

Says Roger Babson

No War, Better Business, Higher Taxes Next Year

1. I am hopeful for 1962; it should be a better year for my readers than 1961. Industrial production will exceed that of 1961.

2. There will be neither a nuclear war nor total disarmament in 1962. Considerable progress may be made toward a ban on atomic weapons.

3. Some thirty stocks may reach an average of 1000 during 1962, although these will not necessarily be the thirty Dow Jones stocks.

4. Retail trade will make new records during 1962. Increased newspaper advertising, especially in colors, will be a great boon to merchandising.

5. Commodity prices will act erratically during 1962. Agricultural prices will be held up by legislation, but many metals will sell for less.

6. The official cost-of-living figure will rise slightly in 1962, but there may be a scandal in Washington over how this figure is calculated or adjusted. The real increase in the cost-of-living will be due to increased wages demanded.

7. The only certain shortages during 1962 will be in land suitable for parking spaces and waterfront property readily accessible to building lots; also for automobile "graveyards" near cities which have been zoned.

8. The building of shelters will look silly before the end of 1962. Certainly the Federal Government will not underwrite the building of private shelters for individual families.

9. Good real estate must rise in price as the population increases. Elementary mathematics determines the price of suburban real estate. This is notwithstanding the claim of the "space companies" which are said to be interested in selling rights on the moon. There probably are crazier speculations.

10. While the land on which your house now stands should increase in value during 1962, the building itself depreciates from the moment when it is first occupied. A possible exception would be certain very attractive ranch houses painted in color.

11. Automobile production will be the most important statistical indicator during 1962. This applies to both the number of automobiles and their sales value. We now have no reliable figures for the latter.

12. We will gradually approach an average of two cars for every family. The life of automobiles should gradually increase. The percentage of automobiles annually destroyed will decrease in 1962.

13. Automobiles and gasoline will be, increasingly, sources for raising money by taxation. These means will be extended to include an additional assessment on the manufacturers of automobiles.

14. Taxes, as a whole, will continue to increase in 1962 for every family. Business net taxes, however, will decrease in 1962, through the granting of depreciation refunds which can be done by Executive order. The manufacturer may greatly increase his deductions for past investments and new machinery, plant, and equipment. Douglas Dillon feels that such tax reductions will increase the purchase of new equipment, develop greater efficiency, and result in a net improvement in the employment situation. This is good news for 1962.

15. Speculation in real estate and securities will be active during 1962; but good children will gradually be recognized as the best investment. Young people will be married earlier and will want to have large families.

16. Public education will gradually be reorganized during the years ahead. Schoolhouses will be built as places to "park the kids" while the parents are at work. New schoolhouses will be built so as not to be over one story high, with lots of sunshine.

17. Owing to the lack of airport facilities and to inadequate equipment, there will be increasing airplane accidents during 1962.

18. With all the above changes, plus increased public improvements and longer vacation periods, families must save somehow and cut somewhere. I think it will begin in 1962 with clothing. This will gradually become cheaper and more attention will be paid to color.

19. The time is approaching (Continued on Page 8)

LICK(ETY) SPLIT — Donations of literally thousands of trading stamps provided Northville State hospital with this brand new school bus for Christmas. Hospital Superintendent Philip Brown holds the keys to the new 16-passenger bus, which was presented to him Monday by the Hawthorn-Northville chapter of the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children, through the chapter's efforts in collecting 1,918 books of trading stamps. He said he was amazed at the quickness with which the organization was able to collect the stamps — they started their campaign in October. The bus will be used to transport children housed in the state hospital to nearby Hawthorn Center for certain classes. (See story, page 3).

It's Nearly Time For 1st Baby Race

The storks are on the starting line and the sixth annual "First Baby Contest" is about to begin.

To the winner — First Baby of 1962 — will go nine gifts from local merchants.

The rules are simple. There's absolutely nothing to buy. All you have to do to qualify is to be a resident of the area and have a Northville or Novi mailing address.

It's also necessary, of course, that your newly born baby is the first born in 1962 and that you report the birth to this newspaper not later than January 5. (See page one, section two for complete details).

Jaycees to Direct March of Dimes

The annual March of Dimes campaign to fight polio, birth defects and arthritis will get underway in Northville — and across the nation — next Tuesday.

As usual, the month-long drive will culminate January 30 with the traditional "Mothers March".

The Northville Junior Chamber of Commerce has accepted the responsibility of general chairmanship for the local campaign. Jaycee President Walter Ribant announced that William Bingley had been named to head the program for the Jaycees.

City on Lookout For Bad Corners

Traffic safety and parking have become major problems of concern in the city of Northville and last week prompted councilmembers to call for a general intersection survey to pinpoint hazardous corners.

The action came about after a series of recommendations for removal of parking places on city streets were presented to the council by the city manager and police chief.

Last week the council approved removal of two parking places on the east side of South Center on the steep grade between Main and the parking alley exit.

A request for removal of parking on the north side of Main street between Griswold and the A & P parking lot was tabled for further study. In recent weeks the council has approved removal of more than a half-dozen street parking places as traffic from new supermarkets and new patterns set by the two-year-old Eight Mile road cut-off point up potential danger areas.

Several citizens and councilmembers cited numerous intersection hazards, particularly signs, trees, poles and bushes, that block motorists' view as they attempt to turn corners.

Mayor A. M. Allen instructed City Manager Bruce Potthoff to conduct a survey of all intersection hazards and submit a written report to the council.

It was further pointed out by Mayor Allen that a traffic survey dealing generally with the northern section of the city was currently being conducted under the chairmanship of John Stubbenvoll. "But their findings may set new patterns for the entire flow of traffic through the city", Mayor Allen pointed out.

Although more off-street parking is available in Northville than ever before the past Christmas season proved to many

But Name's Not the Same

Santa's An International Hit!

Jultomee, Weihnachtsmann, St. Niklaus, Santa Claus. While the names may sound strange — except for the last one — they all refer to basically the same fellow: a crimson clad, roly-poly, silver thatched, bushy bearded giver of gifts.

We know him as Santa Claus, and he's an international celebrity, as big a hit with the younger set in Sweden, Germany and Mexico as he is with children in the United States, agree four exchange students celebrating their first American Christmas with foster families in Northville.

Three of the students, Amelie Sigfridson, Manfred Bartelt and Klaus Borkman, took time out from their classes at Northville high school to talk about Christmas customs in their European homes.

An interpreter, high school Spanish teacher Charles Yahnke, came to the rescue when your English-speaking reporter went to interview Bill Gonzalez about Christmas festivities in his hometown of Huayacocotla, Mexico. Bill has studied textbook English, but has only been speaking the language since his arrival here last month. And girl reporter's Spanish vocabulary is exhausted beyond "buenos dias". So Bill wrote out his thoughts in Spanish and Yahnke supplied the translation.

In Sweden Jultomee, or Santa Claus, comes laden with gifts to family celebrations on Christmas Eve, says Amelie, foster daughter of the L. E. Frounfelters.

"The whole family — grandmother, cousins, everyone — comes to exchange gifts, sing carols and dance around the Christmas tree.

"We go to church sometime in the afternoon and come home for a big meal. A special white and fluffy fish is served for the occasion. I don't like it at all."

There's also ham — big enough to last the whole season — and a special rice pudding. It's customary, explains Amy, to add one almond to the batch of rice pudding. "The one who gets the almond is supposed to get married within the next year. But I don't believe it," adds Amy sceptically. "I got the almond one year. The next morning, Christmas Day, some Swedish families rise at five or six to go to church. This is typical in the country, says Amy, where they have to ride long distances by sleigh over snow-covered roads to get there.

Sweden's Christmas preparations actually begin in late November with the first Sunday in Advent. A special brass candlestick that holds four candles is taken out, and another candle is lighted each Sunday in the church season.

"Gay holiday decorations appear in stores and along the streets, recalls Amy, "although homes are not decorated until one or two days before Christmas Eve."

"We don't take our tree down until January 13, the twentieth day of Christmas. And then some people have a party to dance the tree out and finish the special cookies and foods that have been made for Christmas."

