'Pole' Cat Rescued

AS ANY COOL CAT knows, you just have to live it up once in awhile. But, man, this cat went too high, like overlooking Main and Center streets atop a 50-foot pole at mid-morning last Thursday. He had the whole town looking up until finally that Detroit Edison man came along and slipped him into a sack. What did they do when they got him down? Natch, man — they let the cat out of the bag.

Assessed Valuation Up 3%

The conclusion of the board of review hearings in the city of Northville revealed a slight increase in total assessed valuations — although personal property figures are down.

The figures were announced at Monday night's meeting of the city council by City Manager Bruce Potthoff.

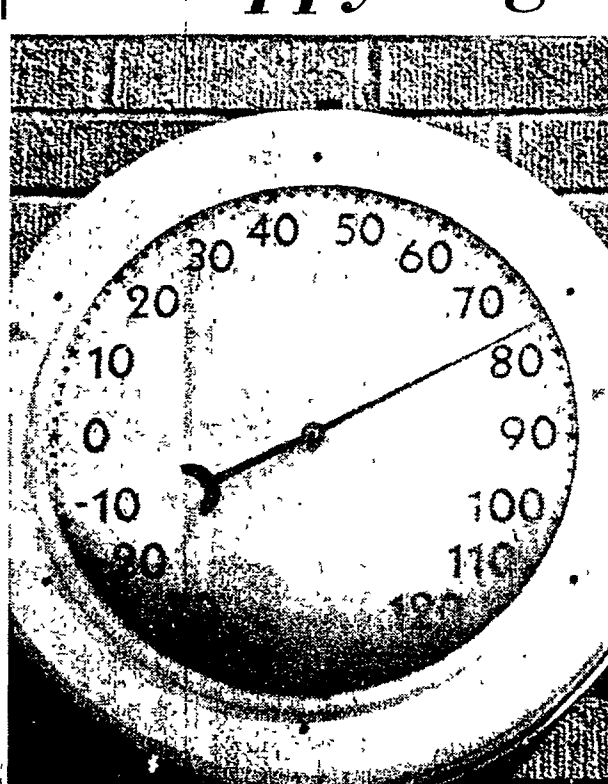

The city's local assessed valuation now stands at $10,732,760 — an increase of 2.9 per cent over 1961's total of $10,434,340.

Real property (land and buildings) showed an increase of 4.2 per cent from $8,071,260 in 1961 to a 1962 total of $8,412,535. Personal property (inventories and equipment) dropped 1.8 per cent from $2,363,080 last year to $2,320,225 in 1962.

The Wayne county portion of the city has a total assessed valuation of $8,040,125 compared to $7,816,380 last year. The Oakland county portion has an assessed valuation of $2,692,635 compared to $2,617,960 in 1961.

Personal property valuations were down in both the Wayne and Oakland county portions. The manager explained that Wayne county is lowering its assessment percentage gradually each year on personal property, but that the big drop in the Oakland county portion of the city was due to the fact that the G. F. Taft company, excavators and road builders, had discontinued business and removed its equipment. City personal property values in Oakland county dropped 21.2 per cent from $146,420 to $117,490.

A Happy High

SPRING'S HERE, and summer's just around the corner. But last week area residents sighed happily as near-summer temperatures thawed away remembrances of one of the roughest winters in a long time. The thermometer shown above pointed clearly to the approaching balminess of summer as its indicator climbed to a high of 76 — one of the warmest temperatures recorded for a March 29th.

Council Schedules Summer Paving

Despite several false starts as the result of divergent ideas on assessment policy, Northville's city council is now moving at full speed on its proposed summer program of street paving. The council has wasted no time. At its present rate advertisements for bids could be published by late April and the project could move ahead of the Center street paving. The latter project must be delayed because of heavy school traffic.

Calendar

- Friday, April 6: Junior High Band Concert, 7:30 p.m., community building.
- Saturday, April 7: Ugashton Club Car Wash, all day, Main Pure Service.
- Sunday, April 8: Newcomers Club Potluck, 5:30 p.m., OLV hall. Presbyterian Concert, 7:30 p.m., high school auditorium.
- Monday, April 9: Northville Mothers Club, 8:15 p.m., Mrs. Donald Hannabarger, 220 N. Wing. TOPS Club, 8 p.m., Amerman school.
- Wednesday, April 11: Adult Camera Club, 7:45 p.m., WCTS employees' residence.

It was noted Monday night that the Center street contractor would be required to do some additional paving for the school district at the same unit price as the street paving. The school has requested that a parking apron be paved in front of Amerman school. Councilman Juday, referring to the favorable price obtained for the Center street paving project, questioned whether it wouldn't be wise to continue the paving another two blocks to the city limits. Mayor Allen agreed, but noted that some residents had indicated they did not want the street paved at all and that further special assessment hearings might delay the project.

Town Hall Reveals New Lecture Stars

Some critics said they couldn't see it a second time, but Northville Town Hall Series planners have come up with another stellar parade of speakers for their '62-'63 season.

Booned by the success of its premiere year, which ended Tuesday with the appearance of Ernest Cerf, Town Hall's executive committee has billed the following line-up of lecturers for next season.

Malcolm Muggeridge, October 18; Robert St. John, November 15; Eleanor Lansing Dulles, February 21; Emily Kimbrough, March 21; James J. Wadsworth, April 18.

Sponsored by the Altar society of Our Lady of Victory church, the talks will once again be held at 11 o'clock in the morning at the P&A theatre followed by speakers luncheon at Lofy's Arbor-Lull.

Working with Town Hall's newly appointed chairman Mrs. Frank W. Angle in the coming months will be: Mrs. J. W. Eatham, vice-chairman; Mrs. W. Mattison, secretary; Mrs. George Hanley, treasurer; Mrs. Ronald Boor, theatre; Mrs. Claude A. Crusoe, luncheon; Mrs. John McGuire and Miss Ruth Knapp, mailing; Mrs. John Swain, Jr., advertising; Mrs. Robert R. Yoder, publicist.

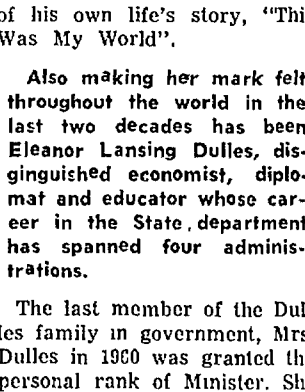

In its second time around the series has contracted celebrities presenting the topics in journalism, literature and diplomacy.

New Mayor For Wixom

About two-thirds of Wixom's registered voters turned out Monday to return three incumbent councilmen to office, select a new mayor and reject a proposed charter amendment.

Moving into the offices of former Mayor Donald E. Brooks is Wesley McAtee, finally successful in his second bid for the city's top elective office. Brooks has served only one term.

Continuing on as councilmen are Howard Coe, Raymond Lahti and Mrs. Lottie Chambers. O. F. "Dutch" Scheffler was the only other candidate for the three council seats, left open by the expiring terms of the incumbents.

Defeated by a two-to-one majority was the proposal to cut the city charter's tax millage limit in half.

The only strong vote edge came on the proposed charter amendment, which would have reduced the city's taxing power from eight to four mills. The electors rejected the plan 296-141.

In the mayoral race, McAtee outpaced Brooks 274-206. Coe led balloting among the four council candidates, polling 350. Lahti was relatively close behind, with 356, and Mrs. Chambers at 266 was safely ahead of O. F. Scheffler, who received 211.

A total of 482 persons cast ballots in Wixom's third regular city election, said city Clerk Mrs. Lillian Byrd. This constitutes two-thirds of the city's 718 registered voters.

Of the 482 votes, 16 were by absentee ballots, and not in the city, residents saved the big city money "because in general residential taxes do not pay for municipal services provided".

Ambler would have liked the council to support the Bowman bill, which would bar any city from taxing non-residents. This bill has passed the House and is scheduled for debate in the State Senate this week.

(Cavanagh's latest tax proposal for Detroit would place a one per cent income tax on all persons working in the city of Detroit regardless of where they live. This tax would apply to both Oakland and Wayne county residents of Northville who earn their paychecks in Detroit.)

City Slaps Softly At Income Tax

The income tax sidetracked Northville's city council from its regular agenda for a full hour Monday night.

It all started with a strong appeal by Councilman Richard Ambler that the council should take a firm stand against Detroit Mayor Cavanagh's proposed commuter tax.

But no one was absolutely sure just what the Detroit mayor's latest proposal was.

And a mild argument then ensued when Councilman John Canterbury delved into the theory of taxes and made it clear that he would not go on record as opposing a tax on non-residents.

It wasn't exactly what Councilman Ambler wanted, but the council finally approved a resolution that opposed the Detroit income tax on persons working in Detroit but living outside Wayne county because the city of Northville lies in two counties "and this would tax some residents of our city and not others".

It was Ambler's position that Northville should oppose any Detroit income tax that would apply to local residents. Canterbury would not agree to this. Mayor A. M. Allen was also reluctant to go this far (although in mid-March the mayor signed a telegram along with Township Supervisor George Clark to the state legislature saying "the people of this community do not want an income tax").

Councilman Canterbury pointed out that the theory of taxing non-residents was in fact a practice that has been upheld by the courts. He also had sympathy for "big city" problems and said commuters enjoy its benefits and should be willing to help pay for them.

Ambler took the opposite position. He contended that by living in the suburbs, and not in the city, residents saved the big city money "because in general residential taxes do not pay for municipal services provided".

Ambler would have liked the council to support the Bowman bill, which would bar any city from taxing non-residents. This bill has passed the House and is scheduled for debate in the State Senate this week.

Plane Ditched at Sea, Local Man Rescued

A young Northville man was one of 12 crewmen of a downed Navy seaplane who returned safely to Sangley Point, the Philippines, after spending some 30 hours adrift at sea. Ray Francis Hood, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hood, 524 Grace, was among the crewmen who were reported "well and in good spirits" after their ordeal. Hood is an aviation electronics technician third class.

The men, serving with Patrol Squadron 40, were on a search mission looking for a missing Flying Tiger Superconstellation carrying U.S. troops to Viet Nam for the Military Air Transportation Service, when the right engine of their Martin "Marlin" seaplane caught fire at 1,500 feet.

After a ditching hampered by waves and swells but otherwise routine, the crew began taxing their plane toward the nearest land. Six-to-eight-foot waves and 10-knot winds, however, intermittently forced the craft off course.

Shortly after the ditching, other search and rescue planes, hearing the downed crew's distress signal, arrived to set up a tracking "umbrella" and drop food and supplies.

