Against the Wind

It's Long Way To South Lyon

In the saddle of 25-mile an hour winds, South Lyon Jaycees dashed to Northville Sunday afternoon to claim a disputed victory in the walkathon with Northville Jaycees.

Nursing blistered feet and wind burned faces, the Northville Jaycees fired charges of "foul" at the South Lyon walkers who were too weak to immediately answer back.

Nevertheless, the South Lyon Herald and a reluctant Northville Record, co-sponsors of the walkathon, decided to present the winning trophy to South Lyon and a consolation trophy to Northville.

"We were robbed," said a Northville Jaycee, "because we had to huck a stiff wind all the way to Pontiac trail. Those South Lyon guys never would have won if the wind hadn't pushed them along."

Northville also charged South Lyon with "taking a short-cut" at the Northville city limits. Instead of taking Eight Mile road all the way to Center street, South Lyon came into Northville via Randolph street, the losers explained.

While recuperating, South Lyon issued a stinging rebuttle from the bedside Monday morning. "Wind or no wind, we could have hopped over to Northville faster than they walked here. Sure, some of us went to Northville but it didn't make that much difference so far as distance is concerned."

Despite these subtle differences of opinion, both sides agreed "it was fun" even though aches, pains and blisters took a heavy toll.

Several Jaycees were unable to report for work Monday, the Herald editor — who limped to a near last place — had to be lifted from bed, and a number of "civilians" were still groaning Tuesday morning.

Time-wise, the first four South Lyon Jaycees used up a combined total of exactly seven hours to travel the 11 mile course, while Northville's first four walkers turned in a combined total of nine hours and six minutes.

Thirteen Jaycees competed for South Lyon, five for Northville. All of them finished the race. In addition to the Jaycees, nine non-Jaycees — including four girls — from South Lyon and 10 from Northville competed for unofficial honors.

Actually, the best times of the afternoon were turned in by two South Lyon high school athletes, Karl Richards and Jack Cook, who were clocked at 1:38 and 1:41, respectively. Both trotted most of the distance.

Doag Cogger, first South Lyon Jaycee to finish the race, staggered up to the Record office just one hour and 43 minutes after starting. His feet were bleeding.

The first Northville Jaycees to finish were Cal St. Clair and Bob Pratt who reached the Herald office in two hours and 19 minutes.

Other Jaycee times were: Northville — Bob Prom, 2:29; Paul Palmer, 2:39; and oe Selman, 3:05.

South Lyon — Rolly Brengle and Gale Whitford, 1:49; Pryce Taulbee, 2:03; Bill Case, 2:05; Bob Williams and Carl Pevey, 2:16; Tom Workman, 2:17; Jim Walker, 2:26; Fred Thomas, 2:39; Dave Comiskey, 2:44; and George Bridson and Andy Ratkovich, 2:48.

"Civilian" times included: Bob Rath, 1:46; Don Schwarck, 2:28; Amy and Karen Schoenberger and Pat Tompkins, 2:29; Jack Hoffman 2:39; and Linda Dyer and Jeff Wallace, 2:48.

"Civilian" walkers from Northville included Mrs. Victor "Sandy" Miller (A Jaycette), Mark Elliott, Chuck Lanning, Harry Sanders, Leo Willis, Maurice Giles and David Anger.

Plan Destruction Of Old City Hall

The city council decided Monday night to advertise for bids for demolition of the old city hall.

Razing of the building must be completed in early spring so that construction of a new city hall-library may get underway in May.

Under terms of the $137,000 federal matching funds grant work must begin soon after the final government contract is received. City Manager Bruce Potthoff reported that the city's only official notice of the grant to date is a telegram from Michigan's two U.S. senators.

While considering the demolition, the council also turned attention to the move into the interim city hall at 122 North Wing. Purchase of the residence has been negotiated and the council approved a loan of $10,000 from the cemetery fund to the general fund so that a $20,000 cash payment may be made for the building.

The city manager was directed to proceed with a plan for providing 24-hour service for fire and police calls at the interim city hall. Such a plan would be used in the new city hall when it will be necessary to have round-the-clock attendants because of the installation of a jail.

The manager has introduced a "cadet" plan as used in Farmington and Livonia for night service at city hall. He estimates that the increase cost for full time service will be less than $4,000 annually, including additional maintenance in the larger facility.

A suggestion by Sydney Frid candidate for council and a regular attendant at council sessions, prompted the council to consider burning the old city hall if practical to do so, it was conceded to be more economical.

In other business Monday night Mayor Allen appointed Councilman Richard Ambler and the city manager to meet with school officials to discuss the possibility of turning over the city's lease on Ford Field to the school district. The school board has indicated an interest in maintaining the use of the field for the junior high school. Under the present lease the Ford Motor company permits free use of the property and in return the city does not levy taxes against that portion of the Ford property.

The session marked the last official council meeting for Councilman Richard Juday. He'll serve as a canvasser of the April 1 vote on Thursday, April 4, but the next council meeting is scheduled for April 8.

He bade his fellow council members "goodbye" and said he "admired those who chose to continue to serve." Juday served one four-year term.

Low Water Table Levels Prompt Special Survey

Northville's lowering water table became a matter for serious discussion Monday night when City Engineer Harold Penn reported that Northville's famous "Old Spring" seems to be drying up.

Several theories were advanced as to the cause of the marked reduction of the spring's flow — along with the belief that warmer weather and rain will correct the problem.

But the fact that a definite dip in the area water level has become suddenly apparent in recent months prompted the council to pursue its investigation.

Penn was instructed two weeks ago to examine the Old Spring when water users complained it "was down to a trickle."

The city engineer reports that "no one definitely knows the source of the spring" but it is believed to be more than 60 years old. One theory is that the line from the South Main street spring extends to the former Silver Springs Bottling company building across the railroad and just northeast from the spring site.

Penn examined a natural artesian well housed within the Silver Springs building and found no sign of water flow. Ice formations near the top of the well indicated it had been flowing normally in recent weeks.

Penn pointed to three reasons for the lower water level: —increased number of wells in the area; —deep gravel pit mingling; —and the fact that frost does not permit water to seep into the ground.

Penn noted that water levels are reported lower throughout the area. The lower level reduces the pressure on the natural flowing wells, he explained.

He said the water level at Thomson Sand and Gravel on West Seven Mile road has dropped between 42 and 48 inches in the past year.

"They're digging some 15 to 20 feet below the bottom of their pits and are not getting enough water to last one day for their gravel washing operation," Penn reported. He said that the gravel firm must now pump water into the pits from southwest of their mines to obtain an adequate water supply.

Normally in gravel pit operations, excavating is done to a clay level and enough water then seeps into the "basin" to perform the washing of the gravel.

He also pointed to the dredging operation at Manning and Locklin pits east of the city between Seven and Eight Mile roads as another contributory cause of the water level lowering.

Penn believes that the extensive expansion of water use is the main cause of the problem. "We're using water faster than it can replenish itself." He pointed to the city's daily use of some 400,000 gallons and noted that its Novi road well is down about one foot. The city of Plymouth pumps daily from Beck road wells between Six and Seven Mile roads. And in the township, in addition to the individual is done at Northville State hospital — where he reported water level lowering — and other area institutions.

It's hard to say if our water source is the same as that of in the Bradner-Five Mile road area where the supply is "almost gone" or not, Penn stated.

While Penn does not consider the condition an emergency in the city, it definitely must be termed a warning. It could give council good reason to look more closely at the possibility of obtaining Detroit water.

Penn was instructed by the council to check geological maps of the area with the hope that such surveys may produce clues as to the cause of the sudden lowering.

Mayor A. M. Allen indicated a strong belief that the gravel pit operations could be causing the lowering.

Councilman Richard Ambler urged prompt investigation. "I'd hate to see us lose the spring," he declared.

Engineer Penn indicated that "it could happen."

Water Relief Hope Seen In Township

Optimism ran high this week that residents of the southeastern section of Northville township would find an answer to their critical water shortage problem.

Two sources of water now seem possible, Township Supervisor George Clark said this week.

He reported that the Plymouth city council had definitely agreed to supply water to the area from a Northville road line west of the water-starved area.

And results of a face-to-face meeting between Detroit water board officials and Supervisor Clark, Township Engineer L. W. Mosher and two township residents of the distressed area proved promising.

Supervisor Clark said that Detroit officials did not "close the door" on the possibility of running a line from a Detroit line at Five Mile and Bradner now serving the Plymouth township area.

This source was generally considered preferable from a cost standpoint and long-range future use by Engineer Mosher. But Clark noted that some question remains as to the supply in the event Livonia and Plymouth township customers currently being supplied by the line would require large quantities.

Residents of the area — actually three subdivisions including the Lakeside-Roberta area and the Portis-Robinwood and Marilyn areas along Five Mile east of Bradner — learned that they would have to pay about $1,200 each to build the system.

This would include lines from the source adequate to bring water to their lot lines, but not plumbing on their own property.

It was indicated that a special assessment district could be created to finance the project, probably payable over a 10-year period.

None of the property owners present at a meeting with the water and sewer commission and engineer raised an objection to the cost.

"This thing is urgent, let's carry the program to the ultimate," one property owner stated.

In another business matter considered by the township water and sewer commission last week Engineer Mosher told the commission that he considered his recommended tap and inspection fees for township sewers to be fair based on costs to Northville township.

He produced charts to show that it would take until the 1980's for the township to reach the break-even point on sewer and water construction and maintenance using his proposed rates.