A national holiday that falls during the Christmas season is Lucia day, celebrated on December 13.

Legend describes Lucia as a kindly saint who gave food to the poor. Schools, offices, hospital and towns select Lucia girls who dress up in long white robes and red sashes and wear a crown of leaves topped with tall candles to represent Lucia's symbolic meaning of light in time of darkness. In homes the eldest daughter is usually Lucia.

The day has been commercialized and become much of a beauty contest in towns and schools," adds Amy, "but not in the home."

Amy feels Christmas wouldn't be complete without traditional straw ornaments and centerpieces. Some say the use of straw is a carry-over from the days when some persons slept on straw covered floors so the dead, who were thought to return, could sleep in the more comfortable beds. A later religious explanation says persons slept on the floor as a tribute to the Christ Child's humble manger.

Even though the harsh glow of commercialism has dulled some of Germany's most treasured Christmas customs, the holiday remains a time for religious reflection and family merry making.

Manfred, whose foster parents are the George Weisses, and Klaus, who is living at the home of Miss Elizabeth Beard, compared notes on Christmas in Lubeck and Berlin.

Always remembered, they say, are the Tannenbaum, St. Niklaus and Weihnachtsmann — the Christmas Man.

St. Niklaus's gifts of fruit, nuts and candy on December 6 are a preview to the Christmas Man's exciting visit on December 24.

Children polish their shoes and leave them outside the door of their rooms, hoping St. Niklaus will remember them.

Christmas Eve morning is cloaked in secrecy, say Klaus and Manfred. In the early evening one of the adults whisks the children off to church, leaving the parents to take gifts from their hiding places and to trim the tree with white candles and silver decorations.

When the children come home, they must wait in a room — their excitement swelling as the seconds tick off — until the bells are rung to summon them. The sight they finally behold is a darkened room aglow with the dancing lights of the Christmas tree candles, the Weihnachtsmann standing beside it.

The Christmas Man, recalls Klaus, is armed with a gift-filled sack and a broom. "Parents tell him of the children's little crimes, and he frightens them to educate them a little bit."

Supposedly the bad children get a mild beating with the broom while the good ones get the presents. However, wrong can be righted if the youngster recites a poem or sings a song and promises to behave next year.

For the holiday meal, the family sits down to a spread of roast duck or goose and all the traditional trimmings.

Manfred's family celebrates each Sunday in Advent with a family gathering.

"We turn off the lights, with only the Advent candles giving light, and sing songs."

Germans, by custom, do not sing Christmas carols before Christmas, nor do they play records of Christmas music. They sing them or play them on instruments, says Manfred.

Gul Klapp is a popular holiday game at the Bartel's. Members of the family poke fun at one another in notes from anonymous senders. These notes are wrapped in a maze of packages inside of packages.

Christmas Eve festivities are solely for the family, point out Klaus and Manfred. Christmas Day and the day after are times for renewing friendships and visiting relatives.

In Mexico, the festival of the Nativity begins December 16 with "las posadas", the processions, which are repeated each evening until December 24 when families in Bill Gonzalez's town gather at the church to celebrate the birth of Christ at Midnight mass.

Bill, who is living with the John McGuire's, watches the children break open gift-filled "pinatas" and helps his family decorate the Christmas tree.

"Playthings are given to the children in the name of Santa Claus and families have dinner together before going to church."

First Baby of 1961 was Tamara Ann Macdonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ian Macdonald of 4340 Cottisford. A premature baby, Tamara Ann was a tiny three pounds, 15 ounces at birth. She was born at 3:38 a.m. January 2.

Starting in 1957 the "first" First Baby was Ruth Ann Edgin, born at 8:30 a.m. January 1 to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edgin of Northville.

First Baby, 1958, was Sherry Coykendall, born January 5 to Mr. and Mrs. Keith Coykendall of Novi.

On January 2, 1959 at 4:45 a.m. Timothy Michael McDonald was born and became "First Baby, 1959". He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDonald of Northville.

The 1960 First Baby was Danny Rolph, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rolph of Novi road. He was born January 1 at 1:50 a.m. — the earliest of the First Babies.

Here's what First Baby, 1962, and his parents will win: a blanket from Brader's; choice of apparel from The Little People Shoppe; 24 cans of baby food from E.M.B. Market; a bottle and diaper bag from Novi Rexall Drug; a two-piece stainless steel baby set from Tewksbury Jewelers; baby toiletries from Northville Drug company; 15 half gallons of milk from Cloverdale Farms Dairy; shoes from D & C Store; and a bouquet of flowers for mother from Jones Floral.

Trash Collection To be Tuesday

Most city residents placed their garbage and trash containers at their curbs Christmas morning for regular Monday morning pick-up.

They learned that the collection was delayed one day.

The same will hold true next week.

Instead of Monday, January 1, the weekly city-wide collection will be made Tuesday morning.

New Skate Rink Not Ready Yet

Skating enthusiasts will have to wait for colder weather to use the recreation department's new pond on Cady street next to the cemetery.

An area has been excavated for flooding and one layer of ice formed, but the temperatures haven't dropped enough to form a good surface, Recreation Director Ken Conley reports.

Meanwhile, skating will continue at the West Seven Mile road fish hatchery. Until the city rink is ready, it will be open week days from 4 to 6 p.m. and Saturdays (and school vacation days) from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. and Sundays from 1 p.m. until 6 p.m.

THERE'S NOTHING like snow at Christmas time! And this trio of laughing girls took advantage of the season's first good snow and Christmas vacation to slide down hill behind Amerman school. The snow was thin, but the sliding fast. Pictured (l. to r.) are Jennifer Bown and Terry and Jeann Rogers.

ON CANTEBURY — Recent arrivals to Northville's Village Green subdivision are the Lee Soubliere, former Detroiters now living at 1031 Canterbury. Lee Soubliere, back row, center, is flanked by his wife, Anita, on the right, and his mother, Mrs. Pearl Soubliere, on the left. In front are Randy, 13, and his sister, Sharon, 17.

Saturday night is family night for the Leeson L. Soubliere, newcomers living at 1031 Canterbury. "We stay at home, turn on the television set and light a fire in the fireplace," says Anita Soubliere.

The "We" Mrs. Soubliere refers to includes her husband, Leeson (Lee), 17-year-old daughter, Sharon, son, Randy, 13, and mother-in-law, Mrs. Pearl Soubliere.

Until last year, the Soubliere, native Detroiters, had been away from the Motor City. Lee Soubliere's job with the Western Electric company took the family to the East for two years where they lived in Ridgewood, New Jersey. A second transfer moved the Soubliere to Lombard, Illinois for a two-year stay.

Soubliere is now a project supervisor in the installation department of Western Electric, Plymouth.

His wife works for the Michigan Bell Telephone company in Plymouth. She is a PBX service advisor, supervising switchboards in the Livonia district. It was her job that actually gave the family the idea to look for a home here.

Mrs. Soubliere is a bowling enthusiast. She belongs to two leagues and carries a 164 average. Son Randy is a Saturday afternoon kegler.

Both Randy and Sharon go to school here. Randy is in the eighth grade at the junior high school and Sharon is a high school senior. She was elected to the homecoming court shortly after the Soubliere moved here.

Mr. Soubliere has studied business administration in night school classes at Wayne State university two years.

King's Daughters Slate Luncheon

Northville King's Daughters will gather at the home of Mrs. Charles Conklin, 714 Spring drive, Tuesday, January 2 at 12:30 p.m. for their annual mid-winter luncheon.

Members are requested to bring a passing dish and their own table service.

Fourth Grade Class Entertains Retarded

In the spirit of Christmas giving, Mrs. Betty Sellers, American elementary school teacher, and her fourth grade class went to Our Lady of Providence school in Plymouth last Wednesday afternoon to present their musical version of "Hansel and Gretel" before an audience of retarded children.

The young thespians, directed by Mrs. Sellers, wore homemade costumes and sang songs taught to them by Mrs. Frances Kontos, elementary school music teacher.

