A Navy missile was high light of parade... while C. E. Langfield's ice cream treats were favorites after the ceremonies.

Most of the crowd followed the parade to the Veterans Plot where official ceremonies were conducted.

Interest High In Novi School Vote

While interest in the June 12 Northville school board election is almost nil, the same is not true in the neighboring school district of Novi.

Northville has only one candidate for the single vacancy on the board, incumbent Donald B. Lawrence.

In Novi there are but two candidates, but they represent factions currently at odds on the present board.

Incumbent Edward Erwin, longtime Novi resident and apple orchard operator, is being challenged by David Fried, a young attorney who has lived in Novi for five years.

Erwin has the support of Board President Arthur Heslip and Russell Taylor, board secretary.

Fried is backed by newcomer board members, Walter Ambinder and John MacBride.

It's clearly a battle between the new and the old. The Ambinder-MacBride-Fried combine all reside in Willowbrook subdivision and represent, in general, the philosophy of the young families with small children who have moved into Northville within the past half-dozen years.

This group has shown intense interest in the school system and carried Ambinder and MacBride to surprisingly easy victories over older residents last year.

Almost from their start on the board Ambinder and MacBride have been on the short end of the board votes, 3-2.

Now, obviously, they are seeking to reverse the situation. The candidates will meet face-to-face next Wednesday in a "debate" of the issues at the Orchard Hills school at 8 p.m.

The public meeting came about as the result of a motion made by Ambinder.

Chief topic of the debate will undoubtedly be the proposed six mil increase that will also appear on the June 12 ballot.

Ambinder and MacBride oppose the measure.

Although Erwin seconded the motion to place the millage hike on the ballot, he has not publicly announced whether or not he intends to support it.

Keynote speaker for June 15 commencement exercises honoring Northville high school's class of 1961 will be Raymond O. Darling, staff assistant in charge of college and university relations with General Motors Educational Relations section.

Darling, associated with General Motors since 1941 when he joined the GM Research Laboratories as a summer student, will address 133 graduates, their relatives and friends in exercises slated to get underway at 8 p.m. in the high school gym.

A 1943 graduate of Michigan State university, Darling has been with the Educational Relations section of the GM Public Relations staff seven years. He has held a number of posts including that of associate editor of The General Motors Engineering Journal.

Darling, who graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in mechanical engineering, belongs to the Engineering Society of Detroit and the American Society for Engineering Education.

With 2,400 seats available in the gym, High School Principal E. V. Ellison said no tickets would be needed to attend the graduation program. However, he pointed out that tickets were necessary for the Baccalaureate service Sunday, June 11.

The Reverend Peter Nieuwkoop, First Baptist church, will officiate at Baccalaureate, which will begin at 8 p.m. at the high school.

On Friday, June 9, the public is invited, said Ellison, to attend the high school Honors Convocation set for 8 p.m. in the auditorium. All citations honoring scholarship will be presented at that time, he stated, with George W. Matthews, assistant manager of the Wayne district Detroit Edison company as guest speaker.

Another special activity coming up for graduating seniors, Ellison noted, is the annual Junior-Senior banquet Tuesday, June 13.

Juniors tote the graduates at the banquet and pay for the graduates' dinners.

Wednesday, June 14 is the final day of classes for public school students. School officially closes on June 16.

Honor OLV, St. Paul's Graduates

School is out on Friday, June 9 for students at both Our Lady of Victory and St. Paul's Lutheran schools.

At Our Lady of Victory the school day will end at 12 o'clock noon, said Sister Mary Bernarda, principal.

Harold Kenow, principal at St. Paul's Lutheran, said students there will attend a closing worship service at 8:30 a.m., June 9 to be followed by an all-school picnic.

St. Paul's and Our Lady of Victory plan to honor their eighth grade graduates in special ceremonies.

As part of 10:30 a.m. worship on Sunday, June 11 Roger McClain, chairman of St. Paul's board of education, will present diplomas to the following graduating eighth graders:

Penny Balko, Sonia Clark, Corinne Johnson, Eddie Karschnick, Martha Lane, Harold Timpf, Robert Wiley and Karen Williams.

Twenty-two Our Lady of Victory eighth grade graduates will be honored in a 7:30 p.m. service in the church Tuesday, June 6. The class and its officers are:

Robert T. Flavin, president; Gary A. Harland, vice-president; Betha A. Grayson, secretary; Theodore J. Bunker, treasurer; James A. Bertoni, Nancy L. Bosak, Nancy L. Cook, Lawrence M. Dolan, Josephine W. Flattery, Richard A. Helffer, C. Marshall Huff, Sharon H. O'Brien, Frank G. Pauh, Dennis M. Phillips, William D. Pietron, Gerald J. Schmitz, Linda M. Solomon, Constance M. NEW PRESS — This 14-ton Goss Model E web-fed newspaper press was delivered in one piece to The Record last week. It was moved into the new ground-level press room from the city parking lot at the rear of the building. Rear walls of the building are now being constructed. The press will be used for the first time by The Record next week.

New Web-Fed Press Installed at Record

Installation of a Goss model E flatbed, web-fed newspaper press is being completed this week by the Northville Record, Inc.

