decorations have been extended from one end of the business district to the other. This year's decorations include eight new giant-sized illuminated "candy" canes. They were turned on for the first time last week end. The familiar figure who symbolizes the spirit of Christmas to the kiddies has not been forgotten, either. Santa Claus will pay visits to Northville on the 16th and 17th and every day during the week before Christmas. Santa will have candy for the kiddies and will listen attentively to their requests for Christmas. All local stores, their windows and shelves piled high with Christmas gift suggestions, will now be open until 9 o'clock nightly until Christmas. Northville merchants are optimistic that this may be their biggest Christmas season ever. They point to increased parking facilities and a larger, more varied stock of merchandise as reasons to believe more people than ever will Christmas shop in Northville this year.

BRIGHT Christmas lights shine through the darkness reminding Northville shoppers that the Yuletide season is here again. The decorations have brought praise as the finest displayed here. They were turned on last week end and local merchants began this week staying open evenings until Christmas.

Shopping Trip Reaps Gift Ideas

by Sharon Mazane

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING — Still puzzling over just what to get each person on your Christmas gift list?

Well, your reporter was in the very same quandry until she got out from behind the desk this week and went Christmas shopping right here in Northville.

The idea, to get ideas for "all sorts of things" to pass on to our readers. She set a $10 limit and found a wealth of items that just might fill the bill for everyone on the typical shopping list — man, woman or child, young or old.

A NEW TWIST to the idea of glasses or glassware can be found in the wooden-handle Siesta Ware mugs or Thermo-Serve tumblers at Stone's Gamble store. The mugs come in soft pastel tones, while the tumblers have novel caricatures and sayings on them.

FOR REFRESHMENTS, there are inexpensive glass and California pottery chip 'n' dip sets, something the host or hostess might well need for holiday entertaining. Or a punch bowl complete with 12 cups is a thoughtful gift that's not out of your price range.

YOUNG ATHLETES go for equipment like the pros use, such as hockey gloves and shin guards or pucks and sticks from Stone's well-stocked sporting goods department. Young gridgers will find plenty of use for a regulation football and kicking tee.

YOU BUILD 'EM trains from the H-O Hobby Train line give father and son a variety of railroad engines, cars and accessories that they build themselves.

OLD FRIENDS with whom you've weathered good times and bad can have the jump on the weather man with a three-way barometer that gives the temperature, humidity and barometric pressure.

FRUIT CAKES might be just the answer for the "little something" on your list. Sally Bell bakery has the one and two-pound sizes cheerfully wrapped in gay holiday bows.

LITTLE PEOPLE'S clothes from the shoppe named for the toddlers are cuter than ever. Sweaters run from infant to size 10 in button-ups and pullovers. Some are fashioned in soft pastels while the broad-striped bulky knits are a take-off on big people's sweaters and give the younger set the college look.

LOUNGING OUTFITS for little ladies with trim tapered pants and a saucy smock top come in colorful cottons and popular new shades in corduroy. They're priced from $3.95 to $7.98.

Even the wee-little pajamas have matching robes to go with them this year.

Two pair of mittens for the price of one is a special Christmas buy, especially when both pair are waterproof.

HOLIDAY HOSTESSES, young and old, will appreciate your thoughtfulness as expressed in brilliant red bouquets of roses or carnations or in a traditional Christmas Poinsetta arrangement available at Lila's Flowers and Gifts.

IF YOU CARE about little remembrances for your wife, mother or grandmother, a holiday corsage of holly, greens and glittering tinsel is just the answer.

WALL PLAQUES to fit into every home's decorating scheme are also available. Mute but decorative are jazz musicians silhouetted against a contrasting background, or genteel oriental figures.

THE PERSONAL TOUCH can be achieved by having jewelry or silver pieces engraved. Charms and identification bracelets as well as your choice of silver-plate trays and serving pieces may be bought at Tewksbury Jewelers and engraved with 24-hour service.

COLLEGE STUDENTS have to economize on time, so to help them you might consider a travel or alarm clock.

SOUNDS OF MUSIC in the strains of Christmas carols and other holiday tunes done by well-known artists are on sale at Ellis Electronics. They have both long-playing monaural high fidelity or stereophonic high fidelity records.

Popular cuts featuring vocalists, bands and Broadway musicals are available, with about a dollar more for stereo.

THE SPECIAL MAN on your Christmas shopping list is in for a pleasant surprise if you choose your gift from such items as plaid corduroy vests, sport shirts in plaids, checks, prints and plain colors, or a smart pair of leather gloves.

Cuff links, tie bars and other jewelry are useful for young and older men. Or you might select a jewelry box for his accessories. And then again, maybe this is the year he'll be wanting a dapper, dark plaid fedora.

These are available at Freydl's Cleaners and Men's Wear.

CRYSTAL, the biggest splash in ladies' jewelry in a decade, spells the gift answer for many a weary male shopper. One, two and three-strand necklaces as well as complementing bracelets and earrings made from shimmering crystal are available at Johnson's Jewelry and Gift shop.

STOCKING FILLERS are aplenty at Johnsons. For example, purse or pocket-size picture albums with celluloid windows, key rings and chains, and a variety of inexpensive novelties.

SNACK SETS, the Colorvision kind, made from plastic, are ideal for the eat-and-watch-tv set. Each comes with six plates and six cups. Imported brass, copper and silver items are hard for the shopper to pass up.

FOR THE HOME, Schrader's has a rainbow of colored toss pillows to brighten conservative sofas and chairs. Dad would probably welcome a plastic covered ottoman on which to prop his weary feet.

You might even consider a functional brass table lamp selling for less than $10.

TOYS can be educational as well as being fun if you look at the ones on the Northville Hardware's shelves. And for the "Little Miss", dolls, an ironing board just like Mom's, or a set of dishes.

SPORTSMEN will smile their approval on Christmas morning when they open a genuine Camper's Mess Kit or a Bait Box for their fishing trips.

Ice skates will come in mighty handy, too, as soon as freezing weather gets here. After skating, how about coffee, poured hot from a gift carafe.

SLIPPERS for the whole family can be found at Brader's. Popular companions are robes, for the ladies coming in nylon, cotton and corduroy fabrics. There's sleepwear for the men, too.

CASUAL SHIRTS are also stocked by Brader's in the knit and wash and wear families. Heavier wool and corduroy shirts go well in the cold weather.

IVY LEAGUE apparel for the men abounds at the Northville Men's shop. The latest in subdued print and plaid shirts are right at home with olive, brown and gray corduroy slacks.