They staged two performances of the play for fellow students at Amerman the week before.

Stamps Earn School Bus

A unique Christmas gift, symbolic of awakening public interest in Michigan's emotionally disturbed children, was presented to the Children's Service of Northville State Hospital Sunday. The gift, a 16 passenger school bus, was presented to Hospital Superintendent Philip Brown, M.D. by the Hawthorn-Northville Chapter of the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children.

Sam Rodd, chapter president, and Mrs. Charles Dell, project chairman, indicated that the purchase of the bus was made possible as a result of the overwhelming public response to the chapter's recent trading stamp drive. In response to its appeal, the chapter received trading stamps from more than four thousand Michigan citizens — a total of 1918 complete books was collected during the three-month drive.

Rodd stated that the idea of a school bus Christmas gift for the children at the hospital grew out of the fact that the hospital was unable to provide adequate schooling for the children because of a serious shortage in teaching personnel.

The bus will be used to take groups of children to special evening classes at Hawthorn Center, a specialized treatment facility for emotionally disturbed children several miles from the Northville hospital.

Miss Helen Bruton, one of the three psychiatric caseworkers assigned to Northville hospital's children's service, stated that while a majority of the 90 children on the service were attending the hospital school, not one youngster was in class for more than three hours a day, and most not even that long.

The hospital houses 60

er children of school age on adult wards who receive no schooling whatsoever.

"There is no doubt in any one's mind," she stated, "that most of these children should be continuing their studies despite the fact that they are in a hospital."

According to Samuel L. Davis, Executive Director of the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children, the real solution for disturbed children in state hospitals can be found only in Lansing. "Despite the wonderful efforts of the staffs at these hospitals, and despite the dedication and support of volunteers such as those in our Hawthorn-Northville chapter, it is the responsibility of the Department of Mental Health and the State Legislature to develop specialized children's programs at these hospitals that will separate kids from adults and allow them to receive adequate schooling and treatment," he said.

Santa Visited Maybury, Too

THE ANNUAL Christmas morning party at the children's hospital of Maybury TB sanatorium proved to be another success this year — thanks to the efforts of numerous area organizations and individuals and Santa Claus. More than 150 "Santa letters" from hospitalized children were answered and the gifts delivered by Santa in person. And in the top picture, Santa rings his sleigh bells as one of the little patients opens her gift. In the middle picture six of a family of nine children hospitalized with TB smile in appreciation of the gifts they received. And in the bottom photo two youngsters proudly display their gifts. It marks the 15th year that Mrs. George Chabot of Northville has organized the drive to provide toys for each of the young patients. Hospital staff members as well as Maybury Superintendent and Mrs. W. L. Howard took part in the party festivities.

NEW BABY

Yes, it's right around the corner. It's name is 1962. While we whined about old 1961, let's be truthful — most of us have a whale of a lot to be thankful for in 1961. I have. My sincere hope is that this also applies to YOU and I wish you a real pleasant Holiday Season and all that you desire in 1962.

A humble "Thank You" for your many past confidences in me and my assurance of my continuing efforts to serve you.

NOVI HIGHLIGHTS

Northville Board of Education Minutes

I. The meeting was called to order at 7:35 p.m. by President Robert H. Shafer. Present: President Robert H. Shafer, Vice President William R. Crump, Secretary Donald B. Lawrence, Trustee Edward F. Angove, Trustee James F. Kipfer, Trustee Wilfred C. Becker.

Absent: Treasurer Waldo T. Johnson. Others Present: Superintendent R. H. Amernman; Assistant Superintendent K. M. MacLeod; Director of Administrative Services E. V. Ellison; Principals F. Stefanski, D. Van Ingen, and H. B. Smith.

II. The minutes of the last regular meeting were read by the secretary, and there being no corrections or additions, were approved as read.

III. Communications:

1. Harold Penn, advising that he is still working on the drain onto the Robinson property, and requesting the board's indulgence for the delay. Also advising that Mr. Taft has had goal posts and flagpole cared for at athletic field.

2. Dr. Atchison and Dr. Wettersstrom, advising the board that they believe use of the trampoline in the gymnasium should be discontinued. They consider it a dangerous device.

3. Mr. and Mrs. Kjaneman, copy of letter sent to them by Mr. Quay, Assistant High School Principal, regarding their daughter's attendance and copy of their reply to Mr. Quay.

4. Gibraltar, Redford Union, Livonia School Districts, copies of identical resolution passed by each board of education requesting that the Con-Con include a solution to the school financial problems. These districts would like this district to pass a similar resolution.

5. Ralph Redmond, elementary art teacher, requesting leave of absence, for period of one year, because of recall to military service.

IV. Report of Superintendent:

1. Salary Schedule: Committee is now up to date with its work. Superintendent explained different application forms.

2. Airborne Television: Mr. Amernman gave each board member a written report of his attendance at the seminar at Purdue University. Main purpose of the seminar was to acquaint the superintendents with the financial problems attendant Ford Foundation and other cooperation groups will gradually withdraw their support and other sources of income will have to be found. It has been suggested that each district pay an annual fee of $200 per school building participating, plus $1.00 per student. Cost to this district would be approximately $2,800. Superintendent Amernman will further discuss this with the board's committee on airborne television in the near future.

3. Visitation of New and Re-Assigned Teachers: Dr. MacLeod has now made the rounds in planned visits and is generally most pleased with what he has observed in the classrooms.

4. External Aptitude Tests: These have been given in the high school by Dr. MacLeod, who gave a resume of the test results and discussed them with the board.

5. Calendar for 1961-62: Tentative calendar drawn up last summer was presented for verification and it was recommended by the administrators that the calendar be left as previously drawn up. Approved by the board.

6. Polio Inoculation Clinic: We have had an offer by the Junior Chamber of Commerce to sponsor a polio clinic. The Jr. C. of C. has contacted the Wayne County Dept. of Health, and advises they are willing to operate it if the Plymouth area may be included. Superintendent Amernman recommends that we involve ourselves in this project. Moved by Mr. Lawrence that we assist with this clinic, provided it is operated by the Wayne County Dept. of Health. Mr. Kipfer supported the motion, which was carried.

7. American Association of School Administrators Convention: Superintendent Amernman recommends that Dr. MacLeod be our representative at the convention, expenses paid, at Atlantic City in February. So moved by Mr. Crump, supported by Mr. Angove. Carried.

8. United Nations' Flags: The Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary will purchase two U.N. flags for the school, if we would like to have them. Mr. Lawrence moved, Mr. Crump seconded the motion, that this gift be accepted. Motion carried.

9. Junior High School Program: Mr. Van Ingen reported his observations at the meeting

by Mrs. L. Rix

Young Woman's Christian club will meet January 4 at the home of Barbara Klammer at 8 o'clock. A committee will be appointed for the inside painting in the new church addition. They will also discuss preparations for their table at the "Luncheon is Served" project of the W.S.C.S. next spring.

At the W.S.C.S. meeting last Wednesday, the society voted to buy the paint for the church painting project.

All the church school classes had a Christmas party Sunday morning.

Novi Girl Scouts

The second annual All Troop Sing was held at the Novi Community hall on Wednesday, December 20.

Nancy McBride acting as chairman of the affair, was assisted by Mae Skellenger, neighborhood chairman, and several of the senior scouts acted as song leaders. There were approximately 75 girls and 20 adults present.

Special guest of the day was Marge Jennings founder of the first Girl Scout troop in Novi.

A film strip on the senior round up, "A Mile High and A Mile Wide" was shown.

Florence Loynes and her committee, Alma Klammer, Ruth Bingham, Florence Hayes and Pauline Bassett served punch and cookies to the guests. Tickets to the sing for each girl and adult was something for the Goodfellow baskets.

E.U.B. Willowbrook Community Church

The Children's Christmas program was held Saturday night at the church.

At the Sunday Church School Christmas service the Nativity in pantomime was given by the adults.

Christmas eve communion was held at a candlelight service.

Both adult and junior choir sang at the Sunday morning service. "The Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's Messiah and the sermon was entitled "Two Gifts".