The new press, which will increase production capacity nearly five-fold, is being installed in a newly built press room at the rear of the Record building in an area formerly used for newsprint storage.

The 14-ton press was delivered last week. Installation is expected to be completed for publication of next week's editions. It was purchased from the Greenville Daily News, which has converted its printing process from letterpress to photo-offset equipment. Last week the Record's Michigan model OO was removed and delivered to its new owners, the Carlinville (Illinois) Democrat.

Installation of the new equipment will not only increase the press capacity of the Record, but reduce press-run time from 24 hours per week to approximately six hours. In addition, the press folds the newspapers, tabloid size pages, Fed from either two, four, six or eight page sections as it prints.

Additional floor space has also been gained in the Record building with the moving of the old press R had been mounted on wooden beams extending from the basement level. The Paul Palmer construction company is constructing the press room on the main floor area formerly occupied by the press will be used room.

This week's edition of The Record was printed at The Plymouth Mail.

Capacity of the old Record press was approximately 1,500 four-page sheets per hour. After a section was printed it then had to be run through a folding machine. The press was hand fed.

The Goss model E has a maximum running speed of 6,000 papers per hour in either 2, 4, 6 or 8 regular newspaper size pages or 4, 8, 12 or 16 tabloid size pages. Fed from either two, four, six or eight page sections it is the highest speed flatbed press because of its "double-acting" feature, i.e., so been gained in the Record building with the moving of the old press R had been mounted on wooden beams extending from the basement level. The Paul Palmer construction company is constructing the press room on the main floor area formerly occupied by the press will be used room.

A Goss company representative is directing installation.

Jaycees Announce July 4th Program

Northville's energetic and rapidly growing Junior Chamber of Commerce announced plans to sponsor two major summer programs this year.

The Jaycees will conduct a Fourth of July program complete with parade, games and fireworks at Ford Field.

On August 12 and 13 the local organization will stage a horse show at Northville Downs with the Shawnee Saddle Club of Farmington.

The July Fourth celebration will feature entertainment for children, such as wheel barrow and potato sack races and other games, and a parade scheduled to begin at 1:15 p.m.

According to Charles Ely, Jr., chairman of the July Fourth program, the Ford Field activities will last about four hours.

In the evening there will be a display of fireworks.

The two-day horse show will be a combined effort between the Jaycees and Shawnee Saddle Club. An undertaking of major proportions, it will feature contestants from throughout the mid-west performing in 90 different events.

Both organizations have pledged 25 per cent of the profits to the new recreation center building currently being planned by the city. Official acceptance of the proposed donation was given the Jaycees by the city council.

Co-chairman of the horse show are Walter Ribant, Jr., of the Jaycees and Jim Powers of the Saddle Club.

Hearing Tonight On City Budget

Weather Helps Holiday

Old Sol smiled down brightly on hundreds of Northville residents as they lined the sidewalks Tuesday to watch the traditional Memorial Day parade. With temperatures in the mid-60's, it was one of the finest holidays ever.

Children pushed and pulled impatiently as the parade was delayed somewhat to wait for an army missile (that came here from the Novi parade earlier in the morning).

The high school band played loud and clear as it marched proudly in its new uniforms.

And everyone paused, prayed and remembered someone near and dear who had fought at sea, and Oakwood and Rural Hill cemeteries.

Dennis Gilbert, a high school student, paid tribute to the war dead in a brief address at the veterans' plot, while the Reverend Lloyd G. Brasure recalled our country's recent conflicts and also paid tribute to the community for its attendance at the memorial ceremonies.

The ceremonies, which many believe were attended by a record crowd, were conducted this year by the American Legion with L. W. Snow, Jr., as general chairman.

For those residents who are interested in where their city tax dollar goes a public hearing will be held tonight at eight o'clock at the city hall.

The new budget might be described as unexciting. It calls for the same millage as last year, 12.5.

The budget itself calls for an expenditure of $349,135 — down some $13,000 from last year's budget.

The 1961-62 budget marks the first time that city taxes will be assessed against the newly-annexed Northville Estates area, thus property tax collections are up to a record $129,000.

Estimates of other revenues are: $90,000 in state returns from harness racing; $60,000 in other state collected, locally shared taxes; and $69,735 in fines, licenses and miscellaneous.

The betting rebate is strictly a guess. Last year the city received $97,638 with one less racing night.

But this could well be offset by the fact that this year's 38-night season includes one more week end, when betting is at its heaviest.

The new budget provides for a justice of the peace salary for the first time. The salary is $3,000. Previously, the justice of the peace was on a fee basis.

Although some $86,000 is provided in the budget for capital improvements, $82,000 of this is not definitely earmarked. It will undoubtedly be used for street improvement but until the council settles the matter of special assessments (especially North Center street) it is not known which streets will be improved.

Other items listed under capital improvements include a final $40,000 payment on the fire engine, $11,000 for the Middle Rouge interceptor sewer, $5,000 for sidewalks and a proposed siren warning system that can be heard city-wide for $4,000.

An old bug-aboo pops up again in the new budget to haunt the council. It's the Wayne county library fee. It's up to $14,155 for the 1961-62 year, a hike of about $5,000 from last year. Councilmen had protested in past years at the increased cost of the library program.

