Schools Study Pay Plans For Coaches, Custodians

Revised pay schedules for custodial and maintenance employees and teachers who coach or supervise extra-curricular activities topped Monday night's board of education agenda.

Although no final action was taken on either plan, each, if approved, would provide pay increases.

Some modifications in each of both proposals may result when school officials re-confer with representatives of the groups which will be affected.

At Annual Meeting

It's Government 'By the People'

Township electors will become "township officials" Saturday afternoon.

At 1 p.m. in the Northville community building township residents will join together at the annual township meeting, a legal requirement of the township form of government.

During the meeting all business will be conducted by voice vote of the people present. However only persons qualified as electors may vote.

The townspeople have a right to make ordinances, receive reports of public officials, pass upon the performance of township officials, pass upon the transaction of financial affairs, and also consider and vote upon expenditures for the upcoming year.

The usual procedure is for Township Supervisor George Clark, who will conduct the meeting, to call upon the treasurer and clerk for reports. The supervisor reviews the year's business and calls upon the public to approve the mill levy and such appropriations as the recreation fund.

Town Hall, Travelogue

Cerf, Davis in Series' Finales

Two newcomers to the Northville cultural community — Northville Town Hall, a morning lecture series for women, sponsored by the Altar Society of Our Lady of Victory church, and the Rotary — sponsored World Travel Series — close out their premiere season Tuesday.

Town Hall climaxes its first year with the long-awaited visit of Bennett Cerf. His talk at the P&A theatre will start at 11 a.m., followed by a speaker's luncheon at Lofy's Arbor-Lill. Little elaboration is needed on Cerf's background. The well-known "What's My Line?" television panelist is a man of many talents: humorist, author, editor, columnist and president of Random House publishing company.

Jane Schermerhorn, "Day by Day" columnist for the Detroit News, will introduce the lecturer.

Cerf will be in the lobby of the theatre half an hour before lecture time and remain after the luncheon to autograph books he has written.

The books are being distributed locally by Stewart's Gift and Art Supplies on Main street.

Luncheon reservations should be made as early as possible with Miss Ruth Knapp, FI 9-1829.

The Rotary series, in its final offering of the season, will bring Robert Davis and his color travelogue, "Sicily — Island of the Sun", to the stage of the high school auditorium at 8 p.m.

Davis' film portrays the Sicily of today as it stands against the back-drop of history. He explores the Mediterranean island from the semi-tropical lowlands to the top of Mt. Etna, highest volcano in Europe, showing everything from the battle with the giant tunny fish to the transformation of hard wheat into spaghetti. The pages of history unfold in scenes of the floor of a third century Roman Villa, the Greek theater at Syracuse attended by Plato and the medieval village of Eric where the Venus ruled over the destinies of gods and men.

Construction Starts Monday On Downtown Auto - Bank

Construction of the newest addition to Northville's rapidly changing business district was marked Monday morning in special ground-breaking ceremonies.

Officials of Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit were joined by city and township officials to signal the beginning of the bank's new drive-in facility at the corner of Dunlap and Hutton streets.

Actual construction will get underway Monday. Completion of the 1,100 square foot auto-bank is scheduled for early July.

The drive-in bank construction follows closely the building of the new Kroger supermarket and actually came into being as a part of the original land sale to the Kroger company.

The 11,000 square foot corner site was originally owned by the city. It was the location of the recreation-scout building and was sold to the Kroger company for $13,000 as part of that company's property purchase for its new store. Later the corner was sold by Kroger to Manufacturers.

Monday complete details of the new extension of Manufacturers' Main street office were outlined by bank officials, the contractor and architect.

The facility will provide two drive-in windows, line-up space for 14 cars, a night depository, interior teller's window and off-street parking area. It will be contemporary in design and constructed of salmon-colored masonry, steel, aluminum and glass.

A canopy will surround the building and landscaping will include a lawn and bushes.

General contractor for the job is Kolarik and Cronk, Inc. The architect is C. E. Noetzel.

In a breakfast meeting following the groundbreaking ceremonies William B. Howe, senior vice president of Manufacturers, stated that a survey taken in the area had indicated a strong desire for a drive-in facility. He pointed to the central location as an important feature.

A. Russell Clarke, vice president in charge of the Northville office, presided at the meeting. Others in attendance included Mayor A. M. Allen and Supervisor George Clark; M. C. Guntzell, Roy Terrill and E. M. Borgart, members of the bank advisory board; and John Stubenvoll, assistant vice president, George Forger, assistant cashier; and Bernard E. Lund, Jr., of the bank's information office.

In addition to the new Kroger and bank buildings, Northville has also seen its business district improved in recent months by the A&P company and Detroit Federal Savings & Loan. A new scout-recreation building, post office and city hall are currently being planned.

MAYOR A. M. ALLEN turned the first shovelful of earth Monday morning for the new Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit drive-in while Township Supervisor George Clark watched. Looking on are officials and employees of the bank.

Local Bingo OK Under Donation Method Ruling

Can bingo be played legally?

It can and is being played weekly in Northville, revealed Police Chief Eugene King, with in a close knit framework of conditions spelled out by Wayne County Prosecuting Attorney Samuel H. Olsen.

Inquiries on bingo activity here were prompted by two recent incidents in which police interrupted games at the Mayflower Veterans of Foreign Wars Post in Plymouth at a union hall in Wayne.

Local games played Saturday nights at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall on South Main have not been closed, explained King, because they are being played according to strict rules set down by Olsen.

King said these rules were explained to persons running the games here at a meeting in the prosecutor's office several months ago.

At that time Olsen stressed voluntary contribution as the main condition to be followed in the games, King said.

Bingo here would come to a halt, King added, if the slightest violation of this rule were discovered. It is the voluntary concept, he pointed out, which keeps the acceptable game from being a lottery.

Specifically, the organization running the games cannot set or announce any required sum for playing. Players can join the games, then, regardless of whether or not they donate and how much they donate if they do.

A spokesman for the Northville VFW Post 4012 said all proceeds from the games are returned to the community through a number of civic and charitable projects carried on by the VFW during the year.

Baby Sitter Is Heroine

Only other parents whose children have been saved from the brink of tragedy can begin to appreciate how grateful Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Marshall are for the quick thinking shown by 14-year-old Joan Brevik last Thursday night.

The Northville Heights couple went to Detroit that evening leaving their two boys and 14-year-old Joan in the care of their 14-year-old daughter.

About 8:45 Joan, watching television in the family room on the home's lower level with the Marshalls' 7-year-old son John, smelled smoke. Going upstairs to investigate, she was met by a screen of smoke. The house was on fire.

Without stopping to determine the extent of the blaze, the baby sitter rushed up to the next level where she snatched the Marshalls' 6-month-old baby, Randall Scott, from his crib.

With both children out of danger she called her father who summoned the fire department. The fire, which started in a ceiling fan on the third level, gutted the attic and left a considerable amount of smoke damage throughout the house.

To Repeat Paving Hearing; Award Center Street Bid

A routine at which Northville councilmembers are becoming proficient through practice will be repeated Monday night when another public hearing on street improvements by special assessment will be held.

The proposed assessment applies to the on-again, off-again East-High-Elm-Walnut street project.

Two weeks ago, the proposal to pave the streets and assess property owners 25 per cent was voted down. The rejection came after petitions protested the assessment forcing a four-fifths vote for approval. The vote was 3-2.

Last week another petition was presented the council asked that the proposal be reconsidered. The petition bore signatures of property owners representing approximately 60 per cent of the assessment.

The council moved swiftly — with "pro-assessment" members Mayor A. M. Allen and Councilman Richard Ambler outvoting "anti-assessment" Councilmembers Beatrice Carlson and Richard Juday.

The routine requirements of special assessment procedure — an initiatory resolution and city manager's report — were pulled out of the file and repeated.

Another public hearing is necessary to confirm the assessment roll. Then the project can be advertised and bids let.

It is at the final public hearing that property owners can force a four-fifths vote of the council for approval of the assessment.

It requires signatures representing more than 50 per cent of the assessment to be paid, however.

The petition filed last week by C. Oscar Hammond, a Walnut street resident, listed signatures representing 60 per cent in favor of assessment (many of which had previously opposed the plan).

Also on the agenda for Monday night will be the awarding of bids for paving of North Center street from the Eight Mile road cut-off to South Ely drive.

Bids were opened last week from 10 contractors and ranged from $15,000 to $25,000. The city engineer had estimated a cost of $20,000 in preparing proposed assessment figures.

Cost of paving portions of East-High-Elm and Walnut (where curb and gutter have already been installed) is estimated at $13,374. Some 49 property owners would divide the total assessment of $2,875.30 based on front-footage. The remaining $10,498.70 would be paid from the city's general fund.

It's Northville, N. Muskegon In Mayor Swap

Northville and Novi were notified this week of the cities with which they will exchange mayors during the annual Michigan Week celebration.

Northville drew North Muskegon, a community almost identical in size with a population of 3,855. It's 130 miles from Northville on Lake Michigan.

Novi will exchange mayors with Hastings, a city of 6,375 population located in Barry county north of Battle Creek.

The exchange of officials takes place on Monday, May 21.

C. Oscar Hammond will chairmen Northville's Michigan Week observance. Novi's council plans to name its chairman next week.

Accidents In Area Claim Three

One motorist died, two other persons were killed and nine injured in area accidents during the past week.

Dead on arrival at Pontiac General hospital Saturday was Gilberto R. Ibarra, 42, of 575 South Main, Plymouth. Also pronounced dead on arrival Sunday was two-year-old Diane Badarak, daughter of Samuel Badarak, 48, of Allen Park.

Ibarra was killed Saturday morning when the car in which he was a passenger crashed head-on into the cement abutment on Pontiac trail over the Norton drain, just west of the Wixom road intersection.

Injured in the Saturday accident was Donald Noway, 36, of Brighton, who was driver of the car. Hospital spokesmen said he suffered a badly shattered jaw and fractures of the right ankle and left knee. He was listed as in good condition.

The Badarak girl was killed Sunday afternoon when her father's stationwagon left Wixom road at Charns road and struck a telephone pole broadside.

