WORKING DESPERATELY, Northville police officers and volunteer firemen attempt to pry Mrs. Howard Berge, wife of Dr. Howard Berge, of 19351 Meadowbrook road, loose from her car late Tuesday afternoon after the car struck a tree on South Main street. It took them more than half an hour of heroic effort before the front seat could be loosened enough to free her. The convertible top of the car was pried open and pushed back to give them working room. Mrs. Berge was rushed to St. Mary hospital in Livonia, where hospital spokesmen reported her condition as "about as good as can be expected". She suffered head and chest injuries and reportedly underwent surgery.

Sidewalk Installation Hits City Peak in '61

Councilmen learned Monday night just how extensive the

Heads State Chamber

Walter L. Couse

A Northville resident, Walter L. Couse of 45875 West Seven Mile road, has been elected president of the Chamber of Commerce of the State of Michigan.

Couse, who is president of the Detroit contracting firm bearing his name, is a charter member and has been a director of the state chamber since its formation in 1959. He was a director of the Detroit Board of Commerce from 1953 until 1959, serving as board president from 1958 to 1959.

city's sidewalk program for the past year has been.

In a report from City Manager Bruce Potthoff it was revealed that sidewalk installations totaling $16,003.61 have been completed this year.

This total includes both city and property owner cost. Under the city's assessment plan this year, the city paid one-third the cost of the cement work and assumed all expenses over $200 in preparation and grading for installation of new sidewalk.

The figure also includes cost to the city of replacing damaged sidewalk, either broken by roots from city trees or city crews doing street repair work.

Specifically, some 4,375 lineal feet of new sidewalk was installed in the city this year. Replacement of damaged sidewalk totaled 565 lineal feet.

Total cost of cement work (other than grading, etc.) was $11,797.98 of which $7,865.32 will be assessed to property owners and $3,932.66 paid from general funds. The city paid $3,605 for grading and retaining walls where the cost to the property exceeded $200. The replacement sidewalk program cost the city $1,405.95, for a total cost to the city of $8,944.94.

Councilmen noted that this is the biggest sidewalk installation and replacement program ever undertaken by the city in a single year.

In other business Monday night the council gave City Attorney Philip Ogilvie permission to defend Northville Justice of the Peace Charles W. McDonald in an action of mandamus brought against Judge McDonald by the Rouge Employees Federal Credit Union.

The issue concerns the legality of a judgment rendered by former Northville Justice of the Peace E. M. Bogart in favor of the credit union.

It is Judge McDonald's position that the Northville court had no jurisdiction in the case since neither defendant nor the plaintiff were residents of Northville, Northville township or any adjoining township.

The credit union maintains that irrespective of this, once the judgment has been issued it is valid. The credit union is asking that certification of the judgment be submitted by Judge McDonald in order that it might be transferred to another justice court for further proceedings.

A Most Fateful Day In History

Today, Thursday, is just a common, ordinary day like any other in the early part of December — full of deciding which Christmas card should go to Aunt Ella, what color tie Dad should get and how big a doll Baby Ann should find under the Christmas tree.

There are also seasonal activities like putting up the last storm door, cleaning all the leaves off the lawn before the snows cover them, buying a new filter for the furnace and taking the hoses in for the winter.

These are the sorts of activities that everyone was busy with 20 years ago, on DECEMBER 7, 1941.

And suddenly the cozy Sunday evening sitting by the fireplace and listening to the radio was blasted into a period of shock, horror, terror and a great deal of soul searching. For the radio announcer screamed that at dawn, which was evening here, the Japanese had bombed Pearl Harbor.

Christmas thoughts of big presents, bigger meals and giant trees flooded with tinsel and colored lights suddenly were crowded out as people ran to pull out a dusty encyclopedia and look up Hawaii, that far-off island paradise where life was all warm evenings, dancing girls and palm trees swaying in a breeze filled with the aroma of exotic foods.

Two days earlier, The Record had published that area Christmas club members would receive a total of about $13,000 from Christmas club savings deposits, and that plans for presenting Handel's "Messiah" were being made.

The December 5 Record also carried a story about hundreds of persons having attended the formal opening of the Penn Theatre in Plymouth the previous afternoon. The moviegoers had been treated to a taste of island life when they viewed "A Week-end in Havana".

On December 12 the Record reported that a great deal of activity had been stirred up locally by the war. Area residents were joining forces to push the sale of defense bonds and stamps. A common slogan was "Give a stamp or bond for Christmas". The bonds made small packages, but they were probably the most significant Christmas gifts that year.

The foundation of a defense council had followed closely the declaration of war on Japan. Many local citizens volunteered to serve as clerks to help the hundreds of persons from this area who wanted to join the armed forces.

Among those backing the defense bond sale were Fred Van Atta, Reverend Harold Fredsell, Dr. R. M. Aichison, Superintendent of Schools R. H. Amerman, Neil Hannaford, Harry F. Wagenschutz, Mrs. W. F. Forney, Mrs. Garrett T. Barry, Ray Casterline and Gerald Taft.

The defense council members were Mayor Carl H. Bryan, Supervisor Willard A. Ely, Mrs. Tracy Ely, Harry F. Wagenschutz, Frank Wilkinson, Chief of Police Richard Lewis, Earl Montgomery, R. H. Amerman, Mrs. James Green, Lisle Alexander and M. C. Gussell.

Also on the front page of The Record that day was a timetable of the war, showing the Jap attack on Pearl Harbor and Manila on Sunday, the U.S. declaration of war at noon on Monday, the unconfirmed reports Tuesday and Wednesday of enemy aircraft flying over California, the Thursday morning declaration of war on the U.S. made jointly by Italy and Germany, and Congress' retaliatory declaration of war on Germany and Italy made Thursday noon.

By December 19 the war activities were well under way and The Record devoted nearly half its front page to reports of local and national efforts to boost the country into readiness for fighting. A Red Cross war relief fund campaign had started here, with a goal of $1,500.

Plans were being made to start the Defense Bond sale the following day, with 28 persons taking four-hour shifts selling bonds in four local stores.

Another 114 persons had donated blood for the Army and Navy when the Plymouth Oddfellows opened their hall for a mobile blood bank.

All of this was taking place just 20 years ago. Since that time the world has experienced many crises, but none have been quite so sudden or quite so shocking as the events of DECEMBER 7, 1941.

Next Travel Stop Is New Zealand

Colorful New Zealand will be the topic of the third World Travel Series lecture next Tuesday presented by the Northville Rotary club. Miss Bathie Stuart, a native of this South Pacific port-of-call, will narrate the color film.

Delay Vote On Landfill

Northville township board of appeals postponed its vote on whether or not to grant a permit to operate a landfill at Manning & Locklin gravel pits until this week.

The request was made by the Manning & Locklin land company which proposes to subdivide the 370 acre site between Seven and Eight Mile roads when the fill is completed in approximately 12 years.

The board was scheduled to meet again Wednesday evening (December 6) and vote on the proposal. It is anticipated that the permit will be granted if qualifications are met. Those include time limitations, dumping controls, test to insure that area water will not be polluted and that the fill used will render the land suitable for building.

Miss Stuart has delighted many audiences with her lively comments and up-to-the-minute information about her picturesque land. She will present with intimate detail the extraordinary beauty and the life and customs of the people of this unique island country.

In the course of her lecture, Miss Stuart will picture the industrial activities of such cities as Auckland, Wellington, Christchurch and Dunedin. She will take her audience into the colorful vineyards and wheat fields, and will present a close view of the sheep and cattle industries.

A high point of the event is sure to be her treatment of New Zealand's "Yellowstone," with its geysers and steaming pools, mountains, glaciers, volcanoes, lakes, waterfalls and fiords.

The first two of the six-travelogue series featured Robert Auburn, on October 17, and Sasha Siemel on November 7. A limited number of season tickets are still available for those wishing to see the final five presentations.

Only season tickets are being sold for the series. They are $5 each, and may be obtained at the Northville branch of Manufacturers National Bank.

A & P Sets Opening; Bank Project to Start

Officials of A&P Food Stores announced this week that the doors of its new Main and Huron street supermarket would be opened next Wednesday.

It marks the second opening of a new supermarket in Northville's business district in recent weeks and accompanies an announcement by Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit that work will begin immediately on removal of the city's scout building to make way for a new drive-in facility (see story below).

The rejuvenation of the central shopping district has brought words of praise and approval from both businessmen and city officials.

Mayor A. M. Allen is scheduled to take part in the ribbon-cutting ceremonies at the new A & P store Wednesday at 9 a.m.

He'll join a group of A & P officials headed by Vice President E. J. Vogel, Sales Manager Robert J. Murray and Personnel Manager Earl Poyner.

Manager of the Northville A & P store is Donald D. Duvall.

The new location at Main and Huron replaces the company's former site at 130 E. Main street, and provides nearly double the amount of floor space. The present store will remain open through Tuesday.

A special program of awards and giveaways has been planned by the food chain to mark the grand opening. During the event the store will remain open until 9 p.m.

The building has undergone an extensive face-lifting, converting it to A & P's distinctive pace-setting Early American design, which has attracted national attention during the past few years.

Inside, the building has been completely renovated and given special color treatment to make shopping easier and more pleasant for customers. The latest-type equipment has been installed throughout, including a self-service meat department with refrigerated production line for the preparation of meats. Under the setup, meat items are weighed, packaged, labeled and priced in full view of customers.

Other service highlights include air conditioning, latest-type lighting, automatic doors and both front and rear entrance.

Two adjoining lots have also been acquired and converted into a paved parking lot which will provide facilities for 60 cars. Entrance to the building will be from the new parking lot.

The building has been engineered for quick, convenient shopping.

Scout Hall Coming Down

A. R. Clarke, vice president in charge of the Northville branch of Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit, announced this week that bids are now being taken to tear down the city's scout building.

Located on the corner of Huron and Dunlap, the building was purchased by the bank as a site for a drive-in bank facility.

Equipment stored in the building by the recreation department will be removed by Sunday. Demolition work is expected to begin shortly thereafter.

Preliminary drawings for the drive in bank have been approved and final specifications are now being completed, Clarke stated.

Actual construction of the building will begin shortly after the first of the year.

Recreation Director Kenneth Conley stated that storage space for department equipment has been found and meeting places for scouts arranged in schools, churches and veterans' buildings.

HONOR FOR MARY — Last Thursday night retiring City Clerk Mary Alexander was the surprised recipient of the annual Claude Ely presentation, a cash award. She's shown between Northville Mayor A. M. Allen (left) and Livonia Mayor William Brashear as she expresses her appreciation. The occasion was the annual recognition dinner for city employees and volunteer workers. Mayor Brashear was guest speaker. Saturday night more honors will come Mary's way when her long service in the community will be acknowledged at a testimonial dinner.

This Saturday Night

A Tribute to Service

Twenty-seven years, 800 meetings and nine mayors ago Mary Alexander began serving the village of Northville as an office clerk.

Saturday night her friends, fellow employees and community officials will salute her in a testimonial dinner at the Community Building.

The end of this month Mrs. Alexander will retire from a career of community service that began in October, 1934. She is 71 years old — but her quick mind, alertness and energy belie this, leaving an impression of surprise that one "so young" should retire.

Mrs. Alexander began her career as an employee of the village of Northville five months after her husband, Dr. Paul R. Alexander, a practicing dentist in Northville, died. Some 16 months later she was appointed to the position of village clerk.

For 10 straight elections over a period of 20 years Mary was re-elected. No one ever ran against her.

When the village incorporated as a city, the office became appointive and, naturally, Mary was the council's choice.