The rates had been criticized two weeks ago by John Northup, currently constructing the township's first sewer system in Shadbrook subdivision south of West Seven Mile road near Valencia.

He said they were higher than surrounding townships and could restrict building.

Trustees Donald Robinson and R. D. Merriam (GOP nominee for supervisor) both indicated agreement with the engineer that to reduce fees and make up the deficit from general tax funds would be unwise.

Supervisor Clark proposed that the sewer and water commission — composed of Clark, Clerk Marguerite Young and Treasurer A. M. Lawrence — consider the information and take action at a later meeting.

GIRLS ON TOP — Not since 1958 have two girls won top honors at Northville high school. And they're both from Novi. Duna Penn (right) is the valedictorian and Rosemarie Kaminski, the salutatorian, of the 1963 graduating class. Miss Penn, who had a 3.803 grade average out of a possible perfect four-point, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Penn of 45241 Grand River. She will attend Oakland university this fall to major in bio-chemistry. Miss Kaminski, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kaminski of 25250 Seelye road, had an average of 3.636. She plans to enter the pre-medical program at the University of Michigan.

City Ordinances Get Overhauled

Completion of a job that was undertaken nearly five years ago by the Northville city council was realized Monday night in the form of a 339 page book.

It's the complete publication of the city charter and code of ordinances. Under provisions of the city charter it is necessary to revise and update the city's ordinances every 10 years.

The neatly organized book provides for eight new city ordinances, deletes some outdated measures and revises others.

Specifically, it will introduce rules for interpretation and construction of ordinances, and new ordinances dealing with city cemeteries, licenses for businesses, nuisances, swimming pools, bicycle licenses, offenses and minors.

The council noted Monday night in its final approval of the codification that no enforcement of any new ordinances would take place before adequate notice had been given the public.

Among the ordinances to be felt first will be a $5 annual licensing fee for local businesses.

City Manager Bruce Potthoff explained that in the past the city has had no means of controlling improper or fraudulent business operations should they occur. "The licensing fee offers protection for the city local merchants that a high level of merchandising will be maintained," he stated. He noted that such fees are common in other cities.

Another newcomer to the city's book of ordinances is the bicycle licensing fee. Enforcement will probably start June 30, when the ordinances stipulates that licenses expire.

For 25 cents the bicycle will be licensed and inspected. Manager Potthoff noted that the licensing of bicycles gives the city a record of ownership and will assist in identifying the owners of lost or stolen bikes.

This marks the first such codification effort by Northville, which adopted its city charter in December, 1955.

The project was headed by Councilman John Canterbury and required examination of all existing ordinances for possible revision as well as adoption of new ordinances.

Councilmembers had to read and approve all additions and revisions. Working with Canterbury were the city manager and city attorney. Publication of the ordinances in book form was handled by Municipal Publishers Corporation of Detroit.

Books are available for purchase at the city hall.

Spring and Politics

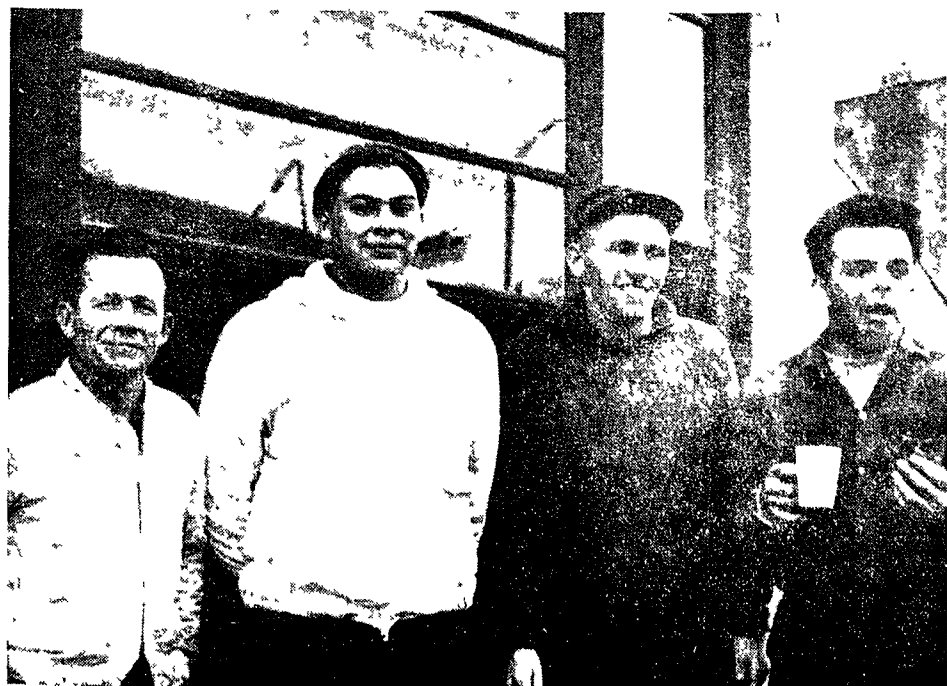

Spring arrived officially today at 3:20 a.m.

But the weatherman apparently forgot.

At any rate, The Record will celebrate the arrival of spring next week — when we hope the temperatures will be more appropriate.

In addition to a special spring edition — with news and advertisements heralding the new season — complete coverage of April 1 election and candidates will also be presented.

The newspaper will be delivered to all area homes.

These Northville Jaycees had best times — (l. to r.) Paul Palmer, Bob Prom, Bob Pratt and Cal St. Clair. Maurice Giles, who says he's too old to be a Jaycee but likes to walk, stayed up with the younger walkers all the way.

GRIMACE OF HAPPINESS? — Beth Ann, sitting on her father's lap, seems to be getting a kick out of her brother, David's antics, while Mr. and Mrs. Harrison remain calm.

Two signs played an important part in bringing a skunk couple and their two children to Northville.

According to Mrs. Robert Harrison of 900 West Main street, "We were just taking a car ride on Sunday afternoon when we spotted the sign 'Northville city limit'. One look and we were interested."

"Later, after we had decided to move from Dearborn township, we were driving down Main street and we noticed a 'for sale' sign. It was in front of what is now our home."

Mrs. Harrison, who is a graduate of Marygrove College, is a former Detroit English teacher.

Mr. Harrison works as a sales supervisor at the Ford Motor company in Rawsonville. He is a graduate of the Detroit Institute of Technology.

You're not likely to find the Harrisons at home on the weekends. They'll be traversing the slopes at Caberfae or Walloon Lake.

Mr. Harrison is no newcomer to the sport. "Bob, my husband, is an excellent skier," said Mrs. Harrison, "he's been skiing for 10 years."

Though not as good as her husband, Mrs. Harrison is competent on the slopes. "I'm relatively new to the sport," she says.

Even their six-year old son, David, gets into the act. "He's just getting started, but he's pretty good," Mrs. Harrison noted.

"Our daughter, Beth Ann — she's four — is a little young yet," she added.

When the snow melts, the Harrisons look forward to another favorite sport, swimming. Then they can all join in the fun — even little Beth Ann.

'Snow White, 7 Dwarfs' Coming to Northville

If you should happen to see a dwarf seemingly skipping gayly to the diamond mines April 4, 5 or 6, don't panic. It's probably just a member of the cast for "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs."

The play, sponsored by the Forensic and Thespian clubs of Northville high school, will be given April 4 and 5 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium and April 6 at 2 p.m.

Snow White will be portrayed by Tina Larson with her Prince Charming being Doug Clark. The wicked queen will be played by Rhonda Atchison and the funny witch by Pam Kay.

Frank Steinburger will play Sir Dandiprat Bombas, the court chamberlain and Dave Lane, the kindly huntsman Berthold. The seven dwarfs are Bob Steeper, Doc, Bob Fisher, Grumpy; Dawn McCollum, Sneezy; Chuck Collins, Dopey; Kathy Beckel, Happy; Jack Britton, Bashful and Jean Downer, Sleepy.

Mads of honor are played by Bonneye Bradford, Ginger Cheeseman, Nancy Christenson.

Mrs. Charles Ware MA 4-1600

On Tuesday evening, five churches of Walled Lake area are sponsoring a banquet at St. Williams parish hall. Churches participating are the First Baptist, St. Anne's Episcopal, Walled Lake Methodist, Crossroads Presbyterian and St. Williams Catholic. Purpose of the banquet is to create a greater understanding and a spirit of genuine brotherhood among the respective churches in the Walled Lake area. Banquet is for men only and price is $1.50. For further information, contact Harold Bulgarr (MA 4-4505).

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tuck honored their son Bob at a birthday dinner last Friday.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hilgard Posey and son and Miss Carol Woolby from West Acres. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stadnik were hosts to the bowling league Saturday evening. The league bowled at Milford lanes and 24 members returned to the Stadnik home.

There will be a miscellaneous wedding shower for Miss Judy York at the home of Mrs. Charles Procter March 28 at 1.30 p.m. Miss York expects to be married in April and her husband-to-be is going to make the Navy a career.

The Charles Ware family attended the annual St. Patrick's day dance at Cobo hall on Saturday night.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ware drove to Detroit to participate and watch the St. Patrick's day parade which lasted two hours. There were 30 bands and 15 floats in the parade, including four from Canada.

The William Whitney family have moved from Pontiac Trail to Brighton where they have purchased a home.

