

155 NHS Seniors Face Final Farewell

The Speaker

Russell Wentworth
The 1963 graduation speaker is a man who describes himself as being "at best, a simple man."

Russell Wentworth, assistant director of MSU's admission office, adds: "I love my job and I love kids."

Wentworth joined the university's staff in 1961 as office manager of the office of admissions and scholarships. One year later, he became assistant director.

He earned his B.A. and M.A. degrees from the university and is currently working on his doctorate there.

In the past, he has served as principal of the elementary school in Yale, Michigan, and as president of the Modernfold Door Sales company, Detroit.

He is a member of Phi Delta Kappa, education fraternity; the Association of the College Admissions Counselors and its state branch, and the National Association of Secondary Schools Principals.

Born in Royal Oak, he is married with four children and living in northwest Lansing.

Seniors in Northville high school's largest graduating class will file across the gymnasium stage next Thursday night to accept their diplomas.

Highlighting the tradition laden graduation ceremonies will be an address entitled "Spring House Cleaning" delivered by Russell Wentworth, assistant director of the office of admissions, Michigan State University.

Seniors, including 21 honor students, will start their procession at 8 p.m., led down the aisle by the music of the high school band.

Once the 155 seniors are in place, Leslie G. Lee will raise his voice to lead the seniors and audience in singing the National Anthem.

Following will be Rosemarie Kaminski's salutatory address, a performance of Respighi's "Pines of the Apennines" and Duna Penn's valedictory address. Then, Dr. Kenneth MacLeod, assistant superintendent, will introduce Wentworth.

High School Principal Fred Stefanski will present the class of 1963, the 94th to graduate. Superintendent of Schools R. H. Amerman will then present the diplomas.

Ceremonies will close as the audience joins with Lee in singing "America" and Reverend Paul Cargo, pastor of the First Methodist church, in prayer.

Seniors will don caps and gowns for the first time this Sunday.

That day, they'll be participating in the religious Baccalaureate service, set for 8 p.m. in the gymnasium.

Featured speaker for the evening is Reverend Robert Spradling, pastor of the First Baptist church. His address: "Decision Determines Destiny."

Sunday ceremonies will get underway with a graduating class procession to music played by Linda Line.

Reverend Spradling will offer the invocation; Reverend Brasure, the scripture reading and benediction.

Singing will be members of the high school choir. Music they've chosen to present includes Scheutky's "Emmeline" and Ringwald's arrangement of the Battle Hymn of the Republic.

Many of the seniors will have still another graduation dress rehearsal tomorrow night. Then, they'll be guests at an Honors Convocation, slated to begin at 8 p.m. in the gymnasium.

City Hall Project Goes to Bidders

An okay on Northville's plans for a new city hall-library-fire hall has been received from the federal government.

With this assurance the council set June 24 as the night to open bids on the project. The council will meet in special session with the architect, Harry M. Denyes, Jr., that evening to study bids and probably make the award on July 1.

Construction is expected to get underway by mid-July with completion some seven or eight months later.

First steps in the city hall project were completed last week with the demolition of the old city hall and fire hall. The new facility is expected to cost some $270,000. The city received $137,000 in matching federal funds for the building.

In other business Monday night, the council agreed that the appeals board should hear the issues of the proposed expansion of D & C Store. The store will soon move into the Main street building now occupied by E-Jay Lumber Mart.

Expansion of the building is proposed. The planning commission recommended that eight new parking places must be provided, but held that previous contributions should be credited towards the requirement. Such a policy was considered too difficult to determine by the council, however.

The parking question was scheduled to be heard by the board of appeals last night (Wednesday).

The council also signed an agreement with Oakland county concerning the sewer from 10 Mile road to the interceptor in Northville, approved submission of an application to the state for 701 planning assistance and rezoned a 119 W. Cady street lot from C-2 to R-3.

College Issue, Board Seats Up to School Voters Monday

With the community college question as an added attraction school district voters are expected to turn out at the polls Monday in numbers "slightly above average" — but below the 916 record set in 1960.

Voters will select two candidates for the school board from a field of three.

They will also decide whether to join the Northwest Wayne County Community College District at an annual tax levy of one mill. (See story elsewhere on this page concerning community college; public meeting).

Candidates for the school board are Edward F. Angove and Wilfred C. Becker, both incumbents, and William C. Soellner, Jr.

Dr. Gordon R. Forrer is the lone candidate for trustee as representative of Northville on the community college board.

Both school board and college trustee terms are for four years.

Because city voting machines are currently tied up in the con-con recount, the school district has moved its polling place to the Main street elementary school where township machines will be used.

Three proposals, in addition to the election of the trustee are contained in the community college question. All three must gain "YES" majorities for passage.

Only tax-paying electors may vote on proposal three which provides that the Northville school district will assume its pro-rata share of the college district's $2,435,000 building and site bonds which have 19 years to run.

Officials at the polls will lock the voting machines so that non-tax paying voters cannot pull the lever on proposal three.

Proposal one asks whether or not Northville school district should be annexed to the Northwest Wayne County Community College District. Proposal two sets the mill levy limit at one mill for a period of 19 years (1963-1981) designating that funds may be used for operation of the college, capital improvements and land acquisition and debt retirement.

Northwest Wayne County Community College District, official name for the district served by Schoolcraft college, presently includes the school districts of Plymouth, Livonia, Garden City and Clarenceville. South Redford, like Northville, will vote Monday on joining the college district.

Following are brief background sketches of the candidates.

Angove, first elected to the board in 1960, has been a resident of Northville since 1931 and lives at 20181 Valley road. He is divisional manager for Winthrop Laboratories. He is a graduate of Northville high school and Michigan State University. He also received a degree in meteorology from the University of Chicago. Angove is married and has three children.

Becker is also completing his first term on the board and presently serves as secretary. He is an associate professor of art at Wayne State University where he is in charge of the industrial design curriculum. He was graduated from Redford high school and received his B.A. and M.A. from Wayne State. He has resided in Northville since 1953, lives at 543 Dubuque and he and his wife have four children.

Soellner has been a resident of Northville for 4½ years. He and his wife and one boy, 11, live at 43714 Dorcas court. Soellner is assistant sales manager for the consumer products division of Glendale Electronic Supply. He attended Henry Ford community college and has taken business seminars at both Ohio State University and Wayne State University.

College trustee candidate, Dr. Forrer, has been a resident of Northville for nine years. He and his wife and three children reside at 46995 West Main. A psychiatrist with offices in Detroit, Dr. Forrer was formerly clinical director at Northville State Hospital. He is a graduate of the University of Maryland.

Polls open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m.

Pool Set For Shovel

Official ground-breaking ceremonies for the Northville Swim Club have been set for Saturday at 1 p.m.

To be located behind the high school adjacent to the city water tower, the pool opening is scheduled for July 4.

At Saturday's ceremonies Robert Bogart, Swim Club vice president, will preside. Taking part will be Mayor A. M. Allen and Township Treasurer A. M. Lawrence, representing Supervisor R. D. Merriam.

Currently the club has 115 members. It hopes to expand membership to some 250 and enlarge facilities at a later date. Initial construction will include an olympic-size pool, bath house and wading area.

Membership cost is set at $350 with $50 annual dues.

Public Hears Views, Facts on Schoolcraft

Candidates

EDWARD F. ANGOVE
For School Board

WILFRED C. BECKER
For School Board

WILLIAM C. SOELLNER, JR.
For School Board

DR. GORDON R. FORRER
For College Trustee

At least 120 Northville school district voters are now better informed on Schoolcraft college.

They attended the public hearing held Monday evening at the community building and listened to college officials, local school authorities and interested citizens both for and against the community college idea.

The college, which will be constructed at the corner of 7 Mile and Haggerty roads, will serve the Northwest Wayne County Community College District composed of the school districts of Plymouth, Livonia, Garden City and Clarenceville.

Depending upon Monday's vote, the district may be expanded to include Northville and South Redford.

Nelson C. Schrader chairmaned the program, which remained informative throughout and held audience attention until the 10:30 p.m. closing.

Questions from the floor as well as comments from the speakers provided information about the college program ranging from finances to curriculum.

Participating in the program were: William Crump, president of the Northville board of education; Dr. Eric Bradner, president of Schoolcraft college; Harold Fischer, chairman of the college board of trustees; Mrs. Jane K. Moehle, vice chairman; Mrs. H. B. Price, speaking in opposition to the college; and Kenneth Conley, in favor.

