

Future Detroit Water Threatened by Proposed Plymouth Reservoir Here

Water — from Plymouth and Detroit — made news in Northville this week.

It became a matter of serious discussion by both city and township officials as the result of developments on two different, but related issues:

1. Almost certain approval by the Plymouth city council to supply water to two proposed subdivisions just south of West Seven Mile road in Northville township;
2. A threat by the Detroit water board to withdraw its plans to continue a water line down Eight Mile road to Center (Sheldon road) through Northville to Plymouth if the city of Plymouth carries out its proposal to build a huge water reservoir on a high, two-acre parcel in Northville township.

City of Plymouth water service in Northville township came about as a result of a request from Walter Couse and John Northup, owners of two separate but adjoining developments being planned in Northville township.

The proposed developments — Northup's 66-home Shad Brook and Couse's 33-home site Edenderry — are located south of West Seven Mile road and east of Valencia avenue.

A water line leading from Plymouth-owned wells near Beck between Six and Seven Mile roads runs through the proposed developments.

And in recognition of easement-rights through the property it had generally been considered that Plymouth would permit tap-ins to the main by abutting property owners.

The Plymouth city council moved cautiously, however. Not wanting to intrude upon Northville city-township relations the Plymouth officials held separate meetings with both the Northville city council and township board.

Local city councilmen agreed Monday night that they would not oppose the request, pointing out that the city of Northville was not presently in position to supply the area — and that it would be economically foolish to build new mains when one already exists in the area.

Plymouth City Manager Al Glassford said this week that the Plymouth council generally felt a moral obligation to supply the water to property owners along the easement. The council has not yet voted on the measure, however.

Northville township and Plymouth officials met Monday night. Supervisor George Clark called the Plymouth officials "most cooperative". He said that the township would consider two proposals — one to permit Plymouth to install meters and sell direct to the Northville homeowners at double rates (same as charged all out-city residents) and thereby maintain the system; or to sell wholesale to the township and have the latter bill the residents and take over the responsibility of maintenance of the system.

It seemed unlikely that the township would desire the second proposal. Both Northville and Plymouth officials agreed that the set-up would be temporary. Eventually, Supervisor Clark noted, the township will develop a system of its own with either a single supplier (like the city of Detroit) or a number of adjoining systems.

Long range plans for Detroit water in the area took a new turn this week.

Officials from both the cities and townships of Northville and Plymouth huddled in meetings this week with Detroit water board officials. The latter have called for an indication from the area concerning its attitude towards Detroit water.

Under present plans the city of Detroit has a definite commitment to provide a water line to the Northville-Nowi-Plymouth area by 1965. A line now exists as far west as Gill on Eight Mile road, just west of Farmington.

A recent request by Plymouth to buy or lease two acres of county-owned property on Beck road between Five and Six Mile roads (in Northville township) for the purpose of constructing a one-to-three million gallon reservoir brought prompt reaction from the Detroit water board.

Detroit officials apparently believe this would delay use of Detroit water. But Plymouth maintains that the reservoir is needed to provide Plymouth with badly needed water pressure. He said purchase of Detroit water depended on cost. The area for the proposed reservoir is on high land.

In discussions concerning Detroit water Northville councilmen have weighed the pros and cons.

How long the present ground supply will last is a major consideration, along with cost of obtaining Detroit water.

City Manager Bruce Potthoff told councilmen Monday night that a rate schedule submitted by Detroit indicates that the cost of local users would increase 54 percent. Other capital investment costs to prepare for receiving the water would probably total $20,000, he said.

"Favoring Detroit water is the fact that it is far softer than the local supply. It is also unlimited in quantity."

Mayor A. M. Allen pointed out that it would be wise for the city to look closely at the Detroit plan to avoid the possibility that the Detroit mains would by-pass the area and that Northville would then find itself short of a good water supply sometime in the future.

Detroit's threat to do just that if Plymouth builds a reservoir poses a problem for prospective Detroit water users throughout the entire Novi - Northville - Plymouth area.

Plymouth Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay indicated to the Detroit water board this week that he would strongly object to any proposal to deviate from Detroit's plan to bring water to the area.

Detroit officials indicated in a letter to City Manager Potthoff last week that Detroit city water could be available for Northville by next summer.

Ceremony to Open New Drive-In Bank

Vol 92, No. 20, 16 Pages, 2 Sections Northville, Michigan, Thursday, September 20, 1962 10c Per Copy, $3.00 Per Year In Advance

A special dedication ceremony will be held Monday at 9 a.m. when the new drive-in office of Manufacturers National Bank is opened for the first time to the public.

The modern facility is located at the corner of Hutton and Dunlap streets.

Participating in the opening ceremonies will be Mayor A. M. Allen and Township Supervisor George Clark.

Northville Manufacturers' Vice President A. R. Clarke said that a flag-raising ceremony with Northville boy scouts performing will precede the dedication.

Early Deposit

Anyone with designs on becoming the first customer of Manufacturers' new drive-in bank can forget it.

"They'll have to settle for a poor second."

Just before taking a group of businessmen through the bank for a private preview look last week Vice President A. R. Clarke made a last-minute inspection of the building.

"He found the night depository had been stuffed with waste paper — and a deposit bag containing $21."

The drive-in doesn't open until Monday.

Clarke took the money and duly credited to the customer's account.

High School's Crowded

Keep 9th Graders in '63, Novi Told

Northville high school, presently experiencing growing pains, will be about to burst at the seams next year if it accepts tuition ninth grade students from Novi.

Assistant Superintendent Kenneth MacLeod reported to a joint meeting of the Novi and Northville school boards Monday night that the high school is presently overcrowded, and will be physically unable to accept all of Novi's ninth graders next semester.

The two-board meeting, held in Northville, saw a variety of mutual problems come out on the table for discussion including consolidation of Novi with the Northville district.

"If we had another course section now, I don't know where we'd put it," MacLeod declared.

He said the high school was designed for an optimum student population of about 700. There are 797 students enrolled now, and his predictions show an increase to 811 for next year, without Novi ninth graders.

MacLeod's figures predict the total enrollment of the high school would climb to 881 if Novi ninth graders are permitted to attend Northville classes next year.

Furthermore, he said, there are now only three periods during the day when one classroom is vacant. The rest of the high school facilities are being used to capacity.

The assistant superintendent said there's a possibility Northville could handle a small portion of Novi's predicted 70 ninth graders for next year. He suggested the Novi board determine whether it could send the rest to surrounding school districts.

Northville Board President William B. Crump summed up the situation by saying:

"If we accept Novi ninth graders next fall, we'll need another wing on the high school. At the moment, we feel that asking our taxpayers for a building to benefit tuition students would be defeated. So what it boils down to is we don't have room for Novi's ninth graders."

Northville Board Member Robert Shafer pointed out that population growth has followed pretty closely what had been predicted while the high school was being planned.

Novi Board President John MacBride said he sees two alternatives for Novi:

— build its own high school, even though present and foreseeable future enrollments would mean an inadequate program;

— or join another school district, either by consolidating en masse or splitting into several directions, with portions going to several districts.

He said Novi's first and most desirable direction would be toward Northville, and asked for the Northville board's reaction.

"I think we'd be a reluctant bridegroom," answered Crump.

He said that if Novi had sufficient facilities to avoid being a burden on Northville, the position might be different.

"But your own plant is not sufficient," he stated, "so you'd be asking our taxpayers to assume the burden of bringing you up to our par. They would not agree."

Shafer pointed out that Novi's present situation is much like Northville's was 10 years ago.

"We planned a careful program and faced our voters with projects which required financial support," he said. "Our objectives have been realized, but our taxpayers have been footing the bill — to a tune of almost 30 mills."

If Northville were to accept Novi now, he said, it would be adding further burden to the taxpayers at a time when costs for plant facilities are beginning to ease up.

Shafer termed consolidation an "interim solution" which would not be necessary within two to five years. He said it would be hard for Northville to accept Novi's additional burden for the interim period when it wouldn't be necessary or advantageous afterwards.

Novi Board Secretary Walter Ambinder said he'd agree if it were the case that Northville would shoulder the entire burden.

"This would be unfair," he said, "but in consolidation, terms may be set. This means Novi could pay the bill for facilities it needs and even accept part of Northville's existing debt."

The advantage, he said, would be in the high school program that would be possible with a student body of up to 1,000 or more. He added that Novi's secondary curriculum possibilities with a high school of its own would be "infinitely smaller."

Shafer then pointed out that in planning the high school, Northville had anticipated a maximum enrollment of about 1,000. By the time this is reached in a few years, he said, additional classrooms will be needed, but other facilities such as cafeteria and gymnasium were planned to handle that number as a maximum.

Northville could probably continue accepting Novi 10th through 12th graders for a couple years, and then 11th and 12th graders for a few more, he said. After that, Northville would be occupied with its own students.

Northville Board Member Donald Lawrence said he agreed with Shafer, and added that the quality of a school program depends upon its support from the public.