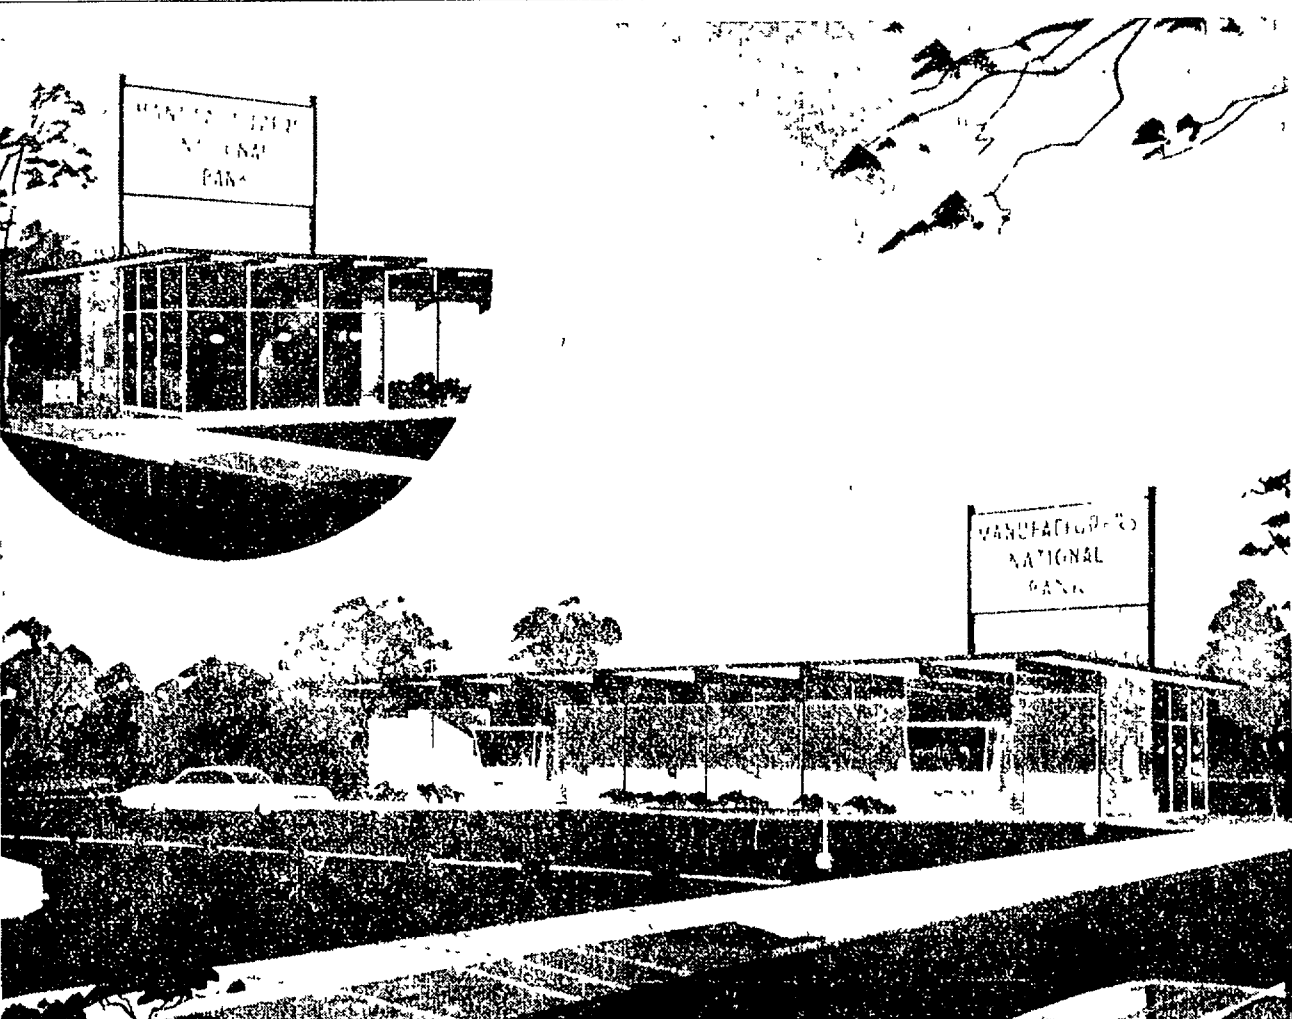

Of the eight persons in the Badarak car, only Badarak escaped hospitalization. He was treated at the hospital and released, while his wife, Helen and children Theresa, 10, Lawrence, 8, and John, 5, were hospitalized.

Also injured was Mrs. David Eastland, of 3327 Theodore, sister of Badarak, and her daughters Barbara, 6, and Mary, 4.

Both Mrs. Eastland and Mrs. Badarak suffered pelvic fractures, while Mrs. Badarak received a broken arm and a slight concussion, and Mrs. Eastland suffered fractures of several facial bones.

All are reported doing as well as could be expected. Herman Schroder, 78, was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Mary hospital, Livonia, last Wednesday afternoon after being stricken by a heart attack while driving south on Novi road near new Eight Mile.

Police said Schroder, who lived at 201 Endwell in Novi, swerved from the road just inside the Northville city limits. His car continued some 168 feet into a field bordering the Village Green subdivision before coming to a halt.

Manufacturers' drive-in bank at Dunlap and Hutton will look like this when completed next July.

Volunteers Fight Cancer With Knowledge in April

Mrs. Raymond Nast
Directs April
Cancer Crusade

A team of area women headed by Mrs. Raymond Nast, of 43762 Doris court, will conduct an educational crusade throughout the community in the coming weeks in conjunction with Major A. M. Allen's proclamation of April as "Cancer Control Month."

Mayor Allen, in a proclamation issued from his office Monday, urged citizens to actively join in the observance by acquainting themselves with "all available facts on cancer detection and treatment." He also stressed participation in activities which will be carried out by Mrs. Nast and her Michigan Cancer Foundation volunteers.

Projects planned by the local committee include collection of salvage material, showing of a film at the P&A theatre and distribution of educational information.

Women here are working in cooperation with the Michigan Cancer Foundation (MCF), a Torch Drive agency, which receives $741,000 from the United Fund appeal for cancer research, service and education.

Unlike the American Cancer Society, also conducting a crusade in April, MCF volunteers here will not be soliciting donations.

Their primary goal is expressed in their campaign theme, "Fight Cancer With Knowledge."

Coordinating the MCF crusade for the entire Western Wayne County Unit is George T. Martin, municipal judge in the City of Dearborn for the past 20 years who graduated from Northville high school and attended Michigan State university and Cleary college. He is being assisted by Mrs. Kenneth Gust, Western Wayne Unit chairman of the Women's Crusade committee.

Listening Post Tells Plans For 1962-63 Lecture Series

Plans are now underway for preparation of the second season of the Listening Post, lecture program offered by Plymouth-Northville branch of the American Association of University Women in cooperation with Detroit Adventure.

The cultural series, which recently completed its premiere year, is designed to provide stimulating intellectual thought in the areas of fine art, physical science and political science.

Births

Their first child, a nine-pound one-ounce daughter named Lorie Lynn, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Doug Gray, of Hutton street, Tuesday, March 20 at St. Joseph Mercy hospital in Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bingley, 101 East Baseline, are parents of a daughter, Pamela Sue, born March 20 at St. Mary hospital, Livonia. She weighed 7 pounds, 15 ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lanning of Lima, Peru announce the birth of a son, Edward Hancy, on March 19. Grandmother to the new baby, who has a two-year-old sister, is Mrs. F. R. Lanning of 214 South Wing.

Used Book Sale to Aid AAUW Fellowship Fund

A bounty of bargains in books is being offered by Plymouth-Northville branch of the American Association of University Women (AAUW) at its 7th annual Used Book Sale Thursday through Saturday, March 29-31, at the Kroger store, Plymouth.

Books for children, adult fiction, biographies, academic writings, non-fiction and some paper-backs are among the variety of volumes that will be on sale.

Mrs. P. K. Settles, chairman, said her committee is especially grateful to Miss Edna Allen who donated her library to the sale, helping the AAUW to have a greater selection of books to suit a greater span of reading interests.

Proceeds from the sale go toward 49 AAUW fellowships — amounting to $132,000 — which are awarded to women in the United States for graduate study beyond a master's degree.

Candidates are to have fulfilled their requirements for a Ph.D., except for the dissertation, or have achieved professional recognition. Fellowships may be used here or abroad in any field of study.

Mrs. J. W. Moche, fellowship chairman, GL 3-5509, has additional information about the program.

Another part of the fellowship plan includes support of an International Grant program which has enabled 44 women from 29 countries to come to this country for post-doctorate study.

Book donations for the sale may still be made by phoning Mrs. Settles at GL 3-1361.

Alpha Nu Chapter Taps New Officers

Miss Myrtle Funk heads a new slate of officers elected by Alpha Nu chapter members of Delta Kappa Gamma at their March meeting.

Serving with the new president will be first vice president, Miss Ada Fritz; second vice president, Mrs. Orpha Moshmer; recording secretary, Miss Kathryn Giltner; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Lucille Reeves; parliamentarian, Mrs. Violet Bradford.

Their term of office begins July 1.

Miss Ione Palmer, assisted by Miss Diana Lance and Mrs. Edith Renwick, hosted the meeting.

A program in two parts was presented by Mrs. Lucille Proctor. "Studying the Effects of Automation" was introduced by a report of the special project, "Education Implications of Automation (EIA)" symposium held in Washington, D.C. January 17-19. Also on the program were a series of slides depicting places Mrs. Proctor and Mrs. Renwick visited during travels in Sweden, Norway and Denmark.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Eva Donovan, president, stressed the state conference that will be held in Traverse City in May. Several Alpha Nu members will represent the chapter at the confab.

To Marry This Fall

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Luchtman of Orchard drive, announce the engagement of their daughter, Diane Kay, to Nelson C. Schrader, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson C. Schrader, Jr., also of Orchard drive.

Both Miss Luchtman and Mr. Schrader are students at Michigan State university where the bride-elect is affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. They graduated from Northville high school in 1959. A September wedding is planned.

Play Opener To Benefit Symphony

April 9 marks the world premiere performance of "Bravo Giovanni," a new musical comedy starring Cesare Siepi, the Fisher theater.

The opening night performance of the show will be a benefit for the Plymouth Symphony orchestra.

