

Meet First Baby, 1963

Mr. and Mrs. David Folsom of 41166 McMahon Circle are the proud parents of Sherry Lynn, First Baby of 1963.

January 4 Arrival Wins Stork Race

The girls made it three, the doctor had predicted her arrival today (Thursday). The race for the earliest arrival honors this year wasn't even a contest. The Record-News had received no other reports of first baby entries by deadline time of noon Monday.

Last year's first baby, Kimberly Ann Berger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Berger, 40930 Grand River avenue, won over two other early arrivals by just a few hours.

Sherry Lynn's father is an employment interviewer for the Michigan employment security commission's Ann Arbor office. Her parents have lived in Novi for about three and a half years.

Her mother, Virginia, was reported doing just as well as on schedule. Her parents and she were to come home from the hospital yesterday, where Sherry Lynn is sure to get plenty of attention from her two-year-old sister Barbara and Mrs. Folsom's mother, Mrs. Keith Agy, of New Port Richey, Florida, who's lending a hand.

Prizes she will receive from area merchants include: a blanket from S.L. Brader's; a baby cup from Tewksbury Jewellers; a bouquet of flowers from Mother from Lila's Flowers & Gifts; a baby toiletry kit from Northville Drug Co.; a choice of apparel from The Little People Shoppe; a nurse kit from Novi Rexall Drug; 15 half gallons of milk from Cloverdale Farms Dairy; a pair of baby shoes from D & C Store; and 24 cans of selected baby food from E.M.B. Food Market.

FAMILY TRADITION ENDS — Quentin R. Biddle (left) hands keys to Adolf Schiller, symbolizing his sale of the Northville Coach Lines bus company and service station to a corporation headed by Schiller. Mrs. Biddle (far left) and Mrs. Schiller look on as the business, started by Biddle's father in 1922, changes hands. Schiller, who has been managing a school bus line in Detroit, said the corporation has just purchased 13 more buses, bringing its total to 52. Main business of the firm presently is its parochial school bus service. Schiller said plans for the near future include starting a charter bus service available to clubs, church organizations and other groups, as well as remodeling the service station at 41122 West Seven Mile road, to be called the Northville Super Service, to offer more automotive service and bus repair. He added that the present hourly bus service from downtown Northville to Detroit via Seven Mile road will continue.

Public Invited to Hear Swimming Club Story

A public meeting to unveil a model and explain all the details of the plans for the proposed Northville Swim Club has been called for Wednesday, February 6 at the Community Building.

Rezoning of a 2.6 acre parcel behind the high school and adjacent to the city's water tower was approved for the pool project Monday night by the city council.

Promoters of the private pool club idea hope to have it open by July 1. Chief organizers are Robert Bogart, Robert Bretz, Charles Altman, Jr., Raymond Jackson and Maurice LaPointe.

They propose to construct a $100,000 facility to include an olympic size pool, bath house, wading pool, parking area, and eventually tennis and shuffle board courts.

It has been emphasized that the pool club will be a "family project" with no alcoholic beverages served on the premises but with facilities for refreshments such as sandwiches and soft drinks.

Charter family membership fees have been set at $350 for a stock certificate and $50 per year dues. Deadline date for charter memberships has been set at March 1 after which initiation fees will be increased.

Bradford Edwards, an architect well known in the field of swimming pool design, has been retained for the job. He has proposed an 82.5 x 42 foot heated pool with a 30 x 33 foot diving bay.

A membership of 350 families will be needed for the project to succeed, promoters estimate. The club is organized as a non-profit corporation and it is provided that membership certificates may be sold back to the club when no longer desired by a family.

The February 6 meeting will be held at 8 p.m. Membership certificates will be available at the meeting.

Fines for Frolicking Fidos

Running dogs could run into money — for their owners.

That's the warning of Northville Police Chief Eugene King this week who reports that police are receiving numerous complaints about dogs running in packs in the city.

He reminded dog owners that they can be fined if their dog is caught. And he plans to assign two men to "dog catching" duty soon.

The fine for permitting a dog to run loose in the city is $3 for the first offense and $5 and $10 for second and third offenses. After that, it's a court charge.

In addition to the fine there's a $1.50 per day charge if the dog is kept in the pound.

Area Construction Tops $2.1 Million

Permits for construction of over $2.1 million worth of homes, additions, garages and commercial buildings were issued during 1962 in the Northville-Nowi area.

Novi led the way in total estimated value of the new construction for which permits were issued last year with 138 permits totaling $832,950.

Northville township was close behind, with 92 permits for $756,175 worth of new buildings. The city of Northville, while beating both the township and Novi with a total of 187 permits issued for the year, trailed in total estimated value, at $526,888.

Well over half the total value was for new homes in the area. Novi issued permits for $543,350 worth of new homes, while the city's new home permits totaled $157,900, and the township issued permits for $613,675 worth of homes and private buildings.

Some 115 permits for alterations of homes and construction of new garages, sheds, porches and additions in the city totaled an estimated $72,793 last year. Novi's 55 permits for similar construction totaled $139,649.

Permits for over a half million dollars worth of new commercial buildings and alterations were issued in the area last year.

Taking the lead was the city, with a total of $296,195 in commercial permits. Novi issued $151,600 worth of commercial permits, while the township's new commercial construction was estimated at worth $142,500.

The city last year issued 47 residential permits for a total value of $586,400, while the township and Novi had 19 new home permits each for respective totals of $378,400 and $321,000.

The city's 12 permits for commercial buildings and alterations last year totaled $311,100. The township had three commercial permits for $108,000, and Novi had eight for $72,500.

Elections Stir Political Air

With the township primary little more than one month away and a city and township election coming up April 1 political activity gained momentum throughout the community this week as:

— Township Republicans announced a "meet the candidates" night February 6;

— One incumbent city councilman announced he would not be a candidate for re-election, while petitions were taken out for the second councilman whose term expires in April;

— A former council candidate revealed he would try again by taking out petitions.

The township's candidate meeting will be sponsored by the Greater Northville Republican club and will introduce the complete slate of GOP candidates.

Because the Republicans have competition for two offices within the township it is necessary to hold a primary election February 18.

Two Republicans have filed for supervisor and trustee. They are R. D. Merriam, presently a trustee on the township board, and Mrs. Harold B. Price for supervisor; and Daniel R. Brown and Wilson D. Tyler for trustee.

Other Republican candidates who will appear at the public meeting scheduled to be held at the American Legion building include: Alex M. Lawrence, incumbent treasurer; Mrs. Marguerite Northup Young, incumbent clerk; Laurence Maselink, incumbent justice of the peace; Chester Lipa, board of review; and Dick Mitchell, constable.

James Tellam, president of the Republican club, will serve as moderator for the meeting.

Following introductory remarks by the candidates, questions will be asked of each.

Tellam said this week that questions are being prepared and will be forwarded to the candidates several days before the meeting.

He added that anyone having questions that they would like to have submitted for consideration can send them to either Mrs. Robert Yoder, 20189 Whipple, or Tellam at 20031 Caldwell.

In the city the April 1 council race had its first entrants this week as petitions for Councilman John Canterbury and William Bingley were taken out.

Councilman Richard Juday, who will conclude his first four-year term in April, announced he would not be a candidate for re-election.

Canterbury has served two four-year terms on the council and is mayor pro-tem. He is a Ford Motor company executive and lives at 204 Randolph.

Bingley was a council candidate in 1961 running fourth in a field of six competing for two seats. He is an employee of the Detroit Edison overhead lines department and lives at 101 East Baseline.

Candidates have until February 18 to file petitions for the two seats on the five member council.

To date two petitions have been taken out for the two-year term of mayor. Incumbent A. M. Allen will seek re-election and Earl L. Reed, a former councilman, has announced he'll run for mayor.

Township Primary Expensive

Township Clerk Marguerite Northup Young announced this week that the February 18 primary election ballot must include the names of all candidates for office — both Republican and Democrat — whether or not they have competition for office.

It was earlier reported that only positions where there was competition for the office (supervisor and trustee on the Republican ticket) would be voted upon in the primary.

The clerk also noted (sadly) that because there will be no county primary election the entire expense of conducting the election must be borne by the township. She estimates the cost at $600.

City Extends Deadline For School, County Taxes

Deadline for payment of school and county taxes without penalty was extended Monday night for city property owners from January 19 to February 15.