PICK THE PEARL for the tie tack that goes with your matching cuff links right from a vacuum packed tin containing an oyster guaranteed to have a pearl in it. It's a new idea by Pioneer.

PLACK SHIRTS that give the clothes conscious man the chance to change the appearance of one shirt by changing the front plack are new this year.

CERAMIC DECANTERS made in the shape of swashbuckling pirates could foot the bill for the man who has everything.

MORE AND MORE gift suggestions are waiting for you at Northville shops. Filling your Christmas shopping list with "just the right gifts" should pose no real problem at all. It's still early and the selection is good.

By the way, you might keep your eyes and ears open in the next couple of weeks. We've been informed that "hinting" season has officially opened.

KITCHEN DIARY

"Just Like Eating A Real Confection"

The Christmas season is a time for folks to get together, to strike up new friendships and to renew old ones. The flurry of informal entertaining during the holidays calls for informal refreshments like coffee, hot chocolate or hot cider paired with cake or cookies.

For a special Christmas cookie and another that's an all-year favorite, Mrs. I. Paul Terry, 825 Carpenter, has volunteered her recipes for Nut Bars and Princess Gems.

As she describes the cookies, the Date Bars are such a hit you barely have time to whisk them from the oven to the cookie jar before they vanish. And the Princess Gems — well, eating them is like biting into a real confection.

NUT BARS

Mrs. I. Paul Terry
1/2 cup shortening
1/2 cup butter
1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1 egg yolk
1 egg white
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup ground nuts

Mix shortening, butter, brown sugar, egg yolk and vanilla. Add sifted flour and salt; pack on cookie sheet one-quarter inch thick. Spread on egg white; pour off excess; sprinkle on nuts. Cut into bars before baking 30 minutes at 275 degrees.

PRINCESS GEMS

1 cup shortening
1/2 cup butter
2 teaspoons ammonium carbonate
2 cups sugar
2 1/2 cups flour
1 cup shredded coconut

Cream shortening and butter; add ammonium carbonate and sugar gradually, creaming well. Add flour a little at a time, then coconut. Form small balls 1/2-inch in diameter between palms of hands. Place on cookie sheet one inch apart and bake in 325-degree oven 20-25 minutes, or until lightly brown. While cookies are still warm, roll in confectioners sugar. Yields about 9 dozen. (Ammonium carbonate is available at drug stores. If purchased in lump form, buy six lumps and pound to powdered consistency.)

READERS SPEAK:

Defends Defense

To the Editor:

After reading over the statistics of the high school football team for the past season, I was quite pleased with the story, as far as it went, but I don't believe it covered enough. Seems to me there was a defensive team on the field that did a very creditable job, but there were no statistics given for this team, such as interceptions, punt returns, etc. Or don't they keep defensive statistics?

It also seemed to me that in the story, credit was given to relatively few of the players, with some of them being left out altogether. Would it be possible to re-print the story, giving credit where it is due?

Yours truly,
David Hay

EDITOR'S NOTE: This newspaper agrees with reader Hay, whose son incidentally was listed among the offensive leaders in last week's statistics, that the defensive team did a very creditable job, and, of course, was instrumental in helping the Mustangs gain their second place tie in the W-O League. Unfortunately, school statisticians did not compile season defensive records.

Novi P-TA to Host 'Northville Bell Ringers'

Highlighting Tuesday's meeting of the Novi P-TA will be the appearance of the Northville Bell Ringers.

The Bell Ringers, composed of 24 children between the ages of 12 and 16, produce some strikingly beautiful music using 35 bells. The group is under the direction of W.J. Williams.

Among the business matters to be discussed at the meeting will be a report by John Hood, chairman of the education committee.

Residents of Novi school children are urged to attend the meeting which will get underway at 8 p.m. at Orchard Hills school.

Holds Co-op Dinner

Alpha Nu chapter members of Delta Kappa Gamma got together for a turkey dinner Monday evening, November 14 at the home of Mrs. May Babbitt.

Mrs. Babbitt planned and served the cooperative dinner with the assistance of Mrs. Lucille Reques and Mrs. Maude Penhale, co-hostesses.

Dr. Ola Hiller, immediate past president of Delta Kappa Gamma International, was the guest speaker at a business meeting following the meal. She related some of the high points of the International convention held at Bal Harbour, Florida, in August.

The chapter was entertained after the business meeting by a program comprised of brief, individual skits, stories, songs and readings furnished by the chapter members.

Official Minutes of the Novi Board of Education

The regular meeting was called to order by the president, Mr. Heslip at 8:07 p.m. on Wednesday, October 12, 1960. Present were Mr. Heslip, Mr. Taylor, Mr. Erwin, Dr. Ambinder, Mr. MacBride and Dr. Medlyn. Also present were a number of parents and other interested persons.

The minutes of the previous regular and special meetings were approved with the following corrections: (1) In the minutes of the Sept. 14 meeting, the motion regarding the Oakland County Assoc. of School Superintendents was made by Mr. Taylor and supported by Mr. Erwin; (2) In the minutes of Sept. 27, delete the paragraph beginning "In terms of remedial work."

The treasurer's report of fund balances which was approved as read, was as follows:

General Fund	$21,987.83
Lunch Fund	$2,445.38
Payroll Fund	$4,492.90
1957 Building and Site	$185,407.75
1955 Debt Retirement Fund	$18,657.43
1957 Debt Retirement Fund	$18,209.80
1958 Debt Retirement Fund	$5,816.57

Dr. Medlyn reported that the citizens' groups are now functioning. The high school committee was to meet with Mr. Amerman and Dr. MacLeod of the Northville school district on Tuesday, Oct. 18. Mrs. Fred Loynes, who was an appointee of Mr. Taylor, has been replaced on the committee by Mr. Donald Parra. Mr. Hood requested board approval of a form to be sent to the teachers; approval was given.

The Detroit Edison had found that the older parts of the Novi School needed rehabilitation as far as lighting; Dr. Medlyn asked permission of the board to solicit bids for fixtures for the four rooms of the 1928 building as well as for the five rooms of the annex, making nine rooms in all. This action was agreed upon.

In regard to the fire exit from the Novi cafeteria, there had been no reply from the fire marshal, but this reply was expected. It was moved by Mr. Erwin, and supported by Mr. Taylor, that the board approve the low bid of Clifford Smith in the amount of $1,624.90 for the construction of a fire exit, with Mr. Taylor appointed to follow through with the work, also that the plans are to be approved by the fire marshal. The motion carried.

