

If Northville Crowded

Farmington OK's Novi Ninth Graders

Novi learned last week it has an out if the Northville school district is unable to accept its ninth grade pupils for the school year 1963-64.

In a letter to Novi Superintendent of Schools Tom Culbert, the Farmington school board expressed a willingness to accept Novi's 70 to 80 ninth graders next year on a one-year basis.

However, the Farmington board noted in its letter to Culbert, that "it certainly would be to the advantage of your students to attend Northville schools in the ninth grade if they are going to continue in the Northville schools in the tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades."

The Farmington board also noted that, if Novi students came to Farmington, the Novi school district would have to be responsible for their transportation. Currently, the Novi district is responsible for transportation of Novi students to Northville schools.

It became apparent last September that Northville might not be able to take Novi's ninth graders because of overcrowded conditions in the system. At that time, projected enrollment figures for the school year, beginning September, 1963, were estimated at 280 students in the Northville junior high school.

ol and 888 pupils in the high school.

The Northville school board requested the Novi board, if possible, to find another place for September, 1963.

When the Novi school board received Northville's request, they petitioned Farmington and Walled Lake, asking the communities to take the ninth graders.

Walled Lake school officials have said they will not be able to reply to Novi's request until March when they can better determine how much classroom space will be available this September.

At the time the Novi board sent requests to Farmington and Walled Lake, members expressed a preference for keeping Novi ninth graders in the Northville system.

Whether or not it's feasible that the Novi students remain in Northville another year will hopefully be resolved next Monday. Culbert and Dr. Walter Ambinder, representing Novi's board of education, are scheduled to meet then with the Northville board of education at its regular meeting.

Northville school administrators and board members have not closed the door on the Novi ninth graders in 1963-64. The matter has been under study for several months.

With Novi proposing to open a new junior high school facility for the 1964-65 school year, the pupil "squeeze" would be alleviated. Northville school officials have indicated a capacity to continue accepting tenth, eleventh and twelfth graders in the high school.

They may even stop for a chocolate soda along the way. The walk starts at 1 p.m. Sunday at the corner of Main and Center streets. They'll walk along Sheldon road to Plymouth and return.

Under the proposal the city could use up to six-tenths of a cubic foot per second in the line to help alleviate sewer problems in the city's northern section including Oakwood subdivision area.

The line is proposed to serve part of Novi, but will be constructed larger than the present needs, thus making use by Northville possible.

Finally, City Manager Potthoff noted that the city is currently conducting its tree maintenance program — specifically which would permit Northville to tap into the new line.

Driving Club, Downs Enter High Court Suit

Northville Downs and the Northville Driving club filed a petition Monday with the state supreme court to join the Jackson Racing association in its suit against the state racing commission.

Downs - Driving Club Attorney C. D. Hill said the petition to intervene as party plaintiff is scheduled to be acted upon by the high court next Tuesday.

Child Clinic Wins More Support

Inkster last week joined Northville, Dearborn, Romulus township in supporting a proposed northwest Wayne county child guidance clinic.

All four areas are underwriting the proposed clinic — slated for the Garden City-Inkster region — by giving the clinic 25 cents, this July for each pupil living within their district.

Northville's board of education put its stamp of approval — amounting to $450 plus for the district — on the project January 28 provided the clinic appears by July to be "a growing concern."

Previously, Garden City and Livonia school officials said they would not join the project. They stressed, however, that they might reverse their decision at a later date.

Other communities which would be served by the clinic and which have not yet voiced approval or disapproval of the project include Belleville, Canton township, Dearborn township, Nankin township, Plymouth, Plymouth township, Redford township, Van Buren township and Wayne.

Mrs. Crispin Hammond of Northville, president of the clinic's board of directors, estimated that 900 pupils would be referred to the clinic if it were in existence now. She explained that the proposed clinic would each year serve as many as 200 to 250 of the emotionally-disturbed children in the 16-community area which comprises the northwest part of the county.

Merriam, Tyler Win in Township

Primary Attracts 30% Vote

Northville township Republicans decided Monday that R. D. Merriam and Wilson D. Tyler would be their candidates for supervisor and trustee, respectively, in the April 1 election.

For Tyler nomination means election. Democrats are offering competition for the post of supervisor, board of review and constable only.

Merriam's nomination is tantamount to election in predominantly Republican Northville.

In the first primary election ever held in Northville township 499 of the 1,654 registered voters cast ballots.

Here's how they voted in the only two contests on the ballot:

For Supervisor — Merriam 275, Mrs. H. B. Price 170; For Trustee — Tyler 263, Daniel R. Brown 174.

Both Merriam and Tyler ran best in precinct two.

In precinct one Merriam outpolled Mrs. Price, 152-103; and in precinct two by 123-67.

Tyler topped Brown in precinct one, 139-111; and in precinct two, 124-63.

Merriam, a Northville township trustee for a dozen years, announced that he would retire from his post as a project engineer for the Wayne county road commission to devote full time to the supervisor's job if selected.

Tyler will be seeing his first service in local township government. He's an assistant vice president with the Detroit Bank and Trust company and lives at 19772 Meadowbrook.

Tyler will replace Merriam as a member of the five-member board. Merriam, if elected, will replace Supervisor George Clark, who will close-out a four-year (two-term) career as supervisor in April.

Other board members are Clerk Marguerite Northup Young, Treasurer Alex Lawrence and Trustee Donald Robinson.

Here's how other candidates, all unopposed, fared at the polls Monday:

Republican — Clerk, Mrs. Young, 344; Treasurer, Lawrence, 340; Justice of the Peace, Laurence A. Masselink, 347; Board of Review, Chester A. Lipa, 335; Constable, Richard Mitchell, 346.

Democratic — Supervisor, Arthur E. O'Leary, 43; Board of Review, Mrs. Edna L. White, 49; Constable, R. J. Gravelle, 46.