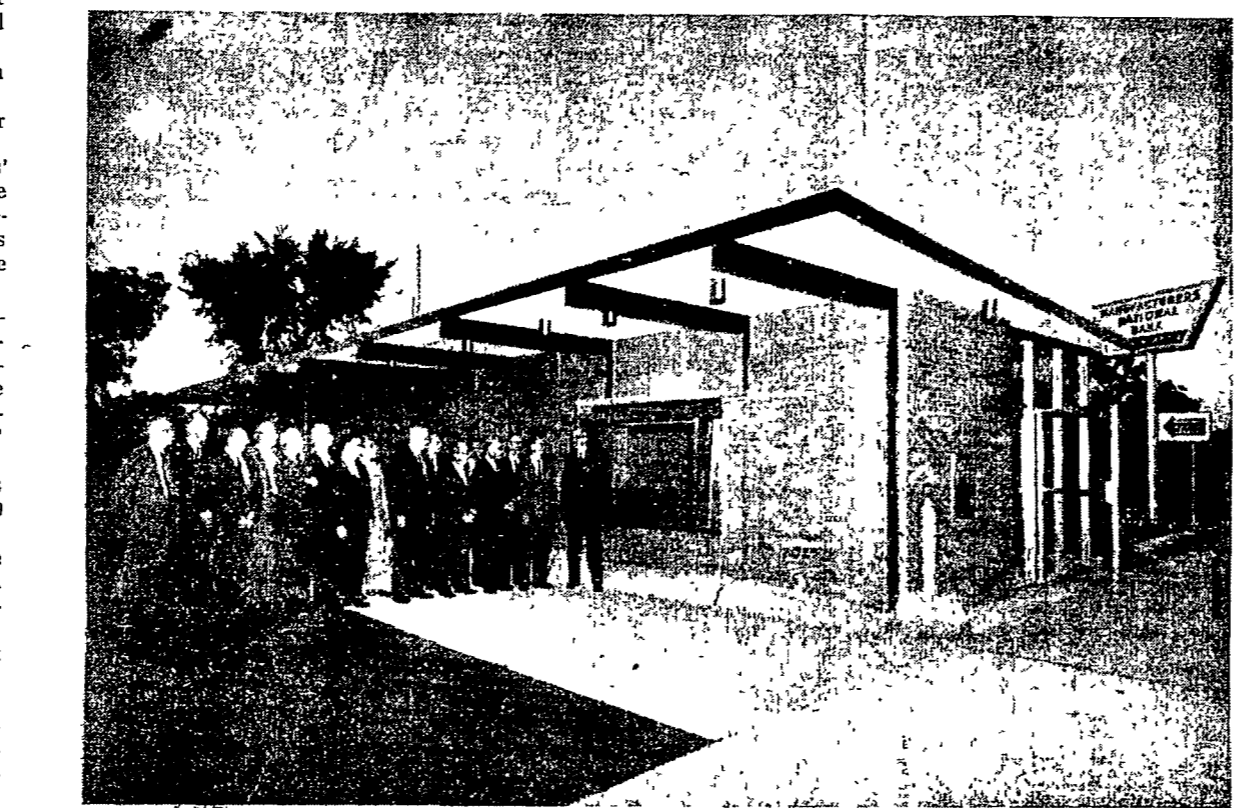

"I feel Northville's received good support," he said, "but if we consolidated, I doubt that we would receive the same support from Novi, and we might therefore lose the support we have here."

Novi Board Member Russell Taylor said he's more optimistic about Novi's potential for growth.

"I believe you still have to crawl before you can walk," he stated. "I feel we can't expect to begin with a program like Northville's."

When Shafer asked whether Novi couldn't offer the same elementary program as Northville now, Novi Board Treasurer David Fried said the facilities are there, but not the money to operate the program.

TO OPEN MONDAY — The modern drive-in office of Manufacturers National Bank at Dunlap and Hutton will open officially Monday morning. Members of Northville's Economic Development committee along with the bank's Northville office advisory committee were given a preview showing last week. Vice President A. R. Clarke is at the far right of the long line of visitors that includes (l. to r.) H. B. Putnam, William Shiger, John Miller, E. M. Bogart, Donald Yelke, J. J. Alex Lawrence, John Canterbury, Robert Shafer, Roy Terrill, Bruce Potthoff, M. C. Gussell, G. C. Woodworth, Gunnar Stromberg, Fred Kester and Eugene Cook.

Ticket Deadline Near For Town Hall Series

The time's drawing near for Lansing Dulles, February 21; Emily Kimbrough, March 21; and James J. Wadsworth, April 18.

And Chairman Mrs. Frank W. Angle announced this week that a number of tickets still remain for the five-lecture series. But supply is limited to the seating capacity of the P & A Theatre.

Malcolm Muggeridge opens the 1962-63 season October 18 and will be followed by Robert St John, November 15; Eleanor Roosevelt, December 15; and James J. Wadsworth, April 18.

The Town Hall series is sponsored by the Altar Society of Our Lady of Victory church. The talks are held at 11 a.m. at the P & A and are followed by a speaker's luncheon at Lofty's Arbor-Lili.

Season tickets may be purchased for $10. Checks may be sent to the Northville Town Hall Series, Box 93, Northville.

PLANNING PROCESS — Mrs. Othal Baggett of 4700 West Seven Mile road, and William Keith of Manufacturers National Bank, begin planning for next month's United Fund campaign. Keith is divisional business chairman for the Northville area, while Mrs. Baggett is divisional chairman in charge of residential collections. She has four area chairmen who will be in charge of different sections of the city and township. They are now lining up solicitors for the October 16-24 campaign, and Mrs. Baggett asked that residents who would like to join the United Fund effort call Mrs. Lawrence Bemish at FI-9-2687, Mrs. Robert Clark at FI-9-2490, Mrs. Donald Miller at FI-9-0022 or Mrs. Charles Lapham at FI-9-3466.

City Parking Site Purchase Stirs Conflict

The city council voted Monday night to execute an offer to purchase 104 feet of Main street property for public parking.

The action was both hailed and condemned.

While Mayor A. M. Allen called the proposal "money well spent," Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson termed it "foolish, too expensive" and unneeded.

The vote to offer Merchant Roy Stone $32,500 for 104-foot frontage across from the theater was supported by the mayor and Councilman Richard Ambler and John Canterbury. Councilwoman Carlson voted "no." Councilman Richard Juday was absent.

Councilman Canterbury proposed the purchase. He prefaced his motion with an explanation.

"I believe we sometimes err in being too timid in investing taxpayers' money in the future," Canterbury explained. He said that he had once been outspoken in his opinion that merchants should pay for all parking. "But I have altered my thinking to some degree and believe that it is the responsibility of the government to lead the way and obtain parking for the general public. We need the parking and it is money well spent," he concluded.

Mayor Allen echoed Canterbury's sentiments. He pointed out that if the city doesn't "take a hand and help local business, we'll see circus signs on our stores."

The mayor noted that the majority of the community tax dollar comes from the business district and that it is in the best interest of the entire community to help provide for the future welfare of local business. The mayor also noted that merchants had contributed some $15,000 towards development of the parking area behind the Methodist Church and suggested that they would be willing to help in improving the newest acquisition.

But Councilwoman Carlson didn't agree.

"I've had a lot of reaction to this. We have too many parking spaces now and the majority of persons think this would be a better spot for the post office," she stated.

Councilman Canterbury was so certain the action was proper that he proposed further purchases. He noted that an access to the Methodist lot would eventually be needed from Wing street and suggested that this should be investigated at once.

Councilman Ambler was in agreement with Allen and Canterbury but with some reservations.

"I think we should establish a definite program for participation by the merchants. I want to see the downtown develop, but I think the merchants have a responsibility to help pay the way," Ambler explained.

After the vote City Attorney Philip Ogilvie was directed to prepare the offer for Stone. Terms would be $9,500 down with five per cent interest on the balance. It was reported that Stone had indicated agreement to the proposal.

In other business Monday night instructed the city manager to keep visiting "loud-speaker" trucks out of the city and approved a request by the manager to seek permission from Wayne county to remove parking along the Eight Mile road cut-off from Center to Taft. The manager noted that this could become dangerous when the high school starts using its new football field.

21'ers Fete Set Next Wednesday

New voters in the Northville area will be honored next week at the 22nd annual "21'ers Banquet" sponsored by the Northville Coordinating Council.

The Honorable Ira G. Kaufman, presiding judge of probate for Wayne county will be principal speaker at the Citizenship Dinner.

The banquet, a tribute to new voting citizens, will be held next Wednesday at St. Paul's Lutheran church, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Cooperating with the Coordinating Council in the sponsorship and sale of tickets for the program is the Northville Optimist club. Tickets are available from Optimist club members and at the Northville Record office.

The guests of honor will receive certificates of recognition, to be presented by Judge Kaufman, and Charter of Freedom booklets presented annually by the Sarah Ann Cochrane chapter of the D.A.R. Mrs. Virginia Baker will present the booklets.

The Reverend B.J. Pankow will provide the Invocation and Benediction, and Glenn Diebert will sing America. Master of ceremonies for the event will be Ed Welch, while Cliff Hill will introduce the speaker.

Chairman of the program is Herman Moehman, president of the Coordinating Council.

Judge Kaufman, 53, has had a varied career which began at the age of eight, when he started as a newsboy. He became presiding judge of probate three years ago.

After working as a newsboy, he successively became a delivery boy, an insurance company stamp clerk, a switchboard operator and, while attending law school, a full-time investigator for the department of public welfare in his native New York city.

Judge Kaufman tutored law students while attending law school under a program set up by the federal government in cooperation with New York University's law school.