Howard Burkart was village president when Mrs. Alexander began her career. Since then she has served under the administrations of Arthur Nichols, Elmer Perrin, Adelbert Hahn, Forrest Doren, Carl Bryan, C. E. Langfield, Claude Ely and A. M. Allen.

Council meetings have always been about the same, Mary recalls. Few people attend unless there is an issue of special interest.

"The biggest rhubarb" that Mary remembers were the hearings held when harness racing was first considered in the village.

"After they're over, I don't let them bother me", Mary says philosophically. While she may forget the unpleasantities, Clerk Alexander never forgets names and addresses. Except for the new subdivisions, she knows the owner of every residence in Northville.

"I've memorized this from sending out tax notices and water bills," she explains.

Until seven years ago Mary managed the city hall alone. She's recorded all Northville births and deaths for a quarter of a century and notes somewhat sadly that with the hospital closed, no one is born in Northville.

Mrs. Alexander has two daughters: Mrs. Howard (Frances) Bray of Boyne City and Mrs. Edward (Louise) Angove of Northville.

She lives at 220 Linden. After her retirement she plans to spend some time visiting her daughter in Boyne City. Then, maybe next summer, she'll travel a bit.

Saturday night's dinner will be held at seven o'clock. Tickets must be purchased in advance and are now available at Manufacturers National Bank, the Record office, Freydl Cleaners, Gussell's Drugs, Northville Drugs, Powers Drugs, Northville Hardware and Stone's Gamble store.

Santa's Visit Set Thursday

Santa Claus is coming to town — next Thursday (December 14) — to be exact. Through special arrangements with the Northville Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Retail Merchants association, jolly St. Nick will greet all his little friends, listen to their Christmas requests and give them a remembrance of his visit.

Christmas Post Office Hours Told

Special Christmas season hours for the post office were announced this week by Northville Postmaster L. V. Smith. Regular hours will be continued throughout this week with the office closing at noon Saturday.

Monday through Friday, December 11 to 15, the stamp and parcel post windows will remain open until 6 p.m. Saturday, December 16 the postoffice will remain open until 5 p.m.

On Sunday, December 17 windows will be open from noon until 1 p.m.

Again during the week of December 18 through 22 the office will remain open until 6 p.m.

But on Saturday, December 23 the windows will close at noon as usual.

Postmaster Smith stated that there would be no Sunday deliveries December 24 and Christmas day except special delivery and perishable parcels.

He also pointed out that carriers would make but one delivery daily of regular mail routes this year.

"Santa Claus will ride into town by special 'sleigh' transportation provided by the Jaycees.

He's scheduled to arrive at 4 p.m. at the Main street parking lot next to Northville Drug company. Santa will remain in Northville until 9 p.m.

In addition to the visit from Santa Claus, Northville merchants are in the midst of their "Santa Buck" promotion that will be climaxed December 21 when some 50 gifts — topped by a portable television set — will be auctioned off. The gifts can be "purchased" with the "Santa Bucks" which are currently being given to Christmas shoppers by 24 local stores.

GRAND OPENING ON TAP — Friday and Saturday are grand opening days for the "Good Time Party Store". Formerly known as Altman's Center Street Grocery, the business was moved into its new building on the Seven Mile road cut-off last week. Owner Charles Altman, Jr., is shown standing beside the store's "good time" clock.

News Around Northville

Twenty-five relatives and friends gathered to honor the new Mrs. Wayne Hill, of Washington, D.C., recently at the home of her sister, Mrs. Louise Sweet.

Mrs. Hill, the former Fay McGee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. McGee, of 540 Carpenter avenue.

Mrs. Isobel Mulhern and Miss Eva Johnson, of Mulhry sanatorium, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Straus, Beck road, a week ago Sunday at a dinner party celebrating Mrs. Mulhern's birthday.

Dr. T. M. Dyer, of Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, arrived Tuesday for a visit with his son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Dyer, of 718 Grandview.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Tulikka, of Ironwood, are in Northville.

Fourteen members of Northville Lites, Northville chapter of the Wayne county home economics extension, attended the annual Christmas party hosted Monday night by Mrs. Albert Smith, of 507 Beal street.

The social gathering, which included a cooperative dinner, gift exchange and games, replaced the club's customary lesson.

Mrs. Harvey Whipple's sister-in-law, Dorothy Whipple, has been visiting here while on leave from her Government assignment as chief cultural affairs officer in Saigon, Viet Nam.

Mrs. J. P. Malley, 21633 Beck road, and Gordon Parham, of Salem, will be judges in the Oakland County Kennel club's Winter show to be held Saturday in VFW Acom post, 214 Fourth street, Royal Oak. The show is the second event in American dog show history in which most breeds will be judged by club members or their wives.

Parham is a past president of the club; Mrs. Malley's husband is a member.

In February, Parham will be the only Michigan person on the Westminster panel at Madison Square Garden, New York.

TOPS Tap Pat Baker As Leader

In an election held Monday night, November 27, members of Northville Eater Beaters Branch of the TOPS club elected a new slate of officers, headed by Pat (Mrs. Jeff) Baker, leader.

Serving with Mrs. Baker will be: Fran (Mrs. William) Schiefel, co-leader; Audrey (Mrs. Shirley) Henson, secretary; Shirley (Mrs. Richard) Golze, treasurer.

A club spokesman said members showed a fine weight loss even after the Thanksgiving weekend.

The weight-conscious group heard a pep talk by Dorothy Barthel, loser of 125 pounds, at this week's meeting.

Area women interested in "Taking Off Pounds Sensibly" (TOPS) are invited to attend club meetings Monday evenings at Amerman school. For further information call FI 9-0731 or FI 9-2441.

Kitchen Diary

Her Pies Sound Good, Look Good, Taste Good

The names alone sound good enough to make you want to taste Mrs. Clifton Nutter's pies. "Sunny Silver", "French Silk" — they're delicious sounding names for delicious tasting pastries made by the homemaker in the kitchen of her home at 122 East Dunlap.

What's more, the pies have few ingredients and simple directions, easy enough for even the fledgling housewife to make.

And if you have been looking for a new molded, gelatin salad idea, Mrs. Nutter's "Spicy Salad" may fill the bill. It combines a gelatin flavor favorite, lemon, with tangy cinnamon and applesauce.

SUNNY SILVER PIE

Mrs. Clifton Nutter
1 baked pie shell
1 T plain gelatin
1-3 cup water
3-4 eggs (depending on size)
4 T lemon juice
1 cup sugar

Dissolve gelatin in cold water. Beat egg yolks with half of sugar; add lemon juice. Cook over hot water, stirring constantly. Cook until thick and smooth. Add gelatin; stir until dissolved.

Beat egg whites stiff; add remaining sugar to egg whites. Fold this into lemon mixture. Pour into baked pie shell. Place in refrigerator to set. Serve with whipped cream.

FRENCH SILK PIE

1 baked 8-inch pie shell
1/2 cup butter
3/4 cup sugar
1 t. vanilla
1 sq. (1 oz.) unsweetened chocolate (melted)
2 eggs
2 T chopped pecans

Cream butter thoroughly; gradually add sugar, cream until fluffy. Add vanilla and cooled, melted chocolate. Mix well and add eggs one at a time, beating five minutes after each addition. Pour mixture into baked pie shell. Sprinkle with chopped nuts. Chill at least two hours or overnight.

For variety fold in one cup of whipped cream.

SPICY SALAD

2 cups boiling water
1/2 cup red cinnamon drops
3 T lemon juice
2 pkgs. lemon jello
1 can applesauce
Dissolve cinnamon drops in boiling water. Add lemon jello, lemon juice and apple sauce; mix well and mold.

Hats Top Meeting Of Wixom Extension

A new hat for the holidays was the lesson given to the Wixom Extension group by leader, Mrs. Arthur Cox, November 27 — at a meeting in the home of Mrs. Erwin Welfare, 46841 Pontiac trail. Nine hats were completed.

The extension group meets again Tuesday, December 12 for a Christmas party and workshop in which wreaths will be made from boughs and cones.

Northville Methodist church's Holly Mart Thursday proved to be a real Christmas prelude as well as a shopper's holiday. Those who visited the day-long bazaar were treated to a village square lined with booths stocked with eye-catching handmade gifts. Young and old alike stopped to admire and buy.

A stuffed horse caught the eye of three-year-old John Vowell (right). His mother, Mrs. John Vowell, Sr., looks on as Mrs. Esther Cockin, creator of many of the stuffed toys, displays the horse.

A popular feature of the second annual mart, held in the fellowship hall of the church, was the snack bar (above) that served homemade foods from morning to night.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service directed the all-church bazaar.

Births

Scott Vincent, a six-pound, 12 ounce son, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Selman, of 433 Du-buar, Saturday at Nankin hospital in Wayne.

Mrs. Selman is the former Joan Sanders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sanders, of Northville. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Selman, Sr., are grandparents living in Bloomfield Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Heslip, 23737 Currie road, announce the birth of a son, John Edward, at St. Mary hospital, Livonia, November 22. He weighed seven pounds, two ounces.

Mrs. Heslip is the former Judy White, of Novi.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Junod, 42325 Schoolcraft, Plymouth, are parents of a daughter, Terilyn, weighing 7 pounds, 15 ounces. She was born October 27 at Detroit Osteopathic hospital.

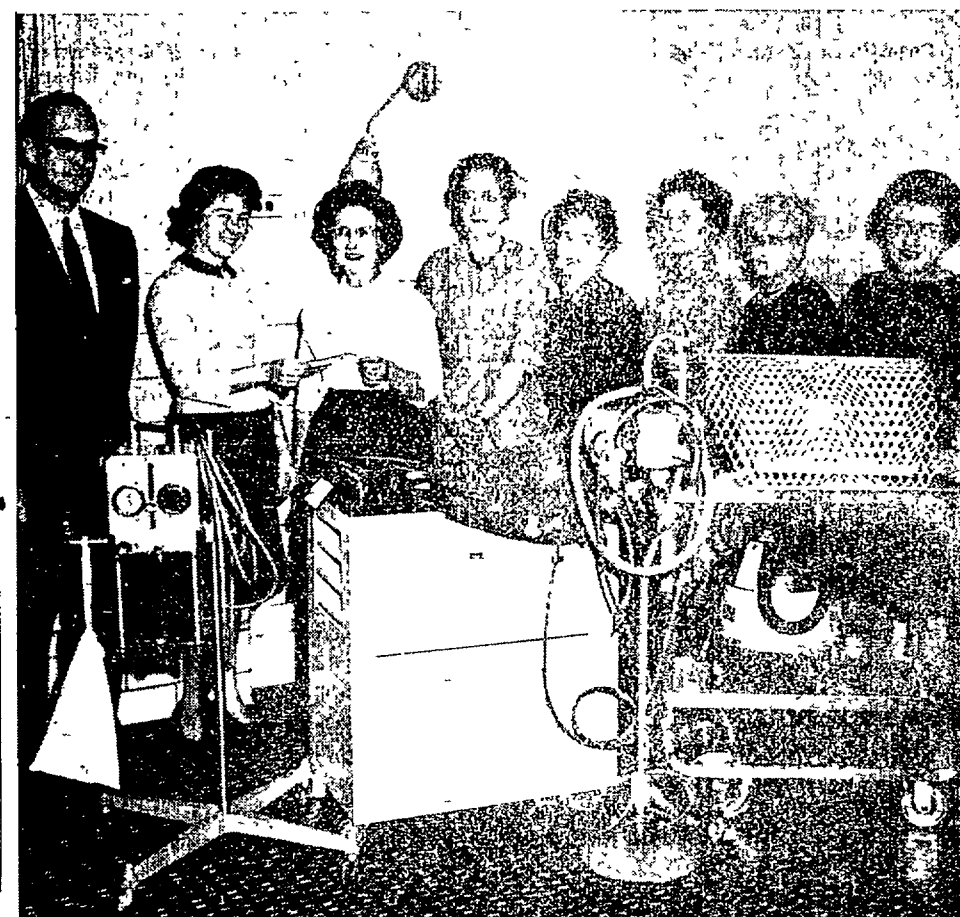

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John C. Willis, 310 West Dunlap, and the Robert Actons, of Livonia.