The list of new books on order or to be ordered for the school library, was presented to the board. Dr. Ambinder requested of Dr. Medlyn that the librarian give her views of what it would cost to bring our library up to minimum standards, or that the librarian be brought before the board to discuss the needs of the library.

Dr. Medlyn submitted to the board a quotation from board of education minutes of Sept. 11, 1957 regarding emergency powers of the superintendent in regard to purchasing. It was moved by Dr. Ambinder, and seconded by Mr. MacBride that the statement be appended to the purchasing policy as No. 8, and that the policy on purchasing be accepted as presented. A discussion of the policy on purchasing followed. It was moved by Mr. Erwin and supported by Mr. MacBride to amend the purchasing policy as presented to change paragraph 3 to read: "Quotations shall be obtained for all purchases costing from $10 to $100; bids are to be obtained for all purchases costing more than $100, and shall be approved by the board prior to purchase." The amendment carried. The motion carried as amended.

Dr. Medlyn reported that crosswalks have been painted, and speed limit signs erected. The missing bus ordinance sign at Ten Mile and Haggerty road has been referred to Chief BeGole and Mr. Ackley. A speed survey has been requested of the village and the council has taken action on this item.

Dr. Medlyn reported that some planning had been done with the Bureau of School Services regarding the curriculum consultant. Dr. Ambinder asked that a curriculum consultant be brought in at least once a week as soon as possible to work with the teachers in self study; his preference was for a person working in all areas, and later having people from the various fields of study brought in.

Dr. Medlyn reported that in regard to the hiring of a remedial reading teacher, that the budget would be increased mainly only by the salary of the person employed, and would not be much different from the budget planned in April. He asked for a committee of the board to describe (1) the program wanted, and (2) the qualifications needed. Mr. Heslip stated he felt the needed. Mr. Heslip stated he felt the whole.

Mr. MacBride moved that the board adopt a program which will involve work directly with children either individually or in small groups, and work with teachers in dealing with reading. This motion failed for lack of support.

Mr. MacBride stated he would be interested in a person with the minimum of a bachelor's degree with experience in remedial reading and testing.

Dr. Medlyn was to contact the teaching institutions to find what people might be available, and other districts to study the salaries offered, and report back within a month. Dr. Ambinder wished to go on record that the action taken was not satisfactory; he felt that the only satisfactory action would be a resolution that the board hire a remedial reading person.

Dr. Medlyn reported that everything in our guidance program ties in with the NDEA program except that the seventh and eighth grades must be of separate administration, which would necessitate having a junior high school principal. Dr. Medlyn felt this would provide inservice training for one of the staff while complying with the requirements of the National Defense Education Act.

Dr. Medlyn reported on the discrepancy figures which the board had requested in regard to the testing in the various grades, the discrepancy being the difference between mental ability and achievement. The request for regional norms with which to compare our children had been referred to Dr. Cohen of the Oakland County Board of Education. Dr. Medlyn was also to attempt to obtain regional norms from the North Central Assn.

The problems of transportation of children to the special education classrooms outside the school district were discussed. As a temporary measure one of the mothers who transports her own child regularly was to be asked to transport some of the others. It was suggested that as the district grows it will become necessary to provide a station wagon and driver to take care of these children.

Bids were presented for the boiler insurance for the Novi School. Hadley Bachert (Fidelity Casualty Co. of N.Y.), a 3-yr. policy with $100,000 limits, $421.65. Frazer Staman (Hartford Steam Boiler Insurance Co.) 3-yr. policy with $100,000 limits, $449.13, or if added to existing policy for the Orchard Hills School boilers, $258.69. It was moved by Mr. Erwin, and supported by Mr. Taylor, that the board accept the low bid of Novi Realty for $100,000 in boiler insurance. Motion carried.

Dr. Medlyn asked for authorization to pave the easement to the Orchard Hills School at a quotation of $358. Northville Pupils Star on TV WIN TV SET — Nancy Slattery, Jean Downer, Nancy Shafer, Roxanne Horning and Michael Horner, all students at Northville junior high school, proved they knew the right answers when they won a portable television set for the school on "Quiz 'em" Sunday morning and came out on top. Their prize, a brand new portable television set complete with a hook-up for educational Channel 56, will be delivered to the school by The Detroit News, sponsor of the quiz show.

Five Northville junior high school students were celebrities in their right when they got to school Monday morning.

The five, Nancy Slattery, Nancy Shafer, Jean Downer, Mike Horner and Roxanne Horning, had gone to bat for their school on the television quiz program "Quiz 'em" Sunday morning and came out on top.

The victors enjoyed a 150-point winning margin over their opponents from Dearborn's Hoston junior high school. The questions fired at the contestants were taken from articles in the previous week's newspapers.

What were some of the questions? "They ran all the way from international affairs to whose on top in the National Hockey league," replied Kathleen Maskery, Northville junior high teacher who coached the team.

"In fact," she added, "they included everything but the want ads." The teacher estimated the five had studied about four hours each day before facing the television cameras.

Their parents were a big help in preparing them for it," said Miss Maskery, and "it was team spirit and sportsmanship," she said, that sealed the victory.

"They were all ready," continued the teacher-coach, "even Mike Horner, the alternate, knew the paper inside and out, including answers to the two questions that stumped the regular team members."

Minutes of Northville City Council

Regular meeting of Northville City Council was held at City Hall Monday, Nov. 21st, 1960, at 8 p.m. Present: Mayor Allen, Councilmen Canterbury, Juday and Welch. Absent: Councilman Reed.

Minutes of last regular meeting were read and approved. Recognition was given to the following representatives of the Northville High School:

Eric Peterson, President 9th Grade
Frank Steinberger, President, 10th Grade
Dennis Gilbert, President, 11th Grade
Tom Darling, President 12th Grade
David Hay, President of the Student Council

In observance of Youth Appreciation Week. They were sworn in as honorary members of the City Council by the City Clerk, and were invited to participate in the proceedings of the evening.

The following bills were presented for payment:
General Fund $79,430.25
Water Fund $2,643.29
Water Construction Fund $8,008.90
It was moved by Juday, supported by Canterbury that these bills be allowed and paid Carried.