He graduated from New York University with Bachelor of Science and Doctor of Jurisprudence degrees in 1933 and 1936, respectively.

He was admitted to the Michigan Bar in 1937.

Besides membership in the state bar, Judge Kaufman is a member of the Detroit Bar association, the Michigan Probate Judges association, the National Council of Juvenile Court Judges, the American Judicature Society and the Detroit Economic club.

He is also board member of the Michigan Society for Mental Health, the Metropolitan Council on Alcoholism and the Wayne county Training school, as well as chairman of the Wayne county Election commission and a trustee of the Detroit Institute of Technology.

Judge Kaufman has been a lecturer at the Institute of Continuing Legal education sponsored by the University of Michigan, Wayne State University Law School and the Junior Bar section of the Michigan State Bar.

He is also author of the Wills and Estates volume of Michigan Basic Practice.

Calling All New Voters

New voters — recently naturalized citizens or those who have just become 21 years of age — are being sought by the sponsors of the annual Citizenship Banquet.

The Coordinating Council has issued an invitation to all such citizens to be their guests at next Wednesday evening's dinner program.

If you will become a voter for the first time this fall, contact either Herman Moehman (FI-9-3150 days) or Ed Welch (FI-9-3444 evenings).

Many new 'twenty-oners' have received invitations but have failed to respond, while others have undoubtedly been missed in the mailing, the sponsors noted.

Fiene - Goodrich Wedding Vows Said at St. Paul's

Judith Ann Fiene and Jeffrey Hall Goodrich repeated their nuptial vows at a double ring candlelight ceremony in St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Northville before Reverend B.J. Pankow September 11.

A college friend of the bride's, Miss Mary Gail, sang "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied at the organ by Mr. Kenow.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Fiene, 20051 Springwood drive and Mr. and Mrs. C.M. Goodrich, 505 West Dunlap.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of peau de seie, her short-sleeved bodice was fashioned of Alconon lace and dotted with seed pearls. The full skirt of the gown ended in a chapel train. Her shoulder-length veil was secured with a crown.

Traditionally the bride carries something old and something new. The Mrs. Goodrich carried a lovely lace handkerchief from Bruges, Belgium, a gift from the best man, her brother-in-law Her Bible, covered with white rosebuds, stephanotis and ivy and centered with an orchid, was the same one her mother carried on her wedding day.

Serving as maid of honor was Gail Louise Fiene, the bride's sister. Miss Helen Buttigieg of Dearborn and Mrs. Sharon Bathey were bridesmaids.

Then sheath dresses were fashioned of ice blue taffeta with flowing moss green overskirts. Moss green pill box hats and matching shoes completed their ensembles and they carried bouquets of Fuji mums in shades of orange.

Best man was the groom's brother, Michael William Goodrich. Nelson Schrader, Richard Biery and Roger Atkinson escorted the guests to their seats.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Fiene chose a silk chiffon sheath of periwinkle blue with matching shoes. The groom's mother, Mrs. Goodrich, wore an Italian silk chiffon frock of smoke blue with matching shoes and a crushed velvet toque.

The reception following the ceremony was held in the main ballroom of Dearborn Inn for close friends and relatives of the families.

After their wedding trip to Gallatin, Tennessee, the couple will make their home in University Village at Michigan State University.

Edith Ann Witt Becomes Bride Of Howell Man

Edith Anne Witt and Alexander H. Rasegan were joined in holy matrimony on Saturday, September 15, at St. Paul's Lutheran church in Northville. The Rev. B. J. Pankow, pastor of the church, officiated at the candlelight ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Witt of 311 North Center street, Northville, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Jarham of Howell.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of long white silk taffeta, fingertip sleeves with scalloped neckline and tiny crystals. The bouffant veil featured a crystal crown. She carried a cascade bouquet of white mums and grapes.

Church decorations included altar candles, gladiolus and mums, with pews decorated with candelabra, gladiolus and ribbons.

Miss Sarah Waterloo of Northville, was the maid of honor. She wore a street length dress of shrimp color taffeta with matching hat and shoes. She carried a cascade bouquet of bronze mums with artificial berries and grapes.

Bridesmaids were Miss Eleanor Howell of Hamburg, Miss Linda Bell of Northville and Miss Joanne Kalocsay of Howell. Miss Howell and Miss Bell were schoolmates of the bride, and Miss Kalocsay is a sister of the groom. Each wore gold taffeta gowns with matching hats and shoes, and carried cascade bouquets of bronze mums with artificial berries and grapes.

A reception for the newlyweds was held in the parish hall, with some 200 guests attending from Plymouth, Ann Arbor, South Lyon, Whitmore Lake, Hale, Detroit, Stockbridge, Dexter, Wayne, Dundee, Flint, Fowlerville, Livonia, Novi, Northville, Warren, Howell, Webberville, Essexville, Oak Grove and New York, Illinois.

For her going away outfit, the bride chose a beige wool dress with brown accessories. Following a wedding trip through the Eastern States, the newlyweds will make their home at 7500 Grand River in Brighton.

The bride's mother is a former South Lyon resident.

Engaged

Ruth Ann Ready
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Ready of Munith, Michigan, announce the engagement of their daughter Ruth Ann to John Robert Burgess, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew L. Burgess of 25805 Beck road, Novi.

Miss Ready was graduated from Michigan State University in 1958 with a degree in nursing. Mr. Burgess, a Northville high school graduate, received his degree in business administration from Michigan State, also in 1958.

The couple are planning a November 3 wedding.

News Around Northville

Mrs. Carl Nowacki, president of the 17th district of the American Legion Auxiliary, has returned home after attending the 1962 conference in Kalamazoo.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ware will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary at the home of their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ware, 493 Carlisle, from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday. Friends are invited to call.

Mrs. Dorothy Busch, 280 South Center street, returned last week with her mother, Mrs. Theresa McNeely of Redford, from a trip to Minnesota, Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula. While in Michigan they visited the William Gaab's cabin near Copper Harbor. The Gaabs live in Northville at 105 Fairbrook.

Club President Outlines Program

At their fall meeting 22 members of Alpha Nu Chapter of Delta Kappa gathered at the home of Miss Elaine Kumbler. Mrs. Wilson Funk, newly installed president, outlined the long-range plans of the group that have been formulated by Delta Kappa Gamma.

At the next meeting four members of Kappa Chapter will discuss a variety of subjects ranging from "Advancing With Women Leaders of the Modern World" to "Development of Human Potential Through Attitude Change".

AAUW Begins Fall Activities

More than 100 members of the American Association of University Women (AAUW), and guests are expected to attend the first meeting of the Plymouth branch's fall meeting tonight (Thursday) at 7:45 p.m. in the multi-purpose room at Plymouth Community Junior High East on Mill street.

Mrs. William H. Baumgartner will be tea hostess during the social period preceding the program. Greeting the members at the club's Orientation Fair will be Mrs. Richard Fritz, president; Mrs. Sidney Cady, vice president; Mrs. James Sponseller, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Haas, recording secretary; and Mrs. Arthur Haas, treasurer.

The Orientation Fair, an exhibit of the many study groups of the AAUW, will offer members and prospective members the opportunity to meet each group chairman and learn more about the individual programs and objectives for the coming year.

Following the business meeting, an entertaining skit entitled "You Are There" will tell the origin of AAUW.

According to Mrs. J. M. Hopkins, membership chairman, all eligible women in the Northville, Plymouth and Livonia area are invited to join AAUW. The national organization accepts as members all women who have earned an approved degree from any one of the 505 American colleges and universities meeting AAUW standards.

To be recognized for AAUW membership, these institutions must maintain high academic standards and a substantial orientation to and foundation in the liberal arts, extend professional recognition to women on faculties and in administration make adequate provision for women students and maintain academic freedom.

"Membership in the AAUW," said Mrs. Richard Fritz, president, "provides an opportunity to join with other women college graduates in a practical, constructive contribution to the functioning of democracy and continuance of intellectual growth."

AAUW has over 150,000 members in nearly 1500 branches located in 50 states, the District of Columbia and Guam.

Women college graduates interested in the AAUW program may call Mrs. J. M. Hopkins, membership chairman, at GL 3-5558 or by calling their area chairman. In Livonia its Mrs. Lawrence Borgia, GL 1-6970; Northville, Mrs. Harold Wright, FI 9-1276; and Plymouth, Mrs. Robert Messerly, GL 3-3605.

This year Michigan will have 15 colleges and universities on their approved list. These include Adrian College, Albion College, Alma College, Central Michigan University, Eastern Michigan University, Hope College, Kalamazoo College, Marquette University, Maygrove College, Michigan State University, University of Michigan, Wayne University, University of Detroit, University of Michigan, Wayne University and Western Michigan University.

'Four Seasons' a Hit

ENJOYING a moment's respite during Saturday's Four Season Garden show (this year's exhibit of the Northville Branch of the National Farm and Garden Association) are some of the ladies responsible for the huge effort. Seated (l-r) are Mrs. Ernest H. Wood, committee chairman in charge of judging, and Mrs. John Northrup, ticket chairman. Standing (l-r) Mrs. Orson Atchinson, tea chairman; Mrs. E. O. Whittington, chairman of staging committee, which produced all the decorations, and Mrs. Wayne McBride, co-chairman of the show with Mrs. C. E. Ratliff, who could not attend.