The crew spent some time playing checkers, after drawing a checkerboard with grease pencil on a wing, but they were forced to stop when the metal nuts they used as checkers began sliding off into the water.

Some 130 miles from the ditching site, the seaplane tender USS Pine Island arrived and began recovery operations, which took four hours to bring the plane aboard — the only such operation ever to be accomplished at night. The ship, specially built to service seaplanes, hoisted the plane aboard with a large crane on the stern.

Hood attended school at Our Lady of Victory and U of D high.

Baptists Name New Minister

After seven months of searching, the First Baptist Church of Northville has found a new pastor.

Reverend Robert K. Spradling, a native of West Virginia, has accepted the call to the local church's pastorate.

Reverend Spradling has for the past two years been pastor of the Burr Oak Baptist Church in Albion, Indiana. He succeeds Reverend Peter F. Nieuwkoop, who last September resigned the local pastorate to take charge of the First Baptist Church at St. Johns.

The new pastor held his first service last Sunday, on the fourth birthday of his daughter Cynthia Leigh. He and Mrs. Spradling, who is also a native of West Virginia, completed their move into the parsonage last week.

Reverend Spradling is a graduate of Southland Bible Institute, Pikeville, Kentucky. He also holds a bachelor's degree from Piedmont Bible College in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Other degrees the new minister has earned include master of arts degree from Bob Jones University in Greenville, South Carolina, and B.D. and master of theology degrees from Grace Theological Seminary in Winona Lake, Indiana. Reverend Spradling went to the Burr Oak church following his graduation from Grace Theological seminary.

NEW BAPTIST MINISTER — Reverend and Mrs. Robert K. Spradling pause with their daughter, Cynthia Leigh, to take time out from the busy job of moving and becoming acquainted with their new surroundings. Reverend Spradling is the new pastor of the First Baptist Church of Northville.

P & A Theatre Looted

A safe in the second floor office of Northville P&A theatre was broken into and $89 sometime late Sunday night or early Monday morning, reports Police Chief Eugene King. No signs of forcible entry to the building were discovered leading police to theorize that the intruder entered the movie house before closing hours.

Sharps Take N. Michigan Wedding Trip

Joan Yvonne Brayman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Brayman, of 4877 West Nine Mile road, and Alvin Sharp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Sharp, of Novi, were united in marriage by the Reverend Arnold Cook at Northville's First Baptist church Saturday.

The couple pledged their vows before an altar decorated with white candelabra and mums.

Soloist Mrs. Leland Mills sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because" accompanied by Dewey Gardner.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of chantilly lace with a fingertip silk illusion veil trimmed with roses to match the patterning of her gown.

Maid of honor Linda Klocke was attired in a street length gown of blue lace and chignon with matching headpiece. Bridesmaid Sue Stuckey wore a pink gown and head piece similar to the maid of honor's.

Attending the groom as best man was Dwight Walker. Ushers were Fred Sharp, Charles Hinderlighter, Dan Smith and George Corkins.

Mrs. Brayman chose a sheath in light blue lace over taffeta and peacock blue accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Sharp wore a navy sheath and white accessories. White roses and mums made up both mothers' corsages.

A reception for 200 was held after the ceremony at the union hall on Wixom road. Guests came from Northville, Novi, Fenton, Flint, Detroit, Pinckney, Gladwin, New Hudson, Fowlerville, Webberville, Lansing and Howell.

Later the bride and groom left on a short trip to Northern Michigan. The new Mrs. Sharp was wearing a pink flannel suit, pink flowered hat, black accessories and a corsage from her bridal bouquet when the couple left.

On their return the newlyweds will reside on Main street in Northville.

'Lady of Leisure' Put In 37 Years

After 37 Years Mrs. Johnson Says Goodbye

"I'm going to do some fishing I've never fished in my life, but I'll try."

"And I'm going to learn how to cook. All these years I've eaten in the cafeteria."

"Maybe I'll take the course in Swedish weaving at Cranbrook. Maybe I'll travel. I've already seen much of the country."

Eva Johnson was taking a peek into the future, the near future that begins this month with her retirement from Maybury sanatorium.

For 37, almost 38, years Mrs. Johnson has been helping Maybury patients in occupational therapy. She has gone to university classes and private instructors to learn craft knowledge that she could share with the patients — painting, needlepoint, leatherwork, jewelry.

"It's been a long time," muses Mrs. Johnson reminiscently, "and now I'm going to be a lady of leisure."

The assistant craft instructor, who lives at the Maybury inn for staff women, has been getting her things together for that last trip, to Orchard Lake where she'll be living with a friend.

Knowing that their long-time friend and co-worker would soon be leaving, several Maybury employees organized a farewell party for Mrs. Johnson March 21. As a good-bye token they presented her with a wristwatch. A week later Mrs. Johnson was feted at a birthday dinner at Hillside inn.

Both gatherings were fitting tributes to a modest woman who with animated smile and laughing eyes says, "I've never fished in my life, but I'll try."

News Around Northville

David Andrews, a 1961 Northville high school graduate and son of the Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Andrews, of West Eight Mile, will be on a 10-day Easter concert tour through Ohio and Indiana with the Spring Arbor College a cappella choir.

The first concert will be held April 6 at Toledo, Ohio with the final presentation slated at the Union Good Friday service April 20 in Saginaw.

David is a freshman at Spring Arbor, which is located near Jackson.

Realtor Don Merritt and his wife returned home from Denver, Colorado the end of March. Mrs. Merritt had been a patient at Spears hospital in Denver for seven weeks. Her husband spent three weeks in the city before the couple flew back East.

***

Sam Chizmar, of 19360 Maxwell, will sing with the 76-member Albion College choir when it goes on its annual spring tour April 7-14. The choir will tour parts of Michigan, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Sam is a freshman at Albion.

Ernest Ebert III left Saturday for the U.S. Navy Submarine school in Connecticut after spending a two-week leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Ebert, Jr., 218 West Dunlap.

He had flown home from the Philippines after an extended cruise in the South Pacific.

***

Brace or no brace, Mrs. Robert Coolman is determined to get back in the swing of things. Mrs. Coolman suffered a fractured spine two weeks ago when she tumbled down the stairs of her home at 542 West Dunlap. She came home Saturday after 10 days at St. Mary hospital.

She returned yesterday (Wednesday) to her assignment as secretary to Northville public schools Assistant Superintendent Dr. Kenneth MacLeod and Director of Administrative Services E. V. Ellison.

One-hundred and twenty spring hats and accessories will be on sale. Hats will be selling for $3.98.

The public is invited to the party.

Show TOPS Hats

The Eater Beaters, Northville chapter of TOPS (Take Off Pounds Sensibly), is sponsoring a Nancy Richards Hat party Monday, April 9 at 8 p.m. in the Amerman school.

One-hundred and twenty spring hats and accessories will be on sale. Hats will be selling for $3.98.

The public is invited to the party.

Newcomers' Host Potluck This Sunday

Northville Newcomers Club swings into its yearly spring membership drive Sunday (April 8) with a potluck supper in the parish hall of Our Lady of Victory church, Thayer and Orchard.

Couples new to the Northville-Novu area within the last five years are invited to attend the supper which will begin at 5:30.

Although the meeting has been planned primarily as a social gathering, a slate of candidates will be presented and new officers elected.

Newcomers not yet affiliated with the club who wish to attend Sunday's potluck should contact Mrs. Philip Wegens, president, at FI 9-0484.

Discussing the club's year-round program, Mrs. Wegens said all activities are designed to help newcomers become acquainted with one another and the community. Luncheons followed by programs on a variety of topics are held monthly for the women. A fall party and spring dance give couples a chance to socialize.

Plymouth Symphony To Feature Ballet Troupe

Plymouth Symphony orchestra, presenting its final concert of the 1961-62 season Sunday, will play host to the Severo Ballet Company of Detroit.

The performance is scheduled at 4 p.m. in the Plymouth high school auditorium. It will be under the direction of symphony conductor Wayne Dunlap and Sandra Severo, director of the ballet company and choreographer.

Currently completing plans for its first tour of Michigan, the Severo company has appeared in many performances with the Detroit Symphony orchestra during the past six seasons, and has been seen on both the young people's series of concerts and the family series. In the summer of 1959, Severo Ballet, appearing with the Detroit symphony in its season at the Michigan State fairgrounds, broke all previous attendance

CURBING A KILLER — This team of women is mustering all available knowledge to wage an educational crusade against one of the nation's number one killers, cancer. Sparking community-wide activities during April, which has been proclaimed "Cancer Control Month", are (l-r) Mrs. James Tellam, publicity; Mrs. Bill Soelner, salvage; Mrs. Raymond Nast, general chairman, and Mrs. Charles Hook, theatre. School children here will take home literature next week announcing the showing of the movie, "A Breath of Fresh Air" at the P&A theatre May 3. The film illustrates a simple technique women can follow in self-examination to detect any signs of breast cancer. Children and adults are being urged to donate white goods next week. They can be deposited by students at the schools or at the Detroit Edition office, Ritchie Bros. Laundry and Dry Cleaning and Freydl Cleaners and Men's Wear.

Kitchen Diary

It Was The Sweetest News

Lucky for Record-News reporters that all publicity chairmen don't drop off their news releases in the same way Mrs. D. E. Schwendemann does. If they did, the entire staff would be fighting the "Battle of the Bulges".

Mrs. Schwendemann, a Northville Estates homemaker who writes publicity for the local Parent-Teacher association stopped in last week with a short story and a big treat.

She explained the story, but slipped out of the office before filling in all the details on the contents of a box shrouded in a brown paper sack.

The contents spoke for themselves, however, and were a pleasant surprise for snackers susceptible writers they disappeared like children at bedtime.

Especially good were the Choco-Nut Delights and Coconut Nut Bars, which we discovered are made like this:

CHOCO-NUT DELIGHTS

Mrs. D. E. Schwendemann Sift together:

1 1/2 cups sifted all purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt

Cream:
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup firmly packed, brown sugar
1/4 cup sugar

Add:
1 unbeaten egg

1/2 teaspoon vanilla
Mix well and blend in dry ingredients. Spread in ungreased 13x9-inch pan and bake at 350 degrees for 15-18 minutes.

Spinkle with:
1 cup (6-oz. pkg.) semi-sweet chocolate morsels
Let stand 2 minutes; spread to cover.

