City Considers Paving Orchard Drive Block

A request to pave Orchard drive from West Main to Thayer under the city's recently adopted 25 per cent assessment plan prompted the council to suggest immediate undertaking of the project Monday night.

But one councilmember issued a word of caution and warned fellow councilmembers that there would be "objections at the other end of Orchard drive."

Nevertheless the council voted to follow up the request immediately and take advantage of the favorable unit price of the contractor presently paving East, High, Elm and Walnut streets.

If all property owners in the one-block area are willing to accept terms, the council proposes to enter into a contract as permitted under the charter, thereby circumventing the lengthy special assessment procedure.

Curbs and gutters have been previously installed on Orchard drive between Main and Thayer.

It was reported at Monday's council meeting that Nelson C. Schrader, 116 Orchard drive, had requested the paving. It was also reported that Schrader had indicated that consent to the project had been received from Our Lady of Victory church. Only five property owners on the west side and the Catholic church on the east side of the street are involved.

Mayor A. M. Allen and Councilmen Richard Ambler and John Canterbury expressed willingness to pursue the project at once. Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson was more cautious and noted "there was talk" from residents on Orchard south of Thayer.

City Attorney Philip Ogilvie was instructed to prepare a contract and Schrader indicated Tuesday that he would circulate the agreement among property owners involved if the terms were agreeable.

In other business Monday night the council appointed Canterbury to head a finance committee for the proposed recreation building. Immediate project of the committee will be to raise some $8,000 to meet the estimated $23,000 cost of the Cady street building.

The council also approved a contract with Howard Wright as architect for the project and named Councilman Ambler to head the building planning committee. Councilwoman Carlson, Recreation Director Kenneth Conley and Ed Welch were named to serve with Ambler.

Five Share In Profits Of Town Hall

The names of five groups — including two here — that will share in profits from Northville Town Hall series' first lecture season were announced this week. A six-member board of awards made the selections May 28 at a meeting in the city hall.

Our Lady of Victory church Altar society, sponsor of the series, retained $800 for use at the church and parochial school.

The remaining $400 was divided into $100 gifts to Northville King's Daughters, Girls Town, Belleville, supported by Plymouth Woman's club, Livonia Well-Baby clinic and Science and Arts camps, Farmington.

Requests for the awards were reviewed by board members Mrs. H. F. Wagenschutz, Herman Moehman, Mrs. William Milne and Mrs. Margaret Hough, Plymouth representative, Mrs. Leonard Stidwell, Farmington representative, and Mrs. William E. Parks, Livonia representative.

Town Hall planners are hoping to eclipse their premiere season success with the following line-up for 1962-63:

Malcolm Muggeridge, October 18; Robert St. John, November 15; Eleanor Lansing Dulles, February 21; Emily Kimbrough, March 21; James Wadsworth, April 18.

Lectures are held at 11 a.m. in the P&A theatre here and are followed by celebrity lunches.

It's Final Week For 146 Grads

Few Votes Expected Monday

Monday's school board election is expected to create little more than a ripple of activity from the 3,000-plus registered voters in the Northville school district.

Board President Robert Shafer and William Crump, vice president, are unopposed incumbents for four-year board terms.

Meanwhile, the two incumbents on the Novi board of education will face two challengers for their seats.

Seeking three-year terms in Novi are incumbents A. J. Heslip and G. Russell Taylor and Mrs. Lily May Skellenger and Dicon Taffarian.

The Novi board has been torn by differences of opinion with Heslip and Taylor usually ending up on the short end of a 3-2 board vote.

Both Mrs. Skellenger and Taffarian have pointed to this board conflict and have promised to work for harmony if elected.

The election should serve as a test of public opinion. Lop-sided victories for Heslip and Taylor would definitely signal a vote of confidence for the duo who have placed their records on the block and have promised to continue as they have performed in the past.

The most recent split on the Novi board involves a June 28 millage request. Board Members Walter Ambinder, David Fried and John MacBride voted to ask for five mills, while Heslip and Taylor have held out for 4½ mills. Efforts are still being made to reach agreement on the millage proposal — but Heslip refused to join a unanimous vote for a 4½-mill request last week because $5,000 instead of a suggested $10,000 would be earmarked in the new budget for payment of an accumulated $50,000 deficit. It is generally believed that the millage bid will fail without full board support.

Novi board activities have held the attention of the Northville board of education because of the high school tuition students involved. The Northville board has said it will not accept Novi students next year if the Novi system must cut-back its own elementary program to meet tuition payments to Northville.

It is estimated that Northville will receive some $130,000 next year for education of Novi tuition students.

Polls in both Northville and Novi open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m.

In Northville qualified electors vote at the community building. In Novi the polling place is the Novi elementary school.

Biggest Class Awaits Diplomas

Northville high school bestows diplomas on 146 seniors comprising the school's largest graduating class to date at commencement exercises in the gymnasium a week from tonight.

Keynoting next Thursday's program, which marks the 93rd time Northville has staged the tradition laden ceremony for its graduates, will be an address titled "It's What You Do" by Kenneth W. Thompson, assistant vice president of Michigan Bell Telephone company.

Seniors are to start their processional march at 8 p.m.

Leslie G. Lee will direct the assembly's singing of the national anthem to be followed by the Reverend B. J. Pankow's reading of the invocation.

Paul Chadwick's salutatory, a performance of Shostakovich's Finale to the 5th Symphony by the high school band and Ed Beard's valedictory precede Thompson's address.

High school Principal Fred Stefanski will present the class of 1962 whose members will accept diplomas from Superintendent of Schools Russell Amerman.

The Reverend Pankow, pastor at St. Paul's Lutheran church, closes the program with the benediction.

Grads move into the last busy week of their high school careers today (Thursday) with the start of two days of exams.

Many of them will walk across the stage of the auditorium tomorrow evening to collect scholastic awards at the Honors Convocation slated to start at 8 o'clock.

They don their caps and gowns for the first time this Sunday for the religious Baccalaureate service. Principal Stefanski said tickets would not be required for Baccalaureate which is being held for the first time in the gym.

The Reverend Lloyd Brasure's address "Turn Strong to Meet Thy Day" caps the Sunday ceremony.

Northville First Baptist church's new pastor, the Reverend Robert Spradling, has been asked to offer the benediction. The Reverend Brasure, pastor at the First Presbyterian church, will also deliver the invocation. Patriotic music by the band and two choir selections have also been programmed.

Processional and recessional accompaniment for both baccalaureate and commencement will be furnished by the band.

Public school students here attend classes for the last time this year on Wednesday, although school does not officially close until Friday, June 15.

Parochial Schools To Close Friday

Graduation was on the minds of eighth graders at Northville's two parochial schools this week. Students at both St. Paul's Lutheran and Our Lady of Victory school conclude spring term classes tomorrow (Friday).

Ending their studies at Our Lady of Victory are 25 students who took part in eighth grade graduation ceremonies at the church Tuesday evening.

Two of the graduates, Paula A. Miklas and J. Michael Williams, received $50 scholarships from the OLV Mothers club at commencement. Paula will attend Our Lady of Sorrows high school in the fall. Michael is enrolled at Catholic Central high school.

A breakfast for the eighth graders and their parents was held in the parish hall Tuesday morning after mass.

Six eighth graders at St. Paul's will receive their diplomas Sunday, June 17 at a combined commencement and worship service in the church.

The announcement of Kay's departure was made at a special meeting of the board of education Monday night.

Superintendent of Schools Russell Amerman indicated that a replacement for Kay would be considered from applications, both inside and outside the local school system.

"We're sorry to lose Dick, but recognize that this is a fine opportunity and we are proud and happy that he has been chosen to serve in such a fine school system", Superintendent Amerman stated.

Specifically, Kay will serve as principal of the Richard elementary school. His predecessor retired from the post after 42 years in the Grosse Pointe system.

Mrs. DeWitt Adelbert Davis, Jr.

Frances Malley Marries DeWitt Davis, Jr. Here

Frances Patience Malley became the bride of DeWitt Adelbert Davis, Jr. Saturday, May 26 at an afternoon ceremony in the First Presbyterian church here.

The couple pledged their marriage vows before the Reverend Lloyd Brasure.

Mr. and Mrs. John Patrick Malley, of Beck road, are parents of the bride. Mr. Davis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Adelbert Davis, of Trenton.

