

Police Calls To Township Worry City

City councilmen took a close look at their police department record Monday night and decided that policy governing calls from the township needs reviewing.

Specifically, Councilman Earl Reed called for a joint meeting of the council and township board to discuss the matter of police protection.

The issue came to the attention of the council following a call from the township last week involving a man who was beating his wife. Fearing serious injury to the woman, city police answered the call.

When police arrived the man was armed with a deer rifle.

Mrs. Haass Dies Suddenly In Florida

Private funeral services were held in Detroit Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. Robert Haass, 44 prominent, life-long Northville resident.

Mrs. Haass died Saturday at the Haass' winter home in Golden Beach, Florida.

Mrs. Haass had suffered a broken hip in August. Her death was attributed to a blood clot in the heart possibly originating from the hip injury. Her body was discovered in the kitchen by her husband.

The Haass' family residence is on Six Mile road and Mr. Haass is owner of Farm Crest Farms Dairy located on their 1,000-acre farm here.

Mrs. Haass is also a director of the Goebel Brewing company. Mrs. Haass was the former Evelyn Grennan, daughter of Philip and Estelle Johnson Grennan. She was born in Detroit, February 29, 1917. The late Mr. Grennan was the president of Grennan Bakeries. Mrs. Haass was an active horsewoman and had won many trophies as a member of the Bloomfield Hunt club.

She was a member of the First Presbyterian church in Northville and in Florida.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by a daughter, Patricia, 20; a son, Robert, Jr., (Randy), 16; and a brother, Paul Grennan.

Services were held at the William R. Hamilton company funeral home with interment at Woodlawn cemetery.

Police Chief Eugene King pointed out that city police have no jurisdiction in the township and must volunteer for such calls at their own risk.

City Attorney Philip Ogilvie also stated that city police have no authority in the township, thereby risking possible suits if any arresting action is taken.

In a report to the council Chief King stated that city police received 135 township calls in 1960. Fifteen of these calls were considered "emergency" and therefore answered by a patrol car. Strictly speaking, city policy is that local police cannot answer township calls.

Chief King noted that most township residents do not recognize these limitations on city police and often become "provoked" when their appeals for help are declined. Such calls are referred to state police and Wayne county sheriff's patrol.

On Tuesday Township Supervisor George Clark, when informed of the proposed meeting, indicated his board would be agreeable to a joint session.

Presumably, the two bodies will seek some answer to handle emergency police calls in the township.

In other business Monday night the council decided to invoke a $50 per day penalty on a construction firm for being eight days late in completing the paving of the Methodist church parking lot. Only Councilman John Canterbury voted against the measure — he favored the full penalty as called for in the contract, $100 per day.

Plymouth Township Says 'No' to Heights

By an overwhelming vote of 1,589 to 35 the proposed city charter was turned down.

Plymouth township voters approved incorporation as a city in 1959, but by defeating the charter they have indicated a preference to remain a township.

The results were not surprising. The original 1959 vote was conceded to have gained support only to give the township protection for two years from possible annexations of township land to the city of Plymouth.

POLICE AND ambulance attendants worked nearly 30 minutes to remove the body of A. W. Plummer from his car shortly after 7 a.m. Wednesday morning after it had been struck by a diesel freight train at the Seven Mile road crossing in Northville. Plummer, a painting contractor from Plymouth, was enroute to work in Birmingham when the tragedy occurred (See picture, page 12).

Car-Train Crash Kills Plymouthite At Crossing Here

A 59-year-old Plymouth motorist was killed instantly Wednesday morning when a south-bound freight train smashed into his car at the corner of Seven Mile and Northville roads — just outside of the Northville city limits.

The dead man was identified as A. W. Plummer, 14000 Ridge road, Plymouth township.

Plummer was headed east on Seven Mile just after turning the corner when the huge diesel engine plowed into the side of his car at 7:05 a.m., state police said.

A police officer reported that a witness directly behind Plummer's car stated that Plummer had stopped at the crossing, then pulled slowly onto the tracks as if the driver had fallen asleep.

Witness and the train engineer also testified that the blinker lights were in working order.

A painting contractor, Plummer was enroute to work in Birmingham.

The car, which was completely demolished, was pushed down the track for nearly three-quarters of a mile before the engineer was able to stop the train.

Plummer's decapitated body was pinned inside the crumpled car. Police and Fred Casterline, ambulance driver, worked for more than 30 minutes to free the body from the twisted wreckage.

The car was so badly damaged that police simply rolled it down the high railway embankment which parallels Northville road.

Traffic along Seven Mile road was held up for more than an hour because the long train stretched across the highway. Motorists accustomed to using the Seven Mile road route to Detroit were detoured to Six Mile road.

Plummer is survived by his wife and two married children, one of Plymouth and one of North Carolina, and six grandchildren. Funeral services will be conducted from the Schrader Funeral Home in Plymouth on Saturday.

The last fatal train accident in this area occurred at the C&O crossing on Novi road nearly ten years ago.

County Plans 8-Mile Paving To Haggerty

With the new Eight Mile road cut-off circling Northville completed less than three months the Wayne county road commission has announced that it is ready to undertake the next step in its scheduled improvement of Eight Mile road to Haggerty road.

The Wayne-Oakland county line road is slated to be widened and paved this year, county road commission officials stated.

Specifically, county plans call for a 24-foot concrete road. The project, exclusive of right-of-way costs, is estimated at $450,000.

County appraisers have already inspected the area although land purchases have not been negotiated.

How soon construction gets underway is dependent upon negotiations with property owners.

Presently the county owns a 66-foot right-of-way in most stretches along the road. A 120-foot wide right-of-way will be sought.

According to Frank Beach, assistant planning engineer, the county will acquire 60 feet on each side of the county line — the center of Eight Mile road.

While the road itself will be widened only four feet, road shoulders will be extended from their present two-to-four foot widths to the normal 10-foot widths, Beach stated.

Badly gutted and patched, the bituminous-on-gravel surface will be replaced with concrete surfacing. The wider shoulders will permit cars to pull off the road in case of trouble, Beach pointed out.

Although no definite schedule has been set, it has been indicated that the project would be continued eastward from Haggerty to Farmington road within the near future.

The improvement will make Eight Mile road a major highway to and from Detroit with direct and speedier access to Grand River and the James Couzens - John Lodge expressway.

Presumably, it would become a popular route for motorists living north and west of Northville.

Within the past two years Northville has been the hub of a number of county road improvements.

In addition to the new bypass, Novi road to Grand River has been widened and paved; Edward Hines parkway drive was resurfaced; and the Northville road curve was removed and the road widened and paved.

Tax Deadlines Confusing, but Collections Up

While area communities may differ on the deadline date for payment of school, county and township taxes without penalty, taxpayers are responding by paying promptly.

Deadline for city residents to pay school and county taxes without the four percent penalty is February 15. Township residents have until February 28.

In Novi township the treasurer has set February 15 as the final day; and in the city of Wixom the treasurer has stated that it is unlawful to extend the deadline beyond January 20.

Despite the uncertainty of deadlines, city residents have already paid $234,740.99 of the total $377,338.65 roll.

In the township the percentage is nearly as high with $196,190.79 paid of the total roll of $363,000.

City residents may pay their taxes at the city hall during regular office hours. Township Treasurer Roy Terrill will be at the Manufacturers National Bank Northville offices on Tuesdays and Fridays until the February 28 deadline to accept payments.