Carol singing at the 7 o'clock service Saturday night. Special offering for the church and children and old people home.

The W.S.W.S. sold cookies for the society and Christmas cards with proceeds for the organ fund.

Troop No. 54 had their Christmas party last Wednesday at the community building. The boys put on a skit for the parents and did a grand job. Cake and hot chocolate were served. Many thanks to the mothers who had made the refreshments. A special thanks to Mrs. Totten, Mrs. Harbin and Mrs. Brooker for the fine work in the kitchen. We would like to thank Santa Claus for passing out gifts and candy to the children.

Friday, December 22, the scouts went out and helped the Goodfellows, as part of a community project, deliver the baskets to the needy.

Dr. Mudd Replies

Forget 'One for the Road'

Dear Dr. Mudd:

New Year's Eve is almost here again, and again reminds me of the terrible frightful night so long ago when our only daughter was killed by a drunk driver returning home from a party.

I was angry at first that the man got off with only a few days in jail, but now that time has healed the awful hurt, I know it was best that way.

He had four small children at home and it was better that they have a father than that my bitter feelings of revenge be satisfied.

Will you write something about this New Year's and Christmas drinking and driving? Maybe a few readers will take it seriously and maybe a life may be saved.

I know of no bitterness so painful to bear than the inexplicable loss of a loved one by some event over which no one should be congratulated on your mature and seasoned attitude toward what was a deep hurt which can never be entirely healed.

I, too, am much concerned about the careless, irresponsible behavior even many of our leading citizens feel is permissible during the holidays. These are old, primitive, tribal customs which civilization has modified, but not erased from modern man's living.

Unfortunately, alcohol has the effect of heightening our evaluation of our own performance, as it simultaneously impairs it. I have, on more than one occasion, been solemnly assured by those who should know better, that even after having drunk a good deal, they can still handle a car to perfection.

Well, it just isn't so, but I know of no way to change a delusion, which such an attitude represents. And on top of this, it's always the other driver who is to get into trouble.

Maybe if the host would take the responsibility of not insisting his guests have "one for the road" on New Year's Eve, Year's Day.

It would help more than we imagine to keep the anticipated holiday carnage at a low level.

Sandor Mudd, M.D.

Mustangs Nip Trojans 65-33

Northville's Mustangs combined a second-half burst of basket-making offense with a brilliant defense and rolled to an easy 65-33 victory at Clarenceville last Friday. The win marked the beginning of a 12-day Christmas vacation lay-off for the Mustangs. On January 5 they will play hosts to powerful West Bloomfield, the only other unbeaten team in the Wayne-Oakland league.

As in several previous games this season, the Mustangs got off to a slow start, lagging behind Clarenceville until midway through the second quarter. But from that point on, they lagged no more.

Switching from fast play to their previously successful slow, methodical game, the Mustangs slowly overtook Clarenceville and built up a 33-26 lead by the end of the first half.

In the third quarter the Northville five tightened up their defense and began a careful series of offensive plays. They plunked in four field goals and three free throws to score 11 points, while giving up only three free throw points to Clarenceville.

In the fourth quarter big Danny Brown re-entered the game after being benched because he had several fouls. He pumped in seven points to lead his team mates to a 21-point quarter. The defense continued to block Clarenceville scoring attempts, and held their opponents to 4 points from one field goal and two free throws.

The thing that pleased Coach Dave Longridge most about the game was the way his team played even in the absence of Brown.

"The boys still depend a lot on Danny," he said, "and when a team depends on a man, there can be a bad let-down if he's benched. But they held together well, and the presence of Jim Juday in place of Dick Bathey, who took over the center spot for Brown, seemed to give the team a real boost."

Longridge said that the younger Juday deserved praise for the way he captured rebound after rebound and for his excellent defensive play. He also scored several times.

Brother Steve wasn't slouching either, Longridge pointed out. The elder Juday netted 14 points to run a close second to Craig Bell, who scored 16.

Another aspect of the game that Longridge said pleased Mustang fans him was the team's use of new plays for setting up shots.

"They worked plays they've never used in competition before," he said, "and it helped them work into the basket more often. These weren't new plays, but this was the first time the team had enough confidence to use them."

Their easy win over Clarenceville doesn't mean the Mustangs are taking it easy over the Christmas vacation, Longridge said. They're having some practice and will have two scrimmage sessions before school starts.

Tonight they travel to Dearborn for a scrimmage with Fordson high school, and Friday afternoon they will take on Redford St. Mary's at three o'clock in the high school gym.

Longridge said Mustang fans are invited to attend both sessions, especially Friday's.

He said he's hoping these extra games will give them the experience they need to keep up their spotless W-O record this season. One of the toughest threats to this record will be West Bloomfield, he said.

"They're a little shorter than we are," he noted, "but they're real scrappers and play a good game of defense."

Longridge concluded that if the Mustangs play as well as they appear capable of playing, they should have a successful night against West Bloomfield.

The junior varsity Colts pulled out of a three-game slump and romped to a 48-35 win over their Clarenceville counterparts. They outscored their opponents in every quarter, especially the third, when the offense came on strong with 14 points while permitting Clarenceville to score only four.

High man for the Colts was Driscoll, who sunk six field goals and five free throws for 17 points. Evenly spaced down the line from him were Mazal, with 12 points, Stobbe, with eight points, Bishop, with six points, and Biery with five.

J. M. Price Promoted

Jesse M. Price, C.L.U., of 24566 Border Hill, Novi, has been named membership group sales supervisor for Nationwide Insurance. He will assume his new duties in Nationwide's home office in Columbus, Ohio, on January 2.

Price received the chartered life underwriter designation last summer. He has been with Nationwide in various sales capacities for the past 17 years and presently is association group sales specialist for Michigan, Ohio, and Indiana.

Novi Cagers Win, Lose First Games

Novi junior high started its basketball season last week with a seventh-eighth grade split had no interschoolastic junior against Dublin. The seventh graders lost their first game 27-10, while the eighth graders were on the top end of a 16-14 score.

Coach Gail Perkins said both teams show promise "if they can lick the flu bug." Both teams suffered manpower shortages last week as several boys were sidelined by illness. He said he was impressed with the way the teams looked last week and was looking forward to a fairly successful season.

But everything won't necessarily be peaches and cream, he commented. He said they will face several tough teams before the end of the season.

Novi's got a good junior high program and usually produces a tough team, he said. Nankin Mills school district, near Livonia and Garden city, has had basketball for a number of years, he said, and should have plenty of experienced players. This is the first season Novi will play against Nankin Mills.

Another school Perkins expects to have a tough team is Hartland, which is located between Brighton and Fenton. They've had basketball for four years, he explained, and it's all so incorporated in their junior high physical education program. We've had a tough time with them before, he commented.

Radio to Report All School Closings

E. V. Ellison, director of administrative services for Northville public schools, said four Detroit radio stations have consented to broadcast any announcements of school closings here because of bad weather or other difficulties.

Parents should tune in stations WXYZ, WJR, CKLW or WCAR.

Ellison said it should not be assumed that schools will close because a heavy snowfall prevents buses from running.

LET'S TALK CARS...

A NEW YEAR 1962

This is the time of year when we should all add up our assets and count our blessings. Some of these are spelled "assets" and some are spelled "assets". The "assets", of course, keep a roof over our heads but the other "assets" of living in a free society and being able to seek happiness in our own way make life under that roof worthwhile.

This is the time of year for pledges. We're going to play safe by sticking to the ones we've made throughout the year. That is, we promise to sell used cars as good as honest reconditioning can make them at the lowest possible price and to spare no effort to help you get the maximum satisfaction out of your new car.

There are a few operators in our business who maintain that the honest approach in advertising doesn't pay. The only technique that works is to outsmart the public with gimmicks they say, and in so operating they encourage the public to attempt to outsmart the dealer. We're still going to go on disagreeing with that thinking.

We'd like to thank our many customers for the confidence they have shown in us by buying their car from us and letting us service it. We'll continue to try to deserve that confidence.