Public hearing on vacation of West St. lying between the south line of W. Main St. right-of-way and the north line of W. Cady St. right-of-way was the first item on agenda. In response to Mayor Allen's question if anyone in the audience wished to be heard before this matter was acted upon, Mr. Geo. Kohs, of 473 W. Cady St. asked whether or not pedestrian traffic would be prohibited for the general public, he feels they should not be deprived of the privilege of walking across West St. at the location covered by this vacation. Moved by Allen, supported by Canterbury, that public hearing on this proposition be postponed until the 2nd meeting in January, 1961, so that this matter can be taken up with the School Board before passing the resolution. Carried.

Public Hearing on the amendment of the Zoning Ordinance to Sec. 8.01B-C-2 District—to allow professional business, professional offices and clinics in said Districts, was the next item of business, and there being no one present who objected to its passage, it was moved by Welch, supported by Juday, that same be adopted. Carried.

At request of City Council, Andrew Cain and Robert S. Wilson were present to state their reasons for requesting extension of time to move into the City in compliance with rules set forth by the City Council. After hearing these gentlemen, Mayor Allen stated that no decision would be made immediately, but they would be notified by letter what the City Council's action will be on their requests.

Mgr. Robertson was instructed to contact four more of the architects who have expressed a desire to present their credentials for designing a new City Hall to meet with the Council Wednesday, Nov. 30th, 1960, to be interviewed.

Regarding sale of old Ahrens-Fox Fire Engine belonging to the City, Mgr. Robertson reported he had found no one who was interested in its purchase, and suggested that perhaps some local organization might like to take it over and rejuvenate same, to make an antique item out of it. Junior Chamber of Commerce is interested in the project, and the Council approved of the idea.

Mgr. Robertson informed Council that the house on the disposal area property which it was thought might be used as an office in connection with Public Works yard, was not worth moving. Mayor Allen has a house on S. Main St. which he will give to the City if they wish to move it. City Manager and Public Works Superintendent feel it would be a good investment, as house is in good condition. Atty. Ogilvie was instructed to prepare an agreement covering the proposition, and Mgr. Robertson was authorized to contact the Krist Moving Co. and come back with a figure as to what it will cost to move the building.

The matter of cancellation of the D&R Bldg. Co. bond for Yerkes Estates Sub. No. 1 and 2 was again brought up, but action on same was postponed until the Special meeting to be held Nov. 28th, 1960, when City Attorney is to present a written report covering status of project which bond covers.

Councilman Canterbury reported on the arrangements being made regarding testimonial dinner honoring part-time and volunteer employees of the City for their faithful services over the years. Same will be held Thursday, Dec. 8th, 1960, at 6:30 p.m. at the V.F.W. Hall.

Acting upon the request for extension of time requested by Andrew Cain and Robert S. Wilson to move into the City, it was decided to allow Officer Cain six months to comply with regulations set forth by the City Council regarding City employees establishing their home in Northville, and to grant Robert Wilson's request to be allowed to continue working for the City until April 1st, 1961, at which time he will retire. Mgr. Robertson was instructed to write them to this effect.

No further business appearing, meeting was adjourned at 10:30 p.m.

LIGHTS ON — Mayor A. M. Allen pulled the switch that turned on Northville's Christmas lights in the business district last week end. The decorations are purchased, maintained and displayed by the Retail Merchants association with the city making an annual contribution to the fund. 3 Hurt As Cars Roll-over on Curve

Three persons were injured Saturday afternoon when a car in which they were riding careened off Novi road, rolled over and landed upside down some 50 feet off the pavement.

Kathy Dawson, 43853 12 Mile road, Walled Lake, and Robert Peck, 9950 Lauder, Detroit, were treated for minor injuries at Community General hospital. The driver, Donald Calvin, 11669 Sussex street, Detroit, was admitted to the hospital with a back injury, and was transferred on Monday to the Plymouth General hospital.

The mishap at the hairpin curve just north of the Eight Mile cut-off was almost a repeat of one earlier Saturday involving Robert Wilson of 440 Sparks lane, Walled Lake, Wilson escaped injury.

Both cars were traveling south on Novi road.

Although Northville Police Chief Eugene King blamed both on excessive speed, he pointed out that the absence of adequate road markers to warn drivers of the 90-degree curve increased the driving hazard there.

King said he had forwarded detailed reports of both mishaps along with an urgent plea for the county to post additional road markers to R. W. Osgood, traffic engineer with the Oakland county road commission.

Wilson, driver in the morning accident, was charged with negligent operation in court action Monday morning. A $25 fine and court costs were levied following his conviction.

In explaining the cause of the mishap, Wilson said he had approached the curve at about 50 miles per hour and lost control of the car when he applied the brakes and they failed to hold. The car rolled over after skidding across the pavement, and stopped about 40 feet off the roadway.

Calvin, driver of the second car, will face a negligent operation charge in court next week.

Chief Eugene King reported that the detector tests had been administered to two unidentified suspects being questioned in a Wednesday night break-in at the Kroger super market, 231 East Main.

King said entry to the store was made through a window at the northeast corner of the building. Twenty-five cartons of cigarettes had been taken, he said, after the prowlers apparently failed to break open the store safe by smashing the handle and the face of the combination lock.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. David Read, 410 East Main, are parents of a five pound, 14 ounce daughter, Dawn Christine, born November 12 at Garden City Osteopathic hospital.

She is the Read's first child. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams of Northville and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Read of Plymouth.

A daughter, Rhonda Marie, weighing seven pounds, four ounces, was born November 26 at Mt. Carmel hospital in Detroit to Mr. and Mrs. Phil Roselle of Rayson street.

Rhonda has two brothers, Ricke and Ronald.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buttermore of Northville and Mr. and Mrs. Pamphile Roselle of Dundee.

CLOTHING DESTROYED — A fire in an upstairs closet in the home of Parker Holden, 628 West Main, destroyed between $1,500 and $2,000 worth of clothing shortly after noon Friday. The fire was confined to the closet, although there was some smoke and water damage to the upstairs rooms and furniture. Had the fire occurred the night before, the smoke might have suffocated two of Holden's small grandchildren who slept in the room.

After 34 Years As Milkman

Don Miller Ends Career

They're grown now; most have children of their own. But they remember him, as do their children, as the friendly milkman who always wore a smile and usually had a kind word for the youngsters who clamored around his truck. And for 65-year-old Don Miller of 310 First street, who recently retired, these lasting friendships are among the greatest rewards of a long and laborious career.

Don Miller, familiar to hundreds of Northville families during the past 34 years in his Twin Pines truck, has delivered his last bottle of milk. He retired and sold his route to Del Black.

Father of four children and grandfather of 10, Miller started delivering milk back in 1926 for the now defunct Ulrich Dairy located on Beck road near Six Mile.