There were several "write-in" votes cast. For the Republicans Supervisor George Clark received two, one for clerk and one for treasurer; Ralph Gibson received two for highway commissioner and Robert Gibson, one; party committeeman write-ins went to Robert Bogart, Wayne McBride and Ernest Shave (each 4), Robert Frost, Loren Steeper and Wayne Claypool (each 3), and W. E. McCarthy, one. Democrat George Bennett received one vote for party committeeman.

Assistant Postmaster Arthur Schnute Dies

Arthur H. Schnute, assistant postmaster and an employee of the Northville post office for 40 years, died suddenly at his home last Friday morning at the age of 58.

Funeral services were conducted by the Casterline Funeral Home at St. Paul's Lutheran church at 2 p.m. Monday.

Mr. Schnute, active in numerous community and church affairs, had not been in ill health. He had, in fact, planned to go ice fishing early Friday.

He became ill during the early hours of the morning at his Grandview avenue home and died at 3:50 a.m. Death was attributed to a heart attack.

Mr. Schnute was born on August 24, 1904 in Detroit, the son of Henry and Augusta Wagner Schnute. He came to Northville with his parents 45 years ago. He married his wife, Florence, on June 28, 1930.

Surviving besides his wife and father, who also resides in Northville, are: one daughter, Mrs. Donna Thomas of Detroit; one son, Gerald Schnute of Northville; one sister, Selma Schnute of Northville; and two brothers, Milton of Hot Springs, South Dakota, and the Reverend Alvin of Detroit.

Mr. Schnute was an elder of St. Paul's Lutheran church. He had also served the church as secretary and chairman of the congregation. He held the later position during the time the present church building was constructed.

Mr. Schnute was a past president of the Northville Rotary club and currently served as treasurer. He was also treasurer of the Northville Driving Club and currently served on the Northville Board of appeals.

The Reverend B. J. Pankow officiated at the church services. Burial was at Glen Eden cemetery in Livonia.

Hartley is expecting a last-minute rush. Sales this year are slightly behind 1962, he said.

Council Sets New Record For Completing Business

City councilmen wasted little time in completing a short agenda Monday night — and in doing so set a "modern record" for speedy sessions. The meeting adjourned in an hour and one half.

During that time the council tabled action on a resolution from the Plymouth city council recommending abolition of the Wayne county drain commission office and placing its duties under the road commission. The council proposed a study on the matter by City Manager Bruce Potthoff and asked for a report at the next regular meeting.

The council set March 4 as the night for a public hearing on a request to rezone a lot at 119 West Cady from R-3 to C-2.

It has been proposed by the owner of Northville Lanes bowling alley to remove the house and convert the lot into a parking area. Planning commissioners recommended the rezoning to the council.

Area residents offered little opposition providing a "greenbelt" surrounds the parking lot. With the buffer zone the lot will provide 15 spaces. It is on the south side of Cady directly across from the bowling alley.

The city received word from the township board that terms of a proposed contract agreement covering joint use of a new library were acceptable providing the two official bodies could meet and agree upon exact charges for rent and maintenance. The new library facility is planned providing the city receives matching funds from the federal government for its new city hall project.

The council tabled another issue of importance to the city involving the proposed Novi sewer from the Middle Rouge interceptor located southeast of the city to Ten Mile road in Novi.

City Manager Bruce Potthoff was directed to prepare a full report for the next meeting on a possible agreement between the city and Oakland county which would permit Northville to tap into the new line.

Under the proposal the city could use up to six-tenths of a cubic foot per second in the line to help alleviate sewer problems in the city's northern section including Oakwood subdivision area.

BAGS DOE IN CITY — Northville Police Officer Chris Flynn finally bagged his first deer Sunday. But it happened in the city limits of Northville, not in the woods where he has tried his luck at hunting in seasons past. Sunday afternoon Officer Flynn answered a call on South Main street where the 140-pound doe had been seen. Spotting the animal, he chased it up the C & O railroad embankment across to the city dump. Flynn fired six times with his revolver — "but I killed it with my fourth shot," he reported. The doe had been apparently hit by a car and had suffered a broken leg. "It was running wildly and could have caused damage or injury," Flynn noted. The doe was later dressed-out by Kerry Madigan of Eight Mile road and turned over to the state conservation department for delivery to an orphanage in Detroit.

Taxes Due In Township

Township taxpayers have one week to pay their school, county and township taxes without penalty. After February 28 a four per cent penalty is charged and payment must be made to the county.

Payments may now be made by check or money order by mailing to the township hall, or directly to Treasurer A. M. Lawrence next Tuesday or Thursday at the offices of Manufacturers National Bank in Northville.

Normally, Lawrence would be available for collections tomorrow (Friday), but the bank will be closed in observance of Washington's birthday.

Davis Appointed To Planning Board

William Davis, Orchard drive, was appointed Monday night by the city council to the Northville planning commission.

He was named to fulfill the term of the late T. R. Carrington.

Davis, a Ford Motor company official, previously served on the board of appeals. He resigned when he won a one-year Sloan fellowship to study at Massachusetts Institute of Technology two years ago.

Novi Library Gains Books

The Novi Public library has received a Michigan state public library development book loan for the third year, it was learned last week.

Do You Remember?

Just a single year ago
There was a vacant store
Hoping for a businessman to re-open its doors.
There also was a businessman who had a life long dream.
He wanted to open a lumber mart;
how odd the dream did seem.

Then, on February 1, in 1962
right before my very eyes
I saw that dream come true.
'Twas just a year ago, I saw
A sign so bright and clear announcing to the public
"E-JAY LUMBER MART IS HERE."

Now that's not where my story ends
In fact, it's just begun.
Remember how that businessman dreams?
Well, he got another one.
It's still a dream; but I saw the plans.
And I'll just bet within this year
That the E-JAY Lumber Mart expands.

Kitchen Diary

For 'Potato-less' Meals

Mrs. George Kohs of 473 West Cady is a gal with a culinary problem: neither her husband or her three sons will eat foods "mixed up."

In fact, Mrs. Kohs says, "A couple of my boys eat one thing at a time from their plates — first, the meat; then, the potatoes; then, the vegetable."

Since, she adds, "my family is convinced that a meal's not a meal without meat and something like potatoes, it's often hard for me to vary our diet."