While some parts of our country may have temporary economic distress, the overall picture and future forecasts are very bright. We need only to work together to make them come true.

We wish a Happy New Year to you and yours.

Obituary

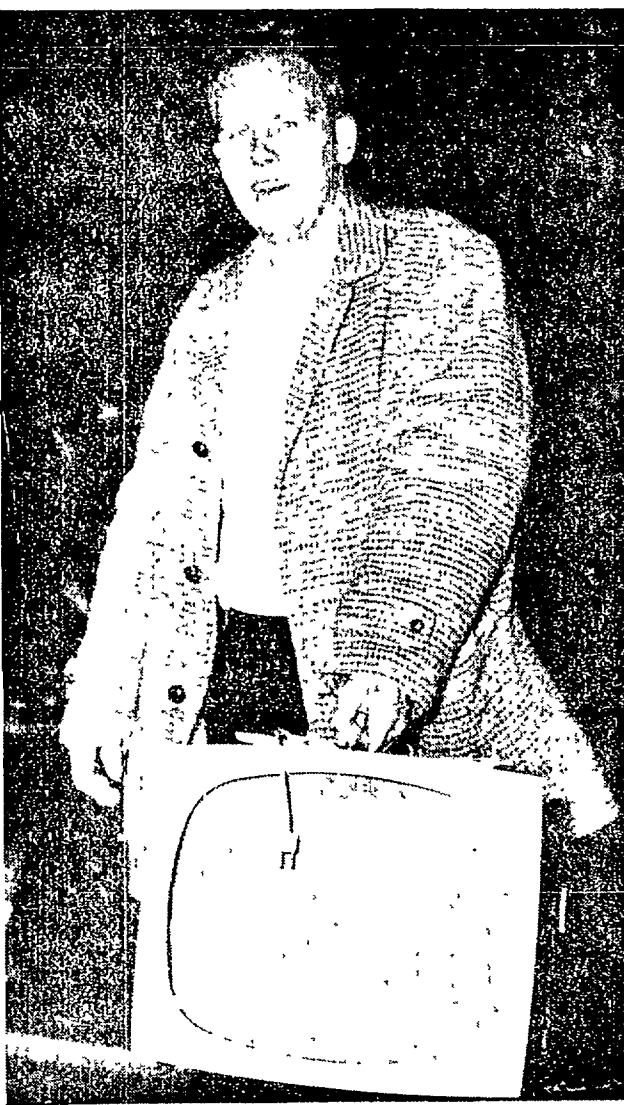

ROY D. HAMMOND

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from Castlerose Funeral Home for Roy D. Hammond, 85, Mr. Hammond resided at Crestview Rest Home in Novi and had been ill for five months. He died December 24. He was born May 8, 1876 in Fenton the son of Thomas and Della Hammond. He never married. He is survived by one brother, C. Oscar Hammond of Northville. He had resided in the area for 80 years and was a retired farmer. The Rev. Paul Cargo officiated at the services. Interment was at Salem Walker cemetery.

MRS. FLORA MARCOE

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at Schraeder's Funeral Home in Plymouth for Mrs. Flora Marcoe, 39499 Schoolcraft, who passed away December 23 at Mt. Carmel Mercy hospital in Detroit following a heart attack. She was 65 years old. Mrs. Marcoe was born April 25, 1896 in Romania, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gusti Cracium. She was married February 25, 1911 to Jocim Marcoe, who survives her. Other survivors include four daughters: Mrs. Aurelia Nadig of Arlington, Calif.; Mrs. Olivia Silveria of Opopka, Fla.; Mrs. Helen Kalvoda of Plymouth; and Mrs. Florence Pohl of Wayne; one sister, Mrs. Marna Isaac of Northville; and 14 grandchildren and one great grandchild. Mrs. Marcoe was a member of the Metropolitan Seventh Day Adventist church. Services were conducted by Pastor Orville D. Wright and interment was at Riverside cemetery.

Well over 500 people turned out last Thursday night for the Retail Merchants association's "Santa Buck" auction. Most went away disappointed when bidding turned out to be much higher than expected. But 50 of them "bought" gifts auctioned off by Attorney Cliff Hill. The television set went for 6,000 Santa Bucks to Gerald Dresselhouse — but actually Fred Mitchell of 19355 Fry road ended up with the top prize. He had contributed most of the "Santa Bucks" when several families pooled their "money" together. Dresselhouse is shown with the set.

Babson's Forecast for 1962

when the weaving of cloth will be greatly curtailed. Clothes will be made like paper. Plastic coats are already on the market. These are produced by feeding the cellophane into a machine which cuts to desired sizes and bonds (not sews) the material into beautifully finished goods of different colors.

20. We will hear more about automation during 1962. But the cost of building automatic factories is so great that the change is coming slowly. Even electronics has been overemphasized.

21. There need be no unemployment among steel workers during 1962. But Government unemployment figures will remain high. Foreign competition, due to low wages abroad, will be an important factor. Women will prefer to work in air-conditioned factories and have their home pantries filled with pre-cooked foods.

22. Labor unrest will grow in extent and power. The Kennedy Administration is friendly to union leaders and their demands. There will be demands for more "fringes" in 1962. A steel strike is possible.

23. This means that with increased taxes, prices of retail products will be higher. This will be blamed on "inflation" of money; but it will be due to inflation of living standards.

24. The real value of the dollar will decline slightly during 1962, due to the decrease in the productivity of labor. The electronics industry will temporarily suffer in 1962 if atomic warfare is outlawed. But otherwise the electronics industry will increase for some years to come and hold up the dollar value. Watch polymer chemicals and "epoxy" cements.

25. There will be enough money for mortgages insured by the Federal Housing Administration in 1962. Plenty of money will be available for mortgages guaranteed by the Veterans Administration, although this supply varies with different sections of the country. Interest rates on conventional loans not having any government guarantees will be a little higher. Real estate people will worry about the public's desire to build, rather than about their obtaining mortgage money.

26. The kilowatt hours of electricity produced in 1962 will exceed the total of any previous year. This is favorable to utility preferreds.

27. Steel production in 1962 will exceed this year's 100 million tons, but the increase will come from producing steel in colors.

28. Cement production will be about the same in 1962 as in 1961, but the industry's capacity to produce is increasing too rapidly in view of the demand. The cement manufacturers must give more attention to colors.

29. Expenditures for plant and equipment in 1962 will increase, supplemented by large appropriations for repainting factories and offices in many colors.

30. Newsprint production depends upon the number of newspapers and the amount of advertising sold. I forecast a decline in the amount of newsprint sold during 1962, but advertising receipts may increase through the better use of colors. This may result in the increased use of coated paper to better take color printing — with a 50% increase in advertising rates.

31. Furniture manufacturers are marking up prices so that young couples will buy furniture in the raw and paint same themselves.

32. There will be some increases in color TV sales in 1962. In fact, I think the present TV market is far from being saturated.

33. First-class postage rates will not be increased during 1962. Hence, more money will be spent on direct mail selling. This should help job printers in 1962, as their present margin of profit is very small. Billboard advertising will increase during 1962, due to a new kind of paint.

34. Lumber will do well to hold its own in 1962 and much of it will be sold colored. Wall-to-wall carpeting will become even more popular, reducing the price of the best hardwood floors.

35. Fewer "scatter rugs" will be sold in 1962. Rug dealers must go to brighter colors, even for "orientals".

36. One of the greatest developments during 1962 will be the increased use of color in homes, offices, stores, and factories. This should increase both the demand for and the price of good paint.

37. Exports will probably increase during 1962, but the surplus of trade in favor of the United States is constantly decreasing.

38. President Kennedy is encouraged by the recent elections in New York, New Jersey, and Texas. This Democratic trend will continue during 1962, notwithstanding former President Eisenhower's campaign speeches.

39. President Kennedy will be more favorable to "big business" in 1962 only when he is able to use big business to increase employment. Profit margins will not improve during 1962, although most industries will do better in terms of gross and volume.

