Accident Prompts 'No Parking' Edict

An accident on traffic-heavy North Center street between Main and Dunlap Monday at 5:30 p.m. prompted the Northville city council to propose initiation of no parking regulations.

Peggy Wynne Tiilikka, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tiilikka of 20300 Westview, was struck by a car driven by Bruce M. Dingwall, 40, of 225 Ely drive.

According to police, Peggy had run into the street from the east side in the middle of the block. Dingwall, 16, had just started his car in motion after stopping to let his brother out. He told police he was not driving more than 10 m.p.h. Peggy said she thought the car had stopped.

Police termed the accident unavoidable.

Peggy was taken to St. Mary hospital and released to the care of her physician after it was determined that she had suffered no broken bones. Mrs. Tiilikka said Tuesday her daughter "was sore all over." County and local traffic authorities have long considered removal of parking on Center street—at least during busy early morning and late afternoon hours.

In special council session Monday night Mayor A. M. Allen proposed banning of parking on Center street from Dunlap to Cady on the west side from 6 to 9 a.m. and on the east side of the street from 3:30 to 6:30 p.m.

Surveys have indicated that Center street traffic is at its peak in the early morning southbound and northbound in late afternoon.

The council concurred with Mayor Allen's recommendation and the resolution will be presented for passage at next Monday's meeting. Because Center street is a county road, the resolution must be forwarded to the Wayne county road commission for approval.

Target date for completion of the first college, as the council sees it, is September, 1964.

The council suggested that the building program be planned so that facilities could be expanded to accommodate 5,000 students in the near future.

An alternative plan noted by a spokesman of the county board of education office is to begin tax collection immediately, but delay construction for two years until monies for two buildings have been accumulated. Under such a plan, the third site would be developed at the end of a five-year period.

Novi, Wixom Vote On College, Too

When Novi and Wixom school district voters go to the polls June 10, they'll find a two-part community college proposal on the ballot.

First, they'll be asked to vote on the establishment of a county community college district. Second, to vote on a one mill tax levy to support the district.

Electorates will also be asked to select a six member board of trustees out of a field of 27 to act as the governing board of the community college district. No Novi or Wixom residents are seeking a position as trustee.

A community college election became possible last week when Governor George Romney signed a bill permitting Oakland county to set boundaries for a community college district.

A resolution calling for the election was passed in a special meeting of the county board of education last Wednesday and received the endorsement of the state superintendent of public instruction the following day.

The proposed college would provide two years of post-high school education for Oakland county residents.

Initial cost of the college to the average homeowner would be comparable to the cost for a tankful of gas, a couple of cartons of cigarettes.

If the election is successful, the county college citizens advisory council has recommended that three sites be purchased immediately in the following areas: Troy, north or northwest Pontiac and Farmington-Novi.

The council noted that construction should be started on

Community College on June 10 Ballot

Only Three File For School Board

Northville school district voters will be called upon to decide two election matters when they go to the polls Monday, June 10:

— which two of three candidates shall serve as members of the school board for the next four years; — whether or not Northville should become a part of the Northwest Wayne County Community College district.

And if voters approve entry into the college district, they will elect the lone candidate for trustee to represent Northville on the college board, Dr. Gordon Forrer.

Only three petitions were filed by the deadline Saturday for the board of education. The candidates are incumbent Board Members Edward F. Angove and W. C. Becker, and W. C. Soellner.

Petitions for annexation to the community college district, along with Dr. Forrer's trustee petitions, were filed with the Northville board of education Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Eugene Cook, who heads up a citizens committee supporting the community college program, filed the petitions.

On the college matter voters will specifically be asked to approve annexation to the district, a one mill levy which would be split — half for operating and half in support of a bond issue to construct the college.

Although School Attorney James Littel has not yet had time to determine the exact language of the ballot, it is considered likely that only property owners will be permitted to vote on the bond proposal.

The existing community college district, made up of Plymouth, Livonia, Garden City and Clarenceville has already approved bonds for construction in the amount of $2,435,000.

These bonds will be retired over a 20-year period by the half-mill. One year's payment has already been made, thereby obligating Northville for 19 years.

South Redford school district will also be voting on entrance into the college program. But petitions were not filed in the Wayne district, which had indicated earlier interest. The South Redford trustee candidate is Jess Paul Santo.

Monday night the Northville school board issued a statement of its position on the community college program (see adjoining).

Mrs. Cook stated this week that a public meeting to further explain the community college plan would be held in early June. She indicated that Dr. Eric Brädnar, president of Schoolcraft college, would be invited to answer questions.

The college is scheduled for construction this year with first students being admitted in the fall of 1964. It will be located at Haggerty and Seven Mile roads in Livonia.

Kids Like Free Shows

Saturday's free movies at the P & A Theatre made a big hit with Northville's small fry.

As a matter of fact, they filled the theatre and were literally sitting in the aisles.

The Saturday afternoon shows are being sponsored by local business people. Plans call for programs to be offered three weeks in May. If successful, the program will be resumed in the fall.

The first showing Saturday featured "The Magic Voyage of Sinbad." This Saturday's attraction is "Snowfire." On May 25 "The Thirty Foot Bride of Candy Rock" will be shown.

Help!

Northville's Jaycees are becoming expert at car washing.

Sunday they'll conduct their third car wash clinic to raise funds for the annual Fourth of July celebration.

This week the Jaycees will start washing at 9 a.m. and continue until 1 p.m. at G. E. Miller's auto agency on Hutton across from the A & P.

School Board's College Stand

The Northville Board of Education endorses the recommendation of the Community College Committee that the Northville School District become a part of the Schoolcraft Community College District.

Recognizing that the sole responsibility of the Northville Board of Education concerns the K-12 program of the public schools, we feel that an advisory indication of our position on the community college question would be of interest to the citizens of the community. Our decision was reached after careful consideration of the possible future effect on Northville's K-12 school program. Although the one mill levy for the Community College is not burdensome in itself, the addition of it to the existing tax structure may create some uneasiness toward the future educational needs of our community.

In 1965 the Northville Board of Education will of necessity have to request the voters to renew the 10 mill operating levy which now produces about 28% of our total yearly operating budget. We are hopeful that we can continue to operate in the future within the total revenue we anticipate, but it may be necessary to request an increase in the 10 mill levy to meet the increased costs and higher enrollment which will possibly occur by then, to maintain the present caliber of education.

Our school population is presently approaching building capacity, which means that any sudden surge in residential construction within our district would necessitate additional elementary classroom space. This would require additional bonding and possible additional operating levies to finance the program.

We are confident that when the voters of this district are properly acquainted with the facts, they will continue to support our public school program. We further feel that Northville's inclusion in the Schoolcraft Community College will afford opportunities to our residents for technical and vocational training which are not currently available in this area.

We urge all voters in the Northville School District to attend the meeting which will be held to give them the information on this question prior to the school election, June 10.

Place Your 'X' Here

When Northville voters go to the polls June 10, they'll probably mark their "X" on paper ballots.

School Superintendent R. H. Amerman reported this week that the con-con recount has all city voting machines tied up. "We've been told that it's highly unlikely that the machines will be unlocked before our election," Amerman noted.

He said it was not yet clear whether it is legally possible to change polling places and thereby use township machines at Main street school. And to move the machines, if permitted by the township, would also be difficult.

The government SBA agency requires that the notes be sold on as wide a community basis as possible. A limit is set on how much one may purchase.

A. R. Clarke, vice president of Manufacturers Northville office, and Attorney Philip Ogilvie have been working on the committee to prepare for the sale of debentures.

They specified that the notes would be in denominations of $50 with interest and principle payments made annually. It is anticipated that the 15-year debentures will be paid off within 10 years, Clarke stated.

The actual loan agreement with SBA was scheduled to be signed last night. It is understood that Manufacturers National Bank will be appointed paying agent and registrar for the bonds.

Foundry Flask President John A. Weber and his son, John W., vice president, have stated that the new addition will increase efficiency and reduce material handling problems when their operations can be moved under one roof. Presently the firm must operate from three buildings on both sides of Cady street.