The council voted unanimously for the extension, a customary practice. Tax bills are payable at the city hall until February 28. After February 15, however, a four per cent penalty will be added and after February 28 bills are collected by the county and the penalty is increased by one-half of one per cent per month.

Township property owners have until February 28 to pay their school, county and township taxes without penalty.

In other business at the city council meeting Monday night four bids were received for new police car. Low bidder was John Mach Ford Sales with a $799.52 bid including trade-in of the present police car.

To help improve the traffic problem in the business district the council voted to prohibit southbound trucks making left turns off Center street at Main street.

Next Monday night the council and planning commission are scheduled to meet with local businessmen to discuss the plan for the business district (see page 8). The meeting will be held at the community building.

The council re-appointed Cy Frid to the board of review for a three-year term and in final action decided to table a proposal to remove the stop sign for Fairbrook westbound traffic at Rogers street.

Prizes Await Bean Guessers

How's your "bean-guessing" eye?

Just to add a little fun, suspense and the opportunity to win a prize to the campaign to raise funds for the annual March of Dimes drive an old-fashioned bean-guessing contest has been introduced. The container of beans is now displayed in the window of Northville Drugs. For the price of a dime (or three guesses for 25 cents) you can test your skill at correctly estimating the number of beans in the jar.

According to Jaycee Chairman William Bingley, the beans have already been counted. The correct total is sealed in an envelope and has been deposited in the hands of A. R. Clarke, vice president of Manufacturers National Bank.

Contestants merely write their estimate (or estimates) on envelopes provided and deposit their donation inside the envelope, leaving it in a container inside the store.

Prizes to the best guessers were donated by local merchants and include: camera kit (Northville Drugs), card table (Schneider's), electric alarm clock (Detroit Edison), Musical powder box (Gunsell's), decorator vase (Lila's), electric decorated hotplate (Stewart's) and $5 gift certificates from E-Jay Lumber Mart, Brader's, Lapham's, Tewksbury's, Gamble's and Ellis Electronics. The contest will continue throughout January.

In other March of Dimes activities the Crutch Sale on Saturday provided a total of $124.32. It was conducted by the Jaycees under the chairmanship of Mrs. Robert Pankow and the Ugashonten club under the direction of Leonard Bogotaitis.

Next Saturday members of the Northville high school sen-

ONE, TWO, THREE — 10-Year-Old Robert Gredell (left) and Brad McAllister, 7, aren't really trying to count the beans in the March of Dimes contest, but they are taking a very close look before registering their estimates. Prizes are being offered for the best estimates at a dime per guess.

Ford Museum Researcher To Address Woman's Club

A research historian for Henry Ford Museum will address members and guests of the Northville Woman's Club January 18 on the subject of "Early American Prints." The speaker is Kenneth Metcalf, who heads historical investigative projects at Henry Ford Museum and is in charge of library facilities.

Metcalf has been at the Ford Museum since June, 1954, coming from the Detroit Public Library where he was senior reference librarian in the history and travel department.

A native Detroit, Metcalf attended Wayne State university. His college studies were interrupted by a stint in the army with most of his service in the South Pacific and Philippines. Returning to his college work, he attended the University of Virginia for a year and then matriculated again at Wayne State, where he received a bachelor of science degree in social studies.

A year as high school history teacher in Livonia followed before he returned to Wayne State and completed work on a master's degree in history. He later received a master of arts degree in library science at the University of Michigan where he is currently a doctoral candidate in library science.

A former chairman of the Museums' Divisions of the Special Libraries Association with headquarters in New York city, he is currently president-elect of the Michigan Chapter of the Special Libraries Association.

Metcalf will use film to illustrate his talk.

Woman's club meetings are held in the Northville Library beginning at 2 p.m.

Dennis Ferguson Takes Salina, Kansas Bride

Sharon Kaye Eden became the bride of Dennis C. Ferguson in a ceremony conducted at the Rose of Sharon Assembly of God church in Salina, Kansas, December 23.

The bride is the daughter of the Reverend and Mrs. Gerald Eden of Salina, while the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clyde K. Ferguson of Northville.

The bride's father officiated at the rites.

Her dress was of white bridal taffeta, floor length, with a fitted bodice of chantilly lace embroidered with iridescent and seed pearls on the scalloped lace scoop neckline. The full gored skirt featured a chantilly lace flounce caught at regular intervals with white satin lover's knots. An iridescent and pearl tiara held her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of red roses with white carnations.

Her only jewelry was a jeweled necklace, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. John Hathcoat, sister of the bride, was her matron of honor. Jolene Ferguson, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. They wore emerald green dresses of chiffon over taffeta with white accessories and white fur headbands. They carried cascades of white carnations.

The Reverend Alvin G. Eden of Albuquerque, New Mexico, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushering were Theodore Hellig, John D. Hathcoat and John Browning, all of Salina. Ringbearers were nephews of the bride, John Hathcoat, Jr., and Gerry Eden, Jr. Deborah Kaye Eden, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Eden was attired in a powder-green silk brocade dress with matching hat and accessories. She wore a corsage of pink carnations.

Mrs. Ferguson, the groom's mother, chose a dark brown silk brocade sheath with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow mums.

A reception was held following the ceremony.

After a wedding trip to Wichita, Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson will become residents of Seattle, Washington where Mr. Ferguson is employed as an electronics technician with the Boeing Company.

Mr. Ferguson was graduated from Northville high school and DeVry Technical Institute in Chicago.

Art of History and Today

By JESSIE HUDSON

As Christian art developed to meet the needs of the expanding church new forms of architecture made room for new art expressions. Much of this art was influenced by Byzantine infiltration and many of the new buildings were encrusted with mosaics. These mosaics, glowing gold, blue and red, were made with hundreds of small hand-pressed cubes of glass, some of them inlaid with silver and gold leaf. Because of the more rigid technique involved the style of mosaics is classically decorative, two rather than three dimensional. Figures are stiff, monumental, stylized, unmoving, but grand.

Prime examples of Byzantine mosaics are still to be seen in the churches of Ravenna, Italy. Here in San Vitale are groups representing the Emperor Justinian with attendant clergy, and the Empress Theodora and her court. They rim the building in impressive simplicity, in luminous colors, against blue or gold backgrounds, in reverent and charming beauty.

In Constantinople, also, Christian churches were being built using mosaics lavishly in their interior decorations. One of the earliest of these, Saint Sophia, built in the Sixth Century, still remains one of the most effective expressions of Byzantine art, though some of the original figures are now covered with Turkish plaster and paint.

Though an expensive form of mural painting, mosaics continued to be applied to the walls of Christian churches as late as the Thirteenth Century, but because of mounting cost, were largely supplanted by quicker, cheaper, more three-dimensional frescoes from the Fourteenth Century on. Only the floors of buildings were covered with mosaics, by practical Italian artisans, and a minor form of the art continued to be used for decorative jewelry in a few Italian towns.

A Gothic revival in the Nineteenth century brought a renewed interest in mosaic and they have again increased in popularity to the present use in exterior walls of buildings in shopping centers. Another use has developed for this ancient art in the form of wall hangings, and anything that can be glued is now being employed in the making of attractive mosaics. Broken glass, stones, slate, seeds, broken dishes crushed rocks, as well as the more traditional Italian glass or ceramic tiles are only some of the materials being used in modern mosaics. Still mainly decorative rather than pictorial, a good mosaic maintains the tradition of simple, stylized form, with glowing color.

Some modern examples of mosaics may be seen in the Dunning-Hough Library in Plymouth where work of the high school students is on display, or at the Hartley-Powers Gallery in Northville where some examples of mosaics in tile and pottery are being shown.

IN THE GALLERIES:
Dunning-Hough Library, Plymouth — Second display of art work of Plymouth High school students Through January 25.

DEADLINE TUESDAY NOON

1—Card of Thanks

We wish to thank all our relations, friends and neighbors for their kindness during the illness and death of our mother, Ida Giggis. A special thanks to Rev. Donald Larson of Detroit, Fred Casterline and helpers, and Mrs. Mary Rudd and nurses of the Novi Convalescent Home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Richter

Once again we would like to take this opportunity to express our heartfelt thanks to our wonderful neighbors and friends for their many acts of kindness shown us at the time of the loss of our beloved Father and Grandfather, Peter Croft. Also special thanks to the staff of nurses and doctors at St. Mary hospital in Livonia, the Wixom Police Force, Fred and Emily Casterline and Rev. Paul Cargo.