Prelude to Christmas

Garden Club Slates Yule Party

Members of Northville branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association will gather at the home of their president, Mrs. D. Hurd Clark, 42150 East Seven Mile, Monday and Mrs. John Begle will assist the hostess. Clubwomen should bring a passing dish and table service. Songs will comprise the program.

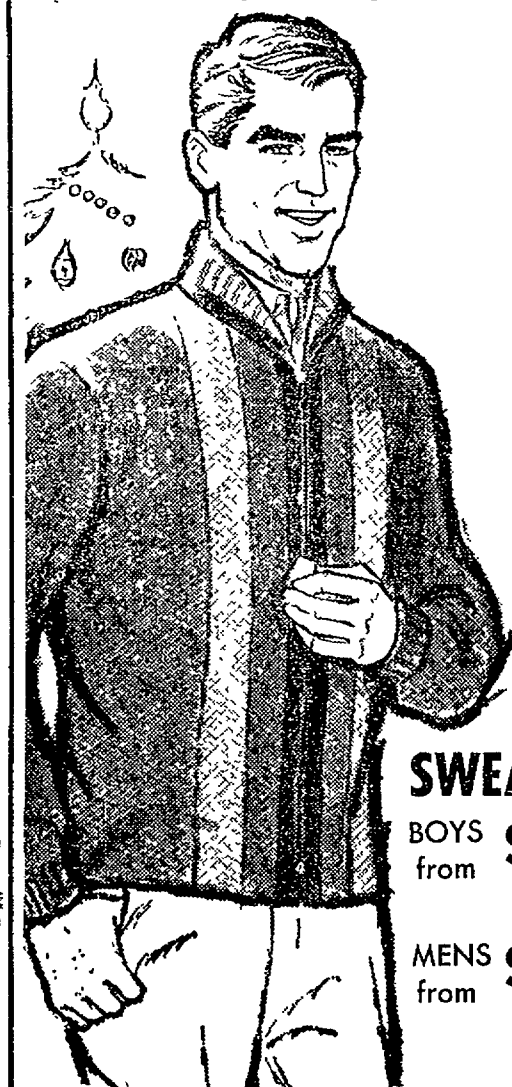

GUILD ADDS EQUIPMENT — St. Mary hospital of Livonia, preparing a quiet celebrating of its approaching second anniversary, recently received needed additions to its Department of Anesthesia from the hospital guild which is headed by Mrs. Margie Kalin, of Northville, (third, left). Guild members joining Mrs. Kalin in the presentation of a new Bird respirator, hyper-hypo-thermic unit and Emerson respirator are Miss Helen Elner, Northville, Mrs. Madeline Enterline, Mrs. Isabelle Quigley, Mrs. Martie Lynch and Mrs. Phyllis Robinson. Dr. Thomas Somerville and Dr. Mary Kay Ansley, anesthesiologists, (from left) accept the gifts on behalf of the hospital.

Christmas Luncheon Planned

Northville Newcomers club will hold its Christmas luncheon Wednesday at 12:30 p.m. in the Meadowbrook country club, 40941 West Eight Mile road. Mrs. G. R. Wilkie, FI 9-3356, is president, said women who have lived in the area five years or less are invited. She can be contacted for luncheon details or general information about the Newcomers club at FI 9-0184. Cards and a social hour are planned after lunch. Mrs. Philip Wegeng, club president.

MEET THE MARZONIES — When the door of the white colonial at 47005 Dunsany, Northville Estates, swings open, any one of these Marzonies may be there to greet you: (front) Tom, Ted Jr., Paula, (back) Jan, Barbara, Ted Sr., holding Douglas, Karen and Joan Marzonie, holding John.

When the Ted Marzonies outgrew their home in Allen Park, they decided to build a house to fit their family. Sizing up their needs, they huddled with an architect, bought a lot and hired a builder.

The end result, a spacious five-bedroom colonial in Northville Estates, was ready in September for its 10 tenants. Ted and Joan Marzonie, natives of Flint, and their 8 children, Jan, 11; Paula, 9; Barbara, 8; Ted, Jr., 6; Tom, 5; Karen, 3; Douglas, almost 2; and John, 6 months.

"Jackie Kennedy" Doll Wins for Local Woman

Dubbed "Jackie Kennedy" by contest judges, a doll outfitted in a riding habit by Mrs. Jo Brevik, 920 Ely court, won first prize for the Northville woman in the most-original division of the annual Goodfellow doll-dressing contest.

Mrs. Brevik's first-time entry was patterned after an outfit the girl who lives next door to the Breviks wears to her riding lessons. "I thought it would make a cute doll," she said.

Mrs. Brevik, an employee of Burroughs corporation in Plymouth, and other contest winners were honored yesterday at a luncheon sponsored by Sam's incorporated in the Statler Hilton hotel, Detroit. They received $15 gift certificates.

Some 14,000 dolls were dressed by Detroit women for the Goodfellow competition. Winners were selected from 200 of the most beautifully dressed. All 200 will be displayed in the show window of Sam's Campus Martius store until Monday when the Old Newsboys sell newspapers.

They will be given later to needy children confined to hospital beds at Christmas time. Remaining dolls will go to girls among the 50,000 needy children who will receive Goodfellow gifts this year.

Told of the "Jackie" nickname judges had given her doll, Mrs. Brevik said she approved, laughingly adding "we're Republican."

Shop and Save

Food prices at the local supermarket have meant a pay raise for every American family over the last dozen years. Prices are higher — up 20 percent since 1947-49 — but incomes and take-home pay have risen much faster.

Food is a bargain — the result of an amazing production on American farms that is the envy of the entire world. The U. S. Department of Agriculture provides these figures in a new folder, "Food is a Good Buy."

Chorale Debuts Sunday With Plymouth Orchestra

The newly formed Grant Williams chorale will make its first major appearance in this area Sunday at the Plymouth Symphony orchestra's Christmas concert, slated at 4 p.m. in the Plymouth high school auditorium.

Thirty mixed virtuoso voices comprise the chorale, which was organized by Detroit Grant Williams on the encouragement of Wayne Dunlap, Plymouth symphony conductor. Williams selected singers on the basis of talent and ability and sought to obtain a perfect blending of vocal textures.

A performer in his own right, Williams holds B.S. and M.S. degrees from Julliard School of Music. An operatic career led him to leading roles and repeated seasons with top-ranking companies here and abroad, including New York City Opera company and the Philadelphia Lyric opera. He has soloed with the Robert Shaw chorale and is a recording artist for RCA Victor and MGM.

Sunday the chorale and orchestra will combine for presentation of "The Childhood of Christ" (L'Enfance du Christ), Parts II and III, by Berlioz, and Bach's "Magnificat in D Major."

Soloists for the Magnificat are Imogene Weil, soprano; Doralee McNelly, soprano; Arnold Wronski, bass; Shirley La Croix, mezzo; Charles Wingert, tenor; and Jonathan Swift, tenor.

Featured in the Berlioz selection will be Edward Kingens, tenor; Roma Riddel, soprano; Bill McConnell, baritone; and Amasa Tiffany, Bass. The Plymouth Civic chorus, under the direction of Fred Nelson, will join the orchestra and chorale for this portion of the program.

Also programmed is "A Carol on Twelfth Night", by Bergsma.

There is no admission charge for the concert.

Graduating

Elizabeth (Betsy) Merriam, 1958 Northville high school graduate, will be graduated from Michigan State university with a bachelor of arts degree in education tonight in ceremonies at East Lansing.

Miss Merriam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Merriam, of 18910 Beek road, completed her degree work in three and one-third years and will begin teaching art in January at Lincoln high school in Wyandotte. She is affiliated with Alpha Alpha chapter of Kappa Delta sorority.

Plan Party for Patients; Welcome Christmas Gifts

With the annual Christmas party less than two weeks away, Abraham Medwed, rehabilitation supervisor at Maybury sanatorium said Tuesday that he would be happy to accept any gifts local residents may wish to contribute to patients in the sanatorium's rehabilitation center.

Patients will receive the gifts at a party scheduled Tuesday, December 19. Medwed can be reached at FI 9-3200.

Shaving supplies, slippers, bathrobes, underwear and socks would be appropriate gifts, suggested the supervisor. He said most of the patients are homeless males.

Medwed said gifts can be taken to the sanatorium at 49000 West Seven Mile road, or he will pick them up.

A request was also made for drivers needed to transport patients on theatre trips and similar rehabilitation activities. Patients pay for gas and drivers are given tickets to the activity, said Medwed. There is no danger of contagion, he said, as the patients who participate are medically approved and about to be discharged.

Sam Chizmar Gets Music Scholarship

Sam Chizmar, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Chizmar, of 19360 Maxwell, has been awarded a Mulligan scholarship, a stipend given to freshman music majors at Albion college.

Sam, a 1961 Northville high school graduate, auditioned for the scholarship on Saturday, 18, playing piano and organ selections before members of the Albion music faculty and Robert Mulligan, scholarship donor.

DEADLINE — NOON TUESDAY

1—Card of Thanks

The family of the late A. V. Barber wishes to thank the many friends for their kind acts of sympathy. A special thanks to the American Legion, the Masonic Lodge and Mr. Ebert.

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Northville Methodist church would like to thank the public for their patronage of the bazaar.

I wish to express my thanks to the Casterline Funeral Home, especially to Fred and Emily Casterline, Rev. Lloyd Brasure, Northville Masonic Lodge 186 F & AM-Orchard Haven Nursing Home and Bunea Vista Nursing home, at the time of the death of Clyde H. Van Atta.
Roy M. Van Atta

2—In Memoriam

In cherished memory of Jen nie B. Keller, who left us December 4, 1958:
Not a day do we forget you;
In our hearts you are always near,
God alone knows how much we miss you
As this ends the third sad year.
Greatly missed by husband,
Peter Keller and Family

News From Wixom

Mrs. Charles Ware Ma 4-1601

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tuck had dinner at the John Lindsay home in Rochester Saturday evening in celebration of Mrs. Lindsay's and Walter Tuck's birthdays. After dinner they went to Rochester high school to watch Walled Lake and Rochester play basketball with Rochester winning.

The Loon Lake bowling league bowled at Milford lanes Saturday evening and enjoyed refreshments later at the Gunnar Metala residence.

At the P.T.A. meeting which was held Tuesday evening, December 5 there was a panel discussion on children who fail. Mr. Smart spoke on the coming bond issue for the Walled Lake school district.

On Wednesday, December 7, St. Williams Rosary Altar Society will have their annual Christmas party. Instead of exchange of gifts a donation will be taken from each member and the money will be used to buy gifts for the inmates of Pontiac State hospital.

On Thursday November 30 the Oakland County Deacons had their quarterly meeting at St. Williams parish hall. The program consisted of a complete description of Recovery Incorporated by a group of former mental patients. This group started in Chicago and now has spread to 31 cities. It is at their parent's home the Melvin Van Amberg's of Wixom. It is conducted on the order of A.A. and all a person has to do to join is to call Recovery Incorporated, but the party has to do it themselves.

Mrs. Alice Francin and Mrs. Yandy were Sunday visitors of Mrs. Nina Parker.

The monthly meeting of Sunday school teachers and officers was held Tuesday evening December 5.