THOUGH Mrs. Mervin Elber, 321 Rayson, holds the blue ribbon and the orange, king-sized squash that won it, it was really her husband's entry in the specimen division of the Garden club's Four Season show. There were over 300 people who purchased tickets to see the hundreds of displays of flowers, plants, specimens and table settings. Proceeds from the exhibit go to the club's scholarship fund.

Ruth Fish Wed To Ray Stillson

Announcement was made recently by Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Fish of Sao Paulo, Brazil and Ft. Lauderdale, Florida of the marriage of their daughter Ruth Ellen to David Raymond Stillson. David is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond N. Stillson, 500 Elt drive, Northville.

The marriage took place in Detroit on August 17, 1962. The attendants were Steven Dexter of Decatur, Illinois and Barbara Johnston of Highland Park.

Top Shangai Casserole With Apple Dapple Pudding

Though Mrs. William A. Bake, 418 West Main street, is pressed for time with her duties as regent of the Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter of the D.A.R., she manages to squeeze in time for one of her favorite pastimes, cooking. From her bulging recipe file comes the following taste teasers.

SHANGHAI CASSEROLE

Mrs. William A. Bake

1. Sauté in large skillet, ¼ cup sliced onions in 2 tablespoons shortening until golden brown, remove from pan and reserve.
2. Brown together half pound boneless pork, cut into small thin strips, half pound boneless veal, cut into small thin strips.
3. Add 3 tablespoons soy sauce, ½ teaspoon onion salt.
4. Pour two to three cups hot water to cover meat. Simmer in covered pan 30-45 minutes.
5. Add 1½ cups diced celery, simmer 15 minutes.
6. Add 1-4 ounce can mushrooms, undrained. 1 No 2½ can chow mein vegetables, undrained, adding browned onions, reserving one tablespoon for topping.
7. Combine 2 tablespoons cornstarch, 3 tablespoons water. Mix to a smooth paste and add to meat mixture, stirring constantly until thick and clear. Season to taste and pour in to two quart casserole.

Onion Biscuit Topping For Casserole

1. Sift together 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour, 1½ teaspoons double acting baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt.
2. Add 1 teaspoon celery seed.
3. Cut in ¼ cup shortening until mixture resembles coarse meal. Blend in reserved brown onions.
4. Add 1 slightly beaten egg — one-third cup milk. Mix only until all flour is dampened. Drop by rounded teaspoons onto hot meat mixture. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees) 20-25 minutes.
5. To complete the menu, Mrs. Bake offers a fall favorite with her family for Apple Dapple Pudding.

APPLE DAPPLE PUDDING

1. Sift together ½ cup sifted all-purpose flour, 1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder, ½ cup sugar

1. teaspoon cinnamon
2. Combine 1 slightly beaten egg, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 teaspoon almond extract, if desired.
3. Add 4 cups apples (4 to 6 medium), pared, ½ cup almonds, slivered, sliced or chopped, ½ cup raisins.
4. Turn into well greased 8 x 8 x 2 inch pan.
5. Combine ½ cup sifted all-purpose flour, ¼ cup firmly packed brown sugar, ¼ cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind.
6. Cut in ¼ cup butter or margarine until mixture resembles coarse meal. Sprinkle over apples in pan.
7. Bake in moderate (375 degrees) oven 30-35 minutes. Cut into squares and serve warm with or without whipped cream. Decorate with maraschino cherries, if desired.

Plan Smorgasbord

Saturday, October 6 has been set for Pilgrim's Shrine's Annual Smorgasbord. Dinner will be served at 5, 6 and 7 p.m. at Plymouth Masonic Temple.

Tickets, $1.75 for adults and 75c for children, will be on sale until October 5 and may be reserved by calling Mrs. Evelyn Brocklehurst at GL 3-6490 or Mrs. Irene Cook at GL 3-2478.

LUCKY WINNER in Tewksbury Jewelers' "grab bag" during Saturday's Sidewalk Sale was Frank Hykel, 760 Horton. The youngster made the last purchase at 9 p.m. and discovered he had bought a diamond ring for his dollar. He's shown above with Ray Nader, owner of the Main street jewelry store. Cathy Cross, 410 Lake, and Pam Martin of Livonia were nearly as lucky. They received wrist watches valued at much more than a dollar. For more pictures of the annual Sidewalk Sale, see page one, section two.

Rocks Grab Mustang Reins

Northville Record—Novi News—Thursday, September 20, 1962 Section One — Page Seven

GLUM GROOMERS — Northville high Mustangs had little to cheer about last Friday night as they watched from the bench while the Plymouth Rocks rolled past teammates to a 19-6 victory. The Northville loss, first since midway through the 1960 season, ended a 1-game winning streak. The Mustangs meet Clarenceville tomorrow (Friday) night at 8 o'clock on Ford Field, to open both their home season and their Wayne-Oakland league competition.

"Remember now, the better team doesn't always win," lectured Northville high head grid Coach Ron Horwath during the half-time locker room session of last Friday's Northville-Plymouth season opener.

He pointed out that the Mustangs had outplayed the Rocks throughout the first half, and that they had to show for it was a 6-6 tie.

"You've been hitting hard and playing well," he continued, "but now you've got to hit harder and play even better."

But while pep talks can bolster sagging spirits, they cannot revive tired bodies. And while the second half wore on, with the Mustangs wearing out, Plymouth scored a second and a third time, finally winning 19-6.

Northville opened scoring early in the game. Mustang halfback Joe Hay received Plymouth's kick-off on the Northville 10 and returned it to the 11.

Fullback Ron Rice moved the Mustangs 25 yards closer when he powered over right tackle to the Rock 34 yard line. And nine plays later he dove across Plymouth's goal from two yards out to score Northville's only touchdown.

Halfback Tom Swiss had taken a pitch-out and rolled around left end into the end zone a couple plays earlier, but a penalty for offside nullified his score.

Hay carried around right end for the extra point, but a clipping penalty again nullified the play. In the second extra point attempt, from the 15 yard line, quarterback Craig Bell's pass was incomplete, but Plymouth was offside.

Bell again missed the mark when he passed to Hay in the end zone, and the score remained 6-0.

Plymouth held the ball for only two plays after Northville's kick-off, and then Jim Juday intercepted a Rock pass.

Unable to move 10 yards, Northville punted four plays later, and then recovered when Hay's diving tackle knocked the ball out of the punt receiver's hands.

But Plymouth intercepted a Bell pass on the next play and a Mustang penalty for a personal foul gave the Rocks possession on their own 40. The first quarter ended midway in the Rocks' nine-play drive to the Northville 33, where they were forced to punt.

The Mustangs punted again a few minutes later, and on the second play, Juday again intercepted one of Rock quarterback Dick Schryer's passes, twisting away from a half dozen tacklers to reach the Plymouth 20 yard line.

The officials, however, ruled Juday's forward motion had stopped at the 38, so that's where Northville took over. Four plays carried the Mustangs to the Rock 21, where Bell fumbled and Plymouth recovered.

The Rocks took all but the last two minutes of the half to march 80 yards in seven plays for their first touchdown. A bad pass from center foiled their extra point kick attempt, and the half ended in a 6-6 standoff.

The third quarter was consumed by long drives up and down the field, that ended when Plymouth scored for the second time with less than half a minute left in the quarter.

The Rocks received Northville's kick-off and moved to the Mustang 34. The Mustangs took possession when Plymouth failed to make a first down, and marked back to the Rock 34.

Bell again fumbled as he was going back for a pass, and Plymouth began the 53 yard drive for the touchdown. A 30 yard Schryer pass to halfback Hugh Sarah, and three Sarah drives for 21 yards completed most of the march. Schryer snuck over from the one yard line.

Possession of the ball changed hands three times in the final period before Plymouth took over for a time-consuming drive from the Rock 32 to Northville's 38. Finally unable to make a first down, Plymouth punted and Northville took over on its own 20.

But on the second play, Bell was caught from behind and fumbled, with Plymouth recovering on the Northville eight. Schryer's end zone pass added the Rocks' third tally of the day, putting Plymouth out front 19-6, with less than a minute and a half to play.

Northville managed only two plays before the gun went off, moving from their own 30 to the Plymouth 31. A hook and ladder pass from Bell to Juday who pitched back to Hay went for 18 yards, and Bell's second pass to Juday went for another 21.

But the gun sounded before the Mustangs could line up again, marking their first defeat in 14 straight starts.

"Actually," said Horwath later, "our boys played very well, and the coaching staff feels quite pleased and proud about their performance."

He pointed out that Northville lacked experience, weight and depth, and added that the coaches feel Plymouth fielded the best all-around team Northville has faced in three years.

"If we continue to play as we did against Plymouth," he stated, "we're going to give our other opponents a good deal of trouble."

Having a young and inexperienced line, the coach added, Northville should become better as the season progresses.

This week Horwath has been looking over some of the Mustangs who didn't see action last Friday to find substitutes who can give his two-way linemen an occasional breather.

He'll probably be trying them out tomorrow night, when Northville opens its Wayne-Oakland league competition by playing host to Clarenceville.

OPEN FOR BUSINESS — Spinning Wheel Fabric Shop, 110 North Center street, will celebrate its grand opening next week, Monday through Saturday. Gifts, prizes and specials will be offered during the get-acquainted week. The new shop opened last Saturday. Owners Mr. and Mrs. Fred McLean are shown in the background.

