

Case of Sinking House

SINKING HOUSE — This 201 South Ely drive residence in Northville Heights is slowly sinking into the ground. City officials have notified the Federal Housing Authority, now owner of the mortgage, that it must be torn down or local authorities will take such action. Original residents of the home were moved into a new house by developers of the subdivision and the house has been vacant for several months.

City, Township Merger Called Best for Community

A community united and a strong chamber of commerce working to improve the area in which we live is what is needed in Northville.

So spoke Willis H. Hall, general manager of the Greater Detroit Board of Commerce, in an address before the Northville Rotary club Tuesday.

Specifically, Hall talked to the service club about business leadership and what can be done to improve the community economically.

And he would start by combining city and township planning, doing away completely with separate planning commissions.

"The city and township of Northville should merge," Hall exclaimed, while gently chiding Township Supervisor George Clark that he would "be out of a job".

His point was that the community should plan together to develop land and facilities to encourage local investment and provide jobs. "The attitude of officials should welcome new business," Hall added. He likened the idea to a "forestation program" helping business and industry to grow.

Township Zoners To Meet Tuesday

The Northville township zoning board will meet at the township hall next Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Regularly scheduled to meet on the second Tuesday of the month, the session was postponed because of the con-con election.

Hall said that small units of government cannot provide adequate tax base to furnish services the people want. He cited Livonia as an ideal example of a city of the future because of its foresight in incorporating the entire township into one single governmental unit.

In emphasizing the need for a chamber of commerce, Hall noted that the merchant must be interested in more than Main street. He pointed out that it is the responsibility of all citizens to build a climate of teamwork, stability and financial integrity within the community to provide an atmosphere to attract new business.

Hall was introduced by Walter Couse, a former president of the Greater Detroit Board of Commerce and a resident of Northville. Rotarian Ed Welch was program chairman.

New Year For P-TA

Northville Parent-Teacher association launches its program schedule for the 1961-62 school year next Thursday, September 28, at a general meeting slated to get underway at 8 p.m. in the community center.

Following a brief business meeting, new teachers will be introduced and school policies will be explained. A social hour with refreshments is also planned.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beer-bower, presidents, urge all parents in the district to attend this opening meeting.

as it stands against the backdrop of history. We will go from the semi-tropical lowlands to the top of Mt. Etna, the highest volcano in Europe, to find black lava and white snow. In the blue Mediterranean Sea we will battle with the giant tunny fish. The picturesque scenery and the colorful lives of the Sicilians will be all part of an extraordinary color portrait of an enchanting land.

February 6, Ray Dinsmore — "Face of the Soviet" was produced by Ray Dinsmore after entering Russia through the back door from Afghanistan and flying over the snow-capped Hindu Kush Mountains. He traveled over 5,000 miles within the Soviet Union, visiting five Soviet Republics. Before entering Russia we will visit both East and West Berlin. Ray Dinsmore not only captured excellent and revealing pictures of the things and people he saw, but with his eyes and ears he captured important details the camera could not get. This new film program is most informative.

March 6, Stan Midgley — "Colorado — Today and Yesterday" is a new "Chucklelogue" in brilliant color by the Mark Twain of the Camera — Stan Midgley. We will find spectacular vistas of Colorado today, including Denver, Pikes Peak, the Garden of the Gods, the Royal Gorge, Rocky Mountain National Park, Aspen, Mesa Verde and the exciting Arkansas River White Water Race. We will take a look into Colorado's colorful past — its ghost towns, narrow gauge trains, and the famous Galloping Goose. We will also go fishing in the Needle Mountains Thrilling!

April 3, Robert Davis — "Sicily — Island of the Sun" is a color-drenched film of a sun-drenched island of the Mediterranean. Robert Davis effectively portrays the Sicily of today

Northville Opposes Novi Sewer Plan

The proposal of the Wayne county board of public works to sell some 2900 taps in the new Rouge Valley sewage disposal system to Novi has brought a definite response from Northville city and township officials.

"Frankly, they don't like the idea. And they intend to inform Wayne and Oakland county officials alike of their objections. The question was first raised by Mayor A. M. Allen when Wayne county announced it was offering unsold capacity in the new sewer to Oakland county."

Allen was quickly joined by Township Supervisor George Clark and the pair let their feelings be known to the county board of supervisors, of which both are members.

Specifically, Allen and Clark fear that the addition of a line to Novi, which would tap into the interceptor line between Northville and Plymouth, would fill the latter line before Northville had used its allocated share.

They remember too well the reason for construction of the new Rouge interceptor. Fast-growing communities between Northville and Detroit used up all capacity. Now Northville finds itself committed to financing another sewer.

Determined that this will not happen again, Northville officials want assurances that Oakland county will build a new line from here to Plymouth (to connect to the present interceptor being constructed eastward from Plymouth).

In a letter jointly signed by Mayor Allen and Supervisor

Clark to the Wayne county board of public works a meeting "prior to any final decision to consummate with Oakland county any contract for sewage disposal" has been requested. The letter also points out that concern in Northville is based upon "the fact that a major consideration for the execution of the Rouge Valley sewage disposal system contract was and is the provision that the reserved capacity was to be held available for future use and sale to communities which are signature parties to the contract, and within the district to be served."

In other words, Northville officials object to the basic idea of providing sewer service outside the county. It has been suggested, however, that this objection would be dropped if Oakland county would immediately commit itself to construction of a new line from Northville to Plymouth.

A similar meeting with Oakland county officials has been arranged by Sid Frid, Northville representative on the Oakland county board of supervisors. This meeting has been set for September 28, Frid stated.

Enrollment for the Northville Public Schools adult education classes began this week with first sessions scheduled to begin next Tuesday evening at the high school.

Initial registrations were taken Tuesday evening with 25 adults signing up. Teacher William Hensch pointed out that interested persons may register during regular school hours at the high school office or next Tuesday night when classes begin.

Last year's initial adult program had an enrollment of about 100.

Six courses are being offered this year running for a period of 12 weeks. The courses include typing, art, shop, sewing, driver education for adults, and cake decorating.

All classes will be held Tuesday evenings except cake decorating, scheduled for Fridays. Persons wishing to obtain further information may call Dr. K. M. MacLeod or Hensch at FT 9-3400.

To Discuss Library At GOP Meeting

The Greater Northville Republican club will kick off its regular fall meeting series at 8 p.m. Wednesday, September 27, at the American Legion hall.

The club will devote its first three meetings to an examination of local and community issues confronting the Northville area voter. Wednesday's meeting will concern the library.

Edmund Yerkes, who chaired the recent library study committee, will report the committee findings in detail and present the options available to the area voter. Herbert Mutschler, of the Wayne County Library department, will be on hand to explain the much discussed taxation levy formula and the reasons for its varying impact on city and township taxpayers.

The meeting is an open meeting and the public is invited.

Grid Contest Offers Prizes

With bigger cash prizes than ever plus a special bonus to winners who patronize sponsoring merchants the annual football contest begins another season this week.

The contest has become a popular game for local prognosticators who like to match wits with the way the football bounces.

To the contestant who can top all other entries will go $15. Second place is worth $10. And if the first place winner has shopped in one of the contest's sponsoring firms during the week of the contest, he'll be awarded an extra $10.

Full details appear on page 12. So get out your pencils and check the gridiron ratings.