Times were hard then, he recalls, and the unsteady work as a carpenter made raising a family next to impossible. So it wasn't so unnatural for a young man, who was raised on a Nine Mile road farm, to take a hard but steady job as a milkman. "People will always want milk," he said.

He delivered 16 quarts of milk on his first day out. When he retired last month, he was averaging close to 20,000 quarts each month.

For three years he delivered for Ulrich, then went into a milk delivery business of his own. After about 10 years he joined Twin Pines and was associated with this firm until his retirement. At the time of his retirement he had been employed longer than any other Twin Pines employee and he had the company's largest route.

He owned his Northville Twin Pines route and his truck. Both were sold to Delbert Black of Northville upon retirement.

During his 34 years as a milkman, Miller saw very few changes in the milk delivery business. But he has seen plenty of changes in the community he served over the years.

He started delivering milk with a Model-T truck, he recalls. It was one of those open affairs with band-type transmission which often required some on-the-road adjustments. And in zero weather, driving an open cab truck as early as 2:30 a.m. pretty nearly turned a fellow into an icicle.

And of course driving along Northville streets 30 years ago — particularly in the spring — was not an easy task. Roads were either dirt or gravel.

Miller recalls that one of the hardest places to deliver milk was at Eastlawn, where on snowy or wet spring days, he was often forced to park his truck at the bottom of the hill and trudge up on foot.

Improvements of streets and sidewalks were probably the most welcomed change in the community to Miller.

Although children the country over seem attracted to the milkman, Northville children were particularly fascinated by Miller 30 years ago because of his strange motor car. Less than a decade earlier, milk was delivered only by horse and wagon. The truck was something new and exciting.

Parents will recall the fun of jumping onto the truck in the summertime and scooping up a handful of ice. "Snitching" ice this way was second in fun only to snitching from the ice wagon or truck.

Kids, dogs and muddy, impassable roads. All must have occasionally irritated Miller. But if they did, he doesn't recall much of it today. Looking back over the years, only those enjoyable moments of a hard-working milkman find a place in his memory.

And if he had it to do over, would he become a milkman? No hesitation, no ifs, just a simple, "I sure would."

Girls Cheer Patients At Hospital

Two Northville grade school girls, Linda Russell and Cindy Smith, took it upon themselves to brighten the Thanksgiving holiday of patients at Community General hospital.

The pair arrived at the hospital Thanksgiving eve with 10 "turkey apples" and a song ("Over the river and through the woods") for the patients.

Too young to present their gifts to each patient in person according to hospital regulations, the girls remained undaunted. They entrusted the delivery of the turkey apples they had made — apples meticulously trimmed to resemble old Tom Turkeys — to the nurses, and worked up their best singing voices when the staff permitted them to stand at the end of the corridor and serenade the patients.

How did they get the idea for this small but significant volunteer project?

As they explained it, "We decided we might like to do something for the patients at Christmas time, and then we thought maybe we should do something for Thanksgiving, too."

Linda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Russell, 213 South Rogers. Cindy's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Smith, 500 West Cady.

LIFE CAN BE CHRISTIANITY

Many times I have heard people say, "When I became a Christian, somehow everything was changed."

Then in a variety of ways they testify how these changes have taken place. Problems of the home were changed. The drudgery and humdrum of everyday labors were changed. Despair of the future was changed to joyful anticipation. And in addition, the blessing of giving purpose to our present lives. The trouble with many people today, they have no purpose in living. Just to exist from day to day is not enough to please God or bring satisfaction to the heart of man. God has placed us on this earth for a purpose. The first purpose is that we might bring glory to God. The second purpose and in line with the first is that we might accomplish something worthwhile for time and eternity. We can never get our sights straight until we have been to the Cross. When we see Christ, as our substitutionary sacrifice, redeeming us so that we might live to the glory of God, then our outlook is changed and life becomes worth living. Every aspect of our lives will be affected. We cannot be the same after accepting the work accomplished on Calvary. Have you been to the cross?

Northville Cagers Host Milford, Rocks In 1960-61 Openers

It'll be an uphill battle, but Northville's varsity cagers are determined to fight their way out of the league cellar — beginning with the 1960-61 league opener tomorrow with Milford.

Capping the week end opener will be a red-hot contest with arch-rival Plymouth in a non-league tilt here the following night.

Both games will begin at 8 p.m., following the junior varsity contests, at the high school gymnasium. Although both Northville Coach Dutch Van Ingen and his squad confidently expect to climb out of the Wayne-Oakland league cellar, they cannot with equal certainty predict just how high the team will climb.

In last year's overall season, including non-league games, the Mustangs ended with a record of six wins and nine defeats. A 3-8 record pushed them into the basement of the eight-team W-O league.

Last year the Mustangs dropped both ends of a week end twinbill as the season opened. They bounced back from a humiliating 55-46 loss to Clarenceville to dominate Plymouth through three periods before losing in the final minutes, 44-41.

Van Ingen blamed the Clarenceville loss on his team's uncanny ability to miss the nets.

Another factor which led to many of Northville's league defeats last season was the apparent "let down" in the closing minutes of the games. On many occasions Northville dropped games after leading or maintaining a close race throughout the first three periods.

These are just a few of the "problems" Coach Van Ingen hopes to avoid this season. And there's no better time to start than in the openers this week end.

According to Van Ingen, practice has shown this year's squad to be a better offensive team than defensive. "But we're still not in shape," he added cautiously.

Although the coach stated this week that he has only one sure starter — 6' 2" Danny Brown at center — it's a sure bet that he'll start Steve Juday, a hot and cold forward from last year's varsity squad. Juday, incidentally, was elected captain of this year's team.

Dick Bathey and Tom Swiss also are likely starters at the forward positions.

Tom Schwarze, Jerry Forbes and Craig Bell are top candidates for the guard positions.

But no matter who starts tomorrow, the lineup may be changed by the time Northville plays its third game next week with Brighton. "Probably the first two ball games will determine who will play regularly," Van Ingen said.

Coach Dennis Boyle of Milford told this newspaper this week that the Redskins are generally inexperienced and that he faces a "rebuilding" job. "We're fairly fast, though," he said, "but we have a long way to go."

"I wish we didn't have to start off with Northville."

Boyle indicated he probably will start John Kessler and Jim Gibson at the forward positions, Bob Oaks at center, and Tim Kurnick and Ernie Priestly at the guards. From Coach Jim Doyle of Plymouth comes word of guarded optimism. Doyle has three lettermen back this season — and one of them may be forced to play behind a newcomer.