Mark's Okay Following Operation

Mark Thompson, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip (Jack) Thompson of 333 Debra Lane, is recovering nicely this week from open heart surgery performed last Thursday at University hospital in Ann Arbor.

The delicate operation was termed successful and closed a one-inch size oval hole in the center of Mark's heart.

What's more, the Thompsons, newcomers to the Northville area, learned this week that the 15 pints of blood used in Mark's operation would be replaced from the Northville community blood bank.

Mrs. Arthur Carlson, chairman of the local Red Cross branch, stated that there would be no charge for the blood and that recipients had only to agree to work in behalf of the next blood-mobile to help replace the blood in order to keep a sufficient supply for the community.

The Thompsons had received their blood donation from the Southfield P-TA through the cooperation of the Lions club.

"Mark's doing wonderful and has even been on his feet. We hope he'll be home within 10 days — we're so thankful," echoed the Thompsons.

New Tri-Level Rail Carriers Doom Area Truck Terminals

The introduction of a new means of transporting Thunderbird automobiles from the Wixom Lincoln-Mercury plant has provided a dual impact on area industry.

While Paragon Bridge and Steel company in Novi has benefited from a contract to build the tri-level structural steel carriers, two truck transport firms announced this week that they will close their Wixom road terminals because of the resulting loss of business.

Automobile Transport, Inc., located on a 20-acre site directly across Wixom road from the Lincoln plant, is closing its $500,000 terminal this week. E. H. Massey, vice president and general manager of the firm, said that his company had lost approximately 70 percent of its Thunderbird business due to the switch to rail transportation.

"We employed 65 in our shop and office and used 250 trucks out of our Wixom terminal. Now we can handle this business with 50 trucks, which will be stationed at our Wayne terminal," Massey stated.

The story is exactly the same for the E & L Transport company. Its terminal is located on Wixom road across the expressway from the giant automobile plant. Located on a 90-acre site, the terminal has been headquarters for some 300 drivers, mechanics and office employees.

E&L expects to vacate the terminal next week and will handle Thunderbird business from its Dearborn terminal.

Both terminals were constructed in 1957. The companies have no present plans for use of the buildings.

Other trucking companies throughout the country are facing the same problems.

Railroads, on the other hand, are experiencing giant strides in business because of the revolutionary tri-level automobile carriers and piggyback flatcars. Long-run rail transportation is considerably less expensive than trucking.

The Paragon Bridge and Steel company in Novi is one of five companies in the United States with a contract to construct the tri-level carriers. And although Paragon officials report the company's contract is nearly fulfilled, Paragon hopes to secure additional contracts.

A tri-level carrier looks like a flat-car with an open steel framework containing three decks. A steel flap or ramp between the carriers permits automobiles to be driven from one end of the train to the other.

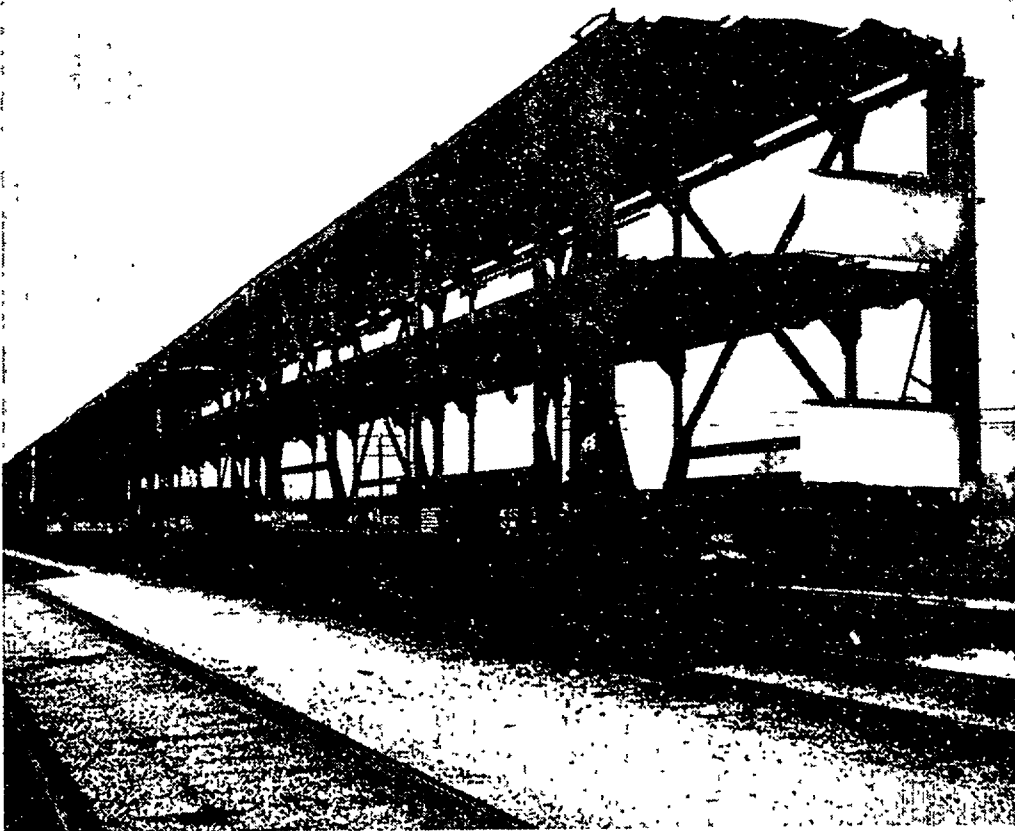

Fully loaded with cars parked on the top deck, trains are limited as to where they may travel since the top automobiles will not clear some overpasses. This is not a problem when only the bottom two decks are used.

Four long loading docks currently are under construction at the Lincoln plant in anticipation of the new carrier system. The docks are nearly completed, and a new office building is expected to be completed within two months.

Each of the four railroad spurs will accommodate a long string of carrier cars. The end car on each spur is backed up to the loading platform where a giant automatic machine permits loading of cars on any of the three decks of the carriers.

This machine, which contains a single ramp that raises to the level of the carrier decks, also moves sideways from one railroad spur to another. It is mounted on a track.

The overall size of the loading dock area will be 700x1000 feet. The contractor is Darin & Armstrong of Detroit.

BEGINNING MARKS END — Introduction of the new tri-level rail carriers is spelling the doom and a boom for four area businesses — not to mention its affect on the railroad. For Paragon Bridge and Steel in Novi, which manufactures the carriers, and for the Lincoln-Mercury plant in Wixom, which will utilize the innovation, the rail carriers mean increased production or tremendous savings. Paradoxically, the carriers are forcing two trucking transport companies, E & L Transport and Automotive Transport, Inc., to close their facilities located next to the Lincoln plant.

A NEW SEMESTER — Registration for adult education opened here Monday and Tuesday for the second semester. Introduced just last fall, the adult education program is offering a six-course curriculum this semester. Persons who failed to register this week may do so at the first classes on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thomas, 45189 Mayo drive, who were members of the first semester art course, are shown above re-enrolling for the semester. The art teacher, Miss Elizabeth Pierce, is pictured at the left.

Order Marks 75th Year Of Helping Less Fortunate

(Editor's Note — Mrs. William Canfield, member and past officer of the Mizpah Circle of the King's Daughters documented historical data and other background material for this article.)