The Croft Family

We wish to express our heartfelt appreciation to the many neighbors, friends and relatives for their help and floral offerings at the loss of our husband and father. Special thanks to Dr. Den Houter, Rev. Spradling and Mrs. Nelson for their kindness to us.

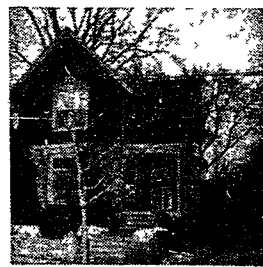

The Family of Vern W. Hitt

There's only one businesslike reason to advertise. You can make more money WITH advertising than you can WITHOUT advertising. This means your advertising is an investment . . . not an expense.

HERE ARE FIVE WAYS ADVERTISING PAYS DIVIDENDS:

1. Advertising builds a desirable reputation for your business. You must sell your store as the place to buy before you can sell your merchandise.
2. Advertising attracts new customers to your store. Before you can really sell, you have to bring customers to your store. Advertising attracts new customers, brings back former customers . . . many more and much faster.
3. Advertising helps you meet and overcome the fierce competition in today's retailing world. Advertising helps you maintain and protect your business.
4. Advertising is informative . . . it tells your customers what's new.
5. Advertising increases profits by building volume. Competition tends to trim profits on each sale, so volume becomes the key to success. Advertising gets your selling message to enough people to build volume sales.

Readers Speak

Dear Editor:

Members of our staff at Northville State Hospital join me to express our thanks to the citizens of our communities — your readers — for the many incidents of Christmas generosity and good will noted during the Season just past.

The fine response to our requests for gifts for our forgotten patients, the acceptance of responsibility for special needs in certain of our wards, the contribution by innumerable hours of clerical services by volunteers in our Community Relations Department since the last part of October, the planning of Christmas parties by groups with Christmas extras added — for all these, please accept — from our genuine "Thank You." Many of such kindnesses are noted, to be sure, not only during the weeks before Christmas but throughout the year. Those extra efforts, however, contributed by so many during the past few weeks, underlining and alert our awareness.

We wish to each of your readers a good New Year.

Sincerely yours,
Philip N. Brown, M.D.

Ralph C. Schulz

Stanley J. Gillen, general manager of Ford Motor Company's Hardware and Accessories division, announced last week the appointment of Ralph C. Schulz to the new position of divisional plant operations manager. Alexander Lobbestael succeeds Schulz as manager of the division's Ypsilanti plant, and William E. Scollard replaces Lobbestael as manager of the Rawsonville plant.

Schulz joined Ford in 1939 as a clerk. He was appointed manager of the division's quality control department in 1949. In 1960 he was named Ypsilanti plant manager. He is a graduate of the Henry Ford Trade School and lives at 21136 Lujon in Northville.

Matching Lamps Out In Modern Decorating

Good lighting is essential for modern decorating. With the right table lamps, your living room will have a warm friendly glow, and you'll have a comfortable place to read.

A living room should have three or more light sources for general room lighting. Before you buy a table lamp, says Rosella Bannister, county home economics agent, decide whether the lamp will be used for decorative purposes only, or whether it must also provide adequate light for reading.

You'll find Early American Lamps, French Provincial, ornate classical and simple contemporary lamps. They are made from wood, brass, pewter, silver, glass, pottery, stone and plaster. Prices range from around $20 to well over $100.

Wooden and metal lamps are more "child-proof" than are the glass lamps. The design of some lamps make them more stable than others.

A lamp which has a glass diffuser bowl around the bulb will soften the shadows and reduce the glare. This type of lamp is best for reading light, but surprisingly few table lamps on the market have this quality feature.

Special diffusing bulbs are available for use in lamps which do not have the built-in diffuser bowls. These special bulbs are called R-40 mushroom diffuser bulbs. They sell for around $1.29, but not all stores carry them.

Choose a lamp of the proper height. Before you go shopping, measure the height of the table on which the lamp will sit. A table lamp is the correct height for comfortable reading when the lower edge of the shade is at eye level when you're seated beside it. Eye level for most seated adults is about 40 inches.

The table height plus the lamp base height to the lower edge of the shade should be about 40 inches.

LET'S TALK CARS...

Snow Storms And Bargains

Winter is the toughest time of the year on car dealers. Not only is business at its lowest yearly ebb, but the dealer's cost of operation rises sharply.

One example of this that is painfully evident to every dealer is the increased cost of "board and room" for the used cars exposed to the weather on his lot. Snow removal and other expenses almost double the cost of maintaining his inventory.

In warmer months, used car inventory costs average $3.00 per day per car. This includes depreciation, lot expenses, washing, license fees, battery recharging, etc. Snow and ice and lower temperatures increase all costs with the exception of depreciation to around $5.20 per day.

A used car in winter must have its engine started more frequently and maintaining battery strength becomes a major maintenance item. Anti-freeze becomes necessary and washing, because of snow and ice, requires many times the man hours of warmer weather. Cars must be washed inside, one at a time, and allowed to dry before being returned to the lot.

For these reasons we are anxious to keep our used car inventory moving now, during the winter months. We prefer to pass on in savings to buyers the money that would otherwise be spent maintaining a large inventory.

ORDINANCE NO. 51

CITY OF WIXOM

An Ordinance to amend certain sections of Ordinance 40.

The City of Wixom Ordains:

Section 1: This ordinance is adopted to amend the certain section of Ordinance 40, which are in conflict with the general laws of the State of Michigan.

Section 2: The following portion of Sec. 3, Part 2, is amended as follows: Delete the words "to commit murder, rape, mayhem, robbery and larceny".

Section 3: The following portion of Section 4 is amended as follows: Delete all of Part 1, including therein specifically paragraphs A, B, B1, B2, C and D.

Section 4: All of Section 8 is hereby deleted and the following shall be inserted in its place:

PENALTIES: Any person who shall violate the provisions of this Ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding one-hundred ($100.) dollars or by imprisonment in the Oakland County jail for a period not exceeding ninety (90) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court, together with the costs of prosecution.

This ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency ordinance which is immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety and shall become effective immediately upon publication thereof by posting.

PEARL S. WILLIS,
CITY CLERK

I, Pearl S. Willis, Clerk for the City of Wixom, do hereby certify that the foregoing ordinance was adopted by the Council of said City, in regular meeting assembled on July 26th, 1962, and published as provided by Charter in The Novi News on January 10, 1963.

Pearl S. Willis,
City Clerk

Bowlers to Aid Trail Holly by 20 Points

Dimes March

The annual March of Dimes "Boyl Down Cancer" tournament for keggler gets underway next week, with local bowlers competing at Northville Lanes, Owner, Angelo Gadioli announced this week.

He said all league bowlers will be eligible to compete in the two-week tournament, which features a prize of a two-week vacation to Nassau for two.

Northville Lanes last year hosted the March of Dimes campaign with the highest per-lane, donation in the state.

Gadioli said he expects some 450-500 of the league bowlers at Northville Lanes to center the competition. Some 480 local keggler donated $1 each last year to roll in the tournament.

The highest one of every 10 bowlers rolling at Northville Lanes in the tourney will qualify for the Wayne county finals to be held next month in Detroit. Winners, there will travel to Lansing to compete in the state finals for the vacation trip.

Prizes such as radios, television sets and cameras will also be awarded to the county finalists.

The tournament last year netted over $700,000 for the March of Dimes, Gadioli said.