OLV Starts New Bowling League Here

Under the guidance of Angelo Gadoli, manager of Northville Lanes, a new Sunday bowling league has been established at his business place.

To be called Our Lady of Victory Church Bowling League, the new bowling club was started last Sunday and will continue for 15 weeks between 5 and 7:30 p.m.

All Catholic high school-age students are eligible to join one of the six teams composing the new league. Persons who have not yet been personally contacted are asked to call FI-9-1173.

After each bowling session, students will conduct an "open house" program in the OLV social hall between 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. The program will include dancing, table tennis and a card party.

Students need not be members of the bowling league to attend the open house each week.

MOMMA GOT AWAY — A Northville couple bagged these two cubs while hunting near Iron River in the Upper Peninsula last week. The hunters, Mr. and Mrs. George Gardner, 850 North Center street, said the mother bear and another cub escaped. Did they get any deer? "Not this year."

All League Choices

Two Northville gridders were named to the 1960 Detroit News All-League squad this past week end. The two are Steve Juday, backfield, and Dave Hallam, guard.

Dave Hallam

en. Representing the Lakers were Jack Newton, back; Jim Randall, end; and Don Ackerly, center. Other members of the Wayne-Oakland all-league squad were: Tackle Dick Valentine, Clarkston; Guard Don McKensie, Holly; Tackle

Steve Juday

Owen Bird, Holly; End Tony Giacobazzi, Clarenceville; Back Biff Jones, Bloomfield Hills; and Back Randy Marx, Brighton.

Although no Northville players were named to the News' All-Suburban eleven, Steve Juday received honorable mention for the News' Class "B" All-State squad.

Other W-O league players to draw honorable mention for the all-state squad were Giacobazzi, Newton and Jones.

Newton was named to the News' All-Suburban second team, and Giacobazzi to the third team.

Last year four Northville players were honored by the major Detroit newspapers for football abilities. Topping the list was Bill Juday, a brother of Steve and now a student at Vanderbilt. Bill was named to every mythical all-state squad published by the newspapers.

In addition to his selection to four all-state teams, Juday was named to two all-suburban and two all-league squads. Three other Mustangs received similar recognition. They were Halfback Larry Nitzel, Guard Fred Mitchell and Center Wade Deal.

FORMER MUSTANG — High scoring Clayton 'Cap' Pethers, 542 Carpenter, is one of the reasons why Lawrence Tech is looking forward to its most successful basketball campaign in several years. 'Cap', a junior and co-captain, was the team's second high scorer last year with a 20.8 point per game average for 28 contests. The 6' 5" giant is rated as one of the greatest offensive players in LIT history and is expected to rewrite many of the records before the end of his collegiate career. He and Co-Captain John Bradley will lead the Blue Devils in their home opener against Alma college today at Hackett Fieldhouse.

"THE SPIRIT OF A CHILD"

The Christmas season is a joyous time for young and old people alike; but in a special way it is the holidays of children. It is difficult for us to comprehend that the Omnipotent God should, in St. Paul's words, "empty Himself", and become a helpless infant. God could have set the redemptive plan in motion in some other way. He could have appeared as a great king, and, in all splendor and glory, could have caused the world to fall to the ground in awe and fear.

But instead God chose to come through an earthly mother, dwelling in her womb for nine months. Then, as St. Luke warmly puts it, "The days for her to be delivered were fulfilled." But if God thus chose to become an infant, it is surely because He loves children.

The childlike spirit is characterized especially by humility and simplicity. Christ emphasized the need of this at various times as recorded in the Gospels. In St. Matthew, chapter 18, for example, it is recorded that the disciples once began to dispute among themselves as to which one would have the highest place in heaven. Thereupon "Jesus called a little child unto Him, set him in their midst, and said: 'Amen I say to you, unless you turn and become like little children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven. Whoever, therefore, humbles himself as this little child, he is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.' And St. Luke records (chapter 18) that when the disciples tried to send away the children who were besieging Christ, He said: 'Let the little children come to Me, and do not hinder them, for of such is the kingdom of God. Amen I say to you, whoever does not accept the kingdom of God as a little child will not enter into it.'

Children were greatly loved by Christ, and He made it clear that His followers must share that love. "See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I tell you, their angels in heaven always behold the face of My Father in heaven."

"It is impossible that scandals should not come; but woe to him through whom they come! It were better for him if a millstone were hung about his neck and he were thrown into the sea than that he should cause one of these little ones to sin." (Luke 17).

Children are important people. At the same time that we adults give them love and training and understanding may we capture their simplicity and humility, a real childlike spirit in preparation for the holy season to come.

ONE YEAR AGO . . .

In a move which apparently caught both Northville and Novi officials by surprise, the Northville Estates Civic association announced this week that it will see annexation to the city of Northville.

C Oscar Hammond, a member of Lloyd H Green Post 147 of Northville since 1920, has been named "American Legion Veteran for 1960" by the Legion's 17th district.

With only a "handful" of Novi residents present, the mothers' war on the legislature last week was reduced to an enthusiastic skirmish.

Approximately 50 Novi citizens joined with mothers and housewives in a bonfire rally to protest legislative squabbling while state schools are faced with a financial crisis.

When 17-year-old Bill Judav graduates in June he probably will find a red carpet stretching from his front door to college athletic buildings throughout the nation.

The Northville high school senior received state-wide recognition by being named as first string guard on four mythical all-state football teams.

Lucille Pullen and Rosemarie "Cookie" Willis were chosen this week as Northville's delegates to the National Senior Round-up of Girl Scouts to be held at Haven Hill, Highland, Michigan.

Out of a city of approximately 1,500 qualified voters, seven persons attended the charter commission meeting Monday, November 28 in the Northville high school gym.

John Faulkner, longtime Novi and Walled Lake resident, died at an Ann Arbor hospital as a result of injuries suffered in an automobile accident on Novi road.

Novi Police Chief Lee BeGole was elected commander of the Novi AmVets Perry Kenner Post 76.

Because of an alleged "inadvertent mistake" in a legal description, a Novi farmer, Harold W. Witt and his wife, Eula, of 29686 Wittom road, were named defendants in a $100,000 suit filed by Ford Motor company in U.S. district court.

The village flag flew at half-mast over the week end in honor of Pfc. James A. Reid, M.P., of Fairbrook road, who is reported to have died June 12 while on duty overseas.

Four members of one family are serving with the armed forces. They are Pvt. Gordon Killeen, S/Sgt. Alvin, S 1/C George and Pvt. John.