The national order of King's Daughters marked the 75th anniversary of its founding last Friday, January 13.

Organized in 1886 by 10 women of four different religious denominations, the order was first made known by its founder and first president, Mrs. Margaret Bottome, through her religious column in the "Ladies' Home Journal".

"Ask the Saviour to help you, comfort, strengthen and keep you; He is willing to aid you; He will carry you through." These were the favorite words of Mrs. Bottome, and they influenced to a great degree her life of service for others.

She carried this sentiment to the organization she founded and urged each member to do the work nearest at hand — to "lend a hand" whenever the Master called.

The object of the order was "spiritual development" and members were encouraged to look after little things that count — acts of kindness to the poor, sick and sorrowful. Today these small acts of kindness have grown into hospitals, homes, nurseries, camps and libraries; until 89 institutions carry the name of the order.

The Mizpah Circle of Northville, organized in May of 1895, carries on the tradition of the order, helping those in need by buying shoes, coats and clothing for needy school children and by furnishing emergency orders of food.

King's Daughters here remembered 25 shut-ins this Christmas with fruit plates. They gave food baskets and toys to 19 needy families. Beyond this local work, the King's Daughters have a responsibility to Camp Missaukee (where two girls are sent each year), the King's Daughters and Sons home in Redford and the crippled children at University of Michigan hospital.

Funds are received by the Mizpah Circle from the United Foundation, the offering of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches' joint Good Friday service, their annual spring luncheon and donations from interested individuals.

Mrs. Elden Biery is chairman of the local circle.

NEWCOMER'S CORNER

"I look upon every day to be lost, in which I do not make a new acquaintance."

—Samuel Johnson

HE CAME BACK — Ben Duguid hadn't lived in Northville since the early '40's, when he left his hometown to go to college. Late in November, however, he returned here with his wife, Therese, a son, David, and three daughters, (l. to r.) Kathryn, Karen and Marilyn. They're living at 46229 Vesta lane.

A former Northville resident returned to his hometown November 28, and it looks like he's planning to stay awhile.

Stewart (better known to acquaintances as "Ben") Duguid, his wife, Therese, and their four youngsters have moved into a new home at 46229 Vesta Lane. Their last home was in Redford township, where they lived for nine years.

Space — inside and out — prompted the family's move, said Mrs. Duguid. "We needed a bigger house and a bigger yard," she explained. The couple have three daughters — Kathryn, 9, Karen, 6, and Marilyn, 4, — and a son, David, 1.

Their new home, a four-bedroom farm colonial dwelling, is in the Taft Colony subdivision.

Adult Camera Club Elects New Officers

Northville Adult Camera club members and guests saw the colorful scenery of "Autumn in New England" — as recorded on the slides of Elizabeth Hoose, Mildred Young, Audrey Joki and Harriet Gibson — at their meeting January 11.

New officers elected for the coming club year are: Joe Straub, president; Mildred Young, vice president; Harriet Gibson, secretary, and Lucille McLaughlin, treasurer.

The club will meet next at 7:45 p.m. on Wednesday, January 25, in the public library. Results of assignment "Shots Around Northville" will be shown.

Plymouth Clubwomen Slate Benefit Feb. 6

The Plymouth Woman's club will hold its annual benefit at 12:30 p.m. on February 6 in the Knights of Columbus hall, 38050 Schoolcraft road.

Called a "Rainbow Fantasy", this year's benefit includes a dessert bridge and a style show by Harvi's of Farmington.

Among the charities that will receive proceeds from the benefit are the Northville State hospital, United Fund, Plymouth Symphony, Pennies for Art and Girls' State.

General Chairman Mrs. W. Hall Bailey, 285 Fair, is being assisted by Mrs. Ralph Carter, co-chairman; Mrs. F. Donald Sober, decorations; Mrs. Robert Fisher, table prizes; Mrs. Max Brillhart, properties; Mrs. Eugene Jordan, dessert; Mrs. Arthur Larson, publicity; Mrs. E. C. Robinson, tickets. KITCHEN DIARY

Team Meat Balls 'n Noodles

A culinary tip was extended this week to all housewives on the look-out for new ways to cook ground beef. The recipe idea — contrived to rescue ground beef from its "just plain hamburger" doldrums — belongs to Mrs. Richard Talbot of 40160 Fairway III drive. It's for meat balls and noodles.

She's already tried it out, with results, on her family. The Talbots have two sons, Ricky, 12, and Peter, 2.

For the cookie clique, Mrs. Talbot suggests an oatmeal cookie with a chocolate top. They stay fresh long, says the housewife.

MEAT BALLS AND NOODLES

Mrs. Richard Talbot

1 lb. ground beef
2 slices bread
1 small onion (chopped)
1 egg
1 can cream of chicken soup
1 can milk
Salt and pepper to taste

Philippines Professor Talks to Women Here

A history professor from the University of the Philippines told Alpha Nu chapter members of Delta Kappa Gamma about the education of women in the Philippines at the chapter's meeting Monday evening, January 9.

Miss Josefa Saniel, presently working on her PhD dissertation at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, sketched the history of higher education in the island nation and discussed the role of women in that country.

The program was arranged by Miss Diana Lance and Miss Ada Fritz. Mrs. Myrtle Funk, hostess, and her co-hostesses, Miss Florence Panatoni and Mrs. Edith Renwick, served refreshments.

During the business meeting presided over by Mrs. Eva Donovan, Delta Kappa Gamma president, plans were made for the chapter's February 13 dinner meeting at Hillside Inn.

"What is Truth?" is a vital question to be considered at Christian Science services Sunday.
Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon on the subject of "Truth" will include this reassuring statement: "I will cry unto God most high; unto God that performeth all things for me. He shall send from heaven, and save me from the reproach of him that would swallow me up. God shall send forth his mercy and his truth" (Psalms 57:
2-3).

The importance of prayer in understanding Truth is emphasized in this citation to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (11:27-31): "Prayer cannot change the unalterable Truth, nor can prayer alone give us an understanding of Truth; but prayer, coupled with a fervent habitual desire to know and do the will of God, will bring us into all Truth."

THE COMMUNION OF SAINTS

The Communion of Saints means the union that exists between all the members of the Church — a union of love and mutual assistance. All are included in this union, whether they are members of the Church Militant, the Church Suffering, or the Church Triumphant — forming, as it does, one big family with Christ as its Head.

This union is a fellowship and a sharing in all the external goods of the Church; the same Faith, the same Baptism, the same Eucharist, the same Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, the same Sacraments, the same public prayers and religious functions.

It is also a sharing in the internal goods: everyone shares in the good done by the other members, whether it be by the faithful on earth or the Saints in Heaven.

Hence, like a vast fraternal organization with all its members sharing the benefits thereof, the Masses, prayers, the corporal and spiritual works of mercy performed by all the members of the Church bring benefits to individual members.

While it is true that the Church is One, and we are all members of one big family, we divide the Church into three groups to better understand the threefold Communion that takes place, on earth, in Purgatory, and in Heaven.

All Christians still on this earth belong to the Church Militant. It is called "militant" because, like soldiers, we are still in the battle of life, striving each day to win the fight against the world, the flesh and the devil.

The Church Suffering is made up of the souls in Purgatory. They are paying the penalty for not having fought militantly enough, while they were on earth. They are expiating their sins and negligence of duty.