In "Bravo Giovanni" Siepi who has had a world-renowned career in concert and opera, makes his musical comedy debut as a Rome restaurateur whose small cafe is threatened by a huge cafeteria. He resorts to scheming to outwit his competitor.

Also in the cast with Siepi are newcomer ingenue Michel Lee and well-known character actor David Opatoshu, with Carol Haney, "Flower Drum Song" choreographer, directing the dancing.

Women of the Plymouth Symphony league, an organization devoted to service projects and financial support of the symphony, rely heavily on annual theater parties to enable them to continue their contribution to the community orchestra.

For seats on the main floor theater-goers may contact Mr. Paul Malboeuf, GL-3-6466; for tickets in the first balcony, contact Mrs. John Pulker, G-3-9247.

News Around Northville

Mrs. C. L. Blackburn, Orchard drive, returned home Friday after a stay at University of Michigan hospital in Ann Arbor.

Dr. H. Lorne Dyer engineered quite a surprise for his wife a week ago Sunday.

It was the couple's eighth wedding anniversary, and without dropping even the slightest hint, Dr. Dyer arranged a champagne dinner in Gerry's honor at the Vineyards in Southfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beerbower are home from an 8-day trip West. Mr. Beerbower attended a convention in Las Vegas after which the couple traveled to San Francisco for a two-day visit.

Quite a delegation of Northville women traveled to downtown Detroit last Thursday to see the newest spring styles at the Free Press fashion show in the plush Fisher theatre.

At the show were Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. Lola Alexander, Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. Orson Atchinson and Mrs. Hugh Godfrey.

Mrs. Russell Atchinson and Mrs. Frank Martin also went down to the show after keeping a luncheon date with Virginia Anderson, former Record society editor.

Engaged

Wedding bells will ring July 22 for James Morris Rambeau son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rambeau, of 22275 Haggert, and his bride-to-be, Christine Muir, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Spencer Muir, of Cincinnati, Ohio.

The couple will exchange vows at an 8-30 ceremony in Christ church, Glendale, Ohio. Miss Muir's parents will host reception immediately afterward in their home.

J-C Wives Aren't Short On Projects

Northville Junior Chamber of Commerce auxiliary has had three irons in the proverbial fire lately to keep its members busy.

Five of the women — Mrs. Charles Ely, Mrs. Robert Norton, Mrs. Robert Pratt, Mrs. Robert Piom and Mrs. Duane Marshall — visited Eastlawn Convalescent home March 15, taking fruit, candy, pens and reading material to the patients.

Last Wednesday, auxiliary representatives met with a group of Jaycee wives who plan to form an auxiliary in Plymouth. The Northville group is the official extending auxiliary to help the Plymouth women get started.

Throughout both projects, local Jaycee wives have been promoting their candy sale. They are selling two varieties, Easter Bunny Bits and Golden Butter Bits, which come packaged in attractive re-usable canisters.

Profits from the sale will be turned over to the auxiliary's fund for community projects.

NEWCOMER'S CORNER

"I look upon every day to be lost, in which I do not make a new acquaintance."

— Samuel Johnson

LIKE THE QUIET—The comparatively sedate surroundings of their new neighborhood in Northville Estates is just what the Edward Wilds were looking for when they left Livonia, their home of 15 years, to come to Northville. Pictured (l-r) in their new home at 21285 Summerside are Earl, Mr. Wild, Mrs. Wild, Allan and Byron.

Putting the finishing touches on their new home at 21285 Summerside, Northville Estates, are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wild, former Livonians who moved here in December.

A sizeable share of those finishing flourishes will require top soil, grass seed, rakes, hoes and good strong backs. Ed Wild has help in that last department, however, with three sons, Earl, 21, Byron, 19, and Dwight Allan, 7.

Much of the outside work will have to wait until the weekends, though, unless Eileen Wild takes over while her men are away.

Weekdays her husband can be found at Ford Motor company's administrative offices in Livonia, and the boys are in the classroom. Earl and Byron commute to Cleary College in Ypsilanti where both are working toward bachelor's degrees.

Local Coeds Make Albion Dean's List

Two Northville high school graduates have been named to the Dean's list at Albion College for the first semester of the 1961-62 school year.

They are, Nancy E. Beard (sophomore), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beard, of 41261 Eight Mile road, Northville, and Brenda L. Seeley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Seeley, 25700 Seeley road, Novi.

Civil Air Patrol May Come Here

The Civil Air Patrol, a volunteer civilian auxiliary of the U.S. Air Force, is coming to Northville.

That is preliminary steps toward formation of a unit here have been taken, although the final decision hinges on the response of interested young people and adults in the area.

Civil Air Patrol (CAP), an organization for young men and women 14 years of age and older, offers an extensive aviation-oriented program geared to:

- inform the general public about aviation and its impacts;
- provide its seniors and cadets ground and pre-flight aviation education and training;
- provide air service under emergency conditions;
- establish a radio network covering all parts of the United States for both training and emergency use;

— encourage the establishment of flying clubs for its membership;

— give selected cadets a two-week encampment period at airbases, and — provide scholarships for selected cadets.

Recently added to this list of general objectives and activities are trips to Europe for outstanding cadets in an international exchange with 21 foreign countries. One cadet from each state receives jet orientation.

Wixom PTA Slates Talk On Guidance

"Guiding Children's Behavior in the Home" is the title of a speech to be made at the next Wixom P-TA meeting Tuesday evening in the elementary school, announces Secretary Mrs. Roy Liddle.

Guest speaker will be Miss Florence Gould, coordinator of administration for services at the Meeril-Palmer institute in Detroit. Miss Gould holds bachelor's and Master's degrees from the University of Georgia, and has taught child development at Iowa State university.

Mrs. Liddle said the speaker will present the importance of correct guidance in the home and suggest practical answers to problems in this area submitted by the audience.

The P-TA will also elect officers for the coming year, she said.

She added that in observation of American Library Week, the school faculty invites parents to visit the library open house at 7:30 before the meeting. Displays of new books recently furnished by the P-TA and school board would be set up for visitors, she said.

The teachers will also be in their rooms to meet parents, she said, and added that room mothers will serve refreshments.

Reviewer Is Guest Of Churchwomen

St. John's Episcopal churchwomen have scheduled a book review to be given by Mrs. Charles Dengler, of Jackson, Thursday, April 5 at 1 p.m. in the church.

A tea will be held following the book review. Donation is one dollar.

Mrs. Dengler will review "Rembrandt" by Gladys Schmidt, a biography in novel form. The review is said to be one of Mrs. Dengler's best and has received rave notices in other communities.

NHS Band, Rated Tops All Around, Plays Friday

Northville high school band — fresh from a top-notch performance at the District Festival in Royal Oak and first in number of musicians selected for the Wayne-Oakland league band — will present its annual spring concert tomorrow (Friday) night at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

Musical repertoire for the admission - free concert runs the gamut from marches to works by modern composers and will include classics, show songs and student directed numbers.

Leslie Lee will conduct "Meditation" from "Thias" by Jules Massenet and "Pirates of Penzance", to be presented in operetta form by the high school choir later in the year.

Among the selections will be those played by the band at its highly rated performance in the district festival last month.

At the festival the band received a rating of straight ones — the tops. Northville played three numbers, "Toccatta" by Frescobaldi, required of all class A bands, the selected number "Le Roi Dye" by Lalo and "Here Comes the Band", a march by Cable.

For its final "One" rating, the band is eligible to compete in the state contest in Lansing April 28.

Besides their festival honors, the band sent 41 to the league's 73-member band. Of these 10 were first chairs.

Northville had the largest representation with Milford running second with 20 members, 7 of which were first chairs.

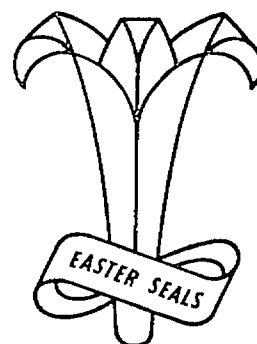

Tryouts were held at Bloomfield Hills. An unlimited number of students from each league school is allowed to compete for positions.

Culbert To Address Novi PTA

The next meeting of the Novi P-TA will have Superintendent Tom Culbert as guest speaker to discuss the proposed school millage increase that's to be voted on next month.

A P-TA spokesman said Culbert will discuss the proposition and answer questions. The meeting, scheduled for next Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the community building, is open to the public.

Legion To Salute Youth Month

The Northville American Legion post will observe Child Welfare Month with a special program following a potluck supper Tuesday evening at the post home.

Charles McDonald, Northville justice of the peace, and Mrs. William Claranan, junior vice president of the department of Michigan's Legion auxiliary, will be featured speaker.

McDonald will discuss community child welfare problems while Mrs. Claranan will point out the role of the Legion in child welfare activity.

In addition the Legion will present a merit of service award to Claude Morgan for his contribution to youth activities. Morgan is a leader of Boy Scout Troop 731.

The supper will be held at 6:30 p.m.

1—Card of Thanks

I wish to express to my friends and relatives my heartfelt thanks for their cards, letters and gifts to me during my stay at St. Mary hospital.

Ray Hollis

I wish to express to my friends, neighbors and relatives my heartfelt thanks for their cards, letters and gifts to me and my family during my stay in St. Mary hospital.

Fritz W. Kirchberg

We are deeply grateful to our friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy during our recent bereavement.
With special thanks to Rev.
Cook, Dr. Felling, Vera Vaughn
Circle and the Baptist Mission Band. The family of Helen Salow.

In the midst of all the sorrow, we wish to express our thanks and appreciation to our many relatives, friends and neighbors for the kindness and sympathy shown us in the loss of our beloved husband, father and grandfather, Carl Neely.
We are so grateful to all the donors of the beautiful flowers, cards and gifts and to those who brought food and helped in any way. For the comforting words of brothers Perry Milner and Ben Scharf and Catherine
Funeral home, for their kind and efficient management of the funeral. Mrs. Sunilda Neely, wife, sons, daughters and grandchildren.

Words cannot adequately express our deep appreciation for the many kind and sympathetic acts that came to us at the time of our recent bereavement.

The family of Effie Taulbee
Many thanks to my neighbors, friends and relatives for the cards, gifts, and other remembrances extended to me during my stay at St. Mary's hospital.