Given in marriage by her father, the former Miss Malley chose a Bianchi floor length gown of silk mist taffeta for the three o'clock rite. The gown was styled with a sabrina neckline and patterned with seed pearls on the bodice. A Dior bow held the bride's silk illusion fingertip veil. White roses, lilies of the valley and Stephanotis comprised the bridal bouquet.

Arrangements of white gladioli, snapdragons and stock set against palms decorated the altar.

Preceding the bride up the aisle were her matron of honor, Mrs. Stanton Lee Schaefer, of Northville, bridesmaids, Mrs. Joan Nash, Detroit, and Miss Julie Gildersleeve, Jackson, and junior attendant Stacey Ann Schaefer, also of Northville.

Senior attendants wore identical sheath dresses fashioned in glory blue silk shantung with petal overskirts. Their headpieces were Dior bows and silk net.

Mrs. Nash carried pink roses while the bridesmaids carried nosegays of yellow roses.

The junior bridesmaid wore a white eyelet embroidered dress with a glory blue sash. Her flowers were pink sweetheart roses.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Malley selected a silk shantung suit in pale blue. Mrs. Davis was attired in a silk chiffon gown in shades of brown, beige and gold. Both wore ebullient orchid corsages.

Stanton Schaefer, of Northville, was the groom's best man. Ushers Jeremiah Upham, Northville, Anthony Morse, New York City, John Hicks, Milford, and James Healy, Dearborn, seated guests.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Malley held a reception at their home attended by guests from Northville, Plymouth, Ann Arbor, Lathrup Village, Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, Mount Clemens, Grosse Pointe, Wayne and Kalamazoo. When the couple left on their wedding trip to Northern Michigan the new Mrs. Davis was wearing a green linen suit. On their return the couple will reside on East Thirteen Mile road in Royal Oak.

The former Miss Malley graduated from Monticello Junior college and attended the University of Michigan. Her husband studied at Hillsdale college and the University of Michigan and graduated from the University of Michigan last year. He's now a student in the graduate school at Wayne State university.

Officer Vote Set June 13

Members of the auxiliary to Northville American Legion Post 147 are looking ahead to three major projects in coming weeks.

Heading the list is the auxiliary's annual election of officers which is slated Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Veterans' Memorial home on West Dunlap. Members are urged to be there to cast their votes for new officers who will assume their duties in September.

Rex Holloman, child welfare chairman at the post, has asked members of the veterans' group and its auxiliary to reserve this Sunday for a trip to the American Legion Children's home at Otter Lake.

Take along your family and a picnic lunch, suggests Holloman, and plan to be at the home by 11 a.m.

He said visitors will be able to tour the facility.

Anyone planning to make the trip should call Holloman to make arrangements.

Members of the auxiliary are also reminded of the department annual convention to be held in Lansing August 2-5.

"Clipped" Chick Is Popular Dish

There are a lot of ingredients and it takes some time to make; nevertheless, few guests come away from a meal of Mrs. H. Lane Crabtree's chicken supreme casserole without asking for the recipe.

The casserole, which can be started one day and finished the next — if you don't want to make it all in one swatch — is one of the pay-offs from a pastime Mrs. Crabtree has pursued for years — recipe clipping.

Her zeal for giving something new a fair try has found the homemaker disturbing the pages of many a magazine and newspaper. Another clipping her scissors has saved is a recipe for chocolate raisin drops which she is loaning to Kitchen Diary along with her directions for the chicken casserole.

Mrs. Crabtree lives at 28375 Summit drive in Novi with her husband, son and father-in-law. The Crabtrees also have a married son and single daughter in Detroit.

CHICKEN SUPREME CASSEROLE

Mrs. H. Lane Crabtree
1 stewing chicken about 5 lbs.
3 cups water
1 medium size onion, sliced
1 carrot, scraped and halved handful of celery tops
1 Tbsp. salt
1 bay leaf
6 cups cooked rice
6 Tbsps. chicken fat
6 Tbsps. flour
1 cup light or table cream
1 cup (6 ozs.) sliced mushrooms
1 can (4 ozs.) pimientos, diced
1 1/4 cups (5-oz. can) slivered almonds, toasted
1 cup buttered, soft bread crumbs.

STEP 1: Simmer chicken in water with onions, carrot, celery tops, salt and bay leaf in large covered kettle one to one and a half hours or until tender.

STEP 2: Cool chicken in stock. Remove chicken from stock, strain stock into bowl, chill, skim off fat and save for Step 5.

STEP 3: When ready to complete dish pour 1 cup stock over cooked rice in large bowl. Let stand while making sauce.

STEP 4: Remove chicken meat from bones. Cut into bite-size pieces.

STEP 5: Melt chicken fat from Step 2 in medium size sauce pan adding butter or margarine if needed to make 6 tablespoons. Blend in flour, remove from heat, stir in 2 cups of stock.

STEP 6: Cook over low heat stirring constantly until sauce thickens and boils one minute. Remove from heat. Gradually stir in cream, mushrooms and liquid, pimientos, almonds and chicken. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

STEP 7: Make alternate layers of chicken mixture and rice in buttered 12-cup casserole. Sprinkle buttered crumbs around edge. Bake in moderate (350-degree) oven about 50 to 60 minutes or until sauce bubbles around edge and crumbs are golden brown.

TOASTED ALMONDS

Melt 1/2 tablespoons butter or margarine in medium size skillet. Add almonds and toast over low heat until almonds are lightly browned.

CHOCOLATE RAISIN DROPS

3/4 cup butter or margarine

Named to Scoutings Order of the Arrow

Novi Boy Scout Troop 54 can boast two nominees to scouting's Order of the Arrow. Selected for the honor are Gene Totten, assistant scoutmaster of Troop 54, and John Tymensky, Jr., member of the troop. Both attended Order of the Arrow ceremonies Saturday at Scout-o-Rama which was held on the John F. Ivory Polo farms in Commerce township. Their initiation will be held sometime in September.

PAUL BUNYAN SALESMEN — The theme for this year's Scouting Exposition (State Fairgrounds, June 8, 9 and 10) will be Paul Bunyan, the legendary superman and woodsman. And these men pictured above will tell you it's because the exposition will be "the greatest scouting show on earth". They're in charge of ticket sales in the Northville-Plymouth area and expect to help the three-day event set new attendance records. Pictured (l-r) are Chris Hammond, Ken Hulsing, Cass Dennis, Wendell Henry and David Field.

— BIRTHS —

Spring Sports Seasons Ending

Barring complications from weather man, Northville sports clubs will wind their seasons by this week.

Coach Keith Krause's tennis team, last team to get its season underway this year, will end competition with the state on Friday and Saturday. The tennis activity ended nearly two weeks ago, while the golfers rounded out their season with a pair of wins, the baseball club was slated to close out its schedule at night (Wednesday).

The local netters dropped a pair of 5-2 matches last week, and to Oak Park Friday. They were slated to face Lodi Roosevelt last night. Only winners for Northville in both competitions were Tom and Dieron Ornekian, at first and second singles. Mustang golfers added frost-free to their fine performances in recent state finals and the Pontiac invitational by edging out Plymouth, 214-219 Monday and setting a new school record for a four-man team score when they drubbed Southfield 159-176.

Ed Beard, who's been shooting for low mah all season clubbed a four-over-par 39 at Braeburn for both matches to lead the Mustangs. Tom Slatery shot a 42 Monday and then equalled Beard against Southfield.

Bob Hallam undercut his 43 for Monday with a 41 on Tuesday, and Bill Weidner shaved six strokes off his Monday score of 46 when he competed Tuesday. John Walters shot a 44 to round out the five-man effort against Plymouth.

Local baseballers slated to go against Plymouth last night to end their schedule, continued their best-ever season as a Wayne-Oakland league member by copping the title at the Pontiac invitational tournament last weekend.

Memorial Day they downed Waterford Kettering, 7-2. Dan Brown, who was named most valuable player of the tournament went the first six innings, with Eric Peterson finishing.

Roy Rice added a home run Wednesday, while Bell contributed three hits.

Against Royal Oak Kimball Friday, Peterson went the distance, giving up five hits that were of little use as the Mustangs won 4-0.