Rt. Rev. Archie H. Crowley

Bishop Crowley to Officiate
At Episcopal Confirmation

The Rt. Reverend Archie H. Crowley, Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Michigan, has been designated to administer the rite of confirmation to a class of over 50 persons at St.
John's Episcopal church, Plymouth.

The service will take place at 4 p.m. Sunday, January 22. Presenting the class for "The Laying on of Hands" will be the Rev. David T.
Davies, rector of St. John's parish.
A reception will follow the service.

Bishop Crowley, besides his work in diocesan administration, is a member of the Joint Commission on Society and Alcohol of the National Council of the Episcopal church. He is also working on the Citizen's Advisory Committee on Equal Public Accommodations of the Detroit Commission on Community Relations as well as the Michigan Commission on Aging. He is president of the American Indian foundation.

St. John's parishioners elected three new vestrymen at the annual church meeting held Wednesday,

January 11. Harry J. Christensen,
Richard Dunlop and Ernest Ebert,
Jr. were chosen to serve three-year terms on the vestry. Leaving office were John F. Eley, Robert C. Utter and Mrs. James E. Hardimon, who was serving out the term of her late husband.

The vestrymen later elected Richard LaMirand, senior warden; Ernest Ebert, Jr., junior warden; Donald Vanderveen, treasurer; Roland
Bonamici, secretary.

Reporting to the congregation,
Rev. Davies cited the building of the new church and parish house (dedicated last September) in his survey of the year's significant accomplishments.

Colts Lose 4th Game In 7 Starts

An icy first quarter handcuffed Northville's junior varsity quintet Friday as West Bloomfield waltzed to an easy 52-44 victory.

Northville cagers came up with only four charity points in the back-breaking first period, while West Bloomfield bombed the net for 16 points.

The Colts cut West Bloomfield's lead to six points by the intermission, but West Bloomfield bounced back with 16 points to Northville's 12 points in the third stanza.

Northville outscored the opponents in the final period, but the damage was too great — and the Colts were handed their fourth loss in seven starts this season.

Guard Tom Daniels took scoring laurels for Northville with four field goals and five charity shots. Center Dick Bathey was close behind with 10 points.

Guard Dan Arstead was the high scorer for West Bloomfield with 15 points.

Novi Cagers Lose

To St. Williams, 42-12

Novi and seventh and eighth graders teamed up against the Walled Lake St. Williams' cagers last Thursday, but to no avail.

Coach Gail Perkins explained that St. Williams' had no seventh grade squad, so he alternated his seventh and eighth grade teams against St. Williams.

The Novi seventh graders were held scoreless in the first quarter, 12-0, and in the second period, the eighth graders came up with six points. The score was 21-6 at the intermission.

Both Novi teams will host Dublin in a return match Tuesday evening at the Novi community building. The games will get underway at 6:30 p.m.

Mustang Wrestlers

Meet Warren Lincoln

Warren Lincoln will invade Northville tonight for a wrestling dual with the Mustangs.

The match will start at 7:30 in the high school gymnasium.

Last week Northville dropped both of its matches, 38-11 to Flat Rock on Wednesday, and 39-11 to Redford Union on Thursday.

Disappointed, but not discouraged, Coach Dave Longridge explained that his squad was far less experienced than either Flat Rock or Redford.

Point winners against both squads last week were: Gary Nichols, Dave Hay, Russ Nichols and Rick Rebitzke, all decided their opponents; and Jim Tuck and Jerry Biddle scored pins over their opponents.

Next Tuesday the Mustangs will battle the Hazel Park reserves at Hazel Park.

Cheers of partisan West Bloomfield fans were drowned in a valanche of Northville screams at Keego Harbor Friday night as the Mustangs nipped the Lakers, 61-59, in a thrilling cage contest that was not decided until the last 15 seconds of the game.

The heart-throbbing victory, which brought screams of delight, congratulations and a few tears from Northville fans and players, boosted the Mustangs into a three-way tie for third place in the Wayne-Oakland League race.

A disappointed West Bloomfield team fell to a fourth-place tie with Brighton.

Eating the dust of the Lakers' offensive attack throughout most of the game, the Mustangs pulled up to within three points of West Bloomfield with less than four minutes to play.

Forward Steve Juday brought screaming fans to their feet at the three-minute mark, netting a beautiful side-court shot that tied the contest at 53-53.

Bob Sias, a red-hot guard for the Lakers, came back with a field goal of his own, and West Bloomfield jumped back into the lead, 55-53, with about 2½ minutes to play.

Northville added another two-point shot and West Bloomfield picked up a charity shot — and a one-point lead when the Lakers began a stall with less than two minutes to play.

Then with only 66 seconds to play, Northville's tall, lanky center, Dan Brown, stepped to the free throw line and added a point to give the Mustangs a one-point edge, 57-56. It was the first time Northville held the lead since the early minutes of the first quarter.

West Bloomfield grabbed a 58-57 point-lead with less than a minute to play, but Brown fired a push shot and Northville was back in the lead, 59-58.

At this point the crowd went wild. Sounds of the action, even the officials' whistles were no longer audible.

In the melee below the wild stands, Brown brushed an opponent and the officials sent Left Forward Gary Render of West Bloomfield to the foul line. Despite the pressure, Render looped the ball into the net — and the game was tied again, 59-59.

The clock was racing toward an over-time when West Bloomfield's center, Roger Hess, hacked Northville's center, Brown. At the 15-second mark the clock stopped and Brown took his position at the foul line.

Two shots and two points — and Northville was ahead, 61-59! West Bloomfield took possession and bombed the net, but the ball went wide of the mark.

The quarter scores were: 18-17 (Northville), 34-29 (Lakers) and 47-42 (Lakers).

Northville grabbed shooting honors, connecting on 24 of its 61 shots for a 40 percent record; West Bloomfield hit 21 of its 60 shots for a 35 percent record.

Brown, who picked up 29 points for the Mustangs, played his best game to date in high school competition, fired 19 times and scored 12 field goals for a 64 percent record.

Other leading Northville scorers: Juday, 7 for 14 for 50 percent, and Craig Bell, 4 for 7 for 57 percent.

Remaining members of the Northville squad shot 21 times, but made only one field goal.

West Bloomfield's leading scorer was Bob Sias with 26 points.

At the free throw line, Northville made 11 of its 19 shots for 58 percent, while West Bloomfield hit 19 of its 33 shots for 58 percent.

Holly Here Friday

A championship-bent, undefeated cage team will invade Northville tomorrow for the "game of the week" in the Wayne-Oakland league.

The game, which will get underway at 8 p.m., will pit first-place Holly against third-place Northville.

Although Northville's coach, Dutch Van Ingen won't make any predictions, he pushed his players through a rigorous schedule this week in an all-out effort to floor a winning team tomorrow.

Both Van Ingen and his cagers will have their hands full, however, in attempting to upset the high-flying Broncos. Holly will carry an impressive record to Northville: six victories without a defeat.

A win over Holly would strengthen Northville's third-place position — and possibly push the Mustangs into a tie for second place.

The latter possibility could be realized only if Northville wins tomorrow and second-place Milford is upset by last-place Clarenceville.

Currently, three teams are tied for third place: Northville, Clarkston and Bloomfield Hills. The Wolves are scheduled to clash with Brighton tomorrow, and Bloomfield Hills will invade West Bloomfield.