DISTRIBUTION OF 110 LEGISLATORS—The proposed House apportionment plan drawn up by Con-Con's committee on legislative organization is simply illustrated above. The proposal appears to have substantial support among delegates from the majority party at the convention. Based primarily on population, it gives 62 of the proposed 110 House seats to the five largest counties—Kent, Genesee, Oakland, Wayne and Macomb. The upper peninsula is awarded five, instead of the four seats to which it is entitled by population. The 32 counties in the northern lower peninsula are given eight, instead of the seven seats which their population dictates. The remainder of the outstate area in the southern lower peninsula would have 35 seats. The problem of setting up the 110 single representative districts would be left to a bi-partisan commission which would be named by the state's major political parties. Apportionment of the state senate, proposed by the committee, would immediately give four additional senators to the metropolitan area—one each to Wayne, Oakland, Macomb and Genesee. Outstate senate districts would continue as presently constituted until 1970 when a re-apportionment would be authorized based on a formula which gives 80 per cent weight to population and 20 per cent weight to area.

Here's Con-Con Plan for Reapportionment

"I will back it all the way. It is a good plan, a great deal better than the people of Michigan have been led to believe."

President of Michigan State University and Chairman of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, Dr. Hannah is one of the most influential, as well as one of the most reticent of delegates.

"I've been saving my words for what they made me responsible for here — 'apportionment,'" he explained with a smile. "Since I have not said much so far, I am hoping the Convention — now that I may have much to say — will be willing to listen."

Almost all delegates agree apportionment is the most important, most difficult and most critical factor to confront the Constitutional Convention.

"The Michigan House of Representatives would rank first among all of the states in the United States in giving fullest representation to population in House apportionment under our proposal," explained Hannah.

"I am informed that Michigan's state senate, which is to be elected on an 80 per cent population, 20 per cent area plan,

Under this plan, the 100 members of the House of Representatives would be elected from basic areas, each containing one or more counties and not less than 7 per cent of the state's population. Under the 1960 census there would be 40 districts. After each district is given its first representative, the remaining 70 seats would be awarded on the basis of the "equal proportions" formula used in the U.S. Congress.

The House apportionment, a compromise of several plans, became doubly important last week when it was revealed that George Romney, Republican candidate for governor, as a part of the much publicized compromise with Republican conservatives, had agreed to back the committee plan, surrendering his own which had called for straight population representation in the House.

Led by Melvin Nord (D-Detroit), PhD, attorney, engineer, and teacher of law, the Democrats have charged the proposal only cut from ten to five seats "the bias favoring rural Republicans in the present House." Adding there should be no favoritism whatever.

To this, Dr. Hannah, as well as associates of Romney, replied that the House plan was about as close to population equality as possible so long as voting areas are based on county lines. "Both parties favor keeping county lines," he said.

"I originally advocated house districts of equal population regardless of county lines, but I was overruled."

The senate plan, target of even sharper attacks because it involves the power of advice and consent, calls for four additional senators — one each for Wayne, Genesee, Macomb and Oakland counties — immediately.

The plan sets up an eight-man bipartisan commission to apportion the state after the census of 1970. Each county is to be assigned a factor computed by taking its percentage of the state's population, multiplying this by four and adding the result to its percentage of the state's total area. These figures would, under the 1960 census figures, range from a high of 137.38 for Wayne County to 1.06 for Keweenaw, northernmost county in the state.

Counties not entitled to one or more senate seats would be combined to form senatorial districts which are to contain, as nearly as possible, 13 factor points for one senator. A minimum of 19.5 is required for two. This would permit the retention of two senators in Kent County if it retains its present percentage of population.

Dr. Nord, who in the minority report charged the present senate is malapportioned 12 to 1 in favor of rural Republicans, wrote. "In the committee plan the bias against the metropolitan voter is made the basis of a monstrous formula equating people with square miles ... (it is) an expression of contempt for people to equate them with dirt."

In its supporting reasons, the committee wrote, "the plan is responsive to population shifts ... and achieves precisely what it is designed to accomplish, a blend of population and area factors in an effective way. The committee was impressed by testimony at public hearings that the senate should reflect area as well as population."

All Senators and Representatives are elected from single districts. The Supreme Court is given power to force action by the apportionment commission and may review final districting plan, under certain conditions and circumstances.

— Out of the Past —

ONE YEAR AGO
March 30, 1961

— The Northville school board Monday night gave its approval to a tentative 1961-62 budget totaling $899,000. Superintendent Russell Amerman, author of the budget, said his estimated expenditures for next year should just about match anticipated revenues.

— The Northville city council and a small group of residents from the North Center street area, made history Monday night. While no official vote was taken, it was clearly evident that a council majority, with support from the residents, stands ready to form a policy that all future street improvements be paid for by both the general fund and owners of abutting property.

— Northville and Novi fire and police officials this week issued warnings they will begin stern enforcement of state fire laws. The officials said a rash of "unnecessary and careless" fires in the area have cost a great deal in both firefighting and damages, and added that statutes covering fires would be more rigidly enforced in the future.

— Action at the Wixom Civic association's meeting Tuesday night paved the way for petitions calling for a vote to limit the city's charter-given taxing power to four mills. The association voted to circulate the petitions "in a few days."

— A 1961-62 budget calling for increased expenditures of about $65,000 was proposed to the Novi school board last week. The board reviewed the proposals in detail and ordered Superintendent William Medlyn to present the final draft at next month's meeting.

FIVE YEARS AGO
March 28, 1957

— Northville and Novi school districts both gained and lost last week as the Wayne and Oakland county school boards met together to consider petitions of both Northville was given eight acres of Novi territory, and won out over Novi's bid to gain 500 acres from the Northville district, and Novi was awarded 240 acres of the Farmington district.

— The Northville school board last week received the final report of their curriculum study committee, which had met for nearly a year of fact finding and detailed study. A program of intensive counseling was the central recommendation of the committee, along with vocational aptitude programs, integrated study courses, a cooperative work program, psychological services and elimination of the traditional study hall period.

— Wixom has taken the first step in its challenge of a Novi township suit aimed at invalidating the incorporation of Wixom as a village. A village representative appeared in Oakland county circuit court last week to satisfy the legal deadline for answering Novi's suit.

— A $40,000 house burned to the ground in Novi township last week, with the urging of five fire departments. The building, used as engineering headquarters while the new Lincoln plant was being built, was in the way, and when no one offered to take it off the plant's hands and move it away, officials ordered it burned down. The five departments from Novi, Milford, Walled Lake, Commerce and Franklin used it for firefighting practice before allowing it to burn down.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO
March 28, 1947

— Monday night a blizzard swept southeastern Michigan on the heels of a rain storm, covering the area with a deep blanket of snow that was whipped into deep drifts by a strong North wind. Snow choked highways, bringing traffic to a standstill, and the winds played havoc with telephone wires, putting many phones out of commission and forcing the telephone company to limit long distance calls to emergencies.

— Northville police joined forces with the State Police over the week-end on investigation of the ransacking of a Northville home. Broken into Sunday afternoon was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Babbitt, of Rogers street. The entire second floor of their home was disturbed, and two pistols were stolen from a gun case. Police have as yet uncovered no clues.

— Northville's new fire engine arrived Saturday, and was put through its paces before it had had a chance to become accustomed to the new surroundings. Sunday it was used to battle a blaze that did considerable damage to the Barthel Rest home on Halstead road, and Tuesday it saw action in the fire at the White Kitchen on Main street.

— The Exchange club celebrated the 35th anniversary of the founding of the national organization as well as the 24th birthday of the local club Wednesday.

— State and local health officials this week issued a warning to Northville residents to be certain they are protected against smallpox. The officials explained that when the local basketball team played at district tournaments in Ypsilanti last month, many villagers were exposed to possible smallpox carriers from Dundee, which has been quarantined.

— The possibility of turning Salem's wildcat oil well into "gasser" will be determined next week when experts "shoot for gas" at the drilling site of the Kehrl farm about three miles west of Northville. A suspicion of gas came from a day showing of a quarter of a million cubic feet of gas during oil drilling procedures.

But Bow to River Rouge

Cagers Reach Semi-finals in Lansing

It was good news and bad for Northville basketball fans last week.

Wednesday night the Mustangs held on to a two-point lead to top a rough 57-55 bid from Elkton - Pigeon-Bayport and secure a berth in the state class B semi-finals at Lansing. But Friday night the local quintet discovered they had purchased a one-way ticket, and the last stop was Lansing Scotchon high school, where Coach Lofton Greene's Panthers of River Rouge rather harshly ended any Northville dreams of a state championship with a 72-53 dunking.

Although the pill of defeat was a bitter one to swallow, the Mustangs could still point to a spotless 15-0 regular season record, as well as their unmarked battle through five games in the district, regional and quarterfinal competition — the best season any Mustang squad has ever had.

And, as Mustang Mentor Dave Longridge, enjoying immensely his first season at the reins of a cage squad, philosophized:

"At least we went out with the champions."

And champs they were — those Panthers of River Rouge. After overwhelming Northville Friday night, they breezed past Grand Rapids East 69-36 Saturday morning to their second straight class "B" title and their fifth in the past nine years.

Last Wednesday the Mustangs traveled to mammoth Flint Southwestern high school to take on the Lakers of Elkton-Pigeon-Bayport for the quarterfinal honors.

It was Northville most of the way, after the local club pulled to an early lead and threw up a stiff man-to-man press to stave off E-P-B's offense.

The Mustangs enjoyed a slight edge on the boards, and used smooth-working pass-off plays to set up many of their shots. They held a 17-11 advantage as the first quarter buzzer sounded.

But the Laker defense wasn't through — and soon it was snaggling Northville's passes in to Center Dan Brown. A double-teaming zone defense kept the Lakers to the outside, but they still enjoyed a better shooting quarter and were able to tie the game 27-27 at half time.

The Mustangs grabbed off a quick three points to open second-half play, and soon built their lead to five points. But their aggressive defensive play threatened to cancel Northville's edge as Steve Juday had three fouls and Tom Swiss drew his fourth in the third period.

But fouls or not, the Mustangs were taking no chances, and their tightened defense held Laker scoring to a one-point minimum in the final two minutes of the quarter, giving Northville a 42-36 edge to start the final stanza.

At the mid-way mark of the last period, with Northville leading by seven points, the Lakers switched to a full-court press that threw the Mustangs off balance momentarily.