Over the years, Mr. Kohs reports, she's found that changing the starchy dish is one of the easier ways of making "plain old dinners" appear different.

Mrs. Kohs says she often serves fried noodles, rice or sometimes even squash as the major starchy dish with perhaps another vegetable. But two of her favorite ways of "eliminating potatoes" are by serving either banana nut bread or corn fritters. Here's how she makes them:

Local Schools Win Praise For Clothing Drive Results

John Hyde, teacher-sponsor of the Junior Red Cross program in Northville junior high school, has assisted his school's JRC members to exceed the self-imposed quota of 100 bags of clothing collected for the Save the Children Federation.

The school's JRC Council members spearheaded the drive in their own home rooms, earlier this month. A St. Patrick's Day party will be held to which students bringing the most clothing for the drive will be admitted free.

Preceding the drive, eighth graders Lynn Tiilikka and Prudence Hartt spoke in class rooms at Amerman school and helped organize the drive there. Seventh graders Sara Lindberg, Karen Meyers, Susan Zerger helped students in Main street school organize their drive. Another recent activity of the junior high JRC was making and filling a Junior Red Cross school chest to be sent to some school which has lost its school room supplies through a disaster. This is the first school chest the group has filled. The lid of the chest is lined with a water color picture of the school, painted by ninth grader Joy Kaday. In the chest are paper, pencils, colored crayons, small musical instruments, game equipment and sanitary supplies adequate to tide a classroom over the emergency period.

In addition to the school chest, students filled individual gift boxes which provide emergency sanitary items, a small toy, paper, and crayons for distribution to child victims of disaster were packed. Junior Red Cross members at Amerman school, directed by Mrs. Betty Sellers, teacher-sponsor, have received a letter from a group of school children in Velmos Zante, Greece, thanking them for individual gift boxes in which they put their names as they packed them. The letter says:

"Dear Friends,
With great please we received your gifts. Their content caused indescribable joy. We too belong to the Junior Red Cross and feel deep friendship towards all the children of the world over.

During the distribution we took a picture which we hope will please you. Thanking you once again for your lovely gifts and your thoughtfulness."

Mustangs Fall to Holly; Squeak Past Clarenceville

The Northville Mustangs could muster little drive to improve on their 5-5 conference record as they split two W-O contests last weekend.

Chances for basketball success via a strong last-half season finish faded last Friday as the Mustangs ran out of steam here in dropping a 39-31 decision to Holly.

Then the tired local cagers struggled by cellar-dwelling Clarenceville 51-37 the next night in a game of errors there to even their conference record at 6-6.

Where the Mustangs had success with a deliberate style of play against West Bloomfield, the week before, they knew little else than frustration against Holly.

Their corner screens which had set up the usual give-and-go or set shot were completely bottled-up by Holly's quick defensive moves.

Even when the Mustangs changed to an attack up the middle by switching Jim Juday to the high post, it was to no avail. The visitors crowded the middle, but mainly, the local cagers were not driving for the basket.

Coach Dave Longridge summed up the night's activities. "We were flat, and we failed to come through when it counted. I'm disappointed."

After an early lead of 4-3, the Mustangs lost sight of the set. — trailing by as many as 13 points at the outset of the third quarter.

Sparked by Bob Boyle in a third and early fourth quarter rush, the Mustangs finally caught up at 26 all. But with the loss of Juday on fouls midway through the fourth quarter, the local cagers dropped back on their heels once again to watch Holly break the game wide open.

Except for the brief spurt, Northville was befuddled by Holly's zone. The visiting cagers rushed the shooters and generally harassed the Mustangs into committing many mistakes.

And the Mustangs made plenty of errors — 23 to be exact. This more than offset their rebounding advantage of 35-22, and handed Holly the chance to take (and make) more shots. Holly hit on 16 of 49 shots to Northville's 14 of 42.

Northville's defense was up to par, but in the low-scoring contest, Holly's long jump shots seemed to rain through the nets at just the right time.

Jack Bennett, Holly's high scoring guard, shot the visitors into a 7-6 first quarter lead on two jump shots from 25 feet.

Two six-point thrusts carried Holly into a 20-11 first half lead. The visitors brought the ball down court and shot before the Mustangs could get range in the next period. Led by Swiss, Juday and Dan Bishop, they forged to a 27-17 lead as the gun sounded to end the first half.

The Mustangs suffered a let-down in the third period, and Clarenceville closed the gap to 36-29. Although the local boys controlled the boards, their rebounding efforts were nullified by numerous violations and fouls.

Tom Swiss regained his scoring form to lead the scorers with 23 points Juday, besides many rebounds, added 11.

Top scorers for Clarenceville were Gary Gearhart and Dave Graves, each with 11 points.

West Bloomfield took over sole possession of first place Friday in the W-O league by tripping Bloomfield 52-50; Clarkston dumped Brighton 44-37; and Milford routed Clarenceville, 62-40.

In one other Saturday night game, Bloomfield Hills defeated Milford, 50-39.

The Mustangs will take on Milford here tomorrow night. The JV game will begin at 7:00.

Then the local boys found the

Colt Cagers Hit Stride; Cop Two Weekend Tilts

The Northville Colts hit their winning stride last weekend as they scraped by Holly 48-44 here and ran away from Clarenceville, 46-35, the following night.

"The boys finally played up to their potential," beamed Coach Alex Klukach. "If took a whole quarter in each game to adjust, but we outplayed them in the end."

Trailing Holly by a 30-20 count Friday night, the local cagers cut into the lead with two minutes remaining in the third period.

John Callaghan scored twice, and Gary Davis and Jim St. Germain once to bring the score to 31-29. Holly, which had been pressing all night, was caught off guard when the Colts broke fast down court.

Grabbing the 4th-quarter tip-off, Jim Lulis scored on a drive-in to even things up at 31-all.

A wild seesaw battle ensued in which Northville took a 45-44 lead with just two seconds remaining in the game. Lulis, who had been fouled, made the first free throw and Tom Wicke tipped in the other to end the game.

