

Wayne County Circuit Judge Joseph A. Moynihan (right) officiated at city hall ceremonies Monday night when Charles McDonald was sworn in as new justice of the peace.

City's New Justice Takes Oath of Office

Exit Bogart

July 5th E. M. Bogart, Northville's justice of the peace for the past 10 years, is taking a vacation.

The judge wants to get away for a few days, although he has no intention of retiring to a life of idleness.

"I just can't sit around," the judge will tell you. At 68 he has the energy of a man half his age.

Beaten badly in the April election, the judge is not bitter but he does a poor job of hiding his disappointment.

He'll tell you that "young McDonald" will make a good judge. Yet Bogart is convinced that his service to business firms in helping collect bad debts will be sorely missed.

Bogart has been accused of conducting a "collection agency," a practice frowned upon by judges with legal training.

And he won't deny that he had built up a good business in this field. But he can see nothing unlawful or unethical in the practice.

During his 10 years in office Bogart estimates that he handled 1800 traffic and ordinance violation cases, 1400 state and county cases and 13,000 civil cases.

Bogart's fee for each case was $3.00. He'll tell you that his office now takes in a peak of about $9,000 annually. Then he asks how anyone could expect a judge to give up this for a $3,000 annual salary.

The judge still has hopes that he can return to the job of justice of the peace — although these hopes must certainly be considered slim.

His North Center street home is for sale. He would move to Northville township and take over for one of the two justices there — if they would be willing to step aside.

There has been no official comment from the township on this possibility.

School Considers Variety of Issues

Northville board of education reviewed but took no formal action Monday night on a report received from a public library study committee recommending that a one mill tax be levied in the district to support the facility.

The four members present at the meeting hesitated calling for a vote on the report until all members had the opportunity to give it more study.

William Crump, James Kipfer and Wilfred Becker were absent.

The six-point library report represents a four months' study made by a committee appointed jointly by the city and township.

While tabling the library report, board members did take action on a communication from the city asking them to consider whether a sidewalk along the north side of Cady street from school property to Rogers was needed.

The board said it could find no reasons at present. However, members said the situation would be checked from time to time in order to avoid any hazards to safety in that area.

Some suggestions from Junior High School Principal Donald Vanlengen for work on a playground area behind the community center got board approval. The board okayed plans to remove utility poles and a gasoline pump from behind the building, to erect a baseball backstop and basketball backboards and to cover the area with a sand-gravel surface. Parking will be restricted to the east side of the community center.

In other business the board:

— Authorized the purchase of 98 new lockers for the high school at a cost of $1,950;

— Fixed the salary schedule for the clerical staff, setting a $70 minimum and $95 maximum and authorizing administrators to give raises at their discretion.

— Approved pay raises for Assistant Superintendent of Schools Kenneth MacLeod to $12,400 and Director of Administrative Services E. V. Ellison to $12,000.

— Decided to ask for school bus bids and to advertise for bids on work involved in conversion of the Amerimair school boiler from hot water to steam;

— Declared Manufacturers National bank as the schools' official depository;

— Set the second Monday of the month for regular board meetings during 1961-62 with fourth Mondays set aside for possible special meetings.

Enter McDonald

Northville's new justice of the peace was sworn into office Monday night at a city hall ceremony attended by a host of well-wishers.

Justice-Elect Charles W. McDonald was sworn in by Wayne County Circuit Judge Joseph A. Moynihan, Jr., while council members, judges and attorneys from neighboring communities looked on.

The new justice does not take office officially until July 5, when he replaces E. M. Bogart — defeated by McDonald in an April election, 747-332.

McDonald will be Northville's first salaried justice. The council voted last winter to change the method of compensation from the fee system to an annual salary of $3,000.

An attorney with law offices in Redford township, the 32-year-old McDonald is married and resides with his wife and two children at 314 Debra Lane.

Following the swearing in ceremonies Judge Moynihan commended the council on its decision to adopt a salary system for justice and for its announced intentions of eventually adopting a municipal court. In particular he praised McDonald and added that he looked forward to the day when all judgeships would be filled exclusively by attorneys.

Other area judges attending the ceremony were Robert Anderson of Novi, James Canham of Redford township and Harry Deyo of Plymouth.

Freydl Heads Exchange

Charles Freydl, Jr., became president of the Northville Exchange club yesterday when new board members and officers were installed at the Wednesday noon meeting of the local service organization.

Freydl succeeds Dr. T. N. Heslip, who remains as a member of the board of directors. Other officers installed were: James Murray, first vice president; Herman Mochman, second vice president; Merritt Meaker, secretary; C. Harold Bloom, treasurer; Philip Ogilvie, sergeant at arms; and Richard Lyon and Don Meritt, board members.

The Exchange club is Northville's oldest service club and meets each Wednesday noon at the First Methodist church. Included in its community activities are a program of providing visual aid for needy children and a William Cansfield memorial scholarship.

Jaycees Fourth of July Celebration To Feature Huge 75-Unit Parade

Fireworks Cap Full Afternoon

Northville is being invaded Tuesday, July 4.

And even though the invasion is well planned, it's expected to arouse more confusion, conversation, fun and frolic than any Fourth of July celebration within memory.

The big attraction of the Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsored program will be a huge parade which must be called the longest ever assembled in this area.

Starting promptly at 1:15 p.m., some 75 different units will begin marching from the Old Spring on South Main street through the business district.

Officially called the Jaycees Twin County Fourth of July Parade the line-up will include dignitaries, honor guards from air force, army, navy, national guard, civil air patrol, veterans organizations, the Red Cross, state police, Wayne and Oakland county sheriffs, area police and fire departments, the high school band, horses, go-carts, boy scouts, business firms, auto manufacturers and just plain children riding decorated bicycles.

Among the honored guests who will lead the parade will be Dearborn's Mayor Orville Hubbard and State Senator Raymond Dzundzel.

Honorary parade marshals are Joseph Denton, former police chief of Northville Mayor A. M. Allen and the city council along with officials of the junior chamber of commerce will complete the group of dignitaries.

Among the outstanding features of the parade noted by Jaycee Parade Chairman Al Laux will be some $100,000 in new General Motors products, the Loomis battery civil war firing unit, the various military honor guards and floats and horses from the Shawasee Saddle Club.

The entire program is under the chairmanship of Charles Ely, Jr., whose committee is composed of Laux, Bob Pion, Karl Knuth, Don Blair, George Miller and Dick Pullen.

A full afternoon and evening of entertainment is planned. The Jaycees confidently expect a crowd of 5,000 to witness the parade and other activities.

The two-mile parade route (see box) ends at Ford field where games with prizes to the winners will be staged in the afternoon. Helicopter rides, go-cart races, food and refreshments will also be attractions of the afternoon program.

In the evening the activity moves to the high school where fireworks are scheduled to be displayed at 9:15 p.m.

Police Set For Busy July 4th

Police patrols will be stepped up here over the long Fourth of July weekend in an effort to control the heavier holiday traffic, reports Chief of Police Eugene King.

Two patrol cars, rather than one, will be on the road throughout the entire weekend, stated King, and on July 4 all regular and auxiliary police will be on duty, he said, to cover holiday festivities — the Jaycees parade and fireworks display and racing at the Downs.

King cautioned motorists and pedestrians alike to exercise caution on the road.

July 4th Parade Route and Program

1 15 p.m.—Parade starts at Old Spring following Main street to Rogers, then north to Dunlap and east on Dunlap to Ford field

2 30 p.m.—(Following completion of parade). Activities at Ford field — Decorated bike judging, potato sack race, 3-legged race, pie-eating contest, wheelbarrow race, tug of war, button sewing and shoe kicking for women, horseshoes for men, "wreck-a-car", greased pig chase.

5 30 p.m.—Go-kart races following Ford field events at city parking lot next to First Presbyterian church.

9 15 p.m.—Fireworks display at high school

WANT A RIDE? — This Hiller e-4 helicopter will fly over Northville Tuesday carrying passengers who want a bird's eye view of the area. It's part of the Jaycees' Fourth of July program. The helicopter will take off and land at Ford field. Tickets may be purchased at the field or in advance at Tewksbury Jewelers in Northville and Novi Drug in Novi.

HERE'S WHERE IT STARTS — Staging a 75-unit parade calls for more planning than merely shouting "forward, march". And this quartet of Jaycees has been busy for weeks completing all arrangements for the big Fourth of July celebration in Northville. Shown at the Old Spring, where the parade begins, are General Chairman Charles Ely, Jr., Parade Marshal Al Laux, Carl Knuth and Dick Pullen.

Medlyn Resigns In Novi

Novi's first superintendent of the consolidated school district, Dr. William H. Medlyn, announced his resignation to the school board last Wednesday night to be effective July 31.

The 38-year-old doctor of philosophy said his last working day will be July 14 when he takes a two week vacation he has coming.

On August 1, he will assume duties at the University of Indiana in charge of college and university placement. He will also do some consulting work on education and school plant planning.

While there was no formal board acceptance of his resignation at either of last Wednesday's public or private meetings, it is considered a foregone conclusion in the face of Medlyn's verbal commitment with the Big Ten school.