40. Bond prices will not change much during 1962, except in the case of "non-taxables". European investors are buying American stocks and bonds feeling that their money is safer in United States industries and real estate. Even the first mortgage bonds of transcontinental railroads are being bought by Europeans. The manufacturers of West Germany are making huge profits through the use of new machinery and low wages. They are sending their money to the United States to be invested. They seem to prefer suburban real estate, shopping centers, and electric utilities. I hope they are not buying into too many "fly-by-night" new electronic companies.

41. Buying of Mutual Funds will continue to exceed selling in 1962. Considering that brokers make much more profit by selling Mutual Funds than by selling shares of individual stocks — and considering the thousands of salesmen selling Mutual Funds — this should help stock prices during 1962. Remember that the Mutual Funds operators must go to the New York Stock Exchange to purchase stock to support these Mutual Funds which salesmen are selling in the field.

42. The so-called "service industries" — including education, beauty parlors, travel, entertainment, and government positions — should prosper in 1962.

43. Among the fastest growing industries in 1962 will be the plastics and glass industries. These materials will gradually take the place of wood, stone, cement, and even some metals.

— except as these are colored. Plastics and glass will become more important building materials and perhaps be used much more for automobiles.

44. Some unexpected event or discovery will cause the Dow-Jones Industrial Average to sell much higher during the next few years. As an illustration of what one of these unexpected events will be, I mention the polymer developments in chemistry, including "DNA" and "RNA", which may provide the source of life and extend it — yes, perhaps restore it, in special cases.

45. I am bullish on Canada for safe investments during 1962. Canada has a small population of only about 18,000,000, but it is rich in natural resources and has a sound, progressive government. I do not expect a nuclear war to be started by Russia; but if it comes, Canada will be a good place to live and to have your money invested.

46. South and Central America also have great natural resources; but most of their countries are ruled by selfish dictators. I believe most of our southern neighbors will suffer from serious inflation during 1962 and become a great problem for the United States.

47. Although the countries of Europe could be the greatest sufferers in case of World War III, the people I meet in Europe fail to realize this. I forecast that they will look at the situation more realistically during 1962.

48. West Germany is very prosperous; East Germany is in terrible condition. Much unemployment exists in Italy, France, and even Great Britain. I advise against investing money in Europe during 1962.

49. I am uncertain how to advise about Africa. But it is very rich in natural resources — including gold, diamonds, and almost every metal — as well as having the greatest undeveloped waterpower in the world. Barclays Bank I am personally acquainted with and recommend. Both Barclays and the Standard Bank are owned in England and have a great many branches; the latter has over 850 branch offices in Africa. Readers who are interested in keeping in touch with Africa may secure free of charge the Standard Bank Monthly Review by writing the Standard Bank of South Africa, 10 Clement Lane, London, EC 4. The banking of Northern Africa is controlled by the French. I would advise against putting money into Northern Africa during 1962.

50. The final result of 1962 — whether it will make us a stronger or a softer nation — spiritually, physically, and mentally — depends upon our parents, teachers, preachers, and newspaper publishers. These, and not Russia, hold the future of the United States in their hands.

Need Doesn't End With Christmas

Christmas was made warmer, happier and even healthier for two needy community families by the Northville Newcomers club.

They supplied the families with food, clothing and toys. The club, through its president Mrs. Philip Wegeng, reported that in both cases the families were desperately in need of assistance. In one instance the husband had been unemployed and hospitalized leaving his wife and small child alone; the other family consisted of a mother and her three children.

Mr. Wegeng reported that more help is needed — and volunteered to accept further contributions in behalf of the families. He also acknowledged the donations of A&P Manager Donald Duvall, who provided many of the items that went into the food baskets. The Wegengs can be contacted at FI-9-0484.

Maybury Says Thanks

TO ALL MAYBURY FRIENDS

We of the Maybury Sanatorium staff take this opportunity to express our deep gratitude to the many friends who through the "Letters to Santa" program, through the Northville Exchange Club, and other organizations, as individuals and groups have contributed so generously of time, talent and goods toward making Christmas 1961 the best ever.

May you all have a warm feeling of satisfaction for having helped us bring Christmas to the patients in this institution.

Sincerely,
W. L. Howard, M.D.

ence" will include (Matt. 9):
"And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people."
A correlative passage to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states: "Every day makes its demands upon us for higher proofs rather than professions of Christian power. These proofs consist solely in the destruction of sin, sickness, and death by the power of Spirit, as Jesus destroyed them. This is an element of progress, and progress is the law of God, whose law demands of us only what we can certainly fulfil" (p.233).

The Voice of Ancient Man is heard today. From the stone faces on Easter Island in mid-pacific to the silent Egyptian sphinx, ancient man speaks of his reasons for living. He strived to perpetuate that which had meaning for him. Monuments all over the world tell the sorry tale of man's efforts to glorify and magnify the satisfactions of the moment. Those same stone faces well might have looked toward the Biblical and felt the "tremor of finality" realizing that knowledge alone is not sufficient to guide the destinies of men and of nations.
The Apostle Paul found a strange in Athens long years ago dedicated to the "Unknown God". He attempted to make his God known to them.
His God was not confined to temples nor to special groups. Paul's God, indeed, wanted the loyalties of persons whose faith was not in a god of "gold or silver or stone, graven by art and device of man", for "in Him we live an move and have our being".
The Voice of Ancient Man is heard today when individuals become so interested in their rights they forget their responsibilities; so engrossed in their personal needs they forget their fellowmen; so enamored of pleasure that the spirit of good will dies of disuse and abuse; so selfish that parents neglect their children; so greedy that public officials have no ethic.
During this season of remembrance of the birth of the Christ child long ago in Bethlehem's manger, we must give ourselves more than ever to the highest loyalties God has shown to us. As the Apostle Paul was called out of unbelief into conviction that Christ was Lord and Saviour, so we must be called into this manner of devotion. St. Paul's life marked a forward step from the voice of ancient man who had forgotten God to the new life in Christ. May His gift to you this Christmas season carry you in the new year with added enthusiasm for spiritual growth in the Kingdom of God.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values.
Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church.
They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

These Events Made Area News in 1961

JANUARY

NORTHVILLE . . .
City and township officials are awaiting revisions to county contracts that will call for an agreement between Wayne county and 14 individual communities to finance construction of an $8 million sanitary sewer. If approved, the contracts would be a two-year plan on construction of subdivisions in the communities that was imposed by the health department.

Community-General hospital, riding on the crest of a new wave of patient occupancy, mapped plans for future expansion of its facilities. The board of trustees decided to start a month-long campaign for funds during February, and to contact area communities about holding a meeting to decide if and when hospital authority vote should be held.

NOVI . . .
In a surprising "last-minute" move, four political newcomers pitched their hats into the township election ring last week. Clerk Hadley Bachert revealed shortly after the Friday deadline for petition filing that seven incumbents, four newcomers and one former township officer had qualified for either February primary or the spring election.

A 22-year-old Novi man was charged with murder Monday night after he confessed to State Police that he killed his stepfather with a shotgun near a New Hudson bar early Sunday morning. Earl White, 1910 Austin drive, told detectives after questioning that he killed William H. Thompson with a borrowed shotgun.

WIXOM . . .
While Paragon Bridge and Steel company in Novi is benefiting from a contract to build tri-level railroad cars for transporting cars from the Wixom Lincoln plant, two area trucking firms announced the closing down of their operations. Automobile Transport, Inc., and E & L Transport company said they were closing their local terminals because of loss of business from the Wixom plant.

FEBRUARY

NORTHVILLE . . .
Plans to hold an April election on the proposed area hospital authority died by default as only the city council approved the plans. It takes at least two communities to make an authority, and since the governments of all the area communities involved either turned down the plans or held off voting them, the project is no longer possible.

The city council has proposed paving North Center street — a project it has considered for a long time — on an assessment basis. The decision came after the school board said it would not pay a proposed half of the project cost unless the properties on the street were assessed.

Happy Mustang cagers win district tourney.