The visiting cagers kept Northville outside with their zone-press while they scored from the inside to take a 15-9 first quarter lead.

Scraping for every point, the Colts came on fast to close out the first half scoring at 21-18. Miscues kept them from overtaking Holly.

Outscoring the Northville JVs 9-2 in the opening minutes of the third quarter, Holly seemed bent on making the game a rout. But then the Colts came to life.

Leading scorers for the Colts were Lulis with 11 and Callaghan with 10 points.

Using a tight man-to-man defense and a driving offense at Clarenceville, the Colts scored 12 points in the second period and 17 in the third to cop the win.

Coach Klukach emptied his bench in the fourth quarter, and the opposing JVs outscored the Colts, 15-9. But the winner had been decided.

Paving the way for the victors were Krug with 13 and Mach with 11.

The Colts, who now stand 6-7 on the season, will play Milford here. The game will begin at 7 p.m. tomorrow.

Matmen Fall Again

The Northville high school matmen took it on the chin last week as they dropped two more decisions on the road.

A good Flat Rock team overpowered the Northville varsity last Thursday, 27-17, in a return match.

Although in contention all the way, the local wrestlers could not pull this one out.

Mike Brandenburg, who has done yeoman work all year, pinned his man. Other point winners were Russ Nichols, Ron Rebitzke, Bill Adams and Jerry Burns, all by decision.

Looking to the future, Coach Jack Kreiner last Tuesday juggled the JV line-up against the Whitmore Lake varsity to give his greener matmen some experience and they absorbed a 31-21 loss.

Coach Kreiner seemed pleased even though his wrestlers lost. "Our boys who were pinners were matched against much older boys. Under these conditions, our boys did very well."

The winning local boys did well also. Jerry Burns pinned his opponent; Frank Plantz and Bob Steeper won by forfeit; and Dave Ratcliffe and Wayne Ritter took decisions.

Northville's next match will be at Redford Union tonight. Starting time will be 7:30.

Take Aid Appeal To Washington

Wixom Mayor Wesley McAttee, accompanied by City Attorney Gene Schnelz, left for Washington, D.C. this week to pry an answer from tight-lipped Federal officials.

With them, the two men carried a council resolution authorizing them to represent the city and emphasizing the city's need for financial assistance with its road program.

McAttee and Schnelz, who were expected to leave Tuesday and return Wednesday, hoped to have an audience with officials "high up" in the Home Finance Agency and perhaps even with President Kennedy.

The mayor told the council last Thursday he hopes to prod officials into digging Wixom's application for aid from the "bottom of the pile." Pointing out that preparation of the new budget will be started soon, he said a "yes or no" answer is needed immediately so that the budget can reflect the finances available for the proposed road program.

He noted that Wixom's application was the 21st made in a 10-state area.

Telephone calls and telegrams, the mayor explained, had resulted in optimistic words — but no action. It's easier to refuse over a phone than it is if the applicant can look the other fellow straight in the eye and demand an answer, he said.

Councilmen agreed the direct approach probably would be more successful, but some nevertheless, were reluctant to authorize the trip until they knew approximately how much it would cost. McAttee then won unanimous approval when he said $300 would be sufficient.

The money is to be provided from a contingent road fund, called "Road Account Other," which reportedly contains $9,800.

Councilman Ray Lahti drafted the resolution carried to Washington.

Both McAttee and Schnelz traveled to Chicago last October to personally submit the city's application for $75,000 to the Housing and Home Finance Agency, which is administering part of the $400,000,000 fund appropriated by Congress under the Public Works Acceleration Act.

Under this act, the government is authorized to grant half of the cost of municipal projects in excess of normal expenditures to spur national employment.

If the grant is authorized for Wixom, the $75,000 will be coupled with an equal amount raised locally to pay for paving of Beck, West and Loon Lake roads, and for paving of Potter road, which was rebuilt and stabilized last year.

Dogs Disturb Residents

Stray dogs are causing both city and township officials concern. The running dogs are also responsible for numerous complaints from area residents.

Richard Mitchell, township dogcatcher, reported apprehending two dogs at 3 a.m. Tuesday morning. The dogs were disturbing residents of the Eight Mile — Taft road area. Northville police were also called to the area where the dogs were found fighting with an opossum.

Both dogs belonged to township residents and one of the dogs was unlicensed, Mitchell reported. The dogs were impounded and the owners fined.

City and township ordinances make it unlawful for dogs to be permitted to run free.

Mitchell noted that he has issued 20 violations, on neighborhood complaints, within the last two weeks. He said 10 dogs had been caught during that period in the township.

Dog Clinic Sets Record

More dogs lined up for rabies shots at the Novi clinic last Sunday than in any other Oakland county clinic.

A total of 340 dogs were given shots at the Novi clinic. Next best county total was that of a recent Farmington clinic where 326 dogs were brought in by their owners for rabies shots.

In Wixom, the February 10 clinic treated 209 dogs.

Novi's clinic was directed by Dr. Frank R. Bates of the Oakland county animal welfare shelter.

The next clinic in the area will be Sunday from 1 to 4 p.m. at the county shelter, 1200 North Telegraph.

In the meantime, licenses may be purchased at Trickey's hunting and fishing equipment.

Until March 1, the fees will be male and unsexed, $1, and female, $2. After March 1, the fees will double.

Trio Charged In Barn Burning

Two men were arraigned before Northville Judge Charles McDonald, February 13, on a charge of arson.

Dennis Johnston, 18, of 216 West Main street, Northville, stood mute and will appear in justice court for examination next Monday.

Richard Hooper, 22, of Stockbridge, a former roommate of Johnston's, pleaded guilty and waived examination. He will be bound over to circuit court.

Specifically, the men are charged with burning down a barn on Haggerty and Six Mile roads on the night of November 1, 1962. The case is being handled by state police.

Petition has been signed in the Wayne county juvenile court for a local 15 year old youth who was also involved in the incident.

Johnston and Hooper, whose bonds are $1,000 each, were taken to the Wayne county jail.