Stating that he has "no axe to grind," Medlyn assured the board that he did not know definitely about the job until Wednesday morning when he was contacted by phone by the university.

Medlyn looks on his new job as one of great future promise. He will be the youngest member of the department with about four others a handful of years away from retirement.

He said that it is a step up for him, his wife and three young boys and he is looking forward to the job.

The Medlyns will probably remain in Novi until about July 17 before heading for Bloomington, Indiana, and some house-hunting.

Medlyn came to Novi in 1954 to take over the superintendency of the old Novi School District number 8. With the consolidation in 1956, he assumed similar duties for the entire district.

While he was in office, the district constructed and opened the modern Orchard Hills school plant off Ten Mile road. For the last three years, he taught education administration on the University of Michigan campus and a U-M extension course. Last summer, he taught a four week course in elementary school supervision and school financing and business management at California State Polytechnic College.

He is one of the founding members of the Novi Rotary club.

Leaving at the same time as Medlyn will be his secretary, Mrs. Georgia Larson. She begins teaching fifth grade in the Livonia school system this fall. She completed her practice teaching requirements this last spring.

Mrs. Larson was the superintendent's secretary since 1958. Previously, she served on the Novi school board for five years until resigning.

While she was on the board, Orchard Hills school was built and opened.

The couple pledged their vows before the Reverend I. Paul Taylor of St. Mathews Methodist church, Detroit.

For her wedding the bride chose a white, silk organza gown. It was designed with a figurine bodice, scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves and a floor length, bouffant skirt trimmed in satin. The skirt swept to a short train. The bride's fingertip veil fell from a crown of pearl leaves. She carried a cascading bouquet of pale, muted pink, miniature roses and white stephanotis.

Bridal attendants included matron of honor Barbara Gun-sell of North Carolina, the bride's sister; bridesmaids Linda Cook and Sharon Bongiovanni, cousin of the bride, both of Northville, Peggy Humphries, the groom's sister; and flower girl Kimberly Millington, cousin of the bride.

The Reverend Lloyd G. Brasure, First Presbyterian church pastor, officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony.

An altar framed with baskets of white stock and pale green fugi mums with trailing vines formed the setting for the nuptial rite.

Evergreens decorated the church windows, while white bows with baby's breath and greens were placed on pews along the aisle.

Mrs. Edwin Langtry played organ music. Soloist Norman Bradley of Grand Rapids sang "Ich Liebe Dich".

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, selected an ankle length gown of white organza over dotted swiss for her wedding. The gown was fashioned with embroidered sleeves and skirt, a slender sash at the waistline and a trailing, pale pink, velvet ribbon.

For her headpiece, the bride wore a short, white veil over a white clip bow. She carried a bouquet of white fugi mums and pale pink sweetheart roses.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Alice Woodruff. Her leaf green, organza over taffeta dress was accented by bows of the same material. She wore a short green veil with a green clip bow. Pale green fugi mums and pale pink sweetheart roses made up her bouquet.

Mrs. Woodruff, mother of the bride, was attired in a cornflower blue silk organza over taffeta gown with blue accessories. The groom's mother, Mrs. Spoelstra, wore a gown of lilac, flowered chiffon with lilac accessories.

The groom's best man was David Schramack of Grand Rapids and Minneapolis, Minnesota. Charles Woodruff, brother of the bride, and Norman Bradley of Grand Rapids ushered guests.

A reception in the Presbyterian church house followed the ceremony. Some 150 guests, several from Northville and communities nearby, greeted the couple.

Those who came from out of town included: Miss Esther Miles, the bride's aunt, Cambridge, Massachusetts; Mrs. Sherman Frost, another aunt, Littleton, Massachusetts; the bride's cousin, Mrs. Richard Baker, and son Joel, Cambridge, Massachusetts; Dr. Woodruff's aunt and uncle, Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Smith, Rome; Dr. Woodruff's sister and brother-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Roland Banton, New Haven, Connecticut; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scharmach and Mrs. Norman Bradley, Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gordon, Cleveland, Ohio; Dr. and Mrs. Myron Means, Toledo, Ohio; and Dr. Richard Means, Ithaca, New York.

Dr. and Mrs. Woodruff hosted members of the wedding party and relatives later in the day at a buffet supper at the W. L. Howard residence on Eight Mile road.

The former Miss Woodruff was wearing a dark red, cotton tweed sheath with a grey-blue brocade jacket, lined with cotton tweed to match the sheath, when the couple left on a wedding trip to New England and Lake Willoughby, Vermont.

When they return, the Haddins will reside in Ann Arbor where Mr. Haddin is an English teacher at Ann Arbor High school.

The bride, a 1952 Northville High school graduate, was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1956. She studied English literature on the graduate level at Queen's university, Belfast, Ireland from 1956-57, and continued her studies at Columbia university from 1957-58. Mr. Haddin was graduated from Grand Rapids High school and has Bachelor and Master of Arts degrees (1955 and 1956) from the University of Michigan. He taught English at Jackson High school from 1956-61.

On the eve of the wedding, Dr. and Mrs. Myron Means were host and hostess at a rehearsal dinner held at the Corner House, Ann Arbor.

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Howard, 47787 Eight Mile road, and Mrs. Harvey Whipple, 46280 West Main, opened their homes to overnight guests.

HOW COME A CAR THAT RIDES LIKE THIS ONE DOESN'T COST MORE?

A good question—and we could spend this whole page answering! But what it all boils down to is this: It just stands to reason you're going to get more for your money when you put it on the car more people are buying... and that car is the Jet-smooth Chevy.

Best way to settle any further questions about Chevy's ride is to settle behind the wheel and try it. Full Coil suspension and over 700 other gentle persuaders throughout the body and chassis will go to work cushioning, insulating, smoothing, soothing and pampering. Only JET-SMOOTH CHEVY question you'll have left is why didn't you try it sooner. You might also ask: Who else in Chevrolet's field gives you Body by Fisher craftsmanship and such a wide variety of models to make sure you get just what you're looking for? Answer: Nobody.

Air conditioning—an extra-cost option that gives you fingertip temperature control. Try it.

Prices? The man to check for the low-down on that one is your Chevrolet dealer. He's ready and waiting for you right now with all the right answers.

SATURDAY NIGHT FANS — 7,326 fans bet $310,127 at Northville Downs Saturday night after a disappointing 1,413 attendance on a cold, rainy opening night Friday. Last year the same number of fans turned out on an opening Monday night and wagered $208,536 compared to $202,400 last Friday. The new stands proved to be a big hit with the fans — but Saturday night a fluke accident stirred excitement and closed down betting in the mezzanine area at the upper level of the stands.

Smith Products Gals Lose, 14-8

A six run outburst in the fifth inning gave the Garden City Honey Bees a 14-8 decision over Smith Products last Friday in a rain-abbreviated Inter-City Women's Fastball League game at Cass Benton park.

Giants Lose 1st Game

The Novi Giants were dealt their first loss in Class E Livonia recreation baseball league activity last Wednesday when the Livonia Bisons climbed all over them, 13-2.

The Giants came back with an abbreviated 4-3 win Monday night over the Clarenceville Colonels to give them a 2-1 won-lost record.

Their partners, the Novi Flyers, however, won one and dropped two games and their record slid to 1-2. Bill's Market of Plymouth won, 8-7, while the Clarenceville White Sox took a close 5-4 decision. The win was by forfeit Monday from Fishers' Shoes.

Whereas Tom Zielinski was the losing pitcher for the Giants in their tussle with the Bisons, he cracked a two-run double in the fourth to win the game against Clarenceville.

The game was called after four innings because of darkness. Dwayne Miller was the winning pitcher.

Ron Rice and Dave Zolenski shared mound duties in the Bill's Market defeat while Zolenski lost the Clarenceville game.

Orioles Shoot Down Those Bisons, 11-5

The Northville Orioles overcame a 5-0 deficit Monday night to take an 11-5 decision from the Livonia Bisons in Class E Livonia recreation league action.

Getting only six hits, the Orioles were paced by Jerry Inslund with a home run and triple and Daley Hill with two doubles. Mike Turnbull hurled the distance.

The Bisons jumped all over the starting Oriole subs but that time was changed when the first-stringers entered the game in the fourth.

Last Wednesday, the Orioles squeezed by the Angels, 3-2, with Kenny VanSickle doing the pitching.

Midwest Trotters At Downs

Swinging into the end of its first full week of the 38-night meeting, Northville Downs will present most of the top trotters in the Midwest in the $5,000 Invitational Exchange Friday.

The rich event is expected to attract invaders from Chicago and Cleveland against the best quartered at Northville.

The local contingent will include Curly Smart's brilliant Money Tree (2 01.2) from Ohio; Lumber Baron, Ed Schaefer's fast Lumber Dan (2:03) from Bradbury, Calif.; Neil Boardman's Timely Way (2:03.1) from Shafter, Calif.; and Jill's Pride (2:03.4) owned by Lou Diepenhorst and Joe Huzenga of Jensen, Mich.