City Wins Sidewalk Court Suit

The city of Northville won a sidewalk assessment suit brought by three residents in a hearing held Monday before Judge William John Beer of the Oakland county circuit court.

The suit was brought by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chappell, 816 North Center street, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hicks, 810 Horton, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Terry, 825 Carpenter.

In their appeal the property owners objected to an assessment for installation of new sidewalks because the land on which the walks were installed did not abut their property.

Actually, the sidewalk is about 12 feet from the property line. Normally, sidewalk is installed on road right-of-way property but approximately one foot from the property owners' land.

The city had claimed that the walk was moved out to avoid expensive grading problems. It was installed along the relocated Eight Mile road.

Judge Beer heard oral arguments by Dunbar Davis, representing the property owners, and Philip Ogilvie, city attorney.

After hearing both sides the judge ruled in favor of the city, dismissing all three cases.

The city will return to court soon on another special assessment matter.

This suit is being brought by Donald Yerkes in protest to a special assessment for paving on Novi street. Yerkes owns lots along this street and is protesting that the improvements have been made before the assessment was finally approved by public hearing.

all sorts of things

By SHARON MAZANEC

Just a few weeks ago in our very own Northville Record there appeared an article reporting the scholastic success of Beverly Claire Stone ("She Tops U-M Grads with All A's"). While marveling at the U-M senior's remarkable accomplishment — she deserves plaudits, kudos and all kinds of praise for whizzing through six semesters of classes with nothing less than A's — your reporter found herself at a loss to define Miss Stone's profession — she's an actuary — without consulting the dictionary.

A trip to the library and a few minutes pouring through the United States Department of Labor's Occupational Outlook Handbook (1959 Edition) furnished the answer.

Actuaries are mathematicians. But their work is just a little more involved than simple addition, subtraction, multiplication or division.

Their main job "is to keep insurance plans financially sound." Gathering and analyzing masses of statistical data, as well as being able to explain their meaning clearly and simply, figures into the actuary's job. Actuaries examine something that's going to be insured and evaluate the risks in order to set the premium rates for different kinds of insurance.

We don't know why or when Beverly Stone set her sights on an actuary's career. Perhaps it was just a natural for someone who liked math and found working with numbers easy.

Thank heavens for counselors, especially that hard working crew at the high school. These educators have to keep up to date on careers and college requirements besides seeing that students take the right courses in high school. And they're doing a fine job. Just ask the students they counsel and their parents.

Help for Penny-Watchers

A little help for economy-minded homemakers came this week from Mrs. William J. Light, wife and mother of three who lives with her family at 46885 Stratford court.

The dinner menu she volunteered for penny-watching cooks is easy on the pocketbook mainly because of its "Free Meal" main dish. Mrs. Light hit on the "Free Meal" name, she said, because the recipe's main meat ingredients are chicken livers and gizzards.

"And we've already used the chickens," quipped Mrs. Light. The housewife serves the chicken liver, gizzard mixture over rice: She rounds out the meal with a vinegar-oil salad — either cole slaw or a tossed salad, depending on the season. But be sure to use a tangy dressing.

For dessert the best bet is a slice of fresh, fruit pie, or, if you want to splurge on the calories, a square of mince-meat bar — made "Light style" — with a scoop of vanilla ice cream.

In large skillet, melt butter; saute onions and celery. Add cubed gizzards and livers; brown. Add mushrooms and season to taste. Add bouillon cubes, water; simmer slowly. Add more water and enough corn starch to thicken mixture to light gravy consistency. Pour over rice.

1/2 t. baking soda
1 cup brown sugar (packed)
1 cup shortening

It's Full of Laughs

Northville Parent-Teacher association recommends the movie "Absent-Minded Professor" as a family film full of laughs for everyone.

CAR Elects Officers

Election of officers and national convention reports highlighted the May meeting of the Plymouth Corners society, Children of the American Revolution (CAR), held at the Cottisford road home of Mrs. George Merwin, senior president.

Mrs. Merwin installed the following new officers: Vicki Merwin, president; Debra Older, vice president; Susan Templeton, secretary; Linda Barney, treasurer; and Phyllis Barney, chaplain.

Reporting on the national convention, which convened in Washington during April, were delegates Richard Martin and Vicki Merwin.

Two of the society's members are holding state positions this year. Debra Older has been appointed state music chairman and Vicki Merwin has been named state organizing secretary.

Baseball Finale Today

Orioles, Braves Have 2-2 Slates

Both Northville entries in the Livonia Class F Little League playoffs were made by Ken VanSickle, took a rest over the Memorial Day holiday after a week of action which saw the Orioles win their lone game and the Braves split a pair.

Both teams now have 2-2 won-loss records.

The Orioles used the second stringers mainly in registering a 5-3 win over the Twins last Wednesday. Pitcher Gerry Imstrand struck out nine and walked 13 in picking up the win.

Three singles represented the Orioles' hit production. They were made by Ken VanSickle, Mike Utley and Daley Hill. Walks and errors figured prominently in the scoring.

The Braves pounded out eight hits in whipping the Clarenceville Colonels last Tuesday, 13-3. Winning pitcher Tom Pruett had some mighty support from Rex Fackler who had three hits, including a three-run homer.