At one time or another during the evening the speakers had this to say:

CRUMP — the school board president noted the board's endorsement of the community college program stating that "it would be a good thing to have a community college and for Northville to participate." He emphasized, however, that the board is solely responsible for education in grades kindergarten through 12.

He noted that Northville now pays 24.95 mills in school taxes. In 1965 the board must ask voters to renew 10 mills which will expire at that time. Crump also noted that it was possible that a new elementary school would be needed if building continues to expand. He estimated this would cost three mills for construction and four mills for operation. Crump said this seven mill estimate "was on the high side" — but felt the public should know this prior to voting on the college. "We (the board) do not feel that one program should be supported at the expense of the other," he concluded.

DR. BRADNER — The Schoolcraft president emphasized that he was in attendance to "explain, not sell" the community college to Northville. He said the college district now has an assessed valuation of $526 million, therefore one mill raises $526,000 annually. Tuition brings in $105 per semester (tri-semester per year system) and state aid provides $224 per full time student. He noted that of the tax millage ½-mill is earmarked for debt retirement ($2,435,000) over the next 19 years for building and site fund. The other half-mill, tuition, state aid goes for operation.

The college president noted

FISCHER AND MRS. MOEHLE — both contributed to some answers generally emphasizing that they were interested in offering a quality college program aimed at planning for needs of the future in the growing area. They also noted that such an institution was under local control and could therefore meet needs of the community.

MRS. PRICE — as an opponent, Mrs. Price asked the audience to "separate fact from fiction." She said Schoolcraft would not meet Northville's need and that we would be better advised to strengthen our own high school program in the area of vocational and technical training. She also said Livonia would reap any business benefits from the college. Mrs. Price also noted that half of the students now in community colleges come from outside the college district. She indicated this would be more economical for Northville.

CONLEY — On behalf of the college plan Conley noted that he will have a community college to support, whether we join Schoolcraft or not, concluding that nearby Schoolcraft offers the best opportunity for area residents. He cited local control of the college, need for training and re-training, savings to students in tuition and board and room expenses. Conley noted Northville's social, business and economic ties with Plymouth and Livonia as good reason for association. He said there were many area residents who could not otherwise afford higher education.

Downs Opens 45-Night Harness Season Monday

Northville Downs opens its gates Monday night for its 20th season with an earlier starting time and one extra race event nightly.

With post time at 8:15 p.m. and 10 races each night Downs Executive Manager John Carlo is looking forward to one of the biggest seasons ever. The 45-night meeting continues through Wednesday, July 31.

Carlo says the track's in A-1 shape. He's particularly proud, too, of the new $250,000 paddock at the east end of the track.

The 340-foot concrete and steel structure, which brings to some $1,800,000 the improvements made at the Downs during the past five years, has a capacity of 64 stalls on the paddock floor. The paddock is considered to be one of the most modern at any track. It can accommodate horses for eight races with the starters in the final two events moving in after the completion of the second race.

Carlo's hopeful that the virus infection causing horses at many of the nation's tracks to develop coughs has passed.

But just as a precaution, he has ordered all buildings and grounds in the barn and paddock areas sprayed with antiseptics.

With 10 races on the program and post time 15 minutes earlier, betting on the daily double closes at 8:10.

The Downs will sponsor three major stakes including the $12,300 HTA trot on June 28, the $7,500 added Michigan Pacing Derby on July 3, and the $7,500 added Michigan Trotting Derby July 17.

It is anticipated that the additional race nightly plus 45 nights — three more than last year — should increase the city of Northville's share of state rebates from the pari-mutuel handle. Last year the city collected $97,581.

Jewelry Plans Grand Opening

The grand opening, scheduled to continue through June 15, will feature a $100,000 diamond display.

about WOMEN

The Northville Record—Novi News—Thursday, June 6, 1963 Section One — Page Two

27th Annual Flower Show

Pages of History Opens Saturday

"Pages from History" is the theme of the Northville Farm and Garden Association's 27th annual flower show.

The show, scheduled to open at 2 p.m. and close at 7 p.m. Saturday, will be held in the community building.

Theme idea for the show, according to General Chairman Mrs. Wayne McBride was "a compromise."

Originally, she reports, the planning committee began talking about having a show built around the Civil War period since these are the war's centennial years.

Afraid centering the show in one period would cause monotony, the committee instead decided to feature several "Pages from History," Mrs. McBride said.

Periods, in which entries will be accepted from 8:30 to 11 a.m. Saturday include the New England period, Early American, Georgian, Victorian and Contemporary.

Specific categories that will be featured in a period such as the New England one include "A raising party" — arrangement using an antique wooden container; Call of the Wild — an arrangement in wicker using wild plants, and Enhanced by the Years — an arrangement in a pewter container.

In addition to historical exhibits, room and table settings, junior and special exhibits will highlight the show.

Exhibits will be judged on the following points: conformation to schedule, distinction and color harmony, proportion and balance, relationship of accessory and condition.

Goal of the show planners, Mrs. McBride said, is to present "the best ever" and that, she added, depends on the turnout.

In any event, the flower lovers will have to go some way to beat last year's show which, they found, recently won the Northville branch a state merit award.

Co-chairman of the show is Mrs. L. W. Shaw Jr.

Other chairman include Mrs. M. L. Hoysradt, scheduling; Mrs. George Kohls, staging; Mrs. John Northup, tickets; Mrs. N. K. Pattison, registration and classification; Mrs. E. O. Whittington, clerk.

Also, Mrs. F. S. Jennings, placing; Mrs. Carl Stephens, publicity; Mrs. Donald Ware, judges; Mrs. John Holler, properties; Mrs. L. M. Eaton, specimens.

Also, Mrs. C. W. Whittlesey, horticulture; Mrs. John Begle, tea; Mrs. Alfred Millington, finances; Mrs. Charles Ratliff, table settings; Mrs. Fred Sterner, Jr., junior exhibits, and Mrs. William Walker, hospitality.

NEWCOMER'S CORNER

"I look upon every day to be lost, in which I do not make a new acquaintance."

— Samuel Johnson

FROM MASSACHUSETTS — to Hawaii to Michigan. That was the itinerary of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Waidelich, pictured here with their two daughters, Fawn (left) and Shell.

Whether they are gentle rolling slopes or high mountains, hills hold a special significance for a Northville couple.

Atop a mountain in New Hampshire Mr. and Mrs. Carl Waidelich first met.

She, a native of Worcester, Massachusetts, was one of a group of girls that took a USO-sponsored bus trip to a ski resort on Mount Monadnock.

On the same bus was Mr. Waidelich and other GIs who were stationed at a nearby army post, Fort Devens. "We didn't do much skiing, but we had a lot of fun," said Mrs. Waidelich.

Mr. Waidelich was later sent by the army to another mountainous site, Hawaii. The future Mrs. Waidelich soon followed and there they were married.

They returned to the states a year and one-half later. It was time to don civilian garb. The Waidelichs brought a favorite "Shell" back with them. She's five years old now.

"We wanted to give our daughter a name which would remind us of Hawaii without having a difficult name to pronounce. So we named her Shell," said Mrs. Waidelich.

The Waidelichs have a "Fawn," too. That's the name of their three-year old daughter, a name that reminds them of Michigan.

After Fawn was born, Mr. Waidelich left Michigan State university where he was majoring in economics. He has worked since as a territorial manager for Wyeth Laboratories, a division of American Home Products.

They lived in Nankin township until they decided to buy a home. And 573 Langfield was the Waidelichs' choice for a good reason.

"I liked the hills," Mrs. Waidelich said. "They gave depth to the town." "With all the pastoral scenery about, Mrs. Waidelich also has opportunity aplenty to capture that depth in one of her oil paintings.

While she's doing that, Mr. Waidelich will attempt to conquer some other hills on the golf course.

Sunday is a day of reprieve for the family. They attend St. Paul's Lutheran church.

Plymouth State Home Sets Volunteer Training Dates

Orientation and training for the summer student volunteer program at Plymouth State Home and Training School is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Saturday, June 8 and 15, in the auditorium of the administration building.

Students planning to participate in the summer program, slated to begin June 17, must attend both training sessions, according to William Boyd, community relations director in charge of the volunteer program.

Boyd reported last week that students (14 years and over, male or female) are still needed in three different areas of service:

Physical therapy: ambulation training, minimal exercise and basic recreation (14 or over).

Patient care: feeding patients, grooming, reading to the children and conducting games (16 or over).

Non-patient care: clerical duties, sorting linen and assembling toys (16 or over).