Herman Graham is sending his fast-moving Record Mat, one of the top performers in the Windy City, and Harry Burright is bringing Rexall Boy, one of the nation's fastest.

The Invitational Exchange is one of six listed for the 'Downs. Northville presents nine races nightly with posttime for the first at 8:30 p.m. and daily double wagering on the first and second events.

This paved the way for a three-run double by centerfielder Sandy Walters. Manager Jayne Butner singled Walters home, stole second and scored on Simpson's double Simpson then scored on an infield out.

June King went all the way on the mound.

Smith Products next game is next Wednesday at Taylor Center. They play a home game at 6:15 p.m. July 7 against Wayne and then wind the season up July 14 at Ypsilanti against the Independents.

Anglin's Earthmovers won just one game during the last week while National Bank of Detroit won three, but Anglin's is still in first place in the Novi Little League.

Rec Program Offers Swim By Moonlight

The first of three zoo trips in the Northville Recreation program was taken this morning. Children boarded buses at 9 a.m. behind the Main Street elementary school for the Detroit Zoo. They will return about 3:30 p.m.

Other zoo trips are scheduled July 12 and July 24. Children should bring 25 cents for the camp show and train rides, and either pack a lunch or bring some money to buy one. Director Ken Conley announced that night swimming is offered now for boys and girls 13 years and older. For 40 cents, buses leave at 6:15 p.m. each Tuesday and Thursday from the community building parking lot for Grooms' beach on Whitmore Lake. Return is scheduled for 9 p.m.

Daytime swimming continues Monday through Friday with buses loading at Amerman school and the Main Street elementary. A charge of 25 cents is made. Children under eight years must be accompanied by an adult.

Plumbers Win, 6-5, On Appeal
A crazy mixed-up force play gave the Northville Plumbers their second straight win Monday in the Class E Livonia recreation league last week.

The Plumbers defeated the Livonia Rockets, 6-5, and the Livonia Dodgers, 4-3, to give them a 2-1 won-lost record.

In the last inning with the bases loaded for the Rockets and two outs, a ball was hit back to the third baseman who let it skip through him for an error. The tying run scored.

The runner on second base came around, too, and was safe at the plate. But he had missed third base and on an appeal play, was declared out.

The umpire ruled, after much discussion, that the tying run did not count because of the force play at third which retired the side.

Gary Stobbe allowed four hits and struck out eight while his mates pounded out seven hits. Northville scored four in the third and two in the top of their last inning for their total.

Last Wednesday, the Plumbers got two of their three hits for three runs in the last inning to squeeze out the win over the Dodgers.

Jerry French had two hits and Pete Sullivan, the other, Frank Freimund gave up four hits and whiffed nine batters.

A traffic study to determine the feasibility of making Endwell street a one-way southbound street is underway by the Novi police department.

IT MAY NOT be good business for Northville Mayor A. M. SPECIAL MEETINGS

July 4-9th

We would like to extend a very special invitation to the many readers of this column to attend the Special Evangelistic Services in our Church which will begin on the night of July 4th at 7:30 p.m. We have been very fortunate in obtaining an outstanding Evangelist, Paul Levin, to be the speaker for the week. Evangelist Levin has a clear cut message that everyone will be able to understand. This language is the language of the people and if you are not a Christian, or are not sure that you are on the way to heaven, then come and make sure. His companion of many years is Bob Findley. Bob was born blind but thank God he has spiritual sight which is far more important. Both of these men are recording artists and well known for the many records currently on sale in Christian Bible and Book Stores. I have been pleased through the years to have many people tell me they read this column regularly even though they do not attend this Church. If you have enjoyed the column then you will enjoy these special meetings. Perhaps your church doesn't have Special Evangelistic endeavors and you would like to come... Well, come ahead and we will be there to welcome you.

Teen Drinking Season Is Here

There's no need to remind the Novi police department that school's out and summer's here. They know it all too well.

With the month of June just about wound up and a big July 4 weekend around the corner, Police Chief Lee BeGole said that 11 cases of underage youths in possession of alcoholic beverages have been arrested by the department.

BeGole asked parents, in the face of an increasing number of beer parties in parks and homes, to exercise control over both the use of the family car and behavior of their children.

The latest cases were two Northville teenagers arrested Monday night. They were spotted by a patrolman when they threw a beer bottle out the car window.

The flinging of beer bottles is just one side-product of all the drinking, BeGole said. Police have received numerous complaints of noisy and rowdy behavior, the setting off of firecrackers and the knocking over of rural mailboxes.

As a result of questioning the boys, all of whom range from 17 to 19 years old, BeGole said one source was found from where the beer is obtained and is now under investigation by Michigan authorities.

Youths under 17 are usually handled by the juvenile court in the area where the youth resides while those over 17 are subject to 90 days jail and/or $100 fine.

In other Novi police action during the week:

Ten youths from Hazel Park and Ferndale, five over 17 and five under 17, will come before Justice of the Peace Robert K. Anderson in Novi Court July 13 for violating the village ordinance regarding magazine solicitations. They failed to get a village permit.

A typewriter was stolen from the vacant home at 42616 Ten Mile road at the C&O crossing sometime between last Friday and Monday afternoon. George Long, 43110 11 Mile road, made the complaint. It is his mother's home. Chief BeGole and patrolman Ralph Arbour were assisted in the investigation by State Trooper Robert Fenton.

A billfold containing $60 cash was stolen in the daytime Monday from the home of Mrs. Van Gordon, of 260 Northhaven, while she was in the basement washing clothes. Entry was made through an unlocked front door.

Novi firemen, Lt. Don Walters and Ed Shoemaker, rescued David Nelson, 7, of 41088 Malott, from a tree in Willowbrook sub Saturday afternoon.

These Gals Really Smack That Ball!

The Northville Record

The Oldest Weekly Newspaper in Wayne County

Thursday, June 29, 1961-9

Last Friday's game between Smith Products and the Garden City Honey Bees was an important one in the race for the top spot in the Inter-City Women's Fastball League.

It started in a mild rain and ended in a storm.

But that's the way it is with the gal softballers that make up Smith Products. They take this game seriously with no if's, and's or but's about it.

The "storm" hit after the fifth inning when the umpire called the game. Garden City, having just romped with six runs in the top of the fifth to take a 14-8 lead, were declared the winners.

It was shades — mostly a purplish blue — of Jimmy Piersall that enveloped the field then. An irate Smith Products team yelled "We wuz robbed" but, like most arguments, their cries were in vain.

This is an extreme example of Northville's entry in the league. In sharp contrast was their quiet submitting of written proof to league directors that the Wayne Passage team used an ineligible player in last Wednesday's game. That one wound up in an eight-inning 8-8 deadlock.

Now in its fourth season,

Smith Products is headed for one of its better campaigns. They own a 3-2 record after almost half a season of play.

Like most good clubs, it has been a combination of steady pitching and some lusty hitting that has been the difference between victory and defeat.

Pitcher June King, who teaches at Northville High during the "off season," does most of the hurling. Using the windmill delivery, she has a 3-0 whitewashing to her credit this year.

June is tabbed as one of the club's stronger hitters, too, along with Catcher Clara Simpson (she has two children), shortstop Jennifer Ratliff, second baseman (or is it basewoman) Jane Blough (she has five daughters at home), leftfielder Cora Billings and Manager Jayne Bittner. Jennifer is the youngest member, she being a sophomore at Northville High.

Jayne Bittner is probably the most experienced at these bat and ball wars. For eight years, she pitched for the Grand Rapids Chicks in the now-defunct women's professional baseball league that encompassed teams in Michigan, Ohio and Indiana.

Jayne plays first base and is a practical nurse at Detroit Memorial hospital.

troit Memorial hospital.

Rounding out the starting team is Joan "Morrie" Morrison, five foot-one third sacker, centerfielder Sandy Walters and rightfielder Pat Buhel. Pat is physical education teacher at Northville High school.

Providing some valuable bench insurance are Jackie Phillips, Mary Lou Busch, Joan Barber, Carol Ann Sparling, Sharon Mazanec and Jackie Couzens.

Only three games remain on the schedule, including one home game July 7 against Wayne Passage. Games start at 6:15 p.m. on diamond 60 at Cass Benton Park.

RED HOT INFELD — Catcher Clara Simpson, third baseman Joan Morrison, first baseman Jayne Bittner, second baseman Jane Blough and shortstop Jennifer Ratliff.

JUNE KING is the Smith Products' number one hurler. Her windmill delivery has won three games.

BENCH STRENGTH — "Here's how it's done," says Coach Jayne Bittner to Jackie Phillips, Mary Lou Busch and Joan Barber.