In top of double boiler combine:

1 cup (6-oz. pkg.) semi-sweet chocolate morsels
1-3 cup maple-blended syrup
2 tablespoons butter
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/4 teaspoon salt

Cook over boiling water; stir occasionally until morsels melt and mixture is smooth.

Stir in:
2 cups chopped pecans.

Spread evenly over mixture in pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 8 minutes. Cool; cut into bars. Yields 64 bars.

COCONUT NUT BARS
1 cup butter or margarine
1 cup light brown sugar, packed
2 cups flour, sifted
4 eggs, well beaten
2 cups light brown sugar, packed
2 teaspoons vanilla
1 cup flour, sifted
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup chopped nuts.

Mix first 3 ingredients. Pat into 2 greased 9x9x2 pans. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees, 10-15 minutes, or until lightly browned. Combine remaining ingredients. Pour over baked mixture. Bake 20-30 minutes longer, or until lightly browned. Cool; cut into bars. To serve, let stand at room temperature 10 minutes. Can be frozen. Yields 3 dozen.

G-M Choir to Join Bell Ringers in Song

An evening of musical entertainment provided by the General Motors Chorus and the First Presbyterian church Bell Ringers will be offered this Sunday at 7:30 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

The program is the annual concert of sacred and secular music presented by the Presbyterian Men's club.

General Motors Chorus is one of the oldest employee activities in the General Motors Corporation. It was organized in 1933 through the efforts of the late William S. Knudsen.

For the past 28 years the chorus has provided an enjoyable outlet for its members' talents and established a reputation as one of the most popular musical groups in the metropolitan area.

Frank Mureh has served as director-conductor of the chorus for the past five years. A graduate of the Royal Conservatory of Toronto, he was awarded a fellowship to the Juillard School of Music in New York and received his masters degree at the University of Michigan.

Mureh is also director of the Detroit Harmony Choruses and an instructor of conducting at the Detroit Institute of Musical Arts. Herbert Rupp, organist at the Cavalry Presbyterian church will assist at the piano.

The Presbyterian youth Bell Ringers will be directed by William G. Williams.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the Men's Club, at the church office or on the evening of the concert.

Junior High Band Performs Tomorrow

Northville Junior High School band, under the direction of Robert Williams, will present a concert to which the public is invited tomorrow (Friday) at 7:30 p.m. in the community building.

The band recently took part in a music festival at Troy. Donations for the band fund will be accepted Friday night.

Tells How to Live With Your Tensions

Homemakers of the Wixom Extension group heard an informative talk on "Living With Your Tensions" by their leader, Mrs. Berle Dean, at a meeting last week in the home of Mrs. Harry Williams.

The women later received help in making floral arrangements with real and artificial flowers from Mrs. Arthur Cox.

Vote to Streamline P-TA; Split into School Groups

Members of the Northville Parent-Teacher association heeded the recommendation of their executive board last month and voted to reorganize the present body into four separate building associations.

Big Week Ahead For Area Libraries

National Library Week will get previously unmatched receptions in Northville, Novi and neighboring Livonia.

Making the April 8-14 observance here will be a special display prepared by the Northville Wayne County Library branch and an all-school assembly honoring the student staff at the high school library.

Prof. LaMont Okey

Mrs. Rheta Wilcox, librarian at the city's Wayne County library branch, said an exhibit is being readied for the shop window at the northeast corner of Main and Center. It will follow the week-long theme of "Read — And Watch Your World Grow".

She extended an invitation to area residents to visit the library during the week to familiarize themselves with the facility's collection and services.

Northville high school registers another first Tuesday morning at 9:30 with a Library Week assembly that will have L. LaMont Okey, associate professor of speech at the University of Michigan, as guest speaker.

A staff of students who man the library under the guidance of Mrs. Marian Sullivan will share the spotlight at the gathering.

Professor Okey did his undergraduate work at Cornell College (Iowa) and received his Ph.D. at the University of Michigan. He has taught college speech since 1946 and gained wide popularity on the lecture platform as well.

Librarian Mrs. William Paquette said Novi library will kick-off a campaign by former volunteer librarians to form a "Friends of the Library" group. A display by Novi Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 149 is also planned.

In Livonia, patrons of the newly completed Carl Sandburg library at 30100 West Seven Mile have slated an ambitious four-day program of events.

The eight free activities to which the public is invited begin Wednesday evening at 8:30 with a program entitled "An Evening with the Arts". It will be followed by: "Gardens, Inside and Outside", April 12 at 1:30 p.m.; "Lawns and Gardens", April 12 at 8:30 p.m.; "A Children's Hour", April 13 at 10 a.m.; "Millinery for Milady", April 13 at 1:30 p.m.; "An International Party", April 13 at 8:30 p.m.; "The Story Teller", April 14 at 10 a.m.; "Science Show", April 14 at 1:30 p.m.

Other officers of the post include: Don Sell, senior vice commander; Horace Nelson, Jr., vice commander; Alfred Smith, Jr., chaplain; and Ernest Ash, quartermaster.

The auxiliary will also install: Eileen Sousa, senior vice president; Jean Utley, junior vice president; Pat Ash, chaplain; Lee McArthur, Treasurer, and Irene Moxie, secretary.

Planned as an open meeting, the public is invited along with all post and auxiliary members. Food and refreshments will be served after the ceremony.

John E. Van Haren keeps painting what the judges — and the public — like.

The former Northville public school art teacher is currently showing watercolors in three major exhibits.

He was awarded a $100 purchase prize at the Sixth Annual North Dakota exhibition at the University of North Dakota for his "Composition in Blue". Van Haren was the only prize winner from Michigan in the national exhibition.

Hanging in the National show at Springfield, Missouri is another painting, "Hillside", which Van Haren showed here not long ago at Hartley-Powers gallery.

A third picture, "Michigan Dunes", will hang in the Kellogg Art gallery at Michigan State University in East Lansing.

SPRING IS THE TIME TO REDECORATE WITH PAINT AND WALLPAPER MAKE YOUR SELECTION at NORTHVILLE HARDWARE 107 N. Center Open Fri. - 11 9

The new set-up becomes effective in the fall.

Meanwhile, temporary chairmen have been elected for the individual schools. They are: Amerman Elementary, Mrs. Bernard Bach; Main Street Elementary, Mrs. Stan Schaefer; junior high, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Shrewsbury; senior high, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Pacific.

These persons will be working with the present executive board until an area council can be formed.

Under the present system, the P-TA is a centralized organization serving all of the schools. Monthly meetings are held alternately at the schools and the community building. Parents and teachers representing all schools attend the bi-monthly meetings at the community building, while the other meetings are patterned for parents and teachers concerned with a particular school, its students and program.

Mrs. Robert Beerbower, who shares the P-TA presidency with her husband, cited two main reasons which she said prompted the executive board's recommendation to reorganize.

The continuing influx of new families to the community — accompanied by a steady increase in the school-age population — has heightened the need for added participation in P-TA, said Mrs. Beerbower. This, the board feels, will be encouraged with the new structure.

At the same time, it is believed that the association can be more effective with a unit serving each school. Parents and teachers can then concentrate on the specific activities and problems of their students, explained Mrs. Beerbower. Any consolidated projects, such as the annual spring carnival can be guided by the area council.

This latest move to revamp the P-TA marks the second time the organization has been streamlined in recent years.

In the summer of 1960, the decision to hold meetings at the schools every other month was announced. Up to that time, parents and teachers from all four schools attended general monthly meetings.

NEWCOMER'S CORNER

"I look upon every day to be lost, in which I do not make a new acquaintance."

— Samuel Johnson

CIRCLE'S ONLY — Silchester circle's newest and only family consists of February newcomers Ray and Joyce Jackson, their daughters, Judy, 7, and Jan, 5, and son, John, 2. The Jacksons moved to Northville Estates from Detroit.

In these days of exploding populations and overcrowded suburbs the Ray Jacksons have a distinction shared by few others here or anywhere.

They're the only family on their street. And as Silchester circle's first family, the Jacksons are campaigning for a sign to help strangers locate the little-known Northville Estates road.

Luckily, Ray Jackson discovered Silchester circle on one of many searches for homesites. It was a perfect setting, he and his wife agreed, for their new home. He put up most of the buff-colored ranch house himself with some help on the masonry and a few other jobs. Jackson, a mechanical engineering alumnus of Michigan College of Mining Technology in Houghton, works in management supervision at Ford division's product engineering office, Dearborn.

He and his wife, Joyce, who studied nursing at Wayne State university, have three children, Judy, 7, Jan, 5, and John, 2. They moved here from Detroit in early February. Several of the couple's friends gave them a surprise housewarming party Saturday night.

Ray Jackson finds the new neighborhood a pleasant departure from the Motor City. "It's much nicer to be awakened by chirping birds," he says, "than by honking horns". "And it's a welcome relief," he adds, "after a hectic work week."

Though both Jackson and his wife like to travel, they're delaying some of the trips they'd like to take until the children are older.

Meantime, Mrs. Jackson says they'll keep busy sprucing up the yard.

Rehearse Lenten Cantata

The Sanctuary choir of the First Methodist Church of Northville will present a Lenten Cantata, "Lamb of God" by David H. Williams, as a part of the regular Sunday morning services at 8:45 and 11 a.m. on April 8, Passion Sunday.

The cantata is concerned with the Passion of Our Lord, and includes solos or recitatives by Mrs. Audrey Westphal, Mrs. Geraldine Mills, John Hyde, and Phelps Hines.

Ray Ferguson, professor of organ and church music at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor and organist-choir director of the Northville Methodist church, will be the organist-director. The public is cordially invited.

Members of the Sanctuary choir are: soprano — Viola Brown, Martha Cargo, Rachel Cargo, Geraldine Mills, Debbie Older, Louise Older, Audrey Westphal; alto — Audrey Becker, Bernice Bodine, Diana Lane, Shary Mills, Lane Norton, Margaret Sours, Genevieve Werdehoff; tenor — Paul Cargo, John Hyde, Otis Tewksbury, Herman Toussaint; bass — William Cargo, C. Phelps Hines, Robert Terry.

This is what Business Week stated in the February 17 issue. The magazine reported that Mercury Comet depreciation costs, over a 2-year period, ran not only lower than any other compact, but also $165 lower than the best performer of standard-size cars. That's real proof that Comet saves you more — mile after

Fire Strikes
Novi Building

Fire demolished bedroom furnishings of a Novi man Tuesday afternoon when a hot ash from a cigarette ignited a wooly bedspread.
Albert O'Bryn, of 225 Eubank told firemen, who prevented the fire from damaging more than the bedroom, that he had thought the spark was out.
He explained that after the spark burned the bedspread, he had put it out and gone down stairs. A short time later, he said, the house began to fill with smoke.
Police Chief Lee BeGole said that although the fire melted bedsprings and electrical wiring, it did not escape the bedroom. He said there was extensive damage in the bedroom, but little damage to the rest of the home.