Rink's Open For Skating

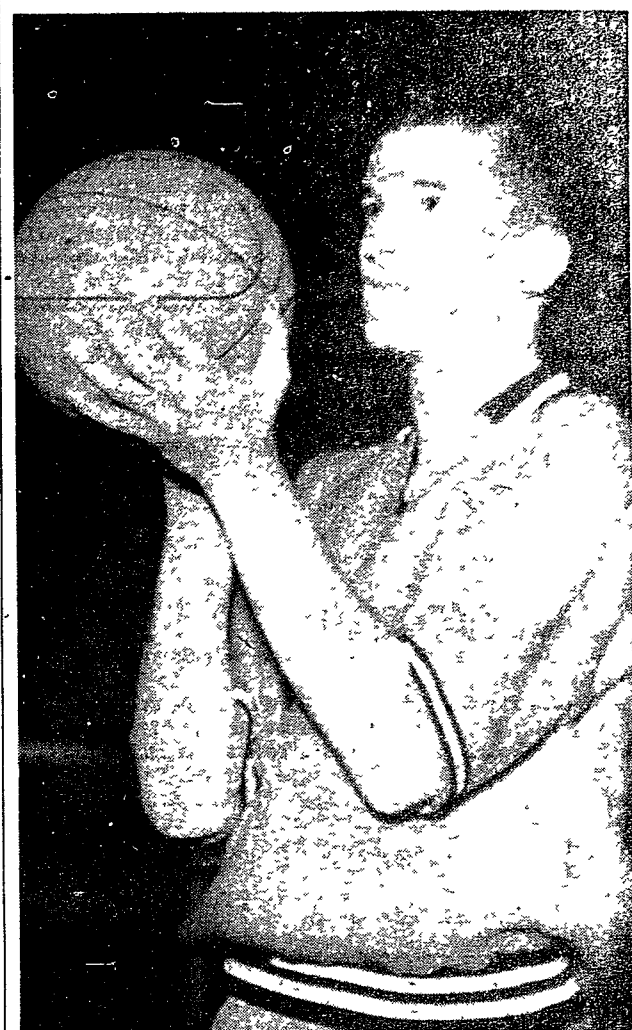

Northville recreation Director Ken Conley reminded area skaters again this week that the lighted skating rink in the parking lot across Center street from Northville Downs is now open for skating during supervised hours.

The hours are 4-6 p.m. Mondays; 4-9 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays; 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturdays; and 1-6 p.m. Sundays.

He urged that skaters use the rink only during supervised hours, when the warming house is also open.

Cagers Take Year's Worst Defeat

Cager of the Week

SPIRITED REBOUNDING is the forte of Mustang Center Jim Juday, this week's Cager of the Week. The 6-1 170-pounder is the son of Northville city Councilman and Mrs. Richard H. Juday, 304 Lake street. An above average student, Jim is treasurer of the "N" club and a former student councilman and class officer. He enjoys all team sports and likes to ski, fish and hunt. He is in his second season on the varsity.

Northville's Mustangs suffered their worst defeat of the season last Friday as both offense and defense failed to combine operating and a highly-spirited Holly squad pulled ahead to a 20-point lead to win 67-41.

The loss was Northville's fourth in five Wayne-Oakland league tilts, and pretty well reduced to nil any chance for first or second place in the league this year.

"We had them running," said Coach Dave Longridge, "but our offense collapsed when they switched to a new defense."

Holly jumped to an eight-point lead at the start of the game and stretched it to 10 points before Northville started to click.

Behind 16-9 as the second quarter began, the Mustangs kept pace with Holly throughout the period, and trailed 26-21 at half time.

Tightened defense and good use of the resulting scoring opportunities pushed Northville ahead 32-31 at the middle of the third period.

Guard Craig Bell scored six of his 10 points — his lowest total of the season — and Center Jim Juday dropped in all seven of his points in the third quarter.

But the brief Northville lead soon gave way as Holly poured in several buckets in the last four minutes of the period to lead 41-36 at the buzzer.

Bell fouled out before a minute of the final stanza had been played, and Northville's defense crumbled while the offense stalled. Holly shot ahead, sinking bucket after bucket until the game ended.

Northville used a zone defense during the first three quarters, which put rebounders in better position to clear the back boards, and was fairly successful in keeping Holly outside.

The Mustangs cracked Holly's zone defense in the third period, forcing the Bronchos to go man-to-man. But the locals failed to make offensive plays click against the new defense.

"I thought that when we caught up and went ahead we were ready to win," Longridge commented. "But everyone quit after that and we never got started again."

The coach noted that Juday played one of his best rebounding games, and pumped in his average number of points.

JV Ball Club Gets Drubbing

Mechanical mistakes combined with phenomenally poor shooting helped the Holly junior varsity hand Northville's Colts their third loss in six Wayne-Oakland league starts. Although the local JV's continually cleared both boards and took plenty of shots, they were unable to hit well in the second and third quarters, and ended up trailing Holly 43-28 at game's end.

Coach Alex Klukach noted that the Colts gave up the ball at least two dozen times on such mistakes as bad passes, steps and infractions of the three-second rule.

While the locals enjoyed a 57 per cent shooting average during the first quarter, they fell to 18 per cent in the next stanza and to nine per cent in the third period, ending the game with 25 per cent in the fourth.

Holly led 20-16 at half time, and Northville never threatened during the rest of the game. At the end of the third period the junior Bronchos were out front 32-22.

A strong full-court zone press aided Holly during the third period in stealing the ball a half dozen times from the Colts.

Pucksters Win Fourth

Extending their winning streak to four straight last week were the Ely Oil Kings, local entry in the Garden City recreational hockey league.

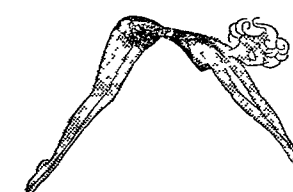

The Northville club edged Garden City 4-3 last Thursday and then continued with a 5-2 rally over Plymouth Sunday to tie for first place in the league with a 4-1 standing.

Next Sunday they take on fellow league leaders Belleville, the only team to hand the Oil Kings a defeat this season. Belleville downed Northville 4-2 in the season opener December 16.

A three-point hat trick by Don Crabtree paced the local pucksters Thursday night, while Dick Willis added the final tally.

Nearly everyone scored Sunday as five members of the Northville squad connected for one shot each. Scoring were Crabtree, Phil Kearney, Roger Nuotila, William St. Lawrence and Ron DeNoyler.

Northville Residents Head War 1 Veterans Group

Northville residents were prominent among the new officers installed Sunday by the Benton Parkway Barracks and Auxiliary at the Veterans Memorial Home in Plymouth.

Installed as commander of the Barracks was Ed Hanson of Northville.

City Councilwoman Beatrice Carlson was installed as president of the auxiliary.

Jaycettes Plan Spaghetti Night

The busy Jaycettes, wives of Northville's Jaycees, are planning another project for January to follow up their successful March of Dimes Crutch Sale.

At a general meeting held last week at the home of Mrs. Duane Marshall plans were set for a January 24 spaghetti dinner at the First Methodist church. Funds from the dinner will be used by the Jaycettes for their community activities. Mrs. Marshall is chairman.

Later this month the Jaycettes will attend the stage production "Camelot" at the Fishery Theatre in Detroit. In early February they will visit East-lawn Convalescent Home.

The Jaycettes also announced that their organization had donated $50 raised from the sale of candy to "Kids, Incorporated", a local organization which anonymously aids needy children.

Other Barracks officers were: Charles Denune of Northville, senior vice commander; Lon Brocklehurst of Plymouth, quartermaster; Harland Hickerson, Plymouth, chaplain; Edwin Sedlow, Northville, judge advocate; trustees, Charles Beagle, Don Ryder and Charles Wellgus; Charles Lowes, adjutant; and George Bruce, sergeant of arms.

Auxiliary officers are: Evelyn Lindsay of Plymouth, senior vice president, Lena Hammond of Northville, junior vice president; Betty Lowes, secretary-treasurer; Marie Sedlow, Northville, conductress; Sally Morse, Northville, chaplain; Lydella Ely, Northville, guard; and trustees Evelyn Brocklehurst, Thyrta Wickstrom and Martha Schulte of Northville.

Veterans who served 90 days or more between April 6, 1917 and November 11, 1918 are eligible to belong to a Barracks and wives, mothers, widows, sisters and daughters are eligible to belong to an auxiliary.

Fireman Fined After Fire Call

A Northville fireman, involved in a minor accident on Main street while answering a fire call, was fined $10 in Northville justice of the peace court this week.

Northville Gets District

Northville high school will host this year's district basketball tournament, announced athletic Director Al Jones this week.

He said the six-team district tournament will be held the week of March fourth. Drawing for the line-up of competition will take place next month.

Playing in the tournament besides Northville will be South Lyon, Brighton, Holly, Fenton and Howell.

Jones said one game will be played Tuesday, March 5, and the second on Thursday. A double-header Friday night will determine which teams compete Saturday night for the district crown.