Brighton and West Bloomfield are tied for fourth place.

Among the players Holly will floor tomorrow will be Ron Morlan, the league leading scorer, MacKenzie, Enns, Hall, Kudej, Masten, Teague and McKeachie.

In their lone contest last season, Northville grabbed an early, slim lead over Holly, then pushed to the front by 7 points in the third period before the Broncos edged into the lead, 32-31, with two minutes left in the quarter.

Capitalizing on a successful full-court press, Holly pitched in several quick field goals to move out front 47-40 with six minutes to play in the final stanza. Disorganized and bewildered, the Mustangs were unable to recover and Holly claimed the victory, 64-52.

A HAPPY ENDING — Members of the Northville cheerleading team leap and scream with delight as Friday's heart-throbbing game between Northville and West Bloomfield ends with the Mustangs out-front, 61-59.

S.H. Thomson Band Group To Chairman

Members of the Northville Band Citizens committee met at the high school Thursday night to elect permanent officers for the coming year.

Stuart H. Thomson was elected chairman and Mrs. Shirlee Marshall retained her post as secretary. Mrs. Hazel Severance was requested to stay on as treasurer until completion of the band uniform drive. The group plans to eventually discontinue the treasurer's position.

The committee, first organized to solicit donations in the recent band uniform fund drive, also decided at the meeting to stand by until their help is needed on future band projects.

Thus far, some $8,200 has been collected in the drive to outfit the band with new uniforms. This is still about $2,000 short of the anticipated goal.

Donations are being accepted by Joseph Denton and Mrs. Hazel Severance for deposit in the Manufacturers bank.

Uniform bids submitted at a school board meeting earlier this month are being studied. Present plans call for the purchase of 125 uniforms in time for a spring concert.

Planners Can't Decide Zoning

Planning commissioners postponed a frequently-delayed zoning problem Monday night after they were unable to agree on a proposal to zone a parcel in the extreme northeast section of the city C-1 (local business district).

The two-acre parcel is owned by the D&R Building company, developers of Yerkes Estates subdivision. The developers have sought commercial zoning for the site; city council members have suggested manufacturing, commercial and residential.

Residents of the area prefer residential, but agree with the developers that it is not suitable for residential development. According to opinions of residents attending Tuesday's public hearing, they prefer commercial zoning to manufacturing.

Local merchants have opposed the zoning in the past saying it would hurt the present business district.

The land, annexed from Novi township, has not been assigned zoning by the city.

Planners will continue the hearing next Tuesday. All zoning recommendations must be approved by city council action.

Isbister to Explain Plymouth Fund Drive

Representatives to the Northville Coordinating Council will hear Russell Isbister, Plymouth superintendent of schools, discuss Plymouth's community fund program at their monthly city hall meeting tonight (Thursday).

The program begins at eight o'clock.

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO . . .
A plan for converting the Northville community building into a city hall was given preliminary study by the council.

A 21-year-old expectant mother and former Northville resident, died at St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor. According to the attending physician, Mrs. Betty June (Langford) Neely, died of pneumonia.

The circuit court suit brought against the village of Novi as a result of a Nine Mile road rezoning amendment was dismissed shortly before noon Wednesday.

City councilmen took a realistic look (from the council table) at Northville's streets and admitted that "something has to be done."

The examination began with a plea from Councilman Ed Welch that the council undertake a bond issue to pave, curb and gutter all unimproved city streets.

Representatives of the Northville Estates Civic association — seeking annexation of their township subdivision into the city of Northville — received moral support from three members of the city council.

Free rubbish and trash collection will be provided Novi village residents next month — on an experimental basis.

Council members voted unanimously to provide the service for one month, then weigh the success and cost of the program before deciding whether or not to make it permanent.

A suggestion that the name of the village of Novi be changed to Fieldbrook was submitted to the council.

FIVE YEARS AGO . . .

The recent argument over rezoning of the St. Lawrence property for race track use and permitting winter stabling at the new location appeared well on the road to settlement at the conclusion of the last city council meeting.

A Valentine dance sponsored by the Northville Rotary club is to be held at the Northville community building February 11, Chairman Walter Belasco announced.

Robert A. Niemi, Northville resident and general manager of the Burroughs corporation Plymouth division has been named chairman of Junior Achievement for the Plymouth-Northville-Livonia area, it was announced by Don E. Ahrens, General Motors vice president and president of the Board of Junior Achievement of Southeastern Michigan.

Northville Downs earned a profit of $103,045 in 1955 before income taxes and showed a higher rate of return on gross income than either Hazel Park Harness or Wolverine Raceway.

"$133,000 has been collected in township taxes during the past month," said Northville Township Treasurer Roy M. Terrill this week, "and that is unusually good." The tax roll totals $232,000.

Traditionally, the biggest money-maker for the March of Dimes in this area is the Mothers' March, scheduled to be conducted the last Thursday in January. Last year the Mothers, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Elden Biery, collected $1,200.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO . . .

An article written by Richard E. Shipley, a former Northville boy appeared in the December issue of the magazine "Plastics". Shipley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Shipley of Dunlap street.

The Ely & Sons Coal office building located near the P. M. depot was destroyed by fire early Monday afternoon.

The March of Dimes which started January 15 is headed locally by Nelson C. Schrader, Jr. and Fred Van Atta.

Sgt. Ralph L. Hay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hay of North Rogers, is one of 2,000 high-point army veterans whom the navy returned to the States aboard the USS Fayette, which left Saipan December 22.

A 15-minute time change in Pere Marquette morning and afternoon trains is in effect now, with corresponding earlier time for mail closing at the Northville post office.

Joyce Talmage and Marcia Sparling will play the accompaniments and Leslie G. Lee will direct the annual winter choral concert to be given by the high school glee club January 23.

The village commission had a business week. The city fathers voted to place a zoning ordinance before the people at the spring election, asked for bids for a new furnace for the Scout building and requested the County Road Commission to asphalt Main street from Rogers to help eliminate noise; and the matter of alleys in the business district was discussed.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Fire completely destroyed the eight-room brick veneer grade school building in Northville early Monday morning.

It is believed that sparks from the chimney caught in the cupola on the roof and caused the conflagration which could not be controlled in the high wind. Flames from the building were discovered at 5 a.m. by Miss Constance Lee, a nurse at the Sessions hospital, located across the street, who immediately notified the fire department.

Although the amount of the damage has not been determined, Supt. R. H. Amerman is of the opinion that the $41,000 insurance protection carried on the building and equipment will cover the loss. Only a few black boards, desks and chairs were salvaged.

The building, which was built in 1907, has long been looked upon as a fire hazard. After the state fire inspector's report on the condition of the structure had been filed in the spring of 1935, it was found necessary to install new fire escapes in order to meet approval of the department.

All of the local churches offered rooms which might be used by the school system. It was finally arranged to place the pupils in the American Legion hall, the Lapham State Bank and the Richardson building on Main street in an effort to centralize the grades as much as possible.

Thomas Raymond Carrington of Northville is included in the list of nominations to the United States Naval Academy announced this week by Congressman George A. Dondero.

She Sent Nixon Election Regrets; He Wrote Back

When Vice President Richard M. Nixon lost the photo-finish race to the highest office in the land last fall, few Americans felt sorrier than Sonia Clark, eighth grader at St. Paul's Lutheran school here.

