Light Vote Predicted In Tuesday Con-Con

State election authorities fear that Tuesday's primary to select party nominees for the constitutional convention election in September is destined to "lay an egg" at the gate.

"Unless there is an acceleration of interest in all 83 counties, we may find that the delegates to the constitutional convention may in fact represent only a minority of Michigan's citizens," Secretary of State James Hare said this week.

Qualified electors will nominate a state, senatorial area and state legislative district delegate from the Democratic and Republican parties.

In all a total of 288 delegates will be nominated. Then the field will be reduced to 144 when party nominees meet in the September 12 election.

(A complete list of candidates whose names will appear on ballots in the Northville-Novi-Wixom area, along with brief biographies, appears on page nine.)

In Northville voters will nominate delegates from the 18th senatorial and 21st legislative districts; in Novi and the Oakland county section of the city of Northville voters will nominate delegates from the 12th senatorial and 4th legislative districts.

Only one area resident is a candidate for nomination. He is George Bennett, 46950 Six Mile road, who is a Democratic candidate from the 21st legislative district. Bennett is chairman of the local Democratic club and has been a candidate for township supervisor.

In the city of Northville residents of precincts one and two vote at the community building while precinct three residents vote at the Amerman elementary school.

In the township the polling place for precinct one residents is the Main street elementary school. Precinct two residents vote at the township hall.

Absentee ballots are available at the city and township halls until 2 p.m. Saturday. Polls open Tuesday at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m.

Pick Ogilvie Acting City Manager

The city council voted Monday night to name City Attorney Philip Ogilvie acting city manager when John Robertson departs July 29 for his new position in the city of Ferguson, Missouri.

Ogilvie will take over the manager's duties on a part-time basis until the council selects a new city manager.

Last week the council completed several appointments to various commissions and boards to either fill vacancies or expired terms.

Returned to the planning commission for three years were George Zerbel, William Slatery and Lynn Sullivan. Eugene Cook was named to replace Richard Ambler, now a city councilman.

Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson was appointed council representative on the coordinating council. She was also appointed along with Mrs. C. C. Winter to the civil defense committee replacing William Taft and Fred Stefanski.

W. W. Nichols, Paul Palmer and William Bingley were named to the zoning board of appeals replacing Fred Gots, Charles McDonald and William Davis.

Richard Ambler was named council representative on the recreation committee replacing Ed Welch. The council then appointed Welch to replace Richard Kay, city representative on the committee. Kay has moved to the township.

Hospital on Brink of Bankruptcy; Directors Asked to Close Down

The two-year struggle of Northville's Community General hospital to survive a seemingly endless series of setbacks has been lost.

Directors admitted this week that the hospital is on the brink of bankruptcy.

Unless emergency funds are immediately forthcoming — in the form of outright donations — a motion to stop admitting patients and begin bankruptcy proceedings will be presented at next Monday's board of directors' meeting.

It is estimated that $10,000 would be needed to meet current, pressing obligations including payroll, food and medical supplies.

The cold financial facts were laid flatly on the table by Rodney Kropf, board secretary and city attorney of Livonia, in an emergency meeting called Tuesday afternoon.

Ironically, the financial status of the hospital is at its lowest ebb just when doctor participation and enthusiasm has reached its peak.

While Kropf was telling a handful of directors, doctors and hospital employees the sad news, two staff doctors revealed plans to save the facility and even expand.

Dr. Patrick Daoust and Dr. C. B. Jackson, appointed just three weeks ago to head up a finance committee to reorganize and bring about community ownership of the hospital, steadfastly believe their plan will work.

But they admit the immediate cash shortage is too critical to overcome — barring a miracle (see adjoining article, "How Hospital Can be Saved").

"We're just too late," Kropf concluded.

Called together for Tuesday's meeting at the hospital were Dr. L. W. Snow of Northville, treasurer of the board, and Robert Anderson of Novi. Other board members unable to attend were A. M. Allen of Northville, president, and Kenneth Fischer of Farmington.

In addition to Drs. Daoust and Jackson, the meeting was also attended by Mrs. Marion Weimer, acting business manager, Mrs. Mildred Griffin, personnel director, and Leo Mainville, Northville druggist.

Community General hospital has been plagued by crises since the day it was reopened, September, 1959. Formerly Sessions hospital, it was purchased by Dr. H. L. Bergo of Northville and Abraham Farris after it had closed.

The facility was remodeled and newly equipped at a cost reported to be upwards of $150,000.

One week after opening the new owners learned that the hospital could not qualify for full Blue Cross plan membership. This meant that the hospital would receive only $14 per day for patients having Blue Cross hospitalization insurance.

It was estimated that this represented 70 per cent of the patient potential. And $14 per day equals about one half the average charge, which is fully paid to member hospitals under the insurance plan.

The Blue Cross refusal was based on its rule against giving full membership to "proprietary" hospitals.

A pledge to reorganize the hospital under a community board of directors on a non-profit basis with plans to eventually purchase the hospital outright from the two owners gained full Blue Cross membership two months later.

A year later, however, the full membership rating was withdrawn. Blue Cross pointed out that certain repairs were needed — including a costly fire sprinkler system — plus the fact that definite steps towards gaining community ownership of the hospital had not been taken.

Since that time the hospital has been accepting Blue Cross patients and assuming the difference between the $14 per day insurance payment and the actual charge.

To stimulate doctor use of the hospital the board took another bold step. It opened the facility to doctors of osteopathy as well as M.D.'s.

Board members and staff doctors have hailed this experiment and credit it with bringing the hospital back to life when it seemed doomed last year.

But they point to a backlog of financial obligations and the normal "summer slump" experienced by hospitals as impossible odds to overcome without outside help.

Doctors Say

How Hospital Can be Saved

To Drs. Patrick Daoust and C. B. Jackson the closing of Community General hospital can only be described as "tragic."

As members of the hospital staff and just recently appointed to a finance committee charged with the responsibility of coming up with a plan to save the facility, they refuse to give up completely — even in the face of almost certain bankruptcy.

They have a plan.

But to meet the immediate emergency facing Community General hospital and gain time to set the plan into action, they admit that a donation of $10,000 is an absolute minimum requirement.

Here is what they have done to date and what would be done, assuming that the unexpected happens and $10,000 is donated to the hospital.

1. A Tri-County Hospital Improvement Fund has been established at Manufacturers National Bank in Northville. Pledges have been received from staff doctors that would be used to make a down payment on the purchase of the hospital. These pledges represent loans, repayable at six per cent interest, and funds are earmarked for acquisition and improvement only.

2. A negotiated price of $10,000 has been reached with the owners of the hospital. Down payment would be $20,000 with a $1500 per month land contract.

3. Assurance has been given that funds from industry and foundations could then be acquired to make necessary improvements to gain full Blue Cross membership and expand the hospital to 35 beds.

At this point Drs. Daoust and Jackson are positive that the hospital could operate successfully. They even have plans for expanding to 60 beds.

"The people in our area might not miss the loss of beds immediately (if Community General closes), but within one or two years the bed shortage in this area will be critical," Dr. Daoust predicted.

He called Community General a "model hospital that has operated beautifully under the combined D.O.-M.D. plan."

The board of directors may agree with Drs. Daoust and Jackson. But they are also practical businessmen.

Community General hospital cannot meet its payroll or buy food for its patients. "It is not fair to our creditors to continue this way," one board member pointed out.

Board members and doctors know that the only hope for the hospital is public support — more accurately, $10,000 in donations.

Those who attended Tuesday's emergency board meeting agreed that this was a last-ditch appeal. They stand ready to answer questions and accept whatever financial help might be offered.

Jaycees Elect Ribant

Northville's junior chamber of commerce installed new officers for the coming year naming Walter Ribant, Jr., as president.

Ribant succeeds Robert Prom.

Other new Jaycee officers are: Charles Ely, Jr., first vice president; Robert Norton, second vice president; George Miller, secretary; and Karl Knott, treasurer.

Novi Vetos Shopping Center Bid

A rezoning request to permit construction of a shopping center just outside Northville's city limits was denied Monday night by the Novi village council by a vote of 3 to 2.

The Novi village planning commission had approved commercial zoning for the 24-acre site on Novi road near Eight Mile road at a June 30 hearing.

At that time the Northville planning commission officially protested stating that the proposed center would prove detrimental to Novi's long range planning as well as Northville's present established commercial center.

Voting to deny the request Monday night were Village President Joseph Crupi and Councilmen Walter Tuck and Philip Anderson. Members Dean Lenheiser and Eugene Choquet voted to permit the rezoning.