The company is a leader in the manufacture and sale of fabricated steel flasks and allied equipment to large automotive, plumbing ware and agricultural implement industries.

Company officials expect employment to increase from 50-55 employees to 65-70 with greater production capabilities. More information on sale of the notes will be published next week. Interested persons may contact any member of the economic development group for further details.

Northville's economic development corporation was ready to sell its first project this week.

Meeting last night (Wednesday) the board of directors was scheduled to approve the procedure for sale of $27,750 in six percent interest-rendering debentures.

It was anticipated that the notes would be on public sale this week.

Specifically, the local sale is designed to raise the local non-profit corporation's share of the $185,000 loan that has been approved through the Small Business Administration for construction of an addition to Foundry Flask and Equipment company, 455 East Cady.

Under the terms of the project the Northville Area Economic Development Corporation was granted the loan. In reality the corporation acted as the vehicle for obtaining the government loan for the Foundry Flask expansion.

The local development group will use the funds to construct a 120 by 150-foot addition to the Cady street plant.

The building will be owned by the development corporation, leased to Foundry Flask for a 15-year period, or until all indebtedness is retired, and then the deed to the building sold to Foundry Flask for $1.00.

Of the $185,000, the government provides approximately $133,000 at four per cent interest rate; Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit is participating in the loan in the amount of approximately $15,000; Foundry Flask's participation is approximately $9,000 by deeding the land site (approximately two acres); and the balance, $27,750, must be raised by the local development corporation through sale of debentures in the community.

For elementary, junior high and assistant high school principals, top salary is $12,300; for the high school principal, $14,000.

Currently, only one principal in the system, Harry Smith at Main street elementary, has the experience necessary to put him on the schedule. All other principals have either one or two years experience and are now negotiating with the superintendent for next year's salary.

Under the new system, principal contracts will be drawn up for a three-year period. At the end of the second year, a review of the first two years will be held between the principal and the superintendent.

At that time, the principal will be told whether his contract will terminate at the end of three years or be renewed.

In other business, the board accepted three teacher resignations and approved contracts for six teachers.

Resigning are Miss Jeanne Dustin, high school biology teacher; Mrs. Carolyn Sedstrom, Main street and junior high art teacher, and Stanley Golonka, varsity baseball coach and Amerman fifth grade teacher.

New contracts were approved for William G. Case, art; James Curry, elementary; Neil Meinke, junior high science; Mrs. Neil Meinke, music and David Madden, high school math. A one-year contract was approved for Mrs. Ruth Carter, first grade teacher at Main street school.

Board OK's Principals' Pay Scale

A salary schedule for Northville school principals was unanimously approved by the board of education this week.

On the schedule, salary for the first three years in the Northville system is negotiable between the principal and superintendent with board approval.

Starting with the fourth year, a salary of $10,300 will be given elementary, junior high and assistant high school principals with $12,000 being offered to the high school principal.

The fifth year will bring a $500 raise for all principals with $500 raises being offered thereafter for each five years service. Top salary for all principals will be reached after 20 years in the system.

For elementary, junior high and assistant high school principals, top salary is $12,300; for the high school principal, $14,000.

Currently, only one principal in the system, Harry Smith at Main street elementary, has the experience necessary to put him on the schedule. All other principals have either one or two years experience and are now negotiating with the superintendent for next year's salary.

Tragic Deaths Hit Northville Area

Three tragedies, each involving a death, hit the area last Friday and Saturday.

A Northville man was killed as his car crashed into a train, the body of a Farmington man was thrown from a car in Novi and a Blissfield man burned to death when his truck-trailer collided with a road grader near Wixom.

Dead are Preston Anderson, 24, of 790 Horton, Northville; Walter Flory of 34792 Fendt road, Farmington; and Jerry Gentz, 21, of Blissfield.

According to State police, Anderson was traveling south on Eckles road in Livonia Friday. A west bound freight train had just cleared the intersection and the warning lights were flashing, but no gates were down, police said. The crossing is between Plymouth road and Schoolcraft on Eckles.

Officers said Anderson evidently thought the intersection was clear, proceeded and crashed broadside into an east-bound passenger train. He was pronounced dead at St. Mary hospital, Livonia.

Flory's body was found at 4:15 a.m. Saturday in the middle of 12 Mile road near Meadowbrook by a motorist who summoned Novi police. Novi police, noticing the man's stab wounds, called state police. Novi investigating officers were Patrolmen Ralph Armour and Roy Hallock.

Late Saturday, Mrs. Virginia Ann Martin of 34792 Fendt, Farmington, confessed to state police she stabbed and killed Flory Wednesday night when he threatened to kill her 10-year-old son Arthur.

Mrs. Martin, who also has a six-year-old daughter, told police she hid the body in her garage until 3 a.m. Saturday when she put it in her car and took it to the Novi intersection.

Mrs. Marun, who is separated from her husband, explained Flory threatened to kill the boy when they became involved in an argument after touring the neighborhood bars.

The Wixom tragedy occurred Friday afternoon when Gentz collided with a road grader on I-96 west of Wixom near Old Plank road.

The truck-trailer he was driving caught fire and Gentz, pinned in the cab, burned to death.

State police said apparently the victim fell asleep and crashed into the rear of the grader.

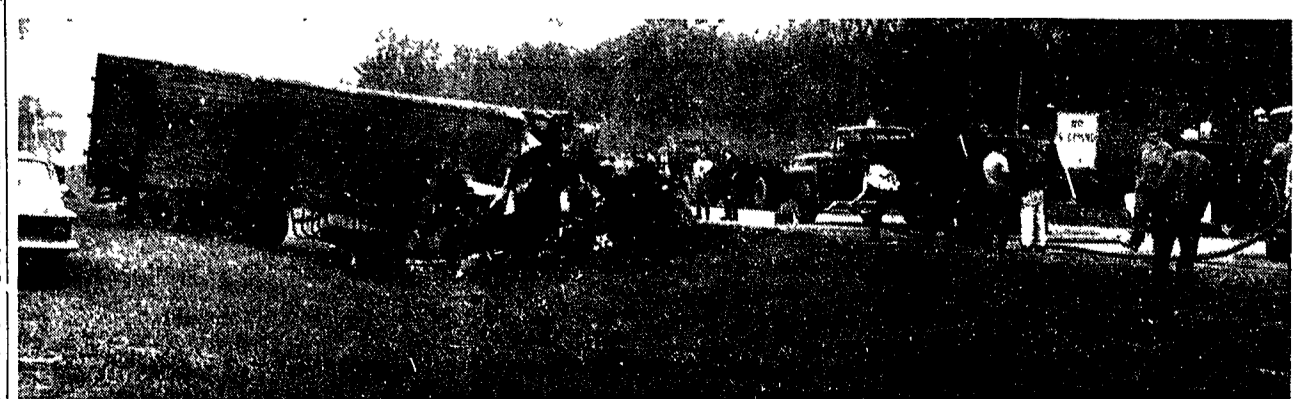

Robert Hoppe of Romulus township, the grader driver, escaped the accident with a fractured left leg.

Funeral services for Preston Anderson were held Monday in Casterline Funeral home, 122 West Dunlap, with the Reverend Robert Spradling, pastor of First Baptist church, officiating. Burial was in Anderson cemetery, Jackson, Kentucky.

Mr. Anderson, a resident of Northville for 20 years, was employed by LaVassaur Trucking company of Northville.

He was born October 30, 1938, in Jackson, Kentucky, son of Jesse and Joannette Anderson.

He leaves his wife, Bonnie Anderson; one son, David Allen Anderson, at home; one daughter, Dorothy Lynn Anderson, at home; three brothers, James Anderson and Morton Anderson, both of Northville, and John Anderson of Livonia; and three sisters, Mrs. Pauline Lomb, Miss Elsie May Anderson and Miss Edna B. Anderson, all of Northville.

The Blissfield driver of the truck-trailer shown above burned to death Friday afternoon when he was pinned in his flaming cab after colliding with a road grader on I-96 near Wixom.