And just to get you started on the right foot, we'll tip you off to these results: Northville over Iolity, Southern Cal to trip Georgia Tech and the Lions to top Baltimore.

Council Appoints New Manager

Northville will have a new city manager October 1.

He is Bruce K. Potthoff, 28, presently administrative assistant to the city manager of Jackson.

Potthoff was the unanimous choice of the council following examination of some 30 candidates and six personal interviews.

He becomes the second manager since Northville's incorporation as a city six years ago. John Robertson resigned August 1 to accept a similar post in Ferguson, Missouri.

The new manager was signed at a starting salary of $7200.

A 1955 graduate of Michigan State university with a BA degree in political science, Potthoff received his master's degree in public administration from the University of Michigan in 1959.

He has been employed by the city of Jackson for two years. Prior to that he worked in the research department of the Michigan Municipal League in Ann Arbor while attending the university. During the summer of 1958 he acted as administrative assistant to A. F. Glassford, city manager of Plymouth.

His experience also includes two years of military service in which he was assigned as a first lieutenant to direct operations and administration of an electronics and radar section.

Potthoff came well recommended and with a family background well founded in government administration. His brother is currently city manager of Saginaw.

Councilman John Canterbury, acting as mayor in the absence of Mayor A. M. Allen Monday night, announced the selection of Potthoff. The council completed its interviews September 12.

In making the announcement Canterbury, who had directed the search for a new manager, acclaimed the high caliber of each candidate interviewed.

He also called upon citizens of the community to join the council in helping to welcome the new manager and his family.

Potthoff is married and has two children. He visited the community last week end and announced plans to purchase a new home in Village Green subdivision.

Firemen Called

Northville firemen were called Tuesday night to extinguish a fire at the railroad trestle near Northville State hospital. Last Friday night they put out a fire in a car at Jan's Restaurant, Center and Dunlap streets.

Assessing Costs For Paving Told

The city council didn't get very far Monday night with its initial report on the proposed assessment program to pave a handful of Northville streets.

Absence of two council members and incompleteness of all details of the report brought about postponement of the first step in the special assessment process until next Monday.

Nearly a dozen interested citizens gained some new information, however. Approximate costs to the property owner under the proposed 25 per cent assessment plan were announced.

Acting City Manager Philip Ogilvie working with Harold Penn, city engineer, had prepared specifications for North Center street from the Eighth Mile road cut-off to South Ely drive and Elm, East, High and Walnut streets.

Because Butler and Pennell residents have withdrawn their request for installation of curbs, gutter and storm sewers, this project was not considered. The council has stated that improvement ments of streets not considered necessary as a matter of public welfare will not be undertaken unless requested by residents.

Estimates revealed by Ogilvie indicated that residents of North Center street would be assessed at the rate of approximately $4.10 per foot, or $328 for an 80 foot lot. This includes concrete paving, considered necessary on the heavily traveled street, and curbs and gutters. Total cost of the project was estimated at $20,305.

On Walnut street, where an extra thick asphalt road was recommended, the assessment would be about 88 cents per foot or $44 for a 50 foot lot.

On East, High and Elm streets the assessments are estimated at less than 75 cents per foot or about $60 for the average 80 foot lot. Curbs and gutters have already been installed on Walnut, East, High and Elm.

If the council approves the initial report on these improvements next Monday, a public hearing on the project would be called some 10 days later.

Rotary's World Travel Series Opens with Africa October 17

A World Travel Series featuring six color travel pictures each narrated by the artist himself will be presented to Northville area residents this fall and winter as a project of the Northville Rotary club.

The series which will begin October 17, will be shown in the auditorium of the Northville high school.

The artists themselves are well known to travel and adventure enthusiasts and have been seen frequently on television and at the Detroit Art Institute.

They are Robert Auburn, Sasha Siemel, Bathie Stuart, Ray Dinsmore, Stan Midgley and Robert Davis.

Rotary has undertaken the project locally in an effort to bring educational entertainment to the community while providing the club with funds to carry on its charitable activities, principally support of the crippled children program.

Chairman of the program for Rotary is Ed Welch. Working with Welch are A. R. Clarke, John Goldsmith, Cyril Frid and Harry Smith.

Tickets are being sold on a season basis only at $5.00 for the entire series. All Rotary club members have tickets. They are also available at the Northville office of Manufacturers National Bank.

Each travelogue will be presented on a Tuesday evening at eight o'clock. The artist, date of appearance, and topic are as follows:

October 17, Robert Auburn — "Jeweled Cities of North Africa" brings us the splendor of old North Africa, as we visit Tunisia, Algeria and Morocco. We will capture the charm of Tunis — the ancient capital where life dates back to the dawn of human history. We will also visit the Medina with its fascinating workshops. We will revel in the splendor of ancient Carthage. Then on to the Moslem holy city of Kairouan. The chaotic landscapes of the Sahara, and the garden oases of Tozeur and Nefta. We will visit Algiers, the Barbary Coast, Tangier, Casablanca.

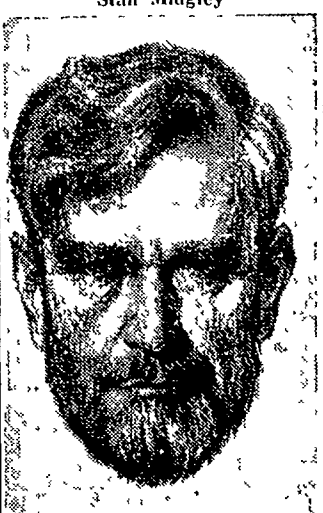

November 7, Sasha Siemel — "White Hunter of Brazil" is a breath-taking film story of an incredible man — Sasha Siemel. He became world-famous as the central figure in Julian Duguid's books, "Green Hell" and "Tiger Man." Sasha Siemel is a professional hunter, hunting jaguars, or tigers as they are called in South America. He is the only white man who has mastered the natives' difficult and dangerous art of dispatching the destructive tigers with a man-made spear. He will take us into the jungles of Brazil to share his exciting adventures. Truly a different film.

Her Bread, Chiffon Cake Win State Fair Ribbons

In recent years Northville has boasted a lion's share of prize-winning homemakers in competition at the Michigan State Fair.

In this year's Home Arts department judging, Mrs. Francis E. Hugg, Jr., 8637 Napier road, walked off with two citations, a first prize for her chiffon cake and a third place ribbon for a cinnamon loaf yeast bread.

Mrs. Hugg's prize-winning recipes appear below.

The homemaker and her husband have one daughter, Corliss, 10.

PINEAPPLE CHIFFON CAKE

Mrs. Francis Hugg, Jr.
2 1/4 cups sifted cake flour
1 1/2 cups sugar
1 t. salt
3 t. baking powder
1/2 cup salad oil
6 unbeaten egg yolks
3/4 cup unsweetened pineapple juice
6 egg whites
1/2 t. cream of tartar
Sift cake flour, sugar, salt and baking powder together into large mixing bowl and make a well in the center. Place salad oil, egg yolks and pineapple juice into well and beat all ingredients until satin smooth.

Beat egg whites and cream of tartar until very stiff peaks are formed (stiffer than for meringue or angel cake).

Gradually fold egg whites into first mixture. Bake in 10-inch tube pan in moderately slow oven (325-degrees) 55 minutes, then in moderate oven (350-degrees) for 10 minutes.