Men's Club to Hear Secret Service Man

Ronald Towns, a representative of the U.S. Secret Service, will be guest speaker at 6.30 meeting today at the Presbyterian Men's club in fellowship hall.

Towns will discuss Secret Service protection of the President and control of U.S. currency.

Mothers Club to Hear 'Pitch for Decency'

Northville Mothers club will present a program entitled "Pitch for Decency" Monday in the home of Mrs. Robert Bogart, 46638 West Main.

Speaker of the evening will be Mrs. R. G. Johnson of Grosse Pointe. Mrs. Johnston, who is the president of the Grosse Pointe council of better literature for youth, is also a mother, homemaker and business woman.

Mrs. Johnson notes that in February 1957, Michigan found itself at the mercy of smut peddlers because the State Supreme Court had voided that part of the penal code which banned sale of obscene literature as unconstitutional. As a result, all magazines and pamphlets of this type came flooding across the Ohio border and from abroad. Police were helpless until a new law was signed by the governor.

Seven months later, Reverend Rahn of Detroit Council of Churches stated he was confident that citizens' action for better literature could be effective and lift standards of good reading in a community — thus reducing the sale of questionable periodicals.

Thus Grosse Pointe Mothers started the council which Mrs. Johnson now heads.

All the druggists and 28 newsstands in Grosse Pointe are now voluntarily cooperating with the council to better serve youth by helping to curb delinquency through education and great books.

OLV Men Plan Night at Cinerama

Our Lady of Victory Men's club is sponsoring a special night at the Cinerama production of "How the West was Won" at Cinerama Music hall in Detroit.

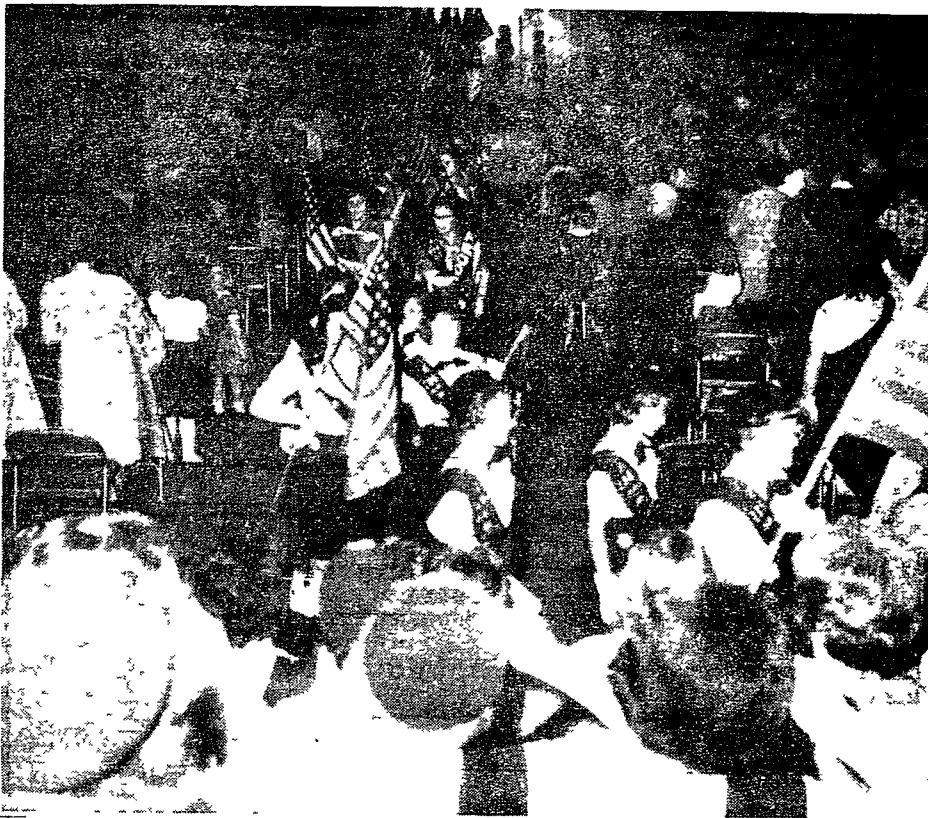

The club has bought out all 1200 tickets for the 4.45 p.m. performance on Sunday, April 21, and is hoping to fill the theatre with Northville-Novato area families.

Proceeds from the project will be used to build a carport at the Our Lady of Victory convent.

Ticket reservations may be made by contacting Bernhard Bach, FI 9-2365. Balcony tickets cost $2 and main floor, $3. The production features some 24 leading movie stars and is excellent family entertainment. Bach noted.

Wikler Shoe by Buster Brown

NO DEFORMING PRESSURES IN THE Wikler® SHOE BY BUSTER BROWN

The Buster Brown shoe fitting expert will be in this store to help fit your child.

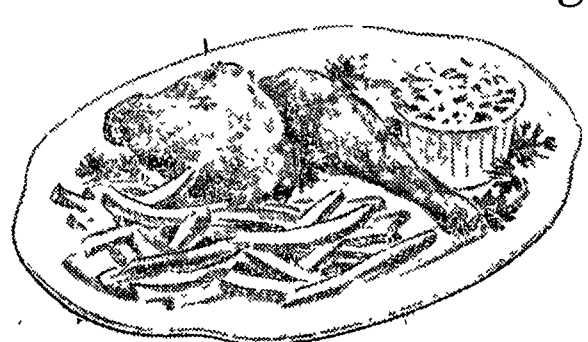

One of the principle causes of deformity in children's feet is the limited toe area of conventional baby shoes. The X-rays above show a conventional children's shoe and the Wikler Shoe by Buster Brown. Notice that in the Wikler Shoe the child's foot may grow to the end of the shoe without encountering any deforming pressures. There is also extra width which allows for the vital muscle building, toe spreading action. Plan to stop in today and give your child's feet a future... let us fit them in a pair of Wikler Shoes by Buster Brown.

Let's Help Oscar Win High Post

To the Editor:

As most Northville area residents are aware, C. Oscar Hammond of Northville is a candidate for the position of state commander of the American Legion.

This is the first time that we in Northville have ever had a candidate for this high position and we are fortunate in having as a candidate a man such as Oscar.

He has been an American Legion member for over 40 years and has, during these years, served in many official capacities, including that of Post, District and Zone Commander, State Department Vice Commander and on several committees under the National American Legion organization.

In conducting this campaign, Oscar has to attend numerous Zone and Regional conferences, as well as the Annual State Convention. These trips cost money and since Oscar is far from being a wealthy man, a number of his close friends in the American Legion are undertaking to raise a fund to cover these expenses.

There has been established a "Hammond for Commander" fund and contributions to this fund are earnestly solicited from all parties who would like to assist us in this campaign. These donations should be sent to the above fund and made care of Mr. S. B. Stevens, 52475 West 9 Mile road, Northville, Michigan.

Minutes of Northville Board of Education

I. The meeting was called to order by President William B. Crump at 7:30 p.m.

Present: Mr. Crump, Mr. Wilfred C. Becker, Mr. Robert H. Shafer, Mr. Edward F. Angove, Dr. Waldo T. Johnson. Mr. James F. Kipper was detained and arrived just at the end of the meeting. Absent: Mr. Donald B. Lawrence.

Others present: Supt. R. H. Amerman; Asst. Supt. K. M. MacLeod; Director of Administration Services E. V. Ellison; Principal F. Stefanski, D. Van Ingan H. B. Smith and R. Spear; Mr. James E. Little, School Attorney; Mr. Robert Prom, elementary teacher; Mrs. Robert Yoder of Northville Mothers' Club.

II. The minutes of the regular February meeting and of a special meeting held on February 25th were read by the secretary and, there being no corrections or additions, both sets of minutes were approved as read.

III. Communications:

1. Northville Teachers' Club, expressing appreciation for dinner meeting with the school board.

2. Michigan Association of School Boards, enclosing copy of Transportation Bill introduced into legislature.

3. Mrs. E. A. Chapman, high school teacher, announcing her resignation from the faculty, effective at the end of this school year.

4. Mr. Keith Kraus, high school teacher, announcing his resignation from the faculty, effective at the end of this school year.

5. R. Spear, Principal of Amerman Elementary School, expressing appreciation to the Board for structural improvements made in his office.

6. F. Stefanski, Principal of Northville high school, advising that Senior student Duna Penn has earned the distinction of being Valedictorian of the 1963 graduating class. Rosemarie Kaminski will be Salutatorian.

7. University of Michigan Bureau of School Services, announcing its 15th Annual Conference for School Board members and School Officials on Thursday, April 4, 1963.

IV. Reports of Superintendent:

1. Finances: Mr. Amerman and Mr. Ellison gave a review of anticipated revenues and disbursements for the remainder of the school year, and an estimate that we will probably "break even" on June 30.

2. Policy on T. B. Examinations: Mr. Amerman advised the Board that the T.B. and Health Society has supplied him with a model statement of policy requiring all employees to have regular T.B. examinations.

It was moved by Mr. Shafer, supported by Mr. Becker, that this policy statement be adopted in substance, with whatever minor alterations Mr. Amerman may feel necessary. Motion carried.

3. Teaching Vacancies: Dr. MacLeod reported that 12 teachers now with us will not be returning in September. He is estimating a need for 2 additional teachers in the high school and 2 in the elementary schools. All these figures are based on estimates only and are, of course, subject to change.