Nuptials Said In South Lyon

Christine Stephens became the bride of William Lee Walker, Jr., in a double ring ceremony performed Saturday afternoon, May 4 in the South Lyon Methodist church.

Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. Ferris Woodruff.

Sally Schuster of South Lyon, presided at the organ.

Arrangements of white gladioli, snapdragons and chrysanthemums decorated the church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Stephens, 25650 Napier road, and the parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. William Lee Walker, Sr., 42625 East Seven Mile road.

For her wedding the bride chose a floor length gown of nylon tulle fashioned with a basque bodice, the neckline of which was embellished with Chantilly lace. The bouffant skirt was styled with back panels of Chantilly lace ruffles. The imported French silk fingertip veil of illusion fell from a pearl and crystal crown. She carried a bouquet of white sweetheart roses and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.

Peggy Chizmar of Ypsilanti was maid of honor wearing an electric blue taffeta street-length dress featuring a full skirt. Her bouquet was of picardy peach glameillas.

Serving as best man was William Chizmar of Ypsilanti. Seating the guests were Thomas Brown of 200 Rayson street, Northville, and Frederick Mitchell, 19355 Fry road, Northville.

The bride's mother was gown in a blue coat and dress ensemble of shantung with black patent leather accessories. Her corsage was a purple orchid.

A yellow chrysanthemum corsage was pinned to Mrs. Walker's lavender dress and coat combination with which she wore beige accessories.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church dining room. A flower piece of white snapdragons and blue carnations, centered the bride's table. Placed on a separate table was a beautifully decorated three-tier wedding cake topped by the traditional bride and groom.

When the couple left on their wedding trip to Kentucky, the bride was wearing a beige suit with a beige and brown print blouse.

The bride is a graduate of South Lyon high school, and the groom graduated from Northville high school.

The newlyweds will reside on Wing Court in Northville.

Artist James Walker To Show Serigraphs

Michigan Week will open at the Hartley-Powers Gallery with an exhibit of what have been tabbed "lively" serigraphs or silk-screen prints.

On display will be the work of James Walker, art instructor in Northern high school and in the Mott Foundation program, Flint.

The exhibit will open with a Sunday reception from 2 to 6 p.m. and continue through June 1.

Monday through Thursday, the exhibit will be open to the public from noon to 6 p.m.; Friday, from noon to 9 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Walker's work with serigraphs, an art medium not much older than 20 years, has been described by critics as displaying "technical proficiency."

The result of Walker's work, according to S. Gordon Gapper, art editor of the Flint Journal, is "always a colorful design inviting interpretation."

He added, "Walker's work is that of a painstaking craftsman, highly decorative, hardly impassioned or introspective, but unutilized and showing a highly inventive mind."

Walker has had many one-

CAMERA SHY CAT — Unlike Mr. and Mrs. Van Hine and one-year-old Michael, "Misty", the cat, doesn't seem to cotton to the camera.

There's good reason why a Northville man won't be left wanting for fine food. His wife is a graduate in home economics.

In fact, David Van Hine has another good reason for hustling home after work as a traffic engineer for the Wayne County road commission. It's the Van Hines year-old son, Michael.

It doesn't take him long to get home at 556 Langfield from his Detroit office — just a half-hour.

The Van Hines are both from Indiana. She is from a small town, Newburgh, and he's from Fort Wayne.

And they root for Purdue, their Alma mater.

That's where Mr. and Mrs. Van Hine met, but work carried them to different parts of the Midwest after graduation. She worked eight months for a firm in Cambridge, Ohio, while he was employed in Detroit.

Marriage changed all that. She moved to Detroit with her husband and worked for Consumers Power in Livonia as a home service representative.

"I enjoyed the work very much," said Mrs. Van Hine, "and at first I hated to give it up."

"Our apartment in Detroit was not suitable then," she continued. "You see, Michael was on the way."

In search of home with the "small town atmosphere", the Van Hines chose Northville.

In their spare time as befits a home economics major — Mrs. Van Hine likes to knit and sew. Mr. Van Hine likes to tinker with old cars.

Soon, however, they'll be doing something else in their spare time. "We've been thinking hard about our lawn," Mrs. Van Hine said. "We've had fun watching our neighbors put in theirs. Now it's time for us to do ours."

It Takes Lots of Help To Run a P-TA Carnival

The Northville P-TA Carnival committee has been busy this week securing parent volunteers and aid from community organizations to run the midway in true carnival style the night of May 24th.

Mrs. Myron Utley and Jack Ruland, co-chairmen of the senior midway designed for students beyond the elementary grades, have lined up a full compliment of helpers to tend the various activities in the gym of the community building. Newcomer's Club members will be decorating this midway — both booths and gym. Presbyterian Men's Club will be selling balloons throughout the evening. The V.F.W. Auxiliary will be judging and awarding cash prizes — $5 bills to some lucky bakers — for the Cake Decorating Contest. Our Lady of Victory Mother's Club will be sponsoring the Cake Walk and handing a cake to the lucky winner every time the music stops. Optimist and Exchange Club members will take care of the two Ring-A-Cane squares, and the Rotary men will manage the new and exciting Jar Game.

The Northville Recreation Department will take charge of a new Milk Bottle Game. Miller's Sales and Service is lending their muscle game, "King of Swat," for the boys to show off their he-manship. Five other new and intriguing midway activities will be run by parents of high school and junior high students.

Mrs. Arthur Hempe, with the help of the Main street elementary school parents and Miss Knapp, high school cafeteria manager, has plans all set for the dinner hour. Miss Knapp and her staff will handle all preparations, the room mothers the seating and serving of the family style dinner, and various Girl Scout troops will do the table clearing. Coffee, ice cream, and cakes baked by its members will be served in the same room by the Northville Woman's club.

The senior high student council will be outside selling candy, pop and hot dogs. The high school dance band will provide the background music for the carnival atmosphere. Members of the "N" Club will help with parking on the east side of the community building and the playground of the Main street school.

Inside the junior high school Bob Lang and Bob Bogart will be in charge of the junior school and elementary school age skill. Mrs. Ed Angove and the Amerman school room mothers are corraling parents to decorate and man the activities in this midway. Parents of sixth graders from Main street elementary will also be asked to help in this area. The junior high student council will have charge of the popcorn, candy and hot dogs for this building.

Just above the junior midway, the Northville Mother's club will be selling homemade candies. And the Northville Co-operative Nursery Group will have a wide assortment of cookies. Down the same hall the Northville Branch of the Garden Club will display White Elephants for sale.

E. V. Ellison will see that ticket sellers in the persons of Northville school teachers circulate among the crowd to sell tickets. Mr. and Mrs. Kalin Johnson will handle the finances with the assistance of A. Russell Clarke from Manufacturers' Bank. It is estimated that well over 400 people are needed carnival night to keep the midway running smoothly. Carnival chairman Bill Secord notes that more help is needed and asks volunteers to let a school office know of your desire to offer your time. White Elephants, cakes for the Cake Walk, cakes for the Decorating Contest, or a new 20 cent item wrapped up for the "Surprise Package" booth at the carnival.

Nuptials Said In South Lyon

Christine Stephens became the bride of William Lee Walker, Jr., in a double ring ceremony performed Saturday afternoon, May 4 in the South Lyon Methodist church.

Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. Ferris Woodruff.

Sally Schuster of South Lyon presided at the organ.

Arrangements of white gladioli, snapdragons and chrysanthemums decorated the church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Stephens, 25650 Napier road, and the parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. William Lee Walker, Sr., 42625 East Seven Mile road.

For her wedding the bride chose a floor length gown of nylon tulle fashioned with a basque bodice, the neckline of which was embellished with Chantilly lace. The bouffant skirt was styled with back panels of Chantilly lace ruffles. The imported French silk fingertip veil of illusion fell from a pearl and crystal crown. She carried a bouquet of white sweetheart roses and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.

Peggy Chizmar of Ypsilanti was maid of honor wearing an electric blue taffeta street-length dress featuring a full skirt. Her bouquet was of picardy peach gladioli.

