City Ends Old Dispute On Zoning

The city council disposed of a zoning matter Monday night that had a history of meetings before city planners and councilmen a year long.

By a 5-0 vote in a public hearing on the zoning the council approved C-1 and R-1 for parcels in the extreme northeast section of the city owned by developers of Yerkes Estates subdivision.

The two parcels are bounded on the south by Allen drive, the east by Novi road, the north by the city limits and the west by subdivision homes.

The northern-most parcel was designated R-1 and the southern part C-1.

Actually, the land had not been zoned since annexed from Novi. It had become the center of controversy between planners, councilmen, the developers and residents of the area.

Local retail merchants got in the act, too, by objecting to commercial zoning that might compete with the present business district.

Planners originally proposed industrial zoning for the land. Both the developers and residents objected to this. The developers wanted commercial zoning, pointing out that the site was not suitable for residential use.

Problems exist even under the compromise commercial-residential zoning.

D & R Building company, the developers, have agreed to a deed restriction on the commercial property prohibiting a drive-in restaurant to satisfy residents of the area. Further it has been agreed to construct an entrance greenbelt and wall at Allen drive to separate the commercial section from the homes.

But if the greenbelt is constructed before the commercial land is sold and developed, the company wants no part of the responsibility of maintaining the entrance. Neither do the residents, but they'd like the greenbelt.

Finally the council decided that the city should not become obligated to such a chore and decided that if the residents wouldn't maintain the greenbelt, then it could wait until the land was sold and the new commercial project would then have the responsibility.

In other business Monday night the council called for a public hearing on April 4 to amend the zoning ordinance to create an R-2A district that will permit apartment houses and home-occupation dwellings.

This district is primarily being created to permit construction of a $300,000 apartment project on Baseline road near Taft road and the new cut-off. After the district is created the proposed five-acre site will then come before the council for re-zoning to the new designation.

Area Legion Brings Back Roaring 20's

A "Roaring Twenties" party will highlight the forty-second anniversary observance of the organization of the American Legion at the Northville Veterans Memorial hall Saturday night.

Official ceremonies will open the program at 8 p.m. and the festivities to follow will include round and square dancing.

Chairman of the program — sponsored by the post auxiliary and open to the general public — is Mrs. Howard Wright.

Third Zone Vice Commander David McDougall will speak on the American Legion Back to God movement. Master of Ceremonies C. Oscar Hammond will recall highlights of the Legion during its formative years in the twenties.

Mrs. Rex Holloman, auxiliary president, will toast the Legion on its birthday and Commander John Steimel will respond.

Costumes of the era of the twenties are encouraged, but this is optional.

Plan Public Meeting For Local Candidates

A "Meet Your Candidates' Night" designed to introduce every city and township office seeker to the general public will be held Thursday night, March 30 at the community building.

The town-hall-type meeting is scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m. and conclude at 9:30 p.m.

Each candidate will be given three minutes to speak briefly to the audience and at the conclusion of their remarks the audience will be permitted to ask questions, if they desire.

Philip Ogilvie, Northville city attorney, will act as master of ceremonies and open the meeting with a run-down of the candidates and proposals on the April 3 ballot.

His remarks will include identification of the state and county offices on the April ballot and an explanation of the two proposals — con con and state aid in financing industrial projects. Twenty city and township candidates have been invited to meet and speak to the public.

In the city six candidates will seek two vacancies on the council. They are Richard Ambler, William J. Bingley, Mrs. Arthur Carlson, Paul Polino, J. Bine Leavenworth and incumbent Ed Welch. Councilman Earl Reed is not seeking re-election.

Mayor A. M. Allen is running for the two-year mayor's post. Councilmen run for four-year terms.

Also on the city ballot will be the race for justice of the peace. Incumbent E. M. Bogart faces Charles McDonald.

In the partisan township election Democrats have challenged incumbent Republicans for four offices.

These offices and candidates are: Supervisor George Clark (R) vs. Mrs. C. E. Woodruff (D); Trustee Alex M. Lawrence (R) vs. Edward M. Caspell (D); Constable Chester A. Lipa (R) vs. Rockwood J. Gravelle (D); and for the board of review incumbent J. R. Gibson (R) vs. George N. Bennett (D).

Unopposed candidates on the township ballot are Clerk Marjorie Northrup, Treasurer Roy Terrill and Harold W. Schmidt, candidate for justice of the peace, all Republicans.

The purpose of the March 30 session is to acquaint residents with their candidates and encourage them to go to the polls April 3 to vote.

Following the remarks and questions period light refreshments will be served.

Absentee Ballots

Absentee ballots for the April 3 election are now available at the city and township halls for Northville area voters.

The ballots may be obtained at the respective offices until 2 p.m. April 1. Ballots must be returned by election day.

IT'S GOODBYE to city council service for Earl Reed (left), who was honored Tuesday night by fellow councilmen, city officials and their wives. Reed is retiring from the council after nearly eight years as a member of the village commission, charter commission and city council. He is shown receiving a wall barometer from Mayor A. M. Allen, a gift from the council. Reed's term on the council ends officially after the April 3 election.

New Budget Next For School Board

The board of education will begin its preliminary study of the proposed 1961-62 budget for the Northville school district Monday night.

Superintendent Russell Amerman is putting the finishing touches on the budget, which will be reviewed by the board members and then taken before the county tax allocation board in late April for approval.

Superintendent Amerman stated that the budget was being based on this year's state equalized valuation. Final determination of the valuations is not made until July, but school budgets must be set and approved before these figures are definite.

Shutdown at Wixom Plant Ends Monday

The Wixom Lincoln plant will resume full operations Monday, a Ford spokesman said this week.

The plant has been completely shutdown since March 15 because of a shortage of parts. The spokesman said that all shifts are scheduled to come back to work on Monday.

Big Debate Tuesday

A victory Tuesday afternoon could move Northville high school debaters to within one round of the State Class A debate crown.

Tuesday's semi-final contest, slated for 4 p.m. in the high school auditorium, pits Northville debaters Dennis Gilbert and Mike Adas against a team from Jackson high school. The debate is open to the public.

In Wixom

Civic Group Acts To Cut Mill Limit

A lively meeting is expected at the Wixom Civic association session next Tuesday evening when the membership is called upon to amend the city charter to lower the millage limitation.

The action, under consideration for several months, comes about as the result of the use of "state equalized" valuations for levying city tax millage.

These valuations are used by school districts for application of mill rates. They are higher than assessed valuations placed on the property by city assessing standards.

Critics of this — whose spokesman has been Herbert Abrams, past president of the association — state that it was not the intention of the charter authors that the specified millage limitation should be applied to inflated state equalized valuations.

Their argument is not that the practice is illegal, but rather that it runs contrary to the intent of the charter.

Wixom has an eight mill limitation in its charter. Last year the city levied 5.35 mills — which actually amounted to 9.32 mills in dollars and cents if figured against the local assessments, critics point out.

"The executive board of the civic association intends to ask the membership to approve a charter amendment that would lower the millage limitation to four mills," Abrams reported this week.

The city would then be permitted to continue its practice of levying its millage against state equalized valuations, but

Meeting Site Moved to City

Northville township is breaking tradition in the interest of comfort and convenience.

Supervisor George Clark stated that the township board has decided to change the location of its annual meeting place from the township hall to the Northville community building. "The township hall is too small and does not offer the proper accommodations to hold a public meeting with any number of visitors," Clark stated.

He said that Township Attorney James Littell had ruled that it would be legally possible to hold the annual meeting in the city.

The meeting is scheduled for 1:00 p.m., April 1.

Jaycees to Stage Easter Egg Hunt

It's no April Fool's Day week. But parents should rejoice — the Easter Bunny's coming to Northville April 1. Saturday, April 1 open for the big hunt!