Specifically, the property in question is located on the east side of Novi road about a quarter-mile south of Nine Mile road. It is owned by the Pacific Development company of Fenton. Presently the land is zoned small farm, but is proposed as light industrial in Novi master planning.

Council members voting against the rezoning generally felt that the location was not in the best interests of the village, that roads were inadequate, that developers had not indicated definite plans and that the rezoning did not follow Novi's long range plans.

David Hertler, a Pontiac attorney representing the development company, told the council that negotiations have been going on with "some major national tenants" but he felt it would be of no benefit to announce names while the rezoning was not finalized.

Earl E. Dorsey, representing the Novi Civic Improvement association, placed his group's objections to the developer's refusal to say what kind of a center they had planned. He said his group did not want a "blight" created.

President Crupi thought the roads were inadequate and the rezoning did not follow the general outline of the master plan.

Council member Lenheiser said he was one always "screaming" for plans but that he was ruled out of order. Maybe the proposed shopping center wasn't in the middle of the village, he said, but there wasn't any place else in the village to shop.

"All our wives will still go out of town to shop," he said. He thought the rezoning would be a start toward putting Novi on the map rather than "just a few scattered stores." The village could probably support more than one shopping center in the future, he said.

He discounted the traffic problem, sewage and lack of plans as good grounds to deny the request. "Maybe it would work out," he concluded.

Park Concerts Start

Northville high school's concert band, under the direction of Robert Williams, will present the first of a series of four weekly "concerts in the park" tonight (Thursday) at 7:30.

The concerts are held in the park behind the city hall. Williams said that several numbers will be directed by students and that during the course of the concerts the band will perform a variety of selections including special numbers by a trombone quartet and a trumpet trio.

There is no admission charge for the concerts. In the event of rain the concerts are held in the community building.

COOL MAN — Perched atop a huge cake of ice and munching an ice cream cone, Chris Ang knows how to combat hot weather. But 25 years ago this summer the ice, cone and Chris might have melted. Northville temperatures hovered in the 100's for days.

Sun Really Beat 25 Years Ago

(Before reading any further, it's advisable you knock on wood a couple of times.)

Well, what do you think of our summer so far? Not very summery, is it? Nothing much in the way of heat and sticky humidity which slows civilization down to a crawl. Nothing much in the way of the heat wave that hit the Northville area in 1936, some 25 years ago.

For seven consecutive days, the area baked, sweltered, roasted and sizzled in temperatures over 100 degrees. The highest recorded was an unofficial 104 degrees at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, July 17, 1936.

There were some hotter spots. The Northville Record conducted a survey and found that it was 140 degrees in the casting room of the Independent foundry.

It was 110 in the boiler room of the laundry, the local bakery baked in 106 degrees, the Record office had 104 (and we're writing this in air-conditioned surroundings), and the telephone office sweated out a 103 degree reading.

(Grab that rabbit's foot)

and give it a couple of rubs.)

They were pouring cement on Main street at this time and the workers, equipped with their salt pills, braved the elements. But they were the only ones.

Streets were empty and the beaches crowded with everyone thinking the same thought — cool off.

Local doctors reported six cases of heat prostration and sunstroke, fortunately none serious. Milk was delivered spoiled and the price of lemons rose to 60 cents a half-dozen!

Relief finally came to the vicinity in the form of showers. But for a week, it was miserably hot.

(Which reminds us, we're going looking for a four-leaf clover right now.)

New Owner

Sale of Johnson's Jewelry and Gift Shop, 124 East Main street, to Robert Stewart of Livonia was announced this week.

The shop has been owned and operated during the past 15 years by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson.

In addition to merchandise now handled at the shop, Stewart, an artist, will handle art supplies and provide sign painting service. He will also conduct oil painting classes and provide associated art studio services in the basement of the shop.

The shop is now known as Stewart's Gifts and Art Supplies.

Crime Rate Low For Local Youth

Each year the frequency of this country's juvenile crimes seems to soar with summer's rising temperatures. School is out, idle hours increase, and stories of youths who stray beyond that fine line distinguishing right from wrong are splashed across newspaper headlines.

Admittedly, juvenile delinquency as a social problem, is a perplexing phenomenon spawned in big cities and in small towns as well. Wherever it exists — New York of Northville — it becomes the grave concern of not only the police but the community at large.

With these considerations in mind and prompted by a recent city council discussion of local juvenile delinquency, the Record set out to explore the problem as it exists here.

Initially, it should be pointed out that the "juvenile" classification includes young people under 17 who because of their age are not subject to action in adult courts for their offenses.

Aiding in this study were two men whose daily work keeps them close to the delinquency problem — Northville Police Chief Eugene King and John M. Neville, supervisor of the Wayne County Juvenile Court's Inkster branch.

As city and county records clearly attest, Northville juveniles do stir up trouble here at home.

In the past year and a half, 25 local juveniles have appeared before Chief King to answer for a variety of offenses running from street fighting and petty larceny to nighttime burglaries and possession of intoxicants. (Traffic violations do not figure in this number.) Minor thefts, such as those from newspaper stands, parking meter collection boxes and the five and 10-cent store, appear most often in the files.

Of these cases, 12 found their way to Neville whose office serves 26 communities in western Wayne County. One was considered an official case by the court.

King, like Neville, who was a juvenile court probation officer here from 1941 to 1953, makes every effort to settle the difficulty on the community level and through "unofficial" channels. Confronted with a particular case, they first evaluate the most obvious factors — the juvenile's attitude, the attitude of his parents and any past record.

While Neville explained that he and his associates "do not indict parents for all faults of juveniles," he emphasized that "a breakdown of some sort in the home is often a contributing factor in these cases."

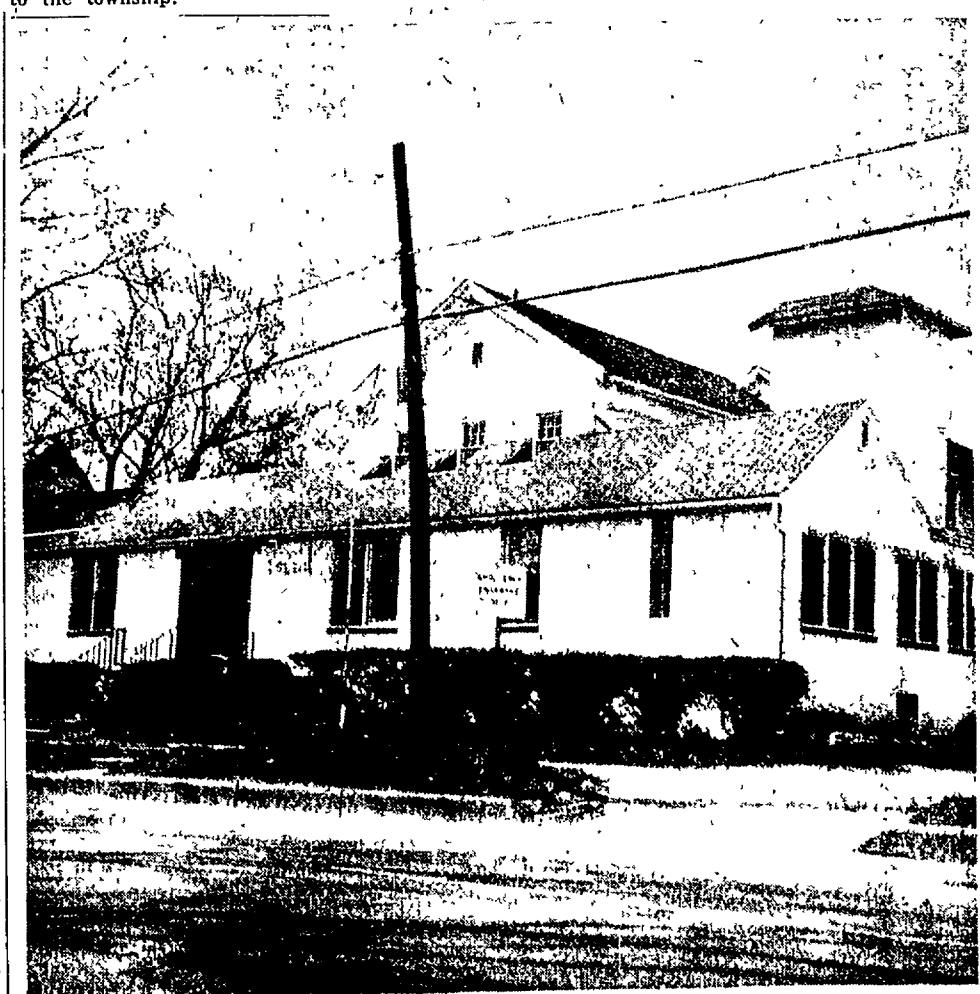

Penalties vary according to the severity of the offense. In any cases where something has been stolen or damaged, retribution is asked.