The only other time Northville has had the district tournament was two years ago, when South Lyon won. Benefits include a small profit, as well as the team's advantage of playing on the home floor before home crowds.

Jones said the main disadvantage is that Northville will be unable to draw a "bye".

There're 176 Contributors On Building Fund List

Northville's campaign to collect some $12,000 in contributions for the construction of the $28,000 Scout-Recreation building inched closer to the goal this week.

Campaign Treasurer A. R. Clarke reported that contributions now total $9,160.23.

He noted that this sum had been given by 176 contributors. Names of contributors not previously reported include:

Junior High Children Topic for P-TA Meeting

How well do you know your junior high school child? Is he a child or adult? Just what makes him tick?

These are typical of the questions that will be answered by Dr. Edward A. Bantel at the next meeting of the junior high school P-TA January 17.

Dr. Bantel is associate professor of educational psychology at Wayne State University and director of an experimental project dealing with the education program for college education teachers.

His special area of professional interest is developmental psychology.

Prior to his association with

Wayne State Dr. Bantel served for five years on the faculty of Columbia University, where he received his degree.

His topic for the P-TA meeting will be the average, typical junior high student — his physical, mental and emotional aspects. A question and answer period will follow his talk.

The meeting will be held in the junior high library beginning at 8 p.m.

Date of the executive board meeting of the junior high P-TA has been changed from this evening to Tuesday, January 15 at 8:30 p.m. in the teachers' room.

Michigan's Fine to Visit, but Wills Family Prefers Alaska

CHRISTMAS SURPRISE — Mr. and Mrs. Jerre Wills and their four daughters, the local family which traveled to Alaska with the Fifty-Niners group, returned to Michigan during the holidays for a surprise visit with relatives and friends. All are healthy and extremely happy with their new Alaskan home. They are (l. to r.): Laurie, 4; Susan, 6; Mrs. Wills; Cheryl, 8; Mr. Wills, and Cindy, 3.

Northville's pioneering Alaskan family came back to Michigan during the holidays — but a pack of wild animals couldn't prevent them from returning to the 49th state.

That's the feeling area residents come away with after speaking to Mr. and Mrs. Jerre Wills, former West Nine Mile road residents, who are enjoying a visit with his parents in Livonia.

Suspicious that the young couple and their four small daughters might be ready to admit defeat and start life anew in Michigan are quickly dispelled. In fact, they fill their descriptions of Alaska with so many complimentary adjectives that they're apt to start a new movement northward if they don't leave soon.

The Wills arrived here shortly before Christmas — nearly four years after their departure for Alaska with the now famous '59'ers group. They plan to return late this week or early next.

Actually, the Wills have been surprised by the great amount of concern about their welfare shown by area residents. They quickly point out that they have not been starving, they are not worn out by heavy work, and that, above all, they are perfectly content and extremely happy with Alaskan life.

They admit that pioneering in Alaska has meant plenty of hard work and that they've had their share of discouragements and anxieties — but, according to Jerre, the assets of Alaskan living far outweigh the heartaches.

Asked what they like most about living in Alaska, Jerre replies: "The feeling of accomplishment — of having done something ourselves — something that would have taken us a life-time to do here." "And the beauty," adds his wife Marge, "you just can't describe it."

Jerre explains what he meant by accomplishment: In less than four years they have homesteaded and become owners of 120 acres of choice land that includes a large beautiful lake, they have built and wired a comfortable, six-room log house, they have built several other buildings — including a greenhouse, they have cleared 11 acres and planted a garden in which they raise the vegetables that they eat, they have purchased two fishing skiffs, motors and nets and have become commercial fishermen.

Besides raising their own vegetables, the Wills have no difficulty supplying their table with meat. Game and fish are plentiful. So plentiful, in fact, that moose eat bark from their log house.

And for those who have worried about the Wills' four young daughters, Marge offers this information. The children are seldom ever sick, colds are rare. Two children attend a "wonderful" school just seven miles from home. And despite cold weather and heavy snows, they rarely miss school. (A school bus picks them up at the entrance to their private homestead road.)

Incidentally, the Wills pay no property or sales taxes; cost of schooling is $10 per family per year.

Area residents will recall that the Wills packed their worldly possessions in a small house trailer and joined a caravan of Michiganders to Alaska from Detroit in March of 1959. The Michigan residents planned to settle in the Kenai Peninsula. But when they reached Alaska, the group split up with most settling in the rugged land north of Anchorage.

What caused this split?

According to Jerre, the caravan moved part way down the Peninsula and then stopped to permit explorations by members of the party. Later, the majority decided to "really rough it" and settle to about 70-degrees in the summer, and the mercury falls to a large family," Jerre explains,

"and I told them I had to look out for my children. Besides we had already agreed upon settling in the Peninsula. We had seen movies of the area staid there before moving."

Actually, the land most of the '49'ers chose wasn't as valuable as the Peninsula land. That plus the fact that many of the Michiganders had to use most of their remaining savings to pay for crossing of the turbulent Susitna river prompted many families to return to Michigan.

Alone, Jerre tramped "all over" the Peninsula looking for a homestead. Eventually, he found an ideal site. "I went back and told my wife it was high with a lake and very beautiful." "It was just what we wanted, but it was almost too good," Marge adds. "We were sure someone must have picked it already. But the land office said we could have it." The Wills claimed 80 acres on which to homestead, then later added another 40 acres. To become owners they had to clear 11 acres.

Although the acreage represents a fairly good size farm, Jerre explains that a newcomer just can't expect to make a living by farming. Clearing the land and farm preparations is a long and tedious process. And the short Alaskan growing season also adds to the difficulty of farming.

The Wills' property is located about three miles from Cook Inlet or bay. Snow-capped mountains are visible to the east and to the west of their home. Two small towns are located about seven miles away. Neither is very large — "just a couple of buildings."

Last year Jerre tried his hand at commercial fishing, netting hundreds of pounds of halibut during the annual fish "run." This year his wife will have a license and, together, the Wills hope to substantially increase their income.

Other interesting points made by the Alaskan family include:

Schools are new and well-staffed.

Population has increased remarkably since Alaska became the 49th state.

Temperatures average about 70-degrees in the summer, and the mercury falls to about 40 degrees below zero in the winter. — They work longer and harder during the summer when there are 24 hours of daylight each day.

— There are no deer in the vicinity. But moose, bear, and other game are plentiful, and nearby streams are loaded with trout.

— They shoot hair seal and collect $3 for each because this type of seal destroys the fish.

— Food costs are about double the costs of food in Michigan.

— Nearly all of their dry goods are purchased by catalog.

— They have traveled very little while in Alaska, primarily because they haven't had the time and because the scenery in their own area is so beautiful.

— Oak, Elm and other large trees of this kind are not found in Alaska because of a permanent frost in the ground which prevents deep rooting.

— In the winter Jerre works for the Parks and Recreation department.

— Russian and Japanese fishing fleets abound in the area, causing considerable alarm among local commercial fishermen.

— Cecil Rhode, who is currently in Michigan presenting films of Alaska and who appeared on television last week, lives about 50 miles from the Wills and has visited them at their home.

— The trip home — by motor vehicle — took eight days. There was about an inch of snow in Alaska when they left for Michigan.

— Because they have no refrigeration, they must hang meat outdoors in the winter, or can it for summer.

— Since Alaska became a state, homesteading has been stopped except for the most desolate regions. A mile square of land can be purchased for about $10,000.

— This Christmas was the first time Jerre's family had been together since 1948. With him in Livonia, besides his parents, was a brother, John, back from Korea, another brother, Joel, on leave from Fort Benning, Georgia, and a sister, Mrs. Givenlaurie Debastos.

— Marge's parents have moved to Minnesota since she and her husband left for Alaska.

HOW TO PLEASE YOUR HOME ECONOMIST

Introduce a lady to a new Cadillac—and a host of wonderful things happen.

For what feminine heart wouldn't skip a beat when the door swings open on motoring's most luxurious and comfortable interiors?

What lady could fail to thrill to the marvelous handling ease of this majestic car?

And how could she resist the magic of her first arrival in this great motor car? For her Cadillac is a gallant and considerate escort wherever she goes, and even a routine journey becomes a special occasion.

But it is to her practical side that this new 1963 Cadillac makes its deepest appeal.

The car's original cost represents an unusual bargain in view of all a Cadillac provides.