Through the auspices of junior chamber of commerce he'll hide dozens of eggs in the city hall park and invite area youngsters up to age 12 to come and find them.

He introduced his Easter egg hunt last year and hundreds of kiddies thronged to the park in search of the eggs.

Don Blair and Charles Austin are in charge of the event this year and report that it will be handled in much the same way — with a few refinements to be sure the smaller tots get their share of eggs, too.

Full details of the kiddies' event will be reported next

TALKING IT OVER — Next July this quartet of school administrators will be involved in the "big switch", announced last week by the Northville board of education. From left to right, LaGene Quay, currently a high school science teacher, will become assistant principal of the high school; Donald Vaningen, junior high teacher and varsity basketball coach, will give up these duties to become junior high school principal; High School Principal E. V. Ellison will move into the newly created office of director of administrative services; and Fred Stefanski, now assistant high school principal, will become principal of the high school.

Set Kindergarten Policy Procedure

School officials have announced procedures governing the policy adopted last June which requires an entering kindergartner to be five years old by September 1 of the year he plans to start school.

The new policy, which bypasses the state law permitting kindergartners to enter school as long as their birthdays fall before December 1, goes into effect next fall.

It was adopted, said school administrators, as one step in insuring the successful beginning of a child's school experience.

Some leeway is given in the policy, however, for those children whose birthdays fall between September 2 and December 1. They may be admitted provided a written request to the superintendent of schools be submitted by the parents. It is further recommended, states the measure, that these children meet the requirements of a readiness examination administered by school authorities.

Newly adopted procedures set August 15 as the deadline for applications from parents of potential kindergartners in the September 2 to December 1 age group.

These youngsters will then be screened, beginning August 15, by a committee composed of two kindergarten teachers, a psychologist and a principal. Observations will continue for one week while the children attend half day sessions.

During this period the teachers will attempt to gauge, among other things, the social competence and the emotional and physical maturity of the youngsters. Simple tests to measure perceptual and coordinational maturity — devised by the psychologist and teachers — will also be administered.

A written recommendation on each child, prepared by the committee, will follow. Should findings indicate that a child stay out of school, parents may over-rule the committee decision by signing the group's written recommendation. This document will be made part of the school's cumulative record.

Zoning Issues Hot in Novi

In public hearings marked by flaring tempers and heated words the Novi village council turned down one zoning request for a proposed industry site, while approving another Monday night.

By a 3-2 vote the council said "no" to the Gran Construction company of Warren seeking to move its heavy earthmoving machinery and equipment to 19 acres of land on the south side of Grand River near Beck road.

The land, owned by Willis Miller, is now zoned C-2 in the front and R-1-F in the rear.

Voting against the request were Village President Joseph Crupi and Councilmen Dean Lenheiser and Walter Tuck. In favor were Councilmen Philip Anderson and Eugenie Choquet.

The council then approved M-2 zoning for seven acres of M-1 property on Grand River near Taft road to permit operation of a die casting plant owned by Ted Penn.

"I look upon every day to be lost, in which I do not make a new acquaintance."

—Samuel Johnson

MET OUT WEST — Donald and Janice Highway met in Yuma, Arizona while he was in the Army and she was teaching high school home economics. The couple and their 18-month-old son, Brian, now reside at 520 Langfield in the Village Green.

"We're happy with our choice," commented Mrs. Donald Highway, housewife and former home economics teacher.

The 'choice' to which Janice Highway referred was a home in Northville, specifically, the Highway's new home at 520 Langfield drive in the Village Green. They changed addresses September of last year, moving from the Seven Mile-Griest area in Detroit.

Eighteen-month-old Brian, the couple's only child, is the third member of the family.

Highway, born in Kalamazoo, is a maintenance supervisor for A & P Tea company. He's a graduate of the University of Michigan and has a master's degree from the university's engineering college. While on Uncle Sam's payroll — soldier stationed in Arizona — he met his wife.

She was training future homemakers of America then as a high school home economics teacher in Yuma. Mrs. Highway got her degree from Arizona State university at Tempe. Swapping the city — they lived in Detroit two-and-a-half years — for the country was a natural for the couple. Her husband, Mrs. Highway asserts, is an outdoor sportsman with a bent for hunting, fishing, archery and the like. And she goes along for the fun.

As her college background suggests, Janice Highway is a pretty accomplished homemaker. Sewing, cooking and keeping house are right in her line, although she finds little "time or inspiration for amateur painting", which she used to do.

SKIT'S A HIT — The whole cast of "My Fair Redskin" got into the last-act finale Friday afternoon. Calling themselves the Sugar-Cured players, Mrs. John Robertson, Mrs. P. H. Nauman, Mrs. George Weiss, Mrs. Irene O'Brien, Mrs. Gunnar

Caps Annual Meeting

'Redskin' Wows Woman's Club

Traditionally, the Northville Woman's club caps its annual meeting with a skit that summons unheralded, dramatic talent within club ranks for production. Friday's annual get-together at the Presbyterian church house was no exception. The "sweetest" cast this side of Broadway's Great White Way — pooling the saccharine talents of the club's own Sugar-Cured players — staged a whimsical, romantic interlude in the life of Detroit's founder, French explorer Antoine Cadillac.

The play, "My Fair Redskin", was a musical study of historical fact immersed in fiction. And from the peals of audience laughter that punctuated the players' dialogue, the production was a whopping success.

Taking parts in the skit were: Alice Kay, Jeanette Robertson, Alayne Stefanski, Irene O'Brien, Dorothy Shafer, Gladys Weiss, Margaret Naumann and Mrs. Gunnar Stromberg.

Members elected 1961-62 officers at the business meeting which preceded the skit. Mrs. Gene Woodruff is the new president. Serving with her will be: Mrs. George Kohls, vice-president; Mrs. Kalin Johnson, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Davis, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William Milne, treasurer; Mrs. Orson Atchinson, Mrs. Claude Ely, Mrs. Charles Yahnke, Mrs. Donald Severance and Mrs. James Cowie, board of directors.

New life members were also named on Friday — Mrs. C. E. Woodruff, Mrs. G. C. Woodworth, Mrs. T. N. Kampf, Mrs. A. W. Hahn and Mrs. J. C. Burkman.

AAUW to Start Series Of Cultural Talks in Fall

The "Listening Post" will be a new addition to the cultural attractions of the Plymouth-Northville-Livonia area next fall, when a lecture series sponsored by the local branch of the American Association of University Women opens in the Plymouth High school auditorium.

Designed to appeal to both men and women and to older students, the "Listening Post" will offer a program of three or possibly four outstanding speakers or artists in various fields. The program committee is discussing dates with speakers now under consideration in the areas of the arts and music, foreign affairs, space exploration, atomic energy and similar subjects of current interest.

While active planning is now under way to obtain a varied and stimulating program for the coming year, Mrs. John W. Moehle, planning committee chairman, announced that sale of season tickets, at a nominal price for the series, would begin in the late summer. She presented the committee's recommendations to the branch meeting Thursday evening, March 16, when the group voted to initiate the series.

Mothers Don Dancing Shoes

Members of Northville Mothers club will "trip the light fantastic" Monday night at a meeting slated for 8 p.m. in the Community building. Dance lessons make up the program.

Serving refreshments will be hostesses Mrs. Stuart Campbell, Mrs. Essie Nirider, Mrs. William Weidner and Mrs. John W. Blackburn.

READERS SPEAK:

'Sympathy' For Tafralian

To the Editor:
We have been encouraged by a number of our friends in the southern part of the Village of Novi to offer you the attached as an open letter to Mr. Tafralian. You do, therefore, have our permission to print the letter if you so choose.