Invert tube pan until completely cold before removing cake.

CINNAMON YEAST BREAD

2 pkgs. dry yeast
1/2 cup warm water
2 cups scalded milk
1/2 cup sugar
2 t. salt
3 cups sifted flour
2 beaten eggs
1/2 cup salad oil
Dissolve dry yeast in warm water.
Add scalded milk, sugar and salt. Work in sifted flour, then mix in eggs and salad oil.

Work in flour so that dough is not too stiff. Round dough, place in greased bowl, cover with damp towel, let rise until double in bulk.

Punch dough down again and let rise until almost double in bulk. Place dough on floured board and divide for loaves according to bread pan sizes.

Round up each section of dough and cover, letting them rest for 10 minutes. Roll dough into rectangle, brush with melted butter, sprinkle with sugar-cinnamon mix according to individual taste, and roll into loaf.

Place in greased bread pan, brush top with salad oil, cover and let rise until almost double in bulk. Bake at 425-degrees until nicely browned and separates from pan edges. Remove from pan onto cooling rack and brush top with melted butter.

NEWCOMER'S CORNER

"I look upon every day to be lost, in which I do not make a new acquaintance."

FORMER LIVONIANS — Frank and Mary Oglesby and their two children, Carol, 17, and Stephen, 12, lived six years in Livonia before taking the afternoon drive that introduced them to their present home at 40240 Fairway III drive.

As the name of their street — Fairway III drive — suggests, the Frank R. Oglesbys' home brushes elbows with the well manicured, gently rolling hills of a golf course.

The house, which they discovered by sheer chance while taking a drive on a fall afternoon, looks out over the Meadowbrook country club course.

"It's just beautiful up here," says Mary Oglesby, describing the picture-book view from her backyard.

She and her husband are originally from Ohio, but left the Buckeye state about six years ago to make a home in Michigan. That was when Frank Oglesby started working with his brother in the equipment business.

Right now he is an Oglesby-Oglesby company sales representative who helps furnish schools, offices, factories and other buildings.

Just prior to their move here a year ago in the spring, the Oglesbys and their two children, Carol, 17, and Stephen, 12, were Livonia residents.

Carol, who loves horses almost better than people, says her mother, is a senior at Northville high school. An aspiring artist, she studied art a year at Cass Tech and may resume her work in college next fall.

Stephen, Boy Scout, coin collector, weight lifter and sports fan, is enrolled at the junior high where he plays the trumpet in the school band.

Outside of his work, Frank Oglesby has taken time off to coach Little League football, work with the Boy Scouts, serve his church as deacon and take part in Junior Chamber of Commerce activities in Ohio.

He went to school at Ohio State university and taught for a time at the University of Dayton night school.

His wife teaches a nursery class at church and has done library work. She additionally likes cake decorating and flower arranging.

The 40240 Fairway III household wouldn't be complete without the family's chihuahua, scottie and talk-a-mile-a-minute parakeet, John.

Lings Celebrate Silver Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John Ling, 521 Randolph, were feted Sunday at an open house held to celebrate the couple's Silver Wedding anniversary.

The Lings' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Andries Keller, gave the party at their Plymouth home. They were assisted by another son, John Ling, Jr., and his wife and by Miss Audrey Wilson, of Livonia, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ling were married September 15, 1936.

Panel members include Dr. Eric Bradner, director of the Community College Study for this area; Mrs. John Mochle, candidate for delegate-at-large; and Harold Fischer, member of the Plymouth School board and delegate from the Plymouth school district.

October 24 is the day voting will take place on the question of the Community College.

Hostessing the social hour for the evening will be Mrs. J. R. Witwer, chairman; Mrs. William Minard; Mrs. W. J. Worth; and Mrs. Robert Messerly.

"SPECIALISTS IN FABRIC CARE"

Flower Show Exhibits Attract 300

COUNTRY STORE — The baked goods, handsewn articles and other wares of the Country Store invited busy trade. Standing behind the counter are Mrs. T. G. Tegge, Mrs. Harvey Whipple and Mrs. Izzetta Cavell.

PEEK AT PRIZE WINNERS — Some 300 persons turned out to see the scores of floral arrangements and other exhibits at the Garden club's 25th annual show.

"It was a lovely, successful day that would not have been possible without the generosity and lovely cooperation of our members."

The exacting tasks of another chairmanship nearly completed, Mrs. R. J. Wright modestly shared the laurels for the success of the Garden club's 25th annual show with her co-workers.

Mrs. Wright estimates approximately 300 visitors stopped by to see the "Garden Jewels" show held last Friday at the First Methodist church.

Pleased by the turnout the silver-haired chairman explained that all proceeds, as is customary, will be turned over to the club's scholarship fund. "We hope to clear about $700 after expenses," said Mrs. Wright.

Mrs. W. L. Hoysradt, Mrs. C. E. Ratliff and Mrs. George Kohs assisted Mrs. Wright as co-chairmen.

In addition to row after row of entries in the arrangement classes there were the wares of the Country Store and other special exhibits.

Mrs. L. M. Eaton, chairman of the branch's conservation activities, commended the display set up by Richard Rusche's advanced high school biology class. Judges showed their enthusiastic approval by awarding the exhibit the show's top honors, the tri-color ribbons.

"Teamwork between the school and the Garden Club produced the exhibit," noted Mrs. Eaton. She said two students, Duna Penn and Lisa Schwartz, devoted part of their summer vacation to collecting and preparing the dried plant exhibit.

Mrs. Eaton's contribution was a tree bearing the products of trees on its limbs.

Another first this year was the special exhibit prepared by girls from the Wayne County Training school. Branch President Mrs. D. H. Clark and Mrs. Wright have been directing the club's horticultural therapy project at the school. The girls were guests of the club at Friday's show.

Mrs. Clark, staging chairman, received an award for her decorations at the entry way; Mrs. John Northup was cited for her blooming house plant, "Moses in the Rushes".

Blue Ribbon Winners — Basing their decisions on conformation to schedule, distinction and color harmony, proportion and balance, relationship of accessory and condition, judges presented blue first place ribbons to the following:

SECTION A — Aurora Borealis, Mrs. E. J. Monteith, Mrs. E. Frutche.

SECTION B — Midnight Sun, Class 1, Mrs. Russell Button, Mrs. William Crump, Mrs. W. McBride; Class 3 — Tropical Islands, Mrs. J. C. Burkman, Mrs. G. L. Mustangs Run Over Rocks, 19-0

Gridders Take Opener; Travel to Holly Friday

It was a cold, clear night and a cold, clear victory for the Northville Mustangs as they rolled the Plymouth Rocks back to their own goal line three times, winning the season opener with a score of 19-0.

GOOD RECEPTION is the only way to describe Mustang End Dan Brown's catch from Quarterback Steve Juday. The play was at the start of the second half, and netted the Northville team 11 yards against Plymouth. The Mustangs picked up 67 yards through aerial play.

over, once in a sneak from the three yard line and once around left end from the 10. Halfback Dennis Gilbert picked up another six points on a four-yard dash through the Rock line. The extra point was made after the third Mustang touchdown with an end-zone pass from Juday to end Dan Brown.

Things went pretty well for the Mustangs right from the start. Rock Fullback Hugh Sahara fumbled Joe Hay's kick-off and Northville recovered on the Plymouth 38. It didn't mean much at the time, because the Mustangs lost the ball on the Plymouth 20 when they were unable to make their second first down.