Both King and Neville agree that Northville's juvenile delinquency problem — comparatively minor now — should not lead the community to sit back complacently.

As Neville points out, "Wherever there are juveniles, there is a potentially serious problem."

Recreation programs and other preventative measures, he said, help keep the delinquency rate to a minimum.

Chief King, citing lack of adequate parental supervision as a key cause for delinquency, said many local juvenile problems could be averted if parents would encourage their youngsters to associate with companions their own age.

DOORS CLOSING? — Community General hospital faces its most acute crisis this week. The 520 West Main street facility will have to stop admitting patients, hospital directors say, unless immediate financial aid can be obtained.

Kitchen Diary

Cool Desserts Brim with Chocolate

Readers keeping close tab on their calories have three alternatives when it comes to this week's Kitchen Diary.

First — if your will power has dipped to its lowest ebb and you couldn't possibly resist the thought of a rich, creamy, chocolate dessert, don't read another line.

On the other hand, if whipping up a batch of delectable chocolate lady fingers or a fluffy chocolate Bavarian cream pie for your family doesn't move you to "just have a little taste", read on.

But, if you promise to watch your calories religiously — starting next week — keep right on reading and indulge yourself in two cool, delicious and wonderfully chocolate summer-time desserts.

Mrs. H. Charles Jordan, who lives with her family at 44875 Thornapple lane, is the author of the chocolate confections. She has also included her recipe for an easy to prepare nut bread that's ideal for neighborhood coffee klatches.

2 bars German sweet chocolate
2 1/2 T water
4 eggs (separated)
2 T confectioners sugar

Melt chocolate in double boiler. Stir in water and allow to cool. Add egg yolks one at a time, stirring after each addition. Add sugar and vanilla. Beat egg whites until stiff and fold into chocolate mixture. Line loaf pan with lady fingers and pour in half of chocolate mixture, then second layer of lady fingers and top with remaining chocolate mixture. Refrigerate for several hours and serve with cream or whipped cream.

CHOCOLATE BAVARIAN CREAM PIE

2 T butter
2 T hot milk
2/3 cup sifted, confectioners sugar

Combine gelatin with quarter cup granulated sugar. In top of double boiler, beat egg yolks; stir in gelatin mixture and milk. Cook over hot, not boiling, water, stirring until custard coats spoon. Refrigerate, stirring occasionally until custard mounds when dropped from spoon; beat just until smooth. Beat egg whites with salt till quite stiff. Gradually add quarter cup sugar, beating until stiff. Fold in custard mixture, then whipped cream, vanilla and half cup coconut. Pour into crust, reserving about a third of mixture. Refrigerate pie and reserve filling until almost set. Heap remaining filling on center top of pie. Refrigerate until 15 minutes before serving time. Garnish with remaining coconut and grated chocolate.

DOCTOR IN THE HOUSE — Former Southfield residents Dr. and Mrs. Donald J. Millar, their sons Duncan Scott, 3, and Matthew James, 2, and an aunt, Mrs. Beatrice Smith, (l. to r.) have lived at 629 West Main since early June.

This week's newcomers are James, 2 — they left Southfield by no means strangers to Northville to move into their home at 629 West Main.

Though they've lived here less than two months, Dr. and Mrs. Donald J. Millar are in familiar surroundings. Two summers ago the couple stayed here while Dr. Millar was interning in Flint. They first became acquainted with the community through Nancy Millar's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fairfield, who have lived in Northville eight years.

Looking for a small town and a good place to raise children, the Millars have two sons, Duncan Scott, 3, and Matthew James, 2, and an aunt, Mrs. Beatrice Smith, (l. to r.) have lived at 629 West Main since early June.

School Census Doubles

Recent census reports prepared by Assistant Superintendent of Schools Kenneth MacLeod indicate the population of Northville children 19 years of age and under will have almost doubled over a 10-year period.

A brief summary of preliminary census figures prepared by Dr. MacLeod in June estimates a possible count of 2,024 children at the end of the 1961-62 school year as compared to 1,110 at the close of 1951-52.

Attendance figures tabulated by Dr. MacLeod this month show 1,881 students were enrolled in public schools in June. This represents a gain of 70 over the previous year. The census count (children 19 and under) jumped by 198.

In a five-year comparison of public school attendance, June enrollments increased as follows: 1955-57, 1,555; 1957-58, 1,631; 1958-59, 1,721; 1959-60, 1,811; and 1960-61, 1,881.

Attendance and census figures are growing at an exceptionally stable rate, noted Dr. MacLeod.

Exchange Day Visitor Pens Book

A reminder of this year's Mayor Exchange Day found its way to the desk of Librarian Rhea Wilcox last week.

When Swartz Creek's Mayor William Young came to Northville on the annual exchange held in May, Mrs. Wilcox and the mayor's wife, Elizabeth, discovered they had a lot in common.

Mrs. Young is a librarian, too for the Children's Room of the Flint Public Library. And she's an author as well. The reminder she forwarded to Mrs. Wilcox is an autographed copy of her new children's book, "Lucky Days" which she co-authored with another librarian.

Catherine Hartley, Kate Edgerlon, Betty Spaeth and Gloria Parres are Northville members of the Three Cities Art Club who plan to exhibit their works.

GOOD NEWS was received from the F.H.A. that they would be happy to finance this lovely 3 bd. rm. 1 1/2 bath, at 744 Spring drive. Only $1300 is required from qualified buyers — and I am sure you are just that. The interior is immaculate with its rich carpeting, lovely fireplace and new bath with separate shower. New rec. rm. and English garden type back yard complete this home for real living. Of course, I have other homes — all good values — but none with such a small down payment as required on this one. Why not call today — happy to tell you or show you. FOR RENT — A beautiful tri-level in fine area on a full year's lease. Very few rental homes like this one. LAND CONTRACTS that are seasoned and secure will be considered for purchase. Have clients wishing to invest — at a discount. Call if interested. Council Denies Request For Full-Time Fire Chief

The requested appointment of Fire Chief Fred Loyne as an auxiliary policeman and full-time fire chief was tabled indefinitely by the village council Monday night.

The action was based on the lack of two things — a need for a full-time fire chief and about $800 to meet the recommended $4,200 salary.

Police Chief Lee BeGole made the request, noting that Loyne could help during vacation times on the police force while being at the hall eight hours a day through the week ready for fire duty.

In other action: — Treasurer Charles Trick, Sr. reported a cash balance as of June 30, 1961, of $4,033.

Acceptance was approved of a $750 check from the city of Wixom as payment for the last quarter of a fire contract. Disregarded was $400 for four extra fire calls.

Offers New Plan On Power Park

Wixom was offered a new tax source last Thursday and they have to do to get it is keep an interested party informed on prospective land buyers.

Emery Jacques, a Novi attorney and leading advocate of a park for the village, presented the Wixom city council with his plans for some 70 acres of State Highway property bordering the expressway between Beck and Wixom roads.

His plan is a simple one: He said he would request the highway department to give the land to the conservation department as partial payment of a debt and then have the conservation department in turn deed the land to Novi.

But the deed would not read "for park purposes" but instead, "proceeds from the sale of this land for park purposes."

The council agreed to keep the matter under study. Jacques recently received an Attorney General's opinion ruling over $68,000 from the Mary Power estate for a park to the conservation department instead of Novi.

It climaxed a long struggle by Novi to get their hands on the funds to buy land and develop it for a park. In fact, it was the "development" part which led the village to support an unsuccessful amendment to the state park bill permitting this.

The present bill allows for land purchase only. The 70 acres in question was brought up by the village some time ago.

Novi had asked that the highway department turn the property over to the conservation department then the land be given to Novi for a park.

Wixom was reported to have frowned on this idea. Actually, this report was a misunderstanding. While Wixom was concerned about having a park in its limits from the enforcement viewpoint, they had no legal say.

However, Jacques told the council that it's possible for the land to come on the city's tax rolls. He asked if there had been any land buyers in the area recently and requested that he be kept informed of such.

The only one the council knew was Detroit Edison regarding an easement. Jacques indicated after the meeting that he had an interested party on the property. He also said he would begin corresponding all over again with the concerned State officials.

18-Hole Course Opens

Dun Rovin Country Club, 10 acres of alternately hilly and level watered fairways, opens today in Northville Township to serve area golfers.