Craftsmanship

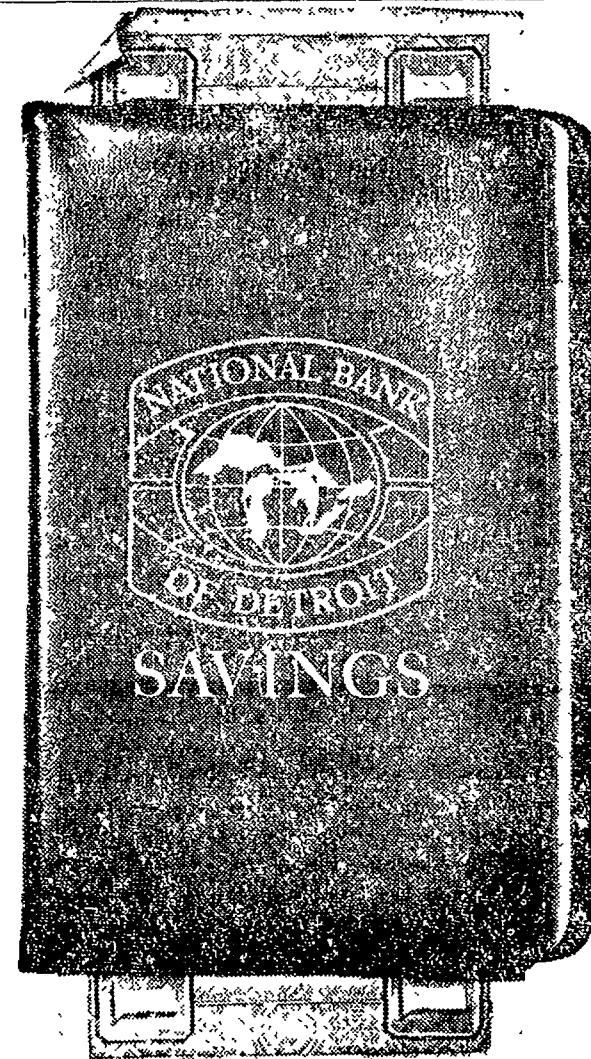

Over the years, the words "Craftsmanship" and "Cadillac" have become synonymous. Most certainly this Cadillac quality is visibly evident throughout the car. Just as surely, it is economically measurable throughout the years. For this excellence of manufacture reveals itself in remarkable operating thrift, and endures to command a premier position in resale markets across the land. And it is but one reason for Cadillac's soundness as an investment.

"I started teaching in a one room school with an enrollment of 16 pupils," Edith Renwick recalls.

"The school was made of logs and clay. We were in the building only until cold weather set in — the clay was dropping out from between the logs — then we moved into a neighbor's house for the remainder of the year. The following summer a lovely new brick school was built.

"There were three Indian boys enrolled and the very last day of school an Indian girl enrolled. The one and only time in my teaching career that I had to use sign language, was that day. This girl could not speak English. It was an enjoyable experience working with these Indian children. I wish I could see them again. The last names of two of the families were "Feather" and "Bird".

Born in Manistique, Michigan, Mrs. Renwick attended school there, graduating from Manistique High school. She obtained her Bachelor of Science degree from Eastern Michigan college.

After teaching in the log cabin school, she taught in two other schools in the same county and then went on to college to earn her degree. She returned to the North for one year and then taught in the Lower Peninsula under rural supervision. She has taught in rural schools up to her last 10 years.

Mrs. Renwick was with South Lyon schools five years, teaching fifth grade.

"I certainly enjoy teaching in Northville," says Mrs. Renwick. She's a first grade teacher at American school.

Mrs. Renwick lives near Salem with her husband, Glenn. He is employed at the Northville High school. The Renwicks, who live next door to their son, Jack, and his family, are the proud grandparents of two grandchildren, Steven, 6, and Pamela, 3.

The first grade teacher enjoys gardening, especially landscaping. Although she says she did not inherit her mother's green thumb, she raises African violets and other house plants. She is a past president of the Plymouth Garden club.

Mrs. Renwick also enjoys sewing. She says she would sew more if she "had the time". She's already tried her hand (and successfully) at coats, dresses and suits.

"Our love for Michigan is great," says Mrs. Renwick, who, with her husband, has traveled through much of the United States with the exception of the East. As soon as school is out this year, they plan to go to New York City where they will tour the United Nations building, Radio City, World Affairs center and other points of interest.

Three years ago, Mrs. Renwick traveled to Europe, spending four weeks in Sweden "getting acquainted with relatives". Later she spent two weeks getting a "bird's eye view" of Norway, Denmark, Germany, Belgium, Amsterdam and England.

"My six weeks in Europe and our tours of the United States and parts of Canada clearly showed us we would not trade the United States or Michigan for any country or state we have seen."

When asked for her philosophy of teaching, Mrs. Renwick explained she had used the same thought for all the grades she's taught.

"If you only remember one thing I have taught, remember the Golden Rule —

"Do ye unto others as ye would have them do unto you"

"If only this rule were adhered to by everyone, I firmly believe our world conditions would be better today."

Mrs. Helen Batzer

Mrs. Helen Batzer, who lives at 711 North Center in Northville, teaches kindergarten at Orchard Hills school. Her husband is an assistant operations supervisor with United Airlines. She has four children: Jon, 18, is a freshman at Eastern Michigan university; Elisa, 14, attends Northville Junior High school; Lauri is a fifth grader; and Joan a kindergartener.

Mrs. Batzer has attended Eastern Michigan university, minoring in literature, science, social studies, and art.

She believes that the first concern of the kindergarten teacher is to try to instill self-control and responsibility toward others while keeping alive the bright enthusiasm the beginner naturally has for school, and the world about him.

"The kindergartener is very aware of himself," says Mrs. Batzer, "but he must be guided to a consciousness of others." Group living begins in this year. A child learns to adjust to the bigger world by playing and learning with other children. Mrs. Batzer gives them this "social feeling" by showing each that what he does affects others, and that he therefore has a responsibility toward them. The children's ideas about how to help the child who causes discipline problems are drawn out when such problems arise.

While there are certain lesson patterns followed, incidental teaching is the heart of kindergarten. Students bringing in an object, for example, a frog or an insect, excite class reaction, and a lesson is built around the incident. This learning is always centered in the students' present interests. Answers about what they want to know-right now, are given.

Creativity is fostered and freedom allowed for the child to find "his own best self." Mrs. Batzer "was one of the teachers who brought about the successful Novi PTA art show at Orchard Hills. Emphasis was on displaying some art object from each child. Making up poems which are used with musical background, compiling a phonics reading-readiness booklet of their own stories, and making up stories in class stressing certain sounds lend creativity to the language arts aspect of kindergarten. All students contribute and an effort is made to make them feel a part of the group. Art is also used as a tool in units on animals, especially dinosaurs. Rabbits, ducks, turtles, frogs, the grasshopper family, mother hen and chicks are at home in Mrs. Batzer's kindergarten. Visits to a turkey farm and the zoo were a result of the students' natural interest in the animals.

In order for the kindergarten child to become "his own best self," Mrs. Batzer believes that she must help him preserve his enthusiasm, encourage his self-control and social responsibility and stimulate an interest in the world about him.

How obedience to the law of God opens the way to freedom will be explained Sunday at Christian Science church services.

Among Scriptural passages to be read in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God" is one from Psalm 119: "Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes; and I shall keep it unto the end... And I will walk at liberty: for I seek thy precepts."

Man's right to freedom is also brought out in selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy which will include: "Discerning the rights of man, we cannot fail to foresee the doom of all oppressors. Slavery is not the legitimate state of man" (p. 227).

The Cargos Are Off To Europe

The Reverend Paul Cargo, pastor of the First Methodist church, and his wife, Martha, left Friday for Europe where they will spend the summer as counselors for the "Youth for Understanding" teenage exchange program sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches.

As counselors the Cargos will visit homes of European families who will house American exchange students in the Youth for Understanding program.

Their responsibilities include arranging home stays for students and seeing that the program runs smoothly for both the teenagers sent abroad by the Council of Churches and for their foreign hosts and hostesses.

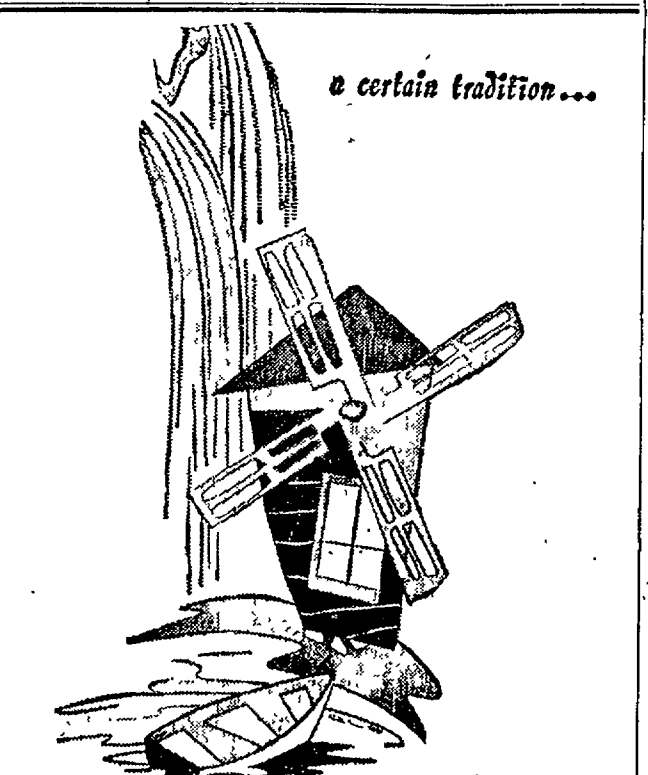

Mr. and Mrs. Cargo return to the states in late August. During Pastor Cargo's absence, the Reverend I. Paul Taylor of Detroit will conduct services at the Methodist church.