Serving as best man was William Chizmar of Ypsilanti. Seating the guests were Thomas Brown of 200 Rayson street, Northville, and Frederick Mitchell, 19355 Fry road, Northville.

The bride's mother was gowned in a blue coat and dress ensemble of shantung with black patent leather accessories. Her corsage was a purple orchid.

A yellow chrysanthemum corsage was pinned to Mrs. Walker's lavender dress and coat combination with which she wore beige accessories.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church dining room.

A flower piece of white snapdragons and blue carnations centered the bride's table. Placed on a separate table was a beautifully decorated three-tier wedding cake topped by the traditional bride and groom.

When the couple left on their wedding trip to Kentucky, the bride was wearing a beige suit with a beige and brown print blouse.

The bride is a graduate of South Lyon high school, and the groom graduated from Northville high school. The newlyweds will reside on Wing Court in Northville.

Mrs. William Lee Walker, Jr.

AAUW Sets Scholarship

The Northville - Plymouth branch of the American association of University Women announced last week the presentation of a $500 fellowship to the national AAUW fund.

The fellowship is for use by a graduate woman student. To be named the Plymouth, Michigan, fellowship, the grant is made possible by profits from the Listening Post lecture series and the used book sale held in March.

Today, the branch will meet at 7:45 p.m. in the Plymouth junior high school, east.

A review of the past year's activities and a study of the proposed structure changes will comprise the program.

Hostesses will be Chairman Mrs. Thomas Holland, Miss Helen Gilbert, Mrs. Robert Gilmore, Mrs. Alan Read and Mrs. M.R. Troyer, all of Plymouth.

Two Receive Service Pins

Receiving Girl Scout service pins last week were Mrs. Glen Diebert and Mrs. Edwin Langtry.

Mrs. Langtry, currently a neighborhood scout chairman, was honored for 10 years service in scouting. She was formerly a scout leader and a delegate to the Huron Valley council.

Mrs. Diebert received a five-year service pin. She is now leader of Girl Scout troop 209.

Artist James Walker To Show Serigraphs

Michigan Week will open at the Hartley-Powers Gallery with an exhibit of what have been tabbed "lively" serigraphs or silk-screen prints.

On display will be the work of James Walker, art instructor in Northern high school and in the Mott Foundation program, Flint.

The exhibit will open with a Sunday reception from 2 to 6 p.m., and continue through June 1.

Monday through Thursday, the exhibit will be open to the public from noon to 6 p.m.; Friday, from noon to 9 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Walker's work with serigraphs, an art medium not much older than 20 years, has been described by critics as displaying "technical proficiency."

The result of Walker's work, according to S. Gordon Gapper, art editor of the Flint Journal, is "always a colorful design inviting interpretation." He added, "Walker's work is that of a painstaking craftsman, highly decorative, hardly impassioned or introspective, but unstilted and showing a highly inventive mind."

Walker has had many one-

Mrs. Ed Angove and the Amerman school room mothers are corraling parents to decorate and man the activities in this midway. Parents of sixth graders from Main street elementary will also be asked to help in this area. The junior high student council will have charge of the popcorn, candy and hot dogs for this building.

Just above the junior midway, the Northville Mother's club will be selling homemade candies. And the Northville Co-operative Nursery Group will have a wide assortment of cookies. Down the same hall the Northville Branch of the Garden Club will display White Elephants for sale.

E. V. Ellison will see that ticket sellers in the persons of Northville school teachers circulate among the crowd to sell tickets. Mr. and Mrs. Kalin Johnson will handle the finances with the assistance of A. Russell Clarke from Manufacturers' Bank. It is estimated that well over 400 people are needed carnival night to keep the midway running smoothly. Carnival chairman Bill Secord notes that more help is needed and asks volunteers to let a school office know of your desire to offer your time. White Elephants, cakes for the Cake Walk, cakes for the Decorating Contest, or a new 20 cent item wrapped up for the "Surprise Package" booth at the carnival.

BANK DEPOSITOR — Joseph Petrock, 45955 West Main, is shown completing his blood pressure test prior to donating blood at last Friday's Red Cross Bloodmobile at the First Methodist church. Chairman Mrs. C. C. Winter reports that 168 persons volunteered a total of 114 good pints of blood. The American Legion auxiliary did its part to help by serving dinner to blood bank workers Friday evening. Mrs. C. Oscar Hammond, shown serving workers below, was in charge of the dinner for the Legion auxiliary.

Plymouth Witnesses Plan 3 Conventions

"It will be three conventions instead of two for the United States this year," Mr. C. Carson Coonce, presiding minister of the Plymouth Michigan Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, announced last night. This came as a surprise to the congregation as Mr. Coonce read the announcement from the Watchtower Bible and Tract Socy, convention sponsors.

"Milwaukee has been added to New York and Los Angeles," Mr. Coonce said. "This became necessary due to limited facilities in New York. The new stadium for the New York Mets baseball club is not completed, and thus the Polo Grounds will not be available for our use," he added.

According to Mr. Coonce the majority of the congregation will be traveling to New York for the 8-day gathering which will be held July 7-14 in Yankee Stadium. A crowd of 125,000 is expected for the New York meeting.

"This will be our sixth convention in Yankee Stadium since 1950," Mr. Coonce pointed out. "Following the New York gathering," he continued, "we will begin a series of conventions around the world. There will be 22 in all which will take some 550 delegates from the United States and Canada to Europe, Asia, Australia, Philippines, Hawaii and back to the United States for the Los Angeles convention in just sixty days."

"We expect 1963 to be one of the outstanding years in our history," Mr. Coonce said. "Our congregation along with all the other congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses world-wide will be working 100% to accomplish this," Mr. Coonce concluded.

Mustangs Pull Ahead

By whipping two opponents within a seven day period, the Northville baseball nine has given notice that it won't be turning back.

Holding down first place they'll be going full steam ahead in quest of the conference baseball crown.

Clarenceville, weakest team in the league, could muster only one healthy hit Monday on its home field as the Mustangs won, 6-1.

The lone spark in the home team's attack was a booming poke off the bat of the Clarenceville pitcher that soared over the centerfield fence in the sixth frame.

The run was charged to Dave Cummings who relieved Tom Swiss in the sixth. Swiss struck out five.

A long triple by Jim Juday was the Mustangs only extra-base knock.

The Mustangs sauntered by Brighton Thursday on the road, winning, 7-1.

Not even the rain, which delayed the game in the top of the first inning, could cool off Northville.

But it did cool off the Brighton pitcher.

With the bases loaded with Mustangs and one run already across, the rains came. Forty minutes later, play was resumed. Brighton issued two more walks which forced an

It was 3-0 nothing, then, before Brighton came to bat. Brighton punched across its only run in the bottom of the first to threaten, but the Mustangs scored single markers in the third, fourth, fifth, and sixth innings to sew it up. Tom Swiss, who pitched the first five innings kept the home team in check. He also got the big hit of the day—a towering blast over the centerfield fence in the fourth.

Dave Cummings twirled the last two scoreless frames. Leading the home team hitters was Jeff Crawford with three singles.

Three big innings paved the way to victory Monday for Redford Union as the Northville JVs lost here, 9-1.

The visitors scored three runs in the fourth, two in the sixth and four in the seventh.

Steve Evans, who pitched the first six frames, was charged with all nine runs. Only six of those were earned, however.

George Simenton garnered two singles and Jerry Imsland a double, accounting for three of the Colts' five hits.

The meeting will include discussion of rules, fees, scheduling and distribution of players.

Director Ken Conley.

Each team that will be entered in the league should send a representative to the meeting 1 p.m. at 147 East Cady street, according to Recreation

Director Ken Conley.

Golfers Win, Lose

In action this week, the Northville golfers dropped a close decision to Bloomfield Hills and won over Oak Park.

The Mustangs traveled to the Rackham golf course to beat Oak Park, 216-226, Tuesday.

Jim St. Germaine cracked the 40 mark with a 39. Dave Zielinski had a 41, Bill Wied-ner a 43, Bob Boyle a 45, and John Walters a 48.

Scores for Oak Park were a 42, 43, 44, 46 and a 51.