Located at 15855 Haggerty road, north of Five Mile road, the par 72 semi-public, 18 hole course was planned around a small lake and water course by Bruce Matthews, nationally known golf course architect. Its 6,335 yards are well trapped, with the longest hole, number 16, 500 yards, a par five.

Said to be the first new semi-public course in the area in a decade, Dun Rovin has been developed over the past two years by Redford Township and Livonia business men Harold Edwards and Richard Kenzie, William Buber, of Southfield and Stanley Edwards, of Montrose, Mich.

Their $500,000 investment will be enhanced later this year by a handsome $75,000 contemporary brick and stone clubhouse. A temporary clubhouse with all facilities for golfers is serving the picturesque course at the present time.

Rules of play will be those of the USGA and a golf pro will be in attendance upon completion of the clubhouse.

Novi All-Stars Play In LL Tournament

The Novi All-Stars will be composed of these players: David Rippey, Bill MacDermid, Jim Barnes, Cliff Hawley, Jim Trotter, Mike Grant;

Mike Moody, Walter Lutz, Chuck Sidaway, Jim Payton, Billy Graves, Dick Bentley, Pete Gatter and Mark Mangel.

OPENS TODAY — The Dun Rovin Country Club swings open its doors to the public today. The 18-hole course, complete with hilly and level watered fairways, is located at Haggerty and Six Mile roads in Northville Township. That's Bud Edwards (left) and William Buber, two of the four owners, welcoming everyone to come out.

Eric's 2-Hit Whitewash Puts Rec Team in First

The Class E Northville Recreation entry took over first place by a full game last week when they blanked the Palom-bro Tigers, 2-0, on a two-hitter by Eric Peterson.

They maintained their lead Monday, with a 10-3 win over Fisher Shoes, getting 10 hits.

Their record now is 9-1 with the last eight games all victories. Four contests are left, including one more with the second place Tigers.

Northville scored both its runs in the first inning on two hits and three walks. Peterson and Dave Jerome had the safeties. Only one man reached second base against Peterson.

Monday night, a six-run fifth inning sewed the game up. Dave Luedtke had three hits and Rich McIsaac and Joe Hay, two hits apiece. Peterson relieved Luedtke in the second inning to win the game.

Lower Boom!

Just like Clancy, the Novi Giants lowered the boom on the Northville Plumbers Monday night to take an easy 24-2 decision in Class E recreation baseball action. It was the Giants' second win of the week in a busy four game schedule that saw them lose one game and tie another.

There was plenty of explosive hitting in Monday's game. Dwayne Miller lashed out three triples and a single in five trips to the plate to pace the barrage.

Tom Barbara had a triple and two singles, Ralph Conrad a double and two singles and Jim Mazel and Larry Thompson, two hits each. One of Thompson's was a home run.

Mazel allowed just one hit. Thompson was the hitting and pitching star in the Giants' 15-4 victory over Clarenceville. He had 4-for-6, including a homer.

The Livonia Rockets beat the Giants, 10-3, while the Livonia Dodgers and the Giants played to a 5-5 tie. The locals scored three times in the last inning.

Orioles Win 2

Some lusty hitting sparked the Northville Orioles to two wins in the last week. They beat the White Sox, 8-5, and the Indians, 19-12.

Getting nine hits in the first win, four players had eight between them with two apiece. They were Mike Cushing, Rick Milne, Mike Utley and Pat Hall.

Eleven hits were banged out against the Indians. Jerry Inseland had two home runs, Milne a grand slammer, Bob Beller three hits and Gary MacDermid, a triple.

Play in Tourney

Smiths Products opens league tournament play tonight in Ypsilanti against Moore's Olds. Game time is 6 p.m.

The local gals wound up third in the league with their 6-4 record. They won their last two games to get the spot.

On 14 hits, they defeated Wayne, 11-2, and then with a 17 hit attack, the Ypsi Independents bowed, 14-2.

They Lose, 6-2

The Plymouth Optimists scored four times in the second inning to hang a 6-2 defeat on the Class D Northville Recreation team last week.

The locals scored in the fifth on an error and Bill Elwell's single. They added their second run in the sixth on Tom Daniel's third single, a walk and two wild pitches.

Play in Stadium

Four local high school athletes will be playing in Tiger Stadium Sunday.

They are Craig Bell, Tom Swiss, Joe Hay and Jim Judy. All play for the Class E Ever-Seven team in Detroit sandlot ball. Game time is 1 p.m.

Olympic Tryouts Saturday

Saturday is Junior Olympic day in the local recreation program.

The run-off on a local level for boys and girls ages 10 to 15 will begin at 10 a.m. at Ford Field with the qualifiers competing in the Metropolitan Detroit Junior Olympics July 27 at Metropolitan Beach.

Entries can still be made with Bob Prom each morning at Ford Field.

James J. Pompo, beach manager, is general chairman for this fourth annual event. Participated after the basic concepts of the President's Council on Youth Fitness, the first event was held in July 1958 at Belle Isle with 22 communities participating in the first program. This year, there are 40 taking part.

This program — including mass calisthenics, chinning, dashes, running hop, step and jump; running broad jump; standing broad jump and shuttle relay — is designed primarily to give every boy and girl participation in body building and competition.

Trophies will be presented to the first three places in each event.

Derived from the general pattern of the World's Olympics, youngsters will have an opportunity to improve their bodies, observe the rule of fair play and enjoy competitive sports.

Boys and girls will compete in the various contests according to age groups: Class A — 14 and 15 years of age, Class B — 12 and 13 years of age, and Class C — 10 and 11 years of age. Each group will carry a banner designating their city or community.

Uniforms for the contestants consist of white T-shirts and shorts for boys and white blouses and shorts for girls. Spike shoes will not be permitted, tennis shoes will be worn.

Contestants are limited to only one event, although contestants will participate in exhibition events such as flag raising and mass calisthenics.

BOYS AND GIRLS EVENTS — Mass Calisthenics and shuttle relay with 2 boys and 2 girls; BOYS EVENTS — Chinning, softball throw, 50-yard dash, running hop, step and jump, running broad jump and standing broad jump; and GIRLS EVENTS — softball throw, 50-yard dash, running broad jump and standing broad jump.

Michigan harness racing enthusiasts on Saturday will have their only chance of the entire year to see the nation's best four-year-old trotters in action. It will be the $13,300 HTA Trot at Northville Downs.

The second of five legs of the fabled series, all of the top stars are expected since the conditions require a horse to complete in four of the five qualifiers to become eligible for the $50,000 finale at Yonkers Raceway in New York on September 14. The top 10 in point standings will get a crack at the 50 grand.

Racing Secretary Bill Connors expects more than 14 starters and may be forced to split the stake into two divisions, if the entry goes as high as 15 or 16.

One thing is assured, there'll be more fast class trotters on the track at Northville Downs Saturday than at any other time in history.

Tire Inflation

Aside from faulty alignment, nothing will wear the tread off your tires as quickly as underinflation. Yet service records show that nine out of ten motorists keep less pressure in their tires than they need.

Here are some figures to illustrate the cost of underinflated tires: total tire life is reduced 5 percent if tires are kept only 10 percent underinflated; tire life decreases 16 percent at 20 percent underinflation; at 30 percent underinflation a tire will last only two thirds of normal. At 50 percent of normal inflation, tire life would drop to 22 percent.

Overinflation up to 15 percent is permissible and is even advocated by some authorities for better than normal tire wear, though this of course makes for a "harder" ride and tends to produce body looseness. A sensible general rule seems to be to keep your tires slightly higher than standard recommendations for better wear, or at the recommended figure if maximum softness of ride is desired.

When buying new tires, try inflating them to double normal pressure, then deflate to desired road pressure. Keep to 40 mph for the first 100 miles. This flexing of the rubber without heat will considerably lengthen tire life.

Paul Chadwick Selected For Science Institute

Paul Chadwick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Chadwick, 20210 Westview drive, is among the 41 high school students attending a National Science Institute at Central Michigan University this summer.

The students were screened and selected by the National Science Foundation. All of the students in the Institute have maintained an A average in their high school science and mathematics courses.

Of the 41 students 21 are from Michigan and 20 are from 28.

Dr. Molner Prescribes Summer Baby Care

Special attention should be given to the health and comfort of babies when days are hot, Dr. Joseph G. Molner county health commissioner, suggests.

The first year of life has always been the most hazardous and it is today still, even though great strides have been made in saving babies' lives in Detroit during the last 25 years.

Last year, 1,050 Detroit babies under one year old died. This is a rate of 30 for every 1,000 babies born alive. However, in 1907 the rate was 38 for every 1,000 live births. Last year, diseases of early infancy were fourth among the leading causes of death in Detroit.