Billy Graham Film Coming To Novi Chapel

Evangelist Billy Graham addresses the generation growing up in the shadow of world tension in his newest feature motion picture, "Touch of Brass" which premieres in this area, Sunday, March 3, 7:00 p.m. in the auditorium of Orchard Hills Elementary School, 41900 Quince, Novi.

The film is sponsored by the Orchard Hills Baptist Chapel of Novi.

Graham's producing organization, World Wide Pictures, took its sound-color cameras to the homes and factories and places of amusement of Manchester, England, where the story of a working man's family actually took place. It has a ring of authenticity rarely seen on the motion picture screen.

Scheduled with the feature, is a Musical Featurette, "To God the Glory" which features the Billy Graham platform team: Cliff Barrows, song leader; George Beverly Shea, internationally known base baritone soloist; Tedd Smith and Don Husted at piano and organ; and the voices of the Christianaires Choir.

A highlight is a "Sing Along" segment in which the audience participates as Cliff Barrows conducts.

3-R's Still Well Taught in One-Room School House

Five one-room schoolhouses are still hanging on in Salem township and, as one school board member put it, "are good for at least another hundred years."

George Schmeman, secretary of the Stone school's board, maintains that the one-room schoolhouse on Curtis and North Territorial is "more like a private school than a public school."

"As long as we can provide youngsters with a good teacher, they'll get a good education," Schmeman said. "In a little school, a pupil in the third grade is getting reviewed all the time by hearing the second and first graders."

"If the same third grade pupil is ahead of his class, then he can advance with the next class," Schmeman noted.

Praises of the one-room schoolhouse, serving anywhere from 13 to 34 kindergarten through sixth grade youngsters, continue to be sung by members of three other school boards.

As Leo Kubik, a member of the Geer School board, sees it, the one-room school will "continue for awhile." He noted that not only do "the younger ones pick up from the older ones," but that "always the biggest share of our youngsters are on the honor roll when they transfer to junior high elsewhere."

Mrs. Howard Dunn, speaking for the Townline school board, reported that "some of our younger folks said something about when were we going to annex

"But mostly only one turns up at the annual school board meeting," she continued. "With me, still the children are better off in the rural school where they have more attention."

"In some grades, there's only one child," she noted. That's not so good. With two in a grade, one's always working to get ahead of the other and," Mrs. Dunn added, "that's better."

Floyd Taylor, president of the board governing Wash-Oak school, said that "the citizenry seems to want to keep the small school indefinitely." He noted that "as long as junior high school students can be placed," the Wash-Oak school will be operating.

said, could the school have a junior high curriculum. The kids would just miss out on too much, Taylor added. "But we'll have no problems as long as we send the youngsters to Northville high school at the junior high level when we're told they're very capable."

Within the Wash-Oak district, still another opinion exists — that expressed by a former board president, Louis Wallenmaier. He noted that the one-roomers "can't exist any more." They're "obsolete," he said, "and run on the old farm philosophy of years ago where it was all right to pump water by hand and carry it into the house."

Part of Lapham school district is echoing Wallenmaier's beliefs now, throwing the district into a smoldering controversy over annexation.

Some residents note that it's only "a matter of time" until the one-room school on Brookfield road disappears. Russell Knight, a school board member, reported that the "majority of the neighborhood feels we ought to go into a system as soon as feasible. Most people think they'd like more modern education."

Mrs. William Taft, a mother in the district, pointed out that now is a time of "great problems" for Lapham school. "We're reduced to half-day sessions which is pretty bad." What eventually will push these one-room schools out of existence? Mrs. Dunn prophesies: "further education. We'll be forced to consolidate to get our kids into high school."

The problems involved in sending youngsters from a one-room school to junior high or high school were perhaps the major cause of the movement towards consolidation 20 years ago.

At that time, as many as three dozen one-roomers in the Novi, Northville, South Lyon and Wixom area were abandoned. The last one-room school house to disappear in Novi was the Stone school at Ten Mile and Napier which then became an Episcopal church mission. In Northville, the Baseline school on Eight Mile west of Beck road hung on until 1952.

What's a day like in a one-room school house in 1963. Let's take, for example, the Stone school at Curtis and North Territorial. There, some 22 youngsters learn about "reading, writing and arithmetic plus" each day under the direction of Mrs. Roberta Schiedler. Like other elementary schools, this one offers music lessons — courtesy of the University of Michigan via radio. The one "stumbling block" as Mrs. Schiedler sees it, is art. "We just can't afford the same kinds of materials that are being used in consolidated schools."

Basically, Mrs. Schiedler teaches the same range of subjects as do elementary teachers across the country. Only she, unlike teachers in larger school systems, gives reading to one youngster perhaps as much as twice a day.

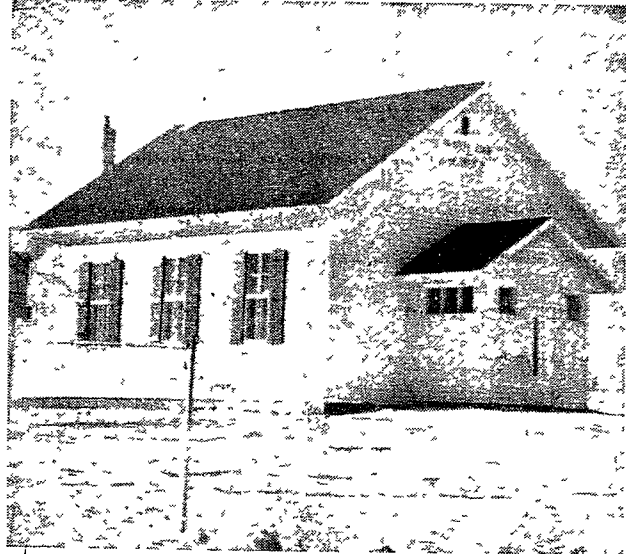

"If a youngster needs an extra class in reading then I let him read with the class before as well as his own," she explained.

When asked what kinds of disadvantages she sees to one-roomers, Mrs. Schiedler pointed out that it's often difficult for a youngster to go from the smallness of the one-room school to the complexity of a consolidated school. "Just so, it's hard when we get a youngster from a large school."