Mr. Dieron Tafralian
46153 Grand River Avenue
Novi, Michigan

Dear Mr. Tafralian:
Well, Well — it does make a difference whose ox is (about to be) gored.

We have read with interest the logic, as reported in the Novi News, of your protestations against the proposed "one-piece" downgraded re-zoning of the Miller property adjacent to your own — and we suffer with you at the thought of the deterioration of the value of your property and the rude disturbances of your peaceful enjoyment of your home that will undoubtedly result from the industrialization of your immediate neighborhood.

Is it possible though that you have forgotten the profound civic objectives that motivated you and other myopic members of the former Village Council in foisting the Heslip "one-piece" re-zoning monstrosity on the Village? — or is your property more valuable and your peaceful enjoyment more sacred than that of the lesser citizens who live south of Ten Mile Road?

The Millers at least have a concrete deal — a present application — not simply a dream of enrichment. The industrial tax money is the important thing — remember? Ignore the deterioration of surrounding property values — you helped the Village of Novi set a precedent in that respect.

Yours very truly,
Philip J. McElroy

We are sincerely grateful for all the remembrances.

The wonderful dinner will live long in our memory. The "big box" was filled with money. This we will use to purchase roses for our garden. In Scotland roses last a very long time. These will remind us of all you.

We hope you will have many such evenings as we enjoyed, for some one very often, for as we sit together we know each other better and find our problems are all very much the same.

83 NHS Students Try For Merit Scholarships

Merit scholarships — provided by the National Merit Scholarship corporation and by sponsoring corporations, foundations, associations and individuals — were awarded to 831 students in this country last year. There are 3,132 Merit scholars attending 391 colleges in the current academic year.

Bernhard Muller, Northville high school graduate now enrolled in the University of Michigan medical school, was a Merit winner. Nancy Beard and Chris Hammond were finalists a year ago.

Early next fall, some 10,000 semi-finalists — highest scorers in each state — will be named. Each semi-finalist will then be asked to take a second exam to determine finalists. winners of Merit Scholarships are selected from the finalist group on the basis of school records and recommendations, test scores, extra-curricular activities, leadership ability and accomplishments outside the classroom.

Scholarship stipends are based upon financial need. In 1960 average stipends to freshmen were $827. Each scholarship represents a type of "educational insurance", since the money may be increased at any time if the student's financial status changes during the four-year period. Supplementary grants are usually made to colleges attended by the scholars.

Northville High school's Janice Campbell received a letter of commendation for high performance on the qualifying test, which she took last year.

Cabbie Assaulter Pays Reduced Fine

The assaulter of Novi Cab company owner, Charley Verhaag, was fined $125 on a reduced charge of drunk and disorderly conduct last Thursday in Novi court. Justice of the Peace Robert K. Anderson presided.

William Kirkpatrick, of Detroit, was arrested by Novi police February 19 for assault with a deadly weapon.

For 40 minutes, Kirkpatrick held a knife at Verhaag's throat while his wife directed the cabbie to drive aimlessly around Novi.

Novi policemen, Ray Hallock and Al Butts, finally arrested the pair outside the Novi Pizzeria on Grand River.

Local Ford Salesmen Win Company Honors

Three Ford salesmen from John Mach Ford Sales Inc., of Northville were presented Ford Motor Company's 300-500 Club award at a banquet in Detroit last night honoring high-ranking Ford dealership car and truck salesmen of 1960 in Ford Division's Detroit sales district.

The local Ford salesmen are Gilbert Winner, K. D. MacKenzie and Bob H. Stover.

J. O. Wardwell, Detroit district sales manager, said 300-500 Club membership awards are presented for excellent retail sales performance. The Ford 300-500 Club was founded in 1950 to recognize the performance of outstanding Ford salesmen throughout the country.

Mr. Wardwell added that the average 300-500 club member sold nearly $400,000 worth of automotive merchandise in qualifying for the national honors.

Going to School

Patrolman Andrew Cain, Northville police department, is enrolled in a five-day traffic training course being conducted at Michigan State university's Oakland branch in Rochester.

Class sessions, attended by Wayne, Oakland and Macomb county police officers, are spread over a three-week period. The most recent session convened Tuesday.

Students Take Tests

Eighty-three Northville high school students entered the first round in a series of tests that may qualify one or more of them for four-year college scholarships worth between $100 and $1,500 annually.

Principal E. V. Ellison said the students took a three-hour qualifying test at the high school March 7 for the 1962 National Merit scholarship.

Police Review

Submitted by Chief Eugene King of the Northville Police Department

RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF DRIVERS AND OTHERS

Chapter 5 of the Uniform Traffic Code deals with rights and duties of all drivers and others. There are 95 sections in this chapter and each section defines a certain duty or a certain right we drivers have.

The first item I would like to define is an emergency vehicle and how it should be identified. These vehicles are required to have at least one flashing or revolving red light and be equipped with a siren. The red light must be visible from a distance of 500 feet under normal conditions. These vehicles containing this equipment must be registered by the State Police and local Chief of Police. Authorized emergency vehicles may, upon slowing down to a safe speed, pass through red traffic signals and stop signs when on emergency runs. The law does not protect such driver of such vehicle from consequences of a reckless disregard of the safety of others.

Now we come to the duties of all other drivers on the road. Upon hearing a siren or seeing the flashing red light, it is the responsibility of all drivers on the road to yield the right of way by immediately driving to a position parallel to, or as close as possible to the right hand edge of roadway or curb and clear of any intersection and bring their vehicle to a complete stop and remain there until the authorized emergency vehicle has passed, unless otherwise directed by a Police Officer.

Next we will talk about accident, as a majority of people are misinformed as to what procedure should be followed.

Drivers of vehicles involved in accidents resulting in property damage must stop immediately at the scene of such accidents, and must give such information as their name, address, license number of the vehicle, operator's license number to all parties connected with the accident. It is also important to render any aid possible to the injured and notify the Police. The cars involved should not be moved.

Next we must determine who is responsible for causing the accident. Under the point system, both parties are charged with an accident on their record unless one or the other is found guilty of causing such accident by reason of improper driving of some sort under the ordinance. This can be done by means of signing a complaint by either one or both drivers or the investigating officer.

It is further the responsibility of any driver who collides with any unattended vehicle to immediately stop, locate the owner or the Police and notify them of the details.

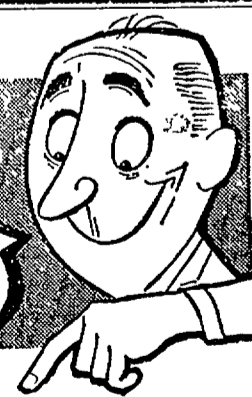

Lastly, we find that every garage keeper, who at any time has a car brought to his place of business after being involved in an accident or struck by a bullet, must notify the Police, giving the make, model, engine number and name and address of its owner and operator of such vehicle.

Legion Needs Help

The following notice was sent out this week by the Lloyd H. Green Post 147 of the American Legion.

Its message states clearly the plight of the local post and its need for help in maintaining its post home.

"On October 12, 1943, the Village Fathers saw fit to donate their money and time to do is to make phone call to create a lasting memory to those men and women from answers when and where to Northville and the surrounding area who served their country in time of peril. However, in order to maintain this memorial which stands at 100 West Dunlap Street, it takes a great deal of time and work by the members and friends of the Legion post to create projects which enable us to keep the doors of this memorial to the Veterans open.

"Due to increased cost of maintenance this past year and not as many rentals as anticipated we find it necessary to establish another project to fill this gap. All we are asking you to do is to make phone call to FI 9-1060 and tell the party who pick up those old clothes, books, furniture or what have you, in which have been cluttering the garage basement or attic for years and years. To fill the Memorial Hall for our first Rummage Sale on Saturday, April 1, 1961."