The Lakers' last-minute bid was fatal, though, as the tricky defense brought Northville to the foul line for several charity points that proved the difference at game's end. Two quick steals in the final minute threatened to give E-P-B the lead, but time ran out, with Northville on the top of a two-point advantage.

Brown turned in his finest game of the season at Flint. Defensively, he controlled the boards with his rebounding. He led all scorers with 25 points.

While it had been Northville nearly all the way against the triple-monickered Lakers Wednesday, it was Northville for only 40 seconds Friday — the 40 seconds it took River Rouge to collect its defense and get its offense rolling.

Northville jumped to a three-point lead as the game opened, but by the time it was a minute old, the Panthers had pulled to a lead that widened and widened, and widened until the final period, when Greene benched his starters.

Rouge moved its characteristic run-and-shoot pattern to a 22-12 lead by the end of the opening period, and then continued to swell its lead to 47-21 at half time and 68-33 by the end of the third quarter.

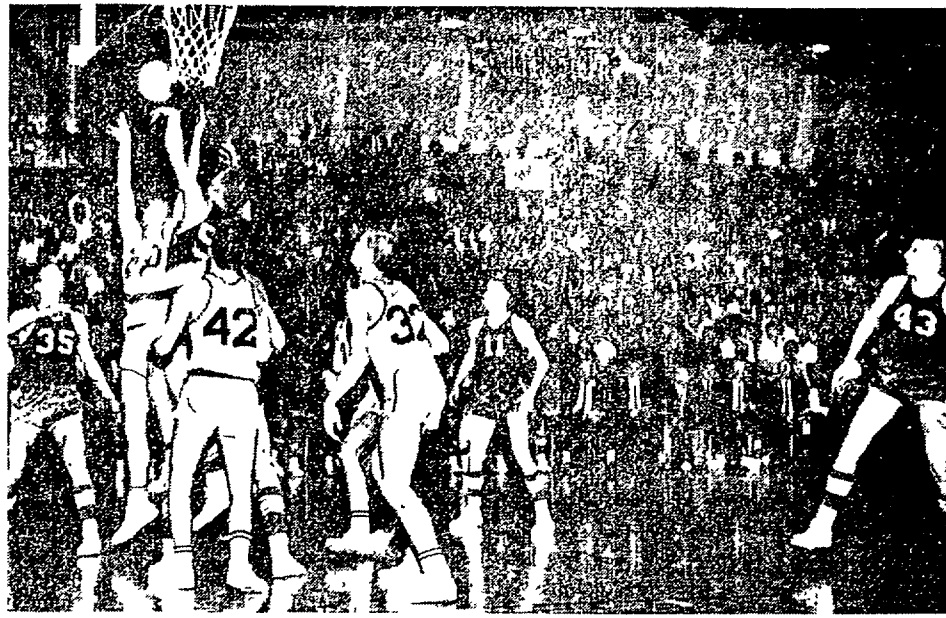

Against Greene's second stringers in the final period, the Mustangs staged a comeback that spoke well of the strength of Rouge's starters. Northville controlled backboards for the first time in the game, and its defense showed through as the quarter-score mounted in its favor.

The Mustangs netted 20 points in that final period, while giving up only four to the Panthers. But try as they might, the local cagers couldn't overcome Rouge's powerful lead, and the game ended 72-53.

Leading both teams in scoring were Rouge's Ken Wilburn and Lou Hyatt, who netted 20 points each, while Craig Bell topped Northville with 13 points and Tom Swiss, Dick Bathey and Steve Juday each had nine.

Thus ended the saga of unbeaten Northville, but it didn't mean the end had come for Longridge's thoughts about a championship.

"We'll see you next year — if you make it," he promised Greene as they met in the locker room after the game.

THE GOING WAS EASIER against Elkton-Pigeon-Bayport last week as the Mustangs outscored the Lakers. Here Jim Juday (20) prepares to take the ball away from a Laker as brother Steve (42) and Dan Brown (32) are ready to assist.

Spring Sports Coaches Have Optimistic Outlooks

If Northville coaches' predictions come true, local spring sports clubs should fare pretty well this year.

"We should be as strong as most of our competition this year," were the words used by baseball coach Stan Galonka, track coach Paul Mack, golf coach Al Jones and tennis coach Keith Krause to describe their respective teams.

Main reason for optimism is that all spring sports teams have a fair sprinkling of returning lettermen among their turnouts this year.

Enjoying one of the heaviest percentages of returning starters is golf Coach Al Jones. He has four of his starting five from last year back, and figures if starters Tom Slattery, Bill Chalis, Eddie Beard and Dave Zielinski have picked up a few strokes over last year, the local club may cop second.

Baseball Coach Stan Galonka said he has eight or nine returning letter holders, including nearly his entire infield and one or two outfielders. But things aren't too bright, he added, because he has only one pitcher for sure — lanky Dan Brown.

Tom Swiss may be an aid on the mound, Galonka said, but he has a bad back and may not be able to pitch.

His club ran second in the league to Milford last year, and Galonka predicted they could do as well this year.

Tennis Coach Keith Krause had an even split of starters this year. He said he has five returning lettermen, but lost five of his league championship team through graduation last June.

Captain of the netters is Tom Long, who, along with Dikran Ornekian, Jim Jiggins, Paul Rumble and Gary Gysiewicz constitute Krause's main power. He added that he's looking for some help from freshmen David Schmidt, Jim Weidner and Bob Langtry.

There are also seven or eight returning starters among the Northville trackclads, reports track Coach Paul Mack, who will be in his first year as track coach. He said he has a field of 45 players out.

Among Mack's starters are Dick Bathey, who will be running 180 and 120 hurdles; Don Bery and Ralph Konrad, who will serve as half milers; and dashman Bob Turnbull, running the 100 and 220.

Northville power behind the shotgun will be carried by lettermen Jerry Biddle and Bill Krist.

Other experienced trackmen include Jim Frisbie, Tom Morrison and Tim Weiss, who will serve as distancemen.

He's Named Year's Best

Northville Mustang Basketball Coach Dave Longridge was named Oakland county's Coach of the Year last week.

The honors come to Longridge in his first season as head coach at Northville.

The former Eastern Michigan quarterback also served as backfield coach to grid Coach Ron Horwath's undefeated football team last fall.

Coach Praises Fans' Support

A big percentage of Northville's population moved to Lansing last week end — but only temporarily.

The big move consisted of basketball fans traveling to support their favorite Northville Mustang cage squad at state semi-final competition Friday night.

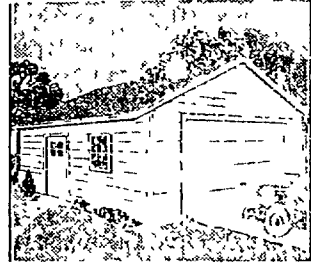

An estimated 1,000 visited the state capital, 950 with tickets high school athletic director Al Jones said the local schools sold for the game at Lansing Sexton, the rest searching for tickets in Lansing.

Another 50 local merchants, businessmen and individuals lent their support with telegrams to the coach and team at their headquarters in Lansing's Jack Tar hotel.

Coach Dave Longridge and Jones expressed praise and appreciation to the local fans for their continued support throughout both the regular season and the tournament competition.

LET'S TALK CARS...

SPRING COMPLAINT

This time of year there is one service problem that every car owner should attend to without delay. It is misaligned front wheels due to winter ruts and spring pot holes.

The pothole problem is a temporary one, of course, but it is the grand finale to a torture test you have been giving your car over winter's ice and ruts. The aftermath can include cut tires and damage to springs, shocks, wheel bearings, tie-rod ends and the whole exhaust system.

The best remedy for pot-holes is to cut your speed so you miss as many as possible. But even though you miss 'em all, you can be sure that the rough roads of winter have set you up for some major bills in the future, unless you take preventive action now.

Failure to correct misalignment can result in rapid and excessive wear to your front tires. We will be glad to check your alignment along with a general examination of your muffler, tail pipe, brakes, etc. Tightening body rattles in a few crucial spots is also a good idea. Winter is tough on shock absorbers and in any once-over they should receive special attention.

Like good doctors, our mechanics have no desire to operate unless absolutely necessary. If there is nothing wrong, they'll tell you.

VFW Helps School With $100 Donation; Buses Balk on Trips

Northville's Veteran of Foreign Wars post gave a helping hand to the Northville public schools' general fund last week in the form of a $100 check.

The contribution came about as the result of word received by the VFW that the schools' transportation fund was being depleted by the spectator bus runs to basketball tournament games.

E. V. Ellison, director of administrative services for the schools, explained that the additional bus expense had not been provided for in the budget. He said some of the expense for spectator bus travel will be paid from tourney revenues. Cost of team travel is entirely covered from tournament receipts.

Clayton Myers presented the check to Principal Fred Stefanski on behalf of the VFW at a student pep rally March 21. "I know this won't take care of the entire cost, but we hope it will help and perhaps prompt interest from others," Myers told Stefanski.

Buses have been a source of trouble and expense to Northville during the tourney schedule.

It started with the district trip to Milford, Ellison reported. Generator trouble halted a team bus enroute to the game, and players had to be picked up by private cars. Enroute to the final and the regional tourney a spectator bus with a new engine blew a heater hose and had to be repaired.

A rod burned out on a spectator bus enroute to the Lansing semi-final game Friday and passengers were transferred to the other five buses at Fowlerville. Later at Lansing one of the remaining buses developed a soft tire and some of the passengers had to be transferred to private cars to reduce the load on the tire.

"We went through the entire football and basketball season without serious bus trouble until the tournament schedule," Ellison noted, "then everything went wrong."

Exchange Observes Anniversary

The Exchange Club of Northville noted the 51st anniversary of the founding of the national organization at a meeting Wednesday in the Methodist church, according to Charles Freydl Jr., president of the club.

Bud Murray was chairman of the event.

Murray noted that the first Exchange Club was founded March 27, 1911 by a group of Detroit business and professional men for the purpose of exchanging ideas and planning projects for community betterment. The local club was chartered in 1923.

"Today," he said, "hundreds of Exchange Clubs are to be found throughout the United States and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. Thousands of members are taking part in various Exchange projects: Crime Prevention Week observance in February, Golden Deeds Awards, Freedom Shrine presentations, youth and aviation projects, and citizenship."