In a return match with Bloomfield Hills at Brae Burn golf course, the visitors avenged an earlier defeat at the hands of the Mustangs, 168-172.

The Mustangs couldn't be accused of inconsistency, nor could one star be singled out. Jim St. Germaine, Dave Zielinski, Bill Wiedner, and John Walters all shot 43's.

Two win, at least one local player would have had to come through with a low score, noted Coach Al Jones.

Colt 9 Splits

This week, the Colts split two games.

They routed Clarenceville 17-3 here Tuesday.

Immland had a perfect day—a triple and three doubles.

Backing him up were George Simenton with three for three and Mike Turnbull, who pitched the victory, getting three hits in four times at bat.

Three big innings paved the way to victory Monday for Redford Union as the Northville JVs lost here, 9-1.

The visitors scored three runs in the fourth, two in the sixth and four in the seventh.

Steve Evans, who pitched the first six frames, was charged with all nine runs. Only six of those were earned, however.

George Simenton garnered two singles and Jerry Imsland a double, accounting for three of the Colts' five hits.

AVOID THE CROWDS

No sensible housewife would voluntarily do her shopping when the crowds and heat were at their peak and store clerks could give her only hurried attention. She'd try, naturally, to plan her buying trips so as to avoid the rush periods.

The same sensible attitude will pay off to motorists who arrange their car buying or service work for the time when the dealer's service and sales facilities are having a lull from normal activity.

That time is right now during the Summer vacation months. The auto business is marking time waiting for the new models. A lot of folks are out of town and you'll get prompt attention in the service department from mechanics who will give you a less hurried, in some cases lower-priced job.

Anticipating the end of the annual model run, most dealers want to keep their inventories down. All cars — both new and used — reach their lowest net selling price. Averages over the last few years show that prices were even lower at this time of year than later in September.

This, then, is just about the best time of the year to buy a new car. If you are stuck in town with the rest of motorists, it will at least make you less envious of your vacationing friends to sit behind the wheel of a brand new 1963 Ford at a price that Summer heat has wilted to an all-time yearly low.

OK Sick Leave For Bus Drivers

In addition to toting home heavier pay envelopes next year, Novi's school bus drivers will be given sick leave, it was decided at last week's school board meeting.

All bus drivers will receive an annual sick leave of three days, accumulative to 12 days. At the April 3 meeting, the board had voted to grant the bus drivers a 10 cent pay hike, bringing their hourly wage up to $1.95.

Offered a three-year contract at the meeting was Superintendent of Schools Tom Culbert.

Terms of the contract are $11,400 for the first year with $500 raises in each of the following years. Current superintendent's salary is $10,400.

In other business, the board approved an elementary teacher's contract for Mrs. Barbara Christman and a half-day elementary contract for Mrs. Nancy Smith, now a junior high teacher.

Mrs. Christman will replace Mrs. Avis Coes, retiring Orchard Hills fourth grade teacher.

New District Joins Child Guidance Plan

Plans for the Northwestern Child Guidance clinic have been moving steadily forward this past week.

The clinic gained authorization from the state legislature last week and brought the total number of participating school districts up to nine.

Latest district to join in supporting the clinic, slated to open this September in Eloise, is Redford Union.

Other participating districts, pledging 25 cents for each child enrolled are Northville, Belleville, Dearborn, Dearborn township district 7, Dearborn township district 8, Inkster, Romulus and Wayne.

The authorization, according to Mrs. Crispin Hammond of Northville, clinic president, means state clinics are "possible" yet this year.

Mrs. Hammond explained that the authorization was given in an amendment to an appropriations bill for the Mental Health Department.

This means, she said, that should another clinic such as ours lose a staff member this year — we might get some of the department funds earmarked for that staff member's salary to pay for a salary in our own clinic.

Mrs. Hammond stressed that the Mental Health Department doesn't "give a red cent" to any clinic. "It just pays salaries of professional people."

Certainly, she continued, by next year the department will pay some of our salaries. "Perhaps, even, by then, we can qualify for a department matching grant," Mrs. Hammond concluded.

Fiscal Problems too Acute To OK Community College

To the Editor:

On June 10, 1963, voters of the Northville School District will be asked to vote on the question of joining the Northville Wayne County Community College District's Schoolcraft College. This proposal might better be stated thus, "Are you prepared to support community education beyond the high school level?" As a member of the P.T.A. Committee which recently studied this question, I cannot recommend a yes vote. The case for the proponents of community college will undoubtedly be presented in full, with I suspect the usual hard sell. All of the positive aspects of the study committee's report were printed on the front page of the Northville Record, April 25, 1963. In the interests of fair play, let's explore some facets of this issue that have not, to date, been published. Joining this college will represent one mill to taxpayers or approximately $28,000 to the community. It will be years before we enroll a sufficient number of graduates to the college to balance this figure. Those pushing for participation are certain many Northville adults will attend the college for cultural achievement or to realize their educational potential. I hope they do, but not with public funds subsidizing their tuition. If we join the district, Northville High School graduates will pay $105 tuition per semester. If we do not join, they may attend as non-resident students for $165 per semester, providing there is room. Currently all community colleges in the state are accepting non-resident students. The incentive to do so will continue, despite crowded conditions, because more aid to these colleges can then be expected from the state level both for operating and new building appropriations.

Joining this college district poses a real threat to our local school system. Both Livonia and Plymouth saw fit to turn down financial requests from their local school boards after voting themselves into the college district. Our own school board will be asking renewal of the currently levied ten mills in 1965 and I suspect some additional funds will be sought at that time.

Northville citizens are currently being asked to support the Economic Development Corp. whose avowed goal is to attract industry to broaden our tax base and thus help our local school system. Many home owners can send a $10 check to the Corp. in hope of indirectly easing the property tax burden. They can then add $10 to the tax burden by voting yes on the Schoolcraft College question. Despite the individual value of either of these acts, one does defeat the P.T.A. Committee has allowed their emotional interest in education to blind them to the acute fiscal problems confronting our community.

The Schoolcraft College will, no doubt, be another artistic triumph for the same architectural firm that designed Northville High school. Like taxpayers everywhere, I wonder if better educational quality is necessarily a product of elaborate buildings. The faculty salary schedule raises serious doubts about its ability to attract top people. Their statement of admissions has been characterized by their dean as being "non selective". In plain language this means that this college can become a dumping ground for poor students who are not college caliber.

I implore all voters to take a long hard look at all the facts before casting their vote. It is one thing to get into the college district, but legally impossible to get out once you are in.

I will be happy to discuss the pro and con of this issue anywhere, anytime, any place with anyone interested.

Sincerely,
Elsie Price

Pay Hike Premature

At the Novi School Board meeting on May 8th, the board by a 3 to 2 vote, extended the superintendent's contract for a period of 3 years, with a $1,000 raise in salary for the first year, bringing his salary to $11,400, and a $500 raise each year for the remaining two years. The superintendent was also given the privilege of opening the contract for negotiation after the first year.

Regardless of who is elected to the board on June 10th, it seems to me that this action should have waited until the voters of the district had a chance to decide who they wanted to represent them and then let those persons decide what the superintendent's salary shall be. The majority of the board certainly must have felt that they did not have the backing of the voters when they took this action. This is especially significant since there was another year to run on the superintendent's existing contract.

When our new school is built, the board will have to come before the taxpayers for some money to operate it. It seems rather unfair to the superintendent, the taxpayers, and the children that the present majority on the board would jeopardize the future of our new school by such action. It seems to me that the school board has a definite responsibility to everyone involved to make sure that tax dollars are spent wisely on the educational needs of our children, rather than on a premature administrative cost increase.

New Product Used at Downs

Wall-to-Wall Carpeting for Horses

"The only racetrack in North America with wall-to-wall carpeting for horses," smiled Executive Manager John Carlo of Northville Downs as he watched workers from the Minnesota, Mining and Manufacturing company completely cover the floor of the new $250,000 paddock at the east end track's stretch.

It was another first for Michigan's pioneer standardbred parimutuel oval. It became the first track to use the newly developed Tartan plastic surfacing in one of its buildings.