Thirteen-year-old Sonia wrote a letter to Nixon, expressing her regrets over his election defeat and, among other things, telling the Vice President about her part in a pre-election political debate at school.

In a letter dated December 28, Nixon answered Sonia's correspondence. This is the Vice President's reply:

Dear Sonia:

I wish to take this opportunity to tell you how much I appreciated your thoughtfulness in writing.

I share the pride your parents must have in your expression of interest in the government and its officials. As I have often said, it is always reassuring to a person in public life to see young people so concerned with local, national and international affairs. My wish is that you will continue this interest for, in this way, you are acquiring the knowledge and understanding so necessary in preparing for the responsibilities and obligations of good voting citizenship.

In view of your kindness in writing, I want you to have the enclosures as a remembrance of the 1960 Presidential campaign.

Mrs. Nixon joins me in sending our very best wishes for the New Year.

Sincerely,
Richard Nixon

Nixon enclosed an autographed picture of himself and an "I'm for Nixon and Lodge" campaign button. Sonia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Clark. The family lives at 42150 East Seven Mile road.

In Uniform

Robert Joe Gotro, 224 Lake street, enlisted in the Navy Monday and was sent to the recruit training center at San Diego, California for recruit training.

After nine weeks of training and after a 14-day boot leave, Gotro will be sent to an airman school which was guaranteed to him before enlistment. After completing the aviation school training, he will be assigned to a unit of the Navy's air wing.

Gotro, a member of the Northville graduating class of 1960, is the son of Mrs. Howard Hanlin.

SPEAKING for the Record

By Bill Sliger

The beginning of a new year is always a good time for a community to "take inventory", examine its present status and consider its future.

In our Novi News edition last week the elected leaders of the township and village of Novi and the city of Wixom presented their views on what some of the most important decisions facing their respective communities might be in 1961.

Although Wixom's Mayor Brooks, Novi Township's Supervisor Staman and Novi Village's President Crupi submitted their opinions independently, they were strikingly similar.

An overall master plan to guide future development, sewers, road improvement were high on the list.

And underlying their programs for progress was an appeal for public support and cooperative community effort.

Unlike Northville, these communities stand at the threshold of formation — water, sewers, paved streets and definitely defined shopping areas are yet to come.

Therefore, their common concern is that these facilities come into being properly, neither too rapidly nor too slowly.

Yet it's interesting to note that in Northville, where these facilities have existed for many years, problems not unlike those of the communities to the north still exist.

The growth in population, changing shopping habits, the demand for services and just plain deterioration of present facilities confront the councilmen and planners.

They must try to correct mistakes of the past, avoid new ones and consider means of competing with neighboring areas for industrial and commercial enterprises.

Here, too, the problems are tossed out for groups of civic minded residents to study and recommend solutions.

Examples of such organizations are the planning commission, city hall study committee, teachers' salary study committee and the new economic development committee.

The best talent from the community is thus tapped to help set a course to follow.

It occurs to us that a good sounding board for the many and varied projects being conducted simultaneously is the Northville coordinating council.

And it was good news to note that this group, representing some 25 organizations in Northville, has decided to discuss current community issues at their monthly meeting and draw conclusions for members to take back to their respective groups.

This should prove to stimulate coordinating council meetings and bring before the member organizations a clearer picture of some of the community's problems.

One community organization that deserves praise for the program it is providing is the Northville recreation department, headed by Director Ken Conley.

Cut back slightly in his budget this year, Conley has nevertheless offered a full program of recreation for both children and adults.

Participation has been very good and despite the money pinch Conley says the department will be able to conclude its planned program in the black.

Babson Park, Mass. — With the new Administration coming into office, the wise investor will play safe. If J.F.K. takes his father's advice, investors should have nothing to fear; but if he takes the advice of "wild-eyed" college professors we may have much to fear.

Bonds of a company are always safer than the stocks of the same company; but stocks of some companies are safer than the bonds of other companies. Hence, readers cannot feel safe by just buying either stocks or bonds. Everything in the world is good and/or bad. No one rule will apply to all persons or to all classes of investments or real estate.

It is also wise to consider the relative prices of bonds before you buy them. The average price of good bonds has varied to yield between a high of 4 1/2 percent in 1960 and a low near 3 percent in 1946. Hence, this is a good time to buy good bonds, although they are a little higher than a year ago. There are three different groups of bonds, arranged in the order of their safety, as follows:

1. U.S. Government Bonds. These are mostly held by banks. Although very safe, they do not yield very high interest; yet this interest is taxable for individuals. The short maturities yield the least; while the long maturities yield the most. If you want them as a reserve for "quick money", buy the short maturities; but if you want them for income, but the long maturities.

2. Tax-exempt Municipal Bonds. There are two kinds: (1) the fixed interest municipals issued by cities, towns, counties and states. I suggest that you avoid bonds of big cities. Buy the bonds of medium-sized cities in the interior of the United States.

The capital cities of interior states should be the safest of all, and carry a fair yield. All these are non-taxable for federal tax purposes. You can also buy (2) non-taxable "revenue-bonds", but the interest on these is not guaranteed. Most turnpike bonds are in this latter class. So long as the turnpikes are used sufficiently, the "tolls" pay the interest; but if the tolls are not sufficient, full interest is not paid. This explains why turnpike revenue bonds yield higher than straight municipals.

3. Corporate Mortgage Bonds and Debentures. Bonds of corporations are also of different kinds; but all are taxable as to interest. To readers of this column I recommend the mortgage bonds of public utility companies, such as the company to which you pay your light and power bill.

Natural Gas Hassle Could Hike Rates

MICHIGAN IS CAUGHT in the middle of a hassle between giant corporations over natural gas.

Conceivably, higher bills to individual customers could result from the struggle, though no move is now underway to obtain permission for a gas rate hike by any party in the dispute.

Involved in the fight, which is in the federal courts and before federal and state agencies which have the power to regulate utilities, are Panhandle Eastern Pipeline Co., a supplier of natural gas, and American Natural Gas Co. The latter's subsidiary, Michigan Consolidated Gas Co., is well known to southeastern Michigan residents and to people in other areas as well.

The extremely complex questions at issue between the two systems include how much, if any, gas Panhandle should sell to the Michigan utility.

The profit motive is, of course, at work. But to say that either side lacks conviction that its position is ultimately the one which will enable the best and cheapest service to both the homeowner and the huge industrial user would be unfair.

The Federal Power Commission and the Michigan Public Service Commission are governmental agencies set up to regulate utilities because questions of the public good are inherent in their operations.

Protecting the consumer and making sure the utilities receive a fair price for their service are part of the duties of the FPC and MPSC.

Appeal from the decisions of the regulatory agencies can be made to the courts if a company coming under them thinks a decision should be modified. That happened in the Panhandle-American Natural case.

The struggle over natural gas is an example of how everyday business activity affects each individual consumer.

Corporations of a quasi-public nature, such as the utilities, must carry on their high-level maneuvering and business agreements and disagreements under the public eye.

Purely commercial firms can cloak their competitive rows in secrecy under the heading, "private business matters."

Ultimately, however, the cost of these maneuvers come home to roost on the consumer's pocketbook. And that includes the cost of long lawsuits and repeated appearances before regulatory agencies.

WHY SHOULD A pedestrian walking along a highway use the left side of the road; walk facing the oncoming traffic?