ALBERTA B. BOLTON
Funeral services were held from the First Methodist church yesterday (Wednesday) for Alberta B. Bolton, 67, who died suddenly March 25 at St. Mary hospital, Livonia. Officiating at the services was the Reverend Paul Cargo. Burial was at Riverside cemetery in Plymouth. A Northville resident 38 years, Mrs. Bolton had lived at 240 South Wing with her husband Cass Robert, who survives. She also leaves a daughter, Mrs. Laura A. Hicks, Northville; a son, Douglas, Plymouth; three brothers, William Thompson, Farmington, Walter Thompson, Palo Alto, California, Thomas Thompson, San Jose, California; four sisters, Mrs. Gladys Macomber, Dexter, Mrs. Stella Nelson, New Hudson, Mrs. George Drayton, Wixom, Mrs. Harry Sessions, Belleville; and five grandchildren. Mrs. Bolton was born in Plymouth August 15, 1894, the daughter of Thomas and Laura Sheibert Thompson. She was a member of the First Methodist church, Women's Society of Christian Service, Neal Circle and Blue Star Mothers. The remains could be viewed at Casterline Funeral home until 11 a.m. Wednesday.

JANE CHURCH

Burial at Rural Hill cemetery followed services from Casterline Funeral home March 24 for Jane Church, 87, of 358 Beal street. The Reverend Lloyd Brasure, First Presbyterian church, officiated. Mrs. Church died March 22 at Eastlawn Resthaven. She had been in failing health the past three years. The daughter of George and Liza Denner Hodges, Mrs. Church was born in Chatham, Ontario, Canada, on June 27, 1875. She had lived in Northville 15 years. Preceded in death by her husband, John William, she is survived by a brother, Percy Hodges, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada; grandchildren, Mrs. Betty Van Sickle, Mrs. Nancy French, Miss Barbara Rowe, Kenneth Rowe, Mrs. Joanne Gears, all of Northville, and John Stoddard, Plymouth.

MILDRED J. HUFF

A lifetime Northville resident, Mildred J. Huff, 80, died March 23 at Sinai hospital, Detroit. In failing health the past several years, she had been hospitalized since January 26. Mrs. Huff was born here May 3, 1881, the daughter of Mathew and Elizabeth Bassett Greer. She was preceded in death by her husband, James Arthur, and is survived by two sons, James A. Northville, Francis G. Wayne; daughter, Mrs. Geraldine French, Marysville; sister, Ermah E. Greer, Livonia; niece, Mrs. Elizabeth Ambler, Los Gatos, California; nephews, George G. and Russell T. Stevens, Spokane, Washington. Four sisters also preceded her in death. Mrs. Huff was a member of the First Presbyterian church, Mizpah Circle of King's Daughters and Eastern Star. The Reverend Lloyd Brasure, First Presbyterian church, officiated at services Monday from Casterline Funeral home. Interment was at Rural Hills cemetery mausoleum. Pallbearers were Frank Cochane, Carl Wohlberg, Clifford Sinden, Howard Alwood and Delbert and Robert Wallace.

OTTO F. KIPPER

A Livonia resident, Otto F. Kipper, 64, of 30407 Five Mile road, died suddenly March 22 at Detroit Osteopathic hospital. The Reverend Paul Cargo, First Methodist church, officiated at services from Casterline Funeral home March 24. Burial was at Glen Eden cemetery, Livonia. Survivors include Mr. Kipper's wife, Maude, and a son, Otto, Jr., of the Five Mile address; three sisters, Mrs. Eleanor Zachmann and Margaret Kipper, both of Royal Oak, Mrs. Annie Zachmann, Livonia. Mr. Kipper was born in Austria August 31, 1897, to Henry and Adamine Aust Kipper. He moved to Livonia in 1930 and operated Kipper Floor sanding.

HELEN M. SALOW

Helen M. Salow, 26179 Novi road, Novi, was buried in Clarenceville cemetery following services March 15 from Thayer Funeral home in Farmington. Mrs. Salow, 73, died March 12 at Pontiac Osteopathic hospital. She had lived at the Novi address the past 10 years with her niece, Mrs. Fred M. Garlick, who survives along with a grandson, H. Bruce Salow, of Detroit. Preceding Mrs. Salow in death were her husband, Andrew, and a son. Born in Novi township November 1, 1888, Mrs. Salow was the daughter of Charles and Mary Ludemann. She lived in Farmington 36 years before returning to Novi. She was a member of First Baptist church of Novi and the Ladies' Mission Band.

Hold Service For Salem Postmaster

Services will be held from Casterline Funeral Home at 2 p.m. today (Thursday) for Salem Postmaster John A. Thomasson, 60, who died suddenly Monday at St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor.

Besides his job as postmaster, Mr. Thomasson operated the Salem market. Before moving to Salem five years ago, he ran Thomasson's Grocery store on Northville road and before that managed the Wolf store on Main street.

Mr. Thomasson lived at 9601 West Six Mile road with his wife, Jessie, who survives along with a daughter, Mrs. Claire I. Hines, Belleville; two sisters, Mrs. S. M. Harvey, Grosse Pointe, and Miss Helen Thomasson, Chicago, Illinois; and three grandchildren, John, JoAnn and Sue Ellen.

Born in Dexter, Missouri, on December 5, 1901, Mr. Thomasson was the son of John and Laura Alice Fields Thomasson. He was a member of Northville Lodge 188 F&AM. Mrs. Mary Yaine, from Plymouth Church of Christ Scientist, will read at funeral services which will be followed by interment at Oakland Hills Memorial Gardens, Novi.

In Justice Court

Traffic cases dominated the docket in recent court sessions conducted by Northville Justice Charles McDonald.

William R. Beadle, 24400 Border Hill, Novi, was fined $50 and $25 cost in a special session held Sunday, March 18.

Charged with reckless operation of a motor vehicle, Beadle was apprehended on complaint of a citizen who said the defendant forced several cars to the shoulder of Northville road while passing on the double yellow line.

Also fined $50 and $25 was Robert McInnis, of Ann Arbor. McInnis appeared in court last Thursday.

In the same session, a Detroit, James Buggs, received a $25 fine and $5 cost for furnishing liquor to patients at Maybury sanatorium.

Another Detroit, Clark Overstreet, was penalized $35 and $15 cost March 15 for failure to control his car causing an accident. Overstreet was involved in a minor mishap at Seven Mile and Fry roads on February 11.

Policemen Graduate

Northville and Novi police officers Houston Butler and Ralph Arbour were among students taking part in graduation ceremonies Tuesday at Michigan State University's Oakland center.

Police Chiefs Eugene King and Lee BeGole attended as Patrolmen Butler and Arbour were given certificates for their completion of a two-week MSU course in traffic law enforcement.

Readers Speak

To the Editor:
Last Wednesday at a meeting of the Wixom Civic Association candidates were invited to express their opinions on their intentions if elected.

They all agreed that paving the roads was the first order of business. But none of them had anything constructive to offer.

This included the mayor, who also expressed some irritation at the number of calls he received from people stuck in the mud.

If anything is going to be done the owners will have to think of something themselves.

For instance, if the 4 mill tax limitation passes, the electorate could be asked for additional millage for a period of year: (say five) and to end completely at that time. This money to be earmarked for road construction only.

On the basis of the price paid for the partial paving on Potter Road then $5.00 a lineal foot, would grade, gravel and black top.

This work should be done by private contractors who have the tools and know how to do the job quickly and efficiently.

The mayor will object to this, as he spoke of 40 acre owners on some of the roads and the expense too great for that one owner.

The point there is, it would not be economically feasible to pave the road to let him out and in.

But the small owner who owns 200 feet of frontage could be asked to pay 25% of the cost with 75% being paid by remainder of tax payers including Lincoln Motor.

The 25% on the owners does not seem excessive, in as much as they should hold some responsibility. They knew the condition of the roads when they built out there.

The mayor's contention that gas tax money paid the paving on the roads presently paved does not make sense. The owners are paying higher taxes and purchase prices.

Brooks should realize this, if he would remember the $3,000 an acre paid for the City Hall acreage.

As to the 4 mill assessment, a limit has to be put on these amateur politicians. Otherwise there never will be enough.

Yours Respectfully,
John A. Stewart

To the Editor:

Quote "I'm glad I don't live in Novi," unquote. This rash statement was made by the present Mayor of Wixom, Mayor Brooks, at a Civic Association meeting in the city of Wixom, Wednesday night, March 21st.

I attended this Civic Association meeting upon the invitation of a very good friend who, incidentally, has asked me on several occasions to buy a home in Wixom and raise my family in a nice community. Frankly, I was very astonished and I am sure the majority of the audience shared my astonishment to hear a person holding a high office make such a rash statement about a neighboring community. If this is a sample of the caliber of the leaders in the community, then I would be foolish to settle in such surroundings.

I consider myself and my family as an average Christian family with a desire to be good citizens with civic pride regardless of the community in which we might live. On several occasions during the meeting, the mayor conducted himself in a very ungentlemanly manner and at times showed tendencies of becoming extremely angry and losing his self-control. This, in my estimation, is not conducive to good leadership.

I believe Wixom and the surrounding area has a great potential for sound growth but I do believe it is in dire need of more competent leadership.

To the Editor:

In Mrs. Dukes' effort to give Dr. Ambinder a vote of confidence by attempting to discredit the signatures on the petition, she alienated quite a percentage of the qualified voters in this school district.

There are many of us in this district who do not have children in the schools at this time, but do sincerely feel that our tax dollars are just as important and thus allow us the privilege of representation in this district.

If our signature on this petition is nullified because of our not having a child in the school, then we could object to our being asked to support the schools in the impending request for an increase in millage.

According to Mr. Fried we did not need a millage increase to operate our schools this past year, and Dr. Ambinder predicted a "dynamic" administration under his direction.

In my estimation these predictions have not been accomplished, and the recent petition requesting Dr. Ambinder's resignation proves that the voters of this district are very dissatisfied with his "dynamic" leadership!

Therefore, I strongly urge all of us who fall into this category to vote "NO" on the millage increase on April 16.

Mr. Charles Comito (Editor's Note: For the sake of accuracy, it should be pointed out that in his published statements before his election, board member David Fried did not say the schools had no need for a millage increase. He said, rather, that the six mill proposal was unplanned, and an insult to the voters because no explanation was given of the uses for the money.)