Saturday, the Red Sox scored three times in their last inning to hand the Braves a 13-10 licking. Keith Mueller and Glen Deibert worked the mound for the locals, Deibert taking the loss.

Of the seven hits by the Braves, Kevin Ling's two-run single in the first inning was a big one and got the team off to a good start.

Last Thursday's game between the Braves and Yankees was rained out.

Ladies Lose Close One

It was a close game, but Northville woman's softball team came out on the short end of a 4-3 score in a practice tilt against Garden City Sunday afternoon.

The Northville squad, still on the lookout for more help in the pitching department, practices at 6 p.m. every Monday night, at Cass Benton park.

LILLIAN BYRD, CITY CLERK

A long, chilly spring season of baseball comes to a close this afternoon at 3:15 for Northville's Mustangs when they tangle with the Plymouth Rocks at Plymouth.

The game will be a rematch of a game the two schools played Monday at Northville. An early holiday press time prevents the printing of those results as well as yesterday's completion of a 4-4 tie contest at Holly.

The Holly game is the one with most meaning. If Northville defeated them on Holly's baseball patch, then the locals wind up in second place all by themselves, one full game behind Milford.

And that one full game represents a loss to Clarenceville a couple weeks ago when Northville got all kinds of hits, but one at a time and one per inning.

This type of hitting was not the case last Tuesday when Northville walloped Oak Park in a non-league tilt, 13-2. The locals banged out 10 base hits, including a double and single by shortstop Steve Juday.

The game was decided in the first inning when six Mustangs crossed home plate. A total of three hits — one a two-run single by Roy Rice — three walks, a fielder's choice and an error all figured in the spurge.

Tom Daniels and Jim Juday both came up with consecutive singles and were followed by walks to Dave Hay and Steve Juday.

Craig Bell reached first safely on a fielder's choice, Jim Anderson received a free pass, and then Rice cracked his safety to wind up the scoring.

Northville scored one in the third inning on two walks, two stolen bases and a wild pitch. Three more came home in the fifth on Dave Hay's triple with Jim Juday on base. Hay scored on a bad throw to the plate. Steve Juday followed with a two bagger, went to third on a wild pitch and scored on an error.

The last three runs came in the sixth on three straight singles by Steve Juday, Bell and Bill Trotter. Trotter kept on trotting around the sacks when the Oak Park leftfielder let his hit roll by him for a three-bag error.

Coach Stan Golonka used three pitchers. Tom Swiss, the winner, went three innings, allowing no runs and no hits while fanning three and walking none.

Butch Willing was able (no pun intended) to go two turns on the mound, allowing no runs and two hits while shipping a third strike past two batters. Danny Brown, hurling the five-sixth and seventh innings, kept the Oak Park batters loose in the box after hitting the first two men to face him. Then he settled down walking the third and finally allowing a hit and letting two runs romp across. He whiffed four and walked away

W-O League Tennis Title Is Theirs

The Mustang tennis team wound up their season on a happy note last weekend when they trampled league opposition to take the Wayne-Oakland League title.

Also during the week, they defeated Clarenceville, 4-1, and Southfield, 5-0, to wind up with a 13-3 won-lost mark in dual meets.

They collected 18 points with West Bloomfield far behind with 8 1/2 points. The other schools in order were Milford 7 1/2, Holly 4 1/2, Clarkston 1 1/2, and Clarenceville failed to get a point.

One upset was the defeat of Diction Ornekian by Bob Bourns in the singles. Ornekian had trimmed Bourns five times during the season. But Captain Jon Rodgers and Tom Long combined in the doubles to defeat Bill Chapple and Dennis Laroque to more than offset the Ornekian upset.

Ornekian, a sophomore, will travel to Kalamazoo this weekend for State Class B action.

LET'S TALK CARS . . .

The New "12-12" Warranties

The 1961 manufacturers' warranties of "12 months or 12,000 miles" on all makes of new cars is simple evidence of a fact that has become more apparent with each new model over the last few years — that the modern mass-produced automobile has attained its highest degree of reliability in history.

We must bear in mind though, that cars are just machines, and no machine is perfect — or possibly ever will be. It is because of this reality that the car dealership exists as a service establishment primarily and attempts at "super-market" car selling have never proven successful.

Though some car buyers tend to overlook this fact in thinking it is only the "deal" that matters, the manufacturers do not. That is why to understand the new 12 month warranties you must realize that the wording of these agreements makes it clear that it is upon the dealer's "sole judgement" that the manufacturer bases his replacement guarantees.

Commenting on this, a recent issue of a national consumer's magazine of 1,000,000 subscribers, which carries no advertising and does not permit advertising use of its ratings of various manufacturers' products, had this to say:

"Car warranties are so worded as to be expressly DEALER warranties — they obligate the dealer, not the manufacturer, to make good on faults. Inquire among friends and acquaintances in your community, and restrict your car shopping to those dealerships which have earned a reputation for fair dealing in making warranty repairs. In other words, buy the dealer as well as the car."

We might add that you have everything in your favour if all your service work is done by the dealer from whom you bought your car.

TO TELL THE TRUTH

Many of you are acquainted with the gigantic effort put forth by "Radio Free Europe", to transmit the truth about world affairs into the countries behind the Iron Curtain. We firmly believe that these people should have an opportunity to hear the truth and we are willing to spend millions to see that they get it.