4. Summer program: Mr. Prom, teacher in the Main Street Elementary school, requested the Board's cooperation and approval of a summer enrichment teaching program which he wishes to undertake this year. Mr. Prom would like to operate two classes of approximately 20 children each, for a six-week period, each class to meet for 3 hours every day, on a voluntary basis and with a flexible curriculum designed for enrichment. Mr. Prom would like the use of the school facilities to house this class.

The board expressed great interest in this proposed program and granted permission to Mr. Prom to use the school facilities. A suitable rental fee will be decided upon by the administration.

5. Chapman School: Mr. Amerman requested an opinion from the Board regarding the ultimate disposition of the Chapman School. He is receiving numerous inquiries from people who are interested in buying the building.

Dr. Johnson has investigated the deed and abstract on this property and finds that these documents are quite specific in stating that the Chapman School building and property must revert to the last deed-holder of the surrounding property, or his heirs, whenever it ceases to be used by the school district.

The building is currently being used by the school for storage purposes and the board indicated it does not wish to release the building as long as it is of use to us, which it is at present. Mr. Amerman was instructed to so advise any interested persons.

6. Transportation Bill: Mr. Amerman and Mr. Ellison elaborated on the implications of State Senate Bill No. 1144, should it be passed. Mr. Ellison has estimated that present enrollment of non-public school children in our present bus route area would require 2 additional buses.

7. Office Space: Mr. Amerman had nothing new to report on this, except that he and Mr. Ellison and Dr. MacLeod have inspected both the Littell and the Schrader house and he is still waiting until Mr. Schrader is available to discuss possible terms. Perhaps there will be something more definite to report at the next board meeting.

8. Teacher Resignations: It was moved by Mr. Becker, supported by Mr. Shafer, that the resignations of Mrs. Chapman and Mr. Kraus be accepted. Motion carried.

V. Report of Secretary:

Mr. Becker reported the following moneys received in February: 1962 Taxes, $112,102.74; Delinquent Taxes, $1,135.68; Interest on Taxes, $100.81; Adult Education Fees, $120; State Aid, $49,966; Miscellaneous $512.51.

VI. Report of Treasurer:

Dr. Johnson reported the following balances in the school accounts at February 28, 1963:

	Cash	Savings	Total
General Fund	$176,373.59		$176,373.59
1936 Debt Fund	1,590.00		1,590.00

1957 Debt Fund—Series C	3,519.63	25,438.27	28,957.90

Stadium Operation Fund	270.01		270.01
Stadium Replacement Fund	200.00		200.00
Cafeteria Account	8,415.75		8,415.75
Internal Accounting Fund	196.55		196.55
TOTALS:	$224,037.37	$136,300.03	$360,337.40

It was moved by Mr. Shafer that the report of the Treasurer be accepted as given. Mr. Becker seconded the motion, which was carried.

VII. Report of Special Committees:

1. Athletic Policy Committee: The board commented on the proposed policy presented to them for study at the last meeting, and the consensus was that some repetition could be eliminated. Comment was otherwise favorable. The Committee will review the policy again with a view toward condensing it somewhat.

VIII. Report of Auditing Committee:

The Auditing Committee approved bills and payrolls for payment as follows: General Fund Bills, $8,931.58; Debt Retirement Payment, $16,268.12; Cafeteria Bills $6,276.40; Payrolls $70,423.91.

It was moved by Mr. Shafer that the report of the Auditing Committee be accepted and bills and payrolls be paid. Mr. Becker supported the motion, which was carried.

IX. Unfinished Business:

1. Tabled Motion: The motion made and tabled at the last meeting, regarding the establishment of a 6-3-3 program of instruction, was discussed again, but no action taken.

X. Adjournment:

It was moved by Dr. Johnson that the meeting be adjourned, there being no further business at this time. Mr. Angove supported the motion which was carried. Meeting adjourned at 10:00 p.m.

LET'S TALK CARS . . .

Some Old Cars Never Die

Next time I hear a driver complaining that his car has depreciated in value I have a true story to tell him.

Back in 1898 an outfit named the Winton Horseless Carriage Company made a two passenger car, by hand of course, that sold for $310 against the stiff sales resistance, of the times. The first owner kept it until 1907 when he sold it to a dealer, who finally resold it, after much haggling, for $175.

You can imagine the reluctance of the third buyer seven years later when he inquired if the asking price of $40 included a horse! Well, the poor old car really depreciated right clean through the bottom of the market in 1925 — 27 years after it was made — when its owner had to PAY a junk dealer $15 to haul away what was left of it.

Now comes the cheerful part. For 13 years it lay in the junkyard gathering dust, until one day an antique car collector bought it for $5. Just to show you what good care and reconditioning can do (as we've always said) this fellow worked on it replacing some parts and repairing others, for about ten years.

In 1948, on its fiftieth birthday, he had an antique auto that was winning prizes in competitions. He turned down $5,000 for it once, but finally sold it in 1953 for around $9,000. That owner has it still.

We haven't any 50-year-old Winton Horseless Carriages (I just ran out and checked) but we have some fine young toddlers of two and three years with a great future ahead of them.

Cage Season Recap Shows Mustangs Outscored All Foes

Even though the Mustangs did not outclass all of their rivals during the past basketball season, they still had the potential to upset any team they met.

The statistics bear out this contention. Overall, Northville scored 904 points, 33 more than its opponents. The Mustangs thus averaged 50.2 points per game as against a 48.1 average for the opposition.

Turning back the sports calendar, the (10-8) record shows the Mustangs to be an erratic team, capable of beating the best in the league.

Clarkston (52-45) — The Mustangs were plagued by first-game misuses which gave the edge to Clarkston.

Bloomfield Hills (53-48) — The second quarter made the difference as Bloomfield Hills hit on 80 percent of its shots.

Plymouth (55-55) — The Mustang offense clicked in the last half to break a tie at intermission.

West Bloomfield (60-45) —

A letdown by the local cagers and the opponents' fast break broke the game open.

Clarenceville (58-71) — Northville found the range against a weak Clarenceville team.

Holly (64-44) — In contention mid-way through the third period, the Mustangs collapsed as Holly won going away.

Milford (49-54) — A 15-point third quarter lead was too much for Milford to overcome.

Brighton (24-38) — In a game marred by errors, the Mustangs made the better show.

Clarkston (43-58) — Northville played its smoothest game of the year as it ran by a good Clarkston team.

Bloomfield Hills (57-53) — Down by 18 points at the end of the third period, Northville almost pulled it out.

West Bloomfield (37-46) — The Mustangs could do little wrong as they beat the state's 4th-ranked class B outfit.

Holly (39-31) — Northville couldn't cope with Holly's tight zone defense and scrapping tactics.

Clarenceville (37-51) — Northville played hard enough to win over cellar opposition.

Milford (52-56) — Erratic basketball wiped out chances for a bigger margin.

Brighton (49-44) — There was no denying determined Brighton as the local cagers dropped their final regular season game.

Howell (42-46) — The Mustangs barely beat a poor Howell team in the first game of the district tourney here.

South Lyon (46-48) — In a cliff hanger, the local cagers protected a small margin to win.

Fenton (54-52) — Northville played its finest game of the year, but lost the contest and the district crown in the last seconds.

Men in Uniform

Grafenwohr, Germany — Army Specialist Four William T. Scherkey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Breen, who live at 41063 Majort drive, Novi recently took part in his unit's phase of annual winter training with other members of the 4th Armored Division at Grafenwohr, Germany.

The training tested the unit's combat readiness and included problems in night fighting, communications, nuclear and special warfare.

Specialist Scherkey, a military policeman in the division's 404th Military Police Company in Goeppingen, Germany, entered the Army in June 1960, completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky., and arrived overseas in October 1960.

The 21-year-old soldier is a 1960 graduate of Northville High School and was employed by R & D Tool & Die before entering the Army.

San Diego, Calif. — John D. Templeton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Templeton of 21875 Novi road, Northville is undergoing nine weeks of basic recruit training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, California, with graduation slated for March 15.

The indoctrination to Navy life consists of physical fitness drills, military drills, seamanship, basic military law, customs and etiquette of the naval service, swimming and survival and first aid.

During the training, recruits receive tests and interviews which determine future training and assignments in the Navy.

Fenton, the district winner here, lost 54-52, to Marysville in the regional finals at Clarkston last Saturday.

One conclusion seems fair. Since Fenton defeated Northville by two points here and since Marysville defeated Fenton by two points to win the regional crown, Northville wasn't such a bad team.

Mustang Mentor Dave Longridge summed up. "I firmly believe that determination and spirit are most important to a winning season and a good team. This year, we had our let downs. Then we would come back with a good game because we fought to win."

Bell Wins W-O Post

Northville placed a single player on the Detroit News Wayne-Oakland league basketball team.

Senior Craig Bell, the Mustangs' hard-driving guard, joined Jack Bennett of Holly, Dan Craven of Clarkston, Bill Calhoun of Bloomfield Hills and Dan Greig of West Bloomfield on the starting five.

Bell, who was married near mid-season, played in approximately half of the games.

FREE THROWS PAY OFF — Games are often won or lost by the smallest margins and free throws may make the difference. Coach Dave Longridge (left) presents a trophy to Tom Swiss for his accuracy at the foul line (78.9 percent). Swiss' game average topped players on all high school teams — freshman, JV and varsity. His name will also be inscribed on this plaque in the show case. The trophy and plaque were donated this year by a local citizen.