Brown narrowly missed a shut-out against Southfield Saturday as Northville won 10 in a tight pitcher's duel. A scratch infield grounder in the fifth at the right moment found a dozen Mustangs stranded. Northville had seven hits against Plymouth's three, and left seven on base in the first three innings.

Plymouth's runs came in the first inning on a home run after a walk. Peterson went the distance for the Mustangs.

Northville's one run in the third was scored by Rice. He had singled, advancing to third on a pair of walks. Jim Juday's long sacrifice fly to right field drove Rice home.

Northville lost 2-0 to Plymouth Monday as failure to connect

Any organization or group of men which wishes to have an entry in the Northville Men's softball league must have a representative at an organizational meeting to be held this Saturday, recreation program Director Ken Conley stated this week.

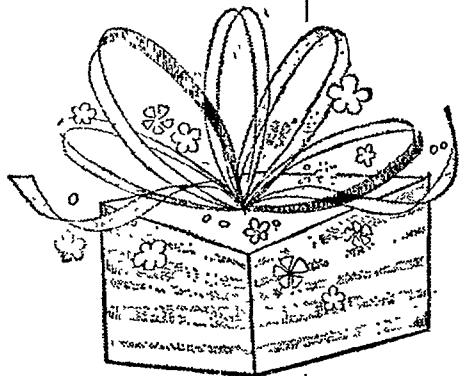

He said the meeting will be held at 10 a.m. in the recreation office at 157 East Cady Street. The meeting is planned to discuss team rosters, entry fees, dates of play and rules, he said.

Conley also announced that class "E" baseball practice will be held tonight (Thursday) at 6 o'clock and Saturday at 9 a.m. in Cass Benton park.

Team rosters for the "E" league — for boys who will be 14 before September 1, but will not be 16 before then — will be

'Golden Era' Ends Graduates Include Sport Leaders

Graduation ceremonies next week will mark the end of what must certainly be termed one of Northville high school's most brilliant sports eras.

This year, Northville led the Wayne-Oakland league in three of four major sports and one of three minor sports to win the league's all-sports trophy for the second year in a row.

The Mustangs were also the only high school team in the state to go all the way to the state semi-finals in basketball without having lost a football or basketball game, and they lost only one league baseball game this spring.

While most varsity coaches will have a small nucleus of returning veterans to work with next year, the great majority of Northville's spotlight performers during the past two years have played in their last high school competition.

The most lauded, and certainly the most outstanding of these performers is Steve Juday.

During the past two years Steve has served as captain of the varsity football, basketball and baseball teams — a strong cool-headed shooting and team-arousing spirit.

And as a three-year starter on the baseball squad as a shortstop, he has combined alert fielding with a booming batting record.

Steve Juday's athletic career began on the baseball diamond when he started playing in Northville's summer recreation program at age 10. He continued playing in the local summer leagues until two years ago, when he was tapped by the Detroit Amateur Baseball Federation.

For the past two summers he has played in the Detroit league, and last season he became the first Federation player to slug an in-the-seats home run at Tiger stadium.

The gridiron first attracted Juday when he was in the seventh grade. He started playing in the school football program, then, and, except for a stint at halfback on the JV Colts when a freshman, he has been playing quarterback ever since.

The recreation department also provided Juday's basketball start. While a sixth grader, he played in the Saturday morning program.

He began school basketball as a member of the junior high team "the next year," and has been spending increasing amounts of time in the gymnasium since.

The many accolades piled upon Steve during the past two years mark the peak of his award-winning athletic career.

He started his trophy winning at age 10 when he led in his class in the recreation department's ice skating races. When he was 12, he was a member of the inner-city championship baseball club, and the first year he played in Detroit, he was on the league-leading team.

As a junior footballer, Steve was picked for the all-league team and won several honorable mentions for all-state teams. Last fall he was appointed to one all-state club, the all-league and all-suburban teams, and was named Oakland County's most valuable player.

In basketball this year, he was chosen for the all-league team and was named to an all-state fifth team.

Steve calls picking his favorite sport a toss-up between baseball and football.

"I guess the one I enjoy most is the one I happen to be playing," he grinned.

As for the future, Steve has accepted an athletic scholarship to Michigan State University. He says he has toyed with the idea of playing professional sports — perhaps with a preference for baseball — but he's going to get an education first.

He's talked to a number of baseball scouts, and has found that they prefer having young athletes complete college if they have the opportunity.

"It gives them a chance to look more closely at you in tougher competition," he explains, "and if you're dropped, you are still trained to make a good living."

Athletics are nothing new for the Juday family. Steve's father, City Councilman Richard Juday, played both basketball and baseball when a high school student in Indiana. He also played semi-pro baseball in Fort Wayne, and is now an active bowler.

Steve's older brother Bill, who was recently named the most improved player in spring football training at Vanderbilt University, set the mark for both Steve and his younger brother Jim when he played football for Northville.

Bill was an all-state guard when he was a senior. He was picked for the all-suburban team in his junior year, and was named to a Detroit area "dream team."

The youngest of the three Juday boys, now a junior, has been a team mate with Steve on all three varsities this past year. He played JV basketball

"Our Legs Don't Get Cold Anymore!"

"With electric heat, there are no drafts or cold spots—even the floors are nice and warm," says Mrs. William Albert of Nankin Township, Michigan. "We saved $300 on installation when we converted from the old system. Electric heat saved us space, too—now we have an extra closet where our chimney used to be. There's nothing to worry about or take care of. My draperies stay a whole lot cleaner. For all the electric appliances we have—range, water heater, clothes dryer, air conditioner—we think our $35 per month electric bill is a real bargain. Believe me, once you have electric heat, you won't want anything else."

What about your home? Do you have a hard-to-heat room? Are you adding on a room? Are you buying a new-home? Is the heating system in your present home more trouble than it's worth? One of the types of electric heating units shown below may be the answer to your heating problems. One easy way to find out is to ask your electrical contractor. Another is to call your Edison office. We'll be glad to send you a copy of our free booklet "Electric Home Heating" and will answer any questions you may have about the modern, worry-free way to heat your home—electrically.

Novi Police Uncover Theft of Boat Motor

A faulty license plate led a car which had no license plate light and, during a routine check, discovered a large outboard motor in the trunk of the car.

Novi Patrolman Ralph Arbour reported that he stopped

The explanation for the motor given by the two young men in the car sounded unusual to the police officer, so he questioned them further, finally gaining admission that the motor had been stolen shortly before Arbour had stopped the car.

Arbour said the 25 horsepower motor, which belonged to Malcolm Murray, of 1355 Appleford, had been stolen from Murray's boat while it was docked in Walled Lake at a public beach near the intersection of Montecello and East Lake Drive.

The patrolman said the two men told him they had pried a lock off the motor in order to remove it from the boat.

Kenneth Mathews, 24, of Inkster, who owned the car, was fined $25 on a charge of simple larceny, and released to Army National Guard officials. Mathews, the father of two, had been recently called back to active duty.

Twenty-year-old Lyle L. Limpert, of 114 Montecello, was charged with being in possession of a stolen article. He was placed on six months probation, with orders to report monthly to the Novi police.

Awaits Trial On Car Theft

A Jackson prison parolee who stole a car from a Main street parking lot last week is in Wayne County jail awaiting trial in circuit court.

Charged with unlawfully driving away an automobile is Norman Edwards, 111 West Main. Edwards was pursued and apprehended by Northville police.

On South Main last Thursday evening shortly after he took a car belonging to Northville Estates resident Doyle Nelson from a lot at the corner of Main and Center streets.

Police fired shots in the air to halt the fleeing driver.

Chief Eugene King said Edwards admitted he had taken Nelson's car from the Main street lot two weeks earlier and had abandoned it on Six Mile road when it ran out of gas. He said he kept the keys.

Edwards was jailed and arraigned Friday. He entered a plea of guilty in examination before Northville Justice Charles McDonald Monday.

Leaves Scene, Receives Fines

Northville Justice Charles McDonald levied a $25 fine and $10 cost against William Cleam Young, of Detroit, in court action Thursday.

Young pleaded guilty to a charge of improper passing causing a property damage accident. The mishap occurred the morning of May 23 on the Seven Mile cutoff near South Main.