Young babies are very susceptible to diseases. Anyone who has a cold or intestinal disease of any sort should not take care of the baby. At the first sign of a cold or diarrhea, the baby should be seen by his physician. See that he is protected against diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus and polio beginning at the age of three months.

Dr. Molner says although hot weather requires no special changes in the feeding of health-various other states. Included in the group are 32 boys and 9 girls.

The Institute is under the direction of Dr. M. L. Filson, head of the Central Michigan university physics and chemistry department. Instructors include Central Michigan faculty members as well as several nationally known scientists.

Students are housed on the university campus and take part in university activities.

The Institute began June 19 and will continue through July from Michigan and 20 are from 28.

Busy Week In Justice Court Here

Four Detroit youths were referred to Wayne County Juvenile court and a fifth companion released to the custody of his parents last week after police caught them stealing scraps of a synthetic material from the American Re-Tex company on Gerald avenue.

Justice Charles McDonald dismissed further action against the 17-year-old defendant because it was the youth's first offense.

Other cases on Justice McDonald's docket included:

—Found guilty of disorderly conduct for molesting a child, George Edward Ervine, 402 Uhlan court, Northville Downs, was fined $15 and $10 cost and put on six-months' probation. Justice McDonald ordered Ervine to submit himself for psychiatric examination.

—Two Detroiters, Philip Miller and Sylvester McCarty, were each penalized $10 and $5 cost and given 90-day suspended sentences on conviction of touting at the race track. Unable to pay his fine, Miller was ordered to spend three days in Detroit House of Correction.

—General Nelson Ledford, 47667 Ten Mile, Northville, convicted of driving under a revoked license and with improper license plates, received a sentence of 12 days in DeHo-Co.

—Justice McDonald fined Frank Brind, 21, of Garden City, and Jack Rice, 21, of Northville township, $5 and $5 cost for drinking alcoholic beverages in a car parked at Northville Gulf station on East Main.

—Fighting on a public street, violation of a city ordinance, resulted in fines for a Garden City pair. Charles Priest was penalized $25 and $10 cost, Vivian Knight $10 and $10 cost.

Minutes of Northville City Council

A postponed regular meeting of the Northville City Council was held July 10, 1961, at 8:00 p.m.

Present: Mayor Allen, Councilmen Ambler, Canterbury and Carlson. Absent: Councilman Juday.

Minutes of last regular meeting were read and approved.

Bills amounting to $27,424.56 from the General Fund and $988.25 from the Water Fund were presented for payment, and it was moved by Carlson, supported by Ambler, that these bills be allowed and paid. Carried.

Letters were read from the Northville Public Schools stating that they are not interested in the construction of a sidewalk on the north side of W. Cady street at this time; also that the recommendation of the Library Study committee that the School district become the taxing unit for a community library would be considered by the school board in the fall, due to the absence of several members of the board and interruptions due to summer vacations.

It was moved by Carlson, supported by Ambler, that the $17.00 assessment by the Michigan Municipal League to assist them in working on the issue and problems of local governments, to be presented at the Constitutional Convention, be paid. Carried.

After considering the suggestion by Sydney Frid that Grace, Carpenter and Horton streets be blocked off at the 8-Mile cut-off in order to discourage speeding on these streets, it was decided to hold a public hearing on the blocking off of Grace street and to write letters to property owners residing north of the 8-Mile cut-off on this street to ascertain their feeling about this proposition. Public hearing will be held July 24, 1961, at 8:00 p.m.

Mgr. Robertson reported that in discussing a new garbage and trash collection contract with Willard Sanitation, it was pointed out that only about 40 homes were setting out containers during the 2nd pick-up date in the two summer months when two pick-ups have been made, and they felt the 2nd pick-up could be eliminated. On the basis of this information it was decided that the second pick-up would not be made this summer. If same is dispensed with, contractor will do the job for the same amount as last year, $9,800, even though additional territory has been annexed. Moved by Carlson, supported by Canterbury that the contract between the City of Northville and Willard Sanitation as prepared by the City Attorney be accepted and signed by the Mayor and City Clerk. Carried.

Action on the City Manager's resignation was the next item of business. Moved by Canterbury, supported by Carlson, that the resignation be accepted, with regrets at his leaving and commendation for his integrity, his outstanding service to the council and community, and an expression on the part of the council for his continued success and best wishes in his new and enlarged endeavor. A REAL CHRISTIAN.

So many people today lay claim to the name of Christian that one would receive the impression that there are a good many Christians. Some people believe that because they have been baptized in infancy, confirmed in early adolescence, or have joined a church that this makes them a Christian. I suppose if all the people in this city who claim to be a Christian would go to church on a single Sunday there would not be room enough, even if all the churches had double services. The etymology of the word Christian suggests the real meaning. It means "One who belongs to Christ". It is used three times in the Bible, all in a slurring way, of those who were believers in Jesus Christ. A simple reading of the Gospel of John would convince the reader that a person becomes a Christian when he repents of his sins and puts his dependence in the Lord Jesus Christ for his eternal salvation. The merits of Christ's death then become his and from that time on he belongs to Christ. Tell me is your claim to the name Christian based on the Scriptures? Unless it is you are flying under false colors no matter how sincere and religious you may believe yourself to be. Examine yourself!

From Romans this passage will be read (15): "For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope." Correlative citations will include the first tenet of Christian Science: "As adherents of Truth, we take the inspired Word of the Bible as our sufficient guide to eternal life" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, p.497). The Golden Text is from Psalm 57: "I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing unto thee among the nations. For thy mercy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds."

He served as supervisor of the Northville sales office from 1937 to 1942 and is a past president of the Northville Rotary club. He and his wife, Ruth, now reside at 3185 S. Lotz road, Wayne. They have two daughters, Mrs. Lois Dambor of Saginaw, and Mrs. Dorothy Sattelburg of Roselle, Illinois.

They Visit On Campus
More than 2,200 freshmen who expect to enter Western Michigan university for the first time next fall are spending two days this summer in visiting the campus.

Dean Paul L. Griffith and his staff of counselors have arranged an intensive program of counseling, advance registration including the payment of a part of their fall fees, and a bit of social life. They will thus clear up many of their early fall duties and know the campus a little better when they arrive.

When they return to the campus in September it will be to start classes almost immediately without the usual days of orientation and registration.

Among those attending from Northville are Michael Adas and Fredrick Steeper.

What's this little fellow up to? Where's he going? Why?
He knows. Maybe he couldn't put it into words, but he's just as sure as any little man can be.

He is taking in God's world with all his little-child faith. He knows that tree and how God made it strong against the storm.

Those clouds? He knows God painted them in the sky for him to enjoy. He knows that more of God's wonders are right up ahead—and that's where he's going. Just walking among God!

In the truest sense of the words, our young friend doesn't have to FIND God—he is WITH God.

We are older. A lot of things clutter up our lives. We are busy losing God. When we do search for Him we scarcely know where to turn.

It would be nice to join this young fellow — to share his thoughts, his hopes, his dreams, his God.

We can't do that. We don't have a child's faith. But we can come CLOSER to God and ease our restless hearts.

We can go to our church—God's temple, our place of worship. God will be there.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a schoolhouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself. So, let us have your regular and material support. This is to go to the heart of our very best service to our community.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

Arnold B. Cook, Pastor
First Baptist Church of Novi

The words spoken by General Douglas MacArthur to the people of the Philippines, "I shall return", reminds us of a similar promise made by "The Captain of our Salvation", Jesus Christ who said, "If I go away, I will come again."

The true children of God have not forgotten that promise, but look eagerly to that time when Christ shall return. There are those, however, who have forgotten, and there are those who do not believe that it shall ever be fulfilled. And, too, there are some, like those in the parable Jesus spoke of, who became so engrossed in the mundane pursuits of life as to be indifferent to the fact that "The Lord shall come again."