EXPECTING TOO MUCH

Recently a News Commentator told of a man on relief in one of our mid-western towns who went to get some surplus food. When he was getting his things together he asked for his trading stamps. He became highly indig-

ed. Surely he expected too much. Surely he expected too much. Actually no government or should I say the taxpayers who go to make up that government owes anyone a living to say nothing of such bonuses as trading stamps. Our free society has made it possible for those who are less fortunate to receive such aid and we are glad of it. However, this does not mean that the government owes them a living. As I thought about that, I thought about the number of people that are blaming God for not providing them a better world in which to live. They complain about the weather. They grumble when the harvest is not the best. They cast reflection upon God by saying, "Why doesn't God stop war?" "Why does God allow tornados?" "Actually when you stop to think of it friend, what does God really owe to us? How gracious is our God not only to provide temporal blessings but also a way to enjoy everlasting life in the New World to come.

How Will You Pick Your New Councilman?

What are the qualities that mark the candidate you will choose to fill the important post on Northville's City Council? If continuous community service and business experience your yardsticks, may I call your attention to:

1-A 26-YEAR RECORD OF SERVICE TO THE NORTHVILLE COMMUNITY. AMONG COMMUNITY PROJECTS ON WHICH I HAVE SERVED IN EXECUTIVE OR OTHER CAPACITY:

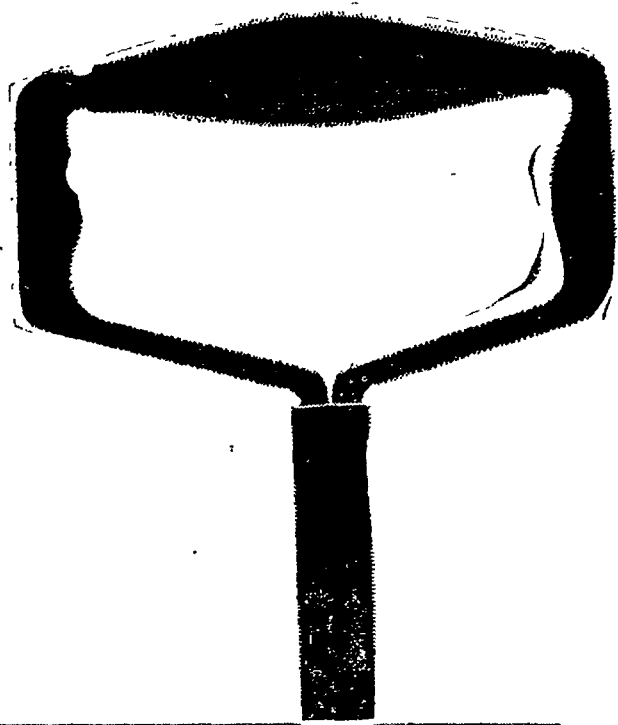

• Assisting in the organization of Cub Scouts, acting den mother and training other women for this job.
• The organization of the Northville Business and Professional Women's Club in 1948 - and served as president two terms.
• Election - for 8th year - as branch chairman of the American Red Cross in Northville.
• President of the Northville Community Concerts Association, 2 years.

• Election as Republican precinct delegate, 1960.
• American Legion Good Citizen Award winner for outstanding community service in 1958. (I am past president of its auxiliary).
• Election as Junior Vice President of Benton Parkway Auxiliary to Veterans of World War I, for which I served three years as secretary-treasurer.

2. THE WOMAN'S POINT OF VIEW - NEEDED IN CITY GOVERNMENT:
I believe that women are urgently needed in government, the housekeeping job of our community and our nation. And because good management of city government is so directly related to matters affecting good home-making - water, sewage disposal, paving, taxes, law enforcement - I believe that it is time that Northville women should be represented on the city council by a woman.

3. VALUABLE YEARS OF BUSINESS EXPERIENCE:
My business experience began as a stenographer. During World War II, I was employed by the Northville Ford Valve Plant as counselor to women. During the past 15 years my husband and I have operated the Carlson Health Studio. YES, I UNDERSTAND THE PROBLEMS OF THE BREADWINNER AS WELL AS THE HOMEMAKER.

4. UNDERSTANDING OF CIVIC PROBLEMS
Having participated actively in civic affairs in Northville for 26 years, I have, I believe, better than average understanding of Northville's

THE OLDEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY — Thursday, March 16, 1961

No Shedding of Tears For Area Landmark

BOWS TO PROGRESS — The Novi grain elevator, a trading and gossiping place for area farmers for years, is being torn down to make way for a new warehouse.

They're "doing away" with the old grain elevator in Novi these spring days without any tears or "save the old grain elevator" petitions.

It's pure resignation on the part of old and young alike. Progress has made its mark, dooming the sagging building to the rodents, spiders and nature's elements since its shut-down in 1955.

"Doing away" is the correct phrase to use in describing the dismantling process going on. Like your pet dog, the elevator seemed almost human to the area farmers when they brought in their wheat, corn and oats.

Farmers looked forward to the trips to the elevator, not so much to get away from the home soil, but to trade and then gossip with neighbors around the faded pot-bellied stove in the depot or nearby in Toot McCrumb's blacksmith shop. He was named "Toot" because of an old clarinet he would play downtown.

The area of the elevator was quite the hub of commercial activity. Across the tracks from it, there was a barrel and a cheese factory. The latter was owned by Fred Warner, former Michigan governor.

To the east, up to the mid-1920's, two stockyards handled livestock. Operating it were a one-armed gent named Ed Holmes and his partner, Lou Bullum.

To the west, there was a small barn where hay and fertilizers were stored. Between the barn and the elevator were coal bins. Where the Grand River viaduct stands now, there used to be a row of maple trees where farmers and their horses took a breather from the hot summer sun. To the north, fence posts were stored and sold.

It was conceivable for a farmer to pick up whatever supplies and material he needed without walking more than a few hundred feet.

Official records are scarce as to when the elevator was originally built. A 1908 Oakland County map shows a Whipple's Elevator. Human memories recall the time shortly after this when it was known as McClaren's Elevator. He and his sons owned a chain of elevators throughout the area.

In 1929, John R. Walters and Leo Gildermeister, both from Farmington, bought the elevator. Walters died in 1950, Gildermeister, about three years later. Don Walters, with the Novi DPW now and a son of John, took over the operation until 1955. When he closed down in 1955, it marked 25 years since he began in his Dad's business. At one time, the elevator was run by a large one-cylinder gasoline engine. Even those who didn't live nearby could hear the engines go "ka-chung!" and again "ka-chung!" and again. The engines moved plywood wheels that measured four feet across.

The scales in the elevator were designated official by the state weighmaster and so when you bought license plates, you drove your car or truck to the elevator to get them weighed.

The horse and buggy days were flourishing ones for the elevator. But the flourish lasted only until someone came along with a horseless buggy and the elevator's plywheels, now operating with electricity, started to sing a tune with a slower tempo.