But the pattern which was to follow throughout the game was set a few plays later. Three plays after a Plymouth punt from their own 29, the Mustangs were back on the Rock 29 with a 23-yard pass-and-run play from Juday to Halfback Tom Swiss. But Juday was unable to connect on four pass attempts and the Mustangs had to relinquish the ball once more.

It looked as though the game might become a "back and forth" affair. But then the Mustangs received their second break. Rock Quarterback D. Schryer, back to punt from his own 15, missed a high pass from center and Northville recovered on the Plymouth four. Gilbert went across the goal line in the next play, at the start of the second quarter.

The rest of the second quarter went much the same as the first, with Northville, near the end of the quarter, making a 48-yard march in nine plays to score its second touchdown.

Plymouth got its only breaks and made its only real threat just before the end of the first half. Rock Halfback Brian Gilles, receiving Hay's second touchdown kick-off, returned the ball from his own 20 to the Northville 44. A pass to D. Stremich brought the Rocks to the 29. Northville center John Dowd intercepted the next Rock pass, but a 5-yard penalty for illegal procedure kept the Mustangs from making a first down.

The Rock's second and last break then came as the Mustangs tried a fourth-down punt from their 23. The center's pass to Juday was long, and he was unable to run the ball back as far as the line of scrimmage. The next play brought the Rocks to the Northville 11 but the Mustang line held as the half ended.

The third quarter saw long Northville marches into Rock territory, with last-ditch stand by the Plymouth eleven preventing any score.

Northville's final touchdown came late in the fourth quarter, after another long drive from mid field. The game ended six plays later with Plymouth never reaching Northville territory.

The strength of the Mustang win was reflected in the statistics. Northville's offense chalked up 214 yards on the ground while the defense held the Rocks to 134. Quarterback Juday picked up 67 yards in the air completing six of 22 pass attempts. The Rocks gamied only

TOUCHDOWN, signals Northville Mustang Quarterback Steve Juday (49) as if the referee weren't there. This was the scene as the Northville eleven scored the first of three touchdowns against the Plymouth Rocks. Halfback Dennis Gilbert, buried somewhere beneath the pile-up, carried the ball across on a four-yard plunge through the line. Juday later carried the ball across twice, and passed for an extra point, bringing the final score to 19-0. The score represents vengeance for the 25-12 drubbing the Mustangs took from Plymouth last year. The Mustangs meet the Holly Broncos tomorrow night in Holly, where they hope to avenge last year's 13-7 loss, the first conference loss they had suffered in four years.

48 yards in aerial play, but had a better completion record of five for 10.

Northville lost 8 yards rushing and Plymouth lost 15. Plymouth also lost 15 yards in penalties, as against Northville's 10.

Mustang coach Ron Horwath, obviously happy with the victory, said this game was a big one for his team but tomorrow's first conference game at Holly is "an even bigger one". Still he noted that the win was a big change from last year's 25-12 humiliation by the Rocks.

"If we play like we did last week," Horwath said, "we'll come back from Holly with another victory." He added that his team has been looking forward to tomorrow's game ever since last year's 13-7 game in which Holly handed the Mustangs their first Wayne-Oakland League loss in four years.

He said his spotters report that Holly looked good last week, even if they did lose to Grand Blanc. He explained that the Holly eleven was able to push the Grand Blanc team to within easy scoring distance of its goal line, but unable to overcome an aroused defense.

Horwath's present worry is about his guards. Letterman Roy Rice had to quit to concentrate on studies, and Dave Jerome is out with a broken wrist. He said he may have to manipulate some linemen around to fill up his guard roster.

This week will be spent mainly on defense and timing, Horwath said, with little or no contact work. He's worried about the possibility of practice injuries, like the one that put Jerome out of the line-up.

Horwath said of last week's game that he was generally pleased, especially with the defense. He said blocking for pass plays was good, but blocking for running plays was poor.

IV. Report of Superintendent
1. Credit Publications: Supt. Amerman reviewed with the Board the materials purchased last year from this organization and asked the board's pleasure regarding renewal of the subscription. Cost of the service, which consists of periodic news letters and brochures having to do with educational practice and policy, is $187.50 per year.

After considerable discussion it was moved by Mr. Lawrence, supported by Mr. Crump, that the portion of the subscription which covers the material sent to board members be discontinued, the other parts, pertaining to administration, to be ordered at the discretion of the administrators. The program was well received and resulted in a number of obvious benefits which are outlined in the report, copy of which is on file in the office of the superintendent.

5. Transportation: Mr. Ellison reported some problems which he is attempting to rectify. The new bus will be in service about the 9th of October. LET'S TALK CARS...

What the People Want

"What do YOU look for when you buy a new car?"

If you're like sixteen out of seventeen Detroit radio listeners recently asked that question, you'd answer that dealer integrity, reliable service and economy, in that order, count most. Price would place a poor fourth.

Summing up the consensus of opinion, one listener to the program called "Phone Opinion" responded: "One of my pet peeves in buying an automobile, and I'm sure the majority of your audience agrees with me, is the rosy picture they paint you before you buy the car... We are going to take care of your car..." "It's the best car on the road..." etc.

"Everybody has the same story, basically. But after the sale it's a totally different story: you go back for repairs — even minor ones — with your warranty still in effect, and they just give you the run-around. They stall you off by referring you to one mechanic after another and keep you waiting for hours until you finally get tired and leave."

One lone dissenter — an automobile salesman — claimed price was the most important of all to buyers, economy and service notwithstanding.

As most automobile dealers realize, actual public behavior is a compromise between these two attitudes. To be successful, a dealer must be competitive in price, but back his product with honest dealing and reliable service if he is going to acquire and keep customers.

Our town is not so big that we can afford the one-shot no-repeat sale, or to lose customers by offering less value for the buyer's money.

Ladies Don Costumes to Spoof Golf

LINE-UP — Mrs. Robert Morrison, Mrs. O. B. Crego, Mrs. Glenn Sister, Mrs. George Sheldon, Mrs. King Gates, Mrs.

No, golfing fashions for women have not been the object of a drastic styling revolution despite the zany costumes that were sported by lady golfers touring the Meadowbrook country club links Friday.

Occasion for the cute and clever outfits was the country club's "Ladies' Circus Day" sponsored by the ladies' golf committee.

Fun under the big top furnished the theme for a day-long round of crazy golf and offbeat indoor games, punctuated by conversational chatter and a buffet luncheon.

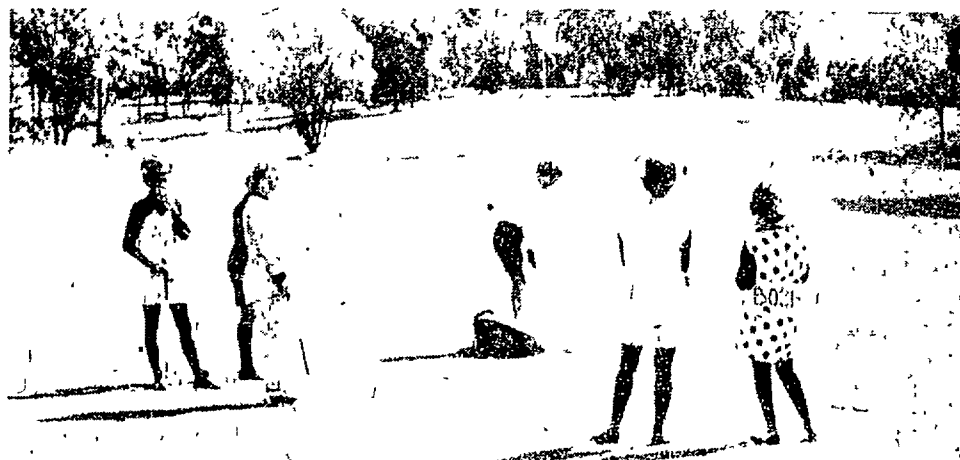

Mrs. Lawrence Wright was chairman for the day.