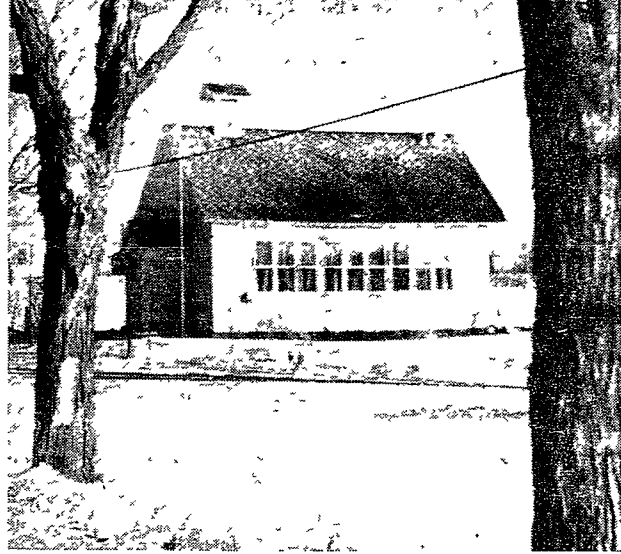

"Would I give up teaching here?" Mrs. Schiedler echoed. "I don't think so. You see, I was educated in a one-room schoolhouse and I love having something different happening every minute."

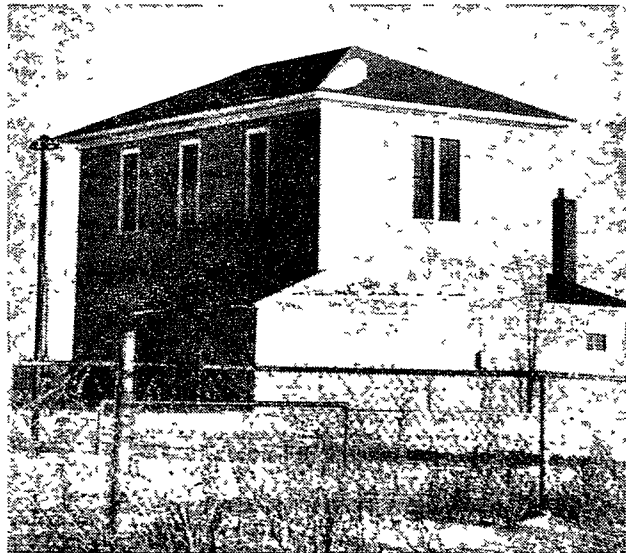

Stone school, located at Curtis and North Territorial, currently houses 22 children who are being taught by Mrs. Roberta Schiedler.

THE ONE-ROOM schoolhouse is slowly becoming a tradition of the past, but still some hang on today to teach kindergarten through sixth grade youngsters. Of the nine schools pictured here, five are operating for Salem township children. Other schools which have long ago ceased housing pupils, but which are still standing today can be spotted throughout the Novi, Northville, South Lyon, Salem, Wixom area. Some stand abandoned; some are used as homes, as churches or even as township halls. Another old one-room schoolhouse, not pictured, is the quarters today of Northville township officials at 16860 Franklin.

Dennis Cockrum is a student at Stone school, Curtis and North Territorial. He's a second grader — and appears to be well-occupied with his spelling lesson.

Four different ways to make going more fun than getting there

You can see why one of America's favorite outdoor sports is driving Chevrolets, with four entirely different kinds of cars to choose from. There's the Jet-smooth Chevrolet, about as luxurious as you can go without going overboard in price; the low-cost Chevy II, a good-looking car that would send any family packing; another family favorite, the sporty Corvair, whose rear-engine traction will make you think that ice and snow are kid stuff; and for pure adventure, America's only sports car, Corvette — now in two all-new versions with looks that can stop traffic like a rush-hour blizzard. Picked your favorite already? The next thing is to take the wheel at your Chevrolet dealer's. If that doesn't have you thinking of places to go, maybe you'd rather just have a ball around town!

PASTOR'S STUDY

Loyalty to Christ
In the Bible we read that all forsook Christ and fled. In the dark hour of fixion no one was loyal to Him.

It is true that Mary, the mother of Jesus, with other women and the disciples stood near the foot of His cross as He died, and Peter had been ready to lay down his life in the Garden for his Lord. But that type of loyalty to Jesus is not the loyalty needed in order to establish Christ's kingdom in this world.

To do that we must have a loyalty to Christ that is born from above — a loyalty that is not born of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man but of God.

Before Peter possessed that type of Loyalty he had to be converted from living after the working of his own mind as others in this world lived so that he would begin to live in a new way — after the working of God's mind.

I do not believe that Napoleon had a more loyal soldier in all his army than Jesus had in Peter there in the Garden before His arrest; and I believe that God appreciates and recognizes that type of loyalty for what it is but it is not a loyalty that results from being born into the family of God which builds the kingdom of God. It is the type of loyalty that has built nations, religions, denominations, lodges and every type and form of organization known to man.

God does not build His kingdom on such a foundation. The new Jerusalem comes down from above. We must be translated out of the kingdom of Satan — "the mind realm," into the kingdom of God's dear Son. Our loyalty to Christ must be heaven born.

This loyalty is a thing of the Spirit of God which is not discerned by the natural man, neither can he know it. You must experience it in order to know it. It is a loyalty that abides when everything else has been taken away.

This loyalty does not depend on nor draw its strength from reason, logic or any type of emotion known to man in the mind realm. It is a loyalty that results from the new birth, a spring that cannot be plugged up, an eternal river that originates in God and flows on and on into eternity.

A mother's love for her son is a wonderful emotion. It has produced many forms of sacrifice and devotion in its expression; but a mother's loyalty to her son is not to be compared with this loyalty to Christ of which we speak.

Oh God, it is so difficult to explain this Divine, living reality because it is to little known among men, because it is so like the wind. You hear the sound thereof but cannot tell from whence it cometh, nor whither it goeth.