The transmission of the Truth to all the world is essentially the primary duty of the Christian Church. Jesus said, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature". This is the marching order for the Church and every Christian who makes up the local Church is responsible to see that these orders are carried out. Do you agree with me? If you know your Bible I'm sure you are saying "Amen" in your hearts. But tell me, how much of this Gospel are you giving out? What have you done in the last week, the last month, yes, even the last year that others might be saved by hearing of the Saviour who died for them that they might receive forgiveness and life eternal? What a difference it would make if you, yes you my friend, would take these marching orders seriously and begin today as a program of your own to make Christ known.

Research Saves 4 Youths from Mental Retardation

Today in Michigan four infants, genetically destined to be mentally retarded, have been assured normal intelligence and healthy growth.

The four are heirs to phenylketonuria (PKU), a disease which affects the body's protein metabolism and eventually "poisons" the brain unless detected and checked before six months of age. They were rescued by the Michigan Program for Mentally Retarded Children, centered at The University of Michigan Medical Center, and its intensive statewide campaign to predict and prevent mental disease. According to Dr. Richard J. Allen, U-M pediatric neurologist and director of the program, the groundwork for saving the four children was laid less than three years ago when the program initiated a continuing survey of Michigan's mentally ill. The study revealed about 100 cases of clearly defined PKU among the number of other mental diseases that beset Michigan.

PKU is an inherited disorder, and so physicians, psychologists and social workers from across the state interviewed and examined all family members of the victims uncovered by the survey. Special interest focused on newly pregnant mothers within the families. On delivery at various hospitals throughout the state, the babies were tested with special blood tests.

The four found to have PKU were diagnosed within days after birth and immediately placed on a special corrective diet. Dr. Allen says, "These four children will presumably grow to normal, intelligent adulthood. If they had gone untreated longer than six months, some degree of abnormality probably would have resulted." The Central Registry of all known PKU victims is located at the U-M Medical Center. The Michigan Program is aided by the Children's Bureau of the Department of Health.

Dr. Allen said it is believed to be one of the first statewide efforts of its kind to combat this type of mental illness. He predicts that in the near future, when all physicians in the state are acquainted with the disease and perform the necessary early and accurate diagnosis, PKU will be controlled.

Teachers Profile

He Exercises Imagination

Recently elected to the office of president of the Northville Teachers club for the year of 1962 to 1963 by his fellow teachers is sixth grade teacher John Barnett.

Mr. Barnett teaches at Main Street school and resides on Novi road in Novi. His family consists of five girls and two boys, the oldest is 14 years and the youngest is three. Mrs. Barnett does substitute teaching in the Novi School district.

His interest lies in the field of English, science, and social studies for his sixth graders. Writing compositions for English is a weekly requirement as well as book reports. This gives the students an opportunity, he believes, to put into practice what they read in their textbooks and enables the teacher to see what areas the child is having difficulty with.

Quite often Mr. Barnett will give them a one-word suggestion to write on and then will let them use their imagination, to expand on whatever thoughts they may have about the word. An example would be the word, "Weather". Some will discuss various clouds while others will roam to thoughts about rain, sunshine, or the effects of weather on a person's health.

Reports in areas that they are particularly interested in are also a requirement.

"I try to develop individuality by allowing them to work in areas of their own choosing and interest. Some are interested in social studies, while others are more inclined toward scientific projects. They are given five weeks in which to do the paper — much time is spent in the library doing research — and while this is basically an outside project, the class has often visited the Junior High library.

"Recent projects have included reports on gasoline and diesel engines, tropical fish, electric batteries, the Philippine Islands, and so on. The final paper is not the only thing expected of them; I like to see them work on constructing a model so they can demonstrate the actual movements of parts or charts showing the various types of tropical fish found in the Amazon River, or pictures of the Philippine Islands."

The University of Michigan has chosen John Barnett's group and 23 other Michigan classrooms for a special three-year project to study the effects of social and emotional climate on a student's ability to learn. The Institute for Social Research also chose 1 teacher from Northville High school to participate in their project which is presently in its second year. The teacher is interviewed by the institute official and then the class; finally the children fill out questionnaires. The last two weeks they have been busy with project officials visiting and conferring.

Not only is John Barnett a dedicated teacher but he also holds a license in practical nursing which he earned in 1951. Nursing helped him to graduate from college and raise a family. Barnett graduated from Rockmont college at Denver, Colorado in 1949, attended Dallas Theological seminary for three years, and obtained a Master's Degree from Texas College of Arts and Industries in 1957. Before coming to Northville two years ago he taught five years in Texas.

Mr. Barnett calls Ann Arbor his birthplace but his family moved to Walled Lake where he graduated from high school.

Congratulations Graduates

John Barnett

Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created."
One of the Correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states (p. 207): "There is but one primal cause. Therefore there can be no effect from any other cause, and there can be no reality in aught which does not proceed from this great and only cause."
The Golden Text is from Psalm 72: "Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things."

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

Arnold B. Cook, Pastor
First Baptist Church of Novi

First things first. Man has always been backward about going forward. Proverbially speaking, he is constantly "putting the cart before the horse." In nothing is this more demonstrably seen than in the spiritual realm.
Today's man is primarily occupied with the material things of life, often to the utter exclusion and welfare of his eternal soul. There seems to be time for business; time for pleasure;
time for others, but little or no time for God.