Does this seem to be a mere phantasm or is there a stronger reason why some people believe in the Second

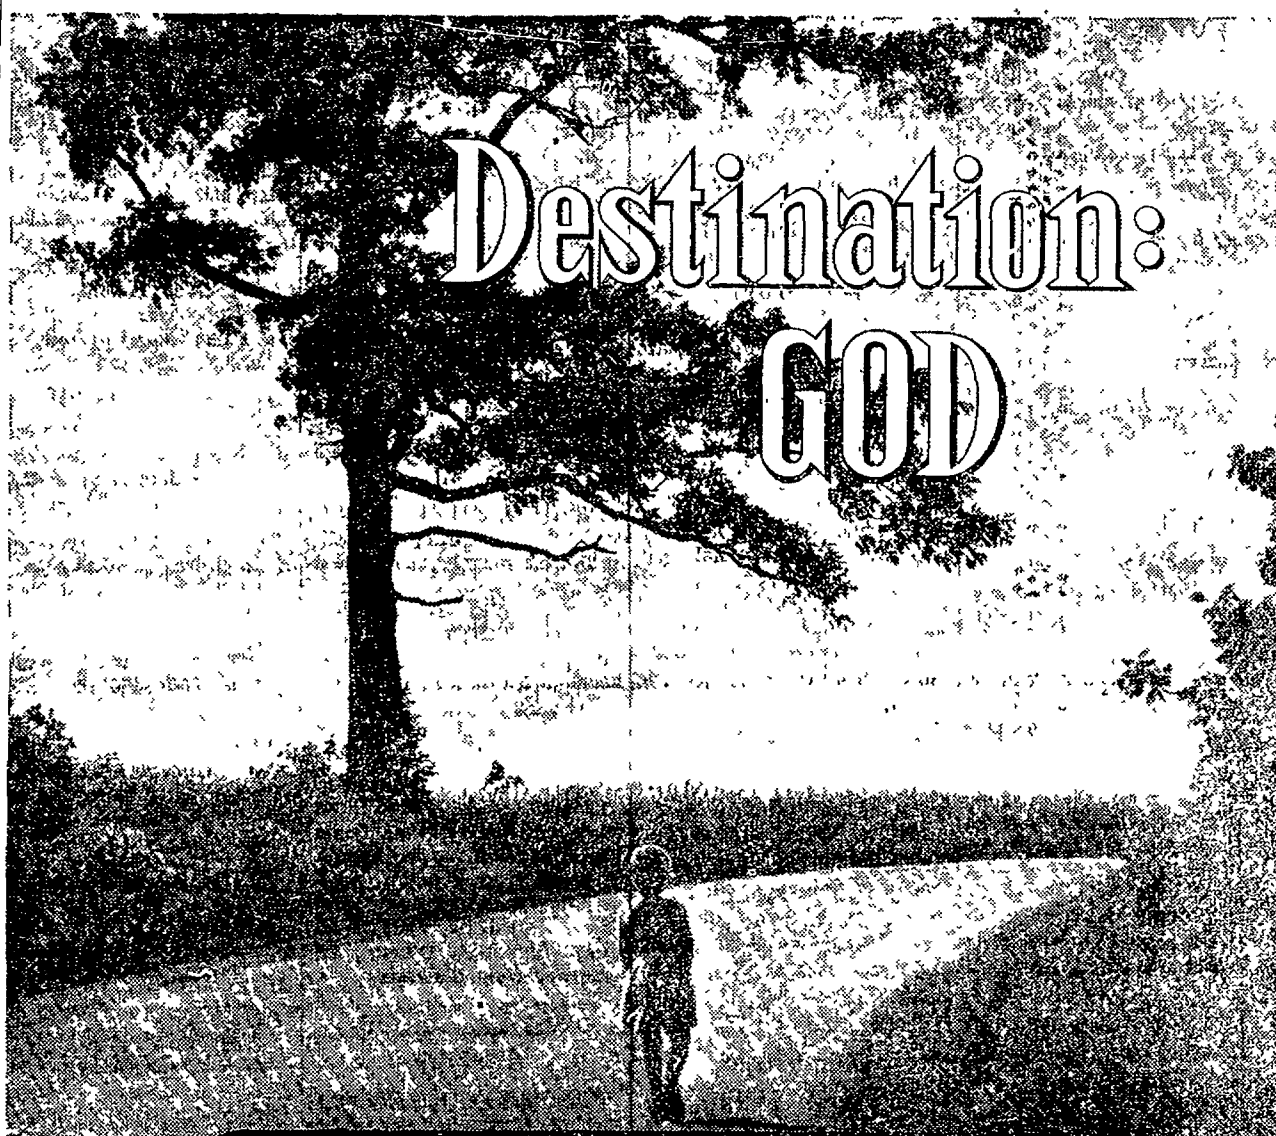

Coming of Christ. Certainly the strongest of all reasons supports the believer in his hope of Christ's coming, and that is the Bible. There are no less than 318 references to this doctrine in the New Testament, and for every mention of Christ's first coming (as a Babe at Bethlehem) there are 8 mentions of His Second coming.

It should be evident to every enlightened mind that the world in its present trend cannot continue. Some of our scientists have stated that man is going to destroy himself, and that the present world cannot endure. With so much anarchy, rebellion, and disorder among mankind, there is a necessity of a God-rule. Man has evidenced the fact that he is incapable of coping with man, rather than bettering conditions on earth, he is making things worse. Naturally, the philosophy of the ostrich is to bury his head in the sand and say, "It isn't so," and anyone who contends for the Bible truth of coming judgment, etc., is labeled a scare-monger.

Undoubtedly, there were many Philipinos who questioned General MacArthur's promise, and some died believing that he would keep his word. Others were firmly convinced that he would not be back, but he did return to liberate the islanders. Peter could say, "We have a more sure word of prophecy."

What greater promise and what more blessed hope could one have than the words of our Lord, "I will come again." Our great liberator will return and the signs point to this fact with unerring accuracy, and more than that is the longing in the heart of the Christian, "even so come quickly Lord."

Salem Likes Its One Room School

If an Eight Mile road resident has his way, Salem township will retain "forever" a piece of Americana that is swiftly disappearing from the national scene.

Louis Wallenmaier, 55, Eight Mile road, is a farmer and a retired General Motors employee. But he's also a school board president bubbling over with enthusiasm.

"We've got one of the finest rural schools in the area," insists Wallenmaier, "and before I'm finished it will be the best ... everyone will be proud of it."

Hitching up his coveralls, Wallenmaier settled back in his easy chair and burst forth with so much praise for his constituents in the Wash-Oak School District that the listener would imagine that he loved each one as he might a brother or sister.

"Mister, it's a real pleasure to be president of this district, a real pleasure."

But Wallenmaier's loving cup has not always been filled with hearts and flowers. There was a time — just a little over a year ago — that his cup and the yard of the 100 year-old Wash-Oak school yard (located on Currie road between Eight and Seven Mile roads) was filled with briars.

"You can't imagine the trouble we had here a year ago," Wallenmaier said.

Up to a year-and-a-half ago, the Eight Mile farmer had little to do with the school district. He has no children so he participated very little in the school system. Then, he said, "I heard about some kids getting burned on the school stove. A neighbor and me went over there during recess one day. It was winter."

"The teacher, Mrs. Mildred Stroup who lives near Whitmore Lake, let us in. And those kids were all huddled around the stove trying to keep warm. The stove door was open so they could get more heat."

"Those conditions made me mad so I started poking my nose around trying to find out what was going on. We were paying big taxes but weren't getting much for our money."

In the process of "nosing around", Wallenmaier made several enemies in the district. Someone, "I don't know who was behind it", tried to get an injunction against him, but the Circuit Court squashed it after hearing Wallenmaier's story.

Unable to get any satisfactory answers, Wallenmaier carried his anger to the State Fire Marshall asking that an investigation of the school conditions be made.

While this investigation was underway, district voters attending the annual school board meeting elected Wallenmaier to the board presidency.

"The people knew we didn't have any experience but they were willing to take the chance — and as long as I'm president they'll never be sorry."

Not aware of just what his position entailed, Wallenmaier went to Lyon Township School Superintendent Frank Bartlett for help. "I think the world of that man," Wallenmaier said, "because he gave me all the help I could ask for. His cooperation was wonderful. So was the help of Amerman (Superintendent Russell Amerman) in Northville."

"I didn't know this stuff, so I had to have help — but today I want to see them trick me on school matters!"

One of his first actions as the new board president was to appoint Mrs. Sarah Bryant, a Negro, to fill the vacancy of secretary. "She was the only person with a 12th grade education who was willing to do the job. And I'd appoint her today even if there were others who were qualified. You just couldn't have wanted anyone who would have done a better job."

The people re-elected her at the election meeting last week by a unanimous vote.

Next, Wallenmaier went to the 50 voters in the district, asking them to help "clean up" the school. The result was heartwarming: "Men and women came over to the school whenever they could. They cut down the thorn apple trees that covered the school property, cut weeds, washed woodwork, and did just about everything else."

"Just look at this annual expense record," he boasted. "We didn't have one when I came in — at least I couldn't find one. We had about a two thousand dollar debt hanging over our heads and the school was a mess."