The amazing surfacing, which has been tested on a half-mile strip at the Hempt Brothers breeding farm near Mechanicsburg, Pa. and found suitable for all-weather racing, is still in the infant stage and each new use is strictly another experiment.

Strangely enough, the inventor of the plastic surface is a Michigan native — Ted Buckholtz from St. Joseph — who was stationed in Minneapolis during World War II, married there and decided to settle in the Minneapolis-St. Paul area.

He took a position with the 3M Company, completed the training course and now is a laboratory supervisor. Ted was given the task of developing a track surfacing, or for that matter a surface that could be used in 'practically any type of sport, and came up with Tartan after four years of study and experiment.

He personally supervised the laying of the 12,600-square feet of surface in the 320-foot long paddock which will be used for the first time when Northville opens its 45-night meeting on Monday, June 10.

The 1/4th inch carpeting or surface can be installed in any color but Carlo decided on green for the paddock and there is a beautiful wall-to-wall grass-green floor ready for the pacers and trotters when they check in for the first night of racing.

Tartan is a complete synthetic plastic material made up of two component resilient base fillers with a specially selected aggregate. It is mixed in a fashion similar to cement but hardens so quickly that workers must have it installed on the floor or track within a matter of minutes.

Otherwise it solidifies into a hard, rubbery mass that has to be discarded. It took a crew of 10 men slightly more than 12 hours to complete the installation on the huge 64-stall paddock and the floor was ready for the horses within 15 minutes after the workers had completed a section.

"This is the most amazing thing I have ever seen at a race track or any other type of sports buildings," said Racing Commissioner Edgar Hayes, after watching the installation.

"Just imagine wall-to-wall carpeting for standardbreds and then think of the possibilities for this surface. I feel that Northville Downs has taken the greatest forward step of any track in the nation in trying this material and I'm looking forward to the time when one of the tracks — I hope it's Northville — will have its racing strip covered with Tartan.

"Think of the tremendous possibilities. No such things as a muddy track, nothing to worry about regardless of the weather and top performances of the horses at all times. And for the owners and trainers, no more worries about horses breaking down on concrete-hard strips in the long, dry spells. I have nothing but praise for John Carlo and his Associates and for the entire Downs operation."

Carlo was asked if the paddock installation was just the first step in a move that might mean covering the track in the near future.

"I won't say that we're not thinking of such a thing," he said. "But we'll watch the operation at Del Miller's The Meadows track near Pittsburgh to see how the surface holds up. Then we'll decide on future steps."

Meanwhile, Buckholtz and his crew are making plans to move to The Meadows in two weeks to start the installation there of the entire racing strip.

The plans call for an inch of Tartan at the rail tapering down to three-eighths inch at the outside over an asphalt base.

"The experience at Hempt's farm has been gratifying," explained Buckholtz. "We learned things there that will help at The Meadows and we hope to learn things here at Northville that will aid in future installations of this nature."

"We feel that within a matter of a few years every track, harness or thoroughbred, will be using Tartan and fans will be viewing the finest racing in history."

There is a slight matter of cost that could make track managements ponder a bit. Northville laid out $2 a square foot or something like $30,000 for the paddock covering and Miller will pay almost three-quarters of a million dollars for The Meadows.

POURING CARPET — Workmen poured the "green carpet" over Northville Downs' new paddock floor last week. Interested observer in the background is John Carlo, Downs executive manager.

Summer's coming, get going!

If this isn't a great time to get yourself a new Chevrolet—well, we just don't know when is. Why, you'd almost have to be anti-summer not to let one of these four convertibles get to you. Or any of Chevrolet's sedans, wagons, sport coupes and sport sedans, for that matter.

And there are a lot of other buy-up reasons besides the season. Like the care-free feeling you get on a long vacation trip in a brand-new car. And it's a smart time to trade, what with your Chevrolet dealer all stocked up for a busy summer. Chances are, he has just the model and color you want — be it Chevrolet, Chevy II, Corvair or Corvette—ready to go right now.

So maybe now you're all wound up? Then spring into summer at your Chevrolet dealer's.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

By The Reverend Paul M. Cargo,
First Methodist Church of Northville

In the denomination which I represent, Sunday, May 19 is being recognized as Aldersgate Sunday. May 24 is Aldersgate Day, and this year of our Lord 1963 marks the 225th anniversary of John Wesley's Aldersgate experience. These observances are more than a Methodist, denominational concern.

The whole of Christendom marks John Wesley's Journal as one of the world's great spiritual classics. It is the chronicle of the foremost religious figure of 18th century England, for Wesley's long life well nigh spanned the century, and it is said by worthy historians that the spiritual impact of this one man more than likely saved England from bloody revolution. Religious people everywhere thrill to the life of a person who has a vital religious experience and who has a passion to inflame others.

It was not always so. John Wesley was born in the rectory of an Anglican priest in Epworth, England, and though he had a fine religious upbringing at home and a fine education at Charterhouse School and at Oxford University he found that he lacked a spirit of trust and a sense of assurance, which with increasing years he increasingly craved.

Wesley's two years in America in the colony of Georgia were marked more by soul-searching than by soul-winning, and when he returned to London he was ready for a religious experience in depth. John Wesley's second natal day was approaching. We read of his life-changing experience in his own words:

"I think it was about five this morning that I opened my Testament upon those words: 'There are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises, even that ye should be partakers of the divine nature' (2 Pet. 1.4). Just as I went out I opened it again on these words, 'Thou art not far from the kingdom of God.' In the afternoon I was asked to go to St. Paul's. The anthem was the 130th Psalm.

"In the evening I went very unwillingly to a society in Aldersgate Street, where one was reading Luther's preface to the Epistle to the Romans. About a quarter before nine, while he was describing the change which God works in the heart through faith in Christ, I felt my heart strangely warmed. I felt I did trust in Christ, Christ alone, for salvation; and an assurance was given me that He had taken away my sins, even mine, and saved me from the law of sin and death."

For the remainder of his life Wesley preached a gospel of salvation by faith, of assurance, of personal and social righteousness. He travelled tirelessly by horseback in England, Scotland, Ireland, and Wales. A people called Methodist came into being and the Methodist Church became organized in the new United States and in old England. Richard Watson Gilder, American poet, writing lines on John Wesley said that the "mightiest miracle of all" was "Creating God again in human hearts. Let not that image fade. Ever, O God! from out the minds of men, Of him, thy messenger and stainless priest, In a brute, sodden and unfaithful time, Early and late, o'er land and sea, on-driven, In youth, in eager manhood age extreme, Driven on forever, back and forth the world, By that divine, omnipotent desire, The hunger and the passion for men's souls!"

When Wesley died in 1791 in his 87th year his last words were "The best of all is God is with us." And in his dying gasps he was only able to utter "I'll praise... I'll praise... I'll praise my Maker while I've breath. And when my voice is lost in death, Praise shall employ my nobler powers. My days of praise shall ne'er be past, While life and thought, and being last. Or immortality endures." The Christian religion has been advanced because of the life and spirit of this one man whom God used powerfully.

Triple Trilliams

ONE IN A MILLION — Those were the odds last year when the Donald Severances of 392 Fairbrook had one triple trilliam in their yard. Severance is shown looking at this year's oddity — two triple trilliams. For fear they might die, U of M horticulture experts advised them not to handle the plants, so the Severances usually use paper and sticks and keep a constant vigil.

Board members present: R. D. Merriam, Marguerite N. Young, Alex M. Lawrence, Donald E. Robinson and Wilson D. Tyler — Edward Besemen, Legal counsel, was attending.

Visitors: Mr. Peterson of the Northville Record and approximately 12 citizens from the township.

The minutes of the regular Township Board meeting of April 2, 1963 and Special Board meetings of April 5, April 10 and April 17, 1963 were accepted as written.

The treasurer's report was read by Treasurer Lawrence, approved and ordered placed on file.

Office receipts for April 1963 amounting to $2,604.29 and bills payable amounting to $5,546.96 were reviewed.