Wixom citizens have received news that their former pastor, Rev. and Mrs. Bill Green are the proud parents of a daughter Linda Kay born November 21 at Linton, Indiana. Mrs. Bill Parson and family weighing 10 lbs. 4 ounces. Linda has a brother Bobby.

— Out of the Past —

ONE YEAR AGO
December 8, 1960

— Damage was estimated to total $9,000 when flames engulfed the huge storage barn of a West Eight Mile road farm adjacent to Northville Estates Sunday afternoon. The farm, owned by a Detroit real estate firm, was formerly the home of the Paul Bayless family. A section of the barn holding apple crates and farm equipment was destroyed.

— The city council voted Monday night to curtail the justice court fee system and place the elected justice on a salary. Councilmen said they voted for the proposal because they felt justice is best served when the judge is salaried. They said this is the first step toward a municipal court system.

— Petitions for 10 city and township residents seeking election to offices in their respective governments began circulating this week. Seeking city council seats are incumbent Ed Welch, Mrs. Arthur Carlson and J. Bine Leavenworth. Petition for Mayor A. M. Allen are also circulating. In the township, all present office holders are seeking re-election.

— Meadowbrook country club members gathered last Saturday night to honor President Linn Walter and re-elect him for the 1960-61 season.

— Northville's American Legion post served up its annual Hunters' Dinner last Saturday night to nearly 100 local men in honor of their service to the community.

— City Councilman Earl Reed, who served on the village commission, the charter commission and the council for the past seven years, announced this week that he will not seek re-election in April.

FIVE YEARS AGO
December 6, 1956

— Area police are seeking an elderly woman who has resided in Northville for the past eight months. She is wanted for questioning about her financial dealings in and around the community. She is believed to have filched as much as $10,000 from local persons, claiming she was soon to receive a large inheritance, and promising to make good checks she had written to obtain the money. State Police list 22 aliases besides the name of Mrs. Yvonne Chauvin, which she used here. She has a police record dating back to 1936.

— Detroit horseman Mark Leach said this week he may protest the rescheduling of trotting dates at Northville Downs next year because it blocks his own plans to bring runners to the track during the same period. He had requested dates from the racing commission but was turned down because commissioner James H. Inglis felt the local track is not suited for runners. He said he may appeal this decision.

— The Northville school board decided Monday night that they would accept tuition students in the new high school "only so long as facilities will permit it."

— Novi township firemen attended a blazing fire last week, and stood by a house burned to the ground. Reason was that officials at the Lincoln plant wanted an old vacant house on their property removed, so they called on the firemen to burn it down. Firemen had practice at putting the house out twice, and finally let it burn down.

— A promise to "take immediate steps" to purchase property in Northville for the erection of new telephone service building brought a reprieve from the city council Monday evening in its plan to protest poor telephone company service. Michigan Bell Telephone company made the promise after the council sent a letter to them protesting poor service.

— The city council voted Monday night to have city Attorney Philip Ogilvie appeal to the state supreme court a decision rendered by Judge Clark J. Adams that had thrown out a city argument in the suit brought by Novi township to prevent a Northville annexation.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO
December 6, 1945

— The Boy Scout paper drive Saturday netted about four and one half tons of waste paper. This figure was called less than usual.

— Interest in classes offered by the community recreation program has grown a great deal according to director Merritt Meaker. He said there are about 850 persons taking part in the eight divisions of activities.

— The Northville Rotary club held a homecoming luncheon Tuesday noon when District Governor Joe Brady of Howell made his official visit to the local club. An assembly preceded the luncheon at the Presbyterian church house.

— The Novi AMVETS and Auxiliary completed plans for their current project of packages for veterans in small hospitals when they held a joint meeting Tuesday evening.

— Northville is one of 46 exchanges included in a new operating division of the Michigan Bell Telephone company. For formation of the new division was announced today by Ben R. Marsh, vice-president and general manager.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
December 4, 1936

— Thirty-one members of the Northville high school band, under the direction of Leshe G. Lee, made their first appearance of the year in a concert at the high school gymnasium. This marked the start of a series of concerts the band is giving to raise funds for replacing worn-out instruments.

— James D. Cunningham, Detroit special agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, was guest speaker at a joint meeting of the Northville Rotary and Exchange clubs last Wednesday. He discussed the history of the FBI and described training programs.

— The Irwin Seating company of Lansing was awarded the contract for furnishing the school district's new $85,000 grade school building Monday night at a board of education meeting. Two hundred desks made up the purchase. These will be used for grades three through six, while tables and chairs for lower grades are being made by C. A. Dolph.

— In preparation for the fourth annual presentation of Handel's "Messiah" on December 20, school music director Leshe G. Lee has called the first practice session for Sunday afternoon. He urged area songsters who are interested in joining in the presentation to attend.

— Miss Sybil Simmons, a recent emigrant from Plymouth has opened a beauty parlor in the shop adjoining Marshall Herrick's barber shop on the corner of Main and Center streets. She has 12 years of experience in her work.

— Women of the St. Paul's Lutheran church are making final preparations for their annual fried chicken dinner which will be held next Wednesday in the church hall. Mrs. Charles Meisner is chairman of the family-style dinner.

Salem Man Refuses To Resign from Post

A member of the Salem zoning board of appeals, who has been asked to resign by the township supervisor, stated Monday he has no intentions of resigning.

James J. Brummell, who last week received a letter from Township Supervisor Harlow "nail asking for his resignation and Monday that he does not intend to resign and that he has sent a letter to Ingham asking for the reasons leading to the request for resignation.

Brummell received the following letter from Ingham: "Writing this letter is very unpleasant for me as I dislike hurting anyone's feelings, but it seems necessary.

"You gave the Zoning Board of Appeals a written application for a sanitary fill and we think a written withdrawal notice would keep the record straight.

"The Township Board and, as you may guess, many of our citizens have insisted that I ask for your resignation from the Zoning Board and also that, if we do not get it, action be taken to remove you from office. I think you must admit that your usefulness as an official has ended. I do ask for your resignation and this is done with no animosity on my part."

Brummell first came under fire when he and Leo Van Bonn, who acted in the place of Clayton Clair who was ill with a heart condition, voted to approve a request for the Western Wayne Conservation club to locate in Salem.

The vote was 2-1, with Glenn Renwick casting the negative vote.

Subsequently, Brummell requested the zoning board to permit him to convert his gravel pit into a landfill. He was replaced by Edward Devine on the board while the matter was argued. Following heated objections at a public hearing, Brummell withdrew his request.

According to Brummell, the landfill request cannot be a legitimate reason for the resignation request, because he (Brummell) made the landfill request as a citizen and not as a member of the board. Furthermore, he pointed out, "I withdrew from the appeals board and Edward Devine took my place" when the matter was discussed.

A member of the appeals board since its organization, Brummell contends he was justified in voting for the gun club proposal.

WINTER TRIM — It didn't make any difference to William Higgins, 384 South Wing street, that it was December 2 — his grass needed mowing. So he got out his trusty hand mower, which he calls "almost as old as I am," and completed the job. Higgins, who retired from Detroit Edison company in 1944, is 82 years old. "I kept putting off mowing the yard because of the rain," he explained. "But I don't like to have the grass long when I start my yard work in the spring." Saturday's balmy weather was just right. Higgins can't remember ever mowing his yard in December, however.

Better Spelling Boosts Grades

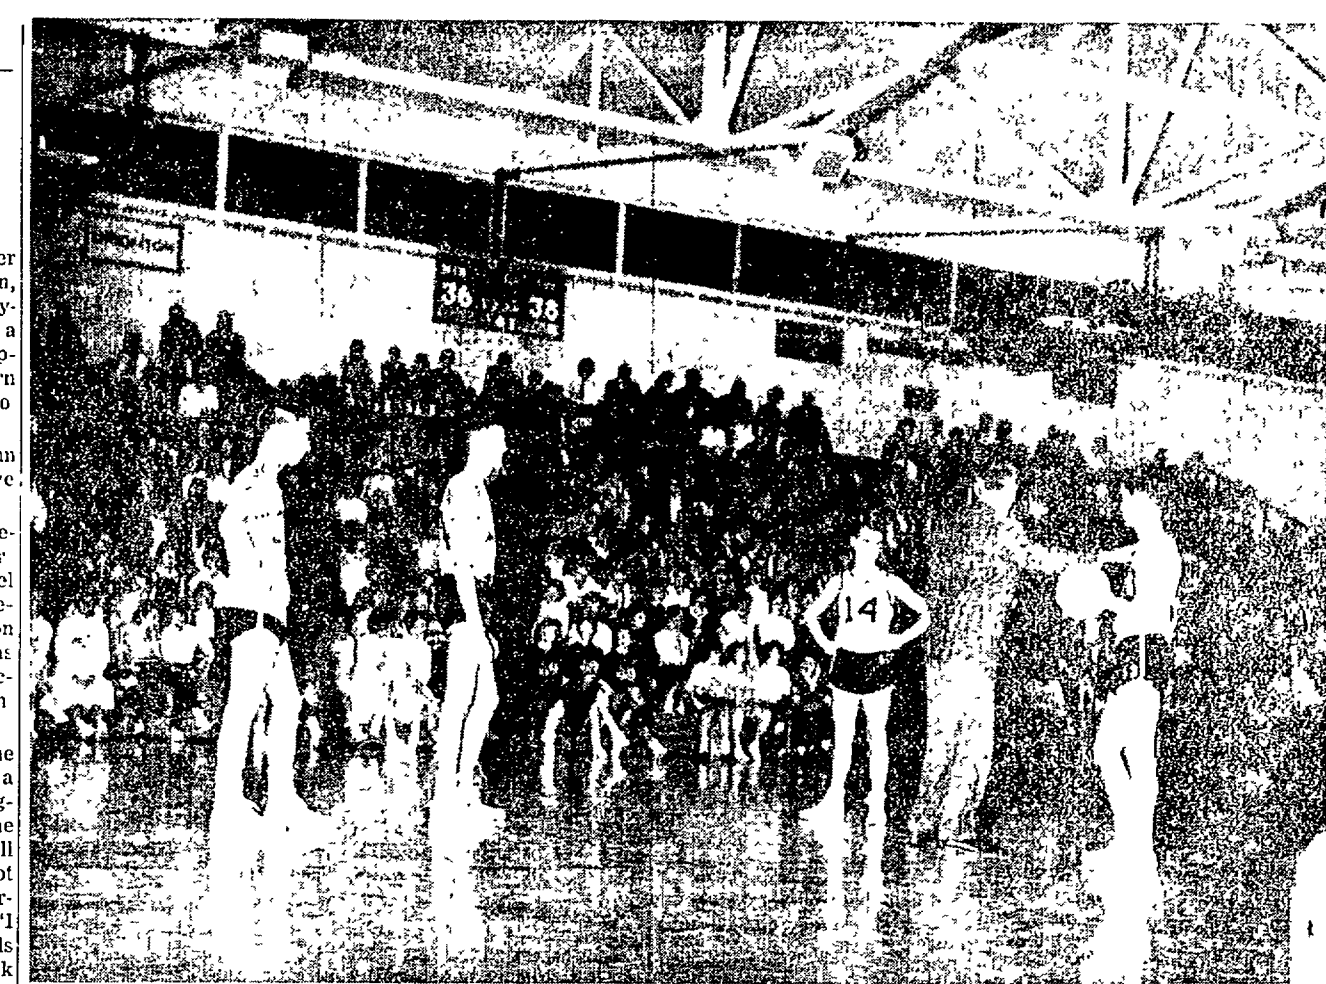

Poor spelling can pull down your child's grades in social studies, reading, science, and other school subjects, say our elementary school teachers. Many book reports, term papers and notebooks receive lower grades as a result of spelling and grammatical errors.