NORTHVILLE TOWNSHIP officials were barely outnumbered by their constituents Saturday afternoon at the annual meeting held at the community building. The eight officials reported on the year's activities, past and future, to 10 persons in the audience. Supervisor George Clark presented a budget for 1962 showing expenditures of $59,925.00 and anticipated revenues of $60,150. An increase of $200 to support of the Northville recreation department was approved bringing the township's share to $3899. In other remarks Supervisor Clark pointed to the formation of a planning commission, hiring of a new engineering firm to formulate a water and sewer ordinance, participation in the economic development program and building inspector hours in township hall as accomplishments of the past year. Pictured above (l-r) are: Ralph Willis, building

P-TA Carnival's May 25

Take all the electrifying fun of the carnival, spread it imaginatively over three game-packed midways, doll it up with a Gay Nineties atmosphere and you'll have this year's P-TA Carnival.
Though it's still almost two months away, the "carny", which yearly draws hundreds of youngsters and oldsters to big tops at the community building, Main street elementary and the junior high school, is the main topic of conversation in Northville P-TA circles.
Getting things ready for the May 25 event is a P-TA committee that met Tuesday night at the home of the Robert Beer-bowers to get the ball rolling.
The traditional favorites will again have their places. As always, there will be games of chance, tests of skill and bales of fluffy cotton candy. Some new innovations — a library retreat for parents, lollipop tree and surprise package — are also being considered.
Dinner will be a carry highlight once more for those who choose to by-pass the hot dog concession.
Heading committees for this year's carry are: Chet Lipa and Joe Petrock, grounds and services; William Secord, organizations; Mrs. John Canterbury, secretary; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Shrewsbury and Hiram Pacific, midway activities; Mrs. Stan Schaefer and Bill Light, door prizes and special attractions; Mrs. Herman Wedemeyer, dinner; E.
V. Ellison, tickets; Mrs. D.
E. Schwendemann, publicity.
Aiding the general committee will be P-TA co-presidents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beerbower.
The carnival, which nets about $1,000 each spring, is the P-TA's number one fund rais-

CARNIVAL'S COMING — May 25 is the big day this committee will show its stuff. That's when the annual P-TA Spring Carnival opens its booth-lined midways to the crowds. Shown at a brainstorming session Tuesday night in the home of the Robert
Mrs. Herman Wedemeyer, William Secord, Joe Petrock, Chet Lipa, Hiram Pacific, Mrs. Robert Beerbower and Mrs. John Canterbury.

Area Golf Clubs Tell Opening Plans

Dust off those clubs, folks, and dig out that bottle of liniment — an army of duffers and "pros" is expected to launch the biggest assault on the turf in area spring history.

Following is a wrap-up of information about area golf courses. No information was received from Northville Golf club on Seven Mile road.

KENSINGTON PARK GOLF COURSE — The opening is scheduled for this coming Saturday — barring any drastic change in weather.

The new 6,400 yard, 18-hole course at Kensington Metropolitan Park north of South Lyon, which was opened for the first time last May, reportedly is in "good shape. Golfers will recall that fairways were excellent last season.

Officials report that irrigation has been extended to new parts of the course.

Course hours are Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to dusk, and Saturday, Sunday and holidays from 6 a.m. to dusk.

Golf fees: 18 holes — Monday through Friday $2; Saturday, Sunday and holidays, $3. Nine holes — Monday through Friday, $1.50; Saturday, Sunday and holidays, $2; and twilight — Monday through Friday only $1.25.

The new golf starter building covers 27 feet by 66 feet and has an overhanging roof of 44 feet, by 82 feet. Building space includes a 24-foot by 27-foot public lounge with large glass panels, storage, utility and closets.

SALEM HILLS GOLF CLUB — A tentative opening date of June 1 has been set for this the newest golf course in the immediate area.

Located at the southwest corner of Six Mile and Currie roads in Salem township, this course promises to be one of the finest and perhaps the toughest in the Western Detroit Metropolitan area.

According to officials of the Hiram F. Godwin & Son company of Detroit, owners of the 18-hole course, the greens which were put in last fall weathered the winter well and are in "tip-top shape". Fairways appear to "be coming along" but some work remains to be done to get them ready for the opening.

As yet the owners have not decided whether the course will be made public, semi-private or private. And appointment of a club pro has not yet been made.

Golfers playing the regulation fees will tramp over 6,462 yards of fairways, traps and greens — not including slices and hooks. The women's distance is 6,025 yards. And for those skilful enough to try the "back" tees, there will be 7,047 yards of walking.

Although par for the course has not yet been established, individual hole distances would indicate at least a couple of par 5 holes, and some pretty long par 4 holes.

BOB O'LINK GOLF CLUB — Opened Saturday, March 24, and will remain open throughout the remainder of the spring. According to Golf Pro Midge Cova, "the greens came through in perfect shape. There's been no damage ... I'm surprised the course is the dryest I've seen in 10 years. I can't figure out where the water went."

Bob O'Link, located east of Wixom road, has two separate courses, a nine-hole, 38-par course on the north side of Grand River, and an 18-hole, 70 par course on the south side of Grand River.

With a new putting green on the south course, Bob O'Link now boasts the largest putting green in the state. It also has a putting green adjacent to the club house on the north side of Grand River.

The clubhouse was remodeled last year following a major fire that swept through the building.

Green fees: Members play weekdays ("all they want") for $2 and for $3 on weekends; non-members play 18 holes for $2 on weekdays and $3 on weekends. Nine holes of golf on weekends for non-members cost $2, and nine holes on weekdays costs $1.50.

Women can golf as many holes as they wish on Tuesday (Ladies Day) before noon for $1.

BRAE-BURN GOLF CLUB — Was scheduled to open this past Saturday ("provided it doesn't snow"), according to Manager Mrs. Lillian Block.

Located on Five Mile at Napier road, the 18-hole, 68 par course was covered with a thick coating of ice just 2 1/2 weeks ago, but "when the ice peeled, it looked pretty good. It's a little too early to really tell if there's been any damage."

A modern, new clubhouse was completed last year and will be open again this year. The facility provides snack counter and table service (no dinners), showers for men and women, and a small retail outlet. Lockers have not yet been installed.

Green fees for the semi-public course: $1.50 and $2.50 for nine and 18 holes respectively on weekdays, and $2 and $3 for nine and 18 holes respectively on weekends and holidays.

The course is open from dawn to dusk.

Jack Millard is the acting pro.

HURON HILLS MUNICIPAL GOLF COURSE — Opened Friday, March 23, and will remain open throughout the remainder of the spring. The course is located at 3465 East Huron River drive in Ann Arbor.

Golf Pro Milt Seward reports that the new clubhouse, currently under construction, will be completed within a week. The new facility will include showers, lockers, storage — "everything a private clubhouse might have."

The 18-hole course carries nine-hole pars of 36 and 32. (The 12th hole has been changed from 3-par to 4-par).

"Greens came out pretty well even though we had a lot of ice and snow. All of it has been removed and we mowed Wednesday for the first time."

Green fees: $1.50 Monday through Friday, for 18 holes; $2 for 18 holes on Saturday and Sunday. Reservations are available on weekends.

The course is open from 7:30 a.m. until dark on weekdays and from 5:30 a.m. until dark on weekends.

ANN ARBOR MUNICIPAL GOLF COURSE — Opened Saturday, March 24, and will remain open throughout the remainder of the spring.

Greens are reported in "very good shape" and have just been rolled. Except for two holes everything is perfect, officials said.

Bob Applegate is the club pro, and Tom Alexander is the teaching pro of the 5,425 yard, 18-hole course. The course carries a par of 71.

Green fees: $1.50 on weekdays and $2 for Saturday, Sunday and holidays. There are no one-hole or all-day rates.

WOODLAND GOLF CLUB — Opened Friday, March 24, and will remain open throughout the remainder of the spring.

A nine-hole, 2,750-yard semi-public course, Woodland is located off US-16, three miles east of Brighton. It includes a driving range and a cocktail lounge.

Manager Herbert Wegener reports that the 36-par course is in "very good" shape.

Open from 7 a.m. to 2 a.m. (because of the lounge) Woodland fees are: $1.50, and $2 for nine and 18 respectively on weekdays, and $2 and $2.50 for nine and 18 respectively on weekends and holidays.

THE DURABLE FIRE ENGINE

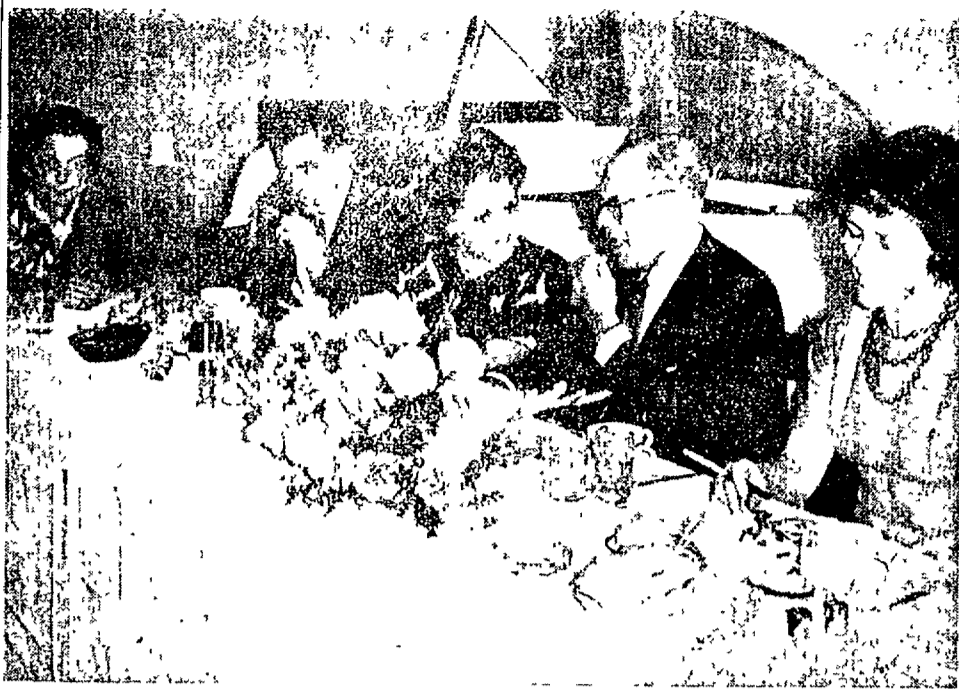

The world's largest fire engine factory, as you might imagine, uses a lot of red paint. About 6,000 gallons of it are delivered every year to the American LaFrance Co. at Elmira, N.Y., which must be a wonderful place for goggle-eyed boys. It's the factory that turns out almost half of the 1,200 fire engines made annually in the United States.