Cadillac's day-in, day-out economy of operation and upkeep . . . and its reassuring reliability . . . reveal over and over its soundness as an investment.

And its remarkably high worth when the time comes for another new Cadillac will be final proof that the move to Cadillac was a wise one.

When your thoughts turn to Cadillac—as they surely must—a consultation between you and your lady and your dealer is in order.

There simply is no better way to win the favor of a practical wife.

"CHERRY PICKER'S" bringing "SPAGHETTI"!

THIS IS NOT A CALL FOR DINNER— IT'S A SIGNAL THAT PIPE HAS ARRIVED.

To the pipeliner working in the Gas fields of Southwestern United States, this message does not mean a cherry picker is coming down from a cherry tree to put on a spaghetti dinner . . . it means that a light rig (which is called a "cherry picker") is bringing a load of small diameter pipe (which is called "spaghetti") to the construction crew on a pipeline project.

In Outstate Michigan, Consumers Power Company has the big task of planning, constructing and maintaining pipelines. It has over 7,000 miles of Natural Gas pipeline supplying this wonder fuel to customers in 30 Outstate Michigan counties.

Lyons Township School District

OAKLAND, WASHTENAW AND LIVINGSTON COUNTIES, MICHIGAN

NOTICE

OF LAST DAY OF REGISTRATION

A special election having been called to be held in said school district on the 11th day of February, 1963:

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO

—Opponents of a proposed landfill for the Manning and Locklin gravel pit area in Northville township have promised a court battle should the township zoning board issue a permit for the landfill to Sheldon G. Hayes, who's seeking to rehabilitate the area for development into a subdivision.

—One of Northville's most-delayed yet widely-desired community projects appears ready for launching. Letters were mailed this week to 14 members of the proposed economic development committee setting its first meeting for next Wednesday.

—Northville school board members Monday night received a report and scheduled consideration at a special meeting next week of the possibility of financing proposed lighting and seating facilities at the new high school athletic field by revenue bonds, to be repaid by gate receipts.

—The purchase of a heating plant and an addition for the Novi community building were considered by the township board Monday night as possible uses for a $2,000 gift from the estate of former township Supervisor Frank Clark.

—Kimberly Ann Berger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Berger, of 40030 Grand River, is "First Baby, 1962" for the Northville-Novi area. She was born 12:35 a.m. Jan. 9 and will receive a number of gifts from Novi and Northville merchants.

—Slippery roads caused by freezing rains resulted in a number of small accidents and the death of a Keego Harbor man last Friday. Oscar Robinson, 53, died three hours after his car slid into the path of another car on 12 Mile road near Dixon road.

FIVE YEARS AGO

—The loss of the Allied Products plant in a $1,000,000 holocaust last summer appeared this week to be in reality a gain for Northville. Officials of Foundry Plank and Equipment company, located here since 1946, announced that they have purchased the former Allied Products site and hope to build a new, modern plant there as soon as possible.

—The Northville school board received Monday night notification from both the Michigan Municipal Finance commission and the state department of public instruction approving sale of $1,850,000 in bonds for construction of the new high school. Sealed bids on the bonds will be received and opened at a special meeting January 22.

—Funeral services were held Monday for Dr. Edwin Brooks Cavell, widely known Northville veterinarian who had practiced in this area for the past 52 years. Dr. Cavell, 80, was known throughout the state for his interest in his profession.

—Novi road is scheduled to undergo a complete rebuilding and widening during the next three years from Northville to Walled Lake. The renovation of the five-mile route is expected to cost about $500,000, Oakland county road officials said in announcing the plans this week.

—Several months of paper work on the proposed Lincoln village housing development on the western edge of Novi are expected to be finished soon. Developers of the 600-acre expressed hope this week of taking their first plat to the planning board, obtaining permission to build a sewage treatment plant and completing engineering details for the first unit of homes by this time next month.

—Wixom is now the home town of another automobile. The new Ford Thunderbird, which the company hopes will create "a new American concept of luxury transportation," went into production at the Lincoln plant last week.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

—If activity indicates fine results, then when the doors open January 21 on the annual community hobby show, they should be opening on one of Northville's largest events. Various committees in charge of the many facets of the show are swinging into high gear to have everything ready.

—Some 27 students from Northville are among the 20,600 students attending the University of Michigan this year. Included in their courses of study are engineering, literature, medicine, pharmacy, music and architecture.

—A vow made on Guam island several years ago, during the thick of World War II was fulfilled Wednesday night by five Northville veterans. Holding a reunion at Huck's Inn near Redford were Robert Ely, Gene Nitzel, Alex Funke, Robert Streng, Harold Tuck and Bill Sutton. Serving on Guam at the same time, they had vowed to hold the reunion after returning to Northville.

—Further construction at the site of the proposed Northville state hospital was authorized this week with the opening of bids for installation of a power house. Thus far, a water tower has been erected and the grading completed for a railroad spur.

—The second semester of the Northville recreation program gets underway next Monday. Heavy enrollments in the many courses are indicated for the winter sessions. Among subjects included in the program are oil painting, charcoal sketching, hat making, ceramics and leathercraft.

—Fire destroyed a Walled Lake landmark early Tuesday morning. The blaze, of undetermined origin, destroyed the old portion of the Post building, which had served as a famous resort hotel until about five years ago.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

—Northville will now have night skating at the Ford pond. Floodlights have been installed around the pond, and will be used to provide safety for night skating.

—Dayton B. Bunn was named Monday evening as secretary of the Northville-Wayne county fair board of directors. He replaces long-time secretary Floyd A. Northrop, who indicated he no longer wishes to serve as secretary. Elmer L. Smith continues as president.

—Continuing the sky-rocketing upward trend of stamp and money order sales, Northville's post office last year did a 154 per cent increase of business over the previous year. Postmaster Fred E. Van Atta announced this week. He said the local office netted $20,943 last year.

—A. Russell Clarke, teller at the Northville Depositors' State Bank for the past four years, was named cashier Tuesday afternoon at the annual stockholder and directors meeting. John A. Boyce, who had held the position while serving as president, was re-elected president.

—A prominent Wixom dairy farmer was arrested Tuesday night in Sault St. Marie, Canada, after a coroner's jury passed a verdict that a pretty Pop-tac stenographer had been killed by a rifle "fired by some person unknown, with a strong suspicion" it was the Wixom resident. Trial of the man, who had shared a wilderness hunting cabin with the stenographer, was slated for next month.

Alien Address Reports Due This Month

Walter A. Sahli, District Director of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, advised this that the annual Alien Address Report Program is again under way.

According to Sahli, 137,000 aliens reported their addresses last year in Michigan. The number this year is expected to be slightly smaller.

The Immigration official pointed out that the address reports are required by law and willful failure to comply with these requirements may lead to serious consequences.

Forms with which to make the reports are available at all Post Offices, and Immigration and Naturalization Service offices. It is an easy matter to fill out one of the cards and return it to the same office.

Sahli added that trained personnel will be on hand in all offices of the Immigration and Naturalization Service to answer any questions the reporting aliens may have regarding immigration and naturalization matters. Sufficient trained personnel are not available to furnish this assistance in all Post Offices.

— City Council Minutes —

The regular meeting of the Northville City Council was called to order by Mayor Allen on Monday night, December 3, 1962 at the City hall, 8:00 p.m.

Present: Allen, Ambler, Canterbury, Carlson and Juday. Absent: None. Carried.

The minutes of the regular meeting of November were approved and the minutes of the Special Meeting of November 20 were approved with one correction. Moved by Canterbury, supported by Juday that bills in the following amounts be paid:

General $9,528.91
Water 996.10
Other Government 553.00
Ayes: Allen, Ambler, Canterbury, Carlson and Juday. Nays: None. Carried.

None. Carried.

Communications:

Notice was read concerning the Annual Regional Meeting for all municipal officers in Region IV of the Michigan Municipal League to be held on Thursday, January 10, 1963 in Warren, Mich. Council to be reminded of this at next meeting.