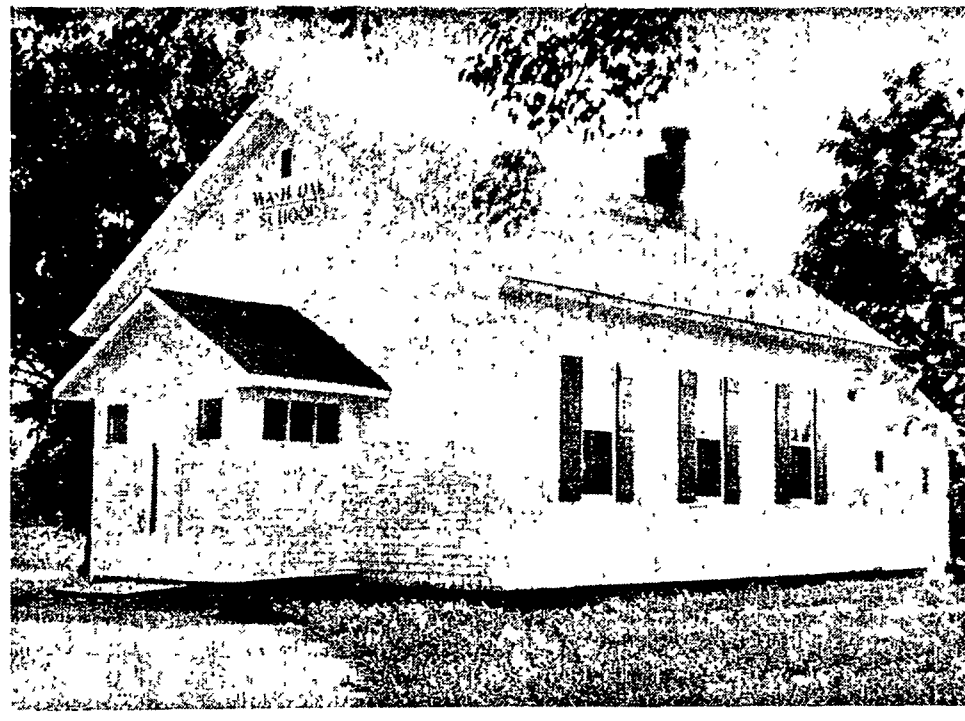

"We paid all our bills, fixed the school up (including installation of a new heating plant and several other safety features recommended by the State Fire Marshall) and came home with a balance of $3,416.91 in the treasury this year."

Wallenmaier pointed out that "that includes people who were the average school tax in the district was $48 per thousand last year — $13.93 mills. As I promised the people, I'm going to cut the taxes to $22.98 per thousand this year. This means 7.6 mills or a total of $6,696. Add that to the balance in our treasury along with state aid and primary money and we'll have close to $14,000 to operate the school with next year."

Even with the reduction in the taxes, said Wallenmaier, problems in Wash-Oak any "we're going to give our more." We like our one-room teacher a $300 raise (from school house. And we know by $4,200 to $4,500). Why, Mister, the talk we hear from Northville don't need any more money — the seventh graders ey than that to operate this we send there from Wash-Oak school and do a good job of having had a real good education."

Northville Record — Novi News—11
Thursday, July 20, 1961

CENTURY OLD — Wash-Oak school, which derives its name from the fact that it is located on the Washtenaw-Oakland county line, on Currie road between Eight Mile and Seven Mile roads, is one of three rural schools in Salem township. Actually, seven different school districts extend into Salem township. Oldtimers say the school is well over 100 years old—even though it may not look it.

LOOK FAMILIAR? For most oldtimers, and for a good many youngsters, the interior of a rural or country school recalls many memorable experiences. The Wash-Oak school is no exception. Some 29 children, representing grades from kindergarten through the sixth, attend this one room school. Despite the "old fashion" method of teaching many grades in one room, Wash-Oak officials report that children leaving the school for the Northville school system are as well educated as their new classmates at Northville.

But Died Suddenly

"Never Sick a Day in His Life"

"He was never sick a day in his life."

Yet he died suddenly and unexpectedly. He had had a serious disease but never knew it. Many such deaths — and many more serious disabilities — could be prevented by public health's newest weapon in the fight against disease — multiple screening.

According to Dr. John A. Cowan, director of the state health department's division of tuberculosis and adult health, "wide-spread use of screening programs in communities in Michigan can sharply reduce the unnecessary deaths and premature deaths which result from many chronic diseases found too late for successful treatment."

Multiple screening is simply a cluster of the latest laboratory and other technical health tests given at the same place at about the same time. Such tests are today capable of finding many suspected diseases including diabetes, high blood pressure, tuberculosis, several forms of cancer, certain kinds of heart disease, anemia, glaucoma, venereal disease and kidney disease.

"Multiple screening," says Doctor Cowan, "is our best bet today if we are really going to cut down on the ravages of chronic disease. It's the most effective means we have to screen out those who may have disease before symptoms appear and get them to their own physicians for definite diagnosis and necessary treatment. Usually, when these diseases are found early, they can be treated successfully."

How the state and local health departments use multiple screening programs in Michigan communities, industries and businesses to detect disease early and prevent widespread chronic illness is described in an article appearing in the May issue of Michigan's Health, the state health department's magazine.

The article is available without charge from the Michigan Department of Health, Lansing 4, to persons or groups interested in conducting such programs.

The services of screening program coordinators are also available to help organize programs in area of the state requesting them.

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO

A meeting to organize an all-out drive to form an area hospital authority by placing the issue on the November ballot was called. Invitations were sent out by Mayor Allen to surrounding communities including Novi, South Lyon, Salem and Wixom.

Former Northville mayor and village councilman, Elmer Perrin, died at the age of 73. Novi lost a disconnection case, but won a minor victory in a disputed annexation case with Northville. Circuit Court allowed William Chase to discontinue 156 acres of his property from the village at Novi and Eight Mile roads. But the village won the right to contest in the Michigan Supreme Court the annexation of 135 acres by Northville.

The Center Street paving problem in Northville was still causing problems. The council decided to pave northward to Amerman School instead of to Ely Court as first announced.

The Novi council put to use its new landfill ordinance for the first time by granting a license to the Munn Landfill at Novi, and 10 mile roads.

Beck Road residents, clogging in huge clouds of dust, were granted some relief by the village council. The village will match funds with residents in applying chloride for the remainder of the construction period on Novi road.

FIVE YEARS AGO

A race track syndicate approached township officials about locating a track in Novi. It was brought out at the regular board meeting. A discussion was held with the matter tabled.

The Northville school board approved the Manning and Locklin property and the Ralph Balzer property as the site of the new high school. Negotiations will open at once.

Novi Township told its attorney to go ahead and block the annexation attempt by Northville to grab land where the Amerman School is located and where the Northville school board plans to build its new high school.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Arthur J. Maleske, D.D.S., resumed his practice on Main street after two years in the Navy.

Some 56 building permits were issued in Northville during the first six months of the year.

Only four arrests were made in June by Northville police. Chief Joe Denton reported, fines totaled $178.

Over 7,000 fans crowded Northville Downs on its opening night with some $94,000 bet. Five long shots came through to win on a beautiful summer night.

Northville will formally dedicate its American Legion hall August 14, V-J Day.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Northville school board still had three vacancies to fill on its teaching staff after signing up three to contracts.

Despite the torrid weather, work on the main street in Northville continued. It will be a month before completion of the project to lift and widen the main artery.

Attorney George Stalker and Fred W. Lyke were re-elected to their trustee positions on the board of education in a recent election. Only 21 voters turned out to vote.

Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston was elected commander of the Lloyd H. Green post, American Legion. Other officers include Barton Connors, L.H. Alexander, Lawrence Reidel, J. H. Bolton and Ray A. Altenberg.

Walter Tuck and William Mairs were re-elected trustees of the Novi school board at a recent meeting.

NOW'S THE TIME to save more truck dollars on the more-for-your-dollar trucks!

Your truck dollars are worth a whole lot more at your Chevrolet dealer's right now! First off, you get a head start on saving because summer's the saving season. Then, with a harder working, easier riding Chevy truck, you're set to save every mile you haul. And, finally, at trade-in time, you can expect an extra dividend because of Chevy's traditionally higher resale value. What could be better?

Summer's the season to get extra mileage from your dollars on the trucks built to give you extra miles of hauling. With Independent Front Suspension, Chevrolet trucks keep going thousands of miles longer because far less destructive jar and shake are transmitted through the truck. Chevy I.F.S. trucks work harder, too, in areas where other trucks have to be pampered. And, with Chevy's wide choice of thrifty 6 and hardy V8 power, you can tailor your truck exactly to your job. So how can you miss—especially now during the summer saving season?