How often do we hear people, when asked to perform some spiritual service, reply, "but I don't have the time." Such unreasonable excuse reminds us of the two men who were playing golf on the Lord's Day. After some time spent in their sport, they began to feel pretty guilty. One said to the other: "I suppose we should have stayed home this morning and gone to church." To which the other replied lazily, "Oh, I couldn't have gone to church anyway. My wife's sick in bed."

In light of such apathy regarding man's first duty, we cannot help but think of the words inscribed on the walls of Lubec's cathedral.

Ye call me Master, and obey
me not;
Ye call me Light, and see
me not;
Ye call me Way, and walk
me not;
Ye call me Life, and want
me not;
Ye call me Wise, and follow
me not;
Ye call me Fair, and love
me not;
Ye call me Eternal, and seek me not;

Ye call me Gracious, and trust me not;
Ye call me Noble, and seive
me not;
Ye call me Might, and honor me not;
Ye call me Just, and fear
me not;
Ye call me Lord, and priase
me not;
IF I CONDEMN YOU,
BLAME ME NOT!

There is no excuse for men to leave God out of their lives on the presumption that there is not enough time. With all our time saving devices, and labor unions striving to create a 35-hour work week, where are the remaining 133 hours of every week which man must account for?

time for the things we want to do. If this be true, the correct analysis seems to be, that man just does not want to serve God.

Jesus, in His sermon on the Mount (Matt. 6:33) was speaking to people who were overly anxious about earthly things. His word to them was, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

If you, my friend, are one of those who has no time for the most important thing of all, then be mindful of the parable of the sower, who sowed the seed, some of which fell among the thorns that eventually choked and destroyed the tender plant.
Don't forget, "First things first."

EXAM
is

Nothing quite compares with the exhilaration of that final day at high school.

The drudgery of note-taking, the monotony of assignments and recitation, the tedium of term papers, the nights of cramming, the tolling tension of exam week... it's all behind them.

And ahead... graduation... the prom... college... a job.

But as an earnest parent, pause to take stock of your son's spiritual maturity. Has the soul's growth kept pace with the mind's?

The firmness of the bond between the Home and the Church holds the answer. Strengthen that bond every Sunday. In a world that constantly tests the faith of man... the last exam is not over.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship.
It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

It's Season To Beware Of Rabies

Warm weather will bring in increasing the chances for the increased activity among domestic spread of rabies, Dr. Joseph G. Molner, county health commissioner, states.

If you have not already done so, now is the time to have your family pet protected against rabies.

Dr. Molner warns against permitting your dog to chase skunks, squirrels or other animals when out in the country.

Dr. Molner suggests that everyone follow these precautions to protect both people and pets.

1. Have your dog or cat vaccinated against rabies as advised by a veterinarian.
2. Do not touch a stray or sick dog.
3. Have any dog bite treated immediately by a physician and notify the police department.
4. Report any stray dog to the dog pound.
5. Help enforce dog control laws and regulations in your community.

Initial steps were taken by the Northville city council to prepare a special assessment district for the Oakland County residents of the city for use of the Wayne county Middle Rouge the first test of the city's newly adopted ordinance giving the city the power to set up such districts.

Ron Horwath, with Royal Oak Shrine high school the last seven years, was named to succeed Ron Schipper as new football coach at Northville High.

Wixom passed a $154,000 budget with hardly a discordant note sounding throughout the evening.

Former Wixom mayor, Joseph Stadnik, announced his candidacy for the seat in 12th senatorial district. It is currently held by Republican Harvey Lodge.

A strong Northville High tennis team came within a whisker of winning the Wayne-Oakland-Interlakes League tourney. They settled for second behind Berkley.

FIVE YEARS AGO

It took 46 hours from the first spadeful of dirt to the first depositor when the National Bank of Detroit opened its Novi branch office. Working around the clock, about 40 men were working at one time.

Dr. L. W. Snow received the first "Northville Citizen of the Year" award from the American Legion in Memorial Day services.

It's graduation time in the area. Some 91 will be receiving diplomas from Northville High and 29 from Novi School. Northville's valedictorian is Donna Frisbie and salutatorian, Kathleen Heatley. In Novi, Sherry Davis is valedictorian and Wilard Sprenger, salutatorian.

With three weeks left, Our Lady of Victory parishoners have collected $70,000 for a new church building.

Allan Cockin, Northville high school senior, played in the state high school golf finals at St. Clair country club. He placed in the middle with a 90.

Mrs. George Weiss was installed as president of the PTA recently. Others elected were E. V. Ellison, vice-president; Mrs. E. W. McCarthy, secretary; and S. Robinson, treasurer.

Milford defeated Northville in baseball, 5-3, although the Mustangs outthrew their opponents, 9 to 5. The track season ended May 31 at Ypsilanti with the annual league meet.

The Northville Coordinating Council will sponsor a money collection drive for the Emergency Food Collection for the starving in war-torn countries overseas.