Spring's Here — So Are Fires

Spring opened officially in Novi Saturday, says Police Chief Lee BeGole — because that's when Novi had its first grass fire. Northville township had its first grass fire Saturday also.

As the adage goes, when it rains, it pours, and so it was with the fires. There were two more grass fires Sunday, two Monday, and by Tuesday evening the Novi fire department had battled a total of seven grass fires. Northville had had four by Tuesday.

And it's mostly from carelessness, BeGole notes. Saturday's spring opener was started by a man who built a small fire to thaw out some ground for a septic tank hole, the chief said.

BeGole and Northville township officials issued a warning to area residents to watch fires at all times and to secure a fire permit when burning anything but domestic rubbish.

"We've issued our warnings now," he concluded, "and we'll be cracking down on any new violators."

Even in Defeat Cagers Gave Fans Big Week End

It was a new experience for Northville. Never before had a local basketball team won its way to the state championship playoffs in Lansing.

Fresh from a 57-55 quarter-finals victory over Elkton-Pigeon-Bayport in Flint Wednesday night, the unbeaten cagers of Coach David Longridge departed for the state capitol Friday.

The whole town was caught up in the excitement. And the team had a royal send-off.

Their opponents were old hands at such things. And for the second year in a row (and fifth time in nine years) River Rouge breezed to the Class B title.

But Northville was still proud of its champions. Just as they had wished them well and followed them to the game, many — at least 100 — were on hand to welcome the team home at midnight Saturday.

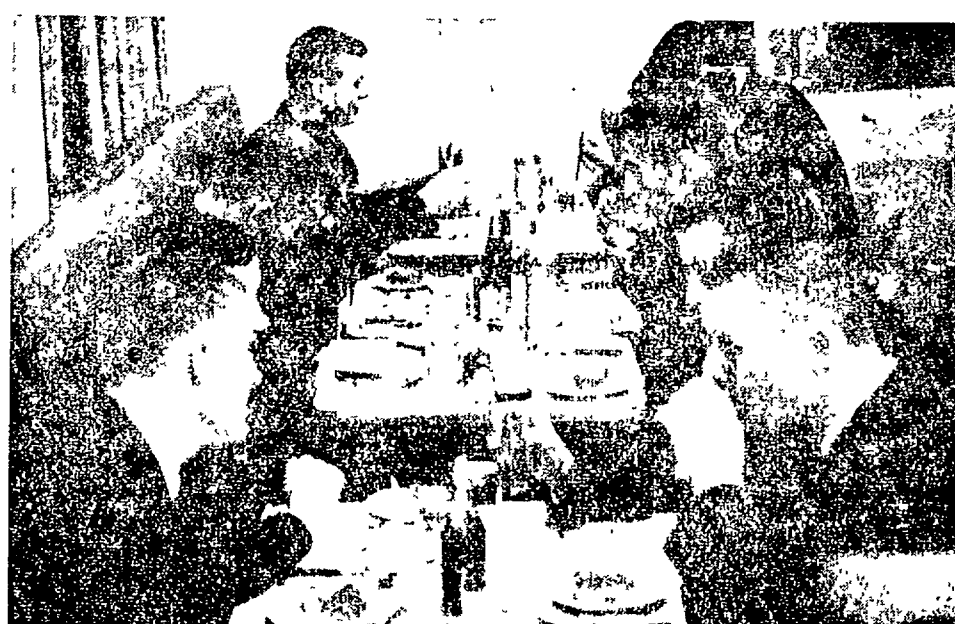

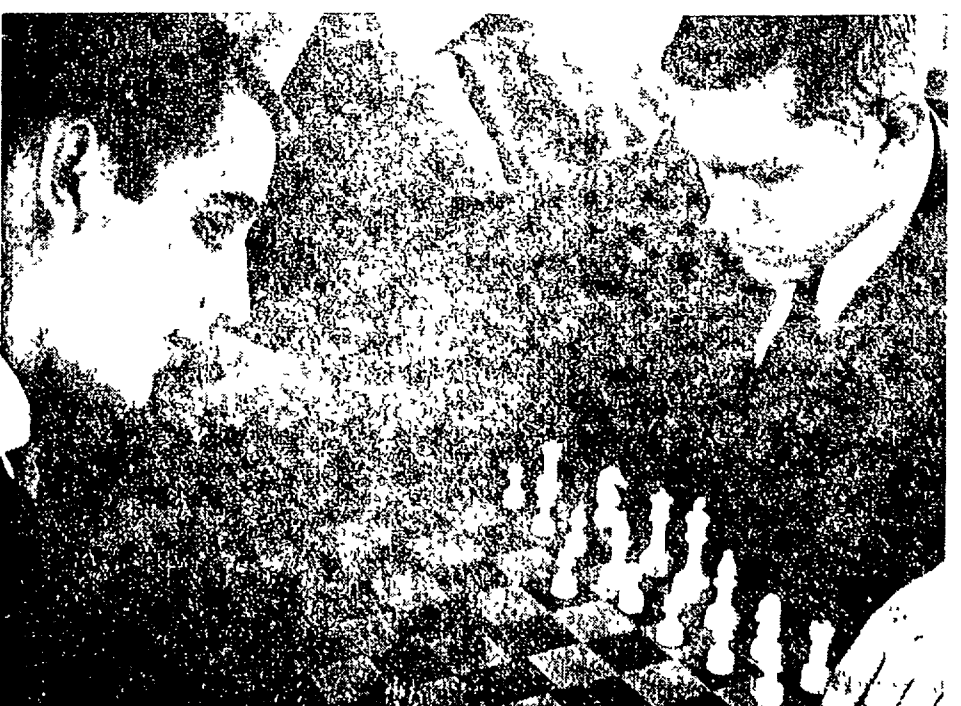

A pep rally Friday morning set the stage for the big week end and the team displayed its appreciation to Pat Dorrian and her cheerleaders with individual corsages (above). Mustang Coach Dave Longridge spoke to the enthusiastic student assembly (below).

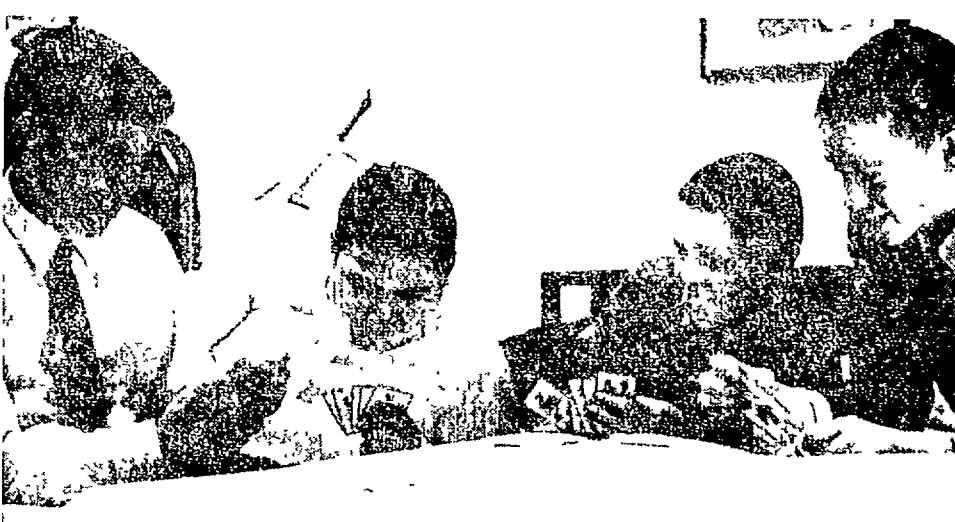

Then at 9:45 a.m. Friday it was bus time and Lansing bound.

Lansing at last and food and relaxation (team managers Jim Bertoni, Jerry LaRoque, Artie Forth and Dennis Phillips indulge in a friendly game of cards, below).

Then the game — and it seemed that whenever the Mustangs looked up, "Jumping Jack" Willie Betts would be coming down — with the ball.

The kids keep up the "pepper" (above) . . . but faces of the fans reflect little to cheer about (below).

One second left — the scoreboard tells the story.

It's all over — even the shouting — as Guard Craig Bell dresses slowly.

Rice brought treats. Mrs. Pat Rice is new committee member with this troop.

Intermediate Troop No. 492 are working on several projects at once in order to complete several requirements. They expect to complete an original design, plant flowers and do some painting. Treats were furnished by Mary Holmes.

Intermediate Troop No. 1023 planned the menus for their overnight April 20 weekend. They collected peanut money. The patrol leaders taught bed roll making and had a relay. They also received their registration money.

Brownie Troop No. 1027 learned new song, "Make New Friends". They also played fruit basket, had safety quiz and report on flags. They did a flag ceremony and divided up into patrols and had election. They also worked on the U.S. salute, sign and handshake. Received their Day Camp folders.

Brownie Troop No. 391 took a field trip to fire hall, library and post office. Adults accompanying this troop were Mrs. Muscat, Mrs. Freytag, Mrs. Barnett and leader Mrs. Garbin. Vickie Rock is a new girl in this troop. Treats were furnished by Jo Ann Bailko. April is mailing deadline for established camp applications (see camp folder) also deadline for entries in "Picture Your Home Frontier" contest.

Neighborhood chairman Mrs. Robert Skellenger attended Day Camp director meeting Monday March 26 and all people interested in attending the Day Camp staff tea on Thursday, April 12 from 1-3 at the Presbyterian church in Royal Oak, call her at once. This is for all former and all prospective Day Camp staff members.

Neighborhood Troop Organizer Mrs. Clarke at FI 9-2598 is still taking applications for Brownie leaders as there are 30 girls on the waiting list to get into first year Brownie troops. Unless these girls are in a troop by April, they will not be eligible to go to Day Camp this year.

Consumers Tells Plans

More than $2,800,000 will be invested by Consumers Power Company in its West Wayne division during 1962 on projects to expand and improve its natural gas service, Division Manager James P. Thomas, Jr., announced this week.

Thomas said projects include the addition of more than 48 miles of new gas mains to the underground distribution system, and the addition of 5,100 new gas customers to the division's lines during the year.