Why is spelling so difficult for many children? Learning to spell English is hard work, according to the Michigan Education Association and National Education Association. Your child would have an easier time learning to spell in Spanish or Finnish, which are far more consistent in their rules.

Most schools concentrate on teaching children about 3,000 English root words which make up about 98 per cent of the words both children and adults use in written expression. Some 20 per cent of these words don't follow regular alphabetical rules, and these are probably the ones that are giving your child trouble.

Here are the ways, suggested by the MEA and NEA, in which you can help your child improve his spelling: First, make sure your child has no physical handicaps, such as poor vision, faulty hearing, defective speech, which may be holding him back.

Have him make his own dictionary of "demon" words that plague him. Get him a scrapbook and have him devote one page to each letter of the alphabet — as he masters the demon, he enters it on the proper page. Give your child the fun of adventuring with words by encouraging him to make a list of new and interesting ones he comes across. Play games with words such as Anagrams and Hangman or ask him how many "happy words" (gay, cheerful, merry, jolly) he knows how to spell, how many "sad" ones, "holiday" ones?

NEW BASKETBALL RULES initiated this year were explained last Friday night by Northville high school Athletic Director Al Jones between the varsity and junior varsity games. He's showing fans how a team on defense will be awarded the ball out of bounds if an opponent commits a foul while his team is in possession of the ball. If the offensive foul is committed while the ball is being passed, the fouled man will take a free throw. Before, all offensive fouls earned a free throw for the defense. He also explained that there will be no more sudden-death playoffs in case of ties. All overtime play will be in three-minute periods. Another new rule this year is that substitutions can take place while the clock is running. The buzzer is sounded and the referee signals the man to enter the game, without having to stop the clock. The player must enter immediately or his team will be given a technical foul.

Cranbrook Pins Mustang Matmen

Northville grapplers went against a powerful Cranbrook team of matmen Tuesday evening losing 30-17. Coach Jack Kreiner said his team did well on defense but wasn't able to make offensive headway.

Next Thursday the Mustang matmen will be hosts to Warren Lincoln in a 7:30 p.m. match. Kreiner said he wasn't familiar with the opponents, but he figured they wouldn't be as strong.

Pethers Starts Last Cage Year

Clayton "Cap" Pethers, a former Mustang cage star, will start his final season of college basketball next Tuesday when he and team mates from Lawrence Tech take on long-time rival Detroit Tech. Pethers, a senior, was a high school sharpshooter, and last year he had a 20.3 per game point average at LIT.

Arraigned Here
Dalton Presley Craig, 431 North Center, was arraigned in Northville justice court by Judge Charles McDonald on counts of reckless driving and resisting arrest. Found guilty, he was fined $50 and $15 cost on the first charge and $5 and $5 cost on the second.

FIRST DEER — Dale Wolf-rom, 17, son of the Harley D. Wolfroms, of 358 East Main street, downed this 10-point, 168-pound buck with one shot through the shoulder to make a tremendous success of his first year of deer hunting. He bagged the prize deer at Hubbard Lake on the third day of the season.

Basketball League's To Close Thursday

Last chance for men who want to join a recreation basketball league will be tonight (Thursday) at the community building, says Ken Conley, director.

He added that all interested men and high school juniors or seniors who are not on a varsity or junior varsity team should be at the community building at 7:30 to sign up.

Regular adult recreation continues each Wednesday night, he said, from 7:30 to 10. He added that there are still Saturday morning gym activities for kids aged five through fourth graders from 8:30 to 10, and for upper elementary kids from 10 till noon.

Seventh through tenth graders who are not on a school team may join a basketball league being formed for Saturday afternoons, he said. The boys should be at the building by 1 p.m. this Saturday to register.

LET'S TALK CARS...

THE USED CAR GAMBLE

A reputable dealer of my acquaintance has an effective way of dispelling the doubts of his cautious used car customers. He does it by simply explaining his basic business principles:

"Neither of us can be absolutely sure at this moment that this car will perform as we believe it will," this dealer explains. "But the difference in buying from us is that we are here to make it right if it doesn't."

I know of no percentage figures on the subject, but it is a safe assumption that fully half of the used cars traded to dealers are in need of impending repairs of one kind or another. That is one of the fundamental reasons their owners decided to trade in their vehicles.

But even an expert appraiser can be fooled in evaluating a car's condition by faults just don't show up in a mechanical check or a ride around the block. They may show only when its new owner has put several hundred miles on it.

If the owner bought the car without regard to the dealer's reputation for integrity, that may be several hundred miles too late.

To take the gamble out of a used car bought from John Mach Ford we have five operating principles to protect you: we never knowingly misrepresent a car to be something it is not; we never retail taxi cabs or police cruisers unless specified; we never sell cars which have been in a major collision; all cars are plainly priced; the name and address of the former owner is available on request.

Mustang Five Wins Twice; Travels to Clarkston Friday

Mustang eagers, with a pair of wins last weekend, were earning praise as one of the best basketball teams Northville's had in some time. Some fans already rate them a good 10 points better than last year.

If the Mustangs did anything last week-end, they proved that coach Dave Longridge's method of playing control ball would work out just fine as long as the players stuck to it.

Against Brighton Friday night, the Mustangs had an easy time of it as they built up a greater and greater lead over the Bulldogs, ending the game 62-40.

The first quarter ended 17-8, and the score at half-time was 28-15. Coach Longridge's point was proved during the closing minutes of the first half. The score, with four minutes to go, was 23-9, and the Mustangs had been playing slow, deliberate ball, sinking most of their shots and not giving up the ball very often.

But during the four minutes before the half, the pace became much faster — the teams much sloppier. During those four minutes they lost the ball several times with bad passes, missed several rebounds and missed three-fourths of their shots.

Percentage figures tell the entire story here. During the first, third and fourth quarters, the Mustangs sank nearly 55 per cent of their field goal attempts, but in the second quarter their percentage dropped all the way down to 21.

They had obviously learned their lesson as they came back in the third quarter to very carefully build their lead up until the score stood 43-23 when the quarter ended.

The final quarter saw the Mustangs add another 19 points to their score, while Brighton added 17. The game ended 62-40. Scoring as well as defense suffered a little in the final period because Longridge emptied his bench to give second stringers a little experience.

Saturday night the Mustangs traveled to Plymouth, where they downed the Rocks 51-45. Deliberation again made the difference, as the Mustangs built up and protected a lead during the third and fourth quarters.

The two teams played quite evenly during the first half each scoring 12 points during the second quarter, while Plymouth held a slight edge from having scored 13 in the first period with Northville scoring only 11. Two things about the Plymouth game bolstered Northville fans' high estimations of the Mustangs. One was the smoothness with which they overcame Plymouth's all-court defensive press.

Against Brighton the night before the Northville squad had met defensive resistance only near their opponents' basket and Plymouth's all-court attack was quite a change.

The other aspect of the Plymouth game that made many fans happy was the strong finish the Mustangs presented, despite the fact that most of them had played better than three quarters the night before and were then going the full distance.

Many fans figured that if the Mustangs could hold up under an all-court defense with Plymouth substituting players regularly to keep fresh, they have enough stamina to keep up with even the fastest of fast-break teams.

This is what Longridge is hoping also. Friday night he takes his players to Clarkston, where they will have to play on a college-sized court.

With the extra 10 feet of length, and with Clarkston playing race-horse ball, he said, many teams could easily tire before the final buzzer sounded. He's hoping that the stamina demonstrated against Plymouth will out-weight these factors.

Also successful Friday night were the junior varsity Colts. They downed Brighton 38-36 in a three-minute overtime. Saturday night they received a sound drubbing as the Plymouth JV's ruined the Colts' weekend with a 49-18 win.

Mustang Matmen Bomb 'Bombers'

Northville's Mustang wrestlers played hosts to Willow Run last Thursday, winning their first meet 34-20. Coach Jack Kreiner said that the win wouldn't have been surprising under normal circumstances, because Willow Run has been without a wrestling team for a couple of years.

But he was quick to point out that the Mustangs have had a shorter practice session because of the longer football season. "Willow Run" was about as weak a team as we're likely to meet this season," he said, "but we were quite weak too, and we still dominated the meet."

He pointed out that the Mustangs won eight of 12 matches, and one loss was a forfeit, cost the team five points. Mustangs who won by pinning their opponents included Mike Brandenburg, 95 pound, Russ Nichols, 103 pound, Gary Nichols, 154 pound, Joe Hay, 165 pound and Dave Clark, 180 pound.

Those who won by decisions were Ron Rebitzke, 127 pound, Terry LaRue, 133 pound and Jerry Biddle, unlimited.

NICE SHOT! Mustang center Dan Brown (32) lays up one of seven field goals he combined with six free throws to score 20 points against Brighton last Friday night. Shorter Brighton players could only stand and watch the Mustangs build up their lead.

Juday's 'Booted' - Thinks It's Great

Steve Juday's getting the "boot," and he's not at all displeased about it. But then, who would be when the "boot" is the Thom McAn bronze shoe award, which represents his selection as Oakland county's most outstanding football player for the 1961 grid season.

The award, presented annually by the Pontiac Press, in conjunction with the Thom McAn Shoe company, entitles the flashy Mustang quarterback to compete for a $2,000 college scholarship. He will compete with Most-Valuable Players from across the country for the scholarship and the chance to attend any college or university of his choice.

The award itself will be Juday's right football shoe, mounted in bronze, with his name on a bronze plate. It will be displayed in the high school trophy case.

The award is symbolic of the fine record Juday built this season as he piloted the Mustangs to their third Wayne-Oakland league championship in four years. He completed 77 of 126 forward passes for 1,112 yards and a 61 per cent completion average. He set up seven Mustang touchdowns with passes and scored nine TD's on pass completions.

Juday also carried 65 times for a total of 403 yards. He ran for 14 TD's and two extra points.

Juday was one of the best defensive quarterbacks to play high school ball in a long time. He led the Mustangs in tackling, intercepted seven passes and recovered six fumbles. He also averaged 41 yards on his 12 punts for the season.

College Fetes Past Mustang Grid Figures

When the coach and 29 players of the Pella, Iowa Central College football team were honored last Friday night at their annual awards banquet, two former Northville high sports figures were among those feted.

Head coach at Central is former Mustang Coach Ron Schipper, who left Northville following the 1959-60 school year, after building a brilliant coaching record that included four league championships. He spent a year at Jackson high school before going to Central college.

The other Northville athlete is Dave Hay, who was a star halfback under Schipper. He starred this year as a freshman man grinder for Central college.

Township Proposes Plan Talks with City

Northville Township Supervisor George Clark asked and received Robert Merriam agreed that "we board permission Tuesday night to propose a series of joint meetings between city and township planning commissions."

His request brought some comments for restraint from fellow township board members, however.

Clark specifically requested permission to call a meeting with his township planning commission chairman and Northville's mayor, city manager and planning chairman. He proposed that the possibility of occasional joint sessions could be discussed at this meeting.

He told the board he thought there were mutual problems concerning the city and township where planners could help create better understanding and avoid possible conflicts in zoning, etc.

Trustee Alex Lawrence and Treasurer Roy Terrell said they would object to any discussion of matters that had not been approved by the board. Trustee Robert Merriam agreed that "we don't want to delegate any of our prerogatives to the planning board."

The question of whether the township should delete from its new swimming pool ordinance the provision requiring a yearly inspection went unsettled when board members could not agree.

Supervisor Clark and Clerk Marguerite Northup oppose the provision on the grounds that it is too costly and difficult to enforce. They favor one inspection of pools now in existence and of any new pool constructed in the township.

Township Attorney James La tell pointed out that this removed the "maintenance, operation and use" provisions from the ordinance, which he said are normally included in model ordinances.