A reasonable and correct answer is that it's safer that way. Drivers can see the pedestrian better when he is facing them. The pedestrian can also dodge out of the way better should a driver fail to see him and come dangerously close.

But it's also against the law to walk on the right side unless it's impossible to keep to the left.

THE NATIONAL PICKLE Packers association, whose product is much-maligned by epithets, gags and nursery rhymes, have come up with a public service program worthy of mention.

And Michigan can take pride — and perhaps have a little chuckle — because it is part of the program.

Gov. John B. Swainson has been authorized to display on his desk the little green pickle flag of traffic safety.

It was authorized because Michigan citizens cooperated with law enforcement agencies over the recent holidays to the extent that provisional figures show 37 traffic deaths over the Christmas and New Year's weekends compared with 54 for the same holiday period last year.

The National Pickle Packers association said that it wanted to show, "in a small way" its appreciation for the safe record.

The award, which the Pickle Packers hope will help dramatize the need for traffic safety, may be, a small thing. But it is praise-worthy that an organization of commercial firms is taking an active part in the too often neglected fight against death and disabling injury on highways.

The little green pickle flag is more than just an award for two weekends of relatively safe driving.

It is a symbol of public spiritedness and the need for all citizens, groups and firms to join in helping to curb the ever-mounting toll largely attributable to the unsafe driver.

Area Cultural Leaders Hear 'Adventure' Director

Putting the exclamation point on community cultural activities requires the joint, coordinated efforts of each sponsoring organization.

Briefly, this was the crux of an informal talk by Dr. William Birenbaum, active director of Detroit Adventure and vice president of Wayne university, at a meeting Saturday evening at the home of Harold Hartley, Sr., 630 Randolph.

Speaking to leaders of cultural activities in Northville, Novi and Plymouth, Dr. Birenbaum outlined the functions of Detroit Adventure and related its activities to suburban cultural organizations.

He offered local organizations the services of Detroit Adventure, suggesting that these organizations could join with or adopt some of the programming of Detroit Adventure.

Detroit Adventure, which boasts 19 participating organizations in Detroit, is taking steps to integrate its activities with surrounding metropolitan areas to stimulate and aid all cultural activities in outlying communities.

Its primary purpose is bringing the cultural and educational assets of Detroit to the attention of the people, strengthening cultural opportunities in Detroit, and creating new programs by pooling their thoughts and resources.

Conversations will take place at several different locations, some in suburban communities. The architecture series, for example, will be made up of ten sessions concerning five buildings and their architects.

In one session the conversationalists will meet with the architect (Minoru Yamasaki for example) to discuss his building; on the following session the architect, or his representative, will visit the building with the group to continue discussion as the building itself is examined.

Conversation, 1961, will offer some of the most brilliant talent available in the various fields of the Arts to lead the discussion groups.

Literature about Detroit Adventure, programs of upcoming cultural events in Detroit, and material on the new Conversations series are available at the Northville library.

BUY IT IN NORTHVILLE

This adv. sponsored in the interest of promoting local business by Dempsey B. Ebert.

HEADS TURNED and cars stopped at the sight of a horse and rider slowly sauntering down Main street in Northville Saturday afternoon. Cynthia Hildebrandt, 17071 Franklin road, was just out for a ride on her horse "King" and decided to do a little window shopping. King hadn't been downtown before but it didn't seem to bother him as much as it did the motorists.

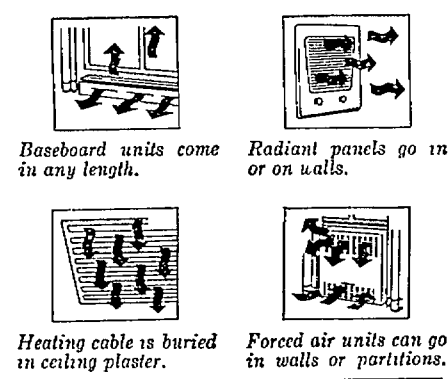

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS ABOUT BUILT-IN

ELECTRIC HEAT

Electric heat is an advanced and superior concept of home comfort. Here are some of the questions we've been asked about it.

WHAT DOES IT LOOK LIKE?

The four most widely used types are illustrated below. Because electric heat is built in, there is little interference with living space.

IS IT SAFE?
It's as safe and troublefree as electric light. Electric heat devices work very much like your toaster does. However, most of them operate at relatively low temperatures—without glowing wires.

IS IT EFFICIENT?
The heat produced by electric systems is usable heat; practically none of it is wasted within the heating equipment itself. Electric heat is just about as close to 100 percent efficiency as it's humanly possible to get.

IS IT EXPENSIVE TO INSTALL?
In general, the original cost of an electric heating system is less than that of any other type of quality equipment. Actual installed cost will vary according to type of heating unit used, home size, method of home construction and additional insulation requirements.

A good time to install electric heat is when building a new home. But it's also very economical to install it when home alterations or additions are being made. Wiring is no problem. It's figured as part of the job.

CAN I PUT IT IN JUST ONE ROOM?
Yes, and economically, too, as indicated above. Typical examples: when you're adding a new room, finishing an upstairs, closing in a porch or breezeway. Electric heat is especially valuable when the new living space is a long way from the central heating system, or when the central system is already working to capacity. Another good time to use electric heat is when you have a hard-to-heat area.

CAN I PUT IT IN THE WHOLE HOUSE?
Yes, you can switch the whole house over to electric heat. In this case, additional insulation will be required, plus storm sash and storm doors all around.

For greatest heating economy and summer comfort, regardless of type of heating system, good insulation pays off. Industry-established standards for this area for insulation thickness is not less than 6" overhead; 3½" in outside walls; 2" alongside and partially under concrete floor slabs. Floors above basements also need insulation.

WHAT DOES IT COST TO USE ELECTRIC HEAT?
Various factors, including family living habits, affect operating cost, so a hard-and-fast answer is impossible. A rough rule of thumb is 25¢-28¢ per square foot of heated space, annually. But there's little need to guess. An electric heating contractor can calculate actual first cost and operating cost quickly and accurately.

Electric heat will cost more. But the cost will probably not be as high as one would imagine. Like any quality product, you pay more for electric heat but you get more benefits!

In June 1959, Detroit Edison added a new, lower step to the residential electric rate. Now, kilowatt-hours of electricity over 750 per month cost 2¢ each, gross, instead of 2½¢—an 11 percent reduction.

DOES IT NEED MUCH SERVICING?

No. There are no moving parts in the electric heating systems discussed here except in the forced air units where fans or blowers are used. Fans are not high velocity, so they are long lasting also. An added advantage of electric heat, depending upon the type, is its completely silent, or very quiet, operation.

WHAT MAKES ELECTRIC HEAT BETTER?

FLEXIBILITY—Each room has its own thermostat. So each remains at the temperature you choose without affecting other areas. Temperatures can be raised or lowered in any room without overheating or chilling the rest of the house. Just a touch on the proper thermostat does it.

SPEED—When a thermostat is adjusted to call for more heat, the response is fast! In the systems described here, the heat source is right in each unit—only inches away instead of many feet.

EVEN HEAT—There will be very little temperature difference between floor and ceiling. And, wherever possible, electric heat (except ceiling cable, of course) is installed in outside walls. Then there is a curtain of warm air between the cool wall and window surfaces and room occupants. This tends off chilling drafts.