How many of those who gather together to worship can truly say that they possess such a loyalty to Christ? Our answer to be true must be in demonstration of spirit and power.

REPORT from LANSING

By PAUL CHANDLER

LANSING — When one considers the number of laws which already rest on the books it is astounding to consider how many new ones, and amendments, are proposed in a single session of the Legislature. Thus far, almost 400 bills have been introduced in the House. Before the deadline Friday, the total will have reached 700. Another big batch will appear in the Senate.

Traditionally, all will disappear permanently from sight within the committees to which they are referred, except for about 20 percent. The Committees provide a tough, tight filter, being dominated in most cases by chairmen who have been in Lansing several years and aren't easily impressed by new ideas or change just for change's sake. Possibly 150 bills will escape from Committee in the House this Spring.

Yet every bill which appears has special importance and vital meaning to the introducer and to somebody or some group with special problems which to them are urgently in need of legislative help. Once out of Committee, the bills still must receive the approval of the full House, the Senate and the Governor before they can become law.

Receiving the cold gaze of the committees right now are a dozen bills of my own. Much of my own time at this point, therefore, is being spent in lobbying their merits to the various members of the committees who hold their fate. This is an old-fashioned "selling" job which is done formally, informally, at the desk, at lunch, in the lobby, and whenever. The last two of my own bills to be introduced and get an official House number were:

1. One which would abolish the office of Drain Commissioner, Wayne County and give his duties to the Road Commission. Both Belleville and Plymouth have passed formal resolutions urging this change, and the bill is in response to their desires.
 2. One which would permit Townships, by vote of the people, to adopt complete employee civil service systems. Today the law provides only for Fire and Police to be under civil service in townships. Some communities (Redford is one) desire to put DPW, Water, Office and other employees under the merit plan and rid themselves of patronage contests.
- Coming soon out of the bill-writing bureau is one I'm sponsoring which would set up a county assessment department which would have the duty of assessing all property in the county on an equal standard. Local assessors would disappear. Local boards of review would be continued, however. Demand for such a change has come to me from every single community in the entire 21st District.

Any groups or classes who wish to visit the Capitol can write me, in care of the House, and I'll arrange for them to be guided, visit the Governor's office, etc. The Legislature is in session on Monday evenings; in the afternoons of Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday; and on Friday mornings.

SPEAKING for The Record

by Bill Sliger

Tomorrow the nation will recall the birthdate of George Washington, the Father of our Country.

And in so doing, the words of John Adams, second president of the United States, stand out as prophetic. Adams penned these words 163 years ago shortly after the death of Washington:

"His example is now complete, and it will teach wisdom and virtue to Magistrates, Citizens and men, not only in the present age, but in future generations, as long as our History shall be read."

Washington was born February 22, 1732 and died 67 years later on December 14, 1799.

The accomplishments of his life during the impressive beginning of our history seem more real and very impressive when read in a newspaper of that day.

Such a newspaper was discovered recently by Mr. Mrs. Charles Viles of South Lyon. It is a clearly legible edition of the Ulster County (New York) Gazette dated January 4, 1800.

In addition to the words of President Adams, the black-bordered edition carries a letter from the U.S. Senate to Adams which reflects the feeling held by men who both favored and opposed Washington during his final administration.

It seems appropriate on the eve of Washington's birthday to quote this letter:

"The Senate of the United States respectfully takes leave, sir, to express to your deep regret for the loss their country has sustained in the death of General George Washington. This event, so distressing to all our fellow citizens, must be peculiarly heavy to you, who have long been associated with him in deeds of patriotism. Permit us, sir, to mingle our tears with yours; on this occasion it is manly to weep. Our loss such a man at such a crisis, is no common calamity to the world; our country mourns her Father. The Almighty Disposer of human events has taken from us our greatest Benefactor and ornament. It becomes us to submit with reverence to him, who 'maketh darkness his Pavilion.'"

"With patriotic pride, we review the life of our Washington, and compare him with those of other countries who have been pre-eminent in fame. Ancient and modern names are diminished before him. Greatness and guilt have too often been allied, but his fame is whiter than it is brilliant. The destroyers of nations stood abashed at the majesty of his virtue. It reproved the temperance of their ambition, and darkened the splendor of victory. The scenes closed and we are no longer anxious lest misfortune should sully his glory; he has travelled on to the end of his journey, and carried with him an increasing weight of honour; he has deposited it safely, where misfortune cannot tarnish it — where malice cannot blast it. Favoured of Heaven, he departed without exhibiting the weakness of humanity; magnanimous in death, the darkness of the grave could not obscure his brightness.

"Such was the man whom we deplore. Thanks to God, his glory is consummated. Washington yet lives on earth in his spotless example — his spirit is in Heaven. "Let his countrymen consecrate the memory of the heroic General, the patriotic Statesman, and the virtuous Sage; let them teach their children never to forget that the fruits of his labors, and his example are their inheritance."

Who said politics was a "man's game"?

Last week Northville sent four delegates to the state Republican convention in Grand Rapids.

The members — Mrs. Beatrice Carlson (city precinct one); Mrs. Stuart Campbell (city precinct two); Mrs. Harold B. Price (township precinct one); and Mrs. C. A. Hoffman (township precinct two).

It's reported to be the only "all-woman" delegation ever to represent a city at a convention.

City fathers (and others interested in Northville tax income) can start worrying again. State Senator Frank Beadle is renewing his efforts to reduce the amount of rate tax revenue rebated to cities in which the tracks are located. His new plan would reduce the rebate in annual stages.

Senator Beadle, as well as other out-state legislators view these state pari-mutual rebates with a critical eye and consider the money as lost state revenues.

College Education Only $5

Babson Park, Mass., — For some time I have written a weekly column for this newspaper. My group of papers started with a handful and they now exceed 400. Altogether this is the 2,089th weekly column. I have a library in my winter home containing over 6,000 books. If I could keep only three of them, I believe I could choose a good college dictionary, a copy of the Revised Bible with concordance, and the World Almanac. This latter book has been published annually for 78 years by the New York World-Telegram & The Sun.