After discussion, Robinson moved, supported by Lawrence, that the bills be paid. Motion carried.

The Building Inspector's report was reviewed and a letter from Robert Haass stating that he did not feel it would be necessary for him to fence his swimming pool as his home was completely fenced and the gate padlocked, was read. After discussion, Young moved, supported by Robinson, that Attorney Besemen be asked to write Mr. Haass requesting that he comply with the Township Swimming Pool Ordinance and have a fence built around his pool within a definite period. Motion carried.

Planning Commission minutes of April 30, 1963, were read and accepted.

Water & Sewer Commission minutes were accepted as written.

Old Business:

1. Robinson moved, supported by Lawrence, that further assurance be requested from Mr. Clark of the Clark Insurance Agency as to whether the Aetna Insurance Company will or will not pay for an audit in case of an embezzlement. Motion carried.

New Business:

1. Applicants for new Class "C" liquor licenses

Mr. Clarence Charest, Attorney for Dominic Peretto, advised the board that Mr. and Mrs. Peretto had secured a ninety day option on the Glen Long store located at 43307 W. Seven Mile, which property is zoned M-1, and wished to open a restaurant serving alcoholic beverages. He was asking that the board pass on a resolution for the Liquor Control Commission approving Dominic Peretto "above all others" for a new Class "C" liquor license.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a letter be written Waring & Johnson advising that their services will no longer be required and requesting that all materials belonging to the Township be returned to the Township.

Trustee Tyler suggested that the Board wait to approve this appointment until such time as the Planning Commission had applied and were working under Federal Grant 701 Planning Assistance Program.

He was advised that the Planning Commission wished to make the change at once and as far as cost of planning assistance, they would keep within their budget.

Yeas: Robinson, Lawrence and Young. Nays: Tyler. Motion carried.

Trustee Tyler wished to have an explanation of his Nay vote in the minutes, saying it was not clear to him what Vilcan-Lemon would do in the interim between now and until such time as the 701 program was adopted.

MAYOR A. M. ALLEN makes it official by signing a proclamation declaring May 12-18 "Realtor Week". Standing behind the mayor are: (l. to r.) Marvin Moser, secretary, and Richard H. Funk, president, of the area realtor organization; and Northville members, Donnel Merriitt, D. J. Stark and L. M. Eaton.

Local Members Mark Realtor Week, May 12-18

Don Merriitt, a member of the Board of Directors of United Northwestern Realty Association - Western Wayne County Board of Realtors, D. J. Stark and L. M. Eaton, past president of the Western Wayne County Board of Realtors, joined with Richard H. Funk, this year's president of UNRA-WWCBC-WOCB and Marvin O. Moser, its secretary, in a ceremony proclaiming Realtor Week.

Mayor A. M. Allen signed a Realtor Week Proclamation officially designating May 12-18 as Realtor Week in Northville. The Proclamation reads as follows:

INASMUCH AS the Western Wayne County Board of Realtors is joining with the other 1,445 constituent boards of the National Association of Real Estate Boards throughout the country in observing Realtor Week from May 12-18; and

WHEREAS Northville Realtors have contributed and are contributing freely of their professional knowledge and skill to the successful functioning of many community agencies, commissions, and boards charged with essential duties; and

WHEREAS Realtors are among the foremost professional groups in the city in advancing our civic life through membership and work in service clubs, citizens' organizations, and groups dedicated to cultural and charitable purposes; and

WHEREAS much of the progress of this community is due in large measure to the competence with which Realtors have taken and are taking part in the commercial and industrial growth of our city; and

WHEREAS the high degree of home ownership enjoyed by our citizens has been achieved with the skilled help of the Realtors of the community; and

WHEREAS Realtor activities have been conducted in accordance with a Code of Ethics that requires a higher standard of performance than that imposed by law alone;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, A. M. Allen, Mayor of the City of Northville do hereby proclaim the week of May 12-18 to be Realtor Week and urge our citizens to unite with the Northville Board of Realtors in its observance.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the city of Northville to be affixed this 1st day of May, 1963.

Realtors from this area will join with the more than 73,000 across the country this year under the slogan "A Home Means Happiness — Happiness with a Home Means a Realtor" in an effort to emphasize their services and to make clearer the distinction between a Realtor and others in the real estate business.

By adding the phrase "Happiness with a Home Means a Realtor" the Realtors are explaining that by doing business through a Realtor, with his background of experience, integrity, and competence, the public is assured of superior service and satisfaction.

The term Realtor was adopted by NAREB in 1916, and members have exclusive right to use the term, which is registered as a collective mark (similar to a trademark) in the United States Patent Office.

The parent organization, founded in 1908 in Minneapolis, Minn., has offices in Chicago, Illinois, and Washington, D.C.

Realtors are kept aware of changes in real estate law, mortgage rates, buying trends and innumerable other business factors, through publications of the Association's professional staff which maintains close contact with developments throughout the country.

Art Around Us

By Jessie Hudson

"Serigraph" is a puzzling word which shows up more and more in galleries and art museums these days. It is derived from "seri" — the root word for silk — and "graph" — the chief constituent of raw silk or (2) sericulture, the science of raising silk worms. "Graph" means to write or print so "seri" added to "graph" gives us a word meaning silkprinting. "Serigraph" was coined fairly recently by printmakers to differentiate between artists' original, limited-edition silk-screen prints from the work of commercial silk-screen printers.

"Silk-screen" is a puzzling term in itself but one which is really quite simple when the process is explained. Over a wooden frame the printmaker stretches fine-mesh silk. The frame is attached to a baseboard with hinges which have removable pins so that the screen may be taken off the board for cleaning. Areas of the silk are blocked off by water-soluble glue or by cut-out paper stencils. The parts of the silk-screen left open, or unblocked, form the printing area. Special silk-screen paint, in consistency like colored petroleum jelly, is squeezed through the open areas of the silk on to the paper placed between the screen and the baseboard. The process is repeated until the required number of copies are printed. The stencil on the silk is removed, the screen is cleaned and a new stencil applied. The next color area is then superimposed on the first, and so on until the desired number of colors and shapes have been printed.

An artist's approach to the silk-screen process is that he rings changes in combinations of screens and colors so that the whole series may vary from print to print. He is also careful to vary transparent with opaque colors for added textural interest and to use a more subtle, hand-mixed range of colors than the commercial printer can. The whole process, like most art forms, is very ancient. It was developed from the Chinese and Japanese art of glueing delicate stencils to a web of hair and printing through the apertures with watercolors and inks.

Our interest in serigraphy was aroused by the show due to open this week at the Hartley-Powers Gallery in Northville. For Michigan Week Mrs. Hartley has invited James A. Walker of Flint to display his award-winning prints. Mr. Walker, art-instructor at Northern High school and the Mott Foundation Art Program in Flint, is a graduate of Western Michigan, Columbia and Michigan State Universities. He is member of the Michigan Association of Printmakers and the Michigan Academy of Arts, Sciences and Letters.

His work is usually on display with the Michigan Annual Art Show and he will have one piece in this year's exhibit opening tomorrow. He is represented in several New York Galleries. Mr. Walker's serigraphs are unusually fine examples of the artist's approach to silk-screen printing. They will be on view at the little gallery in Northville from May 19 to June 1.

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Knowing Lee BeGole isn't enough. You have to understand him. And I don't know anyone who really does.

If this sounds contradictory, then I've made my point. That's BeGole.

I've been acquainted with the loquacious Novi police chief for more than a decade. He's what a reporter classifies as "an invaluable source of information."

But with BeGole you must be able to separate fact from fiction. Nothing malicious intended. Lee just likes to add a touch of relish to his reports.

Like the time a Novi man was cleaning his gun, and accidentally shot himself in the foot.

BeGole told an unsuspecting (and uninitiated) reporter from an area daily that the man had been attacked by an angry rabbit. He had missed the rabbit and shot himself in the foot. BeGole painted a vivid picture of the ferocious bunny charging the armed hunter. It made good copy. Both the reporter and his editor were impressed with Novi rabbits. The story was given a headline and feature treatment.