Trustee Merriam took the positions that maintenance and operation of pools were proper concerns of the township board in protecting the health and welfare of residents.

The matter was referred to the planning commission for further study and recommendation.

In final business the board accepted the resignation of Luke Bathey from the recreation commission. Bathey was recently named to the new planning commission. Richard Kay was named to replace Bathey.

Board to See Island Slides

The Novi board of commerce will meet tonight (Thursday) in the Rosewood Restaurant, reminding Russ Button. He said the evening's program would include color slides of Walter Tuck's trip to Hawaii.

CHRISTMAS SEALS will be sold in Northville December 8 through 15 in booths stationed at the post office and bank. Mrs. O. F. Reng (above) is community campaign director for the annual TB and Health Society drive. According to Mrs. Reng, canisters will also be placed at local businesses for contributions.

Obituary

GRACE WAGNITZ

Grace Wagnitz, 83-year old Wixom resident, died Wednesday, November 29 in her home at 504 North Wixom road. Funeral services were held from Richardson-Bird Funeral home in Walled Lake Saturday with the Reverend Edmund Cacs, Jr., first Baptist Church of Wixom, officiating. Interment was at Woodmere cemetery, Detroit. Surviving Mrs. Wagnitz are: three sons, Fred, Wixom; Clarence, Alliance, Ohio; and Lawrence, Phoenix, Arizona; a daughter, Mrs. Christine Sparks, Flushing; 27 grandchildren and 42 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Fred. Mrs. Wagnitz, the daughter of Will and Amelia (Gaddum) Paggell, was born in Brighton December 23, 1877 and had lived in Wixom 41 years. She was a member of Wixom Baptist church.

Wife Leaves; He Attempts Suicide

A Northville man attempted to take his life early Monday morning by downing an overdose of aspirin, report police.

Lawrence Bogart, 335 Linden street, was rushed by ambulance to St. Mary hospital where his stomach was pumped. He was released the same day.

Police were summoned to the Bogart home by a telephone operator who said Bogart told her he had just taken a bottle of aspirin and was very sick. Patrolman Huston Butler found the man lying on the couch in the living room; an empty aspirin bottle and a second which had contained Empirin tablets were on the floor.

Two hours earlier, at about 2:35 a.m., Bogart had called police, telling them he wanted to talk to an officer. Patrolman Butler went to the home. Butler said Bogart told him he was despondent because his wife had left him and that he was contemplating suicide. He later said he was feeling better and would go to bed.

Later on Monday, Northville police were called to the high school to investigate a mishap in which Herman F. Reinbachel and his 14-year-old daughter, Susan, were injured.

Novi Library To Receive 1,000 Books

The Novi library will soon receive 1,000 books on loan from the state library, Librarian Mrs. Dorothy Paquette announced this week.

She said the books are loaned under the state's public library development plan. To get books, she said, the receiving library has to show improvement and development during the year.

She said she expected the books to be shipped from Lansing within two weeks. The library is open week days from 3 to 8 p.m. and on Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Dr. Mudd Replies

Two Can Save Long Marriage

Dear Dr. Mudd:

Please give me your views on a 20 year marriage that has been interrupted by a serious romance where divorce and marriage to another party was seriously considered.

What is expected by the party that faltered and of the person who was hurt by it? Can a marriage be rebuilt "for the sake of the children"? Can two people honestly work out such a problem? Will trust in each other and love (not just companionship) be found again? Please answer soon — divorce is just days away.

Answer:

You write of your difficulty as though one partner was independently responsible for the pain caused the other; both being attributed to an illicit love affair.

Perhaps the circumstances are as you present them, but it is much more likely that where a marriage has lasted for 20 years before being seriously threatened, both parties play a responsible role. On the one side it is the flagrantly obvious — on the other I cannot say, but must presume an attitude, a way of being, a manner of loving, so subtly disrupting that neither partner can properly define or discuss it.

I am talking about the unconscious motives which direct all of our lives without our being the least aware of their presence save when some embarrassing slip of the tongue or obvious forgetfulness makes it apparent that we do not have the freedom to make choices we wish we did.

I think such a problem is potentially solvable and in my experience, most successfully, if hurt and blame and accusation can be forewarned in favor of comprehension, consideration, and curiosity about the motives of both partners.

Children are the heaven of a marriage and have more than once brought a contentment where, without them, a relationship would have been disastrously unhappy.

You ask whether "love will be found again" and I wonder if it has really been lost at all? An indifferent person would not have written to me and a hating one would hardly care either.

It takes a great deal of tenderness to make a marriage and when this is cloaked in a protective toughness, very little, even such respect-destroying events as you have experienced, can disrupt the love bonds established over the years.

There, of course, remains the possibility that a serious psychiatric disorder, particularly a depression, may be present but unsuspected.

It would be wise, in my opinion, to ask your family physician to recommend a psychiatrist so that the situation could be professionally evaluated.

Sincerely yours,

Sander Mudd, M.D.

Not Stopping Brings Fine

A State Police ticket for failing to stop and identify himself after hitting a parked car on the I-96 expressway resulted in $10 fine, six month's probation and prohibition of her driving privileges for Marion Ursula Sexton, 30, of 1606 Paramount, Walled Lake.

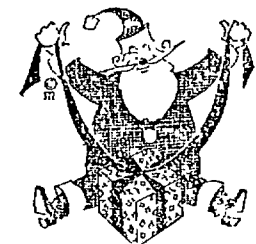

Novi Justice of the Peace Robert K. Anderson also ordered her to make restitution for the damages to the parked car.

Justice Anderson also assessed James C. Farmer, 18, of Detroit, $25 in fines and court costs after he pleaded guilty to a charge of drinking on the highway.

A Michigan Public Services Commission citation for not having an MPSC card and plate or a travel order in lieu of a mileage book brought the Brada Cartage company of Detroit a $30 charge in fines and court costs.

STRICKEN—Lewis D. Cruse, 44000 West Nine Mile road, was reported "resting comfortably" at Henry Ford hospital where he was taken following a heart attack Monday evening. Mr. Cruse is a former vice president of the Ford Motor company. Since his retirement five years ago he has devoted a great deal of his time to managing his ranch near Chubbuck. He also became interested in Novi planning problems and helped organize a citizens planning committee two years ago.

Sunset Scouts Plan 2-Day January Event

All of the Sunset district's scouts and scouters are looking forward to the dates of January 27-28, 1962 which have been set up for the Northern Lights Events, as this year's winter events will be known.

A general activities committee meeting, under the chairmanship of Sam Prisk, was held at the Western Wayne Conservation Club to discuss the affair.

Several subcommittees were formed to take care of the details of these activities and work is in progress to assure all and sundry of a purposeful and profitable experience in this combined overnight and afternoon series of scouting adventures.

"It is hoped that this be considered the forward needed to alert all scouts, leaders and parents to this grand opportunity for progress in the year around activities that make Boy Scouting one of the finest programs possible for the enrichment of our youthful citizens of tomorrow," Harold H. Schryer, assistant District Commissioner, stated.

SAYS GOOD-BYE — Harry Sommers (left), of 46011 Nine Mile road, was one of six retirees from Kensington park near Milford to be honored at a retirement banquet last Saturday. The banquet was sponsored by employees of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, and was held in Livonia. Sommers, who will retire as of December 31, has been employed since May, 1950 on the construction crew. He receives good wishes from David O. Laidlaw, park superintendent. Sommers was a rural mail carrier before he joined the park crew.

"Huge Success" for Garden Clubs

Christmas Market's a Crowd Pleaser

This setting marked the entrance to the Christmas Market sponsored by 15 area Farm and Garden branches at the community center Saturday.

Northville Garden club, the hostess branch, served luncheon throughout the afternoon.

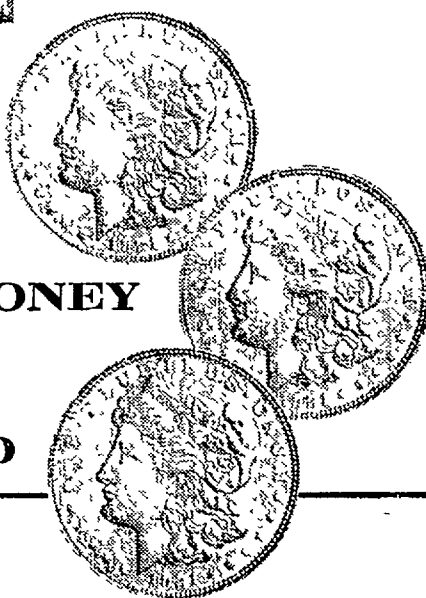

Shoppers were treated to a host of festive Christmas decorations. Ready-made items ran the gamut from door swags to stocking fillers. To help the do-it-yourself buffs, kits were sold by some branches and demonstrations were staged before crowds of eager onlookers. The whole affair was called a huge success by Mrs. D. Hurd Clark, Northville branch president, who made local arrangements with the assistance of Mrs. R. J. Wright, Mrs. E. O. Whittington and Mrs. George Kohls.

New 'Good Time' Store Is Spacious, Colorful

When Charles Munn, Jr. operated his Center Street Grocery on North Center street, he often wished that he had more space for display and storage, as well as parking for customers.

Friday he's celebrating the grand opening of his new "Good Time Party Store" on the Seven Mile road cut off address, in the Bel-Nor Drive-in. Naturally, it's spacious — and colorful, too.