UNIFORMED REUNION — The first time army recruiter sergeant Michael O'Brien saw these three Novi men, they were together. They still are. Only one thing has changed in three months — they're wearing the army green. It's all part of the buddy system. Within a few days (l. to r.) Robert James, Eugene Martin and Lester Reckow will be on their way to Fort Knox, Kentucky, where they'll be going to school.

JUST LIKE OLD MAN RIVER

If you want a truck that does its work without yelling for attention all the time, buy a "new reliable" Chevrolet.

You have to take care of it; it's a machine. But this isn't a full-time activity. The clear idea is that the truck works for you, not vice versa.

The way to build such a truck is to put more quality into it. For example, Chevrolet doesn't build one type of suspension system for all sizes of trucks. Chevrolet designs suspension systems to fit your need. The light-duty type is strong on comfort. Another kind for heavier trucks stiffens up as you increase your load and vice versa. Make sense? Conventional pickups have double-wall construction in cabs, doors, lower side panels. Roofs are insulated. Body floors are select wood, not metal. Tailgate chains are wrapped in rubber. If you'd like to examine or drive a new '63 Chevrolet truck, just call us. We'll be right over.

Nine members of the Northville Presbyterian Men's club attended the 12th annual convention of the National Council of Presbyterian Men at the Palmer House in Chicago last weekend.

Some 7,000 members were scheduled to meet in sessions in New York, San Francisco and Chicago.

Local Team Loses Debate

The Northville high school debate team lost a 2-1 decision to Royal Oak Kimball high school here Tuesday in the semi-finals of the Michigan high school forensic competition.

Royal Oak thus earned a trip to the finals of the large school division, which will be held April 20 at the University of Michigan Rackham auditorium.

The Northville team — comprised of Duna Penn and Ann Hembrey — debated the national high school topic, "Resolved: That the United States Should Join in Forming a Common Market of the Western Hemisphere."

This marked the second time in eight years that the local debaters have competed in the semi-finals.

Miss Florence Panattoni is the debate coach.

Games Add Up to Better Reading, Spelling

The wheels of learning are turning in Novi these days.

Rotating the wheels — or small, cardboard teaching devices — are a group of youngsters in grades five through eight.

Meanwhile, other youngsters are playing "card games" something like the good old standby, Showdown. Others are taking test upon test to find out if they're "a purple," "an aqua" or "a gold."

It's all part of Novi school's "big push" to improve reading and spelling skills at the elementary and junior high levels.

Reading is "the most important skill taught" since "most of the other things a student learns involve reading," declares Novi Principal Sam Stewart.

Moreover, Stewart maintains, reading is becoming "increasingly important" because of the "fantastic" multiplication in reading matter.

"Let's imagine we could put all the knowledge recorded from the beginning of time to the present into two equal stacks," he said. "The books and pamphlets recorded from the beginning of time to 1957 would be equal in size to those written from 1957 to 1963."

"And the two stacks together will equal the stack produced in the next three years," he predicted.

Is it any wonder that we teachers consider it "a great challenge" to develop people who are able to read, Stewart queried.

To meet this challenge, Novi school is now in the process of adding a supplementary reading and spelling program for all youngsters beyond the third grade. One facet of this program is individualized learning kits.

With funds supplied by the Novi Mothers club, the school has bought several such kits produced by Scientific Research associates.

The approach SRA — and Novi school — takes is that a child must proceed at his own rate.

Stewart echos this idea when he explains that for effective learning to take place, the approach has to be individualized.

"Children are on different levels," he says. "If we can find the level, we can help each child improve."

"The interesting thing is that on the school playground, differences in physical characteristics and athletic ability are recognized," Stewart observed. "In the classroom, we sometimes forget there is a difference in reading ability."

"Somehow, we seem to believe that third graders learn this, fourth graders that — period," Stewart said.

Thus, Novi teachers began introducing the kits — including word attack games, reading brochures and spelling improvement wheels — to classes by reminding youngsters of differences.

Next, each youngster was tested to determine his reading level — be it represented by purple, aqua, gold or any other one of a rainbow of colors.

Then, the youngsters began settling down to master the tools or basic skills which enable one to read. One skill being stressed by teachers is that of analysis: i.e., asking such questions while reading as could this story be true or have I ever seen anything like this.

Each youngster is given increasingly difficult materials to work with at his level and keeps charts showing his progress.

No matter which part of the kit a child is working with, "he's allowed to see his mistakes immediately," Stewart explained. "His reaction usually is — 'Yah, I missed it and I see why. And he learns.'"

The children's feelings about the program? Most are enthusiastic and interested, Stewart reports. "A seventh grader with a high interest level and a low reading ability doesn't want to read the fourth grade tale of Cowboy Sam," he says, "and now the seventh grader doesn't have to."

Instead, Stewart says, this seventh grader can enjoy, courtesy of SRA, reading about the world of space, but at a level he can understand.

Or, our seventh grader can learn about vowel sounds by playing a word attack game, something like Showdown, with another youngster. In the game, a group of words such as apple, elephant, Indian, ox and umbrella are shown on an envelope cover.

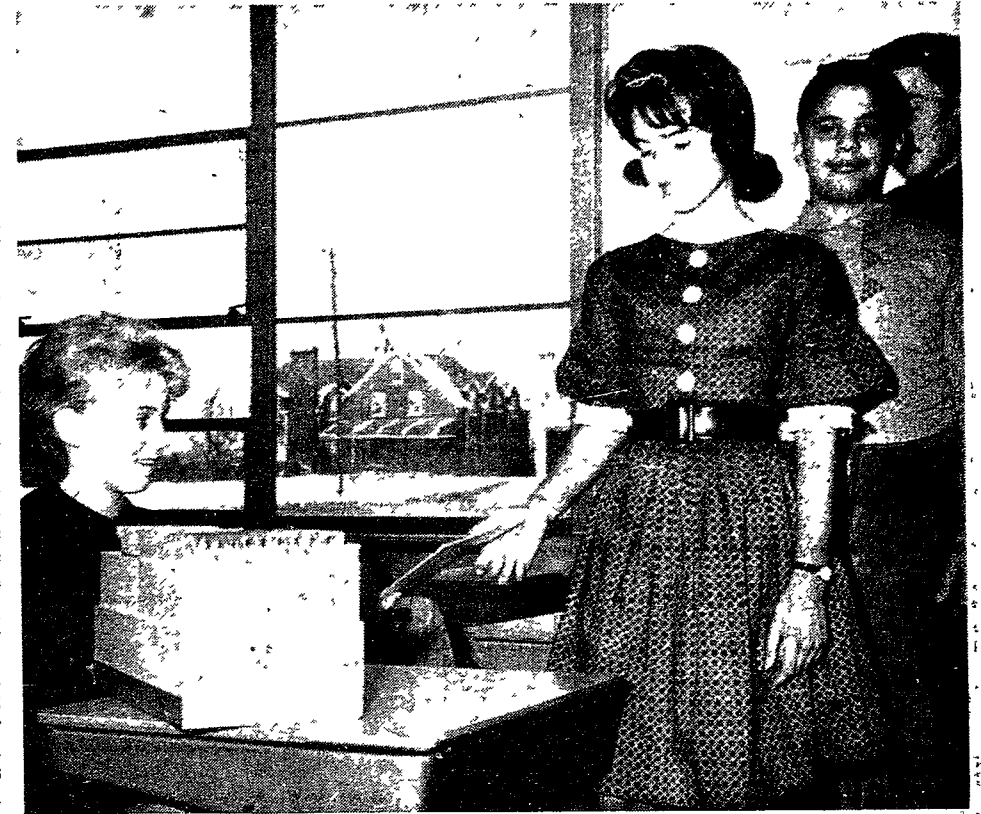

One youngster picks a word card out of the envelope and matches the sound in that word with the appropriate word on the envelope. For example, the youngster might draw the word leg which he would then match with the word elephant, saying the short "e" sound found in both words.

His opponent takes another, matches it. Should his opponent draw a card with a similar sound as his, mimic the sound correctly — his opponent gets his cards. And so on until all the cards in the envelope have been played and the youngster with the most on his side can claim himself victor.

"The program's something extra for the student and a way of preparing him to select the materials he needs for answering his questions," Stewart says. "It's also a way of preparing him to eventually absorb just a few of the 40,000 new books that pour into the Library of Congress each week."

Fifth grader Joe Morrison studying one of the reading brochures from Novi school's individualized reading kits.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
LANSING, MICHIGAN

REPORT from LANSING

By PAUL CHANDLER

State Representative, 21st District

LANSING — Because the current session of the Legislature is to be a short one, the absolute, final deadline for bills to be released from committee is this week, Wednesday.

Every committee in the House has a portfolio jammed with bills, about 90 percent of which never will reach the light of legislative day. In some cases, they are bills which the committee happens to have judged as unnecessary or harmful; but in others, there just isn't enough time to make a judgement, one way or another.

Nonetheless, there are serious matters which will reach the floor, and today I wonder if the reader would want to put himself in my place, deciding how he would vote if confronted by the same questions.

If you're of a mood to mark your own choices, sign your name, and mail the clipping to me in Lansing, it would help guide my own decisions.

CIVIL RIGHTS

1. H.B. 1 would outlaw discrimination based on race, color, religion or national origin. How would you vote? Yes —; No —.

TAXATION

2. H.B. 13 would prohibit cities from levying an income tax either on their own citizens or non-residents. How would you vote? Yes —; No —.