Evangelist Team to Hold Services at First Baptist

One of the oldest revival teams of the nation will soon be conducting services at the First Baptist church of Northville. The Rev. Paul Levin and the Rev. Bob Findley have started their 28th year of evangelism work together. Findley, who has been blind from birth is a tenor singer and Levin preaches their services.

The blind singer knows by memory nearly 600 Gospel songs and hymns. Findley also plays a guitar, and Levin, the mandolin, when they sing duets. Both men are married. Findley making his home in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Levin in Carlock, Illinois. They have conducted campaigns in nearly every section of the United States, and have been invited a number of times to preach in other countries. Both men are recording artists whose records have wide acclaim all over the United States.

Pastor Peter Nieuwkoop of the First Baptist church reports the outstanding Evangelist Team will be heard at services beginning at 7:30 p.m. on July 4th and continuing through Sunday July 9th.

"The Proper Placing of a Light"

The function of light is to illuminate, to enlighten, to bring from the folds of darkness so as to be seen. In the opening verses of his Gospel, John spoke of Jesus as light. "In Him was life; and the life was the light of men." Again, "That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world."

We should be filled with praise and thanksgiving for light. We say with St. Francis, "Praised be my Lord God with all His creatures, and especially our brother the sun, who bringeth us the day and who bringeth us the light.... O Lord, be signifieth to us Thee!" Let us give thanks for the moral light of Christ, also, "the light of the world."

Jesus said, "I am" and "ye are." "Ye are the light of the world," and we have found that Christ has power to shine in His followers. Christian rays of light are to herald the Kingdom. Important to Jesus was the proper placing of the light. "A city on a hill cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle, but put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick, and it giveth light unto all that are in the house. Let your light so shine before men that they may see... and glorify." Consider the proper placing of a light.

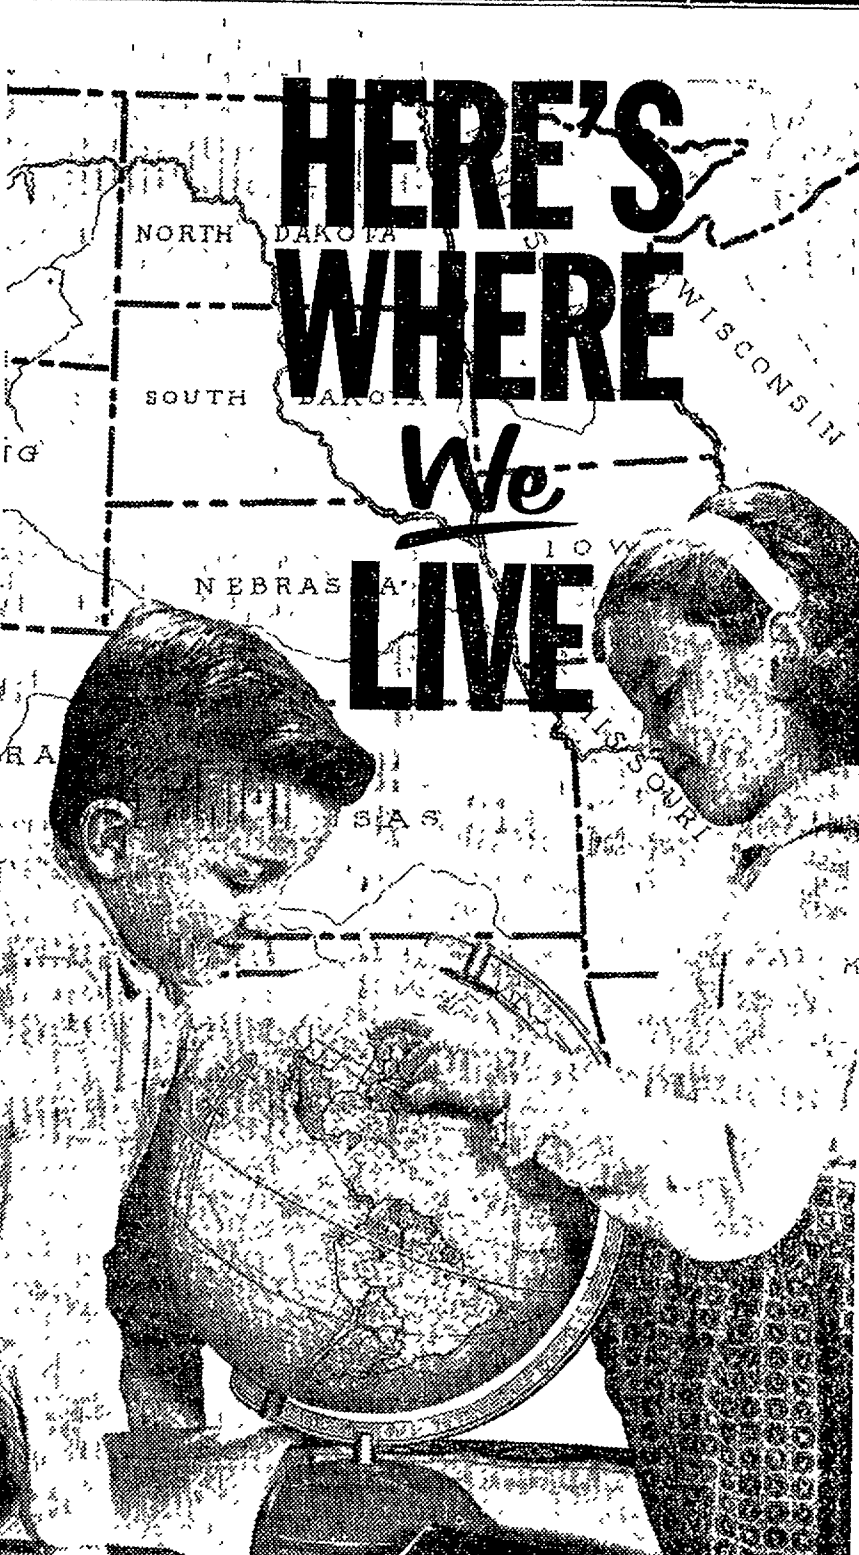

People popularly say, "Well, he certainly has been hiding his light under a bushel!" Not many would know that they were quoting from Jesus' Sermon on the Mount, and few would see the deep challenge of making full use of light. Should we let our sense of goodness be hidden? When the moral sense is offended, should we hide our reactions? Good men who do nothing are not a strength but a weakness. Jesus strikes against this pretense.

To have the light within and keep it dark; to have some radiance, though it be the slender flame of one small candle, and to hide it; to refuse to get it out where men may have the full effect of it—that is pretension. If we could get all the Christian faith and character and action already existent and now under a bushel out on the stand where it would give light to all, how much stronger the Christian witness would be and how much better the world.

We need to use the moral, religious light that we have. Goodness knows! The shadows of evil are dark. Sadhu Sundar Singh, a Christian in India, tells of seeing many people sitting around a Sadhu seated on the bank of the sacred Ganges. The Sadhu had one hand raised above his head and from a distance it looked as though he were blessing the people, but from close by one could see that the bones of his arm were set so that he could not lower it. Because his hand had offended him (he had stolen things), when he entered a new kind of life he held his arm continuously above his head until it had completely dried up and become fixed. Sundar Singh said, "I admire your courage and your good intention, but I am sorry, for you have been spoiling a gift given you by God. Instead of destroying your hand you should have used it to help others. In this way, to some extent, you could have made good the loss you caused by it."

It is a law of the universe that that which we do not use tends to become useless. Keep religion under a bushel, and we find that there is operating a law which says that what we do not express tends to die. Let us bring our beliefs to the fore; let us live up to our Christian convictions; if we ally ourselves with those who can strengthen our convictions, then our religion grows and multiplies and becomes a satisfaction to ourselves and an inspiration to others.

Along the Little Missouri River... close to the South Dakota border... about 200 miles from Montana and Wyoming...

It's fun to look at the whole world, and then put your finger on the place where you live. It makes you realize how important you are!

In the free nations of this world everybody is important. People can own land and houses and tractors. They can read the truth. They can think for themselves, and say what they think. They can assemble together to celebrate, or plan—or protest.

And they can worship God... in the church they choose... and bring their children... and support their church... and volunteer their talents in its work.

Nobody can padlock God's House—or turn it into a museum!

Here's where we live, THANK GOD! We thank Him best by using ALL our freedoms...