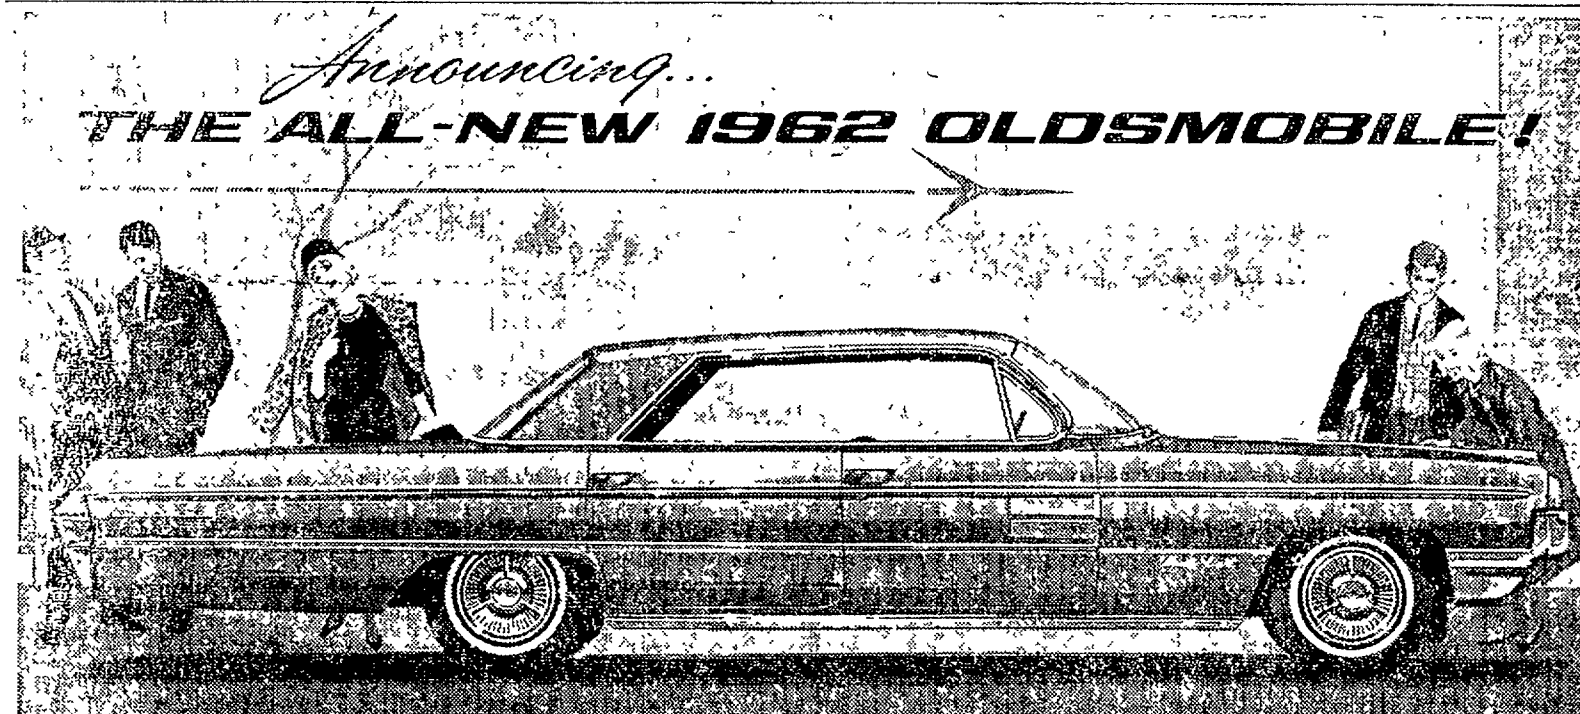

WEIGHT CONTROL TWINS — Mrs. King Gates and Mrs. James Sadler came dressed like tins of familiar weight-control product.

DOUBLE 'N' BOGIE — Mrs. Fern Lund and Mrs. Jonnie Gurski, standing at the right, were quite a "par".

"Whatever things are true, whatever things are honest, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things."
A correlative citation from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states (p. 275): "All substance, intelligence, wisdom, being, immortality, cause, and effect belong to God. These are His attributes, the eternal manifestations of the infinite divine Principle, Love. No wisdom is wise but His wisdom; no truth is true, no love is lovely, no life is life but the divine; no good is, but the good God bestows."

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

The Rev. Peter Nieuwkoop, Pastor
First Baptist Church, Northville

This week's Pastor's Study will be the last from the Reverend Peter F. Nieuwkoop, who ended a 10-year pastorate at the First Baptist church of Northville Sunday to accept new duties as pastor of the First Baptist church of St. Johns.

ARE YOU A ROAD HAZARD?

A very dear friend of mine has written an article of interest concerning the Christian and driving. I would like to pass it on to you.

"More than 100 people are killed on our highways every day. Twenty-four of those killed daily are very young people. Thousands are seriously injured every day. The number one factor involved is 'the speed hazard.' Every speeder is a potential killer. Are you one of them? God says, 'Thou shalt not kill' (Exodus 20:13).

"The second hazard is the reckless driver. His driving is a symptom of the tension of 'our day.' His fretting and fuming at red lights, pedestrians, cars ahead, or any obstacle in his path, is an indication of restless conflict within. The Bible says, 'Let your forbearance be known unto all men' (Philippians 4:5).

"The roadhog is closely associated with the speeder and 'reckless' driver. Selfishness is the mark of his driving. He cuts in and out of lanes, follows 'too closely,' and passes on the right or left hand at will for no other reason than to get ahead of everyone. As such he is one of the worst hazards on the road. Jesus said, 'All things therefore whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, even so do ye unto them; for this is the law and the prophets' (Matthew 7:12).

"A fourth road hazard is 'the Lovebird.' His mind is not on his driving, but on the object of his affection. Traffic authorities tell us, 'Keep your mind on driving, and driving on your mind.' God says, 'Let every soul be in subjection to the higher powers for there is no power but of God; and the powers that be ordained of God. Therefore he that resisteth the power, withstandeth the ordinance of God; and they that withstand shall receive to themselves judgement' (Romans 12:1,2).

"The drunken driver is a hazard responsible for at least seven percent of the road fatalities in one year. According to reports from 20 states, 22 out of 100 persons involved in fatal accidents had been drinking. 'Be not deceived, neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with men, nor thieves, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God' (1 Corinthians 6:9,10).

The pedestrian can also be a road hazard if he ignores the rules of safety by jaywalking and ignoring the lights. The Bible says, 'Be subject to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake' (1 Peter 2:13). As such the Christian ought to be the most exemplary pedestrian, and the most careful driver on the road!