The complainant in the case, Mysie A. Thomas, Livonia, said she and Young were both traveling west on Seven Mile when Young passed her and pulled back into the lane of traffic too soon, hooking the rear bumper of his car to her front bumper.

Justice McDonald also ordered Young to make restitution for damages to the other car.

A Walled Lake man paid a total of $65 in fines and court costs after pleading guilty to three separate charges in Novi Justice of the Peace court.

Judge Robert K. Anderson ordered Wayne B. Irons, 35, of 610 Pontiac trail to pay $50 and sentenced him to three months probation for a charge of leaving the scene of an accident.

Irons also paid $10 for driving on the left side of the center lane and $5 for failure to change the address on his driver's license.

Anthony Clem, of Union Lake was ordered to pay $15 after he pleaded guilty to an assault and battery complaint brought by his wife Julia.

Novi Sports Car Accident Injures Two Pontiac Men

Two Pontiac men were injured, one critically, last week when their foreign sports car bounced into the ditch after a near head-on collision with another car on Novi road.

Reported as improving, and now off the critical list at St. Mary hospital, Livonia, is Robert Morrow, 22. Released from the hospital after a 24-hour observation period was his brother, Larry, 24.

Novi police report Robert received a broken leg and arm at 1:45 a.m. last Tuesday, when his brother could not get back into the proper lane after trying to pass another vehicle on Novi road, 50 yards north of 10 Mile road.

Police Chief Lee BeGole said Larry attempted to pass another car while driving north on Novi road. He said Morrow apparently could not get by the other car, so he went to the west shoulder of the road to avoid hitting a south bound car driven by Keith A. Kestel, 20, of Garden City.

Kestel, who reportedly was not injured, told police he swerved his foreign sedan to the west shoulder of the road when he saw that Morrow did not have room to pass.

BeGole said Kestel swerved back onto the pavement, but not in time to prevent the passenger sides of the two cars from colliding. He said the Morrow car was forced into the ditch by the impact.

The chief said the driver of the car Morrow was trying to pass apparently was not aware that an accident had occurred for he did not stop.

BeGole said the police are still investigating the accident.

The spiritual source of intelligence and creativity will be brought out Sunday at Christian Science church services. "God the Only Cause and Creator" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon, which includes this passage from Isaiah (45): "I am the Lord, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy this selection will be read: "At substance, intelligence, wisdom, being, immortality, cause, and effect belong to God. These are His attributes, the eternal manifestations of the infinite divine Principle, Love. No wisdom is wise but His wisdom, no truth is true, no love is lovely, no life is life but the divine; no good is, but the good God bestows" (p. 275).
The Golden Text is from Hebrews (3): "Every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God."

"DOES YOUR LIFE HAVE MEANING"

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

By The Reverend Paul M. Cargio,
First Methodist Church of Northville

The Holy Spirit Supreme

The "Day of Pentecost" nears. In the Christian calendar June 10 is to be observed as Pentecost, the time when the power of God came from on high in the founding of the Christian church. To the disciples the promise was made and realized, "Ye shall receive Power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth." We should be of the conviction that spiritual power has not been eclipsed by material power. "By my Spirit," saith the Lord of hosts. The spirit of God that once moved upon the face of the waters moved in God's own who hear His voice and are attentive to His ways. Parallel with the fact that God is, is the fact that God's spirit is supreme. No one can beat God and win. The game must, in the long run, be played His way, and by His rules. This principle has ramifications in persons, for nations, and for our world. God's way is the right way. Holy Spirit, Truth divine, Dawn upon this soul of mine; Word of God, and inward light, Wake my spirit, clear my sight. Holy Spirit, Right divine, King within my conscience reign; Be my Lord, and I shall be Firmly bound, for ever free.

Scientists Hold Annual Meeting

Gratitude for spiritual growth and progress was the keynote as Christian Scientists from many countries attended the annual meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., Monday afternoon.

Uncompromising reliance on unlimited resources of God, Spirit, opens the way to the permanent solution of every human problem. The Christian Science Board of Directors emphasized in a special message.

Bearing witness to this were incidents of spiritual healing read at the meeting. They included healings of pernicious anemia, tuberculosis, pleurisy, diabetes, cancer, and mental illness. Also reported were healings of alcoholism, broken bones, deafness, heart trouble, and impaired vision.

Named President of The Mother Church for the coming year was Ralph E. Wagers of Boston and Chicago.

A native of Michigan, Mr. Wagers is a well-known Christian Science teacher, practitioner, and editor. He traveled throughout the world as a Christian Science lecturer prior to becoming Associate Editor of the Christian Science religious periodicals in 1959. In addition to his work as an editor, he is currently heard on the international radio series "The Bible Speaks to You."

City of Wixom

ONE YEAR AGO
June 1, 1961.

—Northville's new budget will be aired by city councilmen at a public hearing tonight. The budget proposals call for the same local tax millage — 12.5 — as for the present budget, and expenditures of $349,135, down about $13,000.

—The city of Northville won a sidewalk assessment suit brought by three couples in a hearing held Monday before Oakland county circuit Judge William Beer. The suit was brought by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Chappell, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hicks and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Terry because the assessment was for sidewalks that did not abut their properties. The sidewalks, located some 12 feet from the couples' property lines, were installed farther than the usual one-foot from private property because of grading difficulties.

—Installation of a Goss model E flatbed, web-fed newspaper printing press is being completed this week by the Northville Record, incorporated. The new press, which will increase production capacity nearly five-fold, is being installed in a newly-built press room at the rear of the Record building.

—Novi School board candidates David Fried and incumbent Edward Erwin will meet "face to face" in a debate of current school issues Wednesday in the Orchard Hills school. Fried is the only challenger for the only board seat open on the June 12 ballot.

FIVE YEARS AGO
May 30, 1957

—Despite a damper put on the Northville Downs' 14th season by the bad weather, the track will come near its record mutual handle by the time it closes this Saturday night. As of Monday, the track's handle had totalled over $8.1 million. The city will receive about $87,000 in receipts from the betting activities.

—A suit against Northville brought by Novi township in protest of the city's annexation of 82 acres surrounding the American school will have its day in court next month. June 11 was the date for opening the hearing set by the Oakland county circuit court assignment clerk.

—Novi specials, two of them will be in the running tomorrow when the annual Indianapolis 500 is held. Owned by Lou Welch, owner of the Novi Equipment company, said chances are good this year of breaking the 11-year jinx that has kept the fabulous Novi's from victory.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO
May 30, 1947

—Annual honors convocation at Northville high school will be held next Wednesday, say Superintendent Russell Amherstman. The annual assembly is held to give recognition to outstanding students.

—Three candidates have qualified for the ballot for the June 9 Northville school board election. Two trustees will be chosen from among candidates Sidney Frid, Howard I. Atwood and Dr. R. M. Atchison.

—The Petz Brothers service station, located at East Main and Park Place, now has new owners, it was announced this week. William J. Elliott, 905 Spring drive, and Walter Stubbe, Jr., Eight Mile road, became the new proprietors last Thursday.

—Funds for a community hall building for Novi township will be augmented next Wednesday when a benefit circus and jamboree takes place on the school grounds. Sponsoring the affair, expected to draw large crowds from surrounding communities, is the Novi board of commerce.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
June 4, 1937

—Some 54 Northville high school seniors will be receiving diplomas in graduation ceremonies on June 17. The class is the smallest to seek diplomas in Northville in several years. —Township and county health officers this week ordered closed the Walled Lake consolidated school. The official action came after an outbreak of scarlet fever was feared, to be reaching epidemic proportions. Nearly half the student population failed to appear in classes following the Memorial Day vacation because of fear that a few cases could spread into an epidemic.

—A thorough survey of housing conditions in Northville is the present project of the Northville civic association. The association also approved compilation of a credit rating for the area at its meeting Tuesday evening.

—Work is continuing on patching of leak in Northville's PWA project reservoir, says Engineer Hagold P. Hamill. He said the Western Waterproofing company is repairing a number of leaks, but could not estimate when the work would be completed.

EDITORIALLY SPEAKING

Thanks . . .

The student staff of "Hoof Prints" would like to take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Anne Ripberger, our faculty advisor, for her invaluable assistance. Without her many long hours of work and planning, we are sure that much of our work would have been fruitless. We deeply appreciate her efforts.

Going Steady . . .