Communication received from C. R. Ely & Sons requesting an easement across the eastern edge of City's property, not more than 20' wide, located in Green Valley acres. The city manager and city attorney were asked to talk to Elys about this and report back to Council at next meeting, giving a history of this property, including a map of city's property and also including the feasibility of acquiring lots 13, 14 and 15. A letter was read from Mr. Lloyd Moore, Sr. of 680 Horton street regarding an adjustment in his sidewalk bill for the return of Main street on the special assessment roll from Griswold to Rogers street No. 10. After considerable discussion it was moved by Allen, supported by Juday that in the matter of the bill for Lloyd Moore, 680 Horton street (Spec. Assess. Roll No. 10); because of extenuating circumstances and the fact that sidewalk was some years ago partially broken by contractual equipment, that the item "driveway approach" in the sum of $42.12 to be reduced to $21.06. Ayes: Ambler, Canterbury, Carlson, Juday and Allen. Nays: None. Carried.

Council asked regarding information about a left turn on Center street onto Main street. Mr. Potthoff said he is awaiting a reply on this.

Request from city manager to discuss with the owner the possible purchase of 122 N. Wing.

The city manager submitted a report on Lot No. 529 of Assessor's Northville Plat No. 3 (122 N. Wing street) presenting the advantages of the city acquiring this property. Council granted permission for the city manager to contact the necessary parties and make a report at the December 17 meeting.

Recommendation on the intersection at Fairbrook and Rogers street:

The city manager submitted a report on the above intersection which recommended the continuation of existing traffic controls. Council asked that another report be made at the December 17th meeting which would include: (1) is grade on westbound Fairbrook sufficient to create a problem? (2) traffic count at this intersection (3) possibility of a 3-way blinker (4) possibility eastbound stop and westbound through on Fairbrook.

Report on Robinson Property:

The city manager gave a report of his finds on the Robinson property on Taft road. Council instructed him to talk to the Northville School administration and after talking to him report back to council and send a copy of his report to the Northville School Board and to Mr. Robinson.

Report Concerning the Return of Main street to the city:

Mr. Potthoff said he had talked to Mr. Gunderson of the Road Commission and discussed the possibility of them returning all or any portion of Main street to the city and at what time. Mr. Gunderson stated that he thought if the city so desired, the portion of Main street between Griswold and Rogers streets could be returned, upon receipt of such a request. Moved by Allen, supported by Juday that a request for the return of Main street from Griswold to Rogers street before January 1, 1963 be sent to Wayne county. (this request should also point out the improvements that should be done to this portion of Main street as well as pointing out its present condition).

Ayes: Canterbury, Carlson, Juday, Allen and Ambler. Nays: None. Carried.

Council asked regarding information about a left turn on Center street onto Main street. Mr. Potthoff said he is awaiting a reply on this.

Request from city manager to discuss with the owner the possible purchase of 122 N. Wing.

The city manager submitted a report on Lot No. 529 of Assessor's Northville Plat No. 3 (122 N. Wing street) presenting the advantages of the city acquiring this property. Council granted permission for the city manager to contact the necessary parties and make a report at the December 17 meeting.

Communication from Chief of Police concerning emergency communication service:

A letter from the Chief of Police was read explaining a cadet-training program which he feels would improve police service and would help in the period covering the time of removal from present quarters to new building. Council requested copies of this letter.

Resolution concerning the renaming of Brantford Circle to Dunsany Court:

Moved by Ambler, supported by Juday that the following resolution be adopted: (on file at City Hall).

Ayes: Carlson, Juday, Allen, Ambler and Canterbury. Nays: None. Carried.

The Mayor asked the council to stand for one minute of silent prayer in the memory of Thomas R. Carrington whose death has meant a great loss to the community of Northville.

There being no further business, meeting was adjourned at 9:45 p.m. and the council then left for the funeral home in a body to pay respect to Mr. Carrington.

Mental Society Advances Kipper

James F. Kipper, director of the Children's Mental Health Division of the Michigan Society for Mental Health, has been appointed assistant executive director of the Society by Harold G. Webster, executive director.

Webster said Kipper will continue his duties working for adequate services for emotionally disturbed children in addition to his new responsibilities. The Society is the Michigan United Fund agency dedicated to obtaining treatment sources for mentally ill children and adults.

Kipper joined the Society staff in 1954 as program consultant, and when the School Mental Health Project was initiated by the Society in 1955, he became its co-ordinator. In 1957 he was appointed staff assistant to the director of the Emotionally Disturbed Children and in 1960 was named director of the Children's Mental Health Division.

A native of Indiana, Kipper is a graduate of Western Michigan University, received his master's degree in education from the University of Michigan, and has done advanced work in public administration at Wayne State University. He was assistant director of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association before joining the Society.

He is married and the father of two children and resides at 914 Ely court. Kipper is a member of the Northville Board of Education.

Drugs Help Epileptics Lead Near-Normal Life

Epilepsy is a brain disorder usually characterized by some type of seizure or convulsion.

There are many causes, all associated with damage to the brain. There is no "cure" but complete or almost complete control can be obtained in half of all patients and another 30 per cent can obtain partial control of the seizures with proper medical diagnosis and treatment. There are a number of anti-convulsant drugs now available that are safe and non-habit forming which may be prescribed by a physician.

The American Medical Association points out that most people with epilepsy can lead normal lives; attend school, participate in sports and games, get and hold jobs.

Should someone near you have an epileptic seizure, keep calm. The patient usually isn't suffering or in danger. Help him to a safe place but do not restrain his movements. Loosen tight clothing and turn him on his side.

Do not attempt to force a hard object between his teeth and do not give him anything to drink. Stand by until the patient has fully recovered consciousness and from the confusion which usually follows a seizure. Assure him all is well and encourage him to rest a bit before going about his regular activities.

An epileptic seizure is a frightening experience to those who are unfamiliar with the condition and its manifestations. But the patient usually recovers with little or no harm.

Epilepsy is a widespread condition. Some authorities estimate that 1 in 100 persons suffer from seizures of varying degree which would mean almost 2,000,000 individuals in the United States.

If someone in your family has epilepsy, be sure he sees a doctor according to schedule. The anti-convulsant drugs likely will enable the patient to lead a relatively normal life.

Eight People Fined $210. In Novi Court

Eight persons were fined a total of $210 last week in Novi Justice of the Peace court on charges involving alcohol.

Northville Justice Charles McDonald, substituting for Justice Robert K. Anderson, ordered Herbert A. Robison, 21, of Garden City, to pay $30 or spend 10 days in jail after he pleaded guilty to contributing to the delinquency of minors. Robison paid.

John P. Lidgley, 19, Russell W. Leon, 18, and Ralph J. Cortes, 18, all of Detroit, paid $25 each after pleading guilty to being minors in possession of alcoholic beverages.

Everett A. Firebaugh, 18, of Detroit, paid $30 after being found guilty of being a minor in possession of Aaron W. Oliver, 19, of Farmington, paid $35 after pleading guilty to the same charge.

Ronald P. Throgosz, and Lawrence J. Stanko, 19, both of Detroit, paid $25 each after pleading guilty to being drunk and disorderly at the New Casino. Kenneth Strine, of Livonia, paid $25 when he pleaded guilty to being a disorderly person at the New Casino.

SPEAKING for The Record

by Bill Sliger

Just a little bit about a lot of things this week — for example, remember the request by a man representing a medical research laboratory in Illinois? He asked the Northville council if he could catch the city's pigeons and ship them to the lab.

It brought a few laughs at the council table and tongue-in-cheek consent. (People have tried to catch pigeons before).

Well, this pigeon-catcher reduced the city's pigeon population by 200 last week. He caught them in their sleep as they huddled about a warm vent atop the P&A Theatre.

Why were the birds hanging around the theatre? The answer to this reveals just how clever the pigeon-catcher really was. He knew they'd be there waiting for Sunday's feature attraction — "The Pigeon That Took Rome".

They wouldn't have enjoyed the picture, anyway. All but one of the pigeons were eaten. At least Northville's pigeons will die for a worthy cause.

A good suggestion for local hardware dealers came out of Monday night's city council meeting.

Jaycee Paul Palmer sought ideas from the council for the annual "Beautify Northville" campaign in May, which the Jaycees direct.

Mayor Allen proposed a drive for uniform-trash containers throughout the community, noting that many residences — and businesses — leave trash lying loose or in flimsy containers for the weekly collection.

Maybe Northville's two hardware dealers could start looking for a special purchase in good, sturdy containers. Sufficient consumer response would permit a large quantity purchase and thereby a savings in price.

We've watched with great pleasure the progress of the proposed Northville Swim Club project. The small group of local backers of the plan are holding a public meeting in the community building February 6 to explain all details and sign up members.