Students may volunteer to serve one or more days a week, Boyd said. For maximum efficiency, the daily work schedule will provide a choice of morning, afternoon and evening hours, Monday through Saturday: 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. and 6 to 8:30 p.m.

Dependability and regularity of attendance are the only qualifications required by the staff, Boyd said. "Each student is requested to have a chest X-ray as a safeguard for the children," he added.

Plymouth State Home has approximately 700 mentally retarded children, ranging from 1 to 12 years of age. Although the hospital has a volunteer auxiliary, Boyd said, the additional benefits which the children derived from the care and attention provided by last year's student volunteers warranted a similar program this summer.

GRADUATING — Today, Edythe Bosak, daughter of the Frank Bosaks of Nine Mile road, will receive a bachelor of science degree in nursing at ceremonies in Mercy College of Detroit. Miss Bosak, a member of Theta Alpha Chi nursing sorority, is among 114 seniors receiving degrees. Degrees at Mercy college commencement will be conferred by the Most Reverend John F. Dearden, archbishop of Detroit. Candidates for degrees will be presented by Sister Mary Lucille, R.S.M., college president.

John Hopkins Receives France Study Grant

John Hopkins of Northville, a French language teacher at Plymouth high school for the past four years, has been awarded a National Defense Education Act grant for the study of the French language.

Hopkins will leave June 19 for a nine-week summer institute in Tours, France, a city 50 miles from where he was stationed with the U.S. Army in 1958-59 as a personnel specialist.

Purpose of the institute, sponsored by the University of Oregon, is to give participants a first-hand acquaintance with the French way of life in addition to developing the participants' control of the language and knowledge of teaching methods.

Hopkins was one of 80 chosen for the program out of 520 applicants. He plans, in addition to visiting historical monuments in Paris, to spend time with his wife's family there. Mrs. Hopkins, herself still a French citizen, came to the United States in 1957 from her native French-controlled Algeria.

Hopkins is a 1955 graduate of Western Michigan university and has taken graduate courses at Western and Michigan State universities. Prior to accepting a position at Plymouth high, he taught in South Lyon and Kent City.

For the 'Wright' Luncheon

Racking your brains for a summertime luncheon menu? If so, why not take a tip from Mrs. R. J. Wright of 602 Fairbrook who says she's found "the perfect" warm-weather menu, one she says is "just a little different."

A Wright luncheon consists of a vegetable cheese loaf and an old-time bread pudding which, the lady of the house says, "may sound complicated, but it's really terribly easy."

Besides, she adds, "Men just adore this pudding."

VFW Gives Five Awards

Mrs. Frank Broda and Thomas Moxie received poppy citations at the installation meeting of the VFW post and auxiliary last week in post quarters.

The citations were given for selling the most poppies during the May 24 post-auxiliary sale.

Installed as auxiliary president at the meeting was Mrs. Walter Sousa; Lawrence McArthur, post commander.

Past-presidents' rings were presented to Mrs. Al Smith and Thomas Moxie, with a three-year past secretary ring going to Mrs. Thomas Moxie.

Other new auxiliary officers include Mrs. Clayton Myers, senior vice president; Mrs. William Braun, junior vice president; Mrs. Thomas Moxie, secretary; and Mrs. Lawrence MacArthur, treasurer.

Post officers: Horace Nelson, senior vice commander; Glen Gerrard, junior vice commander; Charles Ash, quartermaster, and Al Smith, adjutant.

VEGETABLE CHEESE LOAF
1 pkg. mixed frozen vegetables
½ pkg. frozen chopped broccoli
Salt; cook and drain thoroughly. Into 1½ cups scalded milk, put 1 cup grated cheese and 3 Tbs. melted butter. Cool, add 1 cup soft, bread crumbs, 3 eggs well beaten and stir in drained vegetables.

Mix well, bake in a thoroughly buttered loaf or muffin tin for 60 minutes in a 350 degree oven. "Serve with 1" cup of mushroom soup to which a small can of button mushrooms have been added. Serves 6 to 8.

OLD-TIME BREAD PUDDING
5 slices of toast well buttered
¼ cup raisins
1 cup pecans, chopped
¼ tsp. salt
¼ cup sugar
3 eggs, well beaten
3 cups milk scalded
½ tsp. cinnamon

Arrange toast in buttered oblong baking dish. Spread with pecans and raisins. Stir salt and all but 2 Tbs. of sugar in to beaten eggs. Add milk and mix well.

Pour mixture over toast and allow to stand for 10 minutes. Press toast lightly down into milk occasionally so that toast soaks up most of milk mixture.

Mix cinnamon with 2 heaping Tbs. of sugar, sprinkle over top. Bake directly on oven rack for 25 minutes in a 350 degree oven or until a pointed knife inserted comes out clean. Serve warm.

Begin July 4 Parade Plan

At the May Coordinating Council meeting, President Al Smith appointed Mrs. Beatrice Carlson, Mrs. Mabel Cooley, Miss Ruth Knapp, Mrs. Stan Johnson and Mrs. Hurd Sutherland to plan with him the float for the Fourth of July parade.

It was announced that the city would pipe water to the Joe Denton Park and that any money now coming into this park fund for landscaping would be turned over to the city.

The next meeting will be on the evening of June 20 at the temporary city hall.

THANKS FOR THE CHANCE — A golf season of thanks goes into this handshake that Northville Coach Al Jones extends to Mrs. Fred Block of the Brae Burn golf course. Looking on is the Plymouth Coach John Sandmann. Through their generosity, owners Fred and Walter Block have made it possible for approximately 28 boys from the two high schools to claim Brae Burn as their "home course".

Mustangs Cop 3rd; Close Out Season

The Northville Mustangs wrapped up the 1963 baseball season in a 13-6 win-loss season package last weekend while grabbing consolation honors in the Pontiac Press tourney.

That's a pretty fair showing for the only class B team in a field of seven class A entries.

And the Mustangs came within a hair of coping it all for the second year in a row.

But it was not to be as the local team muffed a golden opportunity.

Leading the top team, undefeated Royal Oak Kimball by four runs going into the bottom of the last inning, the Mustangs committed four errors.

They thus opened the gates for an 8-7 Kimball win.

Northville jumped to a 1-0 lead in the first inning when Tom Swiss singled Gordie Hammond home.

Kimball bunched five of their 10 hits off Eric Peterson in the second frame to take a 3-1 advantage.

But Northville came back to score four times in the sixth and twice in the top of the seventh to apparently salt the game away, 7-3.

Jim Juday's single and double and Swiss' two singles paced the attack. Joe Hay contributed a clutch single to drive in two runs.

Then the roof caved in on the local nine.

Northville didn't play dead, however. It came back Saturday in its third contest with a win over Waterford Kettering, 6-3, to take third place.

Sophomore pitcher Jerry Imsland registered the win as he gave up six hits — three in a three-run fourth inning — struck out five and walked four in going the route. He also ignited the Mustangs' fifth frame come-from-behind three-run rally with a lead-off triple.

Juday also tripled in the inning, driving in two big runs. The last three Northville runs were a gift. The Kettering pitcher walked five men in a row, and a sacrifice fly brought in the third marker.

Coach Stan Golonka's stalwarts gained the second-round birth against Kimball by defeating Pontiac Central Thursday, 11-1, in a game called at the end of six innings.

Swiss kept Central under his thumb, permitting only three singles, striking out eight and walking two.

It was a 2-0 ball game until the fifth frame when the local boys worked Central for four hits, a walk and an error to score seven times.

They added two runs in the top of the sixth to make it 11-1. The game was called at that point because Northville had a 10-run lead.

Leading hitters for Northville were Hay with a triple and a single and Larry Angove, who pounded out a double.

In league play, Bloomfield Hills won the W-O conference title with a 12-2 record, edging out both Northville and Clarkston, who were tied for second with 10-4 slates.

Novi Nine Ends Season With 3-5 Mark

The Novi Junior high school baseball team registered a 3-5 season record.

The seventh and eighth graders walloped South Lyon, 13-3; edged by Dublin in eight innings, 12-11, and squeezed past Milford 14-13. Mike Grant was the winning pitcher in the South Lyon contest, and Tom Zielinski tallied the other two victories.

But won-lost figures don't tell the story. A few breaks here and there, and Novi might have improved on its record. Three games were lost by 7-6 decisions, and one by 3-1.

"We had a pretty good ball club," said Coach Chuck Osborn, "and with a few breaks we would have won more. At any rate," he continued, "I know we have a lot of talent on the team."

Leading the Novi hitters were Zielinski, Craig Fones, Dick Bentley, Herb Harbin, Carey Jo Harnden, Tim Beckwith, John Newton and Jack Crawford.