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Paragon Introduces New Auto Carrier

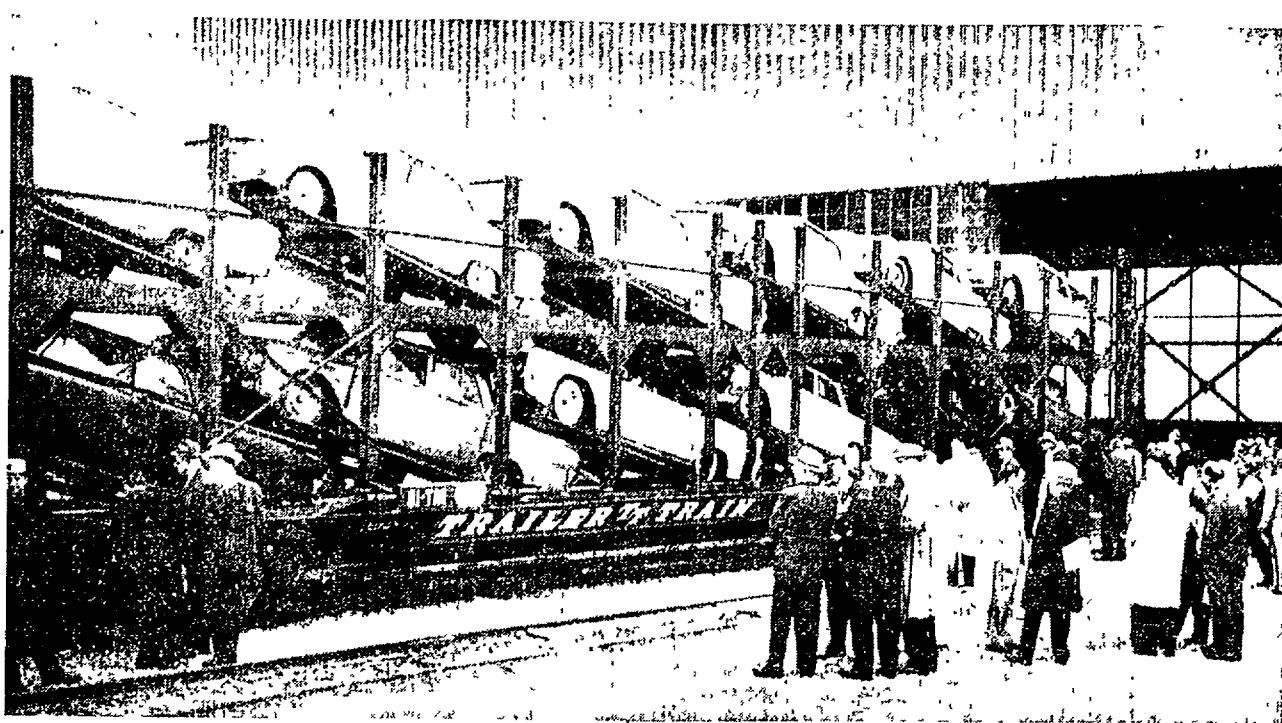

Paragon Bridge and Steel company of Novi introduced a new automobile shipping rack to some 50 representatives of major railroads from throughout the country at a demonstration held at its Grand River plant Friday.

The Paragon "Bi-Tri Auto Loading Rack" provides tri-level loading advantages with bi-level height.

The new rack was designed to give maximum loading at a reduced height to accommodate localities where overhead clearance is limited.

The new Bi-Tri rack mounted on a Pullman Lo-Dek TTX car will carry six automobiles on each of the two decks. The autos can be all standard six, all compact, or a mixed load of standard and compact.

Ramp loading and unloading does not require hydraulics or any outside power. The maximum over-all height when loaded with 12 standard size cars is 16 feet, six inches above rails.

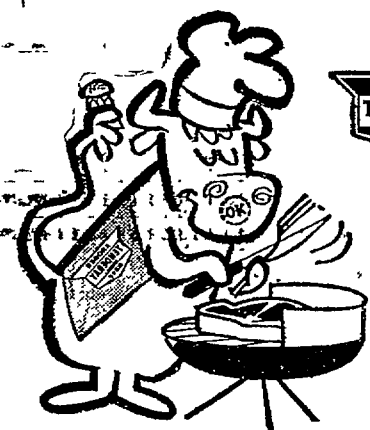

Railroad representatives got a look at Paragon's Bi-Tri Auto Loading Rack when it was introduced Friday in Novi.

Mr. Shafer, supported by Dr. Johnson, seconded the nomination of Mr. Cowden, our Mr. Cochran and a Mr. Haberkorn, also of The Beyster Co., have all investigated the problems of the boiler thoroughly, and they feel that the only practical way of making it perform efficiently is to convert it to steam, since a converter would not be subject to the stresses to which a hot water boiler is prone.

It gives us all the heat we need, and the heat's much more even. Room temperatures never vary more than a half a degree—even during a wind storm."

This family knows you can't beat electric heat for a new home. Because it's flameless, electric heat is the cleanest method there is—walls and furnishings stay clean with less care. And with electric heat, you get uniform warmth and comfort at a turn of a dial. There's no need to start up an entire system to get extra warmth in one room. Electric heat may cost more, but it's worth every cent in extra comfort, extra convenience. And Edison's Budget Billing Plan equalizes heating costs over the year.

If you're buying, building or remodeling, you'll find it worth while to check the many exclusive advantages of built-in electric heat. For all the facts, fill out and mail coupon below. We'll send you a copy of the free illustrated booklet "ELECTRIC HOME HEATING."

Your Life Can Depend On Brake Fluid

A motorist in a small, mid-western town got into his four-year-old car one morning recently, started it up and drove from his home to the first traffic intersection on the way to his work. He applied his brakes and was lucky to escape with his life as he plowed into the side of a passing transport. He learned — too late to prevent what could have been a fatal accident — that he had no brakes at all. They had "leaked" out on him during the night. His brake fluid, used to build up pressure of the linings on the drums, had drained out through a broken connection on the fluid line to his left front wheel.

Such an accident could happen to any of us, even with late model cars. The only remedy is constant inspections of hose connections and fluid levels. A small leak may not affect normal brake operations up to the time your car is parked. The danger occurs when it is left standing long enough to drain away this vital fluid, on which all braking action depends.

How can this danger be overcome? Only by regular checks by an alert mechanic trained to recognize leaky connections and malfunctioning parts. It should be done as often as the car is lubricated at a very minimum. Wherever you take your car for service, insist on a regular inspection. If it is at our garage, this check is a part of our normal lubrication procedure.

Wants Open Meetings Of Novi School Board

To the Editor:

The Novi School election is over. The present and the future of Novi isn't. It is every resident's duty to see that the Holy Dale Political Machine is kept in the proper perspective, benefiting all and only the people living within the school district boundaries.

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO

Robert H. Shafer was elected president of Northville school district's new seven-member board. Nelson Schraeder was retiring president.

The Northville township zoning board denied a request to rezone 21 acres of property at Five Mile and Eckles roads for an outdoor theatre.

Two Northville housewives, tired of cleaning their homes, confronted the city council and school board asking for paving action on dusty Center street across from Amerman school. Explanations of the two bodies left them more perplexed than ever with indications being that conditions may get worse through the summer before getting better.

Winner of over $5,500 in prizes on "The Price Is Right" television show was Mrs. Robert Nelson, of Willowbrook sub.

Preliminary paving work on Potter road was approved by the Wixom city council. It will be the start of a five year road program.

An Oakland County DPW official spoke to Novi officials about a county sewer study telling the community that it holds the key to the study with its approval or disapproval. Municipalities in southwestern part of the county have been asked to pledge their financial support.

FIVE YEARS AGO

Annexation of the Yerkes Farm and the John Burkman and Warren Products properties to the city of Northville won by a wide margin. But Warren Products immediately petitioned Circuit Court for a restraining order on the grounds the election was invalid.

Tornado warnings and heavy rains played a large part in holding down the Northville Downs opening crowd, from last year's total. Some 4,000 fans wagered close to $24,000 on the first night.

A change in Michigan laws governing school boards will not necessitate an annual meeting for the Novi school board it was reported. An election will come up July 9. Incumbent Mrs. Dorothy Snow faces Jack Crawford.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

The summer recreation program is making a big hit and splash with swimming the most popular activity among the children. Donald Bray and Genevieve Daley are in charge.

The Rev. Lloyd E. Young will conclude his ministry at the First Baptist church in September after the congregation accepted his resignation earlier in the month.

Gerald V. Harrison, Northville principal the last nine years, accepted a similar position at Farmington High.

Edward Lanning was selected to be a member of the two week All State High School Band at Camp Interlochen. He is the son of Mrs. F. R. Lanning and plays the baritone horn.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Elaine Winter was the winner of a dress contest sponsored by the Northville Women's club. Second and third place winners were Gladys Myers and Kathleen Rinck. Honorable mentions went to Verna Little, Doris Beasley and Edith Barley.

Miss Evelyn Ambler was awarded the Thad J. Knapp scholarship at the commencement exercises.

Louis P. Toletene, 49, owner of the Walled Lake casino ballroom, cafe and bathhouse died. He had been seriously ill for some time.

The Northville council accepted a county bid to widen and lift Main street. The county will change the grade on Main street, readjust the grade on Center street, repave the street and reconstruct the curbs.