He said the west Wayne division at present serves 48,000 gas customers in a 260-square mile area. Livonia is the division headquarters. Communities served include Wayne, South Lyon, Plymouth, Farmington, Novi, Northville, Wixom and Woodcreek Farms.

The division was created from the former West Wayne District on January 1 because it had grown large enough in number of customers to warrant additional management facilities, Thomas said.

Thomas said the division projects are part of Consumers Power Company's general 1962 construction program, in which it is investing more than $83,000,000.

Consumers serves 4,200,000 people in a 29,000-square mile area of Michigan's Lower Peninsula. It has more than 885,000 electric customers and 565,000 natural gas customers. The company's general offices are in Jackson.

Headquarters for its West Wayne division are in a new service center at Farmington and Plymouth roads opened in May, 1961.

Ends Army School Study With Honors

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Smith, of 365 Orchard drive, have been notified that their son, Pvt. Richard A. Stuber, was graduated as an honor student from the U.S. Army Security Agency school at Ft. Devens, Massachusetts, Wednesday, March 21. The Smiths received the news in a letter from Col. Marshall W. Frame.

Before entering the service in June, 1951, Private Stuber studied at Massachusetts Institute of Technology and the University of Michigan. He graduated from Northville high school in 1958.

Mrs. Charles Ware MA 4-1607 of Allen Park. His daughter, Dianne was killed and his wife, Mrs. David Eastland of Theodora street and her daughters, Mary and Barbara were seriously injured in an automobile accident on Wixom road at Charnis road on Sunday evening, March 25. The car was driven by Mrs. Eastland's sister's husband, Samuel Baradek.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Kilson underwent surgery in Pontiac General hospital last week. The Hickory Hills Civic association held a work bee to clean up their beach on Sunday, March 25 and they did an excellent job. The association also held a board meeting on Wednesday, March 21 at the home of Bill Mills.

On Tuesday, March 20 the knitting club met at the home of Mary Vollmer. The diet club met at the home of Mrs. Bill Mills on Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Spencer have returned from a three weeks vacation in the Florida Keys. While there they were lucky to watch Col. John Glen blast off into orbit. They returned home on Wednesday March 14.

Mrs. Jessie Nicolay and daughters Bess, Vickie, Kay and son Roger were in Detroit Saturday as the guests of Mrs. Inez Pepper. The occasion was Patrick Callahan's sixth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley McAtee were in Howell Sunday to visit Mrs. McAtee's uncle who has been ill.

SPEAKING for the Record

by Bill Sliger

Once there was a stage performer of the vaudeville era who perfected a new act and could hardly wait to audition for a job.

Finally he met a theater owner who was willing to watch. The performer then displayed an amazing ability — he could jump into the air and remain suspended for a full minute.

After carefully observing the performance the owner asked, "what else can you do?"

Northville Coaches Ron Horvath and Dave Longridge are much in the same position of the vaudevillian. They have put perfect seasons back-to-back, Horvath in football and Longridge in basketball.

It is a record unequalled in the state and has brought Northville wide recognition on the sports pages.

Certainly the players, as well as the coaches, deserve all the praise that has come their way in recent months.

And none of the glitter vanished in the loss to River Rouge in the state semi-finals. The Rouge boys are specialists who have been drilled in the rudiments of basketball since grade school days. Their superiority over any team in the state, regardless of class, cannot be challenged.

Northville flooded a team of well-rounded athletes who have demonstrated that they have enough ability to win 29 games out of 30 in either basketball or football, take your choice.

They have provided sports' fans in this community with two full seasons of thrills and enjoyable entertainment.

As the old saying goes, "everybody likes a winner". But as fans we should remember the story of the vaudeville performer. After an act like that, there's not much left for an encore.

Spring Bargaining

Babson Park, Mass., Most are going to push for wage gains and fringes that the White House may consider inflationary, and they do not intend to be curbed. Many union negotiators will be seeking raises this year of as much as 5% on the basis of productivity gains. Where employers clearly recognize that this is a misrepresentation of the actual rise in productivity, firm resistance may mean strikes.

The Federal Government appears sympathetic to 2½% wage increases instead of the 5% demanded with costly "fringe" benefits. A wage hike of 2½% equals from 4 cents to 7 cents per hour according to the industry involved.

Over the months ahead, large-scale bargaining is slated in aircraft, airlines, aluminum, communications, petroleum, textiles, paper, and railroads. Of particular importance are the current steel negotiations, since an agreement long in advance of contract expiration would encourage similar government pressure in other fields.

If Secretary Goldberg is successful in achieving an early settlement in steel, it will be met by union leaders as a kind of intrusion into free collective bargaining.

It would not be surprising, in fact, if some of the more radical unionists refused to co-operate in future proposed premature bargaining sessions to avoid last-minute disputes.

While the above negotiations have been going on, a U.S. Government Agency has, for the first time, granted exclusive bargaining rights to a labor union to negotiate on grievances, safety, vacations, etc.; but not on wages or the total hours in a work-week. The government is also "asking" for a no-strike pledge and no restrictions on "race, color, or creed".

This important precedent was established in connection with a Department of Agriculture decision on March 8 that its 2,472 meat inspectors would be represented by a unit of the American Federation of Government Employees, AFL-CIO.

The Department's action is in accordance with an executive order issued by President Kennedy on January 17, providing for government recognition of unions representing federal employees. When we consider that — in addition to those in the military — there are several million U.S. workers in ordinary clerical and industrial jobs, we see what this ruling could mean.

But whether it will result in a federal dictatorship or in plain socialism, I cannot now forecast.

Seek Fairground Uses

The State Fair Grounds at Detroit lies within a 50-mile radius of 10 of Michigan's most populous counties and will soon be within an hour's drive of about 70 per cent of the state's population. But it is in use for a relatively short period during the year.

Gov. John B. Swainson, a number of businessmen in the Detroit area, and many citizens out-state would like to see this use expanded.

A 25-man Fairgrounds Development Commission appointed by the Governor recently submitted its report of recommendations on the possible uses of the facilities now available and construction of new structures which would encourage year-round use.

All recommendations were aimed at keeping the State Fair itself the primary function of the property at Detroit's north city limits, said commission chairman C. H. Mayne.

General improvement of existing facilities also was recommended. "The need for improvements grows with each passing year," the commission said. "Many of our buildings are in need of major repair; some of them are antiquated. As they age the cost of their maintenance increases."

A similar report to improve the present buildings was submitted to the Legislature, at its request, in 1955. This study called for a five-year program of capital improvement. Due to lack of funds, the recommendations have gone unfulfilled each year.

New buildings for agricultural, youth, and women's activities were among the recommendations for entirely new construction.

Rather than rely on the state Legislature finding extra money to devote each year to fair development projects, the Governor's commission recommended the improvements be financed totally through the sale of revenue bonds.

The commission cited several similar developments across the nation which were financed entirely through bond sales, "never at a cost to the taxpayer; without pledging the faith and credit of the state, and without mortgaging state property."

Dr. Mudd Replies

Friend in Need

Dear Dr. Mudd:

I have a friend who really needs help. He is 37 and has never been married, though he does have a lot of girl friends. These are kind of wild ones he manages to find somewhere and, for my money, not very nice girls a man would want to marry.

Also, he drinks a lot. Not all the time. Sometimes he can be as sober as can be, but then again he'll get spiffed to the eyeballs and then he just goes crazy and does goofy things. He works and the man he works for thinks he's very good at his job, and goes to bat for him every time he gets into trouble. I just know he needs help.

I bring him magazine articles and recently I started bringing him this newspaper so he could read your column. I don't know if it's doing any good, but at least he does read it. I thought maybe if you'd answer this letter it would get to him because sometimes I don't put things so good. Thanks in advance for your favor.

Charlie

Dear Charlie:

Having been for many years in the position of not only advising, but also attempting to persuade sick and unhappy people to seek for themselves the help that might be found in psychotherapy or other forms of psychiatry, I know how intensely you feel about your friend.

But despite all your concern and despite the obvious interest you feel for his well being, one nevertheless must consider why this matter has become of such moment to you.

It might appear to be self-evident that you are one person trying to help another, and that no further explanation is involved! But is this so?

The Legislature would, however, have to create the Michigan State Fair Authority and give it bonding power if the commission's recommendations were to be put into effect.

Perhaps the two most surprising recommendations for new facilities were those for a dormitory and civic stadium. The commission emphasized none of the recommendations were designed to compete with existing facilities in Detroit, such as Cobo Hall or Tiger Stadium.

Throughout the year a ground level pavilion in the proposed dormitory building would house a cafeteria leased to a private firm. During the Fair, the upper floors would provide accommodations for junior exhibitors, herdsmen and band participants. At other times, the dormitory area would be turned into a motel facility, leased to a private operation.

The civic stadium, designed to accommodate 80,000 persons at professional and collegiate sports events, represented a relatively new concept in the United States.

Commission members got the idea for the stadium from an 88,000-seat stadium built recently in Hanover, Germany, from rubble cleared from bombed out areas of the city.

Rather than dig deep into the ground to provide the base for the stadium at the fairgrounds, the commission proposed using earth fill from expressway excavations to build upwards.

Much of the dirt being dug out for expressway construction in the Detroit area is being trucked into Canada and dumped. Use of the fill for the stadium base would save some trucking costs and cut down the duplication of spending in digging out for the fairgrounds structure.

Legislative proposals by the commission got in just in time for the current session but little support was expected this year. The Legislature has been generally hesitant to create units with full bonding powers.

This is expected to be particularly true during the current year, while the Legislature waits to see what action the Constitutional Convention takes in the area of the state's borrowing limitation.

The late date at which bills encompassing the commission proposals were introduced also gave a little chance to promote their full effect. Next year, however, members of the commission can be expected to put forth a strong effort for approval of the recommendations.

Legislative debates over the most controversial subjects quite often bring forth the best of the humor shown in a given session. An excellent example of this came from Rep. Lloyd Anderson, Pontiac Republican, when the subject of tax solutions was being contested on the floor of the House recently.

Democrats were attacking the Republican legislators for failing to "come forth with anything other than 'nuisance taxes' to hike the state revenues.

"I don't care what you or we propose," said Anderson to a Democratic attacker. "If you ask the taxpayer what kind he wants, you'll find there isn't any tax he doesn't consider a 'nuisance tax.'"

The comment was taken lightly, but is probably more true than poetic.