Fire broke out in the Clyde Schoultz home, corner of Cady and First streets. The Northville fire department responded to the call and the flames were extinguished before they could spread throughout the front of the house.

Pfc. Bruce Turnbull arrived home last Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with his wife and family.

Sgt. Benny Zayti, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Zayti of Garfield road received his discharge from Camp Atterbury, Indiana.

Fred Walker, veteran of World War II, has been named adjutant of Lloyd H. Green Post, American Legion.

An unusual home accident occurred here Thanksgiving afternoon in the W. A. Foreman place on West Seven Mile road. The furnace exploded, causing considerable damage.

Yellow Pages Out

Michigan Bell Telephone company will begin delivery of its new area Yellow Pages in Northville and Novi and in four other communities next Tuesday, announced Hughes C. Bronaugh, manager here for the company.

The other communities receiving the new directory are Farmington, Garden City, Livonia and Plymouth. Approximately 83,600 copies of the Yellow Pages will be delivered in these communities, a growth of nearly 12,000 over last year.

"The new directory is the one which should be used when looking up classified headings and listings because it reflects the additions and changes which have occurred since the last area directory was issued," Bronaugh said.

He added that when the new directory arrives, the old one will be picked up.

With seven cast principals, a 43-member chorus, and 12 dancers, the Musket (Michigan Union Show, K-O-E-ds too) musical will describe the meteoric rise to fortune of an Arabian beggar-poet named Hajj. Here is the answer to one of the many questions veterans ask when they are asked to join the American Legion: Give me a reason why?

1. Honorable Service: The button of the American Legion testifies to your honorable service during World War I and II and the Korean conflict.

2. Rehabilitation: Every member helps toward providing adequate care and protection for the disabled of World War I and II and the Korean conflict.

3. Child Welfare: Every member helps to carry out the child welfare program through which the organization stands in place of the father to thousands of needy orphans.

4. Americanism: By being a member the veteran gives full support to the principals of Americanism.

5. National Security: Every member will help the organization in attaining its goal for an adequate national defense to insure the nation against attack.

6. Camradship with men and women from every branch of service and the renewal of old friends.

To the members of Lloyd H. Green Post No. 147, it's up to you and I as members of the American Legion to point out these facts to veterans and to let them know we want them as members of our post, tell them what we do. Make them want to be members of the American Legion.

Ford's Christmas Fantasy at Rotunda

The Santa Claus residence at the North Pole, usually seen only in the dreams of good little boys and girls, is re-created at the eighth annual Christmas Fantasy which opened Saturday at the Ford Rotunda in Dearborn.

Billed as Santa's Wonderland, the make-believe village has just about everything youngsters see in their "dream visits" to this land of enchantment. Animated elves man the manufacturing assembly line for toys. Santa himself is seated in his castle, ready to take his young friends' Christmas orders. A candy kitchen and bakery operates toy workers. Wooden soldiers guard the castle gate.

Nearby are Wee Willie Winkie and several of his friends from fairy-tale land, including an animated Humpty Dumpty perched atop a brick wall. All the king's men are standing by in case Humpty topples to the ground.

Elsewhere in the Rotunda are most of the other popular items in Santa's line of merchandise — dolls, bicycles, trains and Christmas cards from all over the world. Animated jungle animals are housed in mobile cages with peppermint sticks for bars. A live, 40-foot-tall Christmas tree glistens with 15,000 colored lights.

Among the dolls on display are 2,000 dressed by the Ford Girls club for distribution by the Goodfellows to underprivileged children.

As usual, cartoons are shown in the Rotunda auditorium during the Fantasy.

At the entrance to the Rotunda's center court, the mood changes to the religious theme of Christmas. A cathedral facade with carillon music ringing from 40-foot spires adorns the court's entrance. Inside is a Nativity scene with life-size figures of the Holy Family, the Wise Men and their camels, and shepherds with their sheep. A silhouette of the town of Bethlehem is in the background. An organ alongside the Nativity scene provides Christmas music.

Rotunda hours for the Christmas Fantasy are 8:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily. The special exhibition ends at 3 p.m. December 24, when the Rotunda will close for the Christmas holiday.

More than 651,000 persons saw last year's Christmas show, raising to almost 4,400,000 the total attendance for the seven Fantasy productions.

SPEAKING

for the Record

By Bill Sliger

It has been a general rule of the "Speaking" column to confine its comments to strictly local issues that by reason of direct contact a special knowledge has been gained to give qualification to our remarks.

This week, however, a release came to our desk that touched upon a subject close to our heart. It has no connection with any area organization.

But upon deeper consideration it is evident that this issue IS local and as important to every single individual as the devotion he holds for the basic principles upon which our nation was built.

The release in part reads as follows:

The United States Catholic bishops have issued a statement after their annual meeting in Washington emphasizing the importance of the individual. The bishops say the great need of our country is to stress individual responsibility. The 227 Catholic leaders maintain that our national characteristics of individual responsibility and initiative are under heavy pressure. They say uniformity of thought is "too often encouraged and rewarded" in industrial corporations, labor unions, and political parties. "A strong and responsible nation" — the statement continues — "is fashioned by responsible persons, not group pressures."

The bishops say a sense of personal responsibility comes from deep religious convictions. In appealing for action, the Catholic bishops ask the individual American to assume as his proud right the accomplishment of what he can do for himself and for others. Such an action — the bishops say — will cure the mental lethargy and inertia which permit organizations to usurp, mainly by default, the rights of their members.

These words "individual responsibility" and "initiative" — and "assume as his proud right the accomplishment of what he can do for himself" are terribly important. And I am heartened that Americans with the influence of these 227 Catholic bishops propose a program of action to restore virtues, which I fear have passed out of style.

I second their motion — and would call upon our political leaders at home, in Lansing and Washington, D.C., to conduct a "do for yourself" campaign with the same gusto the government has undertaken to sell its war, defense and savings bonds.

This is more important than all the money in the world; it just might ward off a decay from within that would leave us more horribly scarred and useless than the most deadly atomic bombs and missiles.

I cannot believe that we have become so helpless that both our major political parties must find it necessary to out-promise one another in social legislation to win our vote.

We have an obligation to help provide for those unfortunate who, for some reason or other, cannot provide for themselves. But it should not be our goal to build this minority into a majority and remove all desire or necessity for one to provide for one's self.

There are great areas in education, medical aid and research and assistance to under-developed countries where the federal government must play a key role and spend heavily.