Red is the most popular color for fire engines, of course, but a lot of other shades are used too, for cities that want something different. White is the second most popular color, then green. LaFrance has also made fire trucks in black, blue, chocolate and elegant gold. And there was one famous truck that was ordered in a shade of lilac (Must have been a female majority on THAT town council).

How fast can a fire engine go? Well, the big 275 horsepower, 12 cylinder LaFrance aerial truck ladder will pull its tremendous load at 92 miles per hour. Most newer models however, have a governor on them limiting speed to 65.

Fire engines are durable pieces of machinery that are maintained in top condition. LaFrance estimates that at least 15,000 of its 20,000 motor-driven fire trucks are still in use. It made its first gasoline fire truck in 1910 and it's still in service.

Used car buyers are always prepared to pay premium prices for cars in "fire engine" shape. That's why care and conscientious servicing of your car will pay you back in superior re-sale value as well as "fire engine" performance.

After a capacity audience of more than 600 attended the Town Hall lecture of Bennett Cerf Tuesday morning, at the P&A theatre some 350 joined him for lunch at Lofy's Arbor-Lili. Shown at the speaker's table are Mrs. Robert Rahaley, John Swain, Jane Schermerhorn, Cerf and Mrs. Frank Angle.

It's Full House For Cerf Talk

Bennett Cerf put the frosting on the Northville Town Hall lecture series Tuesday adding just the right touch for the finale to the first season.

His pleasantries entertained a capacity audience of 600 women and a smattering of men at the P & A Theatre. Later at a luncheon attended by 350 at Lofy's he answered their questions and left them laughing.

This was Cerf's theme: "get a little fun out of life — laugh".

The easy-going president of the prosperous Random House publishing company and "What's My Line" TV panelist was a living example of what he was preaching.

While most of his remarks dealt with humorous anecdotes usually involving well-known personalities, Cerf inserted at least two opinions that revealed his serious side.

He dislikes "self-appointed snoop hounds" who cry for book censorship. "Laws and the public can take care of trash literature", Cerf noted. "Snoop hounds only make the books more popular". He also admitted publisher responsibility, but pointed out difficulties with best-seller authors who merely turn to a new publisher if their "best lines" are edited out. And Cerf would not buy the theory that television has replaced reading with today's youngsters. Instead he maintains it has increased their interest in reading. He suggested that children must be taught to read good books and that there is a shortage of good teachers.

"The reason for this is that beginning teachers in New York, for example, are paid less than street cleaners", Cerf sadly commented.

To hopeful authors Cerf pointed out that the rewards and market are bigger than ever. He noted that 10 years ago five million paperback books were published annually. "This year we're publishing a million a day".

Cerf likes funny people — like Casey Stengel, who's life story Random House will soon publish. He calls Will Rogers the greatest humorist of all time and notes today's acute shortage of humorists.

He also revealed his personal choice of some of the best books of our day — among them "The Wall", "The Sound and the Fury" and "A King Must Die".

Cerf wrapped up his thoughts for suggesting how one might enjoy life more with a quotation from Will Rogers:

"Work hard, think big and have a dream".

He was introduced to the theater audience by Jane Schermerhorn, Detroit News columnist. Mrs. Frank Angle was in charge of the luncheon discussion.

Announcement of the 1962-63 Town Hall series, again sponsored by the Altar Society of Our Lady of Victory church, appears on page one.

Horse Hobby Spawns A 'Growing' Business

HORSE 'N BUGGY days are not over for the Russell Hoffmanns. They continue the evening buggy rides they started at their Beaver Island summer home several years ago, and may now be seen touring the area around their Salem township horse breeding farm. Here Hoffmann, owner of Ypsilanti's Peerless Industries, proudly displays the buggy and Easter Trust, one of their standard-bred race horses.

Horses have long been important — so important, in fact, that an English monarch is said to have at one time offered his entire kingdom for one.

For Mr and Mrs Russell Hoffmann, horses are important too — almost like members of the family.

Their love of horses led them two years ago to purchase a 40-acre North Territorial road farm as a home for themselves and their prize-winning Appaloosa show horse Imboden's Sundown.

Since then they have converted the dairy farm into a well-equipped facility for breeding and boarding race horses, with Mrs. Hoffmann serving as business manager whenever she can find time from her office work at the Hoffmanns' Peerless Industries in Ypsilanti.

It was Peerless Industries that first brought the Hoffmanns to Salem township in the late 1940's.

Hoffmann had originally located his plumbing supplies manufacturing firm in Detroit, but condemnation of land for the John C. Lodge expressway forced him to move it, and Salem became the new location.

The Hoffmanns moved to Plymouth in 1950, after all the business moving had been completed. For eight years, says Mrs. Hoffmann, her husband drove past the farm at 8325 North Territorial to reach the plant, which was just kitty-corner across the road.

"We always admired the farm," she mused, running her hand along the white board top of the training paddock. She squinted into the bright afternoon sun and pointed across the road.

"The plant was right over there," she said. Salem's Peerless Industries came to a sudden halt in 1958 when fire destroyed all but a shed. The Hoffmanns purchased the farm, about a year after the plant burned down.

Mrs. Hoffmann watched Sundown's Appaloosa yearling being put through its paces by horse manager Donna Frizell.

"We sold off all our quarter-horses," she noted. Besides the show horse and her yearling, they now have four pacers. They also have several boarders, including the 16-year-old stud Arnold Hanover, sired by famed Dean Hanover.

The Hoffmanns are handling the Hanover stallion on a fee basis, and have the option of breeding him with their own trotters and pacers.

This is the first year they have gotten into the race horse line, but Mrs. Hoffmann says they plan to make them the main business of the farm.

Miss Frizell is handling the horses, while Mrs. Hoffmann manages the business end of running the farm. She is also business manager of the Plymouth Saddlery Shop at 670 South Main.

In preparation for the horses,

Hoffmann has had all five cattle barns redesigned, providing 16 roomy stalls. He has also had the rolling green pasture lands and training areas enclosed with a traditional ribbon of white board fencing.

Horses are not a new interest to the Hoffmanns. While they lived in Plymouth, they had a summer home on Beaver Island, complete with a horse and "surrey with a fringe on top," Mrs. Hoffmann said. They now have a buggy and often go for rides on pleasant summer evenings.

But horses have become a new interest for Mrs. Hoffmann. She explained that while her husband had had horses boarded out, she had not developed a real interest in them.

Now that she has about two years of close contact with them, she said, she has come to enjoy them thoroughly.

The Hoffmanns also have several heads of Black Angus beef on the farm.

"We just thought we should have a couple of cows," Mrs. Hoffmann explained. The cattle are bred for 4-H stock.

Another member of the Hoffmann "family" is "Inky" the lamb. The all-black lamb was forsaken by its mother, so the Hoffmanns bottle-fed it and have raised it as a pet.

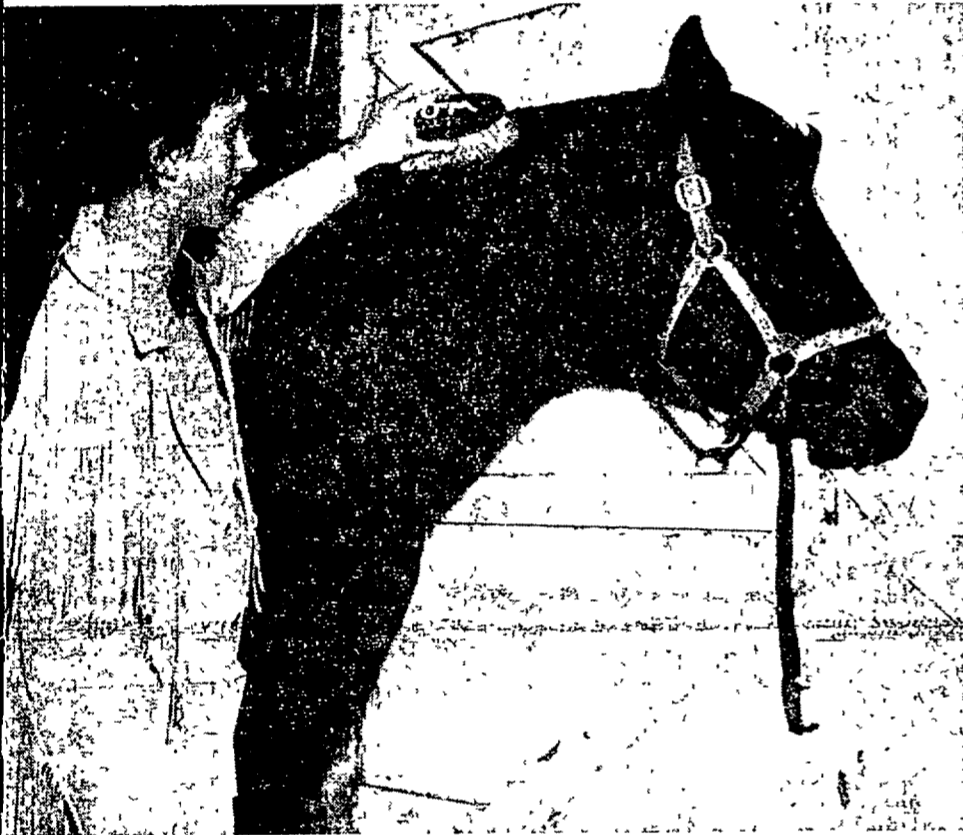

"Inky's just like Heidi, our registered Weimaraner," Mrs. Hoffmann said. "She shakes hands, rolls over and is always waiting by the drive for my husband to come home."

GETTING USED to humans is one of the prime aspects of training for a young colt. Donna Frizell spends part of every day with colts like five-day-old Queen's Spring Time (above), born last week on the Russell Hoffmanns' Will-O-Way farm on North Territorial road in Salem township.

"INKY" is the Hoffmanns' pet sheep, shown (right) with Mrs. Hoffmann. The all-black sheep was a twin, and the Hoffmanns bottle-raised him when his mother wouldn't care for him.