Undefeated Bandits Lead Novi Little Leaguers

The Novi Little Leaguers are off and running. With two weeks of play completed in the six-team baseball circuit, the Bandits have a clean slate.

Members of the Bandits proved their mettle by beating the Pillers (8-6), Steelers (8-0), Earthmovers (7-2) and the Eagles (8-7) to post a 4-0 record.

Holding down second place in the league is the Pillers with a 3-1-1 mark. Its lone defeat came at the hands of the Bandits, while the Steelers (2-1-1) and Pillers tied in a six inning encounter, called because of darkness.

Other teams and records are the Jayhawks (2-3) and the Eagles and the Earthmovers (1-4).

Topping the league's twirlers are Gary Boyer, William White and Lee Snow. Each has a 2-0 record.

Snow also leads in home runs, two. Others who have hit for the circuit are White, Boyer, Paul Faulkner, Paul Bunker, Jon Van Wagner, Buddy George, Ron Noble and Bill Christenson.

Games are played 6 p.m. Monday through Friday at the Novi school.

Schedule of upcoming games is as follows: today, Pillers-Steelers; tomorrow, Eagles-Earthmovers; Monday, Bandits-Steelers; Tuesday, Jayhawks-Pillers and Wednesday, Jayhawks-Eagles.

Net Squad Bows, 6-1

The Northville nettors were dealt another humiliating blow here May 28 as they lost their final match of the season to Oak Park, 6-1.

Turk Ornekian's first loss of the season was the most, stunning blow. Playing an opponent he had beaten previously, Ornekian just couldn't get going as he succumbed 6-4, 10-8.

Gary Grysiewicz and Jim Jiggins, Northville's doubles entry along with Ornekian in the June 7-8, state tennis tourney in Lansing, were the only winners. They breezed by their opponents, 6-2, 6-1.

But there was a long list of losers.

Mark Byard lost, 6-2, 6-1; Dave Schmidt fared no better, losing, 6-3, 6-2; Jim Wiedner was shut out, six-love, six-love and the doubles team of Bruce Dayton-Mark Lipa lost identical 6-3 sets.

Recreation Sign-Up

Registration for the Northville Recreation program will be held this Saturday and Monday through Saturday of next week at the Scout-Recreation building. Director Ken Conley announced this week.

Hours of registration will be 8-12 and 1-4. After June 15, registration will be held 8-12 Monday through Saturday.

All boys interested in playing ball who will be 14 or over before September 1 but not over 16 are to report to Cass Benton park each evening this week at 5:30 for practice and organization, Conley noted.

Boys 16 and over before September 1 but not over 19 are requested to report to the Scout-Recreation building at 1 p.m. Saturday (June 8) for an organizational meeting.

Golfers Lose To Plymouth

Northville golfers wound up the regular season Monday at Brae Burn, losing 310-313 to Plymouth.

Seven men were paired in the match to give all of them a final chance "to shoot their best."

Although the Mustangs were on the losing end, they had the two best scores. Jim St. Germaine took medalist honors with a 38 and Dave Zielinski fired a 41.

Lowest score for Plymouth was a 42.

Other Northville entries were a 42 by Rick Talbot, a 47 by Jim Bertoni and Bill Kleinsorge and 49's by Bill Wiedner and John Walters.

Colts Defeat Plymouth, 2-0

The Northville Colts won one for the books.

They beat Plymouth 2-0 Wednesday at the high school field.

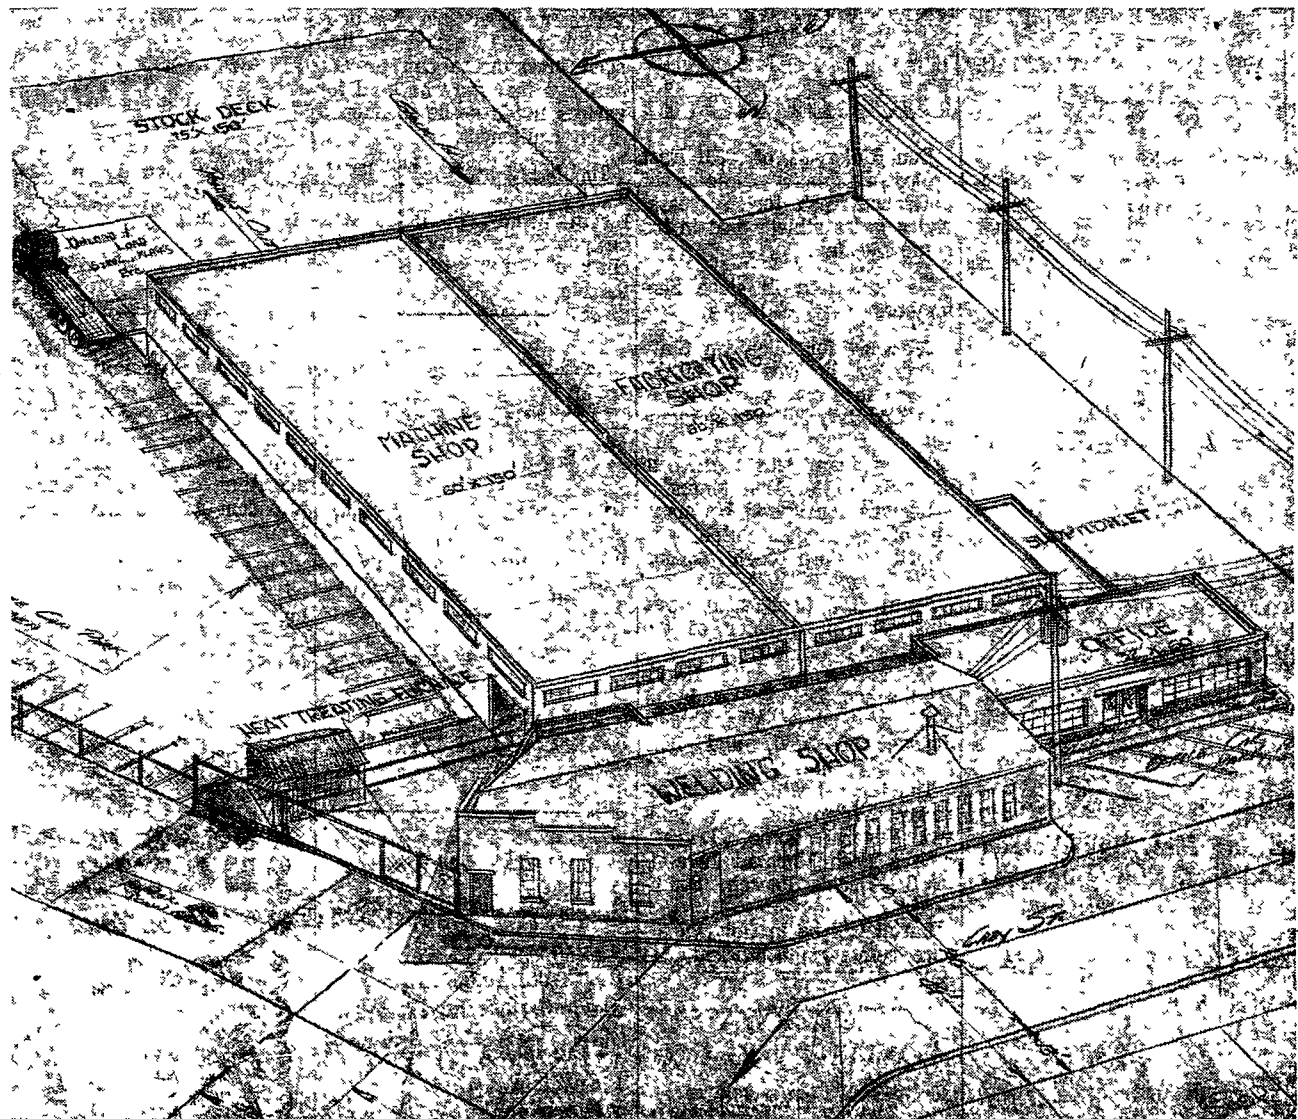

It's not that the Colts' victory that's unique, it's how they won.

All Northville runs were scored in the first frame.

Steve Evans, who pitched stellar ball for the Colts, limited the visiting JV's to only two hits—one more than Northville could muster.

WASTED GASOLINE

Someone has estimated the average driver wastes, just throws away uselessly, 34 gallons of gasoline a year, enough to keep a car on the road for a month or six weeks.