Readers Speak: We Need Bigger Cities

To the Editor:

President Crupi urges to continue strike as quoted June 27, edition of the Novi News. He further sees an opportunity to make money for the village, if the tax strike is successful. It's apparent that Mr. Crupi is not aware of the attitude banks would take in a situation of this kind. I am sure that the interest rate would be a lot higher than two and three-quarter per cent, if they would be interested.

As I stated before in a paid ad, that tax strikers should put their tax money into a bank and draw three and one-half per cent interest to safeguard their homes and property, then all one would lose is a half per cent interest. Question is not how much one would lose, but how much one could be gained in the long run. It is common sense that $189,500 budget is out of reason, when a little over two years ago our community lived well under a small township tax, and enjoyed the freedom of breathing the fresh air around us without being taxed to death.

In this day and age it is useless to support small villages and city governments, until such time that proper state legislation can be passed to create or expand cities. We are, and will always be incapable of providing the services needed by industry. Then why not content ourselves with a more cheaper form of government, such as township form of government (suitable only for rural retreats). Some time ago Mayor Hubbard of Dearborn had the right approach. He suggested that cities, village and townships band together as one large municipality. Future cities of 600 miles long are suggested and considered along the Atlantic coast line.

It is evident that large cities are capable of providing the services needed to attract more new factories, and improve the economic trouble in the State of Michigan. Meanwhile, economic moves should be supported by the taxpayers such as that to reduce local property taxes.

Knowing History

Babson Park, Mass., in addition to my beloved father and mother there are four outstanding people who have guided my life. These are Joan of Arc of France, Sir Isaac Newton of England, Isabel Babson of Gloucester, Mass., and Cecil John Rhodes of South Africa.

In the center of the public square, facing the home where I spent fifteen youthful years, is a life-size statue of Joan of Arc riding a horse and holding a sword. The statue was chiseled by the famous sculptress, Mrs. Anna Hyatt Huntington. Joan of Arc not only has inspired me with courage, but has taught me to expect the unexpected. Her life shows how an unknown eighteen-year-old girl can change the fortunes of two entire nations.

One year France was in supremacy and all English fortunes were at a very low ebb; then in a few weeks the picture completely changed. England became powerful and wealthy—despite the wicked trickery of the English who caught Joan with a flag of truce and burned her at the stake.

In the late 17th century, Newton announced to the world his Law of Action and Reaction, later called the "Business Cycle." Isaac Newton—unlike President Kennedy and his advisors—stated that periods of unemployment and suffering were caused by previous excesses of economic activity, waste, and luxury. In fact, Sir Isaac Newton's teachings were the foundation of my business. We now have the third largest Newtonia collection in the world. His actual library was brought by Mrs. Grace K. Babson from London and built into the Newton Library at the Babson Institute. My forecasts today are based upon the teachings of Sir Isaac Newton who—in a way—founded Babson's Reports.

Early in the 17th century a wonderful woman and her young son James left London in a sailing vessel for a six-weeks trip across the Atlantic Ocean to Salem, Mass. From Salem they came to Cape Ann where Isabel became physician, midwife, and pre-natal nurse to the sixty families then living on Cape Ann.

From her son James all Babsons in America are believed to have descended. April of this year marked the 300th Anniversary of Isabel's death. A small Pre-Natal College is being started in her memory. It will be located at 69 Main Street, Gloucester, Mass., where she had her humble log cabin hospital and became known as "Good Woman Babson."

The fourth character who greatly influenced my life was Cecil Rhodes of London who, broken down with tuberculosis, boarded a sailing vessel to South Africa. Since I have also been so afflicted, Cecil Rhodes is one of my "saints." He became the bold developer of Rhodesia and Africa's greatest statesman and financier—working toward the Congo about which we hear so much today. He died in 1902 at the age of 49.

I visited his grave in Africa. His dying words were: "So much to do, and so little time in which to do it." He said this after developing the diamond and gold mines of Africa and leaving all his great wealth in international education.

The study of ancestry has been a hobby of mine and I recommend it to other businessmen as a change from collecting stamps and similar means of keeping one's mind employed. Studying ancestry is a most fascinating and surprising avocation.

Furthermore, it means we are collecting new and permanent data which can be bequeathed to our heirs. All such work which we do is cumulative and can be carried on further by others after our death.

Those who have the time should interest their children and grandchildren in the laws of heredity, including genes and chromosomes and the new polymer sciences which may completely upset the orthodox theories of heredity. If we could interest our teenagers in the polymers, it might result in much happier marriages and more useful grandchildren.

Lectures for 12-Pointers

It takes better timing to get a real estate salesman's license in Michigan now than in the past.

Now, due to austerity budgets and cost-cutting measures, the examination for real estate salesmen in Detroit will be given only two times a month instead of three times each week.

In Lansing, the Corporation and Securities Commission will continue to give the examination each week on Thursday. The recently-named Corporation and Securities Commissioner, Raymond F. Clevenger, said other belt-tightening moves would also be made, but he indicated his agency would try to keep everybody now employed on the payroll as long as possible.

Some departments and agencies are being forced to cut people from the work force, and many others are not filling staff vacancies as they occur.

The Corporation and Securities move apparently will cut service slightly without putting too great a hitch in public service. Fewer examinations for securities dealers and salesmen, residential builders, residential maintenance and alteration contractors will also be offered by the commission in their austerity program.

Driver safety experts hope they have a good thing going for them in the relatively new "Multiple Interview Program" being conducted by the Secretary of State's office for drivers who have accumulated 12 or more violation "points" in a year or less, for the first time in their driving career.

Since the program started early this year, results have been very encouraging, according to the Department of State. Success is measured by the number of persons who have further moving violations, which count points against the driver, after being called in for a group interview.

Before the Multiple Interview technique was worked out, each driver was called in for a short session with one of the driver improvement experts. These briefings lasted only about 15 minutes each.

Now, drivers who have compiled a bad record come in groups of about 30 to spend up to about two hours hearing the law and point-system explained, see educational movies, hold a group safety discussion and question and answer sessions. In the first four months of the program, 11 cities were the scene of the group meetings: James M. Hare, Secretary of State, says the Multiple Interview program permits all the drivers who accumulate 12 points in a year for the first time to be interviewed at a nominal cost to the Department.

Hare was quick to point out that the change in program means absolutely no softening up in dealing with violators.

He said "scofflaws" and other habitual violators would still be severely dealt with, as in the past. Also as in the past, the "first timers" will not generally be prevented from legal driving, but they will be expected to profit from the Multiple Interview, and prove it.

'Tis said the Irish are a charming race and truly, a great many descendants of the old sod are that, indeed.

But a true-blue Norseman, Michigan's Gov John B. Swainson, has stolen a march on the Sons of Erin by extending the cordial hand of friendship through a most distinguished emissary.

Swainson traces his lineage to Norway, but heres what the 35-year-old chief executive, well known as a personable man, did:

He sent silver card trays, bearing the Governor of Michigan's seal, to the Lord Mayors of Dublin and Cork, Ireland.

NORTHVILLE

By HUGH C. BRONAUGH, Manager

HOW MANY MAIN TELEPHONES do you think Michigan Bell serves in the Northville-area? The first three people we asked guessed "one-thousand," "two-thousand, five hundred" and "two-thousand." Before you make your guess, here's a clue: in 1950 there were slightly over two-thousand. Well, today there are almost three-thousand five hundred! This shows how your telephone company has been building to bring modern, complete telephone service to you...when and where you need it.

EVER HEAR OF A TELEPHONE FARM? It's not like most farms because what's "planted" there by Bell Laboratories' engineers doesn't grow. But the farm does help us analyze and improve various types of underground telephone equipment. Into acres of ground go some 11,000 different items—wires and cable for example—that must be engineered for many years of dependable, trouble-free service. Selected areas are dug up at intervals of from 1 to 32 years to check the equipment's resistance to underground conditions. This helps us in our continuing search for ways to make your telephone service even more dependable.

THE INSIDE STORY. "What do they carry in those little green telephone trucks?" you may have wondered. Well, each truck carries some 400 separate items—from an extension ladder to screws and plastic wood. Every one of Michigan Bell's more than 2,000 installation-repair trucks is stocked in the same way. In an emergency, where trucks must be rushed from one part of the state to another, any installer-repairman would be completely familiar with the layout of whatever truck he was assigned. These little trucks provide him with all the tools and equipment he needs to give you fast, efficient one-stop service when he visits your home.