ELECTIONS

3. H.B. 16 would change the date of the bi-annual primary election from the first Tuesday after the first Monday in August to the second Tuesday in September. How would you vote? Yes —; No —.

WATER FLUORIDATION

4. H.B. 53 would require a vote of the people to authorize water fluoridation in a community water system, with petitions from 20 percent of the voters required to start the election. How would you vote? Yes —; No —.

GOVERNOR'S RESIDENCE
5. H.B. 90 would provide for the construction of an official residence for the governor. Michigan presently has no official residence in the state capitol. How would you vote? Yes —; No —.

DELTA COLLEGE
6. H.B. 117 would create a four-year college near Saginaw and Bay City. This bill is in response to requests in that area to affiliate a present two-year community college with the U. of M. This bill would create a separate four-year institution, rather than granting affiliation with the U. of M. How would you vote? Yes —; No —.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS
7. H.B. 197 would provide that one presidential elector be elected from each congressional district, and two at large, rather than having all elected at-large. This would prevent all of Michigan's electoral votes in the "college" from going in a block to the same presidential college. How would you vote? Yes —; No —.

SALES TAX

8. H.B. 202 would reduce the sales tax to 3 percent from the current 4 percent level, and would exempt foodstuffs and prescription drugs from sales tax. How would you vote? Yes —; No —.

VOTING REGISTRATION

9. H.B. 219 would require clerks to remove inactive voter registrations every two years, instead of every four years. This bill is designed to prevent the possibility of "phantom voters" and it would require each citizen to vote at least once every two years to keep his registration active. How would you vote? Yes —; No —.

GLASS CONTAINERS

10. As a measure to remove public litter, H.B. 270 would prohibit the use of no-deposit, no-return glass bottles by breweries. How would you vote? Yes —; No —.

CIGARETTE ADVERTISING

11. H.B. 385 would prohibit radio and television advertising by cigarette manufacturers. How would you vote? Yes —; No —.

BLUE LAWS

12. H.B. 567 would repeal the law prohibiting sales and business activities on Sunday. How would you vote? Yes —; No —.

SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

13. H.B. 800 would require children to attend school until 18, or until they reach 18, they graduate from high school whichever comes first. Yes —; No —.

A Bible lesson on the subject of "Matter" will be read

Among the many Scriptural selections, will be this citation from II Corinthians (5:8): "We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord."

Other passages will bring out the Christian Science teaching that all matter is a "graven image," a temporary, limited, delusive sense of things that must finally give way before the consciousness of ultimate, spiritual reality created by God. Included is this sentence from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (p. 14):
"Become conscious for a single moment that Life and intelligence are purely spiritual, — neither in nor of matter, — and the body will then utter no complaints."

Wins New Appointment

Vincent A. Miklas has been named sales manager of Rapistan-Keystone, Inc., according to Lloyd G. Backart, president of the firm. A subsidiary of The Rapids-Standard company, Inc. of Grand Rapids, Rapistan-Keystone manufactures overhead conveying equipment at 21750 West Eight Mile road. Miklas was manager in charge of sales development before receiving his new appointment and has been associated with Rapistan-Keystone for the past three years. Previously he served as manager of the Master Electric company's Detroit and Eastern Michigan district. A native of Manistee, Miklas attended the Michigan College of Mining and Technology in Houghton. He resides with his wife and four children at 23971 West Le-Bost drive in Novi.

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO

March 22, 1962
—Residents of the East-High-Elm and Walnut streets reversed last week's opposition to the 25 percent assessment plan for paving of their streets and petitioned the city council Monday night to proceed with the paving. The first public hearing on the new proposal was set for Monday, April 2.

—Ten bids ranging from $15,131 to $25,795 were submitted to the Northville city council Monday night for paving of North Center street from the Eight Mile cut-off to South Ely drive. City engineer Harold Penn, who had estimated that the job would cost $20,305, and City Manager Bruce Potthoff were instructed by the council to examine the bids and to check the qualifications of the bidding firms. They will recommend a contractor at the next meeting, April 2.

—A new water bill policy presented to the Northville city council by Bruce Potthoff Monday evening, is designed to tighten the city's operation of the water department. To eliminate the large number of delinquent bills, the department took its first step by dividing the city into three water routes: 1-all customers south of Main street; 2-all customers north of Baseline road; and 3-all customers north of Baseline road not in route 2.

—The Northville Mustangs advanced to the quarter finals at Flint by virtue of their wins last weekend over Marysville 56-49 and Clarkston 78-47 in the regionals.

—The Novi school board last week voted to borrow $70,000 in anticipation of next year's property tax revenues to insure it has an adequate bank balance to meet operating expenses.

—Mrs. A. J. Heslip, a Novi mother of nine children, has been named as one of the finalists in a contest to select the "Mother of the Year" in Michigan. She was selected one of the 24 "merit mothers" out of 300 Michigan mothers nominated for the state title.

FIVE YEARS AGO

March 20, 1958
—A senate bill that would have eliminated Northville's tax take from Northville Downs was tabled by the house affairs committee.

—Novi township approved village status Monday by a slim 67 votes. Elected to the village charter commission were Walter Tuck, Harry Watson, Russell Burton, Dieron Taffarian and either Dirk Groeneweg or J. Phillip Anderson, who tied for the fifth seat. The tie will be resolved today by drawing from a hat.

—The Northville city council revoked an ordinance that prohibited all night parking on city streets last Monday. Residents of the area should expect a substitute plan to be instituted by next winter.

—The Northville school board Monday night authorized Superintendent Russell Amerman to invest some $1,850,000 money for Northville's proposed new high school through Manufacturer's National Bank to yield a profit until the money is needed.

—National Library Week will be observed at an open house at the Northville public library this afternoon and evening. Junior Chamber of Commerce members will be hosts.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

March 19, 1948
—Patricia Johnston was chosen valedictorian of the Northville high school senior class of 1948 and Edward Lanning is the new salutatorian.

—The basketball team members of Northville high school will be the guests of the Rotary club next Tuesday. They will be feted with a dinner, after which the Ford Motor company's film of Northville, "It's Our Team", will be shown.

—The celebration of Holy Week and Easter will begin with Palm Sunday, March 21.

—At a recent meeting of the board of deacons of the Presbyterian church of Northville, Howard W. McKeague was elected president of the board.

—A large group of Brownie and Girl Scouts attended the 11 p.m. service of the Presbyterian church last Sunday in observance of the 36th birthday of the Girl Scouts of America.

March 23, 1938
—The circuit court issued an order Friday to the Northville village council to set aside $45,000 for the payment of tax refunds to tax paying residents on the paving assessments levied excessively in 1927 and 28. A petition was filed last summer by residents of Dunlap street, which initiated the suit. The commission has asked the public debt commission for permission to issue bonds ($130,550) to refund the outstanding special assessment street improvement bonds — $124,550 are in default.

—Ernie Shave, who has been assistant to Al Watrous at Oakland Hills for the past two years, has been named to succeed Frank Spregell as Meadowbrook Country club's golf pro.

—The Michigan Stream Control commission warned Northville and Plymouth that the pollution of the middle Rouge River must be corrected within 60 days. They are either to improve their sewage treatment plants or abandon them. In the latter case, both would use facilities provided by the Wayne county board of supervisors.

—Northville's post office ranked ninth among 110 second class post offices in Michigan in the sale of United States savings bonds it was announced this week.

ACCESS CODE "1"
STARTS APRIL 7
FOR LONG DISTANCE DIALING

To prevent accidental misdialing of long distance calls, customers in Northville and Novi served by the Fieldbrook (34) exchange will begin dialing the numeral "1" to be connected with the long distance dialing network starting at 12:01 a.m. April 7.

Without such a safeguard, customers intending to dial a local call sometimes dial a long distance number unknowingly, find they have reached a wrong number, and then are perplexed when a long distance charge shows up on their bill.

After dialing "1", customers will dial the distant phone number exactly as they presently do. Local calls, however, will continue to be made as they are now, just by dialing the telephone number. Page 2 of the new directory (April, 1963) will explain the new procedure.

HOW MANY HATS does your telephone wear? As many as you desire! Your telephone helps you to arrange things, buy things, ask things, discuss things . . . and to do many other jobs in the course of a lifetime. It's hard to imagine what life would be like without a telephone. And it's still one of the biggest bargains in your family budget. Use it often.

Councilman Canterbury Answers Criticism

Dear Editor:

I guess it is only human to resent and feel badly about being attacked rather viciously in a letter to the newspaper. But despite the grossly misleading nature of the letter, I was rather inclined to let the matter drop. After all, it is somewhat understandable that the writer of the previous letter apparently is most anxious to have his man elected Mayor and his two candidates elected to the Council. From his point of view this would be a nice set-up — complete control of the city with authority over decisions made at times and places of his choosing, but without responsibility for the results — and I am not saying all of the results would be bad. I know that by reputation this man has a long record of having done many good things for the community and does many favors and acts of kindness for many of the citizens.

In fact, I was told not by one, but by a number of people, at the time I first ran for office that this was a foolish thing to do unless I first got clearance and backing from Northville's political boss. I did not ask for this kind of clearance, and I still refuse to do so. And I am not the servant of, or committed to, any individual or group. If I am allowed to serve the people, I want to be free at all times to make up my own mind as to what is fairest and best for all of our citizens irrespective of party, religion, where they live, where they work, how much money they make, etc.