Band to Play At Band Day

The Northville High School band will be one of 37 participating in the eighth annual High School Band Day at Michigan State University's Spartan stadium October 6.

Thirty-six high school bands, comprising 2700 members, and the MSU marching band of 147 members will play in pre-game and halftime ceremonies at the MSU-North Carolina game, opening home game of the season. Colonel George S. Howard, commander-conductor of the United States Air Force Band, will conduct the combined bands.

The pre-game program will begin at 11:30 a.m., with the 36 guest bands entering the stadium at two-minute intervals for individual appearances.

THEY'RE WINNERS — Bud Murray (left) and Otis Tewksbury took team honors for the Northville Businessmen's Golf League which concluded its 22-week season with an annual tournament and banquet last Saturday. The 2nd team league plays each Tuesday night at Grace Barr. In addition to shaving team honors, Murray also capped a trophy for low individual scorer.

DON'T BE BASHFUL ABOUT BORROWING!

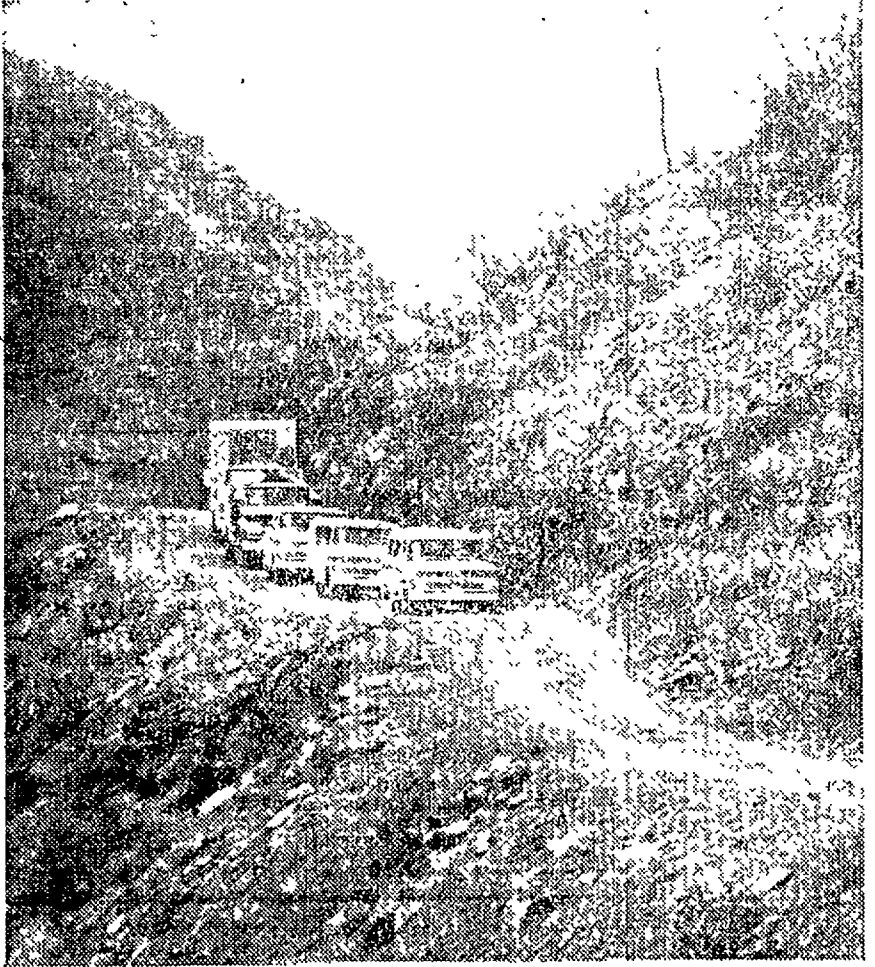

If you're shy of the funds you need, don't be shy about borrowing at Manufacturers Bank. There's a time in most everyone's life when it's the right thing to do. At Manufacturers, making Personal Loans is our business. In fact, 99 out of 100 people may borrow on their signature alone at Manufacturers Bank.

Whatever the need, whatever the amount, arrangements for a Personal Loan may be made quickly and confidentially at any office of Manufacturers Bank.

Tough new '63 Chevrolet Trucks are here!

...THE ONES THAT WHIPPED THE BAJA RUN...TOUGHEST UNDER THE SUN...
TO SHOW THE WORTH OF NEW ENGINES, FRAMES AND SUSPENSIONS!

Sometimes the caravan crept along for hours in low gear. It took 17 days to go 1,066 miles! This is the road near Loreto.

Millions of years ago nature fashioned a proving ground for trucks that man can never duplicate. Today it is known as the Baja (bah' bah) California Peninsula, Mexico.

These pictures give you only a bare idea of the place. The road is fine for 140 miles below the U.S. border. Then the beating begins. Rocks and hard-baked rats bang, jab and jerk the trucks from stem to stern. Loose sand makes them struggle and strain. Dust chokes them. Heat roasts them. Rivers drench them.

The Baja Run took this Chevrolet truck caravan 17 days to go the 1,066 miles.

All the trucks performed magnificently. Not one was forced to drop out because of mechanical difficulty.

Trucks that can take this kind of beating can take on your toughest truck jobs. Come in now and see tough quality-built '63 Chevrolet trucks with all their new improvements.

Resusitator Aid Fails

John Alvin Waterman, 51, died in his home at 533 Horton street Friday afternoon, despite efforts of Police Sergeant Frank Heimz to revive him after a heart attack.

Heimz administered treatment with a resusitator, but Waterman failed to respond. He had been treated during the past four months for a heart ailment.

In other activity Police transported 14-year-old Chad, Hines, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Hines, of 197 Elm drive, to a doctor's office for treatment Saturday morning after he rode his bicycle into an automobile.

They report the youth received no injuries when he struck the front of a car driven by Theodore J. Bacalis, of 986 Novi avenue. The mishap occurred in the Kroger store parking lot.

Readers Speak:

Use Local Travel Aid

To the Editor:

It was very gratifying to me personally, to read Roger Babson's column in the Northville Record and South Lyon Herald September 6, on the subject — "Travel Is Good Investment!"

Mr. Babson, who (admittedly) is a world-traveler, heartily endorses the philosophy of travel and submits many reasons for his endorsements.

But (more pleasing to me, naturally) he stresses that — "It is better to buy your ticket from a regular travel agency in or near the city where you live." Amen!

It has been a source of concern to us in this agency in South Lyon that so many of our neighbors (and especially those with whom we have close contact in civic, religious, fraternal or social affairs) have overlooked their local travel agent when they plan a trip.

Certainly we have made every effort to let the community know we are here — through extensive advertising in the South Lyon Herald, Northville Record, and several other weekly newspapers in Milford, Farmington, Brighton, Howell and Piquette. We have carried on extensive direct mail programs and have had sales representatives call on the business men in these communities.

It is to be hoped that the advertisement we placed September 13 may help to allay any misgivings about dealing with a travel agent. It will help if it was read. It will be interesting to see what transpires.

Meanwhile, we hope many people read Mr. Babson's column on September 6 and decide they just can't afford to stay home.

Cordially,
Edwin D. Phillips, Sr.

Gray Ladies assist in bingo games, cooking classes, craft classes, bowling and gardening. They help patients select clothing from our Apparel Shop and through the Adopt-A-Patient program, furnish a friend for the forgotten patients. Recently Mrs. Mildred Cunningham, Northville, a Gray Lady with the hospital for four years, commented, "I always have liked helping others and I find this work very satisfying."

We will recruit at Northville State Hospital on September 25 and September 27, from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., and ladies interested may come to the hospital for interview without appointment on those days. Gray Ladies must purchase their own uniforms, shoes and have a physical examination from their own doctor. Age requirements are 21 to 55.

Head-On Crash Injures Motorist

A Wixom man received a severe head gash in a head-on collision on the I-96 expressway Sunday night.

Stanley Hedgecock, of 48190 12 Mile road, was taken to a doctor's office where 20 stitches were required to close the scalp gash he received in the collision.

Police Chief Lee BeGole said the accident occurred on a one-lane section of the expressway which is now carrying two-way traffic because of construction work on the expressway interchange at 11 Mile road.

Shoppers Liked Their Bargains On the Sidewalk

HUNDREDS OF SHOPPERS lined both sides of Main street during both morning and afternoon of the sidewalk sale. Bright sunlight and warm breezes greeted the customers and helped make the event one of Northville's most successful. Crowds like those shown above, on the north side of Main street, and below, on the south side kept merchants busy throughout the day.

TAKE YOUR PICK—Shoppers enjoyed selecting bargains from a large variety of items as merchants moved their wares onto the sidewalks Saturday. Tables, baskets, shelves and racks were continually replenished as the bargain seekers quickly purchased items that were conveniently on display outside stores.

What changing one's standpoint can mean in meeting today's challenges will be brought out at Christian Science church services Sunday.
"Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world" is the Golden Text from the Bible (1 John 2). It keynotes a Lesson-Sermon on the subject of "Matter."

One of the selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states: "When understanding changes the standpoints of life and intelligence from a material to a spiritual basis, we shall gain the reality of Life, the control of Soul over sense, and we shall perceive Christianity, or Truth, in its divine Principle" (p. 322).