CLEANLINESS—Nothing is burned to make smoke, soot or fumes. Air currents will carry only whatever dust may have been introduced by other means. Nor are large quantities of outside, potentially dusty air drawn into the house to support combustion. Result: walls, draperies, furniture and floor coverings stay clean longer.

ARE THERE OTHER TYPES OF ELECTRIC HEAT?
Yes, the flexibility of electric heat makes it applicable to many basic systems. For example, there are electric warm air and wet heat systems.

WHERE CAN I SEE ELECTRIC HEAT?

And a feature of every Gold Medallion Home is its electric heating system. Watch for announcements of Gold Medallion Home openings.

WHERE CAN I GET MORE INFORMATION?

There's free literature at your Edison office, or mail the coupon below. Another source, especially for a cost estimate, is the electric heating contractor who displays this emblem.

The contractor who displays the emblem has had special training which enables him to estimate your heating needs accurately. He has also pledged himself to meet industry standards of installation.

PEANUTS FOR SALE — Ancil Felker did his part to help the annual March of Dimes campaign by buying a package of peanuts from Vicki Boyd Saturday. Vicki was just one of several senior high school members of the student council who took part in the "Peanuts for Polio" sale. Fred Stefanski, assistant high school principal and chairman of the school campaign, was also on the job selling peanuts in the business district. The sale netted $132.52 for the month-long campaign — and all the peanuts were sold!

Debaters Top W-O League

The Northville high school debate team recently completed a perfect season in the Wayne-Oakland Debate League.

Since the formation of the league, Northville has taken first place every year except one, and this year they won all eight of their debates. Clarkston ended second in the league with a five-three record.

The team consists of Michael Adas, captain, Dennis Gilbert, Duna Penn, Donald Lawrence, Launa Pelton, Harold Schmitt, Phil Symington and Betty Strenich.

On February 15, the debate team will attend a district debate conference at Southfield high school and will meet teams from Thurston, Inkster, Bentley and Walled Lake. The winner of this conference goes to a regional elimination tournament of all class "A" and "B" schools.

Man Who Beat Wife Goes to Jail

Recent court action before Justice E. M. Bogart included the following convictions:

Hershal Caudle, township resident held at Wayne County General hospital on a 48-hour detainer last week after beating his wife and holding off police at gun-point, was sentenced to 45 days in the Detroit House of Correction in court January 12. He was found guilty of careless use of firearms.

Wilburn Caudle, resident of Northville township, and a minor to whom he furnished liquor were both fined $25 and court cost by Justice Bogart on Saturday. The youth furnished liquor by Caudle was charged with disorderly conduct after admitting he had raised a disturbance to find out what police reaction would be to his behavior.

An improper left hand turn at Seven Mile and Northville roads that caused an accident at the corner resulted in a $5 fine and court cost for Brian Bunting, 4127 Woodland, Royal Oak. Bunting's car was struck by another vehicle driven by Calvin Cross of Plymouth.

Douglas E. Galliher, 19, picked up carrying a homemade pair of brass knuckles made from wood and shoe leather, agreed to return to his home in Virginia rather than paying a fine and cost or spending 90 days in jail. He was found guilty of carrying a concealed weapon.

Justice Bogart fined John W. Ellerholtz of Novi $25 and cost after finding the defendant guilty of disorderly conduct. Ellerholtz assaulted his ex-wife two weeks ago in the city parking lot adjacent to the Presbyterian church.

Lester C. Johnston, 16453 Bradner road, was sentenced to 20 days in DeHoCo for driving on a suspended license.

Rotarians to See 'Man and Moon' Film

A color film, "Man and the Moon", produced by Walt Disney, will be shown to members of the Northville Rotary club next Tuesday noon at their regular Presbyterian church meeting.

The film is narrated by Werner Von Braun, leading missile authority in the United States, and depicts the problems involved in putting men into space.

The program is being presented by Edwin W. Kivela of the Detroit Edison company. Bruce Turnbull will be Rotary program chairman.

TO REMOVE the body of A. W. Plummer, Plymouth painting contractor killed Wednesday morning in a train-car crash at Northville's Seven Mile road crossing, workers had to gain entrance from the driver's side. This picture was taken from atop the engine after it was backed away from the car it had carried three-quarters of a mile from the Seven Mile road crossing. (See story and picture, page one.)

Troop 222 Girl Scouts Play Santa Claus Role

Twenty-five girl scouts here thought it better to give than to receive, so they shelved the traditional troop Christmas party in December and showered a truck load of food and gifts on a needy township family instead.

The scouts, all members of Troop 222, collected canned goods — everything from fruit juices to sauerkraut — food staples, toys, clothing, a turkey and even a Christmas tree with ornaments to adorn it.

Their generosity swelled to such proportions that the services of a truck were called in to deliver the goods to the family of eight.

A little boy's wish was even answered when a bike was lifted from the back of the truck.

Mrs. Fred Russell, Mrs. Carl Puhanz, Mrs. Bill Foreman and Mrs. Wayne McBride are leaders of Troop 222.

Scouts who took part in the goodwill project were: Linda Allen, Deborah Burr, Diane Crawford, Narda Foreman, Mary Lou Horsfall, Margaret Korzynski, Mary Lou Langtry, Debbie Leavenworth, Kathleen Livingston, Carol Malek.

Linda McBride, Katherine Miller, Patty Moase, Donna Mueller, Susan Murany, Linda Nagy, Enid Penn, Marilyn Puhanz, Linda Russell, Susan Schliel, Alice Sherman, Madeline Spannos, Linda Steencken, Janice Taylor and Penny Thomas.

All the girls went along to deliver the food and gifts. Standing outside the township home in sub-freezing weather, their chorus of youthful voices pierced the biting air as they sang carols to the family.

Newcomers to Hear Talk on Color Trends

At their monthly luncheon next Wednesday, January 25, women of the Newcomers club will hear an informal review of "Color Trends Today and Tomorrow" by Bruce McAllister of McAllister's House of Decorating, Northville.

Color slides of color-coordinated homes in the area will be shown. The 1 p.m. luncheon will be held in the Thunderbird Inn.

To Air Sewer Plan

The Greater Northville Republican club will discuss the county sewer plan and its ramifications at the next regular meeting Wednesday, January 25, at 8 p.m. in the American Legion hall. Interested citizens are invited.

SHOE ON THE OTHER FOOT

A town, not long ago, was about to vote dry. The wife of the liquor seller—the only saloon in town — said, in tones of almost despair, to her Negro wash woman: "If this town goes dry, I will not be able to pay you to do our washing any more. I do not know how we can live ourselves."

The generous-hearted colored woman sympathetically answered: "Don't worry, honey. If your husband has to shut up his liquor place, my husband won't be able to get drunk, and we will have plenty, and you can come and do our washing."

There are 4,589,000 alcoholics in the United States. There are nearly 3 million problem drinkers who will eventually become alcoholics. What this country has gained in taxes is lost in jails and institutions. A good percentage of accidents on the highway are caused by drivers who drink. Young man, young lady, do not ever let anyone tell you that it's smart to drink. People of good sense realize its danger as they would heroin or other drugs. And for those who are strong enough to remain within the bounds of moderation, let me remind you that we are responsible for the weaker ones around us. "Wine is a mocker, whosever is deceived thereby is not wise."