A commonly accepted practice, "going steady" has become an American institution. Yet as Anatole France pointed, "If fifty million people do a foolish thing, it's still a foolish thing." Fidelity and even love are professed, as the couple vow to date each other exclusively. Then I inquire at the first opportunity, "Do you intend to marry this person?" The answer is invariably, "No." Why then have they promised to date no one else, when they expect to break-up sometime in the future?

I have yet to find an answer to this query. Obviously, extraneous pro and con arguments can be waged; such as the virtues of always having a date as opposed to the drudgery of being tied down to one person so early in life. Yet the problem remains that "going steady" is based on the thoroughly unsound premise of making promises that everyone knows will never be kept.

Graduation . . .

As the hallowed eve of June 14 draws near, this writer fears that very few seniors have any sincere concern for the graduation rituals. The seniors manage to fill their heads with many other essentials: "How many presents will I get?" "Where are all the parties going to take place?"

The graduation itself does not have the same significance for everyone. Some find it is merely a formal declaration of the right to enter college. For many others, graduation merely signifies freedom from drudgery. For all, however, we discover that the thrill of receiving a diploma has often been relegated to the realm of receiving, perhaps some new clothes.

During the ceremony, speakers are attended graciously until the heat wits the starched audience into a fidgeting mass, anxious each to go their own way. The guest speakers dabble eloquently on the virtues of perseverance, hard work, honesty, the value of education, and all those things of which our "educated" graduates are apparently completely unaware.

Congratulations are naturally meted out liberally to one and all. Yet as our cosmopolitan graduates join the millions of students' all over the country (who are also being congratulated) one wonders about the outstanding value of their accomplishment. Under today's present theory of education, in most cases wearing a cap and gown means having attended school faithfully for four years. Certainly parents are to be proud of their children's accomplishments, however, this outstanding achievement, the cause for ceremonial celebration, seems to have diminished to an obsolete shadow. Though not everyone graduating from high school will receive a Ph.D., I am convinced that these people will accomplish more than simply graduating from high school.

Next Year . . .

The two issues of "Hoof Prints" which have appeared in "The Record" have been an experiment this year. We hope that the acceptance and interest in our attempts has such that it warrant a continuation of this page next fall. We hope "Hoof Prints" has been as informative and enjoyable to read as it has been to produce.

Campaigns Engulf School

As the school year rapidly draws to a close, Northville High School students are again faced with the question of who they would like to be their next year's Student Council executive officers. Every spring, the mayor, secretary, and treasurer of the Student Council are elected for the following school year by the entire student body.

Those people who wish to run obtain petitions from the office. In order for a person to be nominated for an office, the petition must have fifty signatures.

Toward the end of May, the halls became cluttered with signs saying "Vote for so and so" or "Experience counts. Elect so and so." However there were some very original and tricky campaign posters.

Soon after the campaigning, there was a primary election, because more than three people were running for one office. After the primaries, the campaigning began in earnest. Now besides putting up signs in the halls, the candidates employed all kinds of gimmicks to tell the student body that they were the one to vote for.

In previous years, there have been three tickets, with one candidate for each office on a ticket. However, this year, there were only two candidates for an office and thus there were no tickets.

The day before the election, skits and campaign speeches were presented to the student body in an assembly program. This program took place on Tuesday. Tuesday, the students voted in their study halls or after school. The voting was done by the casting of ballots.

Yesterday in a special assembly, the officers for next year's student council will be announced. These people who were running for offices are: Mayor — Frank Steinberger and Chris Gazlay; Secretary — Brenda Coburn, Cathy Bentley, and Holly Fox; Treasurer — Dave Jerome and Chuck Somers.

Some of the qualifications and a statement from each candidate follow.

Frank Steinberger, an eleventh grader, who is running for mayor, was a member of Student Council for one year, was President of his Sophomore class, president of the National Honor Society, treasurer of the Forensic Club, and a delegate to Boy's State. When asked what he hoped to achieve if elected, Frank replied: "I wish to create greater harmony between the students and the council than in previous years, this can be done by encouraging more participation on the part of the students in making the council more interesting to them."

Chris Gazlay, also a junior and a candidate for mayor, states: "...I propose a program of more active participation on the part of the individual student, to obtain more true a picture of the opinions of a cross-section typical of the student body. Another area of concern among students is the relationships between ours and other schools in our league and the prevention of difficulties arising from rivalry before they occur."

Another junior, Brenda Coburn, who is running for secretary because of her JA experience: "There was much I had to learn about a Secretary job, this being my first year of actually holding an office. I realize a candidate must have the experience and knowledge to maintain the standards that have been set in the past."

Cathy Bentley is a sophomore running for the office of secretary. Experience-wise, she is secretary of the sophomore class, president of her church's youth fellowship, secretary of the library club and has been a member of the council for two years.

When asked why she was seeking office she replied, "I would like to be secretary because I like Student Council and I would like the responsibilities that go along with the job. If I do get this office I will try my very best for this job."

Holly Fox, another tenth grader seeking the office of secretary, says, "I hope that in every way I can carry on and fulfill the office as efficiently and completely as Northville's secretaries." Holly is her class treasurer, is secretary of the library club, a J.V. cheerleader, and a member of the Student Council.

Dave Jerome liked his job of treasurer of the council this year so much, that he decided to try for re-election. Dave is a sophomore this year and was only a freshman when elected for the first time. In addition to his council experience, he is a member of the football, basketball, and baseball teams, is a delegate to Boy's State, was mayor of the junior high and is in the high school band. He has been in numerous other activities. When asked about the importance of the job of treasurer, Dave replied: "Treasurer of the student council is a position of great importance, and requires responsibility and know-how. The transactions which the student council has are far greater than any other organization. Because of this a person with experience is needed. Having held this position this past year, I feel I am well qualified and would do the task to the best of my ability."

The other candidate for treasurer, eleventh grader Chuck Somers, gave his feelings about the office of treasurer: "I think to draw a difference in the policies of high school officers is too difficult — especially in the office of treasurer. I do not believe in spreading my service too thin in too many clubs so if elected, I plan on spending most of my time working for the Student Council." Chuck is treasurer of the National Honor Society, a member of band, and Forensic Club.

The decision which the students made in their choice of officers will be reflected next year in the extent of the success of the Student Council in deciding student policies, and cooperation between the council and general student body.

They're Off To College

Traveling far and south will be Dick Bathey who plans to matriculate at Florida State.

Odds & Ends

Is it a bird? Is it a plane? No, it's a G.A.L. Initiate. Many's the wild creation modeled by the victims of the G.A.L. initiation. Those queer creatures seen downtown last Thursday were those G.A.L.s completing their requirements and muttering under their breath, "Just wait till next year."

Our choice freshman and sophomore female athletes made a fine showing at the triangular track meet between Clarenceville, Bloomfield Hills and Northville. We took several firsts and seconds.

Coming ... Bermuda Day ... June 14 is mon, everybody out of dresses and slacks. Slavery has temporarily ended!

These persons, throughout their four years of high school, have earned a 3.0 average or above. For their outstanding achievement they will be awarded an Honors Scholarship Pin and Gold Tassel at the Honors Convocation, being held June 8, at 8:00 p.m. at the Northville High School Auditorium.

They are as follows: James Anderson, Alison Atherton, Paul Beard, Diane Brasure, Grace Brinson, Daniel Brown, Paul Chadwick, Sally Filkin, Robert Galli, Julia Gazlay, Dennis Gilbert, Cynthia Hildebrandt, Mary Oglesby, Patricia Palenchar, Robert Palmer, Pamela Parmenter, Philip Simenton, Thomas Slattery, Susan Swank, and Janice Williams.

Seniors Recall

REMEMBER . . .

The old Main Street high school with its crowded corridors, one-way stairways, and friendly little classrooms. Miss Dorrian's corner room and the time a rowdy senior boy (Class of '59) tuned on the lawn mower beneath her windows. The undefeated football season of 1958 and Bob Starnes, N. C. Schrader and Spike Walker when Homecoming featured Queen Diane Luchman, and Barbara Mapes, Barbara Kruger, Judy Lambert and Vicki Junced those hour-long lunch periods and the strolls into downtown Northville. Jack Bailey and Hank Bathey's water tower and other escapades. The "Blue Moon" J-Hop and the Four Freshmen tall, tall Jeff Goodrich snowball fights in the City Hall Park pea-shooters "Tan Shoes and Pink Shoelaces" the muddy 1959 graduation held at the new high school.