Studies over a number of years have shown that motorists are averaging 18 miles to the gallon when they should be getting 19. Bad driving habits are mainly to blame.

There are so many "rules for drivers" that one person can't possibly keep them all in his head. But these six rules come from the head of a big fleet of company cars; he found these rules cut their costs-per-mile way down and brought that extra month of free driving.

Don't make jackrabbit starts. Get away smoothly and shift into high gear as soon as possible.

Slow down gradually when you know you're going to have to stop. Your car runs on the power from gasoline already burned, so there's no sense wasting all that momentum by coming to quick stops.

Don't race your motor while waiting for lights to change or while warming up. Moderate speeds save gas and save the brakes. Don't ride the clutch or brakes. And finally, get regular checkups and servicing.

Township May Buy New Sewer Capacity

The Northville township board Tuesday night decided to pursue the purchase of additional capacity in the Middle Rouge interceptor sewer system.

Supervisor R. D. Merriam told board members that an additional 1 cubic foot per second could be purchased for $29,000 payable over a six-year period. This would give the township approximately 700 additional taps. Present capacity of the township is 1,100 taps.

Merriam strongly urged purchase of the capacity.

"If we could afford it I'd like to have 3,000 taps," Trustee Donald Robinson noted in backing Merriam's proposal. Both noted that development in the township is rapidly using up the allocation.

Trustee Wilson Tyler advised against "becoming tap poor." It was noted that capacity can be resold if not needed by a community. The board then gave the supervisor authority to negotiate a definite contract with the county and present it to the board for consideration.

A meeting with parties proposing development on Seven Mile road that would lead to installation of a sewer line from Marilyn to Northville road was called for by the board. Presently, the board cannot decide upon proper procedure on a proposal of the two developers to install the sewer line.

After Trustee Donald Robinson's suggestion that the developers purchase 100 taps each at son's objections last week to $400 per tap to finance the project Supervisor Merriam proposed this week that some compromise plan be reached. Both Robinson and Trustee Wilson Tyler oppose advance sale of taps. But a representative of the developer noted that some assurance must be given that taps are available if the line is constructed.

It was suggested that a compromise might be reached at a meeting of the board and developers involved whereby the latter could recoup funds for construction of the line on a "pay-back" basis from future tap users.

In other business Tuesday night Tyler proposed investment of idle township funds in 90-day treasury bills. Treasurer A. M. Lawrence questioned the legality of such an investment. Tyler said it is done regularly and pointed out that such investments can provide earnings that may be used for various needs — he mentioned office equipment.

The board awarded a liability policy to the C. Harold Bloom Agency, low bidder and postponed consideration of purchase of a utility truck for dog catching.

College Sets Date For Groundbreaking

Ground will be broken in special ceremonies Saturday at 2 p.m. for Schoolcraft college.

Ten buildings will eventually rise on the 140-acre site at Seven Mile and Haggerty roads.

Four one-story buildings are expected to be completed early next year with the target date for opening the college doors set for September, 1964, according to Dr. Eric Bradner, president of the new institution.

Contracts have been awarded for completion of three buildings (the administration, engineering and science, maintenance), Dr. Bradner said last week. Bids for the library still remain.

In addition, the college received word from the federal government that it would receive $120,000 worth of machinery for use at the college from the National and Industrial Equipment reserve, Dr. Bradner said. The reserve is controlled by the Office of Defense.

Contracts awarded include: —Schurrer Construction company of Pontiac, general construction, $1,086,628;

—Jones-Sherman Inc. of Detroit, electrical work, $480,729; and —Norman L. Boelter company of Allen Park, plumbing, $163,800.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

Reverend LaVere Webster,
Pastor of New Hudson Methodist Church

Equally revolutionary today was Jesus' quotation of the Old Testament Law, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, and might." It repeats that "obedience to God is better than sacrifice." God longs for man's love, and man can never rest until he has surrendered to God all his heart, soul and mind.

O fill me with thy fullness, Lord,
Until my very heart o'overflow
In kindling and glowing word,
Thy love to tell, Thy praise to show.

Jesus' ethics are expressed in one statement: Our love of God is expressed through our love of man — "In as much as you have done it unto one of the least of my brethren, you have done it unto me." (Matt. 25:40)

The command is that these words shall be upon your heart and you shall teach them diligently to your children when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up. It is a sound principle to excerpt from the Scriptures a stirring truth and to translate it into every day life. How can we love the Lord our God with all our heart, soul and might in the Twentieth Century?

1. We can sing. Singing can be an act of worship. Learn the great hymns of the church and then teach them to your children. If children learn hymns at home then they can participate in church.

2. We can read the Scriptures — not from beginning to end at first. Start out with the Gospels, the Psalms, Proverbs, and the Prophets.

3. We can pray: at mealtime, at bedtime, and at special moments of thanksgiving during the day. Prayers should not be formal or memorized, but the expression of our own thoughts — my thanksgiving, my needs, my family needs and the needs around the world.

4. Regular worship is necessary. Irregularity breeds thoughtlessness and neglect. Worship should be a happy experience, the children looking forward to it.

Christian Scientists Hear Address by New President

A return to "God-centered thinking" is the world's most urgent need, said the new President of the Christian Science Church.

Speaking before the Church's huge annual meeting through Monday in Boston, Mrs. Helen Wood Bauman warned that the scientific advances taking place in the world today are in danger of being misunderstood.

"Intense interest in technological skills and human inventions is again tending to divert thought from God," and neglecting "to give Him credit for a great release of mental energy," she declared.

Instead of "indifference to God," men should be finding Him as "the center and circumference of their being, the source and fulfillment of their honest aspirations."

Mrs. Bauman called upon church members "to help the world in its struggle against the atheistic materialism that defies mortals."

"When God is fully understood as underlying all constructive developments, when he is seen as sustaining all progress," then will all men "delight in turning to Him," declared the new church president.

The address was presented in The First Church of Christ, Scientist — known as The Mother Church — before several thousand members from all over the world, including the Northville area.

In their annual message to the meeting, The Christian Science Board of Directors described the major distresses in the world as "symptoms of a drying up of outgoing love." They called for a "compassionate, outreaching love for mankind" as the basic remedy.

The retiring president, Ralph E. Wagers of Chicago, also emphasized the importance of responding to the "impulsion of divine Love." He said it would help to bring the "spiritual climate" in which all the great problems of the world can be solved.

NEW CHURCH PRESIDENT Helen Wood Bauman, editor of Christian Science periodicals, was named President at the June 8 Annual Meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

ART AROUND US

by Jessie Hudson

Last November we started a series of discussions of art of history and art of today and their relationship to each other. A recapitulation seems appropriate at this time; a sort of review of the ground covered so far.

First we discussed the art of primitive man — the dawn of history the cave-paintings of Stone-Age man of 20,000 years ago. The significance of this period to artists is twofold. First, it offers proof that drawing is an instinctive urge and that man has always had an unquenchable desire to record the important factors of his surroundings. Second, today's artist can learn something about technique from the sophisticated drawings of primitive man. He did not outline compulsively. He used line judiciously and in varied thicknesses. He used background as part of his positive design, sometimes coloring in the background and leaving his subject to show in relief, negative fashion. He left out all unessential details but included those which were distinctive to his subject. In other words he "abstracted" what was important. These are lessons we can well use today.

Next we looked at the differences between Egyptian concepts of perspective and composition and those we accept as immutable today. From them we learn that aerial and linear perspective as we use had their own ideas. We can them were unnecessary to the Egyptian slave artists, they learn something about rhythmic composition from their arrangements of large masses and small, repeated details.

Art of the Tigris-Euphrates valley shows how geological factors can influence the art-form of a nation. Theirs was crowded, teaming, warlike, with strong diagonals and short, stumpy, brawny figures.

Cretan art, sinuous, surface-decorated, and undulating as the waves that lapped their shores, reflects the prosperous, happy-go-lucky way of life of this sea-faring people. It can teach us the kind of decoration and composition to employ when this carefree kind of mood is appropriate.

The Greeks of course, had a word for it, and the word was still is "Classic." Theirs is the standard for beauty and true proportion. Today we could benefit from a return to their simple, uncluttered pared down way of presenting the ideal form — their view of man as a noble creature.

The Romans were more realistic. They saw man as a human being, as an individual, and one probably not capable of the high ideals set for him by Hellenic Greece. We are apt to reflect this in our own view of our fellow-man so there is only confirmation of our own ideas in studying those of the Romans.