But personal responsibility starts with the individual and should move from there to the head of the family, the employer, the local government, the state and finally the federal government.

I fear this order has been reversed.

And I cannot subscribe to the theory so often heard: "socialism is bound to come, there's nothing we can do about it."

As responsible individuals, we can fight it.

The State Issues

ANY NUMBER of issues could make the 1961-62 session of the Michigan Legislature the liveliest in years. Perhaps three stand out above the others:

From where in the state to elect the extra Congressman Michigan became entitled to after the 1960 census.

What to do about the overall tax muddle?

Provisions to bring about a constitutional convention if one is approved by voters at the spring election.

Add to these the routine and recurrent problems such as appropriations and pork barrel legislation and you have the makings of a session that could out-do the year-long "cash crisis" session of 1959 for fireworks.

Both Republicans and Democrats, of course, want the new Congressman to be of their political faith.

Because of Michigan's rural-urban split, the area which is given the right to elect the new Congressman will pretty much determine what party he represents. Either party can make a pretty good case for at least one or two areas where it is stronger.

One obvious solution would be to split one of the highly populous areas of Wayne county.

This would almost certainly give the seat to the Democrats.

Two other suggestions affecting southeast Michigan although not Wayne county would very possibly result in Republicans claiming the seat for one of their members. One plan would detach Macomb county from the Seventh district, which also stretches up into the thumb.

Democrat James G. O'Hara of Utica holds this seat, and while he would probably hold the new Macomb county seat, a Republican would have an excellent chance in the newly created district.

The other suggestion calls for division of populous Oakland county, presently represented by Republican William S. Broomfield, into two parts.

While Democrats would stand a fairly good chance of electing a representative from a divided 18th, Republicans would almost certainly retain Broomfield and it seems likely a second Congressman of his party would be swept into office with him.

Theoretically, each Congressman should represent the same number of people.

Many Democrats insist that some of the spacious but sparsely populated congressional districts of northern Michigan, now all represented in Washington by Republicans, should be consolidated.

With the GOP dominating the state senate and holding a one-seat edge in the state house of representatives, this is unlikely.

There is a possibility that a complete redistricting could be attempted to bring populations into line with each other among the districts. However, Republicans don't want to lose any of their 11 seats and would like to gain another. Democrats will insist they are entitled to their seven seats and should get the new one.

ANOTHER PROBLEM that could lead to bitter wrangling — both inter-party and intra-party — is taxes.

Though a problem nearly every year, revenue for the state will be even more pressing in the upcoming session because of the aftermath of the cash crisis.

Voting a penny hike in the sales tax as approved by the people could make little difference in the legislative tax squabble.

While Republicans may hold out for the food and sales tax and nothing else, considerable agitation among members of both parties for a general tax revision and the burden of the tax fall more equitably.

If the tax picture is touched up, the sales tax will still be the focus of attention.

Any adjustments would be made in the subsidiary and auxiliary taxes which are imposed on special groups or special types of transactions. This would mean special interest forces would fight hard for advantage.

CON-CON PROBLEMS can be expected to haunt lawmakers for some time to come.

Not only must they provide for the means of selecting the delegates to a Con-Con, they must make provision for a place to hold one and vote the money to pay for it — estimated at better than $2 million.

The thorny question of whether to nominate candidates for Con-Con delegates in party convention, party primary or non-partisan primary could by itself be dynamite.

Recalcitrant lawmakers could, by dragging their feet, put a serious hitch in Con-Con plans even if voters give quick approval right down the line.

Roger Babson

When to Strike

Babson Park, Mass. — I am greatly relieved to hear that the threatened newspaper strike in New York City has been called off. I believe that labor is entitled to strike provided only the employer is hurt. But, for labor to use its power to harm the public is morally, economically and politically wrong.

For the employees in a large department store in New York to strike for higher wages or better working conditions is perhaps justifiable, as there are enough other good stores in New York City to supply the goods needed. For example, if the employees of Macy's should strike, only the union or the owners of Macy's would be hurt. On the other hand, if the employees of the company which supplies electricity to New York — or to any other city — should strike, it would be a crime. In fact, every household would suffer so badly, especially in winter, that the people would rise en masse and demand a special session of the State legislature to put the militia in to run the plant.

In reality, every newspaper is a public utility in which the public is vitally interested; this especially applies to cities with only one newspaper. Labor's argument that the people could get a paper for some adjoining city is not sound. This would not help the local merchant.

The present anti-trust laws appear to exempt labor unions. They certainly should be amended so that they would apply to newspaper workers or to labor in any other business that could be classified as a public utility.

Many states voted two weeks ago on "right-to-work" legislation. I have not tabulated the final decisions, and in many states such legislation must be approved by the courts.

The point of conflict is the "closed shop," so to speak. Labor leaders insist that in order for anyone to work in a unionized mill he must be a union member, and in some cases they insist the employer collect the dues for the union.

Some states have already passed right-to-work laws making the "closed shop" illegal. Indirectly, this right-to-work problem is mixed up with civil rights on the theory that the Negro vote is much interested in that subject. Investigation, however, shows me that the Negro vote is divided on this. Certainly, the colored vote is becoming constantly more important. In this connection it should be remembered that some of our best baseball players are Negroes. Also, in the recent Olympic games at Rome a Negro girl from Clarksville, Tennessee brought home three medals.

The "right to compete" there depended solely upon qualification for the races. This should be equally true of industry and the right to work.

From a statistical standpoint, of course, employers would appear to be fighting a losing game. At every state or national election the wage-workers are in the majority and may be aroused to "bite the hand that feeds them." A consistent leveling has been going on for some years; and it is still rapidly taking place through inheritance taxes, labor unions, and benefits to special groups. This is especially true under a system wherein everyone has an equal vote whether he is a college president or a street sweeper.

But to get back to the threatened New York newspaper strike that was called off: Such a strike at any time of year would be very unfair to the people of New York, but to have it come just at the Christmas season would cause a tremendous loss to all parties.

I am not yet prepared to vote for compulsory arbitration, but I believe that certain regulatory legislation — including a time for striking — should become law immediately. For instance, the unions in the fuel oil business should not be allowed to strike in the wintertime. Likewise, it would be unfair for employers to be allowed to operate lockouts during the wintertime.

I certainly hope there will be no more newspaper strikes anywhere. Surely the existing legislation covering railroad strikes could be applied equally well to newspaper strikes. This column appeals for justice for all concerned — and this includes all readers whether they are employers, or wage-workers, or other consumers.