GROOMING plays a big part in maintaining horses. Donna Frizell, horse manager on Will-O-Way farm, brushes down Arnold Hanover, a prize-winning stud the farm is handling for his Detroit owner. The 16-year-old stallion has sired such Northville Downs familiar as Winnes Pride, Pegarno, Lenarno and Honey Cuy, winner of the $5,000 pace at Wolverine.

WILL-O-WAY farms, a familiar sight to motorists on North Territorial road in Salem, has been converted during the past two years from a cattle farm to a boarding and breeding facility for race horses. The old barbed wire fences of the dairy farm have been replaced with sparkling white board fences, and the 40-acre pasture area has been divided into two training paddocks and a large grazing compound.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

By Rev. John I. Wittstock
 Our Lady of Victory Church, Northville

In recent days the sport pages of our daily newspapers carried the story of the pugilist who was battered unmercifully by his opponent in the boxing ring. The referee was criticized by millions of viewers as well as ringside fans for not stopping the bout before the losing boxer was knocked senseless. The referee had great experience in his trade, always feeling confident that he was doing a good job. He was recognized by boxing authorities as an able referee for twenty years. Yet in this particular situation he "got his foot into the bucket."

So it is in life. Many of us go on with our daily tasks, feeling confident that we are doing alright, and then something happens where we "put our foot into the bucket." We get into trouble.
 With our hindsight we see the things that led us into difficulty. There were danger signs. There were perhaps admonitions and warnings on the part of a few friends.

They prophesied that if we persisted in a certain set of circumstances, we would get into trouble. We did not heed them.
 We all know that human nature is very weak. We know that we should avoid the occasions of sin. But we confidently try to convince ourselves that this particular occasion for us is not dangerous. For other people, it might be fatal, but not for us. Going steady without a view of marriage, we conclude, might be wrong for Dan and Nan, but not for me. Others who go steady might be robbed of social development, or moral virtue, but not I. Driving a married woman to apd from work regularly might be an occasion of sin for the average man, but not for me.
 I'm beyond the stage where people fall. Again, in the reading of salacious literature, the average man might get bad thoughts and desires but I can delightfully read such literature and I won't be hurt by it.

Why must we avoid the occasions of sin? Because they easily lead us into sin. The Divine Master, Jesus Christ, told his followers "Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation." Prayer alone without watching is not effective. Christ emphasized the word "watch". We must watch the occasions of sin.
 He who thinks himself to be strong, let him take heed lest he fall. None of us can afford to be complacent about becoming involved with forbidding fruit.
 Getting into moral difficulty is a gradual process. No man becomes suddenly bad.
 Look at the case of Judas whose heart was full of greed for a long time before he betrayed Christ for thirty pieces of silver. Judas followed Christ with his feet, St.
 Augustine tells us, but not with heart. Judas believed in Christ but he did not watch as Christ had counseled him. If we watch as well as pray then it will be easier for us to follow Christ faithfully to the end of our lives.

 coll winning second. The consolation prize went to Virginia Barnes.

The Holy Cross Auxiliary held their monthly meeting at the home of Irene Price.

Visiting Patient? Try These Rules

All of us occasionally pay a visit to a sick friend. Next time you have occasion to visit a sick room — either in a home or in the hospital — keep in mind a few simple thoughts that will help to make your visit a welcome one.

Today's Health, the magazine of the American Medical Association, offers some pointers on visiting the sick —

- Don't make promises you can't keep. If you say you plan another visit, keep your promise.
- Don't lie. Don't tell a sick man he looks marvelous, or that he'll be out in a few days. He knows better. And this doesn't mean you should tell a seriously ill person that he looks half dead. Be honest, but be discreet.
- The best test for proper sick room conduct is to think back to your own experiences with visitors (the last time you were ill). The sick person gets lonesome and visits often are welcome, particularly during the period of convalescence. Visits are welcome, that is, if the visitor exercises a little common sense.
- Don't sweep into the sick room like a cyclone. Come in quietly, unobtrusively.
- Don't be gloomy. Try to be cheerful, but don't be silly.
- Don't be morbidly curious.
 If the patient wants to tell you about his operation, or to show you the stitches, let him offer to do so.
- Don't be overly sympathetic. Real sympathy will show through, and words won't necessarily convey it.
- Don't make the patient dissatisfied with the care he is receiving. If you disagree, keep it to yourself. You'll help most by making him feel satisfied with his care.
- Don't offer your medical advice or opinion. The chances are your opinion is worth next to nothing. Leave medical advice to your friend's physician.

— Don't make promises you can't keep. If you say you plan
 another visit, keep your promise.

6 Mills Too Many?

To the Editor:
On April 16, 1962, the electorate of the Novi School District will vote on a proposition requesting an additional 6 mills for school operating fund purposes. With respect to this forthcoming election, the Novi Board of Education has prepared and mailed to most registered voters with in the school district, a letter in which they have attempted to explain the financial problems of the school district and the proposed uses of the additional monies which the 6 mills will produce.

The Novi Board of Education has requested additional funds totaling $20,000 for increased high school teacher salaries and one additional classroom teacher. These are apparently legitimate expenses necessary to the continued operation of the school district.

The total accumulated deficit of some $40,000 is also a very real expense which the taxpayers of the Novi School District are confronted. A debt that should be retired at a very early date.

Regarding the additional $10,000 requested to improve the educational program for the children by adding physical education, music and art to the grammar school curriculum, as well as a request to provide a remedial reading teacher, are questionable. If it is at all necessary at the grammar school level to provide physical education instruction, surely there is at least one presently employed instructor who can qualify for this program.

The music and art programs present another problem. Not all students have the same attitudes or desires with respect to these two programs. Music and art should be offered as elective courses, at a nominal expense to those families wishing their children to enroll in either course.

Remedial reading is controversial, as very few students in the district need this specialized help. For these few students, the Oakland County Superintendent of Schools offered assistance two years ago, which our school board refused.

Is it fair for our school board to assume the additional expense of expanding the curriculum to encompass subjects that may not be desired at the grammar school level? Also, is it necessary to assume expenses for special instructors when such help is available at nominal costs to the district?

The $28,000 deficit which the school board is confronted with in its 1961-62 school budget is somewhat ambiguously treated in their letter. If we as taxpayers vote for the 6 mills increase we will not only include in this 6 mills, 2.25 mills or $28,000 to balance the present school budget, but that same 2.25 mills will give to the Novi Board of Education an additional $29,000 each and every year during the period the proposed operating school fund levy will be in effect. It appears that our school board is anticipating the need of an additional $28,000 each and every year without any explanation for its use, plus the $20,000 which they are requesting for increased operating costs. Does the general operating fund need $28,000, $48,000 or $88,000? Ambiguous?

Perhaps the school board should consider amortizing its present debt and debts over a three-year period in a manner similar to the following:

Estimated deficit 1961-62 budget $28,000; Debt from prior years $40,000; Teacher salary increases $6,000; Increased high school tuition $9,000; Additional classroom teacher $5,000 Total requirements $88,000.

$68,000 total debt amortized for three years equals $22,666.67 per year. Increased operating costs $20,000 per year. Total annual requirements $42,666.67.

A total annual requirement of $42,666.67 requires approximately 3.42 mills to finance at the present school district assessed value. A new levy of 3.42 mills times the state equalization factor of 1.59 amounts to an annual tax increase of $21.76 on the average assessment of $4,000 in the Novi School District. A revised levy of 3.42 mills for three years would save the average taxpayer approximately $125 if projected over five years, which the proposed 6 mill levy is for.

The Novi School District very definitely needs new money to continue its operations, but does the school district need as much as our school board is requesting? Several members of our present school board vetoed a levy increase last year when a lesser amount of money was needed. Why is it then in just one year the vetoing members of our school board are requesting the voters to approve a much greater amount of non-annual requirements of a new State Constitution and possible new state and federal funds becoming available in the near future, a three-year levy increase would be sufficient to carry us through this time of indecision.

Very truly yours,
Donald E. Reuther

Anderson who says, quote "I believe in city incorporation" or Mr. Taek who says, quote "City incorporation will add to these benefits".

All of these councilmen opposed city incorporation two years ago. Before another two years we expect to see a change of mind in at least one of our new councilmen.

If we could get all of the 800 voters to one meeting for one evening and if they would believe what such men as Dr. Fyeland of Wayne State University, John Huss of the Michigan Municipal League, your village attorney Howard Bond, your village engineer Felix Anderson, Mr. Alexander of the Oakland County D.P.W. along with your local officials past and present, tell them, the problem could be solved overnight.

As it is, we were lucky to get fifty people at any of our meetings and they were largely the same ones every time.

So we would like to suggest that those of you who support the city form of government organize an Incorporation Committee to watch what is going on, such as the thirteen disconnections now in factor or pending, the loss of some $352,000 in tax base, what the council does about furnishing free services to these areas outside the village, and be ready to present another city petition in another year and hold another election in 1964 and again in 1965.

Russell Buton

... Try Try Again

To the Editor:
Now that the thrill and excitement of the recount is over, our new councilmen are safely seated in their respected offices perhaps a few comments of the city election would be in order.

First we would like to thank the Novi News for its excellent coverage of the event and especially for the extra papers that went to homes that do not usually take it. We would strongly urge all of those interested in the welfare of Novi to subscribe to the News. It is the best and in some cases the only way to keep in touch with what is going on in Novi.

While we are sorry the city did not carry, we were not surprised. To those of you who were also disappointed and perhaps discouraged, let us point out a few facts.

In the first election held two years ago we lost by nearly five to one and we elected three councilmen who were bitterly opposed to the city at that time, to sit with the two incumbents who were also opposed to it.

In this election we lost by only two to one and we elected only two councilmen who were opposed to the city while the incumbents and one elected councilman are in favor of it. This is the experience of most communities. This is what the authorities tell us we can expect. It will take four, six, maybe eight years, unless we lose another Lincoln plant or something equally spectacular. There are exceptions, of course such as Wixom, but if we were exceptional we would not have lost the Lincoln plant in the first place.

The problem is one of education. No one who understands city incorporation will oppose it unless he has a personal axe to grind. As proof of that, we can cite Mr. Crupi's statement of March 8 as to why he has changed his mind, quote "as council president I have been closer to the problems"; or Mr. Lenheiser who says, quote "After two years on the village council I am for city"; or Mr.