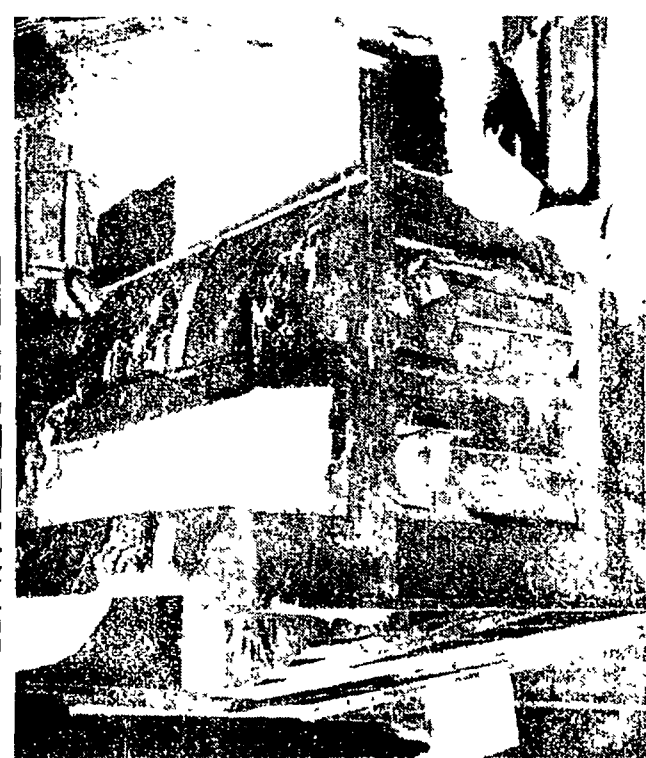

It was no longer necessary for a farmer to wait for the Novi elevator to order unstocked fertilizer. He would simply by turn the crank and plug his way to any one of a number of area elevators.

Instead of farmers making a holiday of their excursions to the elevator and chat from dawn to dusk, retirees would make their way to the pot-bellied stove and recall those "old days when"

The war years were busy ones for the elevator and it hummed with some of its old excitement. But there was no getting around it. The days were numbered for the elevator.

It will be completely torn down in a matter of days. By the middle of April, the Edwin Whipple Feed and Supply company, of Troy, hopes to have a 40 foot by 80 foot warehouse erected.

A spokesman for the company called it a "perfect spot" for their warehouse. They hold the franchise for Purina feeds. If you have a few spare moments, it might be wise to stop by the elevator soon and catch a glimpse of another fading piece in the puzzle called Americana.

AN ANTIQUE — Dusty and rusty, this clipper cleaner used to know busy days. Grain was poured down the chute at the right and then screened, sifting out weeds and other matter. Along with the grain elevator, its days are now numbered.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

By The Reverend Paul M. Cargo,
First Methodist Church of Northville

The message of Palm Sunday is that truth and right have their coronation. Jesus set His face to go to Jerusalem and He knew that the gathering storm of opposition would mean His death. With the best of possible spiritual planning, at the same time that Jesus set His face to go to Jerusalem He set His faith to go to Jerusalem, and His faith they would never kill.

This is a coronation day in which truth is blessed by God and obtains the victory, a day when error, though it may seem to capture the throne temporarily, is doomed. Sin is not blessed by God. God blesses truth and righteousness. A refrain of Palm Sunday might well be, "Glory, glory, hallelujah, God's truth is marching on!"

Great faith was in the heart of Jesus when He rode the Jerusalem streets hearing the acclamation of the multitude. He saw beyond his death to the enthronement of a Kingdom. It was God's Kingdom, and it would last. Jesus knew that He had bound himself to the eternal. His life and witness were not in vain. The Day of Coronation was a pre-vision of the triumph of God which was yet to come. The authority of the King would not be denied.

What is the authority of Jesus? The authority of Jesus is the authority of eternal truth and right personified in God's Son. It is the authority of God's love incarnate in a Man. The Christ-conscience is at work in the world. We ask, "Is it just?" and we apply a Christian standard. We ask, "Is what I am about to do right?" and we apply the Christian measure. The state is not above the questions of honest religion. And the churches feel the pressing question of Jesus upon this issue or that practice within its own walls,

"Is it Christian?" Napoleon in captivity on the island of St. Helena left a statement we ought to hear on Palm Sunday: "Charlemagne, Alexander and I built great empires; but they were founded on force and crumbled away. But Jesus of Nazareth founded His Kingdom on love and there are millions today who would die for him."

Christ entered into the mainstream of the life of the world. The continuing ministry of Jesus has been in the salvation which He has brought to people. When Christ comes in, there is a new creation. It was the experience and expression of Paul that "If any man is in Christ Jesus, he is a new creature." In the Gospel of John it is recorded, "Except a man be born again, he cannot enter the Kingdom of God."

Sarah Kemple Siddons, a reigning actress of the English stage, had her portrait painted by Sir Joshua Reynolds. Later she noticed a broad effect on the corner of the robe she had worn for the picture. She looked at it closely and found it to be the painter's own signature fitted into the pattern of the cloth. She asked the artist about it and he said, "I could not resist the opportunity of sending my name down to posterity on the hem of your garment."

Wasn't this a nice compliment? All of us want to have something of ourselves continued after we have gone. But if we really want to live forever we must attach our names to something more enduring than the hem of Mrs. Siddons' garment. Our signatures will last eternally only if they are kept by God in Christ. As we write our names on the hem of His robe, we come into the glory of eternal life.

WHAT'S "ALL NUMBER CALLING"?
It's the latest development in telephone numbering. Now, in many communities throughout the country, you dial seven numerals to make a local call—no letters. For example, KL 5-2368 becomes 555-2368—a true telephone "number." Why was this done? Simply because we're running out of usable letter-number combinations. If we're to continue to grow and provide good service, we need to use the more flexible "all numerals" system. Some Michigan communities already have it. More will begin to use it soon. You'll find this new system more accurate and we think you'll like it.

MICHIGAN'S NATURALLY
the motor center of the world. We've got drive-up banks and mail boxes, drive-in restaurants and movies . . . even a place where you can drive up to return a library book. Well, the telephone company is right up-to-date, too. We're installing new drive-up telephone booths! Small, handy, well-lit, these drive-up phones are a welcome aid to the motorist who wants to make a call in a hurry. They supplement the regular roadside telephone booths that are already a familiar sight along many of our highways.

A SLIMMER, LIGHTER yet stronger spring telephone cord has been developed by Bell Telephone Laboratories and Western Electric. One secret of its new, sleek strength is the use of nylon, instead of cotton, thread. Slimming a cord seems like a small change—until you realize that it will save more than half a million dollars annually in cord costs! It's another instance of your telephone company's constant search for new ways to improve the equipment you use, while keeping the cost of your service low.

Teacher Profile

He Combats 'Flabbiness'

The plush living of an affluent society has bankrupted Americans of a respectable standard of physical fitness, the experts tell us. The automobile, the pushbutton and the television, it seems, have made us a nation of jellyfish. Food goes to waist as Americans further complicate the problem by overeating. The sentence, "We have become a nation of spectators," has become a cliché, and the word "spectatoritis" was coined to explain the flabby state of American muscles.

Subscribing completely to all these concerns is Northville Junior High's David Longridge, the boys' physical education director. "The only exercise many kids seem to get these days is in walking to the refrigerator during TV commercials," he comments.

To counteract this lethargy, Longridge has taken the "Physical fitness approach" to physical education, as opposed to the "recreational approach." The boys spend almost 10 minutes of each period in mass calisthenics, and 25 to 30 minutes in an organized activity such as volleyball, basketball, tumbling or wrestling.

To measure the progress of the program, Longridge has devised a physical fitness test that is given three times in the school year. It measures the ability of the students to do push-ups, maximum is 20; sit-ups, maximum is 50; and pull-ups, maximum is 85; standing broad jump; medicine ball throw; and shuttle relay.

Longridge estimates that three-quarters of the students tested in the first test given in October failed to pass minimum physical fitness standards. A second test given in January has shown marked improvement, and further improvement is expected by the final test in May.

To advance his program Longridge feels that additional equipment including parallel bars, a side horse, chinning bars, climbing rope, etc. are necessary. He hopes to have all the equipment he needs within four years.