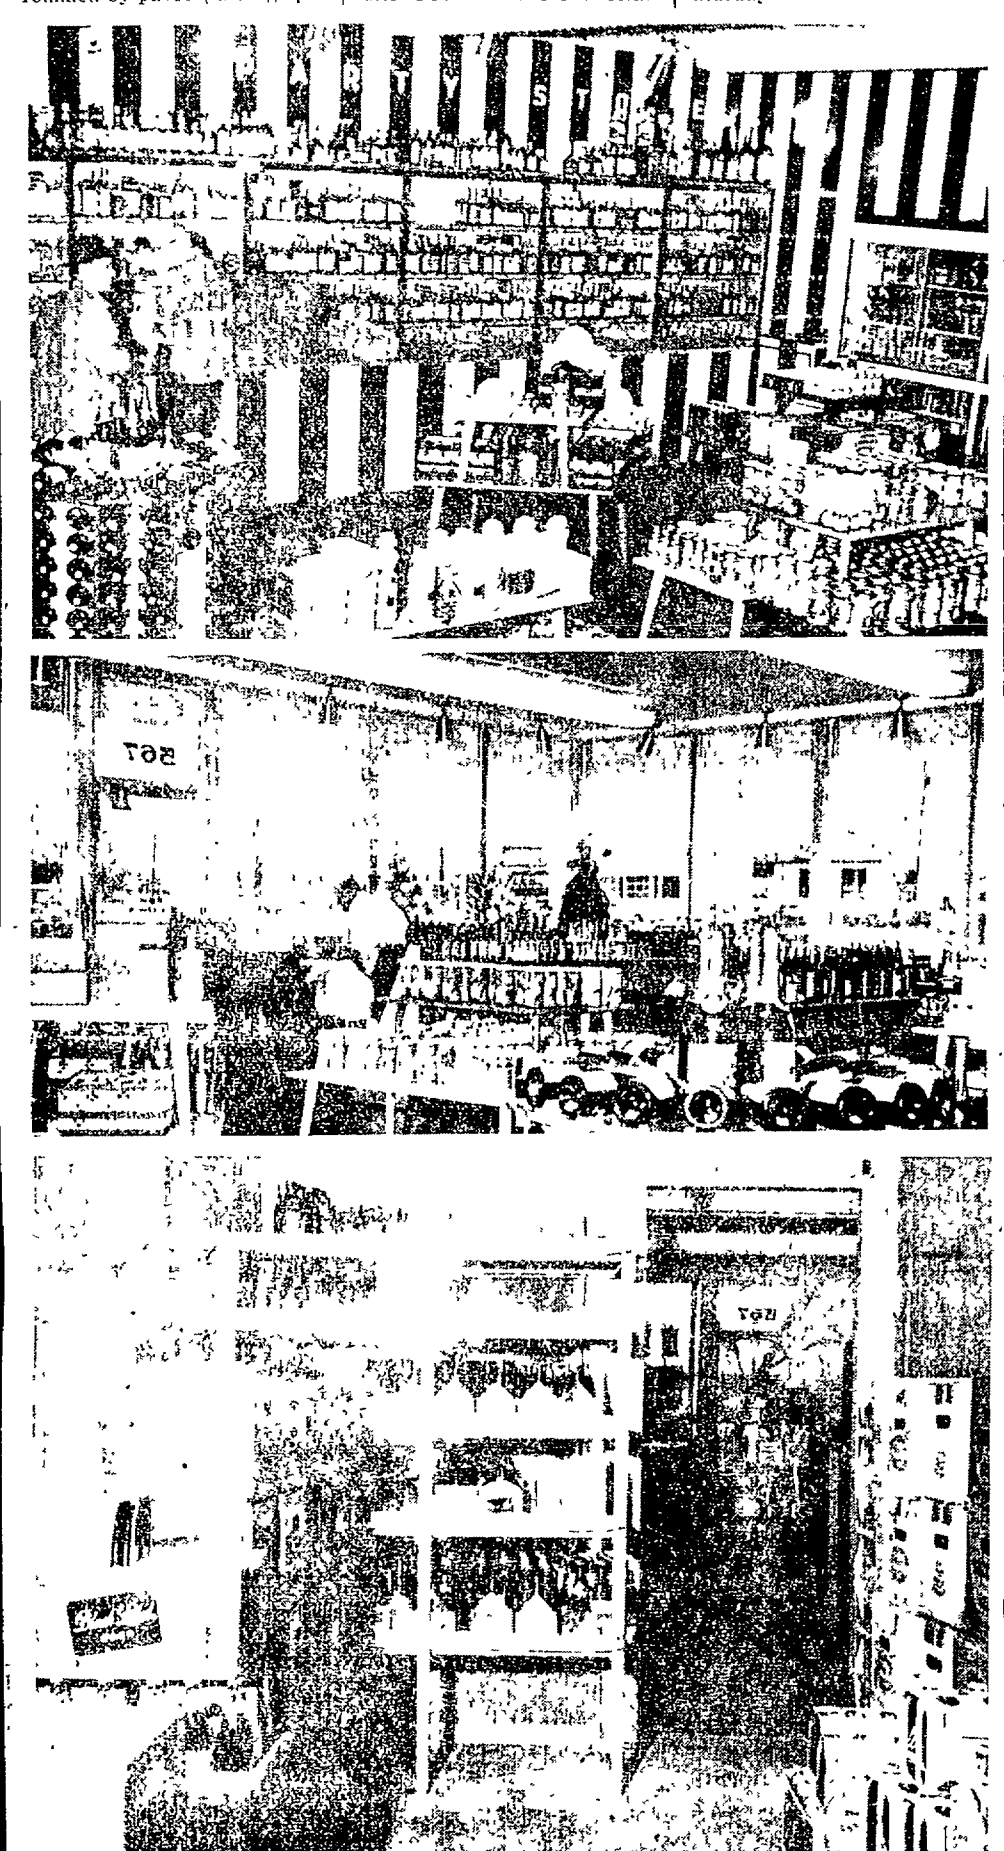

The building itself is surrounded by paved parking space. The exterior is colonial style and white highlighted by the store's trade mark — a clock in the middle of the name. "Good Time Party Store".

The interior walls are green and white stripes contrasted by a variety of colorful display tables. The clerks even get into the color act with green spot coats.

Ceiling flood lights further enhance the interior displays while FM music from central speakers provide the "party" mood.

The store's display area is shown in the two top photos below, while the bottom picture was taken in the walk-in refrigeration room directly behind the sales counter. This room divides two large storage rooms which extend half the length of the building.

The grand opening celebration will be held Friday and Saturday.

Superb craftsmanship

From the standpoint of fine craftsmanship, Cadillac enjoys a position unique in the industry. First of all, Cadillacs are built in one plant by craftsmen who share their skills with no other car... who know only Cadillac's high standard of quality. Secondly, the average Cadillac craftsman has been working to these high standards for more than a decade. And finally, all these skills are checked by more than 1400 separate inspections. A revelation drive at your authorized dealer will give you the story of Cadillac craftsmanship first hand.

ing officers were elected: chairman, Leon Dochot; vice chairman, Robert Curtis; treasurer, Herbert Koester and secretary, Eugene Choquet.

NOVI P.T.A.

The Novi P.T.A. will present a Christmas Cantata by the O.E. Dunckle Junior choir of 100 voices, directed by Edward Ellegood, Tuesday, December 12 at 7:30 p.m. at the Orcha Hills School. They will also have community singing and refreshments. Families are invited to attend.

Explorers Pos' No. 119

The Explorers had an officers meeting at the home of M. Kriedeman Monday evening, December 4. The regular monthly meeting was held December 5 in the Community building. After a business meeting a movie on Canada was shown.

Boy Scout Troop No. 54

The boys met last Wednesday and by secret ballot elected their patrol leaders: Warner patrol, Dave Swisak leader; Apache patrol, Bob La Ford leader; Otter patrol, Len Quinton and Senior patrol, John Tymensky, Scout master, assistant leader, Herb Harbin.

On Saturday 12 of the 18 Boy Scouts took their Wilderness Trail Polar Bear hike with three adult helpers. They hiked 11 miles in four hours. After the hike they worked on their three problems; compass estimating, height and distance estimating. They will be notified by mail of the results of the tests.

Novi Girl Scouts

Brownie Troop girls are making Christmas gifts for their mothers and fathers. Pat Ritchie brought treats.

Intermediate troop No. 1022 is working on service projects for Goodfellows. One patrol is repairing toys and the other patrol is making presents.

Brownie Troop No. 402 elected officers at a recent meeting. Jo Ellen Steinberger is president, Denise Hanson, vice president, Barb White, treasurer. They planned their Christmas projects and are working on convalescent home project. The three new girls are Alana Padgen, Shirley Husted, and Debba Gardner.

READERS SPEAK:

Two Answer Herb Koester

TO THE EDITOR:

We were interested and a little amused at Mr. Koester's answer to our letter in last week's Novi News. It seems Mr. Koester doesn't have much to say when we get down to facts.

We feel obligated to answer his letter since someone may believe his distortion of the facts if we don't.

Yes A village MAY under Public Act 278 of 1909 adopt a 20 mill limit if it wishes but we were talking about THE village of Novi in our letter of November 21 and, as Mr. Koester well knows, the tax rate is limited to 5 mills in Section 9.1 of the village charter, and that is all any council can spread.

If we were to become a Charter Township we would automatically have a 10 mill limit and we would have to depend on the members of the board personally to hold it below that limit.

If Mr. Koester wants a higher tax rate, and that is all a Charter Township does, he might better work for a higher millage in a new City Charter and get protection from annexations to boot.

Signed, Russ Bultor

TO THE EDITOR:

If Mr. Herbert Koester, in his criticism of what Mr. Bultor said (Mr. Bultor's letter to the editor of November 23, 1961) about the Village millage would state all the facts instead of half truths, there wouldn't be so much discussion in Novi.

The Village Council at the present time (according to the Village Charter) can assess 5 on, 15 5 mills. An increase of 1 millage would require a three-fourth vote of the people voting in an election.

I say that if a Charter Township can assess 10 mill, this is twice what the village can raise, and I agree with Mr. Bultor.

Signed Dean H. Luhnheiser

True Messengers of God

The true messenger of God does not speak to the natural mind or intellect of man but to the spiritual mind or understanding. Jesus was like that. That is the reason
He said always in connection with those words He uttered, "Let those who have ears to hear, hear."

He did not desire to convince His hearers in their natural intellect alone for by so doing He would only build them up in the Pride of the workings of their own minds, but He desired to bring their souls and spirits to the light of God that their deeds in that realm of life might be made manifest. That is the reason He said that the words He spoke were spirit and life. They were not intended for the natural mind or intellect but for the spiritual understanding hid away in the soul.

Many good people do not understand what we are writing now because they have never been awakened to the realization of the difference between the workings of the natural mind and the life of spiritual understanding. This is the darkness that has Christ's second appearing without sin unto salvation is destined to dispel.

It is this darkness of understanding that has caused people all over the world to use the life of God that has been so freely given to build Babylon rather than the Kingdom of God. Every man's way—or understanding, or language has seemed so right in his own eyes that like natural Israel of old he crucifies the light of God on the cross of his own understanding.

Are you awakened now to see the Pride of the workings of your own mind, how you have insisted on chan-geling the life and power of God down the canal of your own understanding rather than to allow God to direct
His own work.

We were in a meeting recently where those in charge declared that the spirit of death was in the service simply because God was making effort to direct His work into a deeper realm than that to which they were accustomed.

It is sad but nevertheless true that most of God's people today seem to operate in a realm where they are in control rather than in that deeper realm where God actually directs.

If the spirit of the meeting becomes different from that which they desire, they immediately begin to make effort to rectify the condition. That is the reason that almost universally all over Christendom today you know what to expect when you at-end a religious service. It is the form of death! It is a salvation controlled and channeled by the mind of man. It is Babylon—confusion, for every man's way—language, understanding seems right in his own eyes.

KEYS TO UNDERSTANDING

Suppose you were given keys that would unlock the mysteries of the universe. With them, you could answer the "whys" that plague all of us. You'd know what was going to happen to you and those around you tomorrow—next month—next year.

Would you use them?

Of course, you say! Think again. And, once you've thought, you might shake your head, hand them back, and say, "No thank you."

Common sense tells us that man was not meant to understand every mystery of life. The reasons "why" remain as they are because our Creator in His wisdom thoroughly knows just how much man can both stand and understand.

God has a greater gift for you than these, or any other keys... the gift of Faith. You will find it by going to church regularly.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Robert A. Warnke, son of Elvert R. Warnke of 30 Hillcrest road completed recruit training, November 17 at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Illinois.

The nine-week training program includes extensive schooling in such subjects as seamanship, ordnance and gunnery, damage control and military customs and courtesies.

Throughout the training, experienced counselors work with each man to help select one of the Navy's 67 career fields on the basis of classification tests, aptitude and personal performance.

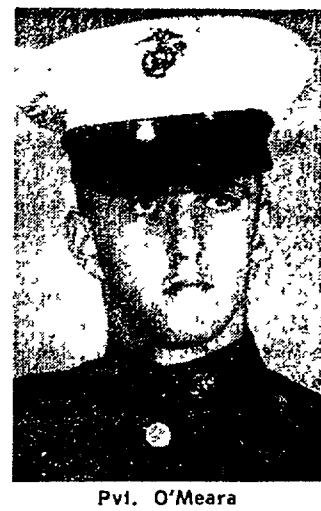

Marine Pvt. William D. O'Meara, son of Mrs. Mary D. O'Meara of 228 Linden, completed recruit training, November 8 at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, California.

The 11-week training program included physical conditioning, history and mission of the Marine Corps, military cusoms and courtesies, hygiene and sanitation and other basic military subjects.

Intense study and practice is devoted to the M-1 rifle, the Browning automatic rifle and the .45 caliber pistol.