Mr. Charles Comito is absolutely right in his concern for the rights of school district voters who do not have children in the system. And, it was with this same thought in mind, that these voter's names were not removed or ignored in the preparation of the vote of confidence given to Dr. Ambinder, Mrs. Thomas Dukes

Very truly yours,
Donald E. Reuther

Readers Speak: Vote Yes!

To the Editor:
If we, as parents and citizens were offered an education insurance policy for our own children, and all the children of our community for a nominal cost of $36 per year, or approximately $75 per week, would we consider it?

In effect, that offer is extended to us. On Monday, April 16, we will be given the opportunity to vote yes on a millage increase for our schools.

A positive vote means that YES, we do consider our children important enough to insure for them the highest quality educational system possible.

Whether we have children in our school system or not, it is important to realize that the quality of the future of our community is only as high as the quality of education offered to our young people. For the students of today are our potential community leaders of tomorrow.

Is our community worth a little added expense? Are our children worth it?

If we feel they are, we must prove they are, and vote YES on April 16.

Red Cross Honors Jones

A. E. Jones, 791 Horton, was recognized by the Detroit Red Cross chapter for five years' service as a chapter disaster representative in the Northville branch area. Chapter volunteers with 5 to 45 years of service were honored by presentation of certificates of appreciation and pins denoting the length of their service, in ceremonies at the chapter headquarters on March 29.

Robert T. Ross, chapter chairman, in presenting the awards to nearly 200 volunteers, said they represented more than 6,000 Red Cross volunteers who made services possible in Wayne county last year.

Red Cross volunteers whose service records are not in multiples of five this year, will receive chevrons and bars at the annual meeting of the Northville branch Friday, in the home of Mrs. A. C. Carlson, chairman of the Northville branch of the Detroit Red Cross chapter.

The recognition of volunteers with service records from 5 to 45 years, culminated the chapter's March educational campaign in which it has reported some of the services it has rendered in the past year.

General Filters Boosts Sales' Staff Activity

Significantly with observance of its 25th anniversary, General Filters, Inc. of Novi, has stepped-up sales activities by the appointment of new sales department heads, according to Mrs. Grace Redner, president. Jack Christian has been appointed sales manager and will direct all sales department activities. For the past several years Christian has been active in directing sales work on warm air furnace humidifiers and both fuel oil and automotive type filters. He plans to devote considerable time in the field working with factory and jobber representatives. A graduate of the University of Detroit, he is married and the father of two children. Promoted to assistant sales manager, William A. Miller, former sales promotion manager, will work closely with the sales manager in coordinating sales and merchandising plans. Through his activities at trade shows and conventions Miller is well known to General Filters representatives and jobbers. He is a graduate of Michigan State University, and is also married and the father of two children.

Gerald Hector Arbour, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil A. Arbour, 121 Northhaven, and brother of Novi Police Patrolman Ralph Arbour, enlisted last Friday in the United States Navy, under the new three year enlistment program, and was transferred to the U.S. Naval training center, Great Lakes, Illinois for nine weeks of recruit training. During this period young Arbour will receive training in seamanship, gunnery, firefighting and physical training. Upon completion of recruit training he will be granted 11 days recruit leave. Jerry enlisted at the U.S. Navy branch recruiting station in Northville. Lt. B. D. Slawson, recruiting officer for the state of Michigan, performs the swearing-in ceremonies.

In Uniform

Fort Polk, La. — Army Reserve PFC Max C. Dillenbeck Jr., whose parents live at 42422 E. Seven Mile road, graduated from the non-commissioned officer academy at Fort Polk, La., March 19.

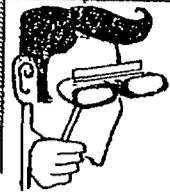

Dillenbeck received four weeks of training in various subjects with emphasis on leadership, map reading and combat tactics. The purpose of the academy is to broaden the professional knowledge of the soldier and to install in him the self-confidence and sense of responsibility required to make him a capable leader of men. The 23-year-old soldier, a military policeman in the 602d Military Police Guard Company, a Michigan Army Reserve unit which was recalled to active duty and assigned to Fort Polk, entered the Army in April 1961 and completed basic training at Fort Knox, Kentucky.

Dillenbeck was graduated from Our Lady of Sorrows High School, in Farmington, in 1958, and attended Pennsylvania State University.

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO April 6, 1961

— A spring election record was set Monday in Northville as 1,243 voters went to the polls to select two new council members and a justice of the peace. Those taking city offices included new councilmen Richard Ambler and Mrs. A. C. Carlson, Justice Charles McDonald and incumbent Mayor A. M. Allen, who ran unopposed.

— While Northville city voters were breaking records, only 655 township voters participated in re-election of Supervisor George Clark. Also elected were Trustee Alex Lawrence and Treasurer Roy Terrill.

— The city council Tuesday night approved a zoning ordinance amendment that sets the stage for rezoning of a five-acre Baseline road site for an apartment building complex.

— It was everything according to hoyle, in Novi's spring election as two Republicans — Incumbent Supervisor Frazer Staman and Trustee Emery Jacques — swept into office. There were the only contests on the ballot.

FIVE YEARS AGO April 4, 1957

— Earl L. Reed and Ed C. Welch topped a field of five candidates for two Northville city council seats Monday in an election which attracted 51 percent of the registered voters to the polls. Mayor Claude N. Ely and Edward M. Bogart ran unopposed for mayor and justice.

— Salem school board members visited the Northville school board Monday night to discuss the possibilities of a Northville-Salem school district merger.

— The Wayne - Oakland League's All-League band will perform in Northville Wednesday evening. The band, comprising representatives of all eight league schools, will be presenting its fourth performance of the year.

— Novi township has lost out in its effort to invalidate Wixom's incorporation as a village. The suit which sought to have the incorporation election declared void was dismissed last week by Oakland county circuit Judge Clark J. Adams.

— Novi township Supervisor Frazer Staman won his third term Monday in the regular township election. Other township officers include incumbent Clerk Hadley J. Bacher, Treasurer Ray Harrison and Trustees Frank Clark and Stan Balon.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO April 4, 1947

— Mrs. Elizabeth Wittrick, 516 Randolph, was recovering this week from a gunshot wound in her head, allegedly inflicted by her estranged husband Walter. Wittrick was released from custody today on $1,000 bond.

At a session of the Probate Court for said County of Wayne, held at the Probate Court Room in the City of Detroit, on the thirteenth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and sixty-two.

Present Ernest C. Boehm, Judge of Probate. In the Matter of the Estate of EMILIO TOFFOLI, Deceased.

An instrument in writing purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased having been delivered into this Court for probate:

It is ordered, That the Seventeenth day of April, next at ten o'clock in the forenoon at said Court Room be appointed for proving said instrument.

And it is further Ordered, that a copy of this order be published once in each week for three weeks consecutively previous to said time of hearing, in the Northville Record, a newspaper printed and circulated in said County of Wayne.

Ernest C. Boehm, Judge of Probate
I do hereby certify that I have compared the foregoing copy with the original record thereof and have found the same to be a correct transcript of such original record.

pending further investigation. — Thirty-three Northville high school students were listed on the honor roll for the last marking period. The ninth grade, with 12 students on the list, boasted the largest number of honor students.

— The Snakellord national safety award trophy for 1946, sponsored by the American Association of General Contractors, has been given to the firm of Couse and Westphal, Walter Couse senior member. This is the first time the trophy has been awarded a Michigan firm.

— Harness racing dates for Northville Downs were agreed upon Monday. Deputy racing commissioner William J. Downing announced the Downs may operate nights from July 21 to September 13.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO April 9, 1937

— Northville township will levy no tax next year. Supervisor W. A. Ely announced, at the annual township meeting Monday that the township has accumulated a surplus of $16,655, and said the township needed to levy no tax in 1937.

— Herald F. Hamill, Northville civil engineer, has informed H. B. Culbertson, general contractor for the PWA reservoir project, that if the reservoir is not completed by tomorrow, the village will take over construction, deducting the completion costs from the original contract and levying a $25-per-day penalty fee since December.

— Some 425 Northville residents, including 200 school children, were vaccinated against smallpox last week by local physicians following the warning released by state health officials. The warning was issued after Dundee basketball players exposed hundreds of area students to smallpox at games in Dundee and Ypsilanti. Dundee is now under quarantine.

— Northville Rotarians, nearly 40-voices strong, are in their final rehearsals for their presentation of this year's minstrel show. The show will be given April 15 to benefit the high school student loan fund.

— Henry Ford visited the Northville valve plant Saturday, to take the first look at his newest factory since its occupancy. Ford reviewed the facility and ordered torn down the old J. A. Dubar Manufacturing company plant building located on the Ford Grounds. The old building has not been used for some time.

leaving Novi school soon for a two months trip abroad.

She and her husband will travel with Mr. and Mrs. George Atkinson. They will visit Ireland, England, Scotland, Wales, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Germany and the Netherlands.

Novi Girl Scouts
The Senior troop continued plans for their spaghetti supper April 17 at the Novi Community hall. They also made table decorations and worked on their five point program. They discussed Day Camp and turned in cookie money. The committee mothers had a meeting and made final plans for spaghetti supper at the leader's home, Mrs. Kriedeman. Those attending the meeting were Mesdames Coleman, Lewis, F. Geppert, McGillivray, MacDermaid and Taylor.

Brownie Troop No. 550 learned singing game, Sandyland and made Girl Scout Promise plaque. Also plans for fly-up ceremony. This troop is re-registering soon and new committee people are Mesdames Kuick, Rice, and Evans. Debra Ward had treats.

Intermediate Troop No. 1023 are continuing work on their overnight trip plans for weekend of April 20-22. They turned in their registration money and money from sale of peanuts. Annette Skellenger taught the troop a new song.

Dr. Forrer To Speak

The Presbyterian Men's Club will hold their regular monthly dinner meeting at 6.30 p.m. Thursday, April 12 in the newly redecorated Fellowship Hall of the First Presbyterian church.

Dr. Gordon Forrer, MD will be the speaker of the evening.

Upon receiving his MD degree from the University of Maryland, Dr. Forrer continued on in specialized study and training in the field of psychiatry. During the Korean War he served as instructor of psychiatry at Fort Sam Houston. He has also served as Clinical Director at Northville State Hospital and in addition to his private practice in Detroit is presently an assistant professor on the staff of Wayne State University Medical School.

Presbyterian men will find this to be an enjoyable and informative evening together. Make your reservation with one of your committee officers or call the church at FI 9-0911 by Tuesday April 10.