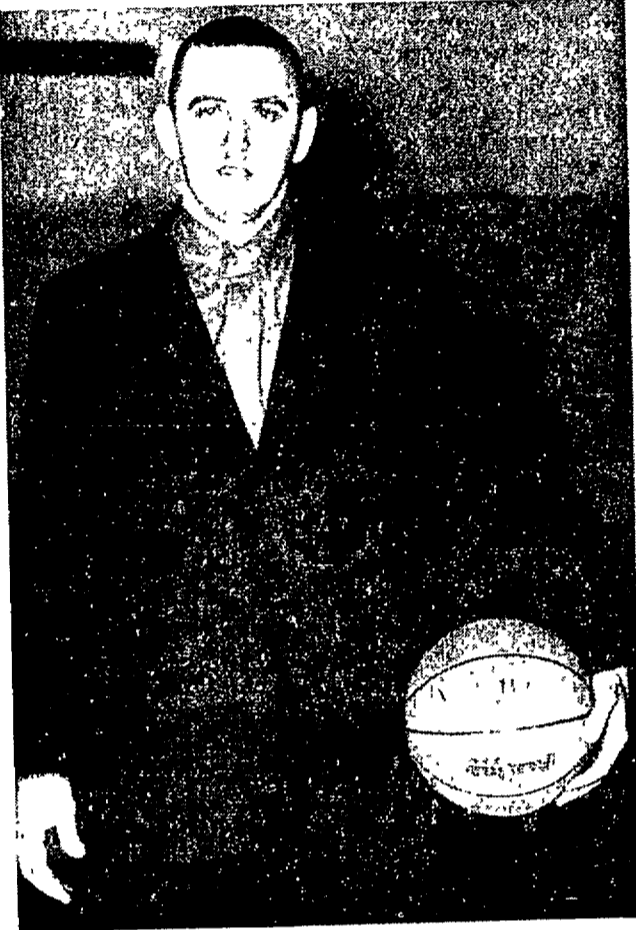

This type of equipment builds a good physical fitness program, he feels, while more balls lead to a mere recreation program. "People have a right to look down on a physical education program that consists of throwing in a ball and letting the children go helter-skelter," he says. "We need less ball and more program."

Longridge brings varied experience in the physical education field to his first year of teaching. He spent the last two years of a four-year hitch in the Navy supervising a gym, teaching basketball, arranging tournaments, etc. in Philadelphia. He scored touchdowns for Eastern Michigan university and became captain of the team in his senior year. Last year he supervised the swimming and playground activities of the Wayne City Recreational department.

A probe into his educational background discloses that Longridge graduated from Fordson High school in his hometown of Dearborn. He earned his B.S. degree from Eastern Michigan university at Ypsilanti where he racked up almost as many credits in history and geography as he did in physical education courses.

Scholarship and athletics were not his only pursuits in college. During his freshman year he met a pretty coed from the University of Michigan and persuaded her to transfer to Eastern the next year. Shortly thereafter they were combing rice out of their hair.

Now that college is behind them, Dave Longridge and his charming wife, Margaret (who teaches first grade at American School) are anxious to settle down.

Official Minutes of the Novi School Board

The regular meeting of the board of education was called to order by the president, Mr. Heslip, at 8:10 p.m. on Wednesday, February 8, 1961.

Present were Mr. Heslip, Mr. Erwin, Mr. Taylor, Dr. Ambinder, Mr. MacBride and Dr. Medlyn. Also present were a number of interested parents and teachers.

The minutes of the January 11th meeting, were approved as corrected.

The minutes of the January 18th meeting were approved as presented.

The treasurer's report of fund balances, which was approved as read, follows:

General Fund	$53,520.57
Lunch Fund	5,627.22
Payroll Fund	400.00
1957 Building and Site Fund	159,860.59
1955 Debt Retirement Fund	17,517.91
1957 Debt Retirement Fund	5,909.68
1958 Debt Retirement Fund	1,175.81

The Library report would not be given until the March meeting. Dr. Medlyn reported, since it appeared worthwhile to have Mrs. Allen, the librarian, attend the Oakland County Library conference before completing her report. This meeting was scheduled for Feb. 10.

Dr. Medlyn reported that an electrical firm had offered to do a room in the Novi School to demonstrate their fixture. This firm claims that their fixture will save the district money.

Mr. William Dean and Mr. Dion Trafalian were present to report on the finance committee. Dr. Ambinder asked Mr. Dean to elaborate on the committee's reasons for asking that the board adopt the budget presented by the committee. Reasons given were:

1. The committee's budget shows a more realistic income than the board budget of last April, which was based on a larger income that never became a reality.
2. The budget changes through the year, the new budget is more up-to-date.
3. The committee would like to give budget performance reports, but basic budget needs to be accepted first. They would like to use the budget as a device for reporting to the board on the financial status of the district.

Dr. Medlyn recommended that the committee's budget be adopted.

It was moved by Dr. Ambinder, seconded by Mr. MacBride, that the committee's budget be adopted for the remainder of the fiscal year, with an expression of commendation to the committee. The motion carried.

Mr. Trafalian stated that he felt the school operating deficit needs to be eliminated. Mr. Dean spoke on sources of future revenues; he said the need for additional revenue next year would be dependent upon next year's budget.

They reported that the finance committee report on insurance was not yet ready for presentation to the board.

Mr. David Fried of the High School Committee read the committee's report on the need, desirability and possibility of providing high school facilities.

Mr. Fried reported that one of the key questions that the committee faced was "Could the arrangement that Novi has with Northville be continued and for how long?" The conclusion reached, after conferences with the Wayne County Board of Education, the Northville Board of Education and staff, was "that the Northville school system faced a problem of overcrowding of their high school in the coming years and that a crisis would be reached about 1964 or 65. However, they could continue to accept Novi students until 1968 or 1969, if Novi would offer Northville some relief in the number of students sent to Northville."

The committee found that Novi had three alternatives for action under these circumstances:

1. The building of a high school to be operational by 1964 or 1965.
2. Absorbing ninth grade students in our present facilities.
3. The building of a junior high school.

It was the opinion of the committee that the answer to the problem was the building of a junior high school operational by 1964 or 1965. They further recommended that the board of education immediately appoint a committee of citizens, teachers, consultants and board members for the purpose of preparing a preliminary report of educational recommendations for a junior high school to be submitted to the board within one year.

Dr. Ambinder asked that the report be incorporated into the minutes for publication, that the report be adopted by the board and a copy sent to the Northville school board.

Mr. Heslip asked the members of the board to study the report, and the committee not to disband but to return to answer questions of the board members concerning the report at the March meeting.

Mr. Edw. Presnell appeared before the board with a problem concerning his son, a student of the junior high school. Dr. Ambinder asked that the persons concerned meet with the board in executive session after the agenda for the meeting had been covered.

It was moved by Mr. Erwin and seconded by Mr. Taylor, that the superintendent's bond be renewed for another year.

Dr. Medlyn asked that the board consider having a mechanical contractor look at the heating system of the Novi building, since we continue to have heating problems with the radiant heating in the annex and with the community building.

There was to be a joint board meeting of the Wayne, Washtenaw, and Oakland county boards of education on Thursday, Feb. 9 at 4:00 p.m. for a hearing on the petition of transfer of a lot in Meadowbrook Estates on Eight Mile Road, from the Novi school district to the Northville school district. The family live in the former Durfee school district, and since the consolidation had continued to send children to Northville, paying tuition. It was moved by Mr. Erwin, and supported by Mr. Taylor, that the members of the board go on record, as a board, opposing transfer of the property to Northville. The motion carried.

Dr. Medlyn stated that the choice of the teachers in regard to textbooks would be brought before the board.

The date of Feb. 15, 1961 at 8:00 p.m. was set for a meeting of the board with members of the teachers salary committee. The meeting was to be held in the Orchard Hills library.

At this point in the meeting the board adjourned to executive session to hear Mr. Edwin Presnell.

Following the executive session there was some discussion by the teachers present of poor discipline in the classrooms.