School year 1959-60 brought other unforgettable moments. Recall the first day at our glass palace on the hill the shorter lunch periods and our first taste of school cafeteria food, when sunglasses, were the latest for sunny corridor wear, pretty Homecoming Queen Barbara Kruger when "The Cage" was the rage! our fourth consecutive League football championship "Papa Is All" and "Love Is Eternal", the successful class productions Joe Gotro, Northville's own trampolines and half-time attraction "the fire alarm scare staged by punksters from the Class of '60 the last NHS senior trip or good bye assembly for Coach Ron Schipper.

Our second year at the new high school brings back memories of even shorter lunch periods. Mr. Horwath's arrival at NHS the Class of '62's unprofitable J-Hop, "An Evening at Monticello" Homecoming Queen Sharon Hensch and a very muddy Ford's Field Football Captains Dave Hay and Steve Judy "The Cynical Savage", the last class play presented at Northville High magazine sales snuffing Uta Rosenbrock, our German exchange student who made her home with Sally and Dave Filkin "Senior Jim Tuck's widow washing punishment Mr. Kraus' outdoor classroom

Now we bid farewell to a fourth year, and the 1960 grid victory over rival Plymouth "High weed-killer, paint, and mischievous scholars Queen Linda Lepper reigning over the traditional Homecoming festivities, squirt gun fever the J-Hop "Hale Kahi" with its sawdust yard and pink and white palm trees the time Jack Dowd played Santa Claus, a golden football season and the laurels brought home by our Mustang athletes lanky Dan Brown and his famed hook shot Amie, Klaus, Manfred and Tony "White Night" cheering sections the day Miss Bubel, Miss Dorrian and Mrs. Fitzgerald taught us "The Twist" the caravan to East Lansing Northville vs River Rouge at Lansing Sexton High School notecards, footnotes and terrible term papers Senior Panic Day work sessions in Jerry Burnham's barn the pink octopus, blue seahorse, mermaids, and five-hundred balloons that made "Majestic Deep" an unforgettable from the Junior-Senior Banquet highlighted by turkey, Senior Class President Ed Beard's famous last words, and a toboggan party. One more week to go.

New Stands to Greet Fans at Down's Opener

Harness racing fans are in for some surprises when they play one of the most beautiful and picturesque in the midwest. John J. Carlo, executive manager, points out that without taking away the one big feature — that of viewing the races practically from trackside which is so popular with stand-bred fans — the 'Downs' has completely new, modern, and large grandstand with the new glass-enclosed and a new five-year multi-million dollar improvement program and now has a beautiful structure that doesn't have to take a back seat to any in the area. The back of the grandstand, facing the huge parking lot, was razed and a 320-foot, three-story section constructed since the end of the 1961 racing season. The grandstand was widened by 40 feet at each end and deepened by 30 feet with a new mezzanine section that includes 55 mutual windows, modern restrooms and a 320-foot long area for those who like to stand and watch the races. The three-story addition has space for the executive offices, calculating room, money room and the electronic 'tote' equipment which required more than 20 miles of additional wiring. And all are enclosed with huge marbleite panels that give the entire grandstand a beautiful exterior look. Then, too, the ends are now glass-enclosed to protect the patrons from inclement weather. The additional 80-feet to the grandstand will add 1,000 more reserved and box seats and give the 'Downs' an overall seating capacity of 7,500 — 4,500 in the grandstand and 3,000 in the temporary bleachers and special seating sections at the east and west ends of the plant. The additional betting windows will avoid congestion and enable the track to adequately take care of patrons on the mezzanine since the lines will be able to extend back 30 feet, compared to the 10-feet in the past. Then there are 35 more windows in addition to daily double machines — new this year in the mezzanine.

FIRST HAND LOOK — Michigan Racing Commissioner Edgar Hayes (left) brought his daughter, Mary, along last week when he visited the Downs for a look at the new stands. The commissioner and his daughter were given a tour of the grounds by Dr. L. W. Snow, president of the Driving club, and C. A. Hoffman, vice president (right).

GETTING ACQUAINTED — Detroit Federal Savings' employees used a direct approach this week as they decided to "get acquainted" with Northville. Participating in a contest for new customers with the Warren and Detroit offices, the Northville office clerks decided to go door-to-door, introduce themselves, and leave a gift. Shown above at their first stop are (l-r) Catherine Evans and Alice Moore talking to Mrs. Marjorie Lanning, 214 North Wing street.

LET'S TALK CARS . . .

An Option to End Wheel Spinning

New car buyers deciding on what options they need or can do without usually never give a thought to one of the least expensive but most useful aids to driving they could have on their cars.

This is known as Positive Traction Differential. It is a special rear axle gear assembly that prevents spinning one wheel on ice or when it is clear of the road. It is so effective that it largely eliminates the need for snow tires, which in actual fact are usually more expensive.

Standard differential gearing transmits power from a single drive shaft to both rear wheels. In itself it is a complicated mechanism because it must have a variable capacity to turn one wheel faster than the other when the need arises, such as in rounding a curve. The outside wheel in a turn is moving faster and the differential equalizes the power drive to both wheels.

This necessary quality becomes a handicap on ice and rough roads however. With one wheel on ice and the other on dry pavement, for instance, all power is shifted to the wheel with least grip, causing it to spin.

Positive Traction is an additional mechanism that doesn't affect the variable action on curves but which prevents spinning by equalizing the pull on both wheels.

Though Positive Traction improves handling of your car at any time of year, it is naturally most useful in winter driving. The time to install it however is when you buy your new car, so keep it high on the list as one of the most essential and least expensive of optional equipment.

THE EASY WAY — There was no marching in Novi's Memorial Day parade for the John Cockrum family, of 42409 Grand River — they road in a traditional "surrey with a fringe on top". That's Cockrum and his son Gary in the front seat. Novi held the parade and cemetery services at the Oakland Hills Memorial Gardens in honor of the community's war dead. The activities were sponsored by the board of commerce.

BEST PART of the festivities as far as little Kirk Frid was concerned was when they passed out the free ice cream bars. Some 2,000 bars were given away by C. E. Langfield, a tradition of the Northville Memorial Day program. Kirk is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Frid.

Here's Help in Choosing Just the Right Wallpaper

Picking the right kind of wallpaper can be pretty much like picking your new spring hat. You can have fun, or you can spend several exhausting and inconclusive hours trying to make up your mind. So pick your paper carefully, reminds the Wallpaper Council, and you'll live happily with it ever after.

It is best to have some idea of what you're after before you get into the store. The wallpaper people in your local store will be happy to help you solve your decorating problems, but they can't make up your mind for you. So be prepared to give them some idea of the type of furniture you have, the color combinations of your accessories, and a general idea of what you want.

With the correct wallpaper, there is no doubt but that you can easily alter and improve any room in the house.

Rooms in compact, modern ranch homes can be made to appear more spacious, while larger ambler rooms can take on that comfortable, intimate look, with the right wallpaper with the proper texture, pattern and tone.

Pre-Test Effect
Many wallpaper stores will let you have a strip of wallpaper, so that you can tape it up on your wall and let your family live with it a while.

The new living-dining room areas provide lots of family use, so that walls must be subdued, yet provide an ever-pleasing background. Textured wallpapers are usually the answer here. They come in a variety of effects and colors, and will soften and enhance the plain surfaces of modern furnishings.

A room badly cut up with too many windows or doors calls for ingenious handling. If this problem room happens to be your dining room, paper one or even two walls with an interesting bold pattern. Then use plain colored and textured papers on the cut-up surfaces, with woodwork and doors painted to match. There are plenty of such matching papers now available.

To Brighten Room
A dark room, removed from natural sunlight, should be papered in soft yellows or off-white tones to introduce light and spaciousness.

Dormer windows often present another difficult problem. A small scaled all-over pattern on the ceiling and walls or the dormer, and matching plain papers on the other walls, will give a most pleasant and decorative effect. Sloping walls will easily blend into the ceilings, if you just use the same small-textured design on both ceilings and dormer.