Upon completion of recruit training at San Diego, new leathernecks report to Camp Pendleton, California, for combat infantry training prior to being assigned to the Fleet Marine Force or attending a service school for specialized instruction.

SPEAKING for the Record

by Bill Sliger

Last week Ray Doeksen and Dick Stamann uncovered a lost page in Northville history while helping Recreation Director Ken Conley clean out the scout building.

As most residents know, the scout building has been sold by the city to Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit and will soon be torn down to make way for a drive-in bank facility.

After helping to move out a variety of recreation equipment, the boys wandered into the attic.

There they uncovered seven Northville township books — one of which contains the first official records of the township when it was formed, April 4, 1836.

The other books include the assessment rolls for 1919, 1920, 1923-24 and 25 and a clerk's account book.

The books notified the Supervisor of the discovery and plan to turn the records over to the township.

The first officers of the township as listed in the initial minutes were: Charles A. Sessions, supervisor; Frank S. Harmon, clerk; S. W. Knapp, treasurer; Cassius R. Benton, highway commissioner; Charles C. Chadwick, Charles L. Dubur, school inspectors; Will G. Yerkes and Francis G. Terrill, board of review; James K. Lowden, Hiram B. Thayer, Frank H. Johnson and Clarence L. Brigham, justices; Frank N. Peirin, Horace Green, John C. Buchner and Loren Haynor, constables.

Appointed to act as commissioners in the formation of the township were Charles Booth, S. W. Carrington, Dean F. Griswold and B. A. Wheeler. S. E. Cranson and W. L. Tinkham were appointed clerks of the election.

Northville township was formed as the result of a split with Plymouth township.

A total of $1650 was appropriated for "township running expenses" the first year. Each year the budget was divided into three funds — "contingent", "Road and Bridge" and "Poor". In 1839 the budget totaled $1100 and in 1900, $1400.

In addition to the proceedings of the meetings, the book records chattel mortgages and contains a "record of estrays" — the certification that stray animals have wandered into a farmer's property. If the animal was claimed, it is so noted.

How the books found their way into the scout building is a mystery. But Supervisor Clark is glad that they have been found. "They're a valuable part of our history that we thought had been lost forever," he told the boys.

For oldtimers, and others interested in local history, the books should prove to be highly interesting.

If arrangements can be made, it would seem desirable to display these records in the public library for at least a month before depositing them in the township safe.

Ever notice how a youngster about first grade age looks with awe at the school principal?

For American Principal Dick Kay it seems that even the sound of his voice carries this same attention-caught magic.

One of his teachers reported recently that when Kay's voice came over the classroom loudspeaker the children stopped their activities and either came to attention, saluted or placed their hands over their hearts, as though pledging allegiance.

Wonder if his voice has the same influence at home?

Advertising Sells

Babson Park, Mass., Through-out the course of the business recovery thus far, I have heard complaints from many areas that retail trade has not lived up to expectations. This is not to say that the dollar volume of retail sales has fallen off, as my studies show a slight upward trend in the seasonal adjusted sales curve.

However, considering the rapid rise in incomes, merchants are disappointed that retail trade has not registered a larger increase.

My studies indicate that periods of prosperity are generally powered by increases in business expenditures for new plant and equipment.

In like manner, this is true also of advertising.

Well-thought out and forceful advertising campaigns can channel consumer interest to specific products, as well as increase the desire and impatience to buy generally.

Advertising can accomplish most of the selling job before the consumer even goes to the store. Agencies hammer away at creating the desire for the products or services they advertise, utilizing the appeal of basic need, social prestige, physical attraction, etc. Here, then, is the basic power of general business.

Advertising represents a communication of ideas — from the seller to the buyer. Therefore, it is natural that advertising has followed the evolution of mass communication — from newspapers, to radio, to television.

Even the increased dependence of our population upon automobiles has had an effect upon advertising. Ads printed on cards and posted inside streetcars and buses were once an important form of promotion. Today, considerably fewer people use public transportation; hence, with fewer readers inside the streetcars and buses, the ads are now being placed or painted on the outside of the vehicles, where they are on open display to pedestrians and riders in private cars. Moreover, outdoor billboards are receiving increased emphasis to attract the attention of automobile drivers and riders.

Changes in consumer shopping habits also should create certain changes in advertising. The development of chain stores, supermarkets, and shopping centers radically affects consumer spending and shopping patterns. The trend toward self-service in retailing makes it highly important to have consumers pre-sold at home, since the smaller sales forces in such stores cannot sell effectively.

In total, business advertising expenditures continue to trend upward. My studies reveal, however, that for more than a year there has been a slowing down in certain phases of advertising. Except for television, most media in recent months have recorded declines from a year ago.

In prosperous periods, rising sales and profits permit businessmen to allocate larger sums to their advertising budgets.

When business drops off, they tend to reduce advertising efforts as a part of their economy programs. This is a great mistake.

There should be more advertising when business is depressed and when competition is keenest.

This is necessary to stimulate buying interest and demand at a time when business most needs a helping hand. On the other hand, during periods of brisk business and buying impatience, there could be a slackening off in advertising pressure in order to build up funds for the next lag in buying interest.

In this way, advertising can be a great stabilizer of business and economic conditions, and it can go far toward helping to eliminate periods of reckless booms and racking depressions.

Let me say one more thing. I believe advertising offers good opportunities to young people. Rapidly growing suburban and "community" newspapers may be good employment sources for young folk interested in advertising, and having patience and genuine interest.

These publications require advertising which ties in with local interests to the benefit of the community's businesses and its consumers.

Debt Management Viewed

Installment buying and "charge it" plans have grown in popularity with increasing speed in recent years.

Like many mushrooming facets of America's economy, the buy-now, pay-later plans have led to many problems for the customer, probably the greatest of which is staying within a budgeted income.

With the growth in the use of credit purchasing, a large number of Americans have found themselves over their heads in debt. Others, classed as opportunists or enterprising businessmen depending on how you look at it, found this a chance to help themselves while managing other people's affairs.

"Debt management" came into the vocabulary only a few years ago. It means the planning and management of the financial affairs of a debtor for a fee.

A wage earner who has a lot of creditors hounding him for payment and threatening repossession, garnishment or worse, may hire a debt management firm to work out a compromise with the creditors, for a percentage fee.

Experience in Michigan indicated some of the debt management firms which are nearly overnight were abusing the purpose of their existence.

Commissioner Raymond F. Clevenger said reports indicated some "unscrupulous operators" entered the field.

"It is said that in some cases money (lured in to the manager) is not passed on to creditors; that there are exorbitant forfeiture penalties when management plans are dropped; and dishonest advertising and other abuses," said Clevenger.

Before the 1961 session of the legislature, the wage earner had only his own resources to rely on to correct any abuses.

Most individuals who found themselves the victims of unreliable debt management programs had enough problems without adding this, lawmakers thought.

The more ethical segments of the debt management industry were also anxious that a policing job be done to get rid of the undesirable practices.

This year, Michigan became one of the few states which regulates the business of debt management by license.

"The new law provides that a debt management licensee must show financial responsibility, experience, character and general fitness to warrant belief that the business will be operated fairly and honestly," Clevenger said.

Insurance or payment relays is provided in the law through a requirement that licensees keep a separate bank account for the benefit of creditors and a 15-day time limit is imposed on the remission of funds to creditors.

Legislative apportionment, a possible Achilles' heel for Michigan's Constitutional Convention, may not be as tough a problem as it has been considered.

A plan presented to a con-con committee during its early sessions apparently has gained bipartisan support outside the convention hall.

The proposal was first voiced some years ago by former Democratic State Chairman Neil Staebler. It was presented to the Con-Con committee by present Republican Chairman George Van Pelt.

It called for a skeleton of State Senate apportionment with an automatic revision clause for each 10-year census. This seemed to fit what authorities say should be in a state's constitution: just framework. The plan called for a 35-

LIVELINESS AND LUXURY AT A LOW, LOW PRICE

NEW CHEVY II

Never before such a team of totally new cars! Sedans, hardtop, station wagons, even a convertible... you name it, Chevy II has it. Nine models in all now in production. What are they like? Well, imagine all the solid virtues you've always counted on from Chevrolet... the steadfast dependability, the dyed-in-the-wool comfort... all dressed up in a new just-right size and built a modern new way. That's Chevy II. It's easy on the eyes, easy on the road and easy on your pocketbook. It's ultra-easy to service and maintain. Front enders, for instance, bolt on and off for easy repairs. Two spunky engines, a four and a six (your choice in most models), purr along merrily on regular gas—and darn little of it, too. Thanks to new Mono-Plate rear springs, the ride reminds you of the top Chevrolet—and you know how smooth that is. The space inside for people and things puts you in mind of big cars, too. So does the cushy comfort. But Chevy II parts company from anything else around when it comes to offering all these fine features—at a sensible low price. Fact is, luxury and low price have never been blended so beautifully. Check your Chevrolet dealer and see for yourself.

CHEVY II 300 4-DOOR 3-SEAT WAGON.
Packs a whopping 76.2 cu. ft. of cargo.

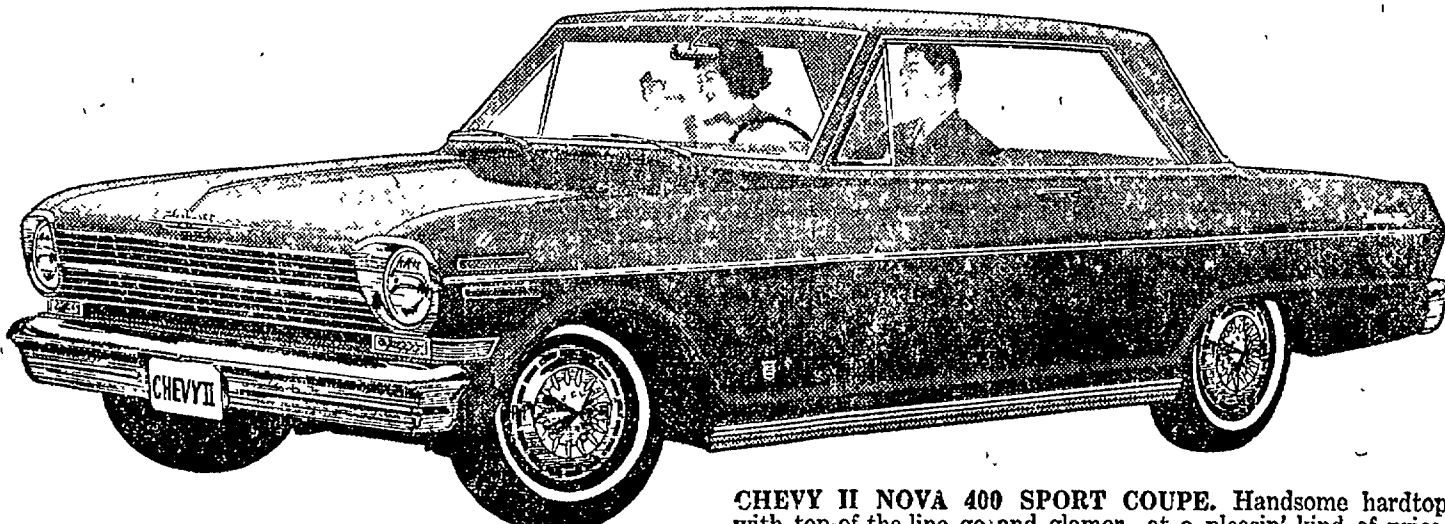

CHEVY II NOVA 400 CONVERTIBLE.
It's Chevrolet's lowest priced convertible.

CHEVY II 300 4-DOOR SEDAN. Neat and practical 6-passenger family model.

Now... look 'em over and try one out!