The following resolution was offered by Mr. Erwin and seconded by Mr. Taylor: Whereas it has come to the board's attention that the motion concerning corporal punishment of Dec. 14 has caused confusion as to the teachers' disciplinary rights. Be it resolved that the purpose of that motion was not to limit the authority of the teaching and administrative staff. The teachers have the authority and are expected to maintain strict classroom discipline. A meeting between the school board and the teaching staff shall be held as soon as possible to study the formation of a disciplinary policy.

In the discussion, Mr. MacKay, a junior high school teacher stated that there had been a radical decrease in classroom control since the earlier resolution had appeared in print.

It was moved by Dr. Ambinder, and supported by Mr. MacBride, that the motion be amended to read: Be it resolved that a meeting be called of representatives of the faculty and school board to discuss disciplinary policy. The amendment failed to carry.

The motion carried.

Dr. Medlyn announced that citizen's committees on Teacher Personnel, Special Education and Curriculum are to report at the March meeting.

The Audit committee asked that the bills be presented to them at least forty-eight hours before the regular meeting. It was moved by Mr. MacBride and supported by Dr. Ambinder, that the bills be paid as follows:

General Fund	$3,548.36
Lunch Fund Bills	$1,331.68
Building and Site Fund Bills	$1026.71

Northville City Council Minutes

A regular meeting of the Northville City Council was held at City Hall Monday evening, March 6, 1961, at 8:00 p.m.

Present: Mayor Allen, Councilmen Canterbury, Reed and Welch. Absent: Councilman Juday.

Minutes of last regular meeting were read and approved.

Bills were presented for payment as follows: General Fund $10,870.62, Other Government $5,070.50 — Water Fund $7,164.58. It was moved by Reed, supported by Canterbury, that these bills be allowed and paid. Carried.

Communications were read from Wayne County Chairman of Michigan Week asking that the City make an early appointment of a local chairman; from the City of Livonia informing the City of Northville that they decline to participate in the establishment of a joint hospital authority; from Trend Homes, Inc., assuring the city that no Drive-in restaurant will be allowed in the property at the northwest corner of Allen Dr. and Novi Rd. which is to be zoned C-1 and that they will create an entrance area along Allen Dr. beginning at Novi road and terminating at the boundary of Yerkes Estates Sub. No. 2 in conformity with sketches that have been submitted.

Mgr. Robertson reported that he had contacted Robert Prom, President of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, regarding taking over the Michigan week program, and Mr. Prom said he would take the matter up with his executive board on March 9.

Letter was read signed by six residents of Orchard Heights Sub. asking when the city was going to build sidewalks on Grandview Ave. and Orchard Dr. Mgr. Robertson and Engineer Penn were instructed to investigate the possibility of making these sidewalk installations at an early date.

Regarding the amendment to Zoning Ordinance, corner of Allen drive and Novi road in Trend Homes area, which proposes that the southern portion be zoned C-1, the northern portion to be zoned R-1, the adoption of which is recommended by the City Planning Commission, it was moved by Welch, supported by Reed, that a notice of public hearing on this proposition be published, and that said hearing be held March 20, 1961 at City Hall at 8:00 p.m. Carried.

The matter of the transfer of option from Mrs. Ethel Garrett to the Kroger Co. was taken up. A signed release from Mrs. Garrett for purchase of the Scout building was presented, and it was moved by Reed, supported by Welch, that same be accepted. Carried.

It was then moved by Reed, supported by Welch, that the new option between the City of Northville and the Kroger Co. covering the Scout building property be executed, which provides for a full purchase price of $13,160, payable at time of delivery of deed, provided that notice of election to exercise option has been given to seller in writing on or before 5:00 o'clock p.m. of May 15, 1961. Motion was carried.

The matter of the vacation of West St. was the next item of business. William Crump, representing the School Board, stated that while no formal promises were made before the Community Building was purchased, it was understood that no restrictions as to the vacation of West street were contemplated, and the School Board does not feel they want to commit a future board to keeping the present right-of-way of West St. so that it cannot be built upon in the future. After discussing the matter pro and con at some length, it was moved by Canterbury, supported by Reed, that that portion of West street lying between the south line of W. Main street right-of-way and the north line of W. Cady street right-of-way be vacated, subject, however, to the execution of an agreement between the City of Northville and the Northville School Board that as long as it is feasible and practical, they will maintain a pedestrian right-of-way across said vacated right-of-way, and should this later not be practicable, that they shall provide a pedestrian right-of-way from W. Cady street to W. Main street across school property. Carried.

It was moved by Canterbury, supported by Allen, that William Slattery be appointed to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of E. W. Ebert, Jr. from the Planning Commission. Carried.

Mgr. Robertson presented the report he had prepared regarding the costs of paving No. Center street, and figuring on the property owners taking part in the costs of this development. This matter will be taken up at a special meeting to be held March 13, 1961, at which time there will also be a discussion with N. C. Schraeder regarding parking lot property at the rear of his place of business; further discussion of an architect for new City Hall, appointment of Michigan Week Chairman, and the Police Rules Addendum.

An initiatory resolution regarding the No. Center street pavement will be drawn up for March 13 meeting, at which time same will be gone over by the council.

Councilman Welch reported that he and Councilman Juday have checked the need for another light on Scott avenue, and he recommended that lights be installed on both Scott avenue and Sprung drive. The Council agreed that these lights should be installed.

Councilman Welch verbally presented his resignation from the Election Commission, due to the fact that he is running for office. Moved by Reed, supported by Canterbury, that his resignation be accepted. Carried.

It was then moved by Welch, supported by Reed, that Councilman Juday be appointed to this appointment, Councilman Canterbury will fill the vacancy. Carried.

No further business appearing, meeting was adjourned at 11:10 p.m.

Signed Mary Alexander, Clerk

How's Your Parent Rating

How do you rate as the parent of a school-age child?

In an age when parents are prone to stress academic achievement for children, many parents fail to provide a stimulating environment at home, according to Robert S. Fox (EdD), director of The University of Michigan University school.

He suggests parents might ask themselves these questions:

- 1) Do you subscribe to a variety of magazines and read them?
- 2) Do you discuss 'meaty' problems at home, such as local, national or international affairs?
- 3) Does dad take the youngster with him to some of his civic and social activities?
- 4) Does the family, on vacation trips, make it a point to visit historic spots or special-interest places?
- 5) Does the family have available in the home some reading resources the child can use, such as a good encyclopedia, and good general interest reading material?
- 6) Does the family attend cultural programs, go to concerts, visit museums?
- 7) Does the family read aloud occasionally?

Any parent who answers "yes" to less than four of these categories has some home work of his own to do, says Fox.

SPEAKING for the Record

By Bill Sliger

A "handful" of people — 12 to be exact — turned out Friday night to discuss with State Senator Ray Dzendzel some of the issues before the state legislature.

Dzendzel isn't discouraged. He's coming back again, probably in May after the anticipated April rush of legislative business has passed its peak.

Senator Dzendzel is the representative in the state senate of Northville township and Wayne county residents of the city — whether they like his political affiliation or not. He should be a source of valuable information to anyone interested in state government — and certainly there are more than 12 in Northville.

I like Senator Dzendzel's idea of making a public appearance each month or so before his constituents. It's billed as a non-political effort designed to keep the people at home informed on the Lansing scene.

We'd have to take the "non-political" part with a grain of salt — but fail to see anything wrong with the senator strengthening his job security so long as he is willing to undertake such a time consuming project.

What's more, his appearances could hurt his popularity. If his answers are not fully comprehensive and complete in detail.

It is not important that Senator Dzendzel agrees with his questioners; it is, however, important that he can substantiate his position on the issues.