"Have you ever tried to practice the Christian approach to this whole matter? Christ's grace is sufficient not only for the needs of eternity, but for the hazards of time as well. That grace, through faith in Him, brings peace with God, with self and with our fellow-man. It shows itself in loving God, and loving our neighbor as we love ourselves. The driving of a Christian should definitely show that he belongs to Christ. He will certainly respect the rights of others, and will manifest Christian courtesy at every opportunity. 'Even so let your light shine before men; that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven' (Matthew 5:16).

In Uniform

Serving with Attack Squadron 172 which was scheduled to return to its home port at Jacksonville, Florida, in late August, after a seven-month tour of duty with the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean, was Stephen Murray, yeoman third class, USN, son of Mrs. Alpha G. Murray of 122 Main street, Northville.

During the cruise the squadron was aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Roosevelt and served to assist the U.S. and its deterrent force in protecting world peace and fostered goodwill in the many ports visited.

The squadron, known as the "Blue Bolts," is a light jet attack squadron and uses the "Skyhawk" aircraft during operations.

Atsugi, Japan — Serving at the Naval Air Station, Atsugi, Japan, is Jay B. Leavenworth, airman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bine Leavenworth of 588 Randolph, Northville.

This station provides facilities to support squadrons operating with the Seventh Fleet. Leavenworth reported to this command from the Naval Air Station, Memphis, Tenn.

Before entering the service in December 1960, he attended Northville High School.

CAN'T REACH HIM...

They call him a problem child. "Can't reach him," say some. "He won't respond," echo others. Young as he is, he's already been in trouble with the police.

Why? There are lots of words, lots of phrases, to describe youngsters like this. The papers are full of them every day. There are lots of excuses given—for him, and for society. Are they valid?

This boy has parents. Why can't they reach him? Is it, perhaps, because they can't really reach themselves? Because they've never found themselves?

Self-discovery takes courage. It doesn't come easily. It takes help. It demands faith. The starting point for a quest of this kind is in the Church. This boy needs the Church. So do his parents. So, for that matter, do we all!

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Shoppers Like Sidewalks

There's no doubt about it — bargains bring out the people!

And last Friday Northville merchants stepped out onto the sidewalks with their best buys while hundreds of shoppers bought them up.

A beautiful fall day helped make the annual event a huge success. Merchants unloaded their shelves in time to make way for new merchandise and customers purchased needed items at half original cost.

The promotion was sponsored by the Northville Retail Merchants association and included 27 participants.

Our roving photographer caught a few of the shoppers as they strolled from "curb to curb."

No passing here. Foot traffic had to move to the street as shoppers mill about sidewalk stands.

Prices were so low, that it was difficult not to buy, even if you didn't need the item.

There was plenty to see on both sides of Main street. Above shoppers mill around in front of Stone's Gamble store, where a selection of "hard goods" is on display. Right across the street (below) in the area of Lapham's and Freydl's the "soft goods" customers do their browsing.

Pretty Betty Collins displays one of the football corsages created by Lila's Flowers and Gifts and sold just in time for the annual Northville-Plymouth grid opener that very evening.

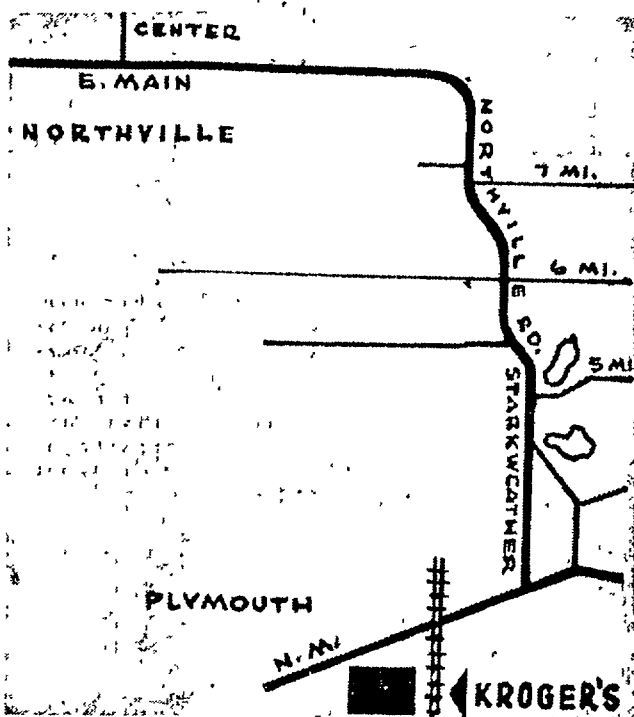

The Mothers' club had a sidewalk stand, too. They sold dozens of homemade cookies to help bolster the club's treasury. Shown waiting for a customer to make her selection are Members Mrs. Chester Lipa and Mrs. Gordon Forrer.

How to Succeed in College

The freshman year of college is the most critical drop-out and flunk-out period, the Michigan and National Education Associations report. After you have cleared the first-year hurdle, your chances of completing college are considerably higher.

Getting into college is only half the battle, according to the MEA and NEA; the other half is staying in.

The five booby-traps described here are most frequently identified by college deans and counselors as responsible for the high rate of freshman "fall-out."

1. Lack of effective study habits and skills.

If you haven't learned how to take comprehensive, well-organized notes; if you are a slow reader; if you don't know how to track down research materials; if you lack ability to express your thoughts clearly in class, in themes, and in essay-type assignments — you may have great difficulty in coping with college.

What can you do about it? If you do not read rapidly, with good comprehension, take a special reading course now. If note-taking is one of your weaknesses, ask for help from your English or business education teacher. Then practice taking class notes. Use them for study and review. If finding resources and study materials is hard for you, ask your librarian for help. If you have trouble expressing your ideas in speaking or in writing, ask your English teacher for advice.

2. Lack of incentives to become a competent student.

Teachers are familiar with the type of student who, although he has a high IQ, flunks out in his first college year. They also have known freshmen who, while they exhibited no exceptional brain power in high school, complete college with distinction because of their concentration and determination. What makes the difference? In most of these cases it is motivation — a powerful desire to achieve; to complete a college education.

What can you do about it? If you are not sure that you are ready for the responsibilities of college, talk it over with your guidance counselor. You may decide to put off college entrance for a year or two. If you are apprehensive that a delay will make you too old for college, stop worrying. A recent survey of hundreds of college graduates indicates that many of them believe they would have gotten more out of college if they had taken a year or two after high school to look around to "find themselves."

3. Unrealistic concepts of college life.

Do you have the idea that campus life will be all social adventure — a whirl of football dates and fraternity dances? Do you expect suddenly to be "the most popular person on the campus? Are you searching for a husband or wife? When unexpectedly confronted by college regulations, heavy class assignments, and little time for dating in the freshman year you could easily develop feelings of defeat unless you know the real purposes of college and what to expect.

What can you do about it? Expect strictly enforced college regulations, heavy class assignments, much related reading, and little time for dating. College is a place to sink your roots into scholarship and to prepare for a career, so get ready to prove yourself as a student and as a mature, thoughtful campus citizen.

4. Unprepared for hard work.

Accustomed to less difficult textbooks, to shorter study hours, and to personal supervision by teachers, some students are swamped by freshman requirements and never quite catch up. Those of you who "go away" to college no longer have parents at your elbow reminding you to study or helping you with homework. Have you learned to study independently, to budget your time, to set up definite study schedules and to stick to them?