I repeat this story only to display one of the many sides of Lee BeGole. I don't think it's funny.

Recently my friend (and I count him as that) has been plagued by an occupational hazard — public criticism.

Some of this is probably deserved. I've never met a perfect police chief.

But it's my unsolicited opinion that Novi can be thankful it has Lee BeGole. He's a conscientious, hard-working and able police chief.

He came to Novi in 1954 and took over as "director of public safety".

For several months he was the only fulltime unpaid, volunteer policeman covering the 36-square-mile area. And he patrolled in his own car. He also served as a fireman.

You've already gathered that BeGole is no ordinary policeman. Neither is he eccentric. Devoted would be a better word. He likes wearing a uniform, carrying a gun and upholding the law.

He's a graduate of the University of Detroit law school and passed his bar examinations in 1952. He's deeply interested in juvenile activities and helped organize the Youth Protective Association.

He's president of the Oakland County Law Enforcement Association and the Michigan-Ontario Juvenile Officers Association. He's an officer in the U.S. Army Reserve.

Occasionally, these activities take him out of Novi. That's BeGole's excuse for working only a six-day week.

Granted BeGole often works peculiar hours. (It's frequently easier to find him at midnight than noon). And it's undoubtedly true that he stops off for a friendly cup of coffee more than once a day.

But I'd bet a chocolate-covered donut that off-duty or on, BeGole's thinking of his job, which is the welfare and safety of Novi.

It would shock me not one bit to learn that his pajamas are equipped with holster and badge.

TV to Transmit Heat and Lights?

Babson Park, Mass., — I remember, when I was a youth, what great news it was when Marconi the Italian inventor sent a signal across the Atlantic Ocean — to Newfoundland. This was followed by the use of the Morse Code, and later by the radio voice direct.

The radio was then the invention of the century and its development marked the beginning of a great new industry.

No one then imagined that TV would come along and develop into such a great business as it has become. Sometimes when I watch TV I wonder whether it is doing more harm than good; but the American people will make only good broadcasts pay in the end. TV will have the same "ups and downs" as the movies have had. Both must greatly improve to be permanently successful.

But today I wish to forecast that we are on the verge of great new developments in TV. Just now we are using these same radio and television waves to transmit not only sound but pictures — all in action of the most remarkable kind. Furthermore, we do not need even an outdoor antenna as these waves (which give us talking and action in pictures) will pass through the walls of our houses.

In fact, these waves have been passing through the walls of our houses and the walls of every castle in Europe and Asia for thousands of years, without being used.

Just stop for a moment and think what wonderful things radio waves are and realize our debt to Marconi for discovering them for us.

In this column I am now mentioning only one more TV development; there are many more to follow. This one is the prospect of being able to press buttons and throw light or heat into our rooms. For some time I have been taking pictures of the sun. Someday, I believe, great TV cameras — combined with large magnifying glasses — will transmit heat and/or light directly into our homes. This will surely require a new chemical, and perhaps special new broadcasting stations for each community. These heat and light TV broadcasts will not be interrupted by advertising. The cost will be added to our gas or electric bill. Special eyeglasses may be needed to use in rooms so heated or lighted; but I will not discuss such details now.

Of course, such new developments may have tremendous implications. They would almost surely create new corporations that would be listed on the New York Stock Exchange. Establishment of these corporations would result in intense speculation. Many of the new corporations would pass through bankruptcy, but the stocks of a few would become very valuable.

We should remember that there were once 200 different automobile companies in the U.S.A., which have finally been reduced to only about five. I well remember when Henry Ford took 10 years to raise his first $100,000; but when he got started he built 15,000,000 "Tin Lizzies" and put the horses, buggies, and wagons out of business.

Edison's incandescent light bulb made obsolete the kerosene lamps such as my mother used to trim and clean every morning. Think what the du Ponts did to the silk worms of Japan and the Orient, manufacturing synthetic materials from a few chemicals.

Charles Hall, a poor chemistry teacher at Oberlin College in Ohio, discovered a way of making aluminum from clay, and sparked the present billion-dollar aluminum industry which now manufactures goods used in every household. Then along came Dr. Einstein, unlocking the great power of the atom, which unfortunately is not being used extensively for peacetime purposes. In order to get this atomic power we are now using the mineral uranium which was considered worthless 50 years ago.

Now further developments are on the way and it may be safe to say that anything could happen. The two biggest events will be securing power direct from the sun, and getting it from sea water by breaking this water up into its components, hydrogen and oxygen.

This latter is surely coming some day. The earth is now three-fifths surrounded by free water. What then will happen to the price of gasoline? But greater than all is the power of same religion to change the hearts of men and women of all nations, races, and creeds. Oh, I wish I were a young student today!

Mackie Fears Raids On Highway Funds

An apparent move to broaden the use of presently earmarked highway funds has been indicated early by Gov. George Romney.

Speaking to a traffic safety group in Lansing before the approval of the new Constitution was even verified by the Board of State Canvassers Romney called for a study to determine the feasibility of using highway funds to promote traffic safety.

Romney's theory was that since today's roads are designed to encourage safety, the same funds used to build them should also be available to preach the subject and conduct research on it. His specific reference was to possible use of the funds to re-establish a Traffic Safety center similar to the one in operation at Michigan State University until last year, when it was cut out of the state budget.

Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie reacted quickly at Romney's suggestion.

Mackie said he believes it would be "a serious mistake" for the State Legislature to divert highway funds to another agency. Under the new constitution, however, the earmarking of these funds will end.

The commissioner's fear is that, "When they make the first diversion to a quasi-highway agency, the second one will become that much easier."

This fear is not altogether unjustified, it would appear. There have been some discussions among legislators already that a traffic safety center, driver education, highway police patrols and all other highway-related state programs should be financed by road funds.

While Mackie's complaint about possible "raids on highway funds" was heated at the first public mention of the possibility, his antagonism toward such uses might be lessened if he were assured the new uses were kept in quasi-highway programs.

What Mackie really appears to fear most is that the Legislature will do exactly what the new Constitution gives it the power to do. That is to spend highway funds for all highway purposes "as defined by law."

The list of state government operations which could be construed as "highway purposes" is longer than most would expect. It would certainly be unfortunate if the legislators, many of whom resent the present financial independence of the Highway Department, were to stage a wholesale raid on the funds which would deter the long-range construction plans.

The warm weather months bring forth an increase in the incidence of child molestings, whether given by parents or teachers should also encourage them to report "any unusual attempts that strangers make to become acquainted with them," he said.

Library facilities at state parks and recreation areas will be greatly expanded this year, but the camping facilities at public fishing sites will be reduced, according to Conservation officials.

State Librarian Genevieve M. Casey will be circulating more than 9,000 books for use this summer at 47 state parks and recreation areas. This is the largest number of areas to offer the library service since the program began 15 years ago.

An average of 200 books will be available in the various park libraries, located in the manager's office. New parks adding the service this year are Muskallonge in Luce County Algonac in St. Clair County, and Port Crescent in Huron County.

MICHIGAN WEEK is next week, May 19 through May 25. Throughout the State, activities are planned to publicize Michigan's unlimited assets, resources and advantages for industry, business, agriculture, education and recreation. The purpose? To help every Michigander become a better-informed spokesman for our State. This year's Michigan Week theme is "Science and Research for our Future." A good choice, because there are more than 200 active research units in Michigan. They do an estimated $750 million worth of research and development work annually—assuring a better future for each of us. Current projects range from work on the atom to the structure of society, from poison ivy preventatives to new nutritional products. Their fine efforts add up to a skyrocketing activity that shows no signs of leveling off.

RESEARCH IS THE KEY to more and better telephone service, too. For example, the hard-working transistor, developed by Bell Telephone Laboratories, is basic to new transmission and switching systems that will lead to new and improved services. Just last month telephone company operators began dialing calls direct to Great Britain, Germany, Italy, France and Switzerland. Some day we may enjoy such convenience as television telephones that let you see as well as talk to the person you're calling. This continuing research means telephone service that is high in value, low in cost—now and in the years ahead.