With respect to a hospital in Northville, I would like to set the record straight. I and all members of the Northville City Council voted in favor of joining a Community Hospital Authority, but, despite the hard work for this by Mayor Allen, it did not come to pass. I as well as other members of the council publicly and privately favored a hospital in Northville, but I, and I believe the other members of the Council, did not favor buying a "pig in a poke". It is too bad that the still unidentified, mysterious Mr. "X" did not let the council know he didn't like our letter. His representative seemed to agree with the entire Council that our letter on the subject was a most sensible approach. In fact, the first time I even heard any objection to the council's unanimously approved letter regarding the hospital is when I read it in the attack against me in the recent letter to the Editor.

If I have to depend on favors or the backing of one special interest or group against another, I know I'm whipped before the polls open. My record is clear on every issue — I do not duck or dodge, I hope that there may be some talk. By facing up squarely to every issue I not only do not favor any special group, but at one time or another I have probably at least temporarily or partially offended or gone against the personal wishes of most every group in town. But I have great faith in the wisdom and real good citizenship of most all of our citizens. I think most people are above name calling, selfish interest and pettiness. They really are for fairness, equity, good government and what is best for our whole town.

To my gifted letter writing adversary — I hold no malice. In fact, I am glad it's your personal candidates that I am running against and not you. You have a multitude of friends and you deserve them. But I am hoping that many of your friends will choose to vote for me on April 1. My name is on the ballot.

And after election — win or lose, I hope that there may be occasions when both you and I can work together in harmony on civic projects which benefit our fellow citizens.

Sincerely,
John S. Canterbury

Remember to Vote

To the Editor:

On April 1 Northville city voters will be asked to elect a mayor and two councilmen.

As most voters know, there are two candidates for mayor and eight for council. As a former candidate and one interested in good government for our community, I urge all citizens to become acquainted with the candidates and then, most important, remember to vote.

Our town can be only as good as we, the voters, make it.

Yours truly,
Paul F. Folino

He also explained that there is a chance of Northville's present status in the toll bracket being changed. He will know more about this in April or May of 1963.

Moved by Ambler, supported by Allen that a Public Hearing be designated for Monday, March 4, 1963, 8:00 p.m., at the city hall to consider re-zoning of Lots 247 and 211b from R-3 to C-2. (119 W. Cady St.)

Unanimously carried.

Moved by Ambler, supported by Canterbury that the 15-minute parking on East Main street (south side) be extended 2 meters east of loading zone by Gussell Drugstore.

Unanimously carried.

The city manager reported that the Planning Commission recommended that the property for sale on Pennell street by Wayne County should not be sold pending solution of the north-south highway for this area. The city manager was instructed to send a letter to Wayne county regarding the above recommendation.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 9:25 p.m.

Likes Heslip's School Stand

To the Editor:

What will happen next in Novi? Why all of a sudden this quick action by the school board, giving only two weeks notice for the citizens of the school district to decide on 5 1/2 mills for a sum of $985,000 which would be levied over a 25 year period for the construction of a secondary school building? I very much agree with Mr. Arthur J. Heslip for casting the only dissenting vote.

There is much to be considered before a proposal of this amount should be voted on by the district voters. First, the tax base must be considered of the district, certainly it is not solid from an economical standpoint. Secondly, what becomes of the $95,000 per year that we pay to the Northville school district. Thirdly, where will the money come for teachers, maintenance, etc. This answer is simple, the school board will ask for another 5 1/2 mills. What will happen to the older people of our community who have in the past done more than their share toward education?

On this same day you will be voting on Con Con, but nowhere in the new proposed constitution will one find any relief for the older citizens or property owners who carry the full burden for maintaining and operating the schools.

I believe before we pay any more millage a full scale investigation should be conducted on the purchase of the 80-acre plot of land at the Eleven Mile and Taft roads where the construction of the secondary school is contemplated. In all you will be asked to approve $8 mills for schools and 1/2 mill for the library or $8.50 per thousand valuation of your property.

Think before you vote.

INTRODUCING EARL REED CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR CITY OF NORTHVILLE

My name is Earl L. Reed, age 62, and reside at 320 Orchard Drive.

Have been a resident of Northville since 1948 and served as your Councilman for about 8 years. Also, was a member of the City Charter Commission.

Married, the husband of Grace D. Reed and the father of Shirley J. Holloman, who also resides in this City with her husband, Rex, and their three children.

Received my education at Cass Technical High School, Detroit Institute of Technology and the Detroit College of Law. I am connected with the Lawyers Title Insurance Corporation of which company I am an officer. Also an officer of the American Right of Way Association, a national organization.

While a member of our City Government I put the wheels in motion for the sale of the Community Building to the school thereby making it possible for a new City Hall at no expense to the tax payer.

Also, promoted the buying of our American LaFrance fire engine thereby saving the tax payer a sure increase in our insurance rates.

Always have been vitally interested in protecting and keeping our Race Track and the revenue derived therefrom in our City.

SPECIAL ASSESSMENT

Most of you know the stand I have taken on this controversial issue of Special Assessment.

I did not grab the stand out of the clear blue sky, but rather followed the stand handed down by our former leaders. In my opinion, there has always been a lot of merit by a precedent that has been followed for years.

This stand was also re-iterated by our late Mayor "Claude Ely" and his then Commissioners, Allen, Stubenvoll, Welch and myself.

The reason for this re-iteration was on account of the developing of some new subdivisions within our midst and the problems they might create.

I might add that all of us Village fathers did everything we could for the development of the subdivisions in order that people could have a better place in which to live.

We, on the unpaved streets, and some have lived on these streets for a life time, do not expect to have them paved over night.

As a matter of fact we realize they should be taken care of in order of their importance and cost of upkeep to the City.

I pledge to you we can pave these streets without any increase to our present tax roll.

Yes, as Special Assessment stands today, I am definitely against it.

NORTHVILLE BUSINESS DISTRICT

If we are to have a business district within our City I believe it is up to the citizens as a whole to help the small merchant.

I find it mighty handy at times to shop in my home town and there are many more like me. It is very convenient to have the small merchant there when you want or need him.

But we have to help pay for this convenience and advantage if he is to survive.

As published in various papers help may be had in reducing his real estate tax or his personal property tax which I think is inequitable.

Many of our towns are thinking along this line and it could be one of our solutions.

Another, is the elimination of the Parking Meter and have an enforced two hour time limit on our now metered streets.

People just seem to resent the privilege of spending their money for parking in order to shop.

THE MASTER PLAN

In my opinion, a committee composed of and elected by the Retail Merchants Association should discuss this plan with the Mayor, and their recommendations submitted to the Council for whatever action that may be taken.

As a whole, it makes very little difference to the average individual which way he comes into or goes out of town, but it may to some stranger.

However, I am sure it would make a lot of difference to the merchant who is and should be the one more vitally affected in his struggle for existence.

This approach would certainly have an effect on which way our business district would or could grow.

IF ELECTED

I do not agree with all of the policies of some members of our Council. That is one of the reasons I am running for office.

Our Mayor, as head of the Council, should have acted faster in determining what advantage or disadvantage our last big police drive was to our City.

Also, what effort did he make to keep our hospital.

I believe there is a shortage of 500 beds in our area and our hospital would have helped to relieve this situation.

Remember, this hospital all improved, would have been donated to our City.

This in itself seems too good to have been true, so what legitimate reasons did he set forth killing this vital necessity.

We all should have pride in our City and what is in our community, and we certainly do not want to lose operations that are beneficial to our town. Losing the hospital not only cost us employment opportunities for our people, but also a much needed hospital for this area.

SPEAKING for The Record

by Bill Silger

Two years ago a determined group of Novi citizens realized a long-held ambition.

Novi opened its own library.

Most of the books, even the building, were acquired through contributions. And since its opening, it has managed to exist on contributions of time, money, books.

The township government provides the building, fuel oil, electricity and janitorial service. Monday night, the village council pledged $500 of its funds to help the library cause.

Other expenses — without buying new books — add up to about $200 per month.

"Friends of the Library", a group of citizens who have contributed at least one dollar to the library, make possible the payment of these expenses.

But there are those who fear that Novi may lose its library if a new source of revenue is not found. It's becoming more popular so far as book circulation is concerned, but keeping its head above the troubled financial waters is another matter.

April 1, Novi township voters will be asked to approve a one-half mill levy for support of the library. This could give the library up to $8,000 annually.

Library Board Chairman Dirk Groenenberg is hopeful that voters will approve — and Novi may even buy new books and magazines for its library.

He fears that if the proposal fails, the battle to remain open may soon be lost.

Millage requests are always unpopular — and Novi voters have several such measures to consider April 1 (two for schools).

But fifty cents per $1,000 of valuation, or about $3 annually for the average Novi taxpayer, seems like a small price to pay for the right to say, "we have a library in Novi". Even for those who don't use it.

Attorney Cliff Hill is a mighty cagey fellow.

As some readers may know, he's one of the owners of Travel Plans, Inc. And he's afraid there are some people who don't realize that they can have their entire travel itinerary planned and tickets delivered right here at his N. Center street agency with absolutely no additional charge.

"I'm not sure that people read our ads, but I know they read your column," he stated in his most convincing court room manner.

In short, he was asking me for a "plug" for his service.

Well, you can't get around me that way, Hill. That's an out-and-out advertisement and unfit for publication in any self-respecting editor's column.

Besides that, I know very well that subscribers read the ads. It's my column I'm worried about.