Some 36 sleepy-eyed seniors returned from their class trip to Washington, D.C. Mrs. Claude Zimmerman and Mrs. Jack Taylor went along as sponsors.

The people must not allow or tolerate frequent closed meetings. The meetings must be open to all. They must know what the experts plan to do with our money and the future of our children as they propose their aims and ideals. This Political Machine claims now that most of the people are "poorly informed". Surely after the close election they must know that several hundred voters are very well informed. The one thing that must be continued is the publicizing of all school board minutes as the outstanding members did in the past. We don't need a monthly political controlled press release. We must have the actual facts.

In summary, we must have 1. School Board meetings open to the public

2. All board meeting minutes must be printed in the Novi News regularly.

3. The Novi School District must be solely operated for

Suburban Coin Club Is Formed

Coin enthusiasts of Plymouth, Northville, Livonia, Novi, Garden City and surrounding area held an organizational meeting at the Plymouth city hall where constitution and by-laws, election of officers and a name were determined.

The club adopted the name of Riverside Coin Club. The club is for all youngsters as well as adults. Senior membership is for everyone over and including the age of 18 years. A Junior membership was created for 17 year olds and under. Dues and initiation fees were created in relation to membership status in the club. Membership is open to both males and females.

The following members were elected to offices in the club: president, Ernest Koi of Plymouth; vice-president, James Perna of Northville and secretary-treasurer, Betty Sarver of Northville. Perna was a unanimous choice of the membership present to serve as auctioneer for the club. President Koi will make other appointments in the near future.

The Riverside Coin Club will hold bi-monthly meetings with the first Thursday being an evening meeting and the third Sunday being an afternoon meeting. The next regular meeting of the club will be held at the Plymouth Township hall, Ann Arbor road, on Thursday, July 6 at 8:00 p.m. All interested collectors are cordially invited to attend this and other meetings.

Poem Recalls Bealtown

A poem about Bealtown, one of the oldest sections of Northville, and written by Norton Greene, who had lived in Northville since 1903 and died June 14 at the age of 71, was forwarded to the Record this week by a former Northville resident.

"When the Suckers Start to Run" was given to Elmer M. Hollis, of Detroit, by Mr. Greene when they met in the east. They were lifelong friends.

Signed,
Taxpayer

(Name withheld on request)

Here is Mr. Greene's poem,

"When the Suckers Start to Run":
There's a little brook in Bealtown
That flows down thru the brush
Where violets bloom in the springtime
With the singing of the thrush.
The sun shines down from the sky above,
Which makes the water soft and warm
And sends the suckers up from the pond
In many, many swarms.

Bealtown kids, with their fishing poles,
Who have been longing for the fun
Head straight for the river
When the suckers start to run.
There ain't much difference between man or fish
As far as I can see,
For when violets bloom in Bealtown
There comes a "feeling" over me.
The moon shines down from the sky above

Which makes the evening soft and warm
And sends a thrill into a storm.
I don't care much for fishing
But I'm longing for the fun
Of taking my sweetheart to the river bank
When the suckers start to run.

SPEAKING for the Record

by Bill Sliger

An interesting difference of opinion that would require an expert with crystal ball to settle developed at the city council table in Northville last week.

A proposal to adopt a resolution of cooperation with the county in its expansion of the Middle Rouge interceptor sewer project was before the council.

Under the terms of the $18 million project each of the 22 participating communities is allocated a certain portion of the sewer use.

With the exception of a few minor details Northville council members are unanimous in their desire to go ahead with the project and thus bring about the lifting of a building ban currently enforced in the 22 communities by state health department edict.

Thus it was that a resolution of intent to accept the terms of the proposed sewer project was quickly adopted without objection.

The city's allocation as proposed by the county is enough taps to serve a city of 9,000 population. This ultimate figure compares with the present population of 3,900.

While the cost to the city is approximately $150,000, financed over 40 years it will run to about $8,000 per year.

The difference of opinion evolved when Councilman Richard Ambler proposed an amendment to the resolution.

He wanted the city to buy a larger allocation — enough for a city of 10,000.

His amendment lost, 3-2, with Councilmen John Canterbury, Beatrice Carlson and Richard Juday lining up against Mayor A. M. Allen and Ambler.

It was Ambler's reasoning that there is no assurance that in 20 years a sewer allocation for 9,000 population will be enough. He pointed out that the community needs industry and that industry needs sewer service.

He reminded council members that the township was buying only about a third of its allocation in the sewer.

Ambler didn't say it, but the inference was that if industry should sit anywhere in the school district — including the township — it might have to look to the city for its sewer service.

Further he argued that in 20 years — when sewer facilities would again be expended — the cost would be much higher. At that time new sewer disposal plant facilities will also be needed.

"These sewer taps are cheap," declared Ambler, who suggested that if the city had too many taps it could sell part of its quota and make money in future years.

Councilman Canterbury led the opposition. He refused to gaze into the crystal ball, or help buy extra capacity because an argument might be made that the area within the school district could one day need it.

Our tax burden is heavy enough already," said Canterbury, adding that he'd hate to explain to taxpayers that they were being charged for something they might never need.

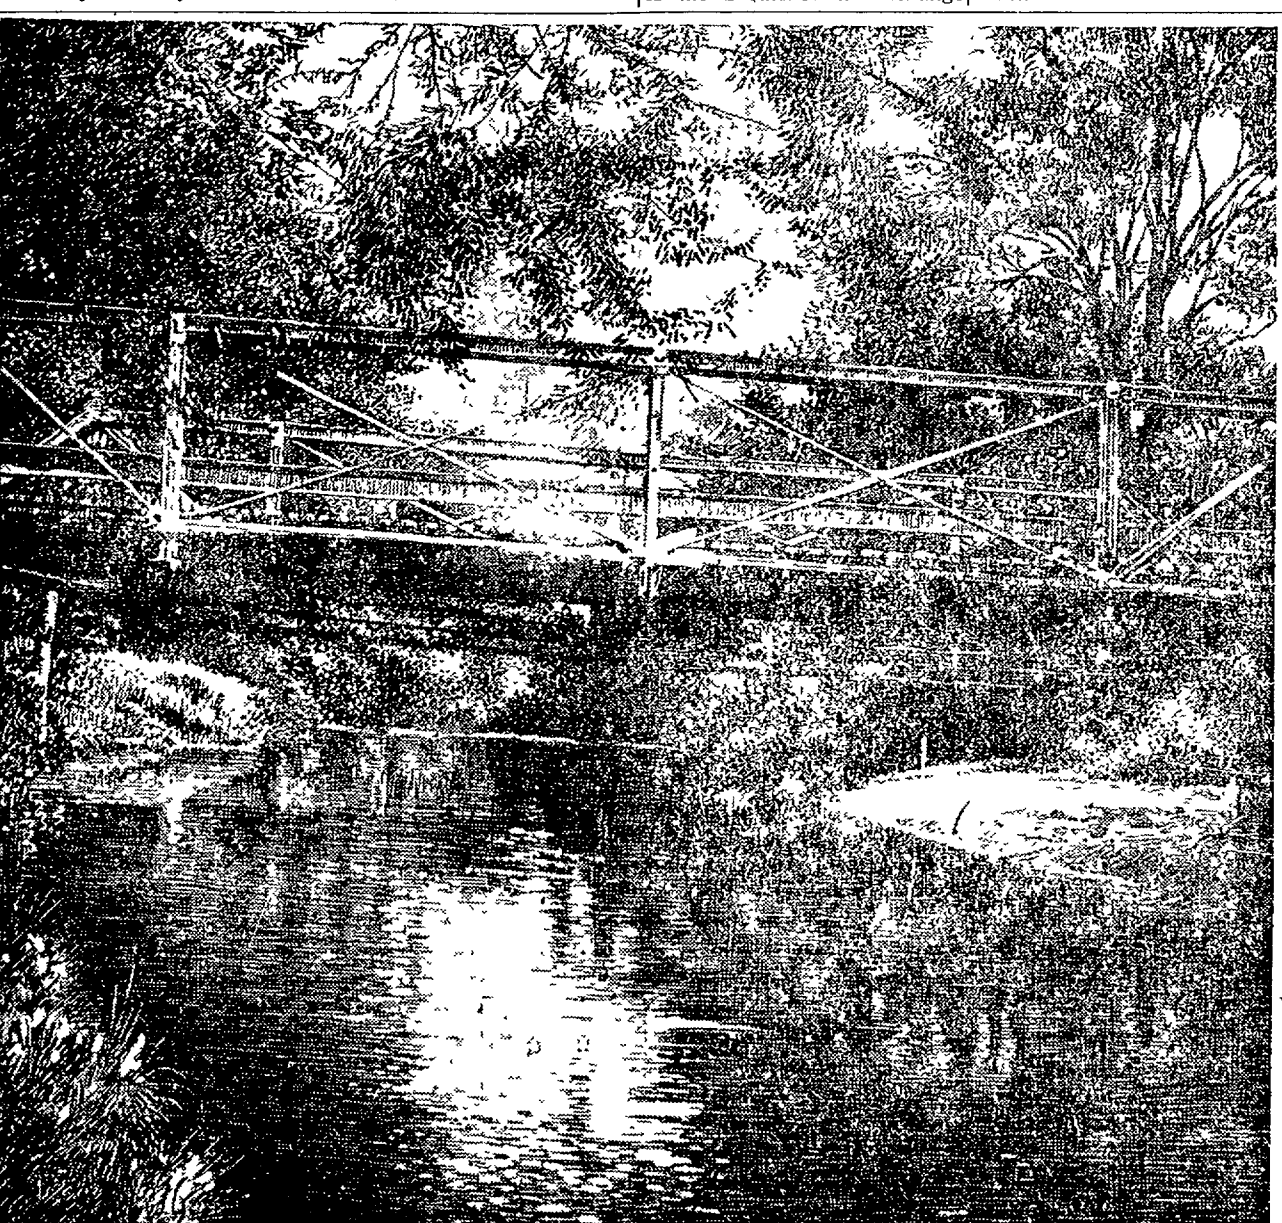

He wasn't convinced, either, that the 9,000 capacity wouldn't be ample.