NOVI . . .
Seven-hundred-and-sixteen villagers turned out to vote in primary elections. Republican candidates in the April election will be Emery Jacques, Robert K. Anderson, Duane Bell, Frazer Staman, Hadley Bachert, Kenneth Cook, Leon Dochot and Roger Curtis. Democrats will be Herbert Koester and Harvey Milford.

WIXOM . . .
Wixom moved its official quarters to the new city hall building on Pontiac trail. The council decided to hold an open house for the new facility the following week.

MARCH

NORTHVILLE . . .
The school board has adopted an incentive plan for teacher raises that will go into effect next year. The action follows a vote by teachers which favored the proposal toward the basis of self-improvement. A committee of teachers and administrators will help determine who is to receive raises.

The city council made history when it indicated a majority vote in charging a 20 percent assessment on property that is not on street improvements to help pay for the projects. Northville has traditionally paid for street improvements without assessments by charging them to the general fund.

NOVI . . .
Novi School Superintendent William Medlyn brought the school board a budget that has a $65,000 expenditure increase over last year's budget. At the same time, the budget shows only a $16,000 increase in revenues, leaving nearly $50,000 deficit. The board cut as many costs as possible and then held further discussion until an adjusted budget could be adopted.

WIXOM . . .
The city council, in a deadlock over an ordinance that would unite the fire and police departments into a single department of public safety, has decided to let the two departments continue separate operations for a test period to see whether each can carry out their job efficiently.

APRIL

NORTHVILLE . . .
Northville voters set a spring election record as 1,243 of them turned out to select two councilmen and a justice of the peace. Richard Ambler lead a field of six to take one council seat while Mrs. Beatrice Carlson became the city's first woman council member. Attorney Charles McDonald was chosen as the JP job. Mayor A. M. Allen was unopposed for his second year.

The city council set up a committee to study proposals for a scout-recreation center to replace the present building, which has been sold to make way for a new upper market and bank facility.

Northville Downs has launched a $250,000 improvement program in preparation for the coming season. It is also hoping to give the 33-night Jackson Trotting Association meet.

NOVI . . .
Incumbent Frazer Staman won an easy victory over Herbert Koester to become Novi township supervisor for the fifth time. The only other contest at this spring election was for trustee, and Emery Jacques upset Harvey Milford. Non-contested winners included Hadley Bachert, Duane Bell, Robert Anderson, Kenneth Cook, Roger Curtis and Leon Dochot.

IN WIXOM . . .
A preliminary zoning district map for the city was approved by the planning commission and sent to the council for further action. The council sat in on the commission's meeting to hear Planning Consultant Charles Leman describe the map.

MAY

IN NORTHVILLE . . .
It took a year to decide, but some 235 acres that were formerly part of Novi township and village have been officially declared annexed to the city of Northville. The Michigan Supreme Court has declared the March, 1960 annexation proper and valid.

Petitions bearing nearly 300 signatures protesting special assessments for improving unpaved city streets were presented at a meeting of the city council. The petition followed a council proposal to pay for paving a portion of North Center street by special assessing private property so that the schools could pay a share of the costs.

IN NOVI . . .
Petitions asking for another vote on the incorporation of Novi into a city were presented to the village council. The action followed quickly upon the heels of a notification from the Supreme Court that it had decided in favor of Northville in the suit brought by the village to stop Northville's annexation of some 235 acres of village and township land.

The Novi village council has adopted a $189,500 budget for the 1962 fiscal year. The action came after rather quiet discussions centering mainly on the salaries for office help and the police department.

IN WIXOM . . .
Wixom's chamber of commerce was formed this month, and members jumped into their biggest issue on their organizational meeting night by starting a discussion of proposed sewers for the city. The chamber's main purpose will be "to move our city," Mayor Donald Brooks explained.

JUNE

IN NORTHVILLE . . .
All construction in Northville and 21 other Wayne county communities was brought to an absolute halt by State Health Commissioner Albert E. Heustis. He termed the action "necessary to protect public health," and cited a lack of proper sanitary sewage facilities in the communities as the reason. He said the ban would be lifted when bids are let and contracts signed for construction of a proposed new sewer to serve the communities.

A report resulting from a four-month study of Northville's public library has brought a recommendation that the library's administration be placed under control of the school district and a one-mill tax be levied upon the district to support the facility.

A freak and tragic accident has taken the life of Richard G. Nelson, 58, 22005 Napier road. His death was attributed to severe injuries he received when he was run over by his own car in the driveway of retired Police Chief Joseph Denton.

IN NOVI . . .
By a scant 18 votes, David Fried was elected to a three-year term on the Novi school board when a record number of electors voted in a regular school election. Some 736 ballots were cast to defeat incumbent Edward Erwin and smash down a proposal for an additional six-mill operating tax levy.

School Superintendent William H. Medlyn, first man to head Novi's consolidated school district, announced his resignation. He told the school board that he was accepting a position as placement officer for Indiana university.

IN WIXOM . . .
Councilman Gunnar Mettala left a sick bed to become the fourth councilman to vote in a 4-5 split for approval of a $172,600 city budget. Mettala was called to the council meeting after Councilman Fred Beamish deadlocked the budget approval by voting against the proposed budget.

JULY

IN NORTHVILLE . . .
Buoyed by a warm reception from Congresswoman Martha Griffiths, the Northville city council has decided to take definite steps toward obtaining federal funds for urban development. Mayor A. M. Allen appointed Councilman John Canterbury, who introduced the idea, to head the project.

Community General hospital has closed its doors, bringing operations to a standstill as the last patients were discharged. The 24-bed hospital had maintained a high patient population since MD's and OD's shared the facilities, but directors point to large back debts and loss of full Blue Cross benefits as the reasons for starting bankruptcy proceedings.

The city council has started its search for a new city manager to replace John Robertson, who left to become city manager for Ferguson, Missouri. Councilman John Canterbury will head the committee that's to handle most of the search, and City Attorney Philip Ogilvie was named acting manager until the position is filled.

IN NOVI . . .
Disregarding the advice of its consultants, the Novi planning board voted five to one to rezone 24 acres on Novi road near Eight Mile road to a C-2 commercial area to permit construction of a proposed shopping center. But the village council voted two weeks later to refuse the proposed rezoning because it felt the change did not fit the village's master plan.

The village has received notification of the filing of a suit to disconnect over 600 of its acres that were once eyed by a Detroit land developer as a location for a $40,000,000 subdivision and commercial center. Village officials said they would fight the disconnection, and ordered Attorney Howard Bond to file an appearance and an answer to the suit.

IN WIXOM . . .

The city council has approved contracting an engineer to conduct a study for a possible sanitary sewer system and treatment plant. Kainlauri, MacMullan and Millman Associates of Ann Arbor were hired to make the survey on a semi-retainer fee of $500. They're the same firm that did architectural work for the new city hall.

AUGUST

IN NORTHVILLE . . .
The city council once more received the city's bill from the county for library services, along with notification that a reduction in the charges to the city was not possible. The council moved to protest the high charges.

Out of the fire, but still in the frying pan was the feeling of city councilmen as they learned that the building ban imposed on the city and 13 other Wayne county communities by the health department had been lifted because of signing of contracts for a new Rouge Valley interceptor sewer, but that their sewer might still be endangered because of a proposal to add 2,900 sewer taps in Novi through the Northville line to the new sewer.

IN NOVI . . .
An answer to Novi's quest for sewers was dropped into the laps of village council members when they received an offer from the Wayne county DPW of 2,900 sewer taps in the county's new Rouge Valley interceptor line. The council voted to notify the county it was interested in the offer.

The Novi school board has signed Tom Culbert, 37, to take over the superintendency. The action came after a several-weeks search to find the right man to replace William Medlyn, who has taken a position at Indiana university.

IN WIXOM . . .
In efforts to find relief for traffic congestion in its downtown area, the Wixom city council has asked to have Michigan 218, which now is Pontiac trail from Wixom road to the east city limits, rerouted to pass down Beck and West roads instead of through the downtown area.