Early Christian art returned to idealistic man, but it made of him a cold, impersonal spirit and asked him to deny the flesh all together. But the rich offerings of this period, mosaics, stained-glass windows, illuminated manuscripts, and tapestries can teach us much about color and surface design.

The Renaissance swung away again from the spiritual side of man and added a new dimension to painting — linear and aerial perspective — at first awkwardly and faltering, but by 1500 skilled and exaggerated depth was achieved. Today's Surrealists study the old masters to learn their secrets of attenuated space for eerie effects and distortions.

Here we stop for a while to digest the lessons learned from this capsule review of early art.

George Muller Cited For Auto Inventions

EDITOR'S NOTE: Last week this newspaper reported that William C. Wiley, 41845 Eight Mile road, was one of Michigan's top 55 inventors honored by the Michigan Patent Law Association at its 50th anniversary banquet. Another Northville resident was also among the select group. Through an error his name was not included in the original news release sent to The Record by the Patent Law Association.

George Muller, a Northville resident, was one of a group of Michigan's foremost inventors honored by the Michigan Patent Law Association at its 50th Anniversary banquet held at Cobo Hall on May 28.

Muller, 215 Hill street, is manager of Ford Motor Company's Light Truck Vehicle Engineering.

He was honored for his more than 40 patented inventions covering a wide range of engineering innovations, mostly automotive.

His patents in the automotive field deal with engines, body construction and ventilation, frame construction, suspension and power steering, seat belts and safety jackets for children — and even key holders for cars.

One of his inventions, a power cylinder device for improving steering comfort and safety, has been used on nearly four million cars and trucks.

In addition to automotive devices, Muller holds patents in pre-fabricated home construction and in other fields.

A native of Basel, Switzerland, Muller graduated from the University of Paris in 1935 with a bachelor's degree in Latin and science. He also is a graduate of the French Military Engineering Academy located in Versailles.

Ford Announces Wixom Changes

Ford Motor Company announced appointments this week affecting two executives of its Wixom assembly plant.

Named regional operations manager for the central area including assembly plants in Lorain, Ohio; Dearborn, Wayne and Wixom; the newly formed Michigan truck plant and pilot plant, and the Utica trim plant was William D. Singleton.

Beginning his career with Ford as an hourly worker in 1931, Singleton became manager of the former Chester (Pa.)

assembly plant in 1948. During the next 10 years he served as assistant general manufacturing manager and general manufacturing manager in the Ford and Lincoln-Mercury Divisions. He was appointed manager of the Wixom Assembly Plant in 1958. He lives at 1341 Kirkway, Bloomfield Township.

GROUND BREAKING

SCHOOLCRAFT COLLEGE—NEW EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES NOW ON THE WAY FOR NORTHWESTERN WAYNE COUNTY!!!!!!

Come rain or shine, ground will be broken June 8 for another in the growing list of Michigan colleges. Schoolcraft's first four all-electric buildings will be open early next year, ready for the pressing business of meeting the area's growing educational needs.

The college will be on a year-round schedule with classes to be held between 7 a.m. and 11 p.m. It will be located on the 140-acre site bounded by Six Mile, Seven Mile, Haggerty and Newburgh Roads.

Schoolcraft will be one of the first colleges in the country to utilize fully the advantages of all-electric facilities—including electric heat and air conditioning. The architects, Eberle M. Smith Associates, Inc., of Detroit, eliminated the need for boiler rooms and furnaces by designing for flameless electric heat. The space saved will provide classroom facilities for 200 extra students.

Detroit Edison is proud of the role electricity will play at Schoolcraft College—Northwest Wayne County's new educational center.

An Open Letter to the Citizens of Novi

The chairman of the Novi Youth Protection Committee would like the public, who so graciously contributed to the program of Novi to know the true facts behind his resignation. In this committee the Chairman doesn't vote except in a tie vote and any special projects he might propose must be approved by the committee as a whole. When the committee by-laws were drafted, Mr. Edgar Flood of the County Juvenile Court was present.

The newspaper report of this committee's doings has not met with the satisfaction of the chairman as the Novi Youth Protection Committee's "purpose" was established to incorporate community interest in behalf of youngsters in the area. Its primary function is the prevention of neglect and delinquency through early detection of deviant behavior and to help children become respected citizens.

The program is carried out by interested citizens in the community who, through a co-ordinated effort and co-operative relationship, work with existing agencies to meet the needs of specified youngsters.

It is not the purpose of Protective Service to operate a recreation program. It is generally agreed that recreation is a responsibility of the tax dollar. It is part of the Protective Service Program to mobilize community interests in developing a recreation program in local communities where the municipality is not presently providing such a program. Protective Service in cooperation with other local community agencies and groups may spearhead a demonstration project in recreation but being fully aware that it is a demonstration project with the hope that eventually the municipality can be encouraged and persuaded to assume this responsibility.

During 1962 the people of Novi contributed $225.50 for the purpose of a swimming program which was held in July last. Of this amount 50c was carried over in the treasury. In September 1962 the amount of $278.70 was realized (and placed in a special fund) from a card party held purposely to obtain funds for the swimming program of 1963 as the community organizations had not been spearheaded to accept the responsibility of taking up the challenge of supporting the Recreation Program for the children of Novi.

$30.35 was realized through the Gala Days booth manned by the Committee Chairman and Mr. E. Jacques. The Willowbrook Association donated $50 and the sum of $36 has been donated for the hobbies and crafts program of this year. This $116.35 has been put in a special fund for hobbies and crafts.

The Co-Chairmen and the Coordinator of Juvenile Court of Oakland County had submitted a Recreation Committee Report which clearly removed these specifically earmarked funds from these above categories and put them in other recreation projects which definitely made the Novi Youth Protective Committee an overall recreation committee rather than a demonstration committee to show others the way similar Recreation projects could be handled.

The Novi Youth Protection Committee has seen fit to follow the leadership of the coordinator from Oakland County Juvenile Court rather than their chairman and for this reason he has felt he is of no further use to the committee and has resigned.

The following letter is his proof of a guiltless conscience:

Mr. Leon Dochot, Chairman
Novi Youth Protective Committee
727 S. Lake Drive, Walled Lake, Mich.

MARCH 12, 1963

Dear Mr. Dochot:

In behalf of the Judges of the Juvenile Court and their administrative staff, I want to take this opportunity to commend you for the leadership you have provided the Novi Youth Protective Committee.

I have read newspaper articles of the summer swim and Arts and Crafts Program. I have also seen some articles of the plaster pouring work done by the children.

I have been informed that you are in the process of strengthening your Standing Committees and taking a more inclusive look at the Novi community.

May I wish for you and the committee, continued success in performing this community service in cooperation with the Juvenile Division of the Probate Court.

In addition to Mr. O'Leary, the case worker for your area, the services of the Juvenile Court are available to assist whenever you desire.

Sincerely,
James W. Hunt, Director, Childrens Services

College Quiz

To the Editor:

We recently read in the Northville Record that a report regarding the future Schoolcraft Community College had been submitted to the Northville school board by a subcommittee of the P.T.A. The report recommended that Northville join the new community college school district. As Chairman and Vice Chairman of the former Curriculum Study Group that studied Community Colleges, we could find no one interested enough to contribute their time to study this question. Therefore, after several months of investigation by a small number, we informed the school board that we would not submit a report as we didn't feel that we were a representative group of the community nor did we feel that the surveys which we took were valid from a professional standpoint. Moreover, we feel the recent report submitted by the P.T.A. Group did not satisfactorily answer many of the questions concerning a community college. We as voters and Curriculum Committee members feel it is necessary to ask certain questions and make certain observations to point up the complexity, the size, and the importance of this subject.

The P.T.A. report completely ignores the basic reason for the existence of a college, i.e., its academic purpose, program, and how it will improve, supplant, augment or replace existing academic facilities already available to students in the geographic area that will support the school.

Under a heading called "Local Finances," the P.T.A. Report says, "Future needs of our kindergarten — twelfth grade program have not been determined as yet." We would like to bring to your attention the fact that the Northville Citizens' Curriculum Study Group labored for five years to determine the future needs of our kindergarten through twelfth grade school system.

The Curriculum Committee was a group authorized by the school board to study not only curriculum needs but later all school needs. Cooperating with some 25 to 30 members of this committee were all the teachers concerned, many students and all members of the school administration. The recommendations brought forth by the Curriculum Committee were accepted by the school board. As many of the recommendations have not as yet been instituted by the school system, we can only conclude that the necessary finances are not now available. Further, the school board itself has published in the Record that present facilities will have to be expanded, probably in the form of an additional grade school. It also states that its first obligation is to the existing school system.