As an unsolicited suggestion to Senator Dzendzel and his moderator, I would propose that future sessions might draw a larger audience and prove more informative if:

— interested citizens would be encouraged to submit questions to the moderator a week in advance of the meeting thereby giving the senator an opportunity for research, if necessary;

— a definite time schedule be established — 8 p.m. until 10 p.m. for example — and designation of the final half-hour to questions from the floor that had not been previously submitted;

— finally, the true purpose of the sessions could be served more properly if members of the audience would refrain from direct, blunt criticisms of political parties per se; this is not to suggest that debate of party policy differences should be excluded.

In a sidelight of Friday night's meeting Senator Dzendzel pointed to a full page advertisement published by the Lansing State Journal as evidence of Michigan's strength — and as rebuttal to a recently published article in a national magazine entitled "Michigan: The Problem State".

In its positive answer to the article the Journal has this to say:

— Michigan is the first in the nation in the production of motor vehicles, parts, truck-trailers and mobile homes; boat building, conveyors, machine shop work, gray-iron foundry production; metal stampings; hardware supplies; salt; sporting and athletic goods; steel springs; cereals; public building fixtures; padding and upholstery filling; and internal combustion engines.

— Michigan leads all other states in the value of its manufactured products per worker; that Michigan bears the title of "Industrial Capital of the World" and has manufacturing operations in 369 of the 453 industry groups classified by the U.S. Bureau of Census;

— more than half of Michigan's 83 counties rank among the top 100 counties in the nation in production of field crops, fruit and livestock;

— the state has 43.5 billion dollars annual sales in its retail consumer market, that it is served by the St. Lawrence Seaway, 32 railroads, 190 truck lines, 14 major or feeder airlines; that it has one of the most complete highway systems in the nation;

Michigan still has about 40 percent of its land area available for development.

Babson Park, Mass. As I write this column, thousands of farmers and their wives in the snow-packed Central West are insisting they will never spend another winter on the farm. They are agreeing to spend their winters in California or Florida, and are trying to decide which it will be. Here is a brief, but impartial, answer.

Although I have spent 35 winters in Florida and expect to do so for the remainder of my life, I often wish I had been born in California!

It is a wonderful state, with tropical climate in the south, snow in the north, and any climate between these which anyone could wish. It has a long coastline, a desert interior, and great mountains. The only out is Los Angeles, with its crowded population, terrific transportation problem, its "smog," etc.

California is also rich in natural resources, with the possible exception of coal. It has great waterfalls which supply electricity to all the homes; it furnishes natural gas which heats most of the homes; but its great asset is oil. California has an abundance of oil of good quality, and this has been a tremendous asset to the state industrially, besides paying for roads, state buildings, and other public improvements.

All of these came after the discovery of gold in 1849, which sparked the "gold rush" and resulted in the building of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railroads.

As I think of the farmer and his wife in Nebraska, I wonder whether all these natural resources will be of much help to them? For the businessman with money, who can purchase large acreage for an extensive cattle ranch or orange and other fruit groves, there is still an opportunity for health, power, and prosperity in California. Few investment bargains, however, exist at the moment, although they will appear again when the next depression comes. A large amount of money is borrowed on California enterprises, and most of these mortgages are held by one or two great California banks which could be very tough if the tide turned against them.

For the farmer and his wife in moderate circumstances who want only a winter home or place to retire to — California may not be the state. Prices are high, and there is a shortage of houses in most sections. If you have friends living in some small California city — preferably near the coast — and they know of some reasonably priced home, it might be well to go out and look it over. California in general, however, is a place for big business rather than for retired farmers.

Outside of sunshine and a fair rainfall, Florida has only a few natural advantages. It has no coal; no waterpower; no natural gas, except that being brought in by pipeline; and, most important of all, Florida has not yet discovered oil. Some years ago oil was found in South Florida around the town of Sunnland and a few wells nearby were drilled and produced oil. This caused the great Florida oil boom.

Nearly all the large oil companies sent representatives to get leases and do exploration work. Many of these companies spent millions of dollars drilling for oil, but not one drop of commercial oil or gas did they find. Very few wells have gone below the 10,000-foot limit, and very little "off shore" drilling has been done.

Small industries are starting up in Florida, using electricity. Orlando and Tampa are rapidly becoming industrialized, while Jacksonville is a great

New Tax Plans Face Legislative Battles

Michigan's muddled tax waters are being stirred up by proposals, counter-proposals and just plain talk.

Action in the Legislature on revenue questions is expected to be hot and heavy this year, but not until after the April 3 election. That doesn't slow up the avalanche of proposals, reports and smokescreens concerning taxes.

Most of these are in good faith. Honest efforts to correct the recognized inequities in the tax situation are not hard to find.

Unfortunately, there is some self-seeking, a great deal of political maneuvering, a touch of misinformation and mountains of misunderstanding surrounding taxes.

Gov. John B. Swainson has presented his ideas on fiscal reform to the Legislature, and promises that these will be followed up by specific proposals in the form of bills.

He is giving his plan, which includes a 3 per cent personal income tax, a 3 per cent tax on corporation profits, tax relief for industry, sales tax exemptions on food and prescription drugs and increased state payments to local units of government, the hard sell.

At every opportunity he has to speak, Swainson presses the theme that his fiscal revision plan is a way to start solving Michigan's fiscal woes.

The Governor is also promoting governmental reorganization plans and economic development proposals whenever possible.

A state senate study committee which looked into the Michigan tax picture recently reported back to the upper chamber an analysis which grew out of a series of hearings in various parts of the state.

The chairman of this committee, Sen. Clyde H. Geerlings, who is also the chairman of the Senate taxation committee, has advocated a plan which he says would hit the heart of the problem; inequities at the local level in taxes on real and personal property.

His ideas, backed by several strong groups, would cut the local taxes on business with some loss of revenue to the local governments.

This could be made up, Geerlings believes, by giving the local units the power to levy certain taxes such as payroll taxes, sales taxes on certain items and other levies, after a vote by the people in the local unit approved them.

There is some opposition to this plan on the grounds that it would be giving the local governments a taxing power which should be reserved to the state.

Another plan in the legislative bill hopper was prepared by Rep. E. D. O'Brien, D-Detroit.

Like Swainson's plan, it would produce no more revenues for the state. O'Brien's plan also incorporates many of the features of the Governor's proposal, but would gain most of the revenue lost through tax concessions to business by levying a 5 per cent corporation profits tax.

It does not include a personal income tax.

It is too early to say which, if any, of these plans will be considered seriously by the Legislature. Other tax ideas are certain to be introduced, and the best bet is that any solution attempted by lawmakers will include elements of several plans.

The powerful interest groups that watch closely legislative action are certain to advocate tax proposals of one kind or another as they crystallize.

It would do well for the average citizen to watch the legislative maneuvering and the tax plans as closely, and make known his desires on how he wants to pay for government in the immediate future. In the event of a Constitutional Convention, at least one group in the state will be ready to lay out its ideas for revision of the 1908 basic law.

Veteran law enforcement officers are directing a study to determine what areas of the Constitution most affect their line of work.

A sub-committee of the permanent legislative committee representing law enforcement agencies has so far isolated nine areas which it believes must be looked into in relation to a Con-Con.

Former State Police Commissioner and Republican candidate for Governor, Donald S. Leonard, is in charge of the research program.

The areas that will be studied: Judicial selection and tenure; non-partisan selection of supreme court justices, qualifications of judges and a proposed intermediate court of appeal. Qualifications and selection of jurors, and the jury system. Length of term of office of elected county and state law enforcement officers. Jurisdiction of local police and whether it should be broadened. Search and seizure, a highly controversial subject due to recent decisions of various courts. Term, powers and duties of the Attorney General, and including subpoena power to prosecuting attorneys as well as the Attorney General. Probation, pardons and paroles, including extradition and powers of the Governor. Justices of the peace. Human rights as declared in the state Constitution.