If you plan to do the job yourself, select your papers, keeping this fact in mind. There are many pre-trimmed and pre-pasted papers on the market which will ease your job considerably. If papers are untrimmed, your dealer can most likely trim them for you free.

Make Sure Rec Room Has 'Solid' Flooring

"Trouble free" is the number one requirement for all materials used in the family fun room.

A popular choice for flooring is resilient rubber or solid vinyl. Since the colors go all the way through in these high quality floorings, they withstand wear and tear of dancing feet, spilled glue from the hobby by activities, dents from small fry pull toys, spilled drinks and other hazards common to a heavy traffic room devoted to family recreation.

Goodwill Pickup

The next visit of Goodwill Industries pick-up trucks to Northville is scheduled for Monday. Goodwill trucks collect household discards of clothing, shoes, hats, toys, most types of furniture and other household discards.

To arrange for a Goodwill Industries truck pick-up, ask the operator for toll-free Enterprise 7002.

Both rubber and solid vinyl flooring may be considered as structural components which last for the life of the building.

It is easy for the do-it-yourself enthusiasts to install either rubber or solid vinyl in interesting designs. By creating special areas of activity through the resilient tile design, the home owners can achieve not only a feeling of greater spaciousness in the recreation room but also localize activities of different members of the family, for example.

Creating a shuffleboard or checkerboard pattern as part of the design of the family room floor is another way to increase the play value of the rubber or solid vinyl flooring.

These resilient tiles are easy to cut in special shapes so a custom design is well within the talents of an amateur home decorator.

When you lay a rubber or solid vinyl floor, it is winning strategy to order a few extra tiles and use them as a decorative topping for a game table.

Insulate—Live in Comfort

A house that is not properly insulated is drafty in winter, even when doors and windows are tight, and hot in summer. Because of this, it costs far more to heat and cool than a home that's well insulated.

FHA recognizes this, and by including insulation among projects eligible for its low-cost home improvement loans, encourages home owners to add permanent value to their homes by doing a quality insulation job.

If proper insulation is added to an existing home, annual heating and cooling bills will be much lower than before. Many families have found that after thoroughly insulating their homes with mineral wool their fuel bills have been cut so drastically that within a few years the savings have paid for the total cost of the insulation.

Points to Watch
Two important things to remember when installing insulation are to buy batts and blankets of mineral wool with the correct heat resistance and to enclose the entire living area of the house, making sure that no gaps are left for heat to escape through. A tiny gap can account for tremendous heat loss.

Today mineral wool batts and blankets are labeled with their "R" factors (installed resistance to heat) making it easy to provide the correct heat resistance for both heating and air conditioning. To meet the Quality Home Requirements of the National Mineral Wool Insulation Association, batts or blankets labeled R-19 should be used in ceilings, R-11 in walls, and R-13 in floors over unheated areas.

Installing batts and blankets of mineral wool before interior walls and ceilings are finished is one of the easiest of do-it-yourself jobs.

The only tools required are a sharp knife and a staple gun. Rules to Follow

1. Measure all outside walls and ceilings and floors over unheated areas. Buy insulation labeled with the proper "R" factor for each area.

2. Trim the insulation somewhat larger than the space it is to cover, leaving a flange of vapor barrier at each end. With a very sharp knife or blade, cut along a piece of board or straight edge.

3. Fit insulation tightly between joists, studs or rafters, with vapor barrier overlapping the wood framing members at the end of the space. Barrier should be toward the side of the house that is heated in winter.

4. Nail or staple the flange to the wood at the end of the space, and along the facing side of the joist, rafter or stud.

5. Wedge the next batt or blanket against the end of the first one.

6. Fill all small spaces such as those around and behind electrical outlets and wall switches. To do this, strip off the vapor barrier, fit insulation snugly around outlet box, then staple vapor barrier over insulation. Use a razor blade to cut out a piece of vapor barrier to expose the outlet box. Mineral wool is fireproof and does not conduct electricity.

Holding Batts

7. To hold mineral wool batts in place between floor joists, use chicken wire, pieces of wire clothes hangers cut to the right length and wedged up against the insulation, special metal pins available for this specific purpose, or back-up board held by laths attached to the joists.

Mineral wool can also be poured into unfinished attic floors.

If a house is not properly insulated and the home owner doesn't want to pull out walls and ceilings, he can have an insulation contractor blow mineral wool into inaccessible areas without damage to the existing walls.

The insulation is forced by air pressure through a flexible hose into all cracks and corners and around pipes and wires. Siding removed to insert the hose nozzle is replaced carefully when the job is done.

EASY WAY TO INSULATE between attic floor joists is to blow insulating material in by the same process used for side-wall. Hose is brought into the house through a window or gable-end louver.

Blankets of mineral wool, cut to size, are stapled neatly to attic knee walls. Finished room will be comfortable, draft free.

Batts of mineral wool are being installed here in ceiling of new family room being added atop garage of ten-year-old home.

Household Hints

BEAUTIFUL INVESTMENT
Well-planned, attractive landscaping maintains the value of home property in many cases, even though the home itself depreciates.

SAFETY DRILLING
Grasp a small piece to be drilled on a drill press with a large clamp. Use a second clamp to hold the entire assembly in place on drill press table.

LUBE RECORD
Make a permanent record of when you oiled home appliances and tools by writing the information on a piece of adhesive tape and sticking it to the side of the machine where it can easily be read.

USE A KNIFE
Skilled cabinet makers use a knife when scoring lumber or plywood for cutting. The blade follows a straight edge more accurately, eliminates errors in the variations of thickness of pencil lines.

EYE DROPPER OILER
An eye dropper is good for measuring exact amounts of oil required for delicate parts and small motors.

PROTECT BLUEPRINTS
Cover data sheets and blueprints with transparent plastic of the type sold for wrapping foods. For maximum service, first mount the sheet on cardboard.

SAFETY IN SHARPNESS
The sharpest cutting edges are the safest. Dull tools are more apt to slip and gouge, and require more pressure, which is an added hazard.

SPEAKING for The Record

by Bill Sliger

You'd hardly know it, but Monday's election day in the Northville school district.

Only two candidates are running for the two board openings, both incumbents. Voting will be a matter of routine and the polls about as busy as a school room at mid-night.

Although both candidates are exceptionally well qualified and proven, it is a sad commentary when there is no competition for a board that spends more than two-thirds of the voters' tax dollar.

Some might say that it is because the public is completely satisfied with their present board.

But the public is never satisfied, only complacent.

Northville is well-endowed with residents highly talented in matters of business and education. It would be our hope that their interest could be whetted to the degree that they would attend meetings of the school board (on second and fourth Mondays) and become familiar with our system.

Then next June — through genuine interest and not necessarily dissatisfaction — perhaps we would find a field of candidates competing to lend their talent to the management of the school system.

In Novi school voters have a choice Monday. Four candidates (two incumbents) are running for two board openings. A record vote is likely.

One organization that has not been standing still since its formation several months ago is the Northville economic development group.

In its preliminary work it has completed an industrial survey of the area and the information has been forwarded to the state economic development offices, utilities and the railroad.

Plans for a brochure containing pertinent data of the area are well underway. And this week it is anticipated that the group will make application for incorporation into a non-profit industrial development corporation supported by public memberships.

Already the group has had two "feelers," but recognizes that to become effective it must be able to offer financial assistance in either building or purchasing available buildings and then providing lease arrangements.

Two excerpts from area newspapers brought the importance of an active economic development to mind:

From the Milford Times — "That there is urgent need of immediate incorporation of the non-profit company is emphasized by the fact that only last week Theodore Dorman, Detroit director of the National Industrial Development Corporation, paid a visit to Milford looking for sites for some 14 industries which are looking for relocations because their present sites are in the Corktown area of Detroit now in process of an extensive urban redevelopment program."

The Ann Arbor News — "The 40-acre development, planned to attract new business to the Brighton community, has been initiated and is being promoted by the Brighton Industrial Corporation, a private, profit-making concern organized to manage the industrial area. The sponsoring corporation, now actively engaged in promoting the Brighton area as a prime business location, was formed by several local business and professional men."

And just two weeks ago, Plymouth announced that its private development group had landed an RCA plant for the community.

The Northville group has pledged itself to desirable development of the entire school district area with the hope that new business will help share the tax load now carried by residents, while boosting the economy by providing stable employment.