Seriously, our community is fortunate to have a service available like Travel Plans. It's one more convenience to help make our shopping center more complete.

And while on the subject of business, we should add a few more "plugs" — to the Old Mill restaurant for its remodeling; Ely's Lawn and Garden Center for its modernization currently underway; Tewksbury Jewelers, now remodeling; Northville Restaurant, interior decorating; Cottage Restaurant, new owners and new look; E-Jay Lumber Mart for its new building now underway; D & C Stores, planning to move into the present E-Jay building after extensive expansion and remodeling.

And with a new recreation building nearly complete, a city hall and library on the drawing boards and a new post office a good possibility — who can say that Northville is not marching forward?

THIS IS NOT A CALL FOR DINNER — IT'S A SIGNAL THAT STEEL PIPE HAS ARRIVED.

To the pipeliner working in the Gas fields of Southwestern United States, this message does not mean a cherry picker is coming down from a cherry tree to put on a spaghetti dinner... it means that a light rig (which is called a "cherry picker") is bringing a load of small diameter pipe (which is called "spaghetti") to the construction crew on a pipeline project.

State Proposes Economic Loans

A concentrated bipartisan effort is under way in the Legislature to enact a law to give state backing to economic development projects.

The proposal to create a Greater Michigan Authority would allow loans of up to 30 percent of the cost of local industrial projects. The Authority would be empowered to lend its funds to community industrial development corporations, with a second mortgage by the local unit as security for the loan.

Dr. Harold T. Smith of the Upjohn Institute at Kalamazoo told House members recently the Authority would provide the type of program "best suited to Michigan's economic needs."

"The Greater Michigan bill in its present form is designed primarily to assist redevelopment of depressed areas having labor surpluses and other unused resources," Smith said.

Economic development activity has been listed by Gov. George Romney as a priority need in the current short session.

Bills similar to this year's Greater Michigan measure have been introduced during the past several years to combat the efforts of some Southern states in drawing industry, some of which has been taken from Michigan.

Smith noted 19 states have some kind of statewide development credit corporation similar to that proposed in the Greater Michigan bill.

Some 125 communities in the state have local industrial development corporations, the Upjohn spokesman said, but they do not have sufficient power without state backing.

"Because Michigan does not have any industrial development tools, it seems especially important that a Michigan industrial authority along the lines of the Greater Michigan Authority, be established."

Local efforts by school districts to meet the growing needs of the population are seen in a report by Superintendent of Public Instruction Lynn M. Bartlett.

Bartlett notes that with four months remaining in the current fiscal year, schools have received approval for about $400,000 more in bonds than were authorized throughout last year.

At the Superintendent's report, school districts had received authority to issue about $85.1 million in bonds. Last year the total bonding requests approved was $84.7 million.

Bartlett called the current year bonding requests "one of the most encouraging signs in Michigan education."

"The new bonding program (started last July) has brought a vigor to public school construction that shows Michigan is definitely starting to make inroads in providing the additional classrooms vital to education in this state," he said.

Current estimates are that Michigan will need about 16,500 new classrooms by 1967. These would replace currently outdated facilities and meet the needs imposed by the growing population.

In an attempt to meet the needs of hospital employment, the Michigan Department of Health has been sponsoring training programs for nurses' aides since the fall of 1961.

During the less than two years of the programs, Health Commissioner Albert E. Heustis said nearly 700 women have been trained for employment in medical care facilities for the chronically ill and aged. More than 400 of these were not working in medical or allied fields when they took the three-week training course.

Trainees have been encouraged to seek employment in nursing homes, where the needs for help are greatest, but Heustis said 30 per cent of the "graduates" who have found employment are working in general hospitals.

Michigan teachers received another boost in their average pay this year, according to the Michigan Education Association.

Robert Ferguson, MEA field services representative for the Upper Peninsula, notes the average salary for instructional personnel during the current school year is $6,544. This was a raise of $249 from the 1961-62 average salary among educators.

First-year teachers also showed an increase over the starting pay in the fall of the previous year, Ferguson said.

The MEA already predicts additional hikes for teachers starting their work this coming fall. Ferguson said if the increases of the past four years continue, this June's graduates of the education schools should receive between $125 and $200 more than the teachers who went into the field in the fall of 1962.

Some progress also is noted in the Association's goal of a $4,800 annual minimum salary.

Protection Against Inflation

Babson Park, Mass., Several factors can help to insulate a company against the effects of inflation: (1) Growth. A company experiencing rapid growth will find that its rate of business increase can lift profits at a faster pace than the rise in costs. (2) Vital Industry. This includes companies in industries which are vital to the economy or to consumers and which can pass on increased costs by raising prices. (3) Diversification and Integration. Companies whose profits are squeezed by inflating costs can bolster their position through diversification and integration. (4) Valuable Assets. Some companies are in the enviable position of possessing assets which are vital to their principal business and also potentially valuable in other respects.

Companies in the building materials field also possess inflation hedge characteristics. Their timber and minerals properties should gradually become more valuable. Population growth and migration are favorable to the building industry's future.

U. S. Gypsum is the largest company in its field; it supplies half the domestic requirements of gypsum wallboard and plaster, and also 20% of the building industry's metal lath needs. The company also produces roofing material, siding, insulating material and paints. Its properties include strategically located quarries and acreage.

Masonite Corporation is the largest domestic producer of hardboard. It has large timber holdings in Mississippi and California. Company also derives oil revenues from its properties.

Diamond National Corporation produces paperboard, folding cartons, containers, matches, and wooden ware. It also sells lumber and building materials. Company owns 500,000 acres of timberland.

The coal industry has been subjected to a long shakedown. Elimination of marginal producers and the shift to mechanical mining has enabled the surviving companies to emerge in a stronger position to benefit from the growth in coal consumption by steel and electric power plants. Also, research being conducted could lead to discovery of new uses for coal. In addition, many companies are diversifying into other fields.

Consolidation Coal is the largest domestic producer of bituminous coal, and has substantial coal reserves. The company is a joint owner — with Freeport Sulphur — in a potash mining venture.

Eastern Gas and Fuel Associates is a large bituminous coal producer, rapidly becoming a gas utility. Its wholly owned Boston Consolidated Gas is a consistently important contributor to profits. Company just recently exchanged its holdings in Norfolk and Western railway (dividends from which had provided about half of Eastern's earnings in late years) for its own shares, and also called some of its bonds. This reduced Eastern's number of outstanding common shares and simplified its capitalization. Insofar as future income is concerned, the company's coal, river barge, and other operations will from now on become far more significant than in the past.

Columbia Gas System is one of the largest gas utility systems in the country, serving the Eastern, Central, and Mid-Atlantic regions. It owns over 400,000 acres of land in the Atlantic-Appalachian region which contain large coal, oil, and gas reserves.

Chemical Companies — I believe American Agricultural Chemical is one of the oldest and largest producers and distributors of fertilizers. It also manufactures phosphoric and sulphuric acids, phosphates, and fluorides. The company owns 60,000 acres of land in Florida, underlaid by beds of phosphate rock sufficient to sustain production for 60 years.

International Minerals and Chemical is an important producer of mixed-fertilizer, and a major producer of phosphate rock. It also produces potash and phosphate-based industrial chemicals. Extensive mineral and land holdings are located in Florida, Tennessee, Idaho, New Mexico and Canada.

How New Constitution Provides for Civil Rights

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is another in a series about the proposed new Michigan Constitution. Another article will appear next week, just prior to the election.

An analysis emphasizing the stronger civil rights sections offered in the proposed new Constitution has been prepared and mailed to pastors of the 2,600 member congregations affiliated with the Michigan Council of Churches.

The church council has endorsed the revised document which Michigan voters will be asked to approve at the polls Monday, April 1. Harold C. McKinney, Jr., director of general operations for the council, said in releasing the report: "Civil rights have always been an historic concern in Michigan churches. Here is an important contribution to an understanding of the solid achievements in the proposed Constitution. It should help people see the strong moral content of the document."

Authors of the report distributed by the council include James K. Pollock, U. of M. political scientist who headed Con Con's Committee on Rights, and Michigan State University President John A. Hannah, chairman of the U. S. Civil Rights Commission. Seven other Con Con delegates, both Republicans and Democrats, joined in writing the analysis.

The delegates made these points: 1. All traditional rights of individuals in the present constitution are retained, including freedom of speech, worship, assembly and press.

2. A new clause guaranteeing equal protection of laws and enjoyment of civil rights, without discrimination because of religion, race, color or national origin, is "the most important addition."

3. Other new or expanded rights give the individual the right to petition "the government", not just the Legislature; to be assured of fair treatment in legislative or executive investigations; and to be guaranteed an appeal as a matter of right in a criminal case.

4. Citizens also are protected against discrimination in state civil service, not only as to demotions or removals but also on appointments or promotions.

5. "New political rights" give citizens "the right to know how legislators vote in committee and on final passage of bills and resolutions", when hearings are to be held and how public money is spent.

6. Citizens will be protected against arbitrary rules or decisions of an administrative agency.

7. A civil rights commission, bipartisan and with eight members, would be created with the "permanence and prestige" its constitutional origin would give.

"Nothing would be gained and much would be lost with respect to individual rights if the new constitution were rejected," the delegates wrote. "All the new and expanded rights, including the equal protection and nondiscrimination clause, would be lost."

The report said Michigan could lead the way for other states with the new provisions and be the first to create a