Canterbury's arguments are the most difficult kind to dispute. And I'm sure he had little reason to doubt but that he could gain majority support.

To one who has covered hundreds of general meetings his stand came as something of a surprise. Generally, Canterbury does not display such conservatism.

We cannot say that Councilman Ambler was correct in his argument. But if the press could have voted, it would have been a 3 to 1 tie.

Maybe in 20 years we'll know the answer.

Supreme Court And Our Times

Babson Park, Mass., As I study events in Wall Street, I find that the first era of speculation was in gold. This was accompanied by some speculation in Government Bonds. Prices were based on mail reports from London. There were then no cables.

Following the Civil War, from 1875 to 1900, most of the speculation was in railroad stocks. New mileage was constantly being built, due to the large immigration and cheap labor, accompanied by good crops, which helped railroad earnings. The Northern Pacific stock sold at $1,000 a share. There was much talk about railroad consolidations, and the stock market was especially bullish over a proposed merger of the Northern Pacific, Great Northern, and Burlington Railroads.

Then, suddenly, the Supreme Court issued a decision preventing this consolidation. This caused a quick drop in all stocks in 1907. A member of the N.Y. Stock Exchange invited me to come on the floor of the Exchange and help him. I actually saw men's hair turn gray within 48 hours.

Following the boom in railroad stocks there developed an interest in consolidations and big trusts. This began late in the 1890's. Then were formed the Tobacco Trust, the Standard Oil Trust, and other great trusts. During these years, the New York Stock Exchange took a great interest in industries. It was then that Moody's Manuals and Babson's Reports were started, and investment services began to be popular.

Although the above-mentioned Supreme Court Decision directly referred only to railroads, it indirectly brought an end to this Consolidation and Trust Era. Hence, the panic following affected both railroad and industrial stocks. There were no big electric utilities in those days.

The fourth era of glamour stocks centered around companies producing and distributing electricity. From 1907 to 1912 great speculation took place in these electric stocks, culminating in the 1929-1933 collapse of Electric Bond & Share.

The end came for this Electrical Era with the formation of the Securities & Exchange Commission. Its great powers enabled it to eliminate, rearrange, or break up any company manufacturing and distributing electricity across state lines. Although the use of electricity has continued to increase since Thomas Edison made the first dynamo, yet the utilities are no longer considered glamorous stocks.

I mention the above events thinking that the recent duPont—General Motors Supreme Court Decision may put a damper on speculation in companies producing missiles, space capsules, and various electronic devices. The previous Court Decisions which I mentioned have been unexpected. Each has "pulled the trigger" for a change in the stock market trend. Whether this means that the present bull market is now culminating no one knows, but we should always watch for the unexpected. Gold, railroads, trusts, and electricity were as glamorous in their day as space and electronics are today.

The recent duPont—General Motors Decision may bring about a reverse effect. It may unexpectedly make Wall Street optimistic. The decision was basically against monopoly, as were the decisions of several years ago. Yet, the greatest monopoly today is that of Labor Unions. What if the Supreme Court should suddenly dissolve the Teamsters Union, as now operated by Hoffa, whom President Kennedy's brother, the Attorney General, knows from A to Z?

Such a decision could rule that previous Congressional legislation exempting Labor from the Anti-Trust Law is unconstitutional. Such a decision, instead of creating a bear market, could cause the Dow Jones Averages to go sky high. Surely this is a possibility, and a reason why readers are justified in keeping certain of their common stocks and swapping them for the old-fashioned blue chips.

I forecast that some day some such a decision will be rendered, followed by Congressional legislation. If Democracy is to survive, and dictatorship be pre-empted, some Court Decision will come some day. Then, don't be short of good industrial stocks.

Hard to Believe: Tax Meets Death

The certainty of death and taxes is widely publicized in story and song, but the death of taxes, even though they be "temporary" in nature, is a rare thing indeed.

Michigan will witness the death of the so-called "nuisance" taxes which were passed to ease the Cash Crisis of 1959 this June 30.

Despite the promises of politicians from both parties that the taxes would expire, this is no small event. The roughly $50 million annually resulting from the taxes will be sorely missed by the state's still unhealthy treasury.

Efforts were made to extend the taxes, which carried the expiration date when they were passed.

The taxes were practically painless, as taxes go. They levied a penny a pack on cigarettes, 4 per cent on the use of telephones and telegraph service, a charge on tobacco products, and additional charges on liquor and beer purchases and the corporation franchise fee.

Some lawmakers had the idea that austerity budgets for some areas of state government, notably higher education and mental health, could be increased and perhaps some of the state's staggering $60 million debt retired if one or more of the taxes were extended.

But no agreement could be reached on the why and wherefore of continuing the taxes, so Legislature kept hankering. Now come the liquor interests, plus some lawmakers, with the proposal that a refund on certain of the taxes be made. The situation that causes the anguish is this: Liquor dealers were assessed the nuisance tax on their floor stocks when the tax went into effect.

It would be equitable, they say, to refund a similar amount on the floor stocks on hand when the taxes expire.

While the proposal may be a sound logical position, needless to say it was greeted with no great show of enthusiasm when mentioned on the floor by Sen. Charles S. Blondy, D-Detroit, during the last days of the regular session.

The tax on tobacco products was not assessed on floor inventories when passed, so these dealers do not have the problem.

The Liquor Control Commission says it is powerless to refund the tax without action by the Legislature. Lawmakers can't get to the problem until the 1962 session, and by that time, the whole thing may be forgotten and better left dead.

Just for the record, labor unions weren't the only ones to applaud Gov. John B. Swainson's veto of the controversial Unemployment Compensation bill passed by the 1961 Legislature.

A recent issue of the Michigan Food News, a publication for retail grocers, in a column signed by editor Willis R. Keasey, also said the people were better off with the bill inoperative.

Said Keasey: "The bill is one of the biggest monstrosities ever passed by the Legislature...."

The strong voice which undoubtedly caused Swainson to veto the bill came from the unions. Equally vocal were the forces pleading with the Governor to sign the bill, or let it become law without a signature. These belonged to many big and small employers and those interested in the "economy climate of the state."

Keasey's point, on which he could find much agreement, was that a percentage of small businessmen would have to pay higher rates under the bill.

Merits of the bill, which had as its chief aim the beefing up of the Unemployment Compensation Fund, and its drawbacks were debated almost to the point of tedious before Swainson acted. While the labor unions opposed the bill on totally

Beat the Polio Season— Get Vaccine Shots Now

There's still time to get those able on this since it has been in wide use for only a couple of years.

This is the word from Oakland and Wayne county health authorities who are keeping a wary eye open for any outbreak of polio which normally begins its season in the northern sections of the country around July 1.

Authorities say that Johnny-come-latelys are getting a break from nature in being able to get some degree of protection from the disease.

While they point out that the incidence of paralytic polio is falling behind last year's rate which was a record low one, authorities say it's possible the unusually cool weather may have delayed the onset of the real polio season.

Estimates are that about 93 million Americans have received at least one shot of the Salk vaccine and that there are some 85 million yet unprotected.

Most susceptible age group, authorities say, are children five years and under. They account for about 43 per cent of the paralytic cases. In addition, they are the worst spreaders of the disease and thus constitute a danger to others.

While much talk has been devoted of late to the oral vaccine developed by Dr. Albert Sabin of the University of Cincinnati, Americans are cautioned not to wait for this type of protection but to take advantage of the needle type, first developed by Dr. Jonas Salk, and proven to be up to 96 per cent effective.

Dr. Salk maintains that his oral vaccine is virtually 100 per cent effective and offers a better bet than the Salk vaccine of eradicating polio. But no definite figures are available.

ties say it is better than no protection at all.

Both counties will operate mobile units through the summer battling the disease. Time and place will be announced or a phone call to the county offices will give the information. Family physicians also have a supply of the vaccine on hand and can give the shots.

But regardless of who administers the shot and what type of protection one gets, by needle or orally, the important thing is to take advantage of the easy and cheap protection against polio this summer.