Stock Market: What Happened?

Babson Park, Mass., During the past week, almost everyone has been asking what has happened to the stock market. The newspapers have said "nothing like it since 1929." Yet the Dow-Jones Industrial Average is off only about 20% from its all-time high which occurred at the start of 1962.

The Industrials have suffered the most; the utilities have suffered less; while the railroads have suffered the least. On the other hand, almost everything has suffered some what.

The newspapers, television and radio have made so much of the big break that people are getting it into their heads that everything should go down in price. Therefore, whether they are looking for houses, automobiles, or even orange groves, they expect bargains, and they pay no attention to the prices of a month ago.

This especially applies to used cars of which there is a surplus and the dealers are trying hard to convert them into cash.

The banks are getting frightened and have begun to ask their customers to reduce loans. They really have no reason for being frightened but bankers are easily scared because it is not their money which they are loaning, but rather the money of their customers. They do not know when their customers will want to use their money to buy bargains themselves, and hence the bankers must be prepared to take care of them. Most bankers were much disturbed by President Kennedy's actions when he lost his temper over the price of steel.

They feel that President Kennedy is against business and profits, and, perhaps, is too favorable to the labor leaders. Even the brokers are beginning to feel this way, owing to the SEC investigations. Some brokers are even unjustly saying that the past week will go down in history as the "Kennedy Break."

Mutual Funds
There has been a great sale of mutual funds during the past two years. It is reported that over 75,000 salesmen are selling mutual funds today. Most of the stock exchange firms are indulging in the sale of mutual funds. They are allowed a commission of one-eighth of one percent on listed stocks, and cannot afford to have their salesmen go out and solicit small investors for this fee; but they get about 5% on the sale of mutual funds which commission they can divide with the salesmen.

When a salesman sells a thousand dollars worth of mutual funds, the operators of the Fund must enter the stock market and buy a certain amount of listed stock. This has bolstered the stock market during the past two years. It will be more difficult to sell mutual funds and redemptions will increase until the news of the recent stock market break is forgotten. When a mutual fund holder turns in his shares to be redeemed, the Fund operators must sell some of their listed stocks.

I believe these mutual funds are perfectly safe; but they must go down in price when a break such as we have had occurs. Therefore, the selling by mutual fund operators has been one cause of the decline in the stock market. The dividends on mutual funds may not be reduced, excepting the so-called bonus dividends which result from capital gains, which the funds may not get for a while.

What Will Stock Market Do Next?

It is evident that there have been many bargain hunters who have bought stocks the past week. This has caused some rallies. I, however, do not believe that all is well. There are many more spots to be cleaned up by foolish investors, although general business is continuing good.

As I have mentioned many times before in this column, there is too wide a gulf between the high prices that stocks have been selling at and their dividends. These low yields are unnatural and must be corrected. I had hoped to see it corrected by a gradual and orderly decline.

Readers, however, should give much more attention to what stocks are yielding. Recent low yields cannot continue indefinitely; without a great improvement in business and dividends, the situation can be corrected only by reducing the price of stocks.

I advise against selling investment-grade stocks today; but I question whether the time has come to resume investing in the stock market.

Educational TV To Cost $1 Million

Educational television in Michigan could take a giant step forward if $1 million in funds is found to further the goal of establishing a statewide network.

A federal law recently signed by President Kennedy included a $32 million appropriation designated for distribution to states on a matching basis to promote educational television.

Michigan has been among the top states in the use of educational television, said Paul Lutz, director of information and educational services for the Department of State.

Lutz has been chairman of a "Working Committee for Educational Television" for the past three years. He previously was on the administrative staff at Wayne State University, where he was familiar with the educational television work done there.

About July 1 a number of plans will be submitted to Washington which could result in creation of several new educational television stations. Approved plans can be put into effect without appropriation of additional funds by the state legislature.

Progress reports will be held at MSU's Kiva June 13. The public as well as interested groups is welcome to attend.

Michigan's "Big Three" colleges and universities, Michigan State, Michigan, and Wayne State, have been involved in educational TV projects for several years.

At the present time several others of the state-supported institutions are involved in it, as are several individual school districts around the state, Lutz said.

"If educators throughout the state are alert and submit sound proposals for setting up educational television facilities, Michigan stands a good chance of getting a million dollars of the federal appropriations," he said.

Industrial Centers in the state should emulate Boston and Cambridge, Mass., if Michigan is to hold its youth here in the future, according to a Detroit research consultant.

Aaron J. Blumberg contends that reliance on the auto industry to provide jobs which will encourage Michigan's young people to remain in their home state is now outdated, just as dependence on farms, mines and lumber camps became outmoded some years ago.

"Future employment expansion in Michigan will depend on brain-power rather than muscle-power," he said. "Perhaps the Detroit and other metropolitan areas hold our last and best hope for keeping the flower of Michigan youth in our own state."

Competition for the "most sophisticated" of the nation's industries, those which employ high proportions of college-trained people and have the power to stimulate higher levels of employment and incomes, requires attractions, Blumberg said.

Among the attractions are things which only a large city or metropolitan area can provide: cultural activities, big league ball clubs, outstanding chapters of professional societies, and extensive educational facilities.

"The new image which the Detroit-Ann Arbor-Lansing areas must emulate is that of Boston and Cambridge," Blumberg said. "Boston was once a thriving manufacturing center. Now it is reaching ever new heights of employment and income as a producer, user and exporter of brain-power."

The campaign is on! Michigan's long Legislative session will soon be ending and the political heat will increase after that, but the pressure has already started.

Sure signs of the campaign

Dr. Mudd Replies

You're A Kid-o, Jocko!

Dear Dr. Mudd:

I don't think I have any troubles, but my nearly ex-wife does. I'd better explain that "nearly ex-wife." I'm getting a divorce from her for mental cruelty as soon as I can.

She's been miserable — really miserable to live with all these six years we've been married. I thought she was warm and affectionate and she seemed to be before we were married, but now she's cold and resentful, and bitter. Especially is she bitter because we don't have any children.

Actually it's a good thing because I'm getting this divorce. She wanted me to go to a doctor to see if there was anything wrong with me along that line. Can you imagine? Of course I turned her down flat. There's nothing wrong with me and there never has been!

About four years ago I met this other girl at work. We have a lot in common and get along real good. My wife found out about it and said she was going to divorce me. Then she got her family into the act and then, they got mine, and it was just too much pressure so I gave this other girl up.

It was no different after that. My wife was just as cold and sullen and mean as she always was. She thought I should talk to her all the time. I work hard and when I get home I like to relax and have a bottle of beer and watch T.V. She doesn't like that. She doesn't like anything I do. Like when I'm on my way home I usually stop off to have one with the boys — but she doesn't care for that either. She says I should see a psychiatrist myself. But I figure when you're that way you figure everyone else is that way too. I don't go for her crowding me all the time, and that's what it's gotten to be.

Well, this is the last time, but I figured I'd write to see what you have to say for yourself.

Jocko

Dear Jocko:

Where shall I start my reply? Shall I take you to task for your obvious infantile, undisciplined, selfish attitude? No, you are probably too self-centered to have this kind of thing mean anything to you. Shall I encourage you to give up your plan to divorce and seek a solution to the marital difficulties that plague you? No, should I succeed, that would be unfair to your wife! Am I to suggest that all is not well with you, and you need help? No, you would only scoff and declare you have no need for help; that all your troubles are someone else's doing. Should I commence by being critical of your philosophy that you are never conceivably at fault in any matter? I'd like to, but then that too would be beyond your limited powers of comprehension.

I have seldom received letters containing such vanity, such unreasonableness, and such distortion of reality. I doubt if you are mentally ill within the accepted meaning of the term but that you are immature beyond words is evident.

There is only one small glimmer of encouragement; the fact that you wrote the letter you did is most unusual for the immature socially inadequate kind of person you paint yourself to be. I don't feel the least bit of sympathy for you, but for your wife I have the deepest consideration and regard. She must indeed be a saint to have tolerated your selfish, self-indulgent behavior for so long a time.

Just in case you should feel the need and want to see a psychiatrist, may I suggest you call your family physician for the name of one? With one thing we can be in thorough agreement — the fact that you do not have any children is indeed a blessing for all concerned.

Sincerely,
Sander Mudd, M.D.