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

by the Reverend M. E. Rickert
Willowbrook Community Church

Anyone intent upon erecting a building would first of all give consideration to its purpose and design. If in looking through an architect's book or seeing a model one found the building to his liking, he would be quite confident that in following the accompanying blue prints he would be successful in "duplicating the building of his choice."

As countless numbers of "church" people return to renewed participation in the life of the organized church, with the return from vacations, it is important to remember that what is true of building a physical structure is also true of building a spiritual fellowship. Because of one's love for the church and his desire to have its fellowship most inspiring and productive, a wise master builder would seek out and follow those workable plans which, having already been used, have produced a successful church.

Among the churches of Christendom, none has been more successful than the church which came into being on Pentecost. Any congregation, sincerely desirous of fulfilling its mission as a successful church, can do no better than to follow the blue prints of this little company of twelve who became the sharer of that which challenged the power of secularized materialism and literally turned the world upside down.

A close look at the Pentecost Church reveals that it was made up of a group of people wholly committed to Jesus Christ.

They knew what they believed and they believed it. They communicated their beliefs to others by talking about them.

They were faithful in their observance of the Sacraments.

They welcomed new converts and received them warmly into their fellowship. They were eager to learn about the Christian faith and life and to put their learning into action.

They were people who prayed together.

Their genuine fellowship expressed itself in their intra-home relationships and in worship in the church.

They accepted mutual responsibility for the management of their common property. This latter they did at great financial cost to themselves — selling all their possessions and goods and placing their resources in a common fund.

They extended themselves by giving aid to others.

In all of this, they were a glad, generous and "praising" people.

The key quality of their fellowship was "togetherness." In all these things they were together. It would appear that they loved to be together.

It is not surprising that it was written of them that they were "in favor with all the people." Even God rewarded their simple and sincere expression of their faith by adding "to their number day by day those who were being saved."

Would you like the church of which you are a member to be a successful church? It will be so only as, in using these blue prints of the Pentecost Church, you build to this end.

But lest you think the success of the church depends entirely upon the ingenuity and enthusiasm of man, do not overlook the fact that it was written of the people of the Pentecost Church, "And they were filled with the Holy Spirit." So must it be with you and with the church with which you are identified.

OUT OF THE PAST

FIVE YEARS AGO

—Interest and speculation mount steadily as the end draws near in the Northville Record-Nov News $3,500 subscription drive contest, which closes a week from Saturday. Top prize in the contest is a new Ford sedan, and many smaller prizes are included.

—A sort of "roving reporter" movement has been started by the Northville Parent-Teacher Association. Members of the P-T-A are jingling doorbells in the school district and offering to record tapes, praises or just plain comments about the schools. After a play-back session, whichever school official can best answer the question will do so.

—An art scholarship fund to aid a student from Northville, Plymouth or Livonia will be established soon by the Three Cities Art Club. Members voted to plan a sale of paintings to raise funds for the scholarship. —A hint that Northville may not receive dial telephone service by next August as promised was dropped by the Michigan Bell Telephone company this week. Smarting from a decision of the Public Service Commission which cut a requested rate increase to one-tenth the size sought, the company has postponed for re-hearing, saying its planned improvements may have to be delayed.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

—An automobile accident in Tokyo, Japan, last week killed Sgt. Walter C. Richter, nephew of Erwin F. Richter of Seven Mile road, and cousin of Charles Murphy, of High Street.

—You've heard about it sometimes being "a dog's life." Well here's a new twist — National Dog Week. It's next week, and it's been ordered to honor dogs (who else) by such methods as boning up on them.

MARY HAD A LITTLE

through library books.

—One of Northville Downs' most successful seasons closes this week. The last race of the year will be run tomorrow, with an 8:15 p. m. post time set for the first race.

—An estimated 185 youths from the Northville area attended the first recreation dance of the season last weekend in the high school gymnasium.

—Cass Benton Park has been selected as the scene of the annual Ford plant picnic, scheduled for Sunday afternoon.

The Northville fire department extinguished a truck blaze in the alley west of Center street Wednesday morning. The cab of the truck, belonging to a trucking firm, caught fire, resulting in considerable damage to the engine and drivers' compartment.

—Twenty-five years ago, a harvest festival will mark the final Merchants' Appreciation event of the year. September 22. Proceeds from the competitive events, backed by the civic association, will be turned over to the high school band.

—Some 150 Baptists, members of the Wayne Baptist association, attended a two-day convention held last weekend at the local Baptist church. The convention was held in observance of the 97th anniversary of the founding of the organization.

—Three Plymouth youths, members of a gang charged with a number of robberies in Western Wayne county, received probation sentences in the county circuit court last week. The trio, and several of the other gang members, were apprehended by Northville police Chief Loy M. German.

—The Good's Department store climaxed weeks of preparations and stock purchases yesterday when it opened for business in the former Main street location of Ponsford's. Northville's newest department store is owned and will be managed by Eli Good, former Detroit haberdasher. Mention today in The News.

The present officers are Florence Loynes, president; Beverly Bumann, vice president; Dorothy Snow, secretary and Joan Ward, treasurer.

Reports were given on money earned at the school fair.

Girl Scout News
The district meeting was held last Tuesday at the home of Mae Skellenger. Mrs. Skellenger was elected District chairman for the coming year.

The neighborhood meeting was held Tuesday morning in the library of the Orchard Hills school.

Novi Boy Scouts
Boy Scout Troop No. 56 postponed their camp out last week. The campout will be held this week Friday to Sunday at Bishop Lake.

A meeting was held last Wednesday for parents and leaders. The scouts were disappointed not to have had more parents present at this meeting.

Another camp out is planned for 5, 6, and 7 of October also at Bishop Lake. John Tymensky returned from Camp Agawan with the Order of the Arrow and he had finished the work for a religious award.

Explorer Scouts
Explorer Post No. 119 finished their 24 mile canoe trip. They started at Proud Lake Saturday morning, up the Huron River and across Kent Lake to Canoe Island where they spent the night. They broke camp Sunday and returned to the Proud Lake Recreation area.

Those who made the trip were Tom Bingham, Terry Krug, Skip Newton, Wayne Rifter, Rick White and Mr. and Mrs. Kriedeman. Regular meeting was held Tuesday in the Community building at which time they made plans for a camp out in October.

Out of the recent 27-million dollar National Road Test comes significant new information on the performance of concrete and asphalt pavements.

Sponsored by the American Association of State Highway Officials, this road test was the most scientific ever conducted. Side by side on 5 loops near Ottawa, Illinois, concrete and asphalt test sections carried the same truck traffic for two years. Each loop carried light, medium or heavy vehicles.

To determine how well test pavements kept their riding quality, a special rating system called the serviceability index was used. Pavement surfaces were rated on a scale from "0" (very poor) to "5" (very good).

After two years of traffic and the impact of more than 1,100,000 loads, the surviving concrete still averaged "very good," while most of the surviving asphalt averaged "fair."

Here is further evidence that concrete performs better and gives taxpayers long-range riding comfort for streets, roads and Interstate highways.

She Spent A Singing Summer Overseas

These days anyone looking for a blonde miss named Janice Williams will find her at her 446 Eaton Drive home, scurrying about with more than enough to do. But to Janice, who is the 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Williams, the hurry is worth it. From June 20 to August she had a most rewarding experience traveling with a 70-member choral group to Ireland, England, Holland, Berlin and West Germany.

Janice's typical end-of-the-summer day has been filled with packing for her freshman year at Michigan State University, sorting out presents she brought back from her summer trip to Europe to give all her friends, and writing to her many European friends.

The group, known as the Michigan Chorale, is a group of talented young people (most of them just Janice's age) who are sponsored on the concert tour by the Michigan Council of Churches' "Youth for Understanding" program.

Janice estimates that the group gave 30 concerts — two of them televised over national television stations. "But this year the Chorale didn't present as many concerts as usual," notes the perky musician. "The Council of Churches felt that we should have more of an opportunity to get to know our foreign families — since we were part of the 'Youth for Understanding' program."

And families they had! Janice notes that they stayed in hotels or boarding houses only once during the entire trip and had 20 families abroad.

"I liked Ireland best," she says. "The people are all so friendly."

Janice points to her view of the Wall in Berlin as one of the most unforgettable travel experiences. "It made me so depressed. The windows on the other side were all bricked up and there were memorials built all around for those who had died trying to escape East Germany."

Besides the concerts, which featured classical selections, folk songs and Negro spirituals, Chorale members had plenty of time to tour. Much of their sight-seeing was done individually rather than with the entire group. "We just moseyed around," chuckles Janice.

Her greatest disadvantage, Janice found, was that she couldn't speak any language other than English. Most of her families could speak several languages — and all of them fluently.

"It really helped me," was how Janice summed up the whole experience. "I never knew you could learn so much — and without even studying."

standing next to the plane. They took the picture as we were all watching her trip off the plane."

"Another amusing incident," relates Janice, "was when we all bluffed the German words in a live television broadcast. Our director, Mr. Lester McCoy, gave us the words to memorize in about fifteen minutes and by the time we had sung the first part of the program, we had forgotten all the German lyrics and we had to bluff."

"My German parents at that time gave me a recording of the song before I left."

Besides the concerts, which featured classical selections, folk songs and Negro spirituals, Chorale members had plenty of time to tour. Much of their sight-seeing was done individually rather than with the entire group. "We just moseyed around," chuckles Janice.