It is regarding this last book that I want to devote this week's column. You can buy all three — Dictionary, Bible, and Almanac from your local book store for less than five dollars.

Many of the greatest leaders of our educational, scientific, business, and political world never attended a conventional college. All of them, however, were great readers of facts. Psychologists tell me that we each use less than 5% of our brain and that we are probably rated by our memories. Yet our memory may be trained without any college, or even high school, education.

It is a most wonderful miracle how a fast turned into a light wave which enters your eye. This electric wave is then deposited in one of the million storage "record holders" in your brain which can be called upon to "come forth" and tell you what it is. How I wish I were young and could devote my life to God's greatest gift, the human brain.

Let me now get back to a book to which I want you all to know. It is edited by Harry Hansen, and Scripps-Howard people are the owners; but I have never heard from them and have ever even hinted to them or anyone that I am mentioning the book in this column. The book has nearly 900 pages of fine print (too fine) and covers about 12,000 subjects.

Counting about 200 to the inch and 900 pages seven and a half inches long gives me an estimate close to 1,500,000 words, including an excellent index. Although the book has been published each year in January since the Civil War, a reader can be satisfied with the last edition. The book is largely cumulative and each volume carries information for some years back.

As the cost is only $2.50 for a clothbound copy (less for a paperback) every reader's home can afford a new volume. If you need to look up something prior to what is contained in the latest edition, your public library must keep a file. If not, I am sure every newspaper carrying this weekly column has copies in its library.

When I look up Facts in this book I am greatly impressed by the opportunity such a book offers to a young person to get a self-made education. If you cannot go to college, or even to high school you should systematically study this book. Try absorbing three pages each evening (perhaps while "baby sitting") and you can finish the book in twelve months. Each year you could cover this same amount in less time. One final suggestion: When

Research Council Offers Digest of New Constitution

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is another in a series about the proposed new Michigan constitution. Additional articles will appear in subsequent weeks.

A most effective tool for study of the proposed new Michigan constitution has been issued in recent weeks by the Citizens Research Council of Michigan and is now available without charge to interested individuals and study groups.

The 40-page publication is titled, "A Digest of the Proposed Constitution," and may be procured by addressing a request to the Citizens Research Council in Detroit (1526 David Stott Building) or Lansing (204 Bauch Building).

The Council is a private, non-profit organization which research into public affairs and governmental problems at the state and local level.

The group never takes stands on ballot issues and never attempts to tell people how to vote. It finds and publicizes unbiased and non-political facts on the basis of which citizens can then make their own decisions on the course of public affairs.

Michigan voters are being asked to accept or reject an entire new state constitution at the April 1, 1963, election. The CRC publication answers possible objections to this "package" approach by pointing out that voting on the new constitution as a unit avoids "the likelihood of introducing con-

Outstate Students Boost Economy

SOME $10,000 rolls into Michigan for every student from another state who attends Michigan State University for four years, according to a study by that institution.

A slight variation between the tuition fees at MSU, the University of Michigan and Wayne State University, the "Big Three" of state-supported institutions of higher learning, would indicate this could be an average contribution to Michigan's economy. Multiply this by the number of non-resident students at the three universities and the contribution to the state is considerable.

TUITION AT MSU is $780 per year, for the nine-month school year, to non-residents. During the most recent complete school term MSU recorded 5,421 out-of-state students at East Lansing and another 77 at its Oakland branch.

The University of Michigan $900 during the first two years, and $960 for the upper class years. The Ann Arbor institution leads the state colleges in non-resident enrollments with 7,748 out-of-state students registered last fall.

With the exception of one or two universities, MSU and U of M. charge the highest non-resident rates in the nation.

FREEWAY motoring in Michigan would have fewer hazards if the traffic flow were more closely regulated, according to some experts.

With this closer regulation in mind, State Sen. Lester O. Begick, Bay City Republican, and three other members have proposed a bill to set a 45-mile-per hour minimum speed limit on the freeways.

Begick's proposal has the full support of state highway officials. THE EXPERTS contend that many freeway accidents, most of which involve rear-end crashes, are caused by motorists driving too slow rather than by those who exceed the maximum speed limits.

"The principle objective of speed control is to achieve as much uniform movement of cars on the highway as possible," says Commissioner John C. Mackie. "The slowpoke is a highway menace, especially on freeways."

The slow driver impedes the normal movement of traffic and is a hazard to motorists who are traveling at the maximum speed. It is hazardous to allow one driver to go 70 while another is dawdling along at 15 or 20 miles per hour.

Bills setting the freeway minimum speed at 45 miles in legislative committees last year.

IN ADDITION to the voluminous supply of library literature on the proposed Constitution, there is also a healthy-sized speakers' bureau awaiting invitations to speak on the new document throughout the state.

The Democratic Party, one of the chief opponents of the April 1 ballot question, is offering to make speakers available to groups interested in hearing the "con" arguments on the document.

On the "pro" side, 13 groups which comprise the Coordinating Committee for the new Constitution have a number of speakers touring the state to speak for the adoption of the proposal.

Both groups offer the services of speakers without charge, of course.

A UNIQUE plan by a state aide completely outside the field of conservation is gaining strength rapidly among the outdoor recreation specialists.

When Paul Lutz, aide to the Secretary of State, first proposed the creation of a chain of 20 islands in Lake St. Clair, he considered it a dream which might be fulfilled during his lifetime.

"As a bachelor, I will not leave any children to enjoy Michigan's recreation facilities but it would be a great satisfaction to be able to have contributed something to the enjoyment of future generations," said Lutz.

NOW THE plan for using the shallow lake channel for filling in islands will be presented formally to the Michigan Legislature. The Conservation Commission has given Conservation Director Gerard E. Eddy the go-ahead to ask for $100,000 for the initial study of the Lutz proposal.

Legislators interested in recreation have already heard much of the plan. Since the number of tourists has been increasing steadily for several years, the study proposal is very likely to get a sympathetic hearing.

Whether $100,000 will be found for the proposed study remains to be seen, but even a lesser amount appropriated soon would give the Lutz plan a faster start than its author anticipated.