The annual spring concert at Northville High was given May 31 with accompanists for the evening being Joyce Talmadge, Marcia Sparling and Donna Jean Schnute. Milan George rendered several ac-cordian solos.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

State and county highway men studied the problem of widening Main street and lowering sidewalks in Northville. They suggested lowering the street to the level of the first step but feared merchants would object because they would have to put in a step to their stores.

The 1936 graduating class of Northville High will contain some 60 seniors. They will have a program type of exercise instead of an activity schedule as previously.

Some 16 villagers reported for work on the new scout hall. Fred Hicks supervised the work. They are aiming for a July 1 deadline.

The American Legion Auxiliary reported the sale of 1,500 poppies, equalling the previous year's total.

Postmaster Fred VanAtta had the rather unpleasant experience of being stuck in an elevator between floors while at a convention in Chicago. Fortunately there was space enough for a small man to crawl through and summon help.

SPEAKING for the Record

by Bill Sliger

Every year about this time it has been our practice to remind parents and motorists that the warm days of summer bloom forth with more than flowers, green grass and leaves. This wonderful season is for children. And they spring up all around us — playing ball, skipping rope, fishing, running and experiencing exciting new adventures in the world of mother nature.

No matter how many times we remind them of the hazards of traffic, deep water, holes and caves, trees, rusty nails and the countless other possibilities that could bring injury or even death, accidents still happen.

And who can honestly expect their busy minds to remember that cars kill when there is something new and wonderfully fascinating — such as a tipy fish in a pail of water — to behold.

The death of a six-year-old boy saddened Northville last week. There is no explanation for a tragic accident like this.

It is summer and there will be more boys and girls exploring, playing and tumbling. We can only continue warning our children, exercising care and caution as motorists, and finally, be hopeful and prayerful.

An era ended last week for The Northville Record. Equipment movers hauled away our Miehle model 00 newspaper press. It has served many years and several publishers.

The four-page, hand-fed press has delivered some three million impressions during its years of service with The Record and has produced editions that have won top state awards for typography.

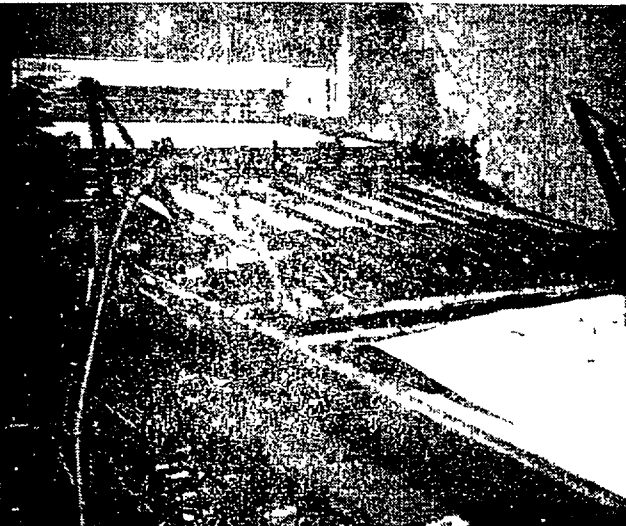

It is now on its way to the Carlinville, Illinois Democrat where it will continue to produce a weekly newspaper.

This week The Record is installing a Model E Goss webbed flat-bed press. It will do the job of the Miehle five times as fast, printing twice as many pages at once while doing the folding at the same time.

Installation of the new press will not be completed until publication of next week's edition. We have The Plymouth Mail to thank for printing of this week's edition.

News stories will report more details of our new equipment, which will make its debut next week.

Meanwhile, we bid a fond farewell to our trusty "double-0".

Pressman Clark Reike is shown making the final run on The Record's old press.

Role for State Industry

Michigan Week, 1961 is now history. In terms of activity by Michigan people within the state and publicity for Michigan outside, it was the greatest yet in the opinion of those who worked to make it a success. Naturally, those who boost this state are anxious that the effort be year-round rather than just a seven day binge. They are devoting much time to stretching effects of the "boost Michigan" idea as long as possible, and giving the drive a new lift each year in the May celebration. One way to keep things moving is to name the next year's chairman before this year's program is finished. That was done this year.

1962 chairman is Edward O. George, sales vice president of Detroit Edison, whose home was in Petoskey until 1929 when he went to work for the utility. Before this year's Michigan Week was started, he was busy organizing for next year; asking clubs, schools and other groups to improve this year's activities for the 1962 campaign which takes place, incidentally, May 20-26 next year.

"The manufacturer all too often leaves industrial promotion to the retailer, the banker, the insurance man, the utilities so far as leadership and strong participation are concerned," said Dan Gerber, Fremont baby food manufacturer and Michigan Week enthusiast, in one of the more significant talks made on the subject. He asserted that manufacturers should be out in front in their local industrial programs by the same reasoning that leads them to positions of leadership in such activities as the Community Chest. "It is no nobler or wiser to help one's fellow-man through charitable organizations and social ser-ter acquainted with their state and each other, their prides and problems; to win favorable attention for Michigan nationally; to encourage Michigan people to work together on an all year basis. Don C. Weeks and the staff of the Economic Development Department which he heads do a great deal of the co-ordinating for Michigan Week. Mr. Gerber, a former chairman and recently reappointed member, had this to say of that office in his recent Detroit talk:

"The staff of our state Economic Development Department is one of the ablest and most highly respected in the business. Under some-

How to Beat Inflation — Buy Land in Europe

Babson Park, Mass., Properly located acreage should be the best hedge against inflation, owing to its limited amount and the growth in population. I spent two months last fall studying land in Europe (I am making no report now on the Latin and South American countries or Canada.) As there was little interest in tourist travel in Europe during the winter, I have held these notes until now. Owing to Great Britain's desire to break up all unproductive estates of available acreage, I know of no bargains in acreage in England — although raw acreage can be purchased in Scotland and Wales.