"SHOWING OFF" her German ski sweater, Scotch plaids and an Irish shillelagh is Janice Williams, who is just home from a summer in Europe. A 1963 graduate of Northville high school, Janice was a singing member of the Michigan Chorale.

William E. Davis

Promoted By Ford

A Northville resident has been appointed to a key executive post at the Ford Research and Engineering Center.

William E. Davis, 352 Orchard Drive, was named Executive Engineer of Advanced Passenger Cars in the Ford Division Product Engineering Office.

A mechanical engineering graduate of Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Davis started with Ford in 1946 as a project engineer.

He was promoted to a supervisor of chassis design in 1953, and was named manager of the Mercury Package Design Department in 1956. Davis was appointed Manager of the Ford Advanced Car Department in 1960, and a year later was granted a leave of absence to accept a one-year Sloan Fellowship award.

Davis is a member of the Northville City Hall Planning Committee and served on the Zoning Board of Appeals in 1960. He is an elder and past deacon at the First Presbyterian Church of Northville.

Davis, and his wife Margie, have four children.

And A Houseful to Boot

This Housewife Has All Her Buttons

"Got all your buttons?" is a question joking friends always ask Mrs. Merritt Meaker of West Seven Mile road. "And I just tell them I'm still looking," smiles the kindly wife of a Northville high school social studies teacher.

For she's a button enthusiast who's always on the look-out for unusual, old and just ordinary buttons for her growing collection.

At last count, Mrs. Meaker had 75 card displays of buttons — 3,000 in all.

She's been interested in the fasteners since 1945. "I saw a large display of buttons in Detroit's J. L. Hudson department store, and realized I had some of them at home. I hadn't known the extent of button collecting at that time."

Her collection includes little buttons (the smallest being three sixteenths of an inch); big buttons (two and five eighths of an inch is the largest); picture buttons; "goofies"; uniform buttons, and such classifications as — heads, pearls, transportation, black glass, paperweights, horns, wood, inanimate objects, animals, fruit, birds, and on and on.

Picture buttons are Mrs. Meaker's specialty — and her favorite.

Obvious to any interested visitor is the hobbyist's pride and joy — a display of picture buttons representing each book of the Bible. She has taken one word from a Bible verse — and matched it up with a picture. Several of the 132 (she's gone through the Bible twice) pictures are a dog, axes, left hand, children and camels.

Mrs. Meaker's most prized individual buttons are mounted and framed on black velvet and hung on her living room walls.

When asked what her husband thinks of her pastime, Mrs. Meaker smiles that he appears disinterested, but through the grapevine she's heard that he's actually quite proud.

Where does the hobbyist acquire all the buttons? It's not at all difficult since there are many collectors (Mrs. Meaker says button collecting rates third in United States collection groups behind stamps and coins) and they're often more than willing to make a swap. Buttons may also be purchased through dealers, who have an array of approvals and samples to send on request from the collector.

But Mrs. Meaker admits that she's not as avid a button fan as some. "I don't take it that seriously," she notes, "because if I did I wouldn't enjoy the hobby."

Others in the Northville area that share the hobbyist's interest (Some of them with far larger collections than 1," Mrs. Meaker points out) have formed a group known as the Mayflower group of button collectors.

Organized in March of this year, the club is the newest button club in the state. The Michigan Button society was formed in 1943 and even previous to its establishment was the National Button Society, organized in 1938.

Mrs. Meaker is chairman of the group, which includes members from Northville, Novi, South Lyon and Plymouth. Other officers are: Mrs. Ruth Feldkamp, secretary-treasurer and for inspection and purchasing Mrs. Milla Livingston, program chairman.

Besides the officers, charter members of the group are Mrs. Constance N. Aldrich, Mrs. Helen Burnstrum, Mrs. Elizabeth Joslin, Mrs. Margaret H. LeFevre, Mrs. Madeline Millross, Mrs. Ada Murray, Mrs. Agnes Pauline, Mrs. Virginia Plunkett, Mrs. Helen Shackleton, Mrs. Mary Starkweather, Mrs. Frances Tewksbury and Mrs. Margaret Yerkes.

PLAYING WHO'S GOT THE BUTTON? No — Mrs. Merritt Meaker, 45801 West Seven Mile (right) is just showing Mrs. Milla Livingston of Plymouth her collection of buttons. Mounted on the wall behind the concentrating collectors are Mrs. Meaker's favorites. Mrs. Livingston is president of the Michigan State Society of Button Hobbyists.

New Constitution Sets Up Larger Education Board

Editor's Note: This is No. 8 in a series about the proposed additional articles will appear in subsequent weeks.

A state board of education — increased from the present four to a membership of eight — is given leadership and supervision of all except higher education in Article VIII of the proposed new Michigan Constitution.

The enlarged board is also to serve as the general coordinating and planning agency for all public education, including higher. It is to advise the legislature as to the financial requirements of all state educational functions.

The eight members of the board are to be elected on a partisan basis for eight-year overlapping terms. The governor is to be a non-voting ex officio member of the board to help bring about a stronger link between the executive office and the state's educational system.

Under the terms of the proposed Article, the superintendent of public instruction will be no longer chosen at state-wide partisan elections. He will be appointed by the state board of education and will be the principal executive officer of the state department of education.

All state-supported institutions of higher learning in Michigan gain the constitutional status they have sought in the proposed new document. The legislature is required to support them and they, in turn, must account annually for income and expenditures. Their formal board sessions will be open to the public.

The governing boards of the University of Michigan, Michigan State University and Wayne State University are to consist of eight members each, elected on a partisan basis for eight-year terms. They are to have supervision and control of their respective universities, including selection of their presidents.

The other state colleges and universities, present and future, are to have individual boards of control appointed by the governor with the approval of the state senate. The boards will have eight members each serving eight-year terms with the same supervision and control of their institutions as specified for the three major universities.

The Article also specifies that junior and community colleges are to be supported by the state.

A new eight-member state board for public community and junior colleges, appointed by the state board of education, will serve in an advisory capacity for these institutions.

The convention decided that in the field of caring for and supporting the handicapped, present constitutional language is too restrictive and in some cases outmoded. References to the "deaf, dumb, blind, feeble-minded and insane" are replaced by language recognizing the areas of the mentally, physically or otherwise seriously handicapped.

State support is broadened to include programs and services as well as institutional treatment.

The Education Article also calls for a system of libraries open to all Michigan residents. Penal fines continued to be earmarked for library support, including county law libraries which now share in such collections by legislative enactment.

Section 1 of the Article, re-states the familiar "language" which originated in the Northwest Ordinance of 1787 and was set forth in the 1908 Constitution: "Religion, morality and knowledge being necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind, schools and the means of education shall forever be encouraged."

San Diego, Calif. — Marine Private Clarence A. Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Wood of 48948 West Eight Mile road, completed recruit training, Aug. 23, at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, California.

The indoctrination to Marine Corps' life includes instruction in basic military law, discipline, physical conditioning and other military subjects.

Three weeks are spent on the rifle range, where recruits fire the M-14 rifle and receive instruction in other infantry weapons.

New Choir Director At First Methodist

Mr. Robert Jones, teaching fellow in the organ department of the University of Michigan School of Music, will soon take up his duties as organist-choir director at the First Methodist church in Northville. A graduate of the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago with a Bachelor of Music degree, he went on to secure a Master of Music in piano, theory, and organ. He is currently engaged in a doctorate program at the U. of M.

He has been a fellow of the American Guild of Organists since 1961 and has served in church music in Chicago churches. He will direct the Carol Choir, Harmony Choir, and Sanctuary Choir and be the organist of the church. He succeeds Ray Ferguson, who assumed duties as organist at Bushnell Congregational Church in Detroit.

For several Sundays the congregation has enjoyed the organ music of Samuel Chizmar, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Chizmar, 19360 Maxwell and a sophomore at the University of Michigan.

Good for Babies

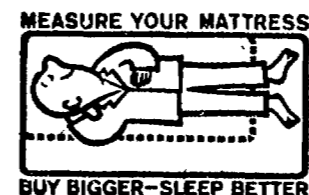

Not Good for Adults

for uncrowded comfort switch to a KING-SIZE BEAUTYREST

You'll never rest your best while half the night must be spent struggling to maintain your share of a double bed. Even on a 50-50 basis that share makes for skippy sleeping. What to do about it? We suggest you make the switch to King-Size Beautyrest to get the extra length, the extra width, the extra comfort you both need to again sleep as sound as babies.

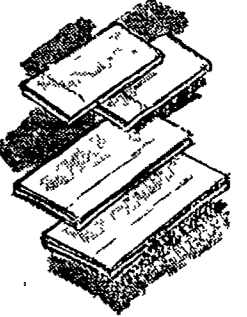

Yes, an extra 105 square inches of sleeping area means even more of that famous Beautyrest individual coil construction to lull you to sleep, more of that firm, buoyant, non-sag support. Why not sleep right tonight on a King-Size Beautyrest made only by Simmons?

SPEAKING for The Record

by Bill Slinger

Gill Glasson doesn't pretend to be a public speaker. But last week you could have heard a Rotary pin drop when he addressed the Tuesday luncheon meeting of the local businessmen's group.

Up until last year Gill Glasson was a member of the Northville police force. Then he was felled by a stroke. Months of recovery followed. But Gill was left partially paralyzed.