SEPTEMBER

IN NORTHVILLE . . .
Court action or a public vote to decide whether the city should invoke special assessments to help pay for street improvements were threatened by a group of citizens at a council meeting. The council had proposed the assessments to speed up the city's improvement program that usually has to follow the ups and downs of the city's general fund.

Bruce K. Potthoff was appointed as Northville's new city manager. Potthoff takes on his duties next month from City Attorney Philip Ogilvie, who has acted as temporary manager since John Robertson resigned to go to Ferguson, Missouri.

IN NOVI . . .
The village council has voted to proceed with the proposed paving of streets in Willowbrook subdivision number one. The action followed lengthy deliberations during public hearings at two meetings. They left open only the question of how the special assessments to pay 90 percent of the project costs should be determined.

IN WIXOM . . .
Volunteer horse riders joined forces with the Wixom police to search wooded areas near the city, looking for a dog that had bitten 69-year-old Mrs. Lelia Wasson, 48553 West road. The dog was found near the Lincoln plant by Novi police.

OCTOBER

IN NORTHVILLE . . .
Plans for re-opening Community General hospital as a convalescent home were dumped when the planning commission refused to change the property to an R-3 zoning to permit its use as a rest home. Co-owner Abraham Farris said there was no possibility of re-opening the building as a hospital.

Northville's newly-organized Jaycees recently proved to the city council that they meant what they said when they promised to turn-over receipts from a horse show for use in constructing a new scout building. They donated $760 toward a new building.

Kroger opened its new Northville store to welcome approximately 4,000 customers on the first day of business. City officials took the opening ceremonies as occasion for expressing thanks to the firm for their confidence in the city in building within the central business district.

IN NOVI . . .
A minor row arose in the Novi village council chambers as the council voted to adopt a new hunting ordinance aimed at preventing hunting by unwanted outsiders.

Novi residents were told they should stick together as a single governmental unit no matter what steps they decide to take to preserve their boundaries when L. L. Friedland of Wayne State university appeared at a board of commerce-sponsored meeting on city incorporation.

IN WIXOM . . .
Wixom Mayor Donald Brooks felt as though he had just stepped from a gymnasium steam room at the end of a city council meeting. He said council action in refusing to pay the bill for the purchase of a traffic timer he had authorized put him in "a very bad light."

NOVEMBER

IN NORTHVILLE . . .
It was a night for the people to be heard, and nearly 200 city residents took advantage of the opportunity at the city council's public hearing on a proposal to levy a 25 percent assessment against property abutting street improvements to help pay for the projects. No final decisions were reached, but a good number of residents voiced pro and con opinions. The council plans to study transcripts of the meeting before forming its final opinions about the proposal.

Plans were announced for a land-fill project that would culminate in development of a multi-million-dollar subdivision on now nearly worthless township land. The project would redeem wastelands left from the Manning and Locklin gravel company's operations.

Mrs. William S. Milne was appointed to succeed long-time City Clerk Mrs. Mary Alexander, who is retiring after nearly 30 years of service to the community.

IN NOVI . . .
The village council approved a special assessment tax roll to move one step closer to the project of paving streets in Willowbrook subdivision number one. The roll, which special assesses all lots in the subdivision on an equal basis, now goes to the state authority controlling public debts for approval before bonds can be issued for financing the project.

The public meets with Novi Superintendent of Schools and Mrs. Thomas Culbert.

IN WIXOM . . .
Council approval of a new zoning ordinance that will govern zoning in the entire city drew loud protests from several residents. Mayor Donald Brooks pointed out to objectors that there had been several public hearings where their opinions could have been heard.

DECEMBER

IN NORTHVILLE . . .
Northville Downs learned from Racing Commissioner Edgar Hayes that its hopes of receiving 40 nights of harness racing formerly staged at Jackson Raceway had been once more refused.

IN NOVI . . .
Council members approved a progressive system of sewer tap charges that will increase tap-in costs to property owners each year of the 15-year bonding period. First year charges for taps in the $1,260,000 sewer will be about $435 per tap, and will reach $785 by the end of the 15 years.

IN WIXOM . . .
The city council has approved installation of a special fire call telephone system. Special telephones will be placed in five firemen's homes so that telephone duty hours may be spent at home rather than at the city hall.

State Needs to Establish Policy on Higher Education

Higher education in Michigan, especially in state-supported institutions, has come a long way since the 1907-08 constitution was written.

At that time the document, which is now under scrutiny for revision in Lansing, listed only one institution, the University of Michigan, as a constitutional entity unto itself.

Now, two universities have been added to the list, Wayne State University and Michigan State University, and many of the other state institutions of higher learning have changed their status.

Eastern, Western and Central were formerly teachers' colleges. They have gained university status and their enrollments reach new limits almost yearly. The others, Northern Michigan College, Michigan Tech and Ferris Institute, has also grown with increasing rapidity.

This year, a 10th four-year institution was created by the legislature for western Michigan, now known as Grand Valley State College.

During the years these developments have taken place, other changes in the field of higher education have also been recorded. The number, size and curricula in community colleges have increased.

Educators now say the community colleges will gain in importance in future years, at least partly because of the rising need of some post-high school training for employment.

Michigan's college-age population, youth between the ages of 18 and 24, will be 95 per cent larger in 1975 than it was last year, according to a prediction by Dr. David Goldberg, program director of the University of Michigan's Institute of Public Administration.

This would give Michigan's colleges and universities a potential enrollment of better than 400,000 students in less than 15 years.

Need for a sound philosophy by state leaders about the financing of college education is underlined in a Wayne State university proposal which comes up for legislative consideration in the next session.

Wayne has submitted a plan to raise tuition at that university in return for an increase in state support. "The matching feature," says President Clarence B. Hilberry, "means a sharing of responsibility by the taxpayers and by the families immediately concerned, rather than the assignment of the whole cost to either." Wayne proposes that state funds be increased $4 for each $1 in tuition. Loans to students is another suggestion from Wayne. This deferred payment feature would require the student or his family to start payment after he had finished college.

Initial reactions from legislators has been one of "interest." This is proper and predictable. Anyone connected with the budget should be interested in ways to reduce it and to make state money go further. It should be remembered, however, that one way to eliminate taxes completely, would be to eliminate all state services. The other extreme is to eliminate the financial problem for the student and pay complete tuition costs.

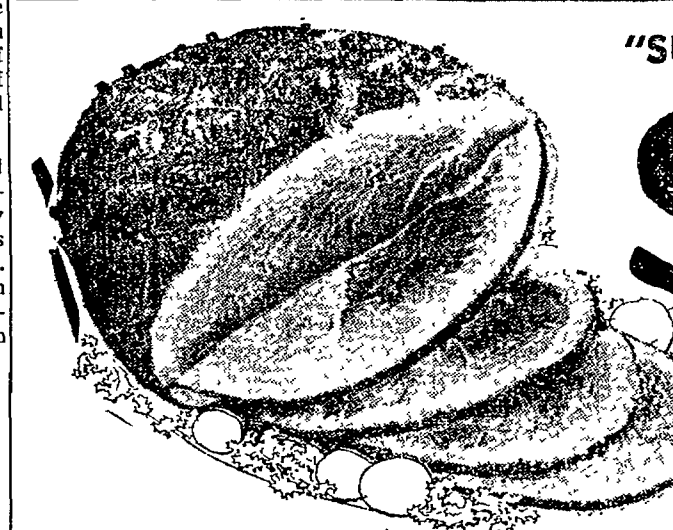

What Michigan needs in order to have a sound solution to its college financing question is a facing up to the basic problem of what people of the state want to supply in the way of higher education for Michigan youth.

Until the philosophical policy is determined, educators, legislators and the public will be dealing with stopgap ideas. Women drivers may take some encouragement from a national study which shows the female motorist has far fewer accidents than men. That is, the report is cheering for women if they read only the first section. The final conclusion of a 12-month study by the National Safety Council indicates women have less accidents than men, but in proportion to the number of miles driven by the sexes, women have the poorer record. About 61 million male drivers were involved in 15 million accidents during the study. In the same period 3,500,000 accidents occurred involving the nation's 21 million woman drivers.