In view of the above, some interesting questions arise:

1. What has been the cost picture during the growth of other community colleges? a. Any tax increase; b. Subsequent assessment; c. Present financial picture after several years of existence; d. Future operating cost.
2. Other neighboring townships such as Redford and South Redford have voted the proposal down. Why?
3. Why has Wayne Township refused to put the petition to a vote?

The report goes on to state that "we also have an obligation to provide opportunities for higher education" (beyond twelfth grade). We would like to take exception to the idea that it is our obligation to provide, publically supported education beyond twelfth grade other than that already provided for in the form of state and federal aid. It is worth noting that we are already donating through our present taxes $255 per student in state and federal aid to existing Community Colleges even though we aren't members. (This figure does not include building funds and grants).

The difference in fees to be charged resident and non-resident students of Schoolcraft College amounts to $60 per term which doesn't seem an extraordinary amount to ask Northville parents and/or as piring students to pay.

After giving this whole matter careful consideration, other questions come to mind which we feel need answering before we vote. The state of Michigan already spends more money on education per 100 residents than any state in the Union. The establishment of additional public supported colleges at this time should only be made after a hard-posed look at these questions:

1. Would the academic program of the Community College be such that the school will attract students who would otherwise be accepted at other Michigan colleges? a. Admission standards; b. Accreditation; c. Instruction level — Number of full professors, Number of associate professors, Number of assistant professors; d. Is course content comparable to colleges and universities these students will transfer to? 2. How many additional students could local colleges have taken last year? University of Michigan, Michigan State, Wayne State, Michigan State — Oakland, University of Detroit, Marygrove, Henry Ford, Eastern, Lawrence Tech, Cleary College, Highland Park Junior College, Detroit Institute of Technology, Madonna, University of Michigan — Dearborn, etc.
3. How many Northville students were accepted at any of these schools but could not go because of lack of funds?
4. How many Northville students would be interested in a Community College only because their high school records prevent them from acceptance by other Michigan schools?
5. The need for a Community College in this place at this time. How many students capable of doing college level work in Northville will not be able to attend any college next year or the following year but would be able to attend a Community College?
6. Does the need shown by question (5) above indicate a basis for a tax increase to all Northville residents?

We ask that the voters interest themselves enough to ask these questions and others about Community College before committing our community to a school district we can't get out of.

are not, could, by living at home, complete two years of the regular college curriculum for $210 yearly rather than the $1,000 required for board, room, and tuition at our state universities.

—Students lacking academic power. Many young men and women do not have the ability to pursue the university curricula, but could profit from the technical training available at Schoolcraft. In the college's policy of opportunity for all, these students would be placed where they would have a chance to succeed. Private vocational schools currently available in the Detroit area are often expensive and are sometimes substandard. Since there is no accrediting groups for these schools, we have no way of evaluating them for our graduates.

—Graduates who have ability but have poor high school records. For a number of reasons many high school students have been unable to see the significance of an education or have been unable to apply themselves to learning at this time of their lives. These are the "under-achievers" and the "late-bloomers." While it is true that some of this number will continue through life without achieving and will never "bloom" at all, it is certainly true that many of this group can seize a second opportunity coming at a time of more personal maturity for them.

It is my hope that in Northville we will want to continue to provide the best of opportunities for our young people.

Sincerely yours,
Mrs. Coy P. Sandrock

voie a one-mill assessment in order to become a part of Schoolcraft. The average evaluation of homes within the city is $4,000 — or it will cost the average home-owner $4.00 per year.

How long will the college be able to operate on one mill? A projection of costs has been made for the next seven years which indicates that one mill will be sufficient to operate the college during that period. No increase in operating millage has been requested by other community colleges in the state after several years of existence. No millage increase is possible without a favorable vote of the participating districts. A larger tax base seems inevitable when considering the present and anticipated growth of Livonia, Plymouth, Northville —

What about openings in existing educational institutions? Openings which exist in schools throughout the state and country are of no value to the student who can't afford the tuition, the transportation costs involved, or the room and board required when living away from home.

Can Northville students attend Schoolcraft if we do not become a member? Students of the participating districts will have first priority. A large population is at present involved in the area to be served by the college and a tremendous growth potential exists.

What about other community colleges which are being planned? Schoolcraft is four miles from the center of Northville. We have been excluded by legislation from being a part of presently proposed Oakland County community colleges. We could find ourselves a part of a Wayne County community college, on the basis of a county (not a school district) vote with the attendant disadvantages of being a much greater distance from the school, and being coupled with communities whose needs and interests are not closely related to ours.

How will joining Schoolcraft affect Northville's K-12 program? Participation need not deprive Northville's kindergarten-through-twelfth grade program of higher quality education. On the contrary, it is more likely that participation in Schoolcraft College will make this community more aware of the benefits of education and will thereby make improvement of the public school system easier by promoting public interest and willingness to support needed improvements.

Mrs. William E. Davis

Recovery, Inc.

Dear Editor:

Since the growing problem of mental illness is so prominent in the mind of the general public, I thought you might like to publish this letter, informing your readers that Recovery, Inc. meeting are available to the residents of your area. Our group meets at 8:30 every Wednesday evening at Our Lady of Good Counsel School Library (use entrance on the parish parking lot), Corner of Penniman Ave. and Arthur street, Plymouth.

Recovery, Inc. was founded in 1937 by the late Dr. Abraham A. Low for the purpose of preventing relapses in former mental patients and chronicity in nervous patients. Recovery groups are made up of adults from all walks of life. There are people recently discharged from mental institutions; people who have visited or are still under the care of psychiatrists but have never been committed or hospitalized; people diagnosed by their physicians as suffering from a nervous disorder; people who almost constantly suffer from tenseness; people who are painfully self-conscious and feel inadequate; and people who have difficulty with angry temper. There are even people who join Recovery because they believe that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Any interested person is invited to attend and observe the group. Recovery meetings are open to the public. There is no charge for attendance.

It was firmly established by Dr. Low that the Recovery policy would be — "No welfare, a minimum of social activity, and a maximum of training in the self-help techniques."

At Recovery meetings, our training deals only with that portion of a person's life where he is expected to practice self-leadership. Recovery members are not trained to give advice or counsel in other matters.

College Boost

To the Editor:

As a counselor for senior girls at a neighboring high school, I have spent much time helping students plan for post-school years and would like to comment on the pending decision faced by us as Northville taxpayers in the matter of the opportunity to join the Northwest Wayne County Community College district.

Most counselors would agree that there is still space in state colleges and universities for students who have the academic ability, adequate funds and the desire to win a college diploma. However, this number represents only one part of our graduating classes, perhaps from 30 to 50 percent. In a democratic society we cannot ignore the other half. Recent statistics concerning unemployment of Detroit youth are frightening. Training is becoming more and more essential to employment. We certainly want to provide something more for our Northville graduates than the financial distress and moral degeneration which accompany unemployment. If we were to join the Schoolcraft College we would provide opportunities for young men and women who fit into any one of the following categories:

—Students lacking funds. Young people whose ability is commensurate with college requirements, but whose funds

For College

To the Editor:

I believe that the opportunity to join Schoolcraft College is one we should not miss. By becoming a part of the participating district, we will be assured that students from Northville will be able to attend. We will also be able to elect a member of the Board of Trustees and thus have some local control over the quality and type of courses offered.

What is the purpose of Schoolcraft Community College? (1) To provide an inexpensive first two years for the student who qualifies and desires to go on to graduate or professional school. (2) Offers the opportunity to complete a two-year career curricula leading directly to employment. Specific industrial and technical educational needs and facilities of the area are to be studied and considered in planning courses of instruction.

How many Northville students would attend Schoolcraft? Consistently in areas where community colleges exist one-third more students go on to college.

Are all students capable of doing college level work? Admission to the various courses will be determined on the basis of a student's high school grades and evaluation, college counseling tests and interviews. They may enter only those programs in which their success seems probable.

What about the cost? The State Legislature now pays state aid to Community Colleges at a rate which is less than half the amount the state grants the four year colleges and universities per student for operating costs. The community college is an answer to satisfying the educational needs of many of our high school graduates at the lowest possible cost.

It can also help relieve the burden at the four year colleges and universities and could tend to lessen the needs and demands of those institutions for increased financial support.

Northville will be required to

SPEAKING for The Record

By BILL SLIGER

Saturday afternoon groundbreaking ceremonies for the new Schoolcraft college are scheduled to be conducted at the Seven Mile and Haggerty road site.