They hope to be swimming by July 1. It's a great idea. And best of all it is completely a project of private, individual initiative. No marching federal funds, no taxpayer expense, no special appropriations from congress.

It's a new fangled idea called private enterprise.

If present plans jell, the corner stone in the new Scout-Recreation building will contain a history of the building, dating back to its origin three decades ago.

Mayor Allen is donating the corner stone with appropriate words carved on the face. A box inside the stone will contain the history.

Northville's new state representative (21st district), Paul Chandler, has promised to write a weekly column for The Record concerning activities of the legislature. As a life-long newspaperman, he's well equipped to report legislative action of particular interest to area readers. And we believe he'll call the shots as he sees them minus the flowery adjectives.

An aside to "Joe" — If you really believe there's work to be done for "better government", why not come out from under your veil of anonymity and work for it instead of criticizing those who are.

We have no argument with critics — only those too timid to identify themselves.

Build Islands For Recreation?

RECREATION LANDS are in great demand in Michigan and most natural resource enthusiasts agree that scarcity of land will be a critical situation soon, if it is not such already. State parks and recreation areas bear a heavier load of campers, swimmers and pick-nicking groups every year. Where will additional land for Michigan people and out-of-state tourists come from in the future?

One idea man, completely outside the Conservation Department, has a unique idea where one batch of new recreational lands can be created.

PAUL LUTZEIER, aide to Secretary of State James M. Hare, suggests Lake St. Clair offers great potential for new recreation facilities.

The lake, particularly in the shallow areas near Harsen's Island, is a natural for man-made islands linked together in the same way the Florida Keys are joined. Lutzier says this unique project would be "one dramatic, yet relatively inexpensive solution, to the pressing problem of providing recreation lands."

Conservation officials are considering Lutzier's proposal for a pilot study of the island. Charles E. Millar, head of the department's lands division, said the idea definitely "has some merit."

THE LOCATION proposed for the island-making project is an area where Lake St. Clair ranges in depth between 2 and 12 feet. Lutzier suggested that the material periodically dredged from the shipping channel in the lake and industrial waste from the Detroit metropolitan area could be used as raw materials for the islands.

Because of the population concentration in the Southeast Michigan area, the chain of 20 islands proposed by Lutzier would provide recreation opportunities for the hundreds of thousands who live within 50 miles of Lake St. Clair.

Lutzier, who also worked with Hare in planning the now annual International Freedom Festival in cooperation with Windsor, Ont. officials, sees Lake St. Clair as "an acre of diamonds. It has the greatest recreational potential in Michigan because of the population surrounding it."

WHAT'S AHEAD in 1963? For one thing, the job outlook is good, according to Michigan State University economist Roger L. Bowlby.

Michigan's unemployment rate has been steadily dropping and the trend seems to be continuing, Bowlby said. "For the first time since early 1956, Michigan's rate of unemployment has dropped below the national average," he said.

A continuation of this trend, although the national unemployment figure remains relatively high, should take Michigan out of the category of "the problem state," the MSU spokesman predicts.

A CONTINUATION of the drop in unemployment will largely depend on the overall performance of the American economy, Bowlby pointed out, but the recent trend appears to be strong enough to warrant a prediction of its extension.

Loss of defense jobs and decentralization of the auto industry were blamed for many of Michigan's problems in the employment record during the past few years. Bowlby predicts these will not likely be important factors in the coming years.

"It is very reasonable to guess that Michigan will share in the national growth of output, income and employment during 1963," he said.

JUVENILE delinquency may increase in the immediate and near future, warns State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs.

This conclusion is drawn by Childs on the basis of current rates of delinquency in comparison with projected numbers in the juvenile population of the state.

During 1961, Childs reports about two-thirds of the persons arrested by various police agencies for major offenses were under 21 years old.

CHILD'S NOTED that of 51,634 arrests for what are considered major offenses, some 33,798 of the persons were 21 or younger. Of these 19,930 were in the 16-and-under age group.

An indication of the potential for numerical worsening of the juvenile crime problem comes from the basic population figures. The number of 19 year olds in Michigan in 1975 will be approximately double the 97,146 in that age group during 1961, Childs said.

A closer comparison can be noted in the fact that in 1961 there were 160,144 in the 14-year age group. This was an increase of 43,460 over the 1960 population in the same group, Childs said.

Big Freeze Hurts Florida Growers

Babson Park, Mass. — The recent freeze was very severe. The newspapers say "worst in the century". Statistics show that a similar freeze came in 1899. Then nearly all citrus trees north of Orlando, Florida were killed.

This latest freeze hit the citrus belt or the central portion hard; but also, the southern portion where many of the vegetables are grown likewise had crops wiped out. The northern section of Florida, where the celery and other hardy crops are raised, suffers less damage from freezes.

There was no mistake on the part of the Weather Bureau; for three days it had warned Florida of the very cold air coming down from the Arctic regions. But what could the fruit and vegetable growers of Florida do about it? Only the Indian River area escaped.

The early crops had been picked. The second crop, including the Valencia oranges, were not ready to harvest. Many growers, built fires; but these raised the temperature only 2 or 3 degrees. Growers who had adopted new schemes of spraying with water saw the spray itself freeze.

The loss has come not only to the growers; but to all the teamsters. It has thrown over a million out of work and thereby affected all the merchants and storekeepers. Worst of all, it came at the Christmas season, when the people and the merchants planned on their best business.

The canning of juice has been the greatest hope of the grove industry. If fruit — even though frozen — could be rushed to the canners while it was still sweet, such juice could be saved; but the canners could handle only so much juice and were powerless to can the truckloads of fruit coming to them. I have been in the midst of the situation and will say that everyone — rich or poor — has helped freely in every possible way.

When I was a boy in Gloucester, Mass., our most profitable "product" was granite and we knew it could not freeze! We had great quarries and we shipped the granite to Boston, New York, Washington, and Philadelphia for use in erecting the largest public buildings. We believed we had nothing to fear. Suddenly, the invention of cement came, and Cape Ann received a great economic blow. It was saved only by its fearless fishermen.

The cities which grew up and prospered from coal have suffered greatly since the oil and natural gas industries have flourished. When I was a boy, every Gloucester home was heated by coal. I went to the woods with my grandfather when snow was on the ground to bring home on a sled kindling wood for future use. Even the farms of New England, once so prosperous, have been

New Constitution Provides Protection Against Power

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is another in a series about the proposed new Michigan constitution. Additional articles will appear in subsequent weeks.

In at least three instances the proposed new Michigan constitution recognizes the growing power of executive and administrative agencies in state government and provides safeguards for the people against unreasonable enforcement of their regulations.

A section of the Declaration of Rights includes new language which reads: "The right of all individuals, firms, corporations and voluntary associations to fair and just treatment in the course of legislative and executive investigations and hearings shall not be infringed."

This declaration was interpreted by the convention to impose upon the executive department, the legislature and the courts the task of developing fair rules of procedure appropriate to investigations and to guarantee fair and just treatment in such matters.

A new section in the Legislative Article permits the legislature to set up a joint committee to act between sessions and to suspend until the end of the next regular legislative session any rule or regulation of an administrative agency promulgated when the legislature is not in regular session.

In the interest of individual rights, the section provides a legislative check on the rule-making authority of administrative agencies during periods when legislatures are not in session.

Another new section relating to decisions of administrative agencies is made a part of the Judicial Article. It declares: "All final decisions, findings, rulings and orders of any administrative officer or agency which are judicial or quasi-judicial and affect private rights or licenses, shall be subject to direct review by the courts."

The section continues: "This review shall include, as a minimum, the determination whether such final decisions are authorized by law; and, in cases in which a hearing is required, whether the same are supported by competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record."

In proposing this section the convention recognized the increased significance assumed by administrative law in the legal system of the state. A majority of delegates were of the opinion that opportunity for judicial review should be provided for those affected by the decisions of administrative officers or agencies.

Excepted from the mandate contained in the section are findings of fact in workmen's compensation proceedings and appeals of certain decisions of agencies dealing with administration of property tax laws.

Findings in workmen's compensation cases would be conclusive in the absence of fraud, unless otherwise provided by law.

Similarly, findings of state agencies and local boards having to do with property tax matters are excepted in the absence of fraud, error of law or the adoption of wrong principles.