What can you do about it? Start today to budget your time for study, school activities, and social life. Make a chart and stick to the schedule you set for yourself. Efficient study habits will be one of your greater assets in college. Choose "solid" subjects plus electives in your own field of interest. The harder you work to master your high school studies, the more confident you can be of success in college.

5. Inability to adjust to people.

Students who depend heavily upon their families for companionship, who are slow to make friends, and who wait for others to begin friendships can be so lonely in the first year of college that they may not return. If you are too shy or too independent to warm up to new people — including your instructors — you may face a difficult adjustment period when you enter college.

What can you do about it? Ask your teachers and guidance counselor for help; tell them your problem and ask for suggestions.

NORTHVILLE

By HUGH C. BRONAUGH, Manager

FIFTY YEARS AGO about 250 people met in Boston—birthplace of the telephone—to form the Telephone Pioneers of America. It's an organization dedicated to promoting ideals in the telephone business, and serving communities where Pioneers live. This fall nearly a quarter of a million active and retired members of this international organization—all having at least 21 years of telephone service—will celebrate the Pioneers' 50th Anniversary across the United States and Canada. The 6,000-member Michigan Wolverine Chapter will mark the occasion in special observances at nine state points. We salute the Pioneers on 50 years of accomplishment.

TO EACH HER OWN PRINCESS! Like to surprise the lady of your life with something lovely as a princess, yet practical as a telephone? Well, you can, easily and economically with the Princess phone! Mother, teen-ager or grandmother will love the Princess. It's little, it's lovely, and the dial lights up in the dark! Comes in five regal colors, too. Order hers from our business office today.

MICHIGAN REACHED A MILESTONE in its communications history on September 14. Michigan Bell installed its 3,000,000th telephone—an outdoor public phone—at a safety rest area on Interstate Highway 94, seven miles west of Ann Arbor. It took 65 years to reach our first 1,000,000th telephone, back in 1942. In 1952 we put in the 2,000,000th. Only seven countries outside the United States have more telephones than the 3,000,000 we serve here in Michigan. We're proud indeed to contribute to the progress of our State by serving its growing communications needs.

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO
September 22, 1961

— Donald Atwood, 22-year-old Northville resident was killed by a falling limb while operating a bulldozer last Saturday. He was bulldozing timberland in preparation for construction of a man-made lake near Prudenville.

— The Northville school district has completed arrangements for the purchase of the Community Building. The seven-year-old facility, leased to the school system since its construction, is now school property. The transaction involved $145,000.

— The long-awaited paving of Novi road from the Eight Mile cutoff to Grand River has begun.

— Novi's 3,000-book library will begin operations this weekend. The books, either donated or purchased by cash donations, are housed in the small, white frame building next to the village hall.

— Last Friday's sidewalk sales attracted a steady stream of shoppers from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Merchants said sales were much higher than during last year's event.

FIVE YEARS AGO
September 22, 1956

— The Northville School board moved decisively toward a new high school last week when it voted to condemn 50 acres of land for a school site, if necessary. The school attorney was authorized to begin condemnation proceedings on the land if its owners refuse to sell.

— Hospitalized after an automobile collision on Eight Mile road near the Meadowbrook extension last Saturday morning is Loren Hunt, of Griswold street. Hunt suffered a skull fracture and a severe knee injury, but is now in satisfactory condition at Henry Ford Hospital.

— Nearly 50 persons attended the township zoning board's public hearing on rezoning of the Bernard Orchard company's Six Mile road property. Many objected to the proposed switch from agriculture zoning to allow for a trailer camp site.

— Meanwhile, the Novi township board passed a rigid trailer park ordinance. The strictness of the ordinance is designed to discourage trailer parks from becoming established in the township.

— Mustangs lose 13-12 to Plymouth Rockets in their season's opening game. While they lost, they showed spectators that they are going to be a team which should be reckoned with this year.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO
September 20, 1946

— Sixty-seven Northville Foundry and Manufacturing company employees, out since last Thursday on an unauthorized Wildcat strike, returned to work Monday. They struck because of the installation of equipment which effects the firm's bonus system.

— A fire on the roof of the south annex to Meadowbrook's club house caused an estimated $500 damage Monday afternoon. The Northville fire department extinguished the blaze, confining damage to the roof.

— Police Chief Joseph Denton requests that parents have their children leave their dogs at home when they go to school. He explains that the large number of dogs following school children have created a traffic hazard at street crossings near the school.

— Entries numbered 191 at the Methodist Church's annual farm and garden exhibition Monday afternoon. The event was sponsored by the Northville branch of the National Farm and Garden Club.

— Novi delegates to the first annual AMVETS convention in Grand Rapids last week reported on the event to the local organization.

— The Northville baseball team played five games and then were eliminated during playoffs at the National Sandlot Tournament held in Youngstown, Ohio last week. The winning team went on to take the championship.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
September 25, 1936

— Slot machines in four Northville taverns and two service stations were removed before a Tuesday midnight deadline set by Police Chief William H. Stafford, who acted on the request of village commissioners. They felt the machines were becoming too numerous.

— A measure which would have allowed diagonal parking on at least one side of main street was defeated by the village council Monday evening. The change from parallel parking was suggested after several residents complained of the difficulty in the latter method.

— Rex Tuttle of Walled Lake, son of F. L. Tuttle, rural letter carrier, has been appointed acting postmaster of the Walled Lake post office. He succeeds Mrs. Roy Dewey, who resigned recently.

— The Record takes pride in co-operating with the high school to present a page of school news. Editing this week's first issue of the Orange and Black column is a staff headed by Nancy McLoughlin.

— A drive to raise $1,300 for payment of the outstanding bills from Northville's new Boy Scout building was begun this week by the building committee. Of the $5,800 estimated cost of the building, $1,400 has already been raised locally, and $2,900 has come from the federal government.

Planning Your Home Improvements

Improving your home can mean better living for you now, and a better price if you decide to sell. Home improvements are almost certain to increase the value of your home $2.00 for every dollar you spend.

However, you should not over-improve your home. It is almost impossible to sell a $30,000 house in a $15,000 neighborhood.

In planning the home improvements you wish to make, you will want to consider both the present and future needs of your family. Interests, hobbies and habits change as your family matures, so you will want to anticipate future requirements.

The most common problems facing homeowners are: not enough living space, shortage of storage, no space for needed appliances, cross-traffic in the living room, small and inefficient kitchens, no entry hall, no provisions for outdoor living, look-alike or out-of-date exteriors, outmoded interiors, too few bathrooms.

The first step is to list and plan your improvements, and then give priority to those which are urgent or which can be taken care of in a hurry. With an overall plan, you can schedule and budget the work efficiently.

Many projects can be done in stages, and the priorities in these cases can be adapted to the family's needs. For example, let's assume you want to build an outdoor living area, with a fence, barbecue, porch and terrace. If it will be used as an outdoor play area for your small children, you will undoubtedly want to build the fence first. If it will be used primarily for entertaining, you will probably decide to build the barbecue and porch first, the fence later.

If your home improvement plan is complicated, be sure to get competent planning help in the early stages. A hastily-conceived improvement can run your home, a well-planned improvement increases its value.