Now he's active again. Not as an officer, but as a member of a group of handicapped persons who are determined to "get off the shelf and live again."

With the help and encouragement of three Northville men — Dr. Russell Archison, Attorney Clifton Hill and Al Smith Sr., a builder and carpenter — Gill became one of the charter members of "Cerebral Vascular Accident Enterprises."

And in his modest manner Gill told the Northville Rotarians what his small group had been doing. "We've made flower boxes, bed boards for rest homes and once we had an order for 200 small boxes to be made within a week and we did it," Gill explained.

He said that all member of CVA work together to help one another regain their confidence and to do something useful. "We're not a profit-making organization," he added. "It was easy to recognize that a profit of far greater significance was being gained by the CVA members."

Another CVA member sat at the speaker's table with Gill as he described the activities of the group. He is Harry Himmelsreih, as owner-manager of Brader's One of the community's most capable and successful businessmen.

Right now the CVA group is making colorful electric Christmas candles. They appear to be about three-feet tall and expertly made to withstand weather.

Gill said the price of the candles had not yet been determined.

But you can be certain that with the careful workmanship of CVA along with the merchandizing ability of Harry Himmelsreih to analyze cost and figure a fair price, they'll be a bargain.

It isn't our custom to use this column to plug the sale of any product. But it would be wonderful if Northville decked itself in Christmas candles this year — made by CVA.

Like Gill says, they're a non-profit organization. (CVA has a workshop across from Northville Downs on Center street or, if you like, you can phone orders to The Record and we'll pass it along).

George Merwin, 43461 Cornsford road, is getting to be quite a renowned boat racer. Last month he was with Driver Sam Griffith when a new record from Miami to New York was set. Along with two others aboard they drove the 1,257 course in 38 hours and 28 minutes of running time to break Gar Wood's record of 47 hours, 15 minutes set in 1921.

Now Merwin just returned from England where he was a member of the crew in the "toughest race in the world." Actually, there were two races across the English channel — one of a distance of 180 miles and the other 75 miles.

The Merwin entry came in second in competition against 25 others from throughout the world.

Merwin became involved in the boat-racing as a member of the special projects department of Ford Motor company. The 31-foot Bertram fiber-glass boat is powered by two 310-horsepower Ford 406 engines.

It's not all work. While in London, Merwin was the house guest of London Daily Express Publisher Max Eichen. And Merwin's wife sadly noted (she stayed at home) that his return was delayed by a visit to Paris.

New Faces Due In Legislature

The complexion of the Michigan Legislature in 1963 is very likely to present a sharp contrast to that of recent years. Nine members of the State Senate definitely will not return. Seven seats were vacated by the incumbents voluntarily and two prominent Republican members, Kalamazoo Sen. Carlton H. Morris and Sen. Charles R. Feenstra of Grand Rapids, were ousted in primary contests.

In the House, upsets in primary election races and voluntary "retirements" puts 21 seats up for grabs by new hopefuls.

Known changes would give in the two houses.

In addition, however, there are still a few districts in the state where neither party has a tight hold on official positions and further upsets of incumbents could result.

In Oakland and Macomb counties, for example, population shifts and various other factors have changed the election returns in recent years. Part of Muskegon county also is considered in the "swing district" category.

The two major parties are watching the House races particularly in the current campaign. The few strategic "swing districts" could mean the difference between control of the chamber, which had a 55-55 split when the 1958 votes were counted and Republicans held a bare 56-54 majority during the last session.

Michigan's third international bridge is expected to give the state a new tourist attraction as well as a transportation link.

The International Bridge at Sault Ste. Marie in the eastern end of the Upper Peninsula is scheduled to be opened late this fall. Estimated cost of the span over the Soo Locks and St.

Financial Advice for Youth

Babson Park, Mass., By this time a good many of last June's young graduates will have finished their vacations and summer "fill-in" work and will be tackling permanent new jobs in earnest. On the basis of my more than fifty years in active business, let me give them some good advice.

Keep Out of Debt

If you borrow some money temporarily on your personal note, be sure you have enough cash on deposit at all times to be able to pay it off. We are living in very uncertain times. The entire world is in an upheaval. It is an important time to keep out of debt — until the present Russia-Kennedy financial storm blows over . . . which it will.

Don't let talk of inflation scare you during the next few years. We will always have some inflation, but it will do no harm if we can avoid World War III. Take out some life insurance—straight life, 20-payment. If our dollar holds up for twenty years, all will be O.K. If our dollar declines, you can use the low-cost dollars to make your payments. So, in the end, it will average out.

Never Endorse a Note of Another

You have friends and neighbors who will ask you to endorse a note for them, arguing that such action would "cost you nothing" but that it would be a great favor to the maker of the note. I heard a sermon once on a text from Matthew,

Chapter 25, Verses 33-37. It has saved me much money and much trouble.

When selling property, I will warrant the title against any "cloud" occurring during my ownership; but will never give a full warranty going back to the Indians!

When you give your own note, you can get out of it by paying same. If you have bought something which you know is a losing proposition, you can sell it and take your loss with Uncle Sam. But when you endorse a note, the note goes to a bank or to some third party and passes entirely out of your control. The endorsement may hang over you for years. Endorsements have no time limit! Beware of them!

Buy a Little Stock

If the stock of the corporation for which you are going to work is listed on the New York or the American Stock Exchange, buy one share of it each month and have it registered in your name — not in your wife's name. If the stock is selling for more than you can afford to pay each month, buy a share once every other month; but buy it regularly and systematically.

If the stock is not listed, buy a share of the stock of one of your local banks each month. You can tell the treasurer or some other officer of the bank that I have advised you to do this; he will get the stock for you. Have this stock issued in your name so you will get the dividends. This system will make you a profit; but, more important, it will give you a good reputation as a substantial citizen. Be well thought of now and it will give you credit later if you want to start a business of your own.

Be Careful When You Write

It is a good rule to be careful always about what you put into writing. In fact, it often helps to have someone else's opinion on your material. Although I have been writing this column once a week for many years, it is always checked very carefully by a most able employee of mine.

So let me suggest that, even when you are taking on a new job, you should not be ashamed or embarrassed to ask someone in your office to look at work you are doing and advise you.

Use the telephone whenever possible. Never criticize anyone in a letter unless you carry liability insurance! Even when thanking or congratulating people, I often "say it with flowers." Sometimes you hate to refuse a request; but you can often save both money and a friend by going to a nearby florist and sending some flowers. Greeting cards are also wonderful investments to use freely — for birthdays, Christmas, New Year's, and for "sympathy" messages. Be careful about congratulating friends and relatives when a new baby comes into a family or it may be named for you!

Jibes Hurt Little Girl

Dear Dr. Mudd:

I have a little girl in the 2nd grade. Almost every day she comes home in tears because other children have been teasing her unmercifully. We do the best we can, but sometimes it is just impossible for us to help her "keep up with the Joneses."

There are lots of children whose parents are better fixed than we are, and these are the very ones who tease her. One of their favorite jibes is "you're poor—your father is a church mouse." Both my husband and I have consoled her and told her not to pay any attention to the other children. It doesn't do any good.

Do you think I should ask the school to put her in another class? I worry about her. She hasn't any friends and when I ask her, she just says nobody likes her and then refuses to talk about it. Please answer this letter.

Mrs. S.K.L.

What you describe is a not unusual situation among children and in more subtle ways is discoverable in adult society as well. Human beings, especially when young and only half civilized, can indeed be cruel and heartless and more often than not, the weaker and more vulnerable the object of their hostility, the greater its incisive accuracy.

I think it is the task and responsibility of every parent to help their children in their relationships with others, but unfortunately, some parents derive a secret and vicarious gratification from the aggressive behavior of their offspring. What they cannot in good conscience permit themselves to even become aware of, they covertly and unknowingly encourage in their children. They frequently project, for example, their own inflated opinions of themselves onto their children; encourage them to claim a station and virtue not truly theirs. Most thoughtful parents are fortunately aware of this and take measures not to exploit their children.

Granted that mankind is by nature cruel and selfish, it is nonetheless possible that your

JINGLE! JINGLE! JINGLE! . . .

That's what this year's multi-million-dollar Michigan Bell payroll does to cash registers all over the state. We are the state's fourth largest employer (excepting government), and our employees spend most of their earnings right here at home. They buy all sorts of things vital to Michigan's economy: cars, food, homes, appliances, clothing, recreation—to mention just a few. Michigan Bell jobs help keep cash registers jingling all over the state, adding extra vigor to Michigan's growing economy.

THE COOK'S BEST FRIEND is her kitchen extension phone. When it rings she can answer right where she's cooking — avoid burned steaks and ruined sauces. Besides the convenience of a space-saving Princess or wall phone, the attractive color will add a bright note to any kitchen. The cost? Only pennies a day. Why not include a new extension phone in your Fix-Up-for-Fall program?

A YEAR ON THE PHONE! That does seem like a lot of time. But a recent survey shows that the average person spends 8,760 hours (or 365 days) of his life talking on the phone. When you consider how much longer it would take to do all the many things that need getting done day after day without your telephone, perhaps it doesn't seem so long, after all. Amazing, isn't it, the amount of time, money, inconvenience and worry the phone saves each of us over the years. Put yours to work for you often.