However, I have traveled 900 miles by automobile in Ireland. There are few industries in Ireland due to the lack of natural resources. The people are healthy, happy, and willing to work. The youth of Ireland — outside of the few large cities — are happy living on farms which they expect to inherit from their parents.

As a result, very little of the good farming land is for sale in Ireland, even at high prices. Land which sells in Kansas for $100 per acre cannot be bought in Ireland for less than $400 per acre.

The mountain land in the western portion, which is good only for grazing sheep, can be bought for $10 or so per acre, depending upon its accessibility. Lakes and rivers abound in Ireland, which makes it good for pasturing.

In fact, the acreage in Ireland may be divided into three groups: (1) Good farm land in the "Golden Midlands"; (2) pasture land with good green grass but with not much depth of soil, which sells for about $150 per acre; and (3) rocky mountain land good only for sure-footed sheep and cattle, but preferably in the southern part near the ocean.

The above comments as to prices regarding Ireland apply also to France, Switzerland, and Italy. No good acreage is available in Belgium, Holland, or West Germany. Not only is the fertile land there in production, but the farmers control the politics, tariffs, and even prices.

Italy, however, is fast becoming an industrial nation with waterpower and other natural resources. U.S. manufacturers should watch Italy and Switzerland (and also Japan), although these countries now have much unemployment.

Europe has natural resources, including navigable rivers, iron, coal, chemicals and waterpower. It also has a climate which encourages people to work. Wages are fairly low and there is no scarcity of labor in most localities. This explains why so many American manufacturers are buying or building plants in Europe. Labor unions exist, but with the exception of those in France, are not now much of a handicap.

My comments regarding the three classes of land in Ireland also apply to Spain. Spain has waterpower, both developed and undeveloped. It has coal, oil, and chemicals. Wages are low and the cost of living is reasonable. Industries are springing up in Spain and the climate is fair, for both workers and tourists.

Perhaps as a foreign hedge against inflation I would now advise the purchase of well-located land in Spain, especially in the suburbs of Madrid, Toledo, Barcelona, and Valencia. The big real estate profits in Spain will take place in "Suburbia" — which is now just starting.

Of course, no one should invest in any foreign country without spending a month there and seeing the land personally. Spain has several different kinds of terrain and climate — dry and wet, mountainous and fertile, cold and warm. Most of what I say about Spain also applies to Portugal. I advise the southern coastal portion of Spain.

The west coastal country is warm in winter and may be compared to our Florida. Southwest of Barcelona toward Gibraltar there are several very attractive places. Given the same altitude, the temperature should grow warmer as one travels southwest from Barcelona or Madrid. Malaga is supposed to have the best all-round climate of any city in Spain.

Let me describe in some detail the area from Barcelona eastward to the French Border where one approaches the French Riviera. One can reach Barcelona by steamship, or plane, or railroad train. From Barcelona to the French Border is about 75 miles. One can make the trip in 3 hours by automobile or in one hour by electric train. The first town which interested me was San Pedro. This is about 20 miles east of Barcelona and has a good beach with medium-priced hotels. The next was Piana on the Sea, which is rapidly developing somewhat like our New York Coney Island. The next point of interest is Lloret de Mar. These places are old towns with very narrow streets, while the sandy beaches for sunning and bathing are superb. All these places have numerous hotels at all prices.

A fourth place of interest is Tossa by the Sea. This place is more expensive than the others and now appeals only to gay young people who want to bathe or lie in the sun all day and dance all night! Furthermore, the highway between Lloret and Tossa is very winding, with over 20 dangerous hairpin turns. Those going from Barcelona to Tossa or beyond should take the electric railway and avoid these hairpin curves with great high cliffs on one side and 1000-foot drops on the other.

Now for the final and most important reason why I think good money could be made east of Barcelona by those who are willing to go there and live for a month and look carefully about.

Here are three simple rules to follow: (1) Buy well-drained land between the highway and the ocean even if it is bisected by the electric railway. Insist that your land go down to the ocean. (2) Buy land now cultivated so that the rent which some reliable farmer will pay you will take care of the taxes. (3) Be sure your title is good, which means buy it through some reliable local banker or real estate agent. These rules apply to buying land for speculation in all of the above countries.

You will soon realize that situations exist for profit which I have not found in the suburbs of any large city in the world. From the time you leave San Pedro you will find small farms located all along the line adjoining good residences.

I cannot give you prices per acre because equally good producing soil appears to sell at entirely different prices. You must check up on a large number of such farm plots and then buy the cheapest; but insist on the above three conditions and, of course, get your land in a good neighborhood with good neighbors. This you can do only by living for one month between San Pedro and Lloret by the Sea.