Monday Northville school district voters will decide whether or not they wish to pay a one mill tax annually to become a part of the Northwest Wayne County Community College District.

A similar question will be asked voters in Novi and Wixom where three community colleges are eventually planned to serve Oakland county.

The Northville district, though partially in Oakland county, is eliminated by legislation from the Oakland county proposal. It is the present understanding that Northville either becomes associated with Schoolcraft, or at a later date takes part in a Wayne county community college almost certain to develop for districts not already associated with colleges.

In other words, at this writing it seems not at all exaggerative to state that there's a community college in our future.

It's up to us to decide where and when.

I have listened to opponents of the plan; I have taken time to study and listen to the program proposed at Schoolcraft.

I am convinced that the community college idea offers the most economical and logical approach to our future secondary education needs.

And I am impressed by the progress and plans displayed at Schoolcraft. It is on sound financial ground; its 48-week, 7:30 a.m. to 11 p.m. academic, vocational and technical program is certain to open new opportunities for residents of all age groups and job levels.

It would appear that opponents object to the idea on the basis of either: 1—cost; 2—need; or 3—its effect on our own kindergarten through 12th-grade system.

The cost is one dollar per $1,000 of state equalized assessed valuation, or to the average homeowner about $5 or $6 annually. This cannot be increased without a vote of the people. College officials will tell you, and prove it statistically, that more money will not be needed.

Who can determine need? College officials already predict there will not be room for outside students. Whether this holds true or not, is the $60 per semester (or $180 per year on the trimester basis) tuition savings to district students important to some budgets? Is the opportunity to live at home and literally "walk to college" likely to increase the number seeking higher education?

Schoolcraft college will accept any resident student who desires to be admitted — on a first come, first served basis. Adults without high school degrees may attend. Its advocates believe the college will meet a definite need for the brightest academic mind, the slower student, the technician or the seeker of vocational training.

It is perhaps most important for us to remember that Schoolcraft college does not NEED Northville — or South Redford. It is a reality, a going-concern, a dream-come-true for many dedicated people.

We, as voters, must now decide whether we are willing to continue to support our own school system as its growing needs arise, while joining in this new community effort.

I must believe that for Northville Schoolcraft college is a golden opportunity — and a responsibility equal to our public school system.

Although quoted before, I'd like to recall the statement of Alexander G. Ruthven, president emeritus of the University of Michigan:

"We all must change our thinking," he suggested. "We always have thought of elementary and secondary schools as our chief community interest, operated by local boards.

"We must add a third dimension — the community college.

"These are just as important to filling educational requirements today as high schools were a few years ago. They represent just another rung on the ladder."

Dems, GOP Differ on Romney

Any dispute over the success of Gov. George Romney's legislative program was to be expected. The Democratic legislators and party leaders would not be fulfilling their role as the "loyal opposition" if they did not challenge the Republican governor's claim of successes.

Many relatively objective political observers in the Lansing area, however, thought Romney was being conservative when he claimed success on 80 to 85 per cent of his program. Statistically this estimate was accurate.

Quantitatively, however, Romney did even better than he claimed. He lost only two major parts of his program: minimum wage and open occupancy. His fight for the latter piece of legislation appeared to be more vocal than actual.

Democrats, of course, used the strongest terms possible in their attempts to downgrade the success of Romney in gaining passage of his other major proposals.

House Minority Leader Joseph J. Kowalski, D-Detroit, even went so far as to describe Romney's first session as a "nearly bankrupt legislative record." Democrat State Chairman Zolton Ferency said there is not a single law passed this year the state can be proud of.

Democrats attacked much of the Governor's legislation which was approved on grounds that it did not go far enough and did not really accomplish what Romney said he intended. On this point, it is clear that not every measure was ideal, but each initial step must be counted as a success which can be improved upon over the years.

Theoretically, Romney had an ideal situation in which to work. His party held a narrow majority in the House and a very comfortable margin in the other chamber.

In practice, however, Michigan's first Republican governor in 14 years had nearly as many problems with the legislators as his Democratic predecessors.

Contending with the divergent viewpoints within the Michigan GOP was and is no easy task. Romney's personal approach was credited with at least some of his success.

Probably a great deal of the compromises accomplished with the very conservative House members, who are strong in number as well as power, can be credited to his approach. If a single member was powerful enough to temporarily tie Romney's hands, the governor held one or more conferences with the individual. He counted a number of successes from these conferences.

A move to clear Michigan's mental hospitals of senile patients who have no other maladies is progressing well, according to Mental Health Officer Herbert Bodwin.

Bodwin is the chief of patient affairs for the department and has been directing the effort which was ordered by the 1962 Legislature. It was the Legislature's directive that at least 1,000 patients "who manifest general deterioration of mental processes associated with senility" be removed to county and local facilities by the end of this fiscal year, June 30.

The department's most recent report indicated more than 1,600 patients, all over 65 years of age, have been referred by the state unit to county bureaus of social aid. Unfortunately, at the same report, only 610 of these had been placed in community residences.

"The lag between hospital referrals and placement of the patients is not surprising," said Bodwin. He said county bureaus were "doing an exceptionally fine job" in finding homes for the referred patients.

Under the intent of the Legislature, all those being referred to county units are eligible for old age benefits or other public assistance funds. No patient is turned out of a state hospital with the burden of care being placed on individuals or the county government.

The patient affairs director said he fully expected the department could easily meet the 1,000 minimum placement level set by the Legislature. The referral program also will continue into the coming fiscal year under provisions enacted by the 1963 Legislature.

There may or may not be a moral in this bit of information. Food costs for restaurant-frequenting bachelors will continue to be well above the amount that married men have to spend to eat home-cooked meals. This theory is voiced by Mary Zehner, Michigan State University agricultural economist.

Average prices of food consumed at home traditionally changes little from year to year. Prices of food consumed away from home, however, are on a long-term upward trend which likely will continue. Labor costs are chiefly responsible for the difference.

Land Investments

Babson Park, Mass., We have been taught since childhood "not to put all eggs in one basket". That, however, was when our parents knew nothing about stocks and the mistake sometimes of putting all their savings in one bank.

Well, the investment future is just as uncertain now as it was fifty years ago.

Forest lands, like all other investments, have advantages and disadvantages. Trees grow during week ends and holidays as well as any other day of the year. These trees have no labor unions and never argue about "wages". Their value depends upon various factors, such as the state the forest land is in and also how near it is to transportation to a cutting mill. Hence, the price varies from $10.00 an acre to $200.00 an acre according to the location and the length of time for the growth to mature.

Cutover land with spruce or pine trees a foot or two high may be the best investment for young people, if it is properly located. However, such trees in the north are not ready to be cut or sold for fifty years. Then, too, we must not forget the fire dangers or wind hazards.

I have been successful in buying pasture land in Kansas where grass grows which is excellent for feeding cattle. The cattle raisers of Texas buy a railroad ticket to ship their steers to the stockyards in Kansas City or Chicago to be slaughtered and sold for beef.

They find that by giving these steers a stopover in Kansas on their way north—to be fed on a pasture like mine for two months—the steers increase materially in weight and are worth much more when they get to market.

Sometimes such pasture land will produce oil. Your real estate agent will send you a map showing what he has to offer for sale and indicating what the chances are that oil might be found on your pasture.

Pasture land varies in price from $75 to $150 an acre—according to the availability and quality of water for the cattle and also in accordance with the possibility of oil. I have never heard of anyone taking losses on such pasture land if it was purchased through a reliable broker. When Texas cattle are pasturing on your land it is customary to pay a professional caretaker so much a head for watching the cattle. All of this information you can get from many sources; but my business I have handled through the office of Carl C. Chase of Eureka, Kansas.

Many readers of this column have put money in the hands of trustees of banks or other trustees in favor of their children and grandchildren. These trustees have their advantages: they are careful, honest, and reasonable in their charges.

On the other hand, they naturally do not like to buy forest or pasture land if it pays no income, as their fees depend upon the income from the estate. Therefore, although there are times when stocks are really safer than Dow-Jones gut-edge stocks, yet trustees refrain from buying them because they yield no income to the trustees.

The trustees' fees, however, can be so arranged that both the principal involved and the income received will be recognized. This is both fairer, and often safer in the long run, for the beneficiaries. Never hesitate to be liberal with the trustees upon whom your children and grandchildren are depending. Therefore, whether you are taking care of your own fund or employing a trustee, I urge you to have some of the money invested in forest or pasture land. Next week I will discuss real estate; but this is something entirely different from what I am writing about this week.