SOME 300 employees of Novi's Paragon Bridge & Steel company went out on strike this week. Members of the International Association of Bridge, Structural and Ornamental Iron, Shoppers Local 508 voted to strike last Saturday. Their two-year contract terminated at that time. Federal and state mediators have been informed of the strike, but at mid-week no meetings were being held. Part of the firm's office force carried on routine business. Paragon is the state's third largest fabricator of structural steel and the leading producer of tri-level auto loaders for the railroad industry.

New Phone Books Out

About six million pounds of 1962 telephone directories are being distributed beginning this week in the "heaviest" single directory delivery operation undertaken by the Michigan Bell Telephone Company.

Included in the distribution are 514,000 West-and-Downriver area directories, weighing nearly 62,000 pounds. These directories, covering 44 communities in this part of Wayne county, contain approximately 132,200 listings.

It will take two weeks before some 450 distributors complete the delivery.

The brown-covered directories list the communities found inside. Telephone customers who need one or both of the other two area (North, and East) directories covering communities beyond those in the local book may obtain them by calling the local Michigan Bell business office.

The new directories also list 1600 communities in the USA and Canada, with their respective area codes for long distance direct dialing, which studies have shown are called most often by Michigan telephone users.

All directories contain many ANC (All-Number Calling) listings, with about one telephone number in five listed as seven numerals. Michigan Bell expects all its telephones to be identified this way within the next three-to-four years.

SPEAKING for the Record

by Bill Sliger

With May just a turn of the calendar away it's time for Northville residents to start thinking of such things as clean-up, paint-up and fix-up.

The local "Beautify Northville" campaign came into being four years ago and has won the community national recognition. Three times Northville topped all other cities of its size in the nation for projects undertaken in the annual "clean-up" contest. Last year the community was awarded honorable mention.

It's our understanding that the driving force behind this project — the Coordinating Council — proposes to make this a year-long program.

The idea that everyone should always strive to improve the appearance of the community is, of course, a good one. But we fear that without a direct concentrated effort during an established period, as has been the practice in the past, there will be no recognizable effort at all.

It was also suggested that the Junior Chamber of Commerce could take over the chairmanship of this year's campaign.

There's no question that under their guidance the drive would be successful. For proof take a look at their work on city-owned property between the Old Spring and the Ford plant.

But we still think a month-long, community-wide effort in early spring sparks best results.

Speaking of "cleaning-up", the city council learned what it might cost to "light up" the community a little more brightly in a special report from the city manager recently.

It revealed that the community is below recommended code in the residential part of the city, and at a "reasonable acceptable standard" in the business district.

Cost of brightening the residential area would be nearly $10,000 annually. More critical areas could be improved, however, for a few hundred dollars.

To change the lighting in the central business district from incandescent to mercury vapor or fluorescent, as has been recommended by several merchants, would cost about $3,000 initially plus either $700 or $1,000 annually, depending upon choice.

Michigan's economic development department reports a definite upswing in inquiries by firms contemplating expansion or new plants this year.

It also reports new emphasis of attention on advantages offered by smaller communities and plans a series of meetings this year in small towns doing outstanding work in industrial development.

Northville's just getting started, but preliminary work has been undertaken with enthusiastic gusto. (Maybe Northville, as a beginner, could qualify as one of the sites where the state's industrial ambassadors meet to be informed of local advantages).

Public hearings on the gravel pit issue in Northville township filled the township hall to capacity with interested citizens.

Saturday's annual meeting — a recap of the year's business and approval of the new budget — found eight officials facing an audience of 10 electors.

'Compromise' OK — If it's Kept Quiet

Republican delegates to the Constitutional Convention were sharply criticized recently when reports were published about a "secret trade" being made to assure agreement on several sections of the document being prepared.

There were charges that "principles are being compromised," by naive supporters of some of the delegates.

It is a well known and hard political fact that the basis for most legislative action is compromise, although this word can be given a negative connotation by people seeking political advantages who can find no better issue.

It now appears the only great "sin" involved in the compromise worked out by differing viewpoints within the Con-Con's GOP ranks was that the "deal" was so openly made public.

At nearly the same time as the Con-Con deal was made known, another "compromise" was being worked out between Republicans and Democrats in the Legislature. The single issue involved was not as important as the several constitutional provisions so it did not gain as much attention from the public or politicians.

A newspaper reporter who wrote that a "gentlemen's agreement" was being attempted, however, was severely criticized for putting the pending "deal" in print.

It appears inconsistent that all politicians freely admit, of the record, that they are willing to compromise for the public good, but they refuse to let the public know when they have reached a compromise. And it seems hypocritical for those who understand the value of compromise to rant against those who try to reconcile differences so that progress can result.

A substantial share of an $8-million Congressional appropriation for manpower training may be available to Michigan because of the state's high unemployment rate.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Lynn M. Bartlett reports the training program would be of special benefit to high school dropouts and graduates unable to find work.

Both the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare and the Department of Labor have indicated that Michigan is in the top group of states in the nation with high unemployment and will be eligible for a substantial share of the funds, Bartlett said.

The Federal act authorized a $435 million appropriation over a three-year period to help train thousands of unemployed who lost their jobs or others unable to find work because of automation.

Enabling legislation to allow Michigan to accept funds provided under the Federal law has passed in the House and is under consideration by the Senate. The bill provides for administration of the funds through the State Board of Control for Vocational Education.

No state funds would be needed to administer the program, Bartlett said, although the Department of Public Instruction and the Michigan Employment Security Commission would participate in it also.

Under the programs, benefits also would be available to train unemployed adults and farm families with incomes of less than $1,200 a year.

Where does the money go? A study by the Michigan Citizens Research Council shows some $506 million of Michigan's money during the past eight fiscal years went to create and pay for 90 programs which did not exist prior to 1956.

Included were 27 new programs in the general field of education and 20 in general government operations. New programs were also added during the period in public health, mental hygiene, public welfare, safety and defense, regulatory services, conservation, recreation and agriculture.

An indication of how the addition of relatively small, expensive programs add up is seen in the Council's fact sheet on the new state services.

In the education category, for example, a $900 appropriation was made in 1956 for state his-

JFK Faces Unemployment

Babson Park, Mass., President Kennedy is up against two "stone walls." The first is that dividing East Berlin from West Berlin; and the second is how he can reduce unemployment.

Employment is increasing in practically all lines — manufacturing, building, merchandising, and other important segments; but unemployment continues to plague us, and no solution is yet in sight. Before going into further details, let me say that JFK is getting fed up with his "intellectual" advisers.

He is willing to listen to them; but he has decided to make his own decisions and not leave them to anybody else — not even to Vice President Johnson.

Some Administration officials are picking up big labor's theme that the government should do something soon to decrease heavy unemployment in the U.S. There is increasing talk of considering the problem an "emergency" ... calling for drastic steps by Uncle Sam. These would include advancing public works projects, creating make-work programs — possibly a modern WPA.

So far, JFK has balked at grandiose proposals, mainly because they would be too costly and would throw federal budgets even farther out of whack ... to say nothing of the adverse impact on our already-sick balance of foreign payments. However, pressure from within and without the Administration is increasing ... and 1962 election-year politics may force the President to send some stringent new proposals for reducing unemployment to Congress before too many more months have passed.

JFK is emphasizing to both management and labor that the great need is for the United States to sell more U.S.-manufactured goods — at home and abroad — and to keep prices down. He believes this demands an entirely new brand of tariff powers, — an ability to "trade". This is especially important in view of the "European Common Market." JFK believes that only as he is given dictatorial powers will he be able to meet dictators in Russia and other countries. I believe he is correct.

In addition, the United States is faced with a rising imbalance of international payments and a resumption of the gold outflow. The nation really sits astride the horns of a dilemma: If the unemployment problem is met by inflationary spending, our gold outflow may become a flood; if we try to prevent gold loss through higher interest rates and lowered spending, business may slump and unemployment soar.

The President — in trying to boost foreign trade — is on the right track ... but he will need to be a supersalesman to sell Congress on turning over to him dictatorial powers.

The President is anxious to establish the principle that wages per hour will increase only as production per hour increases. (Management wants the new machinery also to get some "wages.") This may be okay for the steel corporations, but the trouble will come when all the other unions want the same "deal" that the steel workers receive. Many corporations claim that, for various reasons, they cannot reduce costs further than they are now.

All of this means that labor is tending more and more to approach a socialistic system as far as production, prices, wages, depreciation, etc., are concerned. This, of course, is the big danger.

Meanwhile, the President's Labor-Management Committee has been conferring on automation dilemmas, but no workable program for dealing with automation — created unemployment and retraining has been proposed. Nor has a plan for stemming economy-numbing strikes been aired. Internal union dissensions further complicate the situation.

The Meany-Reuther-Hoffa triangle may not be eternal, but it will make for rough-and-tumble dislocations on the labor front during 1962, with many a headache for employers.

Dr. Mudd Replies

How Much Allowance?

Dear Dr. Mudd:
How old should a child be before he gets an allowance? How much should it be? Don't you think they should have to do something to get it?

My little girl (age 10) has some friends who get $1.00 a week. When I was her age, I remember I got 15 cents. A dollar seems like an awful lot and those other girls don't have any duties to do at home either.

Every week though, they get the spending money anyhow.

Dora

Dear Dora:
I think children should get allowances. How old they should be when this is begun depends upon the child.

In general, I should say that when a child is willing to undertake some definite responsibility like emptying the waste baskets, making the beds, or hanging up their clothes (when they are very young) and more difficult tasks such as preparing breakfast, washing dishes, shoveling snow, (when they are older,) it is time for them to get an allowance.

How much should be governed by what the parents can afford, and especially by what they feel is sensible and reasonable. I've known parents to use an overly generous amount to display their own wealth, but this is taking advantage of the child and isn't fair to him.

An allowance helps children to learn the value of money if it is administered wisely by the parents. I'm all for strictness and firmness when it comes to allowances.

Captain John Smith, you may remember, had to establish the famous rule at Jamestown Colony which said "no work, no eat," and I think many parents could learn a valuable lesson from this and insist, insofar as their children are concerned, "no work, no pay!"

In my opinion, one of the most important things to do in conjunction with an allowance is to help the child learn how to save part of it. This establishes habits of saving which will be of value to him or her in later years.

As for the 15 cents you got as a child — inflation hits everyone. I'd say 50 cents to a dollar a week at age 10 is about the going rate. But then a lot depends on how much of that sum must be committed by the child for church offerings or other "fixed expenses."

I think you should decide what you're going to do in your family, and not try to match what other parents do for their children.