Dr. Jaslow Named Head Of Plymouth State Home

Appointment of Dr. Robert I. Jaslow to the post of Medical Superintendent of the Plymouth State Home and Training School was announced by Charles Wagg, Director of the State Mental Health Department. The appointment was confirmed by the State Mental Health Commission at its August meeting in Lansing.

Prior to joining the institution's staff in April 1960 as Clinical Director, Dr. Jaslow served as Clinical Director of the Pennhurst State School Annex No. 1, a 400 bed unit for the mentally retarded located in Chambersburg, Penn.

He was in private practice in Chambersburg from 1953-60. Dr. Jaslow, a pediatrician, is a graduate of Lehigh University and the Jefferson Medical college. The Plymouth State Home and Training School is the newest state facility for the mentally retarded. With a current population of 490 patients, an expansion program is underway which will eventually provide facilities for 2,500 patients. Dr. Jaslow resides with his wife and three children at 15480 Sheldon road, Northville.

LIVE MODERN FOR LESS WITH...NATURAL GAS!

SPEAKING for the Record

by Bill Sliger

In less than a month the first in a series of lectures by prominent world figures will open in Northville's P&A theatre.

The speakers include: John Mason Brown, editor of the Saturday Review; Madame Ginette Spanier, directrix of the fashion House of Balmain; Anthony Wedgewood Benn, political columnist and member of the British parliament; Ian Ross MacFarlane, an authority on Africa; and Bennett Cerf, publisher, author and TV personality.

Now officially called the Northville Town Hall Series, the impressive program is the undertaking of a group of women who have worked doggedly at insuring the success of the cultural project.

Strictly a women's affair, the 11 a.m. lectures will be followed by a luncheon at Lofy's where the speakers can become known at a conversation level.

One can easily imagine that preparations for such a program are no small undertaking. They include programs tickets, scheduling of lectures, dining arrangements and a host of other details not the least of which is financing the project.

Oddly enough, the women have had little trouble in this department. Donations have been generous; a program is profitably filled with advertising. Financially speaking, the project is a success.

There's one important element missing, however.

There are a good supply of tickets still remaining.

The committee is not alarmed because they realize that summer days are busy and that October 19 seems far into the future.

But the time now draws near and speakers of the quality to be presented by the Northville Town Hall Series should not appear before a half-filled theatre.

It isn't often that this editor would dare suggest to the female population of the community what they should do. But to lend their support to this community project would certainly seem worthwhile as well as entertaining.

Full details on how tickets and luncheon reservations may be secured appear in a story on page two.

Roger Babson

Industry Change

Gloucester, Mass., For many years I have been planning to visit the oldest cemetery on Cape Ann. In it is buried Isabel Babson, the first Babson (or Rabson) who came to this country, and from whom all Babsons here descend. When she left England, the name may have been Rabson; but her signature could not be clearly read when she arrived in Salem in 1637.

Hence, the name was interpreted as Babson, which she accepted, and which has been the family name ever since.

To my great disappointment, I found this old cemetery overgrown with weeds and shrubs four feet high, and many of the tombstones were broken and overturned. I, however, found tombstones of the prominent families of the first hundred years of settlement on Cape Ann.

I felt ashamed to find the cemetery in such a condition and I urge readers who have similar cemeteries in their towns to get them cleaned up and be sure all the headstones are erect.

When I was a boy, the great business of Cape Ann was granite quarries. Not only did Cape Ann granite pave the streets of large eastern cities, but the walls of the city halls, banks, and other important buildings had granite facings.

The wealthiest families in town, were then in the granite business. There was a certain amount of fishing, but not much, as only sailboats were used and the fish were caught by lines and surface nets. Even the keenest businessmen then believed the granite business was good for a hundred or two hundred years. There certainly was granite enough, and even now there must be a million tons left.

But suddenly Portland cement became popular, and quickly took the place of granite. Sidewalk edgestones which heretofore had been made of granite were being made of concrete; walls were built of concrete and the facings were made of concrete. As petroleum came into use at about the same time, the existing paved roads were covered by either concrete or asphalt.

In a few years, the great granite business of Gloucester and Cape Ann came to an end. This causes me to wonder what other changes may now be going on. It may be that the leading industry of every city in which this column appears will be subject to similar changes. This means that your leading industrialists, and especially the Secretary of your Chamber of Commerce, must not be content with present conditions and close their eyes to new indus-

City-Rural Forces in Con-Con

Constitutional Convention for Michigan is rapidly taking on overtones of a "city folks versus the farmers" battle.

Partisan politics are to blame for much of this. Both Democrats and Republicans have been quick to seize on slogans and catch-phrases aimed at making the other side look bad.

Thus the Democrats are calling for an end to "representation of stumps and wilderness" while the GOP wants to "keep the Senate from becoming a caucus club for Southeastern Michigan."

Both the appeals are based on sound, if totally different, government philosophies, and both reflect what the political scientists call the "rural-urban dichotomy". Put simply, this means city folks tend to think their interests oppose to a great degree those of the rural dwellers, and vice versa.

There are differences of opinion and suspicion between the farmers and city laborers.

But if pure partisanship is removed from the scene, the differences are harder to find. For example, much of the Democratic party tends to favor development programs of one kind or another which are directed from the state (or federal) level in an attempt to solve major problems such as delinquency, urban renewal and the like, which are chiefly city burdens.

And the Democratic strength lies in the cities.

Republicans, on the other hand, generally tend to favor a greater extent of local control in government affairs. The GOP draws its votes from wider areas, and consequently recognizes a greater dissimilarity in the needs of people and places.

Party emphasis on the rural - versus - urban question creates uneasiness among city Republicans and country Democrats.

Partisan harmony may be difficult to come by, but agreement among the good citizens of Michigan, whether they live in the cities or the villages, can, if given a chance, transcend political differences.

Especially this is true in so vital an undertaking as the writing of a new basic law for Michigan.

The chief manifestation of the rural-urban split as it applies to Constitutional Convention is in the hassle over whether, or how, to reapportion the Legislature, particularly the Senate. Maneuvering for simple partisan advantage could work against the best interest of all the people of Michigan, if it is pegged to a fight over whether people or people plus territory should be the most important consideration for solving the apportionment problem.

Genial Clarence W. Lock, Michigan's revenue commissioner, has compiled quite a record of national recognition in his chosen field.

Most recent achievement for the director of the state revenue department, which handles the tax collecting for Michigan, was his election as a member of the Board of Directors of the National Tax Association.

Earlier this year, Lock was named to the Advisory Council of Tax Institute, Inc., and elected secretary of the National Association of Tax Administrators.

Lock, who took over as Revenue Commissioner after serving many years as deputy to Louis Nims, now retired, has demonstrated by his activities at the national level that Michigan is still among the leading states in government organization and operation.

This, despite the desperate cash crisis of 1959 and attendant tax and financing troubles.

State officials are again looking into the wage and fringe benefit picture for Michigan's 31,000 classified employees to see if they are being short-changed in comparison with people doing comparable jobs in private industry.

This year's survey of public agencies is due for completion in November, and will be used by the Civil Service Commission to see if there should be any changes in state employment practices.

John Downes, chief of the wage and salary section of the Civil Service Department, is directing the study.

Chief items in the survey are interviews with workers in some 37 public agencies in Michigan, 22 states and the federal government, and a mail survey of wages paid by 370 private employers.
